

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 741

“I’m sorry to disappoint all of you, but the Great Emperor’s ancient scripture that was passed down a long time ago doesn’t exist.”

Lin Mo’s words left everyone dumbfounded and in disbelief.

There were even some whose eyes were red as they stared at Lin Mo.

In order to wait for the Great Emperor’s ancient scripture, they had not bid on any other treasures before this. They had been waiting for this moment.

But this ended up being the final result...

For a moment, the hall was filled with complaints. Although no one dared to cause trouble, they did not look upon Lin Mo kindly.

“Don’t look at me like that. If it really was the Great Emperor’s ancient scripture, could you afford it?”

Lin Mo’s expression was calm as he looked at them.

The Great Emperor’s ancient scripture was already a top-notch spell technique in the world. It contained a Dao law that had been cultivated to the extreme.

Whoever could master it would become an Emperor-to-be in the future, just like the Kun Peng Art technique.

Such a heaven-defying cultivation method, if they wanted to bid for it, how much would they have to pay?

“Lord Lin Mo, may I ask, what is the item in your hand?” Someone asked after gathering up his courage.

Everyone was very curious. A treasure that Lin Mo had chosen as the final item would definitely not be bad.

At the very least, it wouldn't be worse than a Quasi-Immortal Level martial art.

"This was left behind by the sect master of the Wind Spirit Sect. He hadn't broken through to the Great Emperor realm yet and was only at the peak of the Emperor-to-be realm," explained Lin Mo. Everyone quickly understood and their eyes turned red.

They stared greedily at the scripture in Lin Mo's hands.

A scripture left behind by a great emperor, and it was to help the sect master of the Wind Spirit Sect to comprehend Dao and comprehend the opportunity to break through to the Great Emperor realm.

At the same time, many people fell silent, not daring to bid anymore.

This scripture was too precious. It would lead to a war between emperors-to-be, and the power structure of the Northern Continent would change.

Ordinary cultivators were not qualified to participate, even if you were a Ninth Heaven Absolute Saint and a half-step Emperor-to-be... innread.com

"It's not as good as the Great Emperor ancient scripture. However, the danger it brings is even more terrifying than the Great Emperor ancient scripture..." Some people sighed and didn't dare to bid anymore.

The Emperor-to-be had his own cultivation technique and was familiar with the Dao laws that he had cultivated for many years.

The Great Emperor ancient scripture was not very attractive to them unless they wanted to cultivate it again.

However, this scripture was different. It could make any Emperor-to-be lose their self-control and forget their own self-respect just to fight for it.

"We're still bartering. Everyone, those who are interested can start bidding..."

Lin Mo smiled. He knew what these guys were afraid of.

What did the battle between the Emperors-to-be have to do with him? It just so happened that these Emperors-to-be were busy fighting and didn't have the mood to trouble him and Qilin.

“Lord Lin Mo, I’ll bid on behalf of Young Master White Fox. I’m willing to give you a Quasi-Immortal treasure on credit,” said the young man from before. He was the Young Master White Fox’s subordinate.

The Nine-Tailed Fox Clan definitely had a Quasi-Emperor. If the Young Master White Fox could bring him out of the ancient battlefield, it would be a great merit...

“Can we settle it in the ancient battlefield?” Lin Mo asked.

He was very tempted by the Quasi-Immortal treasure. If the time of the credit wasn’t long, he would be willing to wait for a while.

“It’s a pity that my Lord hasn’t found such a heaven-defying opportunity yet...” sighed the young man.

It was obvious that he would be going to the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan to get the treasure.

But could Lin Mo go? Perhaps the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan was eager for Lin Mo to bring the Qilin over.

If they were both suppressed at the same time, both of the techniques of the Qilin and the Kun Peng could be obtained at the same time.

The two inheritances that were comparable to the Great Emperor’s ancient scriptures would make the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan prosper.

“What good luck. I thought it was only a fragment of the Great Emperor’s ancient scripture, but this is an unexpected result...”

The door of the hall was pushed open, and a woman strode in arrogantly.

The woman was extremely beautiful, different from Xia You’s indifference. She had a trace of arrogance on her face, and she was dressed in golden armor, like a female martial god.

Lin Mo found out the identity of the person in front of him after hearing the discussions around him.

This was Tang Ru, the seventh Princess of the Holy Blood Dragon Clan!

She was a true expert. It was rumored that she had fought with Xiao Yun, but the outcome was unknown. No one had seen that battle.

“An important guest has arrived...”

Lin Mo chuckled. This was a powerful existence. The Holy Blood Dragon Clan could be said to be the most powerful sub-Dragon in history.

There were even rumors that the seventh Princess would take the last step to become a divine beast true Dragon.

“I can’t call you an important guest. How much are you selling this scripture for?” Tang Ru’s words made many people’s expressions change.

The Young Master White Fox’s subordinate was holding a jade talisman and sending messages continuously.

There were a few others who were doing the same, sending out messages and asking for help.

“There’s no one bidding at the moment, so you can just say what you want.” Lin Mo waved his hand. No matter the price, as long as the system acknowledged it, he would sell it.

As for making a loss, that was impossible.

The system’s compensation would only allow him to obtain greater opportunities.

“Then I’ll bid one Dao Spirit Fruit Tree. How about it?” Tang Ru continued to smile proudly.

If he could really get it, he would have really picked up a big bargain this time...

“Is it a Quasi-Immortal Level Dao Spirit Fruit Tree?” Lin Mo asked.

...

The Dao Spirit Fruit was a Heaven-grade Level 9 divine fruit, and its fruit tree was at least of a Quasi-Immortal grade.

If they didn't reach the Quasi-Immortal level, they would need to spend thousands of years to evolve.

Lin Mo did not have that much time to wait.

"It's just one step away, but it's already bearing fruit. If you put it in the Blessed Grotto Heaven and feed it with spiritual stones, it'll evolve in one or two years.

Tang Ru extended her hand and an ancient tree that was two meters tall flew towards the auction stage.

The ancient tree bore eleven unripe fruits, and wisps of fragrance lingered around it.

There were some strange and mysterious runes on the tree.

Just a glance at it made one feel the urge to cultivate on the spot.

It was said that cultivating under the Dao Spirit Fruit Tree could yield twice the result with half the effort, and the comprehension of the Dao law could also be faster...

"Good stuff..."

Lin Mo nodded his head in satisfaction. He really wanted to close the deal. If he nurtured the Dao Spirit Fruit Tree slightly, he would be able to obtain 11 Dao spirit fruits.

...

This deal was not a loss and could be done.

"Everyone, if you are not willing to bid, then this scripture will belong to Miss Tang Ru." Without any delay, he tapped the auction hammer.

Hearing this, all the living beings could only shake their heads bitterly.

If they had wanted to bid, they would need a Quasi-Immortal treasure. However, how could they get such a treasure?

"Since no one else is bidding, this scripture will then belong to Miss Tang Ru," said Lin Mo as he announced the results of the auction.

He threw the scripture to Tang Ru and put the Dao Spirit Fruit Tree away. The auction was now over.

Lin Mo could not wait to hear the system's voice.

[ Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the incomplete Immortal-level Path-Understanding Scriptures. ]

[ This auction has incurred a huge loss. The system will compensate for it, triggering a 100000-fold rebate... ]

[ Congratulations to the host for obtaining an Immortal-Level Scriptures of Enlightenment. ]

“A hundred thousand times...”

Lin Mo swallowed his saliva and suppressed the excitement in his heart to calm himself down.

Even so, his body was still trembling slightly.

The Immortal Level Scriptures of Enlightenment, and the complete version at that. Perhaps it could help an Emperor-to-be break through to the Great Emperor realm?

“Calm down... This thing can not be exposed...”

After taking a dozen deep breaths, Lin Mo finally controlled his emotions and tried his best to calm himself down.

“This auction has ended. Everyone, please return...”

After saying that, he called Zhao Tianyu and Feng Tian over, allowing them to take care of the trivial matters that would follow.

As for himself, he immediately entered the system space. He did not want to stay for even a moment longer...

Chapter 742 - 742 Farewell

742 Farewell

“Immortal-level Scriptures of Enlightenment, can I read them...”

Lin Mo’s heart was in a little bit of turmoil. He could see the incomplete version and even gain some insights from it.

However, it was hard to say about the complete version. He could not understand the complicated and obscure runes at all...

In the system space, Lin Mo cultivated patiently and observed slowly.

At the same time, he had swallowed a lot of the divine pills and divine medicines that he had gotten from the auction.

A black hole with him as the center enveloped the entire Fire Spirit Lake.

Like a whale gulping down water, it devoured the energy of heaven and earth in a frenzy. The divine medicine gradually withered and lost its essence.

One by one, the energy of the divine pills was devoured, and their divinity disappeared, turning into dust.

After spending a day and a night, his realm, which had already been loosened, broke through smoothly.

During this period of time, he finally understood the first line of runes in the Scripture of Enlightenment...

This gave him an epiphany. The circulation speed of the God Devouring Technique increased, and the speed of devouring energy more than doubled.

In about three days, he broke through and reached the third Heavenly layer of the King realm.

At this point, he had completely digested this line of runes. His mind was in turmoil and he was very shocked.

“Xia You and the others can not look at these too much, it will affect their future. However, I’m different...” Lin Mo muttered. The future cultivation path of the God Devourer Body was basically fixed and difficult to change.

Comprehending the scriptures would not affect him.

It would only bring him benefits, which made him extremely excited. In the future, he wouldn’t have to worry about being left behind by Qilin and the others.

“Oh, right. I still have to fulfill my promise...”

He suddenly recalled that Xia You and Mu Yuzhu were still waiting to receive the remuneration for this cooperation.

After leaving the system space, he walked from the main hall to the back. In a small courtyard, he smelled the fragrance of meat.

“F*ck, I forgot about this...”

Only now did he remember the Pixiu’s corpse, the arm of the Purple Gold Behemoth, and half of the Earth Dragon’s body.

These were all very rare precious flesh medicine, and their effects were comparable to divine medicine.

During the auction, the Qilin had been fiddling with these spoils of war. He had been in seclusion for three days, so he didn’t know if there would be any left...

“Eh, Brother Lin Mo, you’ve come out of your seclusion ...”

In the small courtyard, Qilin was holding a bowl of broth in one hand and a large skewer of roasted meat in the other. She was eating happily.

The Pixiu’s body was very big, so they had held a party that lasted three days.

She had thought that Lin Mo would miss it, but he had managed to make it in time...

“So hasty...”

Lin Mo smacked his forehead and ran over to pick up a skewer of barbecued meat.

He picked up the wine jar on the ground and took a big gulp. He felt the fragrance in his mouth, with a satisfied look on his face.

“You guys are so mean. Why didn’t you wait for me...”

As he ate, he complained about how these people had done him wrong.

“Who asked you to go into seclusion...” said Xia You as she covered her mouth and chuckled.

The ivory chopsticks in his hand reached into the cauldron, picked up a slice of the Pixiu meat, and put it into his bowl.

“That’s right, this is the reward I promised you...”

After finishing a skewer of meat, Lin Mo waved his hand and threw out two scrolls.

They were all one-time uses that could be triggered by the soul and merged into the sea of consciousness. It was similar to being enlightened, and one didn’t need to cultivate hard to learn it directly.

Of course, if one wanted to master it, one would still need a long time to get used to it.

“One of them is the Nine Heavens Moon-Stepping Footwork, and the other is an attack-type martial arts technique Three Wonders of the Grand Pure One.”

The appearance of the two martial arts techniques made Mao Zhu and the others gulp.

This was a true treasure. Even in the Snow Valley where Song Lianxue lived, there was only one Quasi-Immortal martial arts technique.

It was something that only the valley master could learn, and just like the Great Frost Sealing Scripture, it was extremely precious and was viewed as an inheritance treasure. innread.com

Now, two rare martial arts had been placed in front of them.

“Which one do you want?” Lin Mo laughed.

Xia You’s attacking methods were extremely terrifying. When she unleashed his Heaven’s Will Body, she connected the heavens and earth, carrying on the will of the heavens and earth.

Fighting with her was equivalent to fighting against the heavens and earth. One would have no advantage at all.

Therefore, a movement technique might be what was suitable for her. After all, Lin Mo had never seen Xia You use a movement technique before. It could also be that she was hiding her true strength...

As for Mu Yuzhu, Lin Mo looked at the quiet lady.

From start to finish, she had been quietly enjoying the food. She had a low sense of existence, but she had a unique temperament.

This person bemused Lin Mo greatly. He did not know what kind of trump cards she had, nor did he know her true combat strength.

It was as if there was a mysterious veil covering her, and he could not see through it...

“Then I want the Three Wonders of the Grand Pure One,” said Mu Yuzhu. She was interested in this martial arts technique.

Regarding this, Xia You did not say anything, and immediately fused the Nine Heavens Moon-Stepping Footwork.

As for the other treasures that had been auctioned, Lin Mo did not hold back.

...

He accepted all of them and planted a few of the divine trees in the Fire Spirit Lake in the system space.

When the time was right, he would auction the divine tree and obtain a more precious divine tree, or even an immortal tree...

In the small courtyard, the fragrance of wine and meat wafted throughout the entire palace.

The people in the Molin Chamber of Commerce were envious of such an alluring fragrance and wanted to enjoy it in the small courtyard.

Unfortunately, apart from a few higher-ups, the only people who could participate were the people who had contributed greatly to the auction.

These were the three formation masters who had created the Three Gods Sword Formation ].

It could be said that Lin Mo would not have dared to hold an auction so arrogantly without the Three Gods Sword Formation.

When he recalled the scene of him being besieged, his blood still boiled.

If he were to be besieged again, the spiritual qi in his body would be able to last for a while.

At that time, he had seized the opportunity to kill the weaker Pixiu, and the remaining two had not been able to gain any advantage.

“It’s so comfortable. I really want to be like this every day...”

...

After the Pixiu’s body had been processed, the cut dried meat piled up like a mountain.

All of them enjoyed the fine wine and delicious food with faces full of joy for seven days. They all enjoyed it very much. Every day, after finishing their own business, they would sit down to drink and talk.

After eating all the ingredients in seven days, the Qilin patted her stomach and leaned on Lin Mo’s back with a satisfied look.

“It’s almost time for me to leave...”

After drinking a cup of tea, Mu Yuzhu wiped the grease off her mouth.

She had stayed long enough at Lin Mo’s place. There were still some dangerous places that she had not explored. It was time to leave.

“I hope we can work together again next time.”

Lin Mo didn't try to persuade her to stay. After Mu Yuzhu bought some divine pills from Lin Mo, she left in a hurry.

"The banquet is over. It's time to take my leave."

After Mu Yuzhu left, Xia You also stood up and bid Lin Mo farewell.

It was time for her to leave. Her purpose in coming to the Northern Continent had been to confirm if the God Devouring Body was Lin Mo.

Now that she knew for sure, she decided to leave.

"Big Sister Xia You, are you not coming with us?" The Qilin was very reluctant to part with her and looked at Xia You with teary eyes.

"If you can't bear to part with your sister, you can always leave with me," said Xia You as she looked at Qilin with a smile.

As the only divine beast left in the world, her identity was destined to spread to other continents.

It would attract countless forces to compete for her.

If Qilin was willing to leave with her, the forces behind her could protect her...

"Hehe, forget it. I still prefer to be with Brother Lin Mo," chuckled the Qilin as she rejected Xia You's invitation.

"I'll take my leave. I might have to leave the ancient battlefield or continue exploring."

After a round of bidding farewell, Xia You stood up and left. innread.com

Mao Zhu and the others also went into seclusion. After eating a lot of precious flesh medicine, they had some comprehension and were on the brink of making a breakthrough.

Soon, only Lin Mo and the Qilin were left in the courtyard.

“Mm...”

After stretching her back, the Qilin’s body emitted a few wisps of auspicious qi.

This was a sign that she was about to make a breakthrough. After eating so much good food, she was about to make a breakthrough.

“Ah, I only just caught up to your cultivation...”

Lin Mo sighed as the Qilin fell into a deep sleep on a futon.

This was her way of cultivation. When she comprehended the Dao in her sleep, the Dao would follow naturally, and all breakthroughs would naturally be achieved...

“They’re all in closed-door cultivation...”

After sighing, he began to clean up the mess on the ground.

He took out his Dao fire and burned some of the broken bones on the ground, leaving no traces behind.

As soon as he walked out of the courtyard, someone immediately came forward to report.

“Tang Ru has built a Dragon Palace in Lin City?”

Lin Mo was a little surprised when he received the news. There were a few forces in Lin City, but none of the top forces had set foot here yet.

He hadn’t expected that Tang Ru would establish a branch of the Dragon Palace here immediately after the auction.

“There’s also Young Master White Fox. His men have built the Celestial Fox Palace and are collecting resources in Lin City.”

The two top powerhouses had taken note of Lin City and chose to set up a branch each.

This was a good thing for Lin Mo.

This way, if he had anything good, he could invite these guys to come and bid for them.

Then, he would not have to worry that no one would take the treasure and end up being unsold...

“Send out an invitation. We’ll hold a simple auction tonight,” ordered Lin Mo.

Soon, the news spread that Lin Mo would personally host the auctioning of precious divine trees and divine pills after coming out of seclusion.

That night, the Molin Chamber of Commerce’s auction hall was packed with people.

There were many people who came to participate in the auction and see what kind of treasure would be auctioned off.

“Thank you, everyone, for your support...”

Lin Mo stood on the stage with an apologetic look on his face. “However, this auction has been carefully curated, so there will only be five items.”

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked. The eyes of the people sitting at the front glowed.

It had been the right decision to come. This was what they were thinking at the moment.

Originally, they had maintained a wait-and-see attitude, but now they had to take this matter seriously.

“I wonder if the owner of this place can tell me in advance what the final treasure will be?”

At the very front of the hall, a fox-like woman spoke. Her somewhat seductive temperament instantly attracted a large number of gazes.

The woman was completely unbothered by this. She looked at Lin Mo with a hint of charm in her eyes.

Lin Mo swept his gaze over the woman. This person’s identity was extremely easy to identify. The fox tail on her back swayed slightly, and that seductive smile made countless men fall head over heels for her.

However, this was not tempting to Lin Mo.

After all, he had seen many existences with top-notch appearance and temperament. Although this fox girl was at the level of a calamity that could topple a country, she was still a little lacking...

The person on the other side was the Holy Blood Dragon, a representative of Tang Ru’s Dragon Palace.

The representatives of the two major forces had arrived for the auction.

Although it wouldn’t be as grand as the last auction, it still wasn’t to be underestimated. There would be some valuable treasures appearing.

“I can’t reveal the final treasure yet. Let’s start the auction now.”

Lin Mo took the auction hammer from the maidservant and announced the start of the auction after striking the hammer.

The group of people focused their attention on Lin Mo, waiting for the treasure to appear.

“The first item will be five Dragon Scale Fruits, Level 7 Heaven-class.”

When the five red fruits with special scales appeared, some of the living beings present were unable to sit still.

The Dragon Scale Fruit was an existence whose medicinal effects far surpassed that of the Pseudo Dragon Fruit.

The Dragon Scale Fruit Tree could only bear the legendary Quasi-Immortal Level Immortal Tree. This kind of immortal tree could only be born after being contaminated with the purest dragon blood.

It was unimaginably precious, and no one had expected Lin Mo to be able to obtain it.

Furthermore, he had taken out five of them at once. This was a huge sum.

“It seems that everyone is very interested, so I can rest assured,” said Lin Mo as he smiled and nodded.

This was the reward he had obtained from the Pseudo Dragon Fruit Tree.

The Dragon Scale Fruit was a deadly temptation to Sub-Dragons, even if they were Holy Blood Dragons.

In this clan, most of the clansmen’s bloodlines weren’t very pure, so consuming the Dragon Scale Fruit was equivalent to consuming a Quasi-Immortal treasure.

...

Cleansing one’s marrow and remolding one’s bloodline was equivalent to a rebirth.

“Our Dragon Palace will take it. We’re willing to offer ten Heaven-class Level 7 divine pills,” said the Holy Blood Dragon at the front who had stood up.

His eyes were red, and if it was not inappropriate for the occasion, he would have rushed up to take one and swallowed it.

“Lord Lin Mo, please do us a favor. Could you auction off these fruits separately?”

At the back of the hall, some people had almost knelt down to plead with him.

They were all Sub-Dragons and had dragon blood in their bodies, but it was not pure. As their cultivation level increased, this trace of dragon blood became thinner and thinner.

This was a huge obstacle to their future Dragon transformation.

If they were able to obtain the Dragon Scale Fruit, it would be equivalent to the grace of rebirth.

“There’s no need to say more. Even if we auction them separately, I, from the Dragon Palace, will buy them all,” said the representative of the Dragon Palace bluntly.

His words caused many Sub-Dragons to be dissatisfied, and they stared at this person with hatred.

They had been afraid that the representative from the Dragon Palace would take revenge on them, so they had not dared to bid against him and had begged Lin Mo to sell the fruits separately.

...

In the end, the person from the Dragon Palace stated that he wanted all of them and was unwilling to share a single one with them...

“Everyone, there’s no need to worry. I still have a few more Dragon Scale Fruits that I obtained from the Kun Peng Nest.”

“In the next few years, there will be more than ten Dragon Scale Fruits that will be auctioned off.”

He chuckled and with a few words, he left the group of Sub-Dragons in Lin City, not daring to leave easily.

They would not give up such a paradise-like opportunity so easily.

“Owner Lin Mo still has more. Why don’t you take them out all at once? The Seventh Princess will give you a satisfactory price for them,” said the representative of the Dragon Palace again.

The Dragon Scale fruit was precious. Even in the Sacred Blood Dragon Clan, there was only one fruit tree that would only bear fruit once every 10000 years.

This wasn’t enough for their clan’s usage, so if there were any Dragon Scale Fruits in the outside world, they would buy them at all costs.

“B*stard! Don’t go too far, Holy Blood Dragon clan!”

“That’s right. We’re all Sub-Dragons. Why make things difficult for each other...”

Many voice transmissions appeared anonymously, criticizing the actions of the Dragon Palace's representative, but the latter did not care at all.

These people were merely weaklings who didn't dare to stand out. The people from the Dragon Palace had no fear.

"I'm sorry, there is a purpose as to why I've only taken out these five fruits. There will only be so many of them for this auction."

Lin Mo smiled apologetically as he consoled everyone.

The strong would normally prey on the weak, and he was not interested in helping any others.

Unless it was an alternative Dragon that had joined his Chamber of Commerce, he wouldn't even take a look at them, let alone give the Dragon Scale Fruit to them.

"Since no one else is bidding, these five Dragon Scale Fruits will belong to the Dragon Palace."

Lin Mo struck the auction hammer and made a deal on the spot. Ten Level 7 Heaven-class divine pills appeared in his hands.

"Just nice, the next auction item will be a divine pill."

He didn't put these divine pills away. Instead, he took out ten more Heaven-grade Level 7 divine pills.

"These divine pills don't have any specific medicinal effects. They're considered cultivation resources. Now, we're auctioning them off. Everyone, please use divine pills to bid for them."

He introduced the items, stating that the divine pills should be exchanged for divine medicines.

Everyone was stunned by Lin Mo's actions. They did not understand why he was doing this. innread.com

Wouldn't divine pills that were rich in spiritual qi the most important thing to Lin Mo? Why was he will to auction them off?

!!

"Divine medicine? That's great. I just collected some for the princess some time ago."

This was still from the representative of the Dragon Palace. He took out seventeen divine medicines, some of which were at Level 7 of the heaven class, and some were at Level 6.

In terms of price, the two were about the same, but the divine medicine had more medicinal effects and was more abundant.

"Hehe, is the Dragon Palace going to buy up this whole place? It's better to give these divine pills to the Celestial Fox Palace."

On the other side, the fox girl spoke, and with a wave of her hand, she threw out a pile of divine medicine.

It was just slightly higher than the price offered by the representative from the Dragon Palace, still leaving some room for the price to rise.

Lin Mo looked at the man from the Dragon Palace and saw that he had returned to his seat. He then looked around the hall.

Many of the other attendees were feeling helpless. The treasures being auctioned off were too precious for them to afford.

They couldn't even afford the initial bid, let alone increase the bid. They could only watch as the people from the Dragon Palace and the Celestial Fox Palace made their bids.

"Deal. Congratulations to the people of the Celestial Fox Palace for winning the bid for these divine pills."

Lin Mo struck the auction hammer and announced the results. He then put the divine medicine away.

These could be used as treasures for the next auction to earn even more rebate treasures.

[ Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off twenty Heaven-grade Level 7 Divine Pills. ]

[ Successfully triggered 3000-fold auction rebate. ]

[ Congratulations to the host for obtaining fifteen Heaven-class Level 8 Divine Pills. ]

The value of the rebate treasures was slightly smaller, but it was still within Lin Mo's acceptable range.

Although these resources weren't a lot for him with his God Devouring Body, they were still a lot of resources.

"The third item is a Level 9 Heaven-class martial arts technique. It's for the blood essence of demonic beasts."

Lin Mo took out a scroll. This martial arts manual was very powerful and had been obtained by an itinerant cultivator who had explored many historical remains.

After observing for a long time in Lin City, he was sure that Lin Mo had a good character and would protect those who participated in the auction.

Thus, they had decided to auction it in exchange for the Demonic Beast's Blood Essence.

"The master of this martial art had average talent. He had relied on his own hard work and cultivation to reach where he is today.

"He's seeking the Demonic Beast's Blood Essence to cleanse his marrow. He wants to be completely reborn and become a true master.

"If you have divine treasures or divine pills with similar effects, you can also use them to make an exchange."

After the introduction, the auction began. This time, no one from the Dragon Palace or the Celestial Fox Palace participated.

The forces behind them had no lack of martial arts.

If they had been at the Quasi-Immortal Level, he could still consider it.

‘Level 9 Heaven-class... Forget it. I’ll bid for the others to avoid public anger...’

“I have a bottle of blood essence of the monsters with golden patterns, enough for one person to cultivate one’s body. Besides, I also have Bone-Forging and Soul-Cultivation from pills of the Level 7 Heaven-class.

“I’ll offer a jar of true Pixiu blood and a Heaven grade Level 7 Nirvana Flower.”

“Ten drops of the blood essence from the Sea Dragons, plus an ancient recipe, can be used to build a foundation and cultivate the body...”

There were three beings who expressed interest, and they had precious blood essence.

Unfortunately, all of this was done through voice transmission. Their voices were spread without revealing their location.

Perhaps, only Lin Mo himself knew who the person who had secretly transmitted the message was.

“There’s no need to choose. The Sea Dragon’s book essence would definitely be my first choice...” Lin Mo chuckled. If it were him, he would have agreed to the exchange the moment he heard the blood essence of the boundless Sea Dragon, not to mention the ancient recipe.

“If the two of you don’t have a higher price, I will strike the hammer.”

After waiting for a minute, no one sent a voice transmission, which mean that the other two had given up.

“Deal. Congratulations, Sir.”

The auction was successful, and the transaction was carried out in secret. With him around, no one dared to touch the bad luck and use their soul power to investigate.

Everything was going smoothly.

[ Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Level 9 Heaven-class Martial Arts Technique, Taiyi Fire Palm. ]

[ Successfully triggered 8000-fold auction rebate ]

[ Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique, Great Net Weaving Flame Palm ]

Lin Mo was overjoyed that he had obtained another Quasi-Immortal Level martial arts technique, even though the Great Net Weaving Flame Palm was not very powerful.

Its grade was only at the quasi-immortal level, but it could be considered a sect-guarding secret art.

“I can give it to Mao Zhu and Song Lianxue...”

He secretly murmured and decided where to go with this martial arts technique.

“Next up is the second last auction item,” Lin Mo chuckled as a golden light flickered in his hand.

Three suet jade bottles appeared in his hands, and multicolored divine light spread out with a rich medicinal fragrance.

“These are all Heaven-class Level 9 divine pills. I got them from the last auction. They’re useless to me, so I’m taking them out to be auctioned today.”

...

Lin Mo pointed to the three jade bottles and introduced the medicinal effects to everyone.

The Bodhi Heart-Clearing Pill could help one comprehend Dao and at the same time plant the seed of Dao laws, allowing cultivators to quickly get started on a type of law.

The Heavenly Spirit Lightning Illusion Pill could increase the quality of the heavenly tribulation and attract stronger lightning.

The Fire Spirit Purple Heaven Pill was also a divine pill used to transcend the Heavenly Tribulation. It could summon the fire tribulation, better temper the body, and comprehend the Dao of Fire.

Without exception, they were all rare divine pills that even great Saints would be tempted to auction.

“We’ll auction them together. Whoever would like them, please start your bidding.”

In fact, he could get more benefits by selling them separately, but the purpose of his trip was to give some benefits to the Dragon Palace and the Celestial Fox Palace.

The Dragon Scale Fruits from before and the three rare divine pills this time.

His purpose was naturally to rope in these two forces. Even if he couldn’t make Tang Ru and Young Master White Fox stand on his side, at least they wouldn’t become enemies.

After the last battle, he knew how powerful the Northern Continent’s masters were.

If he was besieged, he would be in a very passive position, and he couldn’t just stay in Lin City forever.

...

“Hehe, I happen to be of the fire attribute. I’ll bid for this divine pill then...”

There was a smile on the fox girl’s seductive face, and her alluring waist twisted slightly, which looked very alluring...

“If you like it, then please make your bid,” Lin Mo calmly said without any expression on his face.

He was unmoved by the temptation. He just wanted to wait for the auction to end so that he could share the treasures with Mao Zhu and the others.

“I’ll bid five Heaven-class Level 9 divine pills. They contain no special effects, so you can only absorb and cultivate them.”

Such a price was also considered reasonable, and there were not many people who could participate in the bidding.

Even if they had the financial resources to compete, they did not dare to bid at this moment for fear of becoming marked as a target...

“Deal,” he said.

Seeing that no one else was bidding, he was too lazy to ask and immediately announced the result.

[ Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the Heaven-class Level 9 Bodhi Mind-Clearing Pill, Heavenly Spirit Lightning Illusion Pill, and Fire Spiritual Purple Heaven Pill.

[ Successfully triggered 10000-fold auction rebate ]

[ Congratulations to the host for obtaining Quasi-Immortal Level Immortal Pills: Fate Immortal Pill, Divine Firmament Thunder Pill, and Heavenly fire Ultimate Pill. ]

With a rebate of 10000 times, he had obtained three Quasi-Immortal divine pills, one of which was a Fate Immortal Pill.

This immortal pill was incredible. It could help one comprehend the Dao Law of Fate. If one’s talent was sufficient, it could bring great benefits.

“This is an opportunity that belongs solely to little Qilin...”

Lin Mo sighed. This little girl was indeed an auspicious beast. She could inexplicably obtain an opportunity even when she was in a closed-door cultivation...

Lin Mo smiled as he looked at the heated scene. He took out a divine tree that was glowing with light from the system space.

“A Water Spirit Fruit Tree, Heaven-class Level 8 divine tree. The highest bidder wins.”

He didn't even need to introduce it. This kind of divine tree was something that no major force could refuse.

This was because it was a strategic resource.

!!

Not to mention that this tree was a Level 8 Heaven-class tree. In all the major auction houses in the Northern Continent, such a tree would only appear once every hundred years.

The reason Lin Mo had obtained it was because he had used it to bid for the Quasi-Immortal Level Martial Arts Technique.

From this, one could see the value of this divine tree.

“Owner Lin Mo, are you really going to sell this?”

The people of the Dragon Palace and the Celestial Fox Palace stood up in disbelief.

This divine tree could be displayed at its greatest advantage in the hands of the various factions. They had been envious of Lin Mo only a few days ago.

They were envious of him for having obtained a divine tree. If he used this opportunity to surrender, many forces would be willing to accept him.

Even though this would offend many people, it was worth it for the divine tree.

“This Water Spirit Fruit Tree is useless to me. I'll sell it.”

Lin Mo waved his hand in an overbearing manner, causing the crowd below the stage to be extremely envious.

Even the divine tree could be easily auctioned off. This kind of courage was not something they could do.

“I can use the three divine pills I just obtained and three Heaven-class Level 9 divine herbs to exchange for it.”

The fox girl was the first to speak. The divine pill that she had just obtained was still hot in her hands, and she was about to return it.

Furthermore, Young Master White Fox had specially given her three divine medicines when he had sent her here.

The goal was to exchange things for precious treasures from Lin Mo.

It was just unexpected that they would have to be given away so soon after only a few days. What a pity...

“Friends from the Dragon Palace, are you willing to bid?”

Lin Mo looked at the man from the Dragon Palace. He was holding a jade talisman and seemed to be in the middle of contacting Tang Ru.

“Owner Lin Mo, I’m willing to offer you two Heaven-class Level 9 divine herbs and a piece of news. I wonder if you’ll be satisfied with that?” said the man from the Dragon Palace. Tang Ru had just told him this piece of information.

“Oh, what kind of information? What will I be able to get?”

Lin Mo’s interest was piqued. He was not interested in any ordinary piece of news, unless it was about a sacred land similar to the Wind Spirit Sect’s ruins.

Moreover, even so, if he wanted to obtain benefits, he would have to explore the ruins, which was very dangerous.

In comparison, the three Heaven-class Level 9 divine medicines were still better.

At that time, he could directly auction off the rebate items of the Quasi-Immortal Level immortal medicines, which would allow his cultivation level to increase rapidly.

“The Five Elements Mountain has appeared, and it has given birth to a Supreme treasure of the immortal path.”

Everyone was in an uproar. Even the fox girl of the Celestial Fox Palace was shocked.

It was one of the many divine miracles of the ancient battlefield, the Five Elements Mountain.

It was a huge mountain covered by a formation of the immortal path. It was said that the Five Elements Mountain had been a mountain god in ancient times.

He had died in that world-destroying battle, and his body had become a rare treasure embryo that was capable of giving birth to all living things.

If it really did appear, countless masters would be unable to hold themselves back from searching for their own fortune...

"I'm sorry, I don't have enough knowledge. What's so special about the Five Elements Mountain?" Lin Mo asked in all seriousness.

Soon, the other people in the Chamber of Commerce transmitted their voices to him, saying that the news was worth it.

In the past, when the ancient battlefield had opened, the Five Elements Mountain had always been in a sealed state. It would only open once in a while.

As long as one could enter it, there would definitely be gains. Of course, some people did not have enough luck and could only obtain things like Earth Level spiritual herbs.

There was once a man with heaven-defying luck who had obtained a Quasi-Immortal Level magical weapon from there, which had shaken the entire Northern Continent.

"Sir, you have a Qilin by your side, and your luck is extraordinary. You should give it a try."

At the same time, the man from the Dragon Palace was explaining the benefits of the Five Elements Mountain.

Even the fox girl of the Celestial Fox Palace nodded and did not refute it. In terms of value, the location of the Five Elements Mountain was obviously more precious...

"Alright, it's a deal."

Lin Mo slammed the auction hammer and announced the results.

He was also interested in the Five Elements Mountain. With the auspicious beast accompanying him, he was sure to be very lucky.

“Thank you, Owner Lin Mo. Please forgive me and take this token to Blue Sea City. My headquarters is there.”

The man from Dragon Palace was overjoyed. He took out a divine medicine and a token.

The Five Elements Mountain was such a precious piece of information. How could it be revealed so easily? Even he couldn't tell anyone about it. innread.com

After all, he couldn't go. If he knew what it was, it would only add to his troubles and danger.

“Sure.”

Lin Mo did not mind. After receiving the token, he ended the auction.

At the same time, news about the Five Elements Mountain started to spread from Lin City.

Tang Ru, the princess of the Dragon Palace, knew the location of the Five Elements Mountain, which attracted countless people to Blue Sea City.

All the masters sent out their subordinates to exchange treasures for information.

...

Unfortunately, the Dragon Palace wasn't a place where they could mess around, and many people returned in defeat.

There was even a master with extraordinary combat strength who wanted to charge in, but he was heavily injured by the formation.

From the beginning to the end, Tang Ru did not appear even once.

This also made some people calm down a little. This powerful existence did not even make a move, merely blocking them with just the formation.

“Hey, little girl, quickly come out of your seclusion.”

After leaving Lin City, Lin Mo strolled alone in the mountains.

With every step he took, he was able to travel hundreds of miles, traveling at an extremely fast speed.

In the system space, the Qilin sat cross-legged at the bottom of the Fire Spirit Lake with a solemn expression on her face.

After the auction ended, Lin Mo had fed her the Fate Immortal Pill that he had obtained.

After eating it, Lin Mo could no longer feel the Qilin’s aura. Everything around her seemed to have become blurry, and she could not see anything.

This surprised him because this feeling was the same as when they had first entered the ancient battlefield.

...

It covered up fate, disrupted all order, and was impossible to spy on...

If she continued like this, would she be able to surpass her mother and reach the level of the ancestral Qilin?”

Lin Mo was curious. After observing the Qilin for a while, he exited the system space.

“Eh, the Purple Sky City is in front. It’s the territory of the Shentu clan...”

After traveling through the mountain range for seven days, Lin Mo arrived at a huge city.

There were people coming and going here, and there were beings of all races, all of whom were extremely powerful.

Lin Mo could even feel the presence of a Level 9 King tier cultivator.

These were cultivators who had severed their cultivation realms and came to the ancient battlefield to re-cultivate. In this way, they improved very quickly.

Perhaps, in a year or two, they would be able to break through the barrier of a Quasi-Saint.

At that time, the battlefield would change again...

There was a huge gap between a King and a Pre-Saint that was hard to cross. Even people like Lin Mo would have to reach the ninth Heaven Layer to fight with a Pre-Saint.

Before that, they could only run away if they encountered a Quasi-Saint.

“Should I go in and rob...”

Lin Mo was a little hesitant. The Purple Sky City must have set up a shocking killing formation, similar to the Blue Sea City.

If he forced his way in, he would probably suffer a great loss.

He had the Abyssal Devouring skill and was not afraid of formations.

However, if Shentu Luo was also there, he was afraid that he would face some trouble...

“The Five Elements Mountain is more important...”

After thinking about this for a moment, Lin Mo turned around and left in the direction of Blue Sea City.

For the next three days, Lin Mo was on the road. At dawn, he finally saw a Blue Sea City at the end of his vision.

The formation above the city was activated, and a thick murderous aura spread.

When the people on the city wall saw Lin Mo approaching, they could not help but feel nervous and clenched their weapons tighter.

There were too many people who had come to the Blue Sea City during this period of time, and most of them had ulterior motives.

!!

Seeing Lin Mo's terrifying aura, they could not help but feel worried.

"Who are you?" Someone shouted sternly from the city wall. At the same time, he took out formation flags and stood in anticipation.

"I'm Lin Mo."

Lin Mo frowned before taking out the token and throwing it over.

It seemed that the Blue Sea City had no peace after the news had spread. He wondered how many people knew about the Five Elements Mountain...

"The token is real. He really is Lin Mo."

One of the young men there inspected the token carefully before asking his companions to activate the formation and let Lin Mo in.

"Mr. Lin Mo, please forgive us. There have been a lot of people looking for trouble recently," said the small group of men who had gathered there as they invited Lin Mo in courteously.

"No need to say more. Where is your princess? Please ask her to tell me the location of the Five Elements Mountain," said Lin Mo as he waved his hand dismissively, not wanting to say anything more.

Time was precious, and he had to go to Five Elements Mountain to find opportunities.

He followed them into Blue Sea City and arrived at the Dragon Palace, but most of the masters were not there.

Some of them had gone outside to look for opportunities, while some had followed Tang Ru to Five Elements Mountain.

"My Lord, the princess left a map behind. She has already left."

The person in charge of serving Lin Mo was a master in the Hidden Dragon List and was ranked in the top 100.

He was the strongest person in the Dragon Palace, and he was responsible for controlling the formation to protect this place.

“Thank you. I won’t stay any longer,” said Lin Mo as he took a quick look at the map and turned to leave.

At the same time, the system’s warning tone finally rang out.

[ Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the Level 8 Heaven-tier Divine Tree, Water Spirit Fruit Tree. ]

[ Successfully triggered 1000-fold auction rebate ]

[ Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Heaven Level 9 Divine Tree and a mysterious Yin True Fruit Tree. ]

What Lin Mo did not expect was that the rebate treasure was only a Level 9 Heaven-class treasure.

He was greatly regretful that he hadn’t managed to obtain a Quasi-Immortal Level immortal tree.

At the same time, he also received a piece of news. He would definitely not lose out in this deal. In fact, he would even earn a lot...

“It seems that I have gained a lot from this trip to Five Elements Mountain...”

After leaving the Dragon Palace, Lin Mo did not hide his identity. He told the others that he had obtained the map to Five Elements Mountain.

This helped to relieve some of the pressure on the Dragon Palace.

This was because when he left the Blue Sea City, many people had followed him in secret, wanting to go to the Five Elements Mountain with him.

“If you can keep up, there’s no harm in taking you there.”

Lin Mo laughed as the Yin Yang Dao Law appeared on his body.

In an instant, a pair of wings extended from his back. The giant Kun Peng Wings flapped gently, and he disappeared into the sky in the blink of an eye.

“D*mmmit, the Kun Peng is extremely fast...”

The people behind were all dumbfounded. How could they chase after him? It was impossible to catch up.

Unless their cultivation realm was much higher than Lin Mo’s, or they also had the same powers as the Roc Clan...

“Ah, it’s such a great opportunity. Did I miss it just like that...”

Many people beat their chests and stomped their feet, their faces filled with helplessness. innread.com

They couldn’t defeat the Dragon Palace, and Lin Mo couldn’t catch up with them. The opportunity to go to Five Elements Mountain had gone completely out of their hands...

According to the map, Five Elements Mountain was located in a special area. The creatures there had their own intelligence...

After two days, Lin Mo arrived at a place that looked like a secret realm according to the map.

This place was enveloped by a natural barrier and the spiritual qi here was dense. This barrier seemed to have isolated the laws of the ancient battlefield.

“Eh, there’s a demonic beast clan here...”

Lin Mo was shocked. After passing through the barrier, he discovered that some living beings had formed tribes, and there were even groups of demonic beasts.

These people were not outsiders, but had lived here for generations.

“The map has repeatedly warned us not to attack the living beings here...” Lin Mo muttered.

It was said that the creatures here were born on Five Elements Mountain and were protected by it.

If he touched the creatures here, Five Elements Mountain might be furious and expel all the people here.

“What?”

Suddenly, Lin Mo was a little shocked. He had only just arrived, but he could already feel a terrifying power.

It seemed to be a will that was scanning his body, ignoring all hidden means.

“How terrifying! What kind of existence is that?”

Moreover, he could feel countless auras probing him since earlier, each of which was very terrifying.

...

However, there was a slight fluctuation that he could feel was a little friendlier and seemed to symbolize good luck.

That was the fluctuation of a Qilin. It was not the little Qilin that he knew. It seemed to be the mother of the Qilin...

This discovery shocked him. The Qilin's mother had come here before, or could it be that this was once the territory of the divine beast Qilin?

His consciousness sank into the system space. The Qilin's seclusion was coming to an end, and she was about to make a breakthrough again.

Lin Mo didn't stop at the periphery but began to venture deeper into the area.

What surprised him was that the creatures on Five Elements Mountain did not care about outsiders. They did not even pay attention to them.

Even when Lin Mo took the initiative to talk to them, the other party would only give him a cold look and ignore him.

“Why?”

He was somewhat confused. Even after searching for a while, he did not meet any outsiders like him.

In the end, it was only when he took out three Heaven-class Level 7 divine pills and gave them to the Quasi-Saint that he had met by chance that the other party finally looked at him.

“If you want to find any opportunities, don’t wander around blindly. Go to the depths, and don’t hurt any living creatures with intelligence.

...

Having received such a short reply in exchange for the three divine pills, Lin Mo still wanted to ask more questions.

However, the other party continued to keep any other information a secret, merely shaking his head in reply. There was fear in his eyes, and he would not continue.

“Many thanks, Senior...”

After bowing, Lin Mo flew into the depths.

They encountered many living beings, even humans, but they only glanced at Lin Mo before ignoring him completely.

“There are quite a few good things here. It’s a pity that I can’t pick them up...”

This place was a mountain range, and Five Elements Mountain was probably in the center. On the way, he saw many treasures.

However, these divine medicines and treasures all had owners.

Besides, he couldn’t fight here, and even if he could, he wouldn’t be a match for them.

“The Quasi-Saints here don’t seem to be worth much...”

He had met at least a dozen Quasi-Saints along the way. Every one of them had a powerful aura and terrifying strength...

If these existences were to escape, the ancient battlefield would probably change completely and more than half of the opportunities would end up in their hands.

Other than the aura of the five elements, there was also the Dao Law of Yin and Yang. It's very familiar... Lin Mo was puzzled. The deeper they went, the more he discovered abnormalities.

As he moved forward, he finally met a living being from the outside world. After asking, he learned that this place was also called the Yin-Yang World.

There were a lot of legends about this place.

The most popular rumor was that anyone who came to Five Elements Mountain would definitely gain something, and as long as they didn't mess around, they would not be in danger.

"Is this the first time you've heard of this place, fellow Daoist? In that case, you must remember this legend and be careful."

Some creatures did not recognize Lin Mo and thought that he had just been lucky enough to enter, so they told him the news out of goodwill.

This place had once been a killing field, and there were countless vengeful souls who were buried underground.

During the great battle in ancient times, the battle here had been the most intense. It seemed that the divine beast Qilin had also fought a bloody battle here. The battle had caused the heavens to collapse and the earth to crack. Countless masters had died from hatred and were buried here.

!!

Lin Mo was unable to calm down after hearing the news from these people.

What kind of war had destroyed the entire ancient era?

It was at that time that the Eastern Continent had rotted, its spiritual qi had become barren, and its Heavenly Tribulation had been concealed.

“Is there any information I can find out about the Qilin here?”

As he went deeper, he found that the life force around him was weakening, and a killing intent filled the air.

This killing intent was extremely terrifying. There was a Supreme existence that had once been buried here, and it contained boundless killing intent.

No living being could survive in this place for long, as they would be corroded by the killing intent.

“It’s a completely different environment here compared to the outside. Why?” Lin Mo muttered softly.

He couldn’t stay in this place for too long. If he stayed for too long, there would be problems with his Dao Foundation, and it might even affect his soul.

But when he went deeper, he found that this environment full of killing intent was only within a small area.

The other places were full of vitality and there were living beings who were all very strong.

“Swish!”

A dense energy spread out and surrounded Lin Mo’s body. This was the powerful power of destiny.

With the protection of this power, the killing intent of many evil spirits would be unable to enter their bodies.

It could even be said that Lin Mo was invulnerable at this moment, and his entire body exuded a sense of holiness.

“The Qilin has come out of seclusion!”

Upon realizing this, Lin Mo had an idea and took the Qilin out of the system space.

As soon as she appeared, the area was filled with auspicious qi. All the living beings looked over, and some even knelt down and saluted respectfully.

“Huh? Where is this? What a strange place!”

The Qilin was full of curiosity and looked around.

She was also surprised to see a Quasi-Saint bowing to her.

When she saw the spiritual light in the eyes of these creatures, it was not the kind that was of listlessness or violence, but of their own intelligence.

“Huh?”

This made her even more curious. She scanned the area with her soul power, staring at her surroundings.

It was only when Lin Mo explained it to her that she understood and fell into deep thought.

“This place... There’s an aura that was left behind by my mother.”

She had held her chin and pondered for a long time before finally saying this. She could also sense where her mother’s aura was.

“Do you want to go and take a look?” Lin Mo asked.

Since this matter concerned the Qilin’s mother, he felt that it was better to let Qilin make the decision.

Even though this was a mysterious place and there were some places that he couldn’t wander around, he still decided that he would go with the Qilin.

“I think it would be better to ask them.”

The Qilin pointed to a place not far away, where three demonic beasts at the level of a Saint-to-be were kneeling.

They had humble attitudes, and their eyes were filled with respect.

Even though he could tell that the Qilin was only a fourth-layered Heavenly King level, he didn’t dare to show any disrespect.

“My fellow Daoists, please get up and help us clear our doubts, okay?” She looked at the three Saints-to-be demonic beasts with a smile.

However, in the face of Qilin’s words, the three demonic beasts were shocked. With fear in their eyes, they shook their heads frantically.

They could open their mouths, but they didn’t dare to say a word and merely continued kneeling there.

“This is strange. Can you understand me?” The Qilin moved closer, and Lin Mo followed carefully behind.

If anything went wrong, he would take Qilin and hide in the system space.

The expected danger did not appear. The creatures here seemed to be very friendly to the Qilin and were willing to stay by her side.

However, faced with their questions, they were unwilling to speak even if Lin Mo promised to give them divine medicine and divine pills.

“If I tell you to speak, then you should speak. Hurry up, I won’t eat you. If you don’t want to speak, then don’t follow me.”

After walking for a while, the Qilin was a little annoyed and turned back to glare at a Saint-to-be demonic beast.

This was a Fire Crystal Scaled Beast. It was very powerful, and if one were to trace it back to its origins, it had some bloodline relationship with the Qilin race.

Hearing the Qilin’s words, the demonic beast immediately knelt down.

There was a look of struggle in his eyes. After hesitating for a long time, he finally opened his mouth and spoke in a low voice.

“Lord auspicious beast, you may go anywhere and take anything with you. However, the Five Elements Mountain doesn’t allow us to say anything else...”

This was already the limit. This was not the outermost area, so they had to follow the rules set by the Five Elements Mountain.

They were still able to talk to the living beings outside, but they couldn't say a word here.

If it wasn't for the fact that the person in front of him had the bloodline of the divine beast Qilin in its body, he would definitely not have spoken.

...

"The rules of the Five Elements Mountain?" innread.com

Lin Mo and the Qilin were both confused.

But seeing the fear on this demonic beast's face, they didn't ask any more questions and he turned to fly deeper into the forest.

In this way, a strange scene was formed in the Five Elements Mountain.

Lin Mo and the Qilin walked together, and behind them was a large group of envious creatures.

In their eyes, the fact that Lin Mo could walk side by side with the Qilin was an honor that they would never be able to obtain in their entire lives...

"It's my first time meeting them. Why are they worshipping me so much?"

Walking in front, the Qilin felt puzzled. Although it could be contaminated by the auspicious qi, what was the use of that little bit?

Unless she was like Lin Mo, who made her follow him all the time and was unwilling to leave, she would not be able to receive the protection of auspicious.

"Perhaps... Do they know your mother?" Lin Mo joked.

However, that was impossible. Even an absolute Saint's lifespan wasn't enough to support a living creature from the ancient era to the present.

...

These living beings were only Quasi-Saints and would not have such a long lifespan.

Perhaps, the Five Elements Mountain was the mystery.

It was a pity that it had set a rule that the living beings inside were not allowed to tell the outside world any information.

“Wait, it said that I can take any treasure away. What if I take their divine medicine?”

Suddenly, the Qilin stopped walking and looked into the distance.

There, a Titan Python was coiled. It was as large as a mountain and coiled around three of its peaks.

There was a lake below, and a multicolored light was emitted from it, indicating that there was a treasure being nurtured there.

Lin Mo’s eyes widened in disbelief at the sight...

“That’s the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus. There are more than a dozen of them...”

Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotuses of different grades had been planted on the entire lake.

The most precious one was at a Level 9 Heaven-class, wood element, and contained an endless supply of vitality.

“It seems so, but that Titan Python doesn’t seem to be easy to talk to...” Lin Mo mumbled.

The deeper they went, the more powerful the creatures they encountered. There were a few demonic beasts that could not be seen clearly.

However, from the way they looked at the Titan Python, it wasn’t difficult to tell that the creature standing before them was definitely a very terrifying existence.

The giant python’s cold eyes looked at Lin Mo, but when it saw the Qilin, its gaze gradually softened.

Just like the other demonic beasts, it recognized her as the auspicious beast White Qilin, and its eyes were filled with respect.

After discovering the Qilin's intention, it even spurted out a stream of spiritual qi, cutting off the Ninth Heaven-Level Spirit-Connecting Lotus and sending it over.

"Are you giving it out just like that?" Lin Mo was dumbfounded.

'A Titan Python with an unknown cultivation base is actually very obedient...'

"According to the rules, beings from the outside world can only take one treasure. Does this count?" Lin Mo was puzzled.

!!

He would not give up on the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus no matter what, even if he could not get a Quasi-Immortal treasure. innread.com

"Who cares? You gave it to me, so you can't go back on your word."

The Qilin wasn't really bothered. It did not let go of the Heaven-Connecting God-Attracting Lotus and urged Lin Mo to put it away.

"Let's continue walking, I feel like we're getting closer."

To Lin Mo's surprise, the Titan Python did not follow the Qilin, and the demonic beasts that had followed her previously had already retreated.

It was as if there was a piece of forbidden land in front of them that they did not dare to step into.

His eyes lit up, and his Eye of Martial Arts constantly observed his surroundings, wanting to see if he could discover anything.

Soon, he found a mountain peak. There were many living beings here, all of whom had come from the outside world.

“Let’s go, I saw it too. There’s something good there,” the Qilin urged.

Although there was endless killing intent in that place, it was full of auspicious signs. There had to be something good there.

“I’ll look for someone to ask.”

Lin Mo went up to ask and received more information.

The place under the protection of the Five Elements Mountain had been full of killing intent. It had been a dead land without any living creatures.

As time passed, some places were gradually purified, allowing the living beings there to live.

At the same time, he also set down a rule that no living beings from the outside world were allowed to enter and destroy the place that had been purified.

As for the restrictions on communication, no one knew the reason.

“In other words, this place can be destroyed at will?” Qilin rolled up his sleeves and was ready to go all out.

“Let me do it. Be careful.”

Lin Mo stepped forward. It was better to let him handle such a dangerous operation.

If his life was in danger, he could escape at the first moment and nothing would happen.

“Then be careful.” The Qilin retreated and stared at Lin Mo’s figure to avoid any accidents.

Lin Mo took out his War Demon Spear and released the aura of a Third Heavenly King. The terrifying power spread and caused the ground to tremble.

This land of death was very large, and many people were exploring it.

When they realized what Lin Mo had done, they were all shocked and started to back off, not daring to stay.

“Clang!”

Lin Mo held the War Demon Spear in his hand and stabbed it in the direction of the Qilin’s finger. The mountain exploded in an instant.

The ground cracked open, and the wind and clouds surged. Strange phenomena kept appearing.

A terrifying killing intent spread out and enveloped Lin Mo. It even spread out and swept in all directions.

Auspicious qi emerged from his body, blocking all the killing intent and preventing it from approaching.

The sharp spear radiance of the War Demon Spear pierced through the ground, shattering the space and tearing open a huge crack.

The killing intent below became even more intense and started to erode Lin Mo.

Apart from that, a huge green rock appeared where the spear had pierced.

The War Demon Spear, which was just a step away from becoming a Quasi-Immortal grade magical weapon, was completely unable to harm the green rock.

“I’ve found it...”

Lin Mo wanted to keep the green stone in the system space.

However, no matter how he extended his power, he could not merge it with the green stone and was unable to take it away.

The green stone was very hard, and he didn’t know what it was made of.

He cleaned up the nearby soil and gravel, sensing a rich life energy.

Through his observation, he knew that this green stone was not a piece of treasure. The true treasure was being nurtured within its body.

It was protected by runes, making it impossible to break through.

“These runes contain a powerful life essence. Could it be that there are living creatures inside?” Lin Mo muttered to himself.

He stretched out his hand and the Dao Law of Yin and Yang appeared. He used his strongest attack and the Kun Peng Claws tore the green stone apart.

Within it, an ancient feeling filled the air, accompanied by a sacred aura.

This was definitely an item from the ancient era. Since it had survived to this day, it was definitely extraordinary.

“Brother Lin Mo, how are you?”

The Qilin’s voice could be heard from above the crack as she asked Lin Mo about the situation.

A dense life aura spread from within the green stone, and a terrifying fluctuation spread out, sending Lin Mo flying.

Other than that, there were also several scattered objects that flew out with him.

The most eye-catching thing was a drop of bright red blood essence. The rich life essence was emitted from it.

Many living beings in the surroundings looked over in shock.

...

They all knew that Lin Mo had found something good. These items were from ancient times, and every single one of them was extraordinary.

“Oh my god! That drop of blood... Could it be the blood essence of the great emperor? The Supreme treasure of the Immortal Dao...” Someone shouted in excitement.

Lin Mo steadied his body and flew up again, arriving before the drop of blood essence.

“What?”

Suddenly, he felt a dangerous aura. Without turning his head, he spread his giant Kun Peng Wings.

“Clang!”

A purple-black dagger appeared out of thin air and stabbed into the Kun Peng Wings. A wisp of black smoke came from the wound.

Lin Mo made a prompt decision. He circulated the Spirit Devouring Technique, and devouring power filled his body, devouring the power that had invaded his body.

“Who is it?” He shouted. He had let down his guard when he heard that the Five Elements Mountain was safe.

He had not expected that the greatest danger would be from the living beings from the outside world who would do anything for the treasures.

“What a sharp perception...”

...

A sigh could be heard coming from the void, and the person who attacked disappeared without a trace.

Even Lin Mo found it difficult to find the person. That person was extremely powerful and was proficient in the Law of Space.

“What happened?”

The people behind were shocked. They had wanted to snatch away the drop of blood, but they had stopped upon seeing Lin Mo and the Qilin.

No one had expected that someone would actually dare to launch an attack. By the looks of it, he had even injured Lin Mo. This strength was truly terrifying.

“That should be the senior who killed himself. His cultivation speed is very fast. He’s already a ninth-Layered Heaven King, someone whispered worriedly. A slight carelessness in the battle in the five elements mountain would lead to a disaster ...

Fortunately, the most dangerous situation did not come.

Many living beings were also waiting here, wanting to dig out the treasures.

After all, each person could only take one item away. He might not be able to get the drop of blood, but he might be able to get the other treasures...

“Quickly put it away, let’s go.”

The Qilin urged Lin Mo to collect all the treasures that had flown out.

This time, there were no obstructions. Lin Mo successfully kept the ancient objects and placed them in the system space.

After some observation, the Qilin had already determined that there were no more treasures here.

At the same time, the power of the Five Elements in the surroundings continued to gather and began to wash away the killing intent here.

This was the power of the Five Elements Mountain, which was evolving this place.

This made Lin Mo feel a little curious. Why did the Five Elements Mountain start to take action after the treasure was taken away?

“What are these treasures?” The Qilin asked curiously after leaving the place.

Lin Mo started to check the treasures in the system space.

The first thing he looked at was the drop of blood. It should be the most precious treasure in this place that contained an unending supply of vitality.

The blood of the auspicious beast White Qilin was sealed by Supreme means and has been preserved to this day. Although a lot of its essence has been lost, it is still at the Quasi-Immortal level.

Lin Mo was shocked.

The people from the Northern Continent had been talking about the Qilin blood for the past two years, and now they had a drop of it.

!!

When he told Qilin this news, the latter didn't believe him at all.

It was only when she sensed it carefully and even tasted it a little that she was sure that it really was Qilin blood, and it was her mother's blood.

Even a drop of blood could be considered a Quasi-Immortal treasure...

This was not even the blood essence. It was hard to imagine what kind of terrifying existence the Qilin was at its peak.

[ Qilin scales have lost all their essence and are now worthless. ]

Along with this drop of blood, there were a few ancient objects, but their essence had been lost through the passage of time.

After he was sure that it was useless, he threw it away, leaving only the Qilin scale.

"This is your mother's scale. You should take good care of it..."

With a sigh, he continued to move forward with the Qilin. When they arrived at Five Elements Mountain, he still had many doubts that he had yet to answer.

And he was very interested in the mysterious Five Elements Mountain.

Judging from what had happened just now, Five Elements Mountain definitely had its own intelligence and was paying attention to this area.

At that moment, a bird stood on a branch not far away, staring at Lin Mo and the Qilin.

It exuded a holy aura that was extremely powerful. Observing it, Lin Mo and the Qilin became nervous.

Before the two of them could speak, the bird spoke first, "The two of you, my Lord invites you to the deepest part of the palace for a gathering."

Lin Mo was a little stunned. This bird's level was very high, and it was very powerful. However, it was only a messenger?

Who was its master? The Five Elements Mountain?

"That's right. It's the Five Elements Mountain. My lord wants to see you," continued the bird.

"Should I go? There's no danger..." said the Qilin.

She had already been able to seek good fortune and avoid disaster. She would not be harmed at Five Elements Mountain.

The road ahead would be smooth without any obstacles.

"Where is Five Elements Mountain? Why does it want to see us?" Lin Mo asked.

The bird flapped its wings slightly, and the feathers on its body emitted a strange light.

It was only at this moment that Lin Mo discovered its true identity-the Rainbow-Winged Bird.

Its existence had long been extinct in the outside world and could only be found in some ancient books.

The feathers of this kind of creature were very precious. They could be used to cultivate magic weapons and had extraordinary power. Thus, they had been hunted by many people in the early years.

In the end, it had led to the extinction of such creatures and they were no longer visible in the world.

"Oh, my clansmen in the outside world have already been exterminated? What a pity..." The bird's realm was very high, so he could read Lin Mo's mind.

At this moment, it felt a little sad. Their race had originally been small in population, and they had not expected them to have already become extinct in the outside world...

“Senior, may I ask what realm you are at?” Lin Mo asked. He felt that this creature’s level would be terrifying.

What kind of existence would the even more powerful Five Elements Mountain be...

“It’s not convenient for me to disclose it. Please follow me to see his Excellency.” The Rainbow-Winged Bird shook its head and urged Lin Mo and the Qilin to set off.

“Can you be sure there’s no danger?” Lin Mo looked at the Qilin.

He wasn’t sure what the other party’s cultivation was, and he didn’t know what kind of method could block the Qilin’s perception of good or bad luck.

“If I wanted to harm you, I could have taken your lives the moment you entered the barrier, so don’t worry.” The Rainbow-Winged Bird continued to explain.

Lin Mo felt a strong killing intent when it said that.

It was extremely terrifying, but the Qilin didn’t seem to show any changes. It was as if this murderous aura had specifically been directed at him...

“Then can you tell us why the Five Elements Mountain wants to see us?” He asked. A terrifying existence wanted to see him and the Qilin, and its attitude seemed too good to be true.

He was still a little worried. What if these mysterious experts had some restrictions and needed them to walk to a specific area before they could make a move?

Wouldn’t he be walking right into a trap if he just went there?

Seeing Lin Mo’s thoughts, the Rainbow-Winged Bird felt helpless. It said anxiously, “The lord of the Five Elements Mountain has a limited time when it’s awake. Please make a decision quickly.”

At the same time, it spoke again, “I know you have a very powerful space, so it’ll be very easy for you to escape.”

“How about this, I’ll teach you a way to change the spatial node. This way, when you leave the space, you can appear anywhere within the range instead of the original spot.”

Lin Mo was slightly shocked by this. He had not known that the small world could be used in this way.

“Then hurry up and teach me. Also, how big is the area? Is it more than a hundred thousand li?” The Qilin laughed.

Hearing this, the Rainbow-Winged Bird facepalmed slightly. Anything more than 100000 miles could only be done with a teleportation formation.

This kind of small world was isolated from everything, and the teleportation formation set up inside would lose its coordinates and could not be teleported.

It was already good enough that it could shift a few hundred miles, and this was the result of its painstaking study of the space Dao.

The operation method was very simple, and it was very convenient to use.

This gave Lin Mo another method to escape quickly as long as his aura was not locked by the powerful soul power.

“Don’t be too pleased with yourself. Although this move is useful, it has limited penetration when faced with certain formations. It’s very difficult to deviate from it,” the Rainbow-Winged Bird gave them a kindly reminder. It could see what Lin Mo and the Qilin were thinking, and it knew that the two of them had many enemies and were in a dangerous situation.

...

“Hehe, thank you, senior. We’ll go with you now.”

The Qilin was all smiles as it promised Lin Mo that wealth was found in danger. Since they were already here, they should go in and take a look first.

Lin Mo did not hesitate and followed the Rainbow-Winged Bird from a distance with the Qilin.

Holding the Qilin’s little hand, he told her that she was to immediately enter the system space with him if he sensed any danger.

At that time, by relying on the spatial techniques he had just learned and the Eye of Destiny, it would be very easy for him to escape.

“Being so cautious, it’s not a bad idea to let the little Qilin follow you...”

A gratified laugh came from the void, and the words that were said shocked Lin Mo.

“Senior, are you from the Five Elements Mountain?” He bowed to the void in front of him, not daring to be rash.

“Come in, I won’t harm you.”

A golden path expanded and extended all the way to the feet of the two.

The Rainbow-Winged Bird also flew over and landed on the Qilin’s shoulder without saying a word.

...

There was no need for them to walk. The golden path directly took them flying. They moved speedily as they passed through mountain ranges that were rich in life energy.

The last place they arrived at was a kind of fairyland. The surroundings were filled with immortal qi, which was shocking.

“Is this the ruins of an immortal? It’s so beautiful,” exclaimed the Qilin.

However, she didn’t dare to barge in recklessly because there was a powerful formation in the surroundings that sealed this place and prevented her from getting close.

Her original thoughts of cultivating here were put away.

They flew all the way and passed through a door of light. They entered the array and could be considered to have entered this immortal realm.

“You can’t touch the things in the outer area, it’ll cause big trouble,” the Rainbow-Winged Bird reminded.

There were spatial fragments everywhere, and Lin Mo could even feel the power of time within them...

“Boom, boom, boom!”

A violent explosion came from the void behind the fragment, and the aura from it made Lin Mo and the Qilin tremble in fear.

Vaguely, they seemed to see two behemoths fighting, but they could not see clearly what kind of creatures they were.

They only knew that it was an incomparably terrifying existence. In a single battle, it shattered a part of the starry sky. The stars in the sky shattered, and countless living beings were annihilated and disappeared...

“Is that a fight between Great Emperors?” Lin Mo was shocked. Could this be the great battle of the ancient times?

“I don’t know. To be honest, I don’t know what happened in the ancient times. I woke up in a daze and a new era had begun...” The Rainbow-Winged Bird was lost in its memories, and its eyes were listless.

Walking in the depths of the formation, they came to a chaotic region.

“We’re here. The Five Elements Mountain is right in front of us.” The Rainbow-Winged Bird opened its mouth and stretched out its wing to point forward.

It was a patch of chaos, and a small mountain could be vaguely seen. It was very mysterious.

“Senior, may I ask why you’re looking for us?” Lin Mo asked as he cupped his fists.

“It’s a familiar aura... The floating flame flag... It has really been many years since we last met...”

A soft sigh could be heard, and the words that were said caused Lin Mo's emotions to fluctuate.

"Could it be that the ancient era that passed was really the prehistoric times?"

Lin Mo was even more shocked when he thought of this. What kind of war could cause the entire primeval world to collapse...

"What is the primeval world?" In the chaotic mist, the Five Elements Mountain asked a question. It had seen through Lin Mo's thoughts.

"Senior, do you believe in the past and present?" Lin Mo asked.

This world had the Dao Law of Reincarnation, but could anyone really reincarnate?

Ever since he started cultivating, he had never heard of any reincarnation of an ancient figure...

The so-called reincarnation should not exist...

"If you believe it, there will be. If you don't believe it, there will naturally be none..." The Five Elements Mountain chuckled. The answer made Lin Mo feel helpless.

"Senior, are you the Great Emperor?" Qilin also stood up and asked.

She was very curious if there were any living Great Emperors in this world.

The person in front of him must have survived from ancient times and might know something.

"No, there's no need to ask. I've lost my memory. I've forgotten a lot..."

The Five Elements Mountain shook its head, indicating that it could not remember clearly. It had not recovered from its injuries.

"Senior, are you injured?" Lin Mo was shocked.

There were treasures everywhere in the ancient battlefield, so why didn't this existence go and get some to heal his injuries?

"That is an opportunity that is left for all of you. How can we snatch it..."

The Rainbow-Winged Bird spoke, answering Lin Mo's question.

"Senior, what should I do to prevent others from prying into my thoughts..."
Lin Mo was speechless and asked.

He felt that whatever he was thinking would be known without any secrets.

"All those below quasi-Emperor are ants..."

Lin Mo was dumbfounded by the Rainbow-Winged Bird's words. Didn't this mean that there was no other way?

One should know that among the forces he had offended, there was more than one quasi-Emperor...

In addition, he had many treasures on him. He even had the immortal tree, the Kun Peng Art, and immortal-grade SScriptures of Enlightenment...

With the Qilin beside him, it was enough for these quasi-Emperors be to come out of the mountain and mess with him...

"What? Do you have that many treasures on you?" The Rainbow-Winged Bird's eyes widened.

It finally realized that it had underestimated this junior.

He had thought that he was just a lucky lad who had won the Qilins favor, but it seemed like he was still capable.

Otherwise, how could they guard so many good things ...

"It's very impolite to pry like this." Qilin said in dissatisfaction.

Just like Lin Mo, this was the first time the Qilin felt powerless.

In front of an absolute expert, all methods were useless and had no privacy.

"I'm sorry..." The Rainbow-Winged Bird lowered its head and apologized.

Then, it told the two of them to use the Qilin and Kun Peng Runes to protect their sea of consciousness as long as they did not panic.

Although the two of them were only at the Ruler Realm, the runes from two top inheritances were enough to shield them from the prying eyes of absolute saints.

“I still can’t stop quasi-Emperors?” Lin Mo was helpless.

“If I could really block it, then the quasi-Emperor’s Heavenly Sting would not have troubled me for countless years...” The Rainbow-Winged Bird glared at Lin Mo.

It was at the ninth step of the Supreme Saint realm, and it had been stuck at this realm for millions of years without any chance of breaking through ...

“I have immortal-grade Scriptures of enlightenment, do you want them, Senior?” Lin Mo asked tentatively.

If he could make one owe him a favor, it would be best to break through to the quasi-Emperor realm directly...

...

This way, he would have the confidence to challenge the Northerners when he went out.

“This ...”

The Rainbow-Winged Bird was stunned and hesitant. The immortal-grade Scriptures of Enlightenment were really useful to it.

The temptation was too great for it to refuse.

“If you can’t refuse it, just accept it. You can’t stay here forever. You can go out and take a look.”

The Five Elements Mountain asked the Rainbow-Winged Bird to accept it.

Hearing this, Lin Mo was overjoyed. Such a terrifying existence could stand behind him and was willing to leave.

This was the best news for him...

“Wait for me to ask Master Qilin. If she agrees, I’ll accept it.”

After hesitating for a while, it finally relented. However, it still had to ask the spiritual beast, Qilin.

“You know my mother?” The Qilin was a little surprised.

...

Could it be because of the Rainbow-Winged Bird that the creatures here were so respectful to her?

“It’s not convenient to disclose this. You can ask him yourself.” The Rainbow-Winged Bird did not answer, nor did it stay here for long. It immediately disappeared.

“You’re leaving just like that? Bring us along as well...”

The Qilin shouted. She and Lin Mo had also decided to go to her mother’s training hall.

However, that place was filled with danger, and it would be difficult to get there unless she used the Eye of Destiny...

It was a pity that the Rainbow-Winged Bird seemed to have left and did not hear her call.

“Senior Five Elements Mountain, why did you call us here?”

Seeing that the Rainbow-Winged Bird had left, Lin Mo looked at the five elements mountain in front of him and asked.

It could not have been as simple as just a few words.

“I’m just here to see what kind of method you used to keep Qilin by your side.” The calm voice of the Five Elements Mountain could be heard.

However, Lin Mo felt a chill run down his spine when he heard that.

He could clearly hear the killing intent in those words. At that moment, he felt as if he was making an enemy out of this world.

He could not use his cultivation base at all. In the face of the killing intent of the Five Elements Mountain he could only wait for death...

“Fortunately, you did not lie to her. Instead, you took good care of her. Thank you...” The Five Elements Mountain said with a smile.

Lin Mo was very talented and had one of the strongest physiques of the human race. His talent had passed the test.

When it had read the Qilin’s mind, it had also confirmed that Lin Mo had not lied to him and that his temperament had passed the test.

“I’ll give you an opportunity. Do you want it?”

Just as Lin Mo heaved a sigh of relief, the Five Elements Mountain opened its mouth again and offered to give Lin Mo an opportunity.
