Chapter 931: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_2 Chapter 931: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_2
Following that, the man holding the Samsara Holy Fruit, embraced Huang Qingling and entered this small world.

Apart from the lush forest, inside the small world was an extremely high mountain peak, on which a palace complex was built.

This architectural complex was very familiar to Lin Jing—it was none other than Qinghuang Palace.

The small world that the man had opened must undoubtedly be the Demon Race Secret Realm.

After placing Huang Qingling in the grand hall of Qinghuang Palace, the man waved his hand, enveloping the entire Qinghuang Peak within a barrier.

However, when the man emerged from the small world, the entire heavens and earth began to tremble violently.

At that moment, the man condensed his mana and tore open a crack in space.

...

Then he concentrated the power in his body, wrapping the jade bead, and sent it out through the spatial rift.

After the man dispatched the jade bead, the illusion realm, along with the Samsara Holy Fruit, also left the space.

As they left, Lin Jing glimpsed, through the rift, a massive collapse of the space where the man was.

The man used all his strength to conjure a giant light screen, attempting to envelop all before him and prevent the catastrophe from happening.

Yet, such a disaster was not something he could prevent; in just a moment, he was gravely injured and fell from the sky, while the beautiful woman, at that moment, flew towards the man, catching him in her arms—

Thereafter, the illusion realm where Lin Jing was situated, carried far away by the Samsara Holy Fruit, could see no more.

In the illusion realm, Lin Jing watched as the jade bead had just passed through the spatial rift and not yet completely left the Immortal Dao Realm, when a force from the Immortal Dao Realm, illuminated by nine-colored light, swept over it.

The force collided with the jade bead, dissipating the power that the gallant man had accumulated at the surface of the bead to protect it.

The jade bead, now full of cracks, luckily withstood that attack.

Thus, the bead, riddled with cracks, traveled through the void, and before long, it approached a spatial boundary of the Cultivation World.

But just then, a sudden spatial rift appeared, and the flying jade bead struck it precisely.

The already crack-riddled bead completely shattered at that moment, and the Samsara Holy Fruit that had been inside fell out.

The tumbling Samsara Holy Fruit, by a twist of fate, collided with the boundary wall, shattering it instantly and falling into the Cultivation World.

Following closely behind, the bead also entered the Cultivation World through the hole created by the Samsara Holy Fruit.

From the moment the Samsara Holy Fruit shattered the boundary wall, it became damaged, and the ensuing events were the origin of a catastrophe.

The Samsara Holy Fruit landed precisely within the Primordial Immortal City in the heart of the Nanming Domain.

In an instant, the Nanming Domain was struck by the Samsara Holy Fruit's landing impact, and in a flash, ninety percent of the population perished...

And those few who were fortunate to survive with heavy injuries were swiftly consumed by the Samsara Holy Fruit's terrifying vitality-devouring power, not lasting long before they succumbed...

Originally...

This was indeed the true cause of that disaster a million years ago.

N0vGo.co

At this point, the illusion ended, and Lin Jing too came back to his senses; however, his heart was incredibly heavy.

From Huang Qingling's parents' conversation just now, Lin Jing learned that the main cause of all this was merely a struggle between two people from the Immortal Dao Realm.

It seemed neither of the two were ordinary; their battle caused the Divine Phoenix Clan's dwelling to collapse.

And as a result, Huang Qingling was sent to the Lower Realm, falling into this Xuanqing Realm, and the Samsara Holy Fruit, after shattering the boundary wall, became damaged, its power of reincarnation becoming chaotic, creating an extremely terrifying upgrade in devouring power, leading to the deaths of more than ninety percent of the people in the Nanming Domain.

The entire Nanming Domain thus became wasteland, turning into the Barren Forbidden Zone.

With such terrifying power from just their fight, the two must have also played a role in the impossibility of ascension in the Immortal Realm around the same time.

The reason why ascension was no longer possible in the Immortal Realm must have something to do with them.

And who exactly were these two people?

So terrifying that they could cause the Immortal Dao Realm itself to collapse.

...

After some time passed following the end of the illusion, Lin Jing slowly recovered his senses.

Having regrouped, Lin Jing approached the Samsara Holy Fruit and subsequently called out the system panel to examine it:

Immortal Dao Realm World Seed: Samsara Holy Fruit

Growth Environment: Nine Heavens Reincarnation Lands

Lifespan: ???

(The World Seed shares its life with the Immortal Dao Realm; if the Immortal Dao Realm survives, the World Seed thrives, if the Immortal Dao Realm perishes, the World Seed withers.)

The Samsara Holy Fruit possesses the power of reincarnation, stabilizing the reincarnation cycle of a realm, making it an indispensable World Seed for the Immortal Dao Realm.

(Note: After reaching the Emperor Venerate Realm, one can use the Samsara Holy Fruit to comprehend the Power of Reincarnation and achieve the Unique Sovereign Realm, as the Power of Reincarnation is one of the essential forces for advancing to the Unique Sovereign level.)

Seeing the introduction of the Samsara Holy Fruit on the system panel, Lin Jing couldn't help but feel a little startled.

Emperor Venerate Realm and Unique Sovereign Realm...

Could this Emperor Venerate Realm be that of the legendary Immortal Emperor?

The name of the Immortal Emperor, Lin Jing had only seen in an ancient tome within the Elixir Alliance's Scripture Pavilion, which contained records of the Ancient Era.

Whether this realm really existed was unclear from the records, as it was quite vague; was it truly a realm or merely a title?

The accounts in that ancient tome were very unclear, and Lin Jing was not very sure.

Chapter 932: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_3 Chapter 932: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_3
As for the Unique Sovereign realm, Lin Jing had never even heard of it.

However...

Just from the name "Unique Sovereign," one could tell that it was anything but simple.

What kind of incredible being could claim to be a Unique Sovereign within the Immortal Dao Realm?

Perhaps even the Five Elements Ancestor, who was gifted with exceptional talent and had created the formidable Immortal Dao Five Elements Technique, wouldn't be able to achieve this.

It was unknown, however, what realm the two individuals who caused the collapse of the Immortal Dao Realm belonged to.

Could it be the Unique Sovereign realm?

...

...

...

NovGo.co

However...

These realms were too far out of Lin Jing's reach, and thinking about them was pointless for him at the moment.

After inspecting the Samsara Holy Fruit, Lin Jing then departed from the Nine Heavens Samsara locale and approached the Transcendent Lotus Pond.

No sooner had he stepped into the Transcendent Lotus Pond than Lin Jing was once again pulled into an Illusion Realm.

With the experience from last time, Lin Jing didn't panic this time, but quickly turned around to survey his surroundings.

He found himself atop a mountain peak shrouded in clouds and mist.

There, on the mountain peak, stood a majestic and imposing Immortal Palace, and hanging above the grand hall of this palace were the three powerful characters "Primordial Immortal Palace."

Inside the courtyard of the Primordial Immortal Palace, Lin Jing spotted a pond filled with lotuses and among them, the Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus.

Although the Primordial Immortal Palace was located on an exceedingly high peak, Lin Jing still felt as if the entire mountain was shaking violently.

Moreover, the sky here appeared as it did in the Illusion Realm he had just witnessed, painted a fiery red.

At that moment, above the Primordial Immortal Palace, a man dressed in white stood in the void, his eyes looking forward, corners of his mouth lifted in a mysterious smile.

Right then, a figure flew swiftly towards him, and upon arrival, shouted out:

"Primordial Immortal Emperor, do you intend to destroy the Immortal Dao Realm?"

This person was clearly furious, and his roar dispersed the clouds and mists with its imposing force.

As the clouds dissipated, Lin Jing could see the newcomer clearly, and to his surprise, he was quite familiar with this figure.

It was the Five Elements Ancestor.

Although Lin Jing had never met the real Five Elements Ancestor, he had seen a statue of him as well as a divine will left behind by him at the Five Elements legacy site.

Therefore, upon seeing the Five Elements Ancestor again in this Illusion Realm, Lin Jing felt a peculiar sense of kinship.

Upon arrival, the Five Elements Ancestor, looking furious, turned towards the man in white.

Light of various colors rapidly coursed through his hands, indicating he might attack at any moment.

Faced with the angry Five Elements Ancestor, the man in white chuckled lightly, then spoke:

“Five Elements Ancestor...”

“No...”

“Now you should be called the Five Elements Emperor.”

“Indeed, you are truly the second person to ascend to the Emperor Venerate Realm, I indeed did not misjudge you.”

Confronted with such a demeanor from the man in white, the anger in the eyes of the Five Elements Ancestor intensified, and he retorted angrily:

“Xian Wuming, as the first cultivator from the Cultivation World to ascend to the Immortal Dao Realm, and gaining the reverence of many from both the Immortal Dao Realm and the Lower Cultivation World, you used this Power of Faith to obtain the great fortune of the Immortal Dao Realm, successfully breaking through to the Emperor Venerate Realm.”

“Your achievements can be attributed to the collective Power of Faith from all beings within the Immortal Dao Realm.”

“But now, you wish to destroy the Immortal Dao Realm, what exactly are your intentions?”

“Do you consider this fair to those who have placed their faith in you?”

Lin Jing watched the two of them, listening to the words of the Five Elements Ancestor, and he finally understood.

It turned out that the man in white was the Primordial Immortal Emperor.

Moreover, he was the first person from the Cultivation World to have ascended to the Immortal Dao Realm, the very individual depicted in the statue at the center of Primordial Immortal City.

“Why...?”

The Primordial Immortal Emperor looked at the Five Elements Ancestor before him, then chuckled lightly and said:

“I am the Primordial Immortal, who led the Human Race onto the Immortal Road, earning their faith, and rightfully so.”

“But what of it?”

At this point, the Primordial Immortal Emperor’s smile faded and his eyes shifted, betraying no emotion.

Thus, the Primordial Immortal Emperor continued speaking to the Five Elements Ancestor:

“Even with such achievements, enabling the entire Immortal Dao Realm to flourish more than ever, I still cannot gain the recognition of the Immortal Dao Will, which refuses to acknowledge me as its master.”

“Without the recognition of the Immortal Dao Will, I will never be able to advance to the Unique Sovereign realm.”

“What use is the Emperor Venerate Realm?”

“Without reaching the Unique Sovereign realm, I will forever remain a fish in the net, a turtle in a jar, never escaping the control of this universe, ultimately just a slightly stronger ant beneath the heaven’s eyes.”

“Only by reaching that Unique Sovereign realm can I truly coexist with heaven and earth, break free from all these bindings, and become the master of the entire Immortal Dao Realm.”

Having said this, the Primordial Immortal Emperor, with a look of disdain for all beings, turned to the Five Elements Ancestor:

“Since the Immortal Dao Will refuses to recognize me as its master, then I shall shatter the heavenly pillar, destroy it, exposing the Immortal Dao Heart within, and force out the will of the Immortal Dao, to refine the Immortal Dao Heart myself.”

“Once I have refined the Immortal Dao Heart, the entire Immortal Dao Realm will still be mine, and through that, I shall achieve the Unique Sovereign realm.”

Upon hearing this, the Five Elements Ancestor looked at the Primordial Immortal Emperor, his expression turning icy, and he questioned:

“You destroy the heavenly pillar, force out the Immortal Dao Will, and forcefully refine the Immortal Dao Heart, causing the entire Immortal Dao Realm to collapse” you should be clearer on this than anyone.”

In response to the interrogation of the Five Elements Ancestor, the Primordial Immortal Emperor just looked at him and smilingly said:

Chapter 933: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_4 Chapter 933: Chapter 417 Illusion Realm_4
“This is naturally clear.”

“Actually, I’m here because I want to have a battle with you.”

Upon hearing these words, the Five Elements Ancestor looked up at the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, furrowing his brows:

“You wish to use this battle between us to hasten the collapse of the Immortal Dao Realm, thereby stripping away the will of the Dao, to facilitate the refinement of your Immortal Dao Heart.”

The Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate chuckled and nodded:

“Actually, you have no choice.”

“I have already breached the Heavenly Pillar, and it is collapsing.

The Immortal Dao Realm won’t last long and will completely disintegrate.”

“This battle was chosen by me, you cannot avoid it, you can only accept it, and you cannot stop my plan.”

“Even if you don’t take action, the Immortal Dao Realm will collapse all the same, and perhaps your intervention might even delay my plan.”

Hearing these words, the Five Elements Ancestor’s eyebrows furrowed even deeper...

What the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate said was indeed true.

With the Five Elements Ancestor’s freshly advanced power at the Emperor Venerate level, he was unable to stop the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, but if he did not resist, that would not impact the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate’s plan either.

He could only fight, using battle as a means to thwart the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate.

Although this method might cause the Immortal Dao Realm to collapse more quickly, the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate's plan was already in motion.

Besides him, no one else could stop it.

...

"So be it, let's battle!"

After deciding, the Five Elements Ancestor no longer hesitated, immediately launching an attack, with a Five-Colored Aurora blanketing the skies, assaulting the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate.

The Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, with a wave of his hand, released a burst of nine-colored light instantly, colliding with the Five Elements Ancestor's Five-Colored Aurora.

At the same time, the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate did not forget to gather up the Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus from the pond below.

Thus, the Illusion Realm, following the movement of the Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus, shifted with the battle between the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate and the Five Elements Ancestor.

Once the two began fighting, true cataclysm ensued: countless mountains collapsed, the earth cracked open, and rivers shifted position.

Lin Jing saw that those immortals who had gone through untold hardships to become divine, in this battle were simply struck by the aftershocks and instantly turned to ashes.

Even those grand and magnificent Immortal Cities and Palaces were affected by the residual force of the two's battle, reduced to ruins.

Not a single immortal was able to escape.

Indeed...

What the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate said was not unreasonable; even the immortals of the Immortal Dao Realm, under such a battle, became no better than ants.

If there were truly a battle at the Unique Sovereign level, even those at the Emperor Venerate Realm would be the same.

And if there were an even higher realm...

...

This way, Lin Jing watched as the two fought from one end of the Immortal Dao Realm to the other, even causing the immensely vast continent to fracture and split.

Until at last, it seemed the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate completely unleashed, using Immortal Techniques, each more formidable than the last.

The resulting damage grew increasingly severe.

The Five Elements Ancestor, though unwilling, did not dare hold back in the face of the formidable Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate.

Lin Jing watched as they even fought their way to the habitat of the Divine Phoenix Clan.

Here, Huang Qingling's father, the emperor of the Divine Phoenix Clan, tried to resist but was struck by an Immortal Technique from the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate and sent flying.

The beautiful woman, upon seeing this, rushed to his side and caught him in her arms.

It was then that the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate glanced over, spotted the nearly closed spatial rift, and the Stone Bead Microcosm that was about to drift away.

And then,

He didn't engage in idle talk, but directly waved his hand, and a nine-colored light immediately probed out along the space fissure, seemingly trying to snatch back the stone bead.

N0vgo.co

Upon seeing the Primordial Immortal Emperor take action against the stone bead, Huang Qingling's father's eyes burst with rage, wanting to rise and stop him.

However, he was already injured, and the sudden move from the Primordial Immortal Emperor left him with no chance to defend himself.

But thankfully,

the Five Elements Ancestor saw what was happening and directly intervened with the Five-Colored Aurora, blocking most of the nine-colored light, only allowing a small strand to rush into the space fissure, while the remaining out-of-control nine-colored light struck the small world of the stone bead.

Fortunately, the small world of the stone bead had previously been fortified with multiple layers of defense by Huang Qingling's father, which just managed to withstand that residual attack.

Seeing his attack blocked, he first cast a cold glance at the Five Elements Ancestor, then turned his gaze to Huang Qingling's parents below and snorted disdainfully,

"Hmph!"

"The Divine Phoenix Clan, you are truly exemplary, actually sending one of the three great World Seeds, the Samsara Holy Fruit, out of the Immortal Dao Realm."

"The Samsara Holy Fruit is essential for my ascension to the Unique Sovereign Realm."

"Now that you have sent it away, I will have more trouble finding it in the future, which is infuriating."

"So be it then..."

"Let's extinguish the Divine Phoenix Clan first, to quell my anger."

Hearing this, the Five Elements Ancestor snorted coldly and said,

"Hmph!"

"You were planning to destroy the Immortal Dao Realm and refine the Immortal Dao Heart to advance to the Unique Sovereign Realm.

You never intended to spare anyone in the first place, so why bother finding so many excuses?"

Upon hearing this, Huang Qingling's father immediately understood the whole story.

Then, Huang Qingling's father respectfully bowed to the Five Elements Ancestor and said,

"Thank you, Elder Five Elements, for saving my daughter..."

"I had some misunderstandings about the elder before, not knowing there was such a hidden truth."

After speaking, Huang Qingling's father turned his head to the Primordial Immortal Emperor, his face filled with righteous indignation,

“How can such a person be called the Primordial Immortal, how can he gain the faith of all beings and achieve the Emperor Venerate Realm.”

Having said that, Huang Qingling’s father declared,

“From this day forth...”

“You, Xian Wuming, are the eternal enemy of the Divine Phoenix Clan.”

His voice resonated like a proclamation from the heavens and earth, spreading out for countless miles.

Then, Huang Qingling’s father transformed into his true form, becoming a tremendous Divine Phoenix, and with a piercing screech, he charged toward the Primordial Immortal Emperor.

The Five Elements Ancestor wanted to stop him, but upon seeing the resolute look in the eyes of Huang Qingling’s father, who had transformed into the Divine Phoenix, he did not intervene.

His eyes determined, he knew he was no match for the Primordial Immortal Emperor, yet he had already prepared to meet his death.

After Huang Qingling’s father charged out, Huang Qingling’s mother followed suit, transforming into a Divine Phoenix and rushing at the Primordial Immortal Emperor.

However...

How could the two of them be opponents of the Primordial Immortal Emperor?

With just one move from him, the two of them were thoroughly annihilated.

After them, other members of the Divine Phoenix Clan, in human form or transformed into giant Divine Phoenixes, also threw themselves at the Primordial Immortal Emperor like moths to a flame, heedless of life and death.

The Five Elements Ancestor, at this critical moment, engaged in battle with the Primordial Immortal Emperor once more, the great battle reigniting...

Chapter 934: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders Chapter 934: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders “When the nest is overturned, no egg remains intact.”

The entire region inhabited by the Divine Phoenix Clan, due to the battle between the Five Elements Ancestor and the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, was utterly destroyed.

Even before this catastrophe, the whole clan had launched a suicide assault, charging towards the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate.

Some of the Divine Phoenixes, too timid to fight, attempted to flee but couldn't escape far before dying in the residual effects of the two Emperor Venerates' combat.

It could be said that after this battle, the entire Divine Phoenix Clan in the Immortal Dao Realm had ceased to exist.

The only survivor was Huang Qingling, who had been sent away early on.

Following the battle, the fight between the two grew even more intense, and it spread to other regions within the Immortal Dao Realm, nearly causing the entire realm to collapse.

In the end...

...

The Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, wishing to completely eliminate the Five Elements Ancestor, opened up his own minor world, intending to lure in and annihilate the Five Elements Ancestor.

However...

This gave the Five Elements Ancestor an opportunity, who directly shattered the minor world.

The Immortal Golden Lotus, which had been taken into the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate's minor world, along with Immortal Crossing Island, were both snatched by the Five Elements Ancestor.

After seizing the Immortal Crossing Island, the Five Elements Ancestor didn't keep it but, like Huang Qingling's father, sent the Immortal Golden Lotus along with the Immortal Crossing Island from the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate's minor world out of the Immortal Dao Realm.

Only after sending the Immortal Crossing Island out of the Immortal Dao Realm did the Five Elements Ancestor resume the battle with the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate.

From this, it seemed that the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate also needed the power of the Immortal Golden Lotus to ascend to the Unique Sovereign Realm,

Because after the Five Elements Ancestor sent the Immortal Golden Lotus out of the Immortal Dao Realm, the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate became increasingly frenzied, attacking the Five Elements Ancestor with even more ferocity.

However...

The Illusion Realm that Lin Jing could witness was tied to the Immortal Golden Lotus.

As it was sent out of the Immortal Dao Realm, Lin Jing could no longer see what was happening within the Immortal Dao Realm.

Nor did he know how their battle continued.

...

When the small island, along with the Immortal Golden Lotus, was sent into the Xuanqing Realm, the Illusion Realm that Lin Jing experienced also vanished.

After the Illusion Realm disappeared, Lin Jing remained in place, unable to regain his composure for a long time.

These two Illusion Realms had informed Lin Jing of many things, the cause of the catastrophe in the Nanming Domain, as well as the upheaval within the Immortal Dao Realm.

novGo.co

He just didn't know, what was the final outcome of the battle between the Five Elements Ancestor and the Primordial Immortal Emperor?

Subsequently, Lin Jing remembered that when he saw the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor within the Five Elements Ruins, the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor had once said...

Tens of thousands of years ago, his power began to wane, until a hundred thousand years ago, the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor still had the strength to open the seal, but when Lin Jing entered that heritage site, the consciousness of the Five Elements Ancestor no longer had the extra power to do so.

The consciousness left by the Five Elements Ancestor was closely connected to its real body; the stronger the real body, the stronger the consciousness.

It was, therefore, highly possible that the Five Elements Ancestor hadn't perished, but his power was continuously declining.

It was very likely that a hundred thousand years ago, the Five Elements Ancestor suffered a severe injury, or even total suppression.

Which would explain why the power of the consciousness he left in the Five Elements Ruins significantly weakened, to the point where it couldn't even open its own seal.

From this, one could also infer...

The battle between the Five Elements Ancestor and the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate, two beings of the Emperor Venerate Realm, had persisted for nearly a million years, demonstrating just how terrifying the Emperor Venerate Realm was.

Who knew what state the current Immortal Dao Realm was in?

Had the battle between the Five Elements Ancestor and the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate ended?

Or was it still continuing?

Without access to the Immortal Dao Realm, Lin Jing naturally didn't have the answers.

...

After the Illusion Realm ended and Lin Jing regained his senses, he summoned the System and inspected the Immortal Golden Lotus from the system panel:

Immortal Dao Realm World Seed: Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus

Growing Environment: Transcendent Lotus Pond

Growth Duration: ???

(The lifespan of the World Seed and the Immortal Dao Realm are intertwined; the realm exists, the seed thrives; the realm perishes, the seed withers.)

The Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus, one of the three great World Seeds of the Immortal Dao Realm, possesses the Power of Transcendence, allowing a Void Immortal to become a True Immortal, essential to the Immortal Dao Realm.

(Note: After attaining the Emperor Venerate Realm, one may draw upon the Power of Transcendence from the Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus to reach the Unique Sovereign Realm; this power is indispensable for ascension to the Unique Sovereign state.)

Indeed, this Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus was an indispensable element for ascending to the Unique Sovereign Realm.

Beside this Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus, Lin Jing could indeed sense a type of immortal power somewhat similar to Immortal Yuan, but he could only feel it and not absorb it for his own use.

The Samsara Holy Fruit and the Transcendent Celestial Golden Lotus had been restored, but now that the World Seeds were repaired, Lin Jing could only admire them, unable to use them.

Previously, before their restoration, Lin Jing could use the Samsara Holy Fruit's wild Power of Reincarnation to deal with his enemies.

But now that the Samsara Holy Fruit was repaired and the Power of Reincarnation had calmed, concealing itself within the fruit, it became impossible to employ against adversaries.

Otherwise, with so many Mahayana Cultivators in the Land of Immortal Remnants, if he could gather them together, just by bringing out the Samsara Holy Fruit, the terrifying force of Vitality Devouring could probably wipe them out in one fell swoop.

Now, Lin Jing could only ponder it...

After observing the two restored World Seeds, Lin Jing then turned his gaze towards the third special place, the Divine Mountain of the Dao Realm.

Lin Jing had yet to obtain the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, and at this time, the Divine Mountain of the Dao Realm was still separated from the System Space by a transparent barrier.

Chapter 935: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_2 Chapter 935: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_2 The last time he saw those three images, the Divine Tree of Dao Principle was located in an utterly dark void.

There were no points of reference, and its exact location was unknown.

Now having obtained two of the three great World Seeds, the only one left was the Divine Tree of Dao Principle.

Once he had it, he could consider evolving the System Space.

Having failed to obtain key information about the location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle last time, Lin Jing prepared to investigate further.

After making up his mind, Lin Jing spoke up, summoning the System:

“System!”

“Locate the current position of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle.”

As Lin Jing’s words fell, the System’s prompt tone began to sound:

“Ding!”

“System prompt” preliminary location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle detected; host, please check.”

Following the System’s prompt, a fragmented image appeared before Lin Jing.

This was a void where countless broken walls and debris floated aimlessly.

...

novG0.co

The weakly glowing dead wood roots that Lin Jing had seen before also floated among these ruins.

As the image unfolded, the whole scene began to change, expanding the depicted area.

From the image, Lin Jing saw more and more things.

Gradually, the entire section of broken walls and debris was revealed, and Lin Jing was able to perceive that this appeared to be a Sect.

However, this Sect, along with the blessed land it was located on, was completely destroyed.

Numerous boulders and fragments of buildings were chaotically floating in the area.

As the image continued to widen, Lin Jing also spotted a half-broken plaque.

The plaque was fractured, with the back half missing, leaving only the front portion and a somewhat blurred large character.

Lin Jing looked closely; despite the wear, he could still faintly make out an “Immortal.”

Then...

The perspective in the image continued to pull back, and Lin Jing nearly saw the entirety of the area.

In addition to the broken structures and mountains, Lin Jing even saw several bodies of cultivators also floating around...

This isn't right...

Just as a body floated past the foreground of the image, Lin Jing suddenly realized something was wrong.

It seemed not to be a cultivator's body.

It seemed to be...

An Immortal.

The image abruptly ended here.

After viewing it, Lin Jing was thrown into deep thought.

The Sect and the shattered mountains didn't reveal much, but the bodies Lin Jing saw at the end explained everything.

The location shown in the image, if nothing else, was likely within the Immortal Dao Realm.

Immortal Dao Realm...

If it really was the Immortal Dao Realm, then obtaining the Divine Tree of Dao Principle might indeed be difficult.

The Immortal Dao Realm was closed off and inaccessible.

If it was sealed due to the battle between the Primordial Immortal Emperor Venerate and the Five Elements Ancestor, then it seems that their battle might still be unresolved.

But if the closure was due to the collapse of the Immortal Dao Realm, then it was impossible to predict whether their battle had ended.

Nor could one determine whether there were still dangers inside.

From the image just now, Lin Jing saw no rampant immortal power, it was incredibly calm, so it was difficult to predict whether there were still dangers inside the Immortal Dao Realm.

Moreover, Elder Bai and the ancestors of the Changyun Clan wished to forcibly break through the spatial barriers of the Immortal Dao Realm to enter.

Now that he had discovered the location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle was within the Immortal Dao Realm, he could also take a more in-depth look at the situation inside to prevent any potential dangers.

...

After the image disappeared, Lin Jing prepared to leave the System Space.

Next, Lin Jing planned to assess the external situation and then search for Elder Bai and the two ancestors from the Changyun Clan.

“System!”

“Enter Observation Mode.”

Afterward, Lin Jing entered Observation Mode and began to survey the surroundings.

As Lin Jing conducted his survey, he found no trace of anyone else nearby.

With his advancement to the Mahayana Realm, his Divine Sense had expanded considerably.

Of course, the range that Observation Mode could survey was also much larger.

After using Observation Mode to scrutinize the area and finding no trace of anyone, it was evident that a long time had passed, and those people had already dispersed to continue searching for Elder Bai and the ancestors of the Changyun Clan.

After observing, Lin Jing directly left the System Space and appeared within the Land of Immortal Remnants.

After coming out, Lin Jing oriented himself and then activated Observation Mode, exploring while flying forward.

The direction Lin Jing chose was not the previously detected location of Elder Bai and the ancestor from the Changyun Clan.

Instead, he headed in a different direction.

After entering that strange state previously, Lin Jing had detected a stream of Immortal Yuan attached to a meteorite not far from himself in the void.

Lin Jing planned to see if that Immortal Yuan was still there; if it was, he could collect it on the way.

This way, he would gain another strand of Immortal Yuan.

Therefore, the direction Lin Jing headed was exactly where that Immortal Yuan was located.

...

...

That stream of Immortal Yuan was not very far from Lin Jing's position, and after his advancement to the Mahayana Realm, his speed had also increased a lot.

Soon, Observation Mode had already detected the meteorite's location.

Lin Jing continued forward, and quickly, his Divine Sense also detected that piece of meteorite.

Chapter 936: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_3 Chapter 936: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_3 “

Although Divine Sense had already detected the meteor, Lin Jing did not feel any presence of Immortal Yuan from it.

He wondered if the Immortal Yuan had already left.

Though Divine Sense failed to perceive the presence of Immortal Yuan, Lin Jing continued to advance, intending to inspect it in person to see if anything could be discovered.

However...

Just as Lin Jing was about to approach the Immortal Yuan“about a thousand zhang away from it“the streak of Immortal Yuan that had entered his body earlier began to stir.

The Immortal Yuan circulated within Lin Jing's body before leaving and rushing forward.

Seeing this, Lin Jing hastily followed that streak of Immortal Yuan, charging ahead.

...

The Immortal Yuan that emerged from Lin Jing's body, upon reaching the meteor, began to orbit around it.

And it was only when Lin Jing was approximately ten zhang from the Immortal Yuan that he detected the Immortal Yuan attached to the meteor.

He really had quite the luck; he didn't expect the Immortal Yuan to still be here.

And, the hidden Immortal Yuan within his own body, surprisingly, proved useful by aiding him in the search for other Immortal Yuan.

The ability of Immortal Yuan to conceal itself was just too perverse; not even the Divine Sense of someone in the Mahayana Realm could detect it.

Only when one personally came within ten zhang of it could they detect the existence of the Immortal Yuan.

Fortunately, he had the aid of that Immortal Yuan.

He estimated that if it were just him, the Immortal Yuan by the meteor might have fled again before he could get close to it.

Afterward...

Lin Jing collected the Immortal Yuan, storing it in the System Space.

Upon securing the Immortal Yuan, the System's notification sounded once more, awarding Lin Jing another ten thousand Harvest Points.

And after taking the Immortal Yuan, it seemed to recognize an owner, re-entering his body again.

Moreover, with the Immortal Yuan inside his body, Lin Jing could sense its presence but could not feel its energy at all.

Lin Jing was indeed puzzled about the situation with the Immortal Yuan.

He did not understand why those three streaks of Immortal Yuan helped him during his tribulation at such a critical moment.

These three streaks of Immortal Yuan seemed different from the rest, not only helping him with his Tribulation but also aiding in finding other Immortal Yuan.

However, the Immortal Yuan Lin Jing obtained just now, and the one that had just entered his body, were different.

The latter, after being obtained by Lin Jing, lay in his palm quiet like a dead object.

This odd situation made Lin Jing wonder if it might be related to the three World Seeds within the System Space, considering two of the three Immortal Yuan had directly entered the World Seeds to help repair them.

Only this one remained, since Lin Jing had not yet acquired the Divine Tree of Dao Principles, so it was temporarily residing in his body.

Of course, this was just Lin Jing's speculation.

It was also possible that the Immortal Yuan behaved this way because of the System Space...

However...

None of this was important, as long as the Immortal Yuan was harmless to him.

...

After obtaining the Immortal Yuan, Lin Jing changed direction and flew towards where Elder Bai and the ancestor of the Changyun Clan were located.

Time passed quickly, and after a few days, Lin Jing finally saw the meteor he had encountered in that strange state through the Observation Mode.

Before approaching it, Lin Jing used the Observation Mode to scout around, and just then, he discovered the two of them leaving the meteor.

After they left the meteor, they headed directly towards Lin Jing's location.

Soon...

Lin Jing saw the two of them.

Elder Bai and the ancestor of the Changyun Clan were initially cautious when they first saw Lin Jing.

But when they came before him and conducted a careful investigation, they relaxed.

Afterward, the ancestor of the Changyun Clan asked Lin Jing somewhat surprisedly,

"How did you suddenly appear here?"

Lin Jing replied,

“I encountered Ye Mingyi before, and you could say he brought me here.”

Having said that, Lin Jing recounted the encounter with Ye Mingyi to both the ancestor of the Changyun Clan and Elder Bai.

Of course...

There were many details he couldn't reveal, so Lin Jing concealed some or substituted parts, as it related to the System Space, and naturally, some things couldn't be divulged.

Having just finished speaking, Lin Jing added,

“During my Tribulation, I happened to enter a strange state, where I saw you two.”

“But, because the commotion of the Tribulation was too great, it attracted many others, so for my own protection, I could only use the Teleportation Talisman I found in Ye Mingyi's Space Ring to temporarily get away until now.”

“So the Tribulation that caused such a commotion was yours...”

Both of them were left dumbfounded after hearing this.

The commotion created by Lin Jing's Tribulation was comparable to the tribulation of ascending to immortality, and he actually survived such terrifying Tribulation Lightning, which greatly surprised them both.

However, after inquiring about Lin Jing's Cultivation, they believed his story.

NovGo.co

Indeed, Lin Jing had just advanced to the early stage of the Mahayana Realm.

Lin Jing went on to say,

“Actually, if we're talking about it, my success in the Tribulation was largely thanks to Ye Mingyi.

Without the treasures and Formation he left behind, I might really have failed this time.”

Hearing this, the Changyun Clan ancestor could not help but sigh,

“Perhaps this is destiny...”

“Your Lin Family nearly got annihilated because of Ye Ming, yet you managed to survive the most difficult Heavenly Tribulation on the path of cultivation because of him.”

Chapter 937: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_4 Chapter 937: Chapter 418 Location of the Divine Tree of Dao Principle, Meeting with the Two Elders_4 Elder Bai spoke up at this moment:

“Enough...”

“Stop with the sentimentality.

There’s some danger here, and who knows when others might find us.

We better head back first.”

The ancestor of the Changyun Clan nodded in agreement, and then the two of them took Lin Jing back to the previous meteorite.

After returning, Lin Jing asked both of them:

“When I approached this place just now, you knew right away.

Could it be that you have left some means of control here?”

Elder Bai then said:

“Indeed...”

“Hong and I obtained an Immortal Yuan here in the Land of Immortal Remnants, which was discovered by cultivators from both Cangyun and Jiulin realms.”

“They mobilized a lot of people to encircle us, intending to snatch the Immortal Yuan, so naturally, we needed to be very careful.”

“This meteorite, along with those seemingly inconspicuous small meteorite fragments around us, actually form a huge Formation.

Inside here, we can also monitor all movements outside.”

“All this is thanks to Hong’s methods.”

“If not for these measures, we would probably have been discovered by them a long time ago.”

Hearing this, Lin Jing couldn't help feeling puzzled and then asked them:

"Didn't I give you an Immortal Yuan earlier?"

Why did you still come to the Land of Immortal Remnants to find Immortal Yuan?"

"Could it be that in addition to Immortal Yuan, there's something else in this land?"

As soon as Lin Jing finished speaking, the ancestor of the Changyun Clan spoke up:

"As a matter of fact..."

"The Immortal Yuan you gave us earlier, we used to offer to that Empress of the Demon Clan."

Lin Jing was startled after hearing this.

...

"Why would you do that?"

The ancestor of the Changyun Clan continued to explain:

"We wanted to break through the barriers of the Immortal Realm and check the internal situation of the Immortal Realm, and we needed the help of the Empress of the Demon Clan."

"When we sought her help, she made a request that we find her an Immortal Yuan, and then she would assist us."

"It just so happened that during my last visit to the Land of Immortal Remnants, I discovered an Immortal Yuan and figured out its appearance pattern, giving us a fair chance to obtain it."

"So, we directly gave her the Immortal Yuan you provided us, and then came here, to the Land of Immortal Remnants, to capture this Immortal Yuan."

"However, some accidents occurred while capturing the Immortal Yuan, and we were discovered by others from the Cangyun and Jiulin realms."

"Even though we successfully captured the Immortal Yuan, we were also encircled by people from the Cangyun and Jiulin realms in this Land of Immortal Remnants."

"Originally..."

“When your Tribulation caused that great commotion, we planned to break out during the chaos.”

“But in previous encounters, they had marked us with some means, leaving imprints on us that we could not erase.

With these marks, we couldn’t disguise ourselves and had to try to break out through the entrance forcibly.”

“And at the exit of the Land of Immortal Remnants, their defenses were too tight.

We tried many times, but ultimately we couldn’t escape.”

“I see...”

Lin Jing immediately understood all the reasons after listening and also realized something.

That’s why previously, in that bizarre state, he could only detect eight Immortal Yuans; the last one was undetectable because it was in the hands of the Empress of the Demon Clan.

Now, the Immortal Yuan that the Empress of the Demon Clan had obtained, although it was acquired during his first Tribulation, goes without saying that it also originated from the Land of Immortal Remnants.

This fact, Lin Jing had already understood from the conversation he had overheard from Elder Qu of the Liuyue Dao Sect in the Cangyun Realm.

Elder Bai and the ancestor of the Changyun Clan had given away the Immortal Yuan they originally possessed to the Empress of the Demon Clan, but because of the Immortal Yuan, they fell into a perilous situation once more.

This caused Lin Jing to feel somewhat helpless.

He was also very curious about the Empress of the Demon Clan; why did she also need the Immortal Yuan?

Could it be that she wanted to use the Immortal Yuan to refine an Ascension Pill as well?

And what exactly was her level of Cultivation?

Both from what Elder Bai and the ancestor of the Changyun Clan said, as well as the cultivator with the surname Li from the Cangyun Realm earlier, it seemed that they were all extremely certain of the Empress’s strength.

As Lin Jing was deep in thought, Elder Bai first looked at Lin Jing and then turned his head and said to the ancestor of the Changyun Clan:

“Hong...”

“Although both of us have been marked by them, Lin lad does not have such marks.”

“Perhaps we could find a way to send Lin lad out and then have him find someone to rescue us...”

Chapter 938: Chapter 419: Immortal Concealing Technique Chapter 938: Chapter 419: Immortal Concealing Technique The Changyun Clan Ancestor, upon hearing this, couldn't help but turn his head and look at Lin Jing.

After sizing Lin Jing up, the Changyun Clan Ancestor nodded slightly.

N0vgo.co

Then, he opened his mouth and said to Lin Jing,

“Lin lad...”

“I remember you've cultivated our Changyun Clan's Changyun Hidden Technique, right?”

Lin Jing nodded and replied,

“Yes, senior!”

The Changyun Clan Ancestor was overjoyed upon hearing this,

“That's excellent!”

“Since you have already cultivated the Changyun Hidden Technique, we can spare much trouble.”

After hearing this, Lin Jing also instantly understood their intentions.

Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan Ancestor planned to have him use the Changyun Hidden Technique to disguise himself, and then escape from under the eyes of the people from both Cangyun and Xuanqing Realms through the exit of the Land of Immortal Remnants.

However, it seemed there were significant drawbacks to using the Changyun Hidden Technique, especially when facing cultivators from the Cangyun Realm.

Lin Jing then spoke, addressing the Changyun Clan Ancestor,

“Senior...”

“The Changyun Hidden Technique doesn’t seem very effective; I’ve encountered two cultivators from the Cangyun Realm before, and they could see through the disguise of the Changyun Hidden Technique with their Pupil Skill.”

Hearing Lin Jing’s words, the Changyun Clan Ancestor immediately laughed and said to Lin Jing,

“You’ve got it wrong...”

“What I mean is not to let you go out there with the current Changyun Hidden Technique.”

“Inside the Cangyun Realm, there is a special Secret Realm, and this Secret Realm has very high requirements for Pupil Skills, so most cultivators within the Cangyun Realm will cultivate Pupil Skills to venture into the Secret Realm and obtain cultivation resources.”

“The Changyun Hidden Technique you’ve cultivated can’t deceive their Pupil Skills.”

“Our Changyun Clan, having made contact with the cultivators from the Cangyun Realm long ago, had already researched and developed the Immortal Concealing Technique to counteract the Pupil Skills of the Cangyun Realm.”

“Only the Changyun Hidden Technique that has been cultivated with the Immortal Concealing Technique is the true Changyun Hidden Technique.”

“If it weren’t for the indelible mark they had placed on me, I could have already left this place to find allies to rescue Elder Bai.”

“And the premise of cultivating the Immortal Concealing Technique is to first cultivate the Changyun Hidden Technique.”

“If you hadn’t cultivated the Changyun Hidden Technique before, it would be quite troublesome, possibly taking a long time to cultivate.”

“But since you’ve already cultivated the Changyun Hidden Technique, you only need a few days to master the Immortal Concealing Technique, and then those Cangyun Realm cultivators’ Pupil Skills would be useless against you.”

...

...

...

“So that’s how it is...”

Upon hearing this, Lin Jing suddenly understood.

Afterward, Lin Jing continued to speak, asking,

“I just don’t know who to look for after I leave to rescue you?”

Speaking of which, Lin Jing turned his head towards Elder Bai and asked,

“Is it Elder Lei and others?”

When Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan Ancestor left the Xuanqing Realm and came to the Outer Spatial Void to search for the materials for the Ascension Pill, it was not just the two of them.

With them were several others.

These people were from the major forces within the Eastern Spirit Realm, and they were the allies that Elder Bai had found to search for the Ascension Pill materials together.

Elder Lei was not only an Elder of the Elixir Alliance but also the Grand Elder of the Elixir Hall in the Yunxian Sect, and he was also an Alchemist.

Being knowledgeable about various materials and Spirit Plants, he was obviously able to help Elder Bai and assist in searching for Ascension Pill materials, so naturally, he had come with them to the Outer Spatial Void.

Hearing Lin Jing’s words, Elder Bai shook his head and said,

“We can’t look for them...”

“Even if they know about this, there are too few of them to be of any great help.”

At this moment, the Changyun Clan Ancestor chimed in and said,

“Since the catastrophe in the Domain of Ming in the South Continent a million years ago, our Xuanqing Realm suffered heavy losses, and the top combatants within the Xuanqing Realm have always been weaker than those of Cangyun and Jiulin Realms.”

“Especially here in the Outer Spatial Void, the number of top cultivators from our Xuanqing Realm is less than theirs, and we can’t compete with them for many rare resources.”

“In such a vicious cycle, the resources obtained by our Xuanqing Realm grow increasingly scarce, and consequently, the top combatants we can cultivate are also fewer and fewer.

“While the Cangyun and Jiulin Realms use these resources to cultivate more top combatants, further suppressing us in the Outer Spatial Void.”

“Take this instance for example...”

“We two have been trapped in the Land of Immortal Remnants for a long time.

I estimate others have long noticed, but the Land of Immortal Remnants has always been sealed by the Cangyun and Jiulin Realms; they want to come in, but they can’t.”

“Therefore, if we want to find someone to rescue us, then we can’t look for Elder Lei and others.”

“However, besides them...”

“Who else can...”

Lin Jing hadn’t finished speaking when a sudden flash of inspiration struck his mind, thinking of a person.

If even the allies from the Xuanqing Realm couldn’t rescue them, then perhaps only one person could save them in this moment.

That person...

...was the Demon Clan Empress who was revered by all and whose combat power was extremely terrifying.

At that moment, the Changyun Clan Ancestor spoke,

“Right now, the only one who can save us is that Demon Clan Empress.”

“We had previous dealings with her, and when she learned that we wanted to break through the barriers of the Immortal Realm, she showed great interest.”

“After you leave, go directly to her.

I believe she will not stand by idly.”

Indeed...

Lin Jing's guess was correct; now only that extremely terrifying Demon Clan Empress could save them.

"Alright..."

"If that's the case, then I will follow your instructions and look for that Demon Clan Empress after I leave."

The two nodded and then said,

"There's no rush with that for now, but before that, we need to make more preparations, and also pass on the Immortal Concealing Technique to you."

Chapter 939: Chapter 419 Immortal Concealing Technique_2 Chapter 939: Chapter 419 Immortal Concealing Technique_2 "Once everything is prepared, we can figure out a way to get out."

...

...

After the discussion was concluded, the Changyun Clan elder ancestor taught Lin Jing the Immortal Concealing Technique.

Over the following days, Lin Jing practiced the Immortal Concealing Technique, while also exchanging information with Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan elder ancestor, taking the opportunity to inquire about the outside situation.

Prior to this, Lin Jing had actually done one more thing.

He revealed to Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan elder ancestor the matter of Elder Qu from the Liuyue Dao Sect from the Cangyun Realm obtaining a strand of Immortal Yuan, and informed them of the approximate location where Elder Qu received the Immortal Yuan.

He asked them to help investigate Elder Qu's movements.

...

Lin Jing knew that after obtaining the Immortal Yuan, Elder Qu would surely want to leave as soon as possible and take it back to the Liuyue Dao Sect.

Lin Jing thought that since they were carrying the Immortal Yuan, which had a unique aura that was difficult to hide, they would have to deal with it before leaving, which would inevitably cause a delay.

Perhaps at this moment, the two of them had not even left the Land of Immortal Remnants.

If that was the case, it could be possible to find them and then directly strike, seizing the strand of Immortal Yuan from them.

...

...

Indeed...

Everything went as Lin Jing had anticipated.

Through the probing by Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan elder ancestor, Elder Qu's whereabouts were soon uncovered.

The middle-aged cultivator had not stayed with him and seemed to have already left on his own, but Elder Qu was still lingering within the Land of Immortal Remnants.

Perhaps due to the Immortal Yuan, Elder Qu didn't accompany others, instead, he distanced himself from the rest, finding a hidden place within the Land of Immortal Remnants to seclude himself.

If it weren't for Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan elder ancestor also being hunted and extremely familiar with such hidden locations, it really would have been difficult to uncover his position.

...

When Lin Jing had completed practicing the Immortal Concealing Technique, several days had passed.

By then, Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan elder ancestor had thoroughly investigated the situation of Elder Qu from the Liuyue Dao Sect and were ready to act against him and seize the strand of Immortal Yuan he possessed.

However, just as they were about to make their move, Lin Jing suddenly spoke up, stopping the two of them:

"Elder Bai, Changyun elder..."

“Why not wait a moment and let me try first.”

Upon hearing this, both turned their heads to look at Lin Jing with curiosity.

Lin Jing then explained:

“Elder Qu from the Liuyue Dao Sect is cultivating a Pupil Skill, and it was he who saw through my use of the Changyun Hidden Technique last time.”

“I’ve just finished practicing the Immortal Concealing Technique and I want to test it out again on him to see if his Pupil Skill can still see through my disguise.”

After listening, both of them immediately understood.

“Indeed...”

“Now that you have just finished practicing the Immortal Concealing Technique, you indeed need to verify its effectiveness,” said the Changyun Clan elder ancestor with a nod.

N0vG0.co

At this point, Elder Bai also spoke:

“Actually, this might be good...”

“Testing the Immortal Concealing Technique in advance to avoid any accidents at critical moments.”

“In that case...”

“Let’s do as you said.

You disguise yourself and approach the man from the Liuyue Dao Sect to test it out.

We will follow behind you at a certain distance, to prevent him from detecting us.”

“When we are needed, you can signal us, and we will take action, capturing him directly and seizing the strand of Immortal Yuan from his hands.”

Lin Jing, hearing this, nodded continuously:

“That’s exactly what I was thinking...”

The Changyun Clan elder ancestor also nodded in agreement, echoing:

“Good...”

“Then let’s do that.”

...

In the void of the Land of Immortal Remnants, Qu Yuanhai was meditating on a floating meteorite.

On the very meteorite he was seated on, he had also laid a Concealment Formation.

The place he was in within the Land of Immortal Remnants was quite remote, with few people ever visiting, but even so, for safety’s sake, he had set up a Concealment Formation, not wanting to be discovered.

The reason for such caution was because he and his disciple’s nephew had fortuitously obtained a strand of Immortal Yuan ten days prior.

This was Immortal Yuan, after all!

Something countless people dream of possessing, rumored to even enable one to ascend to immortality.

Although he didn’t know how to use the Immortal Yuan to ascend to immortality, his all-knowing Senior Brother, who was also the Sect Master of Liuyue Dao Sect, would surely know.

Thus, upon obtaining the Immortal Yuan initially, he concealed it at once.

As Immortal Yuan was extremely precious, naturally, he could not let others know of its existence, especially those from the Cangyun Realm.

If they were to discover that he possessed Immortal Yuan, they would certainly come to snatch it at all costs.

Even if he could deliver the Immortal Yuan back to Liuyue Dao Sect, it would bring unimaginable disaster to the sect.

Therefore, after obtaining the Immortal Yuan, his first thought was to hide and then find a way to send it back to Liuyue Dao Sect.

But Immortal Yuan was exceedingly special, its aura nearly impossible to conceal, making the task of taking it out exceedingly difficult.

Moreover...

To prevent those two cultivators from the Xuanqing Realm who were pursuing him in the exit of the Land of Immortal Remnants, a Magical Treasure from the Ancient Era capable of detecting Immortal Yuan had been placed.

Even if he could completely conceal the aura of the Immortal Yuan, making it undetectable to others, he still could not escape the detection of that Magical Treasure.

So...

After waiting for a few days until his disciple's nephew's aura of Immortal Yuan dissipated, he let him leave early to notify his Senior Brother.

His Senior Brother had once, during an excursion in a Secret Realm, accidentally acquired a fragment of a small and badly damaged world.

This small world was not big and was already in ruins.

Even so, this small world could be used to hide Immortal Yuan.

Placing the Immortal Yuan inside the small world would render the Magical Treasure incapable of detection.

In this way, they could bring the Immortal Yuan back to Liuyue Dao Sect.

At this moment, Qu Yuanhai, having waited near this area for nearly ten days since his disciple's nephew left, estimated that it wouldn't be long before his Senior Brother would arrive.

Qu Yuanhai, alone on the meteorite, was both anxious and somewhat excited.

During this time, he had been continuously observing the surroundings, taking every precaution, and praying ceaselessly, only hoping that no incidents would occur in these next few days.

Perhaps due to the remoteness of the location he had chosen or possibly the efficacy of his prayers, no other cultivators had appeared in the vicinity since his disciple's nephew had departed—“not a single one.

Unfortunately...

It seemed that heaven wouldn't always look favorably upon him.

Today, while Qu Yuanhai was meditating, he suddenly sensed something unusual, as though someone had come nearby.

Qu Yuanhai was startled, his heart skipping a beat.

Then, hastily, he used the means he had left behind to investigate.

Under Qu Yuanhai's scrutiny, he detected a lean figure shrouded in rising Demonic Qi, approaching his location; by its aura, it seemed like a practitioner of the Jiuyou Demonic Path, and its cultivation appeared to be only at the early stages of Mahayana.

Qu Yuanhai dared not extend his Divine Sense, only using the means he had left behind to carefully observe.

These means had been prepared just for situations like this.

Now, hidden inside the Concealment Formation, he could indeed probe the other with his Divine Sense, but the other party would similarly be able to detect his presence.

However, it was fortunate that he was inside the Concealment Formation and should not be discovered by the other party.

At the moment, Qu Yuanhai only hoped that this person had come here by chance and would leave quickly.

But fate was contrary to his wishes, as the Demon Cultivator from the Jiuyou Demonic Path flew directly towards his location.

Even upon arriving in front of the meteorite where he was hiding, the person stopped directly, observing the meteorite where he concealed himself.

Seeing this, Qu Yuanhai's eyebrows knitted tightly.

He still harbored a sliver of hope at the time, wishing that the other party hadn't discovered him, so he did not act but continued to take careful precautions while observing the newcomer...

Chapter 940: Chapter 420: Disguise, Leaving the Land of Immortal Remnants Chapter 940: Chapter 420: Disguise, Leaving the Land of Immortal Remnants Qu Yuanhai did not make his move, but at that moment, a demon cultivator from the Jiuyou Demonic Path did.

Only to see that the Demonic Qi around the cultivator suddenly surged, and he threw a punch that instantly solidified the Demonic Qi, forming a hideous black dragon rushing towards his position.

Seeing this, Qu Yuanhai no longer hid himself and directly summoned his Daoist Treasure to block the black dragon.

After blocking the demon cultivator's attack, Qu Yuanhai furrowed his brows and coldly spoke,

“What is your intention, sir, by suddenly attacking my place of retreat?”

Upon seeing Qu Yuanhai, the demon cultivator’s eyes suddenly brightened, and he then sized him up,

After examining him, the corners of the demon cultivator’s mouth curled up, and he laughed,

“Ha ha, as expected...”

“I wondered why this place felt strange, it turns out you carry the aura of Immortal Yuan.”

Having said that, the demon cultivator spoke again, sneering coldly at Qu Yuanhai,

“Hand over the Immortal Yuan, and I shall spare your life!”

Qu Yuanhai looked at the demon cultivator before him, listening to his arrogant words, but he did not grow angry, and his expression instead calmed down.

Then...

He concentrated his Spiritual Power and used his Pupil Skill again to observe this demon cultivator from Jiuyou Demonic Path.

After observing him, Qu Yuanhai put away his Pupil Skill and then spoke,

“Are all of you from Jiuyou Demonic Path this arrogant?”

...

A mere early-stage Mahayana, and yet you dare to act recklessly before me; I wonder where such confidence comes from.”

The demon cultivator, hearing this, snorted coldly,

“Hmph!”

“How we, Jiuyou Demonic Path, conduct ourselves is none of your concern!”

“Are you going to hand it over, or not?”

Hearing the demon cultivator’s words, Qu Yuanhai himself almost laughed out of anger,

“Heh heh...”

“The Jiuyou Demonic Path is always unbelievably arrogant.

Today I truly see it for myself.”

“An early-stage Mahayana cultivator daring to threaten a late-stage Mahayana cultivator, it seems not only are you arrogant, but your brains are also truly broken.”

“To think you still dare to covet the Immortal Yuan!”

“I’ll just give it to you...”

Qu Yuanhai hadn’t even finished speaking when the demon cultivator interrupted,

“It seems...”

“You really do carry Immortal Yuan.”

Qu Yuanhai gave a cold smile and directly spoke,

“So what if I do?”

“But you will not see it, for you are undoubtedly going to die today.”

Hearing this, the demon cultivator suddenly burst into laughter, except this time, he seemed to be very happy.

After laughing, the demon cultivator directly crushed a jade pendant hanging on his waist, and then the aura around his body began to change.

Even the surrounding Demonic Qi began to transform.

In no time, the demon cultivator from the Jiuyou Demonic Path in front of Qu Yuanhai turned into a young man.

This man was naturally Lin Jing.

Seeing Lin Jing, Qu Yuanhai’s expression changed drastically, a look of disbelief on his face,

“Impossible...”

“This can’t be possible!”

“How can it be you?”

“I clearly used my Pupil Skill to investigate you and found nothing amiss, how can it possibly be you?”

“How did you manage to deceive my Pupil Skill?”

Yet, before Lin Jing could answer, two extremely terrifying presences were quickly approaching from afar.

Qu Yuanhai also quickly noticed these two presences, and his face immediately turned exceedingly ugly.

Very soon...

Novgo.co

those two presences arrived, and Qu Yuanhai could see clearly who the two persons were.

“It’s actually you two...”

Needless to say, these two people were Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan patriarch, who had just crushed the jade pendant and rushed here.

When Qu Yuanhai saw Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan patriarch, he couldn’t help but turn pale as death.

If only Lin Jing had been there, with his late-stage Mahayana Cultivation, he could have killed Lin Jing and then relocated to hide.

Thus, even though Lin Jing had deceived his Pupil Skill and revealed his true identity, he was shocked but not yet panicked.

But now, with Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan patriarch, two peak Mahayana cultivators present, he evidently had no way out.

The situation at this time left Qu Yuanhai with a face of despair.

However, by this point, he also had realized that all of this was premeditated.

He couldn’t understand, he had been so careful already, how had he still been discovered.

“Why?”

“I want to know how you knew I obtained an Immortal Yuan and knew I was hiding here?”

“Could it be my disciple nephew?”

“No...”

“My disciple nephew would never betray our Liuyue Dao Sect, could it be that you captured him and used some method on him?”

At this time, knowing he had no way out, Qu Yuanhai still wanted to know how he had been discovered.

However...

Regarding the matter of discovering that he had obtained Immortal Yuan, Lin Jing couldn't begin to explain it, this matter was of great significance, even facing someone who was about to die, Lin Jing couldn't reveal it.

After all, these were old monsters who had lived for tens of thousands of years, who knew whether there was another means for them to resurrect?

Then, Lin Jing turned his head and said to Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan patriarch,

“Elder Bai, Senior Changyun...”

“The rest, I'll leave to you guys to handle, I won't get involved.”

Having said that, Lin Jing stepped back.

Elder Bai and the Changyun Clan patriarch, one on the left and one on the right, surrounded Qu Yuanhai in the middle.

Seeing this, Qu Yuanhai knew that asking anything further was futile, they had clearly prepared well and evidently would not spare his life.

Therefore, he no longer held back, unleashing his full Cultivation, and commanded his Lifebound Dao Treasure, making the first attack on one of the men...

...

...

Lin Jing did not participate in the battle, merely watching the battle from some distance away.
