Chapter 1401

“Who do you think you are?”

Gunther asked as he narrowed his eyes and looked at Zander.

“Because I’m Sean Lennon.

“Is that not enough?”

Sean slowly looked up at Gunther and asked in reply.

“Sean Lennon?”

“Sorry, I wouldn’t have known you existed if you hadn’t joined the auction.”

Gunther lost his temper and responded with a sneer.

“Do you have a death wish?”

Zander was upset when he saw Gunther’s attitude toward Sean.

“So what if I am?”

“Lennon Real Estate made a big deal about bringing down Billion Trees Real Estate.

“A few days have passed, but isn’t the Billion Trees Real Estate building still standing tall?”

Gunther reached out the window to the Billion Trees Real Estate building across the street, where lights were all lit up.

The sky outside was getting darker, and the lights of the Billion Trees Real Estate building were all the more dazzling.

“You’ve made your threat.

“But I don’t see you bringing down any companies either!

“Why don’t you introduce us, Mr. Lennon?”

Gunther withdrew their arms and folded them across his chest with some scorn on his face.

Everyone else smiled playfully too.

Lennon Real Estate made one threat after another, but Billion Trees Real Estate was still safe and sound.

The companies that partnered with Billion Trees Real Estate were also doing well.

They found it ridiculous, of course.

Bang!

Just then, the private room door was flung open.

Before anyone could react, two middle-aged men in suits walked in hurriedly.

“Mr. Lennon, well...”

The two middle-aged men were instantly dumbstruck.

Sean had just said it was good that they recognized their mistake, yet he did not forgive them.

What did that mean?

“Mr. Lennon, we don’t know what you mean.

“Please give us some hints...”

One of the middle-aged men whispered.

“Leave.

“I invited Mr. Joller and the rest to dinner today.

“I don’t want to be disturbed by outsiders.”

Sean waved his hand, uninterested in continuing the conversation.

Sean invited them to dinner, but they did not show up, which was not a big deal.

However, the point was that it meant differently at this point.

If you did not come, it meant you did not take Sean seriously.

Sean happened to use the two as a warning to others.

The two of them happened to have themselves to blame for the trouble.

“Mr. Lennon, we’re sorry.”

“Please give us a chance. We won’t do it again!”

“Let me ask you again.

“How are you going to choose?”

Sean asked, tapping on the table and looking at the crowd.

The crowd looked at each other and saw the hesitation in each other’s eyes.

They did not hesitate to reject Sean when he first asked such a thing.

However, none of them dared be the first to say no.

Even Gunther fell silent.

“Will we be brought down if we don’t choose Lennon Real Estate?”

Gunther was the first to speak after a moment’s silence.

“What do you think?”

Sean asked again in reply with an amused expression.

“That’s right!

“Either you submit yourselves or get brought down.

“In a word, those who follow us will prosper, and those who oppose us will perish!”

Without waiting for Gunther to speak, Sean added bluntly.

Hearing Sean’s arrogant speech, everyone was shocked..

If Sean had been subtle earlier, he now made no secret of his ambition!

He told everyone that they either leave Billion Trees and cooperate with Lennon Real Estate or have Lennon Real Estate bring them down.

Anyway, the three of their companies joining forces could not be much worse.

They did not believe Sean could bring down their three companies and Billion Trees Real Estate.

“I see you’ve made your choice.”

Sean glanced at the group of seven and nodded gently.

All seven had expressed their attitudes.

Except for Gunther and the two, everyone else was on Sean’s side.

“Sean, don’t get ahead of yourself.

“Our three companies have the closest relationship with Billion Trees Real Estate.

“If you touch us, Billion Trees Real Estate will never stand idly by. Unless you want to kill yourself!”

Gunther snorted coldly, his voice threatening.

“Billion Trees Real Estate?

“They’re on their own. Do you think Jimmy will save you?”

There was a hint of disdain on the corner of Sean’s lips.

It was as though the business district was brightly lit like daylight.

However, the blinding police lights were eye-catching.

Swoosh!

Gunther got up and went to the window to watch.

There were about eight cars—all of which had stopped in front of the Billion Trees Real Estate building's entrance.

Besides that, the eight cars belonged to three divisions of the government.

These three divisions were responsible for overseeing the business circle.

Industry and commerce, tax administration, market supervision and management... Gunther and the rest were nervous when they saw these government staff.

It was because no one could start a company without some dirt and illegal practices.

In short, no one could get that rich without taking some crooked ways.

They were safe when they did not check, but they would find something if they checked them.

Today, these three divisions came to Billion Trees Real Estate at the same time, and why?

The assistant was so nervous that he stuttered.

"Nothing will be as important right now! F*ck off!"

Jimmy shouted exasperatedly, pointing to the door.

There was the call of nature, but Jimmy's urgent issue could not wait.

How could Jimmy not be furious that his assistant stopped him when he was about to have his way?

"But, Mr. Lidell, it's..."

The assistant stood still, trying to speak.

However, Jimmy interrupted him again as soon as he spoke.

"I told you to get the f*ck out of here!

"Didn't you f*cking hear me?"

Jimmy shouted as he slammed his hand on the table and pointed at his assistant.

He was so furious that the veins in his neck bulged.

“Fine! I’ll leave.”

The assistant’s face darkened before he turned and walked out.

Jimmy would not let him talk, so he did what he wanted.

Anyway, the worst thing that would happen was him losing a job, but Jimmy would lose a lot of things.

“That b*stard!

Jimmy was still a little mad after his assistant left.

However, he soon calmed down.

"Are you kidding?"

"What are you arresting me for?"

Jimmy asked, frowning slightly and taking a drag on his cigar.

"Mr. Lidell, we have enough evidence since we came.

“So let’s not waste each other’s time. What do you think?”

The staff was polite.

However, Jimmy snorted coldly, his face full of disdain.

“Evidence? What evidence?”

“What did I do to get arrested when I’m only running my company well?”

Jimmy leaned against his desk, confident.

“Isn’t this what Billion Trees did?

“Do I have to tell you everything one by one?”

The middle-aged man picked up a pile of papers and slammed them in Jimmy’s face.

This pile of papers was all about Billion Trees Real Estate.

There were even clear photos.

It was all evidence!

When Jimmy saw this, his cigar fell to the ground with a splat.

There was instantly a hole in the expensive cashmere carpet, and the pungent smell of burning followed.

Jimmy’s heart beat faster.

He knew he was late.

Although he and Henry were on good terms, they were only friends.

Jimmy had helped Old Madam Zackman find a traditional doctor, which relieved many of Old Madam Zackman's symptoms.

Henry remembered his kindness, so he was nice to Jimmy.

However, Henry never accepted anything from Jimmy.

Besides that, while helping Jimmy, he only told him about some business opportunities in advance rather than covering for him.

Therefore, there was nothing Jimmy could do if Henry would not help Jimmy.

"I want to make a phone call. I want to make a phone call!"

Jimmy's palms were shaking uncontrollably.

"Hello, I'm Jimmy Lidell!"

As soon as the call came through, Jimmy exposed his identity.

"I'm sorry. Give me a chance. I won't do it again. I'm willing to work with Lennon Real Estate!"

Jimmy apologized and begged for mercy before the other party could speak.

It meant they had found sufficient evidence of crime against Billion Trees Real Estate!

Gunther and the rest went a little pale at that moment.

“Oh? Isn’t that the owner of Billion Trees Real Estate?”

“It’s him. Didn’t he hold a press conference yesterday and the day before yesterday?”

“Yes, he also said he’ll solve the problem with the unfinished buildings. How did he end up being arrested?”

“D*mn it! Good job! My uncle bought their property, and their property management division beat him up and put him in the hospital.”

Countless people around discussed.

Besides that, many people even applauded.

Billion Trees Real Estate had done so many things against reason and nature.

However, they had a lot of money and connections, so they suppressed it in the end.

At best, they paid money to settle things.
