Chapter 1361

“What’s this, Mr. Lidell?”

Weston quickly asked Jimmy when he noticed something wrong with his expression.

“B*stard! Do these people have a death wish?”

Jimmy grabbed a document and threw it out.

Swoosh!

A large pile of papers fell in the air.

Weston grabbed one of them and was shocked as soon as he saw it.

The words “Notice of termination” caught his eye.

“Notice of termination, notice of cancellation, unilateral termination of contract...”

Weston flipped through the documents on the floor like a maniac.

Every one of them was a unilateral termination contract.

The more Weston looked, the wider his eyes grew, and the more horrified he became.

He finally understood why Jimmy was so mad.

A real estate company could not take care of everything by itself.

They could not operate fully without working with a lot of companies.

For example, building materials companies for construction and companies that provided construction crews.

They needed construction materials, workers for construction, and so on.

No matter how strong Billion Trees Real Estate was, there was no way they would create a company just because it needed something.

Therefore, they cooperated with other companies on many things to ensure the smooth operation of a project.

However, the companies they worked with sent in unilateral termination contracts.

How else was Billion Trees Real Estate going to operate?

“B*stards!

“They begged me to work with them.

“How dare they do this?”

Jimmy was shaking with anger as he slammed on the table.

“Mr. Lidell, this must be Sean’s trick.”

“Commander, Jimmy must be scratching his head in a panic right now.”

Zander said respectfully from behind.

“No, it’s not enough.”

Sean shook his head slightly.

There was no way such a simple measure could bring down Billion Trees Real Estate so soon.

Besides that, it was not just luck that made Billion Trees Real Estate survive for so long.

They could deal with public relations crises.

Therefore, Sean could not achieve his purpose with this move alone.

“Jimmy is capable of growing Billion Trees Real Estate to what it is today.

“But does he think that’s all I can do?”

Sean said, and the smile on the corners of his mouth grew increasingly thoughtful.

Since arriving in River City, everything he had done in the business circle was well thought out.

Some things looked stupid and a waste of time to others.

Only Sean knew what he was doing.

“You must have done what I asked you to do the other day.”

Sean asked casually, looking ahead.

“Commander, which... which one?”

Zander asked sheepishly.

Since Sean arrived in Joules Town, he had asked Zander to do many things.

Zander had no idea which one Sean was talking about.

“The one with Billion Trees.”

Sean hinted quietly.

“Do you mean the one where you asked me to contact Billion Trees Real Estate’s construction team?”

Zander froze before coming to himself immediately.

“Yes! I’ve done everything just as you asked.”

Zander nodded quickly and reported earnestly.

“I don’t know. They just bypassed the real estate company and came to us...”

The secretary whispered, gritting her teeth.

“Come on, let’s go downstairs to check it out.”

Jimmy was still confused.

In front of Billion Trees Real Estate’s headquarters building.

More and more people gathered here and had unfurled banners.

Many people were watching.

“Bro, what’s going on? Are you a tenant of Beauty Lake Town?”

A middle-aged man asked in the crowd of onlookers.

“Yes! You too?”

“Don’t you know construction has been on pause for a long time?”

“They have already delayed delivering our units, which is considered a breach of contract. Without workers, when can they deliver it?”

“Billion Trees Real Estate’s going to run with our money!”

The young man, who was chanting just now, said to the middle-aged man.

“What?”

The middle-aged man froze and soon joined the crowd condemning Billion Trees Real Estate.

As the crowd of onlookers grew larger, reporters from various media outlets rushed to cover the event. Things went from bad to worse.

“Be quiet! Be quiet!

“Mr. Lidell, the chairman of Billion Trees Real Estate, is here.

“You can ask him whatever you want.”

Just then, Jimmy stepped out with a group of people.

He also brought nearly ten bodyguards, just in case.

“Why did you stop working on the units we bought?”

“Is it true that you’re going to run away with our money, leaving the building unfinished?”

Countless people spoke, and Jimmy’s scalp tingled.

Several senior executives were also worried.

However, there was nothing they could do now.

There were two things. One was the contract termination with several companies they were working with.

Even Jimmy could not fix it, let alone them.

The second was the negative impact caused by the owners making a scene now.

That left their company's public relations people to sort it out.

They could not get involved either.

"Mr. Lidell, why don't you call Sean?"

Weston was silent for a few seconds before looking up and suggesting.

"Call him?"

"Why should I call him?"

Jimmy's face was full of disdain.

"I think we should keep him away first.

"Then we can fight back."

Weston pondered for two seconds before saying again.

"Are you f*cking kidding me?"

Jimmy could not help cursing.

Although he tried to suppress his emotions, Zander's offer made him furious.

There was no way he would sell Billion Trees Real Estate.

Even if he were to sell it, he would not sell it for only two billion dollars!

Billion Trees Real Estate's total value was worth more than three billion dollars.

Things like social resources could not be measured in terms of money.

Was buying it for two billion dollars not a joke?

"What's the matter? Are you unhappy with the price?"

Zander asked calmly with a faint smile.

"Of course not."

Jimmy replied with a cold snort. 1.5 billion dollars then."

Zander paused as he decreased the price by 25%.

Jimmy quickly asked, his eyes wide.

"Do you want me to tell you why?"

Mr. Evans asked with a slight frown after glancing at Jimmy.

Swoosh!

Jimmy's face went pale instantly.

He knew how Billion Trees Real Estate earned its fortune over the years.

Shoddy construction and cutting corners were nothing.

He knew very well the quality of the buildings he built.

Everything was fine if the higher-ups did not look into it,

However, once they started, they would find out everything.

However, there were many ways to make the construction quality look up to standard.

Therefore, Jimmy did not see any big problem with it.

He had spent a lot of money to clear the dirt on Billion Trees Real Estate over the years.

He could not think of any reason for them to shut down their building.

Jimmy rubbed his nose and suddenly remembered something.

Mr. Evans seemed to be on good terms with Ray.

Ray and Sean were close friends.

With that in mind, Jimmy instantly understood Sean had hired them to go after Billion Trees Real Estate!

Jimmy sneered and figured it out.

Zander made Jeffrey handle it all.

Having someone else handle everything, Sean had a lot of free time.

He spent a lot of time with Patrick’s daughter, Helen.

“It’s better to spend time with children than to fight and kill

On the way back, Sean smiled and looked out of the window.

“Uncle Sean, did my dad use to be great?”

Helen was holding a doll as she asked seriously.

“Of course.

“Your father is a hero

“Dragon Kingdom enjoys stability, peace, and security because of heroes like your father, who gave up their lives for it.”

Sean stopped smiling and turned to look at Helen. His voice and eyes were serious.

He meant it. There was nothing fake about it.

“My father is really good!

“Uncle Sean, you’re great!”

Helen was young. Perhaps she could not fully understand what Sean meant.

However, she understood the word “Hero”.

Sean reached out and rubbed Helen’s head without saying another word.

“Commander, I don’t think you’re bringing them down because Jimmy offended you.

“Besides Patrick, it’s also the nonsense Billion Trees has done, right?”

Zander whispered as he drove.

During this time, Zander and Sean learned from Jeffrey’s investigation report what Billion Trees Real Estate had done.

You could say Billion Trees Real Estate prospered entirely by cheating.

Countless people had spent their entire life savings, emptied their family’s savings, and waited in hope for the house to be delivered.

They only wanted a place in this city and their own home.

However, Billion Trees Real Estate fooled them and forced them to compromise with some foul tricks.

However, they were rich and powerful. Ordinary people could not beat them.

They could only let them walk all over them.

The living room was silent.

Sean was calm while Henry widened his eyes.

Jimmy was very good at reading people. He immediately slammed the table and got up when he noticed something wrong with Henry’s expression.

“Why did you say that?”

Henry asked coldly after being silent for a while.

“You know better than I do how Billion Trees Real Estate is, don’t you?”

“How dare you ask me why when you have been their backer and ruined so many people?”

“Didn’t that old man Casper not raise you properly?”

Sean leaned forward slowly, and Henry’s face darkened as he spoke.

Bang!

Jimmy slapped his hand on the coffee table before pointing at Sean.

“Sean, do you really have a death wish?

“How dare you call Mr. Zackman’s father by his name?”

Jimmy flaunted his powerful connections.

However, Sean only glanced at Jimmy before slowly looking away.

In his current mindset, an opponent like Jimmy was not worth his breath.

Therefore, Sean looked calmly into Henry’s eyes.

“I’m talking to you. Are you really looking for trouble?”

Jimmy looked at Sean and snapped with a frown.

“Sit down.”

Henry took a deep breath and stopped Jimmy.

After all, he had a reputation to maintain. He would not allow Sean and Jimmy to make a scene here.

However, Jimmy thought Henry only pretended to stop him.

After all, Old Master Zackman was Henry’s father. How could Henry not be mad that a young man like Sean called Casper by his first name?

Therefore, Jimmy thought Henry must have pretended to stop him.

Was there someone better at medicine than Leonard?

Besides that, Leonard said the person was a true miracle doctor.

Then their medical skill must be miraculous!

"Dr. Wester, please have a seat. Let's talk about it properly!"

Henry rubbed his palms together as he invited Leonard into the living room.
