Chapter 1021

“He won...”

Old Madam Quinn looked Samuel in the eye for two seconds before whispering back.

The Quinn family had mixed feelings.

Was this business war going to end with Sean winning?

“What do we do?”

Fion looked at Old Madam Quinn, her voice trembling.

“River City government has issued a statement saying they’re supporting Lennon Group.

“Many companies have signed up with Lennon Group.

“If we don’t make a choice, it’s probably going to be tough for... the Quinn family in River City!”

Simon’s father said with a sigh.

“What’s there to be afraid of? Didn’t Sean get where he is today because of Reach For Will Group?

“To put it bluntly, isn’t Sean only Reach For Will Group’s lackey?”

Faye was still unconvinced after thinking it through.

If it were before, everyone would have agreed.

However, no one spoke this time.

“So what even if he’s Reach For Will Group’s lackey?

“Do you think anyone can be Reach For Will Group’s lackey just because they want?

“Even the president’s guard is someone we need to respect. It’s a mark of Sean’s ability to have Reach For Will Group to depend on.”

The Quinn family had forced Willow to kick Sean out of the Quinn family that day.

Sean had said this before leaving.

"The Quinn family took me in. I'll remember this kindness.

“I’ll also remember the humiliation the Quinn family has done to me.

“As for this resentment, we call it even.

“From now on, I, Sean Lennon, do not owe and have nothing to do with the Quinn family.

“I only hope that you all will not regret it someday.”

Sean’s words echoed in Old Madam Quinn’s ears.

However, the Quinn family was disdainful, thinking Sean must have lost his mind.

Old Madam Quinn admitted that she regretted it!

“I should have realized the truth when Homer and the rest picked him up in their fancy car...

Old Madam Quinn mumbled to herself with remorse.

She remembered Sean holding a document that he said was a gift for Willow.

However, Sean later tore it to pieces.

Then Simon and the rest found Reach For Will Group’s stamp from the paper pieces.

However, no one cared at the time.

Old Madam Quinn recalled.

That document must have been a cooperation contract with Reach For Will Group.

Sean was giving it to Willow and the Quinn family.

He wanted to do something for the Quinn family.

However, what he got in return was a cold shoulder from them, and they even drove him out of the Quinn family.

The more Old Madam Quinn thought about it, the more she regretted it.

“He already showed what he’s capable of at the time.

“But I only saw the Zimmer family’s existing power...”

After a long wait, James finally met Damian.

Ever since the incident, James had been trying to make up for it.

However, he dared not let headquarters discover what had happened, so he could not use Souza River's connections either.

Even if he had contacted Cameron, it would not have made any difference with Colton involved.

Therefore, James decided to go with River City after thinking it through.

As director of the River City CIA, Damian was influential.

Things would not go wrong by choosing him.

"Director Wool, I had someone buy some coffee beans for you.

"It's nothing too fancy. Take it.

James slowly reached over and pushed a beautifully wrapped box of coffee beans up to Damian.

He came to see Damian today, and his assistant guards were all waiting outside.

However, Damian brought an assistant.

Therefore, there were only three of them in the room.

"Mr. Thomson, I don't drink coffee.

"Let's just get down to business."

“Mr. Thomson, what... what should we do?”

“Jen–Bond Holdings can’t just pull out, can it?”

“What will the Zimmer family do if you leave...”

Jon freaked out after hearing James’ statement.

If Jen–Bond Holdings decided to withdraw from River City, the Zimmer family’s destruction would be inevitable.

After all, the Zimmer family was nothing if Jen–Bond Holdings could not compete with Sean.

“What’s the hurry?”

“I went to talk to Sean in the afternoon.

“We’ll talk about the rest later.

“Even if I’m leaving, I’ll make arrangements for the Zimmer family.”

James waved his hand and stepped into his car.

“Okay! Okay!”

Jon felt a little relieved.

“But don’t take matters into your own hands until I’ve made the arrangements.”

James spoke again once they entered the car.

“Yes, yes, yes!”

Not daring to refuse, Jon and Quill only nodded.

They had no way out but to hold on to James.

“Mr. Thomson, what do you want with me instead of working on your own company?”

Sean turned around slowly, his eyes playful.

“Hmph!”

James snorted coldly, upset.

If his plan worked, he would be speaking to Sean like a victor over the loser.

However, the reality was the opposite of his plan.

“I wanted to see you for something.”

James pulled a chair over and sat down.

Damian told him some things, but he was still reluctant.

It was why he took the liberty of talking to Sean.

“Go ahead.”

Sean said calmly with his back against the floor-to-ceiling window.

“I want to work with the Lennon Group.”

James spoke his mind without wasting any time.

“Of course, we have a condition.”

James glanced at Sean with a sneer.

“Tell me about it.”

Harry paused and nodded gently.

“I think our cooperation will be affected if Sean is around.

“So I advise you to remove Sean from the company, Mr. Clarke.”

The more James spoke, the smugger he looked.

He could compromise, only if Sean dies!

“Are you asking me to get rid of him?”

Harry looked like he had no idea whether to laugh or cry.

“Yes!”

James froze slightly before nodding carefully.

Harry shook his head slightly. Sean did say a third party understands the situation better.

It seemed it was true.

“Who am I?”

The deep voice on the other end of the line asked again.

“I... I...

“Mr... Mr. Zook... I didn’t know it was you...”

James held the phone in both hands and put it to his ear as he spoke obsequiously, nodding and bowing.

He had no idea that Sean would be able to get in touch with the big shot at Jen–Bond Holdings!

Mr. Zook was not only James’s immediate superior but also a major shareholder of Jen- Bond Holdings.

Mr. Zook was responsible for Jen–Bond Holdings’ expansion in River City.

“Say no more.

“Not only did you not report the whole thing immediately, but you kept it from me.

“Are you going to keep it a secret if I never asked?”

Mr. Zook’s question made James’ forehead drip with sweat.

It was not that he did not want to report it, but he was scared!

Jen–Bond Holdings had made a lot of effort to take over River City.

They spent money, manpower, and material resources. They had also used a lot of connections and owed many favors.

Many people at the headquarters wanted to take over this task.

“I see.

“We’ll be in touch later!”

James was silent for a few seconds before turning away with his men.

His only option now was to get out of River City unscathed.

The only way to get out of River City unscathed was to finish the last thing arranged by Sean.

James had no choice now.

After James and the others had left, Zander reentered the office.

“Commander, are you letting him go?”

Zander asked, looking at Sean with some confusion..

“Yeah.”

Sean nodded gently.

He would not let the Zimmer family off the hook.

However, he had no choice but to let James go.

“James is with Jen–Bond Holdings.

“It has been difficult for us to get to this point.

“To fight further would be against my original intention, and we will end up going against some of Janestown’s forces.

It was hard for him to imagine that a young man in his twenties had managed to defeat Jen

-Bond Holdings.

When they thought they were taking over River City, Sean struck them so hard that they had to surrender.

"Mr. Zook, shall I look into him?"

The assistant thought for a moment and asked in a whisper.

"Yes.

"But first, I want you to come with me to meet the big boss.

"I dare not hide such a big issue."

Mr. Zook was troubled as he got up and walked outside.

The assistant behind him also hurried to follow.

River City.

A day passed.

Lennon Group had taken over the entire River City business circle.

The Summers family and the Larson family also got satisfactory returns.

Sean had always been generous and never stingy with people on his side.

The reward he gave them was even more than they expected.

Monetary profit was secondary.

Most importantly, Sean gave them an infinitely bright future.

As long as they clung to Sean from now on, the River City government, any other River City company, and affluent families would have to be respectful to them.

It satisfied them the most.

Jon was expecting Sean to taunt them.

However, they had been overthinking. Sean did not care about them at all.

Sean returned to his villa in Golden Villa Garden after handling everything.

Things were settling down for Lennon Group.

He had something good waiting for him tomorrow.

Candy were reading a comic book in the villa.

Chapter 1030

There was dead silence in the living room as soon as he spoke.

Kent, Willow, and Leah looked at Sean.

Even young Candy remained silent, staring at Sean with her big, beautiful eyes.

Sean's offer was not only absurd, but he was trying to ruin the Quinn family!

80% of the shares!

If they gave Sean that, Quinn Corporation would probably have to change its name.

Anyone knew without hesitation that the Quinn family would never accept that.

Old Madam Quinn and the rest could apologize to Willow for the Quinn family's future.

However, he could forget about them handing over 80% of their shares.

Even if Old Madam Quinn agreed, Samuel and the rest would refuse.

Therefore, Kent thought Sean was trying to make him back out!

However, Old Madam Quinn gave him the task.

If he backed down, the Quinn family's future would be uncertain.

As a descendant of the Quinn family, he did not want to see the Quinn family go down in flames even if Old Madam Quinn would not include him in family functions.

"Sean, that's a lot..."

Kent was silent for a while before looking up at Sean.
