Chapter 1321

“Who is he?”

“I’ve never met him. He’s so young!”

“Could he be some company’s heir? But why have I never met him?”

“Yeah, there are a couple of big shots surnamed Lennon in Joules Town, but I’ve never met... this Mr. Lennon.”

Numerous real estate industry leaders, both men and women, were shocked.

They never met Sean and did not know what Sean’s background was.

“I’m sorry I’m late.

“Please forgive me.

With everyone watching, Sean slowly stepped toward the seat at the front.

Everyone chose to remain silent until they found out about Sean’s background.

“Dad, defeat him!”

Jane snorted coldly, her eyes disdainful.

Jimmy gave Weston a look.

“1.6 billion.”

Weston immediately raised the bidding paddle and increased the price again.

“Go on.”

Sean glanced at Jeffrey and said indifferently.

That look alone gave Jeffrey a jolt of confidence.

“1.7 billion!”

Jeffrey raised the bidding paddle and shouted.

Sean and Zander continued walking.

“1.8 billion!”

Jimmy grimly gripped the bidding paddle and raised the price.

“Keep up.”

Sean said again and slowly took his seat in the front row.

“1.9 billion!”

Jeffrey continued to raise the price.

“Two billion!”

“It's so irritating!”

Jane's face was a little pale with anger.

Although Jimmy was scheming and calm, Sean managed to shake him.

It was obvious that Sean was going against Billion Trees Real Estate!

If Sean overpowered it today, how was Billion Trees Real Estate going to get by in the future?

Besides that, Jimmy had everything planned for the land, and it had to be his.

With that in mind, Jimmy took the bidding paddle and continued bidding.

“Mr. Lidell!”

The assistant behind Jimmy grabbed Jimmy’s arm.

“Let go.”

Jimmy’s face was gloomy.

“Mr. Lidell, this has exceeded our budget.

“If you make another bid, the company...”

The assistant did not finish his sentence, but he believed Jimmy must be aware of the seriousness of the matter.

Billion Trees Real Estate could afford billions of dollars.

Besides “Billion Trees Real Estate“, many real estate tycoons here could afford three billion dollars.

However, it was three billion.

Some people could easily afford it without impacting themselves negatively.

However, they might have to give up many projects and sell many assets to gather that kind of money.

Billion Trees Real Estate had just launched two projects.

If they spent more than three billion dollars now, it would bring the company into a serious financial crisis.

Therefore, the assistant and Weston tried to persuade Jimmy to stop.

“Let me go!”

However, Jimmy was almost out of his mind now.

However, he could only endure the indignity no matter how aggrieved he felt.

Even if he sold all of Billion Trees Real Estate's assets, he could never raise five billion.

Therefore, he had to watch Sean take away the land.

"Mr. Lidell, make a bid!"

Standing next to Sean, Zander added playfully.

Jimmy's face went red. He had never been more embarrassed.

The last time he was embarrassed was in River City when he went to the groundbreaking ceremony for a development area and got stopped outside the door.

It was because of Sean at that time.

It was also because of Sean this time.

Jimmy's anger was surging inside him.

The entire Joules Town’s real estate industry probably knew Sean and Lennon Real Estate now!

Jimmy wanted to slap himself twice at the thought of it

He not only helped Sean out but also gave Sean a chance to make his company famous.

Jimmy suddenly realized that all he was doing was helping Sean out.

The more Jimmy thought about it, the angrier he got. He got up Weston, Jane, and the rest glared at Sean and headed outside.

Jeffrey scratched the back of his head.

He did not quite understand Sean's statement.

"Commander, I know money is just a number to you.

"But this is more than a billion dollars!"

The more Jeffrey thought about it, the more his heart ached.

It was a billion dollars, not a dozen dollars. 1

For a lot of people, they might never be able to make 100 million dollars in one lifetime, two lifetimes, or even ten lifetimes.

Sean wasted more than one billion dollars today. How could Jeffrey's heart not break?

Jeffrey knew Sean was deliberately crushing Billion Trees Real Estate with such a tough move.

However, it was unnecessary to spend five billion.

"Remember, Jeffrey.

"People don't just live for money.

"But you need money if you want to survive.

"Money is the master key to everything."

Sean whispered back as he walked.

Jeffrey nodded in agreement after a few seconds of silence.

There was a time when he had no concept of money and thought it was all right as long as it was enough.

However, he had learned the importance of money since he was discharged.

The question was why Sean wasted money like this when he knew it was important.

"You'll see later."

Sean looked at the crowd around him and casually replied without further explanation.

Jeffrey froze for two seconds before nodding gently.

Sean did not explain to him why he spent so much money.

Chapter 1326

When a person displayed so much strength that people could only look up to them, no one would be curious about his identity.

Everyone would try to suck up to him and get on good terms with him.

Just like many relatives and friends. When you were not much better than them, they would envy you or even hate you.

However, when you were a hundred times better than them, and they could never catch up with you, the jealousy would turn into flattery.

It was Sean's current state.

These rich businessmen around him did not care who he was or where he got his money.

All they needed to know was that they would have a powerful friend if they were on good terms with Sean.

At the very least, once Sean's land got underway, the building materials business alone could support a million major building materials companies.

Therefore, who would not want to be on good terms with Sean?

Sean did not reject anyone.

He accepted everyone's toast and business cards.

He was not arrogant or thought he was better than everyone else.

It made everyone there comfortable.

Anyhow, everyone enjoyed the meal.

The rich businessmen and big shots would remember Sean from this day on.

“Mr Lennon, someone wants to see you.”

As the banquet drew to a close, the beautiful woman in a gown who hosted the auction strode over to Sean

A smile appeared on Sean’s lips. He knew the real deal had arrived.

There was no shortage of smart people in this world.

People might think Sean was a fool to spend five billion dollars to buy land.

However, there was a saying that amateurs would look on while experts would recognize what was going.

Was Sean trying to subdue Billion Trees Real Estate?

“I like to deal with smart people.

“Five billion is a lot.”

Zane first expressed his approval of Sean before finally getting down to business.

“Is it? So be it.”

Sean smiled and shook his head. If he could not afford that price, why would Zane take the initiative to meet him?

“Mr. Lennon, a government-led auction is different from a private auction.”

Zane said to Sean while pouring coffee.

Something led by the government was of course unlike something private.

In a private auction, the higher the price, the better. Even if it was 10 billion, would accept it.

However, the auction led by the government was more to better develop Joules Town.

Generating money for the government was secondary

After all, achievements were more important than money.

They got to know each other pretty well.

They did not waste time talking nonsense but got straight to their requirements.

One was rich and needed development; the other was powerful and wanted achievements.

It was a great fit.

“I want Lennon Real Estate to be the best in Joules Town.”

Sean sat up slowly and said calmly.

Swoosh!

Zane trembled as he poured coffee and looked up at Sean.

He had no idea how ambitious Sean was.

However, it was not up to Zane.

Zane could help Lennon Real Estate be the best in Joules Town.

However, it took a good blacksmith to make steel. If Lennon Real Estate was incapable of performing, it was pointless.

“Do you understand what you’re saying?”

Zane put down the coffee pot and narrowed his eyes as he looked at Sean.

“Old Master, that’s him.”

Hubert nodded gently, also surprised.

He could not imagine where Sean got all this money.

Old Master Collins got increasingly surprised after getting Hubert’s confirmation.

“In his former position, money and power were easily available to him.

“But where did he get the money now that he has been discharged?”

Old Master Collins put down his coffee cup slowly, and many ideas appeared in his head.

After all, a man who had lived most of his life like him had met many people and things.

Sometimes they would subconsciously think too much about a simple little thing and make it complicated.

“Old Master, shall I have it looked into?”

Hubert was silent for a moment before asking quietly.

“No! No!”

Old Master Collins stopped Hubert with a slight wave of his hand.

“What’s the matter?”

Hubert was puzzled.

Old Master Collins picked up his coffee cup again and took a sip.

Hubert glanced at Old Master Collins, nodded gently, and did not ask further questions.

“Did you just say the boy Sean bid five billion dollars?”

Old Master Collins pondered for a few seconds before looking up and asking.

“Yes, I’m sure it’s five billion dollars.”

Hubert nodded again. He would not have reported to Old Master Collins if he was not sure.

“He’s clever!”

Old Master Collins pondered for a moment before praising.

It surprised Hubert, who had rarely seen Old Master Collins speak highly of anyone.

However, the point was Hubert could not figure out why Old Master Collins called him clever.

“Clever?”

Hubert frowned, puzzled.

“I wish he’d show us what he’s capable of.

“But Joules Town is a tough place to be.”

Old Master Collins nodded gently before replying with a wave of his hand.

What Sean did this time surprised him.

However, with Old Master Collins’ experience, Sean had only just caught his eye now.

“That’s true. What happened this time has only made everyone know about Lennon Real Estate.

“We don’t know how much he can do yet.”

Hubert nodded in agreement.

“Never mind him.

“If he’s capable, I won’t leave him alone.”

Old Master Collins waved his hand slightly with a meaningful tone.

Who would go to so much trouble if they would not gain anything from it?

Having lived so long, Old Master Collins knew it better.

He was not against helping Sean, but he hoped he would get what he wanted once he did.

However, Sean did not have what it took yet.

“Yes!

“By the way, Old Master, you said the big shot surnamed Lupin would be here in a few days.

“I’ve been thinking about it for a long time. Is there a big shot surnamed Lupin in Janestown?”

Recalling it, Hubert asked again in a whisper.

“Life has been too easy for you lately, has it?”

Old Master Collins asked Hubert, frowning slightly.

“Well...”

Hubert was puzzled at first. Then he carefully studied Old Master Collins’ sentence.

“Old Master, could the person you’re saying... saying...”

Hubert did not finish speaking.
