

Swordsman 3891

Chapter 3891: Surrender or Death

Thousand-edge Demon Monarch was feeling bitter.

He did not know Jian Wushuang's real identity and that he was a disciple of the Red Cloud Lineage. If he had known earlier, he would not have dared to lay his hands on Jian Wushuang's principle-type supreme treasure, the Divine Sword?

Even if he had invited Demon Dragon Lord and Demon Dragon Lord, he would have been courting death in front of Blood Sword Master, let alone him.

Whoosh!

Jian Wushuang had already arrived in front of the three Rulers.

The three Rulers were suppressed by the power of the formation and could not move. They could only raise their heads to look at Jian Wushuang.

"Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, Blood Rain Demon Monarch, and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord." Jian Wushuang looked down at the three Rulers with a faint smile. "Do you still want to kill me?"

Hearing this, the three Rulers were extremely angry.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch said, "Blood Sword Master, we didn't expect you to be a disciple of the Red Cloud Lineage. No wonder you were so fearless from the beginning. I see."

"The Red Cloud Lineage has not been to the Eternal Dark Prison for hundreds of chaos cycles. No new prisoners have been imprisoned in the Eternal Dark Prison for hundreds of chaos cycles. There have been rumors in the Eternal Dark Prison that the Red Cloud Lineage has been completely destroyed and the Eternal Dark Prison has been abandoned. But now it seems that this is not the case," Thousand Kills Emperor Lord said in a deep voice.

"The rumors are true. The Red Cloud Lineage has been destroyed. As for me, I was lucky enough to enter the Red Cloud World and pass the test. That's how I became a disciple of the Red Cloud Lineage," Jian Wushuang said.

"Is that so?" The three Rulers understood one after another.

"Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, I actually hoped that you could invite some other experts and let Blood Rain Demon Monarch continue to trap me with the formation. Not only can I continue to study and improve my swordsmanship, but the more experts you invite, the more I'll be able to suppress." Jian Wushuang smiled.

Thousand-edge Demon Monarch looked miserable and did not speak.

"Alright, now it's your turn to choose. Surrender or die!" Jian Wushuang's face turned cold.

The three Rulers' expressions changed.

When Jian Wushuang used the power of the formation but did not kill the three of them immediately, they had guessed that Blood Sword Master did not want to kill them directly, now it seemed that he did.

"Blood Sword Master, what do we have to pay if we choose to submit?" Blood Rain Demon Monarch asked.

"It's simple. You just have to give up the soul defense and let me leave a mark in your soul origin. Of course, as a condition, I will take you out of the Eternal Dark Prison and return to the universe. In addition, I can swear to the universe principles now. As long as you submit to me, I will remove the soul mark and set you free in 100,000 years," Jian Wushuang said directly.

"100,000 years?"

"Vow to the universe principles?"

The eyes of Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch lit up.

100,000 years was too short for prisoners who had been trapped in the Eternal Dark Prison for hundreds of chaos cycles and could not see the light of day for the rest of their lives.

They did not care about such a short period of time.

What they cared about was the soul brand.

Once they gave up resisting and let Jian Wushuang leave a brand in their soul origin, their lives would be in the other party's hands. This feeling of being controlled by the other party's life and death would be unacceptable, however, it was only 100,000 years, but it was worth considering.

Moreover, Jian Wushuang also added one more point, which was to swear an oath to the universe principle.

It must be known that the universe principle was supreme, and that was the universe principle in the universe.

Jian Wushuang himself had comprehended a trace of the universe principle. If it was an ordinary oath, it would be fine if he did not follow it.

But if he swore an oath to the universe principle, once he made it, it would resonate with the universe principle. If he failed to keep the oath, the universe principle would not punish him, but when he comprehended the universe principle in the future, he would be more or less affected, and his comprehension speed would be slowed down or he would be blocked by various obstacles.

For a super genius like Jian Wushuang who could comprehend a bit of the universe principle at the level of a Principles Master, it was impossible for him to accept such a thing.

Therefore, they were not worried that Jian Wushuang would not keep his promise.

"Gentlemen, I'll only give you one breath's time to think about it," Jian Wushuang said indifferently.

"There's no need to think about it. I'm willing to submit," Blood Rain Demon Monarch said directly.

"I'm also willing," Thousand Kills Emperor Lord said.

Then, both of them looked at Thousand-edge Demon Monarch at the same time.

At this moment, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch's face was terrifyingly gloomy. He stared at Jian Wushuang, he sneered and said, "Blood Sword Master, I admit that you're very capable, but you want me to submit to you and even surrender my soul origin to be your dog? Dream on!"

"Thousand-blade, a wise man submits to circumstances. It's only 100,000 years. It's better than losing your life," Thousand Kills Emperor advised.

"Yes, Blood Sword Master is a peerless genius. Not only has he comprehended a trace of universe principle at the level of a Principles Master, but he's also a cultivator at the level of a perfect being. With such talent, he'll definitely become a supreme being in the universe in the future. It won't be difficult for him to become an autarch. It Won't be shameful for us to submit to him," Blood Rain Demon Monarch said.

"Haha...I, Thousand-edge, have been imprisoned in the Eternal Dark Prison for hundreds of chaos cycles. I have long forgotten about my own life. Unlike the two of you, I am not afraid of death. In order to survive, I am willing to submit to a Principles Master. Humph, my death is easy. If you want me to submit, don't even think about it." As soon as Thousand-edge Demon Monarch finished his words, his face immediately contorted, his eyes were filled with madness and determination.

"Is his soul burning again?" Jian Wushuang looked at him calmly.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord did not try to persuade him.

They both sensed Thousand-edge Demon Monarch's determination and could not stop his soul from burning.

In the end, under the watchful eyes of Jian Wushuang, Blood Rain Demon Monarch, and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch's aura gradually weakened and eventually died.

After his death, Jian Wushuang casually took away the armor and interspatial ring on his body.

Then Jian Wushuang looked at Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord and said, "You two, don't resist."

Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord obediently allowed Jian Wushuang's soul power to enter their consciousness and soon left a mark in the soul origin of their consciousness.

After doing all this, Jian Wushuang untied them.

"Get up," Jian Wushuang said calmly.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch got up. They looked at each other and then bowed.

"Blood Rain greets master."

"Thousand-edge greets master."

...

Chapter 3892: Two Slaves

"Get up."

Jian Wushuang waved his hand and looked at the two extremely respectful people in front of him. He smiled.

He came to Eternal Prison to improve his strength and to subdue some experts from Eternal Prison to fight for the Divine Beginning Realm.

The first prisoner he met in the Eternal Dark Prison was Master Si Yi. He tried to subdue him, but the latter burned his soul and refused to submit. This dealt a heavy blow to Jian Wushuang, later, he did not use the power of the formation to train himself.

It was not until now that he used the power of the formation to suppress the three top experts, including Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, Blood Rain Demon Monarch, and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord. He had learned his lesson last time. This time, he took the initiative to swear an oath to the universe principles, he wanted the other party to believe that he would not go back on his words. As expected, both Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord chose to submit to him.

These two masters were the top existences in the Eternal Dark Prison.

For example, Thousand Kills Emperor Lord's combat strength was probably only second to the ten kings.

Although Blood Rain Demon Monarch's combat strength was not comparable to Thousand Kills Emperor Lord's, his attainments in the dao of formation were extremely high. Moreover, he needed Blood Rain Demon Monarch's formation to perfect his sword formation.

These two slaves were very useful to him.

"This is a dangerous place. Let's Find a quiet place and talk about it in detail," Jian Wushuang said.

"Yes." Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord nodded.

Half a day later, the three of them opened a cave mansion in a deserted mountain.

In the cave mansion, Jian Wushuang sat on a stone bench while Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord stood respectfully in front of him.

They had already submitted to Jian Wushuang, and there was even a trace of Jian Wushuang's mark in their soul origin. Their lives and deaths were under Jian Wushuang's control, so they had become slaves.

As slaves, they naturally had to be aware of being slaves.

"Thousand-edge, Blood Rain, take out all the supreme treasures except the ones you use," Jian Wushuang instructed.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch knew each other. Without hesitation, they waved their hands, and numerous supreme true treasures immediately appeared in front of Jian Wushuang.

“So many?” Jian Wushuang looked at the pile of supreme true treasures and was secretly surprised.

There must be hundreds of supreme true treasures, right?

However, Jian Wushuang soon understood. After all, he had only killed a master at the peak of the second level, but he had dozens of supreme true treasures. As for Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch...they were much stronger than Master Si Yi. They had been in the Eternal Dark Prison for so many years, so they had killed more experts than Master Si Yi, so they must have more supreme treasures.

“In the outer Star Field, countless experts would go crazy for an ordinary supreme treasure. But in the Eternal Dark Prison, there are so many ordinary supreme treasures.” Jian Wushuang shook his head, he no longer cared about ordinary supreme treasures.

What he cared about now was at least supreme treasures.

And now, Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch had brought out more than 20 supreme treasures.

Jian Wushuang checked them one by one, and soon he locked onto one of the armors.

The armor was called the Ice Soul Armor. It contained incredible power and was far superior to the Dark Gold Magic Dragon armor that Jian Wushuang was wearing.

“The Dark Gold Magic Dragon armor is only an ordinary supreme treasure. It’s nothing compared to the Supreme Treasure Armor.” Jian Wushuang smiled. “I’ll take this Ice Soul Armor. As for the other Supreme Treasures, you can take them back.”

“Master doesn’t want any other Supreme Treasures?” Blood Rain Demon Monarch was surprised.

“These supreme treasures are useless to me for the time being, except for the Ice Soul Armor.” Jian Wushuang shook his head.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch nodded and immediately took back their supreme treasures with Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, leaving only the Ice Soul Armor behind.

“This Ice Soul Armor is a supreme-grade supreme treasure armor, and it’s extremely powerful. None of the Supreme Treasure armors I’ve obtained before are comparable to this Ice Soul Armor. In fact, this Ice Soul Armor was given to me by Thousand-edge Demon Monarch in order to ask me to help him,” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said.

Jian Wushuang nodded slightly.

Great beings like Blood Rain Demon Monarch, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord had a lot of true treasures, but there were few top-tier ones, it’s also mostly offensive weapons, like precious armors and other types, which are much rarer.

Ice Soul Armor, just out of the many treasures they took out, is indeed the highest level of the kind.

As for Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, he had paid a huge price to ask Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord to help him. He had already given away most of his supreme-grade supreme treasures, so he did not have much left, Jian Wushuang had checked Thousand-edge Demon Monarch's interspatial ring before, but there was nothing worth his attention.

"Thousand Kills, you should have a high-level special gem on you. Give it to me," Jian Wushuang said.

"Special gem?" Thousand Kills Emperor Lord was stunned. "I've killed countless experts in the Eternal Dark Prison over the years. I've obtained all kinds of resources and treasures from them, including many special gems. However, I only know a part of them, and I don't know their level...how about this, I'll take out all the gems, and you can look for them yourself, master."

"Sure." Jian Wushuang nodded.

Thousand-edge Demon Monarch immediately put all the special crystals in his hand into an interspatial ring and handed them to Jian Wushuang.

After taking the interspatial ring, Jian Wushuang scanned it with his consciousness and immediately saw a large amount of special crystals piled up like a mountain.

There were too many of these special crystals. Not only were there many of them, but there were also thousands of different types. Jian Wushuang did not recognize 99% of these thousands of special crystals.

Fortunately, he knew someone.

"Devil Flame, which one of these gems is more attractive to you?" Jian Wushuang asked.

The reason why he asked the emperor to take out all the special gems was that the Devil Flame soul body in the blood-red gourd sensed an extremely high-level special gem on the emperor.

The Devil Flame was a member of the Gold-devouring Clan, so it had a very strong ability to sense all sorts of crystals.

And the higher the level of the crystals, the stronger his senses would be.

"Don't worry, I'll look for it." The Devil Flame immediately began searching through the mountain of crystals.

Chapter 3893: Three Ways to Fight Against Devil Cloud Star Lord

A moment later, Devil Flame found a crystal with a faint brown glow among the thousands of crystals.

This crystal looked very ordinary to the naked eye, just like the stones on the ground. However, when Devil Flame saw this crystal, he was extremely excited.

"Green Gold World Stone, Haha, it's actually a Green Gold World Stone." Devil Flame's soul body laughed out loud in the blood-red gourd.

"Green Gold World Stone?" Jian Wushuang's expression changed.

"Master, this Green Gold World Stone is an extremely rare special crystal in the vast universe. It comes from a powerful race in the universe, the Green Gold clan. The Green Gold clan is very powerful and has many clansmen. They occupy a large territory in the universe. The Green Gold World Stone is the essence of the life of the Green Gold clansmen. Under normal circumstances, only the green gold clansmen who have reached the fourth-level Ruler or above can condense a Green Gold World Stone.”

“The Green Gold World Stone has a wide range of uses. It can be used to refine weapons and elixirs, but it can also be used to cultivate secret skills. In short, it is very precious. Of course, although the Green Gold World Stone is precious, it is far inferior to the blood blaze iron that you obtained, master,” said Devil Flame.

Jian Wushuang also understood that although the blade disk he obtained contained very little blood blaze iron, only about five kilograms of it, it was one of the most precious crystals in the vast universe, and its value was immeasurable, even a supreme-being would covet a five-kilogram piece of blood blaze iron.

As for the Green Gold World Stone, only a fourth-level master of the gold-blue clan could condense one. In other words, there must be a lot of such crystals in the gold-blue clan, which, of course, could not be compared with the blood blaze iron in terms of value.

“Although the Green Gold World Stone is not as valuable as the blood blaze iron, if I can devour and absorb it, the gold-devouring divine body that I have been molding will be much more complete and helpful to you, master.”

“If I have more than a dozen gold-green world stones like this, my gold-swallowing divine body will be 10-20% complete. By then, my soul will be able to combine with the gold-swallowing divine body, and I will be able to recover some of my strength. When Master’s enemy, Star Master Devil Cloud, comes, I should be able to resist him,” Devil Flame said.

Jian Wushuang’s expression changed.

Devil Flame had been subservient to Jian Wushuang for a long time. During this period of time, he had been quite diligent, and he already knew some things about Jian Wushuang.

For example, Devil Flame knew about Jian Wushuang’s importance to the Divine Beginning Realm and the Earth Devil Cloud Star of the Divine Beginning Realm.

Moreover, Jian Wushuang had asked Devil Flame about the strength of Devil Cloud Star Master.

Devil Flame had answered like this, “Master, the star Lord is a Master of a second-level Astral World. In the vast universe, most of the people who can directly occupy a second-level Astral World and become the Master of a second-level Astral World are not weak. Usually, they are masters of the fourth-level, or even the peak of the fourth-level, or even the fifth-level masters.”

“Of course, the second-grade Astral World I’m talking about refers to the deeper parts of the universe, or some of the larger Star Fields in the universe. The second-grade Astral World master has this strength, but the Star Field that you’re in, master, is located at the edge of the universe. The level of the strong here is far inferior to some of the larger territories in the depths of the universe. That Devil Cloud Star isn’t too far away from your Star Field, so it’s definitely at the edge of the universe.”

“The second-grade Astral World master at the border area is not as powerful. According to my estimation, that Devil Cloud Star Lord is very likely only at the third-grade Ruler level. However, his luck is heaven-defying after all. He actually took over the Divine Beginning Realm and became the Heavenly Dao of the Divine Beginning Realm. With the help of the Divine Beginning Realm, no matter how mediocre his aptitude is, his achievements will not be too low. In addition, he has been in closed-door cultivation all these years, and he has deliberately accelerated the evolution of the Divine Beginning Realm. It is obvious that he is preparing for his breakthrough.”

“So, it’s possible that the star master is only at the peak of the third level. But once he comes out of seclusion, he must have made a breakthrough and reached the fourth level.”

This was Devil Flame’s guess of the Star Master’s strength.

Devil Flame was a master of the ultimate level and had ventured into the depths of the universe. His knowledge was far beyond what he could compare with.

Jian Wushuang believed that Devil Flame’s guess about the strength of the star Master was credible.

Jian Wushuang could not fight against a master at the peak of the third level or a master at the fourth level.

Therefore, he had three ways to fight against the Star Master.

The first way was to break through and become a master.

This was the simplest and most direct way. As long as he broke through and became a master, he could immediately take over the Divine Beginning Realm. The star master would not be able to stop him even if he was far away in the Divine Beginning Realm, after that, even if he brought a large number of experts from Devil Cloud Star to kill them, Jian Wushuang and the others could hide in the Divine Beginning Realm. Devil Cloud Star Master did not dare to come in at all.

However, he was a perfect life-level cultivator. To break through to become a Ruler from a Principles Master was many times more difficult than an ordinary Principles Master. Although his battle strength was extremely strong, he was comparable to a third-level Ruler, he had even comprehended a trace of the universe principle, but it would take a long time for him to break through to a Ruler.

Devil Cloud Star Master could come out of seclusion at any time and directly attack the Divine Beginning Realm. Jian Wushuang was not confident that he could break through to a Ruler before his original body reached the Divine Beginning Realm.

The second way was to place his hopes on the Eternal Dark Prison.

There were countless experts in the Eternal Dark Prison and countless Rulers who had reached the third level. In the ninth dark area, there were thousands of Rulers who had reached the third level, among them, there were top experts like Thousand-edge Demon Monarch and Blood Rain Demon Monarch. The ninth dark area was only one of the 108 dark areas in the Magic Dragon Field.

There were countless experts in the magic dragon field, including kings like the Magic Dragon Lord.

According to Jian Wushuang’s guess, the ten kings of the Eternal Dark Prison were at least at the peak of the third-level. If they used their full strength or their trump cards, they could even reach the peak of the third-level, in the Eternal Dark Prison, he had absolute power and could easily subdue and subdue these experts.

As such, he could completely rely on this method to subdue a large number of third-tier Rulers in the Eternal Dark Prison. These third-tier Rulers might not be as powerful as Devil Cloud Star Lord in a one-on-one fight, but if they worked together...together with some battle formations or special formations, they might be able to fight against Devil Cloud Star Lord.

Other than these two methods, there was also a final method to fight against Devil Cloud Star Lord.

This method was the Devil Flame hidden in the blood-colored gourd!

Chapter 3894: Sword Formation Improvement

Devil Flame was an ultimate Ruler. In terms of strength, it was much stronger than the Lord of the Devil Cloud Star. Even though it was only in the soul body state, its soul had already completely recovered, moreover, its gold-swallowing divine body had already begun to be reconstructed.

As long as it was reconstructed to a certain level, Devil Flame's soul body would be able to perfectly fit with the gold-swallowing divine body, thus possessing a certain combat strength when he was alive.

According to Devil Flame's own words, as long as the gold-swallowing divine body could recover ten to twenty percent, he would be able to use this divine body to barely display the combat strength of a fourth-level Ruler. Moreover, with his experience when he was alive, he already had some secret techniques, Devil Cloud Master, who had just reached the fourth-level Ruler realm, was definitely no match for him.

"Whether it's breaking through to the Ruler realm or subduing a large number of experts in the Eternal Dark Prison, I can barely fight against Devil Cloud Master. However, it's still not enough to completely remove the threat from Devil Cloud Star. I can only restore Devil Flame's strength to a certain extent. It doesn't need much. With his experience and skills, he can kill Devil Cloud Master and then completely solve the crisis of Devil Cloud Star," Jian Wushuang thought.

It seemed to Jian Wushuang that it was feasible to use the Devil Flame to kill Star Master Devil Cloud.

Although he could not completely trust the Devil Flame, he was at least in control of its life and death. With this method, the Devil Flame would not dare to resist him.

In order to recover the gold-swallowing divine body of the Devil Flame, he needed a large number of special gems, and the higher the level, the better.

"Blood Rain, take out all the special gems in your hand," Jian Wushuang instructed.

"Yes." Blood Rain Demon Monarch nodded and immediately counted the special gems in his hand before handing them over to Jian Wushuang.

"Devil Flame, I can devour the Green Gold World Stone, Blood Rain, Thousand Kills, and all the special gems in my hand. In the following days, I will try my best to find more special gems for you. What you need to do is to improve your gold-devouring divine body as much as possible," Jian Wushuang said.

"Understood. Thank you, Master." Devil Flame was pleasantly surprised.

After speaking to Devil Flame, Jian Wushuang looked at the two slaves in front of him again.

“Blood Rain, your attainments in the dao of formation are very high, and I just happen to be developing my sword skill into a sword formation. Although I have gained some understanding during the past 600 years in your formation and formed the most basic sword formation, the sword formation is too simple. Next, I need you and Thousand-edge to help me perfect my sword formation as much as possible,” Jian Wushuang said.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord looked at each other and laughed.

“Master, don’t worry. Perhaps I can’t guarantee anything else, but in terms of array formations, there are no more than ten people in the first level of Eternal Darkness Prison who are stronger than me. Since master wants to transform his sword techniques into a complete sword array, I can naturally help you.” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said with a smile.

“I don’t have a good understanding of the dao of formation, but my offensive power is not weak. Master, if you want to test your sword formation, you can look for me,” Thousand-edge Demon Monarch said.

“Okay.” Jian Wushuang also smiled. “Blood Rain, I’ll show you the two sword formations that I’ve improved over the years. Look carefully and help me find as many principles as possible.”

Jian Wushuang immediately walked out of the cave mansion with his two slaves. In the void outside, Jian Wushuang directly began to show his two sword formations.

First, of course, was the Wavelight sword formation.

Hum hum hum hum. A sea of sword essence swept out, filling the surroundings with an endless concept. The entire sea of sword essence was covered by a layer of formation.

Once the Wavelight sword formation was activated, Blood Rain Demon Monarch, who was at the center of the sword formation, saw through the many principles in the Wavelight sword formation with just a glance.

“Master, although I haven’t really experienced your sword formation, I’ve already seen 13 principles with just my eyes. Four of them don’t have much impact, but there are still nine areas that clearly have a lot of room for improvement,” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said.

“Oh?” Jian Wushuang’s eyes lit up.

His sword formation had just been used, and Blood Rain Demon Monarch had not really experienced its power yet, but he had seen so many principles with just one look?

And there were nine that had a lot of room for improvement?

“Sure enough, Blood Rain Demon Monarch, who is good at formations, can help me improve this sword formation.” Jian Wushuang smiled. “Blood Rain, you haven’t felt the power of the sword formation. Now, I will activate the Sword Formation for you. Feel it carefully.”

Jian Wushuang laughed and immediately, the overwhelming sea of sword essence rushed toward Blood Rain Demon Monarch.

Blood Rain Demon Monarch was caught in the attack of the sea of sword essence. He blocked the incoming sword essence at will, and at the same time, he found the principles in the formation.

After finding the principles, he would further improve the sword formation according to Blood Rain Demon Monarch's suggestion. Naturally, Jian Wushuang's sword formation would be significantly improved.

Thirty years passed in the blink of an eye.

During these thirty years, Jian Wushuang did not travel to other places in the ninth dark zone. Instead, he stayed in the same place. Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch stayed by his side.

During the past 30 years, Jian Wushuang had been improving his two sword formations with the help of Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch.

It had to be said that the improvement of the sword formation with the help of Blood Rain Demon Monarch was countless times faster than Jian Wushuang comprehending and improving the formation set by Blood Rain Demon Monarch alone.

Previously, he had been comprehending the formation set by Blood Rain Demon Monarch alone for 600 years. In Jian Wushuang's opinion, it was still not as good as the improvement of one year with the help of Blood Rain Demon Monarch.

After 30 years, the two sword formations of Jian Wushuang were worlds apart compared to 30 years.

In the vast void, Jian Wushuang and Blood Rain Demon Monarch stood side by side. In the void in front of them, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch was standing there, bearing the impact of the surrounding sea of sword essence at the same time.

They were both Sea of sword essence, but now that the sea of sword essence was supported by the formation, its power was greatly different.

Each wave of sword intent was enough to make an ordinary third-level Ruler go all out. The impact force contained in the waves of sword intent...was enough to easily crush the divine body of an ordinary second-level Ruler.

In terms of power alone, the Sea of sword intent was dozens of times stronger than before.

Although the Thousand Kills Emperor Lord was powerful, he had to deal with the impact of the waves around him seriously when he was trapped in the Sea of sword intent.

Chapter 3895: Kindness

The Thousand Kills Emperor Lord, who was trapped in the Wavelight sword formation, kept swinging the blood-colored axe in his hand. With every swing of the axe, the Thousand Kills Emperor Lord used all of his strength and released many blood-colored axe shadows. Only then did he manage to defeat the waves of sword intent that were surging around him, however, after the first wave was defeated, the second wave immediately followed. It was endless and never-ending.

Even Thousand Kills Emperor Lord felt as if he had fallen into an endless quagmire.

“Third axe!”

A shocking killing intent swept out from Thousand Kills Emperor Lord’s body as three gigantic blood-colored axe shadows appeared in the air and fused together.

The axe slashed down fiercely.

Thousand Kills Emperor Lord’s third axe was already the strongest axe he could unleash without using his trump card.

Even so, when the axe struck the surrounding Wavelight sword formation, countless waves surged and collided with the power of the axe shadow.

In the end, the power of the third axe took a lot of effort to break the Wavelight sword formation.

When the sword formation collapsed, the surrounding sea of sword essence naturally dissipated.

Thousand-edge Demon Monarch came to Jian Wushuang.

“Master, your Light Sword Formation is more difficult to deal with than before. Even if I’m trapped in this sword formation and hit by the waves of sword essence, I have to deal with it seriously. If I’m trapped in it for a long time, I’ll have a headache.”

“Moreover, this sword formation is much stronger than the last time you used it. Last time, when you used this light sword formation, I could easily break it with my third axe. But this time, although I also broke it with my third axe, it was unusually difficult. I could even say that I barely broke it,” Thousand-edge Demon Monarch said.

Thirty years ago, when Jian Wushuang’s Wavelight sword formation had just taken shape, it posed no threat to the emperor.

The emperor used his first axe, which was as powerful as the heaven-punishing sword of Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, and destroyed the Wavelight Sword Formation.

However, after 30 years, the emperor had to use his third axe to destroy the same Wavelight sword formation.

The sword formation was much stronger than it had been 30 years ago.

“With the help of Blood Rain and Thousand-edge, my sword formation has improved tremendously. Now, if an ordinary third-level master is trapped in my sword formation, the only thing he can do is to use life-saving means to escape. Otherwise, he will be trapped in the sword formation forever. As for trying to break it by force...”

“Even Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, who was thought to be the best attacker in the ninth dark zone, couldn’t do it,” Jian Wushuang said with a smile.

The most powerful attack of Thousand-edge Demon Monarch was the blood-heaven sword, which was not as powerful as the second axe of Thousand-edge Demon Monarch. Naturally, it could not break Jian Wushuang’s Wavelight sword formation.

“Of course, the Wavelight Sword Formation is only a sword formation to trap the enemy. In terms of defensive skills, it is far inferior to my earth-protecting sword formation. That is the truly invincible sword formation,” Jian Wushuang said with a strange light in his eyes.

In the past 30 years, his two sword formations had made tremendous improvements.

Compared to the sword formation of Wavelight, the sword formation of Earth Guard had improved even more.

Although Jian Wushuang could only condense 52 layers of Earth Guard sword fields above the sword field of Earth Guard, the same amount of earth sword fields could be combined in different ways to form the sword formation of Earth Guard, its protective ability was much better than it was 30 years ago.

30 years ago, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch used his strongest trump card, the fourth axe, which could defeat his Earth Guard sword array head-on and injure him at the same time.

But now, if Thousand-edge Demon Monarch used the fourth axe again, Jian Wushuang could easily withstand it with the Earth Guard sword array. Even the fourth axe could not shake the array at all.

“With these two sword formations in hand, master, even if you don’t rely on the tokens of the disciples of the Red Cloud Lineage, you can definitely do whatever you want in the first level of Eternal Darkness Prison. Countless experts in the first level of Eternal Darkness Prison, even the ten Supreme Rulers, will probably pay a heavy price to hurt you. As for killing you, even if the ten Supreme Rulers risk half their lives, they may not be able to do it,” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said with a smile.

“It’s all thanks to your help over the past 30 years, especially you, Blood Rain,” Jian Wushuang said with a smile.

He knew very well that the great progress he had made in the past 30 years had something to do with Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch.

“Master, your two sword formations have basically been perfected. Even I can’t find any principles in them in a short time. In the future, if you want to further improve your sword formations, you can only find them by fighting with different experts,” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said.

“Yes, I’m going to explore.” Jian Wushuang nodded slightly. “Blood Rain, Thousand-edge, I’m going to explore alone. As for the two of you, stay here and wait for me. When I plan to leave this Eternal Prison, I’ll come back here and take you with me.”

“Yes.” Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch nodded respectfully.

“Thousand-edge, it seems that our luck isn’t too bad. At least this master of ours is quite polite to us,” Blood Rain Demon Monarch said with a smile.

“Well, we both had no choice but to submit to him and even let him leave a mark in the soul origin. We thought that we would be miserable for the next 100,000 years, but now it seems that it’s not that bad. At least this master of ours isn’t an evil person. He also treats us as human beings.” Thousand-edge Demon Monarch nodded.

The two of them had lived in the Eternal Dark Prison for more than 100 chaos cycles and had seen too much of the coldness and darkness of human nature.

They had thought that after submitting to Blood Sword Master, she would make excessive demands on them. She would not even treat them as human beings and would casually order and scold them.

For example, Blood Rain Demon Monarch was extremely beautiful and enchanting. She was even ready to give her body to Jian Wushuang for fun.

But what happened?

In the past 30 years, Jian Wushuang only asked them to help him improve his sword formation. He did not ask for anything else.

Obviously, their master was a kind one.

Chapter 3896: Adventuring Alone

“I’m really glad that we weren’t like Thousand-edge back then, who would rather burn his soul to commit suicide than submit,” Thousand Kills Emperor Lord said.

“Me too.” Blood Rain Demon Monarch nodded with a smile. “Thousand-edge is a little too stubborn. To be more precise, he’s a little too arrogant and unwilling to submit to a Principles Master. But he didn’t think that Blood Sword Master was able to comprehend a trace of the universe principle, and he was already so powerful at the level of a Principles Master. How great would he be in the future?

“It is not shameful to submit to such a great being.”

“This Blood Sword Master is very polite to us. It has only been 100,000 years. What is there to be unable to endure? Furthermore, this Blood Sword Master has promised to bring us out of Eternal Dark Prison. After 100,000 years, he will set us free. When that time comes, the universe will be so vast that we can go wherever we want.”

“Haha, right now, I feel that being able to submit to this Blood Sword Master is actually an opportunity for both of us,” said Thousand Kills Emperor Lord.

“Yes, I think so too. It’s definitely worth it to be able to leave Eternal Dark Prison after submitting to him for 100,000 years in exchange for real freedom.” Blood Rain Demon Monarch’s eyes were shining.

If 30 years ago, they were more or less reluctant to submit to Jian Wushuang, but they were forced by the situation.

Now, 30 years later, they were no longer reluctant. On the contrary, they were extremely willing to accept this fact and even regarded it as an opportunity.

In the ninth dark zone.

After separating from Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand Kills Emperor Lord, Jian Wushuang continued to wander around.

Unlike before, he was now absolutely confident in his own strength. Even without the token of a disciple of the Red Cloud Lineage, he had the ability to dominate the first level of Eternal Dark Prison.

Three days later, Jian Wushuang met an expert who was wandering alone, Ruler Wu Yan.

Ruler Wu Yan was a third-level master who ranked in the top 100 among the experts in the ninth dark zone.

His offensive power was extremely strong, his body protection ability was strong, and his speed was also good. If he fought in close combat, he could be said to have no weaknesses.

However, the only weakness of Ruler Wu Yan was that his life-saving ability was a little weak and he did not have very powerful life-saving methods.

“You are Blood Sword Master?”

Ruler Wu Yan, who was wearing black armor and carrying a saber on his back, stared at Jian Wushuang with cold eyes.

“It’s said that you were targeted by Thousand-edge Demon Monarch not long after you roamed in the ninth dark zone. Thousand-edge Demon Monarch was searching for you, trying to take away your principle true treasure Divine Sword. With his ability, he should have found you long ago, but you are still alive?”

“Did you hand over your nomological true treasure sword to Thousand-edge Demon Monarch in exchange for your life?” Ruler Wu Yan frowned slightly.

“Ruler Wu Yan, don’t waste your time. Just attack.” Jian Wushuang did not bother to explain further.

“You’re courting death.” Ruler Wu Yan’s eyes turned cold. He transformed into a cold black blade and charged toward Jian Wushuang.

A suffocating power also pressed toward Jian Wushuang.

Knowing that Ruler Wu Yan was powerful, Jian Wushuang did not intend to fight him directly. Instead, he waved the Wu Qi Divine Sword in his hand and the endless essence spread out.

In an instant, a sea of sword essence filled every corner of the world, surrounding Ruler Wu Yan in the center.

“I have encountered many experts throughout my journey in the ninth dark zone. I have fought with many masters of the third level, but so far, I have never killed a master of the third level purely with my swordsmanship.”

“Ruler Wu Yan, you will be the first master of the third level that I will kill with my own strength!”

Jian Wushuang's cold voice resounded in the air.

It sounded like a joke to Ruler Wu Yan.

"Haha, ridiculous. You want to kill me?"

"Even the five strongest experts in the ninth dark zone might not be able to do it. What are you?"

"You are just a Principles Master. You should be so arrogant and accept your death!" Ruler Wu Yan shouted, his killing intent soared to the sky.

However, he could not get close to Jian Wushuang at all. The surrounding waves of sword essence were rushing toward him crazily.

The waves of sword essence were vast and mighty. With the support of the sword formation, the power of each wave was extremely strong. The power of each wave was not under the attack of an ordinary third-level master.

Ruler Wu Yan's body was like a saber. It was extremely sharp, and he defeated the waves of sword essence that were rushing toward him.

However, after defeating dozens of waves of sword essence, Ruler Wu Yan's situation changed.

"How can this be?"

"The waves of sword essence are as powerful as the attacks of a third-level master. But why do they seem endless and endless? And they are coming from all directions at the same time. I can only passively resist them. It's fine for a short period of time, but if it goes on for a long time, how can I resist them?"

Ruler Wu Yan's face was cold. He had sensed that Jian Wushuang's sword formation was difficult to deal with.

Without hesitation, he immediately displayed his strongest move.

His entire body turned into a black saber, which was 30 meters long and emitted a monstrous power. It directly hacked at the sea of sword essence in front of him.

However, only a part of the sea of sword essence was destroyed by the Dark Saber. Immediately, a large amount of sword essence filled up and the Sea of sword essence immediately recovered.

"What?"

Ruler Wu Yan was shocked.

He realized that Jian Wushuang's sword formation was not only extremely difficult to deal with, but also extremely tough. His strongest attack could not break the sword formation completely.

Since he could not break the sword formation, he could only be trapped in the sword formation and passively resist the impact of the waves of sword essence time and time again. He could not escape at all.

His divine power was also being consumed at an alarming rate. Over time, more than half of his divine power had been consumed.

“Before it evolved into a Wavelight sword formation, the Wavelight sword art could trap people, but the waves of sword essence of the Wavelight sword art were too weak. Any third-level Ruler could easily resist them without using much divine power. At that time, even if I trapped a third-level Ruler in the Wavelight sword art, I would not be able to kill him.”

“But now, it’s different,” Jian Wushuang said with a smile.

The Wavelight sword formation evolved from the Wavelight sword art was not only tough and hard to break, but the waves of sword essence were also very powerful. No third-level master dared to underestimate such power, they had to try their best to resist it, so it would consume a lot of their divine power.

Chapter 3897: Consecutive Kills

Like Wu Yan, who was trapped in the Wavelight sword formation, he was now in an unprecedented predicament.

He was very powerful in terms of offense, defense, speed, and other aspects, but he was not very good at those secret techniques or methods that he used to escape.

He was trapped in the Wavelight sword formation, so he could not directly break it, nor could he use his escape secret technique to escape from it. He could only remain trapped in the sword formation.

He could only try his best to resist the waves of sword essence, which would consume a lot of divine power.

However, if he did not resist, the waves of sword essence would hurt his divine body and consume more divine power.

In short, no matter what choice he made, his divine power was constantly being consumed.

However, Jian Wushuang, on the other hand, had many suggestions from Blood Rain Demon Monarch. After he made improvements, he had been maintaining the light sword formation, which consumed less divine power than before, in addition, his own divine power was nearly 100 times more majestic than that of an ordinary Ruler.

Under such circumstances, even if he continued to use the light sword formation for more than half a day, his divine power would still be abundant. However, Ruler Wu Yan would not be able to withstand it.

“No, no!”

“Mercy, Blood Sword Master, spare my life!”

Ruler Wu Yan began to beg for mercy frantically.

He had no choice but to beg for mercy. His divine power was constantly being consumed by the sword formation. By now, more than 80 percent of his divine power had been used up, and he was about to use up 90 percent.

If this continued, he would definitely die!

“Begging for mercy?”

Jian Wushuang smiled coldly.

If the one begging for mercy was a Ruler at the level of Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, Jian Wushuang might have spared him and forced him to submit to him.

However, Ruler Wu Yan was much weaker than Blood Rain Demon Monarch. There were many third-level Rulers like him in the Eternal Dark Prison. Jian Wushuang was not interested in subjugating him.

“Although I have the keepsake of a disciple of the Red Cloud Lineage and have supreme power in the Eternal Dark Prison, I can’t subdue these prisoners unscrupulously. After all, my soul level is too low. I can leave a mark in the soul origin of these prisoners and control them. But if I leave too many marks, I’m afraid I Won’t be able to control them completely,” Jian Wushuang thought.

It was like controlling a puppet with the power of the soul.

The stronger the puppet, the harder it was to control it. However, controlling one puppet of the same level was definitely different from controlling ten puppets.

Although Jian Wushuang could leave a soul mark in the soul origin of these prisoners and have absolute control over them, if he left too many soul marks and scattered them, the control effect might not be so absolute.

Therefore, Jian Wushuang had long decided that he wanted to subdue experts in the Eternal Dark Prison, but he had to subdue real experts, at least at the level of Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch. As for Ruler Wu Yan, although he was also a third-level Ruler, he was not qualified to be Jian Wushuang’s slave.

“Ruler Wu Yan, you’d better die obediently.” Jian Wushuang smiled and did not stop the sea of sword essence at that moment.

“No, no!”

Ruler Wu Yan was extremely mad and let out a hysterical roar.

“Haha, Blood Sword Master, you are ruthless. But, don’t be proud. You are only a Principles Master, but you have the principle Supreme Treasure Sword in your hand. There are many people who want to kill you in the first level of Eternal Prison.”

“Although I’m dead, you will die soon. You will definitely die!”

“Thousand-edge Demon Monarch and even Demon Dragon Realm Master will definitely kill you!”

Ruler Wu Yan went crazy at the last moment, but no matter how crazy he was, he could not change the fact that he had died.

Soon, Ruler Wu Yan's divine power was exhausted and he was killed by Jian Wushuang.

He came to the corpse of Ruler Wu Yan and waved his hand to collect his magic weapon, armor, and interspatial ring.

Looking down at Ruler Wu Yan, Jian Wushuang sneered and said, "Ruler Wu Yan cursed me before he died?"

"Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, Magic Dragon Realm Master, will they kill me?"

"Humph, he didn't know that Thousand-edge Demon Monarch had come to kill me long ago. Unfortunately, he was the one who died in the end. As for Magic Dragon Realm Master, he is indeed stronger than Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, but even if he comes, I'm not afraid of him."

Jian Wushuang sneered.

He had no pity for the Ruler Wu Yan who had been killed by him.

These prisoners who had been imprisoned in the Eternal Dark Prison had committed heinous crimes, and they had been roaming in the Eternal Dark Prison for a long time. It was you who killed me, and I killed you. They had survived until now, it was normal that he had killed so many experts who had been killed by the Ruler Wu Yan.

However, in the fight with Ruler Wu Yan, Jian Wushuang had truly understood the power of his two sword formations.

He had just used the Wavelight sword formation and relied on the trapping ability of the Wavelight sword formation to kill a powerful third-level master.

In other words, unless a third-level master was as powerful as Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, he would be able to defeat his Wavelight sword formation head-on, or he would have an extremely powerful escape method, he would be able to escape from the Wavelight sword formation in an instant. Otherwise, he would almost certainly die if he fell into his sword formation.

Ruler Wu Yan was only the first third-level Ruler that Jian Wushuang had killed by relying on his own means. And then...

Ten days later, Jian Wushuang met Nine Absolute Divine Emperor, who was also ranked in the top 100 in the ninth dark zone. In terms of strength, Nine Absolute Divine Emperor was even stronger than Ruler Wu Yan, but he could not break Jian Wushuang's Wavelight sword formation, moreover, the secret skill used to escape was not strong enough, so he could not escape from the Wavelight sword formation. In the end, he followed in the footsteps of Ruler Wu Yan and died in Jian Wushuang's Wavelight sword formation.

Half a month after Nine Absolute Divine Emperor died, Jian Wushuang met Ten Thousand Ghost King, who was ranked in the top 10 in the ninth dark zone. In the end, Ten Thousand Ghost King died.

Another month later, Jian Wushuang found out where Nine Absolute Divine Emperor, one of the five strongest experts in the ninth dark zone, lived and directly came to challenge him.

The two fought, and Nine-torture Emperor was trapped in the Wavelight sword formation for nearly an hour. After consuming more than 60% of his divine power, he had to use his life-saving secret skill to escape.

In this battle, Nine-torture Emperor was severely injured and fled like a stray dog.

Another month passed, and Jian Wushuang went to find Dao Qiong, one of the five strongest experts in the ninth dark zone. The result was that Dao Qiong fled in defeat.

Chapter 3898: Black Bird

One of the five strongest experts in the ninth dark zone had died at the hands of Jian Wushuang, the other had submitted to Jian Wushuang, and the other two had been defeated and fled by Jian Wushuang. Only the last one, blood bow king, was left, Jian Wushuang did not look for a challenge. Instead, after fighting with Dao Qiong, he left the ninth dark zone and went to explore the other dark zones around.

There were a total of 108 dark areas in the Magic Dragon region, and the level of experts in each dark area was about the same.

There were five recognized strongest experts in the ninth dark area, so the other dark areas were similar.

After Jian Wushuang left the ninth dark area, he went along the surrounding areas and continued to explore and challenge, he challenged the strongest experts in these dark areas. The strongest experts in these dark areas were invincible in their own dark areas. They even lived in fixed places. It was easier to find them than to wander around like prisoners and prisoners, after finding one of the strongest experts, Jian Wushuang directly used the sword formation to fight the enemy.

Once the Wavelight sword formation was activated, most of the so-called strongest experts in the dark areas could only use secret skills to escape. Only a few experts with powerful attacks or special trump cards could be like the Emperor of thousand kills, he broke through the Wavelight sword formation head-on and retreated calmly.

However, such experts were extremely rare in the Magic Dragon region. There might not even be one in a dark zone. This led Jian Wushuang to roam these dark zones without fear.

Another 80 years passed in the blink of an eye.

Over the past 80 years, Jian Wushuang had passed through more than 20 dark zones and challenged more than 100 top experts. More than 90% of the top experts had to flee for their lives when they encountered him, there were also three top experts in the dark zones who were unable to escape from the Wavelight sword formation and were exhausted to death by Jian Wushuang.

Such a crazy challenge, coupled with such a terrifying battle record, and Jian Wushuang's identity as a Principles Master, gradually made Jian Wushuang's reputation in the Magic Dragon region rise.

Although it was inconvenient to transmit information in the Eternal Dark Prison, it was not completely blocked.

Soon, many of the top-tier Great Beings in Demon Dragon Region had heard of his news.

In a dark corner of Demon Dragon Region.

A thin old man in a black robe had just sent a dark zone supreme master away, and he began to ponder.

“Blood Sword Master?”

“He’s only a Principles Master, yet he was able to make one dark zone supreme master after another flee in a sorry state. There were even some dark zone supreme masters who died at his hands. This Blood Sword Master is quite powerful. What did he rely on?”

“I heard from the Dark Region Supreme Master who was defeated just now that this Blood Sword Master has a very high comprehension of the origin of the Sword Dao universe, and he has even comprehended a trace of the universe principles. He even has a principle true treasure godly sword in his hands. Of course, his most powerful technique is a sword array that can entangle and trap his enemies.”

“Once that sword array is released, ordinary dark region Supreme Masters are unable to break it by force. They can only fall into the sword array and continue to expend their godly power. Unless they use a secret technique to escape from the sword array, they will be exhausted to death.”

“Yes, this sword array of his is also very impressive.”

The black-robed skinny old man narrowed his eyes slightly, but there was a strange smile hanging on the corner of his mouth.

“Keke, such a powerful Principles Master suddenly appeared in Demon Dragon Region, and he even has a principle true treasure godly sword in his hands. Master must be very interested in this Blood Sword Master. If he tells master this news, he might be able to receive a reward from master.”

A hint of fanaticism flashed through the eyes of the black-robed skinny old man. He then walked into the depths of the cave abode and took out a cage covered by a black cloth.

With this cage, the black-robed skinny old man walked out of the cave abode and came to the void space outside. He then tore off the black cloth and revealed a black bird that was in the cage.

At first glance, this black bird was no different from an ordinary bird. However, if one looked closely, one would discover that there were many special black secret engravings on the body of this black bird.

Although these black runes were not very profound, they were extremely complicated. The black pupils of the bird were extremely agile, just like the eyes of a human. However, at this moment, these eyes were already filled with despair.

“Keke, little fellow, I’ll have to trouble you to make a trip. Hand this interspatial ring to master.”

The black-robed thin elder tied an interspatial ring to the black bird's feet. There was only one command talisman in this interspatial ring, and within the command talisman was a piece of information regarding the Blood Sword Master.

Then, the black-robed old man opened the bird cage. "Go, little one."

The black bird immediately flew out of the cage. As soon as it came out, the black runes on the surface of the black bird's body were activated. The black bird's body began to grow in size, and it actually transformed into a Black Eagle, its terrifying speed burst forth, and in the blink of an eye, it had already traveled tens of thousands of kilometers.

He was simply too fast. This Black Eagle's speed was many times faster than the speed of an ordinary Ruler at full speed.

In less than three years, this Black Eagle had already flown out of the Demon Dragon Region. Moreover, the entire journey was unimpeded. Even if an expert saw this Black Eagle, they would immediately be frightened and hurriedly avoid it. They would not dare to block this Black Eagle's path at all.

From the Demon Dragon Region to the other great region, the Pill Demon Region, if it was an ordinary third level Ruler's speed, even if the entire journey was unimpeded, the fastest speed would at least take hundreds or even thousands of years, however, it only took the Black Eagle less than ten years to arrive at an ancient black castle in the Pill Demon Region.

This black castle was vast and majestic.

One had to know that this was the Eternal Prison. The Eternal Prison was crazy about killing. Even the strongest experts in the dark regions had incredible strength and dared to live in a certain place, however, they did not dare to build a castle wantonly in the place where they lived, let alone such a vast and majestic castle.

The owner of this black castle was obviously not ordinary.

Whoosh!

The huge Black Eagle swooped down and landed in a courtyard of the black castle. The secret engravings on its body circulated, and it turned back into an ordinary black bird.

At that moment, a green-robed man appeared in the courtyard. He took off the interspatial ring beside the black bird's feet and put the black bird back into the cage. Then, he took the interspatial ring and headed toward the central area of the castle.

The green-robed man walked forward in the castle. Along the way, he could see some livestock or animals around him.

For example, there were pigs, dogs, cows, horses, and other livestock that could only be seen in the mortal world. There were also lions, tigers, cranes, snakes, and other birds and beasts. There was everything in the castle, and there were many of them, however, no matter what kind of livestock or animals they were, they all had one thing in common. Their bodies were covered with some special secret patterns, and their eyes were dull, empty, and filled with despair.

Chapter 3899: Cat and Mouse

In the center of the black castle, in the open space.

A handsome man in a white robe with white hair that reached his waist was half-lying there with one hand supporting his head. His eyes were slightly closed and he was humming a tune. His body was also swaying gently to the rhythm, the handsome man with white hair had a carefree look on his face. Just from his appearance, he looked like a celestial being.

However, if the top experts in the first level of Eternal Prison saw him, they would definitely be terrified. They knew very well that this handsome man with white hair was a terrifying devil.

There were countless experts in Eternal Prison, and many of them were evil and vicious. They were devils who had committed heinous crimes in the outside world. However, if one were to say who was the number one devil in Eternal Prison...most of the top experts in the first level would probably think of him first.

In front of the handsome man in white, there was a white cat obediently prostrating there. The former would occasionally stretch out his hand and gently stroke the white cat's fur.

Looking down, one would see that there were actually more than ten white rats standing on the ground. These white rats' bodies trembled slightly, and their eyes were filled with nervousness and fear.

"Little guys, everything is ready," the white-haired handsome man said softly, but his eyes were still closed.

The hair on the bodies of the white rats on the ground stood up instantly, and all of their eyes were fixed on the forbidden area in front of them. There was a red line there.

"Go," the white-haired handsome man said again.

In an instant, the white rats were like arrows that had left the bow. They burst out with the fastest speed in their lives and rushed crazily toward the red line.

"Three, two, one!"

The white-haired handsome man muttered the numbers softly. The moment his word 'one' landed, the white cat that was originally under his palm instantly dashed out.

The speed of this white cat was obviously much faster than the dozens of white rats. Even though the white rats had set off first, the white cat still caught up to them with incomparable ease. With a flip of the slaughter, the dozens of white rats...six of them were killed on the spot by the white cat, while the rest were lucky enough to escape the red line.

After crossing the red line, the white cat stopped chasing and slowly returned to the side of the white-haired handsome man.

"Haha, little thing, you did well." The white-haired handsome man smiled and patted the head of the white cat. From the gap between his slightly narrowed eyes, a fierce light looked toward those white rats.

"The little thing that survived is quite lucky. As for the six that died..." The white-haired handsome man waved his hand indifferently. Immediately, the six white rats that had been torn to shreds by the white cat...their corpses were immediately reassembled at a speed visible to the naked eye. A moment later, the six white rats had completely recovered. However, their eyes were filled with even more fear.

"Remember, the six of you have died once again. Therefore, your time limit will be increased by another 100 million years." The white-haired handsome man said with a chuckle.

When they heard this, the six white rats' bodies trembled. Other than despair, there was no other emotion in their eyes.

At this moment...the green-clothed man finally arrived.

"Master." The green-clothed man said respectfully.

"What's the matter?" The white-haired handsome man asked softly.

"There's a message from the Demon Dragon Region. It was sent by the little black bird you gave me, master," the green-robed man said.

"Oh?" The white-haired handsome man finally opened his hands. His eyes were strange. They were green and emotionless.

"The little black bird can travel through the first level of the Eternal Prison at the fastest speed. Over the years, I've only created nine of them. Eight of them are in the eight great regions. Since the Demon Dragon Region used the little black bird to send messages, something big must have happened there." The white-haired handsome man smiled and reached out his hand. "Give me the information."

The green-clothed man respectfully handed the interspatial ring to the white-haired handsome man.

The white-haired handsome man took it and immediately took out the token from the interspatial ring. With a simple glance, he knew the whole story.

"A Principles Master? He can actually force a dark zone supreme master to flee in a sorry state, and he even has a principle true treasure godly sword in his hand?" The white-haired handsome man raised his eyebrows. "Haha, interesting. This is too interesting."

"However...I know all the slightly famous great beings in the first space of Eternal Dark Prison, whether they are from the eight great territories or the remote territories outside the eight great territories. If this Blood Sword Master was really imprisoned by the Red Cloud Lineage and has been in Eternal Dark Prison for more than 100 chaos cycles, it is impossible for him to be completely unknown just because he is a Principles Master. It is also impossible for me to only know about him now."

"In other words, this Blood Sword Master should have just entered Eternal Dark Prison not long ago."

"An outsider Principles Masters? How did he enter Eternal Dark Prison?" The green eyes of the handsome white-haired man flickered.

“The Red Cloud Lineage has long been destroyed. There is no doubt about that. Eternal Dark Prison was left in the universe. Perhaps this Blood Sword Master was lucky and accidentally barged into this place...no matter what, this Blood Sword Master is worthy of my personal visit.”

“Master, you plan to personally head to the Demon Dragon Region?” The green-robed man looked over.

“Yes.” The white-haired handsome man smiled and nodded. “Looking at the time, it’s not too far away from my next patrol. This time, I’ll set off ahead of time. As for the little things in my castle...”

The white-haired handsome man’s eyes flickered with a strange light. “Congratulations, you can be freed ahead of time. Hahaha!”

With an extremely deranged and wanton laughter, the white-haired handsome man directly soared into the sky. Immediately, white horses with wings began to gallop up from within the castle, appearing in the air, forming an incomparably gorgeous carriage, the white-haired handsome man sat in the carriage, directly heading toward the direction of the Demon Dragon Region.

After the white-haired handsome man left the castle, the special energy that had been pervading the castle all this while dissipated.

Immediately, the entire black castle began to change.

The dozens of white rats that had been trembling in fear suddenly transformed into cultivators. These cultivators were both male and female, and their auras were not weak, they had all reached the third level of the Ruler realm.

There were also many livestock and animals in the castle. At this moment, all of them transformed into human cultivators, returning to their original appearance and strength.

Following that, a series of hysterical roars reverberated in the sky above the castle.

“Forefather star fiend, I will not rest until you are dead!”

“Forefather star fiend, I swear to kill you!”

“Beast!”

Other than cursing angrily, there was also a relieved voice.

“I’m finally free!”

Chapter 3900: Emperor Sha

Magic Dragon Field, the 42nd dark zone.

It had been 110 years since Jian Wushuang left the 9th Dark Zone.

During these 110 years, he had walked from one dark zone to the 42nd dark zone. Standing in front of him was a purple-robed middle-aged man.

This purple-robed middle-aged man was Emperor Sha, Jian Wushuang's opponent.

Like the other dark zones, the 42nd dark zone also had a few recognized supreme experts, and Emperor Sha was undoubtedly the number one expert in the 42nd dark zone.

!!

Jian Wushuang had obtained a lot of information about the experts in the Magic Dragon Field from Blood Rain Demon Monarch, Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, and the other supreme experts in the Dark Zone, therefore, he had a good understanding of Emperor Sha.

Emperor Sha was definitely one of the top five super experts in the Magic Dragon region. In terms of combat strength, he was slightly stronger than Thousand-edge Demon Monarch. In the entire magic dragon region, apart from Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, no one could beat him.

"Master Blood Sword, I know you." Emperor Sha, the purple-robed middle-aged man, looked at Jian Wushuang calmly with his hands behind his back.

Jian Wushuang had already become famous in the Magic Dragon region during his adventure, so it was normal for Emperor Sha to know about him.

"It's my honor to be known by Emperor Sha." Jian Wushuang smiled.

"I know your purpose of this trip, so I won't waste time with you. Show me your entanglement sword formation. I'm also curious about how powerful the sword formation is that can force the strongest experts in the dark zone into a sorry state and even force them to use secret skills to escape," Emperor Sha said.

"As you wish."

Jian Wushuang directly used the Wavelight sword formation.

After 110 years of adventuring and challenging experts one after another, Jian Wushuang's Wavelight sword formation had naturally improved. It was stronger and more resilient than before.

The sword essence waves filled the sky like a storm, rushing toward Ruler Emperor Sha time and time again.

The Ruler of the Emperor's temple simply struck out with his palm and easily crushed the waves.

"The power of this sword formation isn't bad. Ordinary 'supreme experts of the dark regions', even those skilled in offensive power, might not necessarily be able to break through this sword formation. If they are unable to break through and fall into it, they can either use secret arts to flee or wait for death." Ruler Emperor Sha nodded slightly. "But this sword formation is not difficult for me."

Ruler Emperor Sha attacked directly.

A huge palm print swept out as easily as breaking dried twigs. In terms of power, this palm was no less than the third axe of Thousand-edge Demon Monarch, and it was even slightly stronger.

Boom! The entire Wavelight sword formation collapsed on the spot.

“Impressive.” Jian Wushuang’s eyes lit up. “Since you can break my Wavelight sword formation, I wonder if you can break my Earth Guardian Sword Formation again.”

“There’s a second sword formation?” Emperor Sha frowned.

Jian Wushuang had been adventuring for 110 years. Although he faced many experts, most of them only needed to use the Wavelight sword formation. As for the Earth Guardian Sword Formation, almost no one forced him to use it, naturally, no one in the outside world knew that he still had this sword formation.

Emperor Sha attacked again, wanting to break Jian Wushuang’s Earth Guardian Sword Formation. However, when he used the palm that had just broken the Wavelight sword formation and struck the Earth Guardian Sword Formation, the Sword Formation did not move at all, in the end, Emperor Sha could only use his most powerful killing move.

That killing move consumed nearly 10 percent of Emperor Sha’s divine power. The power it released was no less than Thousand-edge Demon Monarch’s fourth axe, and it was also at the level of the ten kings, however, when it struck the Earth Guardian Sword Formation, it only slightly shook it.

Seeing this, Ruler Emperor Sha stopped attacking and prepared to leave.

However, he was just about to leave.

“Ruler Emperor Sha, don’t be in a hurry to leave.” Jian Wushuang smiled and took out the disciple token of the Red Cloud Lineage.

In an instant, Ruler Emperor Sha was suppressed. Jian Wushuang gave Ruler Emperor Sha the same choice, whether to submit or die.

Emperor Sha finally chose to submit.

“Emperor Sha greets master.” Emperor Sha stood respectfully in front of Jian Wushuang.

“Emperor Sha, from today onwards, you are my eleventh slave.” Jian Wushuang smiled.

“Eleventh?” Emperor Sha was stunned.

“Yes, there are 10 others before you. They are also the strongest experts in some dark zones in the Magic Dragon region. The most famous ones, such as Thousand-edge Demon Monarch and Emperor Ji Ling, are among the top 10 in the Magic Dragon region. As for you, Ruler Emperor Sha, in terms of strength, you should be the strongest among my 11 slaves,” Jian Wushuang said with a smile.

Over the years, other than the Blood Rain Demon Monarch and Thousand-edge Demon Monarch whom he had first subdued in the ninth dark zone, he had challenged experts from all over the world for 110 years. He had no intention of subduing the ordinary experts in the dark zone, however, some of the real experts, such as spirit-catcher emperor, were completely on par with Thousand-edge Demon Monarch. Jian Wushuang directly used the disciple token of the Red Cloud Lineage to subdue them. Although many of them would rather die than submit, this was only a minority.

Therefore, before Emperor Sha, he had indeed taken in ten slaves. Emperor Sha was the eleventh.

"I wonder where the other ten are now?" Emperor Sha asked.

"They should be in the ninth dark zone now. I want them to wait there. When I decide to leave, I'll bring them along. I'm still in the 42nd dark zone, so I need you to guide me. But after I leave the 42nd Dark Zone, you can also wait for me in the ninth dark zone," Jian Wushuang said.

"Yes." Emperor Sha nodded respectfully.

But suddenly —

"Eh?" Emperor Sha's expression suddenly changed. "Someone is coming, and it's all four of them."

"All four of them?" Jian Wushuang frowned.

He had been in the Eternal Dark Prison for a long time, and the experts he encountered were usually alone. Except for those like Thousand-edge Demon Monarch who went to ask for help in order to kill him, they would usually travel alone, it was rare for them to work together in the Eternal Dark Prison.

"My soul power detected the four people, so they must have found me. But they didn't leave. Instead, they came here at an even faster speed. It seems that they are here for me," Emperor Sha said.

"Looking for you?" Jian Wushuang looked strange. "Why do I feel that these four people are here for me?"
