

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 571

Lin Mo's eyes flickered. It seemed that he was being watched again. Judging from the manager's attitude just now, this Wu Mo was probably the young master of the family behind this auction house...

"An ordinary man is innocent and gets into trouble because of his wealth..."

From Wu Mo's eyes, he probably already knew that the Void Spirit Sword belonged to him.

After all, looking at the manager's appearance, he should have confessed everything...

Lin Mo had no intention of blaming him. They had met by chance, and he had brought him benefits, so he had treated him like a distinguished guest.

They were just holding on to what they needed, so they weren't really friends.

Relatively speaking, he was surprised that master Long Kong was willing to come forward. After all, he was in a business relationship with this person.

"Young friend, although I don't know where you're from, I can feel that you're not ordinary."

"Our deal is over. This is all I can help you with. You're on your own now."

Master Long Kong sighed and kept his furnace. After giving Lin Mo a warning, he turned around and left.

Lin Mo nodded and cupped his fists at Master Long Kong before putting away the Void Spirit Sword.

He had intended to auction the Void Spirit Sword. However, Wu Mo had been up to no good since the beginning. He didn't really want to sell the treasure to him...

However, Languang City currently only allowed people to enter and not leave, so he could not leave. Who knew, this Void Spirit Sword might really be auctioned off to him...

"We'll see. If the price he offers is right, it's not impossible to sell it..."

Lin Mo walked out of the room and was welcomed by a maidservant who sent him off.

However, as expected, just as he left the auction house, he coincidentally met Wu Mo, who he had just met.

There were two young men standing beside Wu Mo, and both of them were half-step almighty without exception.

"Half-step Almighty level five, the same realm as wind void, but he should be stronger..."

Lin Mo muttered in his heart. Then, he saw Wu Mo walk over with a smile on his face.

fellow Daoist, I'm sorry for the previous matter. I didn't expect you to be an honored guest of the Wu's auction house. Wu Mo had obviously received Lin Mo's message, which made Lin Mo feel a little helpless.

"Greetings, young master Wu Mo." Lin Mo cupped his fists. He wanted to leave, but he was helpless.

by the way, I've never heard of you before. May I know where you're from and who your master is?" Wu Mo cupped his hands and asked with a smile.

"The world is so big, it's impossible for young master Wu Mo to know everyone. I'm just a loose cultivator, I don't belong to any sect." Lin Mo shook his head.

As soon as he said this, Wu Mo and the two men beside him looked surprised.

"Didn't you come to Languang City to gather information for your master?" one of the men asked.

"What do you mean by that?" This time, it was Lin Mo's turn to be confused. Why did he have to have a master?

“You’re really a rogue cultivator?” Wu Mo looked at Lin Mo up and down. It was very novel, and Lin Mo felt very uncomfortable.

“I can’t?” Lin Mo asked.

Hearing this, Wu Mo laughed and said, “Fellow daoist, in that case, I can recommend you.”

“The overlord of the clouds plains. You’re not unfamiliar with the Gongsun family, are you?”

Lin Mo nodded and motioned for Wu Mo to continue.

“I am Wu Mo, ranked 72nd on the Yun state’s Prodigy Roll. I am the sixth general under Gongsun Wenhao.”

“You know Gongsun Wenhao, right? He’s ranked fifth on The Prodigy Roll. He’s a peerless genius who can be ranked on the Northern Land’s Hidden Dragon Ranking.”

At this point, Wu Mo’s face was full of pride, which made Lin Mo dumbfounded.

This person was actually someone else’s servant?

Moreover, from the looks of it, he seemed to be very proud of being someone’s servant, which was something worth bragging about...

“Haha, you must be shocked. It seems that you are indeed a rogue cultivator. How about this, hand over the Void Spirit Sword and I can recommend you. As long as your talent is not too bad, you can still work under Lord Wen Hao.”

Wu Mo looked at Lin Mo’s shocked expression and felt proud that he had subdued Lin Mo.

“I’m not going.”

Lin Mo’s expression calmed down. He looked calm and did not want to pay attention to Wu Mo.

“You’ve shattered my worldview. Just because you like being a servant doesn’t mean others like it too.” Lin Mo cursed in his heart. What kind of person was this guy?

“Kid, don’t be ungrateful. It’s your fortune that young master Wu Mo can recommend you.” Hearing Lin Mo’s reply, the two men behind him were instantly enraged. They wanted to step forward, but were stopped by Wu Mo.

“Don’t be in such a hurry to refuse. You might not know Lord Wen Hao’s conditions.” Wu Mo smiled indifferently and continued.

“All the generals under Lord Wen Hao will get a tier 7 earth grade spirit herb every month, and they will also be protected by the Gongsun family.

“Other than that, the northern lands ‘Hidden Dragon Pavilion will be opening the ancient battlefield soon. There are countless opportunities there. If you want to participate, you must have your name on the Hidden Dragon ranking.

“We don’t have such an opportunity, but we can enter with Lord Wen Hao and fight for him, obtaining endless opportunities.”

Lin Mo gradually came to a realization after hearing these words.

The northern lands was huge, and anyone with the slightest bit of talent would want to stand out and achieve great things.

Perhaps Wu Mo was the same. He wanted to explore Yunzhou and become heaven’s favorite.

However, the world was unfair to begin with. Some people were born to be kings, and some people became bandits.

The competition for resources was even more intense. Some of them were willing to rely on a huge power to seek protection, but most of them were forced. Those who did not obey would be killed...

“I’m sorry, but I still don’t have any thoughts of living under someone else’s roof.”

Lin Mo cupped his fists. At this time, he was a little grateful to Wu Mo, because he had brought a lot of useful information.

The Prodigy Roll, the Hidden Dragon ranking, the ancient battlefield of the hidden Dragon Pavilion, and so on...

“Hehe, it seems like brother Lin Mo is not going to cooperate...” When Lin Mo turned to leave, Wu Mo stopped smiling.

He had said so much for the Void Spirit sword, but now that he wanted it, it seemed like he could only snatch it by force...

"I don't understand what you're saying." Lin Mo placed his hands behind his head and swaggered away.

Wu Mo would not make a move in public, but the seeds of hatred had been planted, which made Lin Mo helpless.

"In order not to cause any more trouble, why don't I sell it..."

Lin Mo sighed. How many times had he given in since he came to the Northern Continent? He had always thought that he was invincible among his peers, but his enemies were not just his peers...

Suddenly, he raised his head and saw a ball of golden light blooming in the sky, illuminating the entire Languang city.

A young man walked out from the golden light. He had a single golden horn on his forehead and golden patterns on his face.

His aura was terrifying. He had just arrived, but his momentum was so great that it alarmed everyone in the city.

"A Golden Horn. That's the one-horned human race. It's said that the Golden Horn has the power to destroy everything." innread.com

There were many people in Languang city who had good eyesight. They immediately recognized the person and identified him.

"The third place on the heaven's pride ranking of Yunzhou, Teng Feng!"

"Not just that. I heard that he's already in the northern lands 'Hidden Dragon Roll. An elder of the hidden Dragon Pavilion was shocked and personally came to find him, wanting to take him in as a disciple."

"Then what is his rank on the hidden Dragon List?" Some people were curious, because the hidden Dragon Roll was not open to the public.

If he wanted to know the names on the Hidden Dragon Ranking, he would have to step onto the list himself.

Lin Mo was shocked. What was going on with Languang city? this was yet another person who could be called a peerless genius.

The mysterious and playful young lady from before and the powerful young man who had caused the heavens and earth to have strange phenomena.

Also, Wu Mo had asked him if he was also here to inquire about information.

Now, there was another Teng Feng. Without a doubt, this person's combat strength was also extremely terrifying. He was extraordinary and a terrifying opponent.

"Something big is definitely going to happen here. What should I do? should I join in the fun?" Lin Mo thought to himself.

Wealth came from danger. What he needed now was treasures. If there was an opportunity here, he would fight for it.

"I'll deal with the Void Spirit Sword first."

After making up his mind, Lin Mo left quickly, ignoring the people following behind him.

On this day, Languang city was no longer peaceful, because many people from the Yun state's Progidy Roll had appeared, and they were all powerful geniuses.

In fact, in the next few days, people from the Northern Continent's Hidden Dragon Ranking had also appeared. Some of them did not even belong to the cloud plane, and had come here by force through the Super-large teleportation formation.

In the past few days, Lin Mo had gone out to gather information and finally understood the general situation in the Northern Continent.

The Hidden Dragon Pavilion was the most mysterious force in the Northern Continent. It was said that it came from the Central Continent and had countless experts.

Strictly speaking, the Northern Continent's Hidden Dragon Pavilion could not be considered a major power. This was because they did not have much territory, and they did not have many elders.

The reason why they were able to make it into the Hidden Dragon Ranking in the Northern Continent was because they controlled an ancient battlefield.

There were many mysterious ancient lands there, and it was said that there were even the inheritances of the great emperor. The great emperor's ancient scriptures were buried deep underground.

This was no ordinary resource. Once it was revealed, it would shake the entire Northern Continent.

However, this ancient battlefield only allowed those on the first step of Immortal-Foundation to enter. No one was allowed to exceed or exceed the first step.

Anyone who entered had to suppress their cultivation realm, so they couldn't burst out with more power.

This place had also become a training ground for the younger generation. Therefore, the appearance of the Hidden Dragon Ranking had allowed the younger generation of the Northern Continent to compete and enter to seek for opportunities...

"What did you say? Someone barged into the hidden Dragon Pavilion and stole a rune to open the ancient battlefield?"

Lin Mo was shocked to hear this news. At the same time, he had an answer in his heart.

Was it stolen by that young girl? wasn't she too bold? moreover, how could she do this with her strength?

It seems like her background is not small ...

He had received too much information in the past few days, and it was hard for him to accept it.

He stood up and was just about to leave when he saw a group of people walking in from outside the trading center.

“Wu Mo...”

Lin Mo frowned. This guy had waited for a few days and was finally planning to make a move on him?

He had already found out that the Wu family was very powerful. They had seven cities under their command, and this Languang city was one of them.

And because the Wu family was affiliated with the Gongsun family, no one dared to provoke them at will, so they became stronger and stronger.

However, he was wrong this time. Wu Mo did not come to find him. He was also looking for information. After seeing Lin Mo, he sneered.

This was a trading place, but it was very lively today.

After Wu Mo, a few more people had come. Some were the servants of the peerless geniuses, and some were even his true body.

“Fellow Daoist, please wait.”

Lin Mo was about to leave after gathering some information, but he was stopped by someone, leaving him helpless.

He turned around and saw a woman in a pink dress walking over. Her steps were enchanting, and her body emitted an alluring fragrance.

“This person has cultivated the bewitching technique...”

After sensing that something was wrong, Lin Mo circulated his spirit qi and sealed his sense of smell so that he would not be affected.

“Is there something?” he asked. Lin Mo asked indifferently. innread.com

The woman in pink was stunned. The smile on her delicate face froze for a moment, then relaxed again.

She looked at Lin Mo curiously. She had always been confident in her looks. All the men she had seen were attracted to her. Even if they could resist it, they would not be able to help but take a few more glances.

However, Lin Mo was completely unaffected and was immune to her charm?

“This young master, can we have a moment?” The girl in pink smiled and walked over, swaying her slender waist.

Lin Mo frowned as he smelled the fragrance. He took two steps back to keep a distance from her and said, “I’m not free. If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave.”

Wu Mo was also here. These days, many people came to check on the place where he lived, most of whom were Wu Mo’s men.

He really didn’t like this guy and just wanted to avoid him.

“Wait a minute. I heard that you have a Void Spiritual Sword, tier 7 earth grade. The lady in pink said hurriedly.

Hearing this, Lin Mo’s face darkened. Could it be that this person was also interested in the Void Spirit Sword?

“I’m just a messenger. My young master has some insights into the Dao law of space and would like to buy your Void Spirit sword. Don’t worry, I’ll give you a satisfactory price.”

As if sensing that Lin Mo did not believe her, she continued, “My family’s young master is Li Yu, ranked seventh on the cloud plane’s Prodigy Roll.”

As soon as he said that, the people around him were shocked and looked over.

“Fellow Daoist, young Master Li Yu won’t bully you. He’ll really give you a satisfactory price.”

Someone beside him advised. Lin Mo had been chatting with these people for the past few days, so they were familiar with each other.

They also knew that Lin Mo’s Void Spirit sword had been targeted.

But if he sold it to Li Yu, he would definitely not lose out. Li Yu was not a person who would force a deal.

“Is that so? I still have quite a few treasures in my hands. I plan to auction them off three days later. You can just bid for them then.

Lin Mo nodded. This was the truth. He had been buying treasures at a low price recently.

All sorts of trade fairs, markets, and medicine shops would be there. As long as it was earth grade and the price was low, they would buy it all.

“That’s good,”

After getting a satisfactory answer, the woman left with her men, leaving behind a group of people who were reluctant to part with her. They looked at her back and drooled.

“Bastard...”

On the other side, Wu Mo, who was waiting for his subordinates to come back from their investigation, was so furious that he smashed the table and chair in front of him.

When he had asked Lin Mo to buy it, this guy had not wanted to sell it. Now that Li Yu’s men were here, this guy actually wanted to sell it ...

“Young master, do you want to find a chance to...” Someone beside Wu Mo said in a low voice and made a throat-slitting gesture.

“Languang city is very complicated now. I can’t hide the truth from everyone. This is not appropriate...”

Wu Mo shook his head. If not for that, he would have sent people to attack Lin Mo.

But it was different now. The Gongsun family had sent people to seal off the place, and the guards of the Wu family were ordered to retreat.

“Just wait. After this matter is over, I’ll give him a profound lesson. Wu Mo looked at Lin Mo’s back as he left and said in a cold voice.”

The news that a tier 7 earth grade magic tool was going to be auctioned spread.

This caused quite a stir in Languang city. Some of the geniuses were very tempted. They were also lacking in such a rare magical weapon.

The location of the auction was naturally the Wu auction house ...

Chapter 573 - 573 Strength Exposed

573 Strength Exposed

“Young master Lin Mo, you’re finally here. Are you alright?”

As soon as he arrived, the steward hurriedly came to greet him, his face full of worry.

After all, Wu Mo had obtained a lot of information about Lin Mo from him, which made him feel a little apologetic.

“Why would I be in trouble? Come, help me auction these. Lin Mo smiled and did not blame him.”

He took out a large number of treasures from the system space, all of which were collected by him during this period of time.

“Void Spirit Sword...”

The manager saw the Void Spirit Sword in the pile of treasures and could only sigh.

Lin Mo could not withstand the pressure and decided to sell the Void Spirit Sword.

He examined the treasures one by one and couldn't help but exclaim.

Lin Mo was indeed talented in treasure hunting. He was able to find so many treasures in such a short time.

It was a pity that such a talent seemed to have been completely offended by his young master.

“Young master Lin Mo, your treasures will be auctioned in the next auction. The most precious of them all is this Void Spirit Sword.

“The starting price will be set at 350000 upper spiritual stones. Many geniuses have come to Languang city.”

“This Void Spirit Sword will definitely cause a lot of people to fight for it. By a conservative estimate, it should be able to sell for more than six hundred thousand.”

“600000. It's a good price. That's it.” Lin Mo nodded. He had no objections to the price.

Although this price was not enough to make him rich overnight, he could still buy more treasures and auction them.

The system's return-interest rewards were all very precious, and some of them even grew in extremely dangerous areas.

“By the way, manager, I would like to ask, do you know when we can leave Languang city?”

Lin Mo suddenly asked after the price of the auctioned items was set.

“Do you want to leave...” The manager glanced at Lin Mo and understood.

Now that the Void Spirit Sword had been forcefully bought by someone, he definitely did not want to stay here any longer. He would definitely leave as soon as possible.

“After today, we should be able to get an answer.” The manager told Lin Mo that the auction this time was a little unusual.

The final item might be the lost jade talisman of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion.

Because the person who stole the jade talisman had been besieged by many parties, although their identity was not confirmed, they had still injured him.

It was said that the jade talisman had fallen and was lost in the battle.

Many people were looking for it. After they found it, there was a dispute about the ownership of the Jade talisman. Geniuses from all over the world were rushing to Languang city.

“Could it be that this auction is going to take place?”

Lin Mo was shocked. What a coincidence! Could the final item of the auction be the Jade talisman?

“That’s right. Yunzhou is the Gongsun family’s territory after all. We have to give them face.”

“Therefore, they decided to use the auction method to determine the ownership of the Jade talisman. And this jade talisman is now in the Wu family’s auction house...”

The manager waved his hand helplessly. This jade talisman was a hot potato, and no one would feel good holding it.

Even the Gongsun family didn’t dare to monopolize it. In the end, they decided to auction it off and let these outsiders compete for it.

Hearing this, Lin Mo was a little tempted. However, he did not know if they would only allow the younger generation to compete.

If it was, then he still had a chance. If it wasn’t, he would be in trouble. Once he failed, he would die.

“Young master Lin Mo, please come in. The auction is about to begin.”

Hmph, Manager Li, what are you doing? that private room is only for distinguished guests. How can you let others in so easily? ”

Just as Lin Mo stepped into the private room, a cold snort came from behind.

The steward’s body froze on the spot. He looked at Lin Mo and then at Wu Mo, at a loss.

Lin Mo turned around and saw Wu Mo appearing behind him with an unhappy expression.

Seeing this, Lin Mo also smiled. This fellow was really petty...

However, it made sense. By agreeing to sell the Void Spirit Sword, it was equivalent to slapping Wu Mo's face in public...

"Trouble keeps coming no matter where I go."

He sighed and looked up at Wu Mo, saying indifferently, "Young master Wu Mo, according to the rules of your auction house, as long as the starting bid exceeds 500000 upper spiritual stones, you can enter the private room."

"The base price of all my treasures is almost one million upper spiritual stones. Why can't I enter? "

"Or is it that your Wu's auction house doesn't have any rules to speak of? then the reputation of this auction house needs to be verified."

There was quite a commotion here, and Wu Mo and Lin Mo were also quite popular during this period.

The former was already famous outside, while the latter was because of the Void Spirit Sword ...

The sound of the wind breaking could be heard. The demonic beasts were howling. The auction was about to begin, and many people were rushing over.

There were even some people who were ranked at the top of The Prodigy Roll, and were much stronger than Wu Mo.

"Hehe, isn't this Wu Mo? why bother with a dead person? if it's not convenient for you to make a move, I can do it for you."

A gloomy laugh was heard, and a group of people walked in from the entrance of the auction house.

These people were all dressed in black robes. Although their faces were revealed, they looked very strange and were surrounded by a lot of death energy.

Lin Mo learned from the people around him that the person was from the corpse puppet sect. His body was shrouded in a deathly aura, which was also caused by his frequent contact with corpses.

“Guan Yao, you’re here too? for the Jade talismans?” he asked. Wu Mo smiled when he saw the person.

who doesn’t want that kind of treasure? let’s see how lucky we are. The man called Guan Yao smiled eerily.

He then looked at Lin Mo and sized him up.

“I can sense that your physical body is not ordinary. You are extraordinary.”

He licked his lips and was actually drooling, I wonder what your blood will taste like ...”

“You can try...”

Lin Mo said coldly. He turned around and entered the private room, closing the door behind him.

Outside the door, many people were surprised to see this scene.

He had thought that this person would not live long after offending Wu Mo and being targeted by Guan Yao.

But now, that guy didn’t seem to be afraid at all. Why was that?

“Is this a broken jar?”

Wu Mo sneered and turned to leave. In his opinion, it was impossible for Lin Mo to have any powerful combat strength.

He was just an itinerant cultivator that he had never seen before and was not worth paying attention to.

“I’ve been exposed ...”

Lin Mo walked into the private room with a helpless expression.

Guan Yao’s perception was extremely sharp. At such a close distance, some of his strength could be sensed.

Lin Mo was confident that he had hidden it well, but he had missed something. A genius of this level had a strong sense of danger.

There was a moment when Guan Yao wanted to attack him, and he felt the killing intent.

However, it was also at that moment that he realized that Lin Mo was not simple, so he did not dare to make a move.

“He’s a cautious person. It seems like I’ve been dragged into this.”

Lin Mo raised his head and pulled open the curtains in front of the private room. Through the glass, he looked at the treasures on the auction stage.

ladies and gentlemen, the next item for auction is a volcanic spirit stone. It’s produced under a volcano and can absorb the extreme fire element. It’s a rare treasure for both refining and cultivation.

Chapter 574 - 574 Thunderheart Grass

574 Thunderheart Grass

The auctioneer tried his best to introduce the Volcanic Spirit Stone. It was a Tier 2 earth grade Volcanic Spirit Stone, which was very helpful for cultivation.

“The auction has started so quickly.”

Lin Mo’s interest was piqued. He was the one who had sent the Volcanic Spirit Stone for auction.

When he had first obtained it, it had attracted the attention of many people. It was also at that time that Lin Mo’s name had spread throughout the trade fair.

!!

He had accepted an upper-grade spirit stone from him and helped him deal with a pile of waste.

In the end, he found Volcanic Spirit Stones among the waste. The fire soared to the sky, and the man was filled with regret.

“Earth grade Tier 2 Volcanic Spirit Stone. The starting price is 1000 upper spiritual stones.”

As the auctioneer’s hammer fell, the auction began. There were many fire attribute cultivators here.

The Volcanic Spirit Stone was a very good sacred object for their cultivation.

“1200 upper spiritual stones.”

“One thousand three hundred...”

The bidding continued. Lin Mo looked at the auction. In less than three minutes, the price had reached 2500 upper spiritual stones.

Lin Mo nodded as he saw this. It was almost the final price.

Another minute later, the auctioneer struck the gavel. The final price was 2700 upper spiritual stones.

To Lin Mo, this was nothing. The energy from these spirit stones could only allow him to cultivate for four hours at most...

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the earth grade level 2 Volcanic Spirit Stone.]

[Successfully triggered 5000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining Earth grade tier 5 sacred core Fire Rock.

The system’s voice sounded in his mind, and Lin Mo immediately started. He didn’t care about the Volcanic Spirit Rock, but this Geocentric Sacred Fire Rock was very good.

There were some Dao laws of fire contained within it, which was just right for his cultivation. If he refined it, he would be able to absorb it at the highest efficiency.

“Very good. Let’s collect more treasures when we are on our way...”

Lin Mo took out the Geocentric Sacred Fire Rock from the system space and nodded in satisfaction. However, a huge battle was about to break out.

He was already caught up in it and couldn’t escape. The most important thing now was to improve his strength.

“I’ll refine it on the spot...”

Without hesitation, he sat cross-legged on the sofa and began to absorb the energy contained in the Geocentric Sacred Fire Rock.

His stagnant realm also began to rise slowly under the circulation of Lin Mo’s Spirit Devouring Technique.

The first Heavenly layer of a half-step almighty. This was his current cultivation level, the first heavenly layer of the immortal foundation.

At this level, every advancement required a huge amount of spiritual energy.

Although it wasn’t as terrifying as breaking through to immortal-foundation, it was still extremely huge and required vast amounts of natural resources.

“No wonder the Heaven-Mending Monument and the Holy Flame want me to leave. The Eastern Continent can’t afford to feed me at this level...”

Lin Mo mumbled to himself. It was extremely easy to absorb the Geocentric Sacred Fire Rock, at least a hundred times easier than spirit stones.

Especially since he had the God Devouring Body and the cultivation technique route of the God Devouring Technique, a piece of Geocentric Sacred Fire Rock was completely absorbed by him in less than ten minutes.

The stone the size of a dragon’s eye turned into powder, and Lin Mo’s aura had clearly improved, but he was still a little far from a breakthrough.

“It’s a pity that I can’t absorb spirit stones to cultivate in seclusion...” Lin Mo felt a little regretful.

During this period of time, he had been collecting treasures and looking for an opportunity to auction them, so he had not cultivated.

Now that his strength had been detected, he had no time to cultivate.

“The next auction item is the tier 4 earth realm Thunder Heart Grass. This is something that can only be produced during the powerful Heavenly Tribulation of breaking through to the immortal-Foundation realm.”

Thunder Heart Grass was a very special spiritual herb.

It was born by absorbing the power of the lightning tribulation. The stronger the talent of the person undergoing the Tribulation, the greater the power of the Heavenly Tribulation.

However, most of the Thunder Heart Grass would be destroyed by the Heavenly Tribulation.

Only a small portion would be kept. This was a reward from the heavens to those who passed the Heavenly Tribulation.

“Eating this grass can calm one’s soul and nourish one’s spirit. The lightning laws within it will also temper one’s soul and make it stronger.”

“The starting price is 10000 upper spiritual stones, and each bid must be no less than 1000 upper spiritual stones.”

The auctioneer knocked on the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction.

This kind of magical spiritual medicine would attract people to fight for it as soon as it appeared. The Thunder Heart grass, a tier 4 earth grade medicinal herb, was so effective that even people like Wu Mo would drool over it.

“Has the auction for the Thunder Heart Grass started...” innread.com

Lin Mo raised his head. This was his treasure as well, but the Thunder Heart Grass was useless to him. He had only obtained it by luck.

“I just don’t know what kind of return it will be.” He looked on with interest.

From the start of the auction until now, he had not made a single move. This was because none of these treasures had as much spiritual energy as the equivalent spiritual stones.

The starting price of 10000 had stumped many people. Many cultivators in the hall were scratching their ears and cheeks, wanting to raise the price.

But in the end, they still sat back down. If they were already reluctant to part with the starting price, then how high would the final price be...

“Thunder Heart Grass, this is not bad, I want it.”

“15000 upper spiritual stones.”

The sudden voice sounded particularly gloomy and made people uncomfortable.

Lin Mo knew who this person was when he heard his words. It was Guan Yao of the Corpse Puppet Sect.

This person should be a puppeteer. If he were to fight with him, he had to be on guard against his puppets at all times.

If they were not careful and were ambushed by the puppets, it was very easy for them to lose and die on the spot.

“Puppeteers control their puppets by using their soul power. I think this guy is very interesting.” Lin Mo chuckled.

He didn't mind selling the treasure to the enemy.

Anyway, Guan Yao was going to make a move on her soon. She would get it back then, killing two birds with one stone...

“17000 upper spiritual stones.”

At this moment, another bid was heard, and it also came from the private room in front.

There were other geniuses who wanted the Thunder Heart Grass as well, and Guan Yao was not the only one who wanted to improve his soul power.

“Hehe, 20000 upper spiritual stones.”

The people in the hall stopped bidding. At this time, they all began to watch.

The price of the Thunder Heart Grass gradually rose, and after four to five minutes, the price even surprised Lin Mo.

looks like I've underestimated the value of the Thunder Heart Grass...

Lin Mo mumbled. Guan Yao had already raised the price to 80000 upper spiritual stones.

Even so, there were two other people who were competing with Guan Yao. They didn't want to give up.

They watched the auction in silence. After another two minutes of bidding, Guan Yao won.

He had bid 110000 upper spiritual stones, suppressing the other two.

"Hmph," he snorted.

When the auctioneer hit the hammer, Guan Yao snorted coldly. It was obvious that he was very unhappy with the two of them raising the price.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the earth grade tier 4 Thunder Heart grass.]

[successfully triggered 10000-fold auction interest return]

[congratulations to the host for obtaining earth grade tier 8 Thunder Heart Grass.]

In the system space, a small blade of grass that had grown even stronger appeared. Its leaves were purple, but there was already a faint golden luster on it.

The previous one was light purple in color, and the patterns were rather blurry.

There was no doubt that the price of this Thunder Heart Grass would definitely surpass the void Spirit sword.

Although it was a spiritual medicine, it was a higher grade. Furthermore, it was the rare Thunder Heart grass, which was useful for strengthening the soul and even for Lin Mo.

unfortunately, the effect is minimal. It can only improve by a tiny bit...

Lin Mo shook his head. His soul was already at the top among the half-step almighty beings, and it would be difficult for him to improve any further.

Even if he paid a huge price and continuously underwent nirvana and tempered his soul, the improvement he obtained would not be proportional.

“Sell it.”

Lin Mo called the maidservant outside the door and told her to settle the spirit stones he had paid for the previous auction. At the same time, he called the manager over.

A few minutes later, the steward came in with an animal skin belt. He walked in with a smile and presented the spirit stones.

“Young master Lin Mo, these are the spirit stones for the auction of the Thunder Heart grass and the volcano spirit stone. As for the handling fee, I will waive it for you. I hope that you will not hold it against me...”

Before the manager could finish, Lin Mo interrupted him and said impatiently, “I’m not a narrow-minded person.”

He secretly sneered at Wu Mo and immediately took out the Thunder Heart grass, which had just returned to its original state.

“This is a level 8 Earth Class Thunder Heart grass. Give me a price and put it up for auction.”

The dark purple Thunder Heart Grass swayed in the wind, and specks of golden light could be seen.

The majestic soul power formed lightning and flowed on the leaf, creating a beautiful scene.

The steward was a little dazed and in disbelief at this scene.

“What are you waiting for? Go and make arrangements.”

Lin Mo patted the manager’s shoulder. This guy had worked for so many years and had seen so many treasures. Why did he have such an expression?

“Thunder Heart grass of rank 8 Earth Class...”

The manager was a little scared out of his wits as he carried the pot of lightning heart grass outside without even giving Lin Mo a price.

“Are you exaggerating?”

Lin Mo frowned. He didn’t know what a Thunder Heart grass above rank 7 Earth Class meant.

It could only be born after passing one of the most terrifying Heavenly Tribulations in history.

Only heavenly lightning of this level could give birth to such a rare treasure. Even though the Northern Continent was vast and abundant in resources, a Thunder Heart grass of this level had not appeared for thousands of years...

“What is the background of this person called Lin Mo...”

The manager walked out with the Thunder Heart grass. After some hesitation, he came to the far end and walked up to the auction stage.

“Mr. Manager.” The auctioneer bowed respectfully, but his eyes froze in the next moment.

His eyes were fixed on the Thunder Heart grass in the steward’s hands, and his eyes almost popped out. innread.com

“What? I’m not seeing things, am I?”

“My God, such a divine object has actually appeared...”

there hasn't been any heaven-defying existence undergoing tribulation recently. Didn't they say that Thunder Heart grass can't be cultivated?"

The people were engaged in a heated discussion as they recognized the Thunder Heart Grass that the steward had brought over.

It was dark purple, and the golden light on the leaves was faintly discernible. It was hard to imagine how it would have been if it had absorbed a little more of the power of the Heavenly Tribulation.

Then wouldn't he be able to go one step further?

"This is the Thunder Heart grass of rank 8 Earth Class. It was made by the same customer and is going to be auctioned. The steward said a few simple words.

Before anyone could ask, he quickly got off the stage.

He then entered a private room where Wu Mo was looking at the auction stage with a serious expression.

"Greetings, young master Wu Mo." The steward knelt down immediately and saluted, feeling a little nervous.

"This Thunder Heart Grass is Lin Mo's?"

Even though he already had an answer in his heart, Wu Mo still found it hard to believe. He asked, hoping that the steward would shake his head.

However, things did not go according to his wishes. The manager nodded, proving that this Thunder Heart grass was indeed from Lin Mo...

"Young master, is that Lin Mo a genius who has gone out to train?" The manager's face was filled with fear.

Wu Mo's previous actions had already offended Lin Mo.

Furthermore, he planned to work with Guan Yao after the auction to make Lin Mo disappear completely.

Now that the Thunder Heart grass had appeared, Lin Mo's identity was a mystery...

“Impossible! I have heard of the Hidden Dragon Ranking from Lord Wen Hao, but I have never heard of a person named Lin Mo.

Wu Mo shook his head. He did not believe that Lin Mo was a hidden peerless genius.

Lin Mo’s name was indeed not on the Hidden Dragon Roll, not even on the Prodigy roll. That was why he thought that Lin Mo could be bullied.

From the looks of it, even if he wasn’t a genius, he might have someone backing him.

“It seems that his backer is no weaker than Wen Hao. He’s hidden it well.”

Wu Mo gritted his teeth. Suddenly, he remembered something that happened more than a month ago...

In the oceans there was a peerless genius undergoing tribulation, and the phenomenon it caused was extremely shocking.

Back then, he had followed Gongsun Wenhao to explore the ruins in the dead area of the sea of stars. In the end, he had returned without any success.

On the other hand, the Heavenly Tribulation’s momentum was so great that it drew them over. However, the Heavenly Tribulation’s scope was too large.

When they arrived, they only saw a young man confronting a true dragon. The two sides had fought to a draw.

That scene was too shocking, so much so that he did not dare to imagine it.

Now that he thought about it, it was very likely that this Thunder Heart Grass had been obtained by that person when he was transcending his tribulation.

As for whether this person was Lin Mo, that was another matter.

However, one thing was certain. Lin Mo was definitely related to that person, and he might be his follower...

No matter what his identity was, now that he had offended her, he had to either apologize or get rid of her.

It was impossible for him to apologize, so he only had one way to go.

“You can leave now. This is none of your business. Don’t let me see you in contact with Lin Mo.” Wu Mo said to the steward coldly.

At this moment, on the auction stage, everyone’s eyes were locked on the Thunder Heart grass in the auctioneer’s hand, which swayed in the wind.

They had thought that the Jade talisman was the only thing that could catch their attention.

He did not expect to see two Thunder Heart Grass and a Void Spirit sword.

haha, we’ve really come to the right place. Even if we can’t get the Jade talismans, we’ve still gained a lot from this trip.

A loud laugh rang out, urging the auctioneer to stop wasting time and quickly state the base price.

Thunder Heart grass, rank 8 Earth Class. The starting price is 500000 upper spiritual stones. Each increment must be no less than 10000.

As soon as he finished speaking, the person from before immediately raised the price by 100000, pushing the price to 600000.

However, this only stunned a small portion of the people.

There were many other people who had come to participate in this auction. They were all geniuses of their own regions, and their strength and wealth were not weak.

“Six hundred and thirty thousand.”

“Six hundred and fifty thousand...”

Seeing this, Lin Mo was extremely satisfied. He would be able to obtain another sum of spirit stones. With these, he should be able to enter seclusion and break through.

However, he didn’t know if Wu Mo and the others would give him time to cultivate.

“Seven hundred thousand.”

At this time, a familiar voice came from the private room at the front. It was Wu Mo.

He also made a bid. He couldn't possibly use this Thunder Heart Grass for himself.

It was for his backer, Gongsun Wenhao.

There were also many people bidding. Some represented themselves, while some represented the owners behind them...

"It's best if Wu Mo or Guan Yao wins the bid..."

In the private room, Lin Mo looked at the people who were fighting for it and prayed in his heart. Weren't these two people going to work together?

If they could work together to obtain this Thunder Heart Grass, that would be for the best. This way, after they attacked him, he would be able to snatch it back.

"I can only hope that the so called Gongsun Wenhao does not appear..." Lin Mo muttered softly.

In the auction house, the price had already soared to nine hundred thousand.

"Nine hundred and fifty thousand."

Someone raised the price again. Even now, no one was willing to give up, and the price was still rising.

"Please wait a moment. My lady has a few powerful cultivation techniques. I wonder which fellow Daoist is auctioning the Thunder Heart Grass and is willing to trade?"

At this moment, a maidservant walked out from a private room with a few scrolls in her arms.

Beams of soul power instantly locked onto this person.

Lin Mo was also paying close attention and discovered that this female attendant was also a semi-powerful being.

“Even his maid is at the third sky. This person is not simple...”

“Can you let me have a look?” Lin Mo did not hide anything and spoke directly.

In the next moment, people’s spiritual powers descended, wanting to see who he was.

“He’s the one...”

“The owner of the Thunder Heart Grass is actually Lin Mo...”

Bewildered voices rang out. They were also very shocked. In this auction, Lin Mo had taken out the Void Spirit Sword and now, the Thunder Heart Grass.

In that case, this person wasn’t simple. With such a background, he shouldn’t be unknown.

“Young master, please take a look. If you are not satisfied, my young lady is willing to increase the stakes.”

The maidservant walked into Lin Mo’s room. She put down the scroll and took out a few pieces of golden paper.

“Your young lady is willing to give all these?” Lin Mo asked in confusion. He was shocked as he looked at the scrolls.

This person’s background wasn’t simple either. He was so generous. None of these scrolls were simple.

Even the worst one was a tier 7 Earth Grade fire element skill, Great Sun Fire Luo Art.

However, Lin Mo was not interested in the cultivation techniques. He picked out two of them and returned them.

“Of course not. Young master can only take one scroll. You can also take one of these incomplete scrolls.”

The maidservant said. The total value of these martial arts techniques was enough to buy two stalks of Thunder Heart grass. How could she possibly give them to Lin Mo?

He had only brought so many of them because he did not know Lin Mo's attributes and the magic tools he used.

“I'm still looking.”

Lin Mo smiled and did not mind. Instead, he started to read the books.

There were cultivation techniques, martial arts, formations, and even pill recipes and secret techniques, talisman techniques, and so on.

Soon, a movement technique caught Lin Mo's attention. He studied it carefully.

“Sky Steps” was a tier 8 Earth Grade physical martial art. When it was used, it was as fast as lightning.

After looking at it for a while, Lin Mo put it down. This martial art was good, but it was a pity that it could not compare to the Kun Peng wings.

This was a remnant of the Kun Peng's technique. After displaying it, one could reach the extreme speed of this level, which was far from what other body-type martial arts could compare to.

“Tier 9 Earth Grade martial art, Shining Sun Palm.”

Lin Mo looked at the other book. This was the highest-tiered martial arts cultivation method among all the books.

However, he didn't choose this because he had enough attack methods. The Qilin Steps and the Cloud Piercing Four Spirits were as powerful as a heaven tier martial art.

“Young Master doesn't even like this?”

Seeing Lin Mo put down the Shining Sun Palm, the maidservant was a little displeased.

No matter what, a single book was enough to match the amount of Thunder Heart grass on stage. If Lin Mo thought that it was too little, then he would be a little greedy.

“I don’t lack martial arts, nor do I lack cultivation methods or pill recipes. How about this, I’ll exchange these three fragments for it, how about it?”

Lin Mo smiled as he looked at the three pieces of golden paper on the table.

What was recorded in it must be an extremely powerful spell technique, but it was unfortunately incomplete and difficult to supplement.

However, he was different. If he were to auction it off, he would have a chance of obtaining the complete spell technique.

“Young master, you want the scroll fragment?” The maidservant was stunned and didn’t quite understand.

After seeing Lin Mo nod his head in confirmation, he gladly accepted it. The value of the remnant volume was not high because it was difficult to perfect it.

Naturally, she did not think that Lin Mo could perfect it.

As for why the other party wanted the scroll fragment, it was not something she should consider.

“Thank you, young master. I’ll take my leave.”

The maidservant smiled and left with the rest of the scrolls.

At the same time, the price of the Thunder Heart Grass was also won by the young lady. No one was willing to bid again.

That was because he could tell from the smile on the maid’s face that the deal was a success. Lin Mo was willing to trade.

[The ancient scripture of the chaotic world demonic ape Emperor has three incomplete verses that record the incomplete Heaven-and-Earth Transformation technique.]

[The incomplete ancient scripture of the Zhu Yan clan has five sections of the incomplete scripture, which records the incomplete body-tempering method of the Zhu Yan.]

[Ancient godly beast Kun Peng incomplete technique, Kun Peng claw incomplete Scripture.]

In the private room, Lin Mo kept the three pieces of golden paper into the system space, and the system's voice sounded.

Lin Mo was shocked when he heard the introduction. It was the remnant of three rare spell techniques.

“However, the damage is too serious...”

Lin Mo was helpless. There were only a few passages recorded in the scripture, but they were completely useless and could not be cultivated.

Unless he could find these few races and study their runes, he might be able to figure out some ways in the end.

However, the chaotic world demonic ape had gone extinct long ago. It had lost its inheritance long before the Kun Peng and had no bloodline.

It was said that the ancient scripture of the Zhu Yan clan was the great Emperor's ancient scripture that was born from the chaotic world demonic ape, and the Zhu Yan was its descendant.

If one day, there was a genius in the Zhu Yan clan who could defeat all his peers and ascend to the fruit position of the earth, he might be able to return to his ancestors and let the chaotic world demonic ape appear in the world again...

“It's pity that I can't figure out how to repair the incomplete scripture by analogy...”

Lin Mo sighed. He might be able to do it in the future, but that was a matter for the future.

Moreover, when he reached that realm, the martial arts derived from his spirit devouring technique would not be weaker than the great Emperor's ancient scripture.

By then, there would be no need for other inheritances, and there would be no point in repairing it...

I'll find an opportunity to auction it off. Perhaps I'll be able to obtain some complete scriptures that will allow me to cultivate...

He was very interested in the Kun Peng claw, the heaven-changing and earth-changing technique.

The former's offensive power was extraordinary, and it was a great killing weapon to him. Furthermore, it was a technique of the Kun Peng.

In the future, when he auctioned the Kun Peng wings, he might be able to further improve the two of them and make them complement each other.

As for the great art of changing heaven and earth, it didn't have any means of attack. Instead, it was a divine skill.

Although Lin Mo was weak and could not do that, he could still conceal his aura and prevent others from deducing him.

"Why don't we auction it off now..." Lin Mo was very tempted, especially by the earth-shaking method, which would be very helpful for the upcoming operation.

Lin Mo immediately got to work. He called his maidservant over and told him to auction off the three rolls of golden paper as well.

"Young master Lin Mo, are you really going to auction it?"

Hearing Lin Mo's introduction, the maidservant turned pale with fright. Lin Mo could even take out such a heaven-defying item.

However, when he heard that the three spell techniques were so badly damaged that they couldn't be cultivated, he sighed.

It was a pity that it was incomplete. The price of this scripture would be greatly reduced.

"I'm sure. Let's go to the auction. Arrange it as soon as possible."

Lin Mo warned. After the auction ended, the battle would soon come. He had to increase his means of self-protection.

"Everyone... Three more auction items..."

The maidservant walked onto the stage, and the crowd immediately became interested.

As they had all seen him walk out of Lin Mo's private room, they were all very curious to see what other treasures this fellow had.

Don't just stand there. Quickly introduce them. Someone couldn't help urging.

At that moment, everyone felt that Lin Mo's identity was not simple. A single Thunder Heart grass had caused all sorts of speculations to surface in their hearts.

Now that he had brought out another treasure to auction, they really wanted to know what else Lin Mo could bring out.

"The chaotic world demonic ape's great art of changing heaven and earth has three sections of Scripture."

"The body-tempering technique of the Zhu Yan clan has five sections of the Scripture."

"Kun Peng claw's Scripture is incomplete. There are flaws in the symbols and it's difficult to cultivate."

The maidservant introduced with some difficulty, and when she finished, the whole place fell into silence.

The smiles on the faces of some of the people who had been hopeful disappeared.

It was only three to five paragraphs of Scriptures. Although they were precious, they had no use if they were taken out alone.

"What? I was happy for nothing." Someone was immediately dissatisfied.

He had thought that there would be treasures, but it turned out to be such an outcome. He was a little indignant. innread.com it seems like he obtained the Thunderheart grass by luck. He's just puffing his own face up to show off...

Some people sneered and looked at Lin Mo with disdain. They felt that he was pretending to be an expert to avoid being targeted by others.

"Haha, only this much? who can you scare?"

In the private room at the very front, Wu Mo laughed loudly. At this moment, he had already confirmed that Lin Mo was just trying to please the crowd.

Previously, he was worried about the person behind Lin Mo, who could fight a true dragon without being at a disadvantage and had unimaginable combat power.

From the looks of it, he must have been lucky enough to have bought the Thunderheart grass.

After all, the Thunderheart grass would no longer have any effect on those who had survived the heavenly Tribulation.

"Pass down the order to follow Lin Mo closely for the next few days. Find an opportunity to kill him." Wu Mo ordered, no longer as fearful as before.

young miss, I'm afraid you've made an error in judgment this time. This person is not good. I'm afraid he won't be able to live past tonight...

At the same time, in another private room, two young women were sitting on the sofa.

One of them was the female attendant who had come out to trade with Lin Mo. She was currently sitting on the sofa and eating the spirit fruit on the table.

After seeing the item that was brought up for auction, they were very disdainful.

Earlier on, her young miss was very optimistic about this person. Now it seemed that her young miss had misjudged him.

“Little Qing, you’re wrong. This person is not simple.” On the other side of the sofa, a woman sat quietly, shaking her head slightly.

The maid called Xiaoqing was puzzled. She raised her head and said, “These three scroll fragments can be sold for at most 300000.”

and his Thunderheart grass is worth more than a million, and there’s no market for it. Isn’t he auctioning it like this to make people think that he’s not simple and not dare to touch him? ”

Hearing this, the woman chuckled, but her face gradually became serious.

even a Supreme Saint can’t find out the origin of these three Scriptures in less than a minute, let alone a junior.

As soon as he said that, Xiaoqing was stunned. Lin Mo was above the great sage realm?

That’s impossible. There was a sense of vitality in his body, a unique aura of the younger generation. He was full of vitality.

This was enough to prove that he was a junior, and his age was not more than thirty years old.

“Then there’s only one other possibility. He’s in control of these runes, so he could recognize them at a glance.”

Xiaoqing was a little confused and asked, “But what’s the point of doing this?”

He had wasted a stalk of Thunder Heart grass just for three scroll fragments, and he knew the Scriptures on them.

“Perhaps the situation before him is exactly what he wants...”

The woman laughed. If that was the case, Lin Mo had made a good move.

On the auction stage, the auctioneer smiled awkwardly.

However, the auction still had to continue. As the crowd sneered, he knocked the auction hammer.

put the three scroll fragments together and auction them. The starting price is 100000 upper spiritual stones.

He laughed bitterly. He had thought that he would be able to auction off some precious treasures again.

But in the end, it was only a few lines of Scripture.

“What a joke. Who would buy such a small amount of Scriptures?” Someone was disdainful and asked the auctioneer to quickly announce that the item was not sold.

“Who said no one would buy it? I’ll pay one million. I’m very interested in this Scripture.”

At this moment, a chuckle was heard. Someone in the private room made a bid, and the first bid was 1000000.

Such a sky-high price shocked the crowd. They looked over and realized that it was the person who had asked Lin Mo to buy the Thunderheart grass.

It’s mu Yuzhu, the extraordinary lady of the MU family. I didn’t expect her to be here.

So it’s miss Yu Zhu. But why did she buy a few incomplete Scriptures? ”

The crowd was puzzled. The MU family’s young lady was a peerless genius of the Northern Land, and was ranked ninth on the hidden Dragon Roll.

The MU clan wasn’t located in Yunzhou, but in the neighboring Zhuzhou. When mu Yuzhu rose to power, there were still a few peerless geniuses in Zhuzhou who were competing with her.

However, the moment mu Yuzhu broke through to immortal-Foundation, she surpassed everyone else and transcended an unimaginable Heavenly Tribulation.

At this point, she entered the hidden Dragon Roll and became the number one genius of the bamboo region, her name shaking the wilderness.

It’s said that when she passed the heavenly Tribulation, her soul was injured, and it has been difficult to heal.

“This is also the reason why he wanted to buy the Thunderheart grass.”

People were discussing, but they still couldn't figure out why Mu Yuzhu would bid one million for these three scroll fragments.

Could it be that there was another universe in this remnant scroll?

But that shouldn't be the case. With so many geniuses present, couldn't they tell?

“One million once...”

The auctioneer took a long time to react. He slammed the hammer down and asked if anyone was willing to raise the bid.

The auctioneer's words made everyone look at him as if he was an idiot.

The price had already been raised to one million, so who was still willing to bid?

one million going thrice, sold. Congratulations to this lady.

The auctioneer quickly dropped the hammer and announced the results of the auction.

Lin Mo was dumbfounded by this scene. What was going on? why did this mu Yuzhu have to spend a million Yuan to get it?

[congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the incomplete Sutras of the world-changing Grand magic.]

[congratulations to the host for obtaining the first form of the zhuyan body tempering Art]

The second interest-recovery was only 800 times. The scroll that was given only had a dozen or so lines of Scripture.

This made Lin Mo feel helpless. He had only obtained one move of the zhuyan body-tempering technique, and he did not know if it would be useful.

A Golden Scroll appeared and Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief. A complete Kun Peng claw. He was very satisfied with this result.

the next item is a rank 7 earth realm magic weapon, Void Spirit sword...

On the auction stage, the auctioneer asked the maidservant to present the void Spirit sword, instantly wiping away the displeasure of the crowd.

The void Spirit sword was a rare treasure.

Even Lin Mo was watching with rapt attention. His heart was in turmoil. The return on interest of the void Spirit sword had to be higher.

This was the magic tool he was going to use next.

the starting price of the void Spirit sword is three hundred and fifty thousand. Each increment must not be less than ten thousand.

The auction reached its climax, and many people were interested in the void Spirit sword.

Lin Mo also found the man named Li Yu in the midst of the bidding. He did not expect him to be sitting in the hall.

He had a flirtatious woman in each of his arms. The two of them had heavy makeup on and were dressed very scantily.

Li Yu's hands were also rubbing the soft skin of the two women in an extremely dishonest manner.

"This ... Don't they avoid people?" Lin Mo was dumbfounded. He had wondered what kind of person Li Yu was.

According to what the people had said before, he felt that Li Yu would be a very cultured cultivation genius.

Or a sociable and generous young master.

However, he didn't expect that he would appear in such a state, not caring about what others thought.

However, there was one thing that people were right about. If he sold the void Spirit sword to Li Yu, he would not lose anything. On the contrary, he would make a lot of money ...

Because this guy was really generous, directly adding 100000 and 100000.

In less than two minutes, he had raised the void Spirit sword to 1.23 million.

The price was beyond Lin Mo's expectations.

He had originally thought that this Void Spirit sword could be sold for eight to nine hundred thousand at most.

"You can really do whatever you want with money ..."

In the end, Lin Mo could only sigh. This Li Yu spent money like water, spending all his time drinking and drinking.

However, he was extremely talented and his realm did not fall, making others envious.

[congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off a rank 7 earth grade magic weapon, the void Spirit sword.]

[successfully triggered 8000-fold auction interest return]

congratulations to the host for obtaining the space-breaking godly sword, rank 9 Earth Class.

The 8,000-fold interest was given to a rank 9 Earth Class magic weapon, which also had space law.

Lin Mo was overjoyed and took out the Skybreaker from the system space.

The divine sword was three feet long, and its blade emitted a silver light. The moment it appeared, it caused the space here to tremble and almost collapse.

If not for Lin Mo's suppression, the people outside would have sensed his situation.

“Good sword ...”

Lin Mo was overjoyed. This divine sword was too powerful. It was the enhanced version of the void Spirit sword and contained even more terrifying power.

At this moment, he was a little impatient. He really wanted to test out the power of the space-severing divine sword.

next, the final item of this auction, the finale.

After Li Yu paid the spiritual stones, the auction continued and the windows in the private rooms were opened.

Some people's eyes were burning with desire for the next jade talisman.

Even Li Yu, who was in the hall, stopped what he was doing, sat up straight, and began to take it seriously.

“As expected, they are all here for this ...”

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly. The water was too deep, but it was impossible for him to leave even if he wanted to.

He had already been targeted. As long as he didn't die, he would be watched by everyone, let alone hiding himself.

“I’m sure there are still some people who don’t know what happened in Languang city recently. I’ll explain it to everyone here.”

“Everyone from the hidden Dragon Pavilion has heard that they lost a symbol some time ago. It’s said that it was stolen.”

under the pursuit of so many top geniuses, that person was injured and lost his jade talisman.

As soon as he finished speaking, many people in the auction hall were shocked. All kinds of discussions rose one after another, and some people’s eyes were already red.

The Jade talisman of the hidden Dragon Pavilion was the key to opening the ancient battlefield ...

Every thousand years, the hidden Dragon Pavilion would refine enough runes to open the ancient battlefield and start the competition.

Now that one of the Jade talismans was lost, it meant that whoever got their hands on it would be able to enter the ancient battlefield even if they were not on the hidden Dragon Roll ...

No wonder Languang city was under martial law and no one was allowed to go out in the past month.

now, the Jade talisman has been found, but its ownership has become a problem.

The auctioneer knocked on the auction hammer. Because this jade talisman was of extraordinary significance, some of the older generation people couldn’t help but bid.

After many decisions, it was finally sold in an auction, and the highest price would be obtained.

am I hearing things? aren’t they auctioning off the qualification to enter the ancient battlefield ... innread.com

Some people’s hearts were beating wildly. Wouldn’t the value of this item be beyond the sky?

brother, wake up. Don't think about it anymore. There are so many heaven's favorites here. Do you really think you can win? ”

“Moreover, even if we take a step back, it might not be my own ...”

Everyone was in a heated discussion. Although the ancient battlefield spot was extremely precious, no one dared to make a move.

The auctioneer had already expected this and was not surprised. The maid at the back brought out a silver plate.

There, a small and exquisite jade stone appeared, and there were wondrous runes on it.

As soon as the rune appeared, some people in the field couldn't hold back. Some people even leaked their spiritual energy and were ready to attack at any time.

Lin Mo also looked at the Jade rune. Was this the key to entering the ancient battlefield?

“Think of a way to get it. Since I'm involved, I'll do the best ...”

His target was also the Jade talisman. Of course, before that, he had to kill Wu mo and Guan Yao.

The two of them were already prepared to make a move on him. Perhaps they would take action after the auction ended.

“However, this is Languang city. Will there really be no trouble if I kill them ...”

Lin Mo frowned. This was not the eastern Peninsula. He was no longer invincible, and he had no power behind him.

The Bai family that he had joined was also far away in the southern land. They did not even know that he had left the eastern land ...

I can sense that there are more than a dozen terrifying existences here. The others may have reached the cultivation level, but their battle strength is not as good as mine.

He pondered and analyzed the situation before him.

The more he analyzed, the more he felt that his chances of winning were slim.

For example, mu Yuzhu had been stuck at the first step of immortal Foundation for a long time. If it wasn't for her deliberate suppression, she would have already broken through.

Her goal was naturally to enter the ancient battlefield and break through there.

There were probably more than a hundred people like her in the northern lands. There were even some who were trying to match the opening of the ancient battlefield.

After he was born, he would have his family elders seal him after he had cultivated to a certain level, waiting for the day when he would reappear in the world.

Compared to them, Lin Mo's Foundation was truly lacking.

"However, this auction has nothing to do with me ..." Lin Mo was helpless. The auction began.

However, the starting price was as high as one million upper spiritual stones.

Although he could bid once or twice, it would only be for fun. The price of the Jade talisman would soon rise.

In less than a minute, someone had already raised the price to five million, and it was still rising.

Lin Mo ignored everything and sat cross-legged on the sofa. He took out some of the profit-returning treasures from the auction and began to absorb them.

He had to hurry up and improve his strength ...

The auction continued, but Lin Mo was no longer paying attention.

He took out a scroll from the system space, which recorded the cultivation method of the heaven-and-Earth Transformation technique.

The more he watched, the more he marveled at the profoundness of this spell technique.

Very quickly, he forgot himself and was immersed in it. He couldn't change the world now, but he could still change himself.

!!

He was extremely talented, and the Scripture was quickly memorized in Lin Mo's mind.

As he operated it silently, the aura in Lin Mo's private room changed.

If someone were to send their soul power in at this moment, they would be able to notice the abnormality.

At this moment, Lin Mo was completely breathless. Although he was still there, his aura was almost the same in the room.

Even the spirit Qi on his body had changed, making it difficult to distinguish.

This was a change in the soul. Unless one's realm was much higher than his, it was impossible for one to discover his disguise.

Moreover, in battle, it would be difficult for the enemy to lock onto him, and he would be able to break free easily.

“With the addition of the space-severing divine sword, I still have a very high chance of winning this battle ...”

Lin Mo was overjoyed. In such a short period of time, he was already able to perform the heaven-and-Earth Transformation.

As long as he went back and practiced a little, he would be able to control it perfectly and use it in battle.

“Bang!”

The auctioneer's face was red as he shouted, " congratulations to the guest in private Room No. 1 for successfully winning the Jade talisman of the ancient battlefield. The final price for the finale is thirteen million upper spiritual stones.

Such a high transaction price could be said to be the highest in the history of the Wu's auction house in blue light City.

Usually, auctions would take place, but the final treasures would only exceed a million.

Today, the price had reached 10 million, which was a great promotion for the reputation of the Wu's auction house.

Furthermore, his young master had even managed to obtain a jade talisman. This was the key to entering the ancient battlefield ...

"It's over ..."

The door of the private room opened, and Lin Mo walked out slowly.

He had completely erased all traces of his cultivation. He could now change his appearance as he wished.

If he wanted to hide now, no one would be able to find him.

haha, I didn't expect it to be Wu mo of the Wu family who won the Jade talisman. I just don't know if you can hold on to it.

Li Yu didn't care about other people's opinions at all and said this without any hesitation.

Some of the others' eyes flickered, and their lips twitched, revealing a meaningful smile.

At the front, Wu mo walked out. After feeling everyone's strange gazes, he also sneered.

"Hmph, whoever wants to take the Jade talisman from me, come at me."

As he spoke, he instantly released his powerful aura. The auction house trembled slightly, unable to bear it.

At the same time, outside the auction house, guards walked in one by one. They were not weak and were in contact with each other.

The battle intent was activated, and everyone was instantly on alert as if they were facing a great enemy.

There were a total of thirty guards, and each of them was at the peak of Nirvana, only a step away from immortal-Foundations.

But that was not important. What was important was that they had formed a battle formation.

His battle intent was triggered, and the aura that burst out was even stronger than Wu Mo's.

This was the Wu family's auction house, the Wu family's territory. If the Gongsun family didn't take over, blue light City would have been the Wu family's territory before this.

They had stationed their troops here, and if they formed a battle formation, even a King would find it difficult to break through.

"Hmph," he snorted.

Seeing that the Army had sent reinforcements, Wu mo snorted coldly and looked quite proud.

There were many geniuses who were more powerful than him, but they didn't dare to move.

Suddenly, he saw Lin Mo. The latter had already received all the spirit stones from the maidservant.

He seemed to be indifferent to the 30 people who had entered.

Lin Mo, you're still so calm even when you're about to die. Do you have enough self-control, or are you just pretending? " Wu mo looked at Lin Mo coldly.

The killing intent in his heart was very strong, and he could not wait to kill Lin Mo right now.

In the distance, mu Yuzhu didn't show any signs of anxiousness when she saw this situation. She remained calm and unruffled as she calmly watched the confrontation.

“What, your Wu's auction house is open for business, and you still won't let people leave?”

Lin Mo was neither servile nor overbearing. His words instantly choked Wu mo to death.

This guy was not the Wu family's head. The reputation of a city was not something that he could give up just because he said so.

Seeing Wu Mo's ashen face, Lin Mo smiled at him teasingly, bypassed the guards blocking the way, and left.

“Young master Wumo, I believe that these days, Languang city will be even more lively. I hope you'll be fine.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Mo's figure disappeared into the crowd. After leaving this place, it was almost impossible for Wu mo to find Lin Mo.

“Bastard ...”

f * ck! Wu mo cursed. He did not expect this. The Wu family had an auction house here. Lin Mo was a guest and could not be neglected ...

If not for that, he would have killed Lin Mo at the first moment.

“Brother Wumo, don't worry. He's just a clown. Leave him to me. You deal with the rest of the trouble.”

Behind Wu mo, Guan Yao, who was dressed in a black robe, walked out and chuckled.

Wu mo nodded. He was indeed in a lot of trouble now.

Countless eyes were staring at him. Once he broke the rules first and took action by force, the Wu's auction house would probably be torn down in an instant. innread.com

Lin Mo left the auction house and walked through the streets and alleys. He visited many shops and changed his clothes at every place he went.

He was not going back to his previous residence. He changed his appearance and found a new hotel to stay in.

When he checked in, he could sense that several of his neighbors were very powerful and often went out to the Wu's auction house.

It seems that there will be a huge storm in the near future. I'd better not go out.

Lin Mo chuckled. After the World-changing spell, he had completely disappeared from Languang city.

At this moment, he was in his room, setting up a formation. He was sitting cross-legged on a futon, surrounded by a pile of upper spiritual stones.

Other than that, there were also many heavenly treasures, each of which was extremely precious.

He circulated the spirit devouring mantra and the suction force of the spirit devouring body spread out. The spirit stones in the surroundings began to decrease at a visible rate.

The spiritual energy in some of the Supreme treasures was also flowing away.

Lin Mo's aura continued to grow stronger. Although the first step of immortal Foundation was divided into Nine Heavens, it was nothing to the God devouring body.

There were over a million upper spiritual stones and so many treasures.

In just three days, the spirit stone turned into ashes and the treasure disappeared completely. Lin Mo had absorbed all the spirit Qi.

And his cultivation level, after devouring the last trace of heaven and earth spiritual energy in the room, quietly rose.

"Oh,"

A massive amount of energy filled his body, and spirit Qi flowed through his limbs and bones. He felt like he had an endless amount of power.

Feeling the power flowing through his body, Lin Mo smiled and muttered, "He's already at the second heavenly layer of the first level of immortal-Foundation ..."

Not only did his realm increase, but he could also perfectly control the runes that could change the world.

we don't know what's going on outside. It might have already been snatched away.

Lin Mo frowned. Wu mo would not stay in Languang city forever. He would definitely find a way to leave this place.

And in Languang city, the most powerful existence was perhaps that Army.

The people of the Gongsun family didn't make a move, and even some of the older generation didn't make a move. Only the younger generation would compete.

It was a relatively fair environment, but it was filled with danger. There would be people of the older generation observing in the dark.

since I've encountered the ancient battlefield, I have to go there. I can't miss it.

Lin Mo smiled and walked out of the room. He did not wear his black robe and bamboo hat. He changed his appearance and went out.

After some inquiries, Wu mo was still hiding in the Wu's auction house and had not gone out.

He also knew that it would not be easy to leave with the Jade talisman.

However, after a few days of preparation, more and more people had come to Languang city, and there was no lack of experts among them.

Although this was still the Wu's territory, they couldn't control the situation anymore.

In the beginning, those people would still give face to the Gongsun family and would not cause any disputes on the surface.

However, as time dragged on, someone might not be able to resist taking action.

At that time, a fierce battle would break out.

At the thought of this, Lin Mo grinned. He was drinking in a restaurant while listening to the discussions of others.

The news that Wu mo had obtained the hidden Dragon Pavilion's jade talisman was spreading all over the streets and alleys.

Occasionally, there would be others, but they were all short-lived.

"By the way, have you guys heard any news about Lin Mo recently?"

Lin Mo was still drinking and listening to the others' discussion when his name suddenly appeared in the conversation.

"Lin Mo, is that the person who auctioned the Thunderheart grass and Void Spirit sword?"

that's right. In the beginning, everyone thought he was a genius who had hidden his identity to fight. In the end, he turned out to be a clown who was trying to please the crowd.

"Haha, I remember now."

The crowd chimed in one after another, causing the veins on Lin Mo's forehead to pop out.

"There's no need to look for him. Lin Mo has already been killed. I heard that it was corpse puppet sect's Guan Yao who made the move," that's true. Corpse puppet sect's Guan Yao is Gongsun Wenhao's fifth general. His strength is extraordinary. With him, even if Lin Mo isn't weak, he shouldn't be able to survive.

“ ... ”

Lin Mo was no longer in the mood to listen as the topic shifted to him. He paid the bill and walked out of the restaurant.

He had just walked out when he saw a group of guards leaving in an orderly manner.

They were the guards of the Wu's, but many of them were powerful. Maybe someone else had mixed in with them ...

“It seems that Wu mo is planning to leave?”

Lin Mo chuckled. Opposite his restaurant was the Wu's auction house, and Wu mo was inside at this time.

As early as the last auction, this place had stopped business and had been in a state of alert.

Many guards were gathered at the entrance of the auction house. Wu mo was mobilizing his troops and was about to make a move.

This action also caused the other people in Languang city to become more alert.

People could feel a stifling killing intent spreading throughout Languang city.

“I guess we'll be taking action today.”

Lin Mo smiled as he watched the commotion at the entrance of the auction house. He then turned around and left.

After he left, more and more people casually strolled here to observe Wu Mo's movements.

On this day, the sun set in the West, and night quietly fell.

Groups of people from the Wu's auction house left quietly. They rode on demonic beasts and left Languang city.

It was also at this moment that Languang city was opened to the public, and they could leave.

One after another, figures walked out of the city gate and flew away, covering the sky and the earth. The Black Mass formed a magnificent scene.

Lin Mo strolled out of the city. He stood at the city gate and looked around, frowning slightly.

His soul power had been locked on Wu Mo's men, but he finally found that this group of people was moving very fast.

After they left the city, they immediately split up into five groups and left.

"Splitting up into five groups to confuse sight and hearing?" Lin Mo pondered. He was sure that Wu mo had already left.

There was Wu Mo's aura among the group of people who left the city. There was no mistake about this.

Unless that guy also had a secret technique similar to the great art of heaven and earth changing.

"Yi, mu Yuzhu has moved out."

As he walked, Lin Mo felt a powerful aura flying across the sky. It was not hidden, and it came from mu Yuzhu.

that can't be right. She could have entered the hidden Dragon rank herself and obtained a place in the hidden Dragon Pavilion. Why would she fight for it? "

He was a little confused. Could it be that this jade talisman had some special benefits that had not been made public?

"Fellow Daoist, why aren't you giving chase? that woman mu Yuzhu has already made her move. If she succeeds, we won't have any more chances."

More people flew over from behind. Seeing that Lin Mo was walking slowly, they were curious. Someone was flying in the middle of these people, and it was a familiar face.

The person who had come was Li Yu. This time, he did not bring a beauty with him, as he did not dare to be careless.

“Sir, you think too highly of me. I just happened to be taking this path, I don’t have any other intentions.” Lin Mo shook his head.

Suddenly, he thought of something and quickly flew up. He felt that although Li Yu was fickle-minded, he was easy to talk to.

He opened his mouth to ask, voicing out the doubts in his heart.

“Did I misjudge?”

Li Yu was a little surprised. It was such a coincidence that this guy was going to take this road?

However, when he saw the doubt in Lin Mo’s eyes, he knew that he was not pretending. He nodded and said generously.

“The hidden Dragon Pavilion controls a type of power. Every year, it can recover a little, and the amount recovered is just enough to form three Jade talismans.”

therefore, there are only 3000 slots to enter the ancient battlefield. However, every time it opens, millions of people will enter.

“Why?” Lin Mo was shocked. If so many people could enter, what was the point of fighting?

naturally, it’s because of the special nature of the Jade talisman. Those who enter with the Jade talisman can return intact even if they die on the battlefield. Their Foundation and origin won’t be damaged.

“There are only 3000 spots to avoid death, and the supply is in short supply. What do you think?”

Li Yu laughed out loud. He could also get a jade talisman from the hidden Dragon Pavilion, but he wanted to get one for his younger brother as well.

That mu Yuzhu was the same. She wanted to snatch one for her maidservant to save her life ...

“So that’s how it is. I’ve gained some knowledge.”

Lin Mo cupped his fists in thanks. A perfect resurrection was a heaven-defying opportunity.

No wonder those people were fighting so crazily for it.

“We’ll talk next time if we’re fated to. I’m leaving.”

Li Yu waved goodbye and flew away with his subordinates, leaving Lin Mo alone in deep thought.

“It looks like we’re still going to snatch it.”

Lin Mo spread out his hands and flew down slowly. He also wanted a chance to avoid death.

However, he was alone and couldn’t be anxious. He would let those guys fight first. It would be best if they were all injured before he made his move.

He walked like this, changing his appearance from time to time, and did not attract anyone’s attention.

However, on the way, they met someone who had some grudges with them ...
