Chapter 711

They were bathed in the thunderstorm. Although they could not escape, they could still sense the movements on Lin Mo's end.

When they finally saw the scene clearly, they could not help but be shocked. Who was this person that was capable of actually fighting on par with Lin Mo?

“Bzzzzzz!”

Buzzing sounds could be heard continuously as black holes appeared around Lin Mo.

It was the fluctuation of the God Devouring Body which shocked Lin Mo to see.

In the next moment, the black hole's suction force increased sharply, and Lin Mo felt a force in his body being continuously absorbed.

However, the spiritual energy in his body did not weaken at all, and his soul power was normal.

He didn't feel the slightest bit of discomfort when fighting against the figure opposite him.

“No, this force is...”

Suddenly, Lin Mo's heart skipped a beat. He could feel that the force that was being sucked away was the Yin Yang Fruit that had fused into his body.

The so-called enemy had always coveted this...

“How can things that are in my hands be stolen? Die!” Lin Mo shouted coldly as his body was enveloped by a black hole.

At the same time, black holes appeared in all directions and began to devour the force that had been drawn away.

Perhaps it was because he had the true God Devouring Body that he won the fight.

As for the person who was fighting him, Lin Mo didn't know what spell technique he was using. It was very strange.

Every time they crossed swords, he felt like he was hitting cotton.

However, his opponent's attacks were like a storm, dense and powerful.

Lin Mo used the ultimate Kun Peng Technique, but it was useless. He was blocked by his opponent and could not hurt him.

Moreover, as Lin Mo was too tired to deal with the enemy, the strange black holes attacked again and devoured the power in Lin Mo's body.

"You must have a death wish."

Without a care, he let out an angry roar. He pushed back the figures in front of him and flapped his Kun Peng Wings as he flew out.

He arrived in front of a black hole, raised his hand, and clenched his fist, annihilating it.

There was a shrill scream which was extremely ear-piercing and unbearable.

"It's a living being."

Lin Mo was shocked. He grabbed another black hole and shook off the power on it. Only then did he see the other party's true face.

"Bugs?"

He was puzzled. The creatures that had devoured his power were actually insects...

"Roar!"

At the same time, a furious roar came from behind Lin Mo. The figure was actually attacking without a care for his life.

The brutal battle allowed Lin Mo to seize the opportunity.

Using the Nine Qilin Steps, Lin Mo took a step forward and stomped on the figure's chest.

In an instant, a terrifying power exploded, causing his entire body to explode.

The strange thing was that there was no blood. After the body exploded, it turned into a black mist and disappeared.

Only a wisp of black light was left between his eyebrows.

Lin Mo examined it carefully and found that it was also an insect, exactly the same as the one in his hand.

"It's a species I've never seen before..."

He had captured two insects. They were of the same type, but their cultivation levels were different.

Perhaps it was because it had lost control of its body that it was unable to unleash its combat power even though it was a Level 9 Almighty.

Lin Mo even felt that he could kill the two bugs if he just exerted a little more force.

"The two things that have caused me trouble twice are just two bugs?" Lin Mo was puzzled and kept it in the system space.

This time, the appraisal took a little longer. Lin Mo waited for half an hour before the system's voice was finally heard.

[Spirit Devouring Bugs, an ancient species. They are not tolerated by the world and were exterminated when the world was created.]

[This is an ordinary member of the Spirit Devouring Bug Clan. They have no intelligence and will only act according to their nature and execute the orders they receive.]

[The Spirit Devouring Bugs are worthless and have no rank...]

The successive introductions shocked Lin Mo, but at the same time, he had many questions.

Since the ancient mutant species had already gone extinct, what exactly was in his hands now?

Had they been resurrected by the World Tree or the so-called enemy?

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly and destroyed the two Spirit Devouring Bugs.

As for the rest of the Spirit Devouring Bugs, they had long fled to God knows where by the time Lin Mo had finished his battle.

However, Lin Mo was certain of one thing. They were attracted to the Yin Yang Fruit.

This worried Lin Mo a little. If Qilin was also targeted while refining the Fruit of Fate, would she be able to survive?

Even after pondering this for a while, he still did not get a satisfactory answer.

He decided not to think too much about it and intended on cleaning up the battlefield, only to find that it had already been restored.

...

The ground that had been blown up by the battle was inexplicably restored.

What should have been his spoils of war, the pitch-black spear, had also disappeared.

This scene made Lin Mo’s heart tremble. He felt as if there was an inexplicable power controlling everything.

The clouds of tribulation filled the sky. The three of them had gone through the tribulation smoothly and the thunderstorm tribulation had lasted for ten days.

Lin Mo had been guarding this place for the past ten days. The Fire Spirit Lake had already recovered and he had kept it back in the system space.

After a year of seclusion, all sorts of news spread throughout the ancient battlefield.

The ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect had attracted countless people, and experts from all over the world had sent people over. innread.com

“I’ve finally come out of seclusion. Young miss, you didn’t have to wait for me...”

In a quiet valley, Mu Yuzhu walked out with her maidservant, Su Qing. The latter was all smiles.

The two of them emitted a faint glow as they flew deeper into the island. Many masters along the way avoided them, not daring to touch them.

On the other side, a figure covered in golden light appeared. Gongsun Wenhao had led a large group of people and entered the Wind Spirit Sect ruins.

...

“Even Teng Feng is here. Why is he only at the First Heaven Layer of the King realm?”

At the entrance of the island, some people were astonished. They recognized Teng Feng’s identity and didn’t understand why his cultivation level had been overtaken.

“What do you know? His First Heaven Layer of the King Realm can probably beat your Ninth Heaven Layer...” Some people sneered and mocked.

In the past few days, news had constantly spread.

Mu Yuzhu had come out of seclusion and broken through to the King tier. Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng had also reached the King tier and arrived at the ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect.

Everyone was discussing how the true masters of the Northern Continent had emerged from their seclusion and how it would be very soon that they would see who was stronger.

Lin Mo did not know about this. He still felt that the ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect had been emptied.

After all, a year had passed. Even if there was a formation, it should have been broken by now.

Mu Yuzhu's figure flickered as she rushed toward the deepest part of the Wind Spirit Sect. She had heard that all of the Wind Spirit Sect's inheritances were on the last island.

There was an uncountable number of killing formations, traps, and guardian demonic beasts.

Now that the masters from all over the world had come out of seclusion, their first target was that particular place and they were about to meet.

This included Lin Mo. He brought the three others in his group with him and prepared to venture deeper.

On an island, Mu Yuzhu was slowly flying over. She held a jade-green folding fan in her hand, and as she gently fanned it, a strong wind blew in all directions.

All the traps, formations, and demonic beasts along the way were destroyed. No one could stop her.

At the entrance of the island, Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng met. The two of them immediately joined forces and advanced forward.

The two of them led their men in, sweeping away any obstacles along the way.

"I heard that Lin Mo and the Qilin girl are here as well. That's great. Let's kill them this time."

Gongsun Wenhao's face was calm, like the king of the world, whose words could decide the life and death of others...

The heavenly tribulation had dispersed, and the strength of Mao Zhu and the other two had increased. The four of them then left the island and flew deeper.

“It’s been a year, but no one has been to the deepest part of the ruins...” said Feng Tian in disbelief.

They had inquired about any news along the way and were a little surprised to find that they had not missed anything...

Even Lin Mo was surprised. He had thought that he would have to return home, but in the end, he would still be able to continue to search for treasures and have a chance of obtaining the legacy.

!!

After passing through the islands, they found that many of them had already been emptied, and nothing was left.

“Boom...”

Suddenly, as Lin Mo and the other three walked to an area, formation flags appeared one after another and plunged fiercely into the ground.

These flags were connected to each other, causing runes to bloom and activate a terrifying formation, trapping the group within.

Suddenly, a mountain appeared above them. No one knew where it had been moved from, but it was as heavy as a thousand tons as it came down.

In addition to that, magical weapons appeared all around them. There were living beings that were launching sneak attacks and displaying their martial arts techniques with vicious moves.

Seeing this, Lin Mo snorted coldly. He then waved the palm of his hand and shattered a formation flag before flying out of the formation with the rest of his group.

“BOOM!”

The mountain fell, the earth cracked, and rocks fell from the sky.

“Who’s that? How dare you attack us?” Feng Tian said angrily as he looked at these people.

The formation they had used was so peculiar that he actually did not notice it at first.

“It looks like a big fish. To be able to find the weakness of the killing spell, is he a formation master?”

The nearby space fluctuated, and a group of people walked out of the crack in the void.

They had been hiding in the space that Lin Mo had not taken the initiative to investigate, so they fell into the formation.

Lin Mo’s interest was piqued and he said, “The killing formation is capable of killing a Seventh Heaven King. How hard is it to set it up?”

If it was simple, he wouldn’t mind taking it down and setting it up again in Lin City.

“It’s not difficult, and it can be used repeatedly. The only flaw is that the formation is incomplete and isn’t capable of trapping a formation master like you. imrread.com

The people who had walked out of the void laughed loudly. They really thought that Lin Mo was a formation master.

After all, he had been able to quickly discover the weak points of the formation flags and break the formation with just one strike.

“If that’s the case, it’s not like it can’t be used...” Lin Mo nodded.

This group of people was surprised. They looked at Lin Mo a little uncertainly.

There were more than twenty of them, and every one of them was a King tier. None of them were weak.

“Formation master, if you want this formation map, we can sell it to you,” said a man with two snake heads.

“Is that so? What price will you sell it for?” Lin Mo said with a smile.

These people were really interesting. They thought he was a formation master, but in reality, he was the only one who knew the truth.

As soon as the formation had been formed, he had released his soul power to see where the weak points were and break the formation with absolute power.

In their eyes, he had become a master of formations...

"It's not expensive. You guys can definitely afford it. I just don't know if you're willing to buy it," said a creature who walked out from the opposite side. There were many tattoos on its body and dark yellow vertical pupils. It was unclear what kind of demonic beast it was.

"Brother Yi She, why are you beating around the bush?" Someone said impatiently.

"After all, he's a formation master, so we need to get him to join us."

The man known as Yi She smiled and looked at Lin Mo. "Join us and let me leave a blood mark on your soul."

"It's said to be a fiend-breaking formation. We can let you check all the formation maps we've collected during this time.

As soon as he said that, the rest of the people laughed out loud and looked at Lin Mo teasingly, their eyes filled with greed.

"Then forget it, I'm not interested in this fiend-breaking formation."

Lin Mo shook his head. At the same time, he was interested in the relic snake. He had seen it in some records of demonic beasts.

Yi She was the descendant of the ancient beast Fei Yi. It was recorded that the Fei Yi was a strange snake with one head and two bodies.

The two gallbladders of the snake had extraordinary effects and were comparable to divine pills.

However, it was very rare to see Fei Yis in the world nowadays. Even if there were, they were either not of pure blood or evolved from ordinary snakes.

Since it had the bloodline of the Fei Yi, the gallbladder of the Yi She would be valuable.

Even if the bloodline was not pure, it was still a treasure in this realm. Making a pot of snake soup would also be very nourishing.

“Friend, I believe you’ve rejected me too quickly. You’re making things very difficult for me. I’m afraid you won’t be able to justify it if you don’t compensate me with a divine medicine, right? ”

Yi She’s voice gradually turned cold, and he looked at Lin Mo with a faint smile.

“If you want to grab it, then just grab it. Just as well, I’ve also taken a fancy to your snake gallbladder. You’re a descendant of the Fei Yi, right? I can make a pot of snake soup with it...” Lin Mo said mercilessly.

“Haha, we should’ve made our move long ago.”

Behind them, another creature walked up. It was a white lion that carried himself with the air of a king.

“BOOM!”

Both the White Lion and Yi She took a step forward at the same time, and a wave of energy spread out, fusing into the ground and destroying it.

The two living beings were very cautious. They had guessed that Lin Mo was a formation master and were worried that he had set up an underground formation.

They seemed to be the leaders of this group of people. The moment they stepped forward, the rest of the people also surrounded them.

“Brother Yi She, Brother Lion, there’s no need to trouble you both, is there? Just leave it to us,” said someone slowly, clearly feeling that victory was in their hands.

...

“You are quite capable. Although you can barely make it onto the Hidden Dragon List, you are still at the bottom. Plus, your vision is so bad that you can’t even show yourself,” said Lin Mo, shaking his head as he gave his evaluation of them.

“Haha, let me do it.”

Feng Tian laughed as he stepped forward, stopping Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue who were also about to make a move.

“BOOM!”

As the battle broke out, Feng Tian was the only one who attacked, but it changed the world.

All these people were shocked, especially Yi She and the White Lion. They were both qualified to be on the Hidden Dragon List.

However, due to personal reasons, they had not increased in rank. This did not affect their strength though, and they had also managed to rope in a group of strong people to join them.

In the end, he had met with an obstacle, a very difficult obstacle.

Lin Mo and the other two didn't make a move. They merely spread out to prevent these people from escaping.

Feng Tian attacked alone, his moves were quick and agile. In ten minutes, he killed all these creatures.

“Ma snake soup, red braised lion's head. Little girl, come out quickly. There's delicious food waiting for you.”

...

Lin Mo put away the corpses of Yi She and the White Lion without digging out the inner core and snake gallbladders. He was waiting for the Qilin to come out of seclusion so that they could enjoy them together.

“Hey, I can't see through this thing. It's very mysterious. My soul power can't penetrate it.”

Elsewhere, Mao Zhu randomly picked up the spoils of war on the ground and found a broken clay pot.

The pottery jar had been carved with strange runes, which were very mysterious.

When his soul power entered it, it was blocked by a mysterious force and he could not take a closer look.

“So, it's like this...”

Lin Mo withdrew his soul power and kept it in the system space.

[An ancient pottery jar with rune marks on it. There are three runes in total, and when gathered together, they can open a sealed space.]

The earthen jar was not a treasure, but the runes and imprints within it were very precious.

It was just a pity that it could only be opened after three pieces had been collected.

The ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect were so huge. Where would he be able to find them?

“It’s a pity that all of them have been killed...”

Lin Mo sighed. There were no survivors left for him to ask where they had obtained the jar. It would be a little troublesome to collect all of them.

“Could this really be a treasure?” Feng Tian was stunned. Did these people really have such valuable things on them?

“Keep looking, there might be other jars.”

!!

Lin Mo and the others searched for a while, but unfortunately, they found nothing. They could not find a similar jar.

“It’s a pity, let’s take it slow.”

After clearing up the bodies on the ground, the small group of people quickly went deeper.

They stopped at the islands they passed by to have a good look. They also spotted the Divine Fruit Forest that the Qilin had been thinking about.

It was just a pity that this place was a wasteland. There were the remains of a battle everywhere, and corpses littered the ground.

The great battle had taken place about half a year ago. Since this place had been discovered, it had experienced many world-shattering battles.

All the Divine Fruit Trees had been dug up by different people and scattered in different places. No one knew where they had gone.

It was the same for the other islands. They visited many places but found nothing.

This place was truly barren. The people who had come in had dug three feet into the ground and taken away all the treasures they could.

Even some places of opportunity had their roots broken and completely turned into ordinary land.

“It’s truly wicked for the roots of opportunity to be cut off. How immoral. Sooner or later, these people will die under the heavenly tribulation,” cursed Lin Mo.

It was understandable that the fertile soil of the Divine Fruit Forest had been dug away. After all, the opportunity had not only been cut off, but it had been taken away for their own benefit.

Some of the cultivation areas that could not be taken away had already been destroyed beyond recognition, making it impossible to cultivate.

“Sigh, greed exists in all living beings in the world. How many of them are capable of exercising self-discipline?”

Mao Zhu and the others also sighed.

For the next few days, they continued to fly further in. Since they had not gained anything, they began to speed up.

It was the same for all the cultivators. There were no more opportunities on the islands that were on the outside.

One by one, they began their journey towards the deepest part of the island.

This was the last island, which was also the largest and the most dangerous.

It was said that this was the headquarters of the Wind Spirit Sect, where all the precious inheritances of the people were stored.

There were even rumors that an ancient scripture of a Great Emperor could also be found here.

It was a scripture that could drive anyone crazy. If anyone brought it out, the entire Northern Continent would go crazy.

The Wind Spirit Island was the name that people came up with later on, and it was recognized by many people.

In this place, there were an uncountable number of formations, traps, demonic beasts, ghosts, and monsters.

If one was not careful, one might lose their life here.

When they arrived, Lin Mo and the rest were also on high alert as they carefully entered.

“It’s really dangerous. There’s a killing formation at the entrance...” said Lin Mo.

He did not know why the Wind Spirit Sect had placed so many killing formations here. Even a peerless master could easily die here.

This was not the right way to choose an heir...

The island was huge, with many entrances. It could accommodate more than a hundred thousand people, and many had come during this period of time.

Everyone was heading deeper into the forest. Lin Mo led the three others in his group forward while clearing all obstacles along the way.

After breaking through the killing formations, his gains were also quite bountiful. He managed to obtain two divine medicines that had been enveloped by the formation.

There was also a Level 5 Heaven-class skill book, which caused a lot of people to fight for it.

Even if someone recognized that he was Lin Mo, someone who had unparalleled combat strength, they would still try to snatch it away.

No one would give up on a technique that could change their fate. A high-level technique was a weapon for them to become a quasi-Saint in the future.

After a huge battle, Lin Mo finally managed to escape. He picked up the divine medicine and left.

As for the cultivation technique, he was too lazy to grab it. Besides, he didn't need it anyway.

In the distance, at another entrance, a woman as beautiful as a fairy appeared. The moment she appeared, she attracted the attention of countless people.

"Is that a fairy? She's so beautiful..." mumbled someone to himself in a daze.

The woman stepped on a green lotus as a smile appeared on her beautiful face.

"I've heard of her before. She's not from the Northern Continent, but from the Central Land. It's said that she was sent to the ancient battlefield by an elder of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion. Her background is a mystery..."

"You don't know much, but I've seen her fight against Xiao Yun. Her combat strength is almost heaven-defying."

"How did it end?" Asked some creatures curiously.

"It's hard to tell who the winner was, but both of them were holding back. I just don't know what her name is..."

As if a thought came to his mind, someone whispered, "I've heard that she has the strongest body type in the history of the human race, the Heaven's Will Body."

"There's a God Devouring Body in the ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect. I wonder what the outcome would be if they fought."

Many people were secretly discussing with each other as they peeked at the woman on the green lotus.

“God Devouring Body... Lin Mo, you’ve actually come...”

The woman chuckled. She was actually asking someone about the whereabouts of the God Devouring Body. After receiving the news, she quickly flew toward the depths of the island at an extremely fast speed, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

Looking at the woman’s disappearing back, the people reacted and instantly burst into an uproar.

...

“The Heaven’s Will Body is looking for the God Devouring Body. Are they going to fight?”

In the distance, Lin Mo led the three of them to an empty plot of land. Since they were in no hurry to enter the depths of the island, they broke through the formation and began picking herbs.

Being completely unaware of what was happening, he coincidentally met Mu Yuzhu and her maidservant while wandering around the island.

The two women were strolling around the island together, observing the layout of the killing formations around them and looking for opportunities.

“It has been a long time since we last met. Your cultivation level has fallen behind...” Mu Yuzhu said as she waved her hand jokingly.

“No way. I’ve already consumed so many resources...” said Lin Mo, explaining his situation to Mu Yuzhu in detail.

The two of them exchanged information, and Lin Mo took out the jar he had obtained.

“This is it. Do you have something similar? If all three sections of the runes can be obtained, a great fortune can be obtained...”

This was his only gain, and it had been from the hands of the bandits.

To his surprise, Mu Yuzhu really did have a section. She took out a teacup and handed it to Lin Mo.

In addition, there was also a fire stick that had been burnt black.

...

“It’s rumored that you have extraordinary appraisal skills. Please help me take a look.”

After the system space’s appraisal, it was discovered that the teacup contained one of the runic imprints.

Although it was similar to the clay pot, the set was still far from being completed.

“This fire stick...” innread.com

He frowned as he finished reading the introduction of the teacup. The system’s appraisal finally came out.

[Heavy Wood, once soaked in an extreme Yin place for a hundred thousand years. It is a Quasi-Immortal Level immortal material and can be used to refine an extreme Yin celestial device.]

[Due to a failed attempt to refine a magic weapon, the yin qi inside was burned by the Dao fire, causing serious damage. Its quality has dropped to a Level 8 Heaven realm.]

There is only one chance to cultivate it. If you fail, the divine material will be destroyed.

Hearing the system’s introduction, Lin Mo sighed to himself.

It was such a good treasure, but its quality had dropped because of the lack of Yin qi inside, which was why it could be hidden so well.

In fact, it appeared to have been slightly burned by the Dao fire.

“Immortal materials used to be used for buying divine medicine. Not bad.”

Mu Yuzhu nodded her head in satisfaction. After all, it was an immortal material. However, she would have been very satisfied even if it wasn't immortal material.

“Let's go. We'll explore the Wind Spirit Sect Ruins together and split the benefits equally.”

Both parties chose to join forces and walk together because they had received news that Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng had joined forces.

If they didn't find an ally, they would be at a disadvantage in fighting for any opportunities...

“What?”

Just as he was about to move forward, Lin Mo seemed to have sensed something. He looked to his right and behind him. This aura was very familiar...

!!

A woman had flown over while standing on a green lotus. Her body was surrounded by immortal qi, looking like a banished immortal from heaven.

“Xia You...”

Their eyes met, and he staggered two steps back. In addition to the shock he felt, he also could not hide his excitement.

Ever since he had come to the Northern Continent, he had no relatives. Before he met the little Qilin, he had always been alone. He had made enemies everywhere and was hunted down by the whole world. Whenever he looked back on the past, he would inevitably feel lonely.

He had originally thought that they would never meet again, but who would have thought that he would meet Xia You here?

This saintess of the Divine Secrets Holy Land had accomplished an unimaginable feat by ascending with her entire sect.

She was still like a banished immortal, undesecrated, and beautiful beyond comparison...

In contrast to Lin Mo's loss of self-control, Xia You's face remained indifferent, and she looked at him with a smile.

"It's been such a long time. The saintess ascended and left behind an unsurpassable legend!" Lin Mo turned around and sighed as he looked at the fairy who was standing on the green lotus.

Inexplicably, meeting Xia You again made him feel quite emotional. Seeing a friend from his hometown, he did not know what to say...

Xia You kept the smile on her beautiful face as she said, "The Eastern Continent is a place of great desolation. I thought it would be difficult to meet again in this life."

"I didn't expect that you would still come. You've come to an even more vast world. Where's your wife and the others?"

This strange conversation between the two of them stunned the many people around them. What was going on? Hadn't they said that the Heaven's Will Body and the God Devouring Body were going to fight?

However, these two people seemed to know each other, and they were even chatting...

"You two come from the same place? What?" Mao Zhu was shocked.

Both she and Song Lianxue knew about Lin Mo's background. In the barren Eastern Continent, no one could set foot on the Immortal Foundation Stage.

It could even be said to be a wasteland, where cultivators found it difficult to even move an inch.

"Why do I have this feeling of wanting to surrender to her..." said Feng Tian, as he looked at Xia You warily.

He did not know Lin Mo's origins, so he was baffled by Xia You's words.

"Won't there be any problems if you speak the truth about the Eastern Continent?" Lin Mo spoke via voice transmission to tell Xia You not to make a big deal out of it.

The Eastern Continent was obviously not a simple place, and it was about to usher in a Golden Age.

However, compared to the other continents that had been around for countless years, it was still too weak.

Moreover, he had already offended so many people. It would be troublesome if someone went to the Eastern Continent to seek revenge.

"It's fine. The Eastern Continent has already been sealed off. No one can enter or leave," said Xia You as she shook her head and told Lin Mo this news.

In fact, after hearing the news about the Eastern continent, she had thought that she would have to wait a long time to see Lin Mo again.

However, when she was sent to the Northern Continent to train on the ancient battlefield and learned of the God Devouring Body, she had guessed that it was Lin Mo.

It was impossible for two God Devouring Bodies to appear at the same time in this world, at least not in the same era.

Hence, she had thought of searching for Lin Mo after she entered but failed. The ancient battlefield was too vast so it had been difficult to find him.

Now that they were meeting each other again, Lin Mo was now even more powerful, and she had also obtained an extraordinary fortune.

"This is good..."

Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief. After receiving such news, he could do things more unscrupulously in the future.

"However, your realm is a little low. Fortunately, your fighting competence has caught up. The God Devouring Body needs a lot of resources. Can you bear with that?" Xia You said as she nodded her head and started to comment on Lin Mo.

The two of them came from the same place and had already fought many times, so it was difficult to determine the winner.

The reason she had come here was to have another battle to make up for her regrets in the Eastern Continent.

"There's no need to worry. I'm very capable," said Lin Mo while laughing heartily. He was very confident in this.

Mao Zhu, Song Lianxue, and the others did not know what to say.

They could sense that Xia You was not an enemy. Furthermore, she was actually from the Eastern Continent, just like Lin Mo.

The people who had been chasing after her from afar were unable to calm down.

They had thought that the Heaven's Will Body came from the Central Continent, while the God Devouring Body was a wandering cultivator from the Northern Continent. Who would have thought that both of them were from the Eastern Continent?

That barren land was devoid of spiritual energy.

The birth of the Heaven's Will Body and the God Devouring Body in such a place was a huge shock to them.

A place had given birth to two peerless masters, and they were both from the human race. They were also old friends.

"The human race is truly a terrifying race. There are so many of them and they are clearly on the verge of decline. Yet, in the end, two great masters have appeared..." Some of the living beings said as they lamented the power of the human race.

Secretly, some people who hated Lin Mo were afraid. They had wanted to see the God Devouring Body kill the Heaven's Will Body.

Some people were frowning because they had received news that Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng had come out of seclusion and broken through to the King tier. They had already arrived at the ruins of the Wind Spirit Sect.

Their purpose was to come here to kill Lin Mo, the God Devouring Body.

If one were to encounter the God Devouring Body, the Heaven's Will Body, and Mu Yuzhu, wouldn't one be in deep trouble?

"How about we travel together? Speaking of which, we haven't really cooperated with each other before," said Lin Mo with a chuckle.

Xia You chuckled as well. Although the two of them had worked together in the Eastern Continent, they had also secretly played many dirty tricks...

"There's no rush. You still have two friends to entertain."

...

She shook her head and pointed. From the distant end of the mountain range, a huge group was flying over.

They surrounded the place with a sense of oppression, causing some people to be frightened.

Everyone followed the line of sight and saw two figures at the very front of the line with the aura of a king.

They were like sovereigns descending to the world, and this aura made people want to submit to them.

These were Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng. The two peerless masters were here. They were the strongest experts in the ancient battlefield.

The place instantly became very lively and attracted many people.

Yunzhou was flourishing. Two peerless masters had been born in that one state and it was about to rise.

Gongsun Wenhao was wearing golden armor. The halberd in his hand emitted a dazzling golden light. As he stepped forward, countless mountains around him trembled.

This was his strength. After breaking through to the King tier, his battle prowess had increased greatly and he was one of the top masters in the ancient battlefield.

“Lin Mo, Lord Gongsun Wenhao has arrived. Hurry up and come over,” said the disciple of the Gongsun family.

“Hmph, the fact that you’ve been protecting the Qilin girl has caused us to lose a great opportunity. Lin Mo, today is the day you will die.”

...

Someone said angrily. They wanted to see Lin Mo killed today.

They were very happy because they felt that the Qilin was not here and thought that they might have been separated. This was a good opportunity.

“Anyone not related to this manner, please step back.” Many people immediately cleared the scene.

This included Mu Yuzhu, Mao Zhu, and the others. Because of the forces behind them, they could not help but push them away.

Back then, almost the entire Northern Continent had been involved in the attack on the Qilin. Because of this, the three of them were undecided...

“How dare you! Why aren’t you backing off?”

A woman shouted at Xia You. Although she could sense that the other party was extraordinary, she was still fearless.

This scene made some of the onlookers worried. They had originally wanted to see the battle between the God Devouring Body and the Heaven’s Will Body.

But now, the two of them seemed to have joined forces...

“Should I say that your luck is good or bad...?”

Xia You teased Lin Mo, her eyes flickering as she looked at the surroundings.

They were both from the Eastern Continent, but she was the center of attention while Lin Mo was the enemy of the entire world.

However, he had also been able to obtain the inheritance of the Kun Peng and get to know the only divine beast in the world, the White Qilin. It was a great blessing...

“Hmph, Lord Gongsun Wenhao and Lord Teng Feng have come to capture the God Devouring Body, yet you still dare to stay? Do you have a death wish?”

Someone rushed forward with a powerful ritual implement, as if he could suppress the mountain range.

However, to everyone’s shock, the power of the powerful weapon dissipated when it approached the woman beside Lin Mo.

Divine Chains of Order hung down from the sky, binding the magical artifacts.

“Crack...”

A crisp sound reverberated in everyone’s ears and lingered for a long time.

Immortal Qi surrounded Xia You’s body, and a strange rune flickered between her brows, connecting both heaven and earth.

At this moment, holy light burst out from her body and broke through the clouds. Countless runes shone and imprinted themselves in the void.

Immortal Qi lingered and divine light filled the sky.

The entire heaven and earth obeyed the order and lowered the Divine Chains of Order to protect them.

“Is this the Heaven’s Will Body?”

Some people were mumbling to themselves. They had not even moved, yet such a phenomenon had already erupted and restrained their opponent's magic weapon.

"Heaven's Will Body? What is this Heaven's Will Body?" The person holding the magic weapon was stunned as he listened to the discussion of the people in the distance.

In the rear, Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng's men were dumbfounded. They couldn't believe it, and their hearts were filled with shock.

They felt as if they had fallen into an ice cave from the depths of their souls, causing them to shiver.

The God Devouring Body alone was very difficult to deal with because it was one of the strongest physiques of the human race, and there had not been one in a million years.

Not only did the current human race have the God Devouring Body, but also the Heaven's Will Body. The two unparalleled body types were simply unimaginable.

"Pfft."

The person who had attacked immediately vomited blood and flew backward. His magic weapon had already been crushed by the Divine Chains of Order. His breath became weak, and he had suffered unimaginable heavy injuries.

The level of the Heaven's Will Body was too high. In the world today, only Xiao Yun, Tang Ru, and a few others could fight against it...

They were just ordinary people, yet they had behaved so arrogantly just a moment ago. It was simply ridiculous.

"This is going to be difficult. It's going to be a little difficult to kill Lin Mo..."

"That's right. Moreover, if this drags on for too long, it might not be good if the Qilin comes to help as well..."

The people of the Gongsun family and the Teng family were all afraid, and some even thought of retreating.

The Heaven's Will Body and the God Devouring Body were too terrifying. Now that they had joined forces, anyone who saw them would be afraid.

Although their group consisted of many people, if they really fought, only Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng were truly capable of fighting. They were not even qualified to assist.

Furthermore, the Heaven's Will Body was one level higher. She might still have the energy to completely annihilate them after the battle.

In the distance, more and more people gathered to watch, and they began to call their friends over.

There were even some people who had begun to fan the flames, hoping to see a true battle between both parties.

Around the mountain range, more and more people came to watch the confrontation between the two parties.

"What's going on? Why aren't you guys fighting? What are Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng waiting for?"

The group of people couldn't wait any longer. They also knew that if this dragged on, Gongsun Wenhao and Teng Feng would be at a disadvantage.

Because the Qilin wasn't here, they figured that she must be rushing over.

At that time, it wouldn't be a two-on-two battle any longer. In a three-on-two situation, the people of the Gongsun family and the Teng family would all die.

"This young lady..."

Gongsun Wenhao looked at Xia You as he clenched his fists.

However, before he could say what he was thinking, Xia You interrupted him.

"There's no need to say anything. If you want to fight, then just do it."

Her straightforward words cut off Gongsun Wenhao's thoughts and made his face gloomy.

“Hmph, you refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit. Do you really think that you can behave so arrogantly just because you have the Heaven’s Will Body?” Teng Feng said coldly.

He was also a master with extraordinary combat strength. Even if he was one realm lower, he wouldn’t be much weaker.

Furthermore, Lin Mo, who was on the other side, had not even broken through to the King tier.

“If you want to do it, then do it quickly. We’re in a hurry.”

Lin Mo spread his hands. Although he had not broken through to the King tier, he did not think that he would lose.

Gongsun Wenhao walked forward and exchanged a glance with Teng Feng. The two of them had already decided on their opponents.

Teng Feng would block the Heaven’s Will Body while he would use all of his strength to cripple Lin Mo before helping him.

During this time, their clansmen would also help them set up formations.

A great battle began at this moment, and both sides took out their magic weapons.

Gongsun Wenhao held a huge bone blade in his hand. Black runes curled around the blade.

He had obtained this bone saber from the ruins of Kun Peng and brought it back to his family. It had been cultivated many times and was now completely his.

...

Even a Supreme Saint would not be able to take it away unless he was killed.

The moment he made his move, the bone saber glowed brighter and brighter, forming a powerful saber intent that pressed down.

At their level, the magic weapons they used were no longer important.

No matter what it was, as long as it was in their hands, they would be able to draw parallels from it, quickly become proficient, and fight with ease.

The bone blade exploded with a powerful aura as it slashed towards Lin Mo.

“Hmph,” he snorted.

Lin Mo finally moved. His eyes were cold as the black hole expanded and absorbed the spiritual qi from the surroundings.

He raised his finger and pointed. A suction force exploded in the void, absorbing the energy in the saber intent and disintegrating it.

Due to the Yin Yang Fruit, his control of the God Devouring Body had reached its peak, and he could use it with all his might.

“BOOM!”

Heaven and earth shook, and the ripples from the two battlefields spread out, creating all kinds of strange phenomena.

...

Everyone was dumbstruck as they watched this scene without blinking.

This battle was definitely the most exciting one since the opening of the ancient battlefield.

Even after leaving this place, this battle would be recorded in the history of the Northern Continent. No matter what the result was, the four who had participated in this battle would leave their names in the annals of history.

In mid-air, Lin Mo took out the War Demon Spear and faced the bone blade that Gongsun Wenhao had obtained.

The two magic weapons were evenly matched, and bright sparks burst out when they collided.

“Crack!”

Cracks appeared and the space was torn apart by the battle between the two. The void was faintly visible and an endless storm erupted.

“What a powerful physical body...”

Gongsun Wenhao’s eyes were solemn. After his battle with Lin Mo, he was extremely shocked.

This guy’s physical body was even stronger than his after going through the King’s Heavenly Tribulation. If he waited for Lin Mo to transcend the King’s Heavenly Tribulation, what level would he reach?

“Hey!”

The space between his brows lit up, and a wisp of divine light appeared. A vertical eye had actually opened at this moment, and a divine aura appeared.

The crowd was extremely excited as they recognized the technique. Even Lin Mo was on guard.

“Heavenly Eye of Martial Arts, open!”

Gongsun Wenhao shouted out loudly. With the help of the divine light, he looked like a god who was about to punish someone.

Furthermore, those who possessed the Eye of Martial Law could see through all the flaws in the opponent’s attacks. The strongest and weakest point, the essence of the symbols, could be seen with a single glance.

This was an ability that one had a chance of comprehending while transcending the King’s Heavenly Tribulation.

Under normal circumstances, one would need to be at least a Saint or even a Supreme Saint to completely comprehend it and cultivate it with the help of the heavenly tribulation.

To be able to learn it in the King’s realm, he had to be an unparalleled master of his generation...

They exchanged blows again, causing Lin Mo to instantly be at a disadvantage. Every attack of his was suppressed by Gongsun Wenhao.

Whenever he was about to exert his strength, he would be blocked. The other party's attacks were all just right, being able to resolve it every time.

The bone blade struck again, and the void trembled. The space that had just been repaired by heaven and earth shattered once again.

A terrifying saber intent spread out and attacked from a tricky angle, sealing off all of Lin Mo's escape routes.

Lin Mo's expression was grave. The Kun Peng Wings appeared on his back and he dodged with the speed of the Kun Peng. Finally, he found an opening and dodged the attack.

"Lord Gongsun Wenhao is an unrivaled master and unstoppable."

Behind them, the people of the Gongsun family shouted excitedly. Lin Mo had been forced to use the Kun Peng technique to gain the upper hand.

"How can a puny insect such as you dare to challenge the dignity of a king?"

Gongsun Wenhao hovered in mid-air and looked at Lin Mo. The vertical eye between his brows lit up and activated the laws, causing runes to appear.

In the distance, Xia You and Teng Feng, who were in the middle of fighting, also noticed this.

"He's extremely lucky to have comprehended the Eye of Martial Arts during the Heavenly Tribulation. Lin Mo is no match for him. It's not too late for you to retreat now," Teng Feng said coldly.

"Is luck what's needed to comprehend this?" Xia You raised her head, only to reveal the holy light bloom between her eyes.

A vertical eye appeared, causing everyone to turn pale with fright.

"I thought there were more masters in the northern land other than just those few people. It turns out that it's only due to luck..." said Xia You indifferently as she stood in mid-air, her martial heavenly eye shining brightly.

At this moment, the pressure on Teng Feng increased sharply, and he had no choice but to use some of his trump cards.

He knew that it would be impossible for him to defeat the woman in front of him. After all, she had yet to use the power of the Heaven's Will Body.

The power to communicate with heaven and earth, and control order and rules had yet to appear.

“BOOM!”

Gongsun Wenhao pointed his bone blade to the sky. The world suddenly darkened, and a dark aura emerged.

As the bone blade slashed out, a mass of black energy came slashing out.

This attack was able to corrode the flesh and blood of living beings, and attack the soul. It was a martial art technique of the Gongsun family, “Extreme Yin Black Mist.

Facing Lin Mo, who had activated the Kun Peng Art, Gongsun Wenhao did not dare to be careless. He began to use a high-level martial art.

“Hey!”

However, Lin Mo did not retreat even half a step in the face of the attack. He folded his wings, and a faint ripple appeared in the surroundings.

He had transformed into a huge black fish, and the black mist's attack had no effect on him at all.

At the same time, he also made an attack. His fishtail swayed, drawing the power of the moon and gathering it, forming a black beam of light.

With a booming sound, heaven and earth shook. The spiritual qi began to boil, and the mountains and rivers in all directions collapsed. Laws and spiritual qi filled the entire place.

The people watching the battle had no choice but to retreat, feeling terrified.

Everyone retreated thousands of miles before stopping, afraid of being affected.

However, there was an exception. These were the people from the Gongsun family and the Teng family.

Although they weren't the most talented, they still had a good eye.

Knowing that Teng Feng was no match for the Heaven's Will Body, they began to set up a killing formation, with the intention of helping Gongsun Wenhao kill Lin Mo quickly.

"Where is the Qilin? If you don't call her out, you will die here today," said Gongsun Wenhao. The vertical eye on his forehead shone, and his body bloomed with golden light.

He put on a layer of golden armor to further enhance his physical strength, surpassing Lin Mo's.

"If she really were to come, you'd probably turn around and run," sneered Lin Mo as he circulated the Soul-Devouring Art to absorb the spiritual qi of heaven and earth.

Gongsun Wenhao, who had comprehended the Eye of Martial Arts, had a huge increase in his battle strength. If he didn't take it seriously today, he would probably suffer a great loss.

"Hmph, I'll capture you today and search for the Qilin," said Gongsun Wenhao. Golden light bloomed from his body as he mobilized the spiritual energy in his body and prepared to launch a powerful attack.

"BOOM!"

With a flip of his hand, the bone saber force slashed down with a golden light. It was as if it was the next Heavenly Tribulation, and its momentum was great.

The saber intent cracked the sky and earth, suppressing everything.

This attack contained Gongsun Wenhao's comprehension of the blade's intent. He had never used a blade before, but after obtaining the bone blade, he had trained hard, and his comprehension of the blade's intent had reached a terrifying realm.

"What a terrifying power. Gongsun Wenhao's comprehension of the blade is so profound," someone exclaimed, sighing at his talent.

Although it was said that the eighteen types of martial arts had some connections, it was not something that could be learned in a day.

Furthermore, his comprehension of saber intent had reached such a profound level in just one or two years. This alone was enough to prove Gongsun Wenhao's talent.

Lin Mo snorted coldly in the face of the attack. Purple light appeared beneath his feet, and a Qilin appeared behind him.

After taking nine steps, the wind and clouds changed. This was the powerful martial art of the Qilin clan, "Nine Qilin Steps".

"BOOM!"

The two attacks collided, and a violent explosion rang out in the heavens and earth. It was as if a meteorite had fallen from the sky, causing the earth to crack.

The wind and clouds in the world were turbulent, and the spiritual qi exploded. A violent wind rose, destroying everything without restraint.

The exchange of blows between the two of them caused such terrifying fluctuations, causing strange phenomena to appear everywhere.

After a long time, there was a loud explosion, followed by a bloody mist and countless screams.

"Do you guys dare to ambush me?" Lin Mo said.

"Lin Mo, how dare you!" At this moment, Gongsun Wenhao was furious. The divine light from the heavenly Eye of Truth disappeared.

With the help of the ripples of energy, Lin Mo had killed his clansmen with the speed of the Kun Peng.

...

Even though he could see through Lin Mo's actions with his Eye of Martial Arts, he was still unable to do anything.

He hadn't been able to keep up with the speed and could only watch as his clansmen were killed and the formation that he was about to set up was destroyed.

Lin Mo smiled calmly. He had always been bold, ever since he started cultivating.

"You deserve to die for trying to ambush me with a formation," he said coldly.

As he spoke, he looked at the three formation flags that he had just snatched. They were surrounded by immortal Dao talismans.

This was a mystery that he couldn't figure it out for a while.

In front of Gongsun Wenhao, he put away the three formation flags. At the same time, the system's voice sounded. innread.com

[Innate Spirit Treasure, an imitation of the Floating Flame Flag. There are five flags in total, two are lost.]

[A complete flag can be used to set up the Yin Yang Five Elements formation, trapping people within it. It will disrupt yin and yang, stabilize the five elements, and completely trap them to death.]

[The Yin Yang Five Elements formation diagram is engraved on the flag, and is not complete.]

The system's introduction made Lin Mo freeze on the spot. Although he showed no expression on his face, his heart was already in a state of shock.

...

The Floating Flame Flag was one of the primordial spiritual treasures and primordial flags of the five regions. Could it be here too?

If it really did exist, then did the other Supreme magic treasures also exist?

For example, the other four Innate flags of the five regions...

If he was able to get them, or if he could get the rebate from the auction, it would add to his terrifying trump card...

"No, I can't throw away or swallow any more magical artifacts in the future..."

Lin Mo was extremely excited. He had the War Demon Spear and was very comfortable with it, so he did not pay attention to the auctioning of magic weapons.

Even if it wasn't because he was too lazy to auction them off, he would immediately devour them after obtaining them, only wanting to improve his realm...

However, he couldn't do it now. No matter what, he just had to obtain such a powerful treasure.

"Hand over my treasure."

Gongsun Wenhao, who was in front of him, roared in anger. The flag that he had given to his subordinates to set up the formation had been obtained by Lin Mo just like that.

"I didn't expect you to have a replica of the Floating Flame Flag. Where did you get it?"

Lin Mo smiled as he tried to get some information out of him.

Unfortunately, Gongsun Wenhao didn't give him a chance to do so. He slashed his bone blade down in an effort to take Lin Mo's life.

"That's the Floating Flame Flag, a primordial spiritual treasure. According to my estimation, it's at least a magical artifact. Give me some information and I'll spare your life. How about it?" Lin Mo said slyly.

"You've completely infuriated me." Golden runes covered Gongsun Wenhao's body and his killing intent spread.

"Roar!"

With a furious roar, his body swelled slightly. The aura on his body completely transformed from divine to fiendish, full of killing intent.

“Bang!”

Lin Mo did not back down. He activated the Abyssal Devouring, which swallowed the sun and moon, and absorbed all the rivers.

At the same time, he transformed into a Kun Peng which struck the water for 3000 miles, causing it to swing upwards for 90000 miles.

“BOOM!”

It was another peak confrontation. Both sides completely went all out and used their full strength. It made people’s hearts jump.

The Kun Peng demon god swept over the mountains, causing the space to instantly shatter and was difficult to repair.

The two of them stirred the void. Fortunately, they had impeccable control over their power.

They were able to control the explosion within a very small area so that it would not spread out and hurt the onlookers.

It wasn’t that they were being kind. However, in doing so, they were able to maximize the power of their attacks and at the same time, save on the consumption of spiritual energy.

“Golden Immortal Body!”

Gongsun Wenhao growled and his body suddenly expanded. Golden light filled the air and sent Lin Mo’s Kun Peng flying.

This was a body-cultivating martial art. When he used it, he turned into a Golden Demon God and attacked Lin Mo.

“Chaotic Point of Yin and Yang!” Lin Mo shouted. He flapped his wings and a beam of light flew out from the Yin Yang Taiji Diagram.

In an instant, the power of yin and yang spread out and suppressed Gongsun Wenhao.

“Crack.”

The penetrating power of the divine light of the yin and yang was astonishing, and its speed was extremely fast. It was impossible to dodge.

With just one strike, the golden armor on Gongsun Wenhao’s body was pierced, and blood began to flow out.

Furthermore, if he had not dodged in time, Lin Mo’s attack would have been enough to injure him seriously.

Even so, he was forced to withdraw from the Golden Immortal Body, and his body returned to its original size.

There was a hideous wound on his arm, and there were still remnants of Yin Yang Dao Law remaining on it.

“Huh? What a strong defense. This must be at least a Level 8 Heaven-class defensive magic weapon. Lin Mo was shocked.

Even after taking on his Chaotic Point of Yin and Yang in the Kun Peng state, what he ended up with could not even be considered a light injury. It was just a superficial wound.

“Swish!”

Although he was surprised, Lin Mo’s attack was not slow. He flapped his Kun Peng wings and arrived in front of Gongsun Wenhao in an instant.

He took nine steps forward, and purple light filled the air. The Nine Qilin Steps were instantly activated, which he used to attack Gongsun Wenhao’s face.

At the same time, Lin Mo’s Spirit Devouring Art was activated, and the Abyssal Devouring was used again.

This time, the range was not large, and only Gongsun Wenhao was enveloped within.

The effect of reducing the area was also very obvious. The symbols on Gongsun Wenhao’s armor instantly dimmed.

More than half of the spiritual qi on it had been devoured, and there was no time to replenish it.

Gongsun Wenhao's martial arts had been interrupted by the devouring of spiritual qi, so he had to swing his blade to fight Lin Mo.

“Bang!”

The two of them collided, and the bone blade was sent flying. Lin Mo seized the opportunity to attack, and his strength increased sharply.

“Pfft.”

Although Gongsun Wenhao managed to dodge in time and avoid getting hit in the head, his chest was still kicked by Lin Mo.

One could imagine the power of the Nine Qilin Steps. He spat out a mouthful of blood and was sent flying a thousand meters away.

In the short confrontation, Gongsun Wenhao suffered a big loss as he took a hit from the Nine Qilin Steps”.

The surroundings trembled, and everyone's expressions changed.

The God Devouring Body was too powerful. He wasn't a King tier, but he was capable of fighting against Gongsun Wenhao, who had comprehended the Eye of Martial Arts.

Furthermore, he had the upper hand. What a terrifying combat strength.

Lin Mo was a little surprised as he looked at the other party. That armor was really strong and had a very high defense.

He had taken a direct hit from him and was slightly injured, but it was not a serious injury and he was still able to use his peak combat strength.

“The Golden Immortal Body reappears.”

“Overlord blade's heavenly might!”

Gongsun Wenhao took the initiative to attack. After finding out why he was at a disadvantage, he disregarded the amount of the consumption of spiritual qi to mobilize several times more spiritual qi to activate it.

...

It was obvious that he had used his trump card, and the martial art he was using had to be extremely powerful.

The bone blade in his hand shone brightly as Gongsun Wenhao formed a seal with one hand, and a vague shadow condensed in front of him.

Each of them was holding a bone blade and looked like a god of war who could suppress everything in the world.

“BOOM!”

Lin Mo did not show any weakness either. He transformed into the Kun Peng and the Abyssal Devouring swallowed the sea and rivers, nourishing it with endless spiritual qi.

The Kun Peng wings glowed with black and white light, as they contained the power of yin and yang.

This was the Kun Peng Divine Light, an ability that he had comprehended before. After a year of closed-door training, he had a deeper understanding of this move.

In addition to the Yin Yang Taiji Diagram that appeared in front of him, he used the Chaotic Point Yin and Yang.

The two strongest martial arts were unleashed at full force.

“BOOM!”

This time, the collision could be said to be destructive. The Ying Yang Dao Law and the saber intent continued to resist each other, and the golden light continued to spread.

...

The shadows were obliterated one after another, and the Yin Yang Divine Light gradually weakened.

The earth trembled and runes filled the heavens and earth. Even the shattered space and the endless void were filled with runes.

“Bang!”

A violent explosion spread, and two figures were sent flying.

Lin Mo staggered back, blood flowing out of his mouth and nose. He had suffered internal injuries from the terrifying attack.

Countless people in the distance were shocked. The entire place was silent, and no one dared to say anything.

The harmony of yin and yang, the combination of strength and gentleness. This is not a simple fusion of extreme yin and extreme yang...

Standing in the void, Lin Mo realized that the Kun Peng Art could be used in this way.

Facing Gongsun Wenhao's overbearing attack, it was very difficult for pure extreme yin and extreme yang to resist. After all, his realm was low.

"Yin and yang are in harmony, mutual promotion and mutual restraint..."

As he muttered to himself, a thought seemed to come to Lin Mo's mind, and his eyes gradually became clearer.

In that instant of enlightenment, the Yin Yang Dao Law in Lin Mo's energy center appeared. He was developing the Kun Peng Spell Art and a new martial art was about to be born...

"Hehe, even if you're able to control the Kun Peng Art, you can't make up for the difference in our cultivation levels. It's time to end this," roared Gongsun Wenhao.

He still had an even more powerful killing move that he had not used. However, using this move would consume his own life force.

He would not use it unless he had no other choice.

Lin Mo remained calm and composed. This moment of enlightenment allowed him to comprehend a new martial art from the Kun Peng Art.

"Boom..."

An extremely yang and unyielding power appeared. At this moment, Lin Mo seemed to have transformed into a huge sun, bright and dazzling.

He seemed to be standing between heaven and earth, striking the sky above and stepping down on the nine nethers below. He was like an unparalleled divine king who could suppress everything in the world.

“Extreme yin and extreme yang, hard and soft at the same time.”

As he muttered to himself, the blood in his body began to boil, and a loud boom erupted.

The two forces continued to merge, and it was many times stronger than before.

“The name of this skill is Sun and Moon in the Same Sky.”

A black and white light covered his palm. Lin Mo stepped forward and struck out with his palm, causing the wind and clouds to change.

“BOOM!”

Gongsun Wenhao’s Golden Immortal Body was broken through in an instant. The golden patterns scattered, and his armor was pierced.

“Pfft.”

!!

He spat out a mouthful of blood and flew backward. The sound of his bones breaking could be heard.

“How is this possible? You’re not even at the King tier, so how can your comprehension of laws be so deep?” Gongsun Wenhao roared, his heart filled with unwillingness.

At this moment, his hair was disheveled and his body was covered in blood. He no longer had the invincible appearance he had before.

The yin and yang in Lin Mo's body were balanced and blended together. His comprehension was even more thorough.

The two different runes condensed and transformed continuously, erupting with terrifying power.

He stretched out his hand again and ruthlessly slapped Gongsun Wenhao. Gongsun Wenhao's body was in a bloody mess and there was not a single piece of flesh that was intact.

"I'm not willing to accept this..."

With great difficulty, Gongsun Wenhao crawled up. His body was covered with the Yin Yang Dao Law, which was attacking his body.

The power of extreme yin eroded his spiritual energy, while the power of extreme yang suppressed him and obliterated the vitality in his body.

This scene struck fear into the hearts of all living beings.

Lin Mo's ability to learn the Kun Peng Art and control the Yin Yang Dao Law was something that many envied.

His comprehension was becoming deeper and deeper now. He wasn't even at the King tier yet, but his comprehension of laws was almost on par with some Quasi-Saints.

"Lin Mo, I want you to pay with your life."

When the Yin Yang Dao Law disappeared from his body, Gongsun Wenhao roared, and a dark golden light bloomed from his body.

Immediately after, his body continued to expand. The spiritual qi in his body was so chaotic that he was about to explode.

Many people around them fled, not daring to stay there any longer.

Gongsun Wenhao's actions were too obvious. He wanted them to die together.

If he was to be the only one to self-destruct, it wouldn't affect such a large area. However, he had two extremely powerful magic weapons on him.

One of them was even at Level 9 Heaven-class, and it would be easier said than done to block it.

“You want to drag me along? Are you dreaming?”

Lin Mo sneered. With the end of “Sun and Moon in the Same Sky”, his strongest attack had also disappeared.

However, when faced with the dying Gongsun Wenhao, he was confident that he could kill him in an instant.

Facing the self-destruction, he pondered for a moment before finally shaking his head, not taking any action to stop it immediately.

He did not escape the center of the explosion like the others.

On the contrary, he was flying towards Gongsun Wenhao. He wasn't going too fast, but he was not slow either.

“You will pay for your arrogance.”

There was a crazed expression on Gongsun Wenhao's face. The bone blade in his hand had already cracked, and violent energy was gathering.

The armor on his body was on the verge of collapse and was about to explode.

The self-destruction of two Supreme treasures and a King tier couldn't be underestimated. Even a Quasi-Saint wouldn't dare to come to the center of the explosion.

However, Lin Mo did the opposite. He approached Gongsun Wenhao and attacked.

However, after using the “Sun and Moon in the Same Sky”, the spiritual qi in his body was seriously depleted.

Even with the endless spiritual qi provided by the Abyssal Devouring, too much of his spiritual qi had been consumed.

“You’ve lost. You can’t kill me and you can’t live.”

When Gongsun Wenhao saw Lin Mo’s state, he became like a mad demon, and the suppressed spiritual qi in his body became more and more violent.

Lin Mo was completely unbothered. The Demon War Spear cut off Gongsun Wenhao’s left arm and took the storage ring from his hand.

“BOOM!”

A terrifying explosion swept out, instantly overpowering Lin Mo.

The mountains and rivers turned into dust and disappeared. Countless creatures were so shocked that it was a long time before they could calm down.

This battle that was worthy of being recorded in history had finally ended.

Anyone with eyes could see that Gongsun Wenhao had lost, but Lin Mo had also died in the self-explosion in order to seize Gongsun Wenhao’s storage ring.

“Haha, that’s great. The human race has lost two masters, and one of them is a God Devouring Body...”

Some beings of other races laughed at the thought that it was a good thing for humans to fight among themselves.

The only thing they were not satisfied with was that these two people were not really dead. They had only lost a great opportunity.

In the future, the cultivation base would fall a lot, and there would be regrets, which would easily breed inner demons...

However, there were still quite a few living beings who were feeling regretful, and their eyes were filled with confusion.

They had all seen clearly that Gongsun Wenhao wanted them both to perish together, so why had Lin Mo still chosen to charge forward?

“Why else? He’s just a wandering cultivator. Of course, he would covet the resources of the Gongsun family,” said a centaur disdainfully. It felt that Lin Mo deserved to die because he could not resist the temptation.

“No, look, what’s that?”

Someone had suddenly pointed at the center of the explosion where a golden figure was floating.

The light shadow stood in mid-air, and a powerful force surrounded it.

...

It was a spiritual body with a seal between its eyebrows, which was repairing its damaged body.

All of the living beings were shocked, and their faces were filled with disbelief.

Hadn’t he self-destructed? The self-destruction of his body and the two powerful magical weapons had destroyed the mountains and rivers within a radius of ten thousand miles.

Even Lin Mo had turned into ashes, but he was still here...

“Hahaha...”

Gongsun Wenhao laughed loudly after sensing his surroundings and making sure that Lin Mo’s aura had disappeared.

His physical body was still in the process of being restored. Even though it had been destroyed once, he would still be able to recover after a period of rest.

The only unfortunate thing was that the Kun Peng Art technique seemed to have been lost.

This was what everyone was thinking. It was a pity that it was a Supreme inheritance that could allow people to dominate a region.

“.. I see...”

...

Suddenly, Lin Mo’s voice rang out in the quiet space, shocking Gongsun Wenhao, who was recovering.

“It’s a talisman that’s similar to a protective talisman, right? It can protect one’s soul and withstand a fatal attack...”

A strange spatial fluctuation appeared, and Lin Mo walked out quietly with a faint smile on his face.

He had already recovered to his peak.

After obtaining Gongsun Wenhao’s storage ring, he had entered the system space.

In the past, he had not known that the system space could allow his main body to enter.

It was also with this move that he dodged the most fatal explosion and even recovered his energy in the Fire Spirit Lake.

As long as there was enough spiritual qi, the God Devouring Body could recover in almost an instant.

At this moment, Gongsun Wenhao’s defeat was already set in stone. There was no turning back.

“It’s a pity that I can’t really kill you...” said Lin Mo as he shook his head in regret.

As he spoke, he arrived in front of Gongsun Wenhao’s spirit body and stabbed with the War Demon Spear, instantly destroying Gongsun Wenhao’s recultivated body.

The other party roared in anger. The spirit body wanted to attack, but it was unable to turn the situation around. Its weak soul was then taken away.

With that, the number one master of Yunzhou, Gongsun Wenhao, was eliminated and he lost the resources of the ancient battlefield.

The spectators were all silent as they looked at Lin Mo.

From the opening of the ancient battlefield until now, the first person from the Top 20 of the Hidden Dragon List had finally been eliminated.

After a long silence, the crowd was in an uproar. innread.com

Xia You had been suppressing Teng Feng for a long time. When she saw that Lin Mo had finished his battle, she finally used the Heaven's Will Body that had been silent all this time.

A terrifying law erupted, and strands of a myriad of qi appeared. Xia You slashed out with her sword.

The terrifying power even stirred the void and caused a spatial storm.

Teng Feng was also annihilated by the endless sword light, and a trace of his soul was taken away by the jade talisman.

After the second master that appeared had been eliminated, all the creatures went silent at the appearance of the Heaven's Will Body and the God Devouring Body.

The human race was about to rise. If the two of them matured even further, the human race would have a place in history in the next millions of years...

"He won! The God Devouring Body and the Heaven's Will Body won!"

"It's hard to imagine that these two people are from the Eastern Continent. I thought that cultivation is not allowed there?"

The whole place was in an uproar, and some even forgot that they had come to this island to search for treasure.

"Your master is dead. Do you still want to escape?"

Lin Mo looked into the distance and saw a group of people who were in the midst of building a teleportation formation in an attempt to escape.

However, Lin Mo's soul was sharp, and he destroyed the teleportation formation with one strike.

With the use of his War Demon Spear, the shadows from the spear completely annihilated the people of the two families.

With a wave of his hand, over a dozen storage rings flew up and landed in his hand.

“Aren’t you afraid of being hunted down when you leave this place after such a ruthless attack?” Xia You said, laughing lightly as she walked over.

She ascended through the ranks and finally moved to the Central Continent.

She had been fortunate enough to join a great faction, and the entire Divine Secrets Holy Land had already settled down, with a very good cultivation environment.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, had come alone without a strong backer. Furthermore, he had a Qilin by his side.

It could be said that the entire Northern Continent was Lin Mo’s enemy...

“It’s the same whether I kill him or not.”

Lin Mo, who was well aware of his own condition, did not care. He knew he was not going to die unless there was a great emperor in the Northern Continent.

Compared to this, he was more interested in the spoils of war.

Gongsun Wenhao’s storage ring contained a lot of good stuff. There were more than a dozen godly medicines and even Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

“There are 100000 best-grade spiritual stones in total. These are cultivation resources that only quasi-saints can use. How long has the ancient battlefield been open? ”

“Hey, what’s this token for?”

With some doubt, Lin Mo stored it in the system space for appraisal.

[The Fire Token. The holder of the secondary token can enter the fire door of the five elements Yin Yang formation. If one is lucky enough, one can use this to obtain the most precious treasure in the formation eye.]

“What kind of treasure is it?” Lin Mo’s heart skipped a beat. This could be said to be a key to a treasure vault.

[This fire badge contains the aura of the Floating Flame Flag, a primordial spiritual treasure of the primeval world.]

With the system’s reply, Lin Mo felt more certain.

The eye of the formation had to be the Floating Flame Flag, one of the primordial flags of the five regions, which was a primordial spiritual treasure in the untainted world.

He had not expected to find one in this world. He just didn’t know if it was stronger or weaker than the Emperor-level magical weapons from ancient times.

“Whoosh!”

Suddenly, a long sword stained with blood pierced through the air, just as Lin Mo was rejoicing.

The illusionary shadow of the long sword was so heavy that it was hard to see it clearly. With the shifting of position, it stabbed toward the area between Lin Mo’s eyebrows.

It was a very powerful magical weapon. Its aura alone was not much weaker than the War Demon Spear. The yin qi that it emitted made everyone shiver.

It was a pity that Lin Mo had the Kun Peng Art and was the fastest among his peers.

The long sword had only struck the afterimage that Lin Mo had left behind.

“They actually chased us all the way here. A bunch of bugs that only know how to hide in the dark,” said Xia You, who was the first to react.

The smile on her face disappeared as she slashed out with her sword, tearing open the space.

“Slash!”

Having missed his mark with his attack, the figure tried to escape. Xia You followed him into the void and began to fight.

“BOOM!”

Lin Mo’s body was illusionary. He quickly arrived at the top of a mountain with just a few flashes and shattered the space with the palm of his hand.

“Pfft.”

A muffled groan was heard, and a few droplets of blood scattered in the air.

Xia You walked out of the void, shaking her head as she looked at Lin Mo.

Her opponent had been very decisive. After his attack had failed, he had reacted decisively without stopping at all.

Seeing that Lin Mo still wanted to give chase, Xia You hurriedly stopped him, saying, “Those people are from the Central Continent, a killer organization that moves in the dark.

“No one knows the name of their organization or even their specific strength.”

There was no doubt that the people from the Central Continent had come here for him. After all, there were also many people who wanted her dead.

Even within her faction, there were many people who wanted to assassinate her.

“That person’s strength is at least at the Seventh Heavenly layer of the King realm. How did he cultivate so quickly?” Lin Mo frowned.

There were some secret skills that could increase one’s cultivation quickly and tap into one’s potential to a great extent.

However, these secret skills all had a flaw, which was that they damaged the foundation.

If he really used it, he would only be able to reach the Ninth Heavenly Layer of the King realm in his lifetime. He wouldn’t be able to break through to the Quasi-Saint realm.

Only by taking an extremely rare immortal pill or immortal medicine would they have a chance of survival.

“The people from that organization are crazy. When I came to the Northern Continent, they sent out Quasi-Saints to kill me.

...

“In order to pursue and kill them, these people severed their cultivation levels and searched for opportunities in there to start over.”

Xia You shook her head. This kind of crazy behavior puzzled her. innread.com

What kind of benefits did these people receive? They were even willing to cut off their own cultivation realm just to kill her...

“Let’s explore this Island first. I want to obtain the opportunity to break through to the King tier here,” said Lin Mo. He could feel that it would be extremely difficult for him to break through to the King tier.

Even if he swallowed the 100000 best-grade spiritual stones he had just obtained, he still might not be able to make a breakthrough.

“Oh.”

He walked into the depths of the island. Not long after, formation patterns appeared one after another, and the formation inside began to activate.

Upon seeing this, Lin Mo and the others were about to step forward, but they realized that the formation was not blocking them. Instead, it was protecting the land.

“Is it to prevent it from being destroyed?” Mao Zhu asked curiously.

Along the way, with the presence of Lin Mo, Xia You, and Mu Yuzhu, there was no danger that could stop them.

As a result, a large group of people followed behind the group.

...

They knew that Lin Mo and the others would not pay attention to them, so they followed them from a distance, as they tried to sneak into the deepest part of the forest.

There were also entrances in other places where many people entered the island.

However, there was no doubt that this path was the safest because there were three great gods up ahead.

As soon as Lin Mo and the others entered the formation, they felt an unusually dense spiritual energy.

A seven-colored light flickered, and all kinds of strange flowers and plants grew around the path. These were all spiritual herbs.

It was also not of a low grade, having already reached the earth grade.

The members of this small group felt relaxed. This was a very comfortable feeling. Cultivating here would yield twice the result with half the effort.

“Ah...”

However, just as they were about to relax, they heard the screams of living beings not far away.

A five-colored divine light spread out and cut through a cultivator who had just sneaked in in half. The divine light bloomed and destroyed his soul.

This was extremely horrifying.

“Help!”

Someone else screamed. A few people walked into the formation and touched the five-colored divine light, directly being killed.

Even Lin Mo and the others were being attacked. The five-colored divine radiance was extremely terrifying. If they were to take it head-on, even a Quasi-Saint would die.

“Let’s go!” Lin Mo immediately protected the three of them and led them away from the divine light.

“How terrifying! What is this thing?” Song Lianxue’s face turned pale. This place looked like a paradise, but it was actually very terrifying.

“Over the years, the rules here have affected the Wind Spirit Sect, and the formation has changed as well.” Xia You sighed lightly, as she saw through the clues.

Chapter 720 - 720 Deep In

720 Deep In

After all, this was still a historical site. It was extremely dangerous, and a slight mistake could cost them their lives.

The group of people advanced carefully, keeping their guard up.

After seeing the divine light that even a Quasi-Saint could not block, many people chose to retreat.

This was not a place they could explore. They did not have the keen soul perception of Lin Mo and the others.

However, there were still some bold and skilled people who continued to follow Lin Mo and his group from a distance.

Lin Mo was completely unbothered by this. They eventually arrived at a swamp that was filled with a rancid smell.

There were more than a dozen fifth Sky King demonic beasts with their bloodied mouths wide open, ready to cause them trouble.

“Oh, it’s the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus. There’s actually such a treasure in the center of the swamp,” Xia You said in surprise.

They quickly took care of a demonic crocodile and retrieved its inner core.

After coming to the depths, they found that there was a Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, and it was not of a low grade.

“It’s not any worse than the one we ate,” said Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue.

“Eh, is the Qilin here?”

Suddenly, Xia You turned around and looked at Lin Mo’s waist. She could feel a wave of life energy there.

In the next moment, a Qilin egg that glowed with a purple light flew out of the universe bag on Lin Mo’s waist.

When the Qilin mark appeared, the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus was drawn by it and showed signs of melting.

“What else do you need besides this?” Lin Mo asked hurriedly as he took out all the divine medicine that he had taken away from others and stored in the system space.

These things had been part of Gongsun Wenhao’s collection. He had originally planned to auction them.

However, as long as the Qilin needed it, he didn’t mind feeding her all of it. It was fine as long as this little girl grew up smoothly.

“Buzz...”

As if it was responding to Lin Mo, the Qilin egg began to shake. A ray of light flickered and attracted the three divine medicines.

These were three Level 3 Heaven-class divine herbs, the highest grade among them.

In addition to the Level 5 Heaven-class Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus, a huge amount of spiritual qi gathered and integrated into the Qilin egg.

However, the Qilin did not wake up as expected.

She remained in a deep sleep, and the Qilin egg flew back into the storage bag, covering all its qi activity and making it impossible to check on her.

“I’m sorry, let’s just say I’m accountable for taking this divine medicine.”

Lin Mo looked at Mu Yuzhu and Xia You. The three of them were working together with him, not with him as the leader. He had taken advantage of them this time.

“If you lack resources, you can take my share,” said Xia You as she shook her head.

She had a lot of divine medicine and spiritual stones with her, which had been given to her by the elders of the sect before she left.

She could tell from the ancient books how much the God Devouring Body lacked resources.

In addition, Lin Mo had been collecting spiritual stones like crazy ever since he was born. The Lin family’s auction, the Purple Moon Palace, the Molin Chamber of Commerce...

“How can you do that? You...” Lin Mo merely shook his head.

Unexpectedly, Xia You stopped him by saying, “You should hurry up and become stronger. Don’t fall too far behind me...”

As she said this, she had a slightly strange expression on her face. She looked at Lin Mo and chuckled as she shook her head.

“What are you hiding from me?” Lin Mo asked.

However, he didn’t get an answer. All he got was a sentence, a sentence that made him grit his teeth...

“I’ll tell you if you win...”

These words made Lin Mo gnash his teeth with frustration, wishing he could suppress her on the spot.

However, he also knew that unless he broke through to the King tier, he would not be Xia You’s match.

Although the Heaven’s Will Body and the God Devouring Body were both the strongest body types, the God Devouring body was only really terrifying in its later stages...

In the early stages, it only brought him some convenience in fighting. Other than that, it brought him endless trouble...

“The fire elements in front of us are increasing. It looks like a volcano...”

After walking for a while, Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue spoke at the same time as they sensed the abnormality ahead.

“Not only that, the escape route seems to have been cut off...” said Lin Mo. He gestured for everyone to look behind them. Behind them, the swamp had been completely destroyed.

Beams of five-colored divine light appeared, densely packed, and blocked all the escape routes.

The group of people frowned. There was no way to retreat. If the road ahead was blocked, they were afraid that something would happen.

“Roar!”

With a series of roars, there was a violent fluctuation of spiritual energy in front of them. The small group flew forward.

They soon discovered that there was a huge volcano in front of them, and the battle was at the top of the mountain.

When they flew up, they couldn't help but be shocked because the demonic beasts that were fighting immediately pounced on them upon seeing them.

“Fire Lizards, a demonic beast that lives in groups. Its realm isn't high,” said Feng Tian as he tried to determine the species of these demonic beasts.

However, just as he finished speaking, a lizard lunged at him.

“No, these fire lizards have mutated. They're at a very high level...”

He immediately responded in shock. The weakest of the fire lizards here was a fifth-level King and there were over a hundred of them here. At this moment, all the people in their small group were united against a common enemy that wanted to surround and kill everyone.

“There must be a Supreme fire-based treasure at the bottom of this volcano,” said Lin Mo. These fire lizards would not mutate for no reason.

...

“BOOM!”

The fire lizard group was a pack of demonic beasts that excelled at surrounding and killing, but Lin Mo, Xia You, Mu Yuzhu and the others took action.

However, even if they didn't cooperate, they would still be able to defeat the army of fire lizards.

In less than ten minutes, the lava lake had turned red.

“They don't have inner cores, and even their souls are very weak.”

Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue declared that they would be in charge of cleaning up the battlefield and counting the spoils of war, but they found nothing.

“There's a formation here. Break it and you'll see the treasure,” said Xia You as she made a move, shattering a spatial node with a single palm strike.

Lin Mo and Mu Yuzhu had also shattered several other parts of the volcano, causing the entire volcano to begin to shake and show faint signs of an eruption.

“Here we go...” Lin Mo was looking forward to it. What kind of treasure would it be this time?

At the mouth of the volcano, a stone platform slowly emerged from the magma. On the stone platform, some strange vines were planted.

There were some fruits with flames burning on them.

...

There were many fruits, but only the three at the front were considered ripe. The fire element in them was the most dense.

“I've never seen this kind of divine fruit before. What is it?”

Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue looked at Lin Mo. They knew that Lin Mo's appraisal skills were extraordinary, so they looked to him for his help.

“Let me take a look...” Lin Mo waved his hand and plucked the three ripe fruits before storing them in the system space.

[Mutated Fire Spirit Fruit, Heaven realm Level 4. The fire element within is too dense, only immortal Dao divine fire can refine it.]

[Without the Immortal Dao’s flames, if one is forced to consume it, the soul will adhere to the fire poison, causing one’s intelligence to be obliterated.]

Upon hearing this, Lin Mo understood. These fire lizards had eaten this kind of divine fruit, which was why they had become violent and often fought among themselves.

However, their instincts had driven them to live in groups and eat fruits, which led to the current situation...

“This is a Mutated Fire Spirit Fruit,” said Lin Mo as he told them others about the fruit.

When they heard that they needed Immortal Dao flames to refine it, Xia You and Mu Yuzhu frowned at the same time. They didn’t have any Immortal Dao flames.

Besides, the fruit wasn’t the most suitable for them...

“We can cultivate it,” said Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue as a wisp of flame appeared in their hands.

That was the Nirvana Phoenix Fire, the flame of the Immortal Dao. After it was completely activated, it could burn mountains and boil seas with just a wave of the hand...

“This time, it’s mine and the next treasure will be for Miss Mu.”

Xia You requested for the Fire Spirit Fruit to be given to Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu.
