

Sweetheart 1351

1351 star, you ... you won't also ...

the netizens who didn't know what was going on were all moved to tears.

however, yan heng, fan yinghua, and the other insiders almost vomited on the spot when they heard it.

they didn't lose their memories, so how could they not remember fu jiatong's performance during the interview?

at that time, fu jiatong could not even produce a single design sketch. when she was working on the fashion design on the spot, she lost to luo chenxi due to her lack of understanding of the original work.

if she was a true fan of "a magnificent turn," the sun would have risen from the west!

"that's enough, fu jiatong. stop it ..." sheng yu was the first to lose his cool. his face darkened as he was about to stand up for luo chenxi.

however, luo chenxi tugged at his sleeve before he could finish his sentence. "chief sheng, don't get worked up. since miss fu loves 'gorgeous turn' so much, we'll be letting her down if we don't let her perform."

luo chenxi shot him a look that told him to calm down. she turned to yan heng and said, "director yan, i think fu jiatong's idea is not bad. since she has already made ready-to-wear clothes, why don't we let zhong xiuna try on the clothes she designed? if it really suits her better than mine, then we should use her designs for the sake of the crew."

"you ..." yan heng almost cried out in shock, but he quickly lowered his voice. "xingchen, are you sure? fu jiatong and zhong xiuna must have colluded! how could you give them this chance?"

luo chenxi smiled nonchalantly. "i'm doing this for the sake of the crew. from the crew's point of view, of course, i should choose a better design to use."

of course, yan heng knew this, but ... even if fu jiatong's design was better, he still didn't want to work with her.

luo chenxi noticed his unpleasant expression and said with a smile, "director yan, what's there to worry about? it's not like you've never seen the dress i designed ..."

"i know your design is very unique and creative, fu jiatong can't compare to you! but, you don't have a model now. zhong xiuna will definitely look good in fu jiatong's clothes. what are you going to do?"

luo chenxi curled her lips ever so slightly. "who said that i don't have a model who can wear this dress?"

luo chenxi did not explain any further. she turned toward fu jiatong. " miss fu, please. " fu jiatong was so happy that she almost jumped up!

she did not expect luo chenxi to be so stupid that she would actually agree to her request!

she had been waiting for a long time for this scene. after she had finished the design draft for the gown, she had even sent it to the headquarters of gty for their tailor to do it for her. the effect was so beautiful that it would definitely make people's eyes light up.

as long as zhong xiuna made an appearance in that gown, luo chenxi would definitely be crushed in seconds!

fu jiatong couldn't suppress her excitement as she thought of this. she grabbed zhong xiuna's arm and the two of them ran out to change their clothes.

sheng yu was frowning deeply. he was about to chide luo chenxi when he turned around to see luo chenxi carefully removing the light gray gown she had designed from the mannequin.

" you ... " he seemed to have understood something, and his eyes widened.

luo chenxi placed a finger on her lips and made a shushing gesture. she smiled and left stealthily from the side.

the audience was guessing fu jiatong's design, and no one noticed her leaving.

1352 chapter 1356-the stars are gone?

whether it was the live audience or the netizens watching the live broadcast, they were all anxiously waiting.

before today, no one could have guessed that things would have developed to this point.

at first, everyone thought that they would be able to see the perfect performance of the crew of " gorgeous turn ". whether it was real or fake, at least the fans who went to visit would not be able to find any faults.

however, the truth was the exact opposite.

the female lead and the fashion design director of the production team actually started fighting on the spot, and in the end, even fu jiatong was dragged into it ...

this was really a good show!

all of a sudden, the netizens who didn't sign up to visit the production team were full of regret.

the news about " gorgeous turn " once again exploded on the internet, and it became a hot search. more and more people turned on the live broadcast channel of the crew, squatting in front of their computers and phones, waiting to see what kind of design fu jiatong would come up with.

seeing all kinds of false rumors on the internet, yan heng's expression never looked good.

fan yinghua was better off than him. she could still find joy in the midst of suffering. "on the bright side, this time, our production team can even save on advertising costs. this is the ability of being a hot search. there's no need to hype it up and it's on the hot search every day. at least we don't have to worry about the popularity of the movie."

"you, you ... you can still laugh!" yan heng glared at him in an unpleasant manner. "if fu jiatong's design is really acceptable, we might be forced to replace luo chenxi. "if fu jiatong becomes the design director, i really don't know how this movie is going to continue!"

not to mention fu jiatong's work attitude, the level of design alone was incomparable.

he could bear using fu jiatong's designs if he had not seen luo chenxi's designs, but who could stand inferior products after seeing such a genius 'standard'?

"things aren't as bad as you think. xingchen isn't stupid. she must have ... " fan yinghua suddenly felt that something was wrong. "wait, where's xingchen?" "where did she go?"

"what? the stars have disappeared?" yan heng stood up nervously. "she couldn't have run away in anger, right? aiyo, what the hell is this!"

he was about to arrange for someone to look for luo chenxi when a clamor of exclamations was suddenly heard in the room.

"ah, everyone, look! that ... that means zhong xiuna has returned!"

"look at her, she's wearing the dress that fu jiatong designed, right?"

"she's too beautiful! this was simply a work of art! i didn't expect fu jiatong to be able to design such a beautiful dress ..."

"it's over, it's over. i was initially firmly on constellation's side, but after seeing this design ... i feel like i'm going to have a change of heart ..."

yan heng stopped in his tracks and looked in the direction of the voice.

zhong xiuna had already walked in through the door and stopped in the middle of the room. she stood there gracefully, allowing all the fans and staff around her to look at her. she even posed a few times with confidence.

yan heng stared at her for a while, and he had to admit that fu jiatong did have some skills.

the color of zhong xiuna's gown was rather similar to the one luo chenxi had chosen. they were both gray in color, but the fabric that fu jiatong had chosen was sewn together with silver tassels.

the silver-gray formal dress wrapped around zhong xiuna's curvaceous body. when she walked, she looked like a flowing silver silk satin. she was shining brightly.

moreover, fu jiatong had obviously taken zhong xiuna's fat and deformed figure into consideration when she was designing. she had deliberately made some three-dimensional patterns on the shoulders and waist as a cover to perfectly cover up zhong xiuna's fat.

as a result, fu jiatong's gown was much more convenient compared to luo chenxi's design that showed off her curves.

especially when everyone had seen the photo of zhong xiuna wearing the light gray dress, which showed her belly. in comparison, zhong xiuna was wearing fu jiatong's dress now, which showed off her devilish figure!

by comparing the two, it was easy to draw a conclusion: there was nothing wrong with zhong xiuna's figure, but the problem lay in luo chenxi's design!

otherwise, why would she look so beautiful in fu jiatong's dress?

"it seems like luo chenxi's design is really not as good as fu jiatong's. the upper body effects of the two pieces of clothing are too different!"

"moreover, zhong xiuna has taken the details of the original work into consideration. in the novel, it was mentioned that when huo daining and xi tianze met and flirted with each other, there was a sudden blackout. however, huo daining's dress was still beautiful. fu jiatong must have considered this point when she used this silver fabric."

"ai, it's really a case of comparing people to die, and comparing goods to goods to throw away! luo chenxi and fu jiatong ... they usually look pretty good, but they're clearly superior when they're compared."

hearing these comments, fu jiatong's face looked calm, but her heart was already blooming with joy!

ever since she got to know luo chenxi, she had always been suppressed by that little vixen. it was only now that she could finally step on luo chenxi.

he had to admit that this feeling ... was really great!

seeing that she was almost done, she lifted her chin and secretly gave secretary xiao a look.

secretary xiao understood what he meant and immediately shouted, "director yan, we need an explanation! could the production team please explain why they did not use such an outstanding designer like fu jiatong but appointed luo chenxi as the design director? the dress she made made zhong xiuna look like a fat woman with her devilish figure!"

"that's right. why is luo chenxi the design director? what was the secret behind this? we demand an explanation from the crew!"

"i strongly request that the production team replace luo chenxi and appoint fu jiatong as the design director!"

with secretary xiao taking the lead, more and more people protested.

moreover, the fans were not the only ones clamoring for luo chenxi to step down from the stage as it was a live broadcast. there were also countless netizens who were squatting in front of their mobile phones and watching the live broadcast.

under the instigation of the internet water army that fu jiatong had arranged in advance, they were even more excited than the fans present.

he had almost cursed luo chenxi to the point of spilling dog blood on her head.

she was accused of “relying on men to get to the top,” “being arrogant and domineering,” “flaunting her wealth,” “bullying the other designers and actresses in the crew,” and all sorts of other crimes.

fu jiatong was overjoyed to hear that, but she still had a terrified expression on her face.

” no, no, no, don’t say that, everyone. xingchen’s design standard is also very high, it’s just that she didn’t perform well today ... it’s not that i want to steal her position, it’s just that i have no choice today ... if my design can be used and can help the crew survive today’s crisis, i’ll be very satisfied ... ” the more she said this, the more sympathy she received.

the calls for fu jiatong to replace luo chenxi grew louder and louder.

1354 simply a stunner on earth at this moment, the thing he regretted the most was to organize this ” fan visit day “!

now, there were so many pairs of eyes that had seen fu jiatong’s design, and they were all confused by her carefully planned plan.

it was almost a must for him to replace luo chenxi under such immense pressure.

even though the movie’s investors, the bai group and guangxi entertainment, would certainly support luo chenxi, she would be chased and scolded by countless people every day if she persisted. the movie would also be boycotted by the fans of the original work. it was expected that the box office would suffer a crushing defeat.

it would not be beneficial for luo chenxi, the production team, or the investors if they were to come to this stage.

“director yan, president fan, please say something! you’ve all seen the difference in standards between the two designers with your own eyes. why haven’t you replaced luo chenxi yet?” secretary xiao continued to ask aggressively.

yan heng wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. ” this ... the appointment of the design director is a big matter for the crew. we have to consider it carefully ... everyone, please be patient. the crew will discuss it later and make a decision. ” yan heng racked his brain and finally came up with a ” delaying tactic “, but secretary xiao had been entrusted with fu jiatong’s task, so how could he let him pass so easily?

“later? when director yan said ‘after a while’, how long did it mean? now that the situation is so clear, i wonder what you’re still hesitating about?”

” miss, xingchen’s design is not what you think it is. today’s incident was caused by a series of misunderstandings ... ”

“we don’t think it’s a misunderstanding! if you don’t believe me, director yan, you can look at the opinions of the fans online.”

secretary xiao was indeed a member of the presidential palace’s team. he pressed on step by step and asked a series of questions. yan heng was sweating all over.

just as yan heng was at his wit’s end, the heavy door of the dressing room was once again pushed open from the outside.

the sound of high heels tapping on the ground was heard, regular and steady.

then, a slender and elegant figure appeared at the gate.

hearing the footsteps, many people subconsciously looked at the door.

they had only glanced at him when they were bored, but in the next second, their eyes widened and they couldn’t even speak.

not long after, the noisy dressing room suddenly became quiet.

almost everyone was staring at the direction of the door, looking at the gray figure that appeared in front of the door. their eyes did not blink, and even their breathing slowed down a little, as if they were afraid that if they blew hard, the beauty at the door would disappear.

the person was wearing a light gray evening gown that dragged the floor. the exquisite cutting and the high quality of the fabric made the simple dress look very high-class.

the gown was a tube top style, directly revealing the slender collarbones and shoulder lines of the wearer. the waist area extended down neatly. there were no complicated decorations, but it perfectly outlined the beautiful and sexy lines of the woman.

the light gray color seemed monotonous, but it set off the great beauty’s snow-white and delicate skin. with relatively thick makeup, she was simply a rare beauty in the world.

just as everyone was in a daze, a sweet voice was heard.

“i’m sorry. this gown isn’t easy to wear. i’ve delayed some time and made everyone wait.”

this voice ... actually sounded a little familiar.

1355 i’m in tears from luo chenxi’s beauty!

it was only then that many people realized that the great beauty standing before them was ... luo chenxi herself!

this caused a commotion among the fans present.

they had long heard that the mu family's young mistress's beauty and talent were both top-notch.

however, luo chenxi was dressed very casually when she showed up earlier. her long hair was tied into a ponytail and her face was stained with some ink when she was working. although her facial features were exquisite, her temperament was similar to that of a female university student who had yet to graduate.

no one could have imagined that she would become such a beautiful woman after changing her clothes and dressing up a little.

that kind of beauty ... was even full of aggression, enough to make people have difficulty breathing and their hearts beat faster.

countless gazes fell on her, mixed with surprise, shock, surprise ... all kinds of emotions.

she walked unhurriedly towards the center of the room.

as she moved elegantly, the light gray fabric moved along her figure, and the hem of the dress fluttered gently behind her. under the sunlight behind her, it looked light and elegant, full of a sense of agility and floating.

luo chenxi walked straight to zhong xiuna's side before she stopped. she raised her chin slightly and looked at zhong xiuna with a faint smile.

since she was much taller than zhong xiuna, she was looking down at her from above. even if she didn't say anything, it was already enough to make people feel aggrieved.

zhong xiuna and fu jiatong's faces were as black as the bottom of a pot!

just like what secretary xiao had said, "comparing people to people will kill you, but comparing goods will make you throw them away." zhong xiuna was also a famous beauty in the entertainment industry. she had always been ridiculed as a big-chested but brainless woman who relied on her face to make a living. although her words were not pleasant to the ears, it also showed that everyone absolutely recognized her beauty.

however, she felt a heavy pressure when she stood next to luo chenxi.

it was a feeling of being completely outdone!

zhong xiuna, who had always been known for her beauty, felt insignificant when she stood next to luo chenxi. she was completely compared to an unremarkable village girl by the roadside in the contrast of luo chenxi's dazzling radiance ...

and that was the truth.

ever since luo chenxi appeared, everyone's attention was on her. they had completely forgotten about zhong xiuna's existence.

at this time, on the live broadcast channel, the netizens were spamming the screen with bullet comments ...

"damn, this is ... this is luo chenxi! isn't this too beautiful? i thought i was looking at a real fairy! now i know why people call beautiful women little fairies!"

"wuwuwu, i'm crying because of luo chenxi's beauty!"

" no wonder even the nation's husband fell into her hands. i'm convinced. "

" wait, the gown on luo chenxi looks so familiar. could it be that she's ... " there were more than one or two people who noticed luo chenxi's attire.

the gown she was wearing looked so divine that many people were paying attention to it. however, upon a closer look, everyone realized that luo chenxi was wearing the same gown that was hung on the fake model earlier.

many people's first reaction was to think that they had seen wrong.

when zhong xiuna was wearing the dress earlier, she clearly looked bloated and cumbersome. how could it be the same dress that luo chenxi was wearing?

1356 it's easy for people to misunderstand ... what you're saying just when the crowd was bewildered, luo chenxi smiled and spoke unhurriedly.

zhong xiuna and fu jiatong's expressions changed when they heard this.

the two of them finally understood luo chenxi's true intention in coming out in a dress!

it was the same dress, but it only highlighted zhong xiuna's chubby body when she was wearing it. on the other hand, luo chenxi looked as beautiful as a fairy ...

it was clear at a glance whether it was the dress or zhong xiuna's figure that didn't meet the requirements.

at the thought of this, fu jiatong quickly stood up and interrupted luo chenxi to stop her from continuing.

“xingchen, you ... why are you saying this now? we shouldn't be discussing xiuna's figure right now. didn't we just agree on this? “the point isn't to distinguish who's right and who's wrong. it's to work together to solve the problem so that the crew can continue filming smoothly ...”

” so, the most important thing is for xiuna to wear the dress. the most important thing is that it fits her ... ” fu jiatong's tone sounded as if she was trying to persuade him for the sake of the crew.

on the other hand, luo chenxi only took a glance at her. the corners of her lips were raised ever so slightly. ” miss fu, i can't agree with what you've just said. ” “teacher li gave us such a good novel to shoot because he trusts that director yan is a rigorous, meticulous, and constantly striving for perfection. what everyone wants to see is a high-quality big production that does its best to replicate the original work in every detail. ”

“if it's like what you said, as long as the dress for the female lead fits and the movie can continue, then what's the difference between the movie we're shooting and those shoddy soap operas? there are so many fans here today. if you say such things ... it's easy for people to misunderstand.”

luo chenxi's tone was gentle, but there was a hidden meaning in her words. she exposed the trap in fu jiatong's words without any trace of politeness.

yan heng and fan yinghua were both shocked.

when they heard fu jiatong's words just now, they were almost fooled by her acting skills and thought that she was really thinking for the crew.

he didn't expect that he was almost tricked!

the fans also came to their senses.

no wonder they felt that fu jiatong's words were wrong. now that they thought about it, what did it mean to ” solve the problem ” what did he mean by ‘it's good as long as it can be filmed’?

if it was considered a success as long as the movie was made, why would everyone come here to supervise the production team?

at that moment, everyone looked at fu jiatong with suspicion.

fu jiatong had already cursed luo chenxi's eighteen generations of ancestors in her heart. she really wished that she could strangle her to death!

this little vixen looked like a lecherous woman who could bring disaster to a country and its people, but she had such a sharp tongue. she was simply born to be her nemesis!

“ahem, i ... that's not what i meant. xingchen, you've misunderstood.” fu jiatong held it in for a long time until she was about to get hurt. ” i just wanted to say that the design of your dress is too demanding on the figure. it's not good to make things difficult for xiuna, right? ” she said.

1357 isn't this a slap in the face?

fu jiatong pointed at the dress that she had designed for zhong xiuna.

” look at this one i designed. i’ve taken this into consideration and deliberately used some small tricks. this way, it doesn’t have such a high requirement on the figure, and most people can wear this style. ” upon hearing his words, luo chenxi had a shocked expression on her face. she raised her brows.

“what? i ... when did i insult xiuna?” fu jiatong retorted subconsciously, ” luo chenxi, don’t you spread rumors! ” luo chenxi sneered, ” what’s wrong? wasn’t it? everyone in china knew that zhong xiuna had become famous because of her angelic face and devilish figure. when it came to figure, there were few female celebrities in the country who could compare with zhong xiuna! i only dared to design such a dress because i saw that the female lead was zhong xiuna. if the female lead was in another role, i wouldn’t have designed such a style. now you’re saying that her figure isn’t good ...”

fu jiatong choked, and her face turned red.

luo chenxi was absolutely right. zhong xiuna’s figure was one of her biggest selling points. it was also one of the reasons why the production team of ‘the magnificent turn’ had chosen her.

zhong xiuna’s studio had to issue several drafts every month to promote her appearance, figure, and fashion.

in order to show off her outstanding design, fu jiatong had hinted that zhong xiuna’s figure wasn’t good enough and that she could only wear clothes that didn’t have high requirements for her figure. she had even used a small trick to hide the fat on her body ...

wasn’t this a slap in the face?

and it was on the face of one of their own!

she racked her brain and finally squeezed out a sentence, ” “i ... i’m not saying that xiuna’s figure isn’t good, but ... your waist is so narrow, and your skirt is so long. even a skinny supermodel might not be able to wear it! xiuna’s curvy figure doesn’t suit this style at all ...”

before she could finish her sentence, she suddenly felt everyone looking at her. she immediately felt that something was wrong and stopped.

as expected, luo chenxi laughed. ” miss fu, i’m seriously going to wonder how you graduated from the academy of arts if you continue to say such unprofessional things! who said that this kind of dress could only be worn by people who were as thin as a stick? at least i’ve already worn it. ” fu jiatong almost bit her tongue off.

she had yet to make sense of what she had said earlier when she fell into luo chenxi's trap again!

the situation was very awkward, and fu jiatong wanted to dig a hole and bury herself in it!

secretary xiao, who was in the crowd, reacted quickly, realizing that this was a chance to show off in front of fu jiatong. he quickly stood up and protested loudly.

"wait, miss luo, i have a question. why is it that miss zhong can't wear the costume when it's clearly custom-made for her, but you, a designer, can wear it so well? you're not even the same height as miss zhong! i have reason to suspect that you didn't make the dress according to miss zhong's size at all. everything today ... was specially arranged by you to mess with her!"

no one had expected that someone would still stand up to protest at this time.

however, after thinking about secretary xiao's words carefully, they did seem to make sense.

1358 this is the true devilish figure!

the female lead's costume could not fit into the female lead's costume, but the designer looked like a fairy ...

it was indeed a strange thing.

luo chenxi did not panic at all when she noticed the puzzled gazes from the crowd.

she glanced at secretary xiao and said, " "miss, i've already said it several times. this gown was definitely made according to zhong xiuna's figure. however, it was made according to her height, weight, and measurements when she confirmed that she would be playing huo daining a month ago."

"the craftsmanship of this gown is complicated, so it has to be made in advance. of course, i also considered the changes in miss zhong's figure, so i didn't completely stitch up the waistline. more than ten days ago, when miss zhong officially joined the team, i remeasured her data. at that time, she had only gained two pounds, so i made corresponding changes. i thought that it would only be ten days and her figure would not change much, but who knew ..."

luo chenxi did not finish her sentence, but her meaning was obvious.

zhong xiuna had gained weight by eating, and it had nothing to do with her!

the fans revealed expressions of sudden realization one after another. at this point, most of the people were already on luo chenxi's side.

after all, luo chenxi's answers were clear and logical, so it was hard for anyone not to believe her, unlike fu jiatong and zhong xiuna who had been playing dumb tricks on her.

seeing that the situation was not good, secretary xiao quickly said, " "luo chenxi, stop trying to change the subject. you still haven't explained why you're at least five centimeters taller than zhong xiuna and why you look so well-fitted in the custom-made dress for her! this kind of gown is so tight-fitting that a normal person can't fit in!"

upon hearing that, luochenxi raised her brows ever so slightly. she appeared to be very surprised. " how on earth did you guys figure out that this dress 'fits' me? " at that moment, sheng xiao stood up and said in a professional tone, " " it seems that everyone has some misunderstandings about whether a piece of clothing is suitable or not. let me explain it to everyone. "

he raised his hand and pointed at luochenxi's waist. " the most obvious part is the waistline. this part was sewn according to zhong xiuna's waistline, so it's obviously wider. if chenxi didn't fix it here with a brooch, it wouldn't be visible at all. " sheng yu removed the brooch. the waistline was indeed loose.

he continued to point at luochenxi's feet without waiting for the crowd to exclaim in surprise. " also, didn't you notice? chenxi had come in barefooted, precisely because she was too tall. the design of this dress was supposed to be wearing 12-centimeter high heels, but she exposed her ankles barefooted. the dress is too short, and she doesn't look the way she should wear it. " sheng yu pointed out a few more key points.

the fans present were all dumbfounded and couldn't come back to their senses for a long time.

what was going on?

when they saw how beautiful luochenxi looked in the dress, everyone subconsciously thought that the dress would fit her very well. however, after sheng yu's comment, everyone realized that the dress was not in luochenxi's size!

"damn, third young master sheng is right! this dress really doesn't fit!"

"i can't believe my eyes. the waist of the dress is already so narrow, yet luochenxi still thinks it's too big! how thin is her waist?"

"what's the big deal about her waist? look at her legs! she's 10 cm longer than zhong xiuna. oh, i can't take it anymore. my nose is going to bleed ..."

"this dress was made according to zhong xiuna's figure before she joined the production team. in other words, zhong xiuna's figure was much worse than luochenxi's before she gained weight ... this is the true devil's figure!"

"zhong xiuna was complimenting her good figure in front of luochenxi just now ... oh my, i feel sorry for her!"

1359 simply blind!

the fans 'every word of praise for luo chenxi was like a slap to zhong xiuna's face. it made her cheeks burn with pain.

never in her wildest dreams did she think that the figure that she had always been proud of would actually be overshadowed by someone else.

it was luo chenxi whom she hated the most!

moreover, in a sense, the reason for this situation was that she had asked for it.

had it not been for the fact that she had deliberately put on weight and lost her figure in order to frame luo chenxi, luo chenxi would not have had the chance to wear that gown at all!

no matter how great luo chenxi's figure was, not many people could tell that she had a great figure just by looking at the sweaters and jeans she usually wore.

if she hadn't listened to fu jiatong's orders and had such evil thoughts, then the person who was wearing this exquisite dress and appearing elegantly in front of so many fans and reporters ... would have been zhong xiuna!

she had completely shot herself in the foot!

zhong xiuna's face turned green and white, and she was extremely embarrassed.

however, the netizens would not sympathize with her and let her go because of this. not only were the fans at the scene discussing it, but even the live broadcast channel was filled with bullet comments.

" i've said it before. zhong xiuna is just a flower vase who relies on her face and body to get to where she is. i really don't know why people are praising her so highly! "

"rely on your body? where did her figure come from? didn't you see her stomach when she was trying on the dress? the photos you usually post are all photoshopped, right?"

" it must be photoshopped. i'm so into her ... i'm blind! "

" congratulations, you've finally come to your senses. it's not too late for you to know that you're blind! " zhong xiuna had a perfect figure and a pure face. therefore, although her acting skills had been criticized, she had always been praised as the " goddess of otakus. " some people even said that it was enough to just look at her face. what was the point of acting?

however, when she tried on the same gown with luo chenxi today, she was completely outdone by the other party. the contrast was so shocking that many of her fans turned to hate her on the spot.

as for zhong xiuna, she could vaguely hear these discussions. however, she wanted to cry but had no tears.

her previous photos were not photoshopped at all.

but she didn't even have the chance to explain!

should she tell the fans that she had lost her figure purely because she had intentionally put on weight to frame luochenxi?

zhongxiuna was so angry and anxious that she almost fainted on the spot.

she quickly looked to fujiatong for help.

now, miss fu was her only hope!

if fujiatong didn't care about her after using her, she would be done for!

fujiatong glanced at her, took a few steps forward, and said slowly, "is that enough? miss luochenxi, chief sheng, and all the guests, can we stop here? if i'm not mistaken, we didn't come here today to comment on xiuna's figure, so please don't go off topic!"

however, the gossip about the popular female star going out of shape was too attractive, and the fans still did not calm down.

however, her words did remind yan heng.

he stood up and raised his voice, "everyone, please be quiet. miss fu is right. everyone should focus on the dress itself. now that everyone has seen the effects of the two gowns, the crew will be choosing one of them ..."

1360 the last choice

so many people were scolding zhongxiuna. although yan heng also felt that it was quite satisfying, it wasn't good for the crew. instead, it had a negative impact.

no matter what, zhongxiuna was still the female lead of the movie. if she were to turn from a goddess of otakus into a street rat, the box office of the movie would also suffer.

he was in a hurry to change the topic.

as expected, the moment he spoke, he attracted the attention of many people.

most people had their own ideas on which one was prettier.

however, everyone wanted to know what the crew would do.

yan heng and fan yinghua looked at each other and cleared their throats. "i hereby announce that the final choice of our crew is xing ..."

"wait, director yan, i have something to say!"

just a second before the results were announced, fujiatong suddenly spoke and interrupted yan heng.

yan heng frowned slightly. "miss fu, what else do you want to say?"

"yeah, if you're not as good as him, just admit it. what are you still talking about?" the fans also started shouting impatiently.

they did not know much about professional design, but they could still tell that luo chenxi was a noble and elegant princess while zhong xiuna was like a middle-aged woman in the market standing side by side in front of them.

fu jiatong gritted her teeth and forced herself to say this as a last-ditch effort.

” director yan, i admit that ms. luo’s temperament is outstanding, and she makes the dress she designed look like it’s a high-end custom-made one. however, you can’t think that her dress is more suitable just because of this. ”

the fans immediately booed.

fu jiatong’s face changed slightly, and she quickly explained, ” “i have a basis for what i said. the main purpose of the costume we’ve designed this time is to serve the filming of the movie. so, of course, it’s important whether it’s good looking or not, but it’s not the most important thing. the costume we’ve chosen in the end should be the one that best fits the requirements of the original work.”

yan heng was stunned and still didn’t quite understand. ” you mean ... ” fu jiatong pointed at the silver dress on zhong xiuna’s body and said, ” director yan, and all the guests here, you’ve all read the original work of ‘gorgeous turn’. you should know that this dress can glow slightly when there’s a power outage. the male lead, xi tianze, was mesmerized by her because he saw the seemingly glowing huo daining in the dark ... ”

” i chose this silver silk fabric to produce the evening gown after reading the description. perhaps, everyone will find it ordinary and unremarkable now. however, once the lights are turned off, this evening gown will certainly be much more eye-catching than luo chenxi’s light gray evening gown! ” hearing this, everyone’s eyes followed the direction fu jiatong was pointing at.

he looked at zhong xiuna for a moment and then at luo chenxi for a moment.

after a while, everyone had to admit that fu jiatong’s words made sense!

even though the gown on luo chenxi’s body could truly highlight her temperament, the light gray color would appear dull when the light was dim. the effect of the gown under the moonlight was absolutely incomparable to the silver gown!

at the thought of this, everyone quieted down and looked at each other.

fu jiatong’s words made a lot of sense, but ... everyone still preferred luo chenxi’s gown!

this was really a difficult choice!

yan heng was already frowning. ” ahem, miss fu, the factor you mentioned should indeed be considered ... ”
