

THREE KINGDOMS: I HAVE A JOB TRANSFER PALACE

Chapter 11

Some of these refugees have been to Dashan Village.

But they never remember that Dashan Village has a city wall

"Look, those heads on the wall."

Someone pointed at the city wall and exclaimed. They were attracted by the city wall that stretched in front of them. At this time, after being reminded, everyone noticed the heads on the city wall and took a breath. There were so many heads.

There were worries. The child was so frightened that he hid behind the adults. But he still couldn't help his curiosity and secretly poked his head out to take a look.

"good! Good kill!"

"These damn Wuhuan people should all be killed."

After a moment, the refugees burst into cheers.

They were all direct victims of the Wuhuan Cavalry, and their hatred for the Wuhuan Cavalry was unimaginable to ordinary people.

"Look, those guards on the city wall."

Someone else pointed to the majestic warriors on the city wall, above the horse faces, and said.

Each horse face has three warriors, and the three horse faces total nine, plus a messenger, a total of ten people.

They are the Overlord's Iron Cavalry, The whole body was covered with pitch black armor. He stood upright there, very domineering.

Although there were only a few people, it made people feel an inexplicable sense of security.

It seemed that as long as they were around, no one could step into the mountain village.

"Only such warriors can kill the aliens and protect our safety"

"Yes, no matter what, we have to seek refuge in Dashan Village"

"I have good physical fitness and hope to become a warrior like them in the mountain village."

The refugees became excited and ran towards Dashan Village one after another.

Inside the city gate, twenty Overlord cavalry were waiting in formation.

When they heard the chaotic sounds outside the city, they clenched their spears.

No matter who was outside the city, as long as they Liu Feng gave the order, and they would rush out of the city gate and kill all the invading enemies.

Liu Feng had been watching quietly. There were about fifty or sixty people in this group. He was not yet sure whether they were really refugees..

Because he was far away, he did not hear the conversation of the refugees.

At this time, an old man came forward and said loudly:"Sir, we are survivors from nine villages near Dashan Village. Please take him in."

Don't worry, sir, we can work for Dashan Village. We can do any kind of work.

No, we can also learn.

I just ask adults to take me in."

After speaking, the old man knelt on the ground.

"Please take it in."

All the refugees knelt on the ground.

After a moment of silence, Liu Feng said:"How to prove your identity? How do you make me believe your words?"

Don't blame him for being cold-blooded.

Ever since he killed hundreds of Wuhuan cavalry and realized that the magistrate of An County and perhaps even the entire Liaodong officials had problems, he became very cautious.

He couldn't guarantee whether these refugees were unknown enemies. In disguise.

Once they are allowed into the city, they will also be a threat to the villagers of Dashan Village.

"this....."

The old man was stunned.

Yes, how can he make the people in Dashan Village believe in their identity?

Before coming, he had never thought about this problem.

Now, the problem was before him, and he didn't know what to do for a while.

"My lord, my lord."

At this time, a man came out from among the refugees and said loudly,"Sir, Zhao Ergou from Dashan Village is my cousin. He knows me. If you don't believe me, you can ask Zhao Ergou to come out and confront him."

Following them, some more people came forward.

They all had relatives in Dashan Village.

Liu Feng said to the cavalryman who was temporarily responsible for delivering orders: "Go, Zhao Ergou and others are here."

"promise!"

The cavalry left quickly.

After a while, Zhao Ergou and others boarded the city wall

"Cousin, I am Niu Erwa."

Seeing Zhao Ergou, the man waved his hands and shouted

"Niu Erwa? It's really you, you're not dead yet."

Zhao Ergou was also overjoyed when he saw the man.

"It's me, it's me. Niu

Erwa said repeatedly.

Other villagers in Dashan Village also recognized their relatives.

From this, it can be seen that these people did not lie.

"It's okay to take you in as well."

At this point, the identity was basically confirmed, Liu Feng said, "You also saw the Wuhuan head hanging on the city wall.

Wuhuan will not give up, maybe he is already on his way.

Therefore, I need to select strong men from among you and train them to be warriors.

After entering Dashan Village, you become the villagers of Dashan Village.

The safety of Dashan Village is protected by everyone.

Those who are willing to become soldiers must first enter the city to register.

After registration, the Overlord Cavalry will take you to the back mountain for training."

Regardless of whether there are enemy spies among these people, the Overlord Cavalry who have been transferred through the job transfer hall are absolutely loyal to themselves.

If they have malicious intentions towards themselves, they will not be able to enter the job transfer gate.

Therefore, Liu Feng's first part Those who were let in naturally wanted to become soldiers.

As soon as he finished speaking, twenty adult men came out and volunteered to become soldiers.

Liu Feng looked at the old man who begged him to take him in and said,"Old man, can you read?" Writing?"

After listening to the old man's words and deeds just now, I felt that he was not an ordinary villager. He should have certain literary knowledge.

Sure enough, the old man nodded and said:"My ancestors were a small clan, but it declined later.

But Xiwen literacy has not fallen behind. He used to work as a teacher in the village, teaching literacy to the children in the village."

It turned out to be a teacher, no wonder.

Liu Feng smiled and said:"In that case, I'll trouble you to be responsible for the registration.

Everyone's name must be accurate"

"Thank you for your trust, I will definitely live up to your expectations."

The old man was overjoyed and quickly thanked him.
