

Chapter 4 | Wronged You

Although the evidence is in front of her, she can't admit it! Or her life will be ruined.

"Grandpa, please, believe me!" She wants to defend herself, but Smith's eyes looked at her only with deep disappointment.

Tiana was really frightened, fearing that her ten-year-long flattery would go down the drain today.

"Grandpa, I really didn't do that! They..."

Smith took a deep breath, pressed his anger and sighed, "Go back to your room!"

Tiana knew Grandpa's temper and stopped saying anything. She immediately went back to her room.

Seeing Tiana was exposed, the man was so guilty that his forehead was sweating.

Smith looked at him coldly and ordered, "Get out of here! Don't ever show your face to me in A city again!"

"Okay... I will do it..."

The man left, and a farce finally ended.

Bena eyes still were filled with tears, she slowly from the bag out of a jewelry design draft altered many times handed to her grandfather.

This design draft was temporarily painted by her in the hotel. She already made amazing works in the last life, but unfortunately it was stolen.

That lead her to a lifetime of infamy.

"Grandpa, this is what I learned from Robles."

Smith came and took a look.

There are many marks of revision on the manuscript. Although the work is not perfect, it is also very novel and thoughtful.

Obviously, Bena didn't lie, because he didn't believe her.

Smith coughed and said faintly, "I wronged you."

Bena knew that in Grandpa's heart, Tiana was more compliant with him.

Otherwise, his punishment for Tiana would not be as simple as asking her to go back to her room.

Covering her disappointment, Bena shook her head and said, "Then I will go back to my room. Grandpa, you should pay attention to your health."

Then Bena turned and went upstairs.

Bena lay in bed thinking about many things.

The rebirth happened so suddenly that she faced a tough battle before she came to clear her mind.

Back to her miserable life in her previous life, her parents died one after another, and finally she was expelled from her house and died in the street.

There is too much hate and sadness in her heart, so she must plan well and fulfill her design dream in this life.

Thinking of this, she was too excited to sleep. She got out of bed, went to the bookcase for reading the design magazines she had bought before.

When she was studying in the design department of A University, she was forced to drop out of school afterwards. Now she has a chance to start over, and she must not miss it again.

As soon as she opened the magazine, she was attracted by a hard photo of a man on the inside page.

The man in the picture is dressed in a black haute couture handmade suit, wrapped in a strong figure.

Black hair is meticulously combed, and a pair of eagle-like sharp eyes look straight at the camera, and the unsmiling face makes people's hearts tremble.

The man in the photo is Galen!

He is really handsome and imposing!

Bena can't help but be shocked by this man.

Experienced the last life, of course now she knows the man, he is the only heir of the G's group, but instead he went to the army.

Although the T's family is a noble in A city, it is dwarfed by the G's family!

There is no intersection between the two families.

She vaguely remembers that there was a fashion designer named Zoe in the past life. After being married to Galen, she became a top master in the design field.

Bena touched the man in the photo with some envy.

Her fiance Robinson and Tiana have already hooked up with each other. In her previous life, she thought she had found the right husband. In the end, he was the heart breaker who was in cahoots with Tiana!

If she can become Galen's wife, wouldn't she be able to get rid of Robinson and never have to be afraid of Tiana or Tiana's mother bullying her again?

Bena couldn't help but have an idea coming to mind.

At this time, Tiana's room.

Tiana is crying to her mother Pamela.

Pamela was at a party with some rich ladies, but the servant called and said that Smith lost his temper with her precious daughter, so she hurried back to comfort Tiana.

After knowing what happened today, Pamela was very surprised. "Are these things really done by Bena?"

"Yes! I don't know what's wrong with her. She is totally different from her in the past! Mom, we must teach her a lesson!"

"All right, all right," Pamela obviously still not believing that Bena would become smart, thinking it was just a coincidence.

She soothed: "Bena has been pushed around by us for so many years. How can it be easy to change a man so quickly? I think it's just a coincidence."

Tiana still can't forget the way Bena spoiled Grandpa today.

"Mom, will Bena really change? and snatch back Robinson!"

When it comes to Robinson, they became very cautious.

You know, R's family is also a wealthy. If Tiana can marry to Robinson, There will be no one laugh at them, or say that Tiana is a drag!

"Well, dear daughter, don't worry, isn't your grandfather's eightieth birthday coming soon? At that time, do you think Bena still in such good luck?" Pamela said to Tiana with a plan.

That words made Tiana's worried face finally showed a gleam of joy.

She swore to herself that she would destroy Bena to pieces!
