Chapter 703 - 703 A Treasured Land Nurtured by Heaven and Earth

However, to him, this obstacle was nothing. He would easily be able to pass through it.

After Lin Mo passed through the bamboo forest, the Qilin also came out and shook its head. On the other hand, Mao Zhu and the other two seemed to be in a daze, and the look in their eyes was somewhat blurry.

“Are you all fine?” Lin Mo asked after waking the three of them, “We’re going to encounter real danger soon.”

After passing through the purple bamboo forest, he could see some figures.

!!

These people were searching for treasures that might be buried underground.

When they saw Lin Mo and the rest of his group enter, their eyes filled with a ferocious look. In the ruins, there were all sorts of traps and formations that were very dangerous, but the most fatal ones were the hidden arrows.

The people who came in with you might catch you off guard.

The Wind Spirit Sect ruins were huge. They were still on the outskirts, in a very primitive forest.

It was unclear how many people had come here, but too many corpses could be seen along the way.

“Eh? Why are there icebergs in a forest full of wood elements...” Lin Mo was shocked.

In front of him, the temperature began to drop very rapidly. He took a few steps forward, and snow actually began to fall from the sky.

This was a strange phenomenon, but it was already becoming faint and was about to dissipate.

Lin Mo waved his hand, blowing away the snow and revealing the actual mountain range.

After the melting snow disappeared, the rivers flowed and the earth was full of greenery. It was as if all living things had been revived and spiritual energy had gathered.

“What a magical phenomenon. Within the surrounding ten thousand miles, all the heaven and earth spiritual qi is gathering here,” cheered the Qilin.

There were no supreme treasures here, but this phenomenon was extraordinary. It was as if a treasure land had been born.

Lin Mo’s act of blowing away the wind and snow had coincidentally completed the final step of this treasured land.

“Bzzzzzz!”

A buzzing sound could be heard. On the mountain peak, a huge tree grew. Its roots intertwined and coiled around the mountain.

The tree was hundreds of feet tall, and its branches and leaves were emitting wisps of chaotic mist. The aura of Dao gradually disappeared.

This tree had developed its own will and knew how to turn misfortune into fortune.

This chaotic mist was able to cover its fluctuations and make this treasure land disappear without being discovered.

Lin Mo was a little curious. This tree should be considered a treasure. After all, it had such power even though it had only just recovered.

“Let’s go. Perhaps after a thousand years, this place will become a treasured land for cultivation. However, we can’t touch it now.”

The Qilin spoke up, as she could see things that ordinary people couldn’t.

This place was filled with auspicious signs, and this tree also had great luck. It should not be damaged by their hands.

Doing it forcefully was equivalent to destroying the creation of a place, and it was easy to be contaminated with unnecessary karma.

“What a pity. I thought I had picked up a treasure this time,” sighed Lin Mo. He did not know who would benefit from this place in the future...

“With me here, we’ll definitely have an opportunity,” promised Qilin as she patted her chest.

As an auspicious beast, she still had this bit of confidence.

“Boom...”

A series of explosions rang out, and the surrounding space surged. The entire mountain range in front of them was enveloped.

The chaotic mist spread and sealed the area. Lin Mo and the others quickly left.

As soon as they stepped out, everyone was a little surprised because the mountain range in front of them had disappeared.

The mountain peak was gone, and it had become a plain with only a little spiritual qi remaining.

“How shocking. This place is probably not any weaker than the Ten Thousand-year Cold Pond in Snow Valley,” sighed Song Lianxue.

It was a pity that this treasured land had disappeared. He didn’t know where it had gone. Perhaps he wouldn’t have the chance to see it again in this life.

“Look, there are many spatial rifts ahead, and there are islands in the void,” said the Qilin as she pointed to the front as she had found some clues.

Lin Mo sensed it as well, and black and white runes appeared in his eyes.

Through the obstacles, he could see the island in the void clearly. It was not far away, but it was floating in the void, surrounded by a shocking killing formation.

If he were to cross the void, he might trigger the formation and lose his life.

Hearing Lin Mo's explanation, Mao Zhu and the other two were shocked that the existence of the killing formation could be seen from such a distance.

"Let's head over first. There might be a teleportation formation."

Lin Mo flew forward. With the naked eye, it looked like the spatial rift was very close.

However, as he moved forward, he realized that the distance was far and that the spatial dimension laws were disrupting this place.

The five of them flew for a full six hours before they finally arrived at the location of the spatial crack.

As they neared, they could already see the islands inside. They were like small worlds floating in the void.

"Wow, that's a Divine Fruit Forest. It's full of fruits..."

"There's also a great fortune over there. There's a lake filled with divine liquid, and there are spiritual creatures swimming in it, which is very rare."

Lin Mo was shocked. If he was able to cultivate here, he would definitely be able to reach the ninth heaven of the Almighty. This was too shocking...

In addition, there was also an island with many palaces on it. Although it was protected by a formation, it was already in ruins.

There were also several cultivators who were trying to break the formation and obtain the fortune inside.

In the distance, there was a Tree of Life. The fruit of the Quasi-Immortal Tree could make countless Quasi-Emperors green with envy.

It had been millions of years since they had broken through to the Emperor-to-be realm, and some of them were starting to run out of life.

...

If he could refine the source of the Tree of Life, he would be able to recover his vitality and return to his peak.

"How do I get in?" Lin Mo said.

He couldn't wait any longer. He couldn't miss out on the lake that was filled with divine liquid and the Tree of Life. Taking it out would drive people crazy.

"Why don't we try entering the void first?" The Qilin suggested.

She was coveting the divine fruit forest. If she could obtain it, it would more or less make up for the flaws in her bloodline.

In this way, the complete spell technique of the Qilin clan would reappear in her blood, making her combat power even stronger.

"That's good."

The small group nodded in agreement and flew into the void.

In the void, they approached an island and tried to get close. At the same time, they were prepared to escape.

Once the killing formation was triggered, they would all die if they couldn't avoid it.

However, what shocked Lin Mo was that as soon as they got close, an unknown force attacked them.

...

Before they could react, they were swept up by this force and brought to the island ahead.

"Isn't that a killing formation?"

Lin Mo frowned. His senses could not be wrong. That was definitely a killing formation, and it was being used for protection.

But why had they been allowed in so easily?

"Oh, don't worry about it. Hurry up and find the treasure."

The Qilin was very happy. Although this place couldn't be compared to what they had seen earlier, it was still a land of treasure.

Cracks appeared in the sky from time to time, from which violent spatial energy gathered.

It poured down, forming a terrifying spatial storm.

He didn't know what this island was made of, but it contained laws that could suppress spatial storms and prevent them from spreading.

However, after these spatial storms stopped, many spatial laws were left behind.

If he went to comprehend it now, he would gain a lot.

It was just a pity that none of the five people had cultivated any spatial laws. This lucky chance could only be given up.

“I wonder if I'll be able to enter the other islands...”

Lin Mo sighed before leading the group forward. Along the way, they came across many precious spiritual springs.

Other than that, there were also some rare beasts that had no cultivation, but their bodies contained an abundant amount of qi.

“We don't need to pick any spiritual herbs below Level 9 Earth class. They're not very useful...” said Lin Mo.

They had encountered some spiritual mountains along the way, where many spiritual herbs had been growing.

It was a pity that divine medicine was precious and couldn't grow here. One would need some luck to find it.

“Come quickly. There's a divine herb in front. I can smell it.”

!!

Walking on the road, the Qilin perked up and sniffed the rich medicinal fragrance in the air.

This was the aura of divine medicine. They continued forward and passed through a dense forest until they came to a small pond in front of them.

In the middle of the pond, there was a fiery red lotus with strange patterns on it. There was even a wisp of fire burning in the center of the flower.

“This is the Heaving Connecting God-Attracting Lotus that contains the Dao Law of Fire.”

Lin Mo’s heart skipped a beat. This was a good item. To Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu, it would be a rare sacred object for cultivation.

“Stop.”

Suddenly, there was some movement not far away, and more than a dozen creatures walked out. Some were humans, some were demonic beasts.

They were in different forms, with sinister smiles on their faces. They held weapons in their hands, and the lowest realm among them was a Level 8 Almighty.

With more than a dozen of them working together, they could be considered a relatively strong force on this Island.

“What do you mean?” The Qilin was displeased because there was also a person hiding in the pool. The person had quickly picked the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, causing her to pounce on nothing.

A minotaur walked up and waved the battleaxe in his hand. With a sinister smile, he said, “What do you think we’re doing? This is a robbery! Hand over all the treasures you have!

“You guys didn’t really think that you could find a Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus in the outermost area, do you?”

Someone said with a mocking smile.

They were a group of bandits who specially guarded the vicinity and were using the divine medicine as bait to attract people here so they could rob them.

After understanding the situation, Lin Mo sighed.

These fellows were really unlucky... If they had used Earth-level spiritual herbs as bait, they would not have taken a detour.

“Hand over the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, as well as the divine medicine and half-divine medicine you have, and I will spare your lives,” said the Qilin slowly.

“Haha, how does a little girl like you dare to say that?” The dozen or so people on his side laughed and held their weapons, ready to attack.

“Let me see the strength of the two of you,”

Lin Mo smiled and pulled Qilin away. At the same time, he told Feng Tian to back off and not attack.

With half of the Nirvana Phoenix Fire and the Nine Phoenix Fire Technique, Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu’s combat power should be very strong.

It just so happened that these guys had bumped into the muzzle of his gun. He wanted to give these two people a chance to practice, and he also wanted to experience it.

“Boom...”

The battle erupted, and the pool in front of them instantly evaporated as the flames burned everything.

“Ah...”

“Bang!”

All sorts of sounds could be heard. In less than three minutes, Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue had finished their battle.

There were more than a dozen people lying on the ground, and not a single piece of skin on their bodies was left intact.

All of them had been burned. Moreover, even this had only been because Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue had been merciful. Otherwise, there would not even be ashes left.

“A person on the Hidden Dragon List...”

The minotaur was shocked and he stared at Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue in disbelief.

Two masters on the Hidden Dragon List had terrifying combat power, yet they had all been crushed.

Moreover, this was not the most terrifying thing. The two women who had defeated them seemed to be honored by the handsome young man...

“Please spare... Spare me...”

A total of thirteen storage rings were given to Lin Mo, which contained many precious treasures.

There were eight Level 9 Earth-class spiritual herbs, three rare ones, and no half divine herbs.

These people had been lucky to have obtained a Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus and used it as bait...

“You may share this lotus with Sister Song and Sister Mao Zhu.”

The Qilin laughed. This time, she didn't try to snatch it, because she knew that this Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus with attributes was most suitable for those two who cultivated on the fire path.

“Indeed. Unfortunately, it's only a Level 1 Heaven-class...” Lin Mo was helpless.

After the auctioning of the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, he would be able to get a better rebate which would be of greater help to Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue.

Perhaps it would be able to help the two of them break through to the King realm.

“I'll keep it first, and we can distribute it later,” said Lin Mo. He wanted to find an opportunity to auction it off to a random group of people and perhaps even sell it at a discount.

“What should we do with these people?” Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue had no objections to his suggestion and pointed at the dozen people lying on the ground.

“Have mercy! You guys have robbed us all!”

Some of the creatures screamed and begged for mercy. They even mentioned a few other places where people were also committing robberies...

Lin Mo was so angry that he laughed. They had not hesitated to sell others out at all...

“By the way, you mentioned that this is the outer region. What did you mean?” He decided to find out some information. innread.com

“You must have only just arrived, right? Then you should go deeper without any further delay.”

After some questioning, these people told him everything they knew because they were afraid of death.

...

It turned out that anything that was close to the island would be absorbed by the formation. There were more than a dozen islands like this.

This was the first island, which was also on the outskirts.

Except for the beginning, when there were still people who could find divine medicine, there was basically nothing else.

In the center of the island, there was a passage that led to the depths.

The true treasure ground was also in the depths, with many great opportunities. If they went too late, they would lose everything.

“My Lord, you should go now. About half a month ago, Mu Yuzhu, a peerless master on the Hidden Dragon List, arrived. If you are late, you will really lose everything.”

After saying that, these people urged Lin Mo and the others to leave quickly.

“Mu Yuzhu has already arrived...”

Lin Mo frowned. If that was the case, he really could not delay any further.

The Divine Fruit Forest, the lake that was filled with divine liquid, and the Tree of Life were all one-in-a-million opportunities...

“Girl, why are you digging the soil?”

...

Suddenly, Lin Mo looked at the place where the pond had been. The water had evaporated, leaving behind only scorched earth.

While Lin Mo had been interrogating the people, the Qilin had dug around a thousand meters into the ground.

“Haha, my instinct was right. There really is a piece of treasure here.”

The Qilin laughed as it flew out of the pit, holding a piece of silver-white ore in its hand.

“Quickly appraise this. What kind of treasure is this?” The Qilin tossed it over to Lin Mo, its face filled with anticipation.

Lin Mo was momentarily stunned before storing it in the system space.

[Chaotic Spirit Stone, Heaven-class Level 9. In ancient times, the Wind Spirit Sect had a powerful master who had made a powerful immortal weapon.]

[With the Chaotic Sky Stone as the main material, the energy-less fragments are cut off during the cultivating process. After countless years of accumulation, they are turned into Chaotic Spirit Stones.]

Lin Mo was a little surprised when he took out the ore.

It was great to have an auspicious beast by his side. She was even capable of finding such a rare ore. This Chaotic Spirit Stone could be used to refine quasi-immortal artifacts.

Moreover, if he were to auction it, he might be able to obtain a piece of Chaotic Sky Stone...

Although it would require a very high multiplier, if he suffered a serious loss, he might really be able to get a Chaotic Sky Stone...

“What about it? What kind of treasure is this?”

The Qilin was filled with hope as it waited for Lin Mo’s appraisal results.

“This is a Chaotic Spirit Stone. It’s derived from the immortal material, the Chaotic Sky Stone. It’s currently at Heaven-class Level 9...

At this point, Lin Mo could not hide the joy in his heart. This little girl was truly a little lucky star...

“A Chaotic Spirit Stone? How is this possible?”

The ones who were the most shocked were the dozen or so people who were still groaning on the ground.

They had been guarding this area for more than a month to commit their robberies, which meant that they had been with the treasure for more than a month...

It had already been a month yet they had not discovered it. All they knew was how to rob people along the road...

!!

More importantly, now that they were being robbed instead, these four were feeling the most uncomfortable.

“Hehe, I felt it earlier. This place is filled with auspicious qi, and there are auspicious clouds covering the sun in the sky.

“A Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus couldn’t possibly attract this auspicious qi, so I was sure that there was a treasure buried here.”

After saying that, Qilin smiled triumphantly, her small face looking very proud of herself.

“You managed to see through the auspicious sign. You’re the auspicious beast White Qilin...”

All this time, the minotaur had been lying on the ground and pretending to be dead. Suddenly, he stood up and looked at Lin Mo and the others in disbelief.

There was only one Qilin in the world, and she came from the ancient battlefield. She was the daughter of the ancient divine beast Qilin.

Everyone in the Northern Continent knew that he was now following the human God Devourer Lin Mo.

At the thought of this, he looked at Lin Mo, and the shock on his face intensified.

“I’ve kicked an iron plate, a very hard iron plate...”

The group of people shook their heads bitterly. They had never expected that they would encounter these two people while robbing on the outskirts...

“You’re quite sensible. Seeing as I’ve gained quite a lot, I’ll spare your lives.”

Qilin waved her hand to dismiss these people.

She had always kept Lin Mo’s teachings in mind. She would let anyone who was not a threat go as long as the other party did not cross the line.

“Many thanks, great aunt.”

One after another, more than a dozen people got up. No longer pretending to be dead, all of them bowed with a sincere attitude.

They stole a glance at Lin Mo and were overjoyed to find that the latter had no objections. All of them fled, not daring to stay any longer.

“Let’s go. We’ll continue going deeper. Since we’re still in the outer region, there’s no need to waste time.”

Lin Mo led the group forward. He spread his Kun Peng Wings and flew at extreme speed.

It took them around ten minutes to arrive at the center of the island. They soon found a path and went deeper into the island.

As they went deeper, passing through three islands, the number of people they encountered gradually increased.

The number of corpses piled on the ground had also increased. Some of the corpses even had traces of blood that had yet to dry.

The smell of blood thickened. The Qilin frowned. It didn't like this environment.

For the sake of treasures, countless living beings were willing to risk their lives, and even their companions would fight over uneven distribution.

They didn't find any good treasures on the three islands.

The best ones were the two divine medicines, which he had snatched from the group of bandits.

When they arrived at the center of the fourth Island, they stopped.

"There are more than ten paths here, where should we go?" Lin Mo looked at the Qilin.

The latter nodded and pointed out the leftmost path based on her intuition. "Every path is accompanied by auspicious qi.

"This is the one where the smell of blood is the weakest. It's the only one I can feel."

If she wanted to know more details, she would have to activate the Eye of Destiny, which would be too much for her.

"Then let's take this one."

Without hesitation, Lin Mo led his people in, moving swiftly along the way.

Not long after, they encountered a group of people who looked as if they had almost completely lost their minds in order to snatch the treasures.

Any time they saw a living being, it would immediately attack to snatch the opportunity.

Overwhelmed by their desire, they would probably go crazy and lose themselves in the killing.

“Just let them be. These people won’t survive...” said Lin Mo.

Unless these people were saved by divine medicine, they would eventually lose their way. This was caused by having killed too many people.

One who only knew how to kill without restraint would be the most difficult to cultivate. This was also what he had taught Qilin.

Otherwise, she, who was an enemy of the world, would have her hands stained with even more blood...

After dealing with a group of people, he obtained two half-divine herbs and one divine herb from them.

However, they soon encountered another group, who had also gone almost completely crazy. All they knew was how to kill without caring about anything else.

The final result was that they were killed by Lin Mo and lost their lives.

This island was very large, and there were many treasures on it, but there were also many desperadoes.

As they traveled, they fought and killed along the way, so it took them a full day to reach the depths of the island.

They encountered three forked roads here, and the Qilin chose the one in the middle.

Lin Mo and the others were attacked as soon as they set foot on the fifth Island.

The attackers were all King realm warriors. There were seven of them, and some of them were even from the Hidden Dragon List.

In order to increase the distance between them, these people chose to break through quickly and find the places where the top masters cultivated in seclusion, so that they could take the opportunity to kill them.

They had gone through a tough battle, and Mao Zhu and the other two were injured. If Lin Mo and the Qilin had not taken action, they would have been in serious danger.

...

“Stop! There’s a dangerous place ahead...”

It was at this moment that Lin Mo suddenly frowned and asked everyone to stop. He realized that something ahead of them was wrong.

The Qilin sensed something and looked ahead. Death energy was surrounding it, and there was no sign of any auspicious energy in the whole forest.

This was a sign of danger. Those who entered would most likely die.

“That’s not right. This path should have a chance...” The Qilin hurriedly said. This shouldn’t have happened.

“Be careful.”

All of a sudden, Lin Mo grabbed the Qilin, who was about to step forward to check and pulled her over.

“Aa-oo...”

A shrill howl came from the forest, and a ghostly figure dashed out, charging at the Qilin.

The ghostly figure was extremely fast, but there seemed to be some mysterious force in the forest that pulled it back.

“What was that?”

...

Feng Tian was shocked and walked forward. The ghostly shadow was too fast, so he couldn’t see what had happened.

“Someone’s coming out.”

Lin Mo said as he looked into the forest. A group of people scuttled out in a sorry state and left without even looking at Lin Mo and the others.

“You guys wait here for a moment, I’ll go and ask.”

After getting Qilin to protect the three of them, Lin Mo left the group and followed the group that had just left.

It just so happened that he had a few treasures in his hands that he could take the opportunity to auction off...

“Your Excellency, are you trying to take advantage of the situation?”

In the dense forest, there was a young man with an ugly expression on his face. He called for everyone to stop and glared at Lin Mo, who was chasing after him, with an unfriendly expression.

“I don’t have any ill intentions. I just have a few treasures that I would like to auction off...” said Lin Mo as he slowly flew over.

“God Devourer Lin Mo...” The young man was shocked when he saw Lin Mo’s face.

“How about it? These treasures will be auctioned on the spot. Who among you is able to buy them?” Lin Mo waved his hand and took out three divine medicines.

One of them was the fire attribute Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus.

The most valuable item that caught the young man’s attention was the Chaotic Spirit Stone in Lin Mo’s hand.

“This is the Heaven-class Level 1 Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, and the auction begins,” said Lin Mo with a smile.

“Are you really going to sell it?” The young man said. He was already tempted.

Although it was simple and crude, it was still an auction. The buyer and the seller were both willing parties, and the money and goods were settled. All the conditions of the rebate system were met.

Various bids were made. After Lin Mo had successfully completed the trade with the other party, the system's voice rang out...

This time, Lin Mo was very lucky. With a critical hit of 10000 times, he had obtained a Level 5 Heaven-class Divine Medicine.

!!

As long as they could find a suitable place to cultivate, they would be able to break through to the King tier.

"Many thanks."

Lin Mo smiled. The young man who had just bought the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus was at a loss upon hearing Lin Mo's words.

"Brother Lin, you're too kind. I've taken advantage of you in this deal." The young man did not know what Lin Mo was thinking.

He didn't dare to hide anything and told them everything about the forest in front of them.

"There's no hurry. The auction will be continuing. You may also bid for any other items that you like."

Lin Mo was not in a hurry. He took the next Divine Medicine with an extremely good attitude, even though these guys did not offer a high price.

In fact, although they did not fight for it, they still bought it with divine pills, so Lin Mo did not lose out.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 1 Heaven-rank Divine Medicine]

After selling the three divine medicines, Lin Mo obtained two Level 4 Heaven-class Divine Medicines and a Level 5 Heaven-class Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus.

This harvest could be said to be perfect.

There was one last treasure left, and it was also the most precious one. It was the Chaotic Spirit Stone of Heaven-grade Level 9.]

“Brother Lin, we’re short of money. We really can’t afford these primal Chaotic Spirit Stones...”

The young man in the lead gave a wry smile. He could tell that Lin Mo was really going to sell it. He was probably going to exchange it for divine pills or divine medicine.

However, they really didn’t have any divine pills or divine medicines that were comparable to Level 9 Heaven-grade Divine Materials, and they had to be at least Level 7 Heaven-grade.

It was not enough to pile it up with just quantity. It was far from enough.

“System, they can’t afford the starting price, so should I insist on selling it without any rebate?” Lin Mo silently asked.

[If the conditions aren't met, I won't give a rebate to you. However, the other party's treasures can be used to purchase Chaotic Spirit Stones.]

Hearing this, Lin Mo's interest was piqued. The other party did not seem to be lying. It seemed that he was unaware of the treasure he was carrying.

"You can't fool me... The Qilin can see the auspicious qi emitting from your body, so it's obvious that you have a precious treasure on you. That's why I chased after you."

Lin Mo spread his hands and continued, "Since you don't like Chaotic Spirit Stones, I'll take my leave."

He turned around to leave.

"Brother Lin, please wait."

As expected, the young man quickly stopped Lin Mo when he turned around.

Then, he took out a pile of ancient objects from the bag at his waist, which gave off a rotten smell.

"We found this inside, and we were just about to get someone to appraise it."

As he spoke, he passed the pile of old objects over and said, "I heard that Brother Lin has a Chamber of Commerce that often holds auctions.

[You must be very good at appraising treasures. Can you help me appraise them?"]

At the same time, he and the few people behind him became more vigilant as they stared at Lin Mo with serious looks on their faces.

"Let's forget about the appraisal. You may use these to bid for the Chaotic Spirit Stone," said Lin Mo as he shook his head.

He wasn't stupid. If he actually determined the items to be a heaven-defying treasure, would he say it?

This wasn't about morality, but about profit.

Now, he left the decision to these people. It was up to them to decide what to do.

“This...”

Upon hearing Lin Mo’s words, the small group of people looked hesitant.

This was a huge gamble. On one hand, they looked like trash, but they could also potentially be treasures.

On the other hand, there were Supreme-grade Chaotic Spirit Stones to be gained.

It would be a difficult choice for anyone to make, not to mention that they were not at the point where they could ignore the treasure...

“Let’s start bidding. There are enough primal Chaotic Spirit Stones for us to report back...” said a young girl. She felt that it would be better to bid for Lin Mo’s Chaotic Spirit Stone.

Moreover, they would even be able to win Lin Mo’s favor by doing so. At the very least, based on the rumors about Lin Mo’s character, he was trustworthy.

He had opened a Chamber of Commerce with auctions as his main focus, so he still had to pay attention to his reputation.

He definitely wouldn’t do something like snatching the auction item after selling it.

The group of people discussed among themselves for a while. In the end, the young man in the lead nodded and agreed to use the pile of unknown ancient objects as a bid.

“Deal, the auction is over.”

The simple auction ended, and all four items were sold.

The system’s voice rang in Lin Mo’s mind as he handed over the Chaotic Spirit Stones to the young man.

...

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Heaven-grade Level 9 Divine Material, Chaotic Spirit Stone.]

[Successfully triggered 6000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Quasi-Immortal Material, Chaotic Origin Stone.]

He had obtained a piece of immortal material, but he could keep it. In the future, he could use it to cultivate the War Demon Spear and add immortal material.

“Right, I’d like to ask you guys what’s in that forest.”

Lin Mo was asking the others for advice. As they were going deeper in, it would be better to know some of the dangers ahead of time.

“Brother Lin, if it’s not necessary, it’s better not to go in...”

When the young man had a brief moment of recall, his face turned pale.

He admitted that they were the subordinates of Tang Ru, the seventh princess of the Holy Blood Dragon Clan and the third most powerful warrior on the Hidden Dragon List.

The one who had led them in was a powerful being who was ranked twenty-first on the Hidden Dragon List.

That person’s combat power had been very strong. When Tang Ru fought with him, it had taken a long time before she finally subdued him.

...

However, such an existence had died on the inside, killed by the countless ghostly shadows.

“Ghostly shadow? What kind of creature is that?” Lin Mo asked.

“Those are no longer living beings. They’re evil ghosts, without life force or soul fluctuation. They’re capable of devouring everything...”

The more the young man thought about it, the more terrified he became. He shook his head. More than thirty people had been in their group, yet they had suffered heavy casualties.

Their leader had already died inside. That place was a dangerous place, and they really couldn’t go in anymore.

“Thank you for the information. Take care.”

Lin Mo clasped his fists together. It was impossible to give up. There were opportunities inside. Since he was already here, he could not miss out on it.

Moreover, at least a few of them had been able to escape. He didn't believe that with him and Qilin here, the number of their group would reduce...

After returning to his group, Lin Mo called for Qilin and the rest to set off.

He wanted to see what kind of danger was hidden in this forest.

At the same time, he also checked the batch of ancient objects he had just received in the system space.

[These are the remains of a magical artifact that have already decayed with the passage of time...]

[Broken bones. Was a Saint while alive, but has now decayed...]

The system introduced a bunch of useless, rotten items, which were destroyed by Lin Mo.

He furrowed his brows. Could it be that those people had been hiding the real treasure and had not taken out the real treasure...

'If that's the case, things are going to be interesting...'

Fortunately, when the last few items were being inspected, Lin Mo finally received some good news.

The rest were all useless and had no value. Only a piece of black jade was identified.

[Ghost Expelling Jade. There are special talismans engraved on it. When activated, it's able to expel evil spirits. At the same time, it is also the key to breaking a certain protective formation.]

“The key, is it the formation inside?”

Lin Mo was a little surprised. This was an unexpected gain. If they found the treasure ground because of this key, they would gain a huge profit.

Furthermore, according to the activation method given by the system, the talisman within the Ghost Expelling Jade was activated.

When they entered the forest, they did not encounter any obstacles.

!!

Countless ghostly figures appeared in the surroundings, baring their fangs and brandishing their claws, wanting to charge at him.

However, they were all repelled by the gentle light emitted by the Ghost Expelling Jade and were unable to get close.

“That’s amazing. Brother Lin Mo, are you some kind of treasure cornucopia? You have all kinds of treasures...” said the Qilin happily. Some of these ghostly figures were difficult to deal with, even for her.

Now, Lin Mo was able to deal with them with just a piece of jade. It was too convenient.

Lin Mo chuckled as the small group went deeper into the forest until they gradually reached the end. They were faced with chaos, as if they had finally reached the end.

“There’s nothing here...” said the Qilin as she looked around, but found nothing.

The small group walked forward and finally came upon a man leaning against a tree at the edge of the chaos.

The area between his eyebrows had turned black, and his soul aura was almost non-existent. This was why Lin Mo and the others had not noticed him at first.

“Hurry... Run!”

As if he had sensed someone approaching, the man turned his head with difficulty. His mouth opened and closed, and he had spat out these two words with difficulty.

“Aowu!”

At this moment, there were ghost howls coming from the distance. The sounds were shrill, causing countless of ghost shadows to rush over.

The ghostly howls sounded like a soul attack. The man leaning against the tree paled, and his soul fluctuations became weaker and weaker.

In fact, even without this attack, he would have been beyond saving, unless he had an immortal medicine.

“You’re Tang Ru’s subordinate?” Lin Mo spoke as he recalled the conversation he had with the young man.

“Alliance... I’m just helping her reach the top after I was defeated,” said the man, with the last bit of his dying breath. His life aura and soul fluctuations then stopped.

“He’s dead...”

The Qilin shook his head. The man’s injuries were too severe, and there was no way to treat them.

“He’s the eldest disciple of the God of War Sect, Lan Hong. He’s a one-in-a-million master in the God of War Sect...” said Feng Tian. He shook his head as he finally recognized the man.

This place was too dangerous. Even Lan Hong was now dead. This man had been even stronger than Fourth Dark General Meng, who had come to the Chamber of Commerce to scheme against Qilin.

“The Ghost Expelling Jade seems to be losing its effect...”

Lin Mo's expression changed. After such a long time, the light of the Ghost Expelling Jade was getting weaker and weaker, and looked like it was about to be extinguished.

"Prepare for battle."

"Feng Tian, the three of you, stand beside me," said Lin Mo as he held the War Demon Spear in his hand.

At the same time, a wisp of black mist appeared around them.

Lin Mo couldn't feel the energy contained in the black mist, but he knew that it wasn't a simple one. If he wasn't careful, he might die.

The black mist gradually took the shape of a human and surrounded them.

Its entire body was pitch-black, and its face could not be seen, except for a pair of scarlet eyes which were the most conspicuous and terrifying.

"Clang!"

Feng Tian was the first to be attacked. The halberd in his hand slashed down, directly splitting the ghostly figure into two.

"But that's all."

Killing the enemy with one strike, Feng Tian smiled. It seemed that these ghostly figures were not very strong. However, if they worked together, they would run amok.

However, he soon stopped laughing. The ghostly figure he had just killed turned into black mist.

In just a few breaths' time, the black mist regrouped and turned into a ghostly figure again.

Moreover, unlike before, the phantom seemed to have evolved, and a layer of pitch-black armor appeared on its body.

Its defense power increased greatly, and it roared as it continued to charge at Feng Tian.

The light of the Ghost Expelling Jade had already dimmed, and it could not stop the ghostly shadow at all. Feng Tian was forced to make a move.

The halberd in his hand slashed out once more with even greater force, killing the ghostly shadow once more.

At the same time, Feng Tian didn't stop. He continued to attack, almost cutting the ghostly shadow into pieces.

However, the same thing happened. After several breaths, the ghostly figure reappeared again. The armor on its body had special patterns and was even harder.

This time, its attack power had also become stronger, and it didn't bother to defend itself at all, trading injury for injury with Feng Tian.

Feng Tian used his martial arts and once again shattered it, but he could not do anything to the black mist...

"Let me do it."

Nirvana Phoenix Fire! Mao Zhu went to help and threw out a flame. The Nirvana Phoenix Fire was one of the top flames in the world.

The moment the black mist touched it, it was immediately burned to ashes by the flames.

"Ji Ji..."

The shrill screams echoed through the forest as the countless ghosts glared at Mao Zhu with their scarlet eyes. In the next moment, they attacked at the same time, and their target was none other than Mao Zhu.

"They're afraid of fire, so you should use the Phoenix Fire."

...

After some observation, Lin Mo had discovered some clues and asked Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu to attack. As the two of them worked together, flames filled the sky.

The nearby forest was set on fire, and the black mist evaporated as screams could be heard.

They were like vengeful souls that had been burned to death by the flames.

“Why do I feel like I’m going to hell...”

Lin Mo mumbled. This was too strange. What exactly were these ghostly figures? They were so difficult to kill and they continued to keep coming back.

Moreover, it had a strong adaptability and could evolve according to its attacks...

“A big fellow is coming...” reminded the Qilin.

In the black mist in the distance, a big guy was being conceived.

A ghostly figure that was ten meters tall materialized and absorbed the black mist. With a stomp of its foot, the earth trembled and the mountains shook.

What was even more shocking was that there was a layer of black ice armor on his body. It was also surrounded by black gas, which could resist the attack of Phoenix Fire.

“How could this be?”

...

Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue were both shocked. What kind of monsters were they?

The battle had only just begun, yet the other party was already able to resist the Phoenix Fire.

If they were able to fight for a long time, wouldn’t that mean they were invincible?

“That’s not right. That armor can’t withstand the Phoenix Fire, but its strength is able to resist and suppress it...”

“Let’s go!” Lin Mo said. He then attacked together with the Qilin. The War Demon Spear and Chaos Bell were used, and the terrifying power destroyed everything in an instant.

The black mist was strange and could avoid a lot of damage.

However, as long as one had enough power, it could not be easily avoided.

All the ghostly figures were destroyed, and even the surrounding black mist dissipated.

The chaotic region in front of him was also affected. Lin Mo then saw that there were formation patterns inside. This was a powerful formation.

“We... We seem to have walked into a terrifying formation...”

If that was the case, it was understandable why the black mist was so strange.

With the support of the formation, the corresponding ability would be evolved.

It was hard to imagine what kind of formation they were facing to be able to do this.

“But, none of us are proficient in formations...”

The Qilin pointed out the key issue. None of the five people present cultivated formations. So even though they had occasionally touched on it, it was essentially useless.

“Help me delay for a while. I’ll go in and take a look...”

Lin Mo was deep in thought. The Ghost Expelling Jade in his hand seemed to be able to dispel the formation.

But the system didn’t mention how he could unlock it, and he didn’t know how to...

The only thing he could do now was to try to find the formation core. That way, he would still have a chance.

If he really couldn’t do it, the only thing he could do was to take everyone and leave.

“But...” The Qilin wanted to speak, but Lin Mo did not give it the chance to.

The Kun Peng spread its wings and brought him into the chaotic region.

“That’s strange. The power of yin and yang and the five elements...”

Lin Mo raised his head and looked around. His surroundings were chaotic and he could not see his direction clearly so he did not know where he was.

He had only walked for a few minutes before he got lost.

!!

He couldn’t find his way inside, and there was nothing around him. He could clearly feel the power, but he couldn’t see or touch it.

“Can you be of any use?”

He held the Ghost Expelling Jade in his hand while constantly being on guard against his surroundings. At the same time, he walked aimlessly through the chaos.

The concept of time gradually faded, and Lin Mo did not know how long he had been walking inside.

His intuition told him that if he continued walking, he would definitely find the eye of the formation.

However, as if in a trance, he felt as if a hundred years had passed in an instant. Time had flown by, and he did not know how long he had been in this area...

“I’ve been rash... I feel like a long time has passed.”

Lin Mo shook his head. If it did not work out in the end, he would only be able to use the power of the Yin Yang Fruit to rush out...

However, this would cause serious damage to his body.

There might even be side effects that would require a large number of heavenly treasures for him to recover...

As he floated in the chaos, he lost track of time. Lin Mo was in a daze as he felt that another few decades had passed.

Just as he fell into despair and was about to use the Yin Yang Fruit to break the formation, an unforeseen event occurred. The Ghost Expelling Jade in his hand began to emit light. The spiritual qi was abundant, and it actually illuminated the surroundings.

The chaos disappeared, and formation runes appeared in the surroundings. A force emerged from the Ghost Expelling Jade and led Lin Mo through the chaos. innread.com

After an unknown period of time, an intense light shone, and Lin Mo felt a sharp pain in his eyes.

After barely adapting to it, he realized that the chaotic mist had disappeared, and the scenery had changed greatly. The gloomy feeling had disappeared along with it.

A cry of alarm came from behind. It was Qilin and the others. They were more or less injured.

The strongest of them all, the Qilin, was also injured. One of her arms was covered in blood.

The Qilin's scales had transformed into armor that covered her entire body. However, there was a terrifying claw mark on his lower abdomen.

It was hard to imagine that the Qilin armor's powerful defense could be broken.

"Brother Lin Mo..."

The Qilin cried out in surprise. When she saw Lin Mo again, a smile appeared on her pretty face.

"Lin Mo, what's wrong?"

Mao Zhu and the others also hurried over. As they looked at Lin Mo, they felt that the latter usually had a happy look but now looked as if he had gone through a lot...

“It’s good... to see you all...”

Lin Mo’s throat felt dry as he spoke. He had lost track of time in the chaos and had almost lost his way.

Fortunately, just as he was about to use the Yin Yang fruit, the Ghost Expelling Jade had finally taken effect.

“What do you mean? Why do I feel that you’ve been separated from us for more than ten years...” asked Song Lianxue confusedly.

After her question, Lin Mo came to a sudden realization. He had only been in the chaotic region for less than an hour.

Every second had felt like a year to him, so he felt as if he had experienced countless years.

Qilin and the other three had not been having a good time outside either. Those ghostly figures seemed to have gone crazy and they weren’t afraid of death.

Ever since Lin Mo had entered the space, he had been attacked without stopping.

The ghostly figures had only disappeared when the chaotic mist disappeared. No one knew where they had gone.

“The formation is broken, right?” Qilin walked over and asked.

After the ghostly shadows had retreated, she had consumed a few spiritual herbs to recover from her injuries and walked over.

“It’s broken. There’s a treasure land ahead but it might not be safe...”

Lin Mo pointed ahead. At the end of his vision, there was peace, auspicious clouds, and auspicious mist.

Countless spiritual qi shot up into the sky, containing the power of creation. It was very divine.

It was a cultivation paradise. Auspicious clouds covered the sun, holy light shone down, and multicolored light overflowed from the small stream. It seemed to be like paradise on earth.

“It’s the treasure land that we saw before. There’s a lake in the center, and it’s a sacred place for cultivation.”

“It’s here!” Mao Zhu said excitedly. She would not have been able to come across such a treasure land normally.

In the Xue state where she was from, the Snow Valley was the most ancient power. Although it was not the strongest at the moment, no one dared to provoke it.

Also, the most stunning cultivation sacred land in the Xue state was the Ten Thousand Year Cold Pond.

That was the foundation of the Snow Valley, and it had once attracted the covetous eyes of countless forces, wanting to snatch it away.

But now, in front of them was another kind of sacred land for cultivation, which was not inferior to the Ten Thousand Year Cold Pond in Snow Valley.

If they could cultivate in seclusion here, both she and Song Lianxue would definitely be able to break through to the King tier very quickly.

“That’s great. We’ve really found this place. Our strength will be greatly improved...” Lin Mo’s voice was trembling with excitement.

It wasn’t just him. Everyone was very excited. There was a treasure land like this in the outside world, but they had no chance to cultivate there.

“Let’s stay here for a period of time and go through our cultivation process properly...”

The sacred aura from the sacred land for cultivation was getting stronger and stronger, and it began to touch their hearts.

At the same time, Lin Mo also felt that the elemental power around him had increased. There was also a bit of yin and yang power, but it was very weak...

...

“It’s confirmed that there’s no danger. It’s an auspicious sign from the heavens. This place is sacred and inviolable. I don’t know if it’s a gift from the heavens or man-made.”

When they went in, the Qilin had been able to tell that all the dangers had come from the formation. Now that the formation had been broken, there was no longer any obstacle.

“This feeling is a wonderful feeling. We’re going to go into seclusion and try to break through to the King tier...”

Mao Zhu did not hold back. She asked Lin Mo for the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, as it was very important for her and Song Lianxue’s cultivation.

Lin Mo smiled and took out the Level 5 Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus.

The fiery-red lotus leaf bloomed with a divine light, and the gentle flame danced in Lin Mo’s hand. It was a magical sight.

“Level 5 Heaven-class...”

Everyone was shocked as they looked at Lin Mo. How did he manage to get such a precious treasure...

What a rich collection this was. It was unbelievable...

“I used that Level 1 plant to scout for information. I exchanged it for the Ghost Expelling Jade,” Lin Mo casually explained.

...

No one questioned it any further. They set up a formation on the sacred land and began to cultivate.

Lin Mo also took out his whole collection, including all kinds of divine herbs, divine trees, and divine fruits.

They piled them all up into a small mound, which astounded everyone at the sight of it.

He distributed them one by one, and Feng Tian also got a few divine fruits. Lin Mo even lent him the Silver Phoenix Fruit Tree for cultivation.

By relying on this divine tree to cultivate, one could achieve the effect of a minor nirvana, cleansing one's marrow and bones, which was wonderful.

"I'm also getting a share..."

Feng Tian was stunned. He had not expected Lin Mo to be willing to give him any resources.

Although he had also contributed along the way and was as friendly as Lin Mo, he knew in his heart that he was still a servant after having been defeated...

"I've told you before, we're fellow Daoists. Go ahead and cultivate."

Chuckling, Lin Mo turned around and realized that the Qilin had fallen asleep at some point and was now lying somewhere in the lake.

Purple light enveloped her and she had turned into a Qilin egg again.

She needed to heal her injuries, make up for the deficiency in her bloodline, and obtain the complete Qilin spell technique...

Seeing this, Lin Mo also sank to the bottom of the lake and began to cultivate.

"Eh, what is this?"

As soon as he reached the bottom, Lin Mo noticed a fiery red flag in the center of the lake.

Lin Mo had no choice but to use the system space to identify it.

[Fire Spirit Flag, a quasi-immortal artifact. It was created by a great emperor. It can disrupt yin and yang and set the five elements.]

“It was made by a great emperor master. Its origin is very great...”

Lin Mo was speechless. However, he soon realized that something was wrong because the Fire Spirit Flag did not have any energy.

After being in the system space for a while, its luster had dimmed and was about to turn into an ordinary item.

“What’s going on?” Lin Mo was shocked and quickly checked the follow-up of the appraisal result.

!!

[The Fire Spirit Flag was broken down by an extremely powerful force. The weapon spirit dissipated, and the energy in the entire body dissipated, forming a sacred place for cultivation.]

[The formation is cracked and this flag no longer has any combat power. However, the controller can bring it into a small world.]

[Only a small world created by an absolute Saint can contain it. Otherwise, the world will be destroyed.]

Lin Mo was shocked as he listened to the introductions.

At the same time, his eyes lit up and he quickly asked, “System, what level of Small World is this space of yours?”

The current system space could easily contain even a world treasure, so it was definitely not at a low level.

[The system space has been upgraded to the highest level, becoming an Emperor-level World Space.]

Upon hearing this, Lin Mo understood and exited the system space with the Fire Spirit Flag.

As soon as it appeared, a large amount of spiritual qi flew over and poured into the Fire Spirit Flag, causing it to glow.

“I just have to enter the Fire Spirit Flag with my will and engrave my own brand...” Lin Mo muttered to himself as a wisp of his soul tried to enter the Fire Spirit Flag.

The process was surprisingly smooth. He cultivated the Fire Spirit Flag without any obstacle.

Now, he only needed to think about it and he could put this cultivation sanctuary into the system space.

“For safety’s sake, let’s go inside and cultivate.”

Lin Mo smiled. With just a thought, the Fire Spirit Flag bloomed with light, and spatial fluctuations covered a radius of a hundred miles.

This surprised Lin Mo as he had not expected the area to be so large.

The system’s space took it in without any obstruction and did not alert the other people who were in the middle of the cultivation process.

After he was done, he disappeared and entered the system space.

There was only a space node left in the original place. It was a space node left by an Emperor-to-be, which was hard to detect.

“In this case, I seem to have another hiding place...”

Lin Mo was pleasantly surprised. He had obtained another life-saving technique that could be used at the last moment.

Furthermore, this space could also allow people to smuggle themselves in. This way, when they left the ancient battlefield, it would also reduce the burden on the Qilin.

“It’s time to go into closed-door cultivation.”

The people around him were all cultivating in seclusion to break through to the King tier, but his own cultivation level was still too low.

Sitting cross-legged at the bottom of the lake, Lin Mo gradually forgot himself. He activated the Soul-Devouring Art and began to absorb the spiritual qi from all directions.

At that moment, Lin Mo was surrounded by a huge pile of treasures. There were all kinds of divine materials, magic weapons, divine pills, and divine medicine.

This was all of his collection. There were also countless spiritual stones piled up behind him, forming small mountains.

Multicolored light shone as Lin Mo swallowed everything. A black hole formed in his qi center, and the suction force increased dramatically.

At the same time, in another part of the system space, a dark green fruit flew out. It seemed to have a spirit and found the Qilin egg.

The two gradually merged, and in an instant, auspicious clouds appeared. Snow-white qilins appeared on the horizon, condensed by the white clouds.

Holy and flawless, auspicious beasts galloped, and heaven and earth were filled with auspicious signs.

In the past, the Fruit of Fate had been kept in the system space by Lin Mo and was unable to leave, so it had not been able to find the Qilin.

The Qilin was also in seclusion in this space, intertwining with the Fruit of Fate.

At this time, the Qilin had already fallen into a deep sleep and had no idea what had happened to her body.

All she felt was as if she had become the protagonist of heaven and earth, using the Fruit of Fate to baptize her body and bring great luck.

On the other side, Lin Mo was in a similar situation.

He felt as if he was at the boundary of yin and yang. The sun in his left hand and the moon in his right hand combined and seemed to turn into chaos.

He didn't know when the Yin Yang Fruit had appeared in his qi center, but it was being absorbed by the God Devouring Body.

Wisps of runes appeared as the Soul-Devouring Art was further refined at an extremely fast speed. It spurred Lin Mo's consciousness to start learning the new Soul-Devouring Art.

At the same time, Lin Mo's control of the God Devouring Body had reached its peak. He could activate it with a single thought without the help of the Soul-Devouring Art...

"Is it really possible to refine the Yin Yang Fruit in this realm..."

Lin Mo frowned. He wanted to stop it and not touch it too early because he remembered the trouble that the Yin Yang Fruit had caused him. innread.com

That kind of strange battle was very difficult to deal with, and it could easily take people's lives.

"I can't move..."

As the Dao fire spread, the Dao Law of Yin Yang appeared and fused into Lin Mo's body. In a daze, Lin Mo felt as if he was in another space.

The surrounding lake water was gone, and the abundant spiritual energy of heaven and earth had also disappeared.

In this unfamiliar space, he walked on a bluestone path and looked around. There was nothing but flames.

"Where is this place?" Lin Mo opened his mouth to ask this question, but no one responded.

He tried to communicate with the system space, wanting to go back, but he found that he was already in it.

"Is it just an illusion?" He was puzzled, but he could not solve it.

He could only helplessly walk on the bluestone road as he was burned by the Dao fire.

...

Slowly, Lin Mo realized that something was wrong with him. This place seemed to be in his sea of consciousness, and he might have fainted.

He wanted to wake up, but he found that he was powerless.

The flames in his sea of consciousness spread as if they were going to burn through the heavens and earth. There were endless flames in the sky and the laws of the Dao appeared.

Divine Chains of Order descended one after another, each containing supreme power.

At that moment, Lin Mo's soul power grew stronger and stronger. He felt extremely abundant and his eyes became clear. He had obtained great benefits.

“Was this from the Yin Yang Fruit?”

He had no choice but to accept the fact that he had cultivated the Yin Yang Fruit. Although it was a world treasure, it would not help him directly increase his realm.

That was the way of an inferior Dao. The true use of the Yin Yang Fruit was to let him understand the Dao of yin and yang.

He used the Dao fire to help him cultivate and comprehend the Dao.

At the same time, the remaining power was also helping him control the God Devouring Body and perfect the Soul-Devouring Art, making it a true immortal-grade cultivation technique.

Time passed. Lin Mo did not know how long he had been in seclusion, but he was still unconscious.

...

He could sense that Mao Zhu, Feng Tian, and the others had already come out of seclusion, but since they could not leave, they could only wait.

While the Dao fire was burning, Lin Mo had fallen into a deep sleep many times, so it was a long time since he had woken up.

Moreover, he did not feel at ease because he wasn't able to send Feng Tian and the others away.

So now, he could only stay in seclusion and wait for the baptism process of the Yin Yang Fruit to end.

He didn't know how much time had passed or how much his realm had improved, but his soul power had improved to a very high level.

Furthermore, as the flames burned, he completely comprehended the spell techniques of the Kun Peng and obtained a few more powerful martial arts.

He even mastered some of the martial arts techniques that he had not been able to use due to his insufficient realm.

It could even be said that he was the Kun Peng at this moment and could reproduce the Supreme glory of the ancient divine beast Kun Peng.

The Dao fire gradually disappeared. Lin Mo felt that the Yin Yang Dao Law was very friendly to him and he could control it just by raising his hand.

"There's nothing else I can improve at this level. It's time to end my closed-door cultivation," muttered Lin Mo to himself and raised his head.

As soon as he finished speaking, he woke up in a flash and found that the surrounding environment had changed greatly. The original sacred land of cultivation was now in ruins.

The lake had dried up, the spiritual trees had rotted, and the spiritual herbs had withered. It was as if many, many years had passed.

"I'm... How long have I been in a closed-door cultivation?"

Lin Mo mumbled as he looked at his surroundings. The Yin Yang Fruit was a world treasure. Could it be that tens of thousands of years had passed in the outside world...

!!

He sent his soul out and found Mao Zhu and the others.

They had scattered in all directions, trying to find a way out of the system space.

However, how could the exit of an Emperor-level Small World be found so easily?

Lin Mo teleported the three of them to his side.

As for the Qilin, she had turned into an egg, and the Fruit of Fate had disappeared without a trace. Lin Mo didn't need to think much to know what had happened.

The Fruit of Fate was helping her make up for her innate deficiencies, but it would take a long time.

"Lin Mo, you've finally woken up. Something has happened." When the other three saw Lin Mo, their faces lit up.

The three of them spoke one after another, explaining the situation they were in.

They had come out of seclusion a month ago, and their strength had skyrocketed after reaching the King tier. However, they had discovered that they were trapped and couldn't find a way out.

"We've actually been cultivating for a year?"

Lin Mo was shocked. He had never expected that his closed-door cultivation would last for so long.

In a year's time, what realm would those people in the outside world break through to...

However, what made him feel at ease was that his realm was now at the peak of Level 8 of the Almighty, only one step away from Level 9.

"You don't have to worry about that. The gap between their cultivation levels won't be too big," said Feng Tian.

The more talented one was, the more they would pay attention to their foundation. The king realm was a huge dividing line.

No one could easily break through this realm and a solid foundation had to be laid first.

Otherwise, when you reach the Saint realm in the future, your unstable foundation will cause you to die under the heavenly lightning of the Saint realm.

He might not even be able to advance to the quasi-Saint stage in his entire life...

“The strongest should still be Xiao Yun, but he’s only at the second heavenly layer of the King tier,” assured Mao Zhu.

As for those who were not concerned about their foundation, even if they were ninth heavenly layer Kings, they might not be able to defeat Xiao Yun, who had just entered the King realm.

“That’s right. This is my Small World. I’ve kept the Holy Land of Cultivation in it...

Lin Mo’s face was filled with regret for letting the three of them wander around randomly for a month.

“You have a Small World?” The other three were shocked.

It could accommodate the cultivation of living creatures, and the spiritual qi would not be exhausted. This could only be opened at the very least by a Supreme Saint.

They were surprised that Lin Mo, a wandering cultivator, could actually possess it.

“It’s fine, but you’d better take a look at this cultivation paradise.” The three of them nodded indifferently.

The most important thing now was still this treasured land. It couldn’t be destroyed just like that.

“I’m fine. It’s just that I’ve absorbed too much spiritual qi within a short period of time, so I’m exhausted...”

Lin Mo raised a hand to his head. The Yin Yang Fruit and the Fruit of Fate had been absorbed at the same time, so a lot of energy must have been consumed.

In addition, he had the God Devouring Body, so he was capable of absorbing even more World Energy.

Fortunately, he had woken up in time. Otherwise, this precious cultivation land developed by the Fire Spirit Flag would have been destroyed.

“I’m just going to let it be outside for a while.”

Lin Mo chuckled and took out the Fire Spirit Flag. He then led everyone away from this place.

As for the Qilin, he left her in the system space where it was the safest place to cultivate. innread.com

“Boom boom boom...”

As soon as the flag appeared, a large piece of dry land fell and returned to its original place.

In an instant, countless energies in the world gathered and began to surge toward Lin Mo’s hand.

“Our heavenly tribulation is coming...”

“Heavenly tribulation?” Mao Zhu and the other two had serious expressions on their faces. They had broken through to the King tier in the Small World, but the heavenly tribulation had not appeared.

Now that they had appeared in a complete world, the laws of heaven and earth had sensed their breakthrough and were about to send down thunder and punishment.

“Stay away and be careful,” reminded Lin Mo, as he no longer had any treasures on him.

The Silver Phoenix Fruit Tree, the Spirit King Fruit Tree, and the saplings had all dried up, and their leaves had rotted.

Only by planting it in this treasured land could it recover its vitality.

“Speaking of which, this place doesn’t seem to have a name yet...”

Lin Mo thought for a moment. The system’s introduction did not have a name for it either. After all, it had been formed later.

“Since it evolved from the Fire Spirit Flag, so let’s call it the Fire Spirit Lake.”

After thinking of a name, the smile on Lin Mo’s face did not last long because he suddenly turned around, his face filled with shock...

“Has it finally arrived...”

The test brought by the Yin Yang Fruit and what Qilin had seen when he had opened the Eye of Fate.

Was the enemy afraid of him and wanted to destroy him in advance?

...

What was this enemy? It seemed to be the Inner Demon Pearl, but wasn’t that just a test? It was a world treasure that had no origin or form.

Why would it see him as an enemy for no reason?

Was it because he had obtained the Yin Yang Fruit? No, it had been given to him by the World Tree.

In fact, if the Yin Yang Fruit was unwilling, he did not have the ability to keep it anyway.

“Om...”

An ancient and ethereal voice was heard as a pearl appeared in Lin Mo’s hand.

The Inner Demon Pearl had appeared in Lin Mo’s hands without any test.

“What’s the situation?”

Lin Mo immediately stored it in the system space for the system to appraise.

[The world's most precious treasure, the Inner Demon Pearl. This is the projection of the Inner Demon Pearl. It was cultivated by the World Tree to fight against the enemy.]

“What enemy?” Lin Mo was puzzled.

...

However, the system went silent. When he took out the Inner Demon Pearl again, Lin Mo realized that its color had faded.

At the same time, his own realm had also improved.

The Nine Heavens of the Almighty had stepped in, and the Inner Demon Pearl disappeared, helping Lin Mo to break through the barrier and advance successfully.

“Boohoo...”

A series of sobs could be heard as Lin Mo was pondering the meaning of all this.

It sounded like someone was crying in the space. It sounded very miserable and strange.

Subconsciously, Lin Mo thought that perhaps the so-called enemy had arrived and wanted to eliminate him in advance because they were afraid of him.

But why? Was it because he had the Yin Yang Fruit?

It seems that I have to find an opportunity to go to the dojo belonging to Qilin's mother and see her... Lin Mo sighed. He had many questions on his mind.

However, he understood that he had to get through this first.

Relying on his previous experience, Lin Mo knew how to deal with it. His opponent would imitate his moves.

Just like the Inner Demon Pearl, he would create his own inner demon to confront it.

However, it was different this time. A figure appeared in front of him which looked somewhat similar to himself.

The other person was holding a long spear. It was completely black and was filled with boundless baleful qi. The moment he appeared, he immediately used a killing move.

The figure was like a demonic god, waving his long spear as it attacked. The long spear smashed down furiously, splitting mountains and breaking mountains.

The figure's aura and soul fluctuations were similar to Lin Mo's. The only difference was that the other party was a Level 9 Peak Almighty.

“Dang!”

Lin Mo used the War Demon Spear to fight with it head-on, but he was instantly pushed back several hundred meters.

Sparks flew from the spear. Lin Mo had not gained the upper hand in the previous exchange.

In the distance, Mao Zhu and the others sensed the movement and were all shocked.
