#Chapter 771 - Read Immortality Cultivation: I Farm in the System Space Chapter 771

Chapter 771: Chapter 341: The End_2 Chapter 771: Chapter 341: The End_2 At this point, Lin Jing's eyes flashed with a sharp gleam as he stared intently at Li Mingwu and spoke:

"To be honest, considering the grudges between us, no matter what you say, even if you swear on your Soul Spirit, I find it very difficult to trust you."

"But..."

"As long as you agree to let me implant the Divine Sense Technique into your Sea of Consciousness, I'll believe you."

Upon hearing Lin Jing's words, Li Mingwu couldn't help but lower his head, deep in thought.

It was clear he was hesitating.

However, Li Mingwu didn't hesitate for too long before he raised his head to look at Lin Jing again.

"Fine..."

"As long as you spare my life, what harm is there in having the Divine Sense Technique implanted by you?"

Having said that, Li Mingwu threw the Space Ring, whose restrictions he had already removed, toward Lin Jing.

It seemed that he truly intended to use all the contents of the Space Ring to exchange for his life.

But just as...

...

The moment the Space Ring was thrown, Lin Jing unexpectedly made another move, with a huge palm print launching once again toward Li Mingwu.

Seeing Lin Jing striking at that moment, Li Mingwu was instantly filled with anger, hastily retreating backward at high speed while pointing at Lin Jing and furiously saying:

“You...”

However, before he could finish speaking, he saw the mocking look in Lin Jing’s eyes.

Realizing that his ruse had been seen through, Li Mingwu dropped all pretense.

Immediately after, Li Mingwu formed a hand seal with one hand, and the Space Ring that had been flying towards Lin Jing exploded in midair.

As the Space Ring burst apart, Li Mingwu’s hand produced a pitch-black, shining Exotic Stone, and his body was shrouded in a black, semi-transparent protective barrier.

At this moment, Li Mingwu’s lips curled into a smirk as he looked at the exploded Space Ring hanging in the air...

...

After the Space Ring exploded, a black tornado emerged from within it, and as soon as it appeared, it swept towards the massive palm print Lin Jing had struck.

In just a moment, the giant palm print Lin Jing had unleashed was completely engulfed by the black tornado and swept away.

This black tornado was capable of devouring Spiritual Power.

After swallowing Lin Jing’s palm print, the black tornado suddenly grew much larger.

And as it grew, the true form of this black tornado was revealed; it was actually made up of countless black beetles.

They were individually small, but extremely unified.

Countless black beetles congregated together to form this black tornado.

Seeing that these black beetles could consume his palm print, Lin Jing’s brow furrowed slightly.

Afterward.

Lin Jing once again concentrated two strands of Five-Colored Aurora, as thin as hair, and shot them towards two of the larger black beetles within the whirlwind.

The speed of the Five-Colored Aurora was rapid, and in just a moment, it neared the two black beetles.

But the two black beetles reacted quickly too, and as soon as the Five-Colored Aurora approached them, the beetles opened their jaws, as wide as half their bodies, and swallowed the strands of Five-Colored Aurora.

Just like that, the two strands of Five-Colored Aurora were directly consumed by the black beetles.

After swallowing the Five-Colored Aurora, the two black beetles paused for a moment and then their bodies began to grow wildly; in only a short amount of time, the two beetles, originally the size of mung beans, had increased several times in size, becoming as large as thumbs.

After the two beetles grew, Lin Jing could even see the ferocious red glow in their eyes.

Having devoured the two strands of Five-Colored Aurora, the two black beetles then fixed their attention on Lin Jing.

They opened their mouths, issuing a shrill scream, and instantly all the black beetles swarmed toward them.

Seeing this scene, Lin Jing's brows knitted more tightly together.

Even the Five Elements Divine Art seemed to be ineffective against these black beetles; he truly didn't know how to deal with them.

Even so, Lin Jing didn't give up.

He then directly channeled the power of his Divine Sense, rushing towards the whirlwind.

However.

No sooner had Lin Jing's Divine Sense made contact with the black beetles than it was repelled.

These black beetles, though appearing to be independent entities, were actually connected by a mysterious force.

This mysterious force protected the black beetles, making it impossible even for Divine Sense to penetrate.

Seeing that Divine Sense was useless, Lin Jing then turned his gaze to Li Mingwu who was behind the black beetles.

At that moment, Li Mingwu was hiding behind the black, semi-transparent shield with a cold smirk on his lips as he watched Lin Jing.

It seemed he was very confident in these black beetles.

The black beetles quickly completed their assembly.

The next moment, they rushed directly towards Lin Jing.

Knowing that spells were useless against them, Lin Jing no longer used magic but instead burst forth at high speed towards Li Mingwu.

Seeing Lin Jing suddenly appear, Li Mingwu immediately channeled Spiritual Power into the black Exotic Stone in his hand.

The next moment.

The black Exotic Stone emitted black light, and the protective shield around Li Mingwu grew even brighter.

n0vGo.co

Upon Lin Jing's arrival, he threw a punch which landed on the black, semi-transparent protective barrier.

However.

After flashing a few times, the black shield managed to block Lin Jing's full-powered punch.

Despite Lin Jing's full-powered punch, the black shield showed no signs of change.

And then.

Li Mingwu spoke:

"These Demon Yin Devouring Spirit Beetles can only be used this once.

They are my last trump card.

I didn't want to use them, but you forced me."

As Li Mingwu spoke, Lin Jing was also not idle, trying several methods in succession but failing to break through the black protective barrier around Li Mingwu.

Chapter 772: Chapter 341: The End_3 Chapter 772: Chapter 341: The End_3 Seeing this, Li Mingwu couldn't help but let out a cold laugh:

"Don't bother wasting your energy."

"Unless you exterminate those Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects, you won't be able to break this protective shield."

Just then, the black beetles surged forth like a tornado, coming again.

In the blink of an eye, they had already closed in on Lin Jing.

Lin Jing, seeing this, didn't delay any further, but instead took a step forward, bursting with extreme speed, circled around the swarm of insects, and left the area.

Since Li Mingwu's protective shield was related to those Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects, he would first eliminate the insects before dealing with Li Mingwu.

When Lin Jing left, he headed straight for the statue of the Five Elements Ancestor.

Li Mingwu, seeing this, also hurriedly controlled the Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects to follow.

Soon after.

...

Lin Jing flew directly into the palm of the statue.

And those Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects followed suit, flying into the palm of the Five Elements Ancestor statue after Lin Jing.

Li Mingwu saw this and followed as well, moving toward the direction of the statue.

However, perhaps because he was maintaining the protective shield, Li Mingwu's speed was not very fast.

While Li Mingwu was still halfway through the valley, he discovered several cracks appearing on the black exotic stones in his hand.

At the same time, the black protective shield around him was also rapidly dimming.

Li Mingwu realized something was wrong and his face turned pale with alarm.

Problems with the black exotic stones in his hand meant that the Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects had encountered trouble.

The Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects were cultivated by a Demon Cultivator at the Transcendence Tribulation Stage, and dealing with these insects would normally require a Cultivation at least at the Transcendence Tribulation Stage.

Li Mingwu had obtained these Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects by chance and had been carefully preserving them ever since as his trump card.

The supposed infallible Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects had unexpectedly encountered problems with Lin Jing.

Li Mingwu didn't know how Lin Jing had managed to eliminate those insects, but he knew that with their death, his own demise was certain.

Thus.

Li Mingwu made a decisive decision and rushed towards the valley's Teleportation Array.

Only...

Before he could get close to the Teleportation Array, he felt an extremely terrifying presence coming from behind him, along with a voice that reached him from midair behind him.

"Your trump card is exhausted, what follows is your end..."

This voice was Lin Jing's.

It was only then that Li Mingwu noticed the black exotic stones in his hand had shattered into several pieces.

He hadn't expected Lin Jing to resolve the situation with all the Demonic Yin Soul-Devouring Insects so quickly and to be in pursuit.

Li Mingwu was overwhelmed with fear, partly due to sensing Lin Jing's terror and also because he felt so close to death at this moment.

Li Mingwu didn't want to die...

Just as when he had betrayed Ling Yin before, Li Mingwu had betrayed many people in order to gain more resources for Cultivation.

Everything he had done was for the sake of survival.

Is there any fault in wanting to live?

No!

For Li Mingwu, using any means was justified.

N0vG0.00

If he hadn't used all the tricks at his disposal, how could he have survived until now?

How could he have advanced to the Solidifying Body Realm with a lifespan approaching three thousand years?

He would probably have died a thousand years ago if not for his striving.

Now.

Having just advanced to Solidifying Body and with at least two thousand years of lifespan left, naturally, Li Mingwu didn't wish to die just yet.

Seeing that it was too late to flee, Li Mingwu turned around, intending to beg for mercy:

"Don't kill..."

However, upon turning around, what he saw was a terrifying and overwhelmingly murderous palm print...

Chapter 773: Chapter 342: Incident at Li Yan Island Chapter 773: Chapter 342: Incident at Li Yan Island This palm was almost his full force.

One could imagine its power.

Li Mingwu had just begun to plead for mercy when Lin Jing's palm had already come crashing down.

And then,

in the fearful gaze of Li Mingwu, his body slowly dissolved under this palm, eventually disappearing entirely.

Even Li Mingwu's soul spirit couldn't escape and was destroyed along with his body under this palm.

Thus,

With one palm, Li Mingwu was fallen.

After Li Mingwu's death, Lin Jing stood in the void, looking down at the huge palm imprint he had just created.

...

At the same time, to prevent Li Mingwu from having other life-saving methods, Lin Jing urged his Divine Sense, scanning everything below.

Only a long time later, after confirming that there were no accidents and Li Mingwu had indeed perished, did Lin Jing withdraw his Divine Sense.

After withdrawing his Divine Sense, Lin Jing looked around, examining the entire Five Elements Territory, and then his gaze fell on the Teleportation Array below.

This time, he truly needed to leave.

Following that,

Lin Jing descended into the valley and then stepped into the Teleportation Array.

Upon stepping into the Teleportation Array, there was no response.

And then,

Lin Jing placed the Five Elements Fire Command in front of the Formation Eye of the array, and the Teleportation Array, which had shown no reaction before, began to light up.

Soon, the light from the Teleportation Array grew stronger, soaring into the sky; the Five Elements Fire Command also popped out from its needle-like position, landing back in Lin Jing's palm.

Lin Jing caught the Five Elements Fire Command, and the tearing force of teleportation also arrived at this moment.

Feeling the tearing force of teleportation, Lin Kai knew he was about to leave, and it was very likely that he would never return in this lifetime.

Afterward,

Lin Jing looked up at the massive statue of the Five Elements Ancestor in front of him, bowed deeply as a final salute.

The next moment, the power of teleportation activated.

Lin Jing was then carried away by this teleportation force, leaving the Five Elements Territory.

Yelin Island is a medium-sized island within the Thousand Islands Domain.

It ranks significantly among medium-sized islands, and Yelin Island is famously home to a Nascent Soul Cultivator, Lord Yelin.

It can be said that in the sea area around Yelin Island, it is highly revered.

Of course,

All these honors were before Li Yan Island became famous.

Ever since Li Yan Island and its Li Yan Marketplace started developing, the reputation of Li Yan Island gradually rose.

The prosperity of Li Yan Island quickly spread among many cultivators, and Yelin Island was no longer mentioned by others.

Lord Yelin was frustrated but helpless.

Only because the Island Master of Li Yan Island, Lin Jing, was also a Nascent Soul Cultivator, and it seemed that he even had some connection with Bai Yi, the master of one of the three great islands, Yue Tian Island.

Of course,

That was not the main point.

The most important thing was that at the last trading conference he attended, he saw with his own eyes that Lin Jing even had an inseparable relationship with the Yan Family of Spirit Rock Island.

And even the old ancestor of the Yan Family personally spoke up in his favor.

This treatment made Lord Yelin extremely envious.

You must understand, that was the Yan Family's old ancestor, a person at the peak of Divinity Transformation.

No, actually,

It should be above Divinity Transformation.

It was said that the Yan Family's old ancestor had returned from an adventure in ancient relics decades ago with a fortunate encounter.

He had even successfully advanced to a level above Divinity Transformation not long ago.

Being able to connect with such a person made Lord Yelin so envious that he almost turned red.

Although highly envious, this fortune had not fallen on him, and all Lord Yelin could do was helplessly sigh.

As for Lin Jing, he couldn't afford to provoke him.

Even if he had complaints, he could only bury them in his heart.

Of course,

Even if truly jealous, Lord Yelin definitely wouldn't show it; rather, he needed to act magnanimously to establish a good relationship with Lin Jing.

This day,

Lord Yelin was cultivating in his private Night Court Palace on Yelin Island; just as he had begun his cultivation, he suddenly felt a unique wave of spiritual power above the Night Court Palace.

This sudden emergence of spiritual power immediately alerted Lord Yelin, causing him to neglect his cultivation and quickly leave the secret chamber where he was practicing.

After Lord Yelin came out, he looked up to see a phantom Teleportation Array, which had appeared out of nowhere above the Night Court Palace.

Upon seeing this, Lord Yelin went directly into the air next to the Teleportation Array, intending to carefully observe it.

However, just then, the Teleportation Array burst into intense light.

Clearly, the Teleportation Array was activating because someone was about to teleport out.

Seeing this, Lord Yelin quickly stepped back,

While stepping back, he also summoned his Magical Treasure, facing the Teleportation Array, ready for battle.

Carefully guarding against the person about to emerge from the Teleportation Array.

The light from the Teleportation Array grew stronger, and slowly, a silhouette began to appear within it.

Soon, as intense light flashed from the Teleportation Array, and after the light subsided, the Teleportation Array disappeared as well.

After the Teleportation Array vanished, a person appeared where the Teleportation Array had been.

Upon the disappearance of the light from the Teleportation Array, Lord Yelin quickly looked at the newly emerged person.

Upon seeing him, Lord Yelin was immediately taken aback,

“Lin...

Lin Jing...

Lin Daoyou...”

The one who had emerged from the Teleportation Array was Lin Jing.

After emerging, Lin Jing heard someone calling him and quickly looked in the direction the voice had come from.

He saw a person in front of him, his face full of surprise, looking at him.

Chapter 774: Chapter 342: Incident at Li Yan Island_2 Chapter 774: Chapter 342: Incident at Li Yan Island_2 And the person, Lin Jing also knew.

It was none other than Night Approaching True Monarch.

Seeing Night Approaching True Monarch, Lin Jing was also somewhat surprised:

“Night Approaching...

is it you...”

After speaking, Lin Jing directly unfolded his Divine Sense and probed the surroundings.

The improvement in his cultivation had greatly expanded the range of his Divine Sense.

In just a short moment, Lin Jing had scanned the island, and after finishing, he clearly understood his location, which was Yelin Island.

novGo.co

...

Yelin Island was not very far from Li Flame Island; with Lin Jing's current speed, it would take less than half an hour to reach Li Flame Island.

Knowing that he was not far from Li Flame Island, Lin Jing's mood greatly improved.

He wondered how Lin Jue, Li Qingqing, and Ye Yun were doing.

And what had become of Li Flame Island now?

The time he had been away was not short at all.

It had been more than fifty years.

By now, it was likely that both Lin Jue and Li Qingqing had transcended the Heavenly Tribulation and advanced to the Nascent Soul Stage.

Thinking of this, Lin Jing couldn't wait to return immediately.

However, just then, the arrival of a voice interrupted Lin Jing's train of thought.

"Lin Daoyou..."

"How did you suddenly appear here?"

Lin Jing looked towards Night Approaching True Monarch in front; it was he who had just asked the question.

Even now, Night Approaching True Monarch was still at the Nascent Soul Stage, and Lin Jing could see through his level of cultivation at a glance.

At this time, Night Approaching True Monarch had only advanced a minor realm since the last time Lin Jing had seen him.

Clearly.

Night Approaching True Monarch was stuck here.

Without assistance from others or a great opportunity, it was likely that he would find it difficult to break through to the Divinity Transformation Stage in this lifetime.

Lin Jing had only met him a few times and wasn't acquainted with him; they had almost had a conflict over an issue in the Fang Market.

Naturally, he wouldn't think of helping him without reason.

To Lin Jing, Night Approaching True Monarch was merely a passerby, not someone who warranted too much attention.

Lin Jing looked towards Night Approaching True Monarch and stated directly:

"I did not intend to disturb, please do not take offense."

Night Approaching True Monarch's face broke into a smile as he hurriedly said:

"Lin Daoyou jests, I was merely curious, how could I possibly blame you?"

Lin Jing gave a slight nod:

"If that is so, then I will take my leave."

After he spoke, Lin Jing took a step and in the next moment, he disappeared from sight.

Originally...

Night Approaching True Monarch had wanted to talk some more to Lin Jing, to foster a closer relationship.

However, in the next moment, Lin Jing vanished.

Seeing Lin Jing suddenly disappear, Night Approaching True Monarch's pupils shrank sharply, and his complexion changed dramatically:

"He...

he is certainly not at Nascent Soul Stage..."

"What realm is he really in?"

"Could it be..."

"Above Divinity Transformation?"

...

After leaving Yelin Island, Lin Jing covered the distance to the nearby sea region of Li Flame Island in less than two quarters of an hour.

Before his arrival, Lin Jing's Divine Sense reached there first.

The Divine Sense at the peak of the Solidifying Body Stage spread out, instantly enveloping the entire Li Flame Island.

The Li Yan Marketplace had expanded.

Compared to before, the Li Yan Marketplace was now even more bustling.

Under Lin Jing's observation with his Divine Sense, the crowd in the marketplace ebbed and flowed, the scene extraordinarily lively, almost comparable to the Fang Market of Bihai City.

Adjacent to the Li Yan Marketplace was Li Yan City.

Li Yan City, too, had grown larger than before.

And Li Yan City had also changed its name to Li Yan Immortal City; that giant name plaque was hanging at the city gate.

It would be difficult for Lin Jing to overlook it.

Because of the limited area of Li Flame Island, as the city and marketplace grew in size, the Spirit Field area had to shrink in proportion.

Lin Jing noticed through the Formation that the Spirit Fields had reduced to about half their size from before, leaving only the central part where the high-grade Spirit Fields were located.

With Lin Jing's current level of cultivation, none of the formations on the entire Li Flame Island could block his Divine Sense from probing.

After scanning the Spirit Fields, Lin Jing's Divine Sense went directly into the forbidden area in the northern part of Li Flame Island and inside the small courtyard of several people.

He wanted to see what they were all doing.

But when Lin Jing's Divine Sense entered the forbidden area of Li Flame Island, he found only two people inside.

One of them was Li Qingqing.

The other, Ye Yun.

At that moment, Ye Yun was lying on the bed in Li Qingqing's courtyard, eyes tightly closed, his breath barely discernible.

And Li Qingqing was standing beside the bed, looking at Ye Yun on the bed, her brows slightly furrowed.

Seeing this scene, Lin Jing's expression suddenly turned grim.

Afterward.

Lin Jing burst forth at top speed, flying towards Li Yan Island.

With his extreme speed, in the blink of an eye, Lin Jing had arrived above Li Yan Island.

Upon reaching Li Yan Island, Lin Jing didn't delay and went straight to the formation, arriving at Li Qingqing's small courtyard.

"Qingqing, what happened?"

Lin Jing suddenly blurted out, startling Li Qingqing, who had been watching Ye Yun, causing her to tremble.

Then, Li Qingqing turned her head to look behind her.

She saw Lin Jing approaching.

"Lin Jing, brother..."

Li Qingqing was momentarily bewildered, seemingly unable to believe Lin Jing's sudden arrival.

Lin Jing nodded gently,

"Hmm, I've returned!"

After speaking, Lin Jing looked towards Ye Yun, who was lying on the bed, and asked again:

"What happened to Ye Yun?"

"And where is Lin Jue?"

"Why isn't she here?"

Li Qingqing snapped back to reality, looked at Lin Jing, her eyes uncontrollably turning misty red:

“Lin Jing, brother, you’ve finally come back.”

Li Qingqing’s eyes were red as she looked up at Lin Jing, her semblance at that moment was like that of a wronged woman, appearing pitifully charming.

Seeing this, Lin Jing’s heart softened, and then, with a tender look in his eyes, he told Li Qingqing softly:

“You’ve really been wronged during this period.”

Li Qingqing, looking at Lin Jing, shook her head and then turned to Ye Yun on the bed and said:

“Lin Jing, brother...”

“Lin Jue was taken away by someone.”

Hearing this, Lin Jing’s heart flared with anger, and he couldn’t help frowning:

“Who exactly?”

“Dare to come to Li Yan Island and forcibly take Lin Jue away.”

Li Qingqing said:

“It was people from the Changyun Clan.”

“They found out about Lin Jue’s identity as the Lin Family heir and came specifically to take Lin Jue.”

“The Changyun Clan?”

Hearing about the Changyun Clan, Lin Jing’s brows furrowed slightly.

He had just saved Changyun Yuanlei in the Five Elements Ruins, and now his sister had been taken away by the Changyun Clan.

What exactly was the Changyun Clan up to?

Lin Jing then looked towards Ye Yun, who was lying on the bed:

“And what about Ye Yun?”

Was it also the doing of the Changyun Clan?”

Li Qingqing nodded:

“Ye Yun wasn’t here when the Changyun Clan arrived.”

“He went to negotiate with the Changyun Clan members of his own accord after he returned and learned that Lin Jue had been taken, wanting to bring Lin Jue back.”

“However, in just half a day, Ye Yun was carried back by someone from the Changyun Clan, and when Ye Yun was brought back, he was already like this.”

“Up to now, Ye Yun has been in a sleeping state.”

Lin Jing’s brows wrinkled slightly as he looked at Ye Yun lying on the bed.

He was aware of the affection between Ye Yun and Lin Jue.

If anything happened to Lin Jue, Ye Yun would definitely do whatever it takes to ensure her safety.

And now, given such circumstances, it was clear that the other party’s cultivation was definitely not low.

Afterward, Lin Jing asked Li Qingqing:

“Do you know the cultivations of the people from the Changyun Clan who came here?”

Li Qingqing nodded and said:

“They mentioned it...”

“The leader of the Changyun Clan people, he is of the Transcendence Tribulation Stage, and there were two others with him, both of them Dao Integration Stage cultivators.”

“Transcendence Tribulation Stage...”

Lin Jing was somewhat surprised.

A Bandit Cultivator of the Tribulation Stage had come here specifically to take Lin Jue away.

This showed that Lin Jue was more than ordinarily important to the Changyun Clan.

Thinking this, Lin Jing couldn’t help but worry for Lin Jue.

However, with Lin Jue already taken away, even with his concern, he was too far to quench the nearby fire.

Now he had to first check Ye Yun's condition instead.

Afterward.

Lin Jing stepped forward, came to the side of the bed, and then stretched out his hand to Ye Yun's wrist.

Next, Lin Jing concentrated his spiritual power, probing directly into Ye Yun's body.

Soon.

At Ye Yun's Dantian, Lin Jing found a huge mass of spiritual power that did not belong to Ye Yun.

This spiritual power was entrenched in Ye Yun's Dantian and was not causing any harm to his body.

On the contrary, it seemed like the mass of spiritual power was continuously nourishing Ye Yun's body.

After a brief examination, Lin Jing knew that it wasn't harmful to Ye Yun, but it wasn't the reason that had caused Ye Yun to fall asleep either.

There must be something else on Ye Yun.

If there were no surprises, the main cause of Ye Yun's sleeping state should lie within his sea of consciousness...

Chapter 775: Chapter 343 The Purpose of the Changyun Clan Chapter 775: Chapter 343 The Purpose of the Changyun Clan Afterward, Lin Jing withdrew his Spiritual Power and propelled his Divine Sense toward Ye Yun's sea of consciousness.

Before making contact with Ye Yun's sea of consciousness, Lin Jing discovered that around it was a sphere of Divine Sense, enveloping it.

This Divine Sense was incredibly strong, yet it had not intruded into Ye Yun's sea of consciousness, only surrounding it.

It seemed that the members of the Changyun Clan had done this intentionally, causing him to fall into a deep sleep.

The one who deployed this tactic had a level of cultivation much higher than Lin Jing's, something he could sense just from the aura of their Divine Sense.

However, it appeared that they didn't intend to harm Ye Yun nor had they thoughts of taking his life.

Therefore, this Divine Sense was, relatively speaking, easier for Lin Jing to break through.

...

After that,

Lin Jing activated his Divine Sense, slowly approaching the sphere of Divine Sense and began to gradually disperse it.

Under the gradual dispersal from Lin Jing, the Divine Sense offered no resistance and was steadily dissipated.

Before long, Ye Yun's Divine Sense gradually awoke and began to stir.

In about half an hour, Lin Jing had completely dispersed the sphere of Divine Sense, clearing it away entirely.

After Lin Jing withdrew his Divine Sense, Ye Yun immediately woke up.

The awoken Ye Yun rolled off the bed, stepped down, and "thump" knelt before Lin Jing.

"I'm sorry, Master!"

"I failed to protect Lin Jue and let him be taken away by the people from the Changyun Clan."

Looking at Ye Yun, Lin Jing sighed helplessly and then reached out to lift Ye Yun:

"Get up, this isn't your fault."

After saying so, Lin Jing surveyed Ye Yun and then asked:

"You've had contact with the people from the Changyun Clan; do you know why they took Lin Jue away?"

Ye Yun nodded, saying:

"I do!"

"They mentioned that, like the Lin Family from ten thousand years ago, the Changyun Clan seems to have encountered an inexplicable curse."

“Especially in recent centuries, members of the Changyun Clan have often met with various accidents.”

“The lucky ones might only get injured.”

“The severe cases either disappear mysteriously or die outright.”

“They took Lin Jue away in hopes of finding a method to break the curse from the descendants of the Lin Family.”

Hearing this, Lin Jing frowned deeply:

“The fact that Lin Jue is a descendant of the Lin Family should only be known to a few of us; how did they find out?”

Ye Yun hastily spoke:

“It was Lin Jue’s grandfather, he once let slip this information, though at the time not many believed it, yet they still managed to find out.”

After finishing, Ye Yun added:

“They previously also investigated you, Master, because of my relationship with Lin Jue, they suspected you had some connection with the Lin Family, but Lin Jue managed to deflect their suspicions.”

Apart from Lin Jue’s concealed gender, Lin Jing had made no real effort to hide his relationship with her.

To Lin Jue, Lin Jing was genuinely caring, treating her as if she were his own sister.

As for the exposure of his identity, Lin Jing had long considered it and prepared for problems that might arise if it became known.

After all, several well-acquainted people already knew of his identity as a Lin Family descendant.

It was actually Lin Jue, with only a few around her knowing of her lineage.

Lin Jing had thought that his identity would be exposed first.

Yet unexpectedly, it turned out Lin Jue’s side was revealed first.

Lin Jing looked at Ye Yun, then continued speaking:

“When I was examining your body just now, I found that they apparently didn’t intend to hurt you, and they showed mercy.”

“What’s the story there?”

Having finished, Ye Yun, with a look of shame, could not help but lower his head:

“I’m sorry, Master...”

“I was too rash.”

“After hearing that Lin Jue was taken, I lost all reason and went after them, wanting to bring Lin Jue back.”

“I didn’t consider the gap between us and the consequences that might follow from such actions.”

Lin Jing looked at Ye Yun, and spoke softly:

“Your feelings for Lin Jue...”

I understand!”

“Nevertheless, you indeed acted impulsively.”

“With their level of cultivation, they could have killed you with a flick of their fingers, and it’s fortunate they didn’t strike you down.”

“From now on, whenever you face anything, you must think it through and decide after careful consideration.”

Ye Yun nodded:

“Yes, Master.”

“I will remember.”

After speaking, Ye Yun continued:

“When I found them, Lin Jue hadn’t been harmed.”

“Also, I heard that they took Lin Jue with the intention of having him become a son-in-law.”

“What?”

“Having Lin Jue as a son-in-law?”

On hearing Ye Yun’s narration, Lin Jing was immediately astonished.

Ye Yun nodded and said:

“That’s right.”

“Lin Jue himself told me this.”

“They must not know Lin Jue is a woman, otherwise, they wouldn’t have done this.”

“For now, Lin Jue may be safe.”

“But I worry that her identity as a woman may be exposed because of this.”

“Indeed, that’s a possibility.” Lin Jing nodded in agreement.

novGo.co

After saying this, Lin Jing suddenly recalled something and quickly looked up to ask Li Qingqing:

“By the way...”

“How long has it been since they left?”

“Three months.”

“Ye Yun was returned by them three months ago as well,” Li Qingqing replied.

Lin Jing nodded and then pondered for a moment.

After a short while, Lin Jing said to Li Qingqing and Ye Yun:

“I will need to leave in a couple of days to visit the Inner Sea.”

“Even though Lin Jue seems to be out of danger for now, given the current state of the Changyun Clan, there is no guarantee that there won’t be problems.”

Chapter 776: Chapter 343 The Purpose of the Changyun Clan_2 Chapter 776: Chapter 343 The Purpose of the Changyun Clan_2 “And in the Inner Sea, there are enemies of the Lin Family.

If they learn that Lin Jue is in the Inner Sea, it’s hard to guarantee that they won’t harbor some ill intentions.”

“It’s not safe for Lin Jue to go to the Inner Sea.”

“In the next few days, I plan to make a trip to the Inner Sea to see if I can bring Lin Jue back.”

Hearing Lin Jing say this, Ye Yun quickly raised his head, his eyes flickering with light, and spoke to Lin Jing:

“Master, I will go too...”

However.

Lin Jing looked at Ye Yun, shook his head, and said:

“No...”

“The Inner Sea is dangerous, and your cultivation is too low.”

“Moreover, this trip to the Inner Sea might well lead to encounters with old enemies of the Lin Family— even my own identity could easily be exposed.”

“I cannot take you with me this time.”

“I understand, Master!” Ye Yun replied, his eyes immediately dimming.

Although he knew Lin Jing said this for his sake, Ye Yun did not persist and simply nodded, albeit despondently.

Lin Jue was already on his way to the Changyun Clan, and it was hardly possible for Lin Jing to catch up now.

...

Moreover, even if Lin Jing could catch up, could he possibly snatch someone from the hands of a Tribulation Cultivator?

Therefore.

This matter had to be approached slowly.

Fortunately, having learned that Lin Jue was likely in no immediate danger, Lin Jing could be at ease.

Having just emerged from the Five Elements Ruins after decades, Lin Jing had lost touch with the outside world and was cut off from information.

His first task was to gather some information to see what had happened to the Changyun Clan and then decide what to do next.

The Seven Seas Hall was undoubtedly the best choice to quickly obtain this information.

The information regarding the Changyun Clan could definitely be purchased there.

...

Purchasing information from the Seven Seas Hall didn't even require Lin Jing's presence; he could just arrange for it to be handled by Yue Qiniang and the others.

After planning everything, Lin Jing looked towards Li Qingqing and Ye Yun.

Decades had passed, and Li Qingqing looked the same as before, her beauty unchanged and still captivating.

But her cultivation had changed significantly.

Li Qingqing was now a Nascent Soul Cultivator.

Of course, there was also Ye Yun.

Decades had passed, and Ye Yun had even cultivated to the sixth level of the Nascent Soul Stage, not far from the late phase of the Nascent Soul Stage.

Now that all the masters of the three major islands had perished.

Even without Lin Jing, with their cultivation levels, they could already walk sideways across the Thousand Islands Domain.

As Lin Jing looked at them, both of them also looked back at Lin Jing, especially Li Qingqing.

Her gaze, though reserved, clearly mixed with deep feelings.

Even Ye Yun, who was nearby, could see it.

"Ahem..."

Being stared at continuously by Li Qingqing made Lin Jing quite uncomfortable, and he quickly coughed to cover his embarrassment.

“How have you been during this time?”

“I see both of your cultivations have improved quite a bit.”

Li Qingqing sighed lightly, then spoke:

“We’ve been quite well; Li Yan Island has also developed well during this time.”

“Lin Jing, how about you?”

“You’ve been gone so long, only to return now; did you encounter any dangers?”

Lin Jing smiled and then directly replied:

“This trip went quite smoothly.

I didn’t encounter any dangers, but I did gain some fortuitous encounters, and my cultivation has increased significantly.”

Having said this, Lin Jing suddenly shifted the conversation, asking the two:

“By the way...”

“How is your brother doing?”

“And Qiniang, I haven’t seen her since I came back.”

Li Qingqing said:

“My brother is now at the late stages of the Nascent Soul and is currently preparing to try advancing to Divinity Transformation, competing with others for Wan Mo Island.”

“Qiniang is representing me at Yuxing Island, negotiating matters concerning Yue Tian Island.”

“Yue Tian Island’s matters?” Lin Jing couldn’t help but be puzzled.

Li Qingqing then explained:

“Right...”

“Upon the death of the Island Master of Yue Tian Island, his subordinates began to fight among themselves, each wanting to take sole control of Yue Tian Island,”

“This time, a Nascent Soul Island Master from a medium-sized island near Yuxing Island also wanted to get involved, so he reached out to Zhang Jian and several other Nascent Soul Cultivators in the nearby waters, looking to form an alliance with us to occupy Yue Tian Island together.”

Hearing this, Lin Jing roughly understood what was going on and asked,

“What about True Dragon Island?”

“Why has no one taken over True Dragon Island?”

“True Dragon Island?”

“Could it be that Dragon Daoist has also met with trouble?”

Li Qingqing looked at Lin Jing with some astonishment.

Lin Jing nodded:

“The Island Master of True Dragon Island has been killed by me.”

“He probably didn’t leave behind a life token, so no one knows he’s dead.”

Upon hearing Lin Jing’s words, both Li Qingqing and Ye Yun were shocked.

To be able to slay Dragon Daoist of the later stages of Divinity Transformation, Lin Jing’s cultivation must surely surpass that of Dragon Daoist.

“Master!”

“If you could slay Dragon Daoist, does that mean your cultivation has broken through Divinity Transformation to the Solidifying Body Realm?”

Lin Jing nodded and said,

“Yes, my cultivation is now at the Solidifying Body Stage.”

Hearing Lin Jing admit to his cultivation, Ye Yun was instantly taken aback.

NovGo.co

Having been close to Lin Jing all along, Ye Yun deeply felt the terrifying speed of Lin Jing’s cultivation progression.

In just a short amount of time, Lin Jing had broken through from the Golden Core Stage to the now Solidifying Body Stage.

Ye Yun thought that not even a top-tier Spiritual Root Cultivator, touted as a supreme genius, could have advanced more swiftly than his own master.

Lin Jing's rapid progression naturally filled Ye Yun with immense joy.

However, Li Qingqing, amidst her shock, felt somewhat disheartened.

Li Qingqing's dejection did not escape Lin Jing's notice, and he knew why she felt this way.

The higher his cultivation, the greater the gap between him and Li Qingqing, and the widening gap was not a favorable development for Li Qingqing.

Nonetheless, Lin Jing did not comfort Li Qingqing.

Instead, he straightforwardly said to Li Qingqing:

"Qingqing..."

"What do you think about us taking over the three major islands?"

"Ah?"

Hearing Lin Jing's words, Li Qingqing was initially stunned and paused for a moment.

Once she came to her senses, Li Qingqing looked at Lin Jing puzzled and asked:

"Are you serious?"

Lin Jing nodded, then replied,

"Now that the Island Masters of the three major islands are all dead, they have become masterless territories, and if we want to continue growing, we need larger islands with more resources."

"Now is the best opportunity."

"With the three Island Masters dead, there are scarcely any cultivators in the Thousand Islands Domain who have reached the stage of Divinity Transformation."

"Since I have decided, I will certainly make preparations in advance."

“Before leaving, I will cleanse the entire Thousand Islands Domain, and ask those threatening Divinity Transformation Cultivators to leave.”

“Once the Thousand Islands Domain is cleared, I will directly help your brother take over Wan Mo Island, and we will take over Yue Tian Island.”

“As for the remaining True Dragon Island, I initially wanted to let Zhang Jian take over, but given Zhang Jian’s cultivation, even if he occupies True Dragon Island, there’s a risk something unforeseen might happen.”

“After all, I cannot always be here in the Thousand Islands Domain.”

“For True Dragon Island, I want to contact the Yan Family from Spirit Rock Island and give True Dragon Island to them.”

“As I am in good standing with the Yan Family, giving them True Dragon Island, with the Yan Family elder stationed there, will ensure he looks out for you.”

“This way, even if I am not around, no one would dare make a move against you.”

After finishing, Lin Jing looked at Li Qingqing and asked,

“Qingqing, what do you think?”

After pondering for a moment, Li Qingqing nodded and said,

“That would indeed be feasible.

I heard that the Yan Family elder has also advanced to the Solidifying Body Stage.

With him in charge, absolutely no one would dare to casually provoke the Yan Family elder.”

Looking at Li Qingqing seriously, Lin Jing stated:

“Qingqing!”

“Once everything here is settled, I will be leaving.”

“By then, all the affairs will be entirely in your hands.”

“Don’t worry, I won’t make you wait too long.”

“Once I resolve the matters in the Inner Sea, I will come back...”

Chapter 777: Chapter 344: First Entry into the Inner Sea Chapter 777: Chapter 344: First Entry into the Inner Sea The principal sphere of influence of the Seven Seas Hall was indeed within the demon-ridden Inner Sea.

Within the Inner Sea, the Seven Seas Hall had established a total of seven colossal sea cities.

They are Linghai, Zhenhai, Tianhai, Ninghai, Yuhai, Minghai, and Jihai.

These seven sea cities were each far apart from one another, scattered throughout the Inner Sea.

Moreover...

They were all constructed from entire islands that were transformed, each one immensely large, the smallest among them comparable in size to the three largest islands of the Thousand Islands Domain.

The seven sea cities were not only sizable but also extremely robust.

...

The Seven Seas Hall specifically dispatched top Formation masters to establish powerful barriers around them.

With these formations, they could not only withstand attacks from various Demonic Beasts within the sea, but even in face of assaults from other forces, these colossal sea cities remained unscathed.

In addition to their impressive defense, these sea cities were further interconnected by Teleportation Arrays.

Under normal circumstances, these Teleportation Arrays were used for quick travel.

Anyone could use them, provided they paid with Spirit Stones.

Should an unwary force ever attempt to besiege a sea city, the city's Defensive Array would activate immediately, simultaneously sealing off the entire city.

At that time, the Teleportation Array would be used for marshaling troops.

The Seven Seas Hall could summon aid from other sea cities through the array to repel external enemies.

Unless all seven sea cities were attacked simultaneously, those attempting the assault would have to face the full might of all the stalwarts of the Seven Seas Hall.

Of course.

All these were settings made during the construction of the seven sea cities; at that time, the Seven Seas Hall was not as strong as it is now, hence such measures were necessary to guard against external threats.

However, today...

As one of the four top forces within the demon-ridden Inner Sea, the Seven Seas Hall now possesses extraordinary power, and naturally, no force would be foolish enough to oppose the Seven Seas Hall or attack these cities.

...

At this moment.

On the Teleportation Array plaza in Ninghai City, the central Teleportation Array lit up with dazzling light.

From the looks of it, some cultivators were arriving in Ninghai City from another sea city via the Teleportation Array.

The light of the Teleportation Array did not last long, merely a few moments before gradually fading away.

And as the light faded, several cultivators emerged within the Teleportation Array, all of whom had just traveled from other sea cities.

Among these individuals who arrived via the Teleportation Array was Lin Jing.

As the light from the Teleportation Array dissipated, the group walked out of the array and dispersed.

After scanning his surroundings, Lin Jing too left the Teleportation Array.

Ninghai City was divided into the Inner City and the Outer City.

The plaza where the Teleportation Array was located belonged to the Inner City.

Leaving the plaza, Lin Jing headed along the streets of Ninghai toward the city center.

The streets of Ninghai City were even more bustling than those of Bihai City in the Southern Outer Sea.

Despite its massive size, Ninghai City was well-organized, with not a trace of disorder evident.

Seeing Ninghai City, Lin Jing couldn't help but recall the chaos he had witnessed at Yue Tian Island half a year earlier...

It had been six months since Lin Jing left the Thousand Islands Domain.

Half a year earlier, after deciding to take over the three largest islands, Lin Jing took immediate action.

First,
Lin Jing had contacted Li Tangyu and the Yan Family patriarch ahead of time, and after discussions with them, they had all made careful plans.

Then, Lin Jing personally acted, cleansing all the cultivators within the three islands who harbored ulterior motives.

Particularly, the loyal followers of the three former Island Masters, Bai Yi and others, and some concealed Nascent Soul cultivators, were Lin Jing's main focus.

With Lin Jing's cultivation, he could easily sweep across the three islands.

It took him less than two days to complete these measures.

While Lin Jing was cleansing the three islands, aside from those with ulterior motives, some came forward to offer their allegiance upon knowing Lin Jing's power.

The lowest cultivation among these people was in the late stages of Nascent Soul, and there were even two at the early stages of Divinity Transformation who wished to align with Lin Jing.

They approached Lin Jing purely because of his strength, looking down on the other inhabitants of Li Yan Island.

NovGo.co

After all was done, Lin Jing planned to leave for the Inner Sea.

Accepting these people would not only be hard to manage, but their presence could potentially threaten Li Qingqing and the others.

Therefore,
Lin Jing did not accept a single one of them.

After cleansing the three islands, the subsequent matters did not require Lin Jing's direct involvement.

Yan Ming was stationed at True Dragon Island by the Yan Family patriarch, also tasked with overseeing the safety of the three islands to prevent disturbances.

Meanwhile, others began to slowly transfer some assets and personnel, starting to settle in Yue Tian Island.

As for Wan Mo Island, since it was inhabited by demon cultivators, they left its management to Li Tan alone.

Finally, Lin Jing gathered with several people.

After meeting, Lin Jing departed directly.

From making the initial decision to finalizing discussions and clearing the three islands, it only took three days.

Finally,
Lin Jing did some preparation, looked into some basic information about the Inner Sea and the Changyun Clan, and left just five days later.

Concerned about Lin Jue's situation, Lin Jing could not afford to delay long, so after finishing everything, he left.

Leaving the Thousand Islands Domain, Lin Jing headed northward, from the Southern Outer Sea continuously onward to the Inner Sea.

In total, it took him half year.

Chapter 778: Chapter 344: First Entry into the Inner Sea_2 Chapter 778: Chapter 344: First Entry into the Inner Sea_2 After half a year, Lin Jing finally reached Yuhai City, one of the seven cities of Seven Seas Hall.

Then from Yuhai City, he took the Teleportation Array to get to Ninghai City.

Ninghai City.

In the southern part of the Inner Sea, not far from the Changyun Archipelago.

And the Changyun Archipelago is precisely where the Changyun Clan resides.

After arriving in Ninghai City, there was still a distance to the Changyun Archipelago, and Lin Jing's next step was to head to the island closest to the Changyun Archipelago, Yue Yun Island.

Only after reaching Yue Yun Island would he truly be close to the Changyun Clan.

...

...

Although Ninghai City was bustling, Lin Jing was not going to stay long.

novGo.c0

Here, Lin Jing still needed to gather some information.

After gathering the information, Lin Jing would leave.

Ninghai City was truly vast, and it took Lin Jing over an hour just to walk from the square where the Teleportation Array was located to the center of Ninghai City.

There was no choice; in these seven large sea cities, especially inside the Inner City, ordinary cultivators were not allowed to fly, and as it was Lin Jing's first visit, naturally, his pace was much slower.

Upon reaching the center of Ninghai City, Lin Jing looked up and saw the tallest building.

Seven Seas Hall.

Among these seven sea cities, the most magnificent and impressive building naturally belonged to Seven Seas Hall.

This street, apart from Seven Seas Hall, also has various guilds and other powers that have set up shops.

For instance, the largest force in the Inner Sea, the Shocking Seas Alliance's Shocking Seas Guild, and the Changyun Clan's Changyun Pill Pavilion, both have a presence in these seven sea cities.

Of course.

Seven Seas Hall naturally welcomed various forces to develop in the seven sea cities.

With the presence of various powers, the development of Qihai City was greatly aided.

This was undoubtedly a win-win situation for both parties, and Seven Seas Hall welcomed it warmly.

It didn't take long for Lin Jing to arrive at Seven Seas Hall.

Just like the Seven Seas Hall in Bihai City, the Seven Seas Hall in Ninghai City was also divided into two parts.

One part served as the main body of Seven Seas Hall, the Seven Seas Guild, selling various cultivation resources needed.

The other part, however, was the fundamental reason for Seven Seas Hall's development into a top force, which was the Qi Hall belonging to Seven Seas Hall.

Lin Jing had come to visit Qi Hall, naturally.

After all, if he wanted to gather some information about the Changyun Clan, Qi Hall was undoubtedly the best place to go.

The Seven Seas Hall in Ninghai City was several notches higher than the one in Bihai City.

However, there were also quite a few cultivators inside.

After entering Qi Hall, guided by an attendant, Lin Jing came to a room on the fifth floor.

This place was used by Qi Hall for the buying and selling of information.

The information here, without mentioning those highly confidential pieces, included various news about different forces as well as some recent events.

All could be bought here.

When Lin Jing entered the room, he saw an old man sitting behind the counter.

Upon seeing Lin Jing's arrival, the old man immediately stood up and greeted him with a smile:

"Esteemed Daoist, have you come to buy information or to sell?"

Lin Jing walked up to the counter and spoke directly:

"I would like to buy some information about the Changyun Clan."

"The Changyun Clan..."

"That's easy to say."

"Our information is categorized by different levels, with correspondingly different details provided, and of course, different prices."

“It’s just that I wonder which aspect of the Changyun Clan’s information you would like to buy?”

Lin Jing spoke:

“I heard that the Changyun Clan has recently accepted a son-in-law, and I want the detailed information on that matter.”

Hearing Lin Jing say this, the old man immediately understood.

After that.

The old man pondered for a moment before speaking again and asking Lin Jing:

“You want the most detailed kind, right?”

“Let me be upfront, the more detailed the information, the more expensive it will be.”

“And this information has been collected from various channels and verified events that have occurred, after verification.”

“Also, this information will not involve any true secrets of the Changyun Clan.

If, after reading the information, you find any discrepancies, we will not return the Spirit Stones that have been received.”

“I hope you understand this.”

Lin Jing nodded and said:

“Of course.”

“In that case, I will get the part of the information concerning the Changyun Clan’s recruitment of a son-in-law for you.

Please wait a moment, Daoist.”

After speaking, the old man turned and walked towards the back room of the place.

Leaving Lin Jing to wait there.

As for why it’s essential to purchase information at Seven Seas Hall, the reason is actually quite straightforward.

Lin Jing was alone, and investigating on his own clearly wasn’t suitable.

Personal investigations might yield information of uncertain detail and reliability; whether it could be useful or not was another question.

Furthermore...

The location wasn't very far from the Changyun Clan, and the clan was experiencing troubled times.

Carelessly probing for information about the Changyun Clan could potentially alert them.

Thus, even if one needed to gather information, it had to be done through other channels, not recklessly on one's own.

Then there was the issue of time.

Now that he had reached the Inner Sea, he wasn't far from the Chang Yun Archipelago.

Rather than waste time investigating himself, it was more convenient and faster to spend some Spirit Stones and directly purchase the information.

Moreover, the information obtained from Qi Hall was undeniably the most accurate.

The Elder's words were just a precautionary reminder in advance.

Shortly.

The Elder walked out of the room.

In his hand, he held a wooden box.

When he returned, the Elder placed the wooden box on the counter in front of Lin Jing.

"The information you asked for is all inside here."

"This information has been collected and compiled through various channels into the most detailed sort, although it doesn't involve any secrets of the Changyun Clan or other powers."

"As for the fee, it's quite standardâ€"just one thousand Superior Grade Spirit Stones."

One thousand Superior Grade Spirit Stones weren't cheap.

But this information concerned the Changyun Clan, one of the four top powers in the Inner Sea.

Therefore, although it didn't touch upon the secrets of the Changyun Clan, the information wasn't cheap either.

Lin Jing naturally understood this.

Before leaving, Lin Jing had over five hundred thousand Superior Grade Spirit Stones, but because he needed to rebuild Yue Tian Island and spent a lot, he left a portion for Li Qingqing and had two hundred thousand left.

Therefore,

these thousand Spirit Stones didn't mean much to Lin Jing.

After that,

without a word, Lin Jing took one thousand Superior Grade Spirit Stones from his Space Ring and handed them over.

The Elder took the Spirit Stones and then handed the wooden box to Lin Jing.

"Fellow Daoist, it's been a pleasure doing business."

After saying this, the Elder's tone shifted:

"Right..."

"Lastly, I must remind you that once you've bought this information, you can only peruse it once."

"After perusal, the Jade Slip inside will self-destruct."

Lin Jing nodded:

"I am already aware of this, thank you for the reminder, Fellow Daoist."

After speaking, Lin Jing took the wooden box and then said to the Elder:

"Farewell!"

With that, Lin Jing left the place.

Although he had purchased the information, Lin Jing wasn't in a rush to check it immediately.

Now that he had the information, what Lin Jing needed to do was to leave Ninghai City first.

After leaving Ninghai City, he planned to review it.

Then.

Lin Jing didn't delay and walked directly towards the outskirts of Ninghai.

Soon, Lin Jing left the Inner City.

Once he reached the Outer City, the management was relatively less strict compared to the Inner City.

Lin Jing accelerated his pace, quickly making his way out of Ninghai.

About four hours later, Lin Jing appeared in a sea area outside Ninghai.

At this time, Lin Jing was walking through the void, moving forward slowly.

His speed was not fast as he advanced while also looking down at the sea below.

Lin Jing seemed preoccupied, as if something was on his mind.

Shortly after, time passed for a while.

However, Lin Jing suddenly came to a stop:

"The time should be almost up, it's about to come..."

As Lin Jing's words fell, a pleasing voice transmitted from within Lin Jing's sea of consciousness:

"Ding!"

"System notification: System upgrade completed, System Space reopened, new features added, host may enter the System Space to check."

Chapter 779: Chapter 345 System Space Upgraded Again Chapter 779: Chapter 345 System Space Upgraded Again System Space, a few days ago, Lin Jing had initiated an upgrade.

As of today, the upgrade was complete.

The reason why Lin Jing was so eager just now was because he was waiting for the successful upgrade of the System Space.

Once the System Space had finished upgrading, Lin Jing didn't hesitate to summon the System and then he said:

“Enter the System Space!”

As Lin Jing’s words fell, the next moment, he disappeared from his original spot.

Inside the System Space, Lin Jing suddenly appeared.

Upon appearing, Lin Jing hurriedly sensed the Spiritual Power within the space.

Indeed, as he had anticipated.

...

The Spiritual Power within this space had once again increased significantly.

After sensing the changes in the System Space, Lin Jing then opened the System panel to start his inspection:

System Space (Level 8)

Remaining Time: 537 hours (Accumulatable: 800 hours)

Host: Lin Jing

Spirit Field Range: 104 (80+24) mu

Spiritual Energy Density: 8

Flow of Time Speed: 8

Daily Entry Time: 12 hours (full)

Required for Upgrade: (750/2,000,000 Harvest Points)

Special Functions: Alert, Observation, Fixed-Point Teleportation, Time Accumulation...

New System Function: Basic Function Upgrade

The basic functions of the System Space have been fully upgraded, and the upgrades are as follows:

Alert Mode: Range has been fully increased, comparable to the host’s Divine Sense range.

(Except in life-threatening emergencies, the Alert Mode will not provide any additional prompts.)

Observation Mode: Range has been fully increased, comparable to the host's Divine Sense range.

(Observation Mode can be used independently of the System Space, allowing perspective shifts at any time during its use.)

Fixed-Point Teleportation: Range has been fully increased, comparable to the host's Divine Sense range.

(Fixed-Point Teleportation can be used independently of the System Space, and it can bypass any obstacles during its use.)

After the new function upgrades, whether using Observation Mode or Fixed-Point Teleportation, the base reference point will be the initial location of the host using the function, and it will not change with the host's movements.

...

Seeing the new functions of the System Space, Lin Jing was overjoyed.

There's no need to mention the Alert Mode; it is a passive mode.

It's practical and indeed very useful.

In the Earth Realm before, it was the Alert Mode that played a role, allowing Lin Jing to make a timely decision and quickly escape from the Earth Realm.

Now that the range has increased, and it only activates during life-or-death situations, it can be said to fulfill its intended purpose.

There's nothing more to say about that.

The key lies in the latter two functions, the Observation Mode and Fixed-Point Teleportation.

These two functions are the ones Lin Jing uses most often, and they are of great help to him.

Observation Mode can observe beyond any Defensive Array.

Not to mention the Fixed-Point Teleportation Function.

With the ability to bypass any obstacles, as long as the location is within the range of Fixed-Point Teleportation, Lin Jing can go anywhere.

The enhanced range of these two functions was a significant advantage for Lin Jing.

Moreover.

Now, these two functions can be used separately from the space, which means Lin Jing can use them outside the System Space.

He doesn't have to enter the System Space every time he wants to observe anymore.

In the past.

Every time Lin Jing entered the System Space, he had to avoid crowds and find a secluded spot.

Now, being able to use these two functions without entering the System Space is unquestionably more convenient.

It just so happens that he needs to find Lin Jue now.

This enhancement of the two functions will be very useful.

...

After reviewing the new functions of the System Space, Lin Jing didn't rush to experiment.

Instead, he directly took out the message he had exchanged for from the Qi Hall from within his Space Ring.

After taking out the wooden box containing the message, Lin Jing opened it directly.

Inside the box was a white Jade Slip.

Then, Lin Jing picked up the Jade Slip and extended his Divine Sense to check the message within...

"The Changyun Clan brought back a man suspected to be a descendant of the Lin Family from the Southern Outer Sea, planning to take him as a son-in-law by marriage into the family, and have him become Dao Companion with Changyun Yuanshuang..."

...

...

Just by seeing this, Lin Jing was shocked.

Changyun Yuanshuang, wasn't that Changyun Yuanlei's sister?

Moreover.

Lin Jing had heard from Changyun Yuanlei that his sister and Lu Youjiu were childhood sweethearts, and even Changyun Yuanlei referred to Lu Youjiu as his brother-in-law.

What was going on now?

Lin Jing had originally thought that the Changyun Clan intended to match Lin Jue with another younger member of the Lin Family.

Unexpectedly, this matter actually involved Changyun Yuanshuang.

After his shock, Lin Jing continued to look at the rest of the message.

novGo.co

“The son of the Shocking Seas Alliance Hierarch, Lu Youjiu, and Changyun Yuanshuang had mutual affection, and upon learning of this, he wanted to go to the Changyun Clan to find out the situation but was stopped by the Shocking Seas Alliance Hierarch Lu Jingtao, who forcibly took him back and confined him within the Shocking Seas Alliance.”

This was another piece of shocking news for Lin Jing.

Lu Youjiu was actually stopped by his father.

Then, Lin Jing continued reading further.

“The Changyun Clan has already announced, Changyun Yuanshuang and the Lin Family descendant are to hold their wedding ceremony in three months.”

“Additionally, since being brought to the Changyun Clan, the Lin Family descendant has been protected, and his true origins have yet to be disclosed.”

...

...

Lin Jing's purpose for coming to the Inner Sea was very clear, and naturally, he also paid attention to some news about the Changyun Clan during his trip.

Some of the news he purchased from the Qi Hall was already known to him, while other bits were previously unknown.

For example, the messages mentioned above were unknown to Lin Jing.

He didn't expect the person Changyun Clan intended to engage Lin Jue to would actually be Changyun Yuanshuang.

Given these circumstances, Lin Jing could understand Lu Youjiu's reaction.

Chapter 780: Chapter 345 System Space Upgraded Again_2 Chapter 780: Chapter 345 System Space Upgraded Again_2 Why did Lu Youjiu's father, Lu Jingtao, insist on stopping him?

Could there be some hidden reasons behind it?

Regarding these matters, nothing was mentioned in the information Lin Jing had purchased, and naturally, Lin Jing wasn't aware of them.

After all, if there were indeed secrets involved, then the information wouldn't have come at such a price.

After viewing the information, the Jade Slip automatically shattered into dust.

After checking the information, Lin Jing didn't delay; he surveyed the Spirit Plants in the Spirit Field and then immediately left the System Space.

After leaving the System Space, Lin Jing deployed his Divine Sense to scan the area and saw that there were no other people around.

...

Thus, Lin Jing directly spoke out, summoning the System:

"System!"

"Enter Observation Mode!"

The system function had been upgraded, and Lin Jing certainly wanted to experience it firsthand.

As soon as Lin Jing's words fell, the next moment, his perspective shifted above his head.

This time, in Observation Mode, Lin Jing saw himself.

Seeing oneself from another perspective had a very strange feeling.

Then,

Lin Jing raised his hand and moved forward some distance.

All of Lin Jing's movements, under Observation Mode, were clearly visible to himself.

After observing for a while, Lin Jing then switched back to his own perspective.

The upgrade to Observation Mode allowed not only external usage by Lin Jing but also enabled him to switch perspectives at any time.

NovG0.co

Lin Jing tried out this perspective-switching feature but didn't find anything peculiar; for the time being, he didn't know its use.

After testing Observation Mode, Lin Jing then tested the Fixed-Point Teleportation Function.

The most impressive aspect of Fixed-Point Teleportation was that it could teleport regardless of any obstacles.

Outside of the System Space, the reaction speed of Fixed-Point Teleportation was extremely fast.

Basically, once Lin Jing had chosen the teleportation location, in just an instant, he would suddenly appear at that position.

Moreover, the Fixed-Point Teleportation Function was different from using a Teleportation Talisman or a Teleportation Array.

When using Fixed-Point Teleportation, there were no fluctuations in energy, making it extremely secretive.

Honestly, this function would be quite impressive for making a surprise attack.

With no energy fluctuations, Lin Jing could suddenly appear beside anyone, making it very difficult for them to defend against, naturally making it quite troublesome.

What's more, Lin Jing was a Body Refinement Cultivator; combined with this function, he became even more invincible.

After testing the two newly upgraded functions, Lin Jing then put away his thoughts and summoned the Flying Boat, flying towards Liyun Island...

...

Liyun Island.

It is the island closest to the Changyun Archipelago.

Because of its proximity to the Changyun Archipelago, many forces cooperate with the Changyun Clan on Liyun Island.

And for that reason, Liyun Island is also quite prosperous, although it can't compare to the seven cities of the Seven Seas Hall.

But it's nearly just as busy.

After leaving Ninghai City, Lin Jing flew for more than ten days before arriving at Liyun Island.

As soon as he neared Liyun Island, Lin Jing saw its hustle and bustle.

Liyun Island, and even some surrounding areas, had been developed, looking more like an Immortal City floating on the sea.

Meanwhile, many Cultivators from various forces, as well as some Loose Cultivators, continued to arrive at Liyun Island.

Although the Changyun Clan had some recent mishaps, these hadn't reached a critical level for the vast Changyun Clan.

The real high-ranking members of the Changyun Clan had not suffered any harm, the old ancestors of the family were all safe, and the real combat strength of the Changyun Clan had not been diminished.

Thus, the interaction of the Changyun Clan with other external forces was still ongoing.

And Liyun Island was still thriving.

Upon reaching near Liyun Island, Lin Jing didn't directly land on the island but used Observation Mode to observe the entire Liyun Island.

Lin Jing's current Cultivation was at the peak of the Solidifying Body Realm.

His Divine Sense range had reached a terrifying extent.

The range of Observation Mode was determined by the reach of Lin Jing's Divine Sense.

So, once Observation Mode was activated, Lin Jing directly enveloped the entire Liyun Island within it.

Lin Jing did this because he wanted to see the situation on the island before proceeding there.

Indeed, if he used Divine Sense, the exploration of Liyun Island's situation would have been faster.

However, this place is Liyun Island in the Inner Sea, where the cultivators generally have high cultivation levels.

Moreover, this is right on Liyun Island.

The cultivators on the island, I presume, are all extraordinary.

Just as in Ninghai City, when Lin Jing was in Ninghai City, he had encountered several cultivators in the Dao Integration stage.

This Liyun Island surely also has many in Dao Integration, as well as Tribulation cultivators, and even the presence of Mahayana cultivators is a possibility.

If he recklessly used Divine Sense, it would likely be detected by those Dao Integration and higher stage cultivators.

Using Divine Sense without discretion could easily offend them.

If he offended them, encountering cultivators with good temper might, at most, teach him a lesson and let it be.

If he encountered those with poor temper, it was even possible that he might lose his life.

However, using Observation Mode did not have this concern.

In Observation Mode, even Mahayana cultivators could not detect Lin Jing's probing.

...

Lin Jing controlled the observation perspective, began to survey Liyun Island, and at the same time, kept an eye out for news about the Changyun Clan.

Under the observation perspective, one could say it was unrestrictive, with no place able to block the penetration of the observation perspective.

Naturally, Lin Jing wouldn't conduct his exploration in a straightforward manner from the outside.

Sometimes, Lin Jing would even probe inside some buildings.

Such as the Changyun Pill Pavilion of the Changyun Clan—it was a particular focus of Lin Jing's attention, and after continuous probing for quite some time, Lin Jing still didn't get any of the information he wanted.

Just as Lin Jing was about to give up his inquiry and prepare to directly enter Liyun Island.

While passing over Liyun City on Liyun Island, Lin Jing suddenly froze.

Because, on the streets below.

Lin Jing saw a person, someone who looked exactly like himself.

Seeing this person, Lin Jing couldn't help but be stunned.

Could there actually be someone else who looked exactly like him?

Filled with suspicion, Lin Jing then unconsciously controlled the observation perspective to get closer, carefully observing.

Although the observation perspective lacked some of the fine uses of Divine Sense, within Observation Mode, one could still see much more detail.

After Lin Jing's careful observation, he then discovered.

This person, though broadly similar to himself, actually had some differences from him.

Looking at this exceedingly similar person, Lin Jing couldn't help but think of someone...

Subsequently.

Lin Jing directly controlled Observation Mode, following this person who was extremely similar to himself.

Wanting to see where this person was ultimately going.

Under Lin Jing's observation, this person in Liyun City seemed to be idling around, wandering aimlessly.

Not until he had walked through almost the entire Liyun City did this person enter a small alley.

Once in the alley, this person marched straight ahead until nearly reaching the end of the alley and then stopped.

Then, the person took out a jade token from his hand.

Next, he affixed the jade token to one of the walls.

After the jade token was placed against it, a light screen silently appeared on the wall.

Afterward.

The person stored away the jade token and stepped directly into the wall.

This place turned out to be a formation.

Seeing this, Lin Jing hurriedly controlled the observation perspective to pass through the wall and followed inside.

When Lin Jing's observation perspective passed through the formation and inside the wall, the scene before his eyes immediately underwent a huge change.

Unexpectedly, behind this wall turned out to be a deeply hidden courtyard.

The person who looked extremely like him also immediately relaxed upon entering this courtyard.

Afterward.

The figure of the person rapidly transformed, and soon, the person who looked extremely similar to him changed into another appearance.

Furthermore.

This newly transformed appearance was also very familiar to Lin Jing.

Seeing this appearance, even while in Observation Mode, Lin Jing couldn't help but curl his lips into a smile.

It turned out this person was none other than Yan Wanfei, the master of transformation techniques...
