Chapter 751

“What about me? Do I get it?” The Qilins’ eyes brightened as it looked at the five elements mountain with a drooling expression.

“Of course. You can cultivate here, and you can pick any divine object you want.

After receiving an answer, the Qilin was overjoyed. It walked around the immortal land, plucked a medicinal herb that contained life force, and ate it.

“Come over, it’s up to you to grasp this opportunity.”

!!

The Five Elements Mountain said to Lin Mo. In front of him, a door appeared in the fog of chaos.

It did not know what was inside, but the Five Elements Mountain did not want to lie to a junior like him.

After giving the Qilin some instructions, he stepped into the glowing door.

“My young friend, you’ve refined the world treasure, but you’ve also been contaminated by some unclean things.

“With your current cultivation level, you can’t withstand this karma. This space is made from the Red Lotus of Fire.”

“I can remove the karma on you. In the future, be careful when you cultivate.”

The voice of the Five Elements Mountain came from the void. Hearing this, Lin Mo’s heart fell to the bottom of the valley.

The Five Elements Mountain must be a high-levelled quasi-Emperor.

If it could see that Lin Mo had refined the world treasure, then the other quasi-Emperors outside could see it too.

The danger he was about to face was unimaginable.

“There’s also a Red Karmic Fire Lotus here. Does that mean that the other primordial supreme treasures also exist?” Lin mo muttered.

If one did not want to be contaminated by karma, they had to endure the Karmic Fire to wash away all karma.

Lin Mo finally understood what he was about to face.

If he wanted to prevent the karma from getting on his body, he had to withstand the roasting of the Karmic Fire. Only then could he wash everything off...

“Senior, the Qilin has also refined the Fruit of Fate. Can you give this opportunity to her?” Lin Mo quickly said.

He had the system space, so he might be given some missions in the future.

Even if he was in danger, he could still hide in the system space.

As long as he was not killed, he should be safe.

However, the Qilin was different. Although she was an auspicious beast, if she was targeted by a quasi-Emperor, she would probably be in danger...

“The Fruit of Fate belongs to the Qilin clan. There’s no need for the karmic fire to wash away the karma...”

After receiving his reply, Lin Mo did not say anything more and sat cross-legged in the space.

At the same time, he discovered that there were many other treasures here. There were some broken scrolls with strange runes drawn on them.

He was not going to be polite to them and took everything in the space in one go.

The system’s notification rang out at this moment.

[The text of the ancient era records the process of the Red Karmic Fire Lotus’s destruction and the place where the incomplete lotus body was sealed.]

There were some strange words on one of the scrolls. After the system's appraisal, he was shocked.

He never expected that the legendary Primordial Supreme Treasure, the Red Karmic Fire Lotus, would be destroyed.

"If I am able to find the incomplete lotus body and auction it off..."

He swallowed his saliva and felt that it was feasible, but he had to wait until he was stronger ...

"This opportunity is really great ..."

After taking a look at the other scrolls, the system discovered that the origin and activation method of the Red Karmic Fire Lotus were recorded on them.

It was a pity that Lin Mo did not understand the words of the ancient era. He could only understand some strange runes.

"I'll ask the Five Elements Mountain when I get out..." innread.com

After making up his mind, he began to observe his surroundings and found that there were already flames nearby.

The Red Karmic Fire Lotus spread and gradually filled the entire space.

He sat cross-legged in the center, and the clothes on his body were instantly burned. A wisp of flame attached to his body.

"Uh... It hurts..."

Even with his endurance, he still cried out in shock. The baptism of the Karmic Fire had seeped deep into his bones.

In order to wash away the karma, one's soul would have to be burned as well. This process was long and extremely painful...

"If I can't hold on, I will be swallowed by the Karmic Fire. Even the Hidden Dragon Rank jade seal can't save me..."

After understanding everything, Lin Mo steadied his mind and did not dare to delay.

After some injuries appeared on his body, he began to swallow spirit herbs. He swallowed a few earth rank spirit herbs in succession.

He recovered and continued to endure the baptism of the Karmic Fire.

“Then come on. Heaven and earth as the furnace, baptising in Karmic Fire, cut off karma, and burn the true self...” Lin Mo’s gaze was firm as he sat cross-legged in the space.

His entire body was enveloped by the Karmic Fire. Gradually, the Karmic Fire formed a fiery red lotus seat under his body.

That was the original form of the Red Lotus of fire. The flames had condensed into this shape and started to burn Lin Mo.

“Boom!”

Flames filled the air as thousands of runes gathered, turning into a sea of fire. It drowned everything and filled the entire space.

The runes merged into Lin Mo’s body along with the flames and exploded in his body like the sun, moon, and stars.

The Nirvana of a true phoenix was nothing more than this. The great Dao was singing in unison to celebrate the new life.

...

“Pfft!”

As the Karmic Fire burned, Lin Mo’s skin split open and blood flowed out. It floated in the air and was quickly evaporated.

One wound after another appeared, and he was soon completely disfigured by the burning of the Karmic Fire, looking extremely miserable.

The moment the blood flowed out, it was burned by the raging Karmic Firekarmic fire.

To Lin Mo, every moment of the Karmic Fire baptism was torture.

However, no matter how dangerous it was, no matter how painful it was, he could not escape. Being trapped in space, his body tempered by the Karmic Fire, and his soul would be destroyed at any moment.

“Buzz.”

Amidst the buzzing sounds, the Red Karmic Fire Lotus in Lin Mo’s lower body trembled slightly, releasing an even purer karmic fire.

In an instant, the great Dao rumbled, and this space completely boiled over.

Lin Mo could not feel the passage of time. He only felt that he was about to die and his life was in danger.

In the past, he had tried to burn himself with flames, and he had narrowly escaped death several times.

...

At the same time, his God Devouring Body was also refining his body, which made his endurance stronger.

He had thought that his cultivation in the future would not be so painful and he would not have to experience such dangerous situations.

Now that he was being baptized by the Karmic Fire, the flames formed by the Primordial Supreme Treasure could prevent karma from touching him.

This was why the pressure on him increased. Once he could not bear it, his body would explode and his soul would be destroyed. There would be no way to save him.

“Boom!”

Lin Mo’s heart suffered a heavy blow and almost exploded.

Waves of dizziness came from his brain, and he opened his eyes with difficulty. The karmic sinflames had not stopped and were still burning.

Countless runes fused into his body along with the Karmic Fire, instantly causing him to be severely injured.

His current situation could not be described with the word 'miserable'. If anyone were to see him, their scalps would definitely go numb.

What kind of cultivation would actually need to endure such a terrifying flame...

He took out a godly medicine from the system space and swallowed it. With the help of the Karmic Fire, he refined it and quickly absorbed it.

After recovering from his injuries, he sat cross-legged once more and endured the burning of the Karmic Fire in order to wash away the karma on his body.

The chirping of a few insects reverberated in his ears, and Lin Mo was jolted awake.

At his dantian, a tiny bug had appeared out of nowhere and was resisting the burning of the Karmic Fire.

However, how could such a terrifyingly high temperature be blocked so easily? The tiny insects were instantly turned into ashes...

"That is... What?"

Lin Mo felt a bone-chilling cold even though he was in a hot space.

He recalled the strange scene that had appeared when he was refining the Yin Yang Fruit.

An inexplicable enemy, the Qilin's prophecy, and the great trouble that had brought him back then.

!!

After a tough battle and narrowly escaping death, he defeated the two bodies controlled by the spirit devouring bugs.

That was the closest he had ever been to death. Facing an existence of the same combat strength as himself, he had almost died in battle.

“Were those Spirit Devouring Bugs?”

He had questions in his heart, but no one could give him an answer.

The Spirit Devouring Bugs were all burned by the Karmic Fire, leaving nothing behind. He couldn't even use the system to identify them.

Suddenly, he heard the sound of insects, which made his hair stand on end.

He quickly waved his hand and summoned a large amount of Karmic Fire to burn himself. The intense pain caused Lin Mo to scream out in pain.

He had to swallow three godly medicines in a row to avoid being burned to death.

Even so, he could still hear the sound of insects. It was very ear-piercing and terrifying.

“This voice, it came from my sea of consciousness...”

He was extremely shocked. The Karmic Fire did not miss out on this point, but because they were burning the soul, their power was weakened.

After all, they were giving him an opportunity and not trying to kill him.

It was difficult for the Karmic Fire to unleash their full power, causing only the chirping of insects to exist in his mind.

“How is this possible? When did I get infected? ”

He was horrified. What was hidden behind this? it made him feel terrified from the bottom of his heart.

After hesitating for a moment, Lin Mo gritted his teeth and took out a Yin True Fruit from the system space.

Speaking of which, he was lucky that the rebate from the auction happened to be this kind of divine tree.

The Yin True Fruit was a divine fruit that could heal one's soul. As long as one consumed it in time, it could prevent any hidden injuries.

After swallowing it in two mouthfuls, Lin Mo summoned the Karmic Fire and injected them into his soul.

“Ah ...”

In an instant, Lin Mo hugged his head and howled. He fell from the lotus seat formed by the fire and rolled on the ground.

A burning sensation came from his soul, and an intense pain as if he was being pricked by needles assaulted him.

This feeling made him want to tear his head apart. It was too unbearable...

After his scream, the sound of insects came. At this moment, he felt it very clearly.

In the depths of his sea of consciousness, there was a Spirit Devouring Bug that was the same as the one he had seen before.

The Spirit Devouring Bug had no way of resisting the Karmic Fire. It did not even leave behind ashes.

“Has it ended...”

Lin Mo, who was breathing heavily with difficulty, sat up. The pain and dizziness in his head were still present.

Sensing that the Karmic Fire around him was subsiding, Lin Mo heaved a long sigh of relief. Was the painful baptism finally coming to an end...

“Crack...”

The space around them trembled, showing signs of shattering.

The Karmic Fire had completely dissipated. Lin Mo saw a fiery-red lotus seed in the shattered space.

Its light dimmed, as if it had completed its mission and dissipated.

He felt dizzy again, and after the world spun around him, he felt that his surroundings had changed.

When he opened his eyes again, he realized that he had already left the space formed by the red karmic fire lotus seed.

In front of him, the Qilin was sitting cross-legged on a green stone, cultivating seriously.

“Your perseverance is not bad, and the courage to throw everything away in the end is also very good ...”

The Five Elements Mountain’s voice was full of praise. It was paying close attention to everything that was happening in this space.

“Senior, aren’t the Spirit Devouring Bugs extinct?” Lin Mo asked the question in his heart.

The Five Elements Mountain, who could not read Lin Mo’s mind, asked, “How did you know these are Spirit Devouring Bugs?”

There was some doubt in its voice. This kind of creature that had gone extinct in ancient times should not have been recorded.

Even it was told by the divine beast Qilin that such an existence existed when it was growing up...

“I saw it in some ancient books.” Lin Mo made up a lie.

The Five Elements Mountain did not ask any more questions and told them everything they knew.

Spirit Devouring Bugs were not tolerated by heaven and earth, because the existence of such living beings was born to be the enemy of the great Dao.

Their goal was to devour everything and cause the entire universe to fall into chaos.

No one knew why these living beings were like this and what benefits they would gain from falling into chaos.

“Don’t ask any more questions. We just got rid of them, so don’t get infected in the short term,” the Five Elements Mountain warned.

At the same time, he urged Lin Mo to leave. He had given what he needed to give, and the rest of the opportunities had to be left for those who came later.

“Senior, aren’t you going to consider leaving the mountain? I’m planning to establish a force in the northern lands. Do you want to come?” Lin Mo asked.

...

However, the Five Elements Mountain ignored his invitation.

“Since you’ve come all the way here, why don’t you give me some opportunities?” Lin Mo spoke again, his eyes fixed on the divine medicine in the immortal land.

“Little brat, you’ve already gained enough benefits. These are the hope of the future generations. You have to keep them.” The five elements mountain finally spoke.

“There are so many godly medicines here. After I gather them, they’ll be fully grown in a thousand years. I don’t think it’ll take too much time, right?” Lin mo shamelessly claimed that he had the God devouring body and that he needed a lot of resources to cultivate.

Since this place was an opportunity for future generations, he should have a share.

“No, many people will come to this place. These godly medicines will have to be distributed.” The Five Elements Mountain still refused.

“Then, for the sake of the Qilin, I can feel that you must have received a favor from the Qilin’s mother. You might even be her disciple or something. Can you take care of little junior sister?” Lin mo still did not give up.

“That damn girl has already picked more than twenty stalks. She has been eating the divine herbs as if they were her meals during your baptism...”

The Five Elements Mountain could not stand it anymore and cursed angrily. Its territory had been destroyed by the Qilin.

“Give me a few more?” Lin Mo laughed and said.

“At most three...” The Five Elements Mountain nodded and finally agreed...

...

Hearing this, Lin Mo was overjoyed and began to search the herb field.

Sensing Lin Mo’s aura approaching, the Qilin opened her eyes and exited her cultivation state.

“Brother Lin Mo, you’ve finally come out of seclusion. Let’s go. I’ll be annoyed to death if we stay any longer...”

The Qilin hugged Lin Mo’s arm and shook it slightly as she complained.

After hearing the reason, Lin Mo did not know whether to laugh or cry.

It turned out that the Five Elements Mountain had agreed to let the Qilin use any divine medicine here because they wanted her to cultivate well.

In the end, this Qilin ate the godly medicine like it was her rice and gobbled up a lot of good things.

The Five Elements Mountain did not allow her to pick any more, and persuaded the Qilin not to be too greedy and to leave some opportunities for the people who came later...

where can we find the quasi-celestial medicine? let’s go pick three and leave.

Lin Mo did not dare to speak ill of the Five Elements Mountain with the Qilin. He planned to pick the three precious herbs as soon as possible, in case the five elements mountain went back on their word in anger.

“You’re not allowed to pick the quasi-immortal herbs.”

Just as the Qilin was about to take Lin Mo there, the Five Elements Mountain’s roar was heard.

Chapter 753 - 753 System Mission

753 System Mission

After a wave of spatial fluctuations, three divine medicines appeared in front of Lin Mo. One was a tier 9 heaven-grade while the other two were tier 8.

The Five Elements Mountain had forcefully sent them out just as they had put them away. Before they left, Lin Mo even heard the Five Elements Mountain cursing...

“Where is this place? How stingy. There are so many divine medicines and immortal medicines, but they only gave us three...”

The Qilin looked around and found that she did not know the way, so she complained again.

“Let’s go first. Where’s the divine medicine you have? Let’s hold an auction nearby.”

Lin Mo laughed. There were more than 20 divine medicines on the Qilin. With the Qilin’s personality, she would not pick anything that was not of a high grade.

If he was lucky, he could get at least a dozen quasi-immortal medicines...

“Cough, cough, here...”

The Qilin patted its round little belly and smiled a little awkwardly.

“You glutton ...”

When he heard that the Qilin had eaten more than 20 divine medicines, Lin Mo almost fainted.

That was at least ten quasi-immortal herbs... innread.com

It was gone, it was gone just like that. This was simply... What a waste...

“Hey, don’t we still have a drop of Qilin blood in our hands? it can be the finale of the auction.”

Sensing the ferocity in Lin Mo's eyes, the Qilin hurriedly said, even though it was her mother's blood.

However, since it was stored in such a way, it must be left for future generations.

Lin Mo shook his head in anger when he saw the Qilin's carefree attitude.

"Let's go. Let's leave this area first ..."

According to their calculations, they had been in the Five Elements Mountain for a month.

The news of this place had already spread, and many people had obtained quasi-immortal grade treasures.

Tang Ru, the seventh princess of the Holy Blood Water Dragon Clan, had obtained a drop of heart blood of an ancient true dragon...

This was a treasure that was infinitely close to the immortal-grade, and it could make her bloodline purer.

Perhaps one day, she could really shed her water dragon body and achieve the body of a true dragon...

"The true dragon must be a Great Emperor. The blood of a Great Emperor's heart is such a great opportunity..."

Lin Mo sighed. Tang Ru must have been the first to enter the Five Elements Mountain. She had searched for many times and finally found a treasure that she was satisfied with.

"There's a city up ahead, it's newly built ..."

The Qilin pointed to the front. After the two appeared, they immediately attracted the attention of countless people.

Some people recalled the rumor that someone had used a Memory Crystal to record the scene of Lin Mo obtaining the treasure.

The War Demon Spear pierced through the ground and obtained a drop of blood.

Needless to say, this must be the blood essence of some terrifying existence that Lin Mo had obtained. Such an opportunity was enviable...

“There’s a branch of the Dragon Palace here. Should we set up a branch? ”
The Qilin pointed to the front and said.

There was a huge Dragon Palace there, and many people were gathered there. Tang Ru was collecting divine medicines to refine the drop of true dragon’s heart blood ...

“Let’s make a temporary one. It’s enough to hold an auction.” Lin Mo chuckled.

There was indeed a building opposite the Dragon Palace, but no one would do business here. After all, they could not compete with the people from the Dragon Palace.

“Fellow Daoists, please help to publicize that I will be holding an auction here in two hours.”

Lin Mo occupied a building to attract the attention of the crowd and prepare for the auction.

The living beings of the various races had a good understanding of his reputation.

After all, the news of the Quasi-Immortal Martial Arts Technique being auctioned back then had spread throughout the entire ancient battlefield.

Everyone knew that Lin Mo would not cheat people during the auction and that he had many treasures on him.

Thus, in less than an hour, the entire pavilion was filled to the brim.

In order to accommodate more people, the private rooms that had been built were also dismantled, just to accommodate more people...

“Everyone, please be quiet. The auction will begin immediately.”

On the stage, Lin Mo walked out and looked at the crowd in surprise.

In just an hour, so many people had come. If he had known earlier, he would have chosen the bigger pavilion ...

The crowd quickly quieted down and focused their attention on Lin Mo. They wanted to see what kind of treasure would be auctioned this time.

“This is an incomplete set of Formation Flags. The complete version has five flags, and two of them are missing. However, it can still be used to set up the Five Elements Yin Yang Formation. It can mess up Yin and Yang, fix the five elements, and destroy everything.”

“It’s a pity that it’s incomplete, and the strength of the formation is limited. Interested friends can bid.”

When he was tidying up the system space, he remembered that there was such a set of Formation Flags.

He had snatched it from Gongsun Wenhao and it was of no use to him.

Now that he was auctioning it, he could take it out. It could be considered a good start.

As soon as he finished speaking, everyone was shocked. This kind of array must be of a very high grade.

The complete version might be close to the quasi-immortal level. It was very rare and worth the price.

The atmosphere of the auction suddenly became heated. Many people started bidding, and they were all array masters with a certain level of attainment in array techniques.

They loved these ancient Formation Flags the most.

...

There would usually be the existence of formations on it, which had high research value.

“I’ll pay half a piece of Blazing Yang Jade Essence.” Someone had made a bid, and he could no longer hold back.

“You dare to bid for a mere half a piece of Blazing Yang Jade Essence? I’m afraid this is not even enough for the starting price. I’ll offer two tier 5 heaven-grade divine medicines.

“I’ll offer three ...”

There was a lot of noise and many people were bidding.

In the end, this set of incomplete array flags was bought by a mysterious woman for a heaven grade level seven divine pill.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the Incomplete Five Spirit Formation Flag.]

[Successfully triggered 5000-fold auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Complete Five Spirit Formation Flag.]

After obtaining the rebate treasure, Lin Mo continued with the auction of the next item.

“The second item is a tier 8 heaven-grade divine medicine, the Gold Spirit Fruit.”

...

“Divine medicines are rare, so don’t miss it.”

Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction. Immediately, more than ten people stood up, interested in the Gold Spirit Fruit.

“Hehe, you do have quite a lot of treasures on you ...”

The door of the attic was kicked open roughly, and a group of people walked in.

Some creatures were about to curse, but when they saw who it was, they could not help but shrink their necks and did not dare to speak.

“Behemoth people, you still dare to come and find trouble?”

The Qilin, who had been waiting backstage, walked out and stared at the shentu person at the front.

“But that’s good too. Last time, you only left an arm. It wasn’t enough to eat. This time, you can leave all of it ...”

She smiled slightly, revealing her cute little canine teeth and licking her lips.

To say such words with such a cute appearance, all of the living beings participating in the auction were dumbfounded.

This was a purple-gold behemoth, an existence with the noblest bloodline in the behemoth clan. In the eyes of the Qilin, it was just food?

[System mission: someone has been detected to sabotage the auction. Please kill the person who sabotaged the auction so that the auction can proceed smoothly.]

[Upon completion of the mission, you will receive a chance to receive the Holy Spirit Empowerment.]

The system’s notification rang. The system mission that had not been triggered for a long time had finally arrived. It asked him to kill the people who were causing trouble.

These behemoth people were all on the must-kill list...

“Qilin, watch the place. I will deal with these people...”

“You’re in the limelight again ...”

The Qilin was very displeased. Every time they encountered danger, Lin Mo would always be at the forefront to block them. It was as if she was a weak little girl ...

“Be good, don’t let anyone cause trouble here.”

Lin Mo chuckled. He did not need the help of the Qilin to deal with the behemoth tribe.

!!

The only thing he needed to worry about was that the Purple-Gold Behemoth would escape.

If a top expert was determined to leave, it would not be easy for him to make him stay.

“Although I was tricked by you last time, I sensed it after the battle and broke through again. Today, you will die without a doubt.”

Shentu Zhe laughed. He was extremely confident. At this moment, people could clearly see his cultivation level. He was actually a fifth step ruler.

Some people looked at Lin Mo worriedly.

They all knew that it was very difficult for the God Devouring Body to break through to the next realm. Otherwise, Lin Mo would not have thought about auctioning resources everywhere he went.

Now that the Shentu Zhe had broken through two realms, Lin Mo was in danger.

“I still think that Shentu Zhe will not gain any advantage. Don’t forget, the Qilin is still there.”

Someone reminded them. It was only then that people remembered that even if Lin Mo was no match for them, there was still the Qilin.

This was a divine beast with unparalleled combat strength. Although the Purple-Gold Behemoth was strong, it was still a little inferior to the Qilin.

“Fight from afar. I alone am enough to kill you today.” Lin Mo walked out, wanting to leave the city.

“If you want to watch the show, you can stay here.”

Qilin stood on the stage and took Lin Mo’s place to knock on the auction hammer.

Then, a green light appeared between her eyebrows, and a vertical eye slowly opened.

This was her Eye of Martial Arts. Ever since she had cultivated it, no one had been able to force her to use it.

Now that he was watching the battle outside the city, he could use it to save the people outside from being affected by the aftermath of the battle.

“Haha, how considerate. They even provide spectator services.” One of them laughed loudly. He had originally wanted to go out and watch the battle.

Only after seeing the Qilin tear open space and use the Eye of Martial Arts to project the battle outside the city did the people sit down to watch.

“That’s right. It’s a power formed by a few supreme experts in the ancient battlefield. The Molin Chamber of Commerce’s service is the best. Many living beings agreed. They were at ease because he had protected the auctioneer during the previous auction.

“Boom!”

There was a violent explosion outside the city, and everyone in the city was in an uproar.

When some of the living beings heard that Lin Mo had fought with Shentu Zhe, they put down what they were doing and went out of the city to watch the battle.

“They’re too powerful. Just a casual exchange of blows from them is enough to block my strongest attack ...”

“Is this a battle between peerless geniuses?”

Outside the city, the behemoth clan had formed a battle circle with the battle flag in their hands. Their goal was naturally to prevent Lin Mo from escaping.

At the same time, they also wanted to avoid making too much noise and affecting the cities not far away, or they would offend many people.

“Boom!”

There was a lot of noise from the battle. The two of them did not talk much, and they began to fight the most intense battle on their bodies.

It was as if two meteors had collided in the sea of stars, instantly erupting with a dazzling light.

“Boom!”

The two figures fell to the ground at the same time, like stars falling from the sky. In an instant, the mountains collapsed and the earth cracked. The space shattered in an instant and continued to spread.

The people who were watching the battle from afar were all stunned. They looked at the scene in front of them in disbelief.

This was only a single collision between their physical bodies, yet half of the mountain range had crumbled. The power was too great.

“You’ve also broken through!” Shentu Zhe was shocked and said.

As he spoke, the purple-gold light on his body shone brightly. The Purple-Gold Behemoth bloodline was used to the extreme.

The last time he had faced Lin Mo, he had not been able to fully unleash the power of his Purple-Gold Behemoth bloodline because his realm was not high enough.

“bBt so what? the God devouring body doesn’t directly increase one’s combat power. It’s more of an aid.” Shentu Zhe said with a calm expression. He walked toward Lin Mo and extended his palm.

The arm shapeshifted and pressed down on Lin Mo. He wanted everyone to see Lin Mo being suppressed by him.

The purple-gold rune light spread and curled around his arm, increasing his power and adding a sense of majesty.

At this moment, everyone felt as if it was not an arm, but a heavenly sting that came down as if the sky was falling.

“Whoosh!”

In the face of such a terrifying attack, Lin Mo's expression remained calm. After a quick glance, he rushed forward.

Golden symbols flickered on his hands, and golden feathers appeared on his arms. In the next moment, they transformed into Kun Peng Claws.

"How can you contend against me with your firefly-like strength?" Shentu Zhe sneered, and the speed at which his arm descended increased.

However, to everyone's surprise.

Lin Mo's seemingly harmless Kun Peng Claws contained unimaginable power.

"Pfft!"

The Kun Peng's Claws left a bloody wound on the Purple-Gold Behemoth's arm, and the runes on it slowly melted.

Immediately after, the Kun Peng Wings on Lin Mo's back spread open. He stepped into the void, and the Qilin mark condensed.

With the Qilin Steps, he took a step forward and arrived in front of Shentu Zhe. He kicked his face fiercely.

...

The powerful force caused Shentu Zhe face to turn pale. Blood flowed from the corner of his mouth as he flew back while screaming.

Shentu Zhe was kicked in the face. His expression was a little stiff, and blood oozed out as he flew backwards.

He could not accept such an outcome and even felt insulted.

He was a Purple-Gold Behemoth, an existence with an extremely noble bloodline among demonic beasts. He only needed to evolve one more time and he would be comparable to a divine beast.

The first direct confrontation after the power of his bloodline was stomped on his face by his opponent ...

How could he accept this?

He was a one-in-a-million genius in the Behemoth clan, and his bloodline was pure. He was known as a legend who had the potential to become a Great Emperor.

With this status, his confidence reached its peak.

However, all of his pride had been thwarted after he met Lin Mo. This time, he had even been kicked in the face...

“Shentu Zhe has underestimated the enemy. He thinks that he can suppress Lin Mo...”

“That’s right. The power of the Kun Peng Claw is restrained. When it explodes in an instant, its might is even greater...”

...

Many of the living beings were engaged in a heated discussion. Some of the more observant ones were able to analyze the crux of this battle.

At the same time, Shentu Zhe, who had regained his senses, could still feel a sharp pain on his face.

Lin Mo had used the Qilin steps in this kick. Although he had only taken one step, it was already very powerful.

After hearing the discussions of the living beings around him, anger, shame, and cold killing intent gathered. At this moment, he erupted with his strongest combat power. He only had one goal in mind, and that was to tear Lin Mo apart completely ...

“Roar!”

He roared at the sky and formed a special rune with his hands. The moment the purple light bloomed, a terrifying spiritual Qi burst out from his body.

“Receive my wrath.”

At this moment, Shentu Zhe had already reached the sixth step of the ruler realm and his breath was long.

A berserk ability unique to the behemoth clan. Greatly increases one’s strength for a certain period of time.

Most importantly, the higher the bloodline, the less negative the effects would be after the upgrade.

With his Purple-Gold Behemoth bloodline, there was basically no effect after the fury ended. He could even consume his own blood essence to activate it again.

“Bang!”

He punched out, and even the space cracked. As he attacked, the world seemed to respond, building up momentum for him.

His other hand formed a seal, and as the seal condensed, the surrounding spiritual Qi gradually became violent. Broken stones flew into the air, and the surrounding earth elements gradually increased.

More and more cracks appeared in the space, spreading out.

!!

“Boom!”

Lin Mo did not dodge and chose to face it head-on.

Kun Peng Runes appeared on his right palm. The laws of Yin and Yang continued to intertwine as they collided with Shentu Zhe’s fist.

A series of explosions rang out from this place like thunder.

Everyone watching the battle were shocked, and they all stepped back. The behemoth clansmen were sent flying.

The array that they had set up did not have any effect and was destroyed by the aftermath of the battle between the two.

Fortunately, the two of them had moved further and further away from the city. Otherwise, this place would have been completely destroyed.

At this time, no one dared to go down and check, so they could only watch the battle from a distance.

The difference was too great, so once they were affected, they would not even be left with ashes.

On the battlefield, the two figures continued to cross paths. Every time they met, it was a violent collision.

Countless runes filled the sky, shattering the space and stirring up the void.

A turbulent current emerged. This was a void turbulence that could devour everything, condensed from extremely chaotic spatial fluctuations.

One could only imagine how intense the battle between the two was, and how much damage they had caused.

Finally, the two of them separated. They did not continue to fight, but stirred the void.

After the chaos, the space crack was gradually repaired by this world, and the void turbulence was also calmed.

Unfortunately, this peace did not last.

They once again engaged in a great battle. The clash between the purple light and the golden light once again tore through space, erupting with unparalleled power.

Shentu Zhe's eyes were cold as he looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

He was already three steps higher than Lin Mo by relying on his bloodline.

Even with such a huge advantage, he still could not kill Lin Mo.

He used a bronze battle spear, which exuded an ancient fighting spirit.

Unfortunately, Lin Mo also had the War Demon Spear, which was refined by the Kun Peng. It was one of the most powerful magic weapons under the quasi-celestial weapon.

In another battle, Shentu Zhe still did not gain any advantage.

On the contrary, due to the delay, the realm that he had raised with his bloodline had fallen.

Although he was still two steps higher than Lin Mo, it caused the pressure on Lin Mo to decrease greatly. He began to suppress Shentu Zhe.

“How is this possible? God Devouring Body... Is it really stronger than my purple-gold bloodline?” He was unwilling to accept this and did not want to believe this scene.

According to historical records, the human race's strongest physique was comparable to a divine beast's when it came to cultivation.

However, the Purple-Gold Behemoth bloodline was not among the bloodlines was not one of the strongest bloodlines within the Demon Clan...

“You place too much importance on cultivation, constitution, and bloodline.” Lin Mo shook his head and said with a calm expression.

Hearing this, the Shentu Zhe expression darkened. He felt that Lin Mo was humiliating him.

“Forget it. Why am I telling you this ...”

After coming back to his senses, Lin Mo chuckled. If the Shentu Zhe had been enlightened because of his words, he would have been helping the enemy...

“Hmph, don't think that you can defeat me just because you have the God Devouring Body,” Shentu Zhe said. The Purple-Gold Behemoth phantom behind him spat out a purple-gold rune.

“Boom!”

The Kun Peng Runes dissolved it and suppressed it.

The two of them once again engaged in a battle. Shentu Zhe transformed into his true form. Endless purple light flickered as he stared at Lin Mo with his scarlet eyes.

“What a powerful bloodline power! The behemoth clan is indeed worthy of the title of dragon eater. The purple gold behemoth is probably comparable to a divine beast.”

In the distance, the creatures watching the battle were confused. They all felt that the Shentu Zhe’s bloodline was not weaker than that of the Qilin.

Although they all knew that the title of Dragon Eater meant that it probably ate Sub-Dragons.

However, since ancient times, anything that had the slightest connection to dragons was a symbol of the strong.

For example, the powerful race of the Demon State, the Holy Blood Water Dragon Clan, even had rumors that the body of a true dragon was buried underground.

“Don’t even think about it. The bloodline of a Qilin is one in a million. It’s a top-notch existence among the demonic beasts. The purple-gold behemoth can’t compare to it...”

The sounds of discussion rose and fell. However, it had to be said that Shentu Zhe was indeed a top genius among the demonic beasts.

The battle with Lin Mo was so intense, and the commotion was getting bigger and bigger, but the two of them still had not used their strongest trump cards.

“So what if you have a heaven-defying physique? my cultivation level is two steps higher than yours. This time, I will definitely kill you!”

Shentu Zhe roared angrily. The huge purple-gold behemoth roared towards the sky, giving off a deafening roar.

In an instant, the earth quaked and the mountains shook. This roar was even more powerful than sound wave martial arts, causing the creatures who were watching the battle from afar to feel dizzy.

“It’s too terrifying. There’s clearly not much difference in our cultivation levels...” Some people were crying.

“Don’t even think about it. This kind of genius is one in ten thousand. His future goal is to become a Great Emperor. As long as his Dao heart isn’t destroyed, he’ll almost certainly become a quasi-Emperor.

“That’s right. The future of the northern land will be ruled by these people...”

...

“Roar!”

The purple-gold behemoth roared in pain, and a golden roc fell from the clouds in the horizon.

The sharp claws pierced through the behemoth’s back, and blood gushed out.

“Let’s stop here! You can go now.”

Lin Mo shouted coldly, and the great roc fell to the ground. In an instant, a vast ocean was formed, and a huge black fish swam in the sea.

The fish tail swayed, and the water hit 3000 miles, drowning the purple-gold behemoth.

The earth elements in the surroundings were drowned out as the Dao laws of Yin and Yang converged. Lin Mo transformed to his human form, holding a sharp sword formed from golden wings.

As the sword beam slashed down, the huge meteorites that Shentu Zhe had just formed by circulating the earth element were cut into pieces.

In the end, there was a loud boom as the earth and the void exploded.

“Sun and Moon in the Same Sky.”

Lin Mo shouted. At that moment, he seemed to have turned into the sun, illuminating everything and destroying everything.

...

This was a shocking scene, and all the living beings were shocked.

Was this the supreme technique of the Kun Peng? The martial arts that it had evolved into was so terrifying that it was surrounded by the extreme Dao of Yin and Yang.

Shentu Zhe chanted an incantation and quickly formed a seal with his hands after transforming into a human. A powerful fluctuation spread around his body.

“Ancestral Spirit, please!”

With a furious roar, the shadow of a behemoth appeared behind him again. He thought it was still a purple-gold behemoth, but Lin Mo felt that the aura of the shadow was different.

“Ultimate control of the earth element. There are also some destructive fluctuations...” Lin Mo muttered to himself.

The Dao Law of Destruction was an existence that was not inferior to the Dao law of Yin Yang.

Besides, that behemoth was different from the purple-gold behemoth.

In particular, there was a single horn on his forehead that was purple-gold in color. The runes on his body were also very terrifying.

“It seems like the Purple-Gold Behemoth isn’t the ultimate bloodline of the behemoth race...”

Lin Mo mumbled. However, this was no longer important. Today, no matter what tricks Shentu Zhe had up his sleeve, he had to send him out, even if Lin Mo had to call the Qilin over to gang up on him...

The shadow of the Kun Peng appeared beside him as Lin Mo unleashed the Kun Peng Art to the extreme.

At the same time, he urged the power of the God Devouring body to create a black hole next to him. There was nothing inside the black hole, but it could swallow everything.

Lin Mo's entire aura changed after he used two extremely powerful forces.

“Swish!”

The Kun Peng Wings on his back spread open and he pounced over.

The Kun Peng was also fighting with the Ancestral Spirit that Shentu Zhe had summoned. With the support of the God Devouring Body, it was completely suppressing the other party.

“Bang!”

In the end, Shentu Zhe was no match for Lin Mo and was hit by the sharp sword, leaving a bloody sword mark on his body.

He flew backward and coughed up a large amount of blood. His face was pale and he was heavily injured.

The bloodline of the Purple-Gold Behemoth allowed him to summon the strongest Behemoth Ancestral Spirit.

Even so, it was still no match for Lin Mo and was defeated. The Ancestral Spirit could not withstand the Kun Peng's attacks and was completely torn apart.

“You think you're worthy of being my enemy?” Lin Mo shouted, deliberately provoking Shentu Zhe.

He was preparing for a killing move. Runes interweaved between his hands and continuously gathered. A strong wind whistled as eight wind whirlwinds formed from the condensation of wind elements.

With a wave of his hand, astral winds flew out. The martial arts technique that Shentu Zhe was still preparing was pierced through, and his entire body flew out horizontally.

Lin Mo chased after him. The astral winds continued to attack, preventing Shentu Zhe from using his martial arts.

With a kick, he used Qilin Steps to take two steps forward. Before the other party could dodge, he ruthlessly kicked Shentu Zhe's chest.

With a boom, the latter was sent flying again, and the injuries on his body became even more serious.

"You should be glad that this is the ancient battlefield. Otherwise, you would have really died..."

Lin Mo sneered and continued to attack. At the same time, the astral winds around his body found an opportunity to heavily injure Shentu Zhe again.

"But it makes sense. If someone else was outside, you might not dare to fight me alone, and you would ask the elders of the Behemoth clan to get you the Kun Peng Art and the Qilin blood."

Lin Mo continued to speak as he punched Shentu Zhe.

"You said that I have the God Devouring body, but what about you? You have the Behemoth bloodline and a powerful background. Without that, you don't deserve to be my enemy."

After a series of attacks, the Eight Wind Chimes of the Eight Demonic Puppets were used up.

Under Lin Mo's repeated attacks, Shentu Zhe was also seriously injured. His body flew hundreds of miles away and crashed into a mountain.

"Don't let him escape ..."

Lin Mo flapped his Kun Peng Wings and arrived in front of the Shent Tu at an extreme speed.

As for the rest of the spectators, their worldview had already been refreshed. At this moment, they were like wooden sculptures, not moving at all.

Especially the members of the Behemoth Clan, they could not believe it.

How could it be like this? Shentu Zhe had been defeated just like that. He had been defeated so thoroughly. In the end, he had been beaten until he had no power to fight back.

“The God Devouring Body has such terrifying power. It’s hard to imagine.” Some creatures cried out in surprise and finally came to their senses.

All of this was too unbelievable. Shentu Zhe was one of the top geniuses of the demon race and was said to be able to become a Great Emperor in the future.

However, he was defeated, and he was defeated by the weakening human race.

This was hard for many living beings to accept. Only the human race broke out in cheers.

No matter what, Lin Mo was still a human and one of the future hopes of the human race.

“Ah...”

Shentu Zhe let out an angry howl. He stared at Lin Mo, but he felt a sense of powerlessness.

In the previous battle, his storage ring had been snatched away by Lin Mo.

Although he resisted with all his might and even destroyed the treasures inside, Lin Mo still managed to save some of them.

When he saw a golden jade talisman land in Lin Mo’s hands, he knew that he could not escape.

The ruins and opportunities that followed the ancient battlefield would have nothing to do with him...

” Tier 9 heaven-grade Realm-Breaking Talisman. It can tear space and travel across ten states. It can be used once.”

The system’s voice rang out in Lin Mo’s mind. The rune he had just obtained was actually a Realm-Breaking Talisman.

He still remembered that Xia You had given him a Realm-Breaking Talisman, which was a quasi-immortal grade talisman.

Once it was used, one could instantly enter the void and cross hundreds of continents in a flash.

“If it’s auctioned, I’ll might be lucky enough to get another quasi-immortal Realm-Breaking Talisman...” Lin Mo smiled in satisfaction. He did not expect to get such a benefit...

“Alright, you should be on your way.”

Holding the War Demon Spear in his hand, Lin Mo stabbed out with the spear, piercing through Shentu Zhe’s forehead.

“The next time I find an opportunity, you won’t have a jade talisman to save your life.” Lin mo said as he watched Shentu Zhe’s spirit fly away.

He wanted to stop him, but he did not have the means to do so. Otherwise, he would definitely make this guy die.

“Congratulations to the host for successfully completing the mission and receiving the Holy Spirit Empowerment.”

The system’s voice rang out again. Before Lin Mo could say anything, the world shook.

The surrounding chaotic mist appeared and covered everything. All living beings could no longer see Lin Mo’s figure.

Even the Qilin, who had been using her Eye of Martial Arts to check, could not see anything.

“I thought it could be stored ...”

...

Lin Mo was helpless, but he knew that time was precious. He sat down cross-legged and began to cultivate.

Fortunately, he had the God Devouring Body. After using the God Devouring Technique, his cultivation speed was very fast.

A beam of holy light shot up into the sky. From the firmament, the extremely rich Spiritual Qi of heaven and earth spread and poured into Lin Mo's body.

“Buzz ...”

This time, the God Devouring body was extremely active and devoured endless energy.

His aura was also rising, and in less than ten minutes, he had broken through to the fourth step of ruler realm.

It did not stop. The Holy Spirit Empowerment was still going on.

During this period of time, the living beings outside were already in an uproar.

“This is impossible ...”

The most painful ones were the Behemoth clan. They could not believe this scene. Shentu Zhe was the pride of their clan.

How could such a person be defeated? This kind of result was difficult for them to accept.

...

“A top genius has been defeated and lost the opportunity of the ancient battlefield. Can Shentu Zhe still catch up?” Someone muttered.

In the past, many of the younger generation had suppressed their cultivation in order to enter the ancient battlefield, not allowing themselves to break through.

The goal was to obtain the opportunities inside. Now that Shentu Zhe had been eliminated, the previous suppression had failed. The gap between him and his peers would only grow bigger and bigger, and in the end, he would be left in the dust ...

“Boom, boom, boom...”

In the sky, thunderclouds rolled and strange phenomena appeared frequently, as if the heavens were angry.

At that moment, the mist that enveloped Lin mo had dissipated. His Holy Spirit Empowerment had ended.

“I think this is equivalent to feeding me an immortal medicine...”

Lin Mo muttered to himself. The benefits of the Holy Spirit Empowerment were simply too great.

The God Devouring body had eaten its fill, and two-thirds of the energy had been devoured by it.

Lin Mo had only absorbed one-third of it.

Even so, he had broken through two levels and reached the fifth step of ruler realm.

“I’ll have more of these random missions in the future...” He was full of anticipation, but he soon looked at the sky with a strange expression.

There, heavenly thunder rumbled continuously, and all kinds of strange phenomena appeared.

Lin Mo and the other living beings could vaguely sense that the surrounding Dao laws were transmitting anger...

“Strange, how did this phenomenon appear?”

Some creatures were puzzled. Some even thought that it was because Lin Mo had killed Shentu Zhe that the heavenly Dao had taken pity on the Behemoth clan.

Some people said that the God Devouring Body was too overpowered and that there was no bottleneck for him, which angered the heavens...

Everyone had their own opinions, but Lin Mo frowned. He felt that this phenomenon was related to him.

!!

“System, will there be any strange phenomena after the Holy Spirit Empowerment?” Lin Mo asked in his heart.

“The Holy Spirit empowerment has already ended, so there won’t be any additional abnormalities.”

Lin Mo could not help but feel worried after getting an answer.

The strange phenomenon in the sky continued for a while before gradually dissipating.

Some of the creatures were still discussing the battle between Lin Mo and Shentu Zhe.

On his way back, Lin Mo met other Behemoth clansmen, but he showed no mercy and killed them all.

When he returned to the city, the auction was still going on. Although he was interrupted, he had many good things on him.

“Everyone, the disturbance has been removed. The auction for the heaven-grade tier 8 Gold Spirit Fruit will now begin. Those who are interested can start bidding.

Lin Mo struck the auction hammer, and the auction continued.

“One heaven-grade tier 8 divine pill.”

“I’ll add three more heaven-grade tier 7 divine pills.”

“Two heaven-grade tier 8 divine pills...”

There were many people bidding for it, and the price rose one after another. In the blink of an eye, the price had already risen to three heaven-grade tier 8 divine pills.

Even so, there were still three people bidding, unwilling to give up.

“Damn it, the people in the Dragon Palace have been collecting resources like crazy recently...”

Some people murmured. Some creatures had already sensed that Tang Ru was going to refine that drop of True Dragon’s Heart Blood.

It was not easy to refine the blood of an Emperor-level True Dragon.

“Since no one is bidding, this Gold Spirit Fruit belongs to the Dragon Palace.”

Lin Mo was not interested in whoever got the divine fruit, as long as they could afford it in the end.

After the transaction was completed, the system’s notification sound rang out. Because of the three heaven-grade tier 8 divine pills, the price had already slightly exceeded the Golden Spirit Fruit.

As such, the return this time was not considered high. It was a heaven-grade tier 9 divine fruit.

He secretly sent them to the back, causing the sulking Qilin to instantly smile.

“Everyone, don’t be anxious. There’s still one last auction item. This is an extremely rare treasure. I have just obtained it ...”

Lin Mo chuckled. The Golden Spirit fruit had originally been the highlight of this auction. However, after killing Shentu Zhe, he had gained something new.

A golden jade talisman appeared, and in an instant, a golden light brightened, illuminating everything.

Some of the living beings were shocked. After recognizing what it was, they were even more shocked.

All the living beings present had watched the battle and knew how Lin Mo had obtained the world breaking talisman.

Some people swallowed their saliva, drooling.

Some people had even started to make promises to the people around them, asking to borrow heavenly materials and earthly treasures for the auction.

Having this Realm-Breaking Talisman was equivalent to having a life.

If one used it when they were in danger, even a Supreme Saint would not be able to stop them. They could only use the spatial ripples to find them.

Shentu Zhe had been too confident and did not think that he would lose. Therefore, he had not considered using the Realm-Breaking Talisman.

Unfortunately, Lin Mo had already snatched the talisman away when he wanted to use it.

After losing this escape method, he could only be sent out of the ancient battlefield and lose all the opportunities that would follow...

"I'm sure everyone has seen it, so I won't introduce it any further. Heaven-grade tier 9 Realm-Breaking Talisman, bartering. You can start the bidding."

After the auction hammer was knocked, even the people of the Dragon Palace were tempted.

After a brief discussion, they took out their communication jade talismans and asked the people above if they wanted to bid.

"Owner Lin, I have an ancient sacrificial altar here. I guarantee that it's worth enough. How about I exchange it for this Realm- Breaking Talisman?"

Before anyone made a bid, Lin Mo heard a voice transmission.

It was obvious that the other party was unwilling to reveal the fact that he had a supreme treasure and wanted to make a secret exchange.

Lin Mo was a little tempted.

The ancient battlefield was filled with ancient objects. This altar might be able to earn him a huge profit.

Of course, it was also possible that the altar had nothing...

"I'm sorry, but I still want the divine herbs, divine fruits, and divine pills." Lin Mo's soul power locked onto the other party and he rejected him.

The other party did not waste any time. After seeing that there was no hope, they decisively retreated.

“Three Heaven-grade tier 9 divine pills.”

“I have a divine pill here. It’s called the Fire Dao Divine Pill, and it’s infinitely close to the quasi-immortal grade. If it’s nourished by the legendary immortal-grade item and the Myriad Spirit Soil, it’ll be able to advance in less than a year.”

“Are you kidding me? The Myriad Spirit Soil is a real immortal-grade treasure. How can it be so easy to get? ”

...

“That’s right. The price of a Fire Dao Divine Pill is less than the three divine pills...”

Everyone was discussing, and some were even bidding for it. They did not want to miss out on this world breaking talisman.

“I wonder if Owner Lin accepts martial arts and cultivation methods?”
Suddenly, someone asked.

Everyone knew that Lin Mo had the God Devourer body and the purpose of the auction.

Accumulating resources and cultivating the God Devouring Body was like burning money. He had to swallow a vast amount of natural treasures to break through.

This was also the reason why everyone present was bidding with cultivation resources.

Now that there was a living being who wanted to use cultivation techniques and martial arts to compete, Lin Mo might not agree...

“Sure, but it will be worth a lot less. If you can accept it, then bid...”

Lin Mo nodded nonchalantly. He then recalled something and quickly said, “I only accept heaven-grade tier 9 ones...”

As soon as he said this, some of the living beings were disappointed.

A heaven-grade tier 9 martial skill could even get a Supreme Saint to help one out...

...

However, it was the minimum here, and they even had to give a discount...

“That’s good. I have nine heaven-grade tier 9 cultivation methods and 13 Martial Arts Techniques. I wonder how much they are worth...”

The one who first asked the question smiled and threw out a large number of scrolls.

Seeing this, everyone was shocked.

Some of these scrolls contained an ancient aura, and they were obtained from the ruins.

As for the rest, they might have been obtained from others ...

“Set the price!”

That living being said indifferently. He wanted to bid for the Realm-Breaking Talisman.

“If you’re willing to add on the Fire Dao Divine Pill earlier, I can set your price as a quasi-immortal treasure.” Lin Mo smiled and nodded.

He recalled that this person had previously bid an immortal pill that was close to the quasi-immortal grade.

Although he did not have the Myriad Spirit Soil with him, who knew what would happen in the future? What if he could get it one day?

“I need to bid my Fire Dao Divine Pill too?”

The other party thought for a while and finally nodded. He took out the Fire Dao Divine Pill.

“Is there anyone else who is willing to bid?” Lin Mo knocked on the auction hammer.

A quasi-immortal level treasure. Only a few people present could afford such a price.

The Dragon Palace was one of them, but they had obviously been ordered not to participate in the competition.

After all, Tang Ru needed to consume a lot of resources to refine the True Dragon's Heart Blood and evolve into a True Dragon...

As for the other forces, after weighing the pros and cons, they chose to give up. However, the way they looked at the creature was more or less unfriendly.

However, the creature showed no fear and even raised his middle finger in disdain.

“Deal. Congratulations, fellow Daoist. Do you need my help?” Lin Mo laughed as the auction hammer rang.

This guy had been targeted, and he had gained a lot this time. For the sake of this, he was willing to put in more effort.

!!

“Thank you, but I don't need it. Goodbye.”

The creature cupped its fists and a pair of blood wings spread out on its back. In the next moment, its body turned into a blood-red light and disappeared.

“The Blood Wings Clan?”

Some creatures cried out in alarm as they recognized this person.

Only the Blood Wings Clan had such a technique. They were a human-like clan.

It was said that they were the descendants of the human race and the bat clan in ancient times. Their bloodlines had mutated and become even more powerful.

This race also had a terrifying existence. Ever since they entered the ancient battlefield, they had been searching for ruins and had never appeared.

“Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the heaven-grade tier 9 Realm-Breaking Talisman.”

“Triggered 9000-fold auction rebate.”

“Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Quasi-Immortal Realm-Breaking Talisman.”

Another Quasi-Immortal Realm-Breaking Talisman was in his hand. However, after carefully observing it, he shook his head slightly.

Compared to the one Xia You had given him, the one he had just obtained was a little weak.

It should be at the level of a quasi-immortal, but it could still only be used once. Hmph, it covered a distance of about 50 continents.

“That’s good too. Next, I can go and find Qilin’s mother...”

After dismissing the crowd, Lin Mo returned backstage. At this time, the Qilin had just finished her cultivation, and her aura had increased greatly.

“You’ve also broken through?”

Lin Mo was taken aback. He looked at the Qilin, who had just finished cultivating, and realized that this little girl had already reached the fifth step of the Ruler Realm...

“I was already on the verge of a breakthrough. I’ll be fine after eating the divine fruit...”

The Qilin stuck out its little tongue and immediately sensed something. It said in surprise, “How is this possible? How did you break through so quickly...”

She had thought that she would be able to pull apart Lin Mo’s cultivation by two levels, but in the end, she had just caught up...

“After killing Shentu Zhe, I obtained a treasure, and I broke through.”

Lin Mo smiled and did not explain.

The two of them left and went back to Lin City first. They left the cultivation techniques and scrolls that they had obtained and asked Zhao Tianyu to arrange the auction.

It was fine even if he made a loss. What he wanted was a return-profit treasure anyway.

It would be better if he lost. This way, he would be able to obtain quasi-immortal level martial arts and cultivation methods with a 100% chance.

Although he could not use it, there were so many people in Molin Chamber of Commerce. He was no longer alone.

As long as he resolved the crisis of leaving, he could make a call and the hundreds of geniuses would respond to him.

By then, it would take a lot of money to raise these people, and it would be impossible to afford it without some savings...

After obtaining the Quasi-Immortal Martial Arts Techniques and cultivation methods, Lin Mo and Qilin set off on their journey again and left Lin City.

The Scarlet Plain was a special scene in the ancient battlefield.

It was an extremely terrifying place. As soon as they stepped into it, the Qilin frowned and felt repulsed by this place.

The smell of blood was so strong that it covered the sky and the earth. Taking a deep breath, it even felt like breathing in a bloody mist...

The earth was dry and cracked, but some weeds could still be seen. This place was extremely desolate and not suitable for living creatures to live in.

This place was also the path that the Qilin had walked on in the past.

By burning her life force and using the Eye of Destiny to block her life providence, she avoided all danger and was able to escape the ancient battlefield and leave the Dragon State.

“The stench of blood makes me really want to fight with someone...” The Qilin pinched her nose, but she could not stop the invasion of the blood Qi...

“Why did your mother choose this place as her training ground? It’s a killing field, and it’s harmful to auspicious beasts...” Lin Mo said.

“Because this place used to be a paradise, giving birth to countless living beings and monsters.” The Qilin shook her head. There was a memory in her mind that did not belong to her. It was an inheritance from her mother.

“It’s a pity that such a paradise was destroyed. The enemy was too terrifying. They massacred everything and created the Scarlet Plain...” The Qilin mumbled to herself, and a trace of sadness appeared in her big eyes...

As an auspicious beast, she was blessed with good fortune. In that battle, the divine beast Qilin watched all the living beings cry. That sense of powerlessness, even after countless years, also affected the Qilin at this moment and actually made her cry...

“The memory I saw is incomplete. What did my mother hide...” The Qilin said in a low voice.

She could only see the miserable state of all living beings. The living beings under her mother’s protection were slaughtered, and the immortal realm became a sea of blood and a killing field.

However, she did not see what kind of enemy it was. This memory was covered up. This was the means of the Great Emperor. It could not be touched or cracked unless they were in the same realm...

“Let’s be careful. In this place, I can see that the ability of good and bad luck is severely limited...” Qilin said after adjusting her mood.

In front of them, the smell of blood was getting thicker and thicker. A blood mist filled the air, and a looming killing intent spread, making the two of them shudder.

As they got closer, the killing intent became more and more intense, and it could affect their minds and make them lose their rationality.

“Bzzzzzz!”

A touch of holy light emerged. The Qilin exerted its innate divine power and summoned auspicious Qi to resist the killing intent.

“The blood mist here can affect saints and even great saints...” Lin Mo was helpless and could only let the Qilin open the barrier.

They had only just gotten close, but the effects were already so severe. This was enough to show that this place was not something one in the Ruler realm could explore.

...

Although this wisp of auspicious Qi was like a bright lamp in the blood mist, he had no choice but to do this...

If they did not do this, they would not be able to enter at all. They would be devoured by the killing intent and become wild beasts that only knew how to kill.

They continued forward. After walking on the Scarlet Plain for a day, they saw a strange phenomenon.

In the thick blood mist, there seemed to be countless figures. They maintained their forward posture, moving forward slowly like Lin mo and the others ...

“No, those aren’t living people ...”

Lin Mo was shocked. With a wave of his hand, he blew away the blood mist in front of him, revealing the corpses of countless creatures.

It was not right to call them corpses. They were more like walking corpses because they were moving.

As they walked deeper into the blood mist, they saw creatures from all races. Some were from the ancient times, while others were from the recent times.

However, all of these undeads were emitting a terrifying aura.

Even the weakest of them was a quasi-Saint, and they could tear a crack open with a light stroke and pull people out of the void by force...

“I’m a little scared...” The Qilin moved closer to Lin Mo and hugged him even more tightly, unwilling to let go.

...

“You were actually able to walk out of it back then...” Lin Mo said with difficulty.

The Eye of Destiny was truly powerful. Its ability to seek good fortune and avoid disaster was too powerful, but the price to use it was also great.

If she used it too many times, it would cause irreversible damage to Qilin. He would not let Qilin use it unless it was absolutely necessary.

However, without such a method, it would be a fool’s dream to cross the sea of corpses.

“Let’s take a detour ...”

In the end, Lin Mo turned around with the Qilin and went around the extremely thick blood mist.

“This place is suitable for some assassins to come here. They might be able to comprehend the Great Dao of Slaughter...” Lin Mo teased.

After bypassing one dangerous area after another, they were delayed for a long time.

Chapter 759 - 759 Qilin Dojo

759 Qilin Dojo

Back then, the Qilin had been protected by the Eye of Destiny, so it had used the Realm-Breaking Talisman at all costs to escape from a group of Great Saints and even Supreme Saints.

Now that he had returned, he realized how vast the Scarlet Plain was.

After all, it was the place where the divine beast Qilin had protected all the creatures in the past. It was easier said than done to reach the Qilin Dojo by walking...

"It's so uncomfortable, the auspicious Qi can't block it anymore..." The Qilin shook her head, and her pupils had already turned red.

!!

She felt agitated and could not focus at all. She even thought of attacking Lin Mo.

This thought gave her a shock. At the same time, it also meant that as they went deeper, they could no longer resist the killing intent...

"Point me in the right direction. Let's go back to the small world." Lin Mo advised the Qilin not to force herself.

He had the God Devouring body, so even if he did not have the auspicious Qi to protect his body, he could still last for a while.

At most, he would use the Realm-Breaking Talisman. That way, he might have a chance...

"Didn't Senior Rainbow-Winged Bird say that he was going to look for my mother? Can you ask him to come and pick us up..." The Qilin complained.

It took them ten days to get to the Scarlet Plain from Lin City.

After walking on the plain for a full twenty days, they were still in the periphery according to the distance.

In the past few days, the Qilin had wanted to use the Eye of Destiny to speed up.

However, Lin Mo rejected it.

If one had to use all means to even break through the outer perimeter, how would one be able to break through the deeper parts?

"Don't worry, we'll soon pass through the blood mist." Lin Mo consoled.

This was indeed the case. According to the Qilin's memory, the blood mist at the outermost layer was only one of the dangers.

It was condensed from the blood of ten thousand spirits and would affect one's mind, but it would only appear on the periphery.

It was because it was even more terrifying inside. The blood mist was absorbed and some special creatures were born.

They could not even be called living beings, but evil spirits, formed from the unwillingness of ten thousand spirits as they absorbed the blood mist.

That was the real danger. It was said that after the people from the Dragon Pavillion entered, they encountered the evil and were almost exterminated.

In the end, they escaped with the help of a jade talisman passed down by a quasi-Emperor.

After appeasing the Qilin, the two of them continued to move forward. After another three days, they finally walked out of the blood mist.

“Be careful...”

As soon as they walked out the blood mist, a blood-red light shot toward them. Lin Mo pulled the Qilin into his arms and gave it a thought.

“BOOM!”

The terrifying explosion spread and the place they were at was covered in blood mist. They saw a walking corpse slowly walking over.

Its eyes were listless as it roared in madness ...

At that moment, Lin Mo, who was hiding in the system space with Qilin, heaved a long sigh of relief.

The creature just now was at least a saint. He did not even have time to use the Realm-Breaking Talisman. Fortunately, he had the system space to escape this disaster...

It was the fortune within the misfortune...

The two of them heaved a sigh of relief and temporarily hid in the system space. They meditated and cultivated to recover.

Lin Mo had used the technique that the Rainbow-Winged Bird had taught him to leave the system space 100 miles away from the original coordinates.

This also allowed him and Qilin to successfully avoid danger and continue moving forward.

“According to our speed, we will need to walk for at least three months...” Qilin made a rough estimation and sighed.

“The ending time of the ancient battlefield is uncertain. To be safe, we’ll talk about other things after meeting your mother...” Lin Mo sighed as well.

If he could, he wanted to cultivate to the quasi-Saint realm or even the Saint realm before coming.

However, there was not much time. Once they entered the final stage, everything would be too late.

The only thing that could save them after they left was the two Realm-Breaking Talismans...

It was still unknown if he could escape from at least one quasi-Emperor.

“Huh? What a huge skeleton! This is a unicorn...” Lin Mo exclaimed.

As they advanced, they came across a canyon on the way. There was a huge skeleton of a unicorn lying in it.

This was also an auspicious beast. With the Qilin as the leader, it led the entire race to follow the divine beast Qilin.

After exploring the canyon for a while, they discovered the cause of the unicorn’s death.

There was a one-meter-wide hole in the middle of the skull’s eyebrows, as if it had been pierced by some terrifying force.

This attack had most likely shattered its soul and ended its life.

“Senior, please rest in peace ...”

The two of them bowed and continued to move forward. All they saw along the way were tragic scenes.

Countless living beings were exterminated in unimaginable ways.

However, what surprised Lin Mo was that the so-called enemies did not leave behind any corpses.

“How strange, could it be my mother’s doing?” The Qilin also noticed it and was somewhat puzzled.

“Could it be a civil war?” Lin Mo said. For the sake of the heaven and earth’s fortune, the living beings in this plan had started a war.

“Impossible. If that’s the case, there should be a winner. The entire ancient era wouldn’t have been buried...” The Qilin shook her head.

There was a chasm in the history of the five continents, and there was a period of time that had been erased. It was difficult to find it in any ancient book.

...

After countless generations of deduction and pursuit, they finally came to the conclusion that the destruction of the ancient era was related to this period of time that had been erased.

“So, from that time on, the quasi-Emperor became the top fighting force in the world...” Lin Mo was deep in thought.

People knew that there was the Great Emperor realm above the quasi-Emperor realm, but no living creature had ever stepped into it...

In other words, the creatures that stepped into this world were from the previous era...

“Don’t even think about it. Countless heroes on the continent can’t figure out the reason. Let’s alone us...” The Qilin rubbed her head, but she did not have a clue.

“At least you have some self-awareness. If you can guess the reason, then it’s really heaven-defying...”

Suddenly, a burst of seven-colored radiance came from the distance. A palm-sized bird flew over.

Wherever it passed, whether it was the blood mist or the blood corpses, they were completely annihilated and no longer existed.

“Senior Rainbow-Winged Bird...”

The Qilin cheered. She could finally see her mother, even though she knew that her mother was already dead and that it had only seen her remnant soul.

However, it could at least slow down some of her feelings of longing...

...

“Let me do it. You guys are really bold to dare to barge in like this...” The colorful-winged bird flapped its wings.

A seven-colored radiance appeared under Lin Mo and the Qilin’s feet. In the next moment, they flew up with the rainbow-winged bird.

The speed was extremely fast, and the surrounding scenery was constantly changing. In between, some bloody corpses could be seen eating each other

...

They even saw a terrifying existence that even the colorful-winged bird did not dare to be careless and carefully avoided.

“Are there any quasi-Emperor blood corpses here?” The Qilin asked curiously.

“No, the Supreme Saint realm is the limit of these special creatures. They don’t have any intelligence and only know how to devour each other. Moreover, their lifespans are very short, only tens of thousands of years...” The Rainbow-Winged Bird replied.

It was formed due to the Scarlet Plain’s special environment, and could not even be considered a living creature.

Under the guidance of the Rainbow-Winged Bird, they sped all the way and arrived at their destination in less than ten minutes.

In front of him were broken walls and ruins. In the center of the ruins was a lifelike statue of a white Qilin.

“Mother ...”

The Qilin’s eyes were slightly red as she called out loudly.

She had been nurtured under the statue for countless years, so she was very familiar with this place. There was a wisp of her mother’s soul in the statue...

The heaven and earth trembled slightly, and the surrounding broken walls seemed to be nourished at this moment, full of vitality.

Auspicious clouds appeared in the sky, expelling the blood mist in all directions. At this moment, this place really became a paradise, and the air was filled with immortal Qi.

In the back, the Rainbow-Winged Bird was a little excited, and its body could not help but tremble.

It had been here for some time, but it had only seen the statue of the Qilin, nothing else had changed.

He had thought that the spiritual beast Qilin had completely disappeared, but he did not expect to see it this time. There was still a wisp of remnant soul hidden in the statue.

“It’s not that I don’t want to see you on purpose. It’s just that this remnant soul can only awaken a limited number of times, so I wanted to wait for you all to come together.” A soft halo came from the Qilin statue, and a voice came.

“Greetings, Lord Divine Beast.”

The Rainbow-Winged Bird’s voice was filled with excitement as it lowered its head toward the Qilin statue. Lin Mo found this scene rather comical...

This was the first time he had seen a bird kowtowing to a statue...

“Young friend, thank you for taking in my child.” The statue expressed its gratitude to Lin Mo.

“Greetings, Senior...” Lin mo lowered his head and bowed.

He had endless questions in his mind, but he did not know how to ask, such as what was the Spirit Devouring Bug race?

There was also the blood mist and the corpses of the enemies.

Other than that, he also wanted to know the truth behind the decline of the Eastern Continent and who had left behind the Dao Seeking Garden...

There were too many questions, and he was eager to know the answers.

However, the Five Elements Mountain had refused to tell him about it. It had even said that it would use the Karmic Fire to wash away his karma.

“Has the Five Elements Mountain awakened? I’m really envious. It’s hard to kill a Primordial Supreme Treasure. Perhaps it will still be on the battlefield in the future...” A sigh came from the statue. It was a little lonely.

“Child, let go of your obsession. I’m already dead.” The auspicious cloud fell, and a bloody mist gradually appeared.

The last of the auspicious Qi wrapped around Lin Mo and the Qilin, forming a sealed space that could isolate everything.

“Mother, where are you?” Qilin said unwillingly.

She could only sense her mother’s aura from the Qilin egg, but she could not see her mother. At this moment, she really wanted to see what her mother looked like...

“We will meet, but not now ...” The gentle voice echoed in the space.

Lin Mo could hear a lot of reluctance in her voice, some for the Qilin, and some for this world...

“Does Senior really not have any chance of being resurrected?” Lin Mo asked, similarly unwilling to give up.

He remembered the request of the Demon Sealing Mirror when he received the inheritance of the Kun Peng ...

When one reached the great emperor realm, the Demon Sealing Mirror would be placed in the birthplace of the Kun Peng.

Although he did not know the purpose of this, he had a feeling that he might see the divine beast Kun Peng again in the future...

“Kun Peng’s birthplace was the Chaotic Astral Ocean. It’s said that the World Tree used to take root there.” The mother Qilin heard Lin Mo’s thoughts.

“We’ll talk about it after you’ve reached the Emperor Realm. I wonder if the current world can still break through that layer of shackles ...” She sighed.

Even if the Demon Sealing Mirror went there, they might not be able to revive.

Perhaps, it would only speed up the birth of the next divine beast, Kun Peng. Perhaps one day, a young Kun Peng would descend and sweep across the world with the Demon Sealing Mirror, becoming a Great Emperor again...

“Let’s talk about something else. Are you willing to take me as your master and obtain the Qilin inheritance?” A purple light appeared in the air, slowly forming the pattern of a Qilin.

Lin Mo’s heart was moved by these words. He knew how powerful the supreme inheritance of the Kun Peng was since he had the Kun Peng Art.

It could allow one to comprehend a Dao law at an extremely fast speed. Moreover, it was a supreme Dao law like fate ...

“I’ve always been drooling over the Qilin Art. It’s just that I did not dare to ask for it without your permission...” Lin Mo said respectfully.

He wanted to obtain it long ago, and little Qilin had always listened to him.

“You didn’t lie to my daughter and treated her sincerely. That’s why I’m willing to pass it to you.”

Purple light bloomed in the space, and countless runes enveloped Lin Mo and the Qilin.

“I know what you’re here for. By cultivating the Qilin Art, mastering the Dao Law of Fate, and having an auspicious beast, the White Qilin, by your side can help you get through this crisis.

“As for the matter of establishing a Chamber of Commerce, you can also do it freely. Although there are obstacles, I believe that you will be able to get through them...”

When he was receiving the inheritance, a voice appeared in Lin Mo’s mind again, guiding him to understand.

The Yin Yang Dao Law in his body had originally filled his entire body, expelling all the insights he had gained previously.

Now, the Dao Law of Fate was the same. It rushed into his body and wanted to occupy all his meridians.

However, the Dao law in Lin Mo’s body was not so simple this time.

The Kun Peng and the Qilin were both divine beasts, and they were on par in terms of strength.

The two Dao laws were also extremely powerful, regardless of their strength.

After a series of disputes, the world was eventually divided into two parts, and both parts coexisted within Lin Mo’s body.

This process was extremely painful. His physical body had become a battlefield as the two Dao laws were fighting inside.

He had the God Devouring Body, so he would be baptized every time he broke through.

If it were anyone else, they would have exploded and died before they could completely memorize the Qilin Art.

“You’re a pretty good seedling. Besides, I can only see a small part of your fate. Your future is all a blur...”

A soft voice came from the space, and Lin Mo was shocked. She was calculating his fate. Was it a prophecy technique?

The Qilin's sorcery was so terrifying that it could predict the past and the future...

"Whether it is strong or not, you can only slowly comprehend it."

A gentle voice entered his ears, but soon, Lin Mo could no longer hear anything.

Only the sound of chanting could be heard as he entered a deep state of enlightenment. He was comprehending the Qilin Art.

In the outside world, where the Hidden Dragon List was...

This place was supposed to be a place for everyone to discuss Dao and discuss which family's disciples would stand out.

After all, the opening of the ancient battlefield was the grandest event in the Northern Continent and almost all the top powers were present.

However, a great battle had broken out here today. There were more than a dozen Supreme Saints fighting, and the formation of the Hidden Dragon Pavillion was almost destroyed.

In the end, the master of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion showed up and unleashed the power of a quasi-Emperor, but he was still blocked. This shocked the entire Northern Continent.

"Blood Axe Yang Song... You're from the Southern Continent's Bai family..."

As soon as he said that, the leaders of many forces were scared. One by one, the elders rushed over and stood in front of the Hidden Dragon List, waiting.

There was no harmony between the continents, and wars would break out occasionally.

However, the Southern Continent and the Northern Continent were not neighbors, so there was little friction between them. There were basically no signs of hostility.

...

No one had expected that the Southern forces would come to the Northern Continent's grandest event.

Without saying a word, he directly injured the people of the the Gongsun family and forced a quasi-Emperor to show up. Only then did the war subside.

“Why did the Southern forces come to the Northern Continent? ” The master of the Hidden Dragon Pavilion came forward and tried to mediate.

Only the head of the Gongsun family was angry. The Gongsun family had finally produced an outstanding descendant.

He was killed just like that, and the Gongsun family's lineage was cut off for a generation.

“We have come for the God Devouring Body...”

The man called Blood Axe Yang Song said. His cold killing intent reverberated in the air as he stared at the Gongsun family clan leader.
