

THREE KINGDOMS: I HAVE A JOB TRANSFER PALACE

Chapter 8

Ku Ya, the leader of Wuhuan in An County.

He ordered Su Puyan, the Wuhuan leader in eastern Liaoning, to lead a thousand Wuhuan cavalry into An County and randomly select ten villages to plunder.

For some special reasons, the Liaodong officials turned a blind eye to their plunder.

Only after they finished looting would they send troops to clear the area.

For a long time, the Wuhuan cavalry did not encounter any resistance.

Each time he returned to the tribe with a large amount of supplies.

But this time, when Kuya counted the number of people, he found that there were one hundred people missing.

After checking, it was found that a hundred people who went to Dashan Village did not come back.

"How far is Dashan Village from here?"

Ku Ya asked with a frown.

A Wuhuan cavalryman who knew An County relatively well immediately responded: "Chief, Dashan Village is only an hour's walk from here. At our speed, we can reach it in half an hour."

"In this case, according to time calculation, they should have come back long ago."

Ku Ya frowned deeper and said to himself, "Did he encounter fierce resistance?"

As soon as he said this, the Wuhuan cavalry next to him suddenly laughed and said: "Chief, how fierce can the resistance be? A group of unarmed villagers were not killed one by one."

Ku Ya nodded. As long as the Han officers and soldiers don't move out, a group of villagers can't stop the Wuhuan cavalry.

But why haven't they come back for so long?

Boom!

Just at this moment, there was a slight vibration on the ground.

"Chief, they should be back."

The Wuhuan cavalry next to him said with a smile.

Kuya also showed a smile on his face. He raised his head and looked into the distance, but gradually the smile disappeared.

"That's not our team."

Ku Ya said in a deep voice.

The Wuhuan cavalry looked carefully and saw thirty-one people coming, wearing dark armor, which was completely different from the armor they were wearing.

"Could it be that the officers and soldiers of the Han Dynasty were equipped with such sophisticated equipment?"

Some Wuhuan cavalry said in surprise.

Ordinary Wuhuan cavalry didn't know why the Han officers and soldiers never intercepted them.

But as time went by, they regarded this situation as inevitable.

Now that they saw the army suspected of being the Han, more Just surprised.

Han army?

Ku Ya frowned. Did they tear up the agreement?

No, if they tore up the agreement, they would send out more than just thirty cavalry.

"Chief, shall we fight, or shall we?"

A Wuhuan cavalry asked.

Ku Ya came back to his senses and said in a deep voice:"Get ready to fight and kill them all."

Whether it's the Han army or not, just thirty people can be killed."

"kill!"

The nine hundred Wuhuan cavalry shouted in unison and charged with astonishing momentum.

However, what they faced was not an ordinary Han army.

They were the King's Division, a seventh-level unit, the Overlord's Iron Cavalry.

Although there were only thirty people, they faced They were not afraid of the thirty foreign cavalry who were superior to themselves.

"The foreign cavalry who want to kill our Han people are right in front. We have only one goal, and that is to kill.

Liu Feng pointed his spear and shouted in a deep voice,"Kill all the Wuhuan cavalry.""

"kill!"

The thirty Overlord cavalry shouted in unison, and the momentum they unleashed was no weaker than that of the nine hundred Wuhuan cavalry.

"What a strong momentum."

Ku Ya was charging with nine hundred Wuhuan cavalry. He felt the momentum of Overlord's cavalry and was shocked.

However, at this time, the arrow was on the string and had to be fired.

Moreover, he had nine hundred cavalry, while the opponent only had thirty cavalry..

Thirty times the numerical advantage, what does he have to fear?

"What a speed!"

Just when the two cavalry were about to meet, Liu Feng resolutely used the second-turn skill "Super Speed". Suddenly

, everyone's speed suddenly increased by 100%.

The distance that was originally about ten feet was actually shortened in the blink of an eye.

"How can it be?"

Ku Ya was shocked. How could the opponent's speed suddenly increase so much?

This is not logical at all.

"kill!"

Liu Feng didn't give him much time to think. He waved his Moyu spear and attacked Kuya directly.

Shoot the man first, shoot the horse, and capture the thief first, capture the king.

Only in this way can the casualties be minimized.

Kuya is He was one of the top generals in Wuhuanzhong, Liaodong.

He was usually confident. When he saw the Han generals attacking him, he did not dodge and waved the big scimitar in his hand to attack him.

Seeing this scene, Liu Feng's face revealed He gave a cruel smile.

The black jade gun fell and instantly smashed the machete into two halves.

Without losing its force, it hit Ku Ya hard on the head.

With a bang, Ku Ya flew out upside down. , hitting a group of Wuhuan cavalry in the rear.

The Wuhuan cavalry in the rear were shocked. They quickly reined in their horses and looked at them carefully. Their pupils shrank and their faces looked frightened.

Their leader, Ku, who had one of the best combat capabilities among the Wuhuan in Liaodong Teeth, now my head is broken like a watermelon, and I can no longer die.

"The leader is dead, retreat quickly!"

As soon as Ku Ya died, the remaining Wuhuan cavalry no longer had the will to fight, so they turned around and ran away.

However, it took a certain amount of time for the cavalry to turn around.

And this time was enough for the Overlord's cavalry to kill at great speed.

The Overlord's cavalry charged. Entering the Wuhuan cavalry camp, they waved their spears non-stop and launched attacks at a very terrifying speed.

Their attack speed was doubled.

Often the Wuhuan cavalry were pierced by the Overlord's cavalry before they even launched an attack. The heart, throat and other vital parts.

This was a one-sided massacre.

The nine hundred Wuhuan cavalry were helpless in front of the thirty Overlord cavalry.

It was like a newborn baby, the gap between it and an adult.
