

THREE KINGDOMS: I HAVE A JOB TRANSFER PALACE

Chapter 12

Liu Feng nodded and said: "Those who volunteer to become soldiers, follow him to the city gate to queue up to register and enter the city one after another."

Then he sent an order to his home to pick up pens and bamboo slips.

There is only one pen in the village, which used to be owned by the old village chief and is now in his custody.

Outside the city, twenty men followed the old man in a column and arrived at the city gate.

Due to time constraints, there is no moat outside the city.

After all, the excavation of the moat cannot be completed in a short time.

Crunch!

The city gate opened, and the first thing that came into view was twenty Overlord cavalry lined up on both sides.

They were riding on war horses, holding spears in their hands, with cold eyes.

What really shocked the old man and the twenty men was that these twenty cavalymen could control their horses to stand still.

The old man was very excited and very happy.

What's exciting is that Dashan Village has a city wall and such cavalry, so guarding the safety of the villagers should not be a problem.

Fortunately, they have no ill intentions towards Dashan Village.

Otherwise, it would be these twenty cavalry who would greet them at this time.

The twenty men were also full of excitement and yearning.

They are people who want to become warriors. If they can become such warriors through training, they will be able to honor their ancestors.

At this time, the messenger came on horseback and dismounted.

He also held a bench and a small table in his hands.

In his arms he held the only writing brush in the village and a roll of bamboo slips.

"Old sir, just register here."

Although the messenger has become the overlord's cavalry and is respected by the villagers, he still respects the teachers who can teach people how to read and write.

"Thanks! The old man thanked him

, took the pen and bamboo slips, sat on the bench, and said to the men who came with him: "Come one by one, don't be anxious, and don't lie about your name and origin."

In addition, if you have any special talents, you can also mention them and I will write them down for you. The first one is the cousin of Zhao Ergou, the animal trainer of Dashan Village: "My name is Niu Erwa, I come from Niu Village and I am born with great strength."

As he spoke, the old man wrote.

Not long after he finished speaking, the old man also finished writing, nodded and said: "Go in." Niu

Erwa laughed excitedly and stepped into the city gate amidst the envious eyes of everyone.

As soon as he entered the city gate, he suddenly shivered.

Walking among the twenty cavalry, a chill seemed to rise from the bottom of his heart. Get up.

While I was envious and looking forward to it, I could not help but feel a little frightened, and I quickly quickened my pace.

"Second baby!"

Zhao Ergou had been waiting in the city for a long time. When he saw Niu Erwa coming in, he hurriedly greeted him.

"cousin. Niu

Erwa rushed forward, hugged Zhao Ergou and burst into tears: "Cousin, my father, mother, wife, children, second uncle's family, and third uncle's family are all dead. Now you are the only relative."

A grown man cried bitterly in front of everyone.

But no one laughed at him.

Zhao Ergou patted him on the shoulder and comforted him: "When you arrive in Dashan Village, all the villagers here are your relatives.

Moreover, you will soon become a warrior in the mountain village.

One day I will have the opportunity to avenge your relatives and my aunt."

"Um! I will definitely become the strongest warrior and avenge them."

Niu Erwa clenched his fists, his eyes full of hatred.

Zhao Ergou looked at his tearful cousin and nodded.

At the same time, he was extremely happy in his heart.

Fortunately, the old village chief rescued a god of war, otherwise Dashan Village would also There was no escape.

Twenty men registered one after another and walked towards the back mountain under the leadership of two overlord cavalry.

After a moment, Liu Feng's mind recalled the voice of the transferred elf: "Master, two All ten job transferees have entered the arms transfer gate."

It seems that there are no spies among these twenty people.

Liu Feng felt relieved and said: "You can also register."

"Thank you sir."

The remaining thirty people quickly rushed to the city gate.

Although they were eager to enter the city, no one dared to break in.

They lined up consciously and waited for registration.

After registration, all the refugees entered the city.

More than an hour later, twenty The man completed the job transfer and became the new Overlord Cavalry.

When they appeared in front of everyone wearing brand new equipment, the thirty refugees were shocked.

In just two hours, the twenty men who came to Dashan Village with him Have they become cavalymen like the warriors of Dashan Village?

It seems that Dashan Village hides some unknown secrets.

Now there are fifty Overlord Cavalrymen, thirty of them are divided into three groups, and each ten of them take turns to stand guard on the city wall.

The other twenty people were divided into five groups, taking turns to secretly supervise the job transfer hall in the back mountain.

He was not afraid that someone would sneak into the job transfer hall. He had said that he would take people into the back mountain for training.

Now, in two hours, the twenty refugees were transformed As a soldier, if someone has evil intentions, he will definitely sneak into the back mountain to find out.

As long as someone secretly enters the back mountain, 90% of them are spies.

However, what surprised Liu Feng was that in the next few days, almost every day Refugees have arrived.

In seven days, the number of refugees taken in by Dashan Village has reached 500.

Almost all of them are survivors of the Wuhuan cavalry that destroyed the village in the past two years.

Of course, it cannot be ruled out that there are enemy spies hidden among them.

These people are absolutely Most of them were adult men, and Liu Feng selected 200 of them to become Overlord's Cavalry.

To his relief, there were no spies among those who volunteered to become soldiers.

Now, the Overlord's Cavalry has grown to 300 people, with a combat strength of Rushing wildly.

The number of Overlord's cavalry increased, so Liu Feng sent ten people out to stand guard every thirty feet.

Once any abnormality was discovered, he immediately returned to report

"Lord, a large number of Wuhuan cavalry appeared three hundred feet away from Dashan Village and were galloping towards Dashan Village."

Suddenly, an Overlord Cavalry said loudly outside Liu Feng's Gate

"Is it finally here? Liu

Feng quickly stood up and walked towards the city wall,"Give me the order and prepare to fight."
