663 Picking up Treasures at Random

“Forget it. They’re just two clowns. Let’s just kill them.”

A young man sneered and made his move. With a shake of his hand, he threw out a sword ray that was mixed with water and fire attributes.

“Swish!”

It was a pity because Lin Mo was considered the best among the younger generation when it came to Sword Dao.

!!

Even if he was not ranked first, he was definitely one of the top ten. After all, he had studied it since he was young and was quite profound in it.

Lin Mo displayed his Sword Qi slightly and raised his hand to block the sword light.

At the same time, the young man’s long sword was caught between Lin Mo’s two fingers and could not move.

This was a half-step heaven-grade divine sword, and the power it contained could not be underestimated.

However, such a divine sword was snapped in half by Lin Mo.

Everyone was shocked and retreated. They looked at Lin Mo warily.

“Who are you?”

Their faces were serious, knowing that another strong enemy had come, and the competition for the Dragon-patterned Carp was getting more and more intense.

“Before you ask for my name, you have to say yours first.” Lin Mo smiled as he looked at the three parties.

Although they were wearing iconic sect uniforms, the Northern Continent was so big that no one knew which forces they were from.

“I’m Qiu Ying, a disciple of the Heavenly Demon Sect.”

“I’m Liu Feng, a disciple of the Demon Puppet Clan.”

“I’m Yao Chen, a disciple of the Human King Mansion.”

Three young geniuses walked out from the divine spring. They came from three different forces and were fighting for the Dragon-patterned Carp.

“I know about the Human King Mansion. It’s a powerful force that once ruled Sword State, but it was weakened after that.”

Hearing this, Qilin was immediately displeased. She coldly stared at the young man on the left.

Seeing this, Lin Mo instantly understood that she must have been ambushed by the people of the Human King Mansion when she escaped from Dragon State and passed by Sword State.

Yao Chen was taken aback. He looked at Qilin and felt a sense of familiarity. Struck with a thought, he took out a scroll from his storage ring.

The scroll was a painting. Lin Mo had seen something similar before.

When Qilin escaped from Dragon State, countless people chased after her for the inheritance and blood essence of the Qilin.

This painting was Qilin’s wanted order, which had once put her in a life-and-death crisis.

“The ancient Qilin girl!”

Everyone was shocked. They all took out their magical weapons and aimed at Qilin.

Yao Chen and the other two walked forward, the greed in their eyes could no longer be suppressed.

They looked at each other and understood what they were thinking. They nodded at the same time. The Dragon-patterned Carp was no longer important at this moment.

“Ancient Qilin girl, hand over the Qilin inheritance.”

“Also, give me the Qilin blood. Otherwise, I’m afraid you won’t be able to leave today.”

A group of people surrounded Qilin and stared greedily at her.

The supreme inheritance of Qilin, as well as the purest and strongest blood essence.

Such huge benefits made them forget about Qilin’s strength for a moment. To be listed as the first in the Hidden Dragon Rank, how could she be simple?

“Greed makes one forget fear...”

Lin Mo shook his head. He flickered, and everyone could only see his afterimage slowly disappear. His actual body was nowhere to be seen.

Immediately after, Yao Chen reacted. With a scream, he used his magic tool to block the attack.

Unfortunately, his decent reaction was completely useless.

“Pow!”

The left side of Yao Chen’s face was badly mangled, and half of his teeth flew out along with blood.

Lin Mo gave him a tight slap, almost causing his head to fall off.

This was also because Lin Mo had shown mercy, so Yao Chen was only sent flying with some minor injuries.

Even so, everyone was still very shocked.

One must know that Yao Chen was a genius from the Human King Mansion. He had been in the ancient battlefield for a month and had made consecutive breakthroughs. He was a fifth-level Almighty powerhouse at the moment.

Despite that, such a genius had no way of fighting back against Lin Mo.

“You... You’re Lin Mo.”

At this moment, someone realized what was going on and exclaimed in shock. It was rumored that Qilin had followed the human God Devouring Body.

At first, not many people believed it, but now, they had no choice but to believe it.

It was also at this moment that they finally reacted to the situation.

Of the two people in front of them, one was ranked seventh on the Hidden Dragon Rank, and the other was ranked first.

Just a moment ago, they were still thinking of joining forces to capture Qilin, but now, they could not even protect their lives...

“What are you going to do?” Lin Mo looked at Qilin.

He was too lazy to care about a group of people whose eyes were blinded by greed. In terms of talent and combat power, only Yao Chen and the other two were worthy of him.

Nevertheless, that was all there was to it. They were not enough to concern him.

...

“There’s no sense of accomplishment even if I kill them...” Qilin pouted. Killing these people made her feel like she would be bullying the weak...

“Do you have the recipe for the Dragon-patterned Carp?”

After thinking for a while, Qilin suddenly asked. These people all had powerful backgrounds, so maybe someone had it.

However, Qilin was disappointed. These people looked around and finally handed her half a sheepskin scroll.

“Is half of it enough?” Qilin looked at Lin Mo with hope in her eyes.

“It should be, but I’ll have to wait for a while.” Lin Mo laughed.

With the auction rebate system in his hands, there was nothing Lin Mo could not do. He did not want to lie to Qilin, but he was afraid that she would ask about the origin of the treasure.

“That’s great! Brother Lin Mo, you’re the best!”

Qilin was extremely excited. Like a child, she held Lin Mo’s arm and jumped up and down.

After keeping the Dragon-patterned Carp, Lin Mo did not let the divine spring water go to waste. He took half of the spring water to make soup...

As for Yao Chen and the rest, Lin Mo and Qilin took away the valuable treasures they had and let them go.

...

Before Lin Mo left, he found out from these people that the ancient battlefield’s opening time was not fixed.

The longest one lasted for 100 years. At that time, tens of thousands of Saints were born in the entire Northern Continent. It was the golden age.

As such, there were cities built by predecessors in certain areas of the ancient battlefield. They could be considered gathering points.

The auction that Lin Mo was looking for was also in that place.

“Don’t worry, we should be able to eat the Emerald Dragon Carp tonight.”

According to the rough map they had obtained, the two spent five days before finally finding a city.

It was relatively small and not well-known, so it should have been built in recent generations.

“This is the same as changing the environment for cultivation...”

Qilin praised. She liked the ancient battlefield because there were no shameless old fogeys who were concerned about her.

Moreover, the environment was very suitable for cultivation. It was rich in resources, and the universe’s spiritual Qi even contained some Dao laws.

This would make it easier for one to comprehend Dao and improve faster.

“Hey, what’s that?”

As they were walking, Lin Mo suddenly froze and turned to look at a woman. At her stall, there were all sorts of ancient objects.

“Feel free to look around. They’re all excavated from ruins,” the woman spoke bluntly. innread.com

“Look at this...”

Before Lin Mo could take a closer look, Qilin grabbed a red stone and handed it over to him. stored it in the system space.

[Nine Dazzling Stone, a rare treasure of heaven and earth. If you add a little of it when refining a magic weapon, it can greatly increase the level of the magic weapon.]

“And this...” Qilin handed over another piece.

[An ordinary stone with a seed of a divine tree inside. It is of heaven grade tier 3.]

[Spirit King Fruit Tree. After it matures, it can grow to heaven grade tier 7. Anyone who consumes it will instantly enter the Ruler realm.]

“Picking up treasures at random... Little girl, I really like you.” Lin Mo chuckled.

664 Fallen Dragon Sect

“Are they very precious? I just feel that they’re something good. What are they?”

Qilin asked Lin Mo via voice transmission. She did not expect to find two treasures as soon as she entered the city. She was so lucky.

“They’re equivalent to two heaven-grade tier 2 or 3 divine medicines.”

Lin Mo ruffled Qilin’s hair and asked the stall owner for the price. He agreed to buy them after that.

!!

The two of them left quickly to avoid anyone finding out that they had just obtained treasures.

“He paid so quickly?”

The woman was puzzled. She looked at the ancient objects she had laid out, but she could not figure out what they were.

“It’s a seed. It’ll take at least 100 years for it to mature. There’s no time to cultivate it.”

Qilin was immediately depressed. Although the seed could grow to heaven-grade tier 7 at most, it needed to be taken care of, which was too much of a waste of time.

“There’s no auction here. If I want to auction it, do I need to gather people on my own...?”

Qilin was still grumbling, whereas Lin Mo had gotten the information he wanted.

The opening time of the ancient battlefield was not fixed. People were all working hard to find treasures and had no time to set up trade unions.

“That’s too much of a loss. Why don’t we set up a stall and exchange it for divine medicine or something?” Qilin asked.

Of course, the most important thing was the recipe for the Emerald Dragon Carp. It would be great if she could get it.

“Take these and exchange them for divine medicines. At the same time, see if you can pick up any more treasures.”

Lin Mo handed Qilin a storage bag, which contained some spirit stones, magic tools, and cultivation techniques that he could not use.

These were all from enemies he had killed before, and most of them were half a step into the heaven grade.

There was no auction around, and Lin Mo could not be bothered to hold one, so he might as well exchange those items.

“Everyone, I have some treasures that I’m planning to auction off. If you’re interested, please come and support me.”

Since there was no auction, Lin Mo could only find an empty shop and call for people to auction the items off.

The Nine Dazzling Stone, the seed of the Spirit King Fruit Tree, a few earth-grade tier 9 elixirs, and a heaven-grade tier 1 divine medicine.

These were all Lin Mo had at the moment. In addition, he had a huge water tank with a Dragon-patterned Carp in it.

“The golden patterns emit golden light, and it looks like a dragon. This is a Dragon-patterned Carp. Fellow Daoist, you’re so lucky.” innread.com

Someone praised and came over. The Dragon-patterned Carp could double medicinal effects when boiled with divine medicine.

Soon, Lin Mo’s stall was filled with people who were interested in the treasures.

“Where did this brat come from? How dare he auction things off here? Doesn’t he know that this is the territory of the Fallen Dragon Sect?”

Suddenly, a group of people came from the front.

They pushed the crowd aside and looked at Lin Mo with cold eyes.

“Senior Brother, that’s a Dragon-patterned Carp. There’s also the divine medicine, the Falling Moon Herb.”

A few of them arrived and saw the treasures on Lin Mo’s stall. When they saw the Dragon-patterned Carp and the divine medicine, their eyes lit up.

“Are you here to find trouble?” Lin Mo’s gaze turned cold.

Sure enough, no matter where Lin Mo was, as long as there were treasures, he would attract attention. Those who thought they were strong would probably snatch them by force...

“Kid, watch your attitude. This city has been occupied by the Fallen Dragon Sect.”

A young man said arrogantly. As he spoke, he reached out to take a spirit fruit on the table.

“Pfft!”

“Ah!”

A sword light flickered, and the young man screamed as blood spurted out from his broken wrist.

Everyone was shocked as they looked at Lin Mo in shock. They had just felt a wave of Sword Qi.

Before anyone could react, the young man’s palm was cut off.

At this moment, he was still screaming in pain. Lin Mo rubbed his ears impatiently and said, “How short-sighted. Since you’re here to find trouble, then die.”

He put away the treasures on the table, and a majestic Sword Qi appeared on his body.

Lin Mo did not know where the so-called Fallen Dragon Sect was, but he knew that if he did not use extreme measures, he would not be able to conduct the auction normally.

The Yin Yang Dao Laws appeared. Spiritual Qi gathered and formed a black and white sword in his hand.

There were a total of nine people from the other party, and one of them had his palm crippled by Lin Mo. He was the weakest person present.

A battle broke out, but the aftermath of the spiritual Qi was blocked by the people nearby, so it did not cause much damage.

Even so, Lin Mo's methods also made everyone's expression change.

There were nine people from the Fallen Dragon Sect, and the strongest one was at the fifth level of the Almighty realm. The person could be considered a genius.

Despite that, Lin Mo was still able to dodge his opponents, and they could not even touch him.

In an instant, blood splattered everywhere. The young man whose hand had been crippled by Lin Mo at the beginning was caught off guard, and Lin Mo seized the opportunity to severely injure him on the spot.

“How dare you look down on the Fallen Dragon Sect? You must be tired of living.”

The most powerful young man from the Fallen Dragon Sect roared and used his most powerful martial arts technique.

A golden chain was flung out, and it turned into a Water Dragon that wrapped around Lin Mo.

In an instant, the chain retracted, and the roar of a Water Dragon could be heard. A huge force was transmitted, wanting to strangle Lin Mo to death.

“Boom!”

...

Lin Mo's body glowed with a golden light, and the power of extreme Yang burst forth.

A pair of wings appeared on his back. The white wings had black spots of light on them, and they seemed to be a fusion of Yin and Yang.

The wings spread and broke the chain in a moment.

Sword Qi swirled around the wings, which flapped again and cut the chain into pieces.

“Ah...”

Several people from the Fallen Dragon Sect screamed miserably as they were injured by the Sword Qi, especially the one who had activated the chain. His magic tool was destroyed.

He had suffered a backlash, and his combat power had been reduced.

Everyone present was shocked. Lin Mo's combat power was truly terrifying and far exceeded their own.

“I didn't want to kill you, but since you insist on seeking death, I'll fulfill your wish,” Lin Mo said coldly.

He had shown mercy and defeated them without killing them.

However, these people were setting up a formation and taking out nine formation banners that were connected. They wanted to seize him.

“Die.”

Lin Mo shook his head and did not care at all. He used his fingers as a sword, and a bright Sword Qi burst out, shocking the world.

The people from the Fallen Dragon Sect were unwilling to give up. They activated their formation and wanted to fight to the death, but they were no match for the Sword Qi.

“Pfft!”

As the sword light slashed down, the barrier that the surrounding people had set up together was broken. The Sword Qi soared into the sky, and the entire city shook.

At this moment, the place was as bright as day. Under the divine light of the Sword Qi, none of the people from the Fallen Dragon Sect were left behind.

“This is the law of the Great Dao of Yin Yang. And those wings are the Kun Peng's technique.”

The surrounding people were shocked and looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

On the street, Lin Mo stood calmly in midair. In his hands were nine interspatial rings.

They were the items left behind by the Fallen Dragon Sect. He had held back at the last moment, or else these storage rings would have been destroyed by the Sword Qi.

“Hey, this is...”

Lin Mo was stunned as he checked the items inside.

Lin Mo took out a wordless scroll and kept it in the system space.

[A precious herbal dish from ancient times, the Emerald Dragon Carp.]

The system’s voice rang out, and Lin Mo was momentarily at a loss for words.

Qilin’s luck was too ridiculous. It was as if someone sent a pillow over when he was drowsy.

Lin Mo had wanted to auction the Dragon-patterned Carp. After all, without the recipe for the Emerald Dragon Carp, he would not know what ingredients were needed and would not be able to make it.

Now, it seemed that there was no need to auction the Dragon-patterned Carp.

“The troublesome fellas have been dealt with. The auction will begin. If you’re interested, please bid.”

“How could this be...?”

A woman’s cry was heard. Her breathing gradually became heavy, and her face was full of regret and heartache.

“Fellow Daoist, what’s the matter?” Someone asked in concern.

“I sold that Nine Dazzling Stone with a half-divine medicine...”

The woman's words caused an uproar among the crowd. At the same time, they looked at her with sympathy.

No one would feel good about mistakenly selling a precious treasure as trash.

They could imagine that if the person on the stage was not Lin Mo, who was ranked seventh on the Hidden Dragon Rank, but someone else, the woman would probably snatch the stone back directly.

After all, the rules in this place were all set by the strong...

"The starting price for the Nine Dazzling Stones is 60 million high-grade spirit stones."

After a brief introduction, Lin Mo announced the start of the auction.

After being burned by the flame, the stone was completely shining with its own brilliance. Nine fire dragons were circling around it.

666 Swords Drawn

Some people looked at the Nine Dazzling Stone with deep gazes.

It was said that the Nine Dazzling Stone could even be used to refine celestial tools. Even if it was not a necessary material, it was still extremely extraordinary.

After all, it was just a divine material for forging. It was extremely rare for it to have such value.

"I'll pay 70 million. I want to buy it back."

The first to speak was the woman. She was also from a large sect and had extraordinary talent.

She was also extremely generous, increasing the bid by 10 million in one go, shocking many people.

"71 million."

"73 million."

However, not everyone was stunned. There were still some people with extraordinary origins who needed the Nine Dazzling Stone.

“I’ll offer a heaven-grade tier 2 divine fruit.”

“7,000 high-grade spirit stones, plus a supreme-grade spirit stone prototype.”

At this moment, there were still five people bidding on the street, each one higher than the last.

Even so, at this point, they would not increase the price any further. After all, they also needed to cultivate.

Treasures were mentioned one after another, attracting the attention of countless people.

“I’ll give you a heaven-grade tier 3 divine pill. It can increase the cultivation base of an Almighty powerhouse by three levels without any damage.”

In the distance, a young man in luxurious clothes walked over, surrounded by a group of people.

His bid was also high, instantly suppressing everyone else.

To refine a heaven-grade tier 3 divine pill, one would need a heaven-grade tier 3 divine medicine and many other supplementary spirit medicines.

The value of this divine pill had exceeded the value of the Nine Dazzling Stone. It was not worth it to offer more items.

“You’re offering the Spirit Platform Pill, right? I’ll offer one as well, plus five million high-grade spirit stones.” The woman was still making her final struggle.

The Nine Dazzling Stone was incomparably precious, and she was quite annoyed that it had been taken away from her.

“You don’t know how to appreciate kindness. How dare you compete with Young Master Tang’s offer?!”

A few guards walked over and rudely pushed away the passersby, clearing a path.

“This is an auction. Even though you’re picking up scraps, there are still rules. Please follow them.”

Lin Mo said coldly. He had to get the heaven-grade tier 3 divine pill today. That way, he would make a huge profit in the next auction.

Nonetheless, he did not care who the other party was. If they dared to cause trouble, he would immediately suppress them.

“Forget it. I’ll let her have it. In any case. it’ll be mine sooner or later...”

The young man was in the center of the crowd. He waved his hand indifferently, but his words made the woman’s face turn ugly.

He was too arrogant to say something like that so openly.

“Seeing that I picked up this Nine Dazzling Stone from you, if you’re not his match, you can stay here, and I’ll take you away later.”

Lin Mo said to the woman after he took the heaven-grade tier 3 spirit pill and 5 million high-grade spirit stones.

“Many thanks...”

The woman hesitated for a moment, but in the end, she did not choose to leave and stayed where she was.

Compared to the arrogant Young Master Tang, she was more willing to trust Lin Mo.

[Congratulations for completing the auction. As the buyer has a valuable treasure on her, she has been targeted. Please maintain the reputation of the auction and help her get out of her predicament.]

[Upon completion, you’ll receive the Dragon Soul, a divine material.]

The system’s voice was heard. Lin Mo had just agreed to help the other party when the system issued him a mission.

Moreover, the Dragon Soul was the main material for making a heaven-grade tier 7 magic tool.

It was a pity that Lin Mo never had the time to learn about weapon refinement even though he had a legacy.

Although it was not a burden to have more skills, he did not have any free time.

“I’ll find someone to help me refine it in the future...”

Lin Mo sighed. Perhaps he could give the legacy to someone else.

Despite that, it seemed that he did not know many people. Among the people he was close to, not many of them liked to forge...

“The last auction item is the seed of a heaven-grade tier 2 divine tree, the Spirit King Fruit Tree.

Lin Mo had also bought this from the woman. He took it out in advance and did not continue to agitate her.

The emerald green seed attracted many people the moment it appeared.

This time, no one was bidding. Everyone was looking at Young Master Tang in the center. innread.com

“Fellow Daoist Lin Mo, that man is called Tang Chen. He’s from Wen State and is ranked 2,376 on the Hidden Dragon Rank.

“His ranking might be low, but it’s because the ranking isn’t accurate at all.”

A voice was transmitted to Lin Mo’s ears, informing him of a piece of news.

The woman’s name was Song Lianxue, and she came from Snow Valley of Snow State. Although she was not the strongest, she was not weak either.

Snow State and Wen State were neighbors, so she knew a lot.

Besides, the ranking on the Hidden Dragon Rank was not accurate. The top 20 might be worthy, but the people below were not weak either. Some of them had yet to show their talent, while others were hiding their true strength.

Some were too lazy to compete and felt that it was enough to enter the top 3,000.

...

As a result, there were many unknown geniuses mixed on the ancient battlefield. They were all terrifyingly strong, no weaker than the top 10 of the Hidden Dragon Rank.

“I know. Thanks for the reminder.”

The auction continued. The seed of the Spirit King Fruit was an extremely precious cultivation resource for some large sects.

After successfully cultivating it, it would produce more than 20 fruits each time. If it were to appear in the outside world, it would probably cause a sensation.

“There’s no need to fight. I’m offering a Spirit Platform Pill. Is there anyone who wants to bid?”

Lin Mo did not even state the starting price, and yet Tang Chen had started bidding.

There were a few people who wanted to bid, but they chose to remain silent after some hesitation.

“Is there no one else? Alright.”

After announcing the result of the auction, Lin Mo held the seed of the Spirit King Fruit Tree in his hand and looked at Tang Chen, who was in the center of the crowd.

“Are you worried that I won’t pay up?” Tang Chen asked angrily.

“Of course not. Please hold your auction item.” Lin Mo smiled and handed over the seed of the Spirit King Fruit Tree.

...

“You’re tactful.” Tang Chen took it, and the smugness on his face became more obvious.

Seeing Lin Mo’s reaction, even the guards beside Tang Chen laughed.

All of them looked at Lin Mo sarcastically as if they were looking at a clown.

“Since you received the goods, please pay up...”

Lin Mo resisted the urge to make a move and asked Tang Chen to pay.

He had no choice. The system had not determined that the auction was a success, and the rebate had not been given.

“What if I don’t?”

Tang Chen looked at Lin Mo with a mocking expression.

“Swish!”

Seeing this, the surrounding people all made way, not daring to get close.

They could all feel that a great battle was about to break out.

Furthermore, it would be a battle between the Hidden Dragon Rank’s geniuses, so it would definitely be very exciting.

“If you don’t pay up, I’m afraid you won’t be able to leave.”

A sweet voice came from behind. Qilin, who had been shopping for elixirs in the city, had returned.

One after the other, Lin Mo and Qilin fixed their gazes on Tang Chen.

Being locked on by the two at the same time, the pressure on Tang Chen suddenly increased, and the smile on his face gradually disappeared.

He looked at Qilin fearfully, then at Lin Mo.

“Hehe, I’m just joking. You two won’t mind, right?”

With a chuckle, his index finger glowed, and he took out a divine pill from his interspatial ring. It was shining with golden light.

Just like Song Lianxue’s, it was a rare divine pill.

That said, Lin Mo would not let Qilin consume a divine pill that could directly increase one’s cultivation level.

667 Enemies From Multiple Sides

Although the introduction said that the divine pill would not damage one's foundation, it was better not to rely on spirit pills to increase one's realm in the beginning.

[Congratulations for successfully auctioning the seed of a heaven-grade tier 2 Spirit King Fruit Tree.]

[Successfully triggered a 7,000-fold auction rebate.]

[Congratulations on obtaining the sapling of a heaven-grade tier 4 Spirit King Fruit Tree.]

!!

After obtaining the divine pill, the system determined that the auction had been completed. The reward also appeared in the system space.

Nonetheless, the treasure Lin Mo received was still a seedling, and he had no interest in nurturing it.

If he was in the Southern Continent, he might have handed it over to the Bai clan. Now, he had to find a chance to exchange it for something else...

"Have you found the recipe for the medicinal Emerald Dragon Carp?" Qilin walked in front of Lin Mo.

The moment she arrived, she was concerned about the Emerald Dragon Carp.

After all, she had been craving it for a long time. After knowing about the delicious food, she had been wanting to eat it.

"Don't worry. I've got it. The medicinal herbs aren't precious. I can gather them."

Lin Mo smiled and took out a Long Ginseng Fruit. He handed it to Qilin, who happily took it and took a bite.

"It's so sweet. What kind of divine fruit is this?" Qilin was satisfied.

“You’re waiting for someone?”

At this moment, Lin Mo looked at Tang Chen. He had not left and was waiting there.

The people around him were also on guard, wary of Lin Mo and Qilin.

“Tang Chen is the second young master of the Tang clan. He’s waiting for his brother to make a move on you.”

Song Lianxue spoke up at this moment, urging Lin Mo to leave quickly.

With two Hidden Dragon Rank geniuses and so many people from the Tang clan, they were going to take down Lin Mo, Qilin, and Song Lianxue in one fell swoop.

“Song Lianxue, they’re just two rogue cultivators. Are you going to gang up with them?”

Tang Chen did not deny it. Instead, he was curious why Song Lianxue was standing with Lin Mo.

“Watch your words, or I’ll cut your tongue out.”

Qilin said coldly. The person in front of her had provoked her time and time again. The people around her did not even bother to hide the way they were looking at her. She had long been impatient.

If not for the fact that Lin Mo had not asked her to make a move, she would have done so long ago.

Even though she looked like a young girl, the way she was eating the Long Ginseng Fruit was a little cute.

However, she was a demonic beast, so she was ruthless and ferocious deep down.

“Did they notice us? But it’s a little too late.”

At this moment, there were more than 100 people in the sky above the city. Every one of them had a powerful aura and could not be underestimated.

“An army?”

Lin Mo was shocked. It had been a while since he had felt the fighting spirit of an army.

He was also curious about the combat power of an army formed from powerhouses in the Immortal Foundation realm.

“It’s a pity that the conditions to enter the ancient battlefield are harsh. The army has been scattered, and less than 200 of them have entered...”

A young man walked up from the front of the army.

He shook his head regretfully and looked at Lin Mo and Qilin with greed.

“Even so, the fighting spirit of this army of fewer than 200 people is enough to crush you all...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the people in the sky roared. Their fighting will gathered and formed a dragon in front of them.

“You dare to be so arrogant with just this bit of strength?”

Qilin asked angrily. She ate the last of the Long Ginseng Fruit in her hand and soared into the sky.

Purple light flickered behind her, and Qilin patterns appeared. Her delicate body was covered in purple-gold scales, forming a set of armor.

The Fighting Will Water Dragon went berserk as it fought with Qilin, creating a huge commotion.

“As expected of a divine beast. Her combat strength is terrifying...”

Below, Tang Chen was drooling, full of desire for Qilin’s techniques.

“Compared to this, you, the seventh-ranked genius on the Hidden Dragon List, disappoint me a little.”

Others might not be able to sense it, but Tang Chen could clearly sense that Lin Mo was only at the second level of the Almighty realm.

Such a cultivation level had become much lower than that of some geniuses who entered the battlefield.

After all, in order to enter the ancient battlefield, many people had accumulated their strength for a long time. Under the tempering of the Heavenly Tribulation, their realms improved rapidly.

Some of them had even reached the seventh level and above. It was hard to imagine how long they had been suppressing it.

“The sixth level of the Almighty realm. If this is where your confidence comes from, then I’m quite disappointed.”

The other party was all disciples of the Tang clan. At this time, they were scattered and wanted to besiege Lin Mo and Qilin.

Their battle strategy was simple. Tang Chen’s big brother would lead the army to fight against the divine beast Qilin, an Almighty powerhouse of the fifth level.

As for Tang Chen, he would lead his men to attack Lin Mo. After all, Lin Mo could be easily bullied based on his level...

“Hurry up and attack. I’ll help you block these people. The Tang clan has many collaterals, so they should have more helpers.”

Song Lianxue walked up and told Lin Mo to quickly kill his way out and wait for Qilin to escape.

After all, in their lineup, Qilin’s combat power seemed to be stronger.

...

Nonetheless, she was a little late. Another group of people came from afar, and several of them were very talented.

Other than that, there were also other living creatures such as sea demons, divine birds, and land beasts. Even the weakest of them was an Almighty powerhouse of the fourth level.

Lin Mo was not worried at all. Instead, he looked at the divine birds and demonic beasts and nodded in satisfaction.

These demonic beasts were the cream of the crop, and their bloodlines were very rich. If they were made into medicinal cuisines, they would be very nourishing.

A huge lizard among them was the most eye-catching. It had an organ similar to a cockscomb on its head.

In addition, there was also a dark green python. It was two meters wide and 100 meters long, and its scales reflected a lustrous luster.

“Lin Mo the God Devouring Body, right? Hand over the Kun Peng’s arts, and I’ll spare your life.”

On the other side, Tang Chen laughed maliciously and pointed at Lin Mo, thinking that the outcome was set.

“Fire Lizard. The cockscomb on its head nourishes pure Yang. It is comparable to a divine pill. If consumed with divine medicine, the effect will be even greater.

“Bluish-green Snake, the king of snakes. Its body is extremely poisonous, and it is cold by nature. It’ll be a good idea to make a pot of snake soup with it...”

Lin Mo commented, and his words shocked everyone present.

...

There were still many living beings in the city who were watching the show. They could not help but be shocked when they heard Lin Mo’s words.

‘Is he the human’s God Devouring Body? He’s just an Almighty being of the second level. How dare he be so arrogant? Does he have a trump card?’

“Hmph, you don’t know how to appreciate my kindness. The two of you, join forces and take him down. We’ll split the profits equally.” Tang Chen sneered.

With a wave of his hand, many living beings behind him rushed forward. The rest of the living beings also moved and attacked together.

A divine bird howled into the sky, scattering down large golden feathers that turned into sharp blades. They descended from the sky and attacked Lin Mo.

“Clang!”

The vibration of a sword could be heard. Before Lin Mo could make a move, Song Lianxue had made the first move.

She pointed her sword at the sky, and the Sword Qi she released made the world hum, blocking the attack of the divine bird.

“I’m not strong enough. I can only block one attack...”

Song Lianxue’s face was full of regret. After all, she could only be considered a genius and was not ranked on the Hidden Dragon Rank.

Dealing with one divine bird was her limit. This little help was insignificant for Lin Mo.

However, she did not need to do anything at this moment. The whole city fell into silence.

It was as if time had stopped, and everyone was dumbfounded.

“Pfft!”

Lin Mo formed a sword with his fingers and pointed to the sky. His body emitted a bright sword light.

Streams of Sword Qi shot out from his fingers. They were as fast as lightning, and all of them stabbed the divine bird in the sky.

Especially the last one, the sword light flickered and transformed into a sharp golden sword. It flew at extreme speed and killed the divine bird’s soul.

The divine bird’s body was covered in blood and flesh as it was pierced through by the Sword Qi. It fell to the ground, causing dust to rise and the whole place to fall silent.

668 A One-Sided Massacre

This scene shocked Tang Chen and the others, especially the Fire Lizard and the Bluish-green Snake.

They had been disdainful of Lin Mo, who had a weak cultivation base. That was why they did not try to save their subordinates. Now, they had to take him seriously.

“Tang Chen, let your people set up a formation. Otherwise, I’m afraid we won’t be able to make them stay.”

The Bluish-green Snake’s tone became serious. It also ordered its subordinates to retreat to avoid unnecessary casualties.

!!

“A formation isn’t of much use to me...”

Lin Mo did not hesitate and attacked immediately. At the same time, he told Song Lianxue to watch from the side.

“Thank you for your help. If you can get out of here today, I can inform you of a treasure place.”

Song Lianxue retreated and watched the battle from the back. Lin Mo had taken care of a powerhouse with one strike, so she did not need to do anything.

“Let’s attack together and kill him.”

The Fire Lizard said. It was rather afraid of Lin Mo and charged forward together with the Bluish-green Snake. At the same time, Tang Chen was also preparing his martial arts behind.

At the same time, the creatures behind also attacked.

The universe’s spiritual Qi was turbulent as all kinds of martial arts were performed. The entire city seemed like it would be destroyed in the next moment.

“Kill!”

The Fire Lizard and the Bluish-green Snake arrived. Flames and poisonous mist attacked at the same time. Due to their exquisite control, their attacks did not interfere with each other.

Lin Mo waved his hand and let out an angry roar. The Sword Qi around him exploded, and at this moment, he was as bright as the sun.

The golden feathers exploded like sharp swords.

This was the extreme Yang part of the Kun Peng's technique. If he used this to activate Sword Qi, the explosive power would be unimaginable.

“Pfft!”

Almost in an instant, the attacks from both sides collided.

The Fire Lizard and the Bluish-green Snake suffered injuries of varying degrees.

The other living beings were not only injured, but their bodies were also pierced by the Sword Qi, and even their souls could not escape.

It was a massacre. More than a dozen people were pierced by the Sword Qi, but Lin Mo did not seem to be affected at all. In fact, he did not even use up any energy.

“You want to set up a formation? What a joke. Abyssal Devouring.”

A black ripple spread from Lin Mo's body, forming a black hole that covered a radius of several kilometers.

With such a range, the Abyssal Devouring was useless against Tang Chen and the others.

Despite that, the people who were setting up the formation suffered. The inscribed formation patterns were devoured by the power and completely dissipated.

“Whoosh!”

Lin Mo was like a sharp sword, and the golden wings behind him extended. His speed was as fast as the wind, too fast to imagine.

The golden feathers turned into a sharp sword, piercing through many martial arts. Lin Mo soon arrived in front of Tang Chen.

“Clang.”

Tang Chen’s expression changed greatly. A formation banner appeared in his hand, and he activated the formation that had not been completely set up.

The formation’s energy gathered to form a huge hand that slapped Lin Mo.

At the same time, Tang Chen struck out with his palm, shattering the sharp sword. His palm was swift and agile as it came flying toward Lin Mo’s face.

Tang Chen’s combat power was not weak. No wonder he could be on the Hidden Dragon Rank.

“That’s not right. Your performance has disappointed me...”

Lin Mo frowned. Although Tang Chen was far more talented than ordinary geniuses, he was far from what Song Lianxue had mentioned...

“Why are you being so arrogant? All of you, attack him together. We’ll use our numbers to crush him,” Tang Chen said angrily.

In an instant, many living beings attacked from all directions.

“Boom!”

Lin Mo stood still as the Yin Yang Taiji Diagram appeared behind him, and the Mismatched Yin Yang was activated.

With one strike, the Yin and Yang Qi exploded, blowing up all the living beings nearby on the spot. Not even their souls could escape.

“Crack.”

The Bluish-green Snake let out a blood-curdling screech as its skull was crushed by Lin Mo’s punch. The golden feathers pierced through its skull and destroyed its soul.

The Fire Lizard wanted to launch a sneak attack, but it was cut in half by the flapping of the wings.

This was a one-sided massacre, and it was not just on Lin Mo’s side.

It was the same for Qilin on the other side. The battle formation had long been broken by her, and the ferocity in her bones had been stimulated. Half of the people had been slaughtered.

“Right... There are countless geniuses in the 3,000 states of the Northern Continent, but only a few of them can reach the top...”

Lin Mo understood and shook his head in disappointment.

Even so, this was normal. Among the few powerful physiques of the human race, he had the God Devouring Body, and he had even seen Xia You’s Heavenly Destiny Body before.

These were all extremely heaven-defying physiques. If an ordinary person wanted to compare themselves to them, they would need to put in more than ten times the effort.

Such people were extremely rare, so how could there be 3,000 of them...?

Perhaps Song Lianxue was right—the rankings did not mean everything, and some people behind were hiding their true strength.

Nonetheless, people like Tang Chen were obviously not among them.

“This is boring. Let’s end this earlier...”

...

Lin Mo did not hold back anymore. He exchanged blows with Tang Chen, and in less than 20 moves, he had beheaded his opponent.

On the other side, Qilin had also finished her battle and killed the last person with a lingering desire.

She flew back and saw that Lin Mo had let many people go.

It was only then that the fierceness in her eyes disappeared, and she smiled sweetly at Lin Mo.

“Why didn’t you tell me you wanted to show mercy?”

Seeing this scene, the hearts of the people in this small city trembled. The scene of Qilin slaughtering hundreds of people was still vivid in their minds.

No one had expected that a person with such a sweet smile on her face would have such a strong killing intent.

“I felt like I was bullying the weak when I killed them...”

Lin Mo spread out his hands and caressed Qilin’s head to comfort her.

“If you feel that the other party won’t be a threat to you in the future, you have to learn to judge for yourself whether to kill or let him go.”

Lin Mo did not want Qilin to be bloodthirsty, but he did not want Qilin to be too kind either. A person’s heart could only be slowly cultivated...

...

“Okay...”

Qilin obediently agreed and followed beside Lin Mo.

However, when she approached Song Lianxue, she still stood up and reminded her.

“I heard it. You said that you would tell us a treasure land if we got out of here.”

After all, Song Lianxue was not using voice transmission. Even though they were quite far apart, Qilin still heard it and was still thinking about it.

“I won’t forget it.”

Song Lianxue chuckled and left with Lin Mo and the others. The treasure land was further away, so the three of them traveled together.

In the city behind, many people were envious. How lucky must it be to be able to travel with the Qilin girl and the God Devouring Body?

“Treasure land or whatever, that’s not important. Hurry up and make the Emerald Dragon Carp. I’m hungry.”

On the way, Qilin kept saying that she wanted to have a good meal first.

“Alright, I’m also quite interested.” Lin Mo smiled and invited Song Lianxue to enjoy it with them.

They found an open space and took out a bronze cauldron. They poured the divine spring water into it and lit the Dao Flames.

According to the ingredients recorded on the Emerald Dragon Carp, Lin Mo threw in the precious spiritual herbs one by one.

What shocked him was that this medicinal cuisine required three stalks of divine medicines.

Fortunately, he had some divine medicines left, and Song Lianxue also contributed one and put it into the cauldron.

Not long after, Qilin finished handling the Dragon-patterned Carp. She removed the scales, internal organs, and other organs.

After placing all of the parts into the cauldron, she activated the Dao Flames to boil them.

On the side, Song Lianxue was speechless and also curious.

What kind of people were Lin Mo and Qilin? Even if other people obtained a Dragon-patterned Carp and made it into a medicinal cuisine, their main purpose would be to cultivate.

However, she could clearly sense that Lin Mo and Qilin were coveting the deliciousness of the Dragon-patterned Carp...

“It’s almost cooked, and the fragrance is coming out.”

In front of the bronze cauldron, Qilin wiped off her saliva. The fragrance spread out and whetted everyone’s appetite.

669 Immortal Tree

One dragon-patterned carp was naturally not enough to eat. After all, it was too little.

Lin Mo poured out a divine bird from the storage bag at his waist, swiftly shed its feathers, and began to roast it with the Dao Flames.

As time passed, the bronze cauldron began to glow and emit a fragrant aroma. If someone who did not know what was going on saw this, they would have thought that this was a pill refinement.

The lid of the cauldron was opened, and the meat inside was stewed. The soup was golden yellow, and drinking a mouthful of it immediately made one feel comfortable.

!!

“I’m going to start eating.”

Qilin did not stand on ceremony. She picked up the bowl and chopsticks and began to eat. The fish meat was smooth and melted in her mouth, leaving a fragrant taste in her mouth...

“It tastes really good...”

Song Lianxue took a bite and exclaimed. She had eaten medicinal food before, but this was the first time she had eaten something so delicious...

“There’s also the divine bird’s meat. It’s truly an extreme enjoyment...”

Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction. He took out a few bottles of wine from his collection, and the three of them began to feast.

While he was enjoying the food, he also heard Song Lianxue talk about the treasure land.

He also received a shocking piece of news.

Song Lianxue had a companion who went to a treasure land when they entered the ancient battlefield.

Nonetheless, there was a powerful seal there that they could not break. They could only watch over the treasure.

“There might be a treasure in the place that’s been sealed.”

Lin Mo's interest was piqued. What he lacked the most at the moment were cultivation resources that contained a large amount of the universe's energy.

If there was a treasure inside, he did not want to miss it.

"Since you found the treasure land, Qilin and I will contribute, and we'll split the treasures equally."

Lin Mo was not greedy. He asked Song Lianxue to take him there to break the seal.

According to Song Lianxue's estimation, that place should be a medicinal field.

Even so, no one knew what was inside. Only by opening the seal would they know.

Half a day later, three figures quickly passed through the huge mountains.

This place was a ruin with broken walls. Strictly speaking, it could only be considered a ruin.

Giant trees towered into the clouds, and birds rested on their trunks.

The chirping of birds could be heard from all four directions, and the demonic beasts below were moving about, full of vitality.

"Wait, there's the smell of blood."

When they were about to reach their destination, Qilin suddenly stopped. Her sharp nose picked up the strong smell of blood.

"Oh no, Mao Zhu..."

Song Lianxue was shocked, and she sped up in worry.

Soon, they came to a ruin. The collapsed wall was covered with green vines.

Immortal light appeared in the surroundings from time to time, illuminating the entire sky. The sound of the great Dao could be vaguely heard echoing in the air.

“There was no battle here...”

Lin Mo observed his surroundings. This place was very shabby, but it was also very ancient. There were no signs of a recent battle.

Of course, this did not rule out the possibility that someone had heaven-defying means and could forge the traces of the passage of time...

“That scared me. Mao Zhu left a mark and left a long time ago.” Song Lianxue patted her chest.

Mao Zhu was a rogue cultivator she had met in Snow State. He was extremely talented, and she had always wanted to invite him to join her in the Snow Valley.

“I don’t feel any abnormality...”

After observing for a long time, Lin Mo retracted his spiritual power and shook his head.

Qilin reacted the same. She did not feel anything unusual, and there was no danger here.

“This is strange. The smell of blood has disappeared. There’s a medicinal fragrance instead...”

Suddenly, Qilin sensed something and used her soul power again, but she still found nothing.

Nevertheless, she was still sure that she had smelled blood earlier. Although it was very faint, she was not wrong.

“Let’s go in and take a look...”

They found a path under the collapsed wall where the green vines were blocking. It should lead to the medicinal field.

As they walked in, the fragrance of medicine filled the air as if there was some kind of divine medicine inside.

“This is strange. Mao Zhu and I couldn’t even get close to this path...”

Song Lianxue said. When they had just entered, they had clearly felt that there was a seal here.

After guarding it for a while and realizing that they could not break it, she left and planned to find help.

Now, there was no obstruction here, allowing them to enter freely, which made her feel uneasy.

“Guys, look at what this is...” Lin Mo was shocked and pointed ahead. The space there was turbulent, and a strange scene appeared.

In the image, a divine tree was rooted. It was incomparably huge and bore no fruit, but it bloomed with nine flowers.

At the center of the flowers, there was a drop of liquid that emitted a golden light. It contained an extremely strong vitality.

The fragrance spread out, and just by smelling it, Lin Mo felt like he was about to ascend. This was definitely an existence that surpassed heaven grade.

Could it be a legendary immortal medicine?

...

“We’re rich! This must be an immortal tree! The golden liquid at each of the flower’s cores is a legendary supreme treasure!”

Song Lianxue was so excited that her delicate face turned red and her hands trembled. She could not help but walk forward.

According to the ancient records in Snow Valley, once a person consumed a sacred item of this level, one would not have any bottleneck when one was still below the Emperor realm...

“Don’t get too excited. Be careful of traps...”

Lin Mo immediately came back to his senses and grabbed Song Lianxue’s wrist, pulling her back.

He did not believe that it was so easy to obtain such a legendary sacred object.

After all, even divine medicines could be sentient and have their own consciousness. The immortal tree would definitely be even more heaven-defying and have intelligence no weaker than humans.

Even if Lin Mo had the auspicious White Qilin with him, he did not believe it would be so easy.

Lin Mo woke up Qilin, who was intoxicated by the fragrance. He told her to protect Song Lianxue.

Afterward, Lin Mo used his soul power to investigate and did not miss a single corner.

In his perception, he did not find the immortal tree, but he found a few formation patterns that were in ruins.

...

That said, the power within the formation patterns still made his heart palpitate. What kind of person could set up such terrifying formation patterns?

Fortunately, this formation was broken and had lost its former power.

Perhaps it was because he had the auspicious beast by his side, but Lin Mo's luck was extremely good. He found the loophole in the formation in less than half an hour.

This place had rotted, and the formation banners had turned to dust. They had successfully entered the formation, and each of them had a spatial teleportation talisman in hand.

If something was off, they would escape without hesitation.

They would not be able to withstand any danger here and would be instantly turned into dust.

“There's no other way...”

Halfway through, they found that the front was blocked. There was a formation operating, and the terrifying power made their hearts tremble.

Qilin stepped forward and closed her eyes. In just a moment, her face turned pale, and her body staggered, almost falling.

“Don’t use that move...” Lin Mo felt pained as he stuffed a half-divine medicine into her hands.

This place was filled with danger, and the side effects of her move were terrifying. It involved karma and would be settled here.

“Let’s go this way. I feel like we’re going to pick up a treasure...”

Qilin took a bite of the half-divine medicine and spoke with difficulty.

Following the path she pointed out, the three entered smoothly, avoiding the formation patterns and finally arriving at the depths.

However, there was still a formation in this place. Although it was broken, it was still terrifying.

“It’s blood. Someone has broken into this place. Unfortunately...”

Right ahead, a young man was sitting on his knees. He was motionless, and there was a bloody hole in the middle of his eyebrows.

The blood had yet to coagulate, and it was obvious that he had just died.

The fact that the other party was able to reach this place meant that he was no ordinary person either. His soul power was powerful enough to avoid the remnants of the formation.

670 Immunity Talisman

“The treasures are right behind the formation. I just have to break it open.” Qilin went forward and wanted to use her ability again.

This way, she would definitely be able to obtain the treasures inside.

Lin Mo quickly stopped her. She had not reached the required realm, so it was best not to change one’s fate again.

“What you just used was the Eye of Destiny of the Qilin’s arts, right? it’s a heaven-defying move...”

Song Lianxue asked, looking at Qilin with envy.

There was a reason why so many people were pursuing Qilin's supreme inheritance.

"You know about it? Are there records of it in Snow Valley?" Qilin asked with an unfriendly expression.

In ancient times, the inheritances of the divine beasts' techniques were more or less leaked, and they were recorded by many great sects.

Snow Valley had a long history. Could it be that they controlled the unparalleled divine abilities of the Qilins?

"Of course not. There are only records of some miracles of the ancient Qilin." Song Lianxue waved her hands.

At the same time, she took out a talisman and introduced, "This is an Immunity Talisman, but I don't know how to activate it."

The value of this talisman was comparable to the jade seals of the Hidden Dragon Rank.

After all, it could also allow one to avoid death once, and at the same time, it would not cause any damage to one's body. It could be said to be heaven-defying.

"Let me see."

Lin Mo took it and kept it in the system space.

[Immortal-grade treasure, the Immunity Talisman. Anyone below the Supreme Saint realm can activate it with a special mark and use it with their blood essence. When they die, they can be resurrected perfectly, get rid of karma, escape fate, and erase all Qi activities.]

The effects were heaven-defying, and it could be considered a peerless treasure.

Although Lin Mo was not clear about karma and fate, he could tell from Qilin.

She had used it on Lin Mo when he was auctioning off treasures, changing his fate and allowing him to obtain many opportunities.

Nonetheless, it was also because of this that Qilin's essence was damaged, and she almost lost her life. Furthermore, the karma that followed also involved a series of things.

While there was good luck, there was also a corresponding danger, and it was very likely that one would lose one's life...

The realms above the Ruler realm were quasi-Saint, Saint, Great Saint, Supreme Saint, quasi-Emperor, and Great Emperor.

It was worth noting that immortal-grade treasures could only be controlled by quasi-Emperors for their full powers to be unleashed.

Only a quasi-Emperor could make immortal-grade talismans or magic weapons.

No matter how heaven-defying Song Lianxue's luck was, if she could bring this talisman out, even Snow Valley's master would have to personally come out to welcome her...

In other words, the so-called karma and fate, as well as these great Dao rules, could only be involved when one stepped into the quasi-Emperor realm.

“Swish!”

Lin Mo suppressed his excitement and took out the Immunity Talisman. He handed it back to Song Lianxue and said, “Lady Song, this Immunity Talisman of yours is of immortal grade.

“And no one knows what's behind this formation. We might not be able to find anything.”

Lin Mo did not greedily take the Immunity Talisman and returned it.

As for what to choose, it was up to Song Lianxue to decide for herself...

“Your luck is too heaven-defying. It's even more exaggerated than mine...”
Qilin was nonchalant. She could not understand it...

“Immortal grade?”

Song Lianxue was shocked and could not believe it.

She remembered that there were rumors about something in the world that allowed one to avoid death. It was probably above heaven-grade tier 5.

They remembered that the young master of the Dragon Pavilion had a Death Substitution Talisman, which was made by a Supreme Saint of the Dragon Pavilion.

It had reached heaven-grade tier 8 and could bring the dead back to life once.

“It’s not the same. Those are just simple protection from death, resurrection, and so on.”

Lin Mo shook his head and explained the system to her in detail.

A perfect resurrection, getting rid of karma, jumping out of fate, wiping away any Qi activities one left in the world.

This was similar to the move that Qilin had used before. One could disappear from the world, and it could not be deduced.

Even if the other party was a quasi-Emperor, one would not be exposed as long as one was not a Supreme Saint.

The other party would think that one was dead. As long as one did not appear in front of the other party, one would have truly escaped death...

“Of course, a Great Emperor might be able to sense you. After all, this Immunity Talisman should be of the first or second grade of the immortal grade.”

With that, Lin Mo handed the choice to Song Lianxue.

Should Song Lianxue borrow Qilin’s power to fight to the death, or should she take the Immunity Talisman back to Snow Valley to claim the credit?

This was a difficult choice. Lin Mo did not urge Song Lianxue and left with her and Qilin.

They walked until they left the nest and sat down on a mountain peak far away from the ruins. Lin Mo then looked at Song Lianxue and asked, “Lady Song, what do you think?”

Hearing this, Song Lianxue’s face was full of hesitation. Knowing the power of the Immunity Talisman, she did not want to take the risk.

As long as she could bring it back, the valley master would definitely take her in as a disciple and pass on profound cultivation techniques of Snow Valley. She would also be given resources.

“Sister Song, I suggest you...” Qilin wanted to persuade Song Lianxue.

However, before she could finish her sentence, Lin Mo stopped her. He was not an overbearing person and was not enemies with Song Lianxue, so he would not take the item by force.

Of course, the prerequisite was that the people around him did not need the treasure to save their lives...

“Brother Lin, do you want to be a genius or a piece of trash?”

...

To Lin Mo’s surprise, Song Lianxue did not answer his question. Instead, she asked Lin Mo a question.

“I want to be the strongest. Otherwise, it’s so annoying to be targeted by people all day.”

Qilin was the first to answer again. She wanted to say something but was stopped by Lin Mo.

Song Lianxue looked at Lin Mo as if waiting for his answer.

Seeing this, Lin Mo muttered to himself for a moment before smiling. “You might not believe it, but I was once a good-for-nothing...”

“The God Devouring Body is a one-in-a-million physique. Once it matures, one will almost be invincible among those of the same rank...”

“But what if it happens to a rogue cultivator...?”

The corners of Lin Mo's mouth turned bitter. The rogue cultivators of the Northern Continent would still be fine. They still had a chance to rise. After all, the major sects knew what they were doing...

That said, Lin Mo came from the Eastern Continent, a barren land...

If not for Bai Luo's help, the time needed for Lin Mo to break through to the Immortal Foundation realm would have been extended indefinitely.

If Lin Mo had not awakened the auction rebate system, his life force would have been devoured by the God Devouring Body when he had just started cultivating and he would have died.

...

"I can't bear to look back on the past. The feeling of being a genius is to have the opportunity to control your own fate."

After saying this, Lin Mo could roughly guess Song Lianxue's answer.

If she brought the Immunity Talisman back to Snow Valley, she would be able to obtain resources, but it would not be much.

Her status in Snow Valley did not seem to be high...

"Then I'd like to try. If I can get the immortal tree, even if it's just an ordinary tree, I can still improve my aptitude and become a genius..."

Song Lianxue smiled and handed the Immunity Talisman to Lin Mo again.

She chose to believe in Lin Mo and his character. After all, he had told her the value of the Immunity Talisman from the start.

"Brother Lin, I'll be counting on you to improve my aptitude and enter the ranks of peerless geniuses..."

This was a huge gamble. She was betting that there would be an immortal tree behind the broken formation and that Lin Mo would keep his promise. If she lost, she would have nothing left...

"Qilin, make your move..."

Lin Mo nodded. According to the system's introduction, he formed a special seal on his hand and sacrificed a drop of blood essence.

At the same time, he plucked the last Silver Phoenix Fruit, and then took out a Holy Spirit Fruit and two stalks of heaven-grade tier 5 divine medicines.

These were the last of his stock, and they could completely make up for the loss of Qilin's origin...
