Chapter 541 - 541 Chase After

541 Chase After

as the light dissipated, the herb field disappeared, and so did lin mo and xia you.

on the small island, everyone was extremely confused. what exactly happened?

“Take the spirit herbs yourself, you can’t take the roots away. If you go out, you’ll start a dispute.”

The ancient voice sounded again but no one could find any traces of the five elements Dao fruit tree.

“Bastard, where did you go?”

The ghost king let out a furious roar. Tian Sha was also unwilling to accept this. Why did this happen?

“Thank you for your generosity, Lord Divine Tree.”

Many people at the back bowed respectfully. Although they couldn’t get the divine fruit, there were many spiritual herbs here.

” get lost! are the spiritual herbs here something you can pick? ”

The ghost king snorted coldly and stared at the young men and women not far away.

“You ... Lord Divine Tree allowed me to pick it ...” A young girl opened her eyes wide and tried to explain.

“you can pick them, but you have to be able to bring them out. do what you can.”

Tian Sha said coldly. At this moment, she was filled with killing intent as well. The friendship she had with Lin Mo previously had vanished into thin air.

she had to get the five-element dao fruit. after picking some medicinal herbs, she had to hurry out and look for lin mo.

From the light just now, she could sense the aura of Lin Mo and Xia you. They had been teleported out of this place.

how about we work together? as for the five elements Dao fruit, we can talk about it after we get it.

the ghost king looked at tian sha. the two of them used to be enemies, but now, they felt like they were facing a common enemy.

“Sure.”

Tian Sha nodded and picked a few earth rank spirit herbs with the ghost king, all of which were aged.

However, the two of them did not dare to delay too much. After hurriedly picking a few stalks, they left the place.

“How should we distribute them?”

At this moment, Lin Mo and Xia you were teleported to the peak of a mountain outside the Imperial City of the Great Yan Dynasty.

The two of them looked at the five Element Dao fruit in the middle and did not make a move.

The five Element Dao fruit tree’s words were still ringing in their ears. Don’t kill each other.

In other words, you can fight, but don’t make enemies ...

They couldn’t figure it out, so neither of them knew what to do.

we’ll split it in half. I’ll give you the spirit stones for your half, how about it? ” Holy maiden Xia you spoke.

She did not want to give up on the five-element Dao fruit, but she followed the five-element Dao fruit tree's words and did not become enemies with Lin Mo.

"Do you know how many spirit stones this divine fruit is worth?" Lin Mo rolled his eyes. With so many spirit stones, the divine Secrets Holy Land was probably going to disband.

"Then what do you suggest we do?" Holy maiden Xia you was also in a dilemma. She really had no other choice.

five billion medium spiritual stones, plus the incomplete true Kang technique, the Azure Phoenix technique, and the green Lotus sword spell. What do you think? " She gave another tempting condition, which moved Lin Mo.

"We'll discuss it later. Let's run first ..."

lin mo raised his hand and kept the five elements dao fruit into the system space. the kun peng wings spread out and its speed was maximized.

behind them, the green lotus under saintess xia you's feet spun, emitting special symbols. her speed wasn't much slower than the kun peng wings.

At the very back, tiansha and the ghost king pushed their speed to the limit and pursued madly.

The two of them joined forces to hunt down Lin Mo and Xia you.

Furthermore, the two of them seemed to be using some sort of secret technique to increase their speed, and the distance between them was constantly closing.

you two ignorant juniors, hand over the five elements Dao fruits. The ghost king roared angrily from behind.

"Let's go to the purple Moon Palace first. It's closer."

helplessly, lin mo and xia you turned around and ran toward the purple moon palace. on the way, they met xu fei.

what's going on? you guys got the five elements Dao fruit? "

Xu Fei was being held by Lin Mo as he flew, but his mouth was not idle. He kept asking for the reason.

“Shut up, or I’ll throw you down.”

Holy maiden Xia you was the first to be unable to hold it in. This guy’s mouth was a little smelly, and he didn’t forget to tease her while escaping.

“Cut it out, we’re allies now.” Lin Mo was also helpless. He told Xu Fei to shut up.

“What’s going on?”

Xu Fei was completely dumbfounded as he looked at Lin Mo. He was going to let go of the previous incident?

“There’s a problem. There’s definitely a problem between the two of you ...” Xu Fei still wanted to say something. However, in the next moment, a blood-colored radiance bloomed behind him.

“Don’t chat anymore. Quickly run ...”

Xu Fei was shocked. That was tiansha’s attack. It was just a wisp of spiritual energy, yet it actually contained boundless killing intent.

“Shut your mouth.”

Lin Mo cursed. This fellow’s mouth was really loose. How did he meet this fellow on the road ...

“Hold on a little longer, there’s still two more hours ...”

They had been flying at an extremely fast speed, so they had consumed a lot of spiritual Qi, but the effect was obvious.

they had already flown halfway through the territory of the great yan dynasty, and they would be able to return to the purple moon palace in another two hours.

“Where are you going?”

Suddenly, the void in front of them split open, and two figures appeared.

Tiansha and the ghost king appeared at the same time. They had used some unknown method to catch up.

“construct the teleportation formation.”

Lin Mo threw Xu Fei out and told him to get ready to escape.

He and Xia you attacked at the same time, fighting against Tian Sha and GUI Wang.

“Where are the five elements Dao fruits? hand them over.”

The ghost king said angrily when he saw Lin Mo. He did not waste any time and immediately used his full strength.

“We’ll each take half. You guys have no chance.”

Lin Mo sneered as he spread the kun Peng wings on his back, unleashing his speed to the maximum. No matter how agile the ghost king was, it was difficult for him to injure Lin Mo.

After a while, Lin Mo and Xia you gradually showed signs of fatigue.

After all, the other party’s cultivation level was higher than theirs. Although their battle prowess was stronger, in the long run, they might be defeated.

“Hand over the five elements Dao fruit and I’ll let you go.”

Tian Sha, who noticed the situation, said coldly. She was not willing to fight to the death either.

Both saintess Xia you and Lin Mo had their own trump cards. Once they used them, even they would not dare to face them head-on.

“You two, hurry up and come over.”

At this moment, Xu Fei’s voice rang out. Several formations had already appeared in the distance.

The one in the middle was filled with powerful spatial fluctuations.

“that’s amazing.” he’s a genius in arrays indeed, ” Lin Mo praised. he’s able to set up five arrays of spirit level level 9 in such a short time ...

“Stop them!” The ghost king was shocked. He didn’t expect that a junior he met on the road would have such strength.

“Heavenly immortal art, split open the heavens!”

die! Holy maiden Xia you shouted. A faint green light flashed in her pitch-black eyes. The green Lotus immortal Qi under her feet fluttered as if she was a banished immortal.

the milky-white qi of myriad existences appeared, and the purest and most terrifying power in the world protected him.

Her entire temperament had changed greatly, like a banished immortal in the mortal world, making people Revere her and not allow blasphemy.

“BOOM!”

another crack appeared in the sky, and the heavenly tribulation appeared again. the heavenly lightning fell, striking toward tian sha and the ghost king.

This time, the ghost king couldn't be ignored. Without the evil Qi in his body, he couldn't come back from the extreme.

Qilin steps! Nine heaven shaking steps!

On Lin Mo's side, he also used his killing move. The Qilin mark appeared under his feet, and the killing move of the spiritual beast Qilin appeared.

The complete Qilin steps had nine steps, but Lin Mo could only use four steps. Even so, the four steps that were used to the extreme were still shocking killer moves.

“Bang!”

542

The reclusive heaven's pride

“Clang, clang!”

All of a sudden, many formation flags appeared in the surroundings. The void was cut off, and the teleportation formation that Xu Fei had set up was disrupted.

The battlefield was covered by eight battle flags, forming a trapping array that trapped the few of them.

Lin Mo and Xia you were trapped inside, so the ghost king and Tian Sha did not have to worry about the two of them escaping.

“Who’s making a move?”

Xu Fei shouted in anger. This was the first time he was shocked. There was actually someone who could break his formation.

hehe, I didn’t think that after sleeping for so many years, I’d wake up to meet an array Dao genius.

A chuckle came from the void and three figures appeared. Their auras were as vast as the sea.

“Spiritual array seed?” Holy maiden Xia you was shocked as she looked at the figure at the front.

Since the ancient times, the one who had cultivated the Dao of formations to the extreme had never been Xu Fei.

The divine Secrets sacred land had records that eight thousand years ago, there was a genius who shocked the world with his killing array.

In that era, people even believed that he was an expert who could step into immortal-Foundation.

It was a pity that he eventually fell to the passage of time and failed to break through the last barrier.

the divine Secrets Holy Land doesn’t like it very much. They were enemies in the past. Since you are the saintess, then you are a mortal enemy.

The old man known as the spiritual array seed chuckled and raised his hand, causing array flags to appear around him once more. Array patterns appeared one after another.

in the end, it turned into a fire dragon and attacked xia you.

it's said that the God devouring body is a one-in-a-million body type. Its combat strength is heaven-defying, and it's said to be invincible among its peers.

I'd like to know how much my bloodline will improve after devouring your innate blood essence.

One of the three stepped forward and licked his Scarlet lips. He looked at Lin Mo with eyes full of desire.

"And who are you?" lin mo said in a deep voice.

Each of these three were existences at the peak of the ninth heavenly layer. As long as they had enough resources, they would be able to break through to immortal-Foundation.

it was obvious that tian sha and the ghost king had planned this from the start. the previous battle was just to delay the time for the spiritual array seed to set up a trapping array.

are you treating me like I don't exist? Lin Mo, you guys hold on for a while. Give me half an hour ... Xu Fei was clamoring from outside. He took out array flags one after another, causing them to flutter loudly.

The battle between the array flags helped Xia you out of her predicament. At the same time, it also began to break through this trapping array.

my two little friends, hand over the divine fruits and I'll leave. I can even help you break this formation.

the third person spoke. he was not very eye-catching earlier, but now that he had appeared, lin mo was helpless.

this was an ascetic monk and also a buddha. his wheat-colored skin was quite simple, and lin mo could feel an extremely terrifying power from it.

"And who are you?" lin mo asked again. unsurprisingly, these were all heaven's favorites from thousands of years ago.

However, what surprised him was how these people could live for so long. An ordinary ninth heaven Nirvana stage practitioner could only live for two to three thousand years.

Even if these people were amazing, they should have entered their old age by now. Why were all of them so lively ...

“Back then, they had no hope of breaking through to immortal-Foundation, so they sealed their bodies and entered a state of suspended animation, living to this day.”

holy maiden xia you explained. she sighed. a golden age has appeared, these people have all awakened and are about to break through to immortal-foundation.

The five-element Dao fruits were the ticket to enter the immortal-Foundation Stage, so these five people would not let it go.

In fact, these people would not let her and Lin Mo off.

Whether it was the divine Secrets Holy Land's inheritance or Lin Mo's incomplete divine beast technique, they were both extremely attractive to these people.

that Buddha was the number one genius of the Western religious sect ten thousand years ago. He was known as the person with the strongest Buddhist nature in the eastern continent.

the Golden body he cultivated is indestructible and indestructible. He has reached the pinnacle of his physical body.

Holy maiden Xia you pointed at this Buddha and said. As for the other person, he also shocked her.

that's the number one genius of the eastern land seven thousand years ago. It's the legendary ancient beast, the Taotie.

The Taotie loved to eat and could devour everything, especially the enemy's innate blood essence. When the Taotie opened its mouth, it could even swallow the heaven and earth.

“This is going to be troublesome ...”

Holy maiden Xia you sighed. These five people were all top geniuses who had once ruled an era.

Now, the five of them were attacking at the same time, but she and Lin Mo had yet to cultivate to their peak.

With insufficient realm, the enemy was outnumbered, and escape was an extravagant hope.

“where’s bai luo and jiang xiyue? can’t they come to support us?”

Xia you asked. She remembered that there were two peerless geniuses in the purple Moon Palace, and Bai Luo was even more frightening to her.

Even though he had a mortal body, his talent was not inferior to hers. His combat strength was extraordinary, and she had once wondered if her heaven’s will body had yet to be activated.

” bai luo is not from the eastern continent. he left with jiang xiyue. ” lin mo sighed. if the two of them were here, their situation would indeed be much better.

“So that’s how it is. I was right.” Holy maiden Xia you nodded.

She was not surprised by this result. She had done her calculations before and wanted to see Bai Luo’s Secret.

In the end, she came up empty-handed. After many calculations, she came to the conclusion that there was an extremely powerful person who had deceived heaven’s secrets and prevented Bai Luo from being affected.

there were no experts of this level in the eastern continent for the time being, only in other continents.

“Prepare to fight to the death ...”

Lin Mo sighed helplessly. Was he really going to die this time?

not necessarily. Hold on for a while, preserve our strength, and find a chance to escape. Holy maiden Xia you looked outside the array.

Xu Fei was indeed a genius in formations. In such a short period of time, this trapping array was already almost completely destroyed.

However, with the help of the spiritual array seed, the trapping array was repaired very quickly.

Hmph, you're pretty strong, kid. However, it's four against two. Your cultivation level is not high enough, so you'll definitely lose.

The spiritual array seed sneered. It then looked at the four people behind it and said, "You guys join forces to take them down. We'll split the spoils later."
innread com

He started to focus on resisting. Xu Fei could not be underestimated. Otherwise, if he were to tear apart the formation, Lin Mo and the Xia you Holy maiden would definitely escape.

The battle was about to start.

it had to be said that the combined battle strength of four geniuses that dominated an era was too powerful.

lin mo faced the taotie and the ghost king, each with their own thoughts.

the ghost king had his eyes on him since the start of the feud, and he had the idea of devouring the god body.

The Taotie was even more direct. It wanted to devour Lin Mo's blood essence to cultivate and improve itself.

"Taotie's mouth, swallow heaven and earth."

The Taotie transformed into its demonic beast form. It had the face of a sheep and the body of a human. It had eyes under its armpits, and it had the teeth of a Tiger and the hands of a human. This was the Taotie, a monster.

He opened his bloody mouth and a terrifying suction force appeared. Lin Mo felt as if he was about to suffocate.

the spirit qi in the surroundings disappeared rapidly. even the spirit qi in lin mo's body was also disappearing rapidly.

"Hmph, you want to compete with me in devouring?"

Hmph! Lin Mo snorted and spread out his God devouring body domain, forming a black hole with him as the center.

The black hole's suction force increased dramatically, and the spiritual energy that had disappeared earlier instantly returned. The Taotie's Taotie's mouth was also broken.

The ghost king and the Taotie couldn't stand still and found it difficult to absorb spiritual energy from the air.

is this the God devouring body? I must get it, even if I have to change my body ...

Chapter 543 - ADD

ADD

543 Suspicion and Jealousy

the ghost king smiled greedily. a silver dagger appeared, covered in black energy, and stabbed towards lin mo.

“four cloud pierces.”

die! Lin Mo shouted as the Vermilion Bird Phantom appeared behind him. He merged into it and clashed with the ghost king.

at the same time, the daluo divine sword appeared. lightning filled the sky as it attacked the taotie in the distance.

Oh my God, this person must be a pervert. He's one realm lower, but he can still take the initiative to attack ...

Xu Fei was dumbstruck as he watched everything that was happening within the formation.

On the other side, saintess Xia you was also engaged in a fierce battle. She had activated her heavenly immortal Arts, and her myriad Qi was protecting her body, causing her combat strength to skyrocket.

Although he was surrounded, he was in good condition and was able to exchange blows with the two of them.

However, she had been maintaining the heavenly immortal chant for a long time, and her spiritual energy could no longer take it.

“Hmph, an ant trying to shake a tree, it’s within sight but beyond reach.”

The ghost king sneered. He then circulated his spirit Qi and used his cultivation technique to attack the Vermilion Bird that Lin Mo had merged with.

In the blink of an eye, the Vermilion Bird was blown up, and the place turned into a sea of fire. The temperature of the Vermilion bird’s divine flames was unimaginable, and it could burn mountains and boil the sea.

Even the Taotie didn’t dare to swallow it and retreated.

After the ghost king had destroyed the Vermilion Bird, he did not attack immediately. Instead, he sat cross-legged in the air and stared at the sea of fire.

lin mo was like a trapped beast. although he was struggling intensely, he would not be able to hold on for long.

“Kill!”

the taotie roared in anger. he took out his magic weapon from afar and attacked lin mo.

Without a sound, a silver-white dagger suddenly appeared behind Lin Mo’s back, emitting a cold light.

“Die,”

The Taotie’s Dharma artifact was a giant sword that contained many runes. It slashed from the front.

For a moment, Lin Mo was caught in a pincer attack, and the situation was a little critical.

Lin Mo's eyes turned serious. He could not continue like this.

His eyes flickered as he looked at the battle between the two and made the first decision.

The Daluo divine sword was thrown out, forcing the dagger back. The heaven-splitting sword Qi exploded, suppressing the dagger.

However, Lin Mo was also struck by Taotie's huge sword, and a huge bloody wound appeared on his chest.

A terrifying fluctuation spread out, and the entire world boiled. Sword light surged within the sea of fire, emitting a Supreme divine light.

“Pfft.”

Blood splattered as Lin Mo was hit on the back by Taotie's palm. There was a special symbol on it that devoured some of his blood.

however, he also managed to escape with the help of the palm.

He arrived at the battle zone of Xia you saintess. A Qilin pattern appeared under his feet, and he took four steps in the void.

He stomped on the Buddha's shoulder.

The sudden attack also surprised everyone, and Holy maiden Xia you seized the opportunity immediately.

The green Lotus under his feet burst out with infinite sword Qi, and thousands of sword Qi swept out. Even the Golden body could not withstand it.

Blood bloomed as the Buddha was forced back. His golden body was destroyed as he flew backward and fell heavily.

“Swish!”

At the same time, the kun Peng wings appeared on Lin Mo's back, and he attacked together with Xia you, aiming for Tian Sha.

The true hou claw combined with the Qilin tattoo instantly arrived in front of Tian Sha and attacked him madly.

although the four of them had joined forces, they were fighting on their own and were wary of each other. thus, they seized the opportunity and injured each of them.

“Pfft.”

Tian Sha coughed up blood as he was injured by the two killer moves.

However, at the same time, Lin Mo and Xia you were also attacked. The ghost king’s dagger, which was covered in black energy, finally pierced Lin Mo’s heart.

This was a heavy blow, and the poison instantly spread into Lin Mo’s limbs and bones.

If it was an ordinary person, they would basically be dead after being hit.

However, Lin Mo managed to block it with great difficulty. He circulated the spirit devouring technique and activated the spirit devouring body to absorb all the poison in his body.

But this time, it was very risky. Although they had injured the two of them, he had also been seriously injured by the two of them because he had ignored the attacks of the ghost king and the Taotie.

The Taotie’s bloody mouth bit Lin Mo’s shoulder, sucking away a large amount of blood.

“Hmph, can’t you just not use poison ...”

The Taotie said with a frown after swallowing a few mouthfuls of blood. It had finally found an opportunity, but the blood was poisoned.

He had to use a lot of spiritual energy to dissolve it. Otherwise, if the poison entered his body, he would have been severely injured.

Fighting a tough battle

“You won’t have the chance to recover.”

At that moment, Tian Sha made his move. Both he and the Buddha had recovered from their injuries faster than Lin Mo.

“you’re really willing ...”

Lin Mo gritted his teeth and took a spirit pill to fight. Although he had changed his opponent, Lin Mo was still having a hard time.

hand over the five elements Dao fruit. On account of our past friendship, I’ll help you leave.

Tiansha said coldly. Lin Mo had helped her a few times. Although she did not mind being cursed, she was not really cold-blooded.

“Don’t even think about it. The so-called friendship is just a deal.”

lin mo went berserk and circulated the spirit devouring technique at full force. with the daluo divine sword in his hand, he began to fight for his life.

The 16-meter golden body appeared once again and engaged in close combat with Lin Mo.

He was now extremely resentful of Lin Mo. They had been fighting well, but Lin Mo had suddenly intervened and caused him to be seriously injured.

“boom!”

Lin Mo’s physical body collided with the Golden body, and a violent explosion rang out.

tiansha released a heaven-shaking blood qi and attacked. the sword light of the daluo divine sword could not block it and pierced through it.

Lin Mo was injured again after the exchange of blows, and he staggered backward.

that's it. Attack with all your might. I'll help you with the formation.

the spiritual array seed was attacking from a distance, and at this time, it was no longer just watching. if he delayed any longer, things might change, so it was best to deal with it as soon as possible.

“BOOM!”

Once again, Lin Mo used the Qilin steps to the extreme, killing the sixteen-foot golden body and finally blowing it up.

The Buddha had lost an arm, and Tian Sha was also injured. The Daluo divine sword had left many sword marks on Tian Sha.

“pfft.”

Fresh blood spurted out again. Lin Mo was severely injured once again. Many parts of his body were mangled, and the injuries that he had tried so hard to heal were once again injured.

“Now, let's kill one first.”

The spiritual array seed hurriedly said. He couldn't care about maintaining the array anymore and hurried over, gathering spiritual energy in his palm.

“Kill!”

The ghost king also broke away from Xia you's obstruction and shot out his Silver Dagger, aiming for Lin Mo's forehead.

“Die,”

Tiansha also made its move. Blood Qi filled the air and Lin Mo's body trembled violently.

suddenly, there was a loud boom. The formation that enveloped this place shattered.

The void split open, and a Golden Path appeared. A terrifying battle prowess erupted, shattering the formation.

At the same time, the power spread in and helped Lin Mo block the killing moves of the few people.

“The violet spirit guards.”

The ghost king was shocked. This Army had become even stronger, and most of them had broken through to the Nirvana stage.

Such a terrifying Army formed a battle formation and looked down on everyone.

Lin Mo laughed bitterly. He was seriously injured this time ...

“Lin Mo, how are you?”

Two anxious voices were heard. Two figures flew over under the shroud of battle intent.

The two of them were damask and Luo Haoyu. They had arrived with their troops, and fortunately, they were not late.

“You’re heavily injured, quickly heal.”

Luo Haoyu urged as he took out a spirit pill and spirit medicine for Lin Mo to consume.

“Aunty, elder Luo, your strength ...”

When Lin Mo saw the two of them, his heart was filled with self-blame.

The foundation of these two people was not strong enough. When they come out, their realms would definitely be retracted. Now, they were only at the sixth sky of Nirvana realm ...

“We’re fine. We can go up through cultivation.”

Qi Luo shook her head indifferently. The most important thing now was Lin Mo’s injury.

“How can it be so fast?” The ghost king and the others were furious. This had completely exceeded their expectations.

He had originally thought that everything was under control, but in the end, there was still a change.

They even predicted that another peerless genius, Tang Ling, would come to help them before they attacked.

However, he didn't expect the purple spirit guards from the purple Moon Palace to come to his rescue. This was impossible.

Even for people of their strength, it would take about two hours to get here from the purple Moon Palace at full speed.

Not to mention the slow marching speed of the Army, it would take at least a few days to get out of the Ziyue Palace ...

"I say, have you all forgotten about the existence of yours truly?"

At this moment, Xu Fei, who had been keeping a low profile all this while, finally couldn't hold it in any longer.

He laughed out loud and told them the truth.

With the existence of the spiritual array seed, he couldn't break the array, so he could only secretly set up a teleportation array to connect to the purple Moon Palace's teleportation array.

After such a long delay, the violet spirit guards had finally arrived.

"There was a scare but no danger ..."

Lin Mo smiled and called saintess Xia you over. With the protection of the violet spirit guards, the ghost king and the others would have to pay a heavy price if they wanted to attack.

"Vice Palace Lord, what's next?"

Yang Feng stepped forward and saluted. He was furious when he saw Lin Mo's injuries and wanted to kill these people.

"Let's retreat first. We can't hold them back."

Lin Mo shook his head. The most important thing now was to return to the purple Moon Palace.

unless the battle formation of an expert on the level of the ghost king was terrifying to a certain extent, there was no way to completely take down the other party.

If he really wanted to leave, he wouldn't be able to stop him without an expert of the same level.

in addition, spread the news that the purple Moon Palace will be auctioning the five elements Dao fruit in three days. Many experts are invited to come and bid.

Lin Mo chuckled and asked damask to help pass the message.

Very quickly, the news of an intense battle had been leaked. Some of the mercenary groups in the mountain range had sensed the energy fluctuations from a distance.

When he saw the mighty Purple spirit guards, he understood what had happened.

The news spread and caused a huge uproar.

At the same time, the news of the purple Moon Palace auctioning the five elements Dao fruit spread, shocking many people.

The auction held by the purple Moon Palace a few years ago could be said to have entered the history books. However, the auction of the five-element Dao fruit had refreshed everyone's knowledge.

is this for real? this is the fruit of a heaven grade Divine Tree. Isn't Lin Mo tempted? he's actually going to auction it? ” it's said that he and saintess Xia you obtained it together. I guess they'll auction it for a price and then split it equally between the two of them.

I think the buyer is Holy maiden Xia you. It's an internal agreement ...

it's still worth a look. There must be a lot of good treasures.

the world was in a clamor. the purple moon palace had once again become the focus of the eastern peninsula. the hailing city had been almost completely destroyed.

Now that it was being rebuilt, the scale had more than doubled.

When saintess Xia you arrived at the purple Moon Palace, she was shocked by the great array here. This kind of array could deceive heaven's secrets.

She had the Heaven's Will physique, and it would be difficult for her to unleash her full strength here. It might even be reduced.

"I wonder which expert made this ..."

Saintess Xia you sighed. Lin Mo was also very lucky to be able to meet the geniuses of other continents. His future was bright.

"Saintess, feel free to bid for the auction. Just give me half of the price."

Lin Mo smiled. The ownership of the five elements Dao fruit had been decided. At the auction price, Xia you would pay Lin Mo half of the spirit stones.

"many thanks, brother lin." Xia you did not reject him, and simply laughed.

lin mo needed spirit stones while she needed five-element dao fruits. this was the best way to distribute them.

"The auction will be hosted by you guys. I need to go into seclusion, so I'll take my leave."

After giving his instructions, Lin Mo headed to the treasure vault of the purple Moon Palace and chose to cultivate in seclusion there.

there was an endless collection of spiritual stones here. especially after the golden age, several mines under the name of the purple moon palace had also undergone qualitative changes.

He had accumulated enough resources to attempt to break through to the ninth sky of Nirvana stage ...

The six paths of reincarnation scroll

“I’ve finally reached this step. Should I break through to immortal-foundation in one go?”

Lin Mo was sitting cross-legged in the treasure vault. His body was still covered in blood and his injuries had not fully recovered. He had not been recuperating during this period of time.

He wanted to use his injuries to activate the Nirvana of real phoenixes and break through to the ninth heaven of Nirvana stage in the most perfect way.

” Right, I haven’t seen what great opportunities the Bai Luo clan has given me. ”

Lin Mo suddenly recalled that Bai Luo had given him a scroll in the past and asked him to open it when he was qualified to break through to the immortal-Foundation realm.

“The current me is almost qualified.”

With sufficient resources, his God Devourer body would be able to break through. Lin Mo unfurled the scroll without hesitation.

In an instant, a beam of light shone between Lin Mo’s brows, and a message was transmitted into his mind.

It was only at this moment that he realized what kind of treasure he had obtained ...

the scroll of six Dao of reincarnation. It contains the true meaning of reincarnation. It can turn back time and comprehend the Dao of reincarnation ...

Lin Mo was shocked. The more he read the scroll, the more shocked he became. There was a secret technique recorded in it, which was also a small world.

It contained Dao laws and could accommodate living beings, allowing them to grow. If one cultivated within it, one would be able to comprehend the true meaning of reincarnation. A single thought would be eternal ...

There weren't any resources here, only endless spiritual Qi.

The Bai clan wanted him to cultivate in there and comprehend the cycle of reincarnation. Although it was dry and boring, breaking through to immortal Foundation in this way would bring him unimaginable benefits.

moreover, one won't be possessed by the devil when cultivating in there. Even if one dies, one can also go back in time and return to the time before the closed-door training ...

This was the most shocking treasure he had ever seen. Even in other continents, it would be a treasure that would shock the world.

"hmm, it's not the real thing, but a copy?"

As he observed, Lin Mo noticed something unusual. The spirit Qi inside was not endless.

It was enough for him to break through to immortal-Foundation, and there was still some left, but not much left ...

you gave me a fright. I thought the Bai family would be willing to give me such a precious treasure ...

Lin Mo laughed regretfully, but he was relieved. The value of this item was still immeasurable.

One would not be able to sense the passage of time if they cultivated in it. A hundred years in there might be as long as an instant in the outside world. This was the true meaning of reincarnation.

I can't waste such a good place. I have to hurry up and cultivate.

Lin Mo smiled and entered the scroll. The scroll disappeared in a flash of light.

Outsiders would not be able to detect it, unless an expert with an extraordinary realm came ...

After entering, Lin Mo suppressed his joy and calmed himself down before starting to cultivate.

He took out a spirit stone and started to cultivate. He circulated the spirit devouring technique and began to absorb the surrounding spiritual Qi.

It was a wonderful place. Lin Mo could not feel the passage of time, as if time had stopped.

“So mysterious, so terrifying ...”

Lin Mo exclaimed in surprise because he could clearly feel the true meaning of reincarnation, but he could not understand it ...

However, he could feel that time was being limited and flowing very slowly.

God devouring body, activate it at full power. Devour life force and temper your body. I will burn my body with Dao fire and forge an unparalleled Foundation.

Brimming with confidence, Lin Mo closed his eyes tightly and began his breakthrough.

The small world was silent, and only the Dao fire burned.

“boom!”

All of a sudden, a circle of black light appeared around Lin Mo's body. Like a black hole, it swept out.

The spiritual stones around him turned into ashes at a speed visible to the naked eye. He quickly fell silent and his breath dissipated, like a real phoenix rising from the ashes.

Blood Qi spread out, and the heavenly melody of the great Dao seemed to appear in the small world.

This scene was quite magical. Lin Mo seemed to have really turned into a real phoenix, struggling in the Dao fire and enduring the crushing of the Dao law.

in the end, his resistance was burned by the surging dao laws and he disappeared completely as if he was dead.

Thousands of runes flickered, and rays of dazzling light appeared. They turned into threads and threads, sewing and mending, wrapping Lin Mo within.

In the end, the Dao laws interweaved, and Lin Mo turned into an egg. The Dao fire burned, and the God devouring body continued to devour everything.

“Crack ...”

a tiny crack appeared, and blood seeped out of it. however, it was quickly burned by the dao fire.

Inside the egg, Lin Mo was in a miserable state.

His entire body was covered in blood, but it quickly formed scabs under the high temperature, fell off, and turned into ashes. In the end, new wounds appeared, and fresh blood appeared again ...

if it wasn't for the god devourer body constantly devouring spirit qi and providing him with endless vitality, he would have burned himself to death.

Every time the God Devourer body broke through, it was accompanied by unparalleled pain.

This was the pain he was experiencing now. The last Nirvana in the Nirvana stage was extremely tragic.

He even used the true Phoenix's Nirvana technique, which could be considered a complete Nirvana. He cut off everything and started from scratch.

[ congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the sixth level spiritual grade magic weapon, the green peak ruler. ]

[ successfully triggered 3000-fold auction interest return ]

[ congratulations to the host for obtaining the spirit grade rank 7 heaven transformation ruler ]

At this moment, a familiar voice sounded in Lin Mo's ears. After an unknown amount of time, the auction outside had finally begun.

He obtained one treasure after another that could bring him back interest, and he chose to devour them.

This was also the reason why he chose Nirvana.

There were so many treasures being auctioned, and there were even five-element Dao fruits. If he had a few more of these Supreme treasures, he could even break through to immortal-Foundation.

begin! All of your cultivation will be destroyed.

Lin Mo made up his mind and instantly cut off the 8th sky of Nirvana realm cultivation that he had cultivated for many years.

waves of intense pain came from his dantian, almost causing him to withdraw from his cultivation state.

from nothing to something, to cultivate from scratch, this ... is it also considered reincarnation?"

In a daze, Lin Mo felt as if his soul had caught hold of something, but it quickly disappeared.

After that, he didn't know anything else. He could only feel that something was entering his mind, but he couldn't see through it.

Perhaps these insights would be helpful in his future cultivation, but he had not used them yet ...

"BOOM!"

A loud boom resounded as Dao laws appeared around Lin Mo's egg. They continuously cleansed Lin Mo as he forged his Supreme Foundation.

With the protection of the true Phoenix's Nirvana technique as the furnace, he himself as the material, and the God devouring body devouring the spiritual energy of all things as the fire.

The furnace was formed and contained the universe within. Wisps of chaotic mist appeared and it was very mysterious.

Outside the furnace, there was an endless amount of spirit Qi and some special Dao laws.

The God devouring mantra was quietly evolving, deducing the Supreme law. For a time, tens of thousands of rumbling sounds resonated with the God devouring mantra.

this place began to boil, and the strange phenomenon that was produced shook the entire small world.

In the outside world, it was only the day of Lin Mo's closed-door cultivation. In the evening, the three armies of the purple Moon Palace were waiting in formation.

The auction was still going on, and it had already reached the most critical moment.

the last auction item is a divine fruit given by the heaven grade Divine Tree, the five elements Dao fruit.

Damask was the host of the auction. She didn't have much experience in auctions, but since the items being auctioned were all precious treasures, she didn't need much experience.

the starting price is 500000 upper spiritual stones, and each bid must be no less than 10000 upper spiritual stones.

The appearance of such a high price also shocked the people. Many people shook their heads in regret.

Who could afford such a high price?

Chapter 546 - 546 Difficult Breakthrough

546 Difficult Breakthrough

“Five to one hundred thousand.”

Someone opened the door of the private room at the very front, and Holy maiden Xia you walked out, stating the price.

510000 upper spiritual stones! That's 5.1 billion medium spiritual stones! The divine Secrets Holy Land is indeed rich ...

Some people sighed. This kind of price was directly a few streets ahead of others.

"Five hundred and fifty thousand." At this moment, a young man walked out from another private room and slowly spoke.

"Isn't that the crown prince of the Lu golden divine dynasty?"

Shush, don't talk about it. The Lu golden divine dynasty destroyed the great ancient divine dynasty some time ago and is in the limelight.

The friend beside the man quickly stopped him. It was better for the lower-class people like them not to participate in the competition between the top forces.

"Six hundred thousand."

Xia you spoke again, looking at the Crown Prince without saying anything.

She naturally knew what the Lu golden divine dynasty was relying on. Perhaps one or two of the ghost King's Group were standing behind them.

This was also the reason why the great ancient divine dynasty had been destroyed so quickly.

Now that he was bidding, he was naturally bidding for the person behind him. He just didn't know who it was.

"Six hundred and fifty thousand."

"Seven hundred thousand."

The price continued to rise, and the crowd was shocked. 50000 upper spiritual stones, and he increased the price just like that ...

"Why do I feel like glory world is here, but it doesn't seem to have anything to do with us?"

Some of the cultivators were speechless. The heavenly Tribulation had taken back most of their cultivation, but they were able to cultivate up very quickly.

on the other hand, although their talents had increased, it was still difficult for them to surpass those people.

The title of the eastern continent's proud Son of Heaven was still firmly in the hands of Holy maiden Xia you and Lin Mo.

“A million ...”

The price continued to rise, and finally reached a million upper spiritual stones.

at this point, even the divine secrets holy land could no longer ignore it.

Although he could afford to fork out these spirit stones, he had also suffered a great loss.

Not to mention that it was a Golden Age now, and the consumption of spirit stones was even more ...

“One million once.”

“One million twice.”

damask did not have any apprehensions. she struck the hammer twice in a row. seeing that the crown prince of the lu golden divine dynasty had not made a bid, she struck the hammer for the third time without hesitation.

one million going thrice. Sold. Congratulations, saintess Xia you, for successfully winning the five elements Dao fruit.

As soon as she finished, Lu Jinshen stood up and was stunned on the spot before he could bid.

“Bastard, why are you shouting so fast?”

Lu Jinshen shouted at the Crown Prince. He looked at damask, but his face was already pale.

He had been ordered to come here. If he could not take the five elements Dao fruit, the entire God dynasty would be destroyed ...

who asked you to dawdle? the auction has ended, and the finale item belongs to Holy maiden Xia you. If you want to buy it, go to her.

With that, damask threw the five elements Dao fruit in front of Xia you.

She wasn't worried that someone would snatch it from her.

After all, the few people in the world who could fight with Xia you were not here.

The ghost king and the others were blocked outside by the formation and were forbidden from entering.

even if they were allowed to enter, they would not dare to. otherwise, once the formation was activated, the purple spirit guards and the flame god army would be able to make them stay.

“Many thanks ...”

saintess xia you chuckled and threw out an interspatial ring, which contained half of the auction price.

At this point, the five elements Dao fruit was completely hers.

without hesitation, she placed it in front of everyone and bit it lightly.

As soon as the crystal-clear fruit entered his mouth, it turned into divine light and fused into his body.

The fragrance of the five elements Dao fruit filled the air, and in no time, Xia you had finished the fruit.

“That's it?”

Some people were puzzled. It was 10 billion medium spiritual stones! It was gone just like that. There was no effect after eating it?

what do you know? this is the foundation of the immortal casting path, and everything is progressing in a subtle manner.

“When I break through to immortal-Foundation, that will be the time when the medicinal effects of this divine fruit will erupt. There will be great benefits to it.”

people were envious. at the same time, they were guessing whether holy maiden xia you's talent would be even stronger after swallowing the five element dao fruit.

“Chi ...”

Suddenly, Dao laws appeared on Xia you’s body, and her aura fluctuated.

“He’s about to break through?”

everyone was shocked. she had just eaten the divine fruit and she was about to break through to the ninth heaven of nirvana stage ...

I want to know if the current Holy maiden Xia you is the most powerful person in the eastern continent. Someone gathered his courage and said.

I don’t think so. Lin Mo is also in closed-door cultivation. After the spirit stones are sent over, he will be able to break through.

“That’s right, I’m more optimistic about Lin Mo.”

I think Holy maiden Xia you is stronger ...

there were different opinions, and everyone had their own opinions. at this time, the two main characters were both in seclusion.

Saintess Xia you was cultivating in seclusion in a secret room of the purple Moon Palace. She was about to break through.

Meanwhile, Lin Mo had already re-cultivated to the Nirvana realm in the small world.

“I don’t have enough spiritual energy ...”

While he was cultivating, Lin Mo felt that he was running out of spirit Qi. The resources he had brought in were about to be exhausted.

congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the five elements Dao fruit.

[ successfully triggered 3000-fold auction interest return ]

“I’m going to use the opportunity to get a 10000-fold interest return.” Lin Mo quickly said when he heard the system’s voice.

[ triggered 10000 times interest return ]

congratulations to the host for obtaining the five elements Dao fruit.

Although it was a 10000-fold interest, it was still a five-element Dao fruit without a grade.

Perhaps Lin Mo was not powerful enough, so the system could not detect his level.

However, Lin Mo could sense that this five-element Dao fruit was many times stronger than the previous one.

He immediately began to refine it, and a steady stream of spiritual Qi spread throughout his body and merged into the Dao fire.

The cauldron also received power and became even more indestructible.

The Dao fire burned even more intensely as Lin Mo underwent Nirvana once again.

However, such a terrifying cultivation method had also caused him to be riddled with holes. His body was crushed by the great Dao and almost collapsed.

Under the burning of the Dao fire, his entire body suffered from the painful torment, again and again.

The pain this time was far greater than before. It was extremely terrifying and difficult to withstand.

Lin Mo fell unconscious a few times and was eventually woken up by the true meaning of Samsara. He returned to the time before he fell unconscious and went through the torture again.

Fortunately, his will was strong enough. He had been tortured by the God devouring body for many years, so he was used to it.

But even so, he was almost burned to death several times. The risk of breaking through was unimaginable.

“BOOM!”

In the end, the cauldron exploded, and the energy of the five elements Dao fruit was completely devoured.

The terrifying energy almost caused Lin Mo to explode. His body cracked, and endless Dao laws ran out of the cracks.

With the true Phoenix's Nirvana technique broken, the energy was too strong, and Lin Mo suffered unimaginable pain.

He felt bitter in his heart, but he still persevered. If the furnace was broken, he would use his body to resist the fire of the way.

he howled in pain as he was burned, and his aura rose crazily.

This was the God Devourer body's breakthrough. Every time it was a close call, there were no shortcuts.

Perhaps the Heaven's Will Constitution didn't need to be like this. It was a Constitution that had great opportunities and luck. It wouldn't be so fierce and domineering when breaking through to the next realm.

After an unknown period of time, the Dao fire gradually extinguished. Lin Mo felt as if he had been burned for hundreds of years ...

And his current stage was still at the ninth sky of Nirvana stage ...

At this moment, Jiang xiyue had already left the purple Moon Palace's main hall, leaving Lin Mo alone in the main seat.

Damask told him everything that had happened in the past five months.

With the arrival of the golden age, only the purple Moon Palace and the divine Secrets Holy Land remained intact from the original major factions.

The Yan Huang God dynasty was heavily injured and was completely destroyed. Some of the people who survived escaped into the boundless mountains and disappeared.

The Lu golden divine dynasty had been destroyed by the ghost king and the others in a fit of anger because they had not been able to obtain the five-element Dao fruit.

The Great Yan Dynasty had also suffered heavy losses, but because it was adjacent to the purple Moon Palace, it did not suffer too many attacks.

Gu Luo also found some survivors of the great ancient divine dynasty.

She discussed with Zhen Gu and decided to merge the two countries, establish the Yuntian business group, and tighten the defense line. Finally, they managed to hold the original Imperial City and changed it to Cloud City.

“Aunty, is it really not dangerous for elder Luo to go out?”

On the main seat, Lin Mo’s brows were tightly furrowed. He had not expected that he would take so long to cultivate.

Right now, he was already at the peak of the 9th sky of the Nirvana realm and was just one step away from immortal-Foundation.

Saintess Xia you had broken through to the ninth heaven three months ago and returned to the divine Secrets Holy Land.

During this period of time, even Xu Fei was comprehending the Dao by observing the formation. He had gained a lot and had broken through to the level nine realm.

with Xu Fei and Holy maiden Xia you around, there shouldn’t be any problems.

Damask answered after a moment of thought.

It all started two months ago. The catastrophe in the eastern Peninsula had been completely over.

After the catastrophe, various forces were born like bamboo shoots after a rain. Unknown experts rose one by one.

The eastern continent began to prosper. Nirvana stage cultivators began to appear in large numbers, no longer as rare as before.

What Lin Mo was worried about was that at the same time the calamity ended, the Dao seeking forbidden ground at the center of the eastern continent would change.

It was a forbidden area in the center of the eastern Peninsula. People knew that this forbidden area was not simple.

However, because there was no danger in this place and it was just a medicinal garden, no one cared about it.

The reason why it was mysterious was because cultivating in it was of great help to one's enlightenment.

It was a pity that everyone could only cultivate in it once in their lives.

after the calamity passed, the Dao seeking forbidden ground is filled with chaotic spatial currents. It is said that there is an opportunity to break through to immortal-Foundation there. I wonder if it's true ...

Lin Mo frowned. If the purple Moon Palace had not been involved this time, he had even planned to continue his closed-door cultivation and break through to immortal-Foundation in one go.

However, Xu Fei had said that he wanted to join the purple Moon Palace and was very interested in the Dao seeking forbidden area. Elder Luo could only follow him and try his luck.

"Do you want to go and take a look?" Said beautiful silk with a faint smile.

The only person in the entire Eastern continent who could threaten Lin Mo now was probably Holy maiden Xia you.

The two of them seemed to have turned from enemies to friends. If they joined forces, wouldn't the eastern continent be free?

"I have to go and at least bring elder Luo back ..."

After making his decision, Lin Mo left immediately. Beautiful silk had originally planned to follow him, but Lin Mo had rejected her.

With the birth of the golden age, many new faces came to the purple Moon Palace, including many unruly strong men.

However, they were still under the jurisdiction of the former elders of the purple Moon Palace.

The reason for this was because of Luo Haoyu and Damask, the two ninth heaven Nirvana stage powerhouses.

In addition to Lin Mo's prestige, they were intimidated.

If all of them left, these people would not listen to the arrangement so easily.

"Don't worry, aunty. I'll bring them back safely."

Waving goodbye, Lin Mo activated the teleportation formation and traveled through the space tunnel.

The center of the eastern land was millions of miles away from the purple Moon Palace. They ran at full speed and passed through many teleportation formations.

After spending two days, Lin Mo finally arrived at the entrance to the Dao seeking forbidden area.

"Sigh, someone else has come. Why don't they listen to my advice ..."

Lin Mo's arrival caused the people outside the forbidden area to sigh. Someone else had come. They wondered how many days this person could live in the forbidden area.

"Eh, that person is so young and so powerful ..."

"Which sacred land is this genius from?"

Some people were shocked. They could feel the deep and terrifying aura from Lin Mo.

I'm guessing it's the recently rising sky opening Holy Land. I heard that they've chosen a Saint who's already at the eighth sky of Nirvana realm at the age of twenty.

"It's hard to say. It could be the myriad beast Holy Land."

Everyone chimed in, and Lin Mo was completely confused.

'Are these the newly born forces? the news has spread so quickly ...'

"No, that's Lin Mo, the palace Master of the purple Moon Palace ..."

Suddenly, a middle-aged man recalled that Lin Mo had disappeared for almost half a year.

Many people thought that he had died because he failed to break through, or that he did not have enough spiritual stones and was still in seclusion.

Everyone had their own speculations.

However, no one had expected Lin Mo to appear. From the looks of it, he had clearly succeeded in his breakthrough.

"Ah ..."

Suddenly, a scream came from the Dao seeking forbidden ground.

People looked over and saw a small team being teleported near the entrance for no reason. The next moment, they were hit by a void crack.

Everyone was instantly cut in half at the waist, and no one survived.

"It's that terrifying?"

Some people were scared out of their wits. This spatial Rift was strange and unpredictable, and could easily take a person's life.

let's go. We might not be able to get the opportunity. Our lives are more important.

Some of the people who were planning to enter retreated and left without looking back.

No matter what kind of opportunities were inside, it was best to keep his life.

Of course, there was also a group of people who did not want to give up. They looked at Lin Mo. In their impression, Lin Mo was not the kind of person who was evil.

Even if they were not protected by him, they would not be driven away.

It seemed possible to let Lin Mo resolve the crisis at the forefront ...

What if they were to obtain heaven-defying fortunes by following Lin Mo? they would be able to rise completely in this Golden Age and create a Holy Land.

“There’s an earth rank spirit herb hidden there ...”

Lin Mo looked at the place where the previous team had died. They had been teleported here.

With his keen spiritual sense, he discovered the universe behind the crack.

He walked forward, and in the next moment, a silver-white light slashed at him, brushing past his face.

It was extremely dangerous. The silver light cut off a strand of Lin Mo’s hair and almost beheaded him.

However, those who followed behind him and wanted to pick up the scraps were in a miserable state.

The silver light slashed across, and more than half of the people were split into two, their blood splashing everywhere.

If they were lucky, their souls wouldn’t be injured. It wasn’t a fatal injury, and they could just use spirit medicine to reattach their bodies.

As for the unlucky ones, their foreheads were sliced open, and their souls were scattered.

Lin Mo turned his head. this silver light is a crack in the chaotic flow of space. Even immortal-foundation experts might not be able to block it. You guys better take care of yourselves.

After saying that, he spread his kun Peng wings and disappeared into a spatial crack.

The people behind looked at each other, each of them hesitant.

“Eh, where are the earth rank spirit herbs?”

Lin Mo’s figure had just appeared when he was shocked. He was in a void without any signs of life.

In this place, even the spiritual energy was very thin, so it was impossible for spiritual herbs to grow.

it seems like I've been teleported to another place ...

He mumbled and recalled carefully. He found that when he entered the space crack, the space shook irregularly.

It was at that time that he had entered the wrong space ...

"No, there's a formation blocking the way ahead. I can't get in ..." Lin Mo shook his head.

He searched around and found a few spatial cracks. Some were very dangerous, while others were passages to leave the forbidden area.

And the passageway that went deep inside was sealed by a Grand array.

This formation was very profound. It borrowed the power of the endless void to obstruct people from entering.

no, many people have successfully entered. There must be another way.

Lin Mo muttered to himself. Nothing could withstand the passage of time. This formation might seem powerful, but there must be a loophole. Perhaps he could enter from another place.

He left this place and re-entered. He tried many passages, but he couldn't pass through them.

He even saw the corpses of living beings in some of the passages.

Those who failed to break in would either be killed by the spatial cracks or be killed by the formation.

“Ninth heavenly layer of Nirvana stage ...”

Lin Mo’s heart skipped a beat as he saw a ninth heaven Nirvana stage practitioner among them.

It was an unfamiliar face. He didn’t expect that such a powerful expert would be born in this period of time.

He casually took out a spirit level magical treasure and threw it at the formation.

As soon as it got close, the void trembled and formed a torrent that completely shattered the magical equipment.

“Sigh, how did they get in ...”

Lin Mo sighed. He had tried so many places, but all of them were hopeless.

He continued his search and spent nearly a day passing through thousands of space tunnels before he finally found a safe place. innread.com

After passing through the spatial tunnel, he successfully entered the Dao seeking forbidden ground.

When he arrived, he saw another scene.

There were many people here, but the so-called danger did not appear. Instead, it was a peaceful atmosphere.

“What’s the situation?”

Lin Mo, who had thought that he would encounter all sorts of danger when he first entered, had instead discovered this situation ...

this is great! Another expert has entered. We’re one step closer to breaking the barrier.

A middle-aged man saw Lin Mo and nodded in satisfaction. He said something that Lin Mo could not understand.

“What do you mean?” He asked.

“Fellow Daoist, please take a look.” The middle-aged man asked the crowd to make way for him. After a few futons, there was a spatial barrier.

Behind the barrier was the elixir field, which was full of vitality. There were even some spiritual herbs wriggling slowly.

This scene shocked Lin Mo. A spirit herb that could move.

Sky rank spirit herbs would gain sentience and could avoid danger. These spirit herbs were obviously evolving in that direction.

“There are so many of them. Moreover, there are some whom I don’t know ...”

After looking around for a while, Lin Mo’s eyes widened. This was a treasure trove. It was simply unbelievable.

“That’s luck path grass?”

Lin Mo cried out in shock. He had seen something incredible. It was a three-meter-tall blade of grass with luxuriant branches and leaves, even taller than a tree.

that’s right, luck path grass. This is a luck path grass that can nurture countless geniuses. At this age, its value is no less than that of a heaven level divine medicine. The middle-aged man laughed.

It was a pity that the herb field was blocked by a barrier, and it was extremely difficult to get over.

It wasn’t just the luck path grass. At a glance, it was filled with spirit herbs. Even spirit grade herbs were rare here.

Those below the spirit grade had even been reduced to weeds ...

“How do I enter?” Lin Mo asked. These people were guarding this place and not going in. It seemed like this barrier was not simple.

it’s like this. Comprehending Dao on this futon can weaken the strength of the barrier. After reaching a certain level, you can break through it by force.

The middle-aged man said as he pointed to a futon, indicating for Lin Mo to go over and study it.

everyone can only comprehend it once, and you can't leave after comprehending it. Otherwise, you'll have wasted an opportunity.

Some people explained to Lin Mo, while others looked at Lin Mo in confusion, feeling that his face was a little familiar.

"Alright," he said.

Lin Mo did not suspect anything after listening to their introductions. He walked to a futon and sat down cross-legged.

"Buzz."

When he first started to comprehend the Dao, Lin Mo could feel that this place contained extremely pure Dao laws.

This place was definitely a cultivation treasure land that ordinary people could not imagine.

this person is so talented. He triggered such a phenomenon at the beginning! The middle-aged man was shocked. He looked at the others, and a few more people walked up and nodded to each other.

Behind them, someone was still deep in thought. He stared at Lin Mo's face and found it more and more familiar.

At the same time, the men behind Lin Mo had already drawn their weapons and were aiming at Lin Mo.

"Wait a minute ... He is ..."

"Qiang!"

Someone at the back thought of something and wanted to stop him, but it was too late.

A divine sword emitting divine light exploded and cut these people's Dharma artifacts in half.

Lin Mo's eyes snapped open and he sneered.

When he was sitting on the futon, he could already feel the stench of blood.

It was the smell of the blood essence of living beings. There had been a battle here, so it couldn't be so peaceful.

"He is Lin Mo ..."

"We're finished ..."

A few people recognized Lin Mo, but they were too late. They had already made their move, and their faces were pale.

"So it was premeditated. Tell me, what happened?"

Lin Mo held the Daluo divine sword in his hand and looked at these people coldly. Were they trying to kill him and take his blood essence?

"Sir, please spare our lives. We didn't do anything."

The group of people behind him knelt on the ground one after another, their bodies trembling as they felt a chill from the depths of their hearts.

There was no lack of powerhouses among them. There were four people who had fought before, and they were all powerhouses at the eighth sky of Nirvana realm.

However, against Lin Mo, he had no way of fighting back at all. His magic tool was destroyed immediately.

"He didn't make a move, but killing intent arose in him. He deserves to be killed."

Lin Mo's expression was cold. He waved his hand, and a sword beam burst forth. The few people who were begging for mercy were instantly shattered, not even their souls could escape.

He looked at the four people in front of him and said coldly, "Tell me, what happened?"

In the end, these few people explained that they were the first batch of people to enter, and they came from a newly established sect.

However, everyone in the sect had been killed by Lin Mo.

They explained that when they first arrived, the strongest formation master in the eastern continent, Ling zitian, was also present.

The spiritual array seed said that as long as they sacrificed enough blood essence, they would be able to break the barrier.

What happened next was that these people pretended to be harmonious and tricked others into coming to comprehend.

He sneaked an attack from behind and killed him, then took out his blood essence as a sacrifice.

After understanding everything, Lin Mo killed these people without holding back.

However, he didn't have any thoughts of capturing people and sacrificing them. He knew that he wasn't a good person, but he wouldn't be an evil person either. He wouldn't do things like killing innocent people.

Looking at the barrier in front of him, Lin Mo gradually fell into deep thought.

He couldn't leave this place easily, because he didn't know where he would be teleported to the next time he came in.

However, he only knew a little about formations. If he wanted to break the formation, he would have to ask Xu Fei for help.

“Eh, what's going on?”

At that moment, Lin Mo was still deep in thought. However, in the next moment, he realized that something had changed.

The people he had just killed had a formation activated, absorbing the blood on the ground and fusing it into the barrier.

At the same time, the formation was still being activated, as if it wanted to refine Lin Mo as well.

“It’s not an ancient formation, it’s been set up recently,”

Lin Mo frowned. The first thing he thought of was the spiritual array seed. This person had also been here.

It seemed that he had seen through something and set up a formation to break this place?

“Hmph,” he snorted.

Lin Mo snorted coldly and wrapped himself in flames to offset the power of the formation.

At the same time, the barrier in front of him started to change and flash.

After the blood essence was injected, cracks appeared on the surface, and some space fragments filled the air.

Lin Mo saw many figures in different spaces.

But at this time, many people were attacking the barrier. Some were resisting the array, while others were slaughtering the people around them and sacrificing their blood to the array.

“A spiritual array seed’s method?”

Lin Mo was deep in thought. He did not make a move and just watched, ready to leave at any time.

No matter what, protecting his own life was the key.

Finally, a crack appeared on the barrier, and they could enter the medicinal field ahead.

Nine out of ten people will die if they enter the Dao seeking garden. If they aren’t peerless experts, they should be careful!

A line of words appeared on the barrier, shocking Lin Mo, especially the last line, “enter with caution”. It was completely blood red, as if it was formed from fresh blood.

Behind the crack, Lin Mo could clearly sense a dangerous aura.

He did not hesitate and chose to enter.

Passing through the crack, he saw stars flowing in the sea of stars. The endless starry sky interweaved and formed a seal. He did not know what was being suppressed under it ...

The next moment, a true dragon rushed out and pierced through the sea of stars. Its dragon claws tore the seal apart and crushed a star ...

He could feel the power of the great true dragon as if he was in its realm.

The scene changed. He saw a real phoenix flapping its wings and soaring in the starry sky. However, it was attacked by an unknown force in an instant and was killed instantly ...

In the end, Lin Mo's vision turned black and he could not see anything.

As he slowly regained consciousness, Lin Mo felt his head grow heavy and he was in a daze.

"My head hurts. What did I just see? Something from the ancient times? What is that?"

Lin Mo was confused. He felt as if it had been a dream, but it also felt extremely real.

He looked around and found that there were murals in a stone room deep in his heart.

It was the scene that he had just seen. This scene made him horrified. It was just a mural, but it could actually let him truly feel the artistic conception within it ...

He walked forward, passed through the stone door, and continued to go deeper.

He walked forward step by step. The stone rooms were huge, one after another, and there were different murals inside.

It was a pity that Lin Mo could not empathize with them as they were only murals ...

“Oh,”

Suddenly, a mural on the stone wall in front of him seemed to come alive.

It was a connate rare beast that Lin Mo was very familiar with. It was the nine infants, whom he had fought before.

The nine neonate was extremely powerful. It manifested and attacked Lin Mo. Every move was a killing move, trying to kill him.

“The illusion of the ninth heaven of the Nirvana stage. The nine infants of the ancient era, so powerful.”

Lin Mo was shocked. With such strength, even if he was confident that he was invincible among his peers, he did not dare to let his guard down.

The nine neonate’s strength was enough to suppress the ghost king and the others, and it could really contend with him.

Dao seeking garden is that herb field. Is this a test to enter? ”

Lin Mo understood. Perhaps this was the purpose of the Dao seeking forbidden ground, which was to manifest in the golden age.

However, everything was just his guess. Facing the nine neonate, he did not dare to be careless and faced it with all his might.

It was a fierce battle. Lin Mo was injured, and after hundreds of rounds of fighting, the last head of the nine neonate was blown up by Lin Mo.

The nine neonate exploded and formed a rain of light. The rain of light condensed and gradually formed a black and white Pearl in front of Lin Mo.

“Nine neonate inner core.”

Lin Mo was overjoyed. This was really a test. After passing, he would be rewarded with the nine neonate inner core, and it was a ninth heaven Nirvana stage inner core ...

Just as he was about to reach for it, a sudden voice stopped him.

if you take the nine neonate inner core, you will lose the right to continue the challenge. You won’t be able to enter the Dao seeking garden.

“Who is it?” Lin Mo asked as he looked up into the sky.

The voice was very abrupt, and he couldn't tell where it came from. innread.com you've passed the test. You can either continue forward or leave with your reward.

The other party's words gave Lin Mo two choices, which made him hesitate.

This nine neonate inner core was very powerful. Although its attributes were water and fire, it did not prevent the God devouring body from devouring it.

But taking it would give him the right to enter the Dao seeking garden, did he really have to leave like this?

After some thought, Lin Mo decided to give up on the reward. He pushed open the stone door and walked in.

Although the nine-headed fierce beast's inner core was good, if he could take all the treasures in the Dao seeking garden, those resources would be enough for him to break through to the immortal-Foundation Stage several times ...

He just didn't know if the heaven mending monument, which had appeared once before, would allow him to devour it all ...

As he walked into the next stone room, the murals lit up and the dual elemental Dao laws of wind and lightning appeared.

Countless runes were carved on the surrounding walls, and the laws of heaven and earth formed gales and Thunderbolts as they attacked.

Lin Mo wanted to block it, but he suddenly realized that his spiritual energy had been sealed.

It wasn't just his spirit Qi, even his soul power and physical body were shackled, unable to move.

He was forced to sit cross-legged on the ground, and the only thing he could use was the lightning fire Dao law on his body.

Under activation, lightning and fire spread, resisting the wind and lightning.

“So this stone room is testing one’s control of the Dao law.”

“Bang!”

The Dao laws collided, resulting in a violent explosion. The four forces exchanged blows, causing Lin Mo to shiver.

He felt that his comprehension of the laws of heaven and earth had already reached the acme of perfection, but in this test, he realized his own shortcomings.

“The Dao seeking forbidden ground was left behind from the ancient times. Is this place a place where some major power tests their disciples?”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. What kind of glorious era was that? the test set up was so abnormal. Wasn’t it afraid that no one would pass?

This battle was extremely difficult. Lin Mo was almost killed by the wind and thunder. In the end, he managed to pass through it, but in the end, he still passed the test safely.

“Swish!”

The rain of light condensed and two rays of light appeared in front of Lin Mo. One of them was the nine neonate’s inner core.

There was also a scroll, which Lin Mo took to check.

He discovered that what was recorded on it was actually the cultivation technique of soul power in ancient times.

However, it could not be compared to the God devouring mantra. It was a cultivation technique derived from the God devouring body and was the most suitable cultivation technique for Lin Mo.

He would not change it, so he was not very interested in this cultivation technique.

The only thing he was interested in was the cultivation method that it originated from the ancient era.

If he could study it thoroughly, he might be able to find out some secrets.

Chapter 550 - 550 Array Spirit

550 Array Spirit

“There are three tests in total. If you fail the third Test, you will die. If you pass, you can enter the Dao seeking garden.”

The voice rang out once more, causing Lin Mo’s heart to skip a beat. He had passed the second stage, but he wondered if he could pass the third stage.

“You can choose to leave with the treasure or continue to take the test.”

After hesitating for a while, Lin Mo pushed open the stone door in front of him and continued to accept the test. He wanted to enter the Dao seeking garden.

“Only the strongest of your generation can enter. The loser dies.”

The stone door was pushed open, and Lin Mo stared ahead. It was a chaotic place filled with unimaginable dangers.

Even if Lin Mo was confident in his strength, he was still shocked by the dangerous aura.

“Is this really a test?” Lin Mo muttered.

In the chaos ahead, he could clearly feel that after entering, even if there was a 90% chance of death, it would still be good. The greatest possibility was that there would be no chance of survival ...

“Am I scared? With the God Devourer body and the system’s assistance, he should be able to look down on everyone.”

Lin Mo mumbled to himself and closed his eyes. Then, he slowly opened them again and calmed down.

The path ahead still gave him a sense of danger, but he was fearless. He walked forward calmly without fear.

“Swish!”

With a soft hum, the voice from before sounded again, without a trace of emotion. “Strong Dao heart, pass!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Mo’s figure disappeared. When he reappeared, he was already in the medicinal field that he had seen earlier.

At the same time, the Dao seeking forbidden ground also changed. Many people who were trapped in the space were released.

They were thrown out of the forbidden area. There were even some people who were also facing challenges, but they were also thrown out.

“What happened?”

bastard, this King was about to pass, but the results were already out.

“Look, there are people in the herbal field.”

Someone was shocked and pointed at the Dao seeking forbidden ground. Other than the spiritual herbs, there was also a blurry figure.

This person was Lin Mo. He had passed all the tests and had entered the Dao seeking garden.

However, what puzzled him was that this place was guarded by many restrictions. If he acted rashly, his life would be in danger.

“If I can’t take anything with me, I might as well take the rewards from the first two rounds ...”

Lin Mo frowned. Could it be that after so many years, the laws of this place had changed and some places were no longer functioning?

For example, the person who passed the test would be able to obtain a token or the like, and could take away the treasures in the Dao seeking garden ...

“You’re late ...”

The voice from before came again, but this time, he could clearly hear that the voice had emotions and was no longer cold.

“Who are you?” Lin Mo asked.

“Formation spirit,” The other party replied. This answer made Lin Mo turn pale with fright.

Could formations give birth to intelligence? moreover, what level of formation was that?

the entire Dao seeking garden is a formation, or a ritual implement, a formation disk. I'm the spirit of the ritual implement.

The formation spirit continued to answer. This time, Lin Mo understood. He knew that a formation disk was required to cast a high-level formation.

Formation disks could also be called magic tools, and they could give birth to intelligence.

“You said I'm late, what do you mean?” Lin Mo continued to ask.

There were clearly many treasures in this place. He had come at the right time.

the most precious treasure is an immortal treasure, or an egg. It's breeding a Supreme treasure.

“Since I've passed the test, can you give me this immortal treasure?” Lin Mo asked shamelessly.

Since this was a test, there was no reason why there would be no treasures if he passed it.

“It was taken away by the Heaven's Will body. You're too late.” The Dao seeking garden told Lin Mo that the Heaven's Will body had arrived a month ago.

“Holy maiden Xia you ...”

Lin Mo sighed in his heart. In the eastern continent, perhaps only Holy maiden Xia you could pass this test.

Perhaps Tang Ling could do it too, but he didn't know where she was now.

"The woman with the incomplete absolute beginning flame also came, but her cultivation wasn't perfect, so she didn't pass the third stage."

The Dao seeking garden had used some method to read Lin Mo's mind and tell him some information.

"Absolute beginning partial flame?"

Lin Mo really wanted to know if this was the Holy Fire of the Saint burning valley.

Unfortunately, the Dao seeking garden was silent and didn't answer. For a moment, the Dao seeking garden fell into silence.

"Then can I pick these godly medicines?" Lin Mo pointed at the medicinal field.

Luck Dao grass, many earth rank spirit herbs, and even sky rank spirit herbs grew there.

If he could get his hands on it, it would be quite a fortune.

"Only a third of it can be picked, the roots can't be taken away. This place has to be left for future generations."

The Dao seeking garden said. The world had changed greatly, and the eastern land would flourish. In the future, this place would open once every five years, and those who passed the test could come in and take their rewards.

After saying that, the Dao seeking garden stopped talking. Lin Mo could smell the endless medicinal fragrance.

The medicinal field here was open to him. With such a dense concentration of spiritual energy, he really wanted to sit cross-legged and start cultivating.

"It's a bit of a pity that I can't take away the stem of the luck Dao grass ..."

Lin Mo shook his head. The truly valuable part of the luck path grass was its stem. Only the part that was picked would have a much lower value.

However, there was one planted in the purple Moon Palace, and it could be used as a nutrient to allow that one to grow.

this is a Divine Tree of tribulation transcendence. Unfortunately, only one fruit has ripened ...

Lin Mo looked at the five-meter tall tree in front of him and drooled.

When he was chatting with Bai Luo in the past, he had heard that this kind of Divine Tree had an extremely heaven-defying effect.

If one ate a fruit, one's entire body would undergo a perfect transformation. This transformation was comparable to the tempering of the heavenly Tribulation.

This was also the origin of its name, and its value was unimaginable.

After plucking the fruit, Lin Mo did not do anything else rashly. There was no point in eating an unripe fruit, so he could not be anxious.

"If you're done picking, then leave."

After Lin Mo had picked a dozen baskets of spirit herbs, the Dao seeking garden finally spoke and told Lin Mo that he could leave.

"Senior, this junior has some things he would like to ask you." Lin Mo asked humbly.

I don't know much. I'm just following the rules. Since you've passed the test, ask away. Dao seeking garden had a good attitude. They weren't impatient and agreed to Lin Mo's question.

Lin Mo nodded and sealed up the spiritual herbs he had picked. He kept them and asked, "Senior, where did you come from? who is your master?"

"Emperor!"

There was only a single word in reply. It was a simple word, but it seemed to pierce through Lin Mo's heart.

He felt a terrifying pressure. Just this one word made him have the urge to kneel down and worship.

“Di ...”

Lin Mo mumbled softly. What kind of living being was that? just the mere mention of his name had caused such a change in him.

I’ve forgotten. I vaguely remember this word. The rest have been worn down by the years ...

The Dao seeking garden sank into deep thought. After a long while, it sighed and told Lin Mo that its knowledge was limited.

Lin Mo then asked about the Dao seeking garden.

He found out that after five years, there would be five levels in the Dao seeking garden, and he would get a reward for every level he passed.
