

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 521 - The Auction Begins

Chapter 521: The Auction Begins

the auction begins

Lin Mo fought fiercely with these people and was injured again. It was difficult for him to resist.

“Just you guys?”

he approached an expert of the ninth heaven and raised his hand to suppress him. the terrifying sword qi tore his body apart.

this was a demonic beast. its blood essence contained a lot of power, and it also had an inner core.

lin mo consumed it immediately, and his injuries were healed. he felt much better.

junior, this world doesn't belong to you alone. How can you enjoy this opportunity alone? you should hand it over.

an expert said. he used his martial arts to suppress them and spoke in a righteous tone, wanting to give the dao friends a chance.

“What a sanctimonious guy. I must kill him today.”

Lin Mo sneered. The Daluo divine sword burst forth, and sword Qi shot into the sky, killing some of the weaker ones.

however, there were still a lot of people surrounding him. for the last few auctions, lin mo had put in a lot of effort and constantly promoted it.

In the end, 80% of the eastern Peninsula's experts were gathered within the purple Moon Palace's sphere of influence.

They were here for the cultivation methods and the immortal Sutra. Some were here for Lin Mo's martial arts and the divine beast's incomplete techniques.

Lin Mo's eyes were cold as he stared at these people. The injuries on his body were getting more and more serious, but he could not escape from the siege.

It was difficult to fight a protracted battle in such a state, and soon, he could not hold on any longer.

He could have seized the opportunity to kill an expert with the Daluo divine sword.

However, due to the injuries on his body, his speed was slowed down, allowing the other party to escape.

Lin Mo did not dare to continue fighting as he spread his Kun Peng wings. He retreated as he fought. However, he was entangled by these people, and the number of people attacking him was increasing.

Very quickly, a familiar person arrived, and Lin Mo was very familiar with his aura.

Meng Lie was a powerful warrior who had hidden from the world for a long time. He wasn't talented, and his fighting power wasn't outstanding.

However, he was still an existence at the peak of the ninth heaven of the Nirvana stage and could not be underestimated.

Furthermore, the other party was in good condition, while he was already heavily injured. The situation was not good.

Seeing Lin Mo's condition, Meng Lie laughed coldly. He joined the fight without hesitation.

"Sigh, the tiger is bullied by the dog ..."

Lin Mo sighed. With Meng Lie on his side, he couldn't kill his enemies anymore. He had to be careful.

Furthermore, what made him feel even more helpless was that many people were rushing over from afar with the same purpose.

being attacked by so many people, lin mo's body was about to fall apart. there were some cracks on his body that were so deep that his bones could be seen.

his blood had long since flowed out, and lin mo's face was pale.

"You guys are courting death ..."

lin mo snorted coldly. being surrounded by so many people had pushed him into a desperate situation.

All of a sudden, the system's voice rang out in his mind, causing him to be stunned.

congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the rank 1 Earth Class elixir, the creation elixir.

[successfully triggered 5000-fold auction interest return]

" congratulations to the host for obtaining a rank 3 earth class spiritual pill, mysterious spirit fate pill. "

The system's voice rang out, surprising Lin Mo. He was overjoyed.

he swallowed the spirit pill without hesitation. in an instant, a vast amount of spirit qi reverberated in his body.

his broken bones were reconnected, and his flesh reappeared. his injuries were recovering at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye.

At the same time, in the distant hailing city, the moon Pavilion auction had already begun.

however, lin mo was not around, and the host had become bai lu. the purple moon palace could no longer withstand the pressure, as many people were urging the auction to start.

In the end, Bai Luo started an auction. He only auctioned off some of the treasures he had put up for auction. He wanted to end the auction as soon as possible.

“if no one is bidding, then forget it. 130 million, sold.”

on the auction stage, bai luo quickly lowered the auction hammer and announced the results of the auction.

as soon as these words came out, the people in the private rooms were instantly dissatisfied. they stood up and said angrily, ” ” you didn’t even bid three times. what deal? we still have to bid. ”

However, just as he finished speaking, the smile on Bai Luo’s face disappeared instantly.

The temperature in the auction house suddenly dropped. She looked at these people with a murderous look and said word by word.

“who told you to dawdle? i’m the host of this auction. if you’re not satisfied, you can complain about me to the palace master and vice palace master.”

a terrifying pressure spread out. she was at the eighth heaven of nirvana realm and was extremely powerful. some ordinary ninth heaven experts were not her match.

Everyone present knew this.

just two hours ago, some experts had forced the purple moon palace to hand over their cultivation techniques. it was bai luo who had done it.

in just one move, three nirvana stage experts were instantly killed.

that kind of terrifying strength still made their hearts palpitate.

“the auction continues. next item.”

” congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the rank 3 earth class spirit herb, spring grass. ”

[successfully triggered 3000-fold auction interest return]

[congratulations to the host for obtaining the rank 4 earth class spring grass] on lin mo's side, he was still in the midst of an intense battle. he was overjoyed to hear the system's return to profit notification.

'has the auction started? that's good. i can also get a treasure with return-profit if someone else is the host ...'

he took out the withered spring grass and swallowed it directly. everyone was stunned.

"what's going on? wasn't he in a desperate situation? where did he get the spirit pills and spirit herbs?"

some people were puzzled. they had finally seized the opportunity, but now it was difficult to do so.

An earth rank spirit pill and an earth rank spirit herb had helped Lin Mo recover by half.

Meng lie's face changed. He had a bad feeling. Lin Mo had started to fight back. He had killed many people.

"The roles of the Hunter and the prey have now changed."

lin mo laughed coldly. he raised his hand to block meng lie's attack. then, he turned his hand around and sent out a sword qi. it cut a ninth-heaven elite in half.

"Everyone, this is the last chance. Let him recover completely. We are all going to die Here." Meng lie shouted. Lin Mo was using the kun Peng wings. He was as fast as he could be. There was no way he could escape.

"kill!"

a few elites shouted. they cooperated with meng lie and attacked lin mo. lin mo's injuries hadn't healed yet. if they didn't use their full power, they would all die.

Lin Mo laughed when he saw that the other party was going all out and no longer on guard. His eyes gradually turned cold.

he held the sword with his right hand and conjured an incantation with his left. the divine flames of the vermilion bird burst forth.

the attacks of these people were all blocked, and he also condensed the power of two elements into sword qi to kill the enemy.

“pfft.”

In an instant, Meng lie screamed. He and the other two were the strongest here. Surrounding Lin Mo was the most dangerous.

But now, he had been hit by the Daluo divine sword, and one of his arms had been cut off.

the divine sword slashed down from his right shoulder, and flames and lightning erupted, instantly turning his right arm into ashes.

“you ...”

Meng lie was shocked. He clutched his shoulder and backed away. He was a level nine peak elite, but he couldn't block Lin Mo's attack.

at the same time, the other two experts were attacked as well. they were hit by the sword qi within the vermilion bird's divine flames and were on the verge of death.

countless people screamed as they were attacked by the sword qi. no one had expected lin mo to be so powerful after recovering half of his strength.

only now did they understand how amazing xia you was.

It was hard to imagine how powerful his combat power was to be able to fight Lin Mo in such an earth-shattering manner.

in one exchange, lin mo injured meng lie again, cutting off his other arm.

at the same time, his entire body turned into ashes. lin mo had used the cloud piercing four strikes. this terrifying killing move had killed him completely.

Chapter 522 - The Danger of the Purple Moon Palace

Chapter 522: The Danger of the Purple Moon Palace

Meng lie was shocked. His vision grew dark, and his soul was about to be burned.

he could vaguely hear lin mo's low voice, "the moment i took the first spiritual pill, you lost the chance to escape ..."

it was the same for the others. none of the ninth heaven nirvana realm cultivators managed to escape and were all killed.

As for the others, they couldn't even resist the Vermilion bird's divine flames and were completely burned to death.

[congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the flowing cloud jade pendant, a level 2 earth realm magic weapon.]

[successfully triggered 6000 times auction return interest]

[congratulations to the host for obtaining a rank 3 Earth Class magic weapon, the Qian Yuan jade pendant] another item was auctioned off. it was a magic weapon. lin mo did not hesitate to take it out and refine it.

he was still severely injured and was using a large amount of spiritual energy to fight. he needed more natural treasures to heal himself.

other than refining the qianyuan jade pendant, he also took out the storage rings and qiankun bags of the people who were killed.

There were also many spirit stones, spirit pills, and spirit herbs.

he went deep into the mountain range and found a secluded place. he dug out a cave, set up a concealment array, and began to heal his injuries.

the spirit qi was sucked out and fused into his body. the god devourer body greedily devoured a large amount of energy.

as a result, lin mo had to use up a lot of his energy to heal his injuries. fortunately, the return-of-profit items from the auction were all earth-rank treasures, which were enough to support his cultivation.

The devouring speed was very fast, and in less than half an hour, Lin Mo's injuries were completely healed.

moreover, the god devouring body had absorbed so much energy that it had helped him stabilize his eighth sky of nirvana realm.

At the same time, he had also tempered his body, making him even stronger.

“however, there's a bit of trouble now ...”

Lin Mo frowned and looked up at the sky. There was a huge crack in the sky that was more than a hundred miles wide.

Moreover, the speed was getting faster and faster. The heavenly Tribulation continued to unleash its power, and wherever it landed, the earth would turn into tribulation soil.

the living beings fled without any signs of life remaining.

“Don't tell me the so-called disaster is the destruction of the world ...”

Lin Mo muttered. If that was the case, what would the eastern Peninsula cultivators do? they would not be able to travel through the void.

if they couldn't go to other continents, the only thing that would welcome them was death.

how could they not be shocked when the continent they relied on for survival was about to be destroyed ...

“is there no other way? heaven mending monument, can you tell me how to deal with the tribulation?”

he mumbled to himself, but no one paid him any attention. the heaven mending monument had not given him an answer.

then, he thought of the holy flame. he wanted to go there to find the answer, but he shook his head.

According to the rate at which the crack was spreading, it would spread to the purple Moon Palace in less than a month.

That would be a disaster for the purple Moon Palace.

[congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the incomplete cultivation technique, the gods 'clear judgement, part one and part two]

[this auction has incurred a heavy loss. the system will compensate you, triggering a return-interest of 100000 times.]

[congratulations to the host for obtaining the complete version of the gods 'decree.]

Lin Mo's mind was flooded with a huge amount of information, which almost caused his sea of consciousness to explode.

the cultivation method of the gods 'hearing divine art entered lin mo's mind.

This was a cultivation technique that transcended the mortal world. Just by looking at it, it gave off a feeling of being the master of the world.

he was above all and ruled over everything ...

lin mo studied it carefully and discovered that the gods 'enlightenment will was divided into the first, second, and second chapter.

the first volume, foundation establishment, recorded the cultivation method before immortal-foundation.

the second volume of 'fight for the limit' recorded the future path of cultivation and the experiences of previous sages.

in the second volume, transcendence, one would be able to command the gods, rule a region, and control all the rules of the world after mastering it.

“What a terrifying cultivation technique. Just what is the origin of the heaven mending monument? why would it give me such a cultivation technique ...”

lin mo muttered to himself. even though he had only given them the first and second chapter, these two chapters were enough for a person to use for life.

The immortal Foundation realm, what sort of realm was that? he didn't know. He had to go to the other continents to explore.

however, he was certain that once the 'gods' decree 'was leaked to other continents, it would definitely cause a sensation ...

“however, i can't inscribe the second volume now ...”

lin mo was helpless. he couldn't cultivate the second volume, and if he didn't, he couldn't send it to jiang xiyue through spiritual force resonance.

If he wanted her to cultivate the second part, he would need to be strong enough to inscribe it.

“No, the auction is over?”

suddenly, lin mo stood up. the return interest for the 'gods' decree 'had been paid, which meant that the auction was over.

in other words, the purple moon palace was probably already under siege.

“No, I have to rush back.”

He quickly got up and rushed in the direction of the purple Moon Palace without thinking.

the purple moon palace was in its most dangerous state right now. even tian sha might not be able to protect it.

Furthermore, Lin Mo was not sure if tiansha would try to snatch it.

if even she was greedy, jiang xiyue would be in danger ...

lin mo flapped his kun peng wings and flew at high speed. however, the distance was a little far. after all, xu fei had used a teleportation formation to escape before.

However, Lin Mo did not have the time to set it up and could only fly quickly.

“Boom, boom, boom.”

There were cracks in the sky above, and many Thunderbolts spread into the eastern continent, starting to fall.

the heavenly tribulation descended, and the truly destructive heavenly lightning was incomparably gorgeous and colorful as it crashed toward the mountain range.

as lin mo traveled through the mountains, he encountered many escaping demonic beasts. they had all sensed the danger and could only leave their homes.

immediately after, meteors fell from the sky. they were huge meteorites.

The earth was devastated, and many craters were created by the impact. Heavenly Fire spread and Heavenly Thunder rumbled.

Lin Mo could see everything clearly. He felt a chill in his heart as he looked at the tragic situation around him. The danger of the eastern Peninsula was here.

the only thing he was glad about was that the purple moon palace had not been affected yet, but it would soon be. the natural disaster would arrive before the crack.

the crack would also arrive in a month. if they didn't move by then, the purple moon palace would no longer exist.

Of course, this was not something that Lin Mo should be considering.

after leaving the herd, lin mo flew away quickly. after half a day, he finally arrived at ziyue palace.

What he saw was the smell of blood. Hailing city no longer existed, and had become a ruin.

The city's protective array was destroyed, and the moon Pavilion was razed to the ground.

“how ruthless ...”

fortunately, the purple moon palace was safe and sound. the formation was activated, and there were three troops guarding it. it was impregnable.

someone was shocked. seeing lin mo’s figure, he wanted to make a move and stop him.

“hmph!”

” hmph! ” lin mo snorted coldly, and the daluo divine sword mercilessly killed the person who spoke.

a stone that caused a thousand ripples!

lin mo’s attack let the people surrounding the purple moon palace know who had returned.

“everyone, attack together and surround him ...”

Someone shouted. He knew that Lin Mo was very strong, but he still attacked. He was like a moth flying into the fire, not afraid of death.

on the city wall of the purple moon palace, a fiery-red girl was very anxious as she watched lin mo fighting in the crowd ...

Please report the problems you have identified regarding the novel and its chapters.

behind him, bai luo, who was wearing white armor, appeared. he was frowning.

She could tell that Lin Mo was in a difficult situation, but the formation of the purple Moon Palace could not be opened.

once it was activated, it would be difficult to block the other party outside ...

“but, brother, he ...”

The red-dressed girl still wanted to say something, but she turned around and saw the many soldiers of the purple Moon Palace standing on the city wall.

She fell silent and no longer insisted.

that’s right, once the formation was activated, the enemy would break in and the purple moon palace would collapse instantly.

“Little butterfly, don’t be so angry. Let’s go out and fight.”

bai luo patted the young girl’s forehead and smiled. she would not leave lin mo alone.

” yes, elder sister bai luo, let’s go and help elder brother. ” the young girl nodded. her body lit up with brilliant flames, and a red spear appeared.

This was the Holy Fire spear that Lin Mo had given her when she had gone into seclusion. After such a long period of nurturing, it had long been compatible with her.

Upon seeing this, Bai Luo took out two talismans and handed one to Lin die.

The two of them activated it at the same time. Their bodies were covered in white light, and spatial fluctuations were constantly emitted.

“elder luo, please help protect xiyue.”

After Bai Luo finished speaking, her and Lin die’s figures disappeared. When they reappeared, they were already outside the purple Moon Palace.

some people had been paying attention to the internal news of the purple moon palace. when they saw bai luo and lin die appear, they immediately attacked.

“xiao die, go and help lin mo.”

” hmph! ” bai luo snorted coldly. he swept the long spear in his hand and blocked the group of people.

on the other side, lin mo was having a difficult time fighting because the first to appear and attack him were all experts.

“Big brother!”

crimson flames filled the sky, and the experts surrounding lin mo retreated.

A petite young girl flew over and pounced into Lin Mo’s arms like a swallow.

“Little butterfly?”

Lin Mo, who was in the middle of an intense battle, was stunned. He subconsciously reached out and hugged her petite body tightly.

Xiao die had grown a lot taller. She was no longer a little girl, but a young girl now. She was very cute and beautiful.

She buried her head in Lin Mo’s arms and said in a soft voice.

“Big brother, I finally get to see you ...”

these days, she had been trapped in the cocoon and had been in seclusion. she had not been able to come out and had missed lin mo very much.

“little girl, now is not the time for a reunion. a war is about to start ...”

Lin Mo patted the back of the young girl in his arms and laughed. This little girl had grown up a lot, but she was still so clingy ...

“Yes, little butterfly is very strong now. She can help big brother.”

Lin die raised her head and said proudly.

at this moment, lin mo finally felt lin die’s aura. she was at the 8th sky of nirvana realm, which shocked him.

This really shocked him. Lin die had been in closed-door cultivation for too long, but the benefits she had obtained were huge.

“Boom ...”

there were people attacking, and the scene fell into chaos. lin mo and the other two were surrounded.

Fortunately, Bai Luo and Lin die helped to share the pressure. Lin Mo was no longer afraid.

As the situation stabilized, the experts in the purple Moon Palace heaved a sigh of relief. Lin Mo and the other two were one-in-a-million geniuses.

Now that he had completely grown up, he could even take charge of a region on his own.

However, a sudden change occurred!

Perhaps it was because a large number of experts had gathered in the purple Moon Palace.

a huge crack appeared on the horizon, and the heavenly tribulation was faintly visible.

the stars fell like raindrops, and meteorites crashed down from the starry sky with terrifying power.

At this moment, the battle stopped. Everyone was shocked. This was a natural disaster, not something that human power could resist.

“Quickly run ...”

It was unknown who shouted, but the place was in chaos. Some people gave up fighting and chose to escape.

people were terrified because they had seen the heavenly tribulation before and now they were seeing it again.

moreover, the heavenly tribulation this time was even more terrifying, and it could annihilate them all.

Lin Mo’s heart sank. How did the crack expand so quickly? it had already reached the Ziyue Palace.

“ah ...”

He saw a divine bird flying high into the sky, trying to escape this place. However, the next moment, the heavenly Tribulation descended, and it was struck by lightning.

In the next moment, something terrifying happened. The divine bird's cultivation level was dropping.

it was originally at the ninth heaven of the nirvana stage and wanted to escape with its own speed.

As a result, he was locked on by the heavenly Tribulation, and the lightning fixed him in the air, unable to move.

"Its cultivation level is dropping ..."

Lin die's senses were sharp and she immediately discovered the abnormality. The heavenly Tribulation did not harm the divine bird's life.

it only managed to break free after devouring its cultivation base and its cultivation base had fallen to the second sky of the nirvana realm.

The divine bird let out a cry of grief and indignation and fled. innread.com

It had successfully left, but its cultivation level had dropped. If it met its former enemy, it would probably not be able to survive.

"bai luo, what is the meaning of this?"

lin mo looked to his side. everyone had stopped fighting and were now looking at the sky.

Bai Luo came to his side and also frowned.

Originally, her family was going to come to the eastern continent in person, but now that something had happened, they did not dare to come.

cultivators are derived from the heavens. As long as they continue to cultivate, they are defying the heavens.

"Now that the world has changed, I'm afraid that we have to return what we once obtained ..."

bai lu made a guess. the heavenly lightning that had trapped the divine bird earlier was the best example.

it wasn't injured, but its cultivation was taken back, but not all of it.

When it was frozen, the divine bird was constantly struggling. As its cultivation level weakened, the heavenly lightning that had frozen it also weakened.

in the end, it was able to escape, but the realm that was lowered had to be cultivated again.

“how could that be? don't ...”

A few more screams were heard. Someone was attacked again.

As usual, his cultivation was taken back, but his life was not in danger.

Divine chains of order descended from the sky, binding some people and devouring their cultivation.

“they're all ninth firmament nirvana stage practitioners ...”

Lin Mo was shocked. The people who were targeted by the God sequence chains were all experts of this level.

“Swish!”

on the other side, a middle-aged woman rose into the air and flew into the distance. her body was covered in blood.

her aura was extremely unstable at the moment. she was at the peak of the eighth sky of nirvana realm.

“She's cut down her cultivation level.”

Lin Mo was shocked. This person had seen through him and slashed his own realm, so he was not caught by the divine chains.

After that, she escaped from this place. She actually managed to escape and wasn't caught.

“it's only targeted at the ninth heaven of the nirvana stage ...”

lin mo's expression changed. in that case, the purple moon palace might be safe, and only beautiful silk and luo haoyu needed to be careful.

These two were at the ninth heaven of the Nirvana stage and were now hiding in the formation.

he was a little worried that the heavenly tribulation would break through the formation and capture the two of them, causing their cultivation to drop.

"what do you plan to do?"

bai luo asked. the eastern peninsula was becoming more and more unsafe.

this was only the beginning. since it was a catastrophe in the eastern land, it would not only target the ninth heaven of nirvana stage.

if you want to practice the gods 'hearing mantra, you have to experience the catastrophe of the eastern continent. This is the information I got.

Please report the problems you have identified regarding the novel and its chapters.

Lin Mo shook his head. Jiang xiyue couldn't leave yet. At the very least, she had to experience this calamity herself.

Jiang xiyue was already cultivating, so she couldn't leave.

he didn't plan to leave either. the calamity would befall the purple moon palace sooner or later, and he couldn't leave these people behind.

The crowd dispersed. Many experts were celebrating after surviving the disaster, but they didn't dare to stay and chose to leave.

Ten minutes later, the outside of the purple Moon Palace was empty, except for the bodies on the ground and the blood.

Lin Mo and the other two fell silent as they felt a chill in their hearts.

the catastrophe had begun in the eastern continent, and it might destroy the world. escaping was the best choice.

when they returned to the purple moon palace, the heavenly tribulation ignored them and continued to spread, shrouding the earth.

Lin Mo, who had just returned, saw a heart-wrenching scene.

luo haoyu and damask were sitting cross-legged on the ground with blood flowing from the corners of their mouths. their cultivation levels had fallen to the eighth heaven of the nirvana realm.

“Elder Luo, aunty.”

Lin Mo’s heart ached. He finally understood why the heavenly Tribulation had ignored the purple Moon Palace.

In order not to implicate the purple Moon Palace, the two seniors chose to cut themselves and cripple their cultivation.

“Don’t worry. You should be glad ...”

luo haoyu coughed and was helped up by lin mo, while bai luo supported beautiful silk. the few of them walked into the hall together.

when they arrived, luo haoyu and beautiful silk revealed a smile of having survived a disaster.

just a moment ago, we felt like we were about to die. Divine chains also appeared in the purple Moon Palace’s great array.

He shook his head bitterly. The formation couldn’t stop it at all. This was the might of the heavens, not something a human could do.

however, they were also very decisive. the moment the divine chains appeared, they cut off their own cultivation realm and made the divine chains disappear.

Otherwise, their cultivation levels would have dropped even more.

” this heavenly tribulation seems to be standing in the heavens and looking down on all living beings. it’s cold and merciless ... ” Lin Mo said furiously.

When the disaster descended, no one in the eastern Peninsula was spared. They were all drawn into it.

Vaguely, the cultivators in the world could hear someone laughing in the sky. The laughter was so disdainful, high and mighty, as if it ruled over everything.

The true disaster had arrived. The heavenly Tribulation had appeared, and if they couldn't resist it, they would be completely destroyed.

the crack was expanding faster and faster. lin mo sat in a small courtyard and looked up at the sky.

beside her, jiang xiyue wore a purple dress and a poignant smile appeared on her face.

Under the might of the heavens, all living beings seemed so fragile.

it'll be our turn soon. According to the news, most of the strong men in the nine Heavens have died ...

Jiang xiyue sighed. She wasn't willing to cut off her own realm.

It was too ironic that he had to cut off his realm to save his life after just cultivating the gods 'hearing decree ...

"where are tiansha and the others?"

Lin Mo suddenly asked out of curiosity. It had been a month since the auction of the gods 'enlightenment duel.

News of level nine experts fighting against the heavenly Tribulation and eventually dying kept coming from the eastern land.

However, there was no news of geniuses of the same generation like Tian Sha and the ghost king.

" i don't know. ever since the purple moon palace was besieged, tiansha has disappeared and i can't contact her. " jiang xiyue held lin mo's hand and leaned her head on his shoulder.

"i want elder luo and my aunt to leave the eastern continent and go to the bai family first."

after a long time, jiang xiyue finally spoke. these two were the elders she respected the most, and she wouldn't allow anything to happen to them.

at present, the entire eastern continent was facing a natural disaster, and the safest option was to leave.

after hesitating for a while, jiang xiyue wanted to say something several times, but she fell silent when she saw lin mo's determined eyes.

she wanted lin mo to leave with the people from the purple moon palace while she stayed.

she already knew that the heaven mending monument had bestowed the "gods" hearing decree,"so she could not leave.

However, Lin Mo and the rest were different. They did not have to go through this disaster.

"there's no need to say anything more. let xiao die go ..."

lin mo could tell what jiang xiyue was thinking. he took her into his arms and sighed.

How could he bear to let Jiang xiyue face danger alone?

"Lin Mo ..."

After a long time, Jiang xiyue sensed something and spoke.

"do you feel that the spiritual qi in this world has increased?"

She had cultivated the gods 'hearing decree and had improved greatly in all aspects.

the place where the purple moon palace was located had rich spirit qi, but now, she could clearly feel that the concentration of spirit qi was increasing.

" that's true. it's not just here. perhaps, the spirit qi density in the entire eastern continent has increased ... "

Lin Mo's eyes lit up with a glimmer of hope. Such a change was like a guiding light in the midst of a calamity.

that's because the power recovered by the heavenly Tribulation is fed back to the heaven and earth.

bai luo's voice could be heard. there was a hint of fatigue on her face. in the past month, she had returned to the border of the eastern peninsula several times.

she brought news that a supreme expert from her clan had sent two talismans.

after the elders 'decision, they've decided to send xiyue and Xiaodie to the Bai family. bai luo placed the talisman on the jade table.

They were two space talismans of unknown grade, which could teleport people across millions of miles of time and space.

“what about lin mo? also, i can't leave.”

jiang xiyue said quickly. the ” gods 'decree ” restricted her from leaving the eastern continent.

an omnipotent expert has made his move and reversed the karma, causing Lin Mo to suffer in your place ...

Bai Luo's expression gradually turned ugly.

Even her father couldn't oppose the decision of the family.

bai luo's power was huge, and he could not decide everything on his own. everything needed to be discussed.

The result of the discussion was hard for her to accept.

The Bai family had decided to give up on Lin Mo and take Lin die and Jiang xiyue away. The omnipotent expert had made a move and let Lin Mo suffer in place of Jiang xiyue.

this way, she could practice the “gods hearing decree.”

“This is not fair.”

Jiang xiyue shook her head. No matter what, she would not agree to it.

“that’s a good idea.”

On the contrary, Lin Mo’s face was filled with joy. He, who had been at a loss all this time, suddenly saw hope.

The people he was most worried about were Lin die, Jiang xiyue, and the purple Moon Palace.

If these people could leave the eastern continent successfully, he would have no more worries.

“what are you saying?”

jiang xiyue grabbed lin mo’s arm tightly, and her eyes were slightly red.

Anyone could tell that the eastern Peninsula was very dangerous. There might be people who could survive, but that would definitely depend on luck.

nirvana stage practitioners could not rely on their own strength to resist the heavenly might.

“Hey, don’t tell me you’ve already thought of this since a long time ago ...”

Bai Luo rolled his eyes. She was not surprised by Lin Mo’s reaction.

with his familiarity with lin mo, he knew that this fellow would shield his comrades from all danger.

even the catastrophe in the eastern peninsula was no exception.

” why? don’t you believe me? i have many secrets. aren’t you curious? ” Lin Mo smiled mysteriously.

If a Nirvana stage cultivator couldn’t fight against him, then an immortal-Foundation expert could. He had plenty of resources.

“Unless you tell me what secret it is.” jiang xiyue was still holding on to lin mo, unwilling to let go.

She was afraid. She no longer had the aura of an Empress. She was very worried that if she were to be separated from Lin Mo this time, it would be forever.

Chapter 525 - Getting Married

getting married

“You’ll agree to leave if I tell you?” lin mo said.

“No,” Jiang xiyue refused again. She didn’t want to leave and wanted to face it together with Lin Mo.

“Don’t be silly ...” Lin Mo ruffled Jiang xiyue’s smooth hair and was a little reluctant to part with her.

“We’ve already joined the Bai family, haven’t we? if you don’t go back this time, what about next time? maybe someone will risk their life to come in and take you away.”

He shook his head. He didn’t know how strong these forces were, but their style of doing things was roughly the same.

Things that had been decided could not be changed.

Unless Jiang xiyue and Lin die threatened him with their lives. However, this would make things difficult for Bai Luo ...

there must be someone who is facing difficulties. I can’t bear to leave you behind ...

lin mo said gently. he agreed with the bai family’s decision and wished that jiang xiyue could take lin die and leave immediately.

“Believe me, I will break through to immortal-Foundation and then come find you.”

on the other side, seeing the two of them cuddling together again, bai luo rolled his eyes and interrupted them.

” it’s not like we’ll be separated forever. my father gave me an array that should be able to hide from the heavens ... ”

this formation was very powerful and could really hide from the heavenly secrets as long as the people inside the formation didn’t mess around.

Therefore, the safety of Lin Mo and the purple Moon Palace could be guaranteed.

“Then I’ve stirred up emotions for nothing. Why didn’t you say so earlier?”

Lin Mo’s face was filled with black lines. He was bidding farewell to Bai Luo affectionately, but Bai Luo came at the right time to ruin his show ...

“Who told you to be so emotional in front of me?”

Bai Luo snorted coldly and threw a palm-sized bronze plate to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo raised his hand to take it, but the bronze plate was extremely heavy. His palm suddenly sank down, breaking the Jade table.

“What a terrifying strength ...”

lin mo was shocked. what kind of material was this formation made of? it was too terrifying. if it were to be auctioned off ...

At this thought, Lin Mo shook his head. No one in the eastern continent could afford this.

moreover, jiang xiyue would rather die than leave if she were to be sold.

“With this formation, our safety will be guaranteed. There’s no need to worry.”

Lin Mo chuckled and tried to maintain a relaxed posture.

after that, he asked bai luo how the omnipotent expert was going to reverse the karma and let lin mo take the calamity in jiang xiyue’s place.

“well, this ...”

A smirk appeared on Bai Luo's face. He looked at Lin Mo and Jiang xiyue and slowly said, " soon, the purple moon palace was decorated with lanterns and red lanterns.

A red carpet was laid on the ground. Everyone's face was filled with joy as they sent out invitations one after another.

It was basically impossible to reverse the cause and effect, at least not for the current Bai family.

they had thought of a flexible way to let lin mo and jiang xiyue get married.

it was an eight-carrier palanquin, an official marriage.

the two's fate would be intertwined and never separate.

At this time, if an expert were to make a move, they would be able to link the karma between the two and share it.

The purple Moon Palace welcomed another lively scene. The wedding day was set to be three days later, regardless of whether the guests could make it.

everything was simple, and there were very few guests. the divine secrets holy land had only sent an elder to congratulate them.

the great yan dynasty and the great ancient dynasty also sent a messenger, who came with a congratulatory gift, which included a few spirit rank level nine spirit herbs.

as for the lujin divine dynasty and the yan huang divine dynasty, there was no news at all. the invitations had been sent but there was no response.

however, all of this was no longer important.

everything was simple. jiang xiyue sat in the wedding sedan and was carried from her boudoir to the main hall to perform the wedding ceremony with lin mo.

qi luo and luo haoyu acted as jiang xiyue's family. they held jiang xiyue's hand and handed her to lin mo.

” i’ve been waiting for this day for a long time. lin mo, from today onwards, i’ll leave xiyue in your hands. ”

Beautiful silk revealed a kind smile. It wasn’t easy for these two juniors to get to where they were today. They had experienced too many hardships.

Gongs and drums sounded, and the purple Moon Palace was bustling.

A cultivator’s wedding was naturally extraordinary. There were elders who created the phenomenon. It was very beautiful, with fiery red flowers blooming and full of joy ...

When Lin Mo put the ring on Jiang xiyue’s finger, he subconsciously felt that there was something between him and Jiang xiyue.

On the other side, Jiang xiyue could also clearly sense what Lin Mo was thinking.

They knew that it was the Bai family’s Supreme expert who had made a move, forcefully interfering with the fate of these two people from hundreds of millions of miles away.

however, the two of them didn’t care about this anymore. after congratulating jiang xiyue, lin mo brought jiang xiyue back to her room.

The moment the veil was lifted, Lin Mo saw an extremely beautiful face.

lin mo could not help but be a little dazed and entranced.

“What are you looking at ...”

Jiang xiyue rebuked. Although there was no one around, she still felt a little shy under Lin Mo’s gaze.

She blushed and lowered her head.

“You ... Today? It’s so beautiful ...”

Lin Mo said in an intoxicated manner. He felt like he was in a dream today. He had married Jiang xiyue, and the two of them were married ...

“Are you saying that I wasn’t pretty before?”

Jiang xiyue suddenly said as she glared at Lin Mo.

” beauty. in my eyes, you are the most perfect. you are the true fairy ... ”

Lin Mo chuckled and pulled her into his arms. His eyes were burning as he looked at her bright red lips and kissed them gently.

the curtain by the bed was lifted, and the vague figures of two people could be seen.

great aunt, you even want to peek at this? what are you thinking? ”

In the courtyard outside Lin Mo’s house, a fiery-red young lady stuck her head out and climbed over the wall with a young man.

” brother yanrong, xiao die wants to know what a wedding is about, but you guys won’t tell me. i can only come over and take a peek. ”

the fiery red young lady said righteously as she pulled yan rong closer.

“cough. cough ...”

Suddenly, in the small courtyard, a white figure appeared, and a slight cough startled the two.

“Bai Luo, why are you here ...”

Yan Rong was shocked. Wasn’t bai Luo drinking in the main hall? why was he here?

eh? elder sister Bai Luo, are you also here to peek? ” lin die did not mind. she thought that bai luo did not know what marriage was and came to peek.

“little girl, you’re looking for a beating.”

Bai Luo’s face turned red. He let out a soft sound and came over to knock on Lin die’s smooth forehead.

you’re only three years old, right? don’t be so curious.

She lectured Lin die, and after that, she looked at Yan Rong and said, "are you also only three years old? you brought little butterfly here to cause trouble."

"I can't stop him ..."

Yan Rong laughed bitterly. Lin die's current strength was enough to crush him. He was dragged here by this little girl.

"i'm just going to take a look ..."

Lin die still wanted to struggle, but Bai Luo lifted her up and slapped her butt.

"don't cause any trouble. leave this place."

As she spoke, she took Lin die away. Yan Rong shrugged his shoulders and slowly followed.

in the sky, a strange fluctuation came from the crack. the thunderclouds above the purple moon palace were very thick.

however, an obscure formation was set up, and the rare sunlight appeared here, causing the lightning tribulation to dissipate ...

Chapter 526 - Parting

Parting

The celebration in the purple Moon Palace lasted for seven days. Many people came to congratulate them, and for a moment, everyone forgot about the previous unhappiness.

seven days later, lin mo received a guest and a late congratulatory gift.

“A spot to study a remnant scroll of the immortal Sutra.”

the person who had just arrived was xu fei. back then, after bai luo had brought him away, he had disappeared after being sent to a safe place.

At that time, Bai Luo was worried about the comfort of the purple Moon Palace, so he had to leave.

he had never expected that xu fei would appear once again.

hehe, brother Lin, sister-in-law, congratulations. I came uninvited. Please forgive me.

Xu Fei bowed and said many congratulatory words.

young master Xu, you're welcome. I've heard that you're an array master and a Grandmaster in the eastern continent. Now that I've met you, you're indeed worthy of your reputation.

Jiang xiyue looked at Xu Fei. This person had a special aura that was hidden.

even lin mo could not tell her true cultivation level, but she could still sense it.

with the powerful perception brought by the cultivation method, he knew that the other party was an expert at the eighth sky of nirvana stage.

hehe, then I won't be polite. Is it okay to live in the purple Moon Palace for a long time? ” he chuckled as he looked around with a sleazy gaze.

Those were array flags that were in operation. There were many array patterns on them, and they were very strange.

other than that, there was also the formation that the bai luo clan had sent over, a formation that allowed lin mo to successfully transcend the tribulation.

looking at xu fei's sharp gaze, lin mo knew that this fellow had probably seen through the formation.

even though he didn't think that this fellow could see through it, he was still able to see through some extraordinary things. as expected of a genius of formations.

the excitement continued, and many people marveled at the purple moon palace for seeing the clear sky after the clouds had parted.

Many people came to check, but in the end, they found nothing.

Furthermore, sunlight began to appear in other places. People's suspicions were gone, and they thought that the calamity was beginning to dissipate.

Many cultivators were laughing and chatting, thinking that this calamity had nothing to do with them and was only targeted at the Nirvana stage experts.

however, there were still many meticulous people who could see the clues.

they believed that this was only a temporary peace, and that the next moment, it would erupt against the eighth heaven of nirvana stage.

some people were furious. they flew into the sky, trying to see what was behind the crack.

In the end, he was killed by heavenly lightning. The might of heaven could not be blasphemed.

soon, a month had passed since lin mo and jiang xiyue's wedding. it was time to part ways.

jiang xiyue was very reluctant, but she still felt very helpless.

This was because a talisman was flickering on her body. A silver-white light enveloped her and was about to take her away.

"big brother, i can't bear to part with you ..."

On the other side, Bai Luo came with Lin die.

The two of them were in the same situation. They were enveloped by the white light and were about to be teleported away.

"lin mo ..."

jiang xiyue's eyes were filled with tears, but the power of the talisman was not something she could fight against. she could only hold onto lin mo reluctantly.

I'll break through to the immortal-Foundation realm. At that time, I'll come and find you ...

Lin Mo's eyes were firm. Although he was reluctant, he didn't cry. Jiang xiyue and the other two floated up.

He felt that his hand was empty, and he could no longer hold onto Jiang xiyue.

"Lin Mo ..."

Jiang xiyue cried out in sorrow and tried to struggle. Lin Mo's heart ached at the sight.

with a flash of light, the three of them disappeared. they were teleported away, and lin mo felt disappointed.

the distance between the eastern and southern lands was hundreds of millions of miles. that was the heavenly hibernation realm. how could he cross it ...

I will live on, ascend the immortal platform, and find you ...

Lin Mo looked up at the sky and let out a long roar. He was depressed in his heart, and at this moment, he vented all his pent-up feelings.

the purple moon palace trembled, and the ground shook. countless people raised their heads, not understanding what was happening.

only a small number of people knew the reason and could only sigh silently.

the space behind lin mo fluctuated as luo haoyu and damask walked over. the two of them had broken through to the ninth firmament nirvana realm.

Now that they had the protection of the formation, they didn't need to worry anymore.

"lin mo, what are you going to do next?"

Damask walked over and caressed Lin Mo's face with heartache. Lin Mo had started to cry without him knowing.

the danger in the eastern land was still there, and there would be unimaginable disasters. only the ziyue palace was safe.

Lin Mo was conflicted. He did not know if he should go out or hide.

he was at the eighth sky of the nirvana realm. he might not be able to escape the next wave. he would be locked on and his cultivation might be destroyed.

. what's the point of hiding when it's like finding gold in. big wave ...”

I want to go out. I want to witness the catastrophe that is going to befall the eastern continent. I want to face it in xiyue's place. At the same time, I want to find my own destiny ...

lin mo raised his head and said. this was his choice and he would not change it.

but is it really okay? you have to think about it carefully. Once you leave, you might die there.

“What will happen to xiyue and Xiaodie then?” Said damask worriedly.

the higher her realm was, the more she understood the horror of the heavenly tribulation. a single mistake would lead to eternal damnation.

lin mo nodded solemnly. the purple moon palace was protected by a formation, so they would definitely be able to survive the catastrophe of the eastern peninsula.

As long as he was more careful, he might be safe. Without any worries, he could do many things.

“aunty, elder luo, i'll leave the purple moon palace in your hands after i leave. from this year onwards, you can recruit disciples.”

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he walked out of the purple Moon Palace formation and left.

“Your choice surprised me.” Lin Mo had just appeared and was flying in the boundless mountain range when a voice rang in his ears.

It was the heaven mending monument. He was extremely familiar with this voice.

“fine, let’s see how far you can go.”

The heaven mending monument spoke again, but before Lin Mo could ask anything, it fell silent.

no matter how lin mo called out, the heaven mending monument did not respond. the surroundings were completely silent.

In the mountain range, the wind blew, and the roars of demonic beasts could be heard occasionally.

although the weather was clear, lin mo felt an inexplicable sense of oppression. sometimes, there would even be thunderbolts on a clear day.

he cultivated in the mountain forest as usual and comprehended the dao laws.

During this period of time, he had almost forgotten himself and everything else. The only thing left in his eyes was the comprehension of the laws of heaven and earth.

Time passed, and two months quietly passed.

Finally, on this day, Lin Mo was awoken by a sudden clap of thunder.

dark clouds covered the earth. this time, there were not only heavenly lightning, but also meteors, ice, and fire.

all kinds of strange phenomena appeared in the sky and fell.

Many disasters broke out in the eastern land. What shocked Lin Mo was that this time, the targets were not only at the 8th sky of Nirvana realm.

most of the nirvana stage warriors were swept away. whoever dared to resist would suffer the most terrifying attack.

They would either dissipate their cultivation to survive, or they would die.

At the same time, a perfect great Dao appeared with the catastrophe.

An infinite amount of light descended from the sky, containing the laws of Dao. The cultivators captured them and used them for cultivation. They instantly understood.

with the imminent disaster, some cultivators still had the mood to cultivate. they were so obsessed that they didn't even know that their cultivation realms had been cut off.

When they came back to their senses, they realized that they had fallen from the Nirvana realm and were hovering around the Dragon Realm.

Chapter 527 - The World's Consciousness

Chapter 527: The World's Consciousness

The world's consciousness

“Bang!”

The war drums sounded, and the clouds in the sky transformed into heavenly soldiers and generals, launching a charge.

However, when they fell, they became disasters. There were seas of fire, gales, and natural disasters.

lin mo's heart palpitated. this phenomenon was too terrifying. the eastern continent was already riddled with holes, and many places had encountered disasters.

He hid in the dark to avoid the heavenly Tribulation's gaze. He held his breath and focused his mind. This martial art that he had not used for a long time finally came in handy.

” strange, i clearly remember that this valley was covered in frost. how can these people walk out freely? ”

It was a group of young cultivators who had just entered the Dragon Realm. They looked to be fifteen or sixteen years old, and they were chatting and laughing as they walked into the mountains.

Lin Mo followed him. As soon as he entered, he felt a bone-piercing cold. This power was so strong that it could even freeze one's soul.

However, the few young cultivators could withstand the cold that even he had a hard time resisting.

He followed them in secret and listened to their conversation. He found that it was just some idle gossip.

Obviously, they didn't know about the so-called Heavenly Tribulation. The catastrophe of the eastern continent wasn't spread among them.

Even a Nirvana stage practitioner would be scared to death, but these people could come out to train and pick herbs so casually.

This piqued Lin Mo's curiosity, and he randomly found a small town.

However, there were mercenary groups going in and out of the town, and the strongest of them was only a Dragon Realm cultivator.

I've been really lucky recently. There are a lot of spirit herbs growing in the mountain. I can sell them for a lot of money.

Some of the mercenary groups laughed. They were very happy with their bountiful harvest.

At this moment, the sky above them cracked and black clouds covered the city. The atmosphere was filled with despair.

However, they did not seem to feel anything.

He only knew that the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth had become much richer recently, and the spiritual herbs growing in various places had increased.

Even a small mercenary group like theirs had picked a few spirit rank spirit herbs and sold them for a good price.

Upon seeing this, Lin Mo walked into the town and observed the world from the perspective of a mortal.

He soon discovered a different world.

All living things had been revived, the children were talented, the cultivation environment had become better, and the resources were abundant.

The eastern Peninsula had undergone a tremendous change. The difference between the weak and the strong was like heaven and hell ...

” perhaps, tribulation is another way of saying it ... ”

A terrifying guess appeared in Lin Mo’s mind. He wanted to confirm it, but he held back.

Once his guess failed, he would probably be doomed eternally ...

in the town, lin mo bought a small courtyard and lived in it. he had forgotten his identity as a cultivator and treated him as an ordinary person.

he didn’t have any cultivation and was a wealthy merchant. he was once again wandering around.

soon, he had a new understanding. the great dao had manifested. ordinary people could not see it, including him.

Heaven and earth were reversed as Lin Mo entered a Deep State of enlightenment.

although his true strength was at the nirvana stage, he had a different feeling at this moment.

This was a great opportunity. Lin Mo forgot about time and everything else.

This was the manifestation of the great Dao. It appeared along with the heavenly Tribulation, and it was the easiest time to comprehend it.

Now, Lin Mo had entered a special state. He was concentrating on comprehending and tempering his body, and his body was actually emitting a trace of Dao runes.

It wasn’t an increase in realm, but a sublimation of Dao laws.

The great Dao of the heavenly Tribulation manifested in Lin Mo's body to verify what he had learned. The God devouring body gradually became restless.

"rather than calling it a tribulation, it's better to call it an opportunity that corresponds to all things in the world."

"Rise after destruction, rise after death!"

lin mo muttered in a low voice. he had a new realization. the heavenly tribulation might kill many people.

but that was because his foundation was not stable.

To the eastern continent, these people were like trash. They had to be eliminated and everything given to them had to be taken back.

leaving the essence and getting rid of the dregs. This is the will of the world.

He had once heard Bai Luo say that a piece of heaven and earth could nurture strong people, but it also needed the return of the strongest people.

The two complemented each other and formed a balance.

The eastern continent was vast, but no one could give it anything back. For countless years, it had been the one giving.

Perhaps, the disaster was about to befall them.

the new geniuses would break the world's structure. the world wanted to protect these people, so it crippled the strong ...

"Is that really the case?"

lin mo had some doubts in his mind. if it was true, there were too many implications behind this.

a group of heroes fighting for the deer. In the next hundred years, I'm afraid that we will be able to compete for the strongest ...

It could even be said that there would be immortal-foundation experts born ...

At the thought of this, Lin Mo could not help but feel a little sorrowful. Had the eastern continent given up on those who had already cultivated ...

“heaven mending monument, can you hear me? is my guess right or wrong?”

lin mo opened his eyes. his dao laws were retracted. he looked up at the sky. the crack was still there. nothing had changed.

the heaven mending monument’s reply did not appear, leaving lin mo disappointed.

however, he was right about one thing, and that was that in the midst of a calamity, there would also be opportunities.

in this world, there was no lack of smart people, and some people had guessed something.

they walked through the mountains and among the mortals.

He wanted to capture the hidden traces of the great Dao and use them to cultivate and temper himself.

These were the manifestations of the great Dao, the best opportunities. As long as one could obtain a portion, they would be able to advance a step further.

lin mo smiled. he knew the path he had to take in the future.

He walked among the weak cultivators, occasionally forming teams to hunt demonic beasts and enter the deep mountains to pick spiritual herbs.

At the same time, he also caught the manifestation of several great Dao laws.

These were originally meant to enter the bodies of his companions and turn them into geniuses.

brother mo, let’s go quickly. We can exchange these spirit herbs for spirit stones, and we’ll be able to advance further.

A young man beckoned Lin Mo over. They had entered the deep mountains with Lin Mo to pick herbs.

” hehe, i’m already at the fifth level of the foundation stage. i’ll be able to break through to the sixth level when i go back and cultivate in seclusion. by then, i’ll have the qualifications to join the wind cloud sect. ”

the other youth laughed complacently. the mountain they were on was wind cloud sect’s territory.

normally, they were allowed to go in and pick herbs, and they could be exchanged for the corresponding spirit stones after they were brought back.

when his cultivation reached the standard, he could join the wind cloud sect.

“you want to join the wind cloud sect?”

lin mo chuckled. once upon a time, he was also a weakling who was working hard to become stronger ...

brother mo, are you not willing? ” The young men and women were puzzled.

the wind cloud sect was the most powerful sect here. with a nirvana stage practitioner in charge, who would not want to join?

“If there is a better sect, would you be willing?” lin mo laughed.

wasn’t the purple moon palace just about to select disciples? these people were good seedlings.

furthermore, the dao laws that he had captured that originally belonged to these people could be put to use.

Perhaps there were people in other places who were like him, capturing Dao laws and snatching other people’s opportunities.

He didn’t want to interfere with the world’s consciousness and planned to return it to them.

if he could get them to join the purple moon palace, wouldn’t that also be a disguised gain ...

“where are the stronger sects?”

their eyes were filled with doubt and curiosity. they only knew about the wind cloud sect and nothing else.

C - 528

in the end, lin mo gave each of them a ring, which contained cultivation techniques, spiritual stones, and elixirs.

At the same time, he had also integrated the Dao laws into their bodies to improve their talents.

He told them to go home and ask their elders to take them to the purple Moon Palace 300000 miles away to find a master.

as for whether or not they could reach it, it would depend on the luck of these people.

he had done everything he could. the path of cultivation was not a smooth one, and there would be many twists and turns.

“brother lin, you’re in such a good mood. you’re still in the mood to recruit disciples even though you’re facing the tribulation.”

A chuckle was heard. After the young men and women left, Holy maiden Xia you slowly walked over from behind Lin Mo.

The two of them looked at each other. They didn’t speak, but they knew a lot of information.

“Brother Lin, do you think that we’re the abandoned pawns of the world?”

suddenly, holy maiden xia you asked this question.

“Why do you say so?” lin mo’s interest was piqued, and he wanted to hear xia you’s opinion.

“We were also born in the eastern Peninsula. Why are they targeting us? could it be because we were born earlier?”

” taking back the cultivation we’ve cultivated so hard to benefit others, do we deserve it? ”

she was a little nonchalant and felt that it was very unfair.

This was what she understood. Since the eastern continent needed strong cultivators, why couldn’t it be them? why should it be a group of new juniors?

“i don’t agree.” Lin Mo shook his head indifferently. He took out a Jade table and a teapot from his storage space and invited Xia you to take a seat.

“Brother Lin, what do you think?” Asked Xia you as she sat down and sipped her tea.

“our generation is both lucky and unfortunate ...”

Lin Mo had a different opinion.

He respected the world’s choice. He removed the dregs and left the essence behind, all for the sake of giving birth to a new world.

a hundred years later, he could imagine that it would be a race of heroes fighting for supremacy. perhaps ten thousand years, a hundred thousand years, or a million years later.

The eastern continent would be the same as the other continents. It would have a vast land, rich resources, countless experts, and thousands of races, each leading the world for thousands of years ...

” you’re looking at the big picture and the long term. don’t you think about yourself? ” xia you asked curiously.

“Of course, I’m not poor. Do we have to sacrifice our generation for the golden age?”

That was why he followed those young men and women and seized the Dao laws that belonged to them.

“But you returned it to them in the end.” Xia you spoke.

because I’ve thought it through. I’m much stronger than those people. The world has no reason not to choose me.

Lin Mo laughed, and the direction in his heart became clearer. innread.com

” the world has not abandoned anyone. we have given up on ourselves. breaking through realms at will and destroying our own foundations is the same as giving up on our future. ” forge a perfect Foundation and step by step into the immortal Foundation. The world will not stop you.

At this point, Lin Mo felt as if he had entered a wonderful state, as if he had been enlightened.

thunder rumbled in the sky, and the heavenly tribulation fell with a boom, striking lin mo’s body.

Lightning flashed and Thunder rumbled. Lin Mo’s body was wrapped in lightning, and the terrifying power helped him temper his body. Some of the White broken bones were removed.

The black impurities in his body had also dissipated. His precious body was like jade, emitting a divine light.

xia you, who had originally retreated a few hundred feet, turned back again when he saw this strange phenomenon. his eyes were filled with a strange light.

At that moment, she actually felt that Lin Mo was right.

This was because the heavenly Tribulation was helping him. It was helping him temper his body and help him build his Foundation. It was proof that the world had not abandoned their generation.

it was just that the way he helped was a little too cruel.

However, in the eyes of the world, everything was illusory. It would carry out what it thought was right and would not care about the opinions of the ants ...

“Brother Lin, many thanks.”

Xia you immediately understood the direction to go and knew where to go.

She bowed to Lin Mo and disappeared. She was going to find her own fortune.

At that moment, Lin Mo could no longer hear Xia you's voice.

He felt as if his body was about to explode. The boundless energy pouring into his body almost caused him to explode and die.

as the dao law entered his body, countless heavenly tribulation energy poured into him, helping him to be baptized.

this was to help him build an unparalleled foundation and accumulate his own potential, which would be of great benefit to his future cultivation.

In fact, if Lin Mo did not have the God devouring body, he might have jumped up and ascended the immortal platform.

After all, this power was simply too great. If it wasn't for the God Devourer body, who could receive it all?

As the heavenly Tribulation spread, countless Nirvana stage cultivators cursed and swore. In the end, they had no choice but to cut off their cultivation and re-cultivate.

after tempering his body for 10 days, lin mo sat cross-legged in midair, his body covered in runes.

He had received a great opportunity. First, he had been tempered by the heavenly Tribulation, and then he had been guided into his body to build his Foundation.

Now that the heavenly Tribulation had provided him with a large amount of energy, he was one step closer to the ninth sky of the Nirvana stage.

“boom!”

on this day, in the boundless mountain range, the tribulation clouds dispersed. they had truly dispersed, and the sun was shining brightly.

this was lin mo's best day. he felt extremely comfortable. he opened his eyes, and his body exuded a holy aura.

No matter where he went, the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth would involuntarily draw close to him.

This was the scene of the body and the great Dao merging. Since ancient times, very few people had been able to achieve this.

Even in other continents, they were rare existences.

He had the God devouring body and his body was indestructible. He could fight with physical cultivators who had cultivated to the peak of the Nirvana realm.

now, he was in harmony with the great dao, and the runes in his body flickered, making his cultivation even easier.

the heavenly tribulation dissipated for a short while, allowing many people to heave a sigh of relief.

raising their heads, the crack disappeared, and the tribulation clouds were also gone. everyone really felt like they had survived a disaster.

some of the nirvana stage warriors who managed to hide were overjoyed. some of them were even more relieved when they found that there was no danger.

“it’s already been half a year since the calamity. i’ve been living in seclusion this entire time, and i don’t know what’s happening in the outside world.”

lin mo muttered to himself as he flew to the nearest town to gather information.

the great tribulation had just passed, and there would definitely be people who couldn’t sit still.

this was especially so when some of the omnipotent experts had disappeared without a trace. many people with ulterior motives began to have their own thoughts.

In particular, when someone broke into a Holy Land and found out that the strength of the Holy Land’s elders was weak, only in the Dragon Realm, they were overjoyed.

They launched a crazy attack, burning, killing, pillaging, and committing all kinds of evil.

“Heavens, why are you so unfair ...”

the holy land’s elders cried and complained that they were deprived of their cultivation and their holy land was destroyed, but others still had the strength to bully them ...

Lin Mo took in everything and remained silent.

The world wouldn’t care about the ants. What it wanted was for a true dragon to be born among the ants ...

He left the place and headed to the purple Moon Palace.

This place was also very chaotic, but fortunately, when the Tribulation clouds dispersed, the beautiful silk had come out to patrol the area.

The ninth sky of the Nirvana realm shocked everyone, and they did not dare to be rash.

however, the purple moon palace didn’t care about the chaos in the outside world. they closed the mountain gate and basically didn’t open the formation except for the selection of disciples and the collection of taxes.

seeing this, lin mo smiled, turned around, and entered the great yan dynasty.

he had a few special treasures in his hands, and he needed to find an auction house to sell them ...

C - 529

Three days later, he entered the territory of the Great Yan Dynasty and met many cultivators and ordinary people.

Lin Mo wasn't the only one who realized this. Many other cultivators knew about this as well.

Especially the young cultivators, they found that their talent had become better, and their understanding of the spiritual energy of heaven and earth and the Dao laws had increased.

However, there was an obvious flaw. Nirvana stage Warriors had almost disappeared without a trace, and there was not a single one in the cities of Great Yan Dynasty.

occasionally, they would hear the news of an expert of a very high realm being stripped of his cultivation and falling from the altar.

The city that Lin Mo was in was in such a state.

there was a reclusive expert living in seclusion. he was once at the ninth heaven of the nirvana realm, but after a disaster, he fell to the third heaven.

Someone had once wanted to attack him and take away his lifetime collection.

However, it led to a tragedy. Although the expert's cultivation had weakened, his combat strength was not weak. It was difficult to find an opponent in the third heaven.

His cultivation had been taken back, but his Foundation before the third heaven was very solid, so he could have such strong combat power.

Some people who had successfully advanced by swallowing spiritual pills went back to the beginning and started cultivating again.

This was what Lin Mo had heard along the way.

what did you say? the great ancient divine dynasty met with a calamity and its Imperial City was breached and destroyed? " Lin Mo was shocked.

This was a little terrifying. The foundation of the great ancient divine dynasty wasn't weak either. He didn't expect it to be destroyed in such a short period of time.

How cruel was this? the arrival of the golden age had caused many old forces to wither ...

It was said that it was the head of the hidden ghost sect. It seemed that there were other people involved, but their true identity had not been discovered.

Lin Mo was silent. He really wanted to go there and see what had happened.

However, he was now in the Great Yan Dynasty, and he was about to reach the Imperial City.

Moreover, he didn't know how Great Yan Dynasty was doing. He wondered if Zhen Gu was still alive, and if the Imperial City of Great Yan Dynasty had been broken through ...

"There's one more thing. Something strange has happened in the Great Yan Dynasty. A forbidden area of the Imperial Palace is showing signs of abnormality. It seems like a Supreme treasure has been born."

It was for this reason that Great Yan Dynasty was in a very dangerous situation, and could be captured at any time.

"Is there no one in the Great Yan Dynasty who can match him?" lin mo was puzzled and asked a passing cultivator.

"Of course there are, but all of the top experts have been crippled. I heard that only the number one genius of the heavenly martial clan, Chen Wu, can participate in the battle!"

Lin Mo was shocked. The Great Yan Dynasty was one of the few powers that did not harbor any hostility toward the Purple Moon Palace. Now that they were in danger, how could he just stand by and watch?

"Zhen Gu, I hope you're still alive." Lin Mo prayed.

The Imperial City of the Great Yan Dynasty was still as magnificent as ever. Lin Mo had never been here before, and this was his first time stepping foot in it.

"The city's defensive array has been activated, but it's severely damaged. It'll be broken soon,"

There were huge cracks on the city wall, as well as traces of heavenly lightning striking down. Runes flickered on it, but unfortunately, it was almost completely destroyed.

The city gate was wide open, allowing everyone to pass through without a single guard.

Lin Mo followed the crowd and walked in. The city was still bustling, but there were many more ordinary people.

Lin Mo's eyes lit up when he arrived because he saw some children playing around. They seemed to be quite intelligent.

Given time, these people would definitely be able to break through the Nirvana stage and even reach the 5th sky.

Lin Mo could also sense the fluctuations of Dao laws from their bodies. They were people who were favored by the heaven and earth.

The heavenly Dao was merciless and looked down on all living beings. The life and death of mortals could be decided with a single thought.

This Heavenly Tribulation had deprived cultivators of their cultivation and improved the world, allowing countless people to have a better cultivation environment.

However, cultivation was a battle against the heavens. Now that a Supreme treasure had appeared in the Great Yan Dynasty, countless experts had rushed over like wolves and tigers, hoping to use the Supreme treasure to improve their cultivation base.

Lin Mo kept moving forward. His destination was the palace. He wanted to find Zhen Gu.

Right now, although his cultivation base had yet to reach the peak, he had his own methods and was about to become one of the top powerhouses.

Everything on the streets was the same as before. Some people were even discussing whether Chen Wu could fight the enemy alone.

the top expert of Great Yan Dynasty has been crippled, but the ordinary people don't know about it. They thought it was to train the younger generation ...

Lin Mo nodded slightly. The heavenly Tribulation had nothing to do with mortals, and the interests of cultivators would not be related to mortals.

He shook his head. Just as he was about to continue, he suddenly realized that his surroundings had become quiet.

A woman in a long dress appeared in front of them. The mortals couldn't help but retreat. They didn't notice anything unusual.

Lin Mo stopped and looked at the woman in front of him.

there was a sad and beautiful expression on her face, as if she was crying and laughing to death. there were tears at the corners of her eyes, and a sense of sadness spread throughout her body.

It was Gu Luo, the third Princess of the great ancient divine dynasty, the future Empress.

She was actually here? was she here to attack Great Yan Dynasty?

The two of them looked at each other and didn't say anything. There was no one around to disturb them, so they couldn't help but make way for the two of them to come closer.

In the end, they boarded a restaurant and found a private room to sit opposite each other.

"Brother Lin, how have you been?" Gu Luo was the first to ask Lin Mo about the situation in the Ziyue Palace.

She was very sad and could not hide it. The great ancient divine dynasty had been destroyed, and she had lost her home. She had come to the great Yan divine dynasty.

Now that he saw Lin Mo, he was reminded of the purple Moon Palace. It was still shrouded by a great formation, but it was said that the beautiful silk was still a strong practitioner of the ninth heaven. Her cultivation base had not been taken back and returned to heaven and earth.

"everything is fine in the purple moon palace. it's fine ..." Lin Mo said as he nodded.

He sighed. If it wasn't for the Bai family's help and the formation, the purple Moon Palace would probably be in the same situation now.

Now that he thought about it, the purple Moon Palace was probably the strongest force in the eastern continent ...

brother Lin is truly a genius. Where did you get that formation from? it can actually block natural disasters ...

gu luo's red lips parted slightly. his voice was lively and full of envy.

her black hair fluttered in the wind, and the sadness in her beautiful eyes increased.

Lin Mo sighed when he saw this. A huge dynasty had been destroyed just like that. Anyone would be sad ...

"Why are you here?" Lin Mo asked.

If Gu Luo had also come to attack the Great Yan Dynasty, he would have taken action and taken him down.

"Brother Lin, you don't have to be like this. I was saved by Chen Wu and I'm only staying here temporarily." gu luo explained. he could feel the hostility coming from lin mo, and his face turned pale again.

Lin Mo did not say a word. He glanced at Gu Luo with a sharp gaze. He would not believe a one-sided story.

hehe, brother Lin, you're in a good mood. You're here to help me, right? "

Space split open, and a white-robed youth appeared. He had a gentle smile on his face.

Beside him was a man with an old face. Although he wasn't old, he seemed to have experienced life, old age, illness, and death. It was very strange.

"Chen Wu? Zhen Gu?"

When the two of them appeared, Lin Mo retracted his gaze. Seeing Zhen Gu in the Royal robe and the Imperial Dragon Qi, he finally heaved a sigh of relief.

brother Chen, you're finally here. Otherwise, brother Lin would have attacked me. gu luo chuckled. the misunderstanding was finally resolved.

“Lin Mo, long time no see. Come with me, let’s get to the palace.” Zhen Gu walked over happily, put his arm around Lin Mo’s shoulder, and kept talking.

Lin Mo nodded, and the four of them disappeared from the restaurant.

No one knew what had happened here, and they would not care.

They returned to the Imperial Palace through the spatial crack. There was still a formation here, but it was slightly damaged.

Lin Mo’s soul power even sensed that some experts were secretly peeking at the runes of the formation in search of a way to break it.

“Hmph,” he snorted.

Seeing this, Lin Mo showed no mercy. He raised his hand and pressed down, and the terrifying power blasted him into pieces.

“Who? how did you find out?”

could it be that Chen Wu has broken through? ”

Many people were secretly communicating with each other, not understanding what was happening.

However, when they looked at the Imperial City and saw the person who had attacked, their faces changed.

Oh my God, that’s Lin Mo. Why did he come out of the Ziyue Palace? ”

In the entire Eastern continent, there were very few people who did not recognize Lin Mo. After so many auctions, his name had long since spread throughout the entire Eastern continent.

In the battle outside the purple Moon Palace, Lin Mo had fought against a hundred people by himself, shocking both ghosts and gods. Now that the natural disaster had only subsided temporarily, why was he out?

Furthermore, Great Yan Dynasty was currently under attack. What was Lin Mo's motive for appearing at this time? many people's hearts were beating wildly.

In the Imperial Palace, the oppressive atmosphere was instantly relieved with Lin Mo's arrival. Zhen Gu ordered people to set up a banquet to entertain Lin Mo and Gu Luo.

A large number of delicacies were served. It was only then that Lin Mo realized that there was not a single Nirvana stage practitioner among the people who had come to the banquet ...

"not bad. the spiritual energy of heaven and earth in this wine has increased. if i drink more, my foundation will be better ... "

An old man was chuckling as he held a cup of wine and drank alone.

Even though he appeared to be very optimistic, Lin Mo could still sense the desolation in his eyes.

"Who is he?" Lin Mo was shocked. He had seen through the old man's strong comprehension of the Dao laws.

In other words, he was previously a Nirvana stage practitioner, and his level was not low.

the fifth elder of the Imperial Palace, a Nirvana stage cultivator at the 8th sky. His cultivation was taken back by the natural disaster, so he could only cultivate again. zhen gu sighed.

Even he was not spared. Most of his cultivation had been recovered, and he was now at Dragon Realm level 20.

It could be said that he was the Emperor with the lowest cultivation level in history ...

Seeing Lin Mo look over, the old man chuckled and came over with a glass of wine. He even respectfully asked Lin Mo to teach him the method to break through to the Nirvana stage.

He wanted to find the loopholes in his previous breakthroughs and make up for them.

Lin Mo was secretly in awe of this state of mind. Many people's cultivation had been taken back, and most of them were unable to recover from it and became depressed from then on.

She didn't expect him to be able to sort out his mentality and start cultivating again.

"Senior, you don't have to be so modest. Your understanding of the Nirvana stage is not any weaker than mine. I dare not." Lin Mo raised his wine glass and returned the toast without any hesitation.

However, the old man still shook his head. After asking Lin Mo about his views and understanding of the Nirvana stage, he returned to his seat in satisfaction.

Lin Mo's comprehension had been of great help to him. He seemed to have understood something.

After the banquet, the atmosphere in the Imperial Palace eased up a lot, and the enemies outside did not dare to attack Great Yan Dynasty anymore.

This was because he knew how powerful Lin Mo was. He was one of the few powerful geniuses who had survived the heavenly tribulation and had not lost his cultivation.

"Brother Lin, didn't you suffer any damage?"

Chen Wu and Gu Luo asked Lin Mo. The two of them had also been affected, but it wasn't much. They had only fallen One Sky.

Now that the environment had become more suitable for cultivation, the two of them had improved very quickly and were now at the seventh sky of Nirvana stage.

"I withstood the heavenly Tribulation and gained a lot of benefits from it."

Lin Mo spoke frankly and shared his previous insights for the two to refer to.

the general trend is that the eastern continent will become an existence that is not weaker than the other continents in the future? ”

The two of them were shocked. The catastrophe had destroyed the world. They thought that it was the heavenly Dao looking down on the common people, or that the environment had changed and the eastern land would be completely exhausted.

he didn't expect this to be a new student.

However, the price of this new life was a little too heavy. Their generation had to become the cornerstone of the birth of the golden age.

your understanding is wrong. We're not the foundation, but we're still people in the golden age.

Lin Mo shook his head. He asked the few of them to carefully understand if the bottleneck of their cultivation had become lower. It was very easy to break through the barrier to the next realm.

Moreover, those who had their cultivation taken back would be re-cultivated and could cultivate better.

However, due to the drop in their cultivation, many of them were found and killed by their enemies.

For example, the great ancient divine dynasty had been destroyed.

“That's not right, I still have a question.”

Chen Wu thought of something and said, ” I've heard that the other continents are incomparably huge. The entire Eastern continent combined is not even comparable to a mountain range of the other party ...

He had read many ancient books, wanting to find out the reason for the birth of the catastrophe and why it had ended the future of his generation.

Although he did not find out anything, he did find out a lot of information, such as how big the other continents were and how strong the cultivators in them were ...

that's right. The other continents are vast and boundless. The eastern continent can't compare to them.

Lin Mo nodded. If Bai Luo had not told him before, he might have thought that even if the eastern continent was weak, its area would not be much smaller than the other continents.

"Why is it like this?" Zhen Gu asked out of curiosity.

His talent was mediocre, and it was impossible for him to leave the eastern continent in this life. However, he was also very curious.

I don't know. We can only wait for the eastern continent's people to explore it. lin mo shook his head. bai luo had left, and he did not know who to ask.

"Brother Lin, are you going to leave the eastern continent?" Gu Luo was stunned and looked at Lin Mo in shock.

He had heard that the God Devourer body couldn't break through to immortal Foundation in the eastern continent because of a lack of resources.

However, with the continuous emergence of new resources in the eastern Peninsula, Lin Mo might have a chance to break through.

But was he going to leave after breaking through?

"Please keep it a secret for me. When I rise in the future, please help me take care of the purple Moon Palace."

lin mo thought for a long time and decided not to hide anything from the three of them. he believed that they could be trusted.

"Brother Lin, please speak." Chen Wu nodded.

Bai Luo is not from the eastern continent. He came to the eastern continent this time to train. Jiang xiyue and my sister, Lin die, left the eastern continent with him. They should be in the southern continent now ...

Just as Lin Mo said that, Chen Wu and the other two were stunned. Their eyes lit up in shock.

is it hard to accept? but it's the truth. The formation protecting the Ziyue Palace is from a force in the southern land.

Lin Mo chuckled and took a sip of the wine.

They were all talking through voice transmission, so no one else heard them. They only saw Chen Wu and the others looking at Lin Mo in shock.

In fact, Chen Wu and the others were already in a state of shock.

If this news were to spread, it would be enough to shock the entire Eastern continent. No one would be able to calm down.

after thinking about it carefully, bai luo seemed to have appeared suddenly, and no one could find out who she was.

In addition to her talent, it was not an exaggeration to say that she was from the southern land.
