

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 661

Immortal Qi floated in the air. It was real and illusory, and there were traces of time flowing in it.

A sweet fragrance wafted over, and an auspicious sign appeared. When it was inhaled into his lungs, the surface of his body instantly glowed with fluorescent light.

“This immortal Qi is truly a treasure...” Lin Mo praised.

Not only did it contain life, but it also contained laws. It could temper one’s body, temper one’s soul, refine pills, and so on.

!!

It was the most mysterious energy in the world. It had extremely harsh conditions for its birth and was very difficult to obtain.

The nine levels of Divine Punishment were one of the most terrifying Heavenly Tribulations in the world. How could ordinary people hope to reach it?

Even if there were, it would be in that extremely terrifying and dangerous place, where one could easily lose their life.

It was a place that even Saints did not dare to approach. Only when they reached the supreme Emperor domain could they look for it.

This was why Lin Mo had never heard of such a treasure even though he had relied on Qilin to find many divine and half-divine medicines in his travels.

He moved closer and touched the immortal Qi with his hand. He found that there was more than one cloud of immortal Qi not far away.

If it was just a cloud of immortal Qi, then he would have to consider carefully before taking the risk to pass the nine levels of Divine Punishment.

After all, for this kind of Heavenly Tribulation, as long as one's realm was not too high, one could perfectly break through after passing through four or five stages.

Now that Lin Mo had gone through nine Heavenly Tribulations in pursuit of perfection, he was fortunate to have many benefits.

“What a comfortable feeling...”

Lin Mo's entire body relaxed as he lay down. Surrounded by immortal Qi, his injuries healed at a faster rate.

He was originally on the verge of death from his serious injuries, but after being healed by the cloud droplets and the immortal Qi, he felt extremely comfortable.

Immortal Qi flowed through his limbs and bones, clearing his meridians and spreading throughout his body to heal all his injuries.

The effect was obvious. In just a few breaths, his injuries completely healed, and his entire aura changed.

A majestic and powerful life force was being nurtured in Lin Mo's body, giving off a feeling of an endless life.

Moreover, this power was not a one-time thing. It was permanent, and even the God Devouring Body could not devour it.

“Perhaps it's a power of the same level...”

Lin Mo muttered. The God Devouring Body could devour everything, even those of the same level.

However, his realm was too low, so he could not fully use his God Devouring Body.

This also caused the immortal Qi in his body to be unable to be devoured and could be kept forever.

Runes flickered on his bones from time to time, and the light of Dao Laws was extremely dazzling and mesmerizing.

The runes were none other than the Kun Peng runes. They contained the Kun Peng's innate runes.

Upon closer inspection, one could tell that it was the Yin Yang Dao Law, the most powerful technique that Lin Mo had mastered.

These runes were engraved on his bones and fused with his flesh and blood. As the light flickered, an ancient and primitive Dao sound surrounded him.

Lin Mo's physical body was far beyond that of ordinary people. He was able to resist the destructive Heavenly Thunder.

And now, these runes were carved on his bones, making his body even more powerful.

The first cloud of immortal Qi was completely absorbed, and clouds of immortal Qi flew in from all directions.

The fragrance assailed Lin Mo's nostrils, and his body bloomed with divine light. It was as brilliant as the morning glow, making him look extremely sacred.

Lin Mo was immersed in it, and it was as if someone was chanting in his ears, explaining the true meaning of the great Dao to him.

His body and mind were empty. Soul fluctuations spread out from his glabella, emitting a bright light. A small golden figure formed.

It sat cross-legged between Lin Mo's eyebrows, absorbing the immortal Qi as well.

If this phenomenon was seen by others, they would be very envious.

Lin Mo was in the Almighty realm, but his soul was almost as solid as a quasi-Saint, and he was still absorbing the immortal Qi to refine his soul.

After an hour, Lin Mo's injuries had completely healed, and he was even stronger than before.

The Heavenly Tribulation represented the laws of heaven and earth, and it was used to test those who sought the Dao.

At the same time, it was also a punishment for the cultivators. They had to go against the heavens and accept the punishment. If they could withstand it, they would be able to obtain supreme opportunities.

If they could not withstand it, they could only face death.

Lin Mo was sitting cross-legged in the air. About a meter below him, there was a mysterious Great Dao Flower.

Above him, another Immortal Dao Bud bloomed.

This phenomenon was extremely mysterious. It was accompanied by a Dao voice that explained the Dao laws to Lin Mo. Furthermore, it was the Yin and Yang that he was cultivating.

If there were people here, they would definitely be shocked because this was too unbelievable. The Heavenly Tribulation could preach to people...

Lin Mo listened quietly as his body absorbed the immortal Qi.

However, he could not last much longer. His body could not take it anymore. He was full and could only slowly digest it.

The Great Dao Flower below disappeared, and the Immortal Dao Bud above withered.

The Dao voice ended at this moment. Immortal Qi still surrounded Lin Mo, but he could no longer absorb them.

Lin Mo opened his eyes and looked at himself in disbelief.

His injuries were completely healed, and his soul had made great progress. His realm was also at the peak of the second level of the Almighty realm.

The tribulation clouds were dissipating. The nine levels of Divine Punishment were about to disappear.

After all, Lin Mo had transcended the tribulation. The tribulation clouds had completed their mission and were about to merge with the world.

“Phew!”

Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief. He did not waste any more time. He took out a clay pot and carefully kept the immortal Qi.

After leaving the tribulation cloud, the immortal Qi condensed into dew and flowed into the jar.

“When the sun is in the middle of the sky, the great Dao will be reduced by half.”

Lin Mo frowned. He had used up a lot of immortal Qi before, and now he could only take this little. The dew formed by the immortal Qi was only half a jar.

Looking at the tribulation cloud that had completely dissipated, Lin Mo’s face was filled with regret.

Nonetheless, he also knew that going too far was as bad as falling short. One must be content with what one had. He had gained a lot from passing the nine levels of Divine Punishment.

“This can be considered as Immortal Dew. I’ll find an opportunity to auction it off...”

“Boom!”

Thunder rumbled, and the world continued to reverberate with the sound of thunder. Heavy rain poured down, and within the rain, there was life.

It was only then that Lin Mo felt that the area within 50,000 kilometers of where he had transcended his tribulation had been scorched.

...

Countless mountains crumbled, and the ground was devastated. No other living being except him had survived the Heavenly Tribulation.

Fortunately, the place where he conquered his tribulation was the boundless mountain range. The nearby cultivators had retreated and did not dare to approach.

“Wow, Brother Lin Mo, you’re still alive.”

Qilin sensed Lin Mo's aura and rushed over in a few breaths.

Even so, Lin Mo's face darkened when he heard her first sentence.

'Does this little girl know how to speak? What does she mean by still being alive? Also, why did she look so surprised when she said that?'

"Your Heavenly Tribulation was so terrifying. It was as if it was going to destroy the world. Mountains within 50,000 kilometers have become lands of death. I was even prepared to erect a monument for you," Qilin muttered.

Lin Mo wanted to hit her when he heard this, and he glared at her.

"We can't stay here for long, let's go." Lin Mo immediately pulled Qilin up and disappeared. innread.com

Since the tribulation clouds had disappeared, there would definitely be people coming to check things out. Perhaps the enemy would come as well.

Although Lin Mo had broken through, those people were not weak either. They all had solid foundations and many accumulations.

After speeding along and spending half a day, they found a quiet place.

Lin Mo found out from Qilin that his tribulation lasted for a month. During this period, no living creature could approach within 50,000 kilometers. This included her, who was blessed with great luck.

Chapter 662 - 662 Dragon-Patterned Carp

662 Dragon-Patterned Carp

Countless people transcended their tribulations on the ancient battlefield...

Nonetheless, even for Qilin, her Heavenly Tribulation only lasted for 15 days. It was similar for the rest of the geniuses.

The longest one was still within 25 days.

On the other hand, Lin Mo's Heavenly Tribulation lasted for a month, which was the longest Qilin had ever heard of.

"Oh right, this is for you. You can break through after eating it."

Qilin handed over a scale-covered fruit, and a strong bloody smell emerged.

The smell made Lin Mo's head sink, and he almost fainted.

"What kind of fruit is this?" He had never seen it before, but the power it contained was extremely terrifying.

"I don't know. The smell of blood is too strong, so I can't eat it. You can have it."

Qilin spread out her hands. This was something she obtained after transcending her tribulation. A divine forest was nurtured within the tribulation clouds.

After she passed her tribulation, she entered the forest and picked one.

The next moment, the tribulation clouds moved violently and chased her out. The forest completely dissipated after that.

Qilin was regretful because there were many fragrant divine fruits in the divine forest.

If she could only pick one, then she would have suffered a great loss. She had picked one that could not be eaten.

"I'll take a look first." Lin Mo stored the scale-covered fruit in the system space.

[Snake Scale Fruit, a heaven-grade tier 9 divine fruit. It can purify the bloodline of a snake-type demonic beast and increase one's cultivation. If eaten by a non-snake demonic beast, it can increase less than 20% of the power of their bloodline.]

This was a heaven-grade tier 9 divine fruit, but its effects were not suitable for Lin Mo and Qilin.

“This is a Snake Scale Fruit. It can only be eaten by a snake-type demonic beast. It’s not very useful for us to eat it. It’ll be a waste.”

Lin Mo shook his head and sighed, reprimanding the little girl for not observing properly. She had taken a useless reward from her Heavenly Tribulation.

“How could it be...?” Qilin was dejected as she sat on the rock, filled with regret.

“Learn your lesson. Don’t be greedy in the future.”

Lin Mo patted Qilin’s head and comforted her.

Even so, it was also at this moment that he felt the spiritual Qi in Qilin’s body that was as vigorous as the ocean.

“You... The fifth level of the Almighty realm?”

Looking at Qilin’s realm, Lin Mo’s mouth was wide open in shock.

He did not expect the rebound to be so fierce. Qilin directly reached the fifth level after the tribulation...

“Hehe, I’ve eaten so many divine medicines and elixirs. It’s normal for me to reach this realm.”

Qilin smiled and was very proud.

Lin Mo was speechless. ‘So this is how it is. The others must be the same. They must’ve gained more than me.’

He handed Qilin a few spirit fruits, and Qilin happily took them and ate them like normal fruits.

Lin Mo then began to check his physical body and found that it had become abnormally strong.

Other than that, there was nothing strange about his body. His meridians were stable, and his flesh and blood were very active.

The only thing that puzzled him was that the runes on his bones had disappeared.

He clearly remembered that the Kun Peng's arts were engraved on them, which was also why his physical body was so strong.

'Do I need immortal Qi? Or a similar great opportunity?'

Lin Mo was puzzled. He had a feeling that some kind of treasure was being hidden, but he could not find it at the moment.

'Well, it's on me anyway.. I'll think about it next time...'

If Lin Mo could not find it, then he would not. He brought Qilin out of the mountain and fed her the Immortal Dew in a jar.

Even with Qilin's physique, she could only drink two or three mouthfuls.

She had obtained many benefits from her tribulation, and this Immortal Dew was just to make up for her regret of not being able to eat the Snake Scale Fruit.

"This is good. I feel like my soul has sublimated."

Qilin was extremely satisfied. The Immortal Dew was too delicious. It cleansed everything, and the feeling of her soul subliming was wonderful.

It was a pity that she could not drink too much of it, or she would explode and die.

"The universe's spiritual Qi is gathering. There must be a supreme treasure forming nearby."

As Lin Mo walked, he felt the changes in the surrounding spiritual Qi and guessed that there must be a treasure nearby.

At the end of his vision, there was an auspicious Qi rising from the ground, and the spiritual Qi of the universe was moving rhythmically.

He and Qilin strolled along the direction of the universe's spiritual Qi and finally arrived at a valley. The stone walls around them were as smooth as jade and emitted a precious light.

In the middle of the valley, there was a divine spring that overflowed with light. Divine multicolored light filled the sky, showing endless auspicious signs.

“A pot of water from this divine spring is equivalent to an elixir of earth-grade tier 9...” Lin Mo was shocked.

“Who are you? How dare you come here to steal the treasure?”

“Hmph, there are only the two of you, and you dare to fight for the treasure here? Are you tired of living?”

In the valley, a group of people confronted Lin Mo and Qilin. When those people saw Lin Mo and Qilin walk in, they all pointed their spears at them.

There were more than 30 people here, and they were divided into three groups of forces. Under the three forces, no one dared to act rashly.

Lin Mo did not respond. He looked at the divine spring.

...

He found some water plants swaying in the clear spring water. They were just ordinary water plants, but they were of spirit grade tier 9.

Despite that, those were not worth his time. What was truly valuable was the creature swimming in the spring water.

It was a golden, slender fish that was two meters long. Its scales were golden with a tinge of white. It swam in the water, and Lin Mo was in a daze.

He had a premonition that it was not a fish, but a True Dragon...

“Am I mistaken...?”

Lin Mo shook his head. It was clearly a fish. If it was a True Dragon, these people would not be so calm.

“Go away. You’re just two rogue cultivators. How dare you lay your hands on the Dragon-patterned Carp?” Someone on the side shouted.

Two of the young men had lost their patience. They released their auras and intended to scare Lin Mo and Qilin away.

“What’s a Dragon-patterned Carp?” Qilin asked curiously.

She drooled as she looked at the fish in the spring water. Its name had the word ‘dragon’ in it. If it was made into soup with the divine spring, it would probably be tasty...

“The Dragon-patterned Carp is a rare treasure in the world. Its meat is fresh and tender, and it is best used to make soup. If it is paired with divine medicine, it can maximize the effects of the divine medicine. It is a delicacy passed down from ancient times.

“It is said that in ancient times, there was a dish related to the Dragon-patterned Carp, the Emerald Dragon Carp. It is known to be the most delicious food in the world...”

Lin Mo explained the Dragon-patterned Carp in detail.

He could not help but drool at the end, let alone Qilin the foodie.

“Wow, it’d be a crime to miss such a delicacy...” Qilin wiped the drool from the corner of her mouth.

Her guess was right. The creature was edible, and there was a special recipe for it.

“Don’t think about it. We don’t have the recipe for the Emerald Dragon Carp, so we can’t make it. We can only make soup.”

Lin Mo felt a little regretful. If it were not for the harsh conditions of raising a Dragon-patterned Carp, he would be a little reluctant.

“It’s such a pity...” Qilin felt very regretful.

At the same time, she swore to herself that he would collect all the recipes in the world and not miss anything next time...

“Hey, you two, don’t go too far!”

An angry voice interrupted the conversation between Lin Mo and Qilin.

The 30 over people present were all furious, and their eyes were fixed on them.

This was a Dragon-patterned Carp, a rare treasure in the world. When used in conjunction with divine medicine, it could double the medicinal effects of the divine medicine.

However, Lin Mo and Qilin seemed to be focusing on different things...

“Forget it. They’re just two clowns. Let’s just kill them.”

A young man sneered and made his move. With a shake of his hand, he threw out a sword ray that was mixed with water and fire attributes.

“Swish!”

It was a pity because Lin Mo was considered the best among the younger generation when it came to Sword Dao.

!!

Even if he was not ranked first, he was definitely one of the top ten. After all, he had studied it since he was young and was quite profound in it.

Lin Mo displayed his Sword Qi slightly and raised his hand to block the sword light.

At the same time, the young man’s long sword was caught between Lin Mo’s two fingers and could not move.

This was a half-step heaven-grade divine sword, and the power it contained could not be underestimated.

However, such a divine sword was snapped in half by Lin Mo.

Everyone was shocked and retreated. They looked at Lin Mo warily.

“Who are you?”

Their faces were serious, knowing that another strong enemy had come, and the competition for the Dragon-patterned Carp was getting more and more intense.

“Before you ask for my name, you have to say yours first.” Lin Mo smiled as he looked at the three parties.

Although they were wearing iconic sect uniforms, the Northern Continent was so big that no one knew which forces they were from.

“I’m Qiu Ying, a disciple of the Heavenly Demon Sect.”

“I’m Liu Feng, a disciple of the Demon Puppet Clan.”

“I’m Yao Chen, a disciple of the Human King Mansion.”

Three young geniuses walked out from the divine spring. They came from three different forces and were fighting for the Dragon-patterned Carp.

“I know about the Human King Mansion. It’s a powerful force that once ruled Sword State, but it was weakened after that.”

Hearing this, Qilin was immediately displeased. She coldly stared at the young man on the left.

Seeing this, Lin Mo instantly understood that she must have been ambushed by the people of the Human King Mansion when she escaped from Dragon State and passed by Sword State.

Yao Chen was taken aback. He looked at Qilin and felt a sense of familiarity. Struck with a thought, he took out a scroll from his storage ring.

The scroll was a painting. Lin Mo had seen something similar before.

When Qilin escaped from Dragon State, countless people chased after her for the inheritance and blood essence of the Qilin.

This painting was Qilin’s wanted order, which had once put her in a life-and-death crisis.

“The ancient Qilin girl!”

Everyone was shocked. They all took out their magical weapons and aimed at Qilin.

Yao Chen and the other two walked forward, the greed in their eyes could no longer be suppressed.

They looked at each other and understood what they were thinking. They nodded at the same time. The Dragon-patterned Carp was no longer important at this moment.

“Ancient Qilin girl, hand over the Qilin inheritance.”

“Also, give me the Qilin blood. Otherwise, I’m afraid you won’t be able to leave today.”

A group of people surrounded Qilin and stared greedily at her.

The supreme inheritance of Qilin, as well as the purest and strongest blood essence.

Such huge benefits made them forget about Qilin’s strength for a moment. To be listed as the first in the Hidden Dragon Rank, how could she be simple?

“Greed makes one forget fear...”

Lin Mo shook his head. He flickered, and everyone could only see his afterimage slowly disappear. His actual body was nowhere to be seen.

Immediately after, Yao Chen reacted. With a scream, he used his magic tool to block the attack.

Unfortunately, his decent reaction was completely useless.

“Pow!”

The left side of Yao Chen’s face was badly mangled, and half of his teeth flew out along with blood.

Lin Mo gave him a tight slap, almost causing his head to fall off.

This was also because Lin Mo had shown mercy, so Yao Chen was only sent flying with some minor injuries.

Even so, everyone was still very shocked.

One must know that Yao Chen was a genius from the Human King Mansion. He had been in the ancient battlefield for a month and had made consecutive breakthroughs. He was a fifth-level Almighty powerhouse at the moment.

Despite that, such a genius had no way of fighting back against Lin Mo.

“You... You’re Lin Mo.”

At this moment, someone realized what was going on and exclaimed in shock. It was rumored that Qilin had followed the human God Devouring Body.

At first, not many people believed it, but now, they had no choice but to believe it.

It was also at this moment that they finally reacted to the situation.

Of the two people in front of them, one was ranked seventh on the Hidden Dragon Rank, and the other was ranked first.

Just a moment ago, they were still thinking of joining forces to capture Qilin, but now, they could not even protect their lives...

“What are you going to do?” Lin Mo looked at Qilin.

He was too lazy to care about a group of people whose eyes were blinded by greed. In terms of talent and combat power, only Yao Chen and the other two were worthy of him.

Nevertheless, that was all there was to it. They were not enough to concern him.

...

“There’s no sense of accomplishment even if I kill them...” Qilin pouted. Killing these people made her feel like she would be bullying the weak...

“Do you have the recipe for the Dragon-patterned Carp?”

After thinking for a while, Qilin suddenly asked. These people all had powerful backgrounds, so maybe someone had it.

However, Qilin was disappointed. These people looked around and finally handed her half a sheepskin scroll.

“Is half of it enough?” Qilin looked at Lin Mo with hope in her eyes.

“It should be, but I’ll have to wait for a while.” Lin Mo laughed.

With the auction rebate system in his hands, there was nothing Lin Mo could not do. He did not want to lie to Qilin, but he was afraid that she would ask about the origin of the treasure.

“That’s great! Brother Lin Mo, you’re the best!”

Qilin was extremely excited. Like a child, she held Lin Mo’s arm and jumped up and down.

After keeping the Dragon-patterned Carp, Lin Mo did not let the divine spring water go to waste. He took half of the spring water to make soup...

As for Yao Chen and the rest, Lin Mo and Qilin took away the valuable treasures they had and let them go.

...

Before Lin Mo left, he found out from these people that the ancient battlefield’s opening time was not fixed.

The longest one lasted for 100 years. At that time, tens of thousands of Saints were born in the entire Northern Continent. It was the golden age.

As such, there were cities built by predecessors in certain areas of the ancient battlefield. They could be considered gathering points.

The auction that Lin Mo was looking for was also in that place.

“Don’t worry, we should be able to eat the Emerald Dragon Carp tonight.”

According to the rough map they had obtained, the two spent five days before finally finding a city.

It was relatively small and not well-known, so it should have been built in recent generations.

“This is the same as changing the environment for cultivation...”

Qilin praised. She liked the ancient battlefield because there were no shameless old fogeys who were concerned about her.

Moreover, the environment was very suitable for cultivation. It was rich in resources, and the universe’s spiritual Qi even contained some Dao laws.

This would make it easier for one to comprehend Dao and improve faster.

“Hey, what’s that?”

As they were walking, Lin Mo suddenly froze and turned to look at a woman. At her stall, there were all sorts of ancient objects.

“Feel free to look around. They’re all excavated from ruins,” the woman spoke bluntly. innread.com

“Look at this...”

Before Lin Mo could take a closer look, Qilin grabbed a red stone and handed it over to him. stored it in the system space.

[Nine Dazzling Stone, a rare treasure of heaven and earth. If you add a little of it when refining a magic weapon, it can greatly increase the level of the magic weapon.]

“And this...” Qilin handed over another piece.

[An ordinary stone with a seed of a divine tree inside. It is of heaven grade tier 3.]

[Spirit King Fruit Tree. After it matures, it can grow to heaven grade tier 7. Anyone who consumes it will instantly enter the Ruler realm.]

“Picking up treasures at random... Little girl, I really like you.” Lin Mo chuckled.

Please report the problems you have identified regarding the novel and its chapters.

“Are they very precious? I just feel that they’re something good. What are they?”

Qilin asked Lin Mo via voice transmission. She did not expect to find two treasures as soon as she entered the city. She was so lucky.

“They’re equivalent to two heaven-grade tier 2 or 3 divine medicines.”

Lin Mo ruffled Qilin’s hair and asked the stall owner for the price. He agreed to buy them after that.

!!

The two of them left quickly to avoid anyone finding out that they had just obtained treasures.

“He paid so quickly?”

The woman was puzzled. She looked at the ancient objects she had laid out, but she could not figure out what they were.

“It’s a seed. It’ll take at least 100 years for it to mature. There’s no time to cultivate it.”

Qilin was immediately depressed. Although the seed could grow to heaven-grade tier 7 at most, it needed to be taken care of, which was too much of a waste of time.

“There’s no auction here. If I want to auction it, do I need to gather people on my own...?”

Qilin was still grumbling, whereas Lin Mo had gotten the information he wanted.

The opening time of the ancient battlefield was not fixed. People were all working hard to find treasures and had no time to set up trade unions.

“That’s too much of a loss. Why don’t we set up a stall and exchange it for divine medicine or something?” Qilin asked.

Of course, the most important thing was the recipe for the Emerald Dragon Carp. It would be great if she could get it.

“Take these and exchange them for divine medicines. At the same time, see if you can pick up any more treasures.”

Lin Mo handed Qilin a storage bag, which contained some spirit stones, magic tools, and cultivation techniques that he could not use.

These were all from enemies he had killed before, and most of them were half a step into the heaven grade.

There was no auction around, and Lin Mo could not be bothered to hold one, so he might as well exchange those items.

“Everyone, I have some treasures that I’m planning to auction off. If you’re interested, please come and support me.”

Since there was no auction, Lin Mo could only find an empty shop and call for people to auction the items off.

The Nine Dazzling Stone, the seed of the Spirit King Fruit Tree, a few earth-grade tier 9 elixirs, and a heaven-grade tier 1 divine medicine.

These were all Lin Mo had at the moment. In addition, he had a huge water tank with a Dragon-patterned Carp in it.

“The golden patterns emit golden light, and it looks like a dragon. This is a Dragon-patterned Carp. Fellow Daoist, you’re so lucky.” innread.com

Someone praised and came over. The Dragon-patterned Carp could double medicinal effects when boiled with divine medicine.

Soon, Lin Mo’s stall was filled with people who were interested in the treasures.

“Where did this brat come from? How dare he auction things off here? Doesn’t he know that this is the territory of the Fallen Dragon Sect?”

Suddenly, a group of people came from the front.

They pushed the crowd aside and looked at Lin Mo with cold eyes.

“Senior Brother, that’s a Dragon-patterned Carp. There’s also the divine medicine, the Falling Moon Herb.”

A few of them arrived and saw the treasures on Lin Mo’s stall. When they saw the Dragon-patterned Carp and the divine medicine, their eyes lit up.

“Are you here to find trouble?” Lin Mo’s gaze turned cold.

Sure enough, no matter where Lin Mo was, as long as there were treasures, he would attract attention. Those who thought they were strong would probably snatch them by force...

“Kid, watch your attitude. This city has been occupied by the Fallen Dragon Sect.”

A young man said arrogantly. As he spoke, he reached out to take a spirit fruit on the table.

“Pfft!”

“Ah!”

A sword light flickered, and the young man screamed as blood spurted out from his broken wrist.

Everyone was shocked as they looked at Lin Mo in shock. They had just felt a wave of Sword Qi.

Before anyone could react, the young man’s palm was cut off.

At this moment, he was still screaming in pain. Lin Mo rubbed his ears impatiently and said, “How short-sighted. Since you’re here to find trouble, then die.”

He put away the treasures on the table, and a majestic Sword Qi appeared on his body.

Lin Mo did not know where the so-called Fallen Dragon Sect was, but he knew that if he did not use extreme measures, he would not be able to conduct the auction normally.

The Yin Yang Dao Laws appeared. Spiritual Qi gathered and formed a black and white sword in his hand.

There were a total of nine people from the other party, and one of them had his palm crippled by Lin Mo. He was the weakest person present.

A battle broke out, but the aftermath of the spiritual Qi was blocked by the people nearby, so it did not cause much damage.

Even so, Lin Mo's methods also made everyone's expression change.

There were nine people from the Fallen Dragon Sect, and the strongest one was at the fifth level of the Almighty realm. The person could be considered a genius.

Despite that, Lin Mo was still able to dodge his opponents, and they could not even touch him.

In an instant, blood splattered everywhere. The young man whose hand had been crippled by Lin Mo at the beginning was caught off guard, and Lin Mo seized the opportunity to severely injure him on the spot.

"How dare you look down on the Fallen Dragon Sect? You must be tired of living."

The most powerful young man from the Fallen Dragon Sect roared and used his most powerful martial arts technique.

A golden chain was flung out, and it turned into a Water Dragon that wrapped around Lin Mo.

In an instant, the chain retracted, and the roar of a Water Dragon could be heard. A huge force was transmitted, wanting to strangle Lin Mo to death.

"Boom!"

...

Lin Mo's body glowed with a golden light, and the power of extreme Yang burst forth.

A pair of wings appeared on his back. The white wings had black spots of light on them, and they seemed to be a fusion of Yin and Yang.

The wings spread and broke the chain in a moment.

Sword Qi swirled around the wings, which flapped again and cut the chain into pieces.

“Ah...”

Several people from the Fallen Dragon Sect screamed miserably as they were injured by the Sword Qi, especially the one who had activated the chain. His magic tool was destroyed.

He had suffered a backlash, and his combat power had been reduced.

Everyone present was shocked. Lin Mo’s combat power was truly terrifying and far exceeded their own.

“I didn’t want to kill you, but since you insist on seeking death, I’ll fulfill your wish,” Lin Mo said coldly.

He had shown mercy and defeated them without killing them.

However, these people were setting up a formation and taking out nine formation banners that were connected. They wanted to seize him.

“Die.”

Lin Mo shook his head and did not care at all. He used his fingers as a sword, and a bright Sword Qi burst out, shocking the world.

The people from the Fallen Dragon Sect were unwilling to give up. They activated their formation and wanted to fight to the death, but they were no match for the Sword Qi.

“Pfft!”

As the sword light slashed down, the barrier that the surrounding people had set up together was broken. The Sword Qi soared into the sky, and the entire city shook.

At this moment, the place was as bright as day. Under the divine light of the Sword Qi, none of the people from the Fallen Dragon Sect were left behind.

“This is the law of the Great Dao of Yin Yang. And those wings are the Kun Peng’s technique.”

The surrounding people were shocked and looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

On the street, Lin Mo stood calmly in midair. In his hands were nine interspatial rings.

They were the items left behind by the Fallen Dragon Sect. He had held back at the last moment, or else these storage rings would have been destroyed by the Sword Qi.

“Hey, this is...”

Lin Mo was stunned as he checked the items inside.

Lin Mo took out a wordless scroll and kept it in the system space.

[A precious herbal dish from ancient times, the Emerald Dragon Carp.]

The system’s voice rang out, and Lin Mo was momentarily at a loss for words.

Qilin’s luck was too ridiculous. It was as if someone sent a pillow over when he was drowsy.

Lin Mo had wanted to auction the Dragon-patterned Carp. After all, without the recipe for the Emerald Dragon Carp, he would not know what ingredients were needed and would not be able to make it.

Now, it seemed that there was no need to auction the Dragon-patterned Carp.

“The troublesome fellas have been dealt with. The auction will begin. If you’re interested, please bid.”
