

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 691

In order to avoid any accidents, he also stood guard beside the flames, in case anything happened.

This wait lasted for four days, until Zhao Tianyu sent someone over, saying that he had something to discuss.

“Don’t leave the room.”

After giving this instruction to the Qilin, Lin Mo left the secret chamber and found Zhao Tianyu with the guidance of the maidservant.

!!

“There are three Pseudo Dragon Fruits left.”

As soon as they met, Zhao Tianyu took out the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree where there were still three fruits left on it.

Even without Lin Mo’s urging, he had still failed once and wasted one Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

“It’s alright. Arrange for today’s auction and sell one to Feng Tian.”

Lin Mo nodded and put away the pseudo dragon fruit tree. This kind of magical fruit was very beneficial for the tempering of the body.

This was also why it could become the main material of the Burning Flame Divine Pill.

“No problem. Also, there are many experts in Lin City. There’s a woman who claims to be your friend. She’s been waiting for three days to see you.”

Zhao Tianyu shared the news from the past few days with him.

Lin Mo was a little confused. What kind of friends could he have in the Northern Continent?

After instructing Zhao Tianyu to arrange the auction for that night, Lin Mo went to meet this so-called friend of his.

When he came to the door of a room, he finally understood.

“Su Qing...”

Mu Yuzhu’s maidservant, Su Qing, only had average talent. However, with Mu Yuzhu’s support, no one dared to offend her.

Back then, he was able to cultivate the Zhu Yan Body Refining Art because Su Qing had given him the blood essence of Zhu Yan.

Although it was an exchange, she had indeed helped him a lot back then...

After knocking on the door and getting permission, Lin Mo pushed the door open and entered. There was a woman sitting cross-legged on the sofa. She had just finished her cultivation state.

“It’s been a long time,” Lin Mo waved his hand.

“Lin Mo, I didn’t expect the Molin Chamber of Commerce to be yours...” Su Qing had not expected Lin Mo to come in.

She stood up and enthusiastically poured Lin Mo a cup of tea.

“By the way, are you running out of resources? why are you only at Level 5?” This kind of strength was far behind.

By the time Gongsun Wenhao and the others broke through to the king tier, Lin Mo would probably still only be at the 7th sky level.

Although he could fight king tier, so could Gongsun Wenhao and the others. No matter how amazing Lin Mo was, he would not be able to make up for the gap in their levels...

“The ancient battlefield is rich in resources. How could it not be enough?”

Lin Mo smiled indifferently but did not go into detail about the level. He asked, “Was there something that Miss Mu requires my help with?”

Su Qing would not simply look for him for no reason. Even if she was just passing by and wanted to meet her friends, she would not wait for three days.

Time was precious on the ancient battlefield.

“Miss Mu asked me to give you this. She said you would be interested in it.”

Su Qing handed over a yellow sheepskin scroll. He unfurled it and found that it was a map with an ancient rune on it.

“A map of the ruins?” Lin Mo was shocked. Mu Yuzhu had given him such a precious map?

“You’re right. After more than ten generations of investigation, the Mu family has finally found out the location and background of these ruins.”

Su Qing explained that this was said to be an extremely prosperous sect in ancient times.

It had been called the Wind Spirit Sect. In the war that had swept across the entire continent, the Wind Spirit Sect had been destroyed, and many emperors-to-be had died.

The entire sect’s inheritance was buried, and only a part of it had been found and handed down by future generations.

The Mu family was not the only one who had obtained the map. There were also a few other major sects who had done the same. The disciples of those major sects had already triggered the map and gone to explore the ruins.

Mu Yuzhu was well aware of the dangers of the ruins and wanted to rope in a few helpers. The first person she thought of was Lin Mo.

He was powerful, had no background, and was relatively reliable.

Lin Mo and the auspicious beast the White Qilin were undoubtedly the first choices. In this way, they would also be able to get a trace of the auspicious beast’s auspicious aura.

“How about it? Would you like to explore the ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect? We don’t have to go together. But if there’s any danger, we can look out for each other.

Su Qing poured Lin Mo another cup of tea. He believed that Lin Mo would not miss out on such a huge temptation.

In reality, Lin Mo was indeed tempted. If not for the fact that circumstances were not right, he really wanted to go.

“Don’t leave tonight. Do take part in the auction. The Pseudo Dragon Fruit will be the finale.”

Without giving a definite answer, Lin Mo asked Su Qing to stay for the time being instead.

“Anything is fine. I came here to collect treasures for my lady anyway,” agreed Su Qing immediately.

As for the Wind Spirit Sect ruins, Lin Mo was not in a hurry.

He had to wait for Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue to come out of seclusion first. Only then would he have enough helpers. Otherwise, he would not be able to support them alone...

“Welcome to tonight’s auction. I can tell you in advance that tonight’s grand finale is two Pseudo Dragon Fruits.

“In addition, the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree you’re looking forward to will be auctioned off tomorrow. It’s a Level 8 Heaven class treasure, and it’s the only one.”

With just these two sentences, the entire place exploded, and the atmosphere reached its peak.

Seeing this, Lin Mo knocked the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction.

“Next, we’ll be auctioning the first treasure of the night.”

...

The maidservant behind him walked forward and lifted the red cloth. On the silver plate, a round bead was revealed.

The moment it appeared, a fiendish aura filled the air.

Many people couldn't stand the impact of this fiendish qi. Only a few people were able to stare at the bead on the silver plate with red eyes. innread.com

"The first treasure is the Forest Boa King Inner Core. It's a Level 5 Heaven-class treasure and has the effect of promoting blood circulation and removing blood stasis, as well as reconstructing bones.

"For those who need to cultivate their bodies, this is a rare treasure. Don't miss it."

For the first treasure, Lin Mo was offering up a huge weapon.

It had been the system's return from the previous auction. His body was strong, so he didn't need it.

The Qilin didn't need it, so he had taken it out to be auctioned. If Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian wanted it, he would arrange for his clan to bid for it.

After all, this was a rebate treasure that the system had given to him, and he would not receive a rebate for the second time.

Even if the two of them didn't pay, he wouldn't say anything.

"A Forest Boa King's Inner Core... Is this a special gift for Miss Mu?"

...

In a private room in front of them, Su Qing sat alone as she watched Lin Mo introduce the Forest Boa King's Inner Core.

A treasure of this level could easily be auctioned off as a treasure for the finale.

No one had expected Lin Mo to start off with such a great treasure, causing countless people to fight over it...

Lin Mo did not even need to state the price as the people below had already started bidding.

A Level 5 Heaven-class Inner Core was even rarer, and its value was probably more than three billion upper spiritual stones.

No one would bring so many spiritual stones out. After all, they took up too much space, and it was a burden to bring too many spatial magical artifacts.

Such trades were usually made by bartering.

The highest bidder was Feng Tian's family. They were helping Feng Tian bid for a Level 5 Heaven-class Divine Pill.

As soon as the Diving Pill came out, the entire place fell silent for a moment. In the private rooms in the front row, more than a dozen people stayed silent as they contemplated.

Although the Forest Boa King's Inner Core was good, the divine pill wasn't cheap either, so they had to consider it carefully.

"One level 5 Heaven-class Divine Pill, going once."

Lin Mo gave a timely tap with the auction hammer to remind everyone to think quickly.

"I'll offer a Level 4 Heaven-class Divine Pill and a Level 5 Heaven-class Divine Pill." Someone from

He increased the price by one Heaven-class Level 4 Divine Pill to surpass the people Feng Tian had arranged to bid on his behalf.

However, just as the person thought that victory was in his grasp, Su Qing, who had been silent all this while, spoke up.

She had never even considered giving up the Forest Boa King Inner Core.

"Two Heaven-class Level 5 Divine Pills."

!!

Such a price had already surpassed the value of the Forest Boa King Inner Core. The people present were all very smart, and would not blindly bid.

“Two Heaven-class Level 5 Divine Pills, going three times... It’s a deal.”

The auction hammer fell three times, and Lin Mo announced the deal.

Since the treasures were so precious, they were usually traded on the spot. Su Qing threw the two Divine Pills out.

Then according to her wishes, she obtained the Forest Boa King Inner Core.

“Isn’t she afraid of being robbed while carrying such a valuable treasure with her...”

Lin Mo shook his head at this thought. Or perhaps it was Mu Yuzhu’s reputation that was so great that it was capable of deterring people?

“Maybe there’s some kind of hidden killer weapon in his hands...”

After thinking for a while, Lin Mo waved his hand, and the next maidservant walked forward to display the next item.

“This is a Level 1 Heaven-class Magic Weapon, the Sun-Penetrating Axe. It has the power to split mountains and split the earth. Its power is extraordinary.

The auction continued. The starting price of a Level 1 Heaven-grade Magic Tool was 100 million upper Spiritual Stones.

After a round of bidding, the final price reached 150 million, and this was due to the depreciation of the magic weapon at the Heaven-grade.

“So it’s a fellow Daoist from the Earth Dragon Tribe. I didn’t expect a fellow Daoist to arrive so early. I hope you don’t blame me for not being able to welcome you.”

To Lin Mo’s surprise, the bidder was the Earth Dragon tribe member who had negotiated with him to buy the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

He could be considered the second master of the Earth Dragon Tribe. However, it was a pity that he was far inferior to Gu You. He was only able to become a general under Gu You.

“You’re being too serious.”

The other party gave him the Spiritual Stones and tactfully said something before returning to the private room. They didn’t talk much.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off a Level 1 Heaven-class Magical Weapon, the Sun-Penetrating Axe.

[Successfully triggered 6000 times auction return interest]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 4 Heaven-class Magical Weapon, Earth Splitting Axe.

Magical weapons were not of much use to him. They were far from being as good as divine medicine. After all, the power contained in magical weapons was too little.

“I’ll use it to exchange for divine medicine in the future...”

Shaking his head, Lin Mo continued with the auctioning of the next treasure.

On the silver plate that the maidservant had brought over was a red and gold scroll, with specks of starlight circulating on it.

“The Diamond Star Body, a Level 3 Heaven-class Body Cultivating Martial Art. It was created by a pre-Saint from the Feng province in the Northern Continent 10000 years ago. If you cultivate it to the peak, your body will be indestructible and the power of the stars will last forever.

“Its combat power is capable of jumping through the heavens and earth. It’s a rare body-strengthening martial art. When it’s activated, it can also explode with powerful combat power.”

Body-cultivating martial arts were rare, to begin with, and most of them were secrets of some sects that were not passed on.

Level 3 Heaven-class was already very high for them, and it was worth buying. innread.com

“This item has been put up for auction by someone else. The person who put it up for auction wants to exchange it for a Divine Pill. He doesn’t need any other treasures, unless they’re extremely precious.”

With that, Lin Mo slammed the auction hammer down, signaling for the crowd to start bidding.

There were quite a number of people who were interested. Hence, not long after Lin Mo placed the auction hammer, someone made a bid.

“One Level 3 Heaven-class Divine Pill, going once.”

“I’ll offer a Level 3 Heaven-class Divine Pill and a Level 3 Heaven-class Divine Medicine.

In just a minute, the price of this cultivation technique had been raised to that of a Level 4 divine pill.

Such a price was beyond everyone’s expectations.

Even Lin Mo was stunned. This had already exceeded the original price.

After the deal was successfully closed, the system’s notification sound also sounded at this moment.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the Level 3 Heaven-realm Martial Art, Diamond Star Body.

[Successfully triggered 2000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Level 4 Heaven-class Martial Art, Glazed Ancient Body.

Lin Mo did not care much for the rebate item. It was still useless to him, so the only thing he could do would be to exchange it in the future.

Following that, more and more treasures were auctioned off.

The amount Lin Mo earned gradually increased. He had a total of seven cultivation and martial arts books in the system space.

There were more than a dozen precious ores and materials, all of which were very valuable.

As for the divine medicine, there were more than 20 plants. This was the most abundant harvest in the past ten days.

Since news of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit had been released, many people had brought their treasures to the auction.

Lin Mo had earned a lot of money, and soon, two of them disappeared.

As the auction came near the end, the crowd in the hall became a little heated.

All of them knew that the main event was about to begin, and some of them were already impatient.

“Next up is the grand finale of this auction, the anticipated Pseudo Dragon Fruit.”

...

Lin Mo smiled and took out a Pseudo Dragon Fruit from the system space before placing it on the silver plate at the front desk.

“There are two Pseudo Dragon Fruits in total and they will be auctioned off in two separate auctions. The one who offers the highest price will get them.”

Once the Pseudo Dragon Fruit was revealed, some people couldn't sit still.

There were creatures of various races present, and there was no lack of sub-Dragons among them. Their bodies contained a trace of the Dragon race's blood.

The Pseudo Dragon Fruit was a fatal temptation to them, and they wanted it no matter what.

“Is this the Pseudo Dragon Fruit?”

In the private room, Su Qing looked at the fruit on the stage curiously.

She had only seen this kind of magical fruit in ancient books. It was said that the Pseudo-Dragon Fruit Tree would only grow in places where the Dragon clan had died.

There was also a chance of an alternative Dragon being born, but it was very low. Moreover, the dead alternative Dragon had to be at least an absolute Saint.

This also resulted in the scarcity of Pseudo Dragon Fruit Trees. Many Dragon clans yearned for them but were unable to obtain them.

“The Pseudo Dragon Fruit contains a trace of Dragon qi. It can temper one’s body and also purify the bloodline of Dragon-type demonic beasts. It’s an extremely rare treasure.

...

“The Pseudo Dragon Fruit is at Level 6 Heaven-class. You may trade Spiritual Stones for it. The one with the highest price will get it.”

As he spoke, Lin Mo banged the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction.

No one called out for Spiritual Stones. After all, they didn’t need top-grade Spiritual Stones at their level.

Also, the Upper Spiritual Stones took up too much space, so they couldn’t carry too many.

“I’ll offer ten Earth Dragon Inner Core, Level 5 Heaven-class, and one Level 6 Heaven-class Divine Pill.

The Earth Dragon from before came out again and was the first to bid.

“Five Heaven-class Level 5 Divine Pills, three bottles of Wind Dragon Blood Essence, and one Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pill.

A young man walked out of the private room at the side. His skin was blue, and he had a pair of wings on his back. Bits of wind elemental power swirled around them.

“People of the Wind Dragon clan, it seems like this Pseudo Dragon Fruit has attracted quite a number of people...”

Lin Mo smiled. However, he only had three left. It would be up to these people to work to get them.

“Two Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pills.”

It was at this moment that Su Qing, who had been silent for a long time, opened her mouth to speak. Without showing her face, she made a direct bid.

“Two Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pills.” This price shocked everyone.

The Earth Dragon and Wind Dragon were furious. The Pseudo Dragon Fruit was extremely important to them, and whoever came to snatch it away would be regarded as an enemy.

“Two Level 6 Heaven-grade Divine Pills and 300 million Upper Spiritual Stones. The Wind Dragon spoke again, and his expression gradually turned ugly.

This was his final price. He had not brought many treasures with him this time, so he was afraid that he would miss out on the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

How was he going to explain this matter when he returned?

“Three Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pills.”

Before the Earth Dragon could bid, Su Qing made another bid. Even Lin Mo was shocked by the price.

Two Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pills had reached the value of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

Unless the buyer was a sub-dragon species, it was not worth the price.

“Hey, are you just calling out bids unnecessarily? You shouldn’t simply spend money like this even if you can afford it.

Lin Mo secretly transmitted his voice to give a reminder to Su Qing that she shouldn’t waste her resources.

“Don’t worry, it’s fine.”

Su Qing waved her hand, not at all concerned about the wastefulness of the consumption of her resources.

“Hmph...”

The Earth Dragon and the Wind Dragon snorted coldly. They looked at Lin Mo on the stage but did not dare to act rashly. All they could do was just sit back down.

The first Pseudo Dragon Fruit was successfully sold, and Lin Mo received three Divine Pills in return.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, a Heaven-realm Level 6 Divine Fruit.

[Successfully triggered 5000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Level 7 Heaven-realm Divine Fruit, Dragon Scale Blood Fruit.]

The system notification stated that it was a Heaven-grade Level 7 Divine Fruit, which was also fatally attractive to sub-dragons.

The Dragon Scale Blood Fruit had all the medicinal effects of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, and its medicinal effects were even stronger. It could also stimulate the potential of the bloodline of the consumer.

If they were lucky, they would be able to transform their bodies and grow dragon scales.

A trace of dragon power could also be born within the soul, which could shake the world and improve one’s talent to a great extent.

Even if one did not have a Dragon-type bloodline in their body, a trace of it would be born after eating that fruit.

Without a doubt, if this divine fruit were to be revealed, the masters of the Earth Dragon and Wind Dragon clans would probably come out of hiding again.

No matter the price, they were determined to take the Dragon Scale Blood Fruit away.

“The last Pseudo Dragon Fruit of the day is here. The highest bidder will get it. Everyone, let’s start bidding.”

As soon as Lin Mo finished speaking, a man in a black robe at the back of the hall spoke up.

“Two Heaven-class Level 6 Divine Pills and three Heaven-class Level 5 Divine Pills.”

The price was almost sky-high, and although it was not as high as Su Qing’s previous price, it was still far beyond anyone else’s reach.

At the same time, many people turned to look at the mysterious man behind them.

They really wanted to know why this person dared to bid even though he knew how important the Pseudo Dragon Fruit was to the Earth Dragon and Wind Dragon.

Even if they had Lin Mo’s protection, what about when they left this place?

“Going three times... It’s a deal.”

Lin Mo knocked the auction hammer three times and announced the auction result.

That person was someone who had been arranged by Feng Tian. After coming up to the site to trade, he immediately left when it was done. With the cover of Lin Mo’s soul power, he had successfully blended into the crowd.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Pseudo Dragon Fruit, a Heaven-realm Level 6 Divine Fruit.

[Successfully triggered 7000-fold auction interest return]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Level 7 Heaven-realm Divine Fruit, Dragon Scale Blood Fruit.]

The rebate treasures were the same, but the latter one had more shocking medicinal power and stronger medicinal effects.

Initially, Lin Mo had wanted to look for Su Qing after the auction ended, to prevent her from becoming a target.

However, even though his soul power covered the whole of Lin City, he still could not locate Su Qing's aura.

He only noticed a little space fluctuation in the private room she had been in before. Other than that, there was no other trace.

“A space talisman? By the looks of it, it should be safe...”

After knowing that Su Qing had left, Lin Mo did not think much further about it and started to prepare for the auction of the treasures in his hands.

The divine pills that he had just obtained would definitely be auctioned off.

What left him speechless was that the money Feng Tian had given him was only in the form of an IOU, saying that he owed it and would pay it back in the future.

“Forget it. That will be all for tomorrow's auction.”

After making up his mind, he rested for a day.

The hustle and bustle of Lin City continued for an entire day. Countless people swarmed to the auction to obtain the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

Of course, those who were kind would not come, and those who came would not be kind.

As the sun set, countless people were already waiting for the auction to begin. However, in a mountain range far away from Lin City, a large group of people had gathered.

[The auction is about to begin, but someone is planning to attack the auction house and snatch the final treasure. The host has received a mission to get rid of the enemy in advance so that the auction can proceed smoothly.]

[Reward for completing the mission: 50000 times return interest triggered for the final treasure auction.]

Lin Mo, who was still in the middle of cultivating in Lin City, frowned when he heard the system notification.

It had crossed his mind that someone would try to make a move, but he had not expected that they would try to snatch it during the auction itself.

The purpose of this was to embarrass him in public...

“In that case, don’t blame me for being ruthless...”

After receiving the system’s mission, Lin Mo left Lin City. There were still two hours before the auction was to start.

If he could settle this matter quickly, he would still be able to make it in time to host the auction...

...

“I wonder which forces are planning to make a move?” Lin Mo muttered to himself.

He used the World-Changing Technique to conceal himself. He came to the entrance of the mountain range and found that it was heavily guarded.

Many disciples of the major sects were blocking the entrance, not allowing others to enter.

“Halt. This mountain range is currently off-limits,” shouted two young men who were at the entrance of the mountain range.

“Why? This is just an ordinary mountain range,” said Lin Mo without making a move for the time being.

“Why are you asking so many questions? This is an order from the Lords. Leave quickly.”

Lin Mo shook his head. The few disciples guarding the door did not seem to know any secrets, so there was no need to waste any time.

He stepped forward and spread his Kun Peng Wings, from which rays of golden sword qi spread out.

“Enemy attack, send a message quickly.”

The disciples reacted quickly. When they saw Lin Mo spreading the Kun Peng Wings, they retreated without a second thought.

“BOOM!”

...

The Kun Peng Wings gently flapped, and a violent gust of wind that was mixed with sword qi chopped a mountain into pieces.

All those people were sent flying and crashed into the mountain. They spat out blood and were left with many sword marks on their bodies.

“If I had known earlier... I would have brought someone over so that it would be easier to identify the enemy...”

Lin Mo sighed. He didn't know much about the great sects, and he didn't even recognize all the top disciples.

What's more, he had no idea where these ordinary disciples had come from.

Fortunately, the system prompted him about the mission location, so he had been able to find his way there.

The demonic beasts in the mountain range had long been driven away and the area was now occupied by the disciples of the major sects.

Very quickly, Lin Mo found out who the person was after some interrogation.

“Fire Luo Sect, Sun Moon Mountain, Golden Dragon Elephant Clan, Gongsun Clan, Teng family, Hidden Dragon Pavilion...”

The names of the major forces were mentioned one by one, and Lin Mo frowned.

There were a total of six major forces, and each of them represented a peerless genius with top combat strength.

Any one of them was capable of competing with Lin Mo.

Fortunately, they had not come out of hiding yet. This operation had been decided by their own subordinates.

The Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree was very beneficial to them, so they had joined forces.

At the same time, it was also because they knew that Lin Mo's cultivation level was lower than theirs, and his combat power was significantly reduced.

In addition, the Qilin had not shown herself for many days and might be in closed-door cultivation in Lin City.

What a tempting offer. Once the attack was successful, they would receive the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng and the Qilin. innread. Com

There was also the Qilin's blood, which was a supreme treasure blood that was comparable to an immortal treasure.

After getting more or less the information, Lin Mo continued to move forward, killing people and horses before finally reaching the depths of the mountain.

"This is not good, Lin Mo has come calling..."

Finally, the people in the mountain range realized that Lin Mo had arrived and felt a powerful energy fluctuation.

Groups of people were dispatched to stop Lin Mo and exhaust his spirit qi.

As a result, the smell of blood began to spread throughout the mountain range and none of the people who came to stop him were able to leave alive.

"You know you can't win, so why do you insist on dying?"

Lin Mo shook his head and continued to walk deeper into the mountain.

His eyes were icy cold, and he was surrounded by sword qi. No one could get close to him, which frightened a large group of people.

It was only then that people realized how terrifying Lin Mo's combat power was. He was like a god of death who had come from hell, causing everyone to tremble in fear.

“What are you panicking for? Activate the formation. He won’t be arrogant for long.”

“That’s right. The lords are inside. They’ll come to help us soon,” shouted someone.

Upon hearing this, another group of people rushed forward as they used all kinds of martial arts. They gathered together and completely surrounded Lin Mo.

“BOOM!”

The War Demon Spear appeared in Lin Mo’s hand. With a sweep, a murderous aura exploded, shaking the entire world.

This was the power of the War Demon Spear, and he had already deliberately suppressed it. Otherwise, the explosive power would have been even stronger.

It was as if they were being crushed. Crashing sounds rang out continuously. All those who rushed up were cut in half at the waist. All their physical bodies were shattered, and their souls were also seriously injured.

The scene suddenly quieted down. Some of the people who were left were trembling, not daring to stop him.

Lin Mo ignored them and continued to venture deeper.

At the center of the formation, runes began to appear. The moment Lin Mo stepped into the formation, it was activated.

The formation began to spread out, covering a radius of a hundred miles.

This was a very terrifying formation. The reason these people had not come out to save their subordinates was because they had been setting up the formation.

It seemed to be a trapping formation, and its purpose was to prevent Lin Mo from escaping...

“BOOM!”

He knew a little about formations, but he wasn't proficient in them. He attacked one of the formation eyes, but it was ineffective and he was blocked.

In the center of the formation, there were six figures sitting cross-legged. Some of them were not human, but had the characteristics of demonic beasts. Some of them had heavy Yin qi, which intimidated people from approaching them.

Without exception, all six of them were at the ninth firmament, and each of them could rival Feng Tian and Mao Zhu.

"He's indeed a Level 5 Almighty. We have a great chance, said one of them.

He had a head of golden hair, and he looked at Lin Mo with eyes full of longing.

"You're so bold that you've even dared to barge in here and enter the formation that we've set up."

A woman with a pair of wings on her back had spoken up. She was extremely beautiful, and she sat there with her legs crossed, with an air of arrogance.

It was obvious that the formation they had set up had given them a lot of confidence.

They were not even afraid of Lin Mo's War Demon Spear, thinking that it was already in their pocket.

"What kind of formation is this? why are you so confident?" Lin Mo said calmly.

"Hahaha..."

Someone laughed wildly in response. He had a pair of golden horns on his forehead and a terrifying aura. It was as if he was already in the half-step King tier.

"You're just relying on a Level 9 Heaven-class weapon. Do you really think you're that strong?" Said the man as he looked at Lin Mo.

"That's right. Even if you have the God Devourer Body, we're all favored by heaven. Do you dare to challenge us?"

This had been said by a being in golden armor. He had the head of an elephant and the body of a human. On his arms were a pair of dragon claws, making him look quite ferocious.

This was a Golden Dragon Elephant, a sub-dragon species with the Golden Dragon's bloodline.

"In other words, you guys have a way to deal with my War Demon Spear?" Lin Mo's expression was calm as he spoke unhurriedly.

"That's right, this formation is meant to deal with you. It was given to us by Master Xiao Yun, and it can seal off all energy fluctuations from magical items."

The man with the golden horns nodded, his tone filled with respect as he spoke in regards to Xiao Yun.

Looking at the six arrogant people, Lin Mo tried to take out the War Demon Spear but he found that there was a special power that suppressed the operation of the magic weapon.

The upper limit of this formation was also a Level 9 Heaven-class.

If there was a quasi-immortal artifact, it could instantly shatter the formation as long as it was activated.

It was obvious that the other party had come prepared. When they found out that he had forced his way into the mountain range, they had already made arrangements.

"Xiao Yun from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion, huh? He's got some skills, but I just don't know how strong he is," Lin Mo extended his soul power.

He carefully inspected his surroundings. There were many people hiding and maintaining the operation of the formation.

The strongest were the six people in front of him, and two of them had already reached the half-step King realm.

The one with the golden horns was probably an ancient mutant, the Golden Yak. It was a powerful race.

It was a pity that there were only a few of them. It was rumored that one of the elders of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion was the Golden Yak. This man must be from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion.

The other one was the Golden Dragon Elephant. This race stood tall between heaven and earth, with an absolute Saint guarding it. No one dared to provoke it.

“Naturally, my lord’s strength cannot be doubted. You are not weak either. It’s a pity that you have chosen the wrong side.”

The Golden Yak looked at Lin Mo and continued, “Lin Mo, if you’re willing, you can capture the Qilin and join the Hidden Dragon Pavilion. With your talent, you’ll definitely become an Emperor-to-be in the future.

Although it was arrogant, it recognized how powerful the human God Devourer Body was, especially its talent.

If Lin Mo was willing to join, then the Hidden Dragon Pavilion would definitely produce an emperor-to-be master in the future.

...

The other five people frowned.

The goal of their trip was to kill Lin Mo and kill the master in his cradle.

“I’m not just going to be an emperor-to-be in the future. Besides, I’m not interested in the Hidden Dragon Pavilion, and I don’t plan on letting you go either.”

Lin Mo shook his head. Even though the system had not specified the requirements, it was still better to be safe than sorry.

Moreover, these people were already confirmed to be enemies and could not be resolved.

“That’s a pity. A future emperor-to-be is going to fall today...” sneered the Golden Yak.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re being unnecessary. Why are you bothering to talk so much to him? Let’s capture him now and go to Lin City to catch the Qilin,” said the Golden Dragon Elephant.

He made the first move. With a furious roar, his fist, which carried the power of a dragon and an elephant, rumbled over. It was as fierce and overbearing as a mountain.

Even Lin Mo was a little shocked when he saw this. He could feel the power of the law.

It was the law of pure yang. This fellow, like the Golden Yak, followed the path of extreme yang and strength.

Furthermore, the other party was a half-step King warrior, and his talent and bloodline were both exceptional. His cultivation was also very high, and he was able to unleash a terrifying power.

...

“BOOM!”

The mountains crumbled and the earth cracked. The Golden Dragon Elephant’s divine might was unparalleled. The firm punch that had an extreme yang power came down, and it was as if the entire sky was collapsing at this moment.

In response, Lin Mo did not dodge. Instead, he threw a punch that contained the divine power of the Kun Peng.

Golden Runes surrounded his body as the extreme Yang and unyielding aspect of the Kun Peng Technique erupted.

This clash caused the entire sky to tremble. The space shattered, and the spiritual energy ripples fluctuated violently. The fierce power even made some of the weaker people vomit blood. They couldn’t withstand the power of the aftermath.

Many people were shocked. Such a terrifying collision, was it really a battle between Almightyies?

When the ripples of spiritual energy dissipated, the space recovered on its own. People were shocked to see the scene within.

Lin Mo's body was spotless, and the golden runes on his body had disappeared. He had not suffered any damage.

On the other hand, the Golden Dragon Elephant spat out a mouthful of blood. The web between its thumb and forefinger had cracked as it was sent flying into the ground, sinking deep into it.

"How is this possible?"

!!

The previously proud Golden Yak could not believe it.

Among those present, only the Golden Dragon Elephant had been capable of competing with him. The two of them had similar cultivation bases and similar laws, so their strength was on par.

However, he had not been able to receive Lin Mo's punch and had been sent flying.

The Golden Dragon Elephant was also shocked and its eyes burned like torches as it stared at Lin Mo.

On the other side, Lin Mo had the same thoughts as everyone else. He was slightly shocked by the strength of the Golden Dragon Elephant.

His punch contained the divine power of the Kun Peng, so it was not easy to take.

If it was someone else, even if the other party was a King tier, he would have been killed with a single punch without leaving even a trace.

"There's a Golden Dragon Elephant and a Golden Yak. They have strong bodies and are capable of cultivating the power of pure yang..."

"It's a great supplement for pure yang. After hunting, I'll be able to go back and treat Qilin to some hot pot..." muttered Lin Mo to himself.

However, when the Golden Yak and the Golden Dragon Elephant heard Lin Mo's words, they were furious. They had never been insulted like this.

"Go to hell!"

The Golden Yak and the Golden Dragon Elephant attacked at the same time. They each threw a punch, and the terrifying power tore the space apart.

"Dragon Elephant Earth-Splitting!"

"Bull's Strength."

The martial arts technique that the two of them used were innate spells that had been passed down by their race, which could greatly increase their attack power.

Lin Mo did not hold back either. The Kun Peng wings on his back spread out, revealing black and white colors.

The runes on his body also changed from gold to yin and yang. Black and white runes circulated as he used the laws of yin and yang.

"Bang!" innread.com

Lin Mo punched out with both fists and received the attack head-on. The Kun Peng's divine power was contained in his fists, and it was displayed by Lin Mo's extremely powerful body.

"Suppress and kill."

The Golden Dragon Elephant and the Golden Yak roared and used all their strength to suppress Lin Mo.

"What a terrifying strength. I feel that the two of them will be able to take down this kid if they join forces." When the four people behind them saw this scene, they finally heaved a sigh of relief.

However, just as they relaxed, the Yin Yang and Taichi diagrams appeared in front of them.

Lin Mo raised his hand and pointed, using Mismatched Yin Yang. Two terrifying forces spread, and with a crack, the Golden Yak's horns broke, and its huge body flew out.

The Golden Dragon Elephant was not in a good state either. The energy had pierced through its chest. If it had not dodged in time, its heart would have been pierced.

Two huge figures were sent flying, crashing into dozens of mountains and leaving two hundred-meter-deep ravines on the ground.

“How could he be defeated so quickly?” People were in a state of shock as they couldn’t believe what they had just witnessed.

Even if the four of them joined forces, they would not be able to defeat the two of them easily.

“Everyone, let’s attack together. We’ve underestimated the God Devourer Body. His fighting power is still terrifying even without a magic artifact.”

One of the men stated that at first, he had thought that he wouldn’t have to do anything, but he had not expected things to get out of control.

“That’s right, let’s attack together and kill him,” said the woman with wings as she began to attack.

“So, you’ve finally decided to attack me together? It’s just as well. I’ve been feeling really stifled recently...” sneered Lin Mo.

The Inner Demon Pearl brought by the Yin Yang Fruit had made it difficult for him to break through, and he had to fight a tough battle that almost killed him.

It had even caused the Qilin to activate the Eye of Destiny and suffer the most severe backlash.

The matter between Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue had also gone through many twists and turns, which made him very annoyed. He felt that nothing he did was going smoothly.

“How arrogant! With the six of us combined, even a top-tier master will die,” said one of the men.

They came from different powers, so it was not easy for them to join forces.

It was rare for them to attack at the same time.

Moreover, there were hundreds of subordinates nearby, holding killing formation flags and setting up killing formations to help.

“It’d be useless even if the Qilin came to help the God Devourer today,” roared the Golden Dragon Elephant as it crawled out of the ravine.

These words were quite arrogant. If the Qilin really came, these people would probably lose their will to fight.

The only reason he dared to make a move when facing Lin Mo now was because he felt that Lin Mo’s realm had not caught up.

“You should have done this earlier. Today, I’ll let you know what the gap is.

The expression on Lin Mo’s face remained calm as he spoke indifferently.

“I’ve just complimented you on your human God Devourer Body. Do you really think you’re invincible? The power of the God Devourer Body will only be revealed in the later stages.”

The Golden Yak laughed coldly. It reattached its horns and stomped on the ground with its iron hooves, charging forward with the Golden Dragon Elephant.

“BOOM!”

In response, the wings on Lin Mo’s back flapped, and a divine light burst forth. A terrifying fluctuation spread out, and the two of them were once again sent flying.

The divine light exploded, leaving several wounds on his body.

“Kill!”

...

Lin Mo roared in anger. The mountains shook and the earth cracked. It was as if a savage dragon had appeared and was stirring up the wind and clouds.

The winged woman’s true form was that of a golden roc. At this moment, she was suppressed by the terrifying pressure and could not use her full strength.

Lin Mo's Kun Peng Divine Art attack swept her down and blood began to seep out from the corner of her mouth.

At that moment, Lin Mo was like a god of war in the sky. His black hair danced in the wind, and his eyes were like lightning as he unleashed his full power.

Today, he wanted to let those people who had underestimated him know that those few realms were nothing in front of Lin Mo.

"You have the strongest killing intent towards me. Which clan are you from?" Lin Mo asked as he sent a man flying with the palm of his hand.

"You stole our Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree. I'll make you pay with your life today," said the man angrily. He kicked out with both legs, leaving afterimages behind. His speed was so fast that even Lin Mo was slightly surprised.

"So, these are Teng Feng's underlings. No wonder they're so weak."

Lin Mo sneered as he caught the attack with one hand. Then, he pointed his fingers like a sword and threw out a beam of sword qi.

The six of them acted as if they were facing a great enemy. At this moment, they really didn't dare to hold back on their powers.

This was because Lin Mo's strength was simply too terrifying. He seemed to be facing the joint attack of six people with ease.

...

In fact, they had not even seen Lin Mo use his God Devourer Body.

In other words, they had not forced Lin Mo to use his full strength yet...

"The God Devourer Body's combat strength is so terrifying. This is why his realm is behind..." someone mumbled. He was a little shaken because even if he went all out, he realized that he still wouldn't be able to do anything to Lin Mo.

A few of their subordinates had even set up a killing formation and came over to help.

However, Lin Mo had the extreme speed of the Kun Peng. They had just come over with the killing formation when they were killed by Lin Mo with lightning speed.

The posture of a god of war was fully displayed as he fought alone against a group of heroes. The title of King was well deserved.

“Don’t be so arrogant. Without a doubt, you will die today. Whatever I say, it’s useless no matter who comes,” said the Golden Roc lady, as a golden light bloomed from between her brows.

Even though she was being suppressed by the Kun Peng’s spell technique, her battle prowess was still strong.

At this moment, as he was using a secret technique, his entire body bloomed with golden light. A layer of golden armor formed from symbols that appeared on his body.

At this moment, her aura was soaring, and her spiritual energy cultivation had reached the first level of the King realm.

Her speed increased again and she managed to resist the pressure of the Kun Peng.

Attacking Lin Mo at top speed, a few golden feathers gathered together to form a sharp golden sword.

This was a technique of the Golden Roc tribe. After countless years of improvement, it had long since detached itself from the Kun Peng’s technique.

Even though he was unable to break free from the suppression of his bloodline, he had researched other secret techniques to make up for it.

“Everyone, let’s go all out. If this continues, we will all die...” The Golden Yak roared, and blood-colored runes then appeared on its body.

The others were the same. Some of them had dense soul fluctuations, while some of them had their life force increased.

!!

They had all used their own secret techniques to forcefully increase their strength, and all of them had reached the first sky of King realm.

The Golden Yak and the Golden Dragon Elephant especially were only one step away from the second realm.

Seeing this, Lin Mo did not dare to be careless and decided to wait for the attack.

Although he could rival the King tiers, he was just an ordinary person. In his lifetime, the most he would be able to become was a King tier.

However, these six were different. Each of them had an extraordinary talent and had the potential to become a giant in the future.

They had already reached the King tier realm, and that was no laughing matter. Their battle prowess had increased drastically.

“Hey!”

The sword broke through the sky, and a golden light bloomed. The Golden Roc woman held the golden sword and slashed forward.

Black and white qi swirled around Lin Mo’s eyes as he stepped into the void. As the Yin Yang Taichi diagram hovered above his head, the light it released melted the sword qi.

At the same time, purple patterns appeared under his feet. It was the Qilin mark condensed.

He took nine steps in the air and used the Nine Qilin Steps. Terrifying waves spread out, attacking the Golden Dragon Elephant and the Golden Yak.

In addition, he used his fingers like a sword and slashed downwards. Dazzling sword qi exploded and suppressed the Golden Roc lady.

The Yin Yang Taichi diagram above his head descended and arrived in front of Lin Mo. He pointed with his right finger, and the two forces of yin and yang converged.

The powerful attack blocked the last two people. Even if everyone attacked together, they would still be unable to get close to Lin Mo.

“What?”

Everyone was shocked. What kind of strength was this? He had not even tried to dodge and merely accepted the attacks of the six Kings head-on.

The invincible aura that he exuded from his hands and feet made everyone breathless.

“Quickly activate the killing formation and help the lords.”

In the distance, formation flags were raised. They were afraid. The six masters had used their trump cards, but even they were still not a match.

They didn't dare to get close, because it was useless.

All Lin Mo need to do was to attack and he would be able to destroy the heavens and earth. Only the six great masters were capable of blocking him.

The only thing they could do now was to create some trouble for Lin Mo with the killing formation and give the six lords a chance to attack.

“Kill!”

A terrifying killing formation was set up, and flaming runes spread out. A flaming bird was formed, and it charged towards Lin Mo.

“Ants.”

Lin Mo sneered. What effect could this hastily set up killing formation have against him? It was not even capable of exhausting him.

With a wave of the palm of his hand, the flame bird crumbled, and even the person who had set up the killing formation started to vomit blood as he suffered a backlash.

“Hey!”

All of a sudden, there was a flash of blood. A blood-stained dagger pierced through the air and rushed towards Lin Mo's eyes and broke his protective rune.

It was a very powerful magic tool, about a Level 6 or Level 7 of the Heaven grade.

The Golden Yak was the one who had activated it. It had used special runes to ignore the suppression of the formation and launched a sneak attack, aiming directly at the space between Lin Mo's eyebrows.

"They've started their sneak attack?"

Lin Mo did not find it strange. These people had endless means, so it was reasonable that they would have hidden tricks up their sleeves.

"You're able to use magic weapons?" The five people who were working with the Golden Yak were also shocked. This formation was from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion.

At first, when the Golden Yak said that no one could use the magical weapon, they had believed it.

But now, this was a deep calculation.

If not for Lin Mo's terrifying combat power, they would have been tricked by the Golden Yak.

"Go to hell! All subordinates of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion, change the formation," roared the Golden Yak, no longer in hiding.

Lin Mo was slightly surprised. He looked around and saw that someone had started to activate the formation flags and change the way the formation operated.

However, he did not panic. A black halo appeared on the surface of his body, and the dagger was thrust towards the space between his eyebrows before being swallowed into the black hole.

"Crack."

The space behind his head shattered, and the dagger pierced through all the way out. It moved in a strange manner, but it did not hurt Lin Mo at all.

This was the power of the God Devourer Body. As Lin Mo researched it, its abilities were gradually revealed.

It was able to devour the attack the moment it arrived. Generally speaking, it would be directly annihilated in the black hole.

However, this dagger was obviously something extraordinary, so it wasn't destroyed and merely went all the way through.

“Clang.”

The dagger was thrust at him again, but Lin Mo caught it with his bare hands. The sound of metal hitting metal could be heard.

Although the dagger was extremely sharp and indestructible, a black luster appeared on Lin Mo's palm, which could swallow all power.

The black hole on the surface of his body immediately wrapped around the dagger, making it unable to escape.

...

“Hmm, how is that possible?” The Golden Yak was shocked. He had not expected Lin Mo's physical body to be so terrifying. Coupled with the unpredictable ability of the God Devourer Body, he was actually able to restrict a Level 7 Heaven-class Magic Weapon.

“What a pity, there are soul marks...”

Lin Mo shook his head. Although he had restrained it, he couldn't move it. Furthermore, there were special formation patterns engraved on it.

This was probably the reason why it could be used in a formation.

Lin Mo did not show any mercy. He clenched his fist tightly, making it impossible for it to escape.

The Kun Peng's divine power appeared and started to expel the runes engraved on it.

“You guys, hurry up and attack!” The Golden Yak shouted in shock. It had not expected that it would not be able to do anything to Lin Mo even after using its trump card.

Hearing this, the others didn't hesitate and quickly attacked.

However, Lin Mo's strength was terrifying. The Kun Peng Wings on his back extended and yin and yang qi surrounded him.

"Kun Peng Divine Light."

The endless divine light fell and blocked all the attacks from the group of five people. No one was able to attack.

...

The Golden Yak's heart ached as he watched Lin Mo erase the runes on the dagger.

"Bzzzzzz!"

As the runes disappeared, the formation that enveloped the area began to operate. An inexplicable power descended and suppressed the dagger.

The fluctuations of the magical artifact returned to calmness, and no one could activate it or summon it...

"This thing is good and it's mine now."

Lin Mo grinned and kept it in the system space. Since he got it here, this magic weapon would belong to him.

"B*stard, you're just courting death."

The Golden Yak roared, and its aura was the same as the formation.

Two magic weapons appeared in his hands. One was a huge saber and the other was a Jade Ruyi Scepter. There were formation patterns engraved on these items which were closely related to the formation.

Just then, the rest of the people also flew over. The six masters unleashed their killer moves at the same time, using all their strength.

As Lin Mo raised his hand to catch the huge saber, the Jade Ruyi scepter above him spun and divine light descended.

It brushed past Lin Mo's protective runes and actually melted them.

One had to know that his protective runes had previously been able to withstand these people's killing moves without being damaged.

Now that it was being melted, one could imagine the terrifying power of the Jade Ruyi Scepter.

“Come on.”

Lin Mo bellowed as he spread his wings. Golden and black runes began to appear on his body, and Kun Peng runes surrounded him.

“Crash!”

A vast ocean seemed to have appeared between the heavens and the earth, with endless surging waves.

Chapter 697 - 697 Killing in All Directions

697 Killing in All Directions innread.com

Lin Mo's entire being transformed. He leaped into the air and transformed into a huge fish in the sea. His entire body was pitch-black with golden runes within.

Rising with the waves, its huge body received everyone's attacks, but it was not injured at all.

“The Kun Peng's technique is indeed terrifying...”

The rest of the people were shocked. This was only the beginning of the spell, but it had actually caused a natural phenomenon.

!!

“BOOM!”

Lin Mo exploded, creating huge waves as he transformed into a bird. He looked like a golden roc, and with a flap of his wings, he looked like he had flown up to the nine heavens in the blink of an eye.

The Kun Peng unleashed all kinds of techniques, transforming them into martial arts techniques and displaying them.

As the golden wings flapped, it looked as if the stars in the sky were falling as huge meteorites fell from the sky, shrouding the area.

It covered an unknown range of miles. The mountain range was destroyed, and no living creature could escape.

The subordinates of the six major forces had suffered heavy casualties, and even their formations had been affected.

“Ah...”

Some people who were hiding in the runes formation were also affected and were blown away with horrified expressions on their faces.

As for the Golden Yak and the others, all they could do was run away under the onslaught of the meteorites. They did not dare to take them head-on.

At this moment, they felt as though they were going through some kind of tribulation. Facing the might of the heavens, this was simply too terrifying.

“Dragon Elephant Suppressing the Sky.”

At this moment, the Golden Dragon Elephant roared and its body suddenly expanded. A golden light curtain covered the surroundings and actually blocked the falling meteorites.

In front of Lin Mo, the shadow of a dragon and an elephant appeared and started to attack.

This attack was extremely terrifying. Each of the Dragon Elephant’s attacks could tear space apart, and even Lin Mo did not dare to take it head-on.

“That’s amazing,” praised Lin Mo.

The Golden Dragon Elephant was probably the most powerful of the six. It was not to be underestimated since it was able to withstand Lin Mo's Kun Peng technique.

He flapped his wings slightly, and endless golden light bloomed, instantly shattering the light screen.

The Golden Dragon Elephant's spiritual energy was exhausted after launching this attack. It could no longer sustain itself and was hit by the golden light. It was severely injured in an instant.

However, even so, he was unwilling to give up. His huge body slammed towards Lin Mo.

Seeing this, the rest of the people also made their moves. This was the Golden Dragon Elephant's last attack, and they had to make good use of it.

"It's time to end the battle," said Lin Mo coldly as a circle of black light spread from his energy center.

It was extremely fast. Within a thousand miles, the black hole covered the world and absorbed endless spiritual qi.

"Abyssal Devouring..."

The God Devourer Body's ability was on full display, and its domineering side shocked everyone.

At this moment, the formation that sealed this place was also in imminent danger. Its energy was constantly being devoured and was about to be broken.

In the next moment, Lin Mo's body glowed. Black and white light shot out. This was an attack condensed from Kun Peng runes and contained the divine power of Kun Peng.

Lin Mo controlled the entire attack and focused it on the Golden Dragon Elephant.

"Is this his true combat strength..."

The Golden Dragon Elephant was overwhelmed with fear and his eyes were filled with despair. He was a master that had been born in the Golden Dragon

Elephant clan in the last ten thousand years. There was hope for his bloodline to return to its ancestor and create another glorious era.

But now, he had been killed by a human whose cultivation level was lower than his, ending his opportunities in the ancient battlefield...

“I... I’m not willing...”

“Pfft.”

The black-and-white light pierced through the space between his eyebrows. Everyone was shocked. They had underestimated the power of Lin Mo’s attack.

The Golden Dragon Elephant’s huge body fell and crushed a mountain.

Between his eyebrows, a jade talisman rose into the air, carrying a true spirit. It was the soul of the Golden Dragon Elephant.

The jade talisman had saved his life and would allow him to be revived perfectly when he left the ancient battlefield.

But now, his opportunity had ended there and he was unable to enter again.

One of the top one hundred talents on the Hidden Dragon List had left just like that. Everyone was shocked. This was too unbelievable.

“Well, his soul has been taken away, but his body and blood are still there. I have some ingredients for tonight.”

Initially, Lin Mo had wondered if the jade talisman would take his physical body along with it but now, he was relieved that it hadn’t.

“Collect!”

Lin Mo grabbed the Golden Dragon Elephant’s body and kept it in the system space.

“Everyone, prepare to go all out. He has the speed of the Kun Peng. We won’t be able to escape. This person is too strong.”

The woman from the Golden Roc clan said. She knew that it would be impossible to escape today, so all she could do now was fight to the death.

“BOOM!”

Lin Mo’s body flickered with lights from the talisman. The Abyssal Devouring had brought him endless spiritual qi.

“Brother Yak, tell your men to hold on. Once the formation is broken, we’ll be dead for sure,” said one man, knowing that they were in a bad situation.

“You’re talking about an iron plate. I know too little about the God Devourer Body...” Some people shook their heads bitterly.

“Are you guys saying your last words?” Lin Mo said coldly.

“Attack with all your might.”

...

The Golden Yak had transformed back to its original form. Its two huge horns looked like they were made of gold, shining with golden light.

“Are you in a hurry for me to add more?” Before Lin Mo attacked, he did not forget to mock him.

“Go to hell!”

The Golden Yak roared, and a saber flew out from its back. With the power of the formation, the saber displayed its extreme power.

This was the most powerful attack he could use. With a single slash, he could tear the sky apart.

“Pfft!”

As the blade fell, Lin Mo felt a sharp pain in the palm of his hand and a stream of red blood flowed out. His defense had been broken.

He had been strengthened many times by the God Devourer Body, and he had cultivated his body with countless natural materials and treasures to achieve the supreme physical body.

Lin Mo was slightly taken aback. This was the first time he had truly been injured since the start of the battle.

One could imagine how sharp the saber was, and how powerful it was when combined with the formation.

“It’s a pity, that’s all...”

...

Lin Mo shook his head. This was all he could do with his most powerful attack. If the Golden Yak had the top combat power of the same realm, Lin Mo might have truly been in danger today.

He turned his hand around and grabbed the saber, snatching it over and using Kun Peng runes to suppress it.

Then, a few golden feathers appeared in his hand and turned into a sharp sword. He stabbed it forward, aiming for the center of the other party’s brows.

However, the other four didn’t stay idle either. They attacked together.

He used his most powerful killing move to help the Golden Yak out of the situation, and at the same time, they attacked Lin Mo together.

The five experts began to fight with all their might, fearlessly launching attacks. The sharp sword in Lin Mo’s hand was scattered.

At the same time, he also felt a slight sweetness in his throat. He had suffered some internal injuries from the shock of this terrifying attack.

“It’s too late for you to risk your life now.”

Lin Mo swallowed the blood in his throat and activated the Abyssal Devouring again. The formation was in great danger and seemed to be on the verge of being destroyed.

The suppression of the magic weapons was also reduced to a minimum. With a ‘clang’, Lin Mo took out his demon spear.

Although he couldn’t use his full strength, it was more than enough to deal with these five people.

Lin Mo’s black hair fluttered in the wind. He was like a Demon King as he began to reap the lives of the crowd.

“Continue to attack and block him.” Not only the five masters, but the people in the distance also made their moves, all of them targeting Lin Mo.

However, Lin Mo, who was holding the War Demon Spear, had the support of the endless spiritual qi by the Abyssal Devouring, and his combat power was unparalleled.

With just a sweep, people were forced back. Some people couldn't withstand the backlash and died.

Lin Mo's pursuit was unstoppable.

Chapter 698 - 698 Exterminate All

698 Exterminate All

The female golden roc was the first to be killed. Lin Mo's spear pierced through her forehead, and her soul was saved by the jade talisman.

The Golden Yak wanted to save her, but unfortunately, it was a step too late. At the same time, it also put itself in danger.

Lin Mo quickly attacked. The long spear furiously smashed down, destroying everything in its path. The golden horn on its forehead was instantly shattered.

The Golden Yak let out a blood-curdling screech as its skull shattered. Its huge body collapsed and died.

!!

Two people had already died in battle, and the remaining three had unspeakable grievances. They were no match for Lin Mo at all.

At this moment, the formation collapsed. The spiritual qi of the person who had set up the formation was exhausted and devoured by the God Devourer Body.

Lin Mo looked at the three of them. The power of the War Demon Spear had been completely unleashed and could no longer be suppressed.

With three strikes, the three of them were killed and their souls were taken away by the jade talismans, ending the fight for opportunities in the ancient battlefield.

“Ah...”

Many people in the distance screamed. All six leaders were now dead, having faced Lin Mo, who was almost at full strength.

The power of the God Devourer Body was so terrifying that they now felt completely hopeless.

Lin Mo did not show any mercy to these people. After all, they had been here to surround him and the Qilin.

If he lost today, then these people would have a different face.

After repeated killings by the War Demon Spear, the entire mountain range was covered in a mist of blood. The six forces that had come to surround him and the Qilin were all annihilated.

It could be said to be a scene of bloodshed.

[Congratulations to the host for completing the mission. The auction is about to begin. Please return to Lin City as soon as possible.]

The system’s notification sounded, stating that the reward for completing the quest was a return interest of 50000 times the auction price of the finale treasure.

The Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree had a 50000-fold interest return, so it was at least a quasi-immortal tree.

He cleaned up the battlefield and took away some valuable inner cores, spiritual stones, spiritual herbs, semi-magic medicines, and other precious ores.

After the rest of the messy scrolls had been collected and placed into the system space, there were no hidden treasures found.

The most precious items were the three Level 7 Heaven-realm magic weapons.

[The Dragon Tooth Dagger is made from the tooth of a Saint stage true dragon. It contains the qi of a true dragon and is capable of breaking through protective runes.]

The short dagger's origin was so terrifying that Lin Mo was shocked.

The dragon tooth could be said to be the toughest material in the world. Although it was only at the Saint realm, it was still extraordinary.

In the previous battle, Lin Mo had felt a threat from him, which was why he had used the power of the God Devourer Body.

Otherwise, he would have been seriously injured.

[The Void Saber is made of void pure gold and is capable of cutting through the void. Its moves are unpredictable and hard to grasp.]

[The Eight-Treasure Ruyi Scepter is made of life essence gold. It contains an endless aura of life. When fighting with others, it keeps going.]

Lin Mo was very satisfied with the three treasures he had obtained. The most precious one was the Dragon Tooth Dagger, which he had to make good use of.

“It would be great if I have similar missions in the future...”

Lin Mo muttered to himself as he left the mountain range. This had been a very rich harvest...

At that moment, outside the ancient battlefield, in front of the Hidden Dragon List.

There were people from various great sects, clans, and races waiting here. After the ancient battlefield had been opened, it continued to be unstable in this world.

However, each force left a group of people here to wait for their own disciples to come out.

“Whoosh!”

All of a sudden, the Hidden Dragon List glowed brightly, and the Law of Space converged, attracting people’s attention.

“Hey, another master from the Hidden Dragon List has been eliminated. As the time has passed, more than a hundred people have been killed...”

People sighed. They didn’t know which faction’s people had been eliminated this time, and who had killed them.

“Eh, something’s not right.”

Some people noticed the abnormality. When they saw the physical body of the Hidden Dragon List, they were shocked.

Because right now, there were six figures on the Hidden Dragon List.

“There were actually six people who have been eliminated?”

People from all sides were dumbfounded. These were six people on the Hidden Dragon List, and they had all appeared at the same time.

What kind of person could kill six masters at the same time? Was this some kind of chaotic battle?

“Oh my god, why is it them...”

When the physical body was formed, the crowd was in an uproar. They found it unbelievable.

They were none other than the six masters who had been killed by Lin Mo.

The top one hundred geniuses in the Hidden Dragon List had been the future hope of their respective clans...

“How could this be? How could the pride of the Dragon Elephant Clan be defeated?” One middle-aged man roared in anger.

The man was extremely unwilling to accept this, and his roar shook the heavens and earth, attracting the attention of everyone.

At the same time, he was also shocked that one of the six had been the pride of the Dragon Elephant Clan.

That was a race with extremely terrifying combat strength, and even he had been killed.

“Stop howling. Look at the other one. His true form is the golden yak. He is the descendant of a powerful elder of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion...”

...

It was not known who said this, but everyone’s eyes turned to the middle of the crowd at the same time.

That sturdy young man was a golden yak from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion.

This time, people from all sides were shocked. Even people from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion were killed.

As for Xiao Yun, had he met a such strong enemy that he couldn’t even protect his own people from?

“Hmph...”

As they stood in front of the Hidden Dragon List, the six people’s eyes turned cold. They then flicked their sleeves and left without saying a word.

However, this matter could not be hidden.

An old senior with terrifying strength appeared and asked for the specific reason.

Although they were masters, they still had not matured yet. In front of their seniors, they still had to restrain their arrogance.

“What? God Devourer Lin Mo...”

After hearing their explanation, everyone was shocked. They felt like they were living in a dream.

...

“A Level 5 Almighty killed the six of them all by himself and the most serious injury he got was just a little scratch?”

Everyone fell silent. They didn't know what to say. With Lin Mo's combat power, if he were to grow, the Northern Continents would have another terrifying sect.

“He has studied Kun Peng's inheritance thoroughly. When he uses it, no one in the same realm can be his match...”

A Saint sighed softly. The combination of the God Devourer Body and the Kun Peng Art was too terrifying.

It was a pity that the ancient battlefield was guarded by the Hidden Dragon List. No one could enter and interfere before opening time.

Now that the God Devourer Body and the Qilin girl had joined forces, people couldn't help but worry that their masters would be killed ...

...

When Lin Mo returned to Lin City, the auction had already begun. Since Zhao Tianyu was hosting, he didn't bother to take over.

“Brother Lin Mo, did you experience a great battle?”

As soon as he returned, he saw the Qilin behind the auction stage. The moment he saw the Qilin, the little girl smelt the blood on his body.

After all, he had killed all the intruders and not let a single one escape.

Even though he had cleaned up the smell on his body, it was inevitable that some blood was left behind, which the Qilin could smell.

“There were enemies coming, so I went to settle the problem. By the way, why did you come out?”

Lin Mo smiled. He had asked Qilin to protect Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue.

This little girl had always been obedient. Why had she run out today?

Chapter 699 - 699 Recruitment

699 Recruitment

“That’s because we’ve come out of seclusion. Brother Lin, I can’t thank you enough for this. I’ll remember this forever.

Behind him, two women walked over. They looked very attractive and were smiling.

Perhaps it was because they had been burned by fire for such a long time that their skin had turned pale and there were faint wisps of immortal qi on their bodies.

This was a natural phenomenon, and it was very novel.

!!

“What are your attributes?”

Lin Mo looked at Mao Zhu and realized that the latter seemed to have re-cultivated. Her attribute had changed to fire and she had a Nirvana Phoenix Fire in her body...

Hearing this, the smile on Mao Zhu's face became even wider, and she thanked Lin Mo.

"I've re-cultivated the Nine Phoenix Fire Technique. Xiao Xue gave me a wisp of the Nirvana Phoenix Fire."

Although this flame was incomplete, it had a trace of origin.

As long as she had enough opportunity and fed it with divine medicine, she would be able to turn this small flame into a whole fire in the future.

At that time, her battle prowess would then improve even further.

Furthermore, since she had cultivated the same technique as Song Lianxue, their flames were of the same origin, and their combined strength were not to be underestimated.

"Big Sister Mao Zhu and Big Sister Song are very strong when they work together. It took Qilin a lot of effort to win."

Qilin laughed. They had left the house to spar and encountered Lin Mo on their way back.

"That's good, let's go together to prevent anyone from causing trouble."

Lin Mo smiled and headed to the auction stage with the three of them to intimidate anyone who would try to play any tricks.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 1 Heaven-class Martial Art, Palm of Creation.]

[Successfully triggered 8000-fold auction rebate]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 4 Heaven-class Martial Art, Mysterious Sky Palm of Creation.]

The system's notification sounded. In the past, he would have been interested in a Level 4 Heaven-class Martial Art.

But it was a pity that he now had the Kun Peng Art which could evolve just one technique into ten thousand techniques, and many martial arts techniques related to the Kun Peng could also be evolved.

Therefore, he had a lower demand for martial arts techniques, unless it was the kind that was extremely heaven-defying and powerful.

“By the way, Miss Mao Zhu, Miss Song, I have a request. I don’t know if you will agree to it.

When he saw these martial arts techniques, he suddenly remembered that he had a martial arts book that he had long forgotten. It seemed to be about body cultivation...

Back then, when the immemorial divine beasts had been auctioned off, he had also auctioned the Vermillion Bird. [Cloud Piercing Four Spirits].

The rebate he had received was the “Vermillion Bird Divine Flame, which he had once taken the time to read. It was the body-tempering technique of the Vermillion Bird clan.

After cultivating to a great degree, one could transform into a Vermilion Bird, and their combat power would skyrocket. At the same time, their physical body would be strengthened, and their attacks would contain the divine flames of the Vermilion Bird.

Now that Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue had the Nirvana Phoenix Fire in their bodies and had cultivated the Nine Phoenix Fire Technique, the scorching Vermilion Bird body was the most suitable for them.

“Are you trying to win us over?”

Mao Zhu was smart and immediately saw through Lin Mo’s thoughts.

Hearing this, Song Lianxue was put in a difficult position. She came from the Snow Valley, and although she didn’t receive any special treatment, her family had been disciples of the Snow Valley clan for generations.

She would probably be laughed at by the world if she betrayed Lin Mo after receiving his kindness.

“I’ll join unconditionally. Xiao Xue will be fine. She’s from the Snow Valley, after all,” said Mao Zhu as she grabbed Song Lianxue’s hand.

Before Lin Mo could say anything, she had already answered for the two of them.

“ ... ”

Lin Mo was speechless as he rolled his eyes. “Have I ever told you that I’m a rogue cultivator?”

However, as soon as he said that, Mao Zhu looked at him in disbelief.

What she said next left Lin Mo speechless.

“The Bai family of the Tomb of Ten Thousand Souls in the southern sky region. Isn’t that the family you swore to join?”

The Qilin scratched its head. When it saw the unfriendly look in Lin Mo’s eyes, it smiled awkwardly and tried to escape.

“Little girl, have you revealed everything about me?”

Lin Mo grabbed the Qilin and pulled her small ears as he spoke to her fiercely.

“It hurts...”

The Qilin put on a pitiful look and quibbled, “You’ve even given them a Heaven-grade cultivation technique. Why can’t you tell them where you came from...”

Lin Mo could not bear to see the Qilin in such a pitiful state, even though he knew that the little girl was just pretending...

“You can’t tell anyone else in the future, or the consequences will be disastrous...” said Lin Mo with a serious expression on his face. The Eastern Continent was considered his hometown, and there were many old friends living there...

Therefore, the fewer people who knew, the better. After all, he had offended many people.

If an absolute Saint peeked into their soul memories and found out about it, the information would be leaked.

If those people can’t find him, then they won’t be able to find the Eastern Continent...

“I know...”

Knowing that it had done something wrong, the Qilin lowered her head and wrung her fingers, as if it was admitting her mistake.

“Brother Lin, don’t worry. After Xiao Xue and I found out, we asked the Qilin to seal our memories.”

Mao Zhu had persuaded the Qilin to do so because she knew that this secret was important to Lin Mo.

Therefore, after they knew about it, they asked Qilin to seal their souls with Qilin runes, along with the “Nine Phoenix Fire Technique”.

...

Unless an Emperor-level expert made a move, no one would be able to pry into this memory.

Breaking the seal by force would only cause their souls to be destroyed and they would not be able to obtain anything.

“I’ve burdened you all...”

Lin Mo sighed. Although they were able to keep it a secret, they now had the qi of a Qilin on them.

He didn’t know what kind of treatment the Snow Valley master would give Song Lianxue...

“Let’s get back to the topic. I’m not inviting you to join the Bai family.”

He shook his head. After all, the distance was too far. The two of them would probably not be willing to be separated.

“Then what does Brother Lin mean?” The two of them were puzzled.

“The Molin Chamber of Commerce will not be disbanding. I plan to continue doing this business in the Northern Continent.”

This was the only way he would be able to obtain more resources to satisfy the cultivation of the God Devourer Body.

Of course, the prerequisite for all of this was that he could move freely in the Northern Continent.

...

However, this was a story for the future. Now, the Molin Chamber of Commerce needed a real core figure.

Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian were not bad, and Lin Mo wanted to rope them in as well.

And because it was a Chamber of Commerce, there weren't many restrictions on freedom. Disciples from other races could join, and Song Lianxue would be able to come as well.

"Of course I'm willing."

The two of them agreed without any hesitation. The Snow Valley clan would not stop them from joining their friend's Chamber of Commerce. In fact, they would even support them.

After all, this was Lin Mo's and Qilin's Chamber of Commerce, and their future was limitless.

Perhaps in a thousand or ten thousand years, the Molin Chamber of Commerce would become a powerful force that could dominate a state.

"That's great. I still have secret techniques and martial arts techniques that will suit you very well. Take it as a benefit of joining us."

After getting a satisfactory answer, Lin Mo was not stingy.

He cultivated the second level of the true Phoenix's Nirvana technique and the body-tempering martial art, the scorching Vermilion Bird body.

The two were around the Level 6 or Level 7 Heaven- class.

To Lin Mo, who could control the Kun Peng Art technique, it was of no use. He would not feel bad giving it away. innread.com

"This..."

Seeing such precious secret techniques and martial arts, Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue's eyes widened in disbelief.

The benefits of joining were simply too astonishing.

Even a Saint of a great sect would need to have astonishing achievements in cultivation to obtain a secret martial technique of this level.

However, Lin Mo had given it to them directly, so they were at a loss for words.

Upon seeing this, Lin Mo smiled and nodded. "Take it. When we face strong enemies in the future, all you need to do is help me."

Chapter 700 - 700 Dragon-Eating Beast

700 Dragon-Eating Beast

Back in the Northern Continent, he had been surrounded by enemies on all sides. It was only after he had met the Qilin that he had found a companion.

As for Mu Yuzhu, she was merely a cooperative partner who had joined forces for the sake of benefits.

Now that Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu were here, the number of people around him gradually increased.

"Then it would be impolite for the two of us to refuse."

The two of them accepted the item and bid farewell to Lin Mo and the Qilin. They found a secret room and began to cultivate in seclusion.

Before he went into seclusion, Lin Mo gave out the Mysterious Sky Palm of Creation that he had just obtained.

After all, it was a Level 4 Heaven-class Martial Art. Although it was not as good as a Celestial grade, it was still precious.

“Brother Lin Mo, you’re giving away so many good things. Are you sure it’s not because you’re interested in them?” Qilin said with a smirk.

Hearing this, Lin Mo raised his hand to teach the little girl a lesson, but she nimbly dodged and ran out.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 3 Heaven-rank Divine Medicine, Cherishing Flower and Fruit.]

[Successfully triggered 10000-fold auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 Heaven-grade Divine Medicine, Flowing Light Moon-Watching Fruit.]

The system’s voice sounded in his mind. Lin Mo was surprised to hear that it was a return of 10000 times the auction rebate.

Cherishing Flower and Fruit. This was the second last item in this auction. It was a divine fruit that was extremely suitable for cultivation.

The Flowing Light Moon-Watching Fruit contained extremely rich heaven and earth qi. Its effects would be very beneficial for both him and the Qilin.

“The finale is coming up, it’s time to go out.”

After summoning the Qilin, the two of them went to the auction stage. The auction was already lively, but with the appearance of Lin Mo and Qilin, the atmosphere reached its peak.

“Everyone, next up is the final treasure, the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree, a Level 8 Heaven-realm Divine Tree.”

After taking the auction hammer from Zhao Tianyu’s hands, the Qilin also pushed a small cart up from behind.

In the huge water tank, there was a fruit tree that was nearly two meters tall.

There were also two fruits hanging on it. They were rich and plump, with a divine glow emitting from it.

As soon as the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree appeared, everyone present became nervous.

Lin Mo's sharp senses sensed hostility. There was someone who could no longer bear it anymore and his heart was wavering as to whether he should make a move.

“Hehe...”

Seeing this, Lin Mo's soul power spread out. The Qilin behind him also understood and locked onto the few people with Lin Mo.

If anyone dared to make a move, they would have to face the attacks of these two.

Those people were shocked. After realizing that they had been discovered, their faces filled with horror.

The thought of making a move had only just appeared in their minds when they were discovered. If they really made a move, would they really be able to oppose them?

In the end, reason triumphed over greed.

Since it was an auction, they would have to use proper means to obtain the item. Perhaps, for the sake of his reputation, Lin Mo would even protect the successful bidder while in Lin City...

“Everyone, the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree is extremely precious and the price of spiritual stones is too high. I don't think anyone can afford it.”

Lin Mo looked down. A Level 8 Heaven-class Tree of God would cause a war between the great sects if it was in the outside world.

Its price was over 10 billion because one could obtain a dozen Pseudo Dragon Fruits every 100 years as long as it was taken care of properly.

This was a very important cultivation resource, and no one wanted to miss out on it.

“Therefore, this auction will be conducted through the barter system. Of course, if anyone can take out 10 billion upper spiritual stones, I will accept it.”

Lin Mo then knocked the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction.

“I’ll give you three Level 7 Heaven-class Divine Pills and a Level 5 Heaven-class Martial Art.

The first to bid was the master from the Earth Dragon tribe. He was bidding on behalf of Gu You. As a sub-Dragon species, he was unwilling to give up.

“Tsk, this is less than half the value of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree. Does the Earth Dragon tribe still have the nerve to bid?”

A man walked out of the private room. He was a member of the Wind Dragon race.

“Brother Lin, I am the number one prodigy of the Wind Dragon race and I’m called Feng Xuan. I have a strong bloodline and am in urgent need of Pseudo Dragon Fruits to restore my bloodline back to its ancestors.”

He continued, “The treasures I have with me this time aren’t that precious, but I hope that you can give me some face and allow me to buy on credit...”

Everyone was shocked to hear that. The Wind Dragon Clan was really going all out for the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

However, the people from the Earth Dragon Clan weren’t happy. They said, “This is an auction, how can you buy on credit...”

“Sure, but the goods will only be handed over at the same time as the money is paid. Just name your price. I can wait for you for seven days...”

Lin Mo did not mind this. The return on the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree had already been set. It would be 50000 times the value, and it would be at least a Quasi-Immortal grade Immortal Tree.

Naturally, if he could sell more divine pills, he was willing to let them buy on credit.

“This ...” The people of the Earth Dragon clan’s people were bewildered, and their faces darkened.

“Haha, then the Wind Dragon Clan will bid three Level 8 Heaven-class Divine Pills,” said the man from the Wind Dragon Clan with a laugh.

“Seeing how you guys are having such a lively fight, I also wanted to join in.”

Just then, the door of the auction hall was pushed open, and a burly man walked in.

He was more than two meters tall, and his strong muscles contained explosive power.

The faces of the Earth Dragon Clan and the Wind Dragon Clan changed when they saw this man.

“This person is very strong. I can’t tell what his original form is...”

...

The Qilin, who was extremely sensitive to the auras of demonic beasts, transmitted her voice to Lin Mo, telling him what she felt.

Someone mumbled as he revealed the man’s identity, his voice was filled with fear.

“Behemoth? What kind of race is that?” Lin Mo and the Qilin were both confused.

One of them had just been born and had little knowledge, while the other came from the barren Eastern Continent and had little knowledge...

In the end, it was Zhao Tianyu who informed him through voice transmission before he finally understood. He had not expected such an impressive race would come to Lin City...

“The Behemoths, also known as Behemoth Beasts, are said to be dragon-eating Beasts. They are brutal and bloodthirsty, and their brute force is endless. They are terrifying fierce beasts of ancient times.”

The strength of the Behemoth Clan could be ranked in the top ten even if they were against all the forces on the continent were combined together.

The race’s three Emperor-to-be experts had profound cultivation and often appeared in the world, wandering the starry sky.

And this was the power that they had shown. No one knew how many more terrifying existences were hidden in the behemoth tribe...

“A dragon-eating beast? How is that possible? How can a true dragon be so easy to deal with?”

...

The Qilin quickly spoke up angrily before Zhao Tianyu could finish, its beautiful eyes staring at the behemoth that had just walked in.

A faint hostility had already been emitted. In ancient times, true dragons were like the Qilin and ranked as divine beasts.

Although there was no ranking among the divine beasts, a true dragon’s combat strength could definitely be ranked in the top three, and it could even compete for first place.

How could such a terrifying existence be considered as food? Who would dare to treat them as food?

Hearing this, the burly man named Shentu Luo was shocked. The demonic qi on his body receded a little.

He looked at the Qilin with some apprehension, but that was all.

In the depths of his eyes, he showed a sense of longing for the Qilin. Lin Mo was very familiar with this kind of gaze.

He was thinking about the Qilin blood. Seeing this, Lin Mo’s eyes started to turn hostile.

“Of course, it’s not a true dragon. It’s a sub-dragon, a powerful demonic beast with dragon blood.”

Zhao Tianyu hurriedly explained as he wiped the sweat from his forehead. He was afraid that Qilin and Shentu Luo would start fighting.
