

Sweetheart 1601

1601 mommy, where are you?

the wedding could not be delayed any longer.

she couldn't bear to disappoint so many people who cared about her and liked her.

hence, she would not go back on her promise to mu yichen this time.

however, luo chenxi still could not figure out where lu wenjun was at the moment. why did the faires family ... have to hide her?

"mommy, where are you? what ... what's going on?"

a private island in the middle of the pacific ocean.

although the island was isolated, it had been modernized and the buildings at the center of the island were extremely luxurious.

standing on the small island and looking out, there was a beautiful scenery of water and sky everywhere.

in the garden at the center of the island, a tall and handsome middle-aged man was pushing a wheelchair on the green grass.

"wenjun, do you still remember? when we were together, you told me that your biggest dream was to buy a seaside villa. after i found out, i specially went to the pacific ocean to buy this small island. i wanted to give it to you after it was built. i didn't expect that you would suddenly disappear before the island's project was completed ..."

"now, i've transferred this island to you. all the buildings, sceneries, and facilities on the island are built according to the ideas you told me back then. take a look, is there anything you're not satisfied with? you tell me and i'll get someone to change it immediately?"

"wenjun, did you hear that?"

"no problem. i'll take it that you like it very much. can you tell me?"

the man who was pushing the wheelchair had brown hair and blue eyes. his facial features were well-defined and handsome. although there were inevitably some traces of age at the corner of his eyes, his charm did not diminish because of this. instead, it added to the charm of a mature man.

he stopped in the middle of the garden and whispered to the woman in the wheelchair, asking for her opinion.

however, no matter what he said, the woman did not move. her beautiful face was pale and her eyes were tightly closed.

seeing this, a trace of anxiety flashed in the man's eyes, but he quickly calmed down and continued to walk in the garden with the woman.

the maids who passed by trembled on their tiptoes, not daring to make a single sound, for fear of alerting the patriarch and madam and receiving severe punishment.

even though the clan leader was speaking softly in front of the madam, he did not show any signs of losing his patience even when the madam was unconscious.

however, everyone knew that the faires family was not only one of the oldest families in europe, but also had a very deep underground background. the patriarch was known for his ruthlessness, and he rarely smiled even in front of the family's heir, young master cyril.

patriarch fields pushed lu wenjun around in the garden until the sun set. then, he slowly pushed the wheelchair into the house.

he had been taking care of lu wenjun like this for the past few months.

however, lu wenjun did not wake up. he remained unconscious.

half a year ago, when lu wenjun was kidnapped by luo chenxin, she had a heart attack on the spot due to the severe shock and shock. she was already on the verge of death when the patriarch of the fields family arrived.

1602 lu wenjun's current situation if he had been a little late, even god would not have been able to save him.

when patriarch fields arrived, he immediately sent lu wenjun to the private hospital in A city for emergency treatment.

he even immediately got a matching heart through underground channels and summoned the most authoritative cardiologist in europe. the heart transplant was completed the next day.

initially, everything was going smoothly. after the surgery, the patriarch of the fields family wanted lu wenjun to recuperate in china for a while. when she had recovered, she would return to europe.

however, they only stayed in the hospital for three days before they received a secret report that someone had been trying to find the whereabouts of the patriarch of the fields family. there was also an internationally renowned killer who had secretly infiltrated the borders of china.

faires was worried that something would happen, so he had no choice but to transfer lu wenjun out of the hospital before he regained consciousness.

the faires family was originally stronger and had better weapons and equipment. however, they had to protect the immobile lu wenjun, which resulted in heavy casualties.

in the end, the faires family managed to shake off the enemy's pursuit. they sent lu wenjun onto a helicopter and left china in a hurry.

as a result, although lu wenjun's life was saved, she had suffered a brain injury during her escape. after returning to europe, she had not woken up and was about to become a vegetable.

patriarch fields invited famous doctors from all over the world to treat lu wenjun.

however, no one could come up with an immediate treatment plan.

only one brain authority from country M suggested that they find a quiet place for lu wenjun to recuperate for a while and let her body recover slowly.

in this stage of recovery, her family had to be very patient with her and try their best to recall the past in her ears, especially the details of her interaction with her family. this way, there was still a possibility of waking her up again in time.

this treatment plan sounded reasonable, but it was actually the same as not being able to do anything.

every year, there were so many people who were in a vegetative state due to various reasons. many of them had their family members accompanying them with all their heart, trying to wake them up. however, in the end, only a few of them could successfully wake them up.

patriarch fields was very experienced and knowledgeable, so he naturally knew this.

however, he had been separated from lu wenjun for many years and had finally found him. he had not even spent a day with him before this happened. how could he accept this?

even if there was only a one in ten thousand chance, he decided to persist in the treatment.

patriarch fields immediately chose this small island that had been specially built for lu wenjun in his early years. he put down all of his family affairs and prepared to bring lu wenjun to the island to recuperate.

however, his irresponsible behavior was met with unanimous opposition from his family members.

they had a good reason for their objection: with lu wenjun's status, even if he was healthy and 20 years younger, he would not be qualified to join the ancient and noble faires family, let alone her, who was half-dead.

there were even some elders who threatened to kill themselves, threatening the fields family patriarch to break up with lu wenjun.

however, the clan leader was completely disdainful of such a threat. " twenty years ago, i was fooled by you people, so i missed wenjun. now ... " 1603 did your finger move?!

"whoever wants to die, just go directly. there's no need to specially tell me. however, if someone needs my help, i don't mind."

patriarch fiers 'cold threat successfully scared off most of the opposition.

20 years had passed, and the clan leader was no longer the young master who had just inherited the family business. after so many years of merciless rule over the european underground forces, he had truly established his unattainable prestige in the family.

patriarch fiers decided to go all out and held a wedding with the unconscious lu wenjun in the family church.

such obstinacy naturally caused an even greater backlash, but he didn't take it seriously at all and forcefully suppressed it.

once the wedding was over, he brought lu wenjun to the small island.

it had been more than four months.

patriarch fields pushed the wheelchair into the villa.

in the dining room, the maids had already prepared dinner, and it was basically all liquid food suitable for lu wenjun.

"clan leader, madam is not at her place. shall i take care of her?" the female butler walked over and asked in a low voice.

unsurprisingly, she was rejected.

"no need, i'll do it myself. you can all leave."

the female butler instructed the maidservants to set up everything and carefully left the dining room.

when she reached the door, she couldn't help but look in lu wenjun's direction.

the patriarch of the fields family, who always had a cold and dignified look in his eyes, personally picked up the bowl in his hands and was quietly feeding lu wenjun.

not only was his movements gentle, but he also continued to coax lu wenjun even though he knew that lu wenjun couldn't hear him.

when the female servants saw this, they couldn't help but reveal a bit of envy.

no one expected their clan leader to have such a gentle side to her. furthermore, he had been taking care of lu wenjun so patiently for months, not just a day or two!

even if it was an ordinary couple, how many people could do it? let alone a man with such a high position and power like the clan leader?

after the female servants left, faires personally fed lu wenjun as usual.

"wenjun, i know that this food is unpalatable, but who asked you to not wake up? i've invited a few chefs from china for you, but their skills are not as good as yours. i still remember the first time i ate chinese food. it was you who made it ..."

he mumbled to himself, but he suddenly stopped.

his eyes were fixed on lu wenjun's right hand, which was resting on the armrest of his wheelchair.

"wenjun, you ... you moved just now, didn't you? did your fingers move?"

at that moment, faires seemed to have noticed lu wenjun's trembling fingers.

although the movement was very, very small, it was already good news for patriarch fiers.

he was so excited that he couldn't control himself, but he didn't dare to use too much strength to touch lu wenjun. he could only urge her in a low voice, hoping to see her move again!

the doctor had said that as long as lu wenjun could move one part of her body, no matter how weak it was, it meant that her physical condition had improved significantly.

as long as he took good care of her, she would eventually wake up completely.

faires had been waiting for several months for this moment, and he was extremely excited.

however, that weak movement was only momentary. he stared at lu wenjun for a long time, but he didn't see her move again.

1604 the girl from china

"am i still too impatient?" faires furrowed his brows and sighed deeply.

he straightened his body and was about to ask someone to call the brain authority over to give lu wenjun another examination.

however, at this moment, footsteps were heard from outside the dining room.

"lord clan leader, there's ... there's an emergency ... a guest has come to the island and wants to see you ..."

seeing the housekeeper standing at the door, the patriarch frowned impatiently. "what's going on? didn't i say that no one is allowed to disturb me when i'm with madam?"

"y-yes," the housekeeper was afraid of his authority and said in a trembling voice, "however, this female guest has a token with the faires family's emblem on it. furthermore, the pendant on her hand seems to be your personal token ..."

"what? how was that possible? i've only given out a few personal tokens in all these years ..."

patriarch fiers' first reaction was disbelief.

but halfway through his sentence, he suddenly thought of something and understood.

his gaze swept across lu wenjun's face before he turned to ask the housekeeper, "is the guest a girl in her early 20s? an asian, tall, and slender ..."

"yes, yes, lord clan leader, you're right. it's this young lady!"

the female butler hurriedly nodded, secretly surprised.

there was actually a young girl holding the clan leader's token in her hand ...

after all, she had served the faires family for more than ten years and had never seen the family leader be so close to a woman. of course, other than the madam ...

a hint of joy flashed in the eyes of the patriarch, and he said in a low voice, "you came just in time!"

he instructed the female butler to take good care of lu wenjun before he turned around and left the dining room to receive this unexpected guest.

a beautiful asian girl with long hair was sitting in front of a huge floor-to-ceiling window, looking at the beautiful scenery outside. she was very nervous, and her hand tightly clenched the pendant as a token.

"miss lu, please have some tea. the chief already knows that you're here and will come to see you soon." the maid said respectfully.

"many thanks." the woman suddenly spoke, her voice was unusually hoarse, and the maid could not help but look at her again.

he didn't know where this eastern woman came from. although she was pretty, she had a timid feeling in her dress and manner of speech. she also had a bit of rustic air. one look and he could tell that she was at the bottom of society. he didn't seem like someone who would have any interactions with the clan leader.

if lu chenxi were here, she would certainly scream out loud immediately.

this was because the woman in front of her had the exact same face as her. she was lu chenxin, who mu yichen had left in country F!

luo chenxin sat on the sofa and clenched the token in her hand. a trace of ferocious hatred flashed in her eyes.

"luo chenxi, it's all thanks to you that i'm where i am today! do you think i'm dead just because you whispered in young master mu's ear and made him lock me up in that place? it's a pity that i, luo chenxin, shouldn't be killed. a noble person has come to save my life!"

"i won't let go of the suffering i've suffered these days. i'll make you pay me back double. just you wait!"

during this period of time, she had been locked up in the lowest brothel by the tang family and suffered all kinds of humiliation.

1605 we all have a common enemy, and that is ... luo chenxi!

she had thought that she would die in a foreign country.

she did not expect that just a month ago, someone had gone to the F country's government and rescued her secretly through diplomatic means.

luo chenxin thought that some powerful person she had hooked up with in the past had thought of her. unexpectedly, after she was washed clean and taken out, she saw fu jiatong, the young lady of the hua nation's presidential palace, who was a complete surprise to her!

the number one socialite, who was highly respected in china and sought after by countless people, said the first thing she said when she saw her, " i'm here to save you today because we have a common enemy, and that is ... luo chenxi! " it was only after the incident that luo chenxin found out that fu jiatong was one of the young ladies who was attracted to mu yichen. she even had the opportunity to join the mu family.

unfortunately, luo chenxi was the only person in mu yichen's eyes. even fu jiatong, who was born into a noble family and was a young lady without any flaws, could not pique his interest at all.

fu jiatong had tried her best to fight for it, but in the end, she was still put in a miserable state by luo chenxi.

on the other hand, the reason why she spared no effort to rescue luo chenxin was so that luo chenxin could deal with luo chenxi!

"listen, luo chenxin. i've paid a high price to save you from the tang family because i heard from luo anguo that you have something important that can be used against luo chenxi! what he said ... is it true?"

hearing fu jiatong's question, luo chenxin was stunned for a moment and seemed quite hesitant. " this ... actually ... " seeing this, fu jiatong snorted coldly. " luo chenxin, you can't have forgotten what kind of life you've been living recently, can you? " if you can't satisfy me, i can not only send you back, but also make you a hundred times more miserable than you are now. you'd better take care of yourself!"

upon hearing fu jiatong's threat, luo chenxin suddenly quivered. this time, he did not dare to have any other thoughts.

fu jiatong was from the president's house. it would be as easy as killing an ant for her to do anything to her.

thinking about it, luo anguo had already exhausted all his means to convince fu jiatong to save her. this was her last chance to live ...

when luo chenxin thought of this, he could only tell her his last trump card truthfully.

"luo chenxi has an adoptive mother. i kidnapped her the last time and wanted to use her to threaten luo chenxi. i didn't expect that someone would take her away on the way. i pretended to be luo chenxi so that i could escape from the disaster. i only found out later that the person who framed luo chenxi's foster mother was the patriarch of a great family in europe. i heard that he's extremely powerful!"

“at the time, he mistook me for Luo Chenxi and gave me a pendant as a token. He told me that I can seek the Faires family’s help if I encounter any problems that I can’t solve. I’ve been keeping this pendant in a secret place all this while. No one else knows about it.”

Hearing this, Fu Jiatong’s eyes widened in shock. “What? The Faires family? Did you hear it right? There’s ... there’s such a thing?”

“I wouldn’t dare to lie to you!” Luo Chenxin quickly said.

Fu Jiatong’s face darkened.

Of course, she knew that Luo Chenxin would not dare to play tricks with her under such circumstances.

However, did this not mean that the little b*tch Luo Chenxi’s background was more terrifying than she had imagined?

As the president’s daughter, it was already an exaggeration.

1606 Don’t worry, your identity will definitely not be exposed!

And now, he was even related to the Faires family!

Ordinary people might not know much about these ancient European families, but Fu Jiatong had grown up in the presidential palace and had accompanied Fu Jingxuan to some diplomatic activities, so she had a relatively deep understanding of the forces behind the scenes in various countries.

The Faires family ... that was one of the most powerful families in Europe!

If what Luo Chenxin said was true and Luo Chenxi’s foster mother was related to the Faires family’s patriarch, then ... would it not be more difficult for her to kill Luo Chenxi?

The only fortunate thing was that patriarch Faires had never met Luo Chenxi before. On the contrary, he had mistaken Luo Chenxin for her and even passed the token to Luo Chenxin.

This way ...

Fu Jiatong calmed down and thought for a while, then asked, “Since you have the Faires family’s token in your hands, why didn’t you ask them for help? How could he be trapped in that place by the Tang family? With the Faires family’s help, it’ll be a piece of cake for you to kill Luo Chenxi, let alone be trapped, right?”

Luo Chenxin could hear the doubt in her words, so she hurriedly explained, “Miss Fu, do you think you don’t want to make use of the Faires family’s power? However, the problem is that I ... I impersonated Luo Chenxi in order to obtain the token back then! If I run to the Faires family and get recognized by Lu Wenjun, my identity will be exposed immediately. By then, I won’t even know how I died!”

Although Luo Chen’s heart was vicious, he was not stupid.

The memento alone was enough to deceive patriarch Faires, but Lu Wenjun had been living with Luo Chenxi all this while. How could he not tell if his adopted daughter was real or fake?

She didn’t dare to take the risk for a scam that could be exposed at any moment!

looking at the stance of patriarch fiers when he appeared that day, he knew that these big european families were definitely not to be trifled with, just like the mu family!

upon hearing luo chenxin's words, fu jiatong came to a realization. she furrowed her brows and pondered. "you're right. as long as luo chenxi's adoptive mother is around, don't even think about impersonating her."

luo chenxin nodded repeatedly. "yes, that's right! the only thing i can do now is to destroy this memento. in this way, luo chenxi may never know that she has such a profound background. it'll be easier for you to deal with her."

fu jiatong sneered, "it's not that easy!" that little slut is protected by big brother mu so tightly that even i can't do anything to her."

the more she thought about it, the more she felt indignant.

in order to deal with luo chenxi, ordinary gangs and assassins would not be of any use.

as for the more professional forces ...

as for the presidential palace, since she had already been chased out by fu jingxuan, she couldn't use the military.

on the other hand, the faires family was definitely powerful enough. luo chenxin even had the clan leader's token in her hands ...

it should have been a very important breakthrough, but it couldn't be used ...

how could it be like this!

fu jiatong's face was very ugly, and she paced back and forth in the room with her hands behind her back.

luo chenxin didn't dare to disturb her, so she could only stand on the side and wait in silence, praying that fu jiatong wouldn't be angry and throw her back to the brothel.

suddenly, fu jiatong stopped in her tracks and turned to look at her. "i know! after a period of time, you can bring the token to the faires family. don't worry, your identity will definitely not be exposed!"

1607 lu wenjun is already dead?

luo chenxin was shocked. "what? miss fu, what did you say? this ... it's not that i don't want to go, but ..."

"i know what you mean." fu jiatong raised her right hand and interrupted her impatiently, "you're worried that lu wenjun will recognize you, but i suspect that lu wenjun is probably dead now."

luo chenxin was stunned. lu wenjun was dead? how could that be possible? miss fu, where did you get this news from? is the credibility high?"

luo chenxin didn't really believe fu jiatong's words.

lu wenjun was already half-dead when she kidnapped him the other day, and he looked like he would die at any moment.

however, she was in the faires family now!

with the faires family's power, it would be a piece of cake for them to perform a heart transplant on lu wenjun.

fu jiatong sneered. " i don't have any sources of information. it's just a guess. "

"speculation?"

"that's right. i've heard from my cousin that the mu family has been looking for lu wenjun's whereabouts. they couldn't find him, so they asked my uncle president for help. if lu wenjun is still alive, why didn't she contact luo chenxi?' was there a need for luo chenxi to search for him in such a manner? so, there's a 90% chance that she's already ..."

luo chenxin suddenly understood when she heard this.

she had to admit that fu jiatong was right.

" then ... what if lu wenjun is already dead ... "

"she's dead. if you go to the faires family, no one will be able to recognize you. it's still a little risky for you to pretend to be luo chenxi and stay behind after you go over. who knows when the faires family will come into contact with the mu family? however, it'll be much easier to borrow a few elites from their clan to deal with luo chenxi."

" i heard that the faires family is the true uncrowned king of europe's underground forces. almost all of the top assassins and mercenaries in the world are in their hands. isn't it a piece of cake for them to kill luo chenxi? "

she clapped her hands together. " that's right, this will definitely work! i'll leave this matter to you. i'll leave the faires family to you. once you've borrowed the people and returned to your country, i'll think of a way to not let anyone interfere with your actions. as long as you can do this well, i can send your parents abroad to reunite with you. i'll also give you a sum of money so that you won't have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of your lives!"

luo chenxin thought about it and nodded heavily. " okay, i'll work with you! " even if fu jiatong didn't promise her such a benefit, she was ready to do it.

she hated luo chenxi to the core at the moment. she was willing to do anything as long as she could torture luo chenxi ruthlessly and let her die a miserable death!

the two women hit it off and discussed the specific plan in detail.

fu jiatong also contacted a plastic surgery hospital and cured the scars left by luochenxin when she received guests in the brothel.

a month later, everything was ready. luochenxin rushed to the address that patriarch fiers had told her.

"miss luochenxin, i didn't expect you to come at this time."

luochenxin was still reminiscing when she heard a deep male voice coming from the door.

the legendary, cold, and majestic patriarch of the fields family strode in. his gaze fell on luochenxin, and he frowned slightly.

1608 chapter 1612-unexpectedly smooth as the clan leader of a large clan, he was very accurate in judging people.

from the first time he saw luochenxin, he did not have a good impression of the extremely beautiful young girl in front of him. he simply could not believe that she was lu wenjun's adopted daughter.

however, luochenxin had the token that he had given her and she looked the same as the girl he had vaguely seen at night the last time. naturally, he would not doubt her identity.

luochenxin was startled by faires's cold and stern aura when she saw him.

"patriarch ... patriarch faires, i'm very sorry ... to have disturbed you ..."

faires frowned. he looked down on her cowering appearance. however, when he recalled that this was lu wenjun's favorite daughter, he restrained his domineering aura and tried to speak as calmly as possible, "it's fine. no matter what, you're still my junior, so there's no need to be so nervous. what's your plan for coming here this time?"

luochenxin quickly said, "clan leader, i ... we met once in china. you gave me this token and said that i could come to europe for help if i was in trouble. is this true?" she asked. does it still count?"

philes raised his eyebrows in surprise.

he had thought that lu wenjun's adopted daughter had lost contact with lu wenjun for too long and was worried, so she came to visit her.

in the end ... it wasn't?

he didn't reveal anything, only saying in a deep voice, "that's right, the promise given by our faires family is valid no matter how long it takes."

boxn ov el. c o m

"that's good ..." luochenxin did not notice the other party's strange behavior and was secretly relieved. "in that case, i ... i'll be frank ... i've run into some trouble in china ..."

luochenxin did not elaborate in detail for fear that she would make more mistakes. if the patriarch of the fields clan pursued the details, she would leak luochenxin's information.

she simply described that she had offended a large family force in china and that the other party had threatened to kill her. for her own safety, she hoped to borrow a few " professionals " from the faires family. on the one hand, they could protect her safety, and on the other hand, they could retaliate against the other party if necessary.

after hearing her request, faires did not have much of a reaction.

this was the faires family's specialty, so it was a piece of cake for them to lend luo chenxin and a few people.

" i know. it's just a small matter. no problem. i'll get my secretary to take you to pick a few people later. if you have any requirements for the candidates, you can tell him in detail. " luo chenxin's eyes lit up, and she thanked patriarch fiers immediately.

it was beyond her expectations that things would go so smoothly.

if she had known that it would be so simple, she would not have waited until today and would have killed luo chenxi long ago.

"wait, you're leaving already?" faires frowned, and his face immediately darkened.

luo chenxin was stunned. " i ... i'm already very embarrassed to trouble you for such a small matter today ... " before she came here, fu jiatong had specially warned her that a truly powerful person like her didn't have much free time, and the worst thing she could do was not leave.

it was the safest to leave as soon as possible after the matter was settled.

but why did fiers have such a scary expression when he heard that she was leaving?

1609 aren't we walking right into a trap?

she didn't know that faires couldn't believe that lu wenjun's adopted daughter was so heartless.

he had gone to the faires family and was about to leave after borrowing their people, but he did not even mention that he wanted to meet lu wenjun!

lu wenjun was already showing signs of recovery.

according to the doctor, if she had a relative by her side to help her recall the past, it would help her recover as soon as possible.

wasn't lu wenjun's adopted daughter the most suitable candidate?

even if luo chenxin did not come this time, he had planned to go to china to get her!

fares was displeased, and his voice turned colder. "since you're here, you should come and see your mommy."

luo chenxin had already relaxed, but when she heard the word "mommy," her face suddenly changed and her heart skipped a beat.

she was luo chenxi's mommy!

how could lu wenjun still be ... still alive?

moreover, patriarch fares had taken the initiative to bring her to see lu wenjun. wasn't she walking right into a trap?

once her identity was exposed, would she still be able to live?

luo chenxin panicked, and countless thoughts flashed through his mind. he racked his brain to find a way to refuse.

however, in the face of the patriarch's cold gaze and the large group of bodyguards who were eyeing her covetously, she could not say a word and could only brace herself to follow.

patriarch fares walked in the front personally while luo chenxin followed behind him with fear and trepidation. her legs were weak.

not long after, fares stopped in front of an exquisite door. "go in, your mommy is inside."

luo chenxin was still hesitating and did not want to go in, but she did not dare to act rashly when she saw fares's eyes. she could only go in.

she made up her mind to speak as little as possible later. lu wenjun would always be vague about everything he asked. if she pretended to be sick later, she might have a chance to get away with it.

however, the plans that luo chenxin had prepared were not put to use in the end.

as soon as she entered the room, she saw lu wenjun lying on the bed in a daze, his face pale.

"not long after your mommy's heart transplant, she had an accident when she was being transferred to another hospital. her brain was injured, so she's still unconscious. the doctor said that talking to her friends and family will help her recover, so you should stay here and accompany her."

fares's expression was grave as he briefly explained lu wenjun's condition.

when luo chenxin heard that, she immediately understood and was overjoyed!

she didn't expect that even the heavens were helping her!

lu wenjun was in a vegetative state!

this was great. she didn't have to worry about her identity being exposed!

she didn't have to worry about anything even if she stayed in this unworldly paradise forever, let alone borrowing a few people.

at the thought of this, luo chen immediately pounced on lu wenjun while wailing like a ghost and howling like a wolf.

"mommy, what ... what's wrong? how did you become like this? i thought you were doing well in the faires family. i didn't expect that you ... you've actually become like this ..."

she hesitated for a moment, and her cries were rather exaggerated, which made fiers frown.

however, he had no better idea at the moment, so he could only tell luo chenxin to stay and take care of lu wenjun.

1610 don't even think about blocking my way!

luo chenxin nodded and said obediently, " "don't worry, chief. i'll take good care of mommy."

not long after, the secretary came to look for patriarch fiers to handle official business.

before fiers left, he paused and thought for a moment before saying, " " by the way, there's one more thing. i'm already married to your mommy, so i'm considered your ... adoptive father. you don't have to be so nervous when you see me. as long as you take good care of your mommy, i won't mistreat you. " luo chenxin was sitting in front of lu wenjun's bed. she had not fully recovered from her excitement.

"what? lu wenjun is married to patriarch faires!"

"i'm so lucky, so lucky! it seems that i should have come to the faires family long ago. i was really too stupid! if i had come earlier, i'd already be a young lady of the faires family. not only would i be able to kill luo chenxi, but i'd also be able to live the life of a rich young lady ..."

"the daughter of one of europe's top rich heires ... her status is not any worse than fu jiatong's!"

"it seems that i've really turned the tables this time!"

however, after sitting for a while, she gradually calmed down and realized that there was a big flaw in her decision to stay in the faires family.

" by the way, the clan leader just said that lu wenjun is showing signs of recovery ... if she really wakes up and finds out my identity, then i'll ... no, i can't let her continue to recover like this ... "

however, it was not appropriate to kill lu wenjun directly.

after all, she was only lu wenjun's " adopted daughter " and not the biological daughter of patriarch fiers. if lu wenjun died, it would most likely be the end of her life as a rich young lady.

so, the best way was to let her live, but she would never wake up ...

a cold glint flashed in luochenxin's eyes. she secretly took out an anesthetic from her clothes.

fu jiatong had given her this medicine for self-defense before she left.

now, he could use it ...

luochenxin made up her mind and pounced on the bed. she pretended to hug lu wenjun and cry while using her body to block all possible cameras. then, she secretly injected the syringe in her hand into the back of lu wenjun's hand ...

"luochenxi, lu wenjun, both of you ... don't even think about getting in my way!"

ever since luochenxi agreed to the wedding date in a muddled manner under mu yichen's coaxing, the entire mu family had been busy.

in order to finish the wedding before luochenxi's stomach grew bigger, there was only one to two months left. the entire process was rushed.

fortunately, luochenxi and mu yichen were on the verge of getting married before this, so they had prepared for many things in advance.

for example, the wedding gown that luochenxi was going to wear on her wedding day had already been handed over to the headquarters of the chf to be completed four months ago.

the main wedding gown for that day was personally designed by luochenxi. however, there was a large number of fine hand-embroidered embroidery on the wedding gown so she was unable to complete it on her own. that was why she placed an order with the sl.

every single one of yl's gowns was priced at a million dollars. for them to order so many of them at once, they were definitely a rare big customer.

the headquarters of the chf didn't dare to delay any further. two weeks in advance, they had already sent a designer to personally deliver the completed gowns to the mu family.
