

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 621

“Let’s eat. I haven’t eaten like this in a long time.”

Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction. He picked up a piece of Water Dragon meat and ate it. It melted in his mouth, and the medicinal fragrance of the divine medicine was mixed with it.

The fragrance spread out, and the people nearby swallowed their saliva when they saw this scene.

This was a cauldron of precious medicine, and divine medicine had been added to it. Eating it would definitely be very nourishing.

“It’s delicious. I feel like I’ve lived the past two years in vain. Why didn’t I think of this...?” Qilin’s face was filled with enjoyment.

When she was hunted down two years ago, she had only hastily refined her blood essence to recover herself.

She did not hold back any of the elixirs she picked and ate them all.

Their taste was naturally not good. Compared to the pot of stew in front of her, they were bad.

“Will you really be fine after eating it? Don’t break through accidentally.”

Lin Mo said worriedly. Qilin did not have the God Devouring Body. After eating this pot of Water Dragon meat, she would only be one step away from breaking through.

If she did break through, would she not be able to enter the ancient battlefield?

There were countless opportunities there, and he wanted to go in with Qilin so that they could look out for each other.

Qilin did not pay any attention to him and ate heartily. Soon, the Water Dragon meat in the bronze cauldron was divided between the two.

The two of them each ate half of it, not wasting any of the soup. They were very satisfied.

Qilin burped and lay on the grass with a satisfied expression, not wanting to move.

“It’s so fragrant. I’m so full...”

This was the most pleasurable moment since she was born. Even when she stole the jade seals from the Dragon Pavilion and took a little revenge, she was not as satisfied as she was at this moment.

“Don’t fall asleep, or we’ll suffer a great loss.” Lin Mo activated the Soul Devouring Art and devoured the vast medicinal power in his body.

“Don’t worry, I’ve dissolved the medicinal power to make up for the deficiency of being born early. What are we going to eat for our next meal?”

Qilin licked her lips. She had just finished eating and was already looking forward to what she would eat next.

“We’ll talk about it after we enter.” Lin Mo smiled. With such a little girl by his side, the journey would be more fun.

After another hour of rest, there was finally movement in the Heritage Land ahead.

A violent vibration was heard, and the space began to tremble as if the sky was falling and the earth was splitting. A huge crack appeared in the sky.

It was as if the sky had been split open, and no one knew what was behind the crack.

However, they knew that if they wanted the inheritance of the Kun Peng, they would have to pass through the crack.

“It’s opened. Let’s go and seize the first opportunity,” people cried out in alarm, and many people rushed out.

There was a lot of chaotic mist in the crack, and nothing could be seen clearly. After those people rushed in, there were no strange phenomena.

Even so, the crack was still expanding, and people could vaguely hear the ancient sounds of worship from within.

Mysterious runes appeared in the chaotic mist, looking very sacred.

The Heritage Land had opened, and some people had entered. People could no longer remain calm.

Even if it was a trap, they had to charge in. Otherwise, they would regret it for the rest of their lives if someone else obtained the Kun Peng inheritance.

“Gongsun Wenhao and the others went in. Mu Yuzhu also went in. What about us?” Qilin was not in a hurry and asked Lin Mo.

Unknowingly, she seemed to believe Lin Mo’s words without a doubt.

“Link our auras together. Don’t be separated from each other,” Lin Mo said.

He grabbed Qilin’s hand to prevent the teleportation formation behind the crack from separating them.

The two of them entered the mist together. Their bodies were baptized by the chaotic Qi, and they felt as if the dirt on their bodies had been washed away.

“Kun Peng—it’s the aura of the Kun Peng. I can sense it. I can’t be wrong,” Qilin said.

She was sure that there was something left behind by the Kun Peng.

It was even possible that the place where the Kun Peng died had its remaining blood essence.

“There’s a pool of divine liquid over there! My God, someone has directly broken through to be a Ruler!

In the Heritage Land, many people exclaimed. The first person to rush in was a powerhouse at the peak of the Almighty realm.

He encountered a pool of divine liquid the moment he entered, and after soaking in it for a short while, he directly broke through to become a Ruler.

People could not sit still anymore. Even Gongsun Wenhao made his move, and so did the major forces.

“There are too many people fighting for it. It’s not easy to fight for it. Let’s go somewhere else.”

Lin Mo pulled back Qilin, who was about to rush out and snatch it.

Even if she could snatch some, she would have to fight with Teng Feng and Gongsun Wenhao. The loss would outweigh the gain.

There was nothing here that could compare to the inheritance of the Kun Peng.

Moreover, in the system space, the Demon Sealing Mirror replica that Qilin had just given him had some strange movements.

Lin Mo could sense that there seemed to be something deep in the Heritage Land that was attracting the Demon Sealing Mirror.

As for the divine liquid, Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng had temporarily joined forces. Mu Yuzhu avoided them and went deep into the Heritage Land.

Although the surrounding people were angry that the pool of divine liquid had been obtained by those two, they did not dare to say anything.

As Lin Mo and Qilin went deeper, they realized that there were many treasures in the Heritage Land.

After walking for a short while, they came across a type of jade essence that was blue in color. Despite that, it was not as good as the divine liquid they had seen at the beginning.

That said, it was still very precious. When Lin Mo took it away, he realized that it was half a step into heaven-grade.

If it was added during pill refinement, it would have unexpected effects.

If Lin Mo were to sell it to a pill alchemist, he would definitely be able to earn a lot of spirit stones.

“It’s a pity that it has no other use except for alchemy.” Lin Mo sighed with regret.

This type of jade essence had a lot of limitations. Although it was precious, its value had to be discounted.

The sounds of fighting could be heard from all over the Heritage Land. It had just been opened, but chaotic battles had begun.

Many people obtained benefits, and some even dug up divine medicines. In the end, they were besieged by a group of people.

In such a situation, even a Ruler would have a hard time. They could only flee in a sorry state.

The group continued to venture deeper, and before long, they entered a crimson sea. The bottom of the sea was still burning with raging flames.

Such a spectacle caused countless people to be stunned. This Heritage Land was so mystical.

“This can be considered a Yin Yang Lake, but it’s not formed naturally. It should be created by the Kun Peng with the power of extreme Yang and Yin.” Someone sighed.

Someone stepped into the Yin Yang Lake and instantly felt two different forces, which further confirmed his guess.

The group of people roared in excitement. A large piece of jade was found at the bottom of the lake.

The jade stone was white and black, and it was the size of a small mountain. It was definitely of heaven-grade.

“Snatch it. We can’t miss this.”

“Die!” Lin Mo shouted and attacked at the same time as Qilin. The people who discovered it were shocked and hurriedly blocked them.

Nevertheless, since no one had reached the Ruler realm in this area, Lin Mo and the Qilin did this with ease.

A few minutes later, the mountain-sized Yin Yang Jade was stored in the system space by Lin Mo.

Although the surrounding people were furious, they did not dare to say anything.

[Yin Yang Jade, heaven-grade tier 5, pure quality. It has the power to balance Yin and Yang, and there's a ball of Kun Peng blood essence wrapped in it.]

[If you cultivate the Kun Peng Divine Art, you will be able to quickly grasp the essence of it and master the art in a short time.]

The system's voice sounded. This piece of Yin Yang Jade had reached heaven-grade tier 5, and it even had Kun Peng blood essence inside.

“What a great opportunity...”

“Boom!”

Behind, a terrifying explosion could be heard. Some Rulers heard that a Yin Yang Jade the size of a small mountain had appeared.

There was not just one person. There were five Rulers, and they were all extremely powerful.

As soon as they arrived, they locked their eyes on Lin Mo and Qilin, looking at them with greedy eyes.

“What are you looking at? Are you looking for death?” Qilin roared in anger. She was not afraid at all and instead threatened the five people.

“It's not good to fight for a long time.”

Lin Mo pulled her behind him and looked at the empty space with vigilance.

This was the Yin Yang Lake built by the Kun Peng. The two forces were very strong.

To Lin Mo, this place was like heaven.

The tremendous power was inexhaustible. He had the God Devouring Body, so he could always maintain his peak condition here.

In addition, the power of the Mismatched Yin Yang could be exerted more effectively.

Even if Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng joined forces, they could forget about defeating Lin Mo here.

In fact, if they were not careful, they might even be killed by Lin Mo.

“Let’s retreat first. This place is heaven for the God Devouring Body. It’s not worth it,” one of the Rulers said.

They were not fools. They would not be rigid by the sight of treasures.

Knowing Lin Mo’s combat power, they did not dare to take the risk.

Although they were temporarily working together, it did not mean that they would not stab each other in the back.

“Quickly dive to the bottom of the sea. There’s a palace there, and it seems to be the palace of the Kun Peng.”

Someone shouted. Although the Yin Yang Lake had a great impact on them, the temptation of entering the Kun Peng’s palace was too great.

“Let’s go too.”

Lin Mo said as he flew down with Qilin. The Yin Yang Lake was very deep—tens of thousands of kilometers deep.

After diving for more than ten minutes, they finally reached the bottom of the Yin Yang Lake.

Flames spread, but no one felt hot. Instead, an extremely cold force was wreaking havoc.

After it entered one’s body, it changed and turned into a hot feeling.

After searching for a while, they saw a palace. It was extremely huge and resplendent as if it was cast from gold.

The power of the Yin Yang Lake was the strongest here, but it was not eroding everyone.

There was no lake water inside, but the spiritual Qi had faintly turned into a watery swamp, proving that this place was extraordinary.

“Get lost.”

As soon as they stepped in, they were attacked. Someone had entered first and set up an ambush to ambush them.

Lin Mo and Qilin attacked at the same time, displaying their martial arts.

Lin Mo’s hands turned into claws, and he seemed to have transformed into a roc as he struck out with his sharp claws.

The chest of one of the ambushers was instantly torn apart, and blood spurted out.

Many people were shocked by this move. When they saw that it was Lin Mo who had attacked, they were shocked.

They wanted to retreat, but it was too late. Qilin waved her hand and released a Qilin pattern. A terrifying explosion spread.

Lin Mo and Qilin joined forces and looked down at the place, killing all the people who tried to sneak attack them.

Some of the people who came in later were shocked when they saw this.

Lin Mo and Qilin were simply too powerful. With just a few moves, they had torn apart the Almighty powerhouses one by one.

“These two are too strong. They’ll snatch all the opportunities. Let’s work together.”

Someone said, encouraging the surrounding people to attack and kill Lin Mo and Qilin together.

And as long as they killed them, they would be able to get a large piece of Yin Yang Jade and the Qilin blood that they had been dreaming of.

Although the risk was high, the benefits were also great.

“You’re looking for death.”

Lin Mo’s soul locked onto these people the moment they thought of attacking.

A powerful force exploded forth as he continuously brandished his claws. The Kun Peng Claws were incomparably terrifying and could cut through all obstacles. They were unstoppable.

No one could stop Lin Mo’s attack. Some of them were even at the peak of the Almighty realm.

However, against Lin Mo’s attacks, they were forced to retreat, and the magic tools in their hands even broke.

“If you attack me, you’ll have to pay the price.”

Lin Mo sneered and tore the few people who were approaching him into pieces. A bloody mist burst out around him, and there was no one in front of him.

In the distance, many people saw this and immediately felt their blood run cold.

Lin Mo was like a god of death. People retreated and did not dare to get close. In an instant, there was no one within several kilometers of Lin Mo and Qilin.

A few Rulers flew over from behind. When they picked up the strong smell of blood on Lin Mo and Qilin, they could not help but feel terrified.

A trace of fear appeared in their eyes. They did not provoke the two. The key at the moment was to obtain the treasure.

“Ah, he’s not making a move. He must be a sea turtle. Sea turtle soup must be very nourishing.” Qilin looked at one of the retreating figures.

That was a Ruler with great combat power. His true form was a turtle, but it was a pity that he did not dare to make a move.

“Don’t just think about eating. Finding the inheritance is more important,” Lin Mo said helplessly. Everyone placed great importance on the Kun Peng’s inheritance.

Only the little girl was in a hurry to find medicinal fields, elixirs, and so on.

“I don’t care about the Kun Peng’s inheritance.” Qilin pursed her lips and spoke in an uncaring manner.

Lin Mo’s face darkened when he heard this. If this little girl’s words were to spread, many people would probably vomit blood in anger.

Even so, she was right. After all, she had the Qilin’s inheritance.

Although it was incomplete at the moment, it would be perfected one day, and that day would come very soon.

“Don’t worry. If you can’t get it, you can take my mother as your master. I’ll teach you the complete divine arts of the Qilin.”

Qilin patted Lin Mo’s shoulder and consoled him like a young adult.

“You’re so willing...”

Lin Mo was speechless. This little girl was giving away her inheritance so casually.

“By the way, if you don’t need the Kun Peng’s inheritance, why did you come to the Kun Peng Nest?” Lin Mo asked.

“I was looking for you.”

Qilin said casually. She was honest that her purpose for coming here was to find Lin Mo.

“Otherwise, do you think I would come here? There are many treasures here, but I can rely on my luck as an auspicious beast and do well outside without worrying about being discovered.”

Qilin spread out her hands, and the words that came out of her mouth almost angered Lin Mo to death.

“Alright, you’re good.” Lin Mo was convinced. The little Qilin was really lucky...

“I don’t want your divine art. In the future, don’t teach the Qilin Divine Arts to others. Otherwise, if the enemies find out, you’ll be in a very passive position,” Lin Mo warned her.

He was very helpless. Even Lil Die knew she could not reveal her inherited divine arts. Why did this little girl want to give it to him so casually?

“The Ancient Qilin Tree won’t lie to me. Anyone who can obtain the benefits of the Ancient Qilin Tree won’t attack me. I can trust them completely.”

Qilin said nonchalantly. At the same time, she pouted and looked at Lin Mo in dissatisfaction.

Lin Mo seemed to be treating her like a child. This was unforgivable.

She glared at Lin Mo to express her dissatisfaction.

“Why is that?” This time, it was Lin Mo’s turn to be curious. Was the Ancient Qilin Tree that mysterious?

“This involves a very mysterious power that even the saints have never mastered. It can’t be explained.”

Qilin shook her head. She did not know why either.

Despite that, the Ancient Qilin Tree was the most precious treasure of the Qilins. In fact, apart from the Qilins, not many people had obtained any benefits from it.

Since Lin Mo could use it to cultivate twice, it was enough to prove that he had no ill intentions toward her and could be trusted.

“That would be my honor.” Lin Mo nodded. He had thought that the Ancient Qilin Tree could be used as long as he had the Qilin blood.

What was the mysterious power Qilin was talking about?

“There’s a treasure up ahead. It should be a magic tool.”

At this moment, Qilin suddenly spoke. She looked ahead. Her perception was very sharp, and she could sense it in advance.

“But many people are fighting for it. There are seven Rulers.” She looked at Lin Mo.

Magic weapons were not of much use to her but seemed to be of use to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo nodded. Since they encountered it, there was no reason not to go see it.

The two of them flew forward. The palace was very large and wide. After passing through the main hall, they entered a passage.

They followed the passage and entered a secret room.

Although it was called a secret chamber, the space here was very large. It was not a problem to accommodate hundreds of people fighting inside.

Moreover, the surrounding walls were extremely hard. The battle between the seven Rulers had caused cracks to appear in the space, but the ground and the surrounding walls were still intact.

“Isn’t that the ancient bronze lamp at the entrance of the Kun Peng Nest?”

Lin Mo was stunned as he saw the treasure they were fighting over.

This was just a magic tool used by the Kun Peng to test the intruders. Could this be considered a treasure?

“Trust me, this thing is definitely not simple.”

Qilin was full of energy and was ready to go up and fight for it.

“There are three of them. Let’s grab one first.” Lin Mo and Qilin stepped forward.

Although the seven Rulers were all extremely powerful, they were all fighting for their own lives, trying to prevent the other party from obtaining the ancient bronze lamps.

Lin Mo did not hesitate and joined the battle. Working with Qilin, they quickly grabbed an ancient bronze lamp.

“B*stard, these two clearly didn’t know each other before. How did they join hands?”

One of the Rulers cursed. Was Lin Mo not greedy for the Qilin blood at all?

The rest of the people sighed at Lin Mo’s strength. He had obtained an ancient bronze lamp so quickly.

“Are you alright?”

Lin Mo and Qilin retreated. In order to protect Lin Mo from getting the ancient bronze lamp, Qilin’s back was attacked by two Rulers.

If it was someone else, they would have been disabled or even killed.

However, such an attack did not cause any serious injuries to Qilin.

Even so, the scales on her back were broken, revealing her snow-white skin and a few drops of bright red blood.

Despite that, her injuries healed very quickly. Qilin’s body changed, and her scales appeared once again to form a defense.

“It’s fine. My physical strength is not any weaker than yours. Don’t underestimate me.” Qilin smiled smugly.

The other party did not dare to use his full strength as well and was always on guard against sneak attacks from the people around him.

“Another magic tool has appeared. Could this be the Kun Peng’s magic tool refining room?”

In the distance, someone cried out in alarm because another magic tool had appeared. It appeared from the cracked space.

This time, the magic weapon was extremely powerful, even more so than the ancient bronze lamps.

Without exception, these were all heaven-grade magic items that were casually refined by the Kun Peng and sealed here.

“Did we suffer a loss? Are these the treasures I sensed?”

Qilin pointed at the magic tools flying in the air, wanting to snatch them.

Nonetheless, since Lin Mo did not act rashly, she could not do anything about it. She could only urge Lin Mo to act quickly.

“Don’t panic. We can’t possibly get all of them.”

Lin Mo gestured for Qilin to calm down. He stored the ancient bronze lamp in the system space.

Soon, the system’s voice sounded in his mind.

[Heaven Illuminating Lamp, a magic tool made by the Kun Peng using the flesh and blood of a saint as lamp oil. It has a sealing effect and contains Kun Peng runes. There are a total of nine Heaven Illuminating Lamps, and all of them together can activate the Kun Peng Seal in the Demon Sealing Mirror.]

The system’s introduction made Lin Mo very happy.

This thing was a Heaven Illuminating Lamp, and there were a total of nine of them. Could it be the nine lamps at the beginning?

“There are three lamps here, so where are the other lamps?”

Lin Mo suppressed the excitement in his heart. He knew that this could not be made public. Otherwise, everyone in the Heritage Land would attack him.

“Little girl, you’re truly my lucky star...” Lin Mo sighed in admiration. He felt that he was getting closer to the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng.

“Of course, I’m an auspicious beast.” Qilin smiled complacently. She was very pleased with the praise.

“Let’s go for the magic tools. Don’t be greedy. The most important thing is to get the remaining two ancient bronze lamps.”

Lin Mo instructed and made the first move.

In order not to arouse suspicion, he set his target as the closest magic tool.

It was a light green divine sword, and it emitted a very strong Sword Qi.

No one could withstand the attack of the Sword Qi.

Even though many people wanted it, they could not get close. This Sword Qi would give even the Rulers a headache.

“Go get your sword. I’ll block these people.”

A layer of scales appeared on Qilin’s body, forming a layer of armor that wrapped around her.

In an instant, her combat power increased greatly, and she swept away everything.

Anyone who got close to her would be attacked by her, and she quickly cleared the area.

No one dared to get close, so everyone could only leave in anger.

At the same time, they were also looking at Lin Mo.

This divine sword was not simple. It was of a very high grade, and the Sword Qi it released was very difficult to block.

If even Lin Mo’s God Devouring Body could not withstand it, then there was no need for them to fight for it.

Treasures were good, but they were useless if they could not get them.

“Clang!”

The sharp Sword Qi slashed at Lin Mo’s body. A lot of Sword Qi also surfaced around him, but they were completely useless against the light green sword and were cut off.

Lin Mo's body was bleeding. The sharp Sword Qi had cut his body open.

If he did not retreat at that moment, he would probably be severely injured by the sharp sword.

"My Sword Qi repels it. How troublesome..."

Lin Mo gritted his teeth and slowly approached the divine sword. He had no choice but to use the Abyssal Devouring.

As soon as the God Devouring Body's killing move was used, the power contained in the divine sword began to be devoured.

The Sword Qi weakened slightly, and Lin Mo's injuries recovered.

The boundless power in his body formed even more Sword Qi and began to resist the divine sword's Sword Qi.

"I don't believe it. You're just a rootless duckweed. Without a sufficient energy source, you can't withstand such a huge consumption."

Lin Mo was enraged and increased the intensity of the Abyssal Devouring.

His face was slightly pale. Maintaining the Abyssal Devouring for a long time was not a small burden for him.

Even so, it was all worth it under Qilin's nervous gaze.

Lin Mo slowly approached the divine sword, and the faint green light on it began to weaken. It was gradually unable to hold on.

"Swish!"

With a soft sound, Lin Mo grabbed the hilt of the divine sword with his palm.

He could feel the power of rejection coming from his hand as the Sword Qi attacked his palm.

A powerful force spread, but it quickly weakened.

After more than ten minutes of stalemate, the sword light on the divine sword disappeared, and it lost all power to resist.

Finally, Lin Mo also kept the divine sword in the system space.

As long as he kept it, it would be completely his, and no one could take it away...

[A heaven-grade tier 6 magic tool, the Green Cloud Sword. Made of pure Green Cloud Jade.]

[There are runes forged by the Kun Peng inside. The treasure will be left to future generations. However, due to the runes, the person who obtains the treasure can only obtain one magic tool from this place.]

The system's voice was heard, explaining the Green Cloud Sword's origins in detail.

What made Lin Mo feel helpless was that out of all the treasures here, he could only obtain the Green Cloud Sword.

!!

“Wait, what about the Heaven Illuminating Lamp?”

Lin Mo was taken aback. He had obtained the Heaven Illuminating Lamp. If that was the case, how could he have obtained the Green Cloud Sword?

Also, the Heaven Illuminating Lamp was related to the inheritance of the Kun Peng. If everyone could only take one, would it not be impossible to gather all nine?

[The Heaven Illuminating Lamp is a treasure that was used to seal the Kun Peng's inheritance. It is not included in the list.]

The system replied quickly. The Heaven Illuminating Lamps were uncountable, so one could fight for them as one wished.

“Qilin, each person can only get one of the treasures here. Other than the ancient bronze lamp, do you have any other magic tool that you like?”

Lin Mo asked. He had obtained enough benefits, so it was Qilin’s turn next.

He could not be the only one gaining while Qilin did not get anything, right?

“The one I like...” Qilin was startled, and she began to seriously think.

She looked at the dazzling array of magic tools here, not knowing what to choose for a moment.

Finally, under Lin Mo’s speechless gaze, she turned her gaze to the middle of the battlefield.

There was an old man there. He was a Ruler and looked a little familiar. Lin Mo could not recall where he had seen him before.

“I want to drink turtle soup. It must be delicious.” Qilin wiped the drool from the corner of her mouth.

She did not think much of the magic tools here. For her, she could fight against a heaven-grade magic tool with her bare hands. This was the confidence of the divine beast Qilin—the confidence of her powerful strength.

“So it’s him...”

Lin Mo facepalmed. He had met this person again. Previously, Qilin said that turtle soup would definitely be delicious and even urged him to hunt the person down.

Even though the sea turtle was very hostile to Lin Mo and the Qilin, it did not attack them, so they could not kill it directly.

“Be more reliable. Grab a magic tool first.” Lin Mo knocked on her head.

After the girl ate Water Dragon meat once, she became addicted to it. She did not forget about eating at all times...

“Alright then, let’s grab that one and hunt while we’re at it.” Qilin pointed at the center of the battlefield.

There was a ball of light there. It was very strong. It was definitely an extremely powerful magic tool, but people could not see what was inside.

Without a doubt, that was the most precious magic tool in the field.

Of course, this was under the premise that people did not know about the Heaven Illuminating Lamp. Otherwise, the scene would have been even crazier.

“Alright, there’s also an unclaimed ancient bronze lamp there. If there’s a chance, take it first,” Lin Mo said.

At this time, the Green Cloud Sword in his system space had completely lost its power.

He imprinted his soul on it, and the Kun Peng runes appeared, recording his soul imprint.

He could only take away the Green Cloud Sword and the Heaven Illuminating Lamps, nothing else.

Even so, he could still help someone else snatch magic tools. He could also help Qilin get one.

“Human God Devouring Body, you’ve gone too far. You’ve only just obtained a powerful magical tool,” an old woman said.

She was in a half-human, half-beast state with a pair of golden-red bat wings on her back. Her hands had transformed into sharp claws.

The old woman was a bat-type demonic beast, but her specific species was not clear.

Nonetheless, she was extremely fast, and she was able to move around the battlefield with ease. The reason Lin Mo targeted her was that she had an ancient bronze lamp in her hand.

“It’s just a fight for an opportunity. If you give me the ancient bronze lamp, I won’t do anything,” Lin Mo said frankly.

Of the three lamps, one was ownerless, one had been claimed by him, and the last one was with this woman.

“It’s just an ancient bronze lamp that the Kun Peng used to test one’s talent. What do you want it for?” The old woman’s expression changed, somewhat puzzled.

She had used her speed advantage to obtain the lantern. After checking it, she found that it was useless except to test her talent.

Now that Lin Mo had come to snatch it, was there any special meaning to it?

“You also have one on you. Why are you fighting an old woman over it?” The old woman said indifferently, trying to fish for information.

“It’s useless to only have one lamp to test your talent. Cut the crap. Hand it over and I won’t attack you.”

Lin Mo raised his hand, and a light green sword appeared.

With the Kun Peng runes in it, it would be easy to refine the magic tool once he obtained it. He took it out and used it in such a short time.

“What a sharp sword.”

The old woman exclaimed in surprise. Without hesitation, she also took out a magic tool, a heaven-grade spear.

That said, its grade was obviously lower than that of the Green Cloud Sword, and it could only block the sword light of the Green Cloud Sword.

A great battle broke out. The other party had broken through to the Ruler realm a long time ago, and her strength was at the third level.

Lin Mo was caught in a tough battle, but for the sake of the lamp, he had no other choice.

The surrounding people heaved a sigh of relief when they saw Lin Mo fighting the old lady without any explanation.

As long as he did not find trouble with them, they could fight for the most precious treasure with peace of mind.

“Another treasure is out. Hurry up and snatch it...”

Everyone went crazy and attacked at the same time. There were too many magic tools here. It was simply unimaginable.

There were many magic tools here. At this moment, everyone acted because everyone could only obtain one.

Therefore, many people from the major forces would get one and give it to their disciples to refine and take up a spot.

A chaotic battle broke out, and there were even many Rulers fighting.

Qilin did not try to snatch the treasure she had her eyes on. Instead, she chased after the turtle and kept chasing.

Moreover, she kept saying that she wanted to drink turtle soup, which almost angered the other party to death. innread.com

Seeing this, the others did not interfere. They could not wait for Qilin to chase the turtle all the way so that they would have one less competitor.

“This is the complete Qilin Step. How is this possible? Did the Qilin girl pass the Qilin’s supreme inheritance to you?”

The old woman who was fighting with Lin Mo was shocked when she saw Lin Mo use the complete Nine Qilin Steps.

“Due to your pursuit, she didn’t even awaken the complete Qilin inheritance herself. How dare you say that?”

Lin Mo said angrily. His heart ached at the thought of Qilin being hunted down by so many people for the past two years.

During this period, he had treated the little girl as his sister. Just like Lin Die, he had to take good care of her.

“Then you must have gotten a part of it, right? I’m the executive elder of the Bat Wings Clan. I can recommend you to our clan. As long as you capture the Qilin girl, we’ll do our best to nurture you. We can even—”

Before she could finish, Lin Mo rushed over with an angry expression.

A powerful Sword Qi exploded and was mixed with fire and lightning. The attack became more and more frenzied.

“Bats shouldn’t be tasty. Forget it, I’ll just grind your bones and scatter your ashes.”

Lin Mo said coldly, showing no mercy.

The other party’s words had aroused his killing intent.

Since the old lady kept having thoughts about Qilin, she and Lin Mo were enemies. He would not keep trouble for the future.

“You? Even though you have the human God Devouring Body, the difference between us is more than just one realm.

The old lady sneered. She was a third-level Ruler and was extremely powerful.

She could sense that Lin Mo was only a step away from the Almighty realm.

That said, in order to enter the ancient battlefield, Lin Mo would definitely suppress his cultivation and not allow himself to break through.

In this way, the old lady’s chances of winning would be very high.

“Old hag, what are you so proud of? Aren’t you just a Ruler? It’s not like I haven’t killed one before.”

Lin Mo mocked as he slashed out with the Green Cloud Sword. The Sword Qi was covered in flames and lightning as it attacked.

The other party raised her hand and waved her sharp claws, shattering the Sword Qi in a few moves.

The next moment, she transformed into her original form, a three-meter-tall blood-red bat.

Her bat wings were five meters long when spread. With a light flap, the space trembled, and the bat's red figure disappeared.

When she reappeared, she was behind Lin Mo. Her sharp claws were about to tear his back apart.

In response, Lin Mo did not even turn his head. A layer of black holes appeared around his body, and the Abyssal Devouring was activated.

“Seal.”

Lin Mo shouted in a low voice. The sharp claws seemed to have fallen into a swamp when they entered the black hole, unable to move an inch.

Just as the bat was about to retract its claws, it realized that one of its arms had been shackled. No matter how hard it flapped its wings, it could not break free.

“Kun Peng Claws!”

Lin Mo said softly. His left hand turned into a Kun Peng's claw and landed on his opponent's arm.

“Ah...”

A shrill scream was heard as the red bat was in pain. At this moment, it finally broke free from the sharp claws and staggered back.

However, Lin Mo would not give his opponent a chance. He held the sword in his right hand and transformed his left hand into the Kun Peng's claw.

A Ruler of the Bat Wings Race, and a third-level Ruler at that, was in such a sorry state.

The one chasing it was only a half-step to the Almighty realm and at the ninth level.

“Die,”

Lin Mo caught up and tore off the bat wings on the other party's back.

After losing its wings, the red bat's speed was greatly reduced. It fell and was stomped into the ground by the Qilin runes that appeared under Lin Mo's feet.

“Human God Devouring Body, don’t be so arrogant!”

A shout was heard, and two huge bats flew over. They had transformed into their true forms and came to help.

There were two more Rulers and a dozen other Almighty powerhouses.

Lin Mo was besieged by more than a dozen people. They used the same martial arts at the same time, and as they complemented each other, the power was even stronger.

“What a joke.”

The Yin Yang Taiji Diagram appeared behind Lin Mo.

Two completely different forces—the tough Yang and the cold Yin—were brewing in the Taiji Diagram.

Lin Mo pointed out two fingers, and two beams of light were emitted.

Perhaps because this was the bottom of the Yin Yang Lake, the power of the Mismatched Yin Yang was even stronger.

The two forces that were clearly separated here existed together.

This kind of environment was most suitable for using the Mismatched Yin Yang, and its power even exceeded that of the Nine Qilin Steps.

“Pfft!”

Two sounds of flesh being pierced could be heard. The two Rulers who had come to help were only at the first level.

Lin Mo’s killing move was very difficult to block, so their chests were immediately pierced through.

In just a single encounter, the two of them were heavily injured, and their combat powers were greatly reduced. They were no longer a threat to Lin Mo.

As for the other Bat Wings, Lin Mo did not even need to use the Mismatched Yin Yang. They found it difficult to withstand the Green Cloud Sword’s attacks.

There were even some weaker ones who were directly torn apart by the powerful and terrifying Sword Qi.

Blood splattered everywhere as people began to fall, and this was only the beginning.

Lin Mo would not let the two Rulers go. He pointed with two more fingers and used the Mismatched Yin Yang again.

This time, the power contained was even stronger. It transformed into a Kun that swam in the void and a golden roc that soared in the sky.

At the same time, the red bat that was fighting Lin Mo first wanted to help.

Nonetheless, Lin Mo appeared in front of it the next moment.

Lin Mo took nine steps forward, and a powerful force burst out from under his feet. The Qilin patterns condensed.

He took a step forward and stomped on the other party's body.

“Boom!”

An explosion spread, attracting the attention of countless people.

They were even more shocked when they saw Lin Mo and the others. There were three Rulers, and one of them was even on the third level.

In the end, he was stomped on by Lin Mo and was severely injured.

The other two Rulers were even more miserable. They were killed by Lin Mo in seconds. The power of the Kun Peng's art in the Yin Yang Lake was indeed terrifying.

“He's still alive. He's really lucky.”

Lin Mo chuckled and waved his hand. Three interspatial rings were sucked by him.

Two of them were taken easily by him because their owners were dead. He checked the treasures inside.

“No way. They're so poor...”

Lin Mo was taken aback. The Bat Wing Clan should be a large clan, right? As elders, how could they only have so few treasures?

There were only a few million upper spirit stones. There was not even a single earth-grade tier 9 elixir, let alone a divine herb or a half-divine herb.

“I hope you won’t disappoint me.”

He looked at the red bat under his feet. The Qilin patterns under his feet flickered, and he ended the other party’s life.

The ring on her hand lost its imprint, and Lin Mo checked the treasures within.

He kept the Heaven Illuminating Lamp, which was the most important thing. No one suspected anything.

His gain this time finally made him slightly satisfied.

70 million high-grade spirit stones, no heaven-grade divine medicines, three half-step heaven-grade divine medicines, and five earth-grade tier 9 elixirs.

Lin Mo could not be bothered to count the rest, and he did not even bother to auction them off.

“It’s alright, I didn’t lose out on this deal.”

Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction and looked into the distance. There was an ancient bronze lamp there, and the people who had snatched it were a few geniuses at the peak of the half-step Almighty realm.

Their talents were not weak, and they should have come from a large sect. They had also suppressed their cultivation.

Their goal might be to follow the saint into the ancient battlefield.

Perhaps it was because the ancient bronze lamp was of no use that it remained unclaimed even after such a long time.

Lin Mo forcefully suppressed the people and successfully kept the third lamp.

“Where’s the Qilin girl? Where did she go?”

Putting away the lamp, Lin Mo looked around and found that the battle in the center was still going on. They were still fighting to the death.

Some people were consuming the power of the supreme treasure, waiting for it to weaken so that they could capture it.

“Why did you run so far away...?”

Lin Mo frowned and followed Qilin’s aura. He found that most of the space along the way had been destroyed.

He even found Qilin scales in some spatial rifts.

One could only imagine what a terrible battle must have taken place here such that the little girl suffered losses.

A few minutes later, Lin Mo found the panting Qilin in a spatial rift.

She was in a sorry state, and the scales on her fair arms were scattered.

Many of its scales were damaged, and there was a lot of blood on the ground. It was Qilin’s blood.

“Little girl, is it so hard to ask for help...?”

Chapter 626 - 626 Fifth-Level Ruler

626 Fifth-Level Ruler

Lin Mo unhappily took out a few elixirs and handed them over. Qilin took them and finished them in two or three bites.

Qilin’s face gradually turned red, and the scales on her body faded. Lin Mo turned around.

Qilin's movements were swift. She took out a pure white dress and put it on before approaching Lin Mo with a smile.

"Hehe, not only will we be able to drink turtle soup later, but we'll also be able to drink bear Soup. I've killed that turtle, and I've also obtained a Dark Gold Bear. innread com

Her face was full of smiles, and she was very satisfied with her spoils of war.

This left Lin Mo speechless. Everyone else was trying to snatch the treasure, but this little girl was hunting.

"Don't treat me like a useless decoration. If we really fight, you might not even be able to beat me."

Seeing Lin Mo's expression, Qilin was not convinced and looked at him.

She was not boasting. To be able to hide from so many top-tier powerhouses in the Dragon Pavilion, one could imagine how powerful she was.

"It's better to barbeque bear meat. I'll make bear paws for you in a few days."

Lin Mo patted her head and consoled her, telling her to keep her prey.

"Let's go. We can't come here for nothing. I'll get you a magic tool." As he spoke, he intended to continue joining the battle.

"No need for that. I've already gotten one."

Unexpectedly, Qilin raised her hand, and a jade cauldron appeared in her hand.

There were mysterious patterns on the jade cauldron, and they were very special. After she channeled spiritual Qi into it, it expanded in the wind.

Soon, a half-meter-tall jade cauldron appeared. The special patterns on it had a very strong offensive power.

"Hehe, this treasure is called the Mysterious Jade Cauldron. It'll be my magic tool from now on. It's the most suitable for stewing soup." Qilin nodded in satisfaction.

When she saw Lin Mo use the bronze cauldron to cook the Water Dragon meat, she had wanted to use the same cauldron.

Even though she had a jade cauldron, it was pretty good. She was not picky anyway.

“What grade is it?” Lin Mo was shocked. Everyone could only get one item. This little girl could not have randomly found one, right?

“Heaven-grade tier 4. It’s not bad. It’s a magic tool that the Dark Gold Bear got.”

Qilin explained. She was injured because of the Dark Gold Bear’s sneak attack.

The other party held a jade cauldron and smashed it down from the sky, breaking her Qilin armor. She was almost killed by the other party’s sneak attack.

“What a b*stard. A Ruler of the second level actually used a sneak attack. How shameless.”

Qilin pursed his lips, looking down on the Dark Gold Bear.

“Alright, calm down. You’ve already killed him, and in a few days, he’ll be eaten by you. What else is there to be dissatisfied about?”

Lin Mo laughed and rubbed Qilin’s forehead. Since there was no need to fight for a magic tool, it was time to go deeper.

“Can you sense where the ancient bronze lamps are?”

He took out a Heaven Illuminating Lamp and handed it to Qilin, hoping that she would display the ability of an auspicious beast and help him find the rest of the Heaven Illuminating Lamps.

However, Qilin pouted her little mouth and glared at Lin Mo in dissatisfaction.

“I’m an auspicious beast, not a dog. How can I sense where a specific treasure is?” She was very dissatisfied.

Did Lin Mo think that she was omnipotent?

“Uh... Ahem!”

Lin Mo cleared his throat to hide his embarrassment and kept the Heaven Illuminating Lamp.

“You decide where we’re going next.” Lin Mo smiled. He still wanted to rely on Qilin to find the remaining lamps.

It seemed that the reason she could find these three lamps was that she was an auspicious beast.

Despite that, he did not know if she would have such good luck later on.

“Follow me. This should be the medicinal field. The smell of medicine is very strong.” Qilin sniffed with her small nose and pointed to a passage.

Lin Mo touched his nose and mumbled softly, “She can smell it from so far away...”

“What did you just say?” Qilin turned around.

“Ahem, it’s nothing. I was just praising you...” Lin Mo waved his hand.

The passage was very long. The two of them flew at full speed for more than 50 kilometers before they saw the stone door at the end of their sight.

This place was sealed by runes, but because it had been here for too long, the runes on the stone door had long decayed.

After a punch, the runes flickered, and all they saw was a dazzling multicolored elixir and a medicine pot that emitted a heavy fragrance.

Many people had come here. They had come from different passages.

Some people saw the medicine pot on the table and immediately snatched it.

There must be some divine pills or immortal pills in the pot that was stored by the Kun Peng.

The things left behind by the Kun Peng were not ordinary. Even if it was a fragment, eating it would allow one to be reborn and break through to the next realm.

The Kun Peng was one of the divine beasts of the ancient era. It was a supreme existence, and anything that could catch its eyes must not be ordinary.

Furthermore, the Kun Peng's methods were hard to predict. Many of the formations here were already decayed, but the elixirs stored here were still intact.

This was what the Kun Peng left for future generations, and it was not too difficult.

Now that this medicine pot might have divine pills and immortal pills, it was enough to make people go crazy.

“Bang!”

More than a dozen people attacked at the same time, and a fierce battle broke out here. The secret room was no longer quiet, and fights were happening everywhere.

Spiritual Qi exploded, and the clash of magic tools could be heard.

Fortunately, this was the Kun Peng Palace. Otherwise, with so many people fighting—some of them were Rulers—the sky would have fallen and the earth would have shattered.

“Don't snatch the pot. The most precious one is here.

Qilin called out to Lin Mo. She pointed to an area that was shrouded in a chaotic mist.

The power of the runes was protecting the area, keeping it immortal for countless years.

Many people had also discovered that this area was extraordinary. They swarmed over and unleashed their magic tools to attack the place, wanting to disperse the mist.

“All of you, get out of my way! All the treasures here belong to me!”

One of them shouted. It was a powerful middle-aged man. With a wave of his hand, a “boom” sound was heard, and many people in the vicinity were directly sent flying.

Some people were even injured. Their bodies slammed into the walls of the secret chamber, and they coughed up blood.

There were even some who fainted directly. Fainting in such a place was no different from being dead.

Many people were shocked as they looked at the elder. This man was too strong—he was a fifth-level Ruler.

Even Lin Mo and Qilin frowned at the power that was being emitted. They did not face it head-on and chose to retreat.

A fifth-level Ruler was almost the limit of entry on the island.

Even if one was just a little stronger, one would be rejected by Cloud Mist Island and would be unable to enter.

“That’s a servant of the Teng clan. He came in with Teng Feng. His name is Bai Shan.” Someone shouted, recognizing the person in front of him.

At the same time, they were also looking around. Since the servant of Teng Feng’s clan had appeared, could Teng Feng be nearby?

If even Teng Feng was here, it would be difficult for them to gain anything because they were no match for him.

Although there were a few Rulers present, they were still too weak compared to Bai Shan. It was very difficult for them to pose a threat to him.

“God Devouring Body Lin Mo, Qilin girl, there must be treasures behind the mist. Don’t you want them?” Someone secretly spoke using a voice transmission.

“That’s right. If the two of you join hands, you might not be weaker than Bai Shan. You still have a chance.”

Many people secretly urged Lin Mo and Qilin to take action.

“Hmph, I advise you to think twice. Don’t suffer a double loss when the time comes,” Bai Shan coldly said.

His eyes were cold as he glanced at Lin Mo and Qilin.

Then, he looked around, wanting to find the person who had secretly transmitted the message to intimidate him.

Unfortunately, after a round of searching, he found nothing.

!!

“Old man, are you threatening us?” Qilin was very dissatisfied and looked at Bai Shan.

She was often threatened, but those who threatened her often did not end well.

Bai Shan made her very unhappy. Furthermore, he was a Teng family servant, which made her even more unhappy.

“That’s right.” Who would have thought that Bai Shan would directly admit it without the slightest attempt to hide it?

Being a fifth-level Ruler, he had the right to say such things.

“You should clear the mist first. I’ll see what treasure is behind it,” Lin Mo said indifferently.

If it was a treasure, then he would naturally snatch it. If it was not, he would forget about it.

There was no need to fight to the death with a fifth-level Ruler just for a war of words.

“Hmph.”

Hearing this, Bai Shan snorted coldly. The majestic spiritual Qi in his body erupted and began to disperse the mist in the area.

The chaotic mist seemed to only have the effect of hiding one's aura. It did not block anything and was quickly cleared by Bai Shan.

Gradually, a golden light appeared in that area, which was very dazzling.

As the mist gradually dispersed, people looked over attentively, wanting to know what was there.

“Is that... A tree?”

Some people wondered what kind of tree could attract the attention of the Kun Peng and cause it to cast a chaotic mist to block it.

“What kind of spiritual herb is this? Furthermore, the tree isn't bearing any fruit...”

Qilin was a little disappointed. From what she could tell, this tree was the most precious treasure in this place.

Despite that, the situation was obvious. There was not even a fruit, let alone it being ripened.

“Don't tell me that we have to snatch it back and plant it? It'll take hundreds or thousands of years for it to ripen...” Qilin lost interest and no longer wanted to fight for it.

“Who knows what tree this is?” Someone asked, consulting the people around him.

The group of people looked at each other and shook their heads. They did not know what kind of tree this was.

Most divine trees looked the same, and this tree was so common that it looked like a normal tree.

It was the soil under the tree that was emitting the golden light, showing how extraordinary it was.

“There's no fruit. It's hard to recognize it unless you can give me a leaf.”

An old man stroked his beard and said.

He was an alchemist and had a certain reputation in Cloud State. He was very knowledgeable.

If he could get a leaf, he would definitely be able to recognize the type of tree.

“Even Master Feng doesn’t know. It seems like we won’t be able to find out the true identity of the divine tree...”

People sighed. Master Feng had traveled to many strange places and seen many divine objects, but he had no way to recognize the tree now...

“Bai Shan, right? Pick two leaves and let Master Feng identify them. Otherwise, you won’t be able to take this tree away.”

At this moment, Lin Mo spoke with an unfriendly tone. He asked Bai Shan to pick the leaves and identify the value of the tree.

The other party was a fifth-level Ruler, and it would be very risky to fight him. If this thing was not precious enough, then he would just forget it.

“Are you threatening me?” Bai Shan’s expression turned cold.

After he had become the Teng family’s servant, he had basically not been threatened.

Especially on Cloud Mist Island, his cultivation state was the highest and no one could defeat him.

Even though Lin Mo had the God Devouring Body and was a peerless genius, the gap between their realms was huge.

“Think of it as if you don’t pick the leaves, you can’t leave. If you don’t believe me, you can try,” Lin Mo said coldly.

He was extremely aggressive. He held the Green Cloud Sword in his right hand and was ready to attack at any time.

At the same time, Qilin also took out her small white jade cauldron and prepared for battle.

“Has Teng Feng come? if he’s here, then I’ll leave. But if he is not, you’d better keep a low profile,” Lin Mo said.

Although Bai Shan was powerful, it would not be a problem for Lin Mo to take care of Bai Shan if he joined forces with Qilin.

However, if the other party retaliated before his death, the price would be huge, and the loss would outweigh the gain.

“Okay, you can ask him to come over and check, but he can’t damage the divine tree.” Bai Shan’s face was dark. He looked at the divine tree behind him and nodded in agreement.

If Lin Mo insisted on attacking, it was likely that he would lose more than he would gain by destroying the divine tree.

“That would be my honor.”

With a smile on his face, Master Feng hurriedly stepped forward and bowed to Lin Mo and Bai Shan respectively.

Then, he carefully observed the divine tree under everyone’s gaze.

“Strange, strange...”

After looking at it for a while, he was somewhat surprised. He stared at the divine tree and examined it carefully while muttering to himself.

“What did you see?” Bai Shan asked impatiently.

“Sir, please calm down. I can tell, but I’m not sure...” Master Feng was a little embarrassed.

He scratched his head, not believing his own judgment...

“Just say it,” Lin Mo said from a distance. He wanted to know what this divine tree was.

Master Feng hesitated for a moment, then gritted his teeth and said, “This is a spiritual fruit tree...”

“It’s the most ordinary spiritual fruit tree that is only at the spirit grade. Some of them aren’t even at the spirit grade...”

As soon as he said that, everyone was stunned and somewhat in disbelief.

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Bai Shan said angrily. When he approached the divine tree, he could clearly sense that there was an endless life force in it.

How could this be an ordinary spiritual fruit tree? This was simply ridiculous.

“It’s absolutely true. Sir, please calm down. I’ll prove it to you.”

Master Feng took out a jade bottle and poured out a round, dark green spirit pill.

It was only a spirit-grade tier 9 spirit pill, and it contained a certain amount of life force.

After Master Feng took it out, he crushed it and scattered the fragments on the roots of the spiritual fruit tree.

Immediately, the spiritual fruit tree began to shake, and jade-green fruits appeared on the branches.

The spiritual Qi in the surroundings was absorbed by the fruit tree, and it began to bear fruit. In less than five breaths, the fruit ripened and turned black...

“It’s the Black Spirit Fruit. It can grow up to tier 1 of the spirit grade...”

People recognized it at a glance. To them, this fruit was no different from the fruits on the table.

Even so, the Black Spirit Fruit tree in front of him clearly contained the power of a heaven-grade divine tree.

Why was the fruit only at tier 1 of spirit-grade...?

“There’s something good buried under that soil...”

At this moment, Qilin suddenly transmitted a message to Lin Mo and told him what she had just discovered.

“What do you mean?” Lin Mo was shocked.

“It’s a treasure that can make a spirit-grade tier 1 fruit tree grow into a heaven-grade divine tree. I can’t be wrong,” Qilin solemnly vowed.

The most important thing now was how to get that treasure...

“How could this be? This is really the Black Spirit Fruit...” innread.com

Bai Shan’s face was filled with astonishment. He was unwilling to believe it. He even plucked a Black Spirit Fruit and directly ate it.

After eating it, he was sure that this was really the Black Spirit Fruit, and the medicinal effects were exactly the same...

“After such a long time, we made a huge mistake...”

Lin Mo chuckled and turned to leave. He had no intention of staying any longer.

Chapter 628 - 628 Mysterious Crystal

628 Mysterious Crystal

Everyone knew that the divine tree was definitely not simple. After all, it was a divine grade.

Nonetheless, there was nothing they could do. They could not tell. Perhaps someone knew that the thing buried under the divine tree was not simple.

It was a pity that the soil on which the Black Spirit Fruit Tree was rooted was extraordinary.

It was so hard that even a Ruler’s full-power attack could not break it at all.

!!

“Can you be sure?” After leaving with Qilin, Lin Mo asked through a voice transmission.

If even a Ruler could not break through it, even if he knew there was a treasure down there, he would not be able to get it.

“Trust me. The Ancient Qilin Tree is the most precious treasure of the Qilin clan. It is something that has surpassed the heaven grade, and its power is beyond imagination.”

Qilin was full of confidence. What they needed to do now was to wait for those people to lose their patience and head to other places to search for treasures.

When Lin Mo and Qilin returned, even if there were still people guarding the tree, those people would not be a match for them.

In fact, they did not go far. They just watched from a distance.

Lin Mo’s soul power was constantly staring inside.

Sure enough, Bai Shan did not give up. After carefully checking, he was furious when he discovered that it was really the Black Spirit Fruit.

Even if this kind of divine tree grew to the divine grade, its medicinal effects would not be much.

It would at most be of earth-grade tier 5, which was precious to many people, but not much to Bai Shan.

“B*stard.”

Bai Shan let out an angry roar. Under the heartbroken gazes of many, he smashed the Black Spirit Fruit Tree into pieces with his palm.

It was also at this moment that the roots of the Black Spirit Fruit Tree gradually withered and disappeared with the wind.

In the next moment, golden light shone brightly, and the soil burst into a brilliant light.

The entire stone room was illuminated. Everyone closed their eyes, not daring to look at it.

Only Bai Shan resisted the burning in his eyes. He unwaveringly stared at the layer of golden soil.

“There’s indeed a supreme treasure here. All of you, back off. Whoever dares to move will be killed without mercy.”

Bai Shan said coldly. The aura of a Ruler was released from his body, suppressing everyone.

“He’s very strong...”

Not far away, Qilin frowned. She had no choice but to admit that if she was alone, she could only use all her trump cards and escape in a sorry state when facing Bai Shan.

Now, with Lin Mo around, the threat that Bai Shan posed to her was much less. innread.com

In the end, the light dissipated. The people here looked at the soil in front of them with a burning gaze.

A corner of a golden crystal appeared under the golden soil.

The Black Spirit Fruit Tree had previously taken root on this crystal. Now that the fruit tree had died, the crystal was also revealed.

Bai Shan was overjoyed. A suction force came from his palm as he tried to pull the crystal out of the soil.

However, the golden soil was as hard as iron and there was no way to break it.

No matter how much strength Bai Shan used, he could not move it in the slightest.

Seeing this scene, people began to discuss. It seemed that the golden soil was also a treasure.

As expected of the Kun Peng’s Heritage Land. It had all kinds of treasures.

Nonetheless, it seemed that they had no fate with the treasures here. With Bai Shan around, no one could snatch them.

Although they might be able to fight if they joined forces, they would lose more than they gained if they offended the Teng clan.

“Can you tell what treasure it is?” Qilin asked.

To her, Lin Mo seemed to know everything. It would not be difficult for him to identify the golden crystal and soil.

“I can’t tell now. I’ll have to wait until I get it.”

Lin Mo shook his head. He had to keep it in the system space. Otherwise, he would not be able to identify it.

“Let’s wait for a while. Bai Shan is trying to break through the golden soil. Let’s wait for him to use up some spiritual Qi.”

After all, he was a Ruler of the fifth level and could not be underestimated. Moreover, there were many people gathered there, so it was not a good time to go over.

“Bai Shan knows we’re here. Why don’t we go a little further?” Qilin said.

This place was too close. Given Bai Shan’s strength, it would not be a problem for him to sense them.

“Then let’s go.”

Lin Mo nodded. Since Qilin had guaranteed that Bai Shan would not be able to get the treasure, he was not in a hurry. He would take this opportunity to check out other places.

Ten minutes later, they were far away. They advanced carefully as they sensed intense energy fluctuations ahead.

It was obvious that there was another stone room, and a battle was going on there.

There would definitely be treasures at the battle site.

When Lin Mo and Qilin arrived, they found that it was indeed the case. The light of treasures was overflowing, and spiritual Qi was abundant.

Powerhouses were everywhere. Everyone was fighting and engaging in a chaotic battle.

Rulers were fighting each other, and the scene was earth-shattering and extremely intense.

In their line of sight, there was a flag in the center, which looked very ancient.

The runes on the flag were profound and intoxicating, so it was definitely a treasure.

“That’s a formation flag with the Kun Peng’s aura on it. We might be able to use it to control some of the formations left behind by the Kun Peng.”

Qilin cried out in alarm. No wonder the people here were so crazy.

If this flag could control a certain key formation, one might be able to obtain the inheritance of Kun Peng.

It was a pity that there were many powerhouses here and that the battle was too intense.

No matter who it was, as long as they got close to the central region and tried to get close to the war flag, they would be attacked by countless people.

Even if they were a Ruler, they would die almost instantly.

“Are we going to join the battle?” Qilin’s interest was piqued. She stared at the many demonic beasts, wanting to hunt them down.

Even so, Lin Mo did not care about the legendary war flag at all.

He looked at the three ancient bronze lamps below the war flag.

Those were the treasures that truly attracted him. They were the Heaven Illuminating Lamps, which were the real treasures linked to the Kun Peng’s supreme inheritance.

A secret that only he knew was his advantage.

“Forget about the war flag. We’ll snatch the Heaven Illuminating Lamps.”

Lin Mo ordered Qilin not to act on her own. The Heaven Illuminating Lamps were the most important things. The war flag was too eye-catching, so it was better not to have it.

“The Heaven Illuminating Lamps? It’s not easy to snatch them too...”

Qilin looked at the three ancient bronze lamps in the center with her beautiful eyes and frowned.

Although the three ancient bronze lamps were not valued, the central area was not easy to approach.

“Let’s snatch something else first...”

Lin Mo’s target was not the central area, but the places on the periphery that were emitting treasure lights.

When he and the Qilin worked together, they were extremely powerful and were not at a disadvantage when fighting against some Rulers.

However, the others also tried their best to stop them. Soon, Lin Mo and Qilin were targeted. Other people felt that the two of them were troublesome and wanted to get rid of them in advance.

During the battle, the treasures in this place appeared out of thin air.

Treasure light overflowed. It was a small jade bottle. The mouth of the bottle was opened, and a burst of pill fragrance came out.

Smelling this fragrance, the people immediately became restless.

Without a doubt, this was a heaven-grade divine pill. Even some great sects did not have something like that.

Furthermore, given that the Kun Peng took fancy to the divine pill, it was definitely not simple.

In the scramble, the pristine jade bottle hovered in the air. In the end, it could not withstand the people’s pulls and burst open.

A dark green divine pill appeared. As soon as it appeared, it gradually transformed into an ancient tree that was two meters tall.

In an instant, the entire area was enveloped by a dense life force. Some of the people who had been injured in the battle were also quickly recovering.

It was peaceful here, and the fragrance of the pill spread in all directions.

Several Rulers were alarmed, and they flew over to join the battle.

“Boom!”

!!

Explosions were heard continuously as a Ruler made his move and used his martial arts to block Lin Mo’s path.

Qilin was also attacked and had no choice but to retreat. She had no way to get close to the medicinal pill that had turned into an ancient tree.

The life force exuded by the divine pill was too strong, and many people could not sit still. They came to fight for it.

“Lin Mo, can you get it? That divine pill is very important to me.”

Qilin asked hurriedly. She looked at the ancient tree with a face full of desire.

She was born early as she was disturbed, which led to her congenital deficiency, so she needed a lot of energy.

Among them, this kind of pure life energy was the most suitable. It could make up for her innate deficiencies to the greatest extent.

“Just leave it to me.”

Lin Mo unleashed his full power and activated the Abyssal Devouring, devouring the spiritual Qi from all directions.

In an instant, his body swelled up, and there were faint signs of it exploding.

Many people gasped. They did not expect that the God Devouring Body could release such a terrifying wave of energy when he was only at the peak of the half-step Almighty realm.

“Mismatched Yin Yang!”

Lin Mo shouted coldly, and the Yin Yang Taiji Diagram appeared behind him. With the support of the Abyssal Devouring, the power of the Mismatched Yin Yang was even stronger.

With just one attack, Lin Mo destroyed all the obstacles in front of him.

His hands turned into the Kun Peng Claws and pierced through the ancient tree, turning it back into a divine pill.

Lin Mo was taken aback as the jade-green elixir was in his hand. If he were to consume such a dense life force, he might be able to break through to the peak stage of the Almighty realm and be only one step away from the Ruler realm...

“What a terrifying medicinal power.”

Lin Mo exclaimed and quickly stored it in the system space.

“Hand it over.”

A Ruler made his move. He held a Heaven Turning Seal and pressed down from the sky, trying to suppress Lin Mo.

This was a heaven-grade magic tool, and it was activated by a Ruler. Its momentum was shocking.

Lin Mo used the Mountain River Scroll to block it. At the same time, he raised his hand and pushed the Ruler back.

“Lin Mo, the God Devouring Body, has obtained a divine pill. It’s a divine pill that can allow one to be reborn. We can’t give it up.”

Someone shouted and called for everyone to come forward. Everyone locked their eyes on Lin Mo.

Moreover, the person's words were also spread by the spiritual Qi, so many people heard him.

At this moment, Lin Mo had become the target of all. People who yearned for the divine pill swarmed toward him.

All kinds of martial arts were used, and the place was dazzling. Qilin was forced back and could not go to help Lin Mo.

Soon, the place was flooded. Lin Mo was surrounded by the crowd. He drew out the Green Cloud Sword and infused it with a huge amount of spiritual Qi.

The Abyssal Devouring kept on replenishing the energy, causing the Green Cloud Sword to tremble slightly. The sword hummed.

The next moment, the Sword Qi was charged to the extreme, and Lin Mo slashed out.

In an instant, there were no more fluctuations. All kinds of martial arts disappeared. Only the sound of a sword resounded through the world.

The void seemed to be destroyed and lost its luster. In this short moment, it was as if time had stopped.

“Puff!”

In hindsight, many people lowered their heads and found that they had been cut in half at the waist. At this moment, they felt intense pain.

There were even some weaker people whose souls were annihilated by the Sword Qi, and they died completely.

“How is that possible?”

Everyone was shocked as they looked at Lin Mo. There were even a few peak Almighty powerhouses among those who had been cut in half.

Even the Ruler's expression changed. ‘Is this the power of the God Devouring Body? It's so terrifying. It can gather such a terrifying amount of spiritual Qi and explode in an instant. How terrifying...’

Purple light flickered, and a beautiful Qilin pattern appeared in the air.

Qilin rose into the air and arrived in front of Lin Mo. She grabbed his wrist and flew away. innread.com

Although there were people who tried to stop her, they were no match for her and were killed with a single palm.

“Cough, cough...”

Lin Mo coughed violently and spat out a mouthful of blood. His meridians were in excruciating pain.

At this moment, his eyes were filled with excitement. The power of that sword strike was still vivid in his mind.

A single sword cut through over a hundred people at the waist, and the Ruler was so shocked that he did not dare to block it. It was too powerful.

“But this move really hurts my body. Even my meridians are damaged...” Lin Mo sighed.

The power devoured by the Abyssal Devouring was all flowing in his meridians, and he had almost exploded.

Once the spiritual Qi broke through the obstruction of his meridians, he would be seriously injured.

“That’s too risky...”

Qilin said worriedly. At the same time, her eyes were filled with gratitude.

The reason Lin Mo was so desperate was to help her get the divine pill that would be of great help to her...

“Haha, it’s worth it. This is truly a divine pill...” Lin Mo laughed.

Only now did he have the time to listen to the system’s introduction and learn about the origin and effects of the divine pill.

[Refresh and Relieve Pill, heaven-grade tier 9. It contains extremely pure immortal Qi. It can make up for congenital defects, evolve bloodlines, improve talent, and purify life force.]

The series of introductions made Lin Mo's heart beat wildly.

A heaven-grade tier 9 divine pill! If those people knew about this, they would probably not care about the war flag.

They would definitely chase after him like crazy. Everyone would...

Putting aside everything else, just the evolution of bloodlines and the purification of life force was enough to make countless people go crazy.

The origin of life was the foundation of cultivation for living beings.

If it could be purified, one would be closer to the great Dao. It could even make humans comparable to innate rare beasts.

This was an unparalleled opportunity. Who knew, Lin Mo obtained it.

If it was not for the fact that he wanted to give it to Qilin, he would definitely swallow it and not auction it.

Although the rebate from the auction would surpass a heaven-grade divine pill, it might not be better than the Refresh and Relieve Pill.

"This is a heaven-grade tier 9 divine pill, the Refresh and Relieve Pill." You should eat it now.

Lin Mo took it out of the system space and handed it to Qilin without any reluctance in his eyes.

The latter received it in a daze and looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

Especially when she heard about the effects of the divine pill, Qilin's eyes widened even more.

"Let's split it in half and take half each. You risked your life to get it."

Qilin said softly. After all, it was Lin Mo who had obtained it, and it was already too much for her to take half of it.

The elixir was also effective for Lin Mo, who had the God Devouring Body.

"Hurry up and eat it. After you're done, help me snatch the Heaven Illuminating Lamps," Lin Mo said as he waved his hand.

He would be lying if he said that he did not feel regretful for giving such a precious gift.

However, he was very satisfied with the little girl's performance. At least he was not giving the divine pill to the wrong person.

“Hehe, think of it as an investment from me. You're a Qilin, a mythical beast from ancient times. Don't forget to protect me when you become a star in the future.”

Lin Mo teased as he urged Qilin to eat the Refresh and Relieve Pill.

“Hehe, although I was unfortunate to be born early, I'm still very lucky to have met you,” Qilin said with a smile.

She would never believe in the so-called investment.

Lin Mo had the God Devouring Body, one of the strongest supreme physiques of the human race. It was equivalent to the Qilin and the True Dragon of the demonic beast world...

Qilin swallowed the green Refresh and Relieve Pill in one gulp. Green ripples appeared on the surface of her body.

A rich life force spread out. She yawned and felt her body warm and comfortable.

“Don't tell me you're going to sleep?” Lin Mo was shocked.

If Qilin was in a deep sleep, then their exploration of the Kun Peng's Heritage Land could stop.

!!

It would almost be impossible to snatch the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng if Lin Mo was alone and had to give part of his attention to protecting Qilin.

“Hehe, you’re scared, right? I’m just fooling around.”

To Lin Mo’s surprise, Qilin suddenly chuckled. The fatigue on her face instantly disappeared, and she made a face at Lin Mo.

“You little girl...”

Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief and knocked her hard on the head.

According to the system’s introduction, the Refresh and Relieve Pill would store its medicinal power in Qilin’s body and slowly nourish her.

Given time, Qilin would be able to completely transform and become stronger, and her innate deficiencies would also be perfected.

“Let’s go. We’ll go and snatch the Heaven Illuminating Lamps. Although I don’t know what you’re going to do with them...”

Qilin chuckled and took the lead to fly to the stone room in front.

The battle inside continued, and more treasures appeared, attracting people to fight for them.

Lin Mo and Qilin’s reappearance was seen by many, but no one dared to stop them.

They were unobstructed all the way to the central area.

The battle here was the most intense. There were nine Rulers fighting for the war flag.

During this period, some people also took away the treasures around the war flag to ensure that they would not return empty-handed.

When they arrived, Lin Mo realized that the three lamps were still there. He could not help but heave a sigh of relief. It was good that no one had taken them away.

“You’re looking for death.”

A Ruler snorted and attacked Lin Mo and Qilin, preventing them from approaching the war flag.

“Go away. Don’t force me to beat you up.”

Qilin waved her fist and sent her opponent’s magic weapon flying. At the same time, she took out a small white jade cauldron that expanded in the wind.

The heaven-grade magic tool displayed a terrifying power in her hands, directly injuring the Ruler.

Lin Mo took the opportunity to go to the war flag and put the three lamps into his bag.

Then, he quickly made a move to help Qilin.

The nine Rulers were all fighting for themselves and were competitors. They would not allow anyone to take away the war flag.

However, when they saw that Lin Mo only took away the three unremarkable ancient bronze lamps, they frowned.

“You did it so easily?”

Qilin was stunned. She was confused when she saw Lin Mo appear in front of her.

She was already preparing her killing move. She wanted to stall the other party by herself so that Lin Mo could obtain the treasures. It would be best if he could take the war flag as well.

“These people just don’t know what’s good.”

Lin Mo chuckled. He did not touch the war flag, so not many people attacked. Hence, the pressure on Qilin was very little.

In addition, he left after taking the three lamps, so those people could not react in time.

“Let’s go to where Bai Shan is. There’s still one more supreme treasure that we haven’t taken with us.”

Lin Mo waved his hand. Together with Qilin, they carried the Green Cloud Sword and the small white jade cauldron respectively and slowly retreated from the central area.

The two of them left, and no one stopped them. Everyone was trying to guess the function of the ancient bronze lamps.

“There are a total of nine Heaven Illuminating Lamps. I’ve obtained six of them, so I’m still short of three...”

Lin Mo said with a smile as he walked. He was in a good mood.

Both he and Qilin had obtained great fortune. He was only three lamps away from obtaining the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng.

“What can you do with all nine of them?” Qilin asked curiously.

She could not understand why Lin Mo did not want the war flag and instead took the Heaven Illuminating Lamps...

Were those not what the Kun Peng used to test one’s talent...?

“They can help me obtain the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng. Don’t spread the news...”

Lin Mo used a voice transmission to answer Qilin. There was no choice. It was always right to be careful of eavesdroppers.

“Is this the information you obtained after lighting up the nine lamps...?”

Qilin transmitted her voice. She was incomparably shocked. This was simply unimaginable.

Could it be that when the Kun Peng Nest opened, a successor was already decided? Was it a test for the person to find all the Heaven Illuminating Lamps?

The more Qilin thought about it, the more she felt that her guess was right.

Otherwise, Lin Mo, a junior who was a half-step to the Almighty realm, would not have been able to see through the Kun Peng’s secret no matter how sharp he was.

It only made sense if the Kun Peng had told him.

This was also why Lin Mo was able to obtain such a powerful art, the Mismatched Yin Yang.

“Since you’ve obtained the Kun Peng’s inheritance, I won’t give you the Qilin’s arts. You can’t bite off more than you can chew.”

Qilin said. Ever since Lin Mo had generously given her the Refresh and Relieve Pill, she had made up her mind.

She would do her best to help Lin Mo obtain the Kun Peng’s inheritance.

In that case, she would take in a disciple on behalf of her mother and pass down the supreme inheritance of the Qilin clan to Lin Mo.

After all, Lin Mo had been taking care of her like a big brother during this period of time. She could call him her senior brother in the future.

“I already told you to stop bringing up your inheritance...”

Lin Mo was speechless. He felt that he had taught Qilin in vain. He had told the little girl to be careful and not be deceived...

“Hey, I said you can be trusted.”

Qilin curled her lips. The Ancient Qilin Tree and the Refresh and Relieve Pill were enough to prove this point.

“Don’t worry. I’ll definitely obtain the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng.”

Lin Mo smiled. He had the confidence and also believed in his luck. Furthermore, he had an auspicious beast with him.

“Good luck.”

The two of them chatted as they walked slowly through the Kun Peng’s Heritage Land, attracting the attention of many.

After waiting for more than an hour, Lin Mo and Qilin arrived at the stone room where they had found the supreme treasure.

There were not many people left in this area as it had been plundered.

When the two of them arrived at the stone room, they found that there was a group of people guarding it. Inside, Bai Shan had disappeared.

“This place has been occupied by the Teng family. Unrelated people must leave.”

As soon as Lin Mo and Qilin arrived, the two guards at the entrance of the stone chamber raised their spears and said.

“Go away. Great barkers are no biters.”

Lin Mo said coldly. With a wave of his hand, the two Almighty powerhouses were sent flying and smashed into the wall.

“It’s you. The God Devouring Body and the Qilin girl.”

In the stone room, a middle-aged strong man was nervous, and his body was trembling.

“Lin Mo, didn’t you already see the treasure here? Why did you come back?” He gathered his courage and asked.

Now, Bai Shan had gone to search for Teng Feng, wanting to retrieve the treasure buried here.

Although the people who stayed behind were not weak, they were still not enough to deal with Lin Mo and Qilin.

“Peak of the Almighty realm, not bad. However, you’d better step aside if you don’t want to die.”

Lin Mo said coldly as he and Qilin walked to the place where the Black Spirit Fruit Tree was.

The soil was still emitting a golden light. It was very dazzling and hard.

Lin Mo picked up some of the golden soil and stored it in the system space.

[Holy Light Dust, a wondrous Item of heaven and earth. It has a hard texture and has a sealing effect. It can guarantee that the sealed object won’t decay for 10,000 years and won’t be destroyed.]

Hearing the system's introduction, Lin Mo was slightly shocked. What was buried under the Holy Light Dust was definitely a supreme treasure...
