

Stealing Your Heart Chapter 1051

Nan Chen did not think that there was anything wrong with his actions. He had his boss' best interests at heart.

However, after leaving the café, Jiang Mohan went to a hospital without telling him.

As his assistant, Nan Cheng knew his schedule well.

However, he did not inform him this time. He even turned off his phone so no one could find him.

After giving him a check-up, the doctor reached a conclusion.

"You're suffering from amnesia. From the results of the check-up, it's probably caused by a heavy impact to your head," deduced the doctor as he looked at the report.

Jiang Mohan asked, "Can it be cured?"

"Yes, but it'll require surgery," said the doctor. "It's also riskier."

Any surgery had its risks, especially brain surgeries like these.

The word 'surgery' lingered in his mind for a long time.

He did not want to live a life without his memories, and he wanted to know who that woman was!

In order to do that, he must have his memory back again.

“Okay, I’ll arrange for the chief surgeon in the hospital, who is currently studying abroad, to conduct this surgery. He’ll return a week later and formulate a surgery plan before we settle the exact date of the surgery. Is that fine with you?”

It was too long for Jiang Mohan.

Nevertheless, he was left with no choice but to wait.

“Yes, but please arrange to have it as soon as possible.” Jiang Mohan wanted to undergo the surgery without much delay.

The doctor replied, “Sure, we’ll do our best.”

After that, Jiang Mohan drove back.

Nan Cheng had arranged for him to stay in a new place after returning from C City.

He initially stayed on the southern side of the city, but his new place was now in the north, shielding him completely from his past.

When Jiang Mohan returned home, he discovered a woman there.

She was wearing a red dress. With her hair tied up into a simple ponytail, she was standing in the kitchen and cooking.

This was how Zong Yanxi used to wait for Jiang Mohan to come home from work.

His vision seemed to lose focus because the red dress looked so familiar, but he could not recall anything at all.

“You are...”

The woman turned around, revealing her face.

His brows furrowed.

“Why are you here?” asked Jiang Mohan in a very cold tone.

She was there because Nan Chen arranged for her to do so. However, she evaded the question and instead asked with a smile, "You're back?"

As she spoke, she walked toward him.

Jiang Mohan whipped out his phone and called the security guards of the neighborhood.

Only then did Li Xiaohui quickly explain, "Nan Cheng told me to come here."

A grim look crossed Jiang Mohan's face, which she ignored.

She had cooked a few dishes according to the recipes Nan Cheng gave her. He said that these were Jiang Mohan's favorite dishes.

"You haven't eaten, right? Have a taste of my cooking." She carried the dishes to the dining table.

Not showing her any courtesy, Jiang Mohan ordered, "Please get out."

Li Xiaohui stood in front of the dining table and looked at him. "I just want you to give me a chance. Also..."

Knock! Knock!

At that moment, someone knocked on the door.

He opened the door, revealing two security guards standing outside.

He ordered them to drag Li Xiaohui away.

This time, she was completely stunned.

Didn't Nan Cheng say that Jiang Mohan will like me if I do this?

"I only entered your house because I like you and want to win your favor. This is too much..."

He remained expressionless, he was very firm with his stance.

Under Jiang Mohan's instructions, the two security guards dragged Li Xiaohui out of the house. As a wealthy heiress, she had never been treated so roughly before.

Hence, she was extremely angry and frustrated.

After the security guards took her away, he sat on the sofa and called Nan Cheng, who picked up the call quickly.

He ordered coldly, "Come here immediately."
