Chapter 1431

Meanwhile, after listening in on the conversation up to here, Sean already understood that Ken had done this on purpose!

He must have recognized Sean's car and decided to block it intentionally.

"It seems like Bingley didn't tell you what happened that day."

Sean shook his head lightly. If Bingley had told Ken the truth, Ken would not dare to offend him right now.

"Hoho, do you really think so highly about yourself?"

"Mr. Hommer just doesn't want to do anything to you. Do you really think that he's afraid of you?"

Ken sneered. He did not take Sean seriously at all.

That day, Bingley had just told him that he was not allowed to do anything to Queen Children's Orphanage since Sean was not feeling well.

He did not tell him anything else.

Therefore, Ken was clueless about the fact that Sean knew Henry.

"Don't talk nonsense.

"Move your car away right now."

Sean said firmly. He did not want to waste his time talking to Ken.

"Haha, I'm not free.

"How persistent. Go ahead and teleport over.

"Why don't you let me hit your car? Haha!"

Ken smiled smugly. He then hung up on the call immediately.

"Oh!"

The hundreds of people surrounding them took in a sharp intake of breath.

Right then, the side of the luxury sports car was severely deformed. There was a deep dent in the door of the car.

The car window had shattered due to the collision as well.

Even the tires of the car were completely ruined. They were all out of shape after the collision.

Meanwhile, the front of Sean's car was also deformed after the collision.

However, none of the people watching the scene pitied Sean's car.

That was because the price of Sean's car was most likely below that of one of the tires on Ken's car.

Plenty of people pitied Ken's luxury sports car when they saw a car that cost several hundred thousand dollars turn into scrap metal after the collision.

However, Sean's expression remained unchanged. He did not seem to feel any pity in the slightest.

He pulled on the reverse gear and stepped on the accelerator once again.

Screech!

Wham! Crash!

The cars collided with each other for the third time.

This time, Ken's car got pushed a few meters away in a horizontal position.

"Oh gosh!"

Caitlyn widened her eyes and reached out her hand to cover her mouth. She could not bring herself to say anything at the moment.

A lot of people watching the scene had stunned expressions on their faces as well.

"F*ck you!"

Ken shouted out in rage and rushed toward the car rapidly.

"Put in your stuff."

Sean called out to Caitlyn as he drove the car over and opened the car boot calmly. "Huh?"

Caitlyn was still yet to recover her senses from the huge shock that she had experienced.

Sean had just done such a wild thing. Could he still remain calm right now?

Was he really not afraid that the owner of the car would take revenge on him?

Sean did not even spare him a glance. He then met the attacks of the remaining bodyguards.

Bang!

“Ah! Whoosh! Ouch!”

Crash!

Sean rushed into the crowd with a black rubber baton in hand. He swung the rubber baton at the men around him with casual movements.

The regular rubber baton seemed to transform into a ruthless sword in his hands. The moment it was aimed at someone, that person would fall to the ground immediately.

No one could evade his attacks.

No one could withstand his attacks as well.

The dozens of security guards started falling one after another.

However, they might not even have been able to touch Sean’s clothes once.

The audience was stunned as they watched how easily Sean was defeating Ken’s security guards.

Everyone present could not help but gape their mouths. They were all stunned and at a loss for words. A dozen of strong adult men had weapons in their hands.

However, Sean moved the rubber baton extremely easily. It was as if he was conducting an orchestra. "If he did not hit that sports car with his car, I would've thought that they were filming a movie."

"Yes, it really looks like they're filming a movie."

The surrounding onlookers were all beyond shocked when they saw Sean hitting the dozen of men to the ground with a few casual moves.

A lot of people even thought that they were filming a movie.

However, who would allow someone else to hit their luxury sports car that cost several hundred thousand dollars to this extent just for the filming of a movie?

Therefore, this was not the filming of a movie at all. It was something that had actually happened before their eyes.

Sean's capabilities were just that terrifying.

Crash!

The last security guard fell to the ground. The dozens of men had all been defeated by Simon.

Ken widened his eyes. His gaze was full of shock.

His heart could not help but tremble violently when he heard the dozens of bodyguards shouting out for their parents while seated on the ground.

Ken spoke to the person on the other end of his phone. He then saw Timothy's car

"Dad, you're here!"

Ken greeted him at once.

Ken came over to the shopping mall today because Timothy had called him over

Timothy told Ken that he was working on some handover procedures and he needed Ken's signature on some documents.

That was because this shopping mall was under Ken's name.

"How has business been today?"

Timothy asked the crowd outside his car while sitting in his car

"Business has been pretty good.

"We've been holding a promotional event here these past couple of days."

The chauffeur nodded lightly.

"Hurry up and head over.

"We've just agreed to collaborate with Lennon Group. We must show them some sincerity.

"Otherwise, the benefits we gain will definitely be way below theirs in the future."

Timothy nodded. He then urged him on.

"Mr Wallace, we've collaborated with so many companies before.

"As the first party in the contract, the other party usually concedes to our wishes.

"You've been giving in to Lennon Group far too much."

The chauffeur shook his head lightly He found it rather difficult to understand what Timothy was talking about.

"You don't understand.

"Lennon Real Estate can't compare to those small companies.

“Just wait and see. Lennon Real Estate will definitely be a force to be reckoned with among the business circle of Joules Town.

“If the company wishes to survive and achieve greater progress, we must be on Lennon Real Estate’s good side”

It was undeniable that Timothy was a rather smart man.

The muscles on his face twitched uncontrollably as well.

He heard Sean’s voice just now, but he still could not fully confirm his identity.

However, he saw Sean’s face with his very own eyes right now. Could he still not confirm his identity?

The person standing in front of him was the head of Lennon Real Estate, Sean Lennon!

At this moment, Timothy was truly stunned. He had no idea what to say.

Timothy's chauffeur widened his eyes as well. He did not know what to do.

As Timothy's chauffeur, he could recognize Sean.

They had just been discussing how those that offended Sean were all fools.

He did not expect Timothy's son, Ken, to be such a fool.

Timothy did not have the desire to find out who was right and who was wrong in this incident.

When facing an opponent that was much more powerful than they were, they were in the wrong regardless of the circumstances.

This was the harshness of reality

"Sean Lennon, let's see how arrogant you can be

"I'll end your life today!"

Ken pointed at Sean and shouted at him with a smug expression on his face.

Timothy was pulled back to reality by his voice

"Mr Wallace."

The chauffeur, who was standing behind Timothy, called out softly.

Meanwhile, Timothy took in a sharp intake of breath and made his way forward.

"Dad, it's him. He previously beat me up as well.

"Tell me how we should handle this situation!"

Ken crossed his arms before his chest and brought up an unresolved incident from the past.

“Also, Mr Lennon can’t stand the sight of your car How can you let Mr. Lennon crash into your car himself?

“You should have crashed your car and turned it into scrap metal yourself. Do you understand?”

Timothy continued hitting Ken as he spoke.

On the other hand, Ken and the crowd surrounding them were frozen after listening to Timothy’s words.
How could this be possible?

Sean could not stand the sight of Ken’s car, so Ken should crash his car himself and turn it into scrap metal instead of letting Sean do it himself?

What kind of logic was this?

Everyone thought that Timothy might be joking.

However, Timothy had no intention to joke around at all.

Timothy meant everything that he said. He had every intention of beating Ken up as well.

“Dad, who’s he? Who in the world is he?”

Regardless of how much of a rascal Ken was, he would never hit his father in return. Therefore, he could only let his father continue beating him up.

“Do you deserve to know who’s he?

“B*stard! I’ll teach you a lesson once we’re back home!”

Timothy scolded out loud through gritted teeth. He then turned around and walked towards Sean.

Everyone around them still had dazed expressions on their faces. They could not understand the situation at all.

However, they would understand everything very soon.

Sean asked with a slight frown on his face.

"You can drive my car if you don't mind.

"You can use it for the time being."

Timothy immediately asked the chauffeur for his car keys. He then handed the keys to Sean with both of his hands.

The car key with the logo of a winged letter B on it was held right in front of Sean and Caitlyn.

Meanwhile, Caitlyn was still yet to return to her senses.

She was beyond shocked ever since the moment Timothy started speaking to Sean in a respectful tone.

She was still in shock when she saw Timothy taking out his own car keys and handing them to Sean.

In particular, Caitlyn was so shocked that she could not bring herself to say anything.

All of this was just like a dream.

"Thank you."

Sean accepted the car keys from him graciously.

He currently had no interest in educating Ken further.

Meanwhile, his chauffeur had to stay back to clear up the mess.

After all, Sean had ruined two cars while he was here. They definitely had to get a tow truck to come over and tow the cars away.

“Hmph! Anyways, I come from a wealthy family. Why would I be afraid of him?”

Ken pouted. There was a displeased expression on his face.

“Young Master Wallace, Mr. Lennon is an extremely wealthy person as well!”

The chauffeur, who was standing beside Ken, could not help himself from giving him a soft reminder.

“How much money can he have?”

“He’s really young, and he’s an orphan as well. How much money can he have?”

A look of distaste appeared on Ken’s face after hearing what the chauffeur said.

“In the previous auction, he made a bid worth 5 billion dollars to purchase the piece of land at Campbell District.”

The chauffeur shook his head as he told Ken about this incident.

Besides, Zane was not chairing the meeting today.

A middle-aged man with his hair gelled back against his head was the chair of the meeting.

The few people around him were extremely respectful toward him.

It seemed like the status of the middle-aged man was higher than everyone else in the room.

“Tell me about your thoughts.”

The middle-aged man with his hair gelled back against his head said in an even tone.

The five men and women opposite them were representative figures of the real estate industry in Joules Town.

Therefore, Zane and the other government office workers must have called them over to discuss something related to the real estate industry.

That was the exact reason why they were all meeting in this room.

Billion Trees Real Estate was a pretty renowned company.

Therefore, the changes that happened to Billion Trees Real Estate would naturally affect a lot of people and things.

Actually, the higher-ups knew all about everything that Billion Trees Real Estate had been up to, but why did they not do anything to them?

It was not because Jimmy Lidell had someone’s protection.

It was because everyone else would definitely get badly affected if Billion Trees Real Estate was overthrown.

Plenty of people and companies would also be affected because of this.

Meanwhile, the higher-ups wanted all companies to progress and develop in a stable manner. They did not have to attain great achievements, but they should not make any mistakes at the very least.

Therefore, the higher-ups would overlook a lot of things as long as Billion Trees Real Estate did not go overboard.

Following the downfall of Billion Trees Real Estate, the structure of the real estate industry in Joules Town would be newly reshuffled as well.

Besides, who could guarantee that they would earn money when it came to operating a business?

If they failed to operate Billion Trees Real Estate well after taking over the company...

They would really end up losing a large sum of money.

The companies under them right now might be affected as well.

Therefore, they did not dare to invest in such risky projects.

They might really lose everything after taking over the company.

“Your higher-ups provided all of you with support and helped you establish the benchmark enterprises of the real estate industry in Joules Town.

“But now you can’t even bear the responsibility for such a small problem?” The middleaged man next to Johnson frowned as he looked at the five men and women.

“This... Mr. Dane. This isn’t a small problem.

“This isn’t a decision that we can make on our own. We must discuss this with the company shareholders before coming to a decision.”

A woman dressed in a lavish outfit said softly.

Johnson slowly raised his head and met the woman’s gaze. He then swept his gaze across the faces of everyone else.

Similarly, the others avoided Johnson’s gaze as well.

He was not a fool. How could he not tell that this was a polite rejection?

Besides, it seemed like everyone else had the same intention.
