

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 761

In the center of the Scarlet Plain, the lifelike Qilin statue shattered and turned into fine powder.

The Qilin face was filled with reluctance. There was one less thing that her mother had left in this world.

Without the suppression of the Qilin statue, the dojo would soon be swallowed by the Scarlet Plain.

In the end, this place would become a dangerous place, eroded by blood and killing intent.

“Senior, what do you plan to do in the future?” Lin Mo asked the Rainbow-Winged Bird.

He had to rope in such an expert at the peak of the Supreme Saint realm no matter what. His Chamber of Commerce needed such an expert to hold the fort.

“Brat, do you know the price of asking this Senior to go and hold the fort?”

The Rainbow-Winged Bird looked at Lin Mo. It did not think that a junior like Lin Mo would pay such a heavy price.

“Senior, you can just say it. Brother Lin Mo has a lot of good things on him.”

The little Qilin had cleaned up her mother’s dojo inside and out. When it heard these words, she hurriedly spoke up for Lin Mo.

“I need at least 100 quasi-immortal grade treasures. Little Qilin, I’ve just received guidance from your mother. It won’t be long before I break through the barrier of the quasi-Emperor.

A Supreme Saint who was about to break through to the quasi-Emperor realm was indeed worth 100 quasi-immortal grade treasures.

From the looks of it, Lin Mo really could not afford it.

The Immortal Grade Scriptures of Enlightenment was fine, but he planned to keep it for his own use in the future. He did not want to use it so soon...

"Tsk, you still haven't broken through. Besides, you were taught by my mother." The Qilin was not polite at all. She wanted the Rainbow-Winged Bird to return the favor on the spot...

"Little girl, don't say that. Senior naturally wouldn't be ungrateful, but we can't let Senior work for free."

"How about this? I'll hand over the five quasi-immortal grade treasures after we leave the ancient battlefield. Senior, you'll be in charge of the Molin Chamber of Commerce after that. I guarantee that I'll deliver 20 more quasi-immortal grade treasures within five years. How about it? "

Lin Mo smiled. Such a high price would even make some of the top sects feel the pinch.

With the system, it was not impossible for him to collect all of them.

Right now, what the Molin Chamber of Commerce lacked the most was a strong expert, so the Rainbow-Winged Bird had to be roped in.

"So it's like this..."

The Rainbow-Winged Bird was a little hesitant, but it looked at Lin Mo suspiciously.

Even now, it might not be able to get so many treasures in such a short time.

'If he can find 40 pieces in five years, how is he going to run his own forces...'

"How many ruins are you going to explore next? What if the battlefield ends early?" The Qilin said worriedly.

Quasi-immortal grade treasures were not common.

"Don't worry, it'll be fine," Lin Mo replied with a smile.

On the other side, the Rainbow-Winged Bird was also hesitating. It looked at the Qilin and seemed to have made up its mind. It said, "Alright, I agree."

“But ...” Before Lin Mo and the Qilin could reply, the Rainbow-Winged Bird’s voice was heard again.

“Senior, what other conditions do you have?” Lin Mo asked.

“It’s very simple. Unless you encounter something that you can’t handle, I won’t take action. I won’t even let anyone know of my existence.”

Lin Mo immediately agreed to such a simple condition.

Both he and Qilin needed to gain experience and go through battle after battle. Only then could they become stronger.

If he let the Rainbow-Winged Bird help him with everything, he would be a little ashamed of his own talent.

“Thank you for your help, Senior. Let’s go. We still need your help with the Scarlet plain.” Lin Mo smiled. The Chamber of Commerce finally had an expert in charge.

Moreover, it was a powerful existence who was about to break through to the quasi-Emperor realm..

With that, the Molin Chamber of Commerce could even be considered a top force and could occupy a state.

Of course, it was in a remote and small place where cultivators were not very powerful...

“Let’s go. I still need to go back to the Five Elements Mountain. I will show up when you leave the battlefield,” the Rainbow-Winged Bird said while laughing.

It flapped its wings and grew in size in an instant. Carrying Lin Mo and the Qilin, it soared above the Scarlet Plain.

The two of them were left speechless by his speed. He even gave Lin Mo and Qilin some pointers on how to break through the barrier of their cultivation.

“Let’s part ways here. If you encounter any trouble you can’t solve, use this wing to contact me.” in nread.com

After sending the two of them to Lin City, the Rainbow-Winged Bird left behind a crimson feather and flapped its wings to leave.

On that day, the Mo Lin Chamber of Commerce cheered the entire time. They took out some precious medicinal herbs, matched them with demonic beast meat, and raised their cups to drink to their hearts' content.

The news of him setting up the Molin Chamber of Commerce in the outside world spread, and the entire Lin City was in an uproar.

The experts who had been saved by Lin Mo and had been staying in Lin City immediately expressed their willingness to join.

Some of the geniuses had families and forces behind them, and they had expressed that they would take the initiative to contact them and introduce big business to the Chamber of Commerce.

“Leader, there’s something I must remind you of.”

While he was drinking, Mao Zhu’s expression was solemn. He was not optimistic about the Molin Chamber of Commerce.

Although she chose to join and even took up the position of an elder...

However, she knew that in order to successfully establish the Chamber of Commerce, they had to pass through the barrier of leaving the ancient battlefield.

Moreover, they could not just escape. We had to fight their way through. Only then can we establish their own power in the Northern Continent...

Otherwise, when faced with the pursuit of experts from all sides, establishing a Chamber of Commerce was equivalent to giving those people a chance to kill.

“Don’t worry, I will settle it ...”

Lin Mo smiled confidently. There was no other reason. When the Qilin’s mother gave him the inheritance, she told him that he could handle it..

Although he did not know who helped him in the end, he believed that the divine beast Qilin's prediction of the future ...

Moreover, he had already prepared for the worst, so he did not have to worry about his safety ...

The news of the Molin Chamber of Commerce's establishment was suppressed by Lin Mo, and only a few core figures knew about it.

These people were trustworthy, so Lin Mo was not afraid of being exposed.

After another round of expansion, Lin City was even bigger and could be compared to big cities like Sky Dragon City.

Moreover, because he often auctioned precious treasures here, the flow of people here had always been at the peak.

"There are so many divine herbs. The auction this time is much bigger than the previous one..." In the Chamber of Commerce's main hall, Qilin looked at the mountain-like pile of medicinal herbs and was amazed.

If she did not know that these treasures were going to be auctioned, she would have already started eating them...

"The leader is still in seclusion. I can feel that his aura is getting more and more terrifying" A young girl looked at a passage in the hall.

At the end of the passage was a secret chamber, where Lin Mo was in seclusion.

...

On the day the Rainbow-Winged Bird sent him back, the celebration ended, and he began to cultivate in seclusion to comprehend the Qilin Art.

At the same time, he was also balancing the two fighting Dao laws in his body.

In theory, there could only be one such supreme Dao law.

Unless one's comprehension of the laws had reached an extreme and one could control them perfectly, it was extremely easy to cause the two abnormal energies to go berserk.

The two Dao laws would fight within the body, and in the limbs and bones. Once the law went berserk, the lightest consequence would be serious injuries and dying, and the heaviest would be sudden death on the spot...

Fortunately, Lin Mo's God Devouring body had an extraordinary constitution, allowing him to survive the repeated clashes.

After spending half a year, his combat strength had soared.

Although the two energies could not be used perfectly, they were no longer repulsed. When the two combined, they could erupt with incredible combat power.

"I can exit my seclusion now. I wonder how much time has passed in the outside world..."

In the secret room, Lin Mo, who had two Dao laws appearing outside his body, nodded in satisfaction.

He was already very familiar with the Yin Yang Dao Law. As long as the amount was not too large and the law he triggered did not exceed his own realm, he would be able to control it perfectly.

!!

As for the power of fate, he was very unfamiliar with this power, and even felt a sense of rejection. It might be because he had not refined the Fruit of Fate.

This was also the reason why it took him half a year to master it despite his talent.

However, when he used the Dao Law of Fate, he felt like he had everything under control.

It was very strange, and he could subconsciously imagine that in the future, Molin Chamber of Commerce would be preparing to hold an even bigger auction...

“I can’t explain it clearly. I don’t know what it feels like when a Qilin comprehends it...”

Lin Mo shook his head. Since they were going to hold an auction, he had to be there.

It just so happened that they were still worried about what kind of treasure to auction off as the finale.

“Don’t argue. Let’s auction this as the finale.”

He walked out of the secret room and went through the narrow passage to the hall, giving everyone a surprise.

“Brother Lin Mo!”

The Qilin was overjoyed. She went over and hugged Lin Mo’s arm, cheering.

She snatched the scroll from Lin Mo and unfurled it. Dazzling runes filled the air.

A wave of immortal Dao aura spread out, causing people’s hearts to skip a beat. They found it unbelievable.

“This is... A quasi-immortal grade cultivation technique?”

After sensing the abnormality, people cried out in alarm and looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

This treasure was rare even in the ancient battlefield. The last time Lin Mo was able to auction it off, it was because he had participated in the Wind Spirit Sect ruins.

There had been countless deaths and injuries in that battle, and they had all been saved by Lin Mo.

“Why are you auctioning this? Keep it and hire... it. ”

The Qilin hurriedly said. Realizing that there were other people around, she quickly changed her words.

It was obvious that she wanted Lin Mo to keep it for the Rainbow-Winged Bird. After all, quasi-immortal cultivation techniques were extremely rare.

“Don’t worry, leave it to me.” Lin Mo took the scroll and introduced it to the Qilin while rubbing her head.

“The Ice God Technique is a quasi-immortal level cultivation technique, and it also has a set of martial arts, Ice God Palm. I’ll use this as the finale.”

As for the origin of this item, it was naturally from the last time Lin Mo returned to Lin city.

He had obtained many martial arts and cultivation methods from the Blood Wings Clan.

Before he left, he had handed them all over to Zhao Tianyu to auction off, and he had returned the interest to seven quasi-immortal grade cultivation techniques or martial arts.

The Ice God Technique and Ice God Palm were one of them.

As a set of cultivation methods and martial arts, it would surely be welcomed by many people.

“This Qi method gives me the feeling that it is almost on par with the Great Frost Sealing Scripture of the Snow Valley...”

Song Lianxue was pleasantly surprised. If she be the winning bid, the Snowy Valley would be rewarded greatly.

In addition, she had a good relationship with Mao Zhu, Lin Mo, and the others.

If Lin Mo really had the means to deal with the dangers outside the ancient battlefield and successfully established the Molin Chamber of Commerce...

At that time, the valley master of the snow Valley would probably put the position of Holy Daughter into her hands...

However, it was a pity that Lin Mo had given her a lot of precious resources, including divine medicines and pills.

However, it was still much weaker than the quasi-immortal grade martial arts...

It was basically impossible for her to win the bid. She probably could not get the credit...

“Hehe, don’t let your own fertile water flow into others’ fields. You can contact the Holy Daughter of your Snow Valley and ask her to participate in the auction.”

Lin Mo said with a smile after seeing through Song Lianxue’s thoughts.

He did not want to auction the quasi-immortal grade cultivation methods and martial arts techniques to the enemy, and they were given by the system after its return.

There would not be a second rebate, and if he made a loss, he would really be helping the enemy...

“Hey, you’re still thinking about the snow Valley. You’re just an ordinary disciple. If it were up to me, I would say that you should also become an elder of the Chamber of Commerce...”

Song Lianxue had not received any special treatment from the Snow Valley, yet she was always thinking of the Snow Valley after entering the battlefield.

“After all, my family has been disciples of the Snow Valley for generations. The sect has done nothing wrong. How can I betray them?”

Song Lianxue shook her head. If she wanted to repay Lin Mo’s kindness, she had to find a way to get the snow Valley and Molin Chamber of Commerce to cooperate...

Suddenly, the Qilin spoke and told Lin Mo what had happened during this period of time.

Lin Mo was a little surprised when he found out that Xia you had come. He quickly asked why she had come to see him.

“Sister Xia You said that in three years, the Hidden Dragon List will once again open the ancient battlefield.”

The Qilin took out a scroll of parchment. It was a detailed map that recorded more than half of the ancient battlefield.

There were records of many unknown areas, and this made Lin Mo pleasantly surprised.

...

“How did she know about this?” Lin Mo asked.

Unfortunately, the Qilin shook her head. “Xia You came once and left after giving out the scroll.”

“Oh, that’s right. Big Sister Xia you said that she has obtained enough fortune and is leaving.” Qilin added.

This had happened three months ago. Perhaps Xia You had already committed suicide and left.

Speaking of this, the Qilin sighed. She really liked this Sister Xia You. If she wanted to see her again, she could only go to the Central Continent to look for her...

“I might know where this information about the Heaven’s Will Body came from...”

Suddenly, Zhao Tianyu, who was recording the auction items and making a list, spoke.

He moved closer, and everyone’s eyes immediately focused on him.

“Cough, cough ...” Being stared at like this by everyone, Zhao Tianyu felt a little uncomfortable. He coughed dryly and said.

“Miss Xia you has the Heaven’s Will Body. I’m sure all of you are aware of this, right?”

“Don’t keep me in suspense, get to the point.” Mao Zhu rolled his eyes. ‘There are so many people waiting for an answer, yet this guy is still keeping them in suspense...’

...

“I’m sorry...”

Looking at everyone’s unfriendly gazes, Zhao Tianyu shrunk his neck and quickly said.

“The Heaven’s Will Body is one of the strongest physiques of the human race. It is born from the will of heaven and earth and can know the will of the heavens.”

“As we all know, this is a battlefield in ancient times. It was once destroyed and order collapsed. The World Tree of that era also collapsed in this world and was uprooted.”

“Later, this world was used as a gift to be left for the future generations.”

“You can understand it as a treasure bestowed by the heavens. It’s an opportunity the World Tree has left for us.”

With that said, everyone gradually understood. In their eyes, the World Tree was the sky and the source of everything in the world.

The Heavenly Destiny Body knew the destiny. This place was left behind by the previous generation of the World Tree, which made sense.

At the same time, they finally understood why even a powerful quasi-Emperor could not break the Hidden Dragon List’s rules.

Even if he went all out, only one or two people would be sent in every time it opened...

Only those with the same origin as the World Tree could understand the World Tree’s methods and the rules here...

“I see...”

Lin Mo nodded. This explanation was very reasonable, and everyone agreed with it.

The auction soon began, and that night, Lin City was in a riot, with all kinds of news flying around.

What was even more unexpected was that Lin Mo had announced that the final item of the auction could be bought on credit.

All they would need to do was pay and the goods would be delivered.

As soon as the news came out, it attracted countless people. Some people who cultivated ice, water, and the yin attribute cultivation techniques rushed over.

The Ice God technique and the accompanying martial arts technique, Ice God Palm, were relatively precious among the Quasi-Immortal level.

“Welcome, fellow Daoists, to this auction. The finale of tonight’s auction is a Quasi-Immortal level cultivation technique and a set of martial arts techniques.”

Lin Mo stood on the stage and nodded in satisfaction as he looked at the crowded hall.

After this seclusion, he had cultivated the Law of Fate and had a slight understanding of what would happen in the future.

For example, he could sense that there were some people with Quasi-Immortal treasures who would be participating in the auction...

“They should be here for cultivation methods and martial arts. I’m really looking forward to it...”

Lin Mo smiled and nodded. After the sound of the auction hammer rang out, a maidservant walked up with a silver plate.

Under the expectant gazes of many living beings, the red cloth was slowly lifted.

“The first item, a Level 5 Heaven-class demonic beast’s Inner Core, a Water and Wind Dual Attributed demonic beast’s inner core.”

On the silver plate, there was a blue bead that contained pure spiritual qi.

The inner core of a demonic beast was an essential ingredient in cultivating divine pills, unless there was a special medicinal formula, such as a fire Dao divine pill.

This divine pill had a special effect, so the prescription was different.

If one were to use normal alchemy methods, they would use the inner core of a demonic beast as the main ingredient, supplemented by divine medicine. The cultivated divine pill could be used like a spirit stone and could be directly absorbed for cultivation.

“President Lin, do you accept the best quality spiritual stones?”

As soon as the auction started, someone had stood up and asked if Lin Mo was willing to accept the Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

In fact, the price of Heaven-grade Level 3 and 4 and above divine items had to be set with Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

This was because there were no Quasi-Saints on the ancient battlefield.

Therefore, no one dared to go to the mines that contained Supreme-grade spiritual stones for fear of being damaged.

This was also the reason why Lin Mo had chosen to barter in the past few auctions.

“Sure, the inner core of a Level 5 Heaven-class demonic beast. The starting price is about 35000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones. You may start bidding.”

Lin Mo nodded. Only Quasi-Sages and above could absorb Supreme-grade spiritual stones. However, as a God Devouring Body, it was not a big problem for him to absorb Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

“I bid 40000 high-quality spiritual stones. If you are interested, you may also bid.” The other party opened his mouth and gave a price.

Hearing this, Lin Mo was slightly surprised. He had thought that the other party would use some low-grade divine pills and divine medicine in addition to Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

He had not expected that so many Supreme-grade spiritual stones would be taken out at once. It was rare.

“I’ll offer a Level 5 Heaven-class divine pill. The price should be more than 40000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

On the other side, a creature with the head of a tiger and the body of a human stepped forward to participate in the bidding.

“41000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

“A divine pill plus...”

The two of them began to compete. However, this was only an ordinary inner core, so the final price was fixed at 45000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

“Deal. Congratulations, sir.”

Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and looked at the person with interest.

He had quite decent strength, and his cultivation level was also quite high. He was a Level 8 King.

Generally speaking, Supreme-grade spiritual stones were essential for one to break through to the Quasi-Saint realm.

Considering the uniqueness of the ancient battlefield, the power behind every genius would prepare a sum of Supreme-grade spiritual stones for them.

For example, when Gongsun Wenhao had been killed by Lin Mo, he had 100000 high-quality spiritual stones on him.

Although it wasn’t much, it was enough for a normal person to break through to the Quasi-Saint stage.

“It seems that a Supreme-grade spiritual stone mine has appeared on this battlefield while I was in seclusion...” he muttered. This was the only explanation that could make sense.

“It’s a pity that I missed out on a good fortune because of my closed-door cultivation...”

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning a Level 5 Heaven-class demonic beast’s inner core.]

[Successfully triggered 8000-fold auction rebate]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining the inner core of a Level 8 Heaven-class demonic beast.]

The system’s notification rang out. Just as Lin Mo was about to continue with the auction, the system’s voice rang out again.

[The host has obtained a Supreme-grade spiritual stone from the auction. You can place the spiritual stone into the system space and form your inner world. You will be rewarded.]

He had thought that there would be another system mission, but it turned out to be this.

There was no clear description of the rewards, but when he heard about the inner world, he was shocked.

“What is the inner world?”

He thought that he had a good understanding of the cultivation system of this world, comprehended the laws, and became a monarch.

But now, he had found out about the inner world. What realm could one reach to come into contact with the inner world?

“Forget it, I’ll just put it in first,” said Lin Mo without hesitating. It was only 45000 Supreme-quality spiritual stones. He was not that reluctant to part with it.

[Injection is successful. The spiritual qi in the inner world has increased. You have received the reward, the Supreme-grade spiritual stone embryo.]

...

The Supreme-grade spiritual stone that he had just obtained had disappeared. It was absorbed by a special force in the system space and immediately cultivated.

But at the same time, he had also received a reward, a rough embryo of a Supreme-grade spiritual stone.

If one could find a high-grade spirit mine and place the rough embryo in its core, it would be able to grow into a Supreme-grade spirit stone mine after a few hundred years.

This was a priceless treasure, which was even more precious than 45000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

“That’s great...”

Lin Mo was overjoyed and immediately beckoned for the next maidservant. The red cloth was lifted, and the next auction item was presented.

“By the way, everyone, allow me to add on another rule. Unless it’s a Level 9 Heaven-class divine pill or divine medicine, Supreme spiritual stones will be considered better than other treasures of the same value.

This rule that had just been added made everyone freeze as they looked at Lin Mo.

What kind of stupid rule was this? Could it be that Supreme-grade spiritual stones had some special meaning to Lin Mo?

However, didn’t he already have the God Devouring Body? As long as he had enough heaven and earth qi, he could absorb any natural treasure perfectly, even if it was poisonous.

Why was he being so picky now and asking for Supreme-grade spiritual stones?

...

“Alright, let’s continue the auction. The second item is a Level 5 Heaven-grade magic weapon, the Meteor Hammer. The starting price is 40000 Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

He had even set the starting price of the treasure with Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

He made up his mind that even if someone offered a higher price, he would still be biased towards the Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

Unless the other party put it up for auction and clearly stated that they wanted the treasure, he would only ask for the Supreme-grade spiritual stones.

“Brother Lin Mo, what are you doing?”

In the dark, the Qilin transmitted a message to Lin Mo. She did not understand why Lin Mo would do such a losing business...

In the Chamber of Commerce, both she and Lin Mo were the only two people who had the highest chance of breaking through to the Quasi-Saint stage within three years.

She needed to absorb the fragments of the Dao Law of Fate from the world to break through. Supreme-grade spiritual stones were only supplementary, and she didn't need much of it.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, needed a massive amount of heaven and earth qi.

Therefore, they didn't need so many Supreme-quality spiritual stones in such a short time...

“Don't worry, I have my own plans.”

He sent a voice transmission to tell the Qilin not to worry. Then, he continued to host the auction. After tapping the auction hammer, the auction frenzy continued again.

No one understood why Lin Mo would do this.

However, they did have a lot of supreme-grade spiritual stones in stock, just as Lin Mo had guessed.

Two months ago, three supreme-grade spiritual stone mines had appeared on the battlefield, and they covered a vast area.

In the past, all parties had paid a huge price for these supreme-grade spiritual stones and excavated a large number of high-grade and supreme-grade spiritual stones.

Because of this opportunity, all the cultivators slowed down their pace of exploration and went into seclusion to cultivate.

“42000 high-quality spiritual stones.”

“43000 high-quality spiritual stones.”

Some people started to bid. People were very fond of magic weapons. Who wouldn't want to have an additional means of attack?

In the end, the Meteor Hammer was successfully won by some people at a price of 52000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off a Level 5 heaven-grade magic weapon, the Meteor Hammer.]

[Successfully triggered 4000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Level 6 heaven-grade magic weapon, Sun Hammer.]

Just like before, Lin Mo chose to inject these supreme-grade spiritual stones into the system space to build an inner world.

[Injection successful. You've received a reward: a Level 4 heaven-grade divine medicine.]

Lin Mo was stunned when he saw the reward. He then shook his head helplessly.

He had thought that he would earn a lot every time, but now it seemed that the rewards were all given randomly.

However, it was better than nothing. Lin Mo was still very satisfied with obtaining a divine medicine.

“The next item to be auctioned is a Heaven-class Level 6 divine pill, the Reversal Sun Pill.

“This elixir is extremely effective. It fortifies the foundation and refines the essence. Marrow and bone cleansing are only the foundation. After taking it, one’s cultivation can be greatly improved.

“Rumor has it that someone once used the Reversal Sun Pill to advance three levels in the King’s realm at one go, which shocked everyone.”

As soon as he said that, the crowd went into an uproar. The value of the Reversal Sun Pill was considered high among the Level 6 Heaven-grade.

Furthermore, this pill was extremely difficult to cultivate. Even if several alchemy grandmasters came, their success rate would not exceed 50%.

Many people were surprised that such a divine pill would appear in the auction house.

“It seems that everyone is very interested. The starting price of this pill is 70000 high-quality spiritual stones. The highest bidder will get it. You may start bidding now.”

The high starting price made some people come back to their senses and shake their heads.

At such an expensive price, ordinary people would need to spend more than half of their savings to buy it.

“71000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

“Seventy-three thousand...”

“Seventy-five thousand...”

Many people were hesitating, wondering if they should make a bid, but some people had already started to raise the price.

There were about a dozen people who were interested in the Reversal Sun Pill, and they all made their bids one after another.

In less than three minutes, the price of the Reversal Sun Pill had reached 90000 high-quality spiritual stones.

Even so, there were still four people who were still bidding and were not willing to give up.

Furthermore, Lin Mo could sense that the four of them were at the same cultivation Level 8 King tier.

After consuming the Reversal Sun Pill, one would be able to reach the peak of the King tier.

At that time, he could start to cultivate supreme-grade spiritual stones and try to touch the barrier of the Quasi-Saint stage.

If they were lucky enough to cross it, they would soar into the sky, and their battle strength would experience a huge increase.

At that time, even Lin Mo and any others would not be their match...

After all, there was a huge gap between a Quasi-Saint and a King tier. Even the weakest Quasi-Saint was capable of suppressing a King.

“95000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

Just then, a young man made a bid. After hesitating for a long time, he had still chosen to bid. This Reversal Sun Pill was too valuable.

“I bid 97000 high-quality spiritual stones.”

On the other side, a centaur raised the bid by another 2000 upper spiritual stones. It seemed like he was just a step away from the 100000 mark...

“This Centaur race fellow Daoist has bid 97000. Is there anyone else willing to bid?”

Lin Mo looked at the four bidders with great interest. He was only short of 3000. He wanted to see if he could exceed 100000...

“I’ll pay... Ninety-eight thousand!”

Another creature had stood up. It had a pair of bone wings on its back, which was very strange.

Although he had only increased the price by 1000 pills, he had still gone through a huge mental struggle. After all, the price was extremely high...

"Is there any other fellow Daoist who wants to bid?" Lin Mo spoke at the right time.

At this moment, everyone was looking at the last person who was still bidding. It was a middle-aged man with an uncertain expression on his face. He was still hesitating.

Without rushing him, Lin Mo merely waited. The others also looked at him.

Everyone was looking forward to seeing if this Reversal Sun Pill could be sold for 100000...

...

"Alright, this old man will offer a hundred thousand..."

After a mental struggle, he suddenly raised his head, gritted his teeth, and shouted out the price that everyone was looking forward to.

"A hundred thousand high quality spiritual stones. The highest price of a Reversal Sun Pill in the outside world is around eighty-five thousand."

"That's right. However, in the ancient battlefield, the Reversal Sun Pill is very crucial. It's very tempting to some old fellows..."

Some people were talking about how this divine pill had no benefits for some geniuses. Taking it to break through would instead damage one's foundation.

However, to someone who had already severed his own cultivation and started cultivating from the beginning, this flaw was nothing.

After all, they had reached this level before. Cultivating again would only mean accumulating energy again...

"Deal. Congratulations to this fellow Daoist."

Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and completed the transaction with the person, successfully obtaining 100000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.

"Channel all of them into the inner world."

With a command in his heart, the 100000 supreme-grade spiritual stones that he had just put into the system space immediately turned into powder.

...

A huge amount of pure spiritual qi was swallowed by the system space, but there were no strange changes in the system space.

[Injection is successful. You've received the Level 7 Heaven-class Soundwave Martial Arts Technique, Golden Lion Tiger Roar.]

A scroll appeared out of thin air. Lin Mo glanced at it with his mind and tossed it aside, being too lazy to read it.

This sound wave martial arts had a strange attack method that could directly attack the soul.

However, it didn't match his usual fighting style, so it was useless to learn it. He could either sell it or give it away in the future...

Moreover, there would be no rebate for auctioning off such a system-rewarded treasure.

Even the supreme-grade spiritual stones that could be inserted into the system space had to be obtained through an auction.

Although ordinary supreme-grade spiritual stones could also be inserted and could also produce a nourishing effect, there was no reward for it.

At the same time, the rebate treasure of this auction also appeared.

[Congratulations, host, for successfully auctioning the Level 6 Heaven-class Reversal Sun Pill.]

[Successfully triggered 3000-fold auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host for obtaining a Heaven-class Level 7 divine pill, Soul Refining Pill.]

As its name suggested, it was a divine pill that could refine the soul and greatly increase the strength of the soul.

To those with weak soul power, this was a rare treasure.

Since it was a Level 7 Heaven-class treasure, it could increase the power of the soul greatly. It was a rare treasure.

“The auction will continue. The next auction item...”

It was a very grand auction. It lasted for six hours and over a hundred treasures were auctioned.

Of course, half of that number included items that were auctioned off, but he also earned treasures through the rebate system which was very generous.

As for what he had taken out, as long as the final deal was a supreme-grade spiritual stone, he immediately put it into his inner world.

As a result, he received many generous rewards, and was even very lucky to obtain a Quasi-Immortal level treasure.

In addition, there were many Level 9 heaven class divine pills and divine medicines that appeared during the auction, so he also obtained a quasi-immortal level divine medicine.

It just so happened that, along with the recent stock, the promised reward for the Rainbow Winged Bird was ready.

Lin Mo was overjoyed by this. There were simply too many treasures on the ancient battlefield.

Countless living beings would auction off treasures that they had no use for in order to obtain cultivation resources.

It could even be said that as long as Lin Mo held an auction, he would be able to receive a large number of treasures to be auctioned off.

In addition to the reputation he had built up in the hearts of the people, his business would definitely be booming.

“Time flies. In the blink of an eye, it’s already close to the grand finale. Moreover, a few new fellow Daoists have just arrived.”

Lin Mo smiled and gestured for the maidservant beside him to leave. He then handed the treasure over to the person who had won the bid.

“There are still three items left, and they are all one in ten thousand treasures.”

The last three auction items could even cause great saints to fight for them in the outside world...

Other than the finale, the other two items weren’t at the Quasi-Immortal level, but they weren’t far off either.

“Bzzzzzz!”

As Lin Mo took out a burning elixir from the system space, the temperature in the air suddenly rose.

Some people’s breathing instantly became heavy as they stared at Lin Mo in disbelief.

Some creatures recognized this item and were shocked. The rest of the people only realized it later and their eyes widened in disbelief. innread.com

“Oh my god! It turned out that it was this kind of divine pill! Judging by its aura, it’s already very close to the Quasi-Immortal Level immortal pill...”

“If it was a normal Heaven-class Level 9 divine pill, it would only cost seventy thousand to eighty thousand supreme-grade spiritual stones at most.”

“However, this pill is about to advance to the Quasi-Immortal level, so it’s extremely valuable. Therefore, I set the starting price at seventy thousand high-quality spiritual stones, and each bid should be no less than ten thousand high-quality spiritual stones.”

As soon as this was said, some people who had been eager to make a move shook their heads and sighed.

Although they had obtained a large number of supreme-grade spiritual stones, how many people could afford such a high price?

“Seven hundred and ten thousand high-quality spiritual stones.”

“Seven hundred and thirty thousand...”

Some people were silent, but there were also others who were fighting to be the first to bid, not daring to be the slightest bit careless.

This was a Fire Dao Divine Pill, which was extremely attractive to cultivators of the fire attribute.

No matter who it was, the price to pay to defeat them was still a little high...

“Eight hundred thousand...”

Suddenly, a crisp female voice was heard. The door of the hall was pushed open, and a few people walked in. The aura on their bodies was very powerful.

“Eh, isn’t that one of the managers of the Molin Chamber of Commerce, Miss Song Lianxue?”

Some people were puzzled and recognized one of them because they were often seen in the Chamber of Commerce.

It was no secret that Song Lianxue and Mao Zhu had cultivated the great Dao of Fire.

There was nothing wrong with her participating in the auction, but they had not expected Song Lianxue to be with another person...

“The Holy Maiden of the Snow Valley, Xue Qing...”

“This is strange. Miss Mao Zhu seems to be from Snow Valley. She is a rogue cultivator from Snow Valley. The Snow Valley is so well hidden. I’m afraid that she and Song Lianxue are not just casual cultivators...”

Some creatures were muttering, feeling sure that their guess was correct.

This statement was also acknowledged by many people, but at the same time, they were still shocked.

A gradually declining Snow Valley had actually given birth to three masters. They had not expected them to be so well hidden.

“Snow Valley... A centipede dies but never falls down. As expected, we can't leave them to develop...”

A master spoke bluntly without any reservation, attracting the sidelong glances of many.

“The ruler of Xue State, the young sect master of the Ice Imperial Sect.”

They were all very familiar with this person's identity. He had once distinguished himself on the ancient battlefield and defeated many masters.

Even though they were not as famous as Lin Mo and Xiao Yun, no one would doubt their true combat strength.

“You're thinking too much. I'm currently a wandering cultivator, and Song Lianxue is a disciple of the Snow Valley. It's just that I didn't show it before,” said Mao Zhu as she walked out from the side of the hall.

She waved at Song Lianxue, and the two met. After a short conversation, they went backstage.

“I'm a bit late. However, I'm quite interested in this Fire Dao Divine Pill. I wonder if everyone is willing to part with it?” The Snow Valley Holy Maiden chuckled as she led her people into the auction house.

She was originally of the ice attribute and had cultivated the simplified version of the Snow Valley's legacy-level cultivation technique, the Ice Seal Scroll.

Lin Mo could guess the purpose of the auction.

He just didn't know if she would still have the chance to auction off the cultivation and martial arts techniques after auctioning off this Fire Dao Divine Pill.

“What a coincidence. I have a friend who cultivates the great Dao of Fire. This Fire Dao Divine Pill is compatible with him so I can't give it up.”

On the other side, the young sect master of the Ice Imperial Sect had spoken. The people around him immediately understood and stood up to bid eighty five high-quality spiritual stones.

...

“Young Sect Master Wu Yue, if you want to target me, just say it. Why do you need to find so many excuses?” A male disciple of the Snow Valley said bluntly out of dissatisfaction.

Wu Yue had not spoken before the arrival of the people from Snow Valley, but now that they had just made a bid, he had immediately joined the bidding.

His intention to suppress them was already very obvious.

“There’s no need to say more. Eight hundred and seventy thousand,” said Xue Qing as she waved her hand to indicate that the disciple should step down and continue to bid.

“I’m very satisfied to see the two of you bidding. However, I have to remind you that the competition for the last treasure is very strong. It’ll be very difficult to acquire...”

Out of consideration for Song Lianxue, Lin Mo had spoken up just at the right, hinting at the Holy Maiden of the Snow Valley, Xue Qing.

The other party’s aim was probably to give the Fire Dao Divine Pill to Song Lianxue.

Song Lianxue had probably called her over to ask her to bid for the two Quasi-Immortal Level martial arts, the Ice God technique and Ice God Palm, for the Snow Valley.

“Ninety-eight thousand supreme-grade spiritual stones. This Fire Dao Divine Pill is mine,” Xue Qing said as she continued to bid against Wu Yue.

The price of the Fire Dao Divine Pill had been raised to One point seven million supreme-grade spiritual stones.

With such a high price, he could almost buy some Quasi-Immortal Level immortal materials.

...

However, based on the trend of these two people, it was likely that they would have to continue bidding and raise the price even higher...

The other living beings did not find it boring either and watched this scene with great interest.

The dispute between the Snow Valley and the Ice Imperial Sect had caused many busybodies to cheer. Some people even secretly used a supreme treasure to transmit their voices and incited the two to continue bidding.

“One million eight hundred thousand!”

“One million ninety thousand!”

“One million one hundred thousand!”

The auction’s atmosphere suddenly dropped to a freezing point as the bids were called out one after another. The cold air was mixed with a little bit of killing intent...

The disciples from both sides glared at each other with hostility.

Seeing this, Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and laughed dryly, “Ahem... My temple can not allow the two of you to fight. Please forgive me and do not ruin my place...”

Hearing this, the coldness in the air disappeared instantly, and the two sides, who had originally been staring daggers at each other, immediately stopped looking at each other.

Wu Yue, the young master of the Ice Imperial Sect, looked at Lin Mo and took two steps back.

“Naturally, since President Lin has spoken, I will have to give him some face,” he said.

“The price of this Fire Path Divine Pill is already high enough. In order not to affect President Lin’s auction, let’s give it to Snow Valley.”

As soon as he said this, the disciple beside him immediately went forward and spoke.

“Young Master Wu is merciful. Considering that the people from Snow Valley have been well-behaved all these years and have fulfilled the etiquette of a subordinate, I will reward you with this divine pill...”

His voice was very sharp and harsh as if he was deliberately insulting the other party. He even used spiritual qi to spread it out for a long time.

“Ugh, it looks like I have to get involved in this dispute...”

Lin Mo was helpless. The people from Snow Valley had never let Song Lianxue down, and all the resources shared were based on ability and talent.

This made it impossible for Song Lianxue to betray the people of Snow Valley. So, between the Ice Imperial Sect and the Snow Valley Clan, the only choice that could be made by the Molin Chamber of Commerce was the latter.

Shaking his head, Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and announced the result of the auction.

The price of 1,100,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones had exceeded the price of the Fire Dao Divine Pill. Lin Mo was still very shocked when he obtained so many supreme-grade spiritual stones,

He immediately injected these supreme-grade spiritual stones into his inner world.

[Successful injection. Reward: a Fire Dao Divine Pill of the same quality.]

The system’s voice sounded. This time, he was a little surprised. The reward he received this time was actually an identical Fire Dao Divine Pill.

At the same time, the system’s voice sounded again.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning off the Heaven-grade Level 9 Fire Dao Divine Pill.]

[Successfully triggered 3,000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations to the host, for obtaining a Quasi-Immortal Level Fire Dao Immortal Pill.]

It was another pill related to the Fire Dao, and it was an immortal pill. This made Lin Mo feel a little helpless.

He could devour it himself, but it would be too wasteful. In comparison, it would be better to sell it.

“I’ll keep it for now. It will be useful eventually.”

Under everyone’s expectant gazes, Lin Mo reached out and took out a glowing object the size of a baby’s fist.

As soon as it appeared, the temperature in the air suddenly dropped by a few degrees.

Just from the aura, people could determine that this was a treasure of the cold attribute or the ice attribute.

“This is an Iceheart Snow Crystal, Level 9 Heaven-class. Unfortunately, it was discovered in advance and its growth was interrupted. ”

Lin Mo sighed. It was a pity that such a treasure had been destroyed like this.

“A complete Iceheart Snow Crystal should be at the Quasi-Immortal level. If it can be nurtured for another hundred years, it will reach this level.”

Hearing this, many living beings shook their heads and sighed.

At the same time, they were also cursing the person who had picked this treasure early and cut off its chance to grow again.

“This is a treasure that was put up for auction by someone else. The other party wants a supreme-grade spiritual stone. Of course, all kinds of precious divine medicines and divine pills can also be auctioned. ”

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and announced the start of the auction.

At the same time, some people were also paying close attention to two places in the hall.

They were the Snow Valley Saintess Xue Qing and the Ice Imperial Sect's Young Sect Master Wu Yue.

The Iceheart Snow Crystal was a fatal attraction to the two people with ice attributes. It was even more than half of the Quasi-Immortal treasures.

Seeing this scene, Xue Qing frowned slightly. She finally felt troubled.

The purpose of buying the Fire Dao Divine Pill at the auction had been to rope Song Lianxue in. The latter's talent had increased greatly, and she had gotten to know Lin Mo and the Qilin. She also had a close relationship with her good friend Mao Zhu.

No matter what, this Fire Dao Divine Pill had to be auctioned off as a gift.

Her purpose for coming here had also been for the Ice God technique. For this, she had paid a huge price to bring a Quasi-Immortal Level immortal medicine.

She had thought that she would be able to successfully bid for it, but now, the Iceheart Snow Crystal had appeared...

"Sigh..."

She sighed slightly, but felt compelled to bid 900,000 when Lin Mo announced the starting price of 800,000...

Wu Yue of the Ice Imperial Sect almost cursed out loud.

"Holy Lady Xue Qing, do you really have that many spiritual stones? If you bid randomly, you will only embarrass your people of Snow Valley," yelled out the Ice Imperial Sect disciple.

"Please don't disturb the order of the auction. You may pay on credit for this auction. I've said it before," reminded Lin Mo. innread.com

However, even if she could buy it on credit, perhaps Xue Qing would not bid for the Iceheart Snow Crystal.

She still had to think about Snow Valley. She had to bring this cultivation method and martial arts technique back...

“930,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones,” said Wu Yue as he unhappily raised his bid.

Who would have thought that just as he made his bid, Xue Qing would raise the price again, directly raising it to 1,000,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones?

“B*tch...”

He silently cursed. Earlier, he had raised the price and made Xue Qing pay a high price to buy the Fire Dao Divine Pill. Now, he was tasting the bitter fruit...

“Why, is the young sect master of the Ice Imperial Sect living such a miserable life? Giving up a mere 1,000,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones? This is a loss of face for the supreme leader of the Snow State.”

The disciples of Snow Valley were definitely very experienced in beating up a fallen dog. One after another, they began to mock him.

“Hmph, Little Doyle, 1.1 million. ”

...

“1,200,000. Please forgive me, Young Sect Leader. Xue Qing will not give up this Iceheart Snow Crystal...” Xue Qing chuckled.

“Young Sect Leader...”

On the Ice Imperial Sect’s side, several disciples wanted to calm Wu Yue down.

After all, there were still more cultivation techniques to come. There was no need to spend such a huge price.

“Get lost,” Wu Yue snorted coldly and kicked one of the disciples to the ground. He looked at Xue Qing coldly and carefully said, “1.3 million. If you have the guts, continue following me. ”

The atmosphere became tense again. Some busybodies wanted to secretly provoke him, but Lin Mo discovered them with his powerful soul power. He sent a voice transmission to warn them not to act rashly.

“1.3 million going once!”

He struck the auction hammer, wanting to end the auction as soon as possible.

He had no choice. He was really afraid that the two sides would fight. At that time, who would he help?

If they were biased, it would damage the reputation of the Molin Chamber of Commerce. If they were not biased, the disciples of Snow Valley would probably have something to say about it...

They still had to work together in the future, so he preferred to make money in peace.

...

“1,310,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

Contrary to everyone’s expectations, Xue Qing didn’t compromise and smiled lightly at the increase of ten thousand.

This caused the Ice Imperial Sect’s disciples to become enraged, and they were all on the verge of attacking...

“Alright, you guys are amazing. Please continue...”

Lin Mo rolled his eyes. It seemed that he had underestimated the feud between the two clans.

“1.35 million.”

Wu Yue’s face was as dark as water. He made another bid of 1,350,000. This price was already much higher than the Iceheart Snow Crystal.

Perhaps, if Xue Qing raised the bid again, Wu Yue would really give up.

As such, the competition for the Ice God technique had nothing to do with the people of Snow Valley.

“Fine, since Young Sect Master likes the Iceheart Snow Crystal so much, Xue Qing will fulfill his wish and give up.”

Xue Qing smiled brightly, causing the eyes of some people to widen.

However, there were also people who looked at Xue Qing in fear. This lady really held a grudge. Because Wu Yue had raised the price of her previous bid, she had immediately taken revenge...

“Deal. Congratulations, Young Sect Master Wu Yue. ”

Lin Mo chuckled and knocked on the auction hammer. At the same time, he ordered someone to send the Iceheart Snow Crystal down. He also received 1.35 million supreme-grade spiritual stones in return.
