

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 681

Lin Mo could feel that this guy was fighting him based on his instincts. He was even imitating him subconsciously.

The head-on clash just now could prove this point.

“Pfft!”

After recovering from his injuries, Lin Mo took the initiative to attack again. Spiritual Qi gushed out like a flood, supplementing the War Demon Spear and allowing it to advance at an extreme speed.

The creature on the other side also attacked, raising its spear to block.

Nonetheless, its injuries had not yet healed. This was the advantage of Lin Mo’s God Devouring Body.

The two continued to clash head-on. At this point, Lin Mo finally figured out the other party’s strength and concluded.

“It doesn’t have any consciousness, but it can fight with people and even imitate them. What kind of living creature is it...?”

Lin Mo squinted his eyes. He did not know what to do in this situation.

He still did not know who was behind the scenes. The enemy at present was evenly matched with him. If he continued to fight with his physical body, it would only make him enter a prolonged battle. He was afraid that there would be changes...

“Since it’s a living being without consciousness, I’ll quickly finish it off...”

Lin Mo muttered as he raised his spear and attacked again. Without a doubt, that creature had only one attack method.

The way it defended was the same as Lin Mo's—it was imitating him.

“Nine Qilin Steps.”

Lin Mo shouted. When the spear and the battle spear collided, he released his grip, and the War Demon Spear flew out.

At the same time, a purple light flickered under his feet, and Qilin patterns suddenly condensed.

Lin Mo took nine steps in the void and arrived in front of the living being. He took the last step.

Unsurprisingly, this creature was imitating Lin Mo and attacked with its legs.

Even so, the other party did not seem to know any martial arts. It did not even know how to use runes. It was just using its physical body to block the attack.

“Bang!”

When the kick landed, the Qilin patterns exploded. One of the creature's legs was blasted into a bloody mess.

That said, a horrifying scene happened.

The damage from the explosion of the Qilin pattern did not appear as it was absorbed by the black light on the living being's body.

All the runes Lin Mo used to attack were completely devoured at this moment.

At the same time, the other party's spear thrust forward, causing Lin Mo a lot of trouble.

“What's this?”

Lin Mo was shocked. The scene in front of him had overturned everything he knew. What was that black light? It was so powerful.

This defensive power was even more abnormal than his God Devouring Body. It devoured all the exploded runes.

One had to know that this was the Nine Qilin Steps, one of the supreme magical powers of the ancient divine Qilin.

There were only a handful of people at the same level as Lin Mo who could resist it. Even if they could resist it, they would not be like this, only suffering some superficial injuries...

“I feel that I can’t stay here for long...”

Lin Mo’s mind was racing. He had wanted to kill this creature and find out who was behind it.

Now, he was a little worried that he would implicate Qilin in the system space.

“Pfft!”

The creature attacked again. Lin Mo summoned his War Demon Spear and continued to face the enemy.

This time, he did not use any martial arts. He continued to fight with his body. He did not take the initiative to attack either. They were in a stalemate.

Nevertheless, what happened next once again overturned Lin Mo’s understanding...

The mask on the creature’s face cracked and fell off.

What made it hard for him to calm down was that the living being he had been fighting with was himself.

The spear in its hand turned into the War Demon Spear, and even its clothes were the same.

An accident happened again. Black Qilin patterns appeared under the other party’s feet, and it took nine steps.

Lin Mo’s pupils contracted as he took nine steps forward. This was the Nine Qilin Steps. When did his opponent learn it...?

“Boom!” innread.com

Caught off guard, it was Lin Mo’s turn to be attacked. In a moment of desperation, he activated the Abyssal Devouring.

He circulated the Soul Devouring Art and used his God Devouring Body to resist the enemy’s attacks.

A black hole was formed as Lin Mo absorbed the spiritual Qi from all directions. The devouring range of the abyss expanded and enveloped the other party.

“Hmph, I don’t care where you learned it from. I’ll break you up today. I don’t believe you can’t die.”

Lin Mo bellowed and activated the spiritual Qi in his body. He activated the two killer moves, the Nine Qilin Steps and the Mismatched Yin Yang.

At the same time, he was also preparing the Kun Peng symbols. The Hanging Wings on his back unfurled, and a golden light appeared.

“Golden Roc Divine Light.”

The wings were golden when unfurled, and countless rays of golden light bloomed. This was the extreme Yang and unyielding law of the Kun Peng’s technique.

The power of extreme Yang burst forth, forming a divine light. This was a move that Lin Mo had recently comprehended.

Lin Mo had used all his strength. This was the most powerful attack he could unleash.

After he used it, he held the War Demon Spear and prepared to make the final attack.

...

“Boom!”

Under the terrifying attack, the creature was sent flying. Its physical body was crushed by the Golden Roc Divine Light, but Lin Mo did not feel any soul fluctuations.

There was a black pearl spinning around the creature’s heart.

Lin Mo saw the black light from before on the pearl. It was absorbing the attacks from the Mismatched Yin Yang and the Golden Roc Divine Light.

He rushed forward and stabbed his spear down. He did not care. This was his strongest killing move. He could not allow his opponent to absorb it and imitate it...

“Creak!”

A crisp sound rang out. Lin Mo had succeeded. The War Demon Spear had hit the black pearl, and it instantly split into two.

At the same time, the feeling that had been causing his heart to palpitate disappeared.

The moment the pearl broke, everything seemed to return to its original state.

Apart from the great battle, the entire mountain range was destroyed within 500 kilometers. There were no living beings left...

“Perhaps all the secrets lie in you...”

...

Lin Mo looked at the black pearl that was floating in front of him.

Although it had been broken into two pieces, he still did not dare to be careless. He took out the Qilin egg and put it into his storage bag before putting the pearl into the system space.

The system space had a firm ability. Once it was expanded to the maximum, it should be able to identify anything...

As expected, a message appeared in the system space not long after.

[The Inner Heart Pearl is a world magic tool. It has no origin or form but is born from the heart. Those who are killed by it will have their souls annihilated.]

“A world magic tool? Are you kidding me? How can a world magic tool be so vulnerable?” Lin Mo was shocked.

He knew that the black pearl was not simple, but he did not expect it to be a world magic tool that he had never heard of.

Was it not the same as the Yin Yang Fruit, the most precious supreme treasure in the world...?

[The Inner Demon Pearl has no origin or appearance. It is born from the heart, comes from the World Tree, and is carried by the Yin Yang Fruit. It is also the fruit's test for the host. You can live in peace after you discard it.]

The system's introduction was very detailed, and it even told Lin Mo that he would encounter the Inner Demon Pearl in his future cultivation.

If he did not want to encounter such a situation again, he could abandon the Yin Yang fruit and cut off the karma.

“Don't even think about it. How can I throw away a treasure that is in my hands?”

Lin Mo shook his head. Not only would he not throw it away, but he would also give the other one to Qilin...

“On the other hand, little girl, you really worry me...”

Lin Mo patted the storage bag at his waist. In order to see what was happening, Qilin had forcefully opened the Eye of Destiny.

This was the most severe backlash, and it was life-threatening.

“It's time to look for Feng Tian and the others. They should have some divine medicines...”

In order to see her fate, the Qilin had suffered a severe backlash, and she couldn't delay any longer.

However, the ancient battlefield was huge. In order to avoid being found by her enemies, she could not reveal her identity.

Hence, after searching for the whereabouts of Feng Tian and the others for half a month, she finally found the way.

During this period, the Qilin's condition became more and more serious. If it wasn't for the fact that she had obtained a few divine herbs from the system, she would have been able to stabilize it.

!!

At least, she was no longer a Qilin egg that could walk freely but not fight.

"The Molin Chamber of Commerce. So, Feng Tian and the others started it, huh? It's quite famous..."

After leaving a small city, Lin Mo headed towards the location that he had found. "I'm making progress, and so are the others. However, I don't know what level they've reached."

Lin Mo really wanted to know why so many people were suppressing their strength and not making any breakthroughs just to enter the ancient battlefield.

Now, what kind of opportunity had they obtained? What kind of land of treasures had appeared here?

And his enemies, Gongsun Wenhao, and the others, what kind of movements were they making?

"However, the condition of Qilin's injuries can not be delayed any longer..."
Lin Mo frowned. According to the system, the Inner Demon Pearl had no origin or form and would continue to pester him.

This made him hesitate as to whether he should give the Divine Fruit of Fate to the Qilin.

It was too dangerous, and the inner demons that would be created were too difficult to deal with. They had the exact same combat strength as him.

"Brother Lin Mo, you seem to be hesitating."

Not far away, the Qilin slowly walked over. Her body was very weak, so she couldn't be as active as before.

“Do you still remember where you were born? After you meet up with Feng Tian and the others, you can go there.” Lin Mo’s heart ached as he looked at the Qilin.

“It’s very far from here, but I can sense it. Also, there’s a medicinal garden that my mother planted inside. There must be more than one immortal medicine in there,” said the Qilin with certainty as it nodded.

Hearing this, Lin Mo’s interest was piqued. The Qilin’s herb garden, especially one reserved for her daughter, had to be extraordinary.

“There’s also the place where my mother meditated in seclusion. If you meditate there, you might be able to obtain a Qilin spell technique.”

The land of treasures left behind by the ancient divine beast Qilin had to have endless opportunities, enough to make any force jealous.

Lin Mo’s eyes lit up. He would not trick the little Qilin into giving him any Qilin spell techniques.

However, that didn’t mean that he wasn’t interested. Naturally, if it were possible, he would want this supreme inheritance.

It would be great if the little Qilin’s mother could pass it on to him.

However, the Qilin’s following words made his heart turn cold. How could the dojo of the divine beast Qilin not have any protection?

With the Qilin around, the place was easy to find. However, that place was hidden in the void and protected by a world-shocking formation, so it was difficult for outsiders to enter.

After all, it had originally been used to protect the little Qilin. Unfortunately, she had already come out...

Lin Mo sighed. He had to make a trip to that place and try his best.

At the same time, Lin Mo thought of another problem.

The ancient battlefield had existed for so many years, and there were countless demonic beasts and living beings of all races contained within it.

“Are there any sages-to-be on this battlefield? Or are there any experts above the sage-to-be, sages, or supreme sages?”

“Of course there are, but they would be in the deepest part of the forbidden areas. You’ll be fine as long as you don’t step in there,” said the Qilin as she nodded and reassured Lin Mo so he wouldn’t worry.

The Hidden Dragon List had formed its own rules that restricted the ancient battlefield.

To be exact, this place had already become a small world. The Hidden Dragon List was the spirit of this small world, and it had set up its own special rules.

The opportunities inside had been left for future generations, so it would not be too difficult.

“How much longer can you last?” Lin Mo asked.

In such a state, the Qilin’s source of power was exhausted, and there was almost no spiritual energy left in its body. It was in urgent need of divine medicine to supplement it.

“If we don’t fight, I can still hold on for another ten days.” Qilin made an estimation but felt that she was not afraid.

She did not know why, but she felt especially at ease when she was by Lin Mo’s side. She believed that this brother of hers would definitely be able to save her from danger.

In fact, this was what Lin Mo had been worrying about the entire journey.

As long as he saw a place where living beings gathered, he would go to the auction and use the return-profit godly medicine to treat the Qilin.

“Let’s go. There’s enough time. Let’s go find Feng Tian and the others.”

The Qilin turned into a little white beast and leaped into Lin Mo’s arms. She couldn’t fly now, so all she could do was let Lin Mo carry her.

The ancient battlefield was a place where all living beings fought for supremacy, and many cities of various sizes were built during this period of time.

Lin City had been built and promoted by Zhao Tianyu's many good friends through his own connections.

Lin City had currently already become one of the most important cities on that ancient battlefield.

Countless experts swarmed over, exchanging treasures and forming their own small groups.

Lin Mo was shocked by the grand occasion.

This was because the weakest one he saw was a stage five Almighty, which was the same realm as him.

Nowadays, most of them were at the seventh level of power, and it was common to see them at the eighth level of power.

In Lin City, there were all kinds of living beings. The streets were filled with shops that sold the treasures they had obtained.

There were also people trading their own information, such as where there were treasure lands, where there were special demonic beasts, and so on.

Seeing such a thriving scene, Lin Mo could not help but admire Zhao Tianyu's methods.

With his management, the city would become more and more prosperous. As long as he was strong enough to protect the city, Lin City would be able to continue to exist...

The Molin Chamber of Commerce, huh? Perhaps, this Chamber of Commerce could continue to be established on the outside ...

...

Lin Mo was deep in thought. Zhao Tianyu had talent in this area and had already been able to rope in so many people.

If he could just make an offer that he could not refuse, he might be able to make Zhao Tianyu stay...

“They’re really big. Those two guys really have some skills,” sighed the Qilin. She had transformed into her human form. Her face was still pale, but she couldn’t help but come out at the sight of such a lively scene.

At a glance, there were living beings everywhere. There were even guards on the city walls outside to prevent any beast tide attacks.

“It’s said that there are many similar cities. The people of those major forces have built their own cities and gathered a large number of subordinates. Some people even joined forces and operated together within the city...”

Lin Mo muttered. The competition was still very intense. If he wanted to attract people, he would have to put in a lot of money.

“Lin City is very prosperous. If it continues to develop like this, it will probably catch up to the other nine ancient cities.”

Walking along the road, the Qilin showed a rare smile on her face as she looked at the shops.

Lin Mo also heard the comments from the many people around and sighed at the sight of the prosperity of Lin City.

“I’m afraid it’ll be a little difficult. Although Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian are very strong, they’re not the top powerhouses.”

“A while ago, a Rank 7 Heaven Class Divine Fruit was sold, and it was almost stolen during the auction. If it wasn’t for Mu Yuzhu, I’m afraid the reputation of the Molin Chamber of Commerce would have been destroyed.”

...

Some people shook their heads, not feeling optimistic about Lin City and the Molin Chamber of Commerce.

The people who had robbed the place at that time had been frightened by Mu Yuzhu’s name and didn’t dare to attempt any more robberies.

But even so, the Molin Chamber of Commerce’s reputation had been disgraced.

After all, there was a lack of powerhouses in charge here, so it would be difficult for them to develop.

“Someone dared to attack this place?” Lin Mo couldn’t help but be furious. Who was the person who had attempted the attack?

“Brother, why are you so angry? Don’t tell me you just joined the Molin Chamber of Commerce? It’s a pity. This Chamber of Commerce has been doing well, but it doesn’t have the protection of any top experts...” said someone said in a low voice.

“What kind of strength do they have? How dare they make a move?” Lin Mo asked.

“Ten masters on the Hidden Dragon List, and their actual ranking could possibly be in the top hundred. What do you think of this strength, brother?”

Lin Mo frowned. Ten masters? That was a huge number.

Who could have recruited so many subordinates? Could it be the young Pavilion master of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion, Xiao Yun?

However, the result surprised Lin Mo.

Xiao Yun had occupied an ancient city by himself, with many experts under him to help him collect cultivation resources.

This matter had nothing to do with him. It was someone else who had acted. It had been a subordinate of another top-notch expert.

“The Molin Chamber of Commerce will be holding an auction in three days. The finale will be the Dragon Blood Grass, which is a thousand years old.

“There will also be divine powers and spell techniques. They’re not of low grade. They can’t be missed out on this time.”

Not far away, someone could be heard shouting as they promoted the Molin Chamber of Commerce.

“Wow, Dragon Blood Grass... I want it,” said the Qilin as she quickly came over to request for Lin Mo to get it.

After all, this Chamber of Commerce belonged to them. Even the name belonged to them.

“There’s no rush. Just endure for three more days. I will make sure that your injuries are completely healed during this auction,” comforted Lin Mo.

He did not go directly to look for Zhao Tianyu. Instead, he hid in the shadows with the Qilin.

Time flew by, and eventually, the third day arrived.

On this day, Lin City was very lively. There were many people who had come. In the center, there was a magnificent palace.

A flag had been stuck at the highest point, and a pure white Qilin had been drawn on it. It looked noble and sacred.

Zhao Tianyu had used the picture of the divine beast Qilin as a flag, which seemed auspicious.

“It’s a really nice drawing,” laughed the Qilin. She was very satisfied with this flag.

“Let’s go. I’ll be in charge of this auction.”

Lin Mo smiled. Although the Molin Chamber of Commerce was his, it had not been made public yet. Therefore, the treasures auctioned here would not be returned to him.

However, things would be different after today. As long as he was still here, he would be able to get a return on all the treasures that were being auctioned here.

Moreover, there were many treasures to be auctioned this time, so the Qilin’s injuries would be healed immediately.

“Everyone, welcome to this auction. I am the manager of the Molin Chamber of Commerce, Zhao Tianyu.”

In the palace, the auction had just been prepared, and someone had arranged seats for Lin Mo and the Qilin.

The walls of the palace had been engraved with patterns to protect the palace.

At the same time, its purpose was also to prevent enemies from attacking from the inside.

However, this level was not very useful against any top geniuses. It would be broken instantly.

“Wait a moment.”

Suddenly, behind the crowd, a large door was opened, and a group of people grandly walked in.

There were three people in the lead, and they were very strong. They were on the same level as Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian. innread.com

The young man at the very front stepped forward with his hands behind his back, his eyes emitting a cold light.

Lin Mo took a look and recognized that it was a sub-dragon species. It belonged to the Earth Dragon lineage and was very talented. It was a Level 9 Almighty.

There was a trace of the true dragon’s bloodline in his body, and his combat power would be very strong after it was stimulated.

“Trouble is coming. How will Zhao Tianyu deal with it?”

Lin Mo was not in a hurry to step forth because he could feel the aura of many experts. Besides, Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian should have made preparations.

“Zhao Tianyu, Lord Gongsun Wenhao admires your talent and wants to take over your Chamber of Commerce. Don’t fail to appreciate it.”

That person was very arrogant. As he looked at Zhao Tianyu, the group of experts behind him also took out their magical artifacts.

The threat was obvious, and the pressure on Zhao Tianyu's end increased sharply.

"I've said it before, the Molin Chamber of Commerce already has an owner and those two will come here to take over this place in a while."

Zhao Tianyu sighed. It was too difficult for him to defend the place without a top-tier expert.

"It's Gongsun Wenhao, he's an annoying fellow," whispered the Qilin.

She had been chased by this person for the longest time, so he was the one she felt the most hostility towards.

"They have already started. Mao Zhu¹ is here too, but she can't come..."

Lin Mo said in a deep voice. The other party was prepared. Five experts had come, but two of them had not appeared.

Feng Tian and Mao Zhu were both tied down, and only Zhao Tianyu could step forward at the front desk.

"Are you going to make a move?" The Qilin asked.

"You eat this first."

Lin Mo took out a divine fruit, which was the last thing he had in stock.

Although it wouldn't allow the Qilin to recover her fighting strength, she would have no problem protecting herself for a short period of time.

Moreover, if she didn't make a move, no one would attack her blindly.

...

"Those of you with no business here, hurry up and leave. Don't make any mistakes."

When Lin Mo stood up, he immediately attracted the attention of the crowd. The young man shouted coldly and threatened Lin Mo.

“Hehe, this Molin Chamber of Chamber belongs to me. How can you say I have no business here?” Lin Mo laughed.

“A mighty Level 5 and a Level 8. Are you still living in your own world without knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth?” The young man said coldly. With a wave of his hand, four Level 8 Almighty masters walked out.

“Lin Mo...”

On the stage, Zhao Tianyu was taken aback. When he saw Lin Mo and Qilin appear, his anxious heart finally settled down.

Now that these two had come, there was no need for him to do anything.

“Do you have a death wish...?” said Lin Mo indifferently. He looked at the four people walking over with disdain.

“Break his limbs and throw him out.”

After the young man finished speaking, he stopped looking at Lin Mo and turned to look at Zhao Tianyu instead.

“Bang!”

...

However, just as he turned his head, he heard a loud noise and the four people he sent immediately fell to the ground.

With the War Demon Spear in Lin Mo’s hand, its terrifying power made them lose their fighting strength.

At the same time, he instantly appeared in front of the young man and suppressed him. He raised his hand and gave him a few big slaps.

Everyone was shocked as they looked at the scene in front of them.

“You’re very bold,” said the young man angrily. At the same time, he was also shocked. This spear was so terrifying that he could not even put up any resistance...

“Slap!”

What he received in response was a slap that left a bright red mark. Lin Mo attacked again and suppressed the other two.

Lin Mo smacked the three people's faces ruthlessly. He hadn't even smacked them more than a few times, but their teeth flew out along with foamy blood, and their cheeks were red and swollen.

"I've always been bold. You guys, however, you're not strong enough, yet you still dare to be so arrogant."

The three of them tried to resist, but Lin Mo suppressed them with the War Demon Spear again until they were severely injured.

This scene stunned everyone, including Zhao Tianyu who was on the stage.

He had thought that Lin Mo would have to go through a huge battle before he could finish off all three people in front of him.

Who would have thought that such overwhelming power would make him doubt if what Lin Mo had said about the 70% combat power was true...

"B*stard, who are you? We are the battle generals under Lord Gongsun Wenhao."

The three of them spat out a mouthful of blood as they spoke angrily.

They wanted to fight back, but their bones had been broken by the War Demon Spear. They had no way to fight back.

"I'm going to kill you. How dare you insult me like this?"

"D*mn it, what kind of skill do you need just to rely on the power of a magic weapon?"

The three of them cursed loudly, no longer as calm as before. Their words were full of vulgarities, only just stopping short of cursing Lin Mo's ancestors.

Unfortunately, the only response they got was another slap from Lin Mo.

Lin Mo only stopped when all three of their faces had been badly beaten.

"All three of you are idiots. Gongsun Wenhao and I are old friends, yet you don't know that."

He smiled as he stood with the Qilin and looked at the others.

The experts who had been brought here to cause trouble also had bitter expressions on their faces. The three strongest people had been crushed, so how could they be a match for him?

"Bang!"

Lin Mo ruthlessly kicked the three of them off the stage and handed them over to Zhao Tianyu.

"Since there are so many people here, I have something to announce."

As for the others, he didn't make things difficult for them. All he did was take all of their treasures and spiritual stones before letting them leave.

"I'm Lin Mo, and this is Qilin, the true owners of the Mo Lin Chamber of Commerce. If you come here to look for trouble in the future, then you should be prepared to leave your life behind."

As soon as he said that, an instant recollection came to some people who were feeling confused.

A few of them took out a scroll, on which a wanted order for Lin Mo and Qilin had been written.

Everyone present was shocked and couldn't believe it.

The first of the Hidden Dragon List, the daughter of the ancient divine beast Qilin, the only divine beast left in the world, and the auspicious White Qilin.

The other one was just as terrifying, ranked seventh on the Hidden Dragon List, one of the strongest body types of the human race, the God Devourer Body.

It was an invincible physique that had not appeared in countless years.

There was no doubt about his combat power. However, in the beginning, people had seen that Lin Mo's level was too weak, so they had not even thought that he was Lin Mo even though he looked familiar.

By the looks of it, the God Devourer Body was indeed slow to cultivate, but its combat strength was definitely at the peak of the same rank.

“Brother Lin, how should we deal with these three?”

On the stage, Zhao Tianyu ruthlessly kicked the three of them a few times to vent his anger.

The others didn't have high enough status, so it didn't matter whether they were released or not.

However, they couldn't do the same with these three people. They were Gongsun Wenhao's generals. Letting them go would be equivalent to letting a tiger return to the mountain.

Lin Mo smiled and walked backstage. A terrifying energy fluctuation began to spread.

A moment later, Lin Mo walked out, bringing two young men with him.

Feng Tian and Mao Zhu followed behind. They were both shocked as they looked at Lin Mo.

Even with the help of the War Demon Spear, it was still shocking to them that he was able to suppress the two of them so easily.

“Detain them. Let Gongsun Wenhao bring the divine medicine to personally redeem them.”

He was not in the mood to deal with this matter. Qilin's injury was still waiting to be dealt with, which was the most important thing.

“Ladies and gentlemen, I will be the host of the next auction.”

After calming the crowd down, Lin Mo took the auction hammer from Zhao Tianyu’s hands.

It had to be said that Zhao Tianyu had made very good arrangements. He had hired a group of people with low talent and strength to protect them and asked them to provide assistance.

A maidservant walked forward, bearing a silver plate that was covered with a red cloth.

It was exactly the same as a regular auction house. However, if this maidservant were in the outside world, she could also become a genius disciple of a small force...

“The first item is Cloud-Patterned Gold, which can be used to forge heaven-level magic weapons. It’s very rare.

“The starting price is one million upper spiritual stones.”

Although there had been some diversions, the appearance of Lin Mo and Qilin had livened up the atmosphere.

After all, the two of them were quite famous.

“One million and five hundred thousand.”

“One million seven hundred thousand.”

The Cloud-Patterned Gold was considered a high-quality material for forging magic weapons, so many people were fighting for it.

Those who were gifted in blacksmithing, in particular, started bidding.

In the end, this piece of Cloud-Patterned Gold was sold for a high price of 3.2 million, which was quite a fortune.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the forging material, the Cloud-Patterned Gold.]

[Successfully triggered 3000-fold auction interest rebate]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the forging material, Heavenly Profound Dao Copper]

Lin Mo was not interested in these materials at all. After all, he did not forge weapons, unless it was an immortal-grade material.

The maidservant walked off the stage with the silver plate, and the next maidservant came up.

A faint fragrance after through the air.

Lin Mo removed the red cloth to reveal a piece of blood-red ginseng quietly lying there. Even the leaves on it were red.

“Blood Yang Ginseng is a great supplement for pure yang. It can purify one’s body and remove impurities. Body cultivators shouldn’t miss this opportunity.”

...

Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction when he saw the ginseng.

The Qilin needed this kind of spirit medicine now. After the rebate, he could send the treasures to the Qilin.

“Level 9 Earth-class Blood Yang Ginseng, starting price, five million upper spiritual stones.”

Although the Blood Yang Ginseng wasn’t a rare item, it wasn’t a bad item. Moreover, everyone present was a genius.

They would more or less involve forging their bodies to make their physical bodies stronger.

Therefore, this caused many people to fight for this Blood Yang Ginseng. The starting price of five million was raised to eight million in just three minutes.

“Eight million going once. Is there anyone else willing to bid?”

Lin Mo struck the auction hammer once. Seeing that no one was bidding, he struck the hammer again.

“Eight million going twice...”

“I bid 8.5 million.”

At this moment, a young man stood up and raised the bid by another fifty thousand.

...

Hearing this, a brawny man sitting in front was very unhappy. He turned around and glared at the young man.

“No fighting is allowed in the auction.”

Lin Mo gave them a timely reminder since all these geniuses were unruly so that the Qilin’s treatment would not be delayed.

“Hmph,” snorted the brawny man coldly and sat back down.

Ultimately, that man did not bid again.

“8.5 million thrice, sold.”

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 9 Earth-class Spirit Herb, Blood Yang Ginseng.]

[Successfully triggered 5000-fold auction interest rebate]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 2 Heaven-grade Divine Medicine, Pure Yang Blood Ginseng.]

[Level 2 Heaven-grade, Pure Yang Blood Ginseng. Its medicinal effect is similar to the Blood Yang Ginseng, but it is more than ten times stronger.]

Lin Mo could not wait to let the Qilin eat it.

As he beckoned for the next maid to come up, he took out a scroll and a burning flame.

“Heaven-grade Level 9 Fire Attribute skill, plus an Immortal Grade treasure, the Scarlet Heaven Fire Seed, now for auction...”

He took out the treasure that he had previously snatched from Zhao Tianyu and put it up for auction, causing a stir in the auction house.

“How is this possible? It’s a Level 9 Heaven-grade cultivation skill!”

“Forget about the cultivation technique, it’s even a Heaven-grade one, but what the hell is that Immortal-grade treasure?”

“Are you kidding me?”

Everyone was dumbfounded. How could they possibly afford a treasure of this level?

If anyone were to really get it, they would probably become a public enemy and be hunted down by people all over the world.

They did not have the terrifying combat power of the Qilin and Lin Mo.

Moreover, even Lin Mo and Qilin had to keep their tails between their legs when facing experts above the sage-to-be level.

Therefore, even if Lin Mo were to auction it, not many people would want it.

“Fellow Daoist Lin Mo, are you really going to auction this treasure?”

At the very front, a young man stood up. His eyes were red and he was drooling.

“That’s right. If you can pay the price, you can take it away. Moreover, I’ll also ensure your safety in Lin City.”

Lin Mo solemnly made that vow. As for whether he could buy it or not, that would depend on his ability.

“Tell me the price. I’ll thank you on behalf of my master,” said the young man.

At the same time, there were a few other powerful warriors that were not far away. They were all extraordinary, and they were all ranked in the Hidden Dragon List.

In the past, they had thought highly of themselves and felt that they could rule the world in this ancient battlefield.

In the end, they had been defeated and become someone else's subordinate...

"The starting price is 100 million upper spiritual stones..."

Lin Mo chuckled. A Level 9 Heaven-class skill would usually never be sold at this price, not to mention that there was an Immortal-grade treasure.

"I'll pay two hundred million."

"I'll bid three hundred million..."

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire auction house was filled with the sounds of bidding. Two hundred million upper spiritual stones, that was the price of a tier-four divine medicine.

It was truly a bargain to be able to buy immortal treasures.

It was a pity that the price reached one billion after only a few random bids. This scene shocked everyone.

There were three people bidding, two of them were from the Hidden Dragon List, and they had extraordinary combat strength.

However, some time ago there had been rumors that they had been defeated and taken in as subordinates to work for that supreme expert until they left the ancient battlefield.

However, the third person left everyone scratching their heads.

That person's cultivation level couldn't be seen clearly, and he had a black robe wrapped around him. No matter how much the other two raised the price, he would add another 100 million.

There was not even a trace of hesitation, as if money was no object at all.

Lin Mo looked over and saw that the person was one of Zhao Tianyu's clansmen. He was the one who had arranged it.

"Cough, cough, is there anyone else who wants to bid?"

The current bid was from Zhao Tianyu's clansman. At 1.7 billion, it was too high.

The forces behind them could afford it, and yet, it also didn't mean that they could afford it too.

Even if they found many spirit mines on the ancient battlefield, it would still be far from enough.

Unless it was a Supreme grade ore vein, this kind of ore vein was comparable to an immortal treasure and was extremely difficult to find.

"Lord Lin Mo, we can offer a higher price. If you allow me to write you an IOU, I swear that I will pay you back," said the young man who had just stood up.

Immortal treasures were hard to find, especially Heaven-class Level 9 cultivation techniques.

This was even more precious, and he was resolved to get it no matter what.

In fact, they had even thought of snatching it away. If Zhao Tianyu had still been hosting the auction, they might really have snatched it away.

Unfortunately, the owners of the Molin Chamber of Commerce were Lin Mo and Qilin.

Lin Mo alone was enough to compete with the adults behind them, not to mention Qilin.

"I'm sorry, but I don't accept IOUs. If the two of you can't offer a higher price, then I can only apologize..." said Lin Mo as he shook his head.

This item belonged to Zhao Tianyu, so he would definitely not let it be auctioned off to these guys.

"1.7 billion going once..."

He struck the auction hammer three times in succession before the deal was sealed. Only then did Zhao Tianyu, who was backstage, let out a sigh of relief.

He had not lost his family's inherited cultivation technique and treasures. At least, he had not become a sinner.

Lin Mo was no longer in the mood to host the auction as he had to settle the matter of healing the Qilin.

Since Mao Zhu was there, he believed that no one would dare to cause any trouble.

"Strange, where's the system's rebate treasure?" After going backstage, Lin Mo returned the Sacred Fire Mantra and the Scarlet Heaven Fire Seed to Zhao Tianyu.

However, the system still didn't give him the rebate treasure, which made him anxious.

No matter what, it was still an immortal treasure. It would be a pity if he didn't receive a return.

"Is it because no money was paid..."

Sighing silently, Lin Mo looked at the happy Zhao Tianyu and said, "Well, the 1.7 billion upper spiritual stones, do you actually have it?"

Hearing this, Zhao Tianyu was shocked. He looked at Lin Mo and sighed, "I don't have that many spiritual stones on me."

He was not surprised by this. Lin Mo was an itinerant cultivator and had probably never seen such a large number of spiritual stones.

It was understandable for him to have asked for it, so Zhao Tianyu said, "I'll write you an IOU. You can collect it from my house after you leave the ancient battlefield."

"I can swear that my clansmen will not make things difficult for you."

His words still carried a lot of weight in the family. After all, the family had even given him the only immortal treasure.

They were treating him as the next inheritor.

Even the current clan leader had to take his words into consideration.

“Alright, write me an IOU then. If you work for me, I’ll reduce the amount as I see fit.”

Lin Mo nodded. In the face of these immortal treasures, there was no need for him to stand on ceremony.

Finally, when he took the IOU from Zhao Tianyu’s hand, the system’s voice finally came.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 9 Heaven-class Cultivation Method, “The Sacred Flame Technique”.]

[Since this auction has incurred a huge loss, the system will compensate you and obtain 100000 times the auction interest.]

...

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Celestial-grade Cultivation Technique, “Nine Phoenix Fire Technique”]

Lin Mo was extremely excited. A fiery red book appeared in the system space. It was very thick and was surrounded by flames.

The flames gradually took form and finally turned into an actual phoenix. It carried the book as it flew into the system space.

“Could this be a cultivation technique that was born out of the true phoenix’s sorcery?”

Lin Mo was shocked. The system’s return-interest treasures were usually more or less related to the treasures being auctioned.

If that was the case, then the Sacred Flame Technique of Zhao Tianyu’s family was probably related to the legendary true phoenix.

“Unfortunately, I can’t cultivate it...”

He sighed. He could feel how high the quality of the Nine Phoenix Fire Technique was.

Unfortunately, he could only cultivate the God Slayer Technique. Only then could he control the God Slayer Body and prevent it from devouring his life force.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the immortal treasure, the Scarlet Heaven Fire Seed.]

...

[The system is compensating for the heavy losses incurred during the auction, triggering a return-interest rate of 100000 times.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining an immortal-grade treasure, Nirvana Phoenix Fire.]

A ball of crimson flames burned fiercely, taking up a large area of the system space.

If it weren't for the fact that the space had already expanded to its maximum, it probably wouldn't be able to contain this ball of flame.

"It seems like there's no such thing as the first to ninth level in this immortal grade treasure..."

Although it was still divided into strong and weak, there was no actual level. They were just collectively called immortal...

He carefully read the system space's introduction to this Nirvana Phoenix Fire and could not help but jump in shock.

[Nirvana Phoenix Fire is the flame left behind by the ancient divine beast true phoenixes or true phoenixes after they were reborn. It's capable of burning mountains, boiling seas, and destroying the heavens and earth.]

if you fuse it with your physical body and use it with a cultivation technique related to the phoenix, you can refine it and greatly improve your talent and aptitude.

[If you completely merge with it, you will be reborn and have unparalleled talent.]

After reading the introduction, Lin Mo was both shocked and disappointed. By the looks of it, he could not use it.

It could only be cultivated with a cultivation technique related to the true phoenix.

For example, Zhao Tianyu's Sacred Flame Technique and the Nine Phoenix Fire Technique that he had just obtained.

'However, it's alright. The compensation I promised Song Lianxue can be realized.'

He had never been stingy with his friends, and if it weren't for Song Lianxue's death exemption talisman that day, he would probably already be dead.

Not to mention the two treasures, the Yin Yang Fruit and the Fruit of Fate.

Moreover, Song Lianxue had taken good care of the Qilin when she lost her ability to fight. She had even called her good friend, Mao Zhu, to protect her.

It was enough to do this...

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 9 Earth-grade Spiritual Herb, Mysterious Jade Grass.

[Successfully triggered 8000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 3 Heaven-grade Divine Medicine, Mysterious Life Spirit Grass.]

Just then, the system beeped again. The auction was in full swing.

Without wasting any more time, he let Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian hold the fort while he went to find the Qilin.

At this moment, the latter was chatting with Song Lianxue, and their laughter echoed in the room.

“Brother Lin Mo, aren’t you the host of the auction?”

Seeing Lin Mo, Qilin and Song Lianxue quickly stood up.

“Don’t move, eat these and quickly cultivate them to heal your injuries.”

Lin Mo took out the auction rebate treasures. The Mysterious Life Spirit Grass and Pure Yang Blood Ginseng were all great tonics.

“Wow, a divine medicine.”

The Qilin wiped the drool from the corner of its mouth and ate the Mysterious Life Spirit Grass in two or three bites.

Then, she took a bite of the Pure Yang Blood Ginseng and swallowed the scarlet liquid that flowed out.

“It’s sweet, but it smells like blood...”

After she finished eating the two divine herbs, there was a lingering aftertaste in her mouth and she concluded that the Mysterious Life Spirit Grass was the more delicious out of the two...

“Hurry up and cultivate it...” Lin Mo laughed, as Qilin’s injuries gradually recovered.

At the very least, her adorable little face had already become rosy and was no longer pale.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the rare Earth-grade Level 9 Spiritual Medicine, Dragon Sparrow Fruit.]

[Successfully triggered 10000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Heaven-tier Level 4 Divine Fruit, Pseudo Dragon Fruit.]

This time, the price was 10000 times higher. The divine fruit was also extraordinary. It was a Pseudo Dragon Fruit that contained a trace of dragon qi.

If it were to be sold to any sub-dragon species, they would be willing to exchange a Level 6 Heaven class Divine Herb for it.

He took a look at the Qilin. The medicinal power in her body had already been cultivated and used to make up for the damage to her origin and soul.

When the Pseudo Dragon Fruit was taken out, the three of them could faintly hear a dragon’s roar, which demonstrated the value of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

“That’s great...”

The Qilin cheered and jumped on the sofa. It ate the fruit in two to three bites without wasting a single bit.

The divine fruit she ate this time was so powerful that she had no choice but to sit cross-legged as she started the cultivating process.

Once Lin Mo felt that Qilin’s aura had grown stronger, he was completely relieved.

“Miss Song, what do you think of the Snow Valley?” He said as he looked at Song Lianxue.

Hearing this, Song Lianxue froze and looked at Lin Mo in confusion.

“It’s neither good nor bad. Although they didn’t give me any special treatment, they still provided me with shelter...”

She still had a sense of belonging to Snow Valley. After all, the Song family had been disciples of the Snow Valley for generations.

However, survival of the fittest was inevitable even for the same force.

What she was worried about now was that when she went back, people would find out that she had lost the Immunity Talisman which would cause the Song family’s status to plummet.

When that time came, she would probably have to die to atone for her sins...

“Then what is the highest level cultivation technique in the Snow Valley?”

Lin Mo questioned her further. Although it was impolite to ask this way, he wanted to compare the Snow Valley's legacy-level cultivation technique with the "Nine Phoenix Fire Technique".

"Quasi-immortal level, the "Great Frost Sealing Scripture". It was created by the first master of Snow Valley and has continued to this day."

Snow Valley had once been a top-notch force, but it was a pity that it was getting weaker by the day. Currently, in Snow Valley, only the current master of Snow Valley and the Dao protectors had learned the "Great Frost Sealing Technique".

Even the Holy Daughters of Snow Valley had only cultivated the simplified version of the ice-sealing technique, which had been practiced by many generations of Snow Valley masters.

"It's a little too sloppy. The gap is a little too big. Even the Holy Daughters of Snow Valley can't comprehend the quasi-immortal level..."

Lin Mo frowned. It was so difficult to cultivate to the quasi-immortal level.

Would Song Lianxue be capable of mastering the "Nine Phoenix Fire Technique"?

"I have an opportunity here. If you succeed, you will be the next master of Snow Valley.

"Of course, if you fail, all I can do would be to save your life. You will have to become an ordinary person for the rest of your life..."

As he spoke, Lin Mo activated the abyss to the Devouring skill in his room.

The God Devouring Body's overbearing power spread out and covered the entire room to prevent people from hearing through the walls.

"Brother Lin, are you serious?" Song Lianxue was shocked and immediately stood up, her face filled with excitement.

Because of her talent, her cultivation had fallen too far behind.

Even though she was now a Level five Almighty like Lin Mo, how could the two of them be compared?

“Look at this.”

Lin Mo took out a fiery-red book. It was the “Nine Phoenix Fire Technique”.

“This is an immortal level cultivation technique, the “Nine Phoenix Fire Technique”. It was created based on the true phoenix’s technique. Although it’s not as good as the true inheritance cultivation technique of the true phoenix, it’s still extraordinary.

...

“I’ll give it to you, but how much you can understand will depend on your luck...”

Lin Mo sighed. If even he couldn’t understand the “Nine Phoenix Fire Technique”, then they should just forget about the “Nirvana Phoenix Fire”. Giving it to her would only harm her life.

“How profound...”

Song Lianxue accepted it but after a glance, she was at a loss...

She found herself immersed in it, unable to extricate herself. She was surrounded by a series of obscure runes.

The blazing flames that had been released startled the Qilin, who had just finished cultivating.

“This is an immortal-grade cultivation technique. It’s not advanced, but it’s still extraordinary...”

The Qilin was intelligent and could see the clues at a glance. It sensed the shadow of the true phoenix’s spell technique.

“Where did you get this...” she said as she looked at Lin Mo.

It couldn’t have been Song Lianxue’s, and with the devouring abyss covering the room, she immediately guessed that it was Lin Mo’s doing.

“Take it, but keep it a secret...”

...

Lin Mo said with a smile and shook his head as he handed a few divine fruits to the Qilin.

“Transformation Grass, Jasper Fruit, and a bunch of Drunken Cloud Fruits. Have you emptied our Chamber of Commerce’s treasure vault?”

The Qilin was pleasantly surprised. Without much care over Lin Mo’s secret any longer, it grabbed a Drunken Cloud Fruit and ate it.

“Get closer to her and share some of your aura with her...”

Lin Mo smiled. With Qilin by her side, Song Lianxue’s chances of understanding the technique would probably increase by 10%...

“Sigh, I’ve already helped as much as I can. Whether you can take the Nirvana Phoenix Fire from my hands will depend on your ability...”

He had already tried his best. If he wanted to become an expert, he couldn’t just rely on the help of others.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 1 Heaven realm Divine Fruit, Telekinesis Fruit.]

[Successfully triggered 10000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Fifth-order Heaven’s Secrets Divine Fruit, Fruit of Enlightenment.]

The system notifications continued. There were many treasures being auctioned off. Whenever it came to any Divine medicines, Lin Mo tossed them all to the Qilin.

Within such a short period of time, she had already eaten more than thirty divine fruits and more than ten divine herbs.

Even those in the top forces would have to dig up an entire medicinal field just to obtain these.

Disciples who were not at the level of Holy Sons and Holy Daughters could not enjoy such treatment.

“Wait, is this the Fruit of Enlightenment?”

Lin Mo was shocked. He had only just handed it over to Qilin, but he quickly snatched it back in the next moment.

“What? You gave it all to me.”

The Qilin looked at Lin Mo with her big, watery eyes. It had already been in her hands, how could he take it back...

“This is the Fruit of Enlightenment. It’ll be a waste if you eat it...”

Sighing, Lin Mo looked at Song Lianxue, who was frowning.

Could this be her chance? It was difficult to comprehend cultivation techniques, but now that she had obtained a Dao-understanding fruit...

“Both you and Mao Zhu are not ungrateful people. You’ll be worth my investment.”

After making his decision, he tossed the Fruit of Enlightenment, passed through the flames, and arrived in front of Song Lianxue.

Dully, the latter took it and took a bite.

In the next moment, her dazed eyes instantly lit up, and the runes around her became much more intense.

“Sister Song, you’re so lucky. Quickly search and see if there’s anything suitable...”

The Qilin happily clapped her hands. With the help of the Fruit of Enlightenment, Song Lianxue’s chances of understanding this technique should be 50%.

“Don’t worry, let’s just wait for her to finish eating the Fruit of Enlightenment.”

Lin Mo was happy for Song Lianxue as well. She had finally turned the page after studying it for so long. It was truly not an easy process.

However, it was obvious that there were no more rebate treasures left.

This was because the auction had already reached the climax, and everything had already been successfully auctioned off.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 4 Heaven-rank Divine Medicine, Dragon's Blood Grass.]

[Successfully triggered 7000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 Heaven-class Divine Medicine, Dragon Soul Grass.

The Dragon Soul Grass wasn't of much help to one's comprehension of fire-based cultivation techniques. Its only function was to repair one's damaged soul and physical body.

It had the same medicinal effect as the Dragon's Blood Grass, but it was stronger.

There was no doubt that this would be suitable for the Qilin. He took it out and let the Qilin eat it so that it could completely heal its injuries.

"None?" The Qilin was a little disappointed.

A 50% chance was still too low for Song Lianxue, and it was probably still too difficult for her to comprehend...

"Go ahead and cultivate. Don't worry."

Urging the Qilin to start cultivating, Lin Mo kept an eye on Song Lianxue to prevent any accidents from happening.

Time passed, and in the blink of an eye, seven days had passed.

Song Lianxue had already eaten half of the Fruit of Enlightenment that was in her hand.

However, she had only read a dozen pages of the "Nine Phoenix Fire Technique". Although she had already reached the rudiments, it was far from enough.

In order to reach the standard of containing the Nirvana Phoenix Fire, the minimum requirement was cultivation.

It didn't require any proficiency in control, but just mastering it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens for Song Lianxue.

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door, and Mao Zhu's voice came from outside.

"Lin Mo, where's Little Xue? How is she? You've kept your door closed for half a month.

Outside the door, Mao Zhu was feeling very anxious. There had been no news for half a month, and she was worried.

Even though Lin Mo had promised that she was fine, she was still worried.

"You may enter."

Lin Mo was helpless. He opened the door slightly to let Mao Zhu in before quickly closing it.

"What is this?"

As soon as she entered, Mao Zhu saw Qilin and Song Lianxue, who were in the middle of cultivating.

Song Lianxue, in particular, was holding a book that was on fire and reading it with great interest.

"What a mystical cultivation technique. It definitely surpasses the Great Frost Sealing Scripture of the Snow Valley. What?" Mao Zhu noticed the clue with a glance.

At the same time, she also noticed Song Lianxue's predicament. She didn't have enough talent and talent, so even with the Fruit of Enlightenment, it was difficult for her to comprehend it.

“I tried my best to make up for her Immunity Talisman, but...”

Lin Mo smiled bitterly. He had tried everything he could, but it seemed like Song Lianxue was going to fail.

“This technique of yours lacks a medium, so she won’t be able to understand it. Give her another chance, and I’ll definitely help her find a treasure that can help her transform her body.”

Mao Zhu begged Lin Mo to give Song Lianxue another chance.

For the sake of her good friend, he was willing to give it a try. She was willing to venture into the forbidden zones known as the deadmire.

Only the treasures there could allow Song Lianxue to be reborn and her life to rise.

“Are you not afraid of death?”

Lin Mo was stunned. The two of them had such a good relationship that they were willing to take risks for each other...

“There’s an elder in Snow Valley who has a very strong opinion of me. Song Lianxue’s words carry little weight and she doesn’t have any status in Snow Valley. The main reason she wants to become stronger is because of me...”

“If I can help her, what’s there to be afraid of?”

Mao Zhu looked at Song Lianxue and smiled gently.

Lin Mo watched this scene with a strange expression on his face. The relationship between the two of them had probably surpassed that of a platonic friendship...

“What are you looking at? Is it because you like her? I’m telling you, she won’t like you back.”

Mao Zhu glared at Lin Mo with a fierce expression on her face as she stood in front of Song Lianxue to protect her friend.

“Cough, cough... It’s nothing.”

Lin Mo coughed and took out an item from the system space.

It was a ball of burning flames. As soon as it appeared, it was revealed to be a true phoenix that had taken form. It rushed toward Song Lianxue uncontrollably.

“A rare immortal treasure...”

...

“What?” It was Mao Zhu’s turn to be stunned. She looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

“This item will allow her to be reborn and is the most suitable for this cultivation technique. Unfortunately...” sighed Lin Mo.

“It’s a pity that her body is weak and can’t withstand this kind of flame...”

Mao Zhu spotted the problem at a glance. Her eyes were filled with unwillingness. It was too difficult for an ordinary person to become a master.

“You can help her and bear half of her pain. At the same time, you can also benefit.”

Lin Mo spoke up as he suggested a dangerous method.

This was what he had thought of in the past ten days. Without a cultivation technique, Song Lianxue wouldn’t be able to withstand the Nirvana Phoenix Fire.

If someone could help her bear it, it would greatly increase the success rate of the fusion.

Of course, if he couldn’t even withstand half of the Nirvana Phoenix Fire’s power, then he would only end up dead.

Not only would Song Lianxue die, but the person who had helped her bear the pain would also die. This ball of Nirvana Phoenix Fire would also completely dissipate.

“You can help her cultivate but it might be at the cost of your life. You’ll live and die together from now on. How about it?”

...

Lin Mo looked at Mao Zhu. The relationship between these two was not ordinary so this method might work.

However, the price was also very heavy. The two friends he had just made would have to leave this world...

"This immortal treasure will also dissipate because of this. Are you really willing to part with it?" Mao Zhu asked.

"I, Lin mo, have always been extremely generous to my friends."

Lin Mo smiled. He had already gotten the answer from Mao Zhu's eyes and was not surprised by her choice.

"Thank you..."

Mao Zhu smiled lightly and began to recite her heart technique. Without much hesitation, she took the Nirvana Phoenix Fire and swallowed it.

"Swish!"

In an instant, the Nirvana Phoenix Fire erupted, and the terrifying flames spewed out. If Lin Mo had not confined it, the whole of Lin City would have been turned into ashes...

Song Lianxue, who had been in the middle of cultivating, came to a sudden realization. She swallowed the Fruit of Enlightenment and hugged Mao Zhu.

As the flames spread, the two figures were covered by the flames, and Mao Zhu's painful groans could be heard from time to time.

"You should also try to comprehend this cultivation technique. It's an immortal-grade cultivation technique after all. You'll be able to use it to re-cultivate..."

Lin Mo reminded Mao Zhu to grab the opportunity since it was a great opportunity.

The excitement of the day did not stop there. In the evening, the Qilin, which had been quiet all this time, suddenly opened its eyes.

An earth-shattering roar shook the whole of Lin City.

Heaven and earth shook, and a Holy Qilin mark appeared in the sky, displaying auspiciousness...

“The Nine Heavens of the Almighty... No wonder it took so long. He’s actually breaking through...”

Lin Mo was extremely envious. He was still stuck at the fifth layer of the Almighty realm and could not find the opportunity to break through...

“Brother Lin Mo, what are they doing... What happened?” The Qilin, who had just woken up, asked curiously when he saw Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue being wrapped in flames.

Upon seeing this, Lin Mo covered Qilin’s eyes and turned her around. He could not lead the child astray...

“It’s nothing. The lilies of my hometown have bloomed...”

Chapter 688 - 688 A Robbery

688 A Robbery

Lin Mo was unable to help as he looked at the two people who were suffering in the fire.

If he successfully managed to cultivate the technique and failed to merge, he would still be able to use the overbearing power of the God Devouring Body to swallow the Nirvana Phoenix Fire.

However, it was no longer possible now. Once these two people could not take it anymore, there would be nothing left...

“I also have to make good use of my time to cultivate...”

!!

Lin Mo frowned. He didn't know what cultivation realm Gongsun Wenhao and the others were at, but they might have already tried to break through to the king tier.

He didn't have much time left. He needed to gather cultivation resources as soon as possible.

In Lin City, Lin Mo patrolled around and collected several auction-worthy treasures for the next auction.

When he returned to the palace of the Molin Chamber of Commerce, Zhao Tianyu came up to greet him.

"How's everything?" Lin Mo said unhurriedly.

"Everything's been properly arranged. As soon as the news of you and Qilin's closed-door training spread, they fled."

Zhao Tianyu was puzzled. "Are you trying to follow them to find out where Gongsun Wenhao's hideout is?"

This would not work. Those top geniuses were all very smart.

He would surely not make it so easy for outsiders to find out where he was.

Even if they needed cultivation resources, they would personally come to get them without allowing anyone to follow them.

"Who said I was looking for Gongsun Wenhao..."

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously and told Zhao Tianyu to manage the Chamber of Commerce well. He then turned into a stream of light and disappeared.

In front of him, there were several figures flying at high speed.

They were none other than the five people who had come to cause trouble but had been suppressed by Lin Mo earlier.

Originally, he had planned to use them to lure Gongsun Wenhao out. Now, however, there was no need.

“I hope you won’t disappoint me...”

Hiding in the dark, Lin Mo followed them all the way until they finally arrived at a city.

“We’ve been flying for three days. It’s a little far...”

Lin Mo frowned. He had followed them all the way and passed by the strongholds of Gongsun Wenhao’s forces.

Along the way, these five people had collected all kinds of treasures and were now in possession of two divine medicines on them.

In addition, there were also 13 Rare Level 9 Earth class Spiritual Herbs, which was quite a fortune. innread. Com

“This should be the ancient city. It’s three times bigger than Lin City...”

Lin Mo sighed to himself. This was an ancient city that had been passed down for countless years and had always been controlled by a few powerful families.

“Hey, those five people seem to be the battle generals under Lord Gongsun Wenhao. Why are they in such a sorry state?”

Someone had recognized these five people as soon as they entered the city and was secretly surprised.

“That’s right. I heard that they went to the Molin Chamber of Commerce to cause trouble. Why did they come back so dejected...?”

Some people who were on the roadside were commenting on the small group that had just entered. They felt that it was strange and wondered how a Chamber of Commerce without a top-notch master could make them suffer.

However, even though they were discussing this matter, they didn’t dare to laugh.

After all, these five people were all masters on the Hidden Dragon List, and they could not be underestimated. Even if they had been defeated before, they were still not people that they could provoke.

Soon, Lin Mo followed the five of them and came to a magnificent palace.

There were many disciples of the Gongsun family here, and it was obvious that this was their base camp.

“I’ve finally come here... I hope there will be something to gain...”

Lin Mo walked up to the entrance with a smile on his face. There was no need for him to hide anything anymore.

“Who are you? You’re not allowed to enter this place.”

“Of course, if you have any precious spiritual medicine, half-divine medicine, or divine medicine, you may make an exchange with us.” Someone had noticed Lin Mo approaching and walked over to stop him.

“Wait, who are you?” Suddenly, someone’s heart began to tremble and he took out a picture scroll.

“God Devouring Lin Mo...”

The disciples of the Gongsun family were shocked. They hated the God Devourer Body to the bone.

The Gongsun family had the highest chance of obtaining the Supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng during the trip to Cloud Mist Island.

Furthermore, the Qilin had also been there at the time. It could be said that if not for Lin Mo, the Gongsun family would have received two Supreme inheritances.

“What are you doing here?” They were shocked, knowing that they were no match for Lin Mo. Someone was trying to activate the formation in the dark to suppress Lin Mo.

“I don’t have enough cultivation resources, so I’m here to commit a robbery,” said Lin Mo with a smile.

“You...” The faces of the people from the Gongsun family turned livid with anger. Their family was the overlord of a state, and they had never been looked down upon like this.

In the distance, many passersby were dumbfounded when they heard Lin Mo’s words.

Who was this person? Had water gotten into his brain? How could this Level 5 Almighty dare to cause trouble here?

Besides, why were the people of the Gongsun family so afraid? Were there no masters in the palace? No, that wasn't right...

"That's Lin Mo, a human with the God Devouring Body. Even Gongsun Wenhao has suffered a loss before. Don't underestimate him."

On a tall building, a white tiger was watching the show with its head held high.

"Hmph, what are you panicking for? Lord Wenhao has six generals here. What can a God Devouring Body with a lower cultivation level do?"

In the palace, a beautiful woman was speaking coldly. She was wearing a low-cut black dress and walked out seductively.

...

Originally, she had been the only master in the palace so she had been a little worried about Lin Mo. After all, he had the God Devouring Body.

However, it was different now. Five great battle generals had just returned, and six masters at the peak of the Almighty realm were not afraid of a God Devouring Body.

Lin Mo did not bother talking to this person because he would have to go to the next one after robbing this place.

"Here, your support is here. Come at me all at the same time. I'm in a hurry."

Lin Mo did not waste any more time and the War Demon Spear burst out at this moment. With a sweep of the spear, the palace door was immediately shattered.

Even the formation that had just been activated, as well as the formation patterns, were all destroyed in that moment.

"Lin Mo, are you plotting against us?"

The five great generals who had just come out were shocked. After seeing Lin Mo, they immediately understood what had happened, and their hearts felt as dead as ashes.

The six of them decided to join forces to attempt a counterattack.

However, Lin Mo's War Demon Spear was a dimension-lowering attack on them, and the six of them were severely injured in an instant.

"Just lie down obediently and I'll spare your lives."

...

As Lin Mo walked into the palace, the rest of the people there wanted to make a move. However, they saw the golden Kun Peng Wings appear on Lin Mo's back.

The feathers fell, and the sharp sword qi exploded, sweeping the area without any suspense.

"Bang!"

The formation protecting the treasury was pierced by the War Demon Spear and destroyed.

Some people felt bitter but they were no match for him at all. They couldn't even stop him at all. He was just too strong...

"You have quite a lot of treasures, so I won't stand on ceremony."

Lin Mo laughed. This was a great harvest. There were seven divine medicines, fifteen half-divine medicines, and more than fifty Level 9 Earth-class spiritual medicines.

For an ordinary person, this number would be enough to cultivate a king.

However, it was far from enough for any masters, especially Lin Mo, who had the God Devouring Body which needed a large number of cultivation resources.

Other than the resources, Lin Mo had also obtained a piece of white bone that was extremely hard.

He tried using the War Demon Spear to test it out and determined that it was actually undamaged. He immediately kept it in the system space.

[Quasi-celestial treasure, Ten Thousand Spirit Bone. It had originally been an ordinary bone banner that gathered the qi of ten thousand spirits. It was worshipped by many, contained the faith of ten thousand spirits, and had already passed the road to immortality.]

[Integrating it into a Heaven-grade magic artifact can transform it into a quasi-immortal artifact.]

After reading the introduction, Lin Mo was amazed that he was even in possession of such a treasure. It was a pity that these people did not recognize it.

Although he could tell that it was a treasure, its true appearance was not known, which would benefit Lin Mo...

“Haha, many thanks.”

Lin Mo laughed and grabbed a disciple of the Gongsun family. “Lead the way. Teng Feng also has some influence in this city, right? Robbing just one family won’t be enough.”

Not long after, Lin Mo flung open the door of another magnificent palace in the city.

He did not even use the War Demon Spear. There was only one master in the palace, and he could not even last more than thirty of Lin Mo’s moves.

!!

The wings that hung down from the sky spread out, and the divine light of the Golden Roc burst forth, severely injuring this person.

“B*stard, who are you?” The man roared. He still didn’t know why he was being attacked.

“Here, he brought me here. You can ask him yourself.” Lin Mo pointed at the young man who was paralyzed as he sat on the ground.

“A disciple of the Gongsun family?” That person was startled. Teng Feng and Gongsun Wenhao could be considered allies, so why would they attack at this time?

“Sir, this man is Lin Mo. Quickly activate the killing formation.”

The young man said as he explained everything with a sad face.

Unfortunately, even though the person understood and activated the killing formation, they could not stop Lin Mo. In the face of the War Demon Spear, the killing formation seemed so weak...

“This killing formation is not too bad. It’s capable of killing a king tier in seconds...” praised Lin Mo.

This formation diagram could be taken away and auctioned. Perhaps he could obtain a powerful killing formation that could kill peak king tiers.

Then, the safety of the Molin Chamber of Commerce would be guaranteed.

“It turns out that this is the God Devouring Body, Lin Mo. He’s very powerful, but his realm is clearly very low...”

Around them, many people saw this situation and started to discuss it.

“I’ve heard that the God Devouring and the Qilin girl work together. If he’s here, does that mean the Qilin is also...”

Lin Mo alone was enough to sweep this place aside. If a Qilin were to come along, wouldn’t that mean the heavens would be overturned...”

Amidst the crowd’s discussion, Lin Mo’s Kun Peng Wings spread open and rays of golden light burst forth.

“Golden Roc Divine Light.”

A divine light bloomed, and the terrifying explosive force destroyed the entire palace, leaving only a few walls protected by formation patterns that were on the verge of collapse.

“Is the treasury here?”

Lin Mo looked into the distance and spotted a secret chamber. The entire palace had been destroyed, but that was the only place that was still resisting.

He walked to the entrance of the secret room as if he had entered a no-man’s land.

“It’s really well sealed. I hope there’s something good here...” said Lin Mo as he rubbed his hands and opened the door of the secret room.

“BOOM!”

The door was forced open, and a faint medicinal fragrance came wafting out. What came into view was a newly planted sacred tree.

“This is... Level 8 Heaven class, Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree...”

Lin Mo was stunned when he saw this sacred tree. A tree of this level usually grew in dangerous places.

Moreover, the fragrance it emitted would definitely attract peerless ferocious beasts to protect it.

The Pseudo Dragon Fruit and the Silver Phoenix Fruit, in particular, could attract a large number of sub-dragons and sub-phoenixes to fight.

This was because this fruit could make their bloodline purer, and they had the hope of evolving into true dragons or true phoenixes in the future ...

He had a Silver Phoenix Fruit tree with him, but it was a pity that the Qilin had eaten the fruit.

It was truly a great opportunity for him to obtain another Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree now...

“Wait, you can’t take it away. It belongs to Lord Teng Feng...”

The disciples of the Teng family wanted to stop him, but they were sent flying with a sweep of the palm of Lin Mo’s hand.

He stored the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree in the system space. He was very satisfied with the harvest from this trip.

“I’ll spare your lives, but remember to pick more divine medicines. I’ll come and take them when the time comes.”

Lin Mo chuckled but did not make another move. He took the other treasures in the treasury and left.

“Fellow Daoist, please wait.”

As he was walking, someone suddenly walked up and stopped him, attracting the attention of countless people.

In the entire city, there was almost no one who could stand up to Lin Mo. Why did this person still dare to stop him?

“What’s the matter?”

“My lord likes to make friends. He might be interested in your performance today,” said the man.

“Your original form is an Earth Dragon, a sub-Dragon species. Could it be that you’ve taken a fancy to this Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree?” Lin Mo pointed it out directly. He knew the reason why the other party had come to negotiate.

However, that was all there was to it. An Earth Dragon with the bloodline of the Dragon race was no match for him, even though his combat strength was strong.

“It’s not that I’m interested, it’s my lord. We come from the Earth Dragon tribe, and my lord’s bloodline has returned to her ancestors, evolving from an Earth Dragon to an ancient Earth Dragon.”

Hearing this, many people were shocked. The Earth Dragon clan was a powerful clan with many experts.

There were more than a handful of holy and powerful men. They had dominated a state in the northern land for countless years, but they were still at the peak.

As for the most outstanding master of this race, his name was Gu You. His bloodline had returned to its ancestor and the dragon blood in his body was dense. He was expected to reproduce the glory of the ancient era...

Gu You's talent was on full display, and his bloodline contained an unparalleled dragon's might. The Earth Dragon tribe had been trying their best to find these Pseudo Dragon Fruit for Gu You all these years.

Unfortunately, he only managed to obtain one in the end, and it still had not matured yet.

Even so, Gu You's talent had still been greatly enhanced, and the dragon might within his body became even more powerful.

Now that Lin Mo had stolen a Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree, the Earth Dragon clan would be willing to pay any price in exchange for it.

...

Of course, for the sake of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, he might even be willing to forgo his dignity and come over to snatch it away...

"I see. Well, the Qilin and I founded the Molin Chamber of Commerce in Lin City. The Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree will be auctioned there. If you're interested, you can come and bid for it."

Lin Mo had announced that all the treasures he had taken here would be auctioned there.

Such straightforwardness made the faces of the people from the Gongsun and Teng families turn pale.

This was no different from rubbing their faces on the ground. This was a death grudge that could not be resolved...

"This..."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, the other party was stunned and hesitated.

"There's no need to say anything else. You can just bring your treasures to the auction. Remember, bring your treasures along. Otherwise, I'm afraid you won't be able to get it..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Mo's figure disappeared.

Not long after, the entire ancient city reverberated with the angry roars of the disciples of the Gongsun family and the Teng family.

Lin Mo was completely unaware of this. He spread his Kun Peng Wings, and with every flap, he flew hundreds of miles away.

...

Since he didn't need to hide his whereabouts, he flew back to Lin City in less than half a day.

Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue were still in seclusion, and the Qilin was protecting them in case anything happened.

When necessary, he cultivated divine medicine, divine pills, to help them extend their lives...

"How was the harvest?" Zhao Tianyu asked as soon as he returned.

Lin Mo had personally taken action, so naturally, he would not return empty-handed.

Unless Teng Feng or Gongsun Wenhao just happened to come out of seclusion and came to take away the spiritual and divine medicines that they had hoarded...

"It was a great harvest. Let's start the auction now. Also, spread the news that the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree, a Level 8 Heaven realm Divine Tree, will be auctioned in ten days."

Lin Mo laughed as he took out a huge pile of spiritual herbs, half-divine herbs, and divine herbs.

The most eye-catching and precious item was the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree.

As soon as it was taken out, a dragon's roar reverberated throughout Lin City, attracting many people's attention.

"This Pseudo Dragon Fruit... Can you sell me one..."

Zhao Tianyu's breathing became heavy. If the person in front of him was not Lin Mo, he would have already taken action to snatch it away. The Pseudo Dragon Fruit was too precious and too important...

Elsewhere, Feng Tian sensed the aura and also rushed over.

Upon seeing the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree, his eyes immediately turned red.

“I would like to buy one as well...”

His body trembled as he couldn't hide his excitement. This was a heaven-sent opportunity.

“There are 11 fruits in total. I can sell you two.”

Lin Mo was not stingy. He asked them to make arrangements for someone to participate in the auction tonight. The finale would be the two Pseudo Dragon Fruits.

!!

“Thank you, Brother Lin...”

Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian were overjoyed, especially Zhao Tianyu. His need for the Pseudo Dragon Fruit was no less than that of the sub-dragon species...

“Why are you so excited? Don't tell me you're also a sub-dragon?” Lin Mo joked.

Hearing this, Zhao Tianyu suppressed his joy and said, “Brother Lin, you might not know this, but the Zhao family has an ancient fire.”

To cultivate this ancient flame was a great test for one's body and soul.

Cultivating the sacred flame mantra allowed one's soul to be inextinguishable in the flames, but it was difficult to preserve one's physical body.

This problem had troubled the Zhao clan for many years.

After several generations of research and the blood and sweat of many alchemy grandmasters, they had finally come up with a pill recipe.

“This is a pill recipe that belongs to my Zhao family. It can allow our bodies to withstand the burning of this immortal-grade flame. The main ingredient is the Pseudo Dragon Fruit...”

Zhao Tianyu’s words were like a savior to Lin Mo and he became just as excited as Zhao Tianyu.

He grabbed Zhao Tianyu’s shoulder as he suppressed the joy in his heart, “You know how to make it, right?”

“The success rate is less than 50%...”

Startled by Lin Mo’s appearance, Zhao Tianyu could only nod dumbly. He had not controlled the Scarlet Heaven Fire Seed yet, so his success rate was very low...

“I’ll let you cultivate these eleven pseudo dragon fruits. You must refine two of them. If there’s a third one, it’s yours.

“What other materials do you need? I’ll provide them all. If you don’t have them, I’ll offer a reward and buy them at a high price.”

Lin Mo had begun to breath heavier as there seemed to be hope for Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue.

The companions that he had made friends with could finally be out of danger. This news was just too good for him...

As for what he had promised the Earth Dragon tribe, it wasn’t important. At most, he would just offend another powerful enemy...

“I’ll start cultivating now...”

Zhao Tianyu nodded. He took the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree, picked a few divine herbs, and left.

As for Lin Mo, he was no longer in the mood to host the auction and left it to Feng Tian.

“Let’s see what Zhao Tianyu is capable of. If you don’t get the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, I’ll give you another opportunity.”

After comforting him, Lin Mo chased after him and found Zhao Tianyu in a secret room.

At this moment, the latter had already started to cultivate the pills. Divine medicines and half-divine medicines were taken out one after another.

In addition, there were hundreds of spiritual herbs, ranging from Level 1 to Level 9 of the Earth class. These were part of Zhao Tianyu’s collection.

“What I’m going to refine is the Burning Flame Divine Pill. It’s highly targeted and has only one medicinal effect. Although it’s a Level 7 Heaven class, it’s relatively easy...”

Zhao Tianyu explained to Lin Mo as he picked up a Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

The cauldron was red from the heat. When the Pseudo Dragon Fruit was placed in the center, and a Crimson Dragon’s shadow emerged from the flames.

The dragon shadow opened its mouth and swallowed a large amount of flames. The red color on its body became more and more intense.

Under Lin Mo’s watchful eyes, the Crimson Dragon’s shadow circled the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, and its energy was continuously purified by the flames.

One by one, the spiritual herbs were added in and devoured by the Crimson Dragon’s shadow.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 9 Earth grade Spirit Herb, the Colorless Fruit.]

[Successfully triggered 5000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 2 Heaven-rank divine medicine and a Tricolored Divine Fruit.]

...

[Congratulations to host for successfully auctioning a Level 1 Heaven-class Inner Core, Forest Boa Inner Core]

[Successfully triggered 8000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 5 Heaven-class Inner Core, the Forest Boa King Inner Core]

The system's notification reverberated in his mind. The auction had already begun, and he had obtained quite a few precious divine medicines.

“Are you alright?”

Lin Mo asked hurriedly when he saw Zhao Tianyu's flames stop due to exhaustion.

Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu's lives were in Zhao Tianyu's hands, so nothing could happen to any of them...

“I've exhausted too much of my energy... I'll be fine after meditating and resting for a while...” innread.com

Zhao Tianyu shook his head and was about to cultivate to replenish his energy. However, Lin Mo handed him the Tricolored Divine Fruit he had just obtained.

“Eat it and continue to cultivate...”

He could tell that Zhao Tianyu had just overused his spirit qi. After all, he was cultivating a Heaven grade Level 7 Divine Pill.

In order to keep Zhao Tianyu in peak condition at all times, he went outside and ordered people to bring him a few soul recovery divine pills.

“I urgently need two Burning Flame Divine Pills, please...”

Although he was very puzzled over Lin Mo's actions, Zhao Tianyu still began to cultivate.

It took him five days to cultivate the two Burning Flame Divine Pills.

...

He failed four times in the process before finally getting two smooth and round divine pills of good quality.

“This is the Burning Flame Divine Pill. When cultivating flames, eat it if you can’t endure it the fire,” said Zhao Tianyu.

“I’m a man of my word. You can stop after you’ve refined one Burning Flame Divine Pill out of the remaining five Pseudo Dragon Fruits.”

With that, Lin Mo turned to leave and kept the two Burning Flame Divine Pills in the system space.

[The Burning Flame Divine Pill is made with the Pseudo Dragon Fruit as the main ingredient. It is supplemented by more than a hundred spiritual herbs and more than a dozen divine herbs. It is at Level 7 Heaven realm.]

[It has only one effect. It can only increase the body’s resistance to the Dao Law of Fire. When refining the divine fire of heaven and earth, taking this pill can ensure that the body is safe and the success rate of refining it will increase greatly.]

If the Sacred Flame Technique of the Zhao family was used to protect the soul, then the Burning Flame Divine Pill was used to protect the body.

To refine the Crimson Heavenly Fire Seed, the two were indispensable.

Lin Mo had given Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu the Level 9 Phoenix Fire Technique, which was even more powerful than the Sacred Flame Technique.

After all, it was a Celestial grade cultivation technique, while the Sacred Flame Technique was only at Heaven class Level 9.

However, the difficulty of comprehending it was also quite shocking. Even with the Fruit of Enlightenment, Song Lianxue would find it difficult to cultivate.

...

With the help of Mao Zhu, she would be able to withstand the damage and comprehend it together.

With the addition of these two Burning Flame Divine Pills, the success rate of fusing the Nirvana Phoenix Fire could be said to be 80%.

“Ah, I’m a really good friend...”

After praising himself, he went to the room where Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue were still cultivating.

The Qilin was still inside protecting them, shielding their auras and preventing anyone from the outside world from spying on them.

“Hey, Brother Lin Mo, you’re back.”

The Qilin, who had been sitting on the sofa in boredom, smiled when she saw Lin Mo.

She pounced into Lin Mo’s arms like a swallow and rubbed her face against his clothes, unwilling to let go.

“Don’t mess around, there’s serious business to be done.”

After comforting the Qilin, Lin Mo placed it on the sofa and walked to the ball of fire.

At this moment, Song Lianxue had almost lost consciousness and only had a weak soul fluctuation.

Now, it was Mao Zhu who was trying to resist the Nirvana Phoenix Fire.

Unfortunately, even though she had not even fused half of the Nirvana Phoenix Fire yet, Mao Zhu was almost at her limit...

Lin Mo sighed and threw out the two Burning Fire Divine Pills, fusing them into Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue’s bodies.

“Thank you...”

A weak voice came from the fire. It was Mao Zhu. She was still alert and knew what Lin Mo had done.

Lin Mo nodded and said, “I’ve tried my best. The rest is up to you...”
