Chapter 671 - 671 The World Tree

With a layer of purple light around him, Lin Mo entered the ruins alone.

He came to the place where the broken formation was once again. Qilin had said that there were treasures behind this place. It must be true.

Song Lianxue had gambled everything. If she failed, she probably would not be able to survive in the valley.

If a quasi-Saint could see through a person's lies, then what about a Saint, a Great Saint, or even a Supreme Saint?

!!

If one did not have any means, those beings would probably be able to read one's memories directly.

If Song Lianxue could not increase her value after using the Immunity Talisman, she would be dead.

"Fate makes fools of people. I hope that she can get what she wishes for..."

Sighing, Lin Mo clenched the Immunity Talisman in his hand tightly. Fate had played a part in this, so he would not be killed so easily.

Sure enough, the purple light on his body circulated. When he passed through the broken formation, an inexplicable power flowed through his body.

There seemed to be a problem with the broken formation, and it was a little slow to activate.

Lin Mo successfully passed through and arrived at a medicinal field...

"It smells so good..."

The danger had passed, and there was a strong medicinal fragrance coming from inside.

Perhaps due to the obstruction of the broken formation, a large amount of the universe's energy had accumulated here.

There was a tree planted in the medicinal field. It was the immortal tree that they had seen through the space.

Nine golden flowers bloomed, and a total of nine drops of golden liquid flowed within them. Rich vitality flowed within.

“Immortal tree—this must be an immortal tree. How high is its grade...?”

Lin Mo's body trembled, unable to hide his excitement. Not to mention the value of this immortal tree, just these nine golden flowers were heaven-defying.

He did not dare to delay any longer. He walked up and was about to pick them...

“Rumble...”

Right at this moment, a sudden clap of thunder descended and split open the entire ruins in an instant.

The so-called formation seemed so small under the Heavenly Thunder.

In an instant, heaven and earth rumbled, and the sound of the great Dao reverberated. A towering tree stretched out, its branches and leaves luxuriant.

The tree was rooted in the ground, absorbing the nutrients from the endless void.

At this moment, it was as if it had transformed into the World Tree, standing tall between heaven and earth.

As for the nine golden flowers, they were also hanging at the top as if they were above the sky, far beyond reach.

“Hell, it's so tall...”

Lin Mo cursed. He took advantage of the fact that Qilin's Eye of Destiny was still active and flew forward.

The black and white Hanging Wings spread out, and he flew up.

As the wings flapped, the Yin Yang Dao Laws appeared. The Kun Peng Extreme Speed left afterimages in the sky.

The laws on the immortal tree appeared and turned into Divine Chains of Order. They fell naturally, but Lin Mo was in great trouble.

The Divine Chains of Order were not something he could resist. He would die upon contact with them.

"I feel like I've flown out of the nine heavens..."

Lin Mo felt the pressure increase sharply. He dodged the Divine Chains of Order and unleashed his speed to the maximum.

There was a huge commotion here, and he wanted to take the nine golden flowers away before anyone arrived.

Even so, he was still too naive. As he could not get them, his God Devouring Body absorbed the universe's spiritual Qi like crazy.

The Hanging Wings doubled in size again. Lin Mo's body was surrounded by laws, and he was filled with Yin and Yang.

Under the influence of the immortal tree's laws, Lin Mo transformed into a Kun Peng and mounted to a great height.

"It connects heaven and earth. Is this the World Tree?"

"Our World Tree is in the central region. This should be an ancient World Tree."

The entire ancient battlefield trembled as countless people looked up at the sky and exclaimed in shock.

"Look, something is crawling on the roots!"

"It looks like an insect..."

“Nonsense. How can there be bugs on the World Tree?”

Everyone chimed in and focused their attention on the roots of the World Tree.

A Kun Peng was spreading its wings and flying high into the sky. Every time it flapped its wings, it seemed to have flown tens of thousands of kilometers...

“What the hell? That’s a Kun Peng...”

“Didn’t the Kun Peng go extinct...?”

Everyone was shocked. They could not imagine that they had seen the legendary divine Kun Peng.

At this point, everyone believed that this was definitely the World Tree. They just did not know if the Kun Peng was formed by laws.

“Brother Lin Mo...”

At the foot of the World Tree, Qilin was worried. There was a vertical eye between her eyebrows, which looked quite strange.

A faint purple light flickered in her eyes, and a series of profound laws accompanied her.

This was the power of the Law of Fate, not something she could control at her level.

...

Even with Lin Mo’s elixirs, she would not be able to last much longer.

However, Qilin did not dare to stop casting her spell. Otherwise, Lin Mo’s body would be easily penetrated by the dense Divine Chains of Order.

“Have I lost the bet...?”

Not far away, Song Lianxue fell to the ground with a dejected look.

Lin Mo might not be able to tell, but she could.

The Kun Peng spread its wings. It seemed to be extremely fast and could travel a thousand kilometers in an instant, but it was too small for the World Tree.

Qilin could not hold on any longer, whereas Lin Mo remained at the root.

They might not even be able to touch the tree trunk before their bodies were cut into pieces by the exuberant Divine Chains of Order...

“D*mn it, how far away is it...?”

At the roots of the World Tree, Lin Mo could not help but curse. His spiritual Qi had been exhausted, so he had to consume a half-divine medicine to recover.

Despite that, he still felt that he was still far away. Every time he wanted to give up, he felt that the golden flowers were within his reach...

...

“Qilin can’t hold on much longer...”

After hesitating for a while, Lin Mo stopped, not planning to continue.

If he continued, the price would be too great. Qilin would be severely injured, and he might even die.

This tree gave him a feeling of magnificence. It connected heaven and earth as if it was a world of its own. He felt so small in front of it.

“I’ll use other treasures to compensate for Lady Song...”

The Immunity Talisman had been bound to Lin Mo, and he could not return it. He could only use other divine medicines to compensate for Song Lianxue’s loss...

“Boom!”

At this moment, the entire world trembled. Everyone could sense the ancient battlefield shaking violently.

The void was unstable, and countless spatial storms erupted.

There were even faults in some of the mountain ranges, and below them was an endless abyss.

It could be said that the entire ancient battlefield had changed.

Countless energies of the universe swept over and were absorbed by the World Tree through the Divine Chains of Order.

Everyone could sense that a third of the spiritual Qi in the ancient battlefield had been lost.

What a terrifying amount this was. It could probably kill a quasi-Emperor...

“It is bearing fruit—the World Tree has borne fruit...”

Someone was shocked and pointed at the sky. The nine golden flowers had withered at this moment.

In their places were nine huge and plump fruits, each of which was as dazzling as the sun.

Lin Mo was in unprecedented danger.

This was because when these nine fruits appeared, heaven and earth suddenly changed, and apocalyptic Heavenly Thunder appeared outside the area.

In the endless starry sky, 3,000 gods and demons appeared, bombarding the World Tree with Supreme Divine Thunder.

Lin Mo, who was at the root of the World Tree, was also hit by the aftermath and was annihilated by a terrifying bolt of Heavenly Thunder.

“Brother Lin Mo...”

Qilin cried out in pain. The purple light between her eyebrows disappeared, and her vertical eye closed. She coughed out a mouthful of blood and instantly fell to the ground.

“How could this be...?”

Song Lianxue was shocked. How could the powerful Lin Mo be killed just like that? It was too terrifying.

On the other hand, the World Tree was not damaged at all when the Divine Thunder struck it...

“Ouch...”

In the endless void, Lin Mo felt as if all the bones in his body had been shattered.

That was only the aftermath of the attack of 3,000 gods and demons, but he was annihilated in an instant.

Such a terrifying power made his heart palpitate, but at the same time, he heaved a sigh of relief. With the Immunity Talisman, he did not die...

!!

“Where am I?”

Lin Mo stood up, but he did not know where he was. At this moment, he only felt his entire body ache, and he could not exert any strength.

“Is this what the Immunity Talisman introduced? Getting rid of karma, jumping out of fate, and erasing all Qi activities...”

Lin Mo was deep in thought. He could feel that he was floating in the void.

He could not control himself and did not know where to go. He just floated around...

Time passed, but Lin Mo did not feel it. His soul was exhausted, and he fell into a deep sleep the next moment.

“Brother Lin Mo...”

He did not know how much time had passed, but he heard someone calling him in a soft voice.

Lin Mo tried his best to open his eyes as he endured the fatigue.

What he saw was a young girl's pale face. There was no blood in it, but her face was full of worry.

“Little Qilin...”

He opened his mouth and spat out the words with difficulty. He felt that this body was no longer his.

It was as if he had slept for a long time, so long that his body could not feel anything...

“That's great. You're finally awake...”

Upon hearing Lin Mo's voice again, Qilin burst into tears. She threw herself onto Lin Mo's body and wailed.

At this moment, she was like a child, crying very sadly.

These days, she had been very worried, afraid that this brother who loved her so much would leave her completely.

She finally found someone whom she felt close to, but she was going to lose him after having his company for just less than a year. It was hard for her to accept it.

“Hey, I'm fine...”

Lin Mo sat up and gently stroked Qilin's cheek, wiping away the tears at the corner of her eyes. He was very distressed.

“Next time, don't take any more risks. We won't force it if something doesn't belong to us...”

Qilin was still crying and begging.

This scene made Lin Mo's heart ache even more. He picked her up and gently patted her back.

“Yes, I won’t take any more risks in the future. I won’t force it...”

“Mm...”

The young girl in his arms hummed softly. After calming down, an endless sense of weakness attacked her.

By the time Lin Mo came to his senses, Qilin had fallen into a deep sleep. Her breathing was even, and her face was filled with satisfaction.

“Hey, this is?”

Suddenly, Lin Mo felt an abnormality in his body. When he looked inside, he was shocked.

In his body, two balls of light that were as bright as the sun appeared, and they contained unimaginable power...

“These are the fruits of that tree...”

Lin Mo’s breathing gradually became heavier. This was too unbelievable, and he could not calm down.

He tried to urge his soul power to check them out and found that one of the fruits was extremely repulsive to him. It had even shattered his soul power.

As for the other one, after coming into contact with it, the light retracted, whereas black and white appeared, mixing together.

“This is the Yin Yang Dao Law...”

Lin Mo was a little surprised. He wanted to continue probing, but he realized that the fruit was no longer moving. It was no longer paying attention to his soul power.

“I’ll try and see if I can keep them in the system space...”

Lin Mo first tried it on the black and white fruit and found that it worked, so he put it in smoothly.

As for the other one, there was still no movement. The system space could not collect it.

At the same time, the system's voice could be heard. The introduction shocked Lin Mo so much that he was speechless.

[The World Treasure, which is a fruit of the World Tree. It contains the world's ten supreme laws, the law of Yin and Yang.]

[Congratulations on obtaining one of the most powerful treasures in the world. The system space has reached its maximum expansion, and you have received a reward—enlightenment.]

A series of information was transmitted into Lin Mo's mind as the system explained to him.

[Before the chaos was formed, heaven and earth were divided into Yin and Yang, and there were 3,000 great Dao...]

In a daze, Lin Mo's mind wandered into the great void and saw countless eras. He saw the birth and destruction of each era.

[The great Dao is the end of everything, but it is also the beginning...]

[The thousands of Dao in the heavens, the 3,000 great Dao, and the thousands of small Dao can all be comprehended, achieved, and proven...]

Lin Mo did not know when he had become intoxicated. He was very entranced and dazed by the story.

He also understood what had happened earlier.

The World Tree could sense that someone had comprehended the Yin Yang Dao Law, and someone was proficient in the Dao Law of Fate.

...

Thus, it awakened and used the powers of the ancient battlefield to form nine fruits that contained the true meaning of the great Dao.

Chaos, fate, reincarnation, creation, life, time, space, destruction, Yin-Yang, order, the ten supreme Dao laws...

Lin Law walked on the path of Yin and Yang, while Qilin was born on the path of fate...

Therefore, the World Tree sent out two fruits. What a heaven-defying opportunity this was, and it was unimaginable...

After understanding all this, Lin Mo thought of something and looked at the black and white fruit.

If he could auction it off, what kind of treasure could the system give him in return?

[This item is the world's top treasure. It can't be auctioned.]

Very quickly, the system replied. The world's top treasures were not allowed to be auctioned at all.

Moreover, even if Lin Mo were to auction it off, he reckoned that no one else would be able to afford it, and he might even invite a fatal disaster...

Before becoming a quasi-Emperor, he would not be able to expose himself. He would not even be able to reveal himself before he became a Great Emperor.

After understanding everything, Lin Mo drew in a trace of Qilin's power.

...

The latter was completely defenseless against him, so even her soul power was drawn into his dantian.

In an instant, the fruit that was as bright as the sun disappeared.

A white fruit appeared and entered Qilin's dantian through her spiritual power.

In an instant, Qilin's entire body was enveloped in white light, and her pale face instantly turned for the better.

While she was still in her sleep, she smiled and felt very comfortable.

"No, the fluctuation is too big. We'll be detected..."

Looking at the fluctuations in Qilin's body, Lin Mo frowned. The fluctuation of the Dao Law of Fate was difficult to hide.

Qilin's realm was too low to erase the fluctuation...

With the thought of giving it a try, Lin Mo once again released his spiritual power on the Fruit of Fate and tried to keep it in the system space.

Finally, there was no accident this time. Perhaps the light on it had been dissolved by Qilin.

It was also possible that the system space had been expanded to the extreme.

In short, Lin Mo had finally hidden the two heaven-defying opportunities.

If they were hidden in the system space, even an Emperor would not be able to find them...

“Brother Lin Mo, what are you laughing at?”

Suddenly, the girl in his arms moved. She raised her head and blinked her big eyes, which were very cute.

“You woke up so quickly?”

Lin Mo was stunned. ‘Did I wake this little girl up?’

“But I feel like I’ve fully recovered after sleeping for a whole day...”

Qilin reluctantly stood up and stretched. She felt very comfortable at this time, and her origin had also been restored.

As if she recalled something, she felt pain, and her heart ached...

“What a huge loss! We lost the Immunity Talisman, you wasted so many divine medicines, and we almost died...”

She still did not know about the Yin Yang Fruit and the Fruit of Fate.

Lin Mo did not plan to tell her for the time being. After all, the fluctuations were too big, and there was no way to hide it...

Chapter 673 - 673 Treasure Hunt

673 Treasure Hunt

“Brother Lin, I’m sorry for making you take such a huge risk.” innread.com

Not far away, a white figure flew over, followed by a young girl who was about the same size as Qilin.

The girl was wearing a dark green long dress, and her face was full of smiles. She had two small dimples, which were very attractive.

“That’s Sister Mao Zhu, Sister Song’s friend.”

Qilin said. The four of them gathered, and Song Lianxue told them what happened outside.

It turned out that Lin Mo’s Immunity Talisman made him stay in the void for a month.

In the end, Qilin had to rely on her relationship with Lin Mo’s fate to find him.

As for Qilin, because she had overexerted herself, her origin was almost exhausted, and she had almost died several times.

It was all thanks to Song Lianxue for finding Mao Zhu, who was ranked 1,900th on the Hidden Dragon Rank.

Nonetheless, Mao Zhu had been hiding her true strength. After all, she was a rogue cultivator and did not have any backing, so she did not dare to be too high profile.

“Thank you. I’ll make it up to you for not being able to fulfill my promise.”

Lin Mo said with a straight face. He was extremely grateful to Song Lianxue.

Qilin was full of treasures, and yet Song Lianxue did not take the chance to make a move on her but kept taking care of her for Lin Mo.

This made Lin Mo very grateful, but also a little guilty.

After all, there were indeed treasures behind the broken formation, and they were the most top-notch treasures in the world.

“Brother Lin, you’re too kind. You’ve helped me before. How can I return my kindness with ingratitude?” Song Lianxue said with a smile.

“So you’re Lin Mo with the God Devouring Body. To be honest, your realm is a little low...”

The girl dressed in green spoke, but her remark was somewhat awkward.

Song Lianxue was just about to mediate when Lin Mo finally reacted. He looked at the young girl who was about the size of Qilin.

“The eighth level of the Almighty realm, and you’re about to break through...”

Lin Mo was shocked. He knew that many people could improve their realms quickly, but he did not expect it to be this fast.

“Don’t underestimate him, or you’ll be at a disadvantage,” Qilin immediately retorted. To her, Lin Mo was the strongest.

“I’ve heard of the God Devouring Body’s terrifying combat power. However, no matter how strong it is, it’s useless if the gap between the realms of you and your opponent is too big...”

Mao Zhu shook her head. Her expression became a little desolate as she spoke.

She was also a rogue cultivator. When she was young, she had fought with others for resources.

“Right, let’s get down to business. There’s a valley with a lot of elixirs growing there. It’s a treasure land. Come with me.”

Mao Zhu suddenly thought of something. After confirming that Lin Mo and Qilin could fight, she called the three of them to leave.

The ancient battlefield was filled with treasure lands, and many of them were sealed.

Nonetheless, as the World Tree had absorbed the energy here, most of the seals had loosened.

Furthermore, many areas on the battlefield had collapsed, and some treasured lands had also appeared, attracting countless people to fight for them.

“Is that true? There’s a heaven-grade tier 7 divine tree?”

Lin Mo was shocked. A divine tree of such a level was priceless, and it would be difficult to obtain it.

“That’s right, I saw it with my own eyes. That said, there are five demonic beasts in the fifth step of the Ruler realm guarding it.”

Mao Zhu said with certainty. She had tried to force her way in, but the five demonic beasts had many subordinates.

It would be very difficult for her to break in, and if she made too much noise, it would attract more people.

As such, she could only come to seek help.

After more than ten minutes, they passed through a forest and arrived at the entrance of the valley.

“Oh no, someone has discovered this place. Someone is making a move ahead...”

As soon as they arrived, Qilin, who had the most sensitive spiritual sense, was the first to detect what was happening. This kind of treasure land was difficult to hide and still attracted people here.

Lin Mo was shocked. A divine tree of heaven-grade tier 7 would definitely be worth a lot if it was auctioned.

He did not want to miss it. It seemed like he would have to be a third party who would benefit from other people’s fight today...

At the same time, he also noticed that there were many strong auras nearby. There might be more people coming soon.

“It’s fine, I can sense a big guy. Many people will die in this place...” Qilin said.

Mao Zhu was stunned. She learned from Qilin that a powerful demonic beast was sleeping in the valley ahead.

It had even reached the seventh step of the Ruler's realm.

Even Mao Zhu did not dare to say that she could win against such a terrifying existence. Just like what she had said before, no matter how strong one's combat power was, if the gap between one's cultivation level with one's opponent was too big, it would mean nothing.

"It's fine. The three of us will be enough to take care of it."

Lin Mo was not worried. The most important thing at the moment was to obtain the divine tree.

They walked into the valley, and as soon as they entered, a strong smell of blood assailed their noses.

More than a dozen corpses were lying there, torn beyond recognition.

In front of them, more than a dozen demonic beasts were attacking two or three young men.

The men looked pale and were like arrows at the end of their flight. When they saw Lin Mo and the others enter, they quickly rushed over.

"Save—"

As soon as they cried out for help, a demonic beast pounced on them and tore them into pieces.

...

More than a dozen people had entered, but at this moment, they had all been annihilated.

"These demonic beasts are much stronger than those in the outside world..."
Lin Mo's expression was grave.

Just five demonic beasts in the fifth step of the Ruler realm were already so powerful. Would the one hidden below not be even stronger?

"Let's end the battle quickly."

Mao Zhu immediately attacked and used her power to seal three of the demonic beasts.

Just as she made her move, the ground trembled.

Many of the elixirs in the valley had been ruined and destroyed in the battle.

Only a fiery red divine tree stood in the deepest part of the forest. It was well-protected and undamaged.

“Oh no, that demonic beast has come out...”

Lin Mo was shocked. A demonic beast of the seventh step of the Ruler realm had joined forces with the five demonic beasts. The defense of the valley was impregnable.

“Qilin, conserve your energy and pay attention to your surroundings...”

...

Just like that, everyone was assigned their roles on the battlefield. Mao Zhu was a little surprised, but she did not stop Lin Mo.

Qilin attacked and suppressed the two of the demonic beasts.

Lin Mo flew up and slammed his palm on the ground. The terrifying force caused the valley to crack.

“Roar!”

An angry roar came from below, and a three-eyed giant with a silver-white body stood up.

It was 10 meters tall, and its huge palm slammed down on Lin Mo.

The power of this attack was extremely terrifying. Lin Mo was forced to retreat a dozen steps in succession.

“The hybrid of the Silver Giant and the Three-eyed Giant. What a strong body...”

Lin Mo was shocked. He took the blow head-on and felt his arm go numb and a little sore.

The Silver Giant's body was incomparably terrifying, while the Three-eyed Giant specialized in soul attacks. The two of them combined and gave birth to an even more powerful descendant.

"Human, get out of here."

The giant demonic beast roared and spoke in the human language. It pulled out a thick steel rod from the ground and smashed it angrily.

"War Demon Spear, stab!"

Lin Mo did not dare to be slow. He immediately released a terrifying killing intent, and a black spear pierced through everything.

As soon as the heaven-grade tier 9 magic tool appeared, the situation was reversed.

The fine steel iron rod suffered several attacks and could not bear the pressure, so it collapsed.

"Mismatched Yin Yang!"

Taking advantage of the demonic beast's weakness, Lin Mo continued to attack, and the Yin Yang Taiji Diagram appeared behind him.

He pointed with the War Demon Spear, and a terrifying explosion occurred.

The giant was obviously not good at speed, and it was hit by the explosion of the Mismatched Yin Yang.

!!

A shrill scream reverberated through the valley.

Outside the valley, there were still many people observing in the dark, wanting to take the opportunity to make a move.

Lin Mo's battle had exceeded everyone's expectations.

No one had expected that the person who seemed to have the weakest cultivation level would be the first to finish the battle when facing the strongest demonic beast.

"That spear is at least of heaven-grade tier 7..."

"He looks unfamiliar. Which great sect is he from?"

Some people muttered to themselves. They were shocked by Lin Mo's move and were considering whether they should attack at this moment.

"You settled it so quickly. It seems that I've underestimated you..."

On the other side, Mao Zhu and Qilin had also finished their battle, killing all the beasts in the Ruler realm.

As for the other demonic beasts, they had fled in all directions, not daring to stay any longer.

"I simply relied on the power of a weapon. It's nothing to boast about." Lin Mo smiled and took out the giant demonic beast's inner core.

"Let's quickly take a look at what kind of divine tree it is." Song Lianxue walked up.

She could not interfere in a battle of this level, so she could only watch from a distance.

"That's not necessary. Since you've dealt with the demonic beasts, you can get lost now." At this moment, a cold voice came from behind them.

They saw a blue-robed young man walk in from the entrance. He had an arrogant look on his face as he looked at them. A large group of people followed behind him.

Lin Mo's gaze turned cold. "Are you trying to steal halfway? I'm afraid you can't afford the price."

“Another one from the Hidden Dragon Rank.”

Song Lianxue warned, but she was not worried. After all, they had three powerful figures on their side.

“Hehe, what right does a person who relies on the might of a weapon have to say such words?” The blue-robed man asked.

He was very confident. Even though he recognized Lin Mo’s identity, he was still unconcerned.

This was because he was a genius who could look down on an entire prefecture. No one could match him.

“He’s Zhao Tianyu, from Fire State. His control over fire is exquisite to the extreme, and he’s also an alchemist with a rich background.” Song Lianxue recalled the other party’s identity and reminded his companions again.

Zhao Tianyu had once made it through the Hidden Dragon Rank and entered the top 100, causing a sensation for a time.

Furthermore, he was at the peak of the Almighty realm at the moment. It was hard to imagine how much he had accumulated before breaking through.

After passing the Heavenly Tribulation, his realm had advanced by leaps and bounds, and he had completed the Almighty realm in just over two months...

Such a person was definitely the most dangerous existence on the ancient battlefield.

Furthermore, he was also an alchemist who had an endless supply of recovery spiritual pills. His combat power was terrifying.

Lin Mo stepped forward with the War Demon Spear in his hand. He looked at the person before him and asked, “An alchemist? I happen to be lacking one now. What about you? What’s your identity? Come out together.”

The long spear was pointed to the front, and a young man with golden hair walked out. He was wearing battle armor, and his body was filled with strong battle intent.

“You’re worthy of the God Devouring Body. You’re so arrogant. You want to take us as your servants?”

The battle intent on the young man's body was monstrous, giving people the feeling that he was born for battle.

A monstrous Qi filled the air. With his appearance, the valley trembled, and the mountains cracked. They could not bear his Qi.

This young man was definitely a peerless genius. He was extremely terrifying, even more powerful than Zhao Tianyu.

The pride in such a person's heart was difficult to erase. The two people had joined forces.

"Who are you?" Lin Mo asked.

"Feng Tian of Dragon State," the young man spoke with a long spear in his hand. His simple words shocked many people.

"I didn't expect that even Feng Tian would come. It seems like we're not fated to get this divine tree..."

Some people sighed. Although they were all geniuses from their own forces, they still felt a sense of powerlessness when they faced Feng Tian, who was in the ninth step of the Almighty realm.

If they were to face Lin Mo, even though he was ranked seventh, people would only think that it was just because the Dragon Pavilion had acknowledged his potential.

One had to know how slow the God Devouring Body's growth was.

The other geniuses were advancing step by step, breaking through realms one after another.

On the other hand, Lin Mo was still at the second step of the Almighty realm, and no one knew when he would break through...

Feng Tian was a genius from a Demonic Beast Tribe in Dragon State. His original form was a Nine-headed Lion. The tribe had a small population, but every member of the tribe was a one-in-a-million genius.

Especially Feng Tian, who had an atavistic bloodline, there was a high chance that he could regain the glory of ancient times.

Even though Lin Mo had Mao Zhu and Qilin with him, they were both weaker.

Some people even concluded that the supreme inheritances of the Qilin and the Kun Peng were about to fall into the hands of Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian.

Song Lianxue's expression changed as well, and she informed Lin Mo and Qilin of their situation.

"So if the two of them were properly ranked, they'll be in the top 100?" Lin Mo was a little overjoyed.

He wanted to see the true value of the Hidden Dragon Rank.

Feng Tian and Zhao Tianyu's expressions turned cold. They were not the strongest in Dragon State, but they were still in the top 20.

...

However, Lin Mo looked down on them, which made them very unhappy.

"Your fighting spirit is strong, but are you afraid of this? Don't worry, I won't use magic weapons," Lin Mo said.

He put away the War Demon Spear. Golden light flickered as he activated the extreme Yang energy within the Kun Peng's runes.

Golden feathers appeared one after another, forming a sharp sword in his hand.

"Interesting. Do you want to fight one on one?"

Zhao Tianyu sneered and turned to Feng Tian. "Since he wants to fight you, then go and try."

"Just don't forget the promised divine pill."

Feng Tian walked up to Lin Mo step by step, his battle spear in hand. His battle intent was constantly aroused as he stared at Lin Mo with cold eyes.

He was like a wild beast, erupting at this moment.

“I do know you. You’re from Snow Valley. Snow Valley’s Holy Daughter and I are acquainted. Take your friend and leave. This matter has nothing to do with you.”

Zhao Tianyu looked at Song Lianxue. After thinking for so long, he finally remembered Song Lianxue’s identity.

...

It was worth noting that alchemists had a wide network. They were able to get to know so many prodigies...

“Boom!”

A great battle broke out, and in an instant, a sonic boom could be heard. The golden sword and the battle spear collided, causing sparks to fly.

After exchanging blows, Lin Mo was shocked. Feng Tian truly deserved the title of a genius.

Feng Tian had broken through to the Almighty realm in the past two months, and he had defeated many powerful geniuses. He had raised his realm to the peak and was consolidating it at the moment.

If nothing unexpected happened, Feng Tian should be able to break through to the Ruler realm within a year.

Such a cultivation speed was terrifying, and Lin Mo was extremely envious.

“As expected of the God Devouring Body. You’re only at the second step, and yet you’re able to contend against me...” Feng Tian said.

He had not thought highly of Lin Mo at first. A God Devouring Body without the protection of any power was nothing.

No matter how heaven-defying Lin Mo’s physique was, it could not make up for the shortcoming in his realm. innread.com

Feng Tian’s body flickered with runes, and marks condensed on his armor. The power he exerted was even stronger.

Chapter 675 - 675 Capture

675 Capture

“Not using that spear was your biggest mistake. However, you have no chance anymore.” Feng Tian stared at Lin Mo.

“You’re too confident...”

The smile on Lin Mo’s face disappeared, and he swung his sword.

“What?”

!!

Zhao Tianyu, Mao Zhu, and the onlookers were shocked.

They realized that Lin Mo had unleashed a power that far exceeded his realm.

The powerful sword light shattered the runes on Feng Tian’s body.

Even the armor on Feng Tian’s body creaked as it was almost torn apart by the terrifying Sword Qi.

This result moved Feng Tian. He had to take it seriously. The God Devouring Body was one of the strongest physiques in the human race. He had made a mistake...

Lin Mo still did not use his full strength, the War Demon Spear, or the Nine Qilin Steps.

Even the Yin Yang Dao Law brought about by the Kun Peng’s arts was not used.

Lin Mo was purely relying on his physical body and the Kun Peng’s extreme Yang power to fight against Feng Tian and force him back.

“Clang!”

The divine sword shocked the world, and the entire place began to boil. Resplendent Sword Qi shot up into the sky, cutting off the surrounding mountains.

Feng Tian roared at the sky and used all his might to execute his martial arts and Dao Laws to fight Lin Mo.

“Bang!”

This was the most intense collision. One of them had vast magic power that surged, while the other’s magic power was endless.

In an instant, the two of them exchanged dozens of moves, and their martial arts techniques collided in the air.

In the end, Feng Tian had no choice but to step back. His chest heaved up and down violently as he panted heavily, his expression ugly.

The group of people could not believe it. Was the God Devouring Body that terrifying?

Lin Mo was clearly seven steps behind, but he could defeat Feng Tian with his own strength and combat power...

At the back, Zhao Tianyu’s expression also turned ugly. He had misjudged his opponent this time.

He had thought that the God Devouring Body had not fully matured yet, so Lin Mo was not a threat to him.

Zhao Tianyu did not expect Lin Mo’s combat power to be so fierce that even Feng Tian was not his match...

On the other side, Qilin was clapping and cheering. She was not worried about Lin Mo’s safety at all and had no intention of helping.

At that moment, Feng Tian was regulating his breathing for a while, obliterating the Sword Qi that had been injected into his body.

His eyes were deep as he stared at Lin Mo. He knew the other party’s combat power.

If Lin Mo had used that pitch-black spear, he would have been defeated by Lin Mo in less than ten moves.

“Fight!”

With a loud shout, Feng Tian charged forward again, the battle spear in his hand emitting a bright light.

In the next moment, it turned blood-red, and a terrifying power filled the air. The battle spear seemed to be bathed in blood, and a murderous aura was constantly released.

“Clang!”

The spear glowed red as Feng Tian thrust it out like a Blood Dragon.

“Bloodline empowerment, the Nine-headed Lion’s innate skill!” Someone cried out in surprise as he recognized the move that Feng Tian had used.

This was one of his most famous techniques, and he had once used this technique to kill a Ruler when he was at the peak of the half-step Almighty realm.

“Whoosh!”

Feng Tian’s speed increased, leaving behind afterimages as he engaged Lin Mo in an intense battle.

This time, Lin Mo could no longer remain calm and began to dodge some attacks.

The Nine-headed Lion’s innate technique was indeed very powerful. The attacking power of the battle spear had become even more powerful.

If some ordinary Rulers were hit, they would probably die instantly.

An intense battle broke out as the two of them exchanged hundreds of blows. This time, Lin Mo was forced to use the Kun Peng Wings.

There were black patterns in golden color. Lin Mo’s figure disappeared with a gentle flap, and when he reappeared, he was behind Feng Tian.

The longsword in his hand slashed down, and a dazzling Sword Qi exploded. If this sword hit Feng Tian, Feng Tian would be crippled if not dead.

However, the other party was also extremely experienced in combat.

Lin Mo's sword hit the blood-red spear and pushed it back hundreds of meters. A huge ravine was created on the ground.

“Roar!”

Suddenly, an earth-shaking roar came from the huge cloud of dust ahead.

A ferocious golden lion charged out, its sharp claws reaching for Lin Mo.

The golden sword was instantly shattered and turned back into feathers.

The Hanging Wings retracted, protecting Lin Mo within.

When the dust settled, a golden lion that was 100 meters tall appeared. It had a total of nine heads.

It was majestic and had the demeanor of a king.

Nonetheless, in the next moment, the Yin Yang Dao law surrounded Lin Mo's body. The Kun Peng Wings turned black and white as they spread out.

At the same time, Lin Mo leaped up, and an ocean appeared.

...

As soon as he fell into it, a huge black fish appeared. It gently shook its tail, stirring up huge waves.

In just an instant, the Nine-headed Lion was drowned.

It sank into the sea and struggled. A golden light appeared on its body while its nine heads roared at the same time and shone with divine light.

It rushed out of the ocean and rose into the air.

Lin Mo had jumped out of the water and transformed into a golden roc.

With a flap of his wings, the space was torn apart, and a sharp Sword Qi left bloody marks on the Nine-headed Lion's huge body.

"So this is the Kun Peng's technique? What a terrifying power."

Everyone was shocked. Lin Mo was seven steps below his opponent, but he still crushed his opponent. Only a divine beast could compete with the Kun Peng.

For a moment, people looked into the distance.

Over there, a white-robed young lady shouted loudly. She was dancing with joy when she saw the Kun Peng crushing the Nine-headed Lion.

That was the Qilin girl, the only divine beast left in the world.

...

With her around, even if Zhao Tianyu helped Feng Tian, they probably would not be able to gain any advantage...

"The Nine-headed Lion was a God's mount in ancient times, right?"

Lin Mo said softly. The runes that filled the sky dispersed, the waves disappeared, and so did the Kun Peng and the Nine-headed Lion.

Lin Mo carried Feng Tian, who had lost his ability to fight, out of the battlefield, and what he said shocked countless people.

"We already have a mount, but Qilin and I are still lacking a pill-refining subordinate. Do you want to consider it?"

The whole place was silent. A super genius who was ranked in the top 100 of the Hidden Dragon Rank had lost all his fighting power.

The other person was also threatened. If he did not submit today, he would probably die.

"Crack!"

A spatial fluctuation could be felt. As an alchemist, Zhao Tianyu had many treasures on him.

At this moment, he crushed a talisman and led his subordinates to disappear from this place.

“He has escaped...”

Some people were shocked. He had escaped with a spatial talisman, so it was too late to chase after him.

“I can feel it over there.”

At that moment, the Qilin spoke from behind and pointed in a direction.

The next moment, Lin Mo threw Feng Tian out. He extended his sky wings, took a step forward, and disappeared in an instant.

“Swish!”

Tens of thousands of kilometers away, Zhao Tianyu and the others had just appeared. However, he immediately sensed something and called out.

“Run! Split up!”

Zhao Tianyu took out a formation board and was about to activate it.

In the next moment, golden light flickered, and a huge pair of Hanging Wings covered the entire sky.

Lin Mo looked down coldly. After locking on to Zhao Tianyu with the War Demon Spear in his hand, he swung the spear down.

“If I let you go, I don’t need to continue living...”

His tone was calm. After breaking through the Almighty realm, he was able to use some of the power of the War Demon Spear.

As a result, Zhao Tianyu had no room to resist and was directly captured.

As for Zhao Tianyu’s subordinates, Lin Mo could not be bothered with them. They had decent talent, but he was too lazy to recruit them.

The reason he wanted Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian was also because of their abilities.

After returning to the valley, Lin Mo took away the precious treasures of Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian.

“Not bad...”

There were quite a few treasures that he could not identify, so he waited for the system space’s introduction.

[Heaven-grade tier 5 magic tool, the Sea Calming Pearl. It is a treasure created by imitating the supreme treasure, Sea Calming Divine Pearl. It can create space.]

[Crimson Heavenly Fire Seed, an immortal-grade treasure. After refining it, one can greatly comprehend the Fire Dao Law.]

“Good stuff...” Lin Mo was shocked. This was actually an immortal-grade treasure. It was truly rare.

If it was refined by Song Lianxue, while she would not reach the peak, she could not be underestimated.

[Holy Fire Technique, a heaven-grade tier 9 cultivation technique. Only by controlling a flame born from heaven and earth in one’s body can one successfully cultivate it.]

A scroll appeared. It was a heaven-grade tier 9 cultivation technique. It must be Zhao Tianyu’s treasure.

It must be a cultivation technique that was passed down in Zhao Tianyu’s clan. If Lin Mo cultivated it, it would probably bring him a fatal disaster.

As for the Crimson Heavenly Fire Seed, Lin Mo probably could not give it out either. Otherwise, the other party’s clan would not let him go.

Snow Valley would not go to war with a big clan for a disciple...

“Lin Mo, are you really going to take these two as your subordinates?” Qilin walked over.

She took away all the spiritual and divine herbs from Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian without any hesitation.

Although the two of them were not weak, it was obvious that they would not be willing to be Lin Mo’s subordinates.

“If they don’t submit, then they can just die,” Lin Mo said indifferently.

He thought back to his encounter in Cloud State a long time ago. Back then, Gongsun Wenhao had a large number of followers.

Even Feng Tian and Zhao Tianyu had people following them.

This might be the reason their strengths improved so quickly. Some people especially collected resources for them...

No matter how strong Lin Mo and Qilin were, they were just two people. After going into seclusion, there was no way for them to collect resources.

Having two subordinates by his side would make things more convenient.

Furthermore, Lin Mo was planning to build a Chamber of Commerce on the ancient battlefield to collect resources and auction treasures.

If he wanted to do that, he would need powerhouses in the Chamber of Commerce.

Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian were good choices, but it was clear from their eyes that they would not submit so easily...

Outside the valley, the group of people looked at Lin Mo in horror.

Were the two geniuses of the Hidden Dragon Rank going to be eliminated just like that? That would be such a pity.

In the dark, the disciples of Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian’s forces were trembling in fear.

They did not want their geniuses to be enslaved, but they also did not want them to be killed just like that and lose their right to fight on the ancient battlefield.

“Can you tell me if you used your full strength just now?” Feng Tian looked at Lin Mo unwillingly.

“I used about 70%.” Lin Mo told him the truth.

Feng Tian’s body trembled, his eyes filled with unwillingness and bitterness. “I should’ve thought of this earlier. The God Devouring Body is one of the strongest body types of the human race...”

He had thought that the God Devouring Body was only invincible among those of the same rank.

After all, since ancient times, the God Devouring Body had not appeared in the world. The human race’s status among the myriad races was below average...

Lin Mo did not say anything more and looked at Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian.

In the distance, many people’s scalps went numb. This was too shocking. With 70% of his combat power, Lin Mo defeated Feng Tian, who was in the ninth step of the Almighty realm...

Who could rival such a terrifying combat power?

“You only used 70%?”

On the side, Mao Zhu looked at Lin Mo in shock. Ever since they had met, Lin Mo had been refreshing her knowledge. innread.com

Now that Lin Mo had admitted to it, she finally knew how terrifying he was.

The pride in her heart was reduced, and she had no choice but to pay more attention to him. She had to work harder in the future...

“You and Qilin have offended too many people. Let them go and save some face.”

Mao Zhu advised. The two men had deep backgrounds, so it was best not to offend them.

“What are you afraid of? Many people are after us. Two more wouldn’t hurt,” Qilin said in a carefree manner.

“Hurry up and decide. Do you want to submit or die?” Qilin was getting impatient and was planning to eliminate the two young men.

“Wait a minute. You two, I’m sure you don’t want to be left behind by the geniuses of the Northern Continent.”

Lin Mo made one last attempt at persuasion and expressed his thoughts.

He and Qilin needed to cultivate, so they needed someone to take care of and hold auctions in the Chamber of Commerce if it was established.

When he and Qilin were not around, they needed someone to keep watch. This was the only way to be safe.

“With just a few of us, how big can the Chamber of Commerce be?”

Zhao Tianyu asked. Although Lin Mo and Qilin were very famous, many people wanted to target them.

Establishing a Chamber of Commerce... The next time Lin Mo and Qilin came out of seclusion, they would probably hear the news of the Chamber of Commerce being destroyed.

“How I operate it is my business. Moreover, as long as you help me, I can also provide you with cultivation resources.

“I can also guarantee that once we leave the ancient battlefield, all our grudges will be settled. You can seek revenge if you want, or you can treat me as a fellow Daoist.”

This was the biggest concession Lin Mo could make. If they still did not agree to it, he could only kill them.

...

“I’ll agree if you return me the Crimson Heavenly Fire Seed and the Holy Fire Technique.”

Zhao Tianyu immediately agreed to it, but he also made a request. They were the key to his cultivation, and he could not afford to make any mistakes.

“And you?”

Lin Mo looked at Feng Tian. He was very satisfied with Zhao Tianyu’s agreement. After all, he did not need to eat elixirs anymore.

With Zhao Tianyu’s alchemy skills, it should not be a problem for him to make some divine pills of heaven-grade tier 1 or 2.

“Okay, but return our treasures.”

Feng Tian nodded. He also asked Lin Mo for the treasures that had been taken away.

“Don’t worry. These treasures will help the Chamber of Commerce build up its reputation. You can just auction them off.”

Lin Mo laughed. How could he return such good things so easily?

He had to get his hands on the treasures from the rebate system no matter what. There was no room for discussion.

“The two of you, do you want to join us? If you do, I’ll take care of all your cultivation resources.”

...

After the young men agreed, Lin Mo looked at Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue.

They also had potential, so it would be best if he could rope them in.

“You’re also a rogue cultivator. Where would you get so many resources?”
Mao Zhu did not believe him.

Any genius would consume a terrifying amount of resources, not to mention Lin Mo’s God Devouring Body.

“There’s no harm in working together. We have nowhere to go anyway...”

Song Lianxue said in a low voice, trying to persuade Mao Zhu to stay and help. She was quite tempted by Lin Mo’s offer.

Furthermore, because of the Immunity Talisman, Lin Mo had promised her that he would find her treasures to improve her aptitude.

With Mao Zhu's help, it should be easier.

"That's fine too, but let me say this first. If you don't give me enough resources, I won't stay with you anymore."

In the end, Mao Zhu could not resist Song Lianxue's persuasion and agreed.

Although she said that she would leave at any time, given her attitude, there should not be any problems in the short term.

"That's great! Welcome, sisters."

Qilin clapped happily. All this time, the people she had met were enemies. Now, she finally had companions...

The divine tree in the valley had also been plucked. The fruits on it had ripened and were very precious.

As expected of an alchemist, Zhao Tianyu was very knowledgeable in the field of medicinal herbs. He was able to recognize what it was after looking at it for a while.

"Flowing Ember Fruits. They're the main ingredient for refining the heavenly pills. There are a total of nine of them, which is very rare."

Zhao Tianyu took out a pill recipe from his storage ring and said, "I can use it to refine a heavenly pill, and it should be of heaven grade."

The heavenly pill's effect was to purify the energy in one's body to a large extent.

If a demonic beast consumed it, it could purify its bloodline and evolve. This was extremely precious to Feng Tian.

His original form was a Nine-headed Lion. After taking the heavenly pill, his bloodline would become purer, and the sign of atavism would become more obvious.

“Then I’ll have to trouble you. After the refinement is successful, everyone will have a share.”

Lin Mo laughed. He and Qilin did not need it, so they could just auction theirs off.

On the way, Lin Mo asked Feng Tian and Zhao Tianyu about what had happened on the ancient battlefield.

Especially Gongsun Wenhao, Teng Feng, and the others.

Unfortunately, this world was too big, and it would take a long time for the news to spread. These two people had never seen Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng.

“The young master of the Dragon Pavilion, Xiao Yun, has entered the deepest part of the battlefield. He triggered the Supreme Divine Tribulation and has yet to return.

“Mu Yuzhu and her maidservant, Su Qing, found a nest that seemed to be where the True Phoenix lives. They had a fierce battle with a mysterious powerhouse and almost destroyed the entrance of the nest.”

“What kind of mysterious powerhouse?” Lin Mo was stunned.

It was strange that the Dragon Pavilion did not record on the Hidden Dragon Rank someone who could fight with Mu Yuzhu.

After learning a lot of information, Lin Mo and Qilin were about to leave to cultivate in seclusion.

Mao Zhu was going to take Song Lianxue to a historical site. It was said that there was a divine spring there that could increase one’s talent.

As for Feng Tian and Zhao Tianyu, they were busy with the Chamber of Commerce’s affairs.

After deciding on a place and time, they all split up.

“What a pity. I have to return the divine medicines that I obtained...” Qilin said with dissatisfaction.

Lin Mo had asked her to return the divine medicines and elixirs that she had taken from Feng Tian and Zhao Tianyu.

The two of them found a secret mountain stream in the boundless mountain range, hid there, and began to cultivate.

“Don’t panic. We’ll soon have a large number of divine medicines for cultivation...” Lin Mo consoled her softly and began to cultivate in seclusion.

Qilin was in seclusion to break through to the sixth step of the Almighty realm. At this moment, she was refining the medicinal properties of many divine medicines in her body.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, had a much tougher time cultivating.

“The damage the God Devouring Body is doing to my body is becoming more and more obvious. Will it not go out of control in the future?”

Lin Mo said softly. His aura had not changed at all in the past day. There were a few cracks on his body, and blood was slowly flowing out.

This was the impact of the God Devouring Body devouring the universe’s energy.

Such a brutal cultivation method was a great burden on his body.

He had spent nearly 30 million high-grade spirit stones in just one day.

This amount of spirit stones was enough for an ordinary person to break through.

However, nothing happened to him. The God Devouring Body digested the spirit stones as if it was eating and drinking.

Lin Mo reflected and carefully studied the Soul Devouring Art.

Even so, it was still useless. Unless one obtained an extremely heaven-defying opportunity, the Soul Devouring Art would never evolve.

This also caused Lin Mo to be unable to control the God Devouring Body.

The reason he was able to fight enemies of a higher level was entirely because of his solid foundation and the accumulation of several years.

“Perhaps I can obtain the complete Soul Devouring Art after refining this fruit...”

With his current strength, he could comprehend the Dao Law from the Yin Yang Fruit.

Unfortunately, it was impossible to refine it. Even if the God Devouring Body went berserk and broke free from his control, it would still be impossible.

Lin Mo would definitely not allow that to happen.

He knew that his path of cultivation had just begun. The benefits of the God Devouring Body were about to appear.

Despite that, the test of life and death had also come. In the future, it would not be possible to keep on breaking through with sufficient resources...

“Forget it, I’ll break through first.”

Lin Mo calmed down and took out another pile of spirit stones. He held a divine medicine in his hand and began to absorb the energy.

In the next few days, it would be very difficult for Lin Mo to break through.

The devoured energy was rampaging in his body. He had to suppress it with all his might and merge it into the black hole in the center of his dantian.

Lin Mo took a deep breath. The spirit stones around him were used up again, and the divine medicine in his hand dried up.

In five days, he had spent 50 million high-grade spirit stones and a divine medicine.

At this moment, all this energy was being suppressed in his dantian. If he was not careful, he would explode and die.

“Swish!”

Lin Mo took out another divine fruit to protect himself from being seriously injured by the God Devouring Body.

At the same time, the Yin Yang Fruit in the system space glowed.

...

A black and white divine light spread and wrapped around Lin Mo, forming a round cauldron with three legs and two ears.

The lid of the cauldron fell and sealed Lin Mo within.

The Yin Yang Dao Law appeared and permeated the surroundings, causing the void to distort. The Yin Yang Dao Law absorbed the universe's energy to nourish itself.

In the end, the flames in the cauldron were filled with black and white colors. Yin and Yang were balanced as they helped Lin Mo refine his body.

The Yin Yang Fruit guided the universe's energy to help Lin Mo comprehend the Dao. At the same time, the Yin Yang divine medicine was like the fire of death. While it gave Lin Mo strength, it also brought pain and danger.

"This is my fourth attempt."

Looking at his dantian, Lin Mo had attempted to break through to the third step four times.

Every time he tried to break through, he felt that his body was about to break, and his meridians were about to be broken. His body was about to be burned by the Divine Yin Yang Fire.

Although his comprehension of the Dao law had become deeper during this period, and he had even used it to comprehend a deeper level of the Mismatched Yin Yang, his cultivation level did not change at all.

He was still at the second step of the Almighty realm and was stuck at the last step.

"Something's not right. There shouldn't be any threshold for the God Devouring Body..."

...

Opening his eyes weakly, Lin Mo took a bite of the divine fruit in his hand. Boundless vitality slowly healed his injuries.

He did not understand. Could it be that the ancient books recorded it wrongly? Did the God Devouring Body have to face a threshold after breaking through to the Almighty realm?

Nonetheless, Lin Mo felt that he was naturally intelligent and had outstanding talent. He did not dare to say that he was the best in the world, but he was not far from that.

Now that he had accumulated enough energy, he became suspicious after failing to break through four times.

“System, can you tell me what my current situation is?”

Lin Mo could not help but ask. His injuries had fully recovered, but he was not in a hurry to break through. He wanted to find an answer from the system.

When he did not get an answer, Lin Mo gritted his teeth and condensed a drop of blood essence, which he kept in the system space.

As expected, when the drop of blood entered, the system’s introduction came.

[The blood essence of the God Devouring Body. It contains the Yin Yang Dao Law. Under the influence of the Yin Yang fruit, the awakening of the God Devouring Body is accelerated.]

“What happens after the awakening?”

[If you awaken the God Devouring Body before reaching the ninth step of the quasi-Emperor realm, you will go completely crazy and lose control of your body. You will become a monster that only knows how to devour.]

Tip: You can use left, right keyboard keys to browse between chapters.

Please report the problems you have identified regarding the novel and its chapters.

The system's words shocked Lin Mo. The God Devouring Body was indeed dangerous.

While it brought strength, it also brought a fatal threat.

Moreover, he had also obtained the Yin Yang Fruit, which further accelerated the time of the awakening.

"This isn't right. What does this have to do with me not being able to break through?" Lin Mo did not understand and continued to read the system's introduction.

[The God Devouring Body has entered the awakening stage. The bottleneck of your cultivation has appeared, and it will be more difficult for you to break through than ordinary people.]

Lin Mo finally understood that he had reached a bottleneck...

Moreover, he had a thought in his mind. Did the God Devouring Body have a life? Or did it have its own consciousness...

This was to control itself and prevent itself from being awakened before reaching the ninth step of the quasi-Emperor realm.

"But do I have to give up the Yin Yang Fruit...?"

Without a doubt, this was impossible. Not only would Lin Mo not give up, but he would also use it to cultivate and reach perfection.

He was not dejected by the dangers in the future and firmly believed that he could continue to walk down the path.

One day, he would definitely succeed and completely control the God Devouring Body.

With this conviction, Lin Mo started his fifth attempt. The Dao laws around him appeared to help him.

The obstruction appeared again. The God Devouring Body increased its devouring power, and the spiritual Qi caused Lin Mo's meridians to be severely damaged.

At that moment, even Qilin, who was not far away, could sense it. She opened her eyes and looked at Lin Mo in confusion.

The Divine Yin Yang Fire filled the air, turning the cave into a sea of fire.

In the end, Qilin could not even continue cultivating. She felt that the spiritual Qi around her was being sucked away.

“Pfft...”

In the cauldron, Lin Mo spat out a mouthful of blood. The power of the God Devouring Body was beyond imagination.

He had been injured by the shock, and his Yin and Yang were out of balance. He could not bear the impact and almost lost control of his cultivation.

At the critical moment, golden light appeared on his burnt body.

The runes that had been engraved on his bone armor during the transcendence of the tribulation appeared to suppress the chaotic energy in his body.

Lin Mo endured the intense pain in his body and charged into the third step of the Almighty realm in one go. At the same time, he used this momentum to continue charging.

The massive amount of Qi in his body was reduced significantly, relieving Lin Mo's stress.

At the same time, Lin Mo's realm was also rising. In the blink of an eye, he had reached the peak of the third step.

He took a step forward, and his aura skyrocketed. At this moment, he had a feeling of transcendence.

Although he was severely injured, he seemed to have transcended everything, and his comprehension of the Yin Yang Dao Law reached a higher level.

Lin Mo did not know why, but he felt an inexplicable emotion.

It seemed to be... Disappointment?

“How could this be? I’ve broken through several times. How can I be disappointed...?” Lin Mo was shocked. His premonition could not be wrong.

There was indeed a moment of disappointment...

“Was it an illusion or...?”

Lin Mo was a little scared, but he did not dare to think too much about it. He did not have enough knowledge at the moment. Did the God Devouring Body have another consciousness?

“Luckily, I still have the system. It’s my biggest trump card...”

Lin Mo had made up his mind to collect information and ancient books related to the God Devouring Body.

If he could auction it, he would be able to obtain more records of the God Devouring Body.

After a long while, Lin Mo opened his eyes. The cauldron formed by the Yin Yang Dao Law had disappeared. He was severely injured and fell down.

“Brother Lin Mo, what’s wrong...?”

Qilin rushed over and helped Lin Mo up. She was anxious and took out an unfinished divine medicine to feed Lin Mo.

“I’m fine...”

Lin Mo struggled to get up. He triggered his meridians, causing him to grimace in pain.

His injuries were very serious. His origin was unstable, and the spiritual Qi in his dantian was leaking out.

His skin was cracked by the fire, and his skin and flesh were dry. He was like a zombie.

Furthermore, the God Devouring Body had been constantly devouring the universe’s spiritual Qi to help Lin Mo cultivate.

Now, it stopped. There was no movement. The God Devouring Body was no longer operating on its own.

Only when Lin Mo used the Soul Devouring Art did his God Devouring Body absorb spiritual Qi for him to heal.

“I was a little impatient in my breakthrough. I’ll be fine after resting for two days...” Lin Mo said.

The God Devouring Body’s problem was not a small matter. He just hoped that he had guessed wrong, or the consequences would be severe.

“By the way, help me take a look at my fate. You don’t have to look too much. Just tell me whether it’s good or bad.”

Qilin was in charge of fate. Although her realm was very weak at the moment, she could still see the general situation.

“Good fortune and bad luck come together.”

After a simple glance, Lin Mo got a vague answer. The ancient battlefield was filled with opportunities and dangers.

It was as though Qilin did not answer his question at all.

As if she understood this, Qilin wanted to activate the Dao law in her body and activate her innate divine ability to see what was going on.

...

“Don’t waste it...”

Lin Mo quickly stopped her. Qilin was at the seventh step of the Almighty realm, which was a huge improvement.

However, her realm was a little unstable. She had just broken through and needed to stabilize it.

“Time is precious. Hurry up and stabilize your realm. I’ll go out and heal my injuries...”

Lin Mo left the cave and opened up a cave abode on the opposite mountain peak to recuperate.

He took out a divine medicine and two half-divine fruits.

“No matter what, let’s make use of every minute.” The danger of the God Devouring Body was still unknown.

Even the precious divine medicine could only be used as food for healing at this moment.

In another cave, Qilin was a little anxious, but there was nothing she could do. She could only sigh and continue cultivating.

There was a palm-sized yellow flower with a thick stolon.

Lin Mo did not hesitate. He tore the flower off, crushed it, and ate it.

...

In an instant, his body emitted a black light, and the medicinal properties of the flower quickly spread through Lin Mo’s limbs and bones.

His broken meridians were reconnected at this moment, and his bones were also nourished.

Flesh and blood were regrown. This was the effect of directly swallowing divine medicine.

Rich life force could nourish all living things, even one’s soul.

Nevertheless, eating it this way would lose more than half of the medicinal effects. After all, it was swallowed whole, so it was a waste.

Lin Mo’s body began to change. His dried-up flesh grew back, and a layer of old skin was shed. Fair skin reappeared.

The medicinal effect in his body continued to heal his injuries.

That said, he was severely injured by the Divine Yin Yang Fire. This was the mark left behind by the great Dao.

Even with the help of divine medicine, it still took a day for his injuries to completely heal.

If it was an ordinary injury, a divine medicine would probably be able to completely heal him in a few breaths.

Only an injury from the great Dao would be so difficult to treat and would take such a long time.

“I still have enough spirit stones. Let’s continue cultivating.”

As soon as he recovered, Lin Mo immediately sat down with his legs crossed and took out all his savings, which amounted to 300 million high-grade spirit stones.

He kept the three remaining divine medicines to save his life and used the rest for cultivation.

“Ever since I started cultivating, I’ve never encountered a bottleneck. It’s all because of the God Devouring Body.

“But this is like a lack of experience. Strength came too easily.”

Lin Mo sighed. The history of the God Devouring Body’s growth was filled with sadness.

Since ancient times, there had only been a few recorded God Devouring Bodies that had truly reached great success.

The secret behind that might be related to the awakening of the God Devouring Body.

Lin Mo did not want his life to be decided like that. He wanted to transcend and change the fate of the God Devouring Body.

Chapter 679 - 679 Potential Danger

679 Potential Danger

300 million high-grade spirit stones, a dozen half-divine herbs, and a few divine herbs.

Lin Mo refined all of such terrifying power in 10 days. The Divine Yin Yang Fire appeared and burned through the mountain.

The entire sky was tainted, and even the space he was in was shattered and on the verge of collapse.

Lin Mo, in the center of the flames, was severely injured again and almost died.

After many failed attempts to break through and when his life force was about to be exhausted, he finally stopped. He ate a divine medicine and recovered to his peak.

At this moment, he was only a step away from reaching the fifth step of the Almighty realm. With the help of the Yin Yang Dao Law, he was about to break through.

“It’s so terrifying. The Divine Yin Yang Fire brought by the Divine Yin Yang Fruit is too powerful.”

Lin Mo’s heart palpitated as he looked at the Divine Yin Yang Fire that surrounded him.

During his cultivation, he felt that he had become stronger, and his comprehension of Dao laws far exceeded those of the same realm.

Without a doubt, the Divine Yin Yang Fruit had led him to an unimaginable path.

If he had given the Divine Fruit of Fate to Qilin, perhaps she would have taken the same path.

With the Divine Great Dao Fire during cultivation, every breakthrough would be a torment.

This was too dangerous. He did not want Qilin to take the risk and planned to give it to her after she reached the next realm.

In addition, Qilin had once told him that she wanted to go to his birthplace to take a look.

When she woke up, she felt that her mother had left something for her.

Back then, she was born prematurely. In order to avoid being caught, she could only take the Qilin Ancient Tree and leave in a hurry.

Now that she was here, she had to go and take a look no matter what.

At the moment, Lin Mo could only try his best to raise his realm and make a complete breakthrough.

Lin Mo had enough energy, and his comprehension ability was also extremely heaven-defying. Although he had never experienced a bottleneck in the past, these two breakthroughs had allowed him to grab hold of an opportunity.

After spending seven days, he broke through again and reached the fifth step.

Lin Mo did not absorb the rest of the energy. He allowed them to nourish his body, transform, and heal his body.

The Divine Yin Yang Fire disappeared, and Lin Mo fell from the cauldron.

He got up with difficulty and sat cross-legged, silently refining the spiritual Qi in his body, transforming it into vitality to heal himself.

Suddenly, Lin Mo sensed that his surroundings had changed.

Runes flickered, and the cave abode became transparent. A new pattern began to be written.

Lin Mo was highly familiar with the Soul Devouring Art. He could feel a power awakening in his body.

“What’s going on?” Lin Mo opened his eyes. He was still injured, but it was no longer fatal.

The runes in the cave abode were very mysterious. Gradually, they changed. It was still the Soul Devouring Art, but not the one that Lin Mo was familiar with.

Wisps of runes approached, and the place seemed to have fallen into a black hole. It was eerie and terrifying.

“Who’s up to no good? Get the hell out here!”

Lin Mo shouted coldly. This strange phenomenon made his hair stand on end, and goosebumps rose all over his body.

He spread out his soul power and scanned the entire mountain.

Even so, he did not find anything. He could not even sense the aura of an outsider.

Only the worried Qilin, who had come out of seclusion not far away, could be seen.

After sensing Lin Mo's soul power, she was even more worried...

“Boom!”

Lin Mo immediately shattered the entire mountain, turning it into dust such that it disappeared.

“Brother Lin Mo?” Qilin was shocked, not understanding what Lin Mo was doing.

“Qilin, step back and protect yourself.” Lin Mo ordered Qilin to move away, his expression grave.

At this time, he was absolutely sure that someone was up to no good in the dark, and that someone knew him very well.

If the person could master the Soul Devouring Art, the person could even obtain the subsequent runes...

Even so, this was what shocked Lin Mo the most. He could not sense where the other party was or who he was.

The unknown danger was the most terrifying...

“Buzz!”

The runes of the Soul Devouring Art appeared around him once again. Lin Mo observed them carefully and memorized them.

Circulating this path in his body, he discovered that this was the cultivation technique that was most suitable for him.

It perfectly connected with the previous cultivation method's route and resonated with the Soul Devouring Art, allowing him to have a deeper level of control.

"Who is it? What kind of ability do you have for you to play tricks behind the scenes?"

Lin Mo released his power and instantly dispelled the runes around him. Only then did the terrifying and strange feeling in the dark disappear.

He looked around and did not find anything unusual.

"Mismatched Yin Yang, Nine Qilin Steps!" Lin Mo shouted.

The two strongest killing moves were used at the same time, and the sky was painted golden.

Yin and Yang Qi filled the air as Lin Mo attacked in all directions.

At the same time, he held the War Demon Spear and pierced through everything. Spear shadows spread out, and everything within 50 kilometers was destroyed.

...

"Brother Lin Mo, what's wrong?"

In the distance, Qilin flew over worriedly. She did not sense any danger and only saw Lin Mo attacking like a madman.

Lin Mo's eyes returned to normal after the momentary daze. He was a little confused.

He looked at Qilin, and the latter's worried expression made his heart ache. The powerful aura on his body suddenly disappeared.

"I'm fine... I think I was obsessed..."

Lin Mo did not even believe this statement himself. Although Qilin was simple-minded, she was naturally intelligent, so she naturally did not believe it.

Lin Mo was silent. He had obtained too much information during his seclusion. Furthermore, the God Devouring Body had always been a legend since ancient times.

In ancient times, although the human race had records of the God Devouring Body, no one had ever cultivated it to its peak.

“Does Qilin’s mother still have a remnant of consciousness in this world...?”

Lin Mo muttered to himself in his heart. This question could only be answered by going to Qilin’s birthplace.

“You’re worried and afraid...”

...

Qilin came to Lin Mo’s side and said softly, feeling Lin Mo’s state of mind.

She could not understand what Lin Mo, who had always been fearless, had encountered.

“You promised not to lie to me...” She raised her head and looked at Lin Mo pitifully.

Lin Mo was her only relative, and she hated it when he kept everything from her and faced danger alone...

“I’m not lying to you. I don’t know what happened either. Perhaps it’s related to my God Devouring Body, but I don’t know the reason...”

Lin Mo sighed and patted Qilin’s head, comforting her softly.

“But don’t worry, I also want to see what it is. I won’t be defeated so easily.” Lin Mo’s tone gradually became firm, and the determination in his eyes could not be erased.

The ancient era had been destroyed, leaving behind many ruins and unsolved mysteries.

The ancient battlefield was one of them. Perhaps he could find some answers here.

He asked Qilin to protect him while he continued to cultivate and stabilize his realm.

At this moment, he had completely reached the fifth step of the Almighty realm. His foundation was solid, and his battle prowess was even more powerful.

During this period, his injuries were also healed by the God Devouring Body, which absorbed the spiritual Qi in the surroundings. His condition was at its peak.

“We’ve been cultivating for a month and a half. Are we going to continue with our closed-door cultivation?”

On the top of a mountain, Qilin was bored and looked at Lin Mo.

She was now at the eighth step of the Almighty realm, and her progress was rapid. She could be called a monster.

After all, she had only been born for two years. Even as a divine beast, it was rare for her to have such achievements.

“Let’s wait a little longer. I have a feeling that something is going to happen...”

Lin Mo said. During this period, he had sensed that a pair of eyes had been watching him in the dark.

He did not know what it was, but his cultivation state was abnormal, so it must have something to do with it.

Qilin did not understand. She did not sense anything and felt that everything was normal. Nothing would happen.

Even so, Lin Mo did not seem to be faking it. It seemed like something was really going to happen...

Suddenly, Qilin noticed that Lin Mo was going to be doomed, and all the good fortune he had won over had disappeared.

What replaced them was a bloody killing intent that surrounded him and was constantly surging into his body.

“Buzz!”

In the air, a few runes appeared and fused with each other, drawing out bits of vitality.

Lin Mo was on high alert, looking at the changes in the void ahead and not noticing Qilin’s strange behavior.

“What is it?”

Danger was approaching, but Lin Mo still could not sense who the enemy was.

“An enemy!”

Behind, Qilin’s face was deathly pale. The vertical eye between her eyebrows was closed, and blood seeped out from the corner of her mouth. Her soul and aura were dispirited.

“What?”

Lin Mo was shocked as he felt the changes in Qilin. He quickly flew over and hugged her.

“You used the Eye of Destiny again?” His face was filled with anger.

Did he not tell her not to use this move casually? If one did not have enough strength, one would not be able to control this ability.

If Qilin activated it forcefully, even if she was only looking at a destined event and did not change it, it was enough to severely injure her.

“Brother Lin Mo, the enemy... Is afraid of you...”

“You have to... Exterminate... In advance...”

In its weakened state, Qilin said two sentences intermittently. Before she could finish, she fell completely unconscious.

Purple light flickered. Before Lin Mo could feed her the divine medicine, wisps of runes spread out.

Qilin's body shrank, and when the light disappeared, a small, snow-white beast lay in Lin Mo's arms.

This was Qilin's original form. She was very young, and her soul fluctuations were extremely weak.

Seeing this, Lin Mo's heart burned with anxiety because he had no idea what had happened.

Qilin had only taken a look at the other party's background, but she suffered such a serious backlash...

“Buzz.”

In the air, among the endless runes, it seemed as if a human figure was being born.

For some reason, Lin Mo was very familiar with him as if they were from the same lineage.

The inexplicable demonic feeling made him unable to make up his mind.

He did not move rashly. He stared at the figure and felt hostility and danger.

“Thump, thump...”

With a strong heartbeat, the runes in front of him gradually dissipated, and a majestic aura of life burst out at this moment.

Seeing this, Lin Mo felt as if he was facing a great enemy. He knew the real danger was coming.

The figure was walking in the void. His steps were crooked as if he was adapting to his new body.

Lin Mo focused his attention and gripped the War Demon Spear tightly. He knew that a fierce battle was inevitable.

The runes completely disappeared, and the area seemed to be isolated from the world, forming a hellish scene.

In front of him was a humanoid creature, or rather, it was a human. His facial features were unclear, and he had no expression.

In fact, the other party did not even release his aura.

However, Lin Mo could sense hostility from the other party, and even... Killing intent.

“Who are you?” Lin Mo asked. He had to pay attention to someone who could make Qilin pay such a huge price.

The figure in front of him did not say anything. He was like a God of death from hell, suppressing all living beings in the world.

A demon mask appeared on his face, and his eyes emitted a red light. A majestic killing intent spread out in an instant.

At this moment, it was like a wild beast without its own intelligence.

“Is it not the right one...?”

Lin Mo shook his head and kept Qilin in the system space. The system space had been expanded to its maximum size.

There was no problem in storing living creatures, and it was absolutely safe. The following battle would not affect Qilin.

With the War Demon Spear in his hand, Lin Mo raised his aura to its peak. No matter what danger lay ahead, he had to get rid of it no matter what.

“Boom!”

The figure in front of him moved. He raised his right hand, and a bronze spear appeared. There was deep rust on it, and it had definitely been corroded over time.

Lin Mo had been staring straight ahead. He was shocked when he saw the bronze spear.

This was definitely a terrifying magical weapon that was not inferior to the War Demon Spear. Moreover, it had been around for a long time, so its origin must be terrifying...

“Clang!”

...

Lin Mo felt the threat of death in an instant, and his body tensed up.

He was shocked. The moment the other party attacked, the entire world trembled as if he was the master of this area.

“I don’t care who you are, but you will die today.”

Lin Mo thrust out his War Demon Spear and collided with the battle spear for the first time. A power exploded, shaking the void.

The two sides were only a thousand feet apart, and they met in the blink of an eye. The battle spear and the long spear collided.

“Dang!”

Lin Mo’s heart skipped a beat when the two attacks collided. His opponent was at the same level as him, the fifth step of the Almighty realm.

However, the speed and strength of his opponent’s attack were not inferior to his.

Lin Mo waved the War Demon Spear, and a pitch-black killing intent filled the air. The spear shot out like a dragon, taking the initiative to attack.

However, this charged attack was easily blocked by the opponent’s spear.

At this moment, the entire mountain range trembled, and a hellish scene spread out. The battle between the two caused all kinds of strange phenomena.

...

Lin Mo staggered backward, feeling his arm numb and in pain.

In just two or three moves, his spear had almost slipped out of his hand. His opponent's strength was too great.

If it was someone else, their arm would have exploded or even been nailed in the air.

“Boom!”

After a short rest, Lin Mo attacked again. He swung his spear horizontally, and the tip of the spear cut through the sky, leaving a light black mark in the air.

This was a magic item that was once forged by the Kun Peng. Although it was casually forged, it was still very powerful.

The human figure was as fast as the wind. He took a few steps in the air and swept out with his full strength. He planned to fight Lin Mo head-on and injure both of them.

“You think I'm afraid of you?”

Lin Mo was furious. He could not care less about the crack between his thumb and index finger as he swept with all his strength again.

The spear and the battle spear clashed, and sparks flew in all directions. The two violent and overbearing forces exploded, causing the entire mountain range to collapse.

When this strike landed, smoke and dust rose in all directions, and the area within 500 kilometers turned into ruins.

Lin Mo stood on a mountain peak, frowning.

The hand that was holding the War Demon Spear was covered in blood. The other party's strength was on par with his, and neither of them had an easy time.

Lin Mo silently circulated the Soul Devouring Art. He did not know why, but at this moment, he could use the God Devouring Body even more smoothly.

When the smoke and dust dispersed, he found that the other party had also suffered serious injuries.

Fresh blood flowed out, but it gave Lin Mo a very strange feeling. However, he could not explain it...

Nonetheless, this short exchange of blows proved one point. Their physical bodies were equal to their cultivation base.

“It’s so strange. It doesn’t seem to have a soul or... Consciousness.”

Lin Mo sized up the other party. He was healing his injuries, and the other party did not move when he did not attack.
