Chapter 331 Always Protected

“Stop it, brother. There’s nothing you can do about it!”

“Go away, I’ll fix it,” said Joseph coldly.

Veronica stood still as her tears fell.

“Stop it, brother...”

She couldn’t stop Joseph.

Joseph found all the broken pieces and placed them back in place half an hour later.

Veronica sat in her wheelchair, she couldn’t understand Joseph’s behavior.

Although the picture was restored it wasn’t perfect.

“Don’t touch it,” said Joseph seriously as he placed the picture in a picture frame.

His tone shocked Veronica.

“Do you like her that much?”

Joseph did not reply, but Veronica knew the answer as Joseph tried to restore the picture.

At Joseph’s Group.

Everyone in the building was anxious as there were three days left to the meeting of the shareholders.

There were many rumors about Joseph’s Group as the stock price has dropped severely.

Julian was rumored to replace Joseph and take over the Joseph’s Group.

John reported to Joseph about the rumors but Joseph was not alarmed.

“How’s Kathy?”

“She...Miss Kathy is busy recently, but she has taken part in the drug development between Ocean University and the Joseph’s Group.

Joseph has approved it long ago.

“Okay, make sure she’s under the protection and be aware of Julian.”

The results for the test Jennifer had were good, but she was required to stay in the hospital for a couple of days.
"I'll make an appointment for you to have a body check-up," said Kathy.
"Thank you for doing this, Kathy," smiled Jennifer.
"You're my mother, it's my responsibility to take care of you," said Kathy.
"I thought you were still angry at me."
"I am," said Kathy.
"I'm thankful that you are willing to visit me," sighed Jennifer.

"I was one of the people that sent Mrs. Hilton here when she fainted," said Bertie.

"Don't worry, she's fine," said Kathy.
Kathy left after she spoke to Billy.

"Joseph's Group... oh, these few models are all new drugs from the Joseph's Group? Just this morning our professor was telling about how amazing these models of drugs are..." Zofia exclaimed.

She didn't know these models of drugs were developed by the Joseph's Group.

"Hospitals were now fighting over these drugs, and most of the pharmacies were out of stock," Zofia continued.

Kathy frowned. She knew these models of drugs well since she was in the R&D team with Joseph.

These were the drugs Joseph started to develop five years ago. Now they caused such a sensation when they finally hit the market.

"Were these drugs really that amazing?" she asked.

"Of course. These drugs were widely praised since it was Joseph who led the development team. Furthermore, these models were tested overseas and received great feedback, that's why everyone is fighting over them as soon as they hit the domestic market," Zofia analyzed and explained.

"You used to work for the Joseph's Group, right? Don't you know about these drugs?" Zofia looked at Kathy.

"I did work in the development team under Joseph, but I didn't get to know too much inside news." Kathy shook her head. She wasn't one of the main developers in the team back then.

"Oh man, I should've bought some Joseph's Group stocks. I would've been earning hand over fist now." Zofia sighed.

Kathy smiled. "Miss Marshall doesn't seem to me like someone who's short of money."

"Bullshit. I paid for all my college fees since I don't want to keep rely on my family. The Marshall family is nowhere near how wealthy it used to be, we almost went bankrupt a few years ago. We would have made it through if it wasn't for the Booth family's help," Zofia said.

It was the toughest time for the Marshall family, and it was Bertie Marshall who carried the fate of the whole family on his shoulders.

"Everything's okay now." Kathy consoled her.

Even though it hadn't been long she associated with Zofia, Kathy got the picture of what kind a person she was.

She was cordial and friendly instead of being cocky like what most people would expect from a girl coming from a rich family.

"Yeah, I hope I can help share my brother's burden soon. He is the one who has been supporting me that I can study medicine now," Zofia replied.

Suddenly, Zofia's phone rang. It was Veronica.

"What? You're in Ocean University? Why didn't you tell me you're coming?" Zofia.

"Were you nervous just now?" Joseph did not move.

"No!" Kathy subconsciously denied.

"Really? Are you sure you can stand the consequences of lying to me?" Joseph sounded low and intimidating.

Kathy's heart was beating out of order...

As soon as she looked up, Joseph's kiss had already fallen. It was so aggressive that she had nowhere to escape.

"Umm!"

She exclaimed and pushed him away subconsciously.

But how could she defeat Joseph? She was kissed even more deeper...

Kathy was almost addicted to this familiar feeling.

Fortunately, the elevator arrived in a short time.

However, it went straight to the top floor.

Joseph didn't help her press the button at all!

"How could it be like this..."

"This is the president's exclusive elevator, didn't you know that?" Joseph liked her angry expression so much that his eyes were smiling.

Kathy was stunned. She looked at where the buttons were, and she raised her hand. Sure enough, the floors below the top floor could not be pressed.

"You fell into the trap by yourself, Kathy." Joseph slowly raised his thin lips.

"Excuse me." With that said, she immediately ran to the regular elevator opposite.

But Joseph grabbed her hand and led her into the office forcefully.

"What are you doing, Joseph!"

"Stay with me for a while." His tone couldn't be plainer.

"I am not your wife, nor your subordinate!"

Hearing this, Joseph stopped. The vibe all over his body changed suddenly.

Kathy clearly felt that he was upset...

He was even clenching his jaw.

She was a little scared for no reason.

She wanted to struggle, but Joseph held it even tighter.

Joseph's kiss made Kathy stunned. She felt that her whole body was burning hot because of the hot kiss.

When she finally realized what happened, she immediately pushed him away.

But he didn't back off, instead he kissed her harder.

Kathy's cheeks were blushed. Kathy and Joseph hadn't been so close to each other for so long.

Her body's reaction was so sensitive that she could hardly bear it.

She had no choice but to lift her leg and kick up.

Joseph immediately stepped back. He looked at Kathy deeply and dangerously.

"Mrs. Joseph." His voice was always deep and sexy whenever he talked to her.

Hearing his voice, Kathy felt that her body became soft.

She turned around, "Don't mess around, there are people outside."

Joseph pinched her chin up to look at him.

"If there is no one outside, would you allow me to mess around with you?" He said it with a smile.

"Impossible! We are already divorced!" Kathy said angrily.

Hearing this, Joseph gave her a bigger smile.

"Kathy, you look stunning." He looked at her with his lips next to her ear whispering.

Standing in front of the mirror, Kathy looked at herself. The dress was designed with a small V-neck, which matched her skin color and made her collarbone look more beautiful. And the waistline was just right. The dress was pure white, which made her look so clean.

However, it seemed that she didn't need to wear such an expensive dress for attending grandpa's birthday party.

Kathy quickly changed her dress. And only then she saw that Joseph already paid.

She immediately stopped him, "Joseph, I won't buy this one."

"Huh?" He frowned.

"Then try more."

But Joseph had already signed the bill...

The clerk packed the dress, but Kathy did not take the bag, so the clerk had to hand it to Joseph.

"If you don't want to wear this one, just check more."

Kathy randomly picked another black dress and walked to the counter. She insisted on paying by herself.

But the clerk looked awkward, "Ms. Kathy, Mr. Joseph has already deposited some money in our store. And Ms. Kathy can use the balance directly for consumption in our store in the future."

Soon Diego and Nell were kicked out, and the banquet continued.

Only then did Kathy recall that she didn't even bring a gift to Mathew.

She looked at Joseph subconsciously.

Knowing what she was thinking, he asked John to come over.

"Give this calligraphy as a present to grandpa later."

"But this is a gift you prepared." Kathy frowned.

"Mine is yours."

"That won't work." Kathy refused firmly.

But seeing Mathew walk over, Joseph passed the painting over, "Grandpa, this birthday gift is from Kathy and I. Happy birthday."

Matthew looked at Kathy kindly. "How nice of you. Thank you."

The smile on Kathy's face froze.

She couldn't refute it since Joseph had already spoken up.

"Grandpa, happy birthday." Kathy smiled.

"Okay, you can still visit me more in the future although you are not my granddaughter-in-law. I miss you."

"I will bring her over if you want to see Kathy, grandpa." Joseph answered.

With that said, Kathy couldn't help but stared at Joseph.

I thought we agreed that neither of us will interfere with one another...

Mathew laughed heartily. "Don't try to fool me."

Seeing Mathew started chatting with other guests, Kathy lowered her voice and asked, "You are crossing the line, Joseph."

"What's wrong?" He raised his eyebrows.

"We have agreed on the fact that we will no longer interfere with each other's life."

"How could you turn grandpa down?" Joseph looked at her.

Kathy was speechless. Indeed...she couldn't do it.

But she also knew that she wouldn't be visiting grandpa in the future.

Chapter 337 Without Any Preparation

Recently, the Joseph Family had been the hottest topic.

It wasn't so famous in City N because they had always acted low-key. However, the three new medicines they released lately almost monopolized the whole market, which shocked the entire city.

the Herbert's Group, which sold the same type of drugs, suffered a strong damage. Their market share kept decreasing, and now their stock price had hit the limit, which even influenced its parent corporate – the Hilton Group.

Herbert had come to Hilton Group for several days, but Billy refused to meet her.

She stayed at the company till dusk, and finally she had the chance to stop Billy's car.

"What?" Billy frowned, staring at the woman that blocked his way despite all dangers.

Herbert barely stood straight out of fear after the car braked suddenly.

She staggered over and opened the door to the front passenger, "Billy, you have to save Herbert's Group."

For now, their best-sellers nearly lost the market, which made them lose money every day. If they kept doing nothing, their firm would be bankrupt.

Billy didn't show much emotion on his face. Hearing her out, he just lifted his eyelids a little bit, "No can do."

This time Joseph clearly had the intention to crash Herbert's Group, and they had not seen it coming.

He underestimated Joseph.

He couldn't believe that a doctor like him was able to conquer business field.

And now he just realized that he never really knew Joseph.

"Of course you have a way. Isn't Hilton Group going to release a new drug? You transfer it to our company, once it sells, our firm will be saved. Or ... can you give us some money?"

"I've given you enough. Now the Hilton Group is in danger as well. What makes you think that I'll help you?" Billy said in a cold tone.

He felt nothing for Herbert. He purchased Herbert's Group at that time only because he was supposed to marry Herbert.

To him, he had done using Herbert's Group.

Technically, that group held him down.

He responded with his deep voice, "Your bankruptcy is inevitable."

"No!" Herbert's face lost its color. It couldn't be.

"What it takes to make you help?" Billy was her only hope.

"Maybe she doesn't want to receive my call at all."

"Brother, you're so useless but I still think you have the chance. Kathy has distanced herself from Joseph!"

"What do you mean?"

"I mean it literally. Joseph gives a speech in the campus on Sunday but Kathy does not attend and shows no interest at all, she must have given up on him."

Bertie remained silent. Sometimes, the intense one wanted to escape from someone, the harder one was able to give up on somebody.

"Joseph attends and gives a speech? He has always disliked showing up in front of the public," Bertie frowned.

He had agreed to do so?

"That's right, he always keeps a low profile. Nevertheless, he is not only here to give a speech, he is also hired as a professor..."

“Okay, I have understood,” Bertie hung the phone quickly.

After a while, the assistant came in the office.

“Mr Marshall, the Herbert’s group announced that they had bankrupted this morning.”

After hearing the news, Bertie changed his expression, “Doesn’t Billy help?”

“The Hilton Group’s status is not stable as well. The market share of the Hilton Group’s medical field drops rapidly. Soon, the Joseph’s Group has a variety of new medicine to be introduced and directly hit the Hilton Group.”

Bertie frowned, the Joseph’s Group had prepared for a long time and attacked abruptly...

It was dusk when Joseph left the campus. Once he came out, a few students gathered around him.

At the moment, Kathy was called by Mr Watson. She could see Joseph being gathered from far away.

He was outstanding, his handsome face was charming and he always showed his gentleness.

But for now, she found that she did not really understand him.

She used another path intentionally to reach the administrative building. Joseph’s sight fell on Kathy in a flash.

He frowned and left.

Joseph's gentle voice was heard.

Although they felt disappointed hearing his words, they still made a way for him.

Kathy walked in front, Joseph followed her at the back.

Zofia saw Kathy from far away and looked at Joseph who walked behind her. She quickly ran towards her, "Don't you say that you do not want to come?"

"I am crazy," Kathy could not explain about the action she did.

Zofia smiled deeply, "I know you want to see Joseph."

Joseph was just standing behind and heard the words too.

"Let's go back to the hostel," Kathy said.

"It is time to have dinner, let's go to eat first."

After that, Zofia dragged Kathy to the cafeteria.

Joseph also walked in when they sat down.

There were a lot of students surrounded him, helped him to order food and grabbed a seat for him.

When Kathy sat down, she found that there was only one table left.

So, Joseph would be using this table as well...

Zofia smiled, "Hey, you're so lucky. Everyone must envy of you because you can eat together with Joseph."

Kathy moved her lips, "Don't say nonsense, I think I should take away my food and eat it in my hostel."

"Tut-tut, are you afraid of Joseph?"

"No. I simply don't want to see him," Kathy lowered her head.

It was hard to control her emotion when facing him.

"You say you love him so much but why do you want to divorce?" Zofia exposed her thought.

After thinking for a while, "Don't tell me that it is because of Veronica?"

Kathy changed her expression, "We are not the right person for each other."

Chapter 340 Her Mind in Turmoil

Joseph kept on looking at the report in his hands.
Kathy was quick to leave however just as she reached the door, Joseph’s voice from behind said,
“Something fell.”
She stopped and then realized that when she took the phone her purse had fallen to the ground.
Joseph picked it up and saw that there was a picture inside.
Kathy paused and then grabbed it back almost immediately.
However Joseph had already seen the photo. It was of the back of him wearing a mask in the laboratory; however it definitely wasn’t taken recently.
It seemed to have been taken about half a year ago.
“Why are you looking at my things!” Kathy was angry.
She wanted to take her purse back, however Joseph raised his hand up so Kathy couldn’t reach it.
“Your things?” He frowned and then took out the photograph from the purse and continued to say,
“Then why do you have my photo?”
“I just forgot to take it out.”
“Really?” It was clear that Joseph didn’t believe her.
“Yes! Now please give it back!”
“Didn’t you say that there was nothing between us anymore? I am taking the photograph.” Joseph put the photo into his pocket.
Kathy paused and her eyes then flashed down to the photo that had disappeared into his pocket.
“Then can you now please give me back my purse?” She spread her hand open.
“Alright.”

After she got her purse she quickly left.

However it seemed that Joseph's warmth was still on the purse which she felt on her hand.

She opened the purse and saw that Joseph's photo was now gone forever.

It was empty.

She was not used to it.

Outside, when Bertie saw Kathy coming out, in a rather gentlemanly way he opened the door for her.

Kathy's expression remained unchanged as she was still thinking about Joseph.

When he took the photo out, he had such a cold attitude.

What was she still thinking about, wasn't this a good thing?

However inside she felt very uneasy.
