Chapter 261 Marriage Is Serious

"But then our relationship would be exposed."

Kathy frowned. While everyone around her knew about her relationship with Joseph now, having a wedding was bound to be more high-profile.

She knew how horrible Joseph's fans could be.

"I don't mind. I do want everyone to know that you're my wife. In this way, no one is allowed to hit on you." Joseph said overbearingly.

Kathy smiled suddenly, "Well, I should be the one to say that."

Joseph was so handsome and good-looking, there were plenty of women who coveted him.

The date for the wedding was quickly set.

It was just two months later, not long after she finished her exams.

But since it was going to be a wedding, it wasn't just the Booth family that had to worry, the Joseph family as well.

Kathy didn't know what Joseph was planning. She hadn't met the rest of the Joseph family except for his grandfather. Was Joseph going to invite them?

"What are you thinking?" Seeing Kathy staring at the wedding dress drawings, Joseph came over and hugged her.

Kathy turned her head. The smile on her face froze.

"Will anyone else from the Joseph family besides your grandfather be at the wedding?"

"Besides grandpa, there's my sister, Veronica."

"Sister? I can't believe I didn't know you had a sister." Kathy scowled at him deliberately.

"She's not well." The coldness in Joseph's eyes flickered away.

Kathy was shocked. She hadn't expected to bring up the sad story about Joseph.

She smiled, "Your sister must be beautiful. After all, you're so handsome."

"She ... was just too pretty, so life didn't go well for her." Joseph's tone got even colder.

Chapter 262 I Like You to be Jealous

Kathy was speechless.

Joseph was so jealous of his assistant!

"I was thinking John was being pressed too hard by you."

"I don't need to have so many people around me. Otherwise, how many female secretaries would you want me to have around?" Joseph asked deliberately.

Kathy's face immediately got serious. Female Secretary...

She had usually seen TV shows with female secretaries trying to hook up with CEOs...

Besides, Joseph was so good-looking, no woman could resist him, right?

She immediately took Joseph's arm and showed her sovereignty, "That will only trouble John."

As the time for her retest got closer and closer, Kathy was getting nervous.

Insomnia for days on end had left her in a terrible state. She always had a bad feeling in her heart.

When she opened her eyes, she found that the seat beside her was still empty.

She looked at the time. It was two o'clock in the morning.

She picked up her phone and called Joseph.

The first time she called, there was no answer.

Kathy was worried and called again.

But this time, it was a woman who answered, and the voice was not unfamiliar to her.

"Mrs Joseph?" Edith's voice came through.

"Where's Joseph?" Kathy's voice was slightly cold.

Hadn't Edith already left City N?

"Joseph... he's still in the lab. Don't you know that?"

Kathy pursed her lips. It was true that she didn't know Joseph's whereabouts.

The two of them would rarely talk on the phone. She was Joseph's secretary before, so she would know Joseph's whereabouts all too well.

"I need to speak to him. Please pass the phone to him." Kathy said in a low voice.

"Mr. Joseph is busy and not very available. When he's free, I'll have him call you back."

Chapter 263 I Suddenly Missed You

A lot of students had gathered around, and it wouldn't do anyone any good if this matter got out of hand.

"Joseph, don't let me see you again. I told you, I'll beat you up whenever I see you!" Aaron said ruthlessly.

Joseph's expression remained unchanged, and he remained his usual gentle self when facing Kathy.

But in his eyes, there was a coldness that extended on and on.

Their sedan started to drive off slowly. Kathy was still shocked by Aaron's actions just now.

Glancing at the back of Joseph's bleeding hand, she grabbed his hand worriedly.

"Joseph, don't drive anymore."

"It's not in the way." Joseph's face softened a bit.

"I'll give you a quick bandage and let me drive," Kathy said.

Moreover, she clearly noticed that Joseph's mood was not good either.

Back at Joseph Bay, Kathy asked Joseph to rest nicely while she cooked dinner tonight.

The maid had already bought all the ingredients, and Kathy made a soup. Seeing that Joseph didn't stay in the living room, he must have been working in the home office again.

Soon John came over and reported to Joseph about the company's affairs.

Kathy served him a bowl of soup.

John was busy waving his hand, he wouldn't dare...

Kathy saw his rejection and smiled, "Joseph and I can't finish it, so help us out."

Even with that, John was still not dared to accept her offer.

Kathy frowned, thinking he should be fear of Joseph's might.

"If you don't drink it, you're disrespecting me as Mrs Joseph?" Kathy deliberately pretended to be angry.

John was terrified. The boss was in the home office, and he couldn't go in if he didn't drink the soup.

Seeing that John finally gave in, Kathy smiled in satisfaction and continued to pound away in the kitchen.

Chapter 264 It Was an Eye-opener for Her

Joseph walked out of the office. Kathy was looking at her phone beside the office.

"Why didn't you let me know when you came over?" Joseph was a little dissatisfied.

"I'm afraid of interrupting your work... just suddenly missing you a lot." Kathy took the initiative to hug him.

And not far away, John silently lowered his head, while Edith's gaze was very unpleasant.

"I'll eat with you first. I'm going to the research lab tonight, I'm afraid I can't accompany you." Joseph frowned.

Plans for the research and development were imminent and couldn't be delayed.

"But you can come with me."

The lab is on the 21st floor, and Joseph had changed into a lab coat and wore a mask, but the noble and indifferent demeanour was still impossible to ignore.

Kathy has had previous exposure to drug research and development, and she could help with record keeping.

When Edith saw that Kathy was also here, she was speechless.

"Here's the previous report, so familiarize yourself with it, and don't give us any trouble later."

Kathy indifferently said, "If there is anything wrong, I'll ask for Ms Edith's help."

Joseph was already over there on the test bench, with Edith by his side, and they were both communicating in specialized terminology. However, Kathy had recently been reviewing her medical knowledge, so she understood most of it.

As time passed, Joseph was experimenting with liquids. Edith's hand suddenly trembled, and the liquids all poured onto her hand in a flash.

Joseph was anxious, "Wash your hands immediately!"

"It's so hot..." Edith was terrified. She only realized now that the glove she wore was broken. The liquid had begun to erode her skin.

Kathy immediately walked over and turned on the tap, and when she saw that Edith hadn't moved, she grabbed her hand.

"Ah! Get away from me!" Edith screamed and was about to retract her hand as she glared at her.

"This liquid must be cleaned and rinsed with an alkaline liquid mixture, Edith!" Kathy said seriously.

Edith paused and quietly touched Kathy's elbow with her hand that was drenched in the liquid, then continued to pretend to struggle.

Chapter 265 Why Are You So Desperate To Stay By His Side

"That's a lot of baloney. It's you who are dissatisfied with me doing the experiment with Joseph. You're jealous of me."

Joseph frowned and helped Edith stand up, his expression sullen.

"Edith, go to the hospital yourself first."

Joseph had seen the rapid corrosion of the skin on her calf, and his dark eyes looked even darker.

"Joseph, I'm sorry. But as you know, I'm married, and I won't have any delusion about you. How could I hurt Kathy?" she said softly.

Joseph turned a blind eye to her, instead, his gaze landed on Kathy who was two meters away.

The harmful liquid was spilt all over the floor. Kathy had to step on the liquid to get out of there.

It was absolutely dangerous, so she had no choice but to stay where she was.

However, Edith still held Joseph's hands tightly, not letting him go.

"Edith, let go of my hand," Joseph's countenance fell.

Edith got flurried and let go of Joseph's hand while a well-built manly silhouette hugged her from behind.

Conor came to her.

Seeing the black wound on her calf, his eyes blazed with anger.

He carried Edith in his arms and said in a deep frosty voice, "Joseph, if anything happens to her, I'll hold you personally responsible."

It was not yet known whether Joseph took Conor's words to heart because his attention had been focused on Kathy. Putting on the foot covers, he slowly approached her step by step.

The moment his hand was about to touch Kathy, she pushed his hand away.

Only then did he notice that her whole body was trembling. She was scared.

Joseph crouched down, held the foot covers in his hand, and lifted her legs slowly.

Kathy pursed her lips, staring at the handsome face close at hand, she gradually felt a sense of relief.

"You're all right, Kathy." He held her hand with his warm palm.

He couldn't conceal the worry in his eyes, held her face and gave a kiss on her forehead comfortingly.

"Do you believe me?" Kathy asked.

"Kathy, no matter what happens, I'll always believe in you." Joseph looked down at her, touching her forehead with his forehead. His body was trembling just like her.

In the car, Joseph fastened his gaze on Kathy's face.

Chapter 266 My Woman Deserves the Best

There were no maids at home, so Kathy could not change on her own.

She hugged Joseph apprehensively and said in a low voice, "This wedding dress is so beautiful that I cannot bear to put it on."

Joseph participated in the design of this dress. Every single diamond pieces represented his efforts.

He had done so much for her. Was it just because she was Mrs Joseph?

"My woman deserves the best, right?" He lifted her face; his eyes were shimmering.

He was attracting her to fall into his hands.

Tugging at Joseph's shirt, Kathy tiptoed and took the initiative to kiss her favourite lips.

She liked his scent; she liked his taste; she liked him as a person; she liked all of Joseph.

Joseph clasped the back of her head. The fire was ignited by Kathy. He pushed her against the wall and said in a low voice, "Mrs Joseph, you lit the fire?"

Kathy blushed and smiled shyly, "Can't I?"

In the next second, she hugged him and kissed all the way down...

Kathy tried on the wedding dress two hours later. She was standing in front of the mirror while Joseph was helping her to pull the zip on her back.

In front of the mirror, Kathy's chest was clearly seen to be marked in redness. Someone had gone overboard on this...

With her long hair draped over her shoulders, Joseph hugged her from behind. Their gazes faced each other in front of the mirror.

The amazement in Joseph's eyes did not conceal the fact that Kathy's body was remarkably well proportioned. Her features were exquisite, and her cheeks were pink and charming.

His kiss fell on her cheek.

"Mrs Joseph, I want to hide you away."

"The wedding dress is too beautiful."

"No, it's Mrs. Joseph."

He flipped her face over, and deep kisses fell.

Kathy hurriedly pushed him away, "Hey, you're always not serious!"

"I'm not serious because of you."

Joseph grinned. Kathy wearing this wedding dress was so beautiful that it lit him on fire. He just wanted to tear it off. He was the only one qualified to possess her.

Three days later, the retest results for the research exam came out.

Kathy was on the phone with Alexia, trying to ease the tension.

Joseph's expressions were tense, "Be obedient, Mrs. Joseph. It was your wish to attend graduate school..."

Kathy interrupted him, "Indeed, it was my wish but the reality is like this so, I have accepted it. Don't act recklessly, Joseph. Please, I beg you."

When she begged him like this, Joseph's heart softened.

He hugged her tightly and said in a low voice, "Don't give up, okay?"

"I checked the admission system. No professor is willing to accept me. I have decided to contact the professor myself." Kathy answered calmly.

This was the last way she could think of.

"I won't give up until the last moment. Joseph, thank you for always supporting me." Kathy looked at him with shining eyes.

His support was her motivation.

"But Ocean University and Boston University are similar. Do you know that?"

If Joseph had known this before and had told her, then maybe she would have considered to not apply for admission in Ocean University.

"Well, I warned you to not apply for the exam at that time. But you are too stubborn to listen to what I say." Joseph narrowed his eyes at her.

However, afterwards he did not want to interfere with her decision.

Even if she really ended up backing out, he was there to help her.

Later, Joseph went for a meeting and Kathy waited in the office.

Near the evening, the receptionist from the first floor called saying Edith wanted to come up to meet Joseph.

As soon as Joseph came out of the meeting, John immediately reported to him.

"Tell her to go back."

John passed on the order truthfully. However, when Joseph was leaving Joseph Group, Edith was still waiting.

Kathy's face sank when she saw her.

Her guard had been up since a long time for this woman.

“Joseph, do you really want to terminate the contract?” Edith stood in front of Joseph, with her eyes only on him.

Joseph was consistently indifferent, “The agreement is written very clearly.”

“I don’t agree. Only you and I can develop this kind of medicine!” Edith’s voice sank.

“Edith, you overestimate yourself too much.” Joseph’s face remained expressionless.

Chapter 268 The Relationship could not be Affected by Emotions.

“Why do you think Joseph likes you?”

“Why did you like me before, Billy Hilton?” Kathy refuted.

Kathy felt that Billy treated her differently.

Billy choked and looked at Kathy. Probably Billy was possessed by ghosts.

“I'm different from Joseph.”

“In my opinion, Joseph is more reliable than you.” Kathy ignored Billy.

In the evening, Joseph came to pick Kathy up.

Billy was about to leave and saw Joseph. Billy then smiled coldly.

“It seems that you love each other so much. But now it is the end.”

“Don’t waste your time, Billy.”

“Who knows? I want to know whether the wedding can be held smoothly.” Billy said on purpose.

Joseph’s face sank and his expression was tense.

Kathy felt Joseph’s anger when she approached Joseph.

“What’s up?”

Joseph shook his head and restrained his emotion, “Kathy, promise me that you will never leave me. Okay?”

Joseph looked at Kathy cautiously and his affection confused Kathy.

“Sure, I will not leave you.” Kathy answered.

As long as Joseph was here with Kathy, she would also be with Joseph forever.

A week later, Kathy unexpectedly received a retest email from Ocean University.

Kathy had been contacting the professor of Ocean University this week and submitted a letter of recommendation, but she didn’t expect to get a reply.

"Why my great-grandson was not born yet?" Mathew showed no expression on his face intentionally.
Kathy lowered her head, her face was flushed.

"Grandpa, Joseph and I haven't planned for that yet," Kathy said it out after a fashion.
Mathew frowned, he was slightly discontented.

Joseph was indeed giving her the greatest support.

Kathy felt slightly warm.

Joseph arrived a bit late. Just then, Diego came back too.

Joseph showed his sullen face instantly.

When they were dining, Kathy sat beside Joseph whereas Diego sat opposite to Joseph.

But he never looked at his father.

Diego did not mention Joseph at all when he chatted with Mathew.

Kathy lowered her head, she felt uneasy in this awkward atmosphere.

After dining, Joseph was called by grandpa to the study room. Kathy felt bored and went for a stroll in the garden.

When she just passed by the rockery, Joseph's voice was heard.

Kathy stopped walking instinctively.

"Why do you come here? I have asked you to stay in the hotel!"

"I miss you so much. When are you going to announce our relationship to the public?"

"It's not the right timing now. I miss you too, my dear...."

"You're bad...Please don't..."

Kathy was flushed, she did not expect to encounter this kind of situation. She turned and walked away.

However, she accidentally stepped on the rubble on the ground.

Diego turned his head incisively and asked instantly, "Who is that?"

Kathy was frozen. She quickly walked non-stop towards the bungalow.

“You’re right. That’s why many girls like him,” Veronica agreed.

Her personality was similar to Kathy’s.

“I think I spoke too much. I must have been bored spending a long time not being able to come out. Now that I’m out, I feel relaxed,” Veronica continued, “ I will go back too my room first. I don’t feel well.”

Looking at her shadow, Kathy looked down at her feet.

Even though she's wearing a skirt, she had a pair of prosthetic legs.

She's just in her early twenties, but she didn't have the enthusiasm that she's supposed to have at her age.

At night, her grandfather asked her to stay back for dinner. However, Joseph left as he had business. He would pick her up when he's done.

Kathy sighed in relief when she knew that Diego wouldn't be around. She's not afraid of him, but she didn't want to be with him either.

Joseph came back after finishing his job. He went up to Veronica's room after knowing that she came back.

"Why are you messing around?" He asked her angrily.

Veronica lifted her head and looked at her brother. Her lips curved into a smile as she spoke, "Brother, I finally meet you."

"Why did you come back?" Joseph remained strict.

She asked him, "Don't you want to see me?"

Joseph went silent. He felt pity for her.

"I know that you're worry about me. However, I can't hide from him forever, can I?"

"I will still be worried about you." Joseph looked serious.

However, Veronica smiled and said, "This happened a long time ago so don't be too worried about it. I just want to attend your wedding. He won't be around."

"He is."

Veronica's expression slightly changed.

"I will protect myself this time."
