

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 731

“Buzz ...”

The auspicious qi nourished all spirits, and it lasted for a day and a night. When the first rays of the morning sun appeared on the horizon, the Qilin flew down on the auspicious clouds. innread.com

She transformed into a human and wore a pure white dress. Her entire temperament had changed greatly. She appeared to be holy and flawless, like a fairy in the moon.

“Hehe, the way you’re staring at me like that. Am I very pretty?”

Her holy and pure appearance was shattered in an instance. Her playful and playful look was still that of the little Qilin...

She was a little excited as she moved closer to Lin Mo while gesturing with her hands. Finally, she confirmed that she had indeed grown a little taller.

However, even so, she was still a head shorter than Lin Mo, which made her a little unhappy.

“Have your inborn deficiencies been completely fixed?” Lin Mo laughed.

He realized that he couldn’t feel the Qilin’s qi anymore. It was very powerful. Its qi and blood were like the sea, with a touch of holy light in its body.

“That’s right. Did you give me a quasi-immortal medicine? The power was extremely great. I had to take a long time to absorb it.”

The Qilin spoke excitedly. After waiting for so long, her bloodline was finally complete, and she had even learned the most complete Qilin spell technique.

Her combat ability and cultivation level had both skyrocketed. She was now at the third level of the King realm.

“Don’t make it public. We can’t expose that treasure,” said Lin Mo to stop her.

The Fruit of Fate was a Supreme treasure born by the World Tree. It was a Supreme treasure of the world and an existence beyond the immortal level ...

“Oh, that’s right, you should quickly go and find your tribulation cloud. You haven’t received your reward for transcending the tribulation yet,” said the Qilin very quickly, as if the thought had only just come to her.

In the sky, there was a gray-black thundercloud that was slowly dissipating.

It was obvious that Lin Mo’s Heavenly Tribulation had already dispersed and would not bring him any training.

At first, he felt a little regretful that he had missed a chance to cultivate.

However, he quickly reacted. The benefits of being under the auspicious cloud were too great. The effect was even stronger than the Heavenly Tribulation cultivation.

Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief. He then found a treasure that was about to dissipate in the gray-black tribulation cloud.

It was a piece of suet jade. It was very mysterious, and there were bits of chaotic mist still lingering on it. It contained a Supreme treasure.

He immediately stored it in the system space and checked the results of the appraisal.

The reward of the Heaven Devouring Thunder tribulation is the World Pearl. There is a small world inside it, and it can be used to refine spatial magical artifacts.

The reward this time was very precious. It was a treasure that could be used to refine a spatial magical treasure.

One had to know that this kind of spatial magical treasure was not like storage rings or spatial bags.

Using world beads as materials, the magical equipment obtained would have strong combat power, and the lowest grade would be the quasi-immortal level.

However, he couldn't cultivate it at the moment, because only great Saints could refine it.

If anyone below the Supreme Saint realm tried to refine a World Pearl, they would probably get lost in it and die.

"Another ultimate treasure that I can't use after obtaining it..."

Lin Mo felt helpless. Furthermore, he could not sell this treasure. There were only a handful of people who could afford it in the ancient battlefield.

And those people did not need to spend so much money to buy a World Pearl.

As for selling them, it would be better to wait for him to settle down after he left.

"How is it? What kind of treasure is it?" Below, the Qilin saw that Lin Mo had not made a sound and flew up to check.

"It's a World Pearl. It's useless for now. Let's go."

The two of them flew forward. Now that he was a King tier, his speed had increased greatly. In just half a day, they returned to Lin City.

"Haha, I'm finally back."

As soon as they arrived in Lin City, the Qilin jumped and cheered as they went along the streets.

When she saw the medicinal herbs on the stalls, she could not help but feel her appetite increase. She turned to look at Lin Mo.

"Let's go back first. I'll prepare some delicious food for you."

Lin Mo smiled and led the Qilin into the Molin Chamber of Commerce. He ordered Mao Zhu, Feng Tian, and the others to come over.

Following them were Mu Yuzhu and Xia You. Both of these people had finally come out of seclusion.

To Lin Mo's surprise, Xia You had broken through to the third layer of the King realm. Comprehending the Scripture had given her a huge boost.

By drawing parallels from inference, she had formed a deep understanding and obtained a great fortune.

Now, she also had the idea of participating in an auction. She would buy it at a high price and keep it by her side to comprehend it, which could help her cultivation.

Mu Yuzhu had also broken through, and was now a second-layered Heavenly King.

After the Qilin came out of seclusion and Lin Mo had made his breakthrough, the Molin Chamber of Commerce was peaceful and auspicious clouds rose in the sky.

"It's a pity that we missed an opportunity..." Xia You sighed.

The Qilin had made up for its inborn deficiencies and had become a true auspicious beast, the White Qilin.

The Heavenly Tribulation she had attracted when she broke through to the next realm brought auspicious signs and blessings to all living beings.

Cultivating and breaking through under the auspicious cloud, not only could one avoid the calamity of the Heavenly Tribulation, one could also obtain unimaginable benefits.

"Let's not talk about this anymore. Set up the pot quickly. I'm hungry."

The Qilin laughed heartlessly. When it saw Lin Mo take out the frozen remains of the lost snake, its appetite was greatly stimulated.

She and Lin Mo moved quickly. Under Xia You's stunned gaze, they skinned and deboned the snake, cut it into pieces, and placed it into the cauldron.

In the end, he asked Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue to boil it with Nirvana Phoenix Fire to speed up the cooking process

"Snake soup, I haven't had it before..."

The Qilin was filled with anticipation. She couldn't seem to stop from drooling, which sparked the others' appetite, as they eagerly waited to enjoy it.

Smoke rose in spirals. The power of the Nirvana Phoenix Fire was stronger than the Dao fire, and it sped up the cooking.

Not long after, the group of people opened up altars to drink and gobble down the food.

As the saying goes, fortune never comes in pairs, but misfortune never comes alone!

However, in front of Qilin, these words were the opposite.

It had been less than a month since Lin Mo and the Qilin had returned. The three of them, who had been studying the Immortal Eradication Sword Formation in the system space day and night, finally came out of seclusion.

"Miss Fang Luo, what's the harvest from your closed-door cultivation this time?" Lin Mo asked.

He attached great importance to these three people. He had even given them the Immortal Eradication Sword Formation in the hope that he could research a simplified version of the formation.

"Lord Lin Mo, I have no way to repay you for your great kindness..."

Fang Luo and the other two looked haggard as they walked out of the system space with bloodshot eyes.

One could imagine how much these three people had studied the Immortal Eradication Sword Formation.

"This is what you deserve. Where's the formation that I wanted?" Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction, knowing that the three of them had succeeded.

Fang Luo raised his head, took out a scroll of formation diagram, and began explaining it to Lin Mo.

The three of them had thought about it day and night, and with their attainments in formations, they came to an understanding from one of the formation eyes of the Immortal Eradication Sword Formation.

He studied it and finally understood the formation route of the Immortal Eradication Sword Formation.

Knowing that they couldn't set it up, they went into seclusion to comprehend it. They comprehended a new sword formation and set it up. It was one that could kill pre-Saints.

“This formation is called the Three Godly Sword Formation.”

This was the super simplified version of the Immortal Slaying Sword Formation. It required three powerhouses to form the eye of the formation and hold powerful magical artifacts.

With the help of the formation, the three people in the sword formation would have the combat power of a pre-Saint.

The God-killing Sword Formation was unparalleled and could not be broken without the four emperors. The Three Godly Sword Formation was also heaven-defying and could not be broken without three Saints-to-be.

“Good, good, you guys have helped me a lot ...”

Lin Mo laughed heartily. He could finally execute the plan that he had been brewing for a long time.

The three of them were terrified, but they were also very happy. They had come here just to repay a favor, but instead, they had obtained such a terrifying killing formation.

Seeing that it had worked, Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief.

With enough materials, the three of them began to set up the formation. Lin Mo also took out three Level 9 Heaven-grade magic weapons.

He had originally planned to auction them, but after some thought, he decided to keep them as his trump cards.

It would take seven days to set up the formation, with Qilin, Xia You, and Lin Mo as the formation eyes, holding the formation flags.

The three Heaven-grade magic weapons acted as the core of the formation, forming the three Celestial Sword Formations that enveloped the entire Forest City.

The moment the formation was activated, Lin Mo and the other two instantly possessed the combat strength of a quasi-Saint.

The feeling of being able to destroy the world with just a gesture of his hand intoxicated him.

“If the three Celestial Sword Formations make me feel like this, what kind of feeling will it be when I set up the Celestial Eradication Sword Formation in the future...” He was looking forward to it.

At the same time, a piece of news had already spread in the outside world. Countless living beings swarmed over to Lin City.

And this was only to gather information.

Lin City suddenly became lively and crowded with people.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re here too. Is the news true?”

“I don’t know. It’s the Wind Spirit Sect’s Great Emperor’s ancient scripture. Lin Mo is actually willing to auction it off. It’s ridiculous.”

“I don’t believe it’s the Great Emperor’s ancient scripture. I believe it’s the Quasi-Immortal Martial Arts Technique. Lin Mo went to Sky Dragon City a while ago.”

“At that time, he gained a Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique at an auction. It was said that he wanted to gather the resources to break through to the King level.”

There were different opinions, making Lin City unprecedentedly lively.

Meanwhile, some people were hatching plans in the dark, discussing how to capture Lin Mo and the others in one fell swoop.

“Since Lin Mo dares to do this, he should have some confidence...”

There was a group of people on the top floor of a restaurant who were discussing and exchanging information.

“The Qilin hadn’t appeared for a long time. Recently, however, it has frequently been walking around Lin City.”

“In addition, the Heaven’s Will Body often appears and has already discovered us.”

The crowd chimed in, and the news they received made their hearts sink.

This was a huge force. Neither Xiao Yun nor Tang Ru had the confidence to break in.

Perhaps, this was one of the reasons why Lin Mo dared to auction it off.

“What we know so far is that the Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique and many other treasures are real.”

Someone had personally gone to the Molin Chamber of Commerce to ask about it.

Fifteen days later, the Molin Chamber of Commerce would be holding an auction, and a Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts would be one of the items offered.

Other than that, there were also treasures like the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus and a Level 8 Heaven-grade magic weapon.

Even the Quasi-Immortal Level treasures that were known as rare Immortal treasures would appear. innread.com

This made countless people drool, wanting to join in and get their desired treasure.

Looking at the undercurrents in Lin City, Lin Mo looked down at the city from the top of the central palace.

With his sharp soul power, not a single person could escape his eyes.

However, he was disappointed to find that none of the people who had come were high-leveled fighters.

They were basically the generals, second battle servants, and so on of their respective forces.

“Those who came are all subordinates. There’s not a single big fish...” Lin Mo shook his head. Xiao Yun and the others were not present.

“There was one a while ago, but that person seemed to have sensed something and retreated.”

From behind, Xia You led the Qilin over. During this period of time, the two of them had gotten along quite well.

Facing this cheeky and cute little girl, Xia You also became very fond of her, and often took her to stroll around Lin City.

“Do you want to buy that piece of scripture?” Lin Mo asked.

Mu Yuzhu was still in seclusion, studying the scriptures, but she still wasn’t able to memorize them.

It was the work of a great emperor from the ancient era, so it was hard to imagine.

“I’m not buying anymore. I’ll just read the ancient books of the past once so as not to interfere with my own judgment of the future.”

Xia You shook her head. She was now a little interested in Lin Mo’s Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique.

According to what they had agreed on, the opportunities would be divided equally. Lin Mo had already agreed that after the auction, he would give her and Mu Yuzhu an even more powerful Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique.

However, who would complain about having too many martial arts of this level?

As the saying went, “Having more skills doesn’t weigh down one’s body.” She had some savings on her, so she had wanted to grab a book and increase her means.

“Compared to this, I’m more interested in knowing what you’ll do when you leave this place after offending so many people.”

Xia You was not the only one who wanted to know the answer to this question. Countless living beings in the world wanted to know as well.

As long as the ancient battlefield was closed, all living beings from the outside world would be teleported out and returned to the square.

At that time, there would definitely be an Emperor-to-be who would capture Lin Mo and the Qilin by force.

This was the tragedy of rogue cultivators. Without a backer, they were destined to face a tragedy after offending an omnipotent expert.

“We’ll see. If I can’t escape, I’ll be trapped for a lifetime...”

Lin Mo chuckled. With the system space, he did not have to worry about his safety. The only problem was how to leave.

However, it was still too early to think about this. The most important thing now was to let the auction proceed smoothly.

This way, he would be able to obtain more benefits and resources to break through to a higher realm.

“Sister, you don’t have to worry about Brother. We’re going to find my mother. There’ll definitely be a way to leave,” said the Qilin as she chewed on a demigod fruit.

“Your mother!”

Xia You was startled as she looked at the Qilin. Wasn't her mother the Divine Beast Qilin from the ancient era?

Was she still alive after so many years?

"The Divine Beast Qilin has already passed away, but there are still remnants of her remains in the Daoist Rite Temple," Lin Mo explained as he glared at the Qilin.

It had only been a few days, yet this little girl has already started to pour her heart out...

"Hey!"

The Qilin stuck out its little tongue and hid behind Xia You.

Hearing this, Xia You sighed. She stretched out her hand, took out an item, and passed it to Lin Mo. "This can save your life at a critical moment ..."

It was a silver talisman that was shining with a dazzling light.

The most important thing was that it was surrounded by immortal qi, so one could imagine the value of this thing.

"Here, take this. You can use it as capital for the auction."

Lin Mo was surprised and kept it in the system space. The results of the appraisal shocked him.

[Quasi-Immortal Realm-Breaking Talisman. It can tear open space with a just thought and cross a hundred states. It can be used three times. Its value is sky-high.]

"You can't bite off more than you can chew, I'll go with the stronger martial arts you mentioned," she chuckled and her eyes were filled with sincerity.

In the past, when she had worked with Lin Mo, she had a motive.

Just like before, she had agreed to control one of the formation cores because she had hoped that the auction would be successful and that she would be able to benefit from it in the end.

From what she was saying, she truly hoped that Lin Mo would be able to escape.

As long as he could escape, with the auspicious beast by his side, he believed that he would be able to overcome the danger no matter what.

“Is this considered as taking care of a fellow villager?” Lin Mo saw the sincerity in Xia You’s eyes and teased her.

“I just don’t want you to die and have one less opponent in the future.”

She rolled her eyes at Lin Mo and left with the Qilin. There was an appraisal meeting at a shop today, and she was going to take Qilin there to try her luck.

By borrowing the auspicious qi, he might be able to find some treasures there.

After watching the two of them leave, Lin Mo continued to look down at Lin City as he muttered to himself.

“The wind is rising and the clouds are surging. Let this place become lively...”

As the matter continued to ferment, more and more people came to Lin City. Time flew by, and in the blink of an eye, the day of the auction came closer.

On this day, Lin City was unusually lively, the streets and alleys were filled with people.

Even though the auction venue had been expanded once, it still could not accommodate everyone. As a last resort, the people allowed to enter had to be selected.

Those with insufficient strength and financial resources were rejected, and this was a helpless move.

Even so, the auction house was still packed with people. In order to make room, the private rooms at the front were torn down.

Because no one wanted to stand out, those who were pushed to the front were just ordinary people.

“I can feel it. Xiao Yun is outside the city. I’ve seen him before. He’s very strong.”

Before going on stage, Xia You informed Lin Mo that Xiao Yun had already arrived. However, he did not enter the city, as if he could sense danger.

Lin Mo nodded. Everything had been arranged.

There were guards patrolling every place, and they controlled each other’s communication runes. If anything happened to either side, they would alert the others.

Next up was the auction that many people were looking forward to.

“Sorry to keep you waiting. Let the auction begin. I promise that the lowest treasure for today’s auction will be at Level 5 Heaven-class.”

It was fortunate that they were in the ancient battlefield. If they were in the outside world, he would not have been able to gather so many precious treasures.

Each item would surely cause quite a stir when they were brought out.

“Let’s cut the chit-chat and start the auction. The first treasure, Level 5 Heaven-class, Glazed Chalcedony.”

A person dressed as a maidservant walked up from behind. She was carrying a silver plate with special runes covering its aura.

When the red cloth was lifted, a brilliant light shone.

Glazed Chalcedony was a very rare material for blacksmithing. It was very rare in the outside world and was a treasure that blacksmithing grandmasters constantly searched for.

It was a pity that this was the ancient battlefield where countless masters had gathered.

Cultivation resources were the first choice here. Unless it was absolutely necessary, not many people were willing to buy these materials.

That was the truth. After Lin Mo's introduction, only a few people were interested.

"Heaven-class Level 5 Glazed Chalcedony. Considering that you all lack spiritual stones, we can barter with you. Now, you may start bidding."

"A piece of Purple Heart iron,"

"Two pieces of Nether King Metal."

Both bidders were weapon refinement masters. They had gained some fame in the ancient battlefield during this period of time.

There were even people on the Hidden Dragon List who went to look for them, just to ask them to help them forge magic weapons.

The rest of the people were not interested in the Glazed Chalcedony, so they merely observed the two of them bid.

"Ahem... This item is for auction. The seller has just sent a voice transmission saying that if you exchange it with divine pills or divine medicines, you may get it at a much lower price."

Lin Mo informed the two of them.

The seller didn't want forging materials, he wanted cultivation resources.

"How about a Level 4 Heaven-class divine pill?" Said one of the weapon-forging masters. A Level 4 Heaven-grade divine pill was about the same value as a Level 5 weapon forging material.

That was, unless it was an extremely precious and rare treasure.

“Sure, is the other person willing to raise the price?” Lin Mo asked as he tapped the auction hammer.

The other party was hesitating, but Lin Mo was not perturbed. After about half a minute, he called out three times and announced the deal.

“Congratulations, fellow Daoist, for obtaining the Glazed Chalcedony.”

He beckoned for the maidservant to leave, and arranged for someone to deliver it to complete the transaction.

After all, he was not sure when the auction would be interrupted. It was better to complete the transaction on the spot...

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 5 Heaven-grade crafting material, Glazed Chalcedony.]

[Successfully triggered 3000-fold auction rebate]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 Heaven-grade crafting material, Blood Essence Jade.]

The Blood Essence Jade contained rich blood qi, and most of the magical weapons refined from it were fiendish and difficult to control.

It was useless to him, but he could give it to his subordinates as a reward.

After all, the present was different from the past. In the past, he had only brought the Qilin along and didn't have to worry so much.

Now that he had recruited a large number of people, he had to pay attention to their ideas and promise them some benefits.

“The next item is a Spiritual Formation Disc, Heaven-grade Level 5.

“There's a complete formation set up on this formation board. It can be activated by injecting spiritual qi.”

Lin Mo removed the red cloth, revealing a palm-sized jade disc on the silver plate.

The jade disc was green in color and there were some light blue patterns on it. It looked quite mystical.

“The spiritual formation inside is well preserved. It’s a killing formation.”

“If it’s activated, it can kill a Level 5 King-realm master. Its power can’t be underestimated. Anyone who is interested, you shouldn’t miss it.”

After the introduction, Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer, signaling the start of the bidding.

“One level 5 Heaven-class divine pill.”

Not many people were needed for this Spiritual Formation Disc. After all, everyone who had come here was talented. Those who didn’t have enough talent and strength had already been eliminated in the past year.

Those who had stayed and were qualified to attend the auction had their own pride and felt that they did not need to rely on the power of the formation.

There were three people who made bids, and the value of the treasures they gave was similar.

Upon seeing this, Lin Mo’s soul power surged. He searched the hall and quickly found the seller.

After a series of inquiries, Lin Mo finally struck the auction hammer.

“After negotiating with the seller, the price of the Heaven-grade Level 5 divine pill is considered higher. Congratulations to this fellow Daoist.”

The maidservant walked down with the silver plate while the system’s voice echoed in his mind at the same time.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 5 Heaven-grade Spiritual Formation Disc.]

[Successfully triggered 4000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 Heaven-grade Spiritual Formation Disc.]

An ordinary formation disk appeared in the system space, but it was of no use to Lin Mo.

“The next auction item is a Level 5 Heaven-class divine medicine, Shattered Star Grass.”

Lin Mo’s words caused the deathly silent auction hall to become lively.

Everyone raised their heads. A Level 5 Heaven-class divine medicine was a rare cultivation resource, and no one disliked it.

“We will be bartering. The seller hopes to obtain a pill recipe and will give priority to it.”

With that, the moment Lin Mo struck the auction hammer, someone below quickly stood up and announced their bid.

“I don’t have the recipe, but a Level 5 Heaven-class divine pill is definitely worth this divine herb.”

The young man took out a golden pill, which was the envy of many people.

“As for the pill recipe, I have a pill recipe for the Tribulation Transcending Pill. Although it’s only a Level 4 Heaven-class, the value of the divine pill it can produce is no less than a Level 5 Heavenclass divine pill.”

“I have a divine healing medicine with endless life force. I’m willing to trade.”

There were many people bidding for it. Among them, there were seven pill formulas with different effects. Zhao Tianyu, who was watching from backstage, was salivating.

If he could refine all of these divine pills, his understanding of alchemy Dao would reach a higher level.

“Deal. Congratulations, fellow Daoist. Your pill recipe has been chosen.”

Surprisingly, the seller had chosen the pill recipe of the Level 4 Heaven-class Tribulation Transcending Pill, which made many people unhappy.

However, this was an auction, and they could not blame anyone for not being willing to bid a higher price.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 5 Heaven-class divine medicine, Shattered Star Grass.]

[Successfully triggered 5000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 Heaven-class divine medicine, Star Fruit.]

After finally obtaining a useful treasure, Lin Mo’s smile grew wider. He was about to wave his hand and continue the auction.

Unexpectedly, the person who had just obtained the Shattered Star Grass began to mock him...

“Fellow Daoist? I feel that a person who is about to die is not qualified to be my Dao friend...”

Hearing this, the other people were shocked and retreated some distance.

This was the headquarters of the Molin Chamber of Commerce. Who would dare to cause trouble here? The Heaven's Will Physique, the God Devouring Body, and a Qilin were all here.

With three top-tier masters overseeing the place, who would dare to come here and cause trouble?

"I was wondering who it was. So it's the rat that fled in defeat."

The curtain behind the stage was lifted, and the Qilin slowly walked out. Her small face seemed to be covered in frost as she stared at the other party.

"One of the four demon generals of the Behemoth Clan, Shentu Luo..."

Lin Mo could sense the other party's aura through his soul power. It was the Behemoth Clan that had come to his place.

These people were secretly plotting to capture the Qilin with a congenital deficiency and obtain its blood.

They had set up an ambush, but in the end, two were killed and one had been injured by the Qilin.

Now that this fellow was here again, was he planning to interfere with the auction?

"What, now that your Molin Chamber of Commerce has opened an auction house, could it be that you want to chase customers away?" Shentu Luo's expression changed slightly. He felt that something was amiss, especially when Qilin and Lin Mo were staring at him with cold eyes.

At the same time, there was a powerful aura that seemed to be locked onto him from the back. It was the Heaven's Will Body.

To be able to fight against Xiao Yun, one's combat strength must be terrifying.

If the three of them attacked at the same time, they would be able to kill him with just one move each.

"How can that be? I don't know how to drive away guests, but you Behemoth people don't actually seem to want to be guests."

Lin Mo chuckled as he looked at Shentu Luo. Sword qi began to gather in his hand.

“Pfft!”

Before he could make a move, a blood-colored glow appeared on Shentu Luo’s body. A seal appeared in his hand, which he instantly crushed.

“Where should we go?”

The Qilin immediately rushed out and chased after them. She didn’t have a good impression of the Behemoth Clan.

Now that she was able to make a move, she would definitely not waste time speaking nonsense.

Seeing this, Lin Mo also gave chase. There were many masters outside the city, and they were not weak. He was worried that the Qilin would be at a disadvantage.

The curtain of the auction stage was lifted, and Xia You slowly walked out.

“The auction will be temporarily suspended. Everyone, please enjoy the good show...”

As soon as she finished speaking, she stretched out her hand and made a swiping gesture. The space fluctuated, and the spiritual qi in front of her gathered, turning into a stream of water that condensed into a mirror that floated in the air.

Naturally, the scene shown in the mirror was of the scene outside of Lin City.

At this moment, the Qilin had already caught up to Shentu Luo. The Chaos Bell appeared and ruthlessly smashed down on Shentu Luo.

If this attack struck, Shentu Luo would definitely die.

“Bang!”

As expected, in front of Shentu Luo, a youth in purple-gold robes appeared out of nowhere.

He held up the Chaos Bell with one hand, preventing it from smashing down.

The Qilin waved her hand, and the spiritual qi above her exploded. The Chaos Bell returned, and the power generated by the explosion sent Shentu Luo flying.

As for the young man, he remained floating in the air, his face expressionless.

“The information is wrong. You are very powerful, and your bloodline is beyond my imagination...”

The youth frowned as he looked at Shentu Luo in the distance, seemingly somewhat dissatisfied.

The information he had obtained from the latter was that the Qilin was not that powerful at all, and its bloodline had only reached the level of a Purple Gold Behemoth.

Now it seemed that Qilin had tricked them and concealed her true strength.

“Then why don’t you kneel and pay your respects, and then get lost?” Qilin said coldly as she held the Chaos Bell in her hand.

“Hehe...”

Instead of getting angry, the young man laughed. He looked at Lin Mo before looking at the Qilin and said, “The Behemoth Clan’s Shentu Luo, the Purple Gold Behemoth, has prepared a gift for the two of you. Please accept it...”

No one could refuse a Quasi-Immortal Level martial arts technique, but they also didn’t want to give the God Devouring Body any resources.

The price to pay would be too great. It was equivalent to providing resources to the enemy. They would not allow such a thing to happen.

“Swish!”

A ray of light appeared on the horizon, and a giant beast flew over. Its body was like a tiger or a leopard, and it had golden fur. There were wings on its shoulders but it did not spread them, and the long horns on its head were tilted back.

“Pixiu...”

This was a type of extremely powerful beast that was on par with the Feiyi and Suan Ni.

Other than that, there were other living beings rushing over from the other side. A violent wind blew, and a man stepped on a wind vortex as he arrived.

He was covered in light green armor and had a pair of dragon wings. He was capable of controlling the wind element in the world.

“Wind Dragon Race’s Feng Xuan!”

“Roar!”

It wasn’t over yet. There was also an Earth Dragon that came with Feng Xuan. To be more precise, it was an ancient Earth Dragon.

Its appearance caused the earth to tremble and the mountains to shake as if they were about to collapse.

“Ancient Earth Dragon, Gu You!”

Three extremely powerful beasts had arrived, and their combat strength was top-notch. None of them were afraid of Lin Mo, and they were confident in fighting him.

“It’s so boring to be surprised just like this...”

As the Shentu Luo spoke, he produced a jade talisman from his hand and crushed it.

“Clang!”

The space cracked open, and a brilliant sword light bloomed. The sword qi that soared to the sky exploded and enveloped the surroundings.

...

“Boom, boom, boom.”

The surrounding mountains finally couldn’t take it anymore and collapsed.

Looking carefully, one could see that on the mountainside, there was a mark of a sword cut, the cut surface was as smooth as a mirror.

One could only imagine how terrifying this person was. He had a thorough understanding of the way of the sword and had mastered the ultimate sword intent.

“The Thousand Swords Mountain of the Jian Province, Gu Dufeng!”

The person introduced himself, saying that he was from the Jian Province, a place famous for its swords.

It was said that 80% of the cultivators in this area used swords and were proud of them. The Ten Thousand Swords Sect only accepted sword cultivators.

“Shentu, this God Devouring Body is only at the first heaven of the King realm. Are you sure you want us to join forces?”

Just when everyone thought that there would be no more arrivals, another figure jumped out of the spatial rift.

It was an ape with white fur and a golden horn on its forehead.

He held a golden iron rod in his hand, and as he waved it, the wind and clouds changed colors. The space seemed to be unable to withstand such power...

“Zhu Yan...”

Lin Mo took a deep breath. His heart trembled, but at the same time, he rejoiced.

If he had not obtained the Celestial Eradication Sword Formation and allowed others to comprehend the Three God Sword Formation and successfully set it up...

Otherwise, there would be rivers of blood in Lin City during the auction today.

It would be considered good if even half of the subordinates he had just recruited were left alive.

“Don’t expect the Heaven’s Will Body and Mu Yuzhu to make a move. Naturally, they’ll have someone to stop them...”

Shentu Luo smiled lightly. He had planned for this day for a long time. He had invited many masters and promised countless benefits.

But even so, the final harvest would have to be split equally and shared with these people.

The Behemoth Clan was indeed worthy of their reputation...

At the same time, in the auction, Xia You had originally only been observing the show, not wanting to make a move.

However, when she saw so many masters appear, she couldn't help but want to fight them.

At the next moment, someone in the auction house crushed a space seal and summoned a person.

The person was dressed in white, and his long hair hung loosely behind him. It fluttered even though there was no wind. He held a golden spear in his hand, which brought about a sense of oppression.

Xia You smiled, without panicking at all. "So, the young Pavilion master of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion is actually being ordered around by someone else?"
