Chapter 171 Take the Initiative to Apologize

Edith shuddered and raised her head. Billy's deep gaze was as cold as ice.

She smiled grimly. "What are you talking about? Mr. Hilton?"

"You knew what I mean. If anything happens to Kathy, I'll not let you off easy," Billy said with a somber tone of voice.

Edith snorted. "I didn't know Mr. Hilton is fond of that kind of woman."

Billy was expressionless. He knew Joseph would save her out after he entered, and he turned, preparing to leave.

"What's so good about Kathy? How could I be worse than her?" Edith muttered. She started out to the balcony subconsciously having realized Joseph was coming out.

Kathy was carried in Joseph's arms. She lowered her head and pulled his sleeve noticing she was being brought out of this dark place. "Are you sure you want to take me out? The banquet outside is not yet over."

Joseph did not reply. The emergency door was opened humbly by the manager and his courteous voice was heard. "I'm sorry, Mr. Joseph. I don't know who has locked the door and I'll check the surveillance footage this instant."

Joseph gave a cold reply and he was about to emerge out of the corridor to the outside where a lavish banquet was organized. Quite many people had noticed the commotion and Kathy became the centre of attention at once.

She pushed Joseph gently and said, "My legs are not numb anymore. Put me down, I can walk by myself."

Joseph wrinkled his eyebrows and cruelty flashed across his eyes.

"Joseph! Let go of me! I don't want you carry me!" Kathy lowered her voice and she refused to let Joseph touch her at all upon thinking of the scene which he was together with Edith.

Chapter 172 The Important Thing Was That I Married Him

"Mr. Joseph's confession is not enough." Kathy curled her lips suddenly.

Seeing him standing next to Edith made Kathy feel so annoyed.

In addition, Edith trapped her on purpose, which was obvious for avoiding Joseph to meet her.

"Huh? I'm willing to take any kind of punishment from Mrs. Joseph." Joseph's voice became more seductive.

Kathy's cheeks were slightly blushed. Why would Joseph seem to be teasing her even when he admitted a mistake?

"I haven't thought of it yet, but you are not allowed to bring any other women to parties in the future!" Kathy said seriously.

She never thought that when she rejected Joseph, he would take Edith here instead.

She just realized that she couldn't accept it at all.

Especially when Edith had special feelings towards Joseph.

"Then Mrs. Joseph need to promise me that you will accompany me wherever I go in the future, yes?" Joseph held her slender waist while talking. Their faces were very close.

The way to the open-air dining area had been blocked somehow, so no one could come over.

But through the French-windows, many guests looked here with envy and jealousy in their eyes.

After all, Kathy looked ordinary today, but somehow drew people's attention easily.

As for Joseph, he was popular anyway wherever he went. He was always the center of attention.

Kathy frowned, Joseph's request seemed a bit too much.

She was not like him that could go wherever he wanted.

"But..." Just as Kathy was about to speak, Joseph stopped her with a finger touching her thin lips.

"There is no 'but'. Mrs. Joseph doesn't like seeing other people being by my side, so you have no choice but doing it yourself. "Joseph said bossily.

"I didn't say that I don't like it." Kathy replied dishonestly.

"It's just temporary for him liking her, right?" Edith urgently needed an answer to comfort herself.

Edith was always sweet and pretty in the public. But once she faced something related to Joseph, especially when there was nobody watching her, she couldn't help losing control.

"I hope so." Lincoln frowned. He had known Joseph for many years, but he still couldn't understand him.

In the car, there was a faint smell of red wine spreading everywhere.

Kathy generally couldn't drink much. Although she only drank a little wine, she still felt a little dizzy.

Joseph stretched his hand over to put her head on his shoulder.

Kathy was stunned for a few seconds, and then quickly pushed him away.

Joseph frowned and raised her small face, "What did Edith tell you? Huh?"

"Nothing." Kathy closed her eyes.

"Kathy, if you don't tell me, I will kiss you until you say it." Then Joseph's face got closer and closer.

Kathy didn't even doubt that if he was lying. She immediately opened her eyes and pressed her hand against his chest.

She stared at Joseph, "Miss Edith said that she has lived with you since she was a child."

Joseph couldn't help smiling. He knew that this was definitely not what Edith said.

But it should be the similar meaning.

"Edith lived in Joseph family since she was ten years old. We have indeed lived together in the same house for many years." Joseph explained patiently.

Kathy asked, "Did your family adopt her?"

Joseph nodded, "When I saw Edith for the first time, her parents passed away already and her uncle became her guardian. But that man wanted to do something nasty to Edith for many times."

Kathy couldn't help frowning. It was really heartbreaking to hear that a girl had to experience such a thing at such a young age.

"You have been taking good care of her, right?" Kathy asked.

When she asked, deep in her heart, she didn't care that much anymore even if he admitted it.

Kathy dared not to say what she was thinking about; it was impossible for her to say out!

She closed her eyes and would not like to look at Joseph.

"Joseph, it is my fault. Please go to work." she was afraid to suffer a lot tonight.

Joseph got on her and bit her earlobe so that Kathy could not leave him, "It's too late. You made trouble..."

Looking at the girl sleeping in his arms, Joseph kissed the middle between her eyebrows and turned around to the study.

He dialed John's number and asked, "Anything updated?"

"Joseph, it was Miss. Edith Wesley who let the waiters lock the two exits of the hotel."

Joseph had a grim look and went on asking, "What did Conor say?"

John answered, "Three days later, Miss. Edith Wesley will go to Country B alone. Now Conor is going back."

"Ok."

In the next morning, Kathy would have a business trip and rushed to pack her luggage after getting up. Joseph came out of the bathroom and was annoyed at what she was doing.

He asked in an extreme low voice, "Where are you going?"

Kathy said, "I will travel on business, probably one week." she was in a little unease when looking at Joseph to know how unhappy he was.

She seemed to forget to tell him before.

Joseph walked closely to her without putting on a shirt; his strong chest muscle was too fascinating. He said, "You are not well-behaved."

Kathy kept watching his chest muscle, then got kind of blush.

She said, "I was just informed yesterday. Are you angry with me to tell you so late?"

Chapter 175 Has the Gift of Gab

Herbert sat on the other side of Billy and looked at Kathy with contempt.
"Kathy, can you understand the discussion on the conference?"
"I cannot, so I came."

"I heard you are preparing the postgraduates' exam. Kathy, I am your classmate to kindly remind you that it is not easy to rid your poor records. Don't make meaningless efforts." Herbert was strongly aggressive.

Billy interrupted them, "What poor records are you talking about?"

Kathy answered, "None of your business." she would like to talk with neither of them.

"Kathy, could you please be nice to me?" Billy was not happy with Kathy's attitude towards him every time they met each other.

"Mr. Hilton, what are you doing?" Kathy said with courtesy, "I do appreciate your help to me. But apart from that, we do not know each other very well."

She would not like to get involved in Billy's issues any more.

Billy said frankly, "My mommy misses you so much. Please come to visit my house when you are available."

Herbert looked pale in fury and held Billy's arms, finally said, "Billy, I am your fiancée!"

Kathy said peacefully, "Mr. Hilton. Did you see your fiancée getting angry? Take care of her. Or she would do something to me; I am too innocent to get involved."

"Herbert, please. You know we are just friends." now Billy talked to comfort Herbert.

Anyway, Herbert stayed unhappy.

Billy always kept Kathy in his mind; she had to erase Kathy from his mind for being Billy Hilton's wife.

Kathy was preparing the exam? She promised to break Kathy's dream.

Just now Kathy said, "We are not." and then moved to sit in the last row.

The conference finished. When Kathy left the exhibition hall, she saw a black car drove slowly to stop in front of her. With the window switching down, there was the good-looking Billy inside.

Chapter 176 Why You Like Her

Back in the office, Peter came up to report to Billy about this week.

"Have you signed the contract with NCHV Medical?" Billy asked.

Peter nodded, "The prospects for this new drug of MT Medicine are good, and it will definitely bring considerable benefits to BT Group in the future."

"That was developed by NCHV Medical, so just because Kathy came to talk, you signed it?"

Billy's tone was a little cold.

Peter's expression was indifferent, "It has nothing to do with Kathy."

"Really? What if I disagree?" Billy touched his chin, with a playful smile in his eyes.

"You are the president, naturally you are the one to make decisions." Peter lowered his head.

Billy suddenly kicked the chair and walked over, standing in front of Peter, looking at his emotionless face, and said jokingly, "Don't be dazzled by beauty, since you have already signed it, then it is a done deal. However, if something goes wrong, you have to take responsibility."

The two of them found a hot pot restaurant for lunch at noon, Alexia couldn't help but ask, "Does Billy like you?"

As a third person, she could see clearly that the way Billy looked at Kathy, was so different.

Kathy couldn't help but choke, "He has a fiancée."

"Herbert married him to save the family. I guess Billy would not like that bitch." Alexia analyzed.

"Even if he likes me, I am already married." Kathy said calmly.

She felt that Billy was interested in her, but she subconsciously resisted.

"That's true, but Kathy, your love luck this year is really overwhelming. Look, Joseph and Billy both like you, but in the past three years, you didn't even have a person who had an eye on you, and you have been on so many blind dates without finding the right person."

"Edith, this is not any of your business." Joseph's face became gloomy.

"I just want to know what I can't compare with Kathy. Why can't you look at me... why don't you like me?" Edith's voice turned into a cry.

Joseph frowned, his eyes floating impatience. He stood up, "Because you are not Kathy."

His words were cold and unforgiving.

Kathy.

This name became a thorn in Edith's heart.

That night, Joseph was resting in the house. The next day, after sending Edith to the airport, he also boarded the flight to City B.

The night gradually darkened, and the entire sky was covered with a clouds.

When Kathy and Alexia arrived at the hotel near the sea, the person in charge of the partner company had already arrived.

The other party was a woman in her early twenties, dressed exquisitely and noble, she looked like a rich girl, and was covered in luxurious brand names.

Alexia and Kathy exchanged business cards with her, and the other side glanced at it arrogantly, her face very indifferent.

"Miss Cole, have you read the information I sent you?" Alexia asked.

Nellie Cole frowned, "I saw it, but could you guys please wait first, I have a friend coming."

After her words, a familiar figure walked in the door, Herbert wore a simple white suit, stepped on high heels, and curly hair draped over her shoulders, she looked enchanting.

Seeing Kathy and Alexia, she raised her hand and said hello, "Hello, I am Herbert."

Chapter 178 Pay Me Back

The two of them stayed up almost all night, but the snowball seemed to be getting bigger and bigger as it rolled, and the news on the Internet was not suppressed, instead it spread more widely.

Alexia went to an early meeting with the distributor, and Kathy stayed to deal with the online news. At noon, Peter called.

"Mr. Champs." Kathy remained polite.

"What's going on with the news about fake drugs on the Internet? Kathy, it happened only after signing the contract? I have arranged it with all our sales channels..." Peter's sullen voice came through the phone.

Kathy frowned, "Mr. Champs, the news on the Internet are all made up, please don't listen to rumors..."

"I need you to explain it to me in person."

Considering that she signed a contract with Peter, Kathy couldn't refuse.

The two met in a restaurant, Kathy walked through the door, and a familiar figure came into her view not far away.

Although she could only see him from the back, she knew it was Joseph at a glance.

Was he here?

Before Kathy had time to think about having seen Peter, she walked over.

"Kathy, are you retaliating against me? It hasn't been long since I just became the general manager of BT Group. Did you know that selling fake drugs is illegal!" Peter's tone was extremely sulky.

Kathy's face was gentle, and she handed him the statement issued by NCHV Medical Company today. It was completely fiction that MT Medicine is fake medicine.

"Mr. Champ, you are also sitting in a high position. You should have the ability to distinguish right from wrong." Kathy said lightly.

"This kind of rumor will never come out of nowhere! I now doubt you and NCHV Medical, very much!" Peter squinted coldly.

Someone was a step faster than Peter, and Kathy bumped into a familiar figure and her slender waist was caught.

Peter's hand was blocked, and he raised his eyes coldly, Joseph's chilly eyes made him tremble.

"Mr. Champs, what do you want to do to my wife, hm?" Joseph's voice didn't contain a hint of temperature.

Peter frowned and took a half step back. After all, he was afraid of Joseph.

"I don't mean anything else, it's just that Kathy and I have a disagreement on our cooperation. Mr. Joseph, you should not mix things up." Peter said coldly.

"Peter, I won't agree to your request. If you have to break the contract, NCHV Medical will ask for you to take the responsibility to the end." When the words fell, she took a step forward.

Kathy only stopped when she went out the door, and Joseph kept his arms around her.

She raised her eyes, "Why did you come here..."

When she saw Joseph just now, she didn't believe her eyes.

"Because you are here and I am worried." Joseph's voice was gentle and low.

His voice was calming like the sound of a cello.

Her heart beat slightly faster, she pursed her mouth, "There is nothing to be worried about"

"Peter really has the ability to find support for himself, I underestimated him." Joseph frowned.

During this period of time, he had not been able to track Peter's whereabouts, but he did not expect that he was in City B.

Chapter 180 Playing with Me

Kathy picked up the file. It was an investigation on the spread of counterfeit MT Medicine. Herbert definitely had something to do with this issue from the exposed information.

It was her.

Thinking of Herbert preventing Nellie from signing the contract with NCHV Medical Company three days ago, Kathy never expected that Herbert would disclose the information of counterfeit MT Medicine.

Why did Herbert do that?

It seemed that Herbert had nothing to do with NCHV Medical Company.

When Kathy was inattentive, Joseph hung up the phone and sat down beside her. "The news about the counterfeit MT Medicine had something to do with Herbert."

Kathy turned to look at him with her hands trembling.

Could it be that Herbert slandered NCHV Medical Company because Herbert didn't like her?

Joseph clearly understood her thoughts. He frowned, "It is obvious that this incident cannot be planned by Herbert alone. It involved many figures from political and business areas. And Herbert wasn't able to plan all of these with her insufficient background."

"Who else did you suspect?"

"At present, I don't have sufficient evidence. But, since Herbert is involved in this issue, I will conduct an in-depth investigation following this clue." Joseph squinted his eyes.

"The Herbert's group had already been acquired by Hilton Group and Herbert is Billy Hilton's fiancée. If she is not capable, then it can only be that Billy helps her." Kathy analyzed.

Joseph said, "You are quite smart."

Kathy stared at him. She was smart.

"Just a guess. But I am afraid that she targeted me." Kathy clenched her palms.

"If she dared to target you, then I would let her pay for it," Joseph said coldly but his words scared people.

Kathy couldn't tell her feeling deep down. There were too many things involved between her and Herbert. Herbert was hostile towards Kathy and it was not just because of Peter Champs.

They walked outside. It was late and most restaurants in hotels were closed. This wasn't a bustling commercial area. Only some small stalls were still opened.

Thinking of Joseph's distinguished status, Kathy was afraid that he wouldn't sit on the street with her and eat. Kathy dared not think about it.
