

THREE KINGDOMS: I HAVE A JOB TRANSFER PALACE

Chapter 2

Liu Feng stepped forward and rushed towards the Wuhuan cavalry.

He had just gained super-god power and was not yet able to control his power well.

Every time a foot falls, it creates a deep pit in the ground.

In fact, the whole ground was shaking.

The villagers who noticed this scene all looked horrified and stunned.

The Wuhuan cavalry naturally noticed Liu Feng and showed disdain.

The unarmed Han people are just here to die.

A cavalryman rushed over on horseback, swinging his sword casually and slashing.

In his eyes, Liu Feng was already a dead man.

He seemed to have seen the bloody head being thrown high.

Liu Feng instinctively lowered his head and avoided the attack.

Then he punched out and landed on the horse's head.

With a bang, the war horse turned over and fell, its head already shattered.

The cavalryman was thrown out, but luckily, he was slightly injured but his life was not in danger.

What a lot of strength.

Everyone looked at the sunken war horse's head and gasped.

The war horse's head was very hard. Unexpectedly, it was shattered by a punch. It was simply terrifying.

In fact, this is because Liu Feng did not control his own power.

Otherwise, this punch would not just be as simple as smashing the head.

However, Liu Feng is still very satisfied with his masterpiece.

"kill him."

The cavalry leader yelled angrily, and all the Wuhuan cavalry rushed over with swords waving.

Liu Feng was not afraid, and he held the horse in one hand while retreating, and actually danced it

"That war horse must weigh at least five or six hundred pounds, right?"

"Maybe more than"

"I didn't expect Xiaofeng to be so strong."

The villagers were shocked and talked about it.

Bang bang bang!

War horses flew out one after another.

They were actually smashed away by Liu Feng's war horse carcasses in his hands.

The villagers could even hear the clear sound of broken bones..Some unlucky Wuhuan cavalry were hit by the corpse of a war horse. They were shattered to pieces on the spot and flew upside down. They died in a horrific manner.

Liu Feng did not know martial arts, but with a super god's power, he beat these Wuhuan cavalry without any chance of fighting back. The strength.

When the dance started, he grabbed another war horse corpse, opened his bow from left to right, and smashed it. The scene was extremely spectacular. It was terrible.

The two war horses weighed at least more than a thousand kilograms.

But they were used as weapons by him so easily. It was simply It's unbelievable.

Judging from his age, he must be around eighteen years old.

"Damn it, where did this monster come from."

The Wuhuan cavalry leader's face was gloomy. Since reaching a secret agreement with that man, they have never been resisted in Liaodong.

Now they have suffered such heavy losses at the hands of an unknown mountain village boy.

If this was reported back, it would not be possible. Being laughed to death by your colleagues?

"Shoot him for me."

The cavalry leader shouted angrily.

This young man's strength is too terrifying, he is like a humanoid monster. He will definitely not do it head-on.

After receiving the order, the surviving Wuhuan cavalry no longer rushed up stupidly.

They took out the light bows on their backs and unfolded them. Shooting.

Mounted shooting is their specialty.

In this regard, many Han cavalry cannot compare.

Liu Feng blocked the two horse corpses in front of him. His huge body completely covered his figure, and even blocked the All the arrows.

When the Wuhuan cavalry changed their arrows, he immediately rushed forward and danced the two horse corpses wildly.

No one, no horse could block his blow.

The terrifying power was unstoppable.

He was like the god of war descending to earth, Invincible

"Wandering shot! Consume him to death."

The leader of the cavalry was as gloomy as water and shouted in a deep voice.

We suffered heavy losses today, and we must kill this young man before he can vent his hatred.

The Wuhuan cavalry immediately circled around and galloped their horses.

Liu Feng frowned slightly , this Wuhuan cavalry is really difficult to deal with.

He can't get close to him, and he can't use his empty divine power.

Moreover, he has just obtained super-god power and cannot use it freely.

The previous battle looked majestic, but in fact he wasted a lot The strength.

More importantly, using strength indiscriminately consumes a lot of physical strength.

When the physical strength is exhausted, I am afraid that I will really become a soul under the sword.

And this is also the plan of the leader of the Wuhuan Cavalry.
