Chapter 761: Chapter 337: Spirit Root Aptitude Enhancement, Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root Chapter 761: Chapter 337: Spirit Root Aptitude Enhancement, Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root Afterward,

Lin Jing walked out of the thatched cottage and headed straight for the spirit field outside.

Upon arriving at the spirit field, Lin Jing stood in front of the formation that enveloped a section of the field, making it impossible to see inside.

Even his divine sense could not penetrate it.

NovG0.co

This formation had been laid down by the Five Elements Ancestor.

With Lin Jing's current strength, he couldn't possibly break it.

Lin Jing was aware of this, so he didn't try to probe further.

...

Instead, with a thought, he summoned the System Space and then entered it.

Once inside the System Space, Lin Jing didn't hesitate, immediately activating Observation Mode.

The next moment,

Lin Jing's vision changed, and once again from an observer's viewpoint, he appeared above the external formation.

Then, Lin Jing controlled the observer viewpoint to descend, directly passing through the formation and into its interior.

Although Lin Jing couldn't break the formation, under the Observation Mode within the System Space, the formation was as if it didn't exist.

Even if Lin Jing wanted to pick the Life-Defying Fruit, he wouldn't need to break the formation.

Instead, he could just use Fixed Point Teleportation to enter the heart of the formation.

If the divine sense of the Five Elements Ancestor knew that Lin Jing could obtain the Life-Defying Fruit, who knows what he would think...

...

As soon as he passed through the formation, Lin Jing's eyes were immediately replaced by a brilliant array of light, and after steadying his mind, he looked towards the source of the light.

In front of Lin Jing was a dwarf green tree, not very tall but extremely beautiful, as if it were a work of art.

At the very top of the small tree, there grew a fruit roughly the size of a walnut, perfectly round and emitting a dazzling nine-colored radiance.

The light that Lin Jing had seen earlier came from this very fruit.

Needless to say,

this must be the Life-Defying Fruit.

The moment Lin Jing saw the Life-Defying Fruit, he was momentarily lost in thought.

Of course,

he wasn't captivated by the stunning appearance of the Life-Defying Fruit.

Instead, he was considering how he could transplant the tree bearing the Life-Defying Fruit into the System Space without damaging it.

After all, if he could plant a Life-Defying Fruit tree in the System Space, then as long as he had enough Harvest Points, there would be an endless supply of Life-Defying Fruits.

The Five Elements Ancestor had also mentioned that after he disappeared, no one else would come to the Five Elements Territory and Lin Jing could take everything there.

After some thought, Lin Jing quickly formulated a plan.

Subsequently, Lin Jing immediately began to take action.

First of all,

he exited Observation Mode and returned to the spirit field within the System Space.

Then,

Lin Jing proceeded to the back of the spirit field, stood on an empty piece of land, and in the next moment, opened the system panel and chose to open two new spirit fields.

After Lin Jing made his selection, the system's prompt sounded:

"Ding!"

"System prompt: Host has used the Spirit Field Expansion function to expand new spirit fields, spending 2,300 Harvest Points, remaining Harvest Points: 74,520."

...

"Ding!"

"System prompt: Host has used the Spirit Field Expansion function to expand new spirit fields, spending 2,400 Harvest Points, remaining Harvest Points: 72,120."

...

As the two system prompts sounded, changes began to occur in the empty space in front of Lin Jing.

The once solid rocky ground, after a rapid transformation, turned into a grey-brown soil.

This time, Lin Jing had expanded two spirit fields.

One of them was to be used for planting the Life-Defying Fruit, and the other spirit field was for planting the Five Elements Spirit Tree.

Since he was planning to transplant the Life-Defying Fruit into the System Space, Lin Jing naturally wouldn't leave the Five Elements Spirit Tree behind.

After the expansion of the spirit fields was completed, Lin Jing immediately opened the Fixed-Point Teleportation Function.

As Fixed-Point Teleportation was activated, Lin Jing's viewpoint reappeared outside, and he then set the teleportation target location inside the enclosed spirit field within the formation.

Once the location was set, Lin Jing started the teleportation.

“Ding!”

“System prompt: Host has used Fixed-Point Teleportation, deducting one Harvest Point, remaining Harvest Points: 72,119.”

With the system prompt’s announcement, the next moment Lin Jing appeared out of thin air within the formation.

Upon entering the formation, Lin Jing immediately felt an incredibly dense, almost terrifying concentration of spiritual energy.

Even the ground below was imbued with spiritual energy; just by standing in this spirit field, Lin Jing could feel the almost tangible spiritual energy within the soil.

Compared to the spirit fields outside the formation, it was worlds apart.

Lin Jing then probed the ground below the spirit field and, after some investigation, found nothing unusual—it was simply a typical spirit field with an exceedingly high concentration of spiritual energy.

He guessed that it was due to that formation that the spiritual power within this formation was so dense.

In fact, the density of this spiritual energy was much higher than that of the spiritual power inside his own System Space.

And this concentrated spiritual force existed just for this lone Life-Defying Fruit tree, indicating that the rank of the tree was also not low.

...

Lin Jing approached the Life-Defying Fruit tree, looking at the fruit at the top.

The Life-Defying Fruit was incredibly dazzling, and the aura it emitted was extraordinary.

Just standing there, Lin Jing felt a special aura, which gave him an almost ethereal sensation.

He even felt as if his spiritual root was stirring with anticipation.

Of course, the spiritual root wouldn’t actually move.

It was just that this special aura permeated everything and even seeped into his body, causing him to sense it, which created the illusion.

Chapter 762: Chapter 337: Spirit Root Aptitude Enhancement, Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root_2 Chapter 762: Chapter 337: Spirit Root Aptitude Enhancement, Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root_2 After observing for a moment, Lin Jing shifted his gaze towards the whole Life-Defying Fruit tree.

Lin Jing planned to move the entire Life-Defying Fruit tree, along with the soil of this Spirit Field, all together into the Spirit Field.

Originally, transplanting the Life-Defying Fruit Tree would have required some soil to simulate the current environment, so he decided to handle it all at once.

Then, Lin Jing did not delay and began to take action immediately.

Lin Jing gathered his spiritual power and probed beneath the Life-Defying Fruit Tree.

After clarifying the position below, he solidified his spiritual power and separated this piece of the Spirit Field.

After the separation, Lin Jing wrapped the Life-Defying Fruit tree with his spiritual power while simultaneously summoning the System.

“Enter System Space!”

As Lin Jing’s voice fell, he, along with the entire Life-Defying Fruit tree, disappeared from the spot and entered the System Space.

After teleporting into the System Space, Lin Jing just regained his sight and immediately took the Life-Defying Fruit tree to the newly developed Spirit Field.

Thereafter,

Lin Jing quickly planted the entire Life-Defying Fruit tree.

After the Life-Defying Fruit tree was planted, the environment of this Spirit Field also changed, even without Lin Jing having to select it intentionally.

The change exactly resembled the Five Elements Territory.

Immediately after, Lin Jing summoned the system panel and used the function to observe Spirit Plants, starting to check the Life-Defying Fruit tree.

Rank Nine Spirit Plant: Life-Defying Fruit Tree

Current Environment: Five Elements Territory.

Spirit Plant Status: Already matured, can be harvested at any time.

...

This was clearly a mature Life-Defying Fruit tree.

Looking at the Life-Defying Fruits on it, Lin Jing couldn't help but be somewhat tempted.

However, Lin Jing did not rashly harvest them, but after observing the Life-Defying Fruit tree for a while and finding no abnormalities, he used Fixed Point Teleportation to leave the System Space.

Lin Jing used Fixed Point Teleportation, and when he appeared again, he was already outside the Formation.

Afterward,

Lin Jing walked towards the Five Elements Spirit Tree in the courtyard.

Next, Lin Jing followed the same process, taking the soil underneath along, and transplanted the whole Five Elements Spirit Tree into the System Space.

After transplanting the Five Elements Spirit Tree, Lin Jing immediately checked the status of the Five Elements Spirit Tree.

Rank Seven Spirit Plant: Five Elements Spirit Tree

Current Environment: Five Elements Territory.

Spirit Plant Status: Environment matched, growing rapidly, remaining time until maturity: 5000 years.

The Five Elements Spirit Tree could grow Five Elements Spirit Fruits, and consuming the Five Elements Spirit Fruits made it easier to merge with the Five Elements True Spirit, allowing one to enter the Solidifying Body phase more quickly.

Previously, while on Immortal Crossing Island, Lin Jing had heard some of this from an old ape, but at that time his cultivation was too low, so the old ape did not reveal too much to him.

What he knew now was all information Lin Jing found out later.

Lin Jing then looked at the Five Elements Spirit Tree and saw a sprout the size of a mung bean prepared to start growing on top of it.

Seeing the situation, he had to hasten the ripening of a Five Elements Spirit Fruit before advancing to the Solidifying Body phase, as only by consuming the Five Elements Spirit Fruit could he enter the Solidifying Body phase faster.

novGo.co

After transplanting the Five Elements Spirit Tree, Lin Jing left the System Space again.

This time,

Lin Jing left the statue and came to the valley.

The entire valley was filled with Five Elements Spiritual Force, especially the colorful clouds above the valley, all in the colors of WÇ” CÇŽi.

Lin Jing then walked through the entire valley, even exploring the colorful luminous fog outside the valley.

After a thorough exploration by Lin Jing, he finally understood the entire situation of the Five Elements Territory.

The Five Elements Territory was not large; it was basically just the area of this valley.

The colorful fog outside the valley was not abundant; after probing inside, Lin Jing found it spanned only about a hundred yards.

Further inside, he had already reached the boundary.

He could probe no further.

And this whole Five Elements Territory seemed to be an independent space that had been developed.

It was even quite inferior compared to other realms.

Indeed, the other realms seemed like individual small worlds.

After clarifying the whole situation of the Five Elements Territory, Lin Jing returned to the small courtyard in the hands of the statue.

Next,

Lin Jing planned to consume the Life-Defying Fruit to enhance his Spirit Root Aptitude.

Once his aptitude was elevated, he planned to consume the Five Elements Golden Core to raise his cultivation.

Once again returning to the System Space, Lin Jing entered the Spirit Field.

Afterward, Lin Jing carefully approached the Life-Defying Fruit tree and picked the fruit from it.

Once the Life-Defying Fruit was harvested, the colorful glow it emitted instantly vanished, and the fruit itself turned into an unremarkable gray.

The whole Life-Defying Fruit tree began to change color after Lin Jing had picked the fruit.

Soon, the tree turned from jade green to a deep green, and the tree itself no longer had the vitality it did before.

Afterward.

Lin Jing checked the status of the Life-Defying Fruit tree once more.

Supreme Grade Spirit Plant: Life-Defying Fruit Tree

Current Environment: Five Elements Territory.

Spirit Plant Status: Environment matched, insufficient Spiritual Power for growth, slow growth in progress, time until maturity: two hundred thousand years.

Seeing the growth time of this Life-Defying Fruit, Lin Jing was left speechless for a moment, unsure of what to say.

The growth of the Life-Defying Fruit required such a long time.

Although it was in a slow-growing state and needed two hundred thousand years, Lin Jing estimated that even if the Spiritual Power in his space were sufficient, it would still take at least one hundred thousand years for the Life-Defying Fruit to fully mature.

One hundred thousand years was indeed not a short time.

However.

After that, Lin Jing thought...

The Life-Defying Fruit tree, being of the highest rank in the Cultivation World and particularly special and rare, was the only plant guaranteed to enhance one's Spiritual Root Aptitude completely.

Countless top powers desired but couldn't even acquire one.

Thinking of this, Lin Jing came to terms with it.

After picking the Life-Defying Fruit, Lin Jing took it with him to the Alchemy Room within the System Space, as enhancing aptitude must be done in the Alchemy Room.

Upon entering the Alchemy Room, Lin Jing walked to the center, then directly sat down cross-legged in the middle of the room.

After sitting down, Lin Jing took a deep breath and steadied his emotions.

Unlike other Spirit Plants, a heavenly and earthly plant like the Life-Defying Fruit didn't require processing into Elixir Medicine; it could be consumed directly.

Of course, some had tried to turn the Life-Defying Fruit into Elixir Medicine, aiming to extract its medicinal power so that more people could enhance their aptitude.

But unfortunately, even using every possible method, they had not succeeded.

It was merely a waste of a Life-Defying Fruit.

Once his emotions were steady and his Spiritual Power had stabilized within his body, Lin Jing took out the Life-Defying Fruit and put it into his mouth.

No sooner had Lin Jing put the Life-Defying Fruit into his mouth than the fruit began to transform into medicinal power, flowing into his abdomen.

At the same time, Lin Jing's Spiritual Root, along with his body, seemed to feel this medicinal power and started reacting as well.

This chain reaction even made his spirits somewhat joyful.

However, now was not the time for him to be happy, as the medicinal liquid from the Life-Defying Fruit had not yet been refined; if not refined promptly, the power contained within the liquid would quickly dissipate.

Thus.

Lin Jing hurriedly stabilized his spirit and began refining the medicinal liquid within his body...

The refinement of the Life-Defying Fruit was not easy.

It took Lin Jing a full three days to completely refine the medicinal liquid contained within the Life-Defying Fruit.

The refined medicinal liquid of the Life-Defying Fruit turned into a fluid emitting a multicolored glow, continuously flowing through Lin Jing's meridians.

Now that the medicinal liquid had been refined, the next step was to absorb it into his body and change his Spiritual Root...

...

...

After refining the Life-Defying Fruit's spiritual liquid, Lin Jing spent another month absorbing all the medicinal liquid.

After absorbing the medicinal liquid, Lin Jing felt as if he had become the darling of the universe.

Even as Lin Jing simply sat there without moving, endless Spiritual Power continuously surged toward his body.

The speed of Spiritual Power circulating within Lin Jing's body also increased significantly.

Afterward.

Lin Jing quickly opened the system panel to check his status:

Lin Jing (111/2000)

Spiritual Root: Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root (Supreme Grade)

Cultivation: Divinity Transformation Eighth Layer (2%)

...

...

Sure enough, his Spiritual Root Aptitude had improved, becoming a Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root...

Chapter 763: 338 Chapter 763: 338 Twenty years of time might not seem like much for the Five Elements Territory, which has existed for countless thousands of years.

But since the spiritual thought of the Five Elements Ancestor dissipated, this Five Elements Territory seemed to have lost its guardian, devoid of its soul.

Just twenty short years had passed, and the valley no longer looked the same, beginning to show slight changes.

The Five Elements Spiritual Force throughout the Five Elements Territory was slowly dissipating, and the Spiritual Force within the valley had also become thinner compared to before.

At that moment, at the center of the valley in the Five Elements Territory, a person was seated in meditation, cultivating.

Around him, Five Elements Spiritual Force continuously surged from all directions, enveloping him in layer upon layer, forming a protective shield made of Five Elements Spiritual Force.

The person inside, however, seemed unaware, simply sitting there quietly, allowing the surrounding Five Elements Spiritual Force to seep into his body.

...

If one looked closer, they would not find it difficult to recognize that this person meditating in the center of the valley was Lin Jing.

At this time,
Twenty years had passed since Lin Jing's Spirit Root Aptitude had been enhanced.

With no delay after enhancing his Spirit Root Aptitude, Lin Jing immediately began the refinement of the Five Elements Golden Core.

The Five Elements Golden Core was a legacy left by the Five Elements Ancestor, containing the pure cultivation he had once possessed.

After Lin Jing began refining the Five Elements Golden Core, the pure cultivation within surged into his body, crazily circulating and aiding him in elevating his realm.

Lin Jing did not dare to delay and immediately began absorbing the pure cultivation contained within the Golden Core to its fullest.

Afterward, in just over two years, Lin Jing made a breakthrough from the eighth level of Divinity Transformation, leaping directly to the peak of Nascent Soul Peak.

Speaking of two years, when adding the time spent in the System Space, Lin Jing actually took a total of ten years.

Ten years to consecutively break through two major realms, reaching the perfect state of Nascent Soul Peak.

Such a rate of breakthrough was unheard of.

If it were to be revealed, it would certainly shock countless people.

Furthermore,
this was the result of Lin Jing deliberately controlling his pace, avoiding too rapid an advancement that could destabilize his cultivation.

He even intentionally slowed down his breakthrough velocity.

Without such control, Lin Jing had no doubt that with the aid of the Five Elements Golden Core, he could reach the peak of Divinity Transformation in just a year, not even needing two.

After advancing to Divinity Transformation Peak, Lin Jing temporarily stored the Five Elements Golden Core away.

The spiritual thought of the Five Elements Ancestor had once stated that even if the Golden Core could not bring Lin Jing to the Dao Integration Stage, it would be almost as good.

Lin Jing had only advanced from the eighth level of Divinity Transformation to Nascent Soul Peak, so the cultivation contained within the Golden Core was not much depleted, and the core itself had barely changed.

Having reached the peak of Divinity Transformation, Lin Jing had reached a crucial juncture for advancing to the Solidifying Body Realm; at this point, no further breakthrough was needed.

Instead, he needed to gather the true spirits of Five Elements and cultivate the Five Elements Spiritual Body to enter the Solidifying Body Realm.

Before cultivating the true Five Elements spirits, Lin Jing first ripened a five-star Spirit Fruit.

After consuming the Spirit Fruit, Lin Jing then began the cultivation of the Five Elements Spiritual Body.

Just like that...

Lin Jing spent another seventy years cultivating the true Five Elements spirits.

During these seventy years, Lin Jing cultivated not just one,
but a full set of five.

Even though he originally possessed a Metallic Attribute among the true Five Elements spirits, Lin Jing did not use it but instead cultivated on his own, developing a set that was entirely his own.

Only his self-cultivated Five Elements True Spirits, completely aligned with his own body, could bring out the strongest power.

Lin Jing certainly didn't forget that point.

While cultivating the Five Elements True Spirits, Lin Jing made good use of the remaining time within the System Space, entering to cultivate whenever time permitted.

Therefore, these seventy years of cultivation also included the time spent within the System Space.

After recalculating, adding the time taken to reach the peak of Divinity Transformation, a total of twenty years had elapsed in the outside world.

It can be said that Lin Jing only took twenty years to advance from the eighth level of Divinity Transformation to the peak.

Meanwhile, he had also completed the cultivation of five Five Elements True Spirits.

With his cultivation reaching its limit and the Five Elements True Spirits fully prepared, Lin Jing was just one step away from the Solidifying Body Realm, only lacking the celestial baptism of Heavenly Tribulation.

...

At this time,
In the valley of the Five Elements Territory, Lin Jing appeared to be cultivating, but he was actually waiting for the Tribulation Lightning to descend.

Lin Jing continuously absorbed the surrounding Five Elements Power, not disguising at all, allowing his peak Divinity Transformation cultivation aura to overflow completely.

This was just to attract Heavenly Tribulation.

Lin Jing had been sitting here for three days already.

If it were the outside world, with the cultivation aura that Lin Jing currently released, the Tribulation Lightning would already be upon him.

NovG0.co

Because the Five Elements Territory is a separate space isolated from the outside world, it became extremely difficult to attract Heavenly Tribulation.

Just like the previous situation in the Devouring Spirit Blood Realm.

However, with the lessons learned from the Devouring Spirit Blood Realm, even though the Heavenly Tribulation had not yet arrived, Lin Jing didn't panic at all but remained calm and collected, continuing to absorb the surrounding Five Elements Spiritual Force.

As this continued, time gradually passed.

The first day...

The second day...

The third day...

...

...

Soon, seven days had passed, making it ten days since Lin Jing had been seated in this valley, and the sky still showed no changes.

Lin Jing also remained seated, seeming unconcerned.

Chapter 764: Chapter 338 Tribulation_2 Chapter 764: Chapter 338 Tribulation_2
Actually, that was not the case.

Although Lin Jing had been sitting in meditation all this time, he could feel with his breath that the Heavenly Tribulation was getting closer and closer, seemingly about to descend soon.

Feeling the impending arrival of the Heavenly Tribulation, Lin Jing was neither excited nor panicked, but continued to sit in meditation, absorbing the Five Element Power around, as if he were an old monk deep in meditation.

Time hurried along, and it wasn't until the evening of the tenth day that the sky above the Five Elements Territory began to change.

Suddenly, the originally multicolored auspicious clouds were pushed out by a mass of dark clouds that abruptly appeared.

At first, these dark clouds were not too large.

But as time went on, the area covered by the dark clouds grew larger and larger, until finally the dark clouds covered the entire sky of the Five Elements Territory, and the original multicolored auspicious clouds had been squeezed out of sight long ago.

...

Once the dark clouds spread out completely, the rumbling sound of muffled thunder began to resonate within them.

As the dark clouds lowered, the sound of the muffled thunder grew louder and louder.

NovGo.co

At the same time, the vast and mighty terrifying pressure also started descending from the dark clouds towards Lin Jing in the valley.

It was not until then that Lin Jing finally opened his eyes and stood up, looking up at the Tribulation clouds overhead.

Black Tribulation Lightning arcs fused within the dark clouds, bringing an even more terrifying oppressive atmosphere.

This Heavenly Tribulation, just by feeling its aura, one knew it was no ordinary one.

It seemed that this time, his full strength would need to be exerted.

As time passed, the Tribulation Lightning within the clouds gradually increased, and the rolling sound of thunder within was ceaseless.

The Tribulation clouds, carrying tremendous heavenly might, kept pressing down on Lin Jing...

Just then, countless free-floating lightning arcs within the clouds suddenly converged towards the center of the Tribulation clouds.

And at the center of the entire Tribulation cloud, a brilliant light suddenly shone.

"Boom!"

There was a thunderous roar.

A Black Tribulation Lightning bolt from the center of the clouds struck down, heading straight for Lin Jing's head.

This Tribulation Lightning was fast and swift, and before even the blink of an eye, it had already struck above Lin Jing's head.

Upon being hit by this Tribulation Lightning, Lin Jing did not panic, but instead stretched out his hand towards the sky, directly and firmly catching the lightning.

This Tribulation Lightning, though it looked formidable, was actually only the first strike, and its power was still manageable.

It posed no threat to Lin Jing.

Soon, nine breaths of time passed and the Tribulation Lightning had dissipated.

And Lin Jing, situated within it, was unharmed as usual.

The reason for this was not only because the first strike of Tribulation Lightning was limited in power.

Another reason was that after breaking through to the Nascent Soul Peak, Lin Jing had spent seventy years cultivating the Five Elements True Spirit.

During the cultivation of the Five Elements True Spirit, although Lin Jing did not intentionally enhance his cultivation, his Cultivation nonetheless solidified unconsciously.

It could be said that Lin Jing's cultivation at this time was extremely solid, and he could easily withstand the first few strikes of Tribulation Lightning without issue.

After the first strike of Tribulation Lightning dissipated, Lin Jing did not rest but continued to look up at the Tribulation clouds in the sky, as if expecting the second strike of Tribulation Lightning to fall...

The Tribulation clouds in the sky, as if angered by Lin Jing's dismissive attitude, did not take long after the first strike had dissipated for the second strike of Tribulation Lightning to follow immediately...

The second strike of Tribulation Lightning, though stronger than the first, was still limited.

Lin Jing handled it with ease.

And so, one after another, the Tribulation Lightning struck down.

The third, fourth, and fifth strikes of Tribulation Lightning did not cause Lin Jing to expend much effort.

It was not until the sixth strike that things changed.

This sixth strike of Tribulation Lightning was somewhat thicker than the previous ones.

The power of the Heavenly Tribulation it contained was also stronger than the first five.

After the sixth Tribulation Lightning dissipated, some minor wounds finally appeared on Lin Jing's body.

The black lightning arcs also attached themselves to those wounds on Lin Jing, attempting to hinder the healing.

However.

Just some black lightning arcs posed no threat to Lin Jing at all.

Lin Jing then willed his thoughts, and his body's wounds began to quickly move, absorbing the black lightning arcs into his body.

The next moment,

Lin Jing's injuries began to heal rapidly.

In less time than it takes to brew a cup of tea, the wounds on his body had all but vanished.

Following that,

Lin Jing looked up, gazing into the Tribulation clouds in the sky.

At that moment, the Tribulation clouds were no longer sending down Tribulation Lightning but instead began to change.

Soon, multicolored lights started shining through from those black Tribulation clouds.

Gradually, the dark clouds began to transform rapidly, and before long, they all turned into multicolored colors.

Even the occasional Tribulation Lightning appearing within the clouds also turned into multicolored lights.

Lin Jing's brow furrowed slightly as he spoke,

"Silent Extinguishing Celestial Lightning..."

This Tribulation Lightning was something Lin Jing had encountered before; it was the same Silent Extinguishing Celestial Lightning he had faced during his last advancement to Divinity Transformation.

Last time, it was only the final strike that was the Silent Extinguishing Celestial Lightning.

Unexpectedly, this time, as early as the seventh strike, the Silent Extinguishing Celestial Lightning had already appeared.

Seeing the Silent Extinguishing Celestial Lightning's appearance, Lin Jing dared not be careless any longer, and then he summoned the System before saying,

"System!"

"Activate Bonus Attachment!"

As Lin Jing's words fell, the next moment, a system prompt entered his ears.

"Ding!"

"Bonus Attachment activated successfully, deducting 5 Harvest Points, current remaining Harvest Points: 60712."

With Bonus Attachment activated, Lin Jing immediately felt his Divine Sense become incredibly solid; even the terrifying pressure from within the Tribulation had ceased to feel as intimidating.

Afterwards,

Chapter 765: Chapter 338 Tribulation_3 Chapter 765: Chapter 338 Tribulation_3 Lin Jing focused his mind, preparing to face the annihilating celestial lightning.

"Boom!"

He didn't have to wait long, as the seventh Tribulation Lightning descended directly from the clouds above.

Whether it was the WÇ" CÇŽi clouds above Lin Jing's head or the WÇ" CÇŽi lightning falling from them, both were incredibly dazzling.

Even to call them breathtakingly beautiful wouldn't be an exaggeration.

But it was precisely this beautiful phenomenon that concealed a tremendous, destructive intent capable of annihilating everything.

As the Tribulation Lightning struck above Lin Jing, he immediately met it head-on while circulating the Overlord Divine Physique and Immortal Five Elements Technique to resist the murderous intent brought by the lightning.

As Lin Jing faced the Tribulation Lightning, he suddenly discovered something astonishing.

...

As the annihilating celestial lightning fell, aside from its terrifying Heavenly Tribulation Power, it also carried an immensely horrifying Five Elements Spiritual Force.

If this Five Elements Spiritual Force had been directed at someone else, it might have been a different story.

But its target was Lin Jing.

As the terrifying power of the Heavenly Tribulation tore through Lin Jing's body, the fearsomely substantial Five Elements Power surged into his body immediately afterward.

However, Lin Jing needed just a flick of his Immortal Five Elements Technique to control that Five Elements Power.

With a single thought from Lin Jing, the Five Elements Power surged into the wounds, healing all his injuries completely.

Afterward,

Among this cycle of destruction and healing, repeated over and again, Lin Jing stubbornly endured the Tribulation Lightning.

Only nine breaths later, when Lin Jing examined his body again, he found it smooth and unscathed, as if it hadn't been harmed at all.

As Lin Jing wondered what had happened, just as he began to explore, he noticed that the Five Elements Spiritual Force around him had thinned somewhat.

Afterward, Lin Jing looked around.

He noticed that not only the Five Elements Spiritual Force around him, but even the mists outside the valley had thinned somewhat.

Lin Jing immediately understood what was happening.

It turned out that when the annihilating celestial lightning fell, it absorbed nearby spiritual power, but within the Five Elements Territory, the area was filled with Five Elements Spiritual Force.

And these Five Elements Spiritual Forces were precisely what was used in Lin Jing's practice of the Immortal Five Elements Technique.

Therefore, as the annihilating celestial lightning fell, it naturally carried these Five Elements Power with it.

And Lin Jing took this opportunity to control the Five Elements Power for his own use.

Realizing this, Lin Jing felt much more relaxed when he looked up at the clouds of Tribulation once more.

After the seventh Tribulation Lightning had passed,

The clouds in the sky brooded for a while before releasing the eighth Tribulation Lightning.

And like the seventh Tribulation Lightning, this one too came with an endless amount of Five Elements Spiritual Force.

In the midst of this lightning, Lin Jing appeared to be hurt.

However, after the lightning passed,

Lin Jing was unchanged, as usual.

novGo.c0

After the eighth Tribulation Lightning dissipated, what followed was the last, the ninth Tribulation Lightning.

The ninth Tribulation Lightning was different from the previous eight.

It not only carried the destructive power of the Heavenly Tribulation but also wielded attacks specifically aimed at the Soul Spirit.

Especially since advancing to the last Tribulation of the Solidifying Body Realm, this lightning was crucial in condensing the Five True Spirits of the Five Elements and cultivating the Five Elements Spiritual Body.

Lin Jing gazed at the sky, then began to wait for the ninth Tribulation Lightning to fall.

"Boom!"

The ninth Tribulation Lightning answered and fell.

As soon as this lightning struck, it came with countless pressures of heaven and earth, crushing down on Lin Jing's Soul Spirit.

And furthermore, the Five Elements Power contained in this lightning directly influenced Lin Jing's newly condensed Five True Spirits.

Under this tremendous pressure, Lin Jing's Soul Spirit and the Five True Spirits were slowly merging.

Chapter 766: Chapter 339: Advancing to the Pinnacle of the Solidifying Body Realm
Chapter 766: Chapter 339: Advancing to the Pinnacle of the Solidifying Body Realm
This ninth Tribulation Lightning lasted for a full nine breaths.

After nine breaths, the Tribulation Lightning dissipated.

And the entire space once again returned to tranquility.

However, after the vanishing of the Tribulation Lightning, Lin Jing, who should have endured the harshest damage from the last lightning, was sitting quietly in the valley as if he had sustained no injuries at all.

This ninth Tribulation Lightning was indeed the last one.

Therefore, after the ninth one had dissipated, the tribulation clouds in the sky began to slowly scatter, and the Five Elements Spiritual Force that had been disturbed by the Heavenly Tribulation was gradually restoring some order.

Yet, even as the tribulation clouds had dispersed and the Five Elements Territory was restored to normal, Lin Jing still sat there without moving, and no sound emanated from him.

It was as if Lin Jing had perished, leaving only his body behind, sitting motionless, and around him, there was no longer the gathering of the Five Elements Power.

In the entire Five Elements Territory, since there were no seasons, there was also no concept of heat or cold.

And so, time passed day by day.

It was uncertain how much time had gone by, but Lin Jing's body was covered with leaves that had blown in from who knows where, and he himself seemed to have turned into a statue.

On this day...

The long-peaceful Five Elements Territory suddenly burst forth with a surge of intense Spiritual Power fluctuations, so powerful that they directly disrupted the entire Five Elements Territory's Spiritual Force.

And the source of this Spiritual Power was none other than Lin Jing who was sitting in the valley of the Five Elements Territory.

After these fluctuations appeared,

The next moment,

A humanoid phantom emerged from within Lin Jing's body.

After this humanoid phantom appeared, it grew larger and larger, until it eventually became a hundred zhang tall.

On closer inspection, this phantom's attire was identical to Lin Jing's.

Even its facial features were no different from Lin Jing's.

After the appearance of the phantom, it looked toward the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor in front of it, paused for a moment, and then bowed deeply in a gesture of respect.

novG0.co

After the bow, the humanoid phantom quickly shrank until eventually, all of it retracted back into Lin Jing's body.

Only when the phantom had fully retracted, did Lin Jing, who had been sitting in meditation for who knows how long, finally open his eyes again.

At this moment,

His eyes still faintly revealed joy, and the corners of his mouth couldn't help but curve upward:

"Three years..."

"After three years, I have finally cultivated the Five Elements Spiritual Body."

Surviving the Heavenly Tribulation did not truly mean entry into the Solidifying Body Realm; the real marker of entering the Solidifying Body Realm was the gathering of five True Spirits of the Five Elements and the cultivation of the Five Elements Spiritual Body.

The phantom just now was the True Spirit of the Five Elements that Lin Jing had cultivated.

After surviving the Tribulation, Lin Jing had only initially gathered the five True Spirits of the Five Elements, but only after the Tribulation did the real cultivation of the Five Elements Spiritual Body begin.

With only three years, Lin Jing had cultivated the True Spirits of the Five Elements, which was an astoundingly fast pace.

In this, the role of the Five Elements Spirit Fruits was undeniable.

Of course,

There was another factor, which was when he helped that old ape hasten the ripening of the Five Elements Spirit Tree on Immortal Crossing Island.

By helping the old ape hasten the ripening of the Five Elements Spirit Tree, some of the Spiritual Power contained within the tree had remained inside Lin Jing's body, silently altering his physique.

This change was not apparent and didn't assist much with daily cultivation, yet at this moment, it revealed its value.

If not for that moment of accelerating the ripening of the Five Elements Spirit Tree for the old ape, the time Lin Jing would have needed to cultivate the Five Elements Spiritual Body would have been much longer than now.

It was that subtle change, coupled with the fact that Lin Jing consumed an actual Five Elements Spirit Fruit, that allowed him to cultivate the Five Elements Spiritual Body completely in just three years.

Otherwise, it would have taken Lin Jing at least thirty years to successfully cultivate the Five Elements Spiritual Body.

Having successfully cultivated the Five Elements Spiritual Body also signified that he had completely entered the Solidifying Body Realm, leaving Lin Jing in a most joyous mood at this moment.

With a thought, Lin Jing gave a slight shudder, and all the leaves and dust piled upon his body dissipated.

Then, Lin Jing took a step forward.

The next moment, he was floating above the valley.

Standing in the air above the valley of the Five Elements Territory, Lin Jing surveyed the entire territory.

The baptism of the Heavenly Tribulation had left the Five Elements Territory far messier than before, and now, looking at it, the whole territory had almost entirely changed from when he first entered.

The Spiritual Force of the entire Five Elements Territory had also been significantly depleted by the Heavenly Tribulation, and even the colorful clouds in the sky had lost their previous brilliance and had thinned out a bit.

Lin Jing knew, ever since the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor had dissipated, the Five Elements Spiritual Force of this territory had been slowly fading away.

Even if he didn't absorb them, these Five Elements Spiritual Forces would dissipate bit by bit, until one day they would completely disappear.

To Lin Jing, these Five Elements Spiritual Forces were precious means to enhance his cultivation, and it would be a waste to let them just fade away.

Therefore, Lin Jing decided, he would not leave here for the time being.

Instead, he planned to absorb all the Five Elements Spiritual Force of this territory.

Once the absorption was complete, he would then leave.

Having made his decision, Lin Jing no longer hesitated and went straight to the small courtyard on the palm of the Five Elements Ancestor's statue.

Upon arriving, Lin Jing made his way to the thatched hut where the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor once resided.

For the next period, Lin Jing intended to stay here and continue the Refinement of the Golden Core.

While elevating his Cultivation, he would simultaneously absorb the Five Elements Spiritual Force of this territory.

Chapter 767: Chapter 339: Advancing, Peak of the Solidifying Body Realm_2 Chapter 767: Chapter 339: Advancing, Peak of the Solidifying Body Realm_2 ...

...

Time flew by like a white steed flashing past a crevice.

Because there were no seasons within the Five Elements Territory, time seemed to have paused here, making it hard for one to sense its passing.

Only the gradually diminishing Five Elements Spiritual Power within the Five Elements Territory could let one realize that time was indeed trickling away.

A long time passed once again, and the Five Elements Spiritual Power within the Five Elements Territory gradually depleted, losing its former splendor, and the entire Five Elements Territory fell into a dead silence.

Only in the palm of the Five Elements Ancestor was there a slight fluctuation of spiritual power.

...

Novgo.co

At this moment.

In the small courtyard at the center of the statue's palm, Lin Jing was sitting cross-legged.

In his hand was a Golden Core, covered in cracks and devoid of any color.

This Golden Core was precisely the one the spiritual mind of the Five Elements Ancestor had given to Lin Jing.

However, all the cultivation within the Golden Core had been absorbed by Lin Jing, causing the entire core to become filled with cracks.

Just then, a slight "crack" sound came from the Golden Core, followed by a spread of cracks.

Soon...

The sound kept spreading, and the entire Golden Core completely shattered into several pieces.

After the Golden Core shattered, in less than a breath's time, it turned into powder and then vanished.

A long time passed after the Golden Core disappeared before Lin Jing slowly opened his eyes.

After opening his eyes, Lin Jing looked down at his palm, where there was nothing left.

Lin Jing then couldn't help but shake his head and sighed,
"Sigh...!"

"Even after absorbing all the spiritual power of the Five Elements Territory and the cultivation from the Golden Core, I still failed to advance to the Dao Integration Stage." Actually, the cultivation left by the Five Elements Ancestor in the Five Elements Golden Core, as well as the spiritual power of the entire Five Elements Territory, were not small in amount.

After absorbing either one, Lin Jing's cultivation would have significantly increased.

However, while cultivating the Immortal Five Elements Technique, Lin Jing was also using spiritual power to cultivate the Overlord Divine Physique, pushing his Body Refinement cultivation upwards, which naturally required much more spiritual power than others.

Therefore...

Even after Lin Jing had refined all the cultivation within the Five Elements Golden Core and absorbed all the Five Elements Spiritual Power of the territory, he only managed to break through to the pinnacle of the Solidifying Body Realm.

Actually, Lin Jing also entertained the thought of giving up cultivating the Overlord Divine Physique and abandoning the enhancement of his Body Refinement cultivation.

Because cultivating just the Immortal Five Elements Technique would have been sufficient, and cultivating the Overlord Divine Physique while being a Body Refinement Cultivator seemed somewhat redundant.

The main reason was that in order to cultivate the Overlord Divine Physique, one had to re-cultivate the realms one had already achieved once over.

The amount of spiritual power expended was also twice that of others.

However.

After a bit of thought, Lin Jing dismissed this idea.

The current Lin Jing, whose Spiritual Root had reached that of the Five Elements Heavenly Spiritual Root, did not lag behind other genius cultivators in terms of cultivation speed.

Additionally, he had System Space, an against-the-heaven tool, where the flow of time was multiplied.

Lin Jing did not need to worry about his cultivation speed being too slow due to the Body Refining techniques, with System Space having his back, these were no problems at all.

Another point was during the tribulation.

Every time Lin Jing faced a Heavenly Tribulation, it seemed stronger than what others faced.

The ability of Lin Jing to successfully survive every tribulation was significantly due to the Overlord Divine Physique.

Cultivating the Overlord Divine Physique allowed Lin Jing's body to absorb the Tribulation Lightning, reducing the damage he sustained during the tribulation.

And this time during the tribulation, one of the reasons Lin Jing appeared to suffer little damage was because of his cultivation of the Overlord Divine Physique.

Another was due to the abundant Five Elements Spiritual Power in the Five Elements Territory, which Lin Jing could use at any time to repair his wounded body.

Therefore, this tribulation was passed by Lin Jing with more shock than harm, safely overcoming it.

Had he not cultivated the Overlord Divine Physique, Lin Jing might not have been able to heal his body proactively before being turned to ash by the devastating Heavenly Lightning.

So, the Overlord Divine Physique should not be abandoned but continued to be cultivated.

Moreover, by cultivating the Overlord Divine Physique, he became a Body Refinement Cultivator, thereby gaining another method to combat foes, so why not embrace it?

...

After sighing, Lin Jing stood up.

Then, he counted on his fingers for a while.

After calculating, Lin Jing realized that he had spent over thirty-seven years cultivating up to the present.

That is to say, the time spent in the outside world, combined with the time spent in the System Space, added up to a total of one hundred and fifty years.

In that time, Lin Jing had cultivated from the first level of the Solidifying Body Realm to the peak of the Solidifying Body Realm.

Although he had the aid of the Five Elements Golden Core and Five Elements Spiritual Force, which accelerated his cultivation a bit, the cultivation Lin Jing needed to break through was twice that of others.

This pace of cultivation, under normal circumstances, could be considered extremely rapid.

But Lin Jing's cultivation was aided by the Five Elements Golden Core.

Therefore, this speed was not considered fast.

Instead, it was extremely slow.

During this period, Lin Jing wasn't constantly cultivating.

Many times, to prevent his cultivation from breaking through too quickly and becoming unstable, Lin Jing would periodically slow down his cultivation to solidify his gains.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have taken a full one hundred and fifty years to reach the peak of the Solidifying Body Realm, even with the aid of the Five Elements Golden Core.

During the times he solidified his cultivation, Lin Jing was not idle; whenever he had time, he would refine some elixirs.

With continuous alchemy, his Alchemy Proficiency naturally increased significantly.

As a result, Lin Jing's alchemy level also made another breakthrough, directly advancing to a Seventh Grade Alchemist.

Since those low-tier Spiritual Plants matured very quickly, Lin Jing planted most of the Spirit Fields with them.

Throughout this period, by utilizing the rapid maturation of these low-tier Spiritual Plants, Lin Jing not only gained many Harvest Points but also refined quite a few low-tier elixirs of Flawless quality during his alchemy sessions.

And these low-tier elixirs, whether Flawless quality or other qualities, were of no use to Lin Jing himself.

So...

Lin Jing converted all of the elixirs he refined, including those Flawless elixirs, entirely into Harvest Points.

In this way, up to this point, the Harvest Points accumulated in the System Space had reached as many as nine hundred and eighty thousand.

He needed less than twenty thousand Harvest Points to upgrade the System Space again.

...

After reviewing his harvest, Lin Jing looked towards the outside valley and then took a step forward.

The next moment,
Lin Jing appeared in the airspace above the valley.

The valley was no longer the same as when Lin Jing first entered; it had become extremely desolate.

The colorful auspicious clouds in the sky had also disappeared, revealing a grey, murky sky, and even the colorful mist that had previously been outside the valley had vanished completely.

The entire Five Elements Territory was enveloped in a grey fog.

Looking around the entire valley, Lin Jing finally turned towards the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor.

There was nothing left in the valley.

It was time for him to leave.

Following that,
Lin Jing bowed respectfully to the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor, then turned around, planning to step into the Teleportation Array and leave the place.

But just as he was about to leave, a sudden change occurred...

The Formation in the valley below began to emit a strong light.

It seemed, from the outside, that someone was activating the Formation, attempting to enter.

At this moment, that someone was still trying to enter here, which was indeed odd.

Lin Jing then looked towards the Formation in the valley.

The light emitted by the Formation grew stronger and stronger, and within that light, a figure slowly became visible.

After the figure appeared, the light from the Formation immediately dimmed.

When the teleportation light completely disappeared, Lin Jing could clearly see the figure within the light.

It was none other than Li Mingwu.

The appearance of Li Mingwu left Lin Jing quite astonished.

He thought that Li Mingwu had stayed in the Water Element Realm, and that he would not meet him again in these Five Elements Ruins.

Unexpectedly, just as he prepared to leave, Li Mingwu appeared again.

Seeing Li Mingwu, Lin Jing couldn't help but smile.

It seemed this was fate.

His grudge with Li Mingwu was destined to be settled here in these Five Elements Ruins.

Chapter 768: Chapter 340: The Resentment with Li Mingwu Chapter 768: Chapter 340: The Resentment with Li Mingwu Lin Jing and Li Mingwu's grievance can be described as long-standing.

It can be said that soon after he arrived in the Southern Outer Sea, a series of events entangled him with Li Mingwu.

During this period, Li Mingwu, a potential enemy, constantly loomed over Lin Jing, forcing him to act cautiously.

Especially after the Devouring Spirit Blood Realm incident, Lin Jing's grievances with Li Mingwu, after having truly encountered him for the first time, became irreconcilable.

After that, Lin Jing had been extremely cautious, daring not to expose himself slightly, growing from an original Junior Cultivator at the Golden Core stage to now being at the peak of the Solidifying Body Realm.

This time, in the Five Elements Territory, Lin Jing's gains were huge, particularly his cultivation, which advanced significantly.

It can be said that with Lin Jing's current state, Li Mingwu certainly couldn't reach him.

...

Now, Li Mingwu had also come to this Five Elements Territory, and it was time to settle their grievances.

...

After teleporting here, Li Mingwu immediately spotted Lin Jing, and showed a moment of astonishment upon seeing him.

Obviously, Li Mingwu hadn't expected Lin Jing to still be here.

After his initial shock, Li Mingwu quickly recovered and his gaze towards Lin Jing carried that indifference typically seen from higher-echelon cultivators towards those of lower rank.

"I didn't expect you to still be here, I must say, my luck isn't too bad."

"It's good, actually."

I can settle things with you here instead of having to go out and search for you."

Since Lin Jing appeared as usual, without showing his true cultivation, Li Mingwu saw him as still unchanged from before.

Yet when Lin Jing looked at Li Mingwu, he noticed his substantial changes.

Firstly, he seemed younger, no longer bearing his previous decrepit form, but rather taking on the appearance of a venerable immortal with youthful features.

Furthermore, it was his cultivation that had changed.

Now Lin Jing saw at a glance that Li Mingwu had successfully advanced, becoming a cultivator at the first level of the Solidifying Body Realm.

If Li Mingwu had advanced to the Solidifying Body Realm, then it meant that Bai Yi was probably in great peril.

After all, for Li Mingwu to advance, he needed to seize the Metallic Attribute Five Elements True Spirit from Bai Yi.

And now...

Li Mingwu having successfully advanced to Solidifying Body, the fate of Bai Yi could be easily surmised.

...

Lin Jing looked at Li Mingwu, completely unruffled, and spoke in an even tone:

“Since you’ve successfully advanced to the Solidifying Body stage, it appears that Bai Yi is probably in great peril.”

Li Mingwu looked at Lin Jing, then his lips slightly curled upwards:

“It seems you are not foolish, you figured out that I’ve advanced to the Solidifying Body stage.”

“Indeed...”

“Bai Yi’s Metallic Attribute Five Elements True Spirit was seized by me, and naturally I wouldn’t let him live.”

“Speaking of which, I really owe him thanks.

The Metallic Attribute Five Elements True Spirit suits me quite well.”

Having said that, Li Mingwu quickly extended his Divine Sense to meticulously probe Lin Jing.

Lin Jing’s current cultivation far surpassed Li Mingwu’s, so even though the latter probed actively, he couldn’t detect anything due to Lin Jing’s deliberate concealment.

After probing, Li Mingwu looked at Lin Jing with disdain, saying:

“You really can pretend...”

“Knowing I’ve advanced to the Solidifying Body stage yet still so calm, I would have thought you too had advanced to the Solidifying Body stage if I hadn’t seen your cultivation remain unchanged.”

“However...”

“No matter how strongly you feign composure, it is useless, for the gap between the Solidifying Body stage and the Divinity Transformation Stage is something you will never understand.”

It was quite normal for Li Mingwu to think this way.

The last time he saw Lin Jing in the Water Element Realm was just over fifty years ago.

novGo.co

Back then in the Water Element Realm, Lin Jing was only at the seventh level of the Divinity Transformation Stage.

Now, only a little over fifty years had passed, and Li Mingwu couldn't believe that Lin Jing might have surpassed him in such a short time.

After finishing his thoughts, Li Mingwu looked coldly at Lin Jing and said:

"Actually, since the very beginning at the Five Elements Palace, I've been suspecting whether the uncontrolled burst of the Wooden Attribute Spiritual Power was your doing?"

"And have you been targeting me all along?"

"I couldn't understand this at first, everything seemed accidental.

But since the last time in the Water Realm when you showed your true power and saved Bai Yi, I've been reflecting on past events and slowly piecing things together."

"Now I think back, several of my plans failed, and it seems you were always involved."

"Exploring the Five Elements Palace, the Wooden Attribute Spiritual Power I controlled suddenly exploded around me, exposing me and leading to Bai Yi and his companions attacking me, forcing me to flee prematurely."

"At the trade fair in Bihai City, the Jade Soul Algae I wanted ended up in your hands."

"Not to mention the Water Element Realm, your schemes against Bai Yi allowed him to escape, forcing me to remain in the Water Realm, missing the appearance of the Soul Tomb."

"It delayed me by more than fifty years until the Soul Tomb reappeared, allowing me to come here."

"To say that all these were coincidences would be too much of a coincidence."

After finishing, Li Mingwu's gaze became frosty, carrying the unmatched aura of a Solidifying Body cultivator, pressing down on Lin Jing:

"Now, do you still intend to argue?"

Confronted with Li Mingwu's oppressive aura, Lin Jing remained unfazed.

Instead, he looked at Li Mingwu, his eyes calm, and slowly said:

"Do you know?"

Chapter 769: Chapter 340: The Resentment with Li Mingwu_2 Chapter 769: Chapter 340: The Resentment with Li Mingwu_2 “Actually, in terms of destiny, my connection with you is truly extraordinary,”

Lin Jing’s words caused Li Mingwu to pause, then he frowned and looked at Lin Jing.

Lin Jing ignored Li Mingwu and continued:

“The first time I learned of your name was on an uninhabited island.”

“On that island, there was a skeleton, and the skeleton belonged to ‘Ling Yin Real Person.’”

“It was in his will that I learned of your name, and also obtained the ‘Five Elements Fire Command.’”

“Ling Yin, it was actually him...”

After speaking, Li Mingwu looked at Lin Jing, a look of realization dawning in his eyes:

“So, from that time, you started paying attention to me.”

Lin Jing nodded:

“Yes, and no...”

“At that time, the disparity in our cultivation was simply too vast; I could only inquire about your news indirectly.”

After speaking, Lin Jing continued:

“The second time I truly interacted with you was in the ‘Devouring Spirit Blood Realm.’

“You, along with ‘Ling Yi Real Person,’ set up a grand scheme, intending to refine a thousand Golden Cores to help you advance to the Solidifying Body Stage.”

“You actually entered the Devouring Spirit Blood Realm...”

Li Mingwu’s eyes narrowed slightly, a dangerous glint appearing in them.

Yet Lin Jing seemed oblivious, nodding lightly.

“Yes!”

“If I hadn’t done everything in my power to summon the Heavenly Tribulation and break open the Devouring Spirit Blood Realm, I’m afraid none of us would have escaped.”

“So...

Novgo.co

it was you...”

Upon hearing this, Li Mingwu’s face became gloomy, and the look he gave Lin Jing grew even more dangerous.

Lin Jing, however, continued to look at Li Mingwu calmly and said:

“That’s right, it was me.”

“If you hadn’t been injured by the Heavenly Tribulation back then, I wouldn’t have had so many chances to catch my breath.”

At this moment.

...

Li Mingwu’s gaze towards Lin Jing was fraught with evident murderous intent, yet he did not act rashly and instead spoke again, asking Lin Jing:

“So you’re saying, earlier in the Five Elements Cave Mansion, when the Five Elements Wood Hall was opened, guiding that explosive spiritual power to attack me was also your doing.”

Lin Jing nodded:

“That’s right.”

“I knew that once you entered the Wood Hall, you’d obtain the elixir medicine for soul spirit healing inside.

If you recovered, then I would be in danger.”

“So I deliberately guided that violent spiritual power to explode near you, to force you to reveal your true nature.”

...

...

Upon hearing Lin Jing’s words, Li Mingwu couldn’t help but laugh in anger, his gaze toward Lin Jing filled with surging killing intent:

“Good!”

“Good!”

“Good...!”

“Hahaha...”

“To think that after thousands of years of wandering, I’ve been played by you, a mere ant, more than once.”

“You really are something...”

Even as Li Mingwu’s rage became uncontrollable, Lin Jing remained utterly calm and continued to speak:

“The Metallic Attribute Five Elements True Spirit of the Metal Realm was also taken by me.”

“I originally thought that without the Five Elements True Spirit, you wouldn’t be able to advance to the Solidifying Body Stage.”

“But unexpectedly, you already had plans and set your sights on Bai Yi.

In the end, I still couldn’t prevent you from advancing to the Solidifying Body Stage.”

“Sigh...!”

Hearing Lin Jing’s words, Li Mingwu could no longer suppress his anger.

His rage transformed into endless murderous intent, and with the wild momentum of the Solidifying Body cultivation, it pressed down on Lin Jing.

And behind him, a shadow that was dozens of meters tall also appeared.

This silhouette was undoubtedly the Five Elements Spiritual Body that Li Mingwu had refined.

Upon its appearance, it did not hesitate at all, immediately raising a palm and bringing down an overwhelmingly mighty blow towards Lin Jing.

Even the Five Elements Spiritual Body was being utilized; it was clear that Li Mingwu had lost his sanity at this point, disregarding everything else, intent on obliterating Lin Jing right there and then.

Dao Integration cultivators wielding Five Elements Spiritual Bodies could manipulate the Spiritual Power around them for their own use.

And even their power could be stronger than that harnessed by Divine Arts.

However, all the Spiritual Energy in the Five Elements Territory was absorbed by Lin Jing.

Even when Li Mingwu attacked Lin Jing using his Five Elements Spiritual Body, there was no Spiritual Power to call upon.

This Five Elements Spiritual Body, while seemingly formidable, was actually quite limited without Spiritual Power to harness, and it was even weaker than Divine Arts.

Li Mingwu had simply assumed that Lin Jing was still at the seventh level of Divinity Transformation, which led to his overconfidence in using the Five Elements Spiritual Body to launch an attack on Lin Jing.

Moreover, Lin Jing's words had caused Li Mingwu to lose his rationality.

That's why Li Mingwu didn't hold back anything, wishing to kill Lin Jing right there and then.

However,

faced with Li Mingwu's unrestrained attack, Lin Jing was in no hurry, just looking at Li Mingwu in front of him and then gently stretching out his palm, patting lightly.

This pat seemed light, but the terrifying force it carried was alarming.

After Lin Jing's palm struck out, the palm imprint immediately left his hand, transforming into a huge palm imprint emanating a WÇ" CÇŽi radiance.

This palm imprint was not very large at first, but as it flew out, it grew larger and larger.

By the time it neared Li Mingwu, this massive palm imprint had grown to nearly a hundred zhang, surpassing the Five Elements Spiritual Body that Li Mingwu had condensed.

Li Mingwu, upon seeing this enormous palm imprint and feeling the terrifying aura emanating from it, was suddenly stunned.

And then,

Li Mingwu's face filled with fear, and he couldn't help but try to retreat.

However, Lin Jing's palm was extremely fast.

There was no time for Li Mingwu to regret anything as the palm imprint had already descended.

"Boom!"

The gigantic WÇ" CÇŽi palm imprint fell, striking the Five Elements Spiritual Body that Li Mingwu had condensed.

Upon the originally ethereal Spiritual Body, countless cracks appeared immediately, and it almost exploded on the spot.

After enduring this palm, Li Mingwu's Spiritual Body shrank back into his body in an instant.

With his Five Elements Spiritual Body injured, Li Mingwu himself naturally suffered greatly; as his Spiritual Body retracted into his own body, Li Mingwu couldn't hold on any longer, and directly "puff," he spat out a large mouthful of fresh blood.

The palm imprint Lin Jing struck with had diminished considerably and become much dimmer, but despite its fading light, it did not dissipate.

Instead, it retained a formidable momentum and continued to move towards Li Mingwu's body.

Having just been injured when his Five Elements Spiritual Body was harmed, Li Mingwu was already in a bad state.

And that huge palm imprint still had remaining force, coming at him again.

Li Mingwu, seeing this, immediately turned deathly pale.

Looking at Lin Jing, his eyes revealed an utterly disbelieving expression.

Lin Jing's palm was too strong, something he simply couldn't defend against.

He had no idea why Lin Jing could be so powerful.

However...

Now wasn't the time for him to think further, as the palm imprint was about to strike again.

Li Mingwu quickly took out two Magical Treasures from his Storage Bag.

He deployed one of them immediately, placing it in front of him and activating it to form a Protective Shield, enveloping himself within it.

The other, he commanded to fly towards the palm imprint.

"Explode!"

With a shout from Li Mingwu, the Magical Treasure flying towards the palm imprint violently exploded.

Blocked by the self-destructing Magical Treasure, the palm imprint once again dimmed, almost reduced to a mere afterimage.

Yet, that residual palm imprint still struck Li Mingwu but was blocked by the Protective Shield he had activated.

Seeing the palm imprint finally held off, Li Mingwu dared to relax slightly.

Afterward, Li Mingwu raised his head to look towards Lin Jing, the corner of his eyes twitching uncontrollably, but he tried to appear calm as he said:

"Are you Lin Jing?"

"No, that's impossible."

"Lin Jing's Cultivation could never reach such a level."

"The power of that palm just now, only a Dao Integration late-stage cultivator, or even a Dao Integration cultivator, could unleash."

"You can't possibly be Lin Jing..."

"Who in the world are you?"

"Could it be that you are the Five Elements Ancestor?"

Did you take over his body?"

Clearly, Lin Jing's strength had taken Li Mingwu by surprise, giving him an unreal sensation.

That's why he thought the person who was acting against him might be the Five Elements Ancestor.

Lin Jing, however, looked at Li Mingwu and spoke calmly:

"You're wrong!"

"I indeed am Lin Jing."

"Only, my Cultivation has improved a bit faster than yours, that's all."

Chapter 770: Chapter 341 End of the Road Chapter 770: Chapter 341 End of the Road
After hearing Lin Jing's words, Li Mingwu was stunned for a moment before he suddenly realized what was going on and couldn't help but look behind Lin Jing at the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor:

"I understand now..."

"It's the inheritance, you've received the inheritance of the Five Elements Ancestor."

"Only in this way could you have advanced so rapidly in cultivation in such a short period of time."

Having said that, Li Mingwu stared intently at Lin Jing, hoping to find confirmation on his face.

However, Lin Jing merely hooked the corner of his mouth in a smile and did not refute.

Seeing Lin Jing's tacit acknowledgment, Li Mingwu's heart immediately sank.

He hadn't expected that within the Five Elements Territory, there would be such amazing benefits.

Benefits that allowed Lin Jing, a seventh-layer Divinity Transformation cultivator, to rise to a level far beyond his own reach in just over fifty years.

At this moment, Li Mingwu was filled with regret.

If he had known this would happen, he would have braved the Soul Tomb at the first opportunity and arrived at this place before Lin Jingzhi, no matter what it took.

...

Even if he couldn't receive the inheritance of the Five Elements Territory, he couldn't let Lin Jing have it.

But now it was too late to say anything; Lin Jing had already obtained the inheritance of the Five Elements Territory, and his cultivation had soared drastically because of it.

In Li Mingwu's eyes, Lin Jing's cultivation might not have reached the Dao Integration Stage yet, but it was probably not far off.

With his own current level of cultivation, he was definitely no match for Lin Jing, and considering the grudges between the two of them, it was unlikely that Lin Jing would let him off easily.

Thinking of this, Li Mingwu's brow furrowed deeply.

If he couldn't think of a proper solution soon, then the Five Elements Territory would become his burial ground.

...

While Li Mingwu was racking his brains, Lin Jing was also observing him carefully.

Lin Jing knew that under these circumstances, Li Mingwu was surely not going to sit and await his fate; he would try by all means to escape from this place.

To do so, he must figure out a way to distract Lin Jing while selecting a route of escape.

And to escape the Five Elements Territory...

Lin Jing then glanced at the Teleportation Array in the valley.

That was the only way out.

The location of the Teleportation Array was not too far from Li Mingwu; with his speed, Li Mingwu could reach it in the blink of an eye.

Lin Jing had just finished his contemplation.

But Li Mingwu seemed to have prepared himself, as he first cleaned the bloodstain on the corner of his mouth and then, unusually calm, walked straight towards Lin Jing.

As Li Mingwu walked towards Lin Jing, he also removed the Space Ring from his hand.

Then, holding the Space Ring, Li Mingwu said to Lin Jing:

"Lin Jing!"

“I apologize for what happened before.”

“Inside this Space Ring are all the treasures I’ve collected over thousands of years.

It contains countless Magical Treasures, precious items, and even a Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir.”

“As an Alchemist, you must have heard of the Longevity Life-Extension Elixir.

It is extremely rare, capable of increasing a cultivator’s lifespan, and exceedingly difficult to refine.”

“One Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir can increase a cultivator’s lifespan by a thousand years.”

“You can rest assured that this Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir is genuine.

Since you’ve seen Ling Yin’s remains, you can probably guess my lifespan.”

“The reason I’ve lived this long is because I took a Supreme Grade Lifespan Extension Pill.”

“As long as you’re willing to let me go, I will give you all the treasures I’ve collected, including that Supreme Grade Lifespan Extension Pill.”

Lin Jing’s gaze remained calm as he looked at Li Mingwu but did not respond.

“If you don’t believe me, I can give you the Space Ring first so that you can check the items inside.”

Having spoken...

Novg0.co

Li Mingwu promptly started working to remove the seals on the Space Ring; as he continuously formed hand seals, the barriers on the ring began to lift one by one.

With the seal completely lifted, Li Mingwu looked at Lin Jing and said:

“I have fully removed the seal on the Space Ring.

If you’re willing to let me go, everything inside is yours.”

“And after I leave, I will leave the Southern Outer Sea straight away, never to appear again, nor will I pose any threat to you or those around you.”

“I can swear on my Soul Spirit to this.”

After speaking, Li Mingwu frowned slightly as he looked at Lin Jing, waiting for his reaction.

Once Li Mingwu finished speaking, Lin Jing fell into a brief contemplation...

Knowing Li Mingwu as he did, Lin Jing understood Li Mingwu was a person who would not stop until he achieved his goals and such a person would not be willing to be manipulated by others.

Now that Li Mingwu was actively begging for mercy, it was undoubtedly a huge joke to Lin Jing.

However, having lived for thousands of years with complex schemes and myriad tricks, Lin Jing was certain that Li Mingwu must still have a card up his sleeve to save his life, and even with a much higher cultivation level, he could not afford to take it lightly.

After a brief contemplation, Lin Jing thought of a strategy that would turn the tables, prompting Li Mingwu to voluntarily reveal his ace in the hole.

Subsequently...

Lin Jing appeared calm as he looked at Li Mingwu, with eyes so piercing they seemed to see right through him.

A moment later, Lin Jing spoke directly:

“When I was accepting the inheritance of the Five Elements Ancestor, I acquired a method of applying the Soul Spirit.”

“This method allows the Soul Spirit to be implanted deep within a cultivator’s mind; any abnormal movement by the subject would be instantly detected by the practitioner.”

“Moreover, this method was created by the Five Elements Ancestor at the peak of his prowess; unless undone by the practitioner himself, no one else can break it.”

Chapter 770: Chapter 341 End of the Road Chapter 770: Chapter 341 End of the Road After hearing Lin Jing’s words, Li Mingwu was stunned for a moment before he suddenly realized what was going on and couldn’t help but look behind Lin Jing at the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor:

Having said that, Li Mingwu stared intently at Lin Jing, hoping to find confirmation on his face.

However, Lin Jing merely hooked the corner of his mouth in a smile and did not refute.

Seeing Lin Jing’s tacit acknowledgment, Li Mingwu’s heart immediately sank.

He hadn’t expected that within the Five Elements Territory, there would be such amazing benefits.

Benefits that allowed Lin Jing, a seventh-layer Divinity Transformation cultivator, to rise to a level far beyond his own reach in just over fifty years.

At this moment, Li Mingwu was filled with regret.

If he had known this would happen, he would have braved the Soul Tomb at the first opportunity and arrived at this place before Lin Jingzhi, no matter what it took.

...

Even if he couldn't receive the inheritance of the Five Elements Territory, he couldn't let Lin Jing have it.

But now it was too late to say anything; Lin Jing had already obtained the inheritance of the Five Elements Territory, and his cultivation had soared drastically because of it.

In Li Mingwu's eyes, Lin Jing's cultivation might not have reached the Dao Integration Stage yet, but it was probably not far off.

With his own current level of cultivation, he was definitely no match for Lin Jing, and considering the grudges between the two of them, it was unlikely that Lin Jing would let him off easily.

Thinking of this, Li Mingwu's brow furrowed deeply.

If he couldn't think of a proper solution soon, then the Five Elements Territory would become his burial ground.

...

While Li Mingwu was racking his brains, Lin Jing was also observing him carefully.

Lin Jing knew that under these circumstances, Li Mingwu was surely not going to sit and await his fate; he would try by all means to escape from this place.

To do so, he must figure out a way to distract Lin Jing while selecting a route of escape.

And to escape the Five Elements Territory...

Lin Jing then glanced at the Teleportation Array in the valley.

That was the only way out.

The location of the Teleportation Array was not too far from Li Mingwu; with his speed, Li Mingwu could reach it in the blink of an eye.

Lin Jing had just finished his contemplation.

But Li Mingwu seemed to have prepared himself, as he first cleaned the bloodstain on the corner of his mouth and then, unusually calm, walked straight towards Lin Jing.

As Li Mingwu walked towards Lin Jing, he also removed the Space Ring from his hand.

Then, holding the Space Ring, Li Mingwu said to Lin Jing:

“Lin Jing!”

“I apologize for what happened before.”

“Inside this Space Ring are all the treasures I’ve collected over thousands of years.

It contains countless Magical Treasures, precious items, and even a Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir.”

“As an Alchemist, you must have heard of the Longevity Life-Extension Elixir.

It is extremely rare, capable of increasing a cultivator’s lifespan, and exceedingly difficult to refine.”

“One Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir can increase a cultivator’s lifespan by a thousand years.”

“You can rest assured that this Supreme Grade Longevity Life-Extension Elixir is genuine.

Since you’ve seen Ling Yin’s remains, you can probably guess my lifespan.”

“The reason I’ve lived this long is because I took a Supreme Grade Lifespan Extension Pill.”

“As long as you’re willing to let me go, I will give you all the treasures I’ve collected, including that Supreme Grade Lifespan Extension Pill.”

Lin Jing’s gaze remained calm as he looked at Li Mingwu but did not respond.

“If you don’t believe me, I can give you the Space Ring first so that you can check the items inside.”

Having spoken...

Li Mingwu promptly started working to remove the seals on the Space Ring; as he continuously formed hand seals, the barriers on the ring began to lift one by one.

With the seal completely lifted, Li Mingwu looked at Lin Jing and said:

“I have fully removed the seal on the Space Ring.

If you’re willing to let me go, everything inside is yours.”

“And after I leave, I will leave the Southern Outer Sea straight away, never to appear again, nor will I pose any threat to you or those around you.”

“I can swear on my Soul Spirit to this.”

After speaking, Li Mingwu frowned slightly as he looked at Lin Jing, waiting for his reaction.

Once Li Mingwu finished speaking, Lin Jing fell into a brief contemplation...

Knowing Li Mingwu as he did, Lin Jing understood Li Mingwu was a person who would not stop until he achieved his goals and such a person would not be willing to be manipulated by others.

Now that Li Mingwu was actively begging for mercy, it was undoubtedly a huge joke to Lin Jing.

However, having lived for thousands of years with complex schemes and myriad tricks, Lin Jing was certain that Li Mingwu must still have a card up his sleeve to save his life, and even with a much higher cultivation level, he could not afford to take it lightly.

After a brief contemplation, Lin Jing thought of a strategy that would turn the tables, prompting Li Mingwu to voluntarily reveal his ace in the hole.

Subsequently...

Lin Jing appeared calm as he looked at Li Mingwu, with eyes so piercing they seemed to see right through him.

A moment later, Lin Jing spoke directly:

“When I was accepting the inheritance of the Five Elements Ancestor, I acquired a method of applying the Soul Spirit.”

“This method allows the Soul Spirit to be implanted deep within a cultivator’s mind; any abnormal movement by the subject would be instantly detected by the practitioner.”

“Moreover, this method was created by the Five Elements Ancestor at the peak of his prowess; unless undone by the practitioner himself, no one else can break it.”
