

Talented Hairess A Rose with Thorns Chapter 81-90

Chapter 81

Hearing Yasmin's words, Dominic despised her even more.

"I'm not sure what went wrong, but I wasn't looking for you. I'm looking for the actual beauty queen of Jubilife University!"

Yasmin's face fell. She had already spread news about how she was cast in his movie. She couldn't accept the fact that Dominic wasn't actually looking for her!

"What's going on? Didn't they say Mr. Franklin decided to film at Jubilife University because of Yasmin? Why is he saying that Yasmin wasn't the person he was looking for?"

"I think Mr. Franklin dislikes her, too. He disagreed with her claim of being the beauty queen of Jubilife University."

Yvette watched the events unfold. She looked relaxed, and that angered Yasmin even more.

Yasmin said hurriedly, "Mr. Franklin, I really am Miss Jubilife-*

"Get lost, don't waste my time."

Before Yasmin could finish her sentence, Dominic interrupted impatiently. He was in a hurry to meet the young lady he encountered the day before. He simply had no time to waste with Yasmin.

"Mr. Franklin..."

Yasmin refused to give up, and she tried to follow after Dominic, which made him extremely impatient. Just as Dominic was about to leave, somebody in the crowd caught his eye.

He was instantly overjoyed.

"I finally found you!"

Dominic, who had been visibly grumpy, beamed when he saw Yvette.

"You left so quickly yesterday, young lady. I didn't get to ask your name. I don't know what happened, but my s person. I'm so lucky to have found you again!"

At his words, the crowd broke into discussion again.

“What? Mr. Franklin was looking for Yvette?”

staff contacted the wrong

“Does that mean Mr. Franklin got the wrong person, mistaking Yvette as Miss Jubilate? And the staff contacted the wrong person...”

“But I get it. Yvette deserves to be the beauty queen of Jubilate University. It makes sense that they got the wrong person!”

Hearing their words, Yasmin felt extremely ashamed. She had been boasting to Yvette about how Dominic had cast her to act in the film. Yasmin hadn’t expected that Dominic meant to invite Yvette instead.

She was utterly embarrassed!

“Ms. Murray, you’re a great fit for this character. I am sincerely inviting you to play this role. If you would just say yes, you can ask for any terms!”

Yvette was enjoying the show when Dominic suddenly rushed to her. Without hesitation, Yvette rejected him.

“No, thanks. I’m not interested in acting.

de gis.

If Yvette had the time to act in a film, she would have earned a few hundred million dollars with her side

“Oh my God, Yvette rejected Mr. Franklin!”

“Did I hear her right? Somebody actually rejected Mr. Franklin. Not just anyone can act in his films!”

“Exactly ”

Hearing those words, Yasmin felt even more agitated. It was an opportunity that she dreamed of having, yet Yvette rejected it without batting an eye.

Yaunin believed Yvette was playing hard to get. She thought that Yvette was merely trying to stand out. As such, Yasmin refused to let Yvette’s plans come to fruition.

Yaunin kily glanced at Nora, who immediately understood the signal and began to speak loudly.

Chapter 82

“Mr. Franklin, we heard that the character plays piano. But Yvette is from the countryside, and she can’t play the piano! She’s not a good fit for the role!”

Per their expectations, Dominic frowned when he heard that remark. He looked regretfully at Yvette. Since Yvette was so suitable for the role, Dominic felt it was quite a waste that Yvette couldn’t play the piano.

Noticing his reaction, Nora continued, “Mr. Franklin, but that’s not the case for Yasmin. She learned how to play the piano when she was a child, and she’s great at it. She even won this year’s piano competition!”

“Mr. Franklin, Yasmin is the best person for the role!”

Then, Nora continued to mock Yvette. “Mr. Franklin, if you choose Yvette, she’s going to delay your shooting schedule since she can’t even play the piano!”

“Who says Yvette can’t play piano?”

Sean stood protectively in front of Yvette. He couldn’t stand their criticisms of her, and he played the video of Yvette playing the piano at the banquet.

“Open w

your eyes and have a good look. Yvie is so brilliant!”

In the video, Yvette sat in front of the piano and played elegantly. As the light hit her face, her beauty seemed unreal.

The crowd couldn’t help but gasp.

“She’s so beautiful! That’s what you’d call a fairy..”

“Not only is she pretty, she even plays the piano well!”

Dominic was ecstatic, too. He was surprised at Yvette’s piano skills, and she completely fit his expectations for the role!

“Ms. Murray, no one else would be a better fit for this role than you. Would you please reconsider this? Please don’t reject me so quickly!” Seeing how Dominic was being so persistent, Yvette felt helpless. Before she could reject Dominic again, however, he put his hand over his chest

He said, “Oh dear, my heart’s not feeling too good today. I can’t take any more rejections. Please consider it, Ms. Murray. I’ll be waiting for your answer!” Then, Dominic ran away before Yvette could say anything.

Everyone was shocked by how shamelessly Dominic was behaving. He was known to be a mean critic, but they hadn’t expected him to be so humble in the face of Yvette.

Witnessing the scene, Yasmin became even more jealous. She glared at Yvette, silently wishing to tear the latter into pieces.

“Yvie, I proved them wrong for you. Do you feel good?”

Sean got close to Yvette, who pushed him away in response. Sean wasn’t angry that Yvette pushed him away, and he continued to approach her.

But when he saw how Yvette was carrying many things, his expression turned stern.

Sean wondered if Jasper had gifted Yvette all of that. He was angry at how Jasper had his eyes on Yvette!

“Why are you carrying so many things, Yvie? You must be tired. Let me help!”

Sean grabbed everything that Yvette had in her hands. He wished to throw them all into the trash can, but he simply smiled pretentiously.

“Who gave you these, Yvie?” Yasmin realized that Sean wasn’t the one who gifted Yvette the desserts from Luxe Delights. An idea came to her at that moment.

accept

Pretending to be considerate, Yasmin said softly, “Yvie, even though you enjoy the desserts from Luxe Delight, you shouldn’t randomly accept gifts from other people

“As girls, we should be more reserved. Since you grew up in the countryside, I understand you never got to enjoy many delicious things. Still, you shouldn’t just accept gifts from random people in the future, Yvie!”

Chapter 83

Yasmin sounded considerate, but she also implied that Yvette was behaving indecently.

Hearing Yasmin's words, everyone gazed at Yvette meaningfully. This made Yasmin feel better. After all, she didn't like how Yvette charmed a man, who willingly bought her desserts from Luxe Delights.

But regardless of who Yvette was with, Yasmin thought no man would be better than Wilson. Now that the Quinn family owed Yasmin a favor, Yasmin had many opportunities to approach Wilson.

At the thought of Wilson, Yasmin couldn't help but feel infatuated. She believed that she was the only person who could match up to an outstanding man like Wilson.

Suppressing her joy, Yasmin said pretentiously, "You should remember, Yvie. Don't accept gifts from just anybody next time."

Yvette glared at Yasmin icily and spat, "Who are you to meddle in my business?"

Yasmin felt intimidated by Yvette's glare. She froze in silence.

Then, she said woefully to Sean, "Sean, I was just being concerned for Yvie..."

Yasmin wanted to give Sean a negative impression of Yvette. But to her surprise, Sean looked at Yvette with admiration over her charisma

When Sean noticed Yasmin was upset, he contained his admiration and said nonchalantly, "Yasmin, don't overthink it. Yvette has always been like this!"

When Sean played in training matches, he often got lectured by Yvette. That said, he knew that Yvette was a softie inside. Plus, he also found Yasmin's words somewhat odd.

Seeing how Sean was protective of Yvette, Yasmin grew angry. It had only been a few days, but Sean was already biased toward Yvette!

“Okay, Yasmin. I need to go.” Seeing Yvette walk away, Sean hurriedly followed after her. He called, “Wait for me, Yvie!”

At the sight of that, Yasmin got even angrier.

Yasmin thought Yvette had first snatched away their family’s affection, and now Yvette was taking away a role that belonged to Yasmin, too!

“Yasmin, what do we do? Mr. Franklin is set on casting Yvette for the role... This news will spread throughout Jubilife University in no time!” Nora said worriedly.

Nora had also spread news about Yasmin being cast in Dominic’s film. But now that Dominic himself was begging Yvette to take the role instead, it would be embarrassing for both Yasmin and Nora!

“What’s the worry?” Yasmin said, glaring at Nora. “We can just use other news to cover this up!”

Yasmin thought that if there were controversies surrounding Yvette, Dominic wouldn’t allow Yvette to act in the film despite his favor for her.

Yasmin was determined to bring an end to Yvette’s joy.

Meanwhile, an elegant man slowly stood up emotionlessly at Quinn Manor. He had a dominating presence surrounding him.

“Get ready to go to Murray Manor.”

Samuel knew Wilson was planning to break off the engagement. He immediately said, “Yes, Mr. Quinn. I’ll make the arrangements now.” Wilson looked at the text messages he exchanged with Yvette. He smiled, seemingly in a good mood.

“Bad news, Mr. Quinn! We just got the news that Mrs. Quinn Senior got hospitalized...”

Samuel rushed into the room in a panic and reported the news to Wilson.

Upon hearing his words, Wilson's expression became grim. He asked, "How is she now?"

"Mrs. Quinn Senior is relatively stable. The doctor said it's an old problem and they have no other way. Only the Nirvarroot can cure her, but it hasn't arrived in Jubilife City..."

Wilson clenched his fists. His expression became ice-cold.

"We don't have time to waste. Snatch the Nirvarroot, and do whatever it takes to find the Miracle Healer!"

Wilson was willing to do whatever it took to make the Miracle Healer treat Martha!

"Roger that, Mr. Quinn!"

The video of Yvette playing the piano at the banquet was uploaded to the university forum. It got shared around and somehow reached the head of the Music Department, Xander Bell

After watching the video, Xander couldn't help but look for Yvette at the Medicine Department. Coincidentally, he bumped into Zachary, who had come for the same reason.

"Xander, what is the head of the Music Department doing at the Medicine Department?" Zachary asked warily.

"The same goes for you! You're from the Esports Department, and yet, here you are!" Xander refuted.

But when Xander saw Yvette coming out of the classroom, he immediately smiled.

"You must be Yvette! Nice to meet you. I'm the head of the Music Department, and I saw your performance. You're very talented in music, and it's a waste for you to be studying medicine. Do you have any intentions to switch majors?"

anger the fact that he

Zachary saw the video, too. He had to acknowledge the fact that Yvette was extremely gifted in piano. But that didn't change what he wished to scout Yvette to join the Esports Department.

"Hey, you old man. Don't try to lure my student away. Yvette should join the Esports Department!" said Zachary, pushing Xander away

Zachary approached Yvette and said happily, “Do you remember me, Yvette? I’m here to ask that you reconsider joining the Esports Department!”

“Reject him, Yvette! You’re so gifted in music, you should join the Music Department!” Xander said excitedly. “We can make you the next Mischa Rachmaninoff!”

Hearing Xander’s words, Yvette thought she didn’t need to become Mischa—it was her, after all.

Yvette smiled and said casually, “Thank you for the offer, Mr. Bell. But I’m not interested in becoming the next Mischa Rachmaninoff”

Hearing her words, Zachary immediately mocked, “Do you hear her? Yvette isn’t interested in the Music Department. You should leave, Xander. Don’t embarrass yourself-

“Mr. Walker, I don’t plan to join the Esports Department either,” Yvette said, cutting him off.

Zachary’s smile froze, and Xander laughed at how he wasn’t the only one who got rejected.

“Well, you got rejected too!”

Embarrassed, Zachary glared at Xander.

“What are you laughing at? Yvette will eventually agree to join the Esports Department!”

“Dream on! She will come to the Music Department. You should stop fantasizing!”

As Nora watched the two heads of departments fight over Yvette, she felt jealous, Yvette was a country bumpkin who knew how to play a little bit of piano and games. Nora wondered what was so great about Yvette that they would beg her to join their departments.

Yvette felt a little frustrated by Xander and Zachary's argument. On top of that, Wilson still hadn't replied to her text, which frustrated her even more.

While Xander and Zachary were busy arguing, she silently sneaked away.

"Listen up, Xander. I'm determined to convince Yvette to join the Esports Department. Don't try to snatch her away!"

"The same goes for you. Yvette's musical talents won't be wasted if she joins the Music Department Huh? Where did she go?"

Suddenly, the two realized Yvette was gone. They paused, then proceeded to criticize each other.

"This is all your fault. You're so noisy that Yvette got annoyed!"

"Why is it my fault? It's your fault! You insisted on fighting over her..."

"Stand right there, Yvette Murray!"

Just as Yvette walked out the university gate, she heard a voice filled with anger stopping her. She turned, and her gaze hardened at the sight of Amy.

Amy glared at Yvette as if she wanted to tear her into pieces.

"You damned jinx! How dare you injure my son!"

At the thought of Lucas, who was still in the hospital, Amy's hatred for Yvette burned even brighter. Lucas was the only son in the family, but Yvette gave him permanent penile damage!

Yvette knew Amy would come to her. After all, Amy valued her son more than her own life. Yvette was certain that she had given Lucas a permanent erectile dysfunction.

"I meant to damage him. What are you going to do about that?" y

?" Yvette said gently, but her underlying tone was arrogant.

"You little..." Amy trembled from anger. "When that old hag took you in, I should've just killed you! That way, you wouldn't have harmed my son!"

Upon hearing Amy call Kayla an "old hag", Yvette's gaze became cold and murderous. She looked downright terrifying.

“If I hear another word of disrespect toward Grandma, I’ll silence you for life.

Amy was intimidated by Yvette. She whimpered in fear and wondered when Yvette had become so terrifying.

But she suppressed her fears and continued mocking Yvette. “Do you think you can do whatever you want just because you’re dating a rich man? We’re not to be messed with, either! We’re rich now. We have more power over a poor girl like you!

“Also, I’m speaking the truth. It’s that old hag’s fault for bringing a jinx like you home. And now, you’ve harmed my son! I’m going to kill today, you bitch!”

Hearing Amy insult Kayla again, Yvette gazed at her icily. She approached Amy with a menacing air and said, “I warned you.” Intimidated, Amy shuddered. “What? Are you going to assault me, you bitch?”

Chapter 86

“You’re so ungrateful! We fed and raised you for 18 years, yet you want to assault me? I’m going to teach you a lesson today. Boys, catch this bitch!”

Following her command, a group of bodyguards appeared and surrounded Yvette.

“Are you scared now, Yvette?” Amy asked, glaring at her.

She had hired bodyguards just to teach Yvette a lesson today. She was determined to avenge her son!

“Why are you just standing there? Teach her a good lesson!”

The bodyguards obeyed her orders and rushed toward Yvette viciously. But before they could even lay a finger on her, she sent them flying with her kicks.

Within five minutes, all the burly bodyguards were lying on the ground in pain, out of commission.

Amy was angered at the sight. She thought they were all very weak—they couldn’t even win against a woman!

Casually leaning against the wall, Yvette said nonchalantly, “Who’s next?”

The bodyguards hadn't expected to be defeated by a young woman. They immediately begged for mercy.

"We're sorry, ma'am! We didn't know better. Please forgive us this time"

"Yes, please! We beg you! Please forgive us this time!"

The sight angered Amy even more. She whipped out a knife and attacked Yvette while her attention was still on the bodyguards.

"Die, you jinx!"

Amy aimed for a vital organ. If she successfully landed the stab, Yvette would be severely injured or even die.

Yvette was extremely alert and expertly blocked Amy's attack.

Amy felt her palms go numb, and the knife fell from her hands. It ended up in Yvette's hands.

Yvette gazed at Amy coldly as she fiddled with the dagger. "You wanted to stab me with a knife using this hand, right?"

Frightened, Amy backed away. "What... What do you want to do? I'm warning you, Yvette. We're rich now. If you dare lay a finger on me..."

Yvette had no patience for her ramblings. She said felly, "I'll return the favor immediately."

Amy was afraid. She hurriedly screamed, "No... No! Don't forget, Yvette. We raised you! If it weren't for us, you would've been dead..."

With every word that Amy said, Yvette's gaze only turned colder. At the thought of the torture that she experienced growing up, she drove the dagger into Amy's left hand.

"Ahh! My hand!" Amy was in so much pain that she almost passed out.

Yvette stood over her as she carefully wiped her hands with a handkerchief, gazing at Amy murderously. "If you dare mess with me again, I won't let you off easily."

Yasmin, who had been hiding in a corner, filmed everything. She smirked, thinking that the heavens were helping her!

She had been wondering how she could find controversial news about Yvette, but it came to Yasmin so easily.

She looked forward to Yvette's downfall!

On the university forum, people were praising Yvette, calling her a goddess and even voting for her to be Miss Jublife. But after Yasmin's video was uploaded anonymously, all the praise became criticism.

"Oh my god, that's so cruel! She stabbed someone!"

"Yeah, Yvette is so merciless. Does she have violent tendencies?"

"How can the university accept s students like this? What if she attacks us on campus?"

"You're right. I wanted to vote for her as Miss Jublife because of her piano skills. But she's unworthy of that title

"Exactly. Only Yasmin can be the Jublife University Beauty Queen. Not only is she talented, but she's also gentle and kind. She's better than Yvette in every way!"

"Yvette is scary. We must spread the news so the university prioritizes this issue and kicks her out!"

"You're right. We mustn't allow a dangerous person like her to stay on campus!"

The video went viral overnight.

When Yvette walked into the lecture hall the next day, strange whispers and comments followed her every move.}}

"Hey, we should stay away from her. People on the forum are saying that she's very violent. What if she stabs us?

"Shih, lower your voice. Don't let her hear you! We don't want her to attack us..

"You're right. Somebody on the forum said she has a mental disorder. Let's stay away from that limatic!"

Yvette caught on that people were talking about the university forum. She logged into the site only to see a myriad of negative comments.

The video was only a minute long. In the video, Yvette stabbed Amy's hand with the knife without any hesitation. Blood gushed out immediately.

It was rather gruesome, but Yvette thought she looked pretty cool.

"Yvie, I saw the video on the forum!" Yasmin shouted. She ran over to Yvette, looking upset.

"How can you do that, Yvie? You're taking advantage of the Murray family's power to hurt others. If Aunt Yara and Uncle Irwin find out, they'll be very upset!"

Yasmin's words confirmed the rumors surrounding Yvette's knife attack. Everyone looked at Yvette with disgust.

Yasmin lightly smirked, but she still looked innocently kind. "Yvie, I never expected you to do such things. What did you learn in the countryside..."

Behind her, Nora chimed in angrily, "Stay away from her, Yasmin. What if she suddenly stabs you? Lunatics that have violent tendencies like her are the scariest!"

"Yasmin, not everyone is kind like you. We're petitioning against the university. We'll get her expelled!"

The others agreed, saying, "That's right. We'll join hands to pressure the university. I'm sure they'll expel her!"

The other students had been dissatisfied with Yvette's special admission into Jubilite University. With the current controversy, they had no reason to allow her to continue studying there.

"No! Yvie went through so much trouble to get into Jubilite University. If she gets kicked out, her life will be ruined," Yasmin said anxiously.

Then, she turned, looking at Yvette concernedly. "Yvie, hurry and apologize. Then, admit your faults and turn yourself in. I'm sure everyone will be willing to give you a second chance!"

"Admit my faults?" Yvette glanced at Yasmin relaxedly.

Casually yet arrogantly, she asked, "What faults do I have?"

Chapter 88

“Why you...” Yasmin hadn’t expected Yvette to be so arrogant. She immediately pretended to look disappointed. “Yvie, why won’t you repent?”

And as expected, the dislike for Yvette grew

“She’s so arrogant! We must kick her out of Jubilife University!”

“That’s right! She needs to be expelled!”

Hearing those words, Yasmin was so happy that she almost burst into laughter.

Yasmin was proud of her genius idea. She simply uploaded one video, and it took away Yvette’s opportunity to star in the film. Plus, Yvette would get kicked out of Jubilite University!

Yasmin was killing two birds with one stone!

“Mr. Turner is here!” somebody shouted.

In that instant, everyone else was delightful.

“Mr. Turner is here! Yvette is done for. She’s going to be expelled!”

“Exactly! The lunatic Yvette is getting expelled from Jubilife University. That’s good news.”

When Donald Turner entered the lecture hall, he gazed at Yvette judgmentally.

“You must be Yvette Murray,” he said.

Yvette nodded and hummed in response without looking Donald in the eye. She had noticed his judgmental attitude.

But her arrogance angered Donald even more. Yvette had only been in Jubilife University for a few days, but she had already caused so much controversy and trouble!

Donald was determined to expel her.

“Very well. I am now notifying you that you have been expelled! You may now pack your belongings and leave Jubilife University.”

“Expel me?” Yvette asked, still looking relaxed. “Who are you to expel me?”

Somehow, when Donald met Yvette’s eyes, he was afraid. His expression darkened.

But on second thought, Donald remembered Yvette was admitted under special conditions! As the vice chancellor of Jubilife University, he didn't have to fear Yvette!

"You have physically assaulted someone with a knife. Jubilite University will not accept a student with poor moral conduct and violent tendencies!"

Yvette was still relaxed. It was as if Donald wasn't threatening to expel her.

"Do you have any evidence for all that you said?"

Angered by her attitude, Donald snarled, "I saw the video on the forum. That's evidence of your assault! Are you trying to deny it?"

"You're using an incomplete video as evidence? If you're not using your brain, you should donate it."

"Why you..." Donald's expression darkened even more. No student had ever spoken to him with such disrespect. He was determined to expel Yvette from Jubilife University!

Just as Donald was about to unleash his anger on Yvette, she lightly tapped on her screen. A ten-minute video was pinned to the top of the forum – it was the unedited footage of the video.

The curious students immediately watched the video documenting everything that happened during the incident.

"Holy They all lost to Yvette. She's amazing!"

"Also, that middle-aged woman attacked Yvette first. She was just acting in se Traine Yvette as the attacker."

As public opinion shifted in Yvette's favor, Yasmin's face fell, and she clenched her fists.

Yasmin had the original footage. She didn't understand how Yvette managed to get her hands on it.

As Donald watched the video, his expression stiffened. The unexpected turn of events left him unsure of how to react.

He could no longer expel Yvette from the video alone. But he had accepted Yasmin's bribe, promising to kick Yvette out of Jubilife University!

Also, Yvette acted overly arrogant toward Donald. She even dared to ignore him. Her attitude fueled Donald's determination to expel her.

At that thought, Donald said in a seemingly just manner, "Even though you didn't assault them first, your actions have negatively affected Jubilife University's reputation.

"After serious consideration, I've decided to expel you as a warning to other students! From this moment on, you will no longer be a student at Jubilife University. Pack your things and leave!!!

Yvette despised his seemingly just attitude. She said casually, "Sure, Make sure you don't come begging for me to return."

The others thought Yvette must've been crazy to make such claims. Donald couldn't possibly beg her to return!

Donald was baffled, too. "Me, begging you to return? Dream on! Just who do you think you are?"

Not wanting to waste more time on him, Yvette dialed a number on her phone. Her call was picked up immediately, and the voice on the other end sounded delighted

"Yvie, I can't believe you're calling me. I'm so happy!"

Yvette never usually would reply to Matt's texts. He was delighted that Yvette called him. Still, he didn't forget to check on Yvette

"What's wrong? Do you need any help? I'm in another city now, but if you need anything from me, I'll get people to manage it for you!"

"It's nothing, Mr. Russell," Yvette said nonchalantly.

"I'm just letting you know that your vice-chancellor expelled me. I'm leaving Jubilife University."

"What?" Matt was shocked.

Yvette had no plans to explain further, and she hung up immediately.

Matt couldn't help but curse as he stared at his phone. He went through so much trouble convincing Yvette to study at Jubilife University, but they were expelling her.

Matt was furious. He was determined to keep Yvette from leaving Jubilife University!

Murmurs filled the lecture hall as the students began to discuss among themselves.

"Who was Yvette calling? Why does the person sound like Mr. Rusell?"

"Yeah, I think he sounded like Mr. Rusell, too."

Yasmin signaled Nora, who immediately sneered, "What are you rambling about? As if! How is it possible for Yvette to have Mr. Rusell's number?"

Donald also thought the voice sounded familiar and felt restless. But after hearing Nora's statement, he was reassured.

He thought that they were right. A nobody like Yvette couldn't possibly have Matt's phone number!

At that thought, Donald felt more confident.

"Stop trying to play tricks, Yvette," he said. "You're expelled from Jubilife University. Pack your things and get lost! Otherwise, I'll get the security guards to chase you out."

Yasmin couldn't help but smile at the sight. She was happy that Yvette was finally getting kicked out of Jubilife University!

"Do you hear me, Yvette?" Donald said impatiently.

But before he could finish, his phone vibrated furiously in his pocket. It was a call from Matt. Donald hurriedly picked up the call.

He said ingratiatingly, "Why the sudden call, Mr. Rusell? Is there something that you might need me to do?"

Matt was furious, "Who gave you the permission to expel Yvette Murray? Listen up, if you can't keep Yvette from leaving, you will be dismissed as the vice chancellor!"

Stunned by Matt's lecture, Donald couldn't react to the situation.

"Oh my god, Yvette actually knows Mr. Rusell!"

"Yeah! Mr. Rusell even lectured Mr. Turner because of her!"

"Just who is she? Even Mr. Rusell is siding with her!"

The students were in disbelief. Meanwhile, Yasmin's expression was grim. She clenched her fists so hard that her nails left imprints on her palms.

Yasmin's plans

almost succeeded; Yvette almost got dismissed from Jubilate University, but she had Matt's support.

"Fuck! How did that bitch know Mr. Rusell?" Yasmin thought.

Still looking indifferent, Yvette picked up her bag and left. Upon seeing that, Donald's expression changed. He quickly stopped her.

Unlike his previous arrogant demeanor, he was now very humble. "Yvette... Yvette, don't leave." he said.

Yvette gazed icily at Donald and said, "Didn't you expel me and tell me to leave Jubilate University?"

Hearing her words, Donald felt extremely embarrassed. "I've made a mistake, Yvette. I'm sorry... I'm really sorry."

"Are you done?" Yvette said coldly. "If you are, move. Don't get in my way."

Donald thought Yvette was implying that he was a dog. His expression became more grim, and he glared viciously at her. Yet, he had to fake a smile.

"Yvette, what would it take for you to forgive me? If you stay at Jubilate University, I can do anything for you. I'm genuinely sorry!"

Yvette scoffed and said emotionlessly, "Your apology is so insincere."

"Yvie, Mr. Turner is giving you a sincere apology. You should be more forgiving. Stop being so harsh on him!"

Yvette thought Yasmin was trying to guilt trip her. She sneered and said coldly, "An eye for an eye. If he doesn't kneel as an apology, I won't let this go."

Donald thought of Matt's warning and couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat. He couldn't lose his position as the vice-chancellor. After all, he had put in years of effort to get to that position!
