

I Inherit An Auction House At The Start, Trillion Times Rebate!

Chapter 767 - 767 Dao Stone of Enlightenment

Unfortunately, he could only get the handling fee of the auction, which was 5% or 67,500 supreme-grade spiritual stones.

He was quite satisfied with this and injected it into his inner world on the spot.

[Successful injection. Reward: Heaven-tier Level 6 Ice Chalcedony]

A treasure of the ice attribute that could be used for cultivation was pretty good. He could also absorb it directly.

[Congratulations to the host for successfully auctioning the Heaven-tier Level 9 Iceheart Snow Crystal.]

[Successfully triggered 6,000 times auction rebate.]

[Congratulations, host, for obtaining a Quasi-Immortal Level Iceheart Snow Crystal.]

Although the number of times was still acceptable, the treasure that was returned was also at the Quasi-Immortal level. It was the complete version of the Iceheart Snow Crystal.

Even he couldn't bear to devour such a treasure directly.

Whether it was him or the Qilin, it would be too wasteful to use this. Only cultivators with the ice attribute would be the most suitable for it.

Currently, neither the Snow Valley's Holy Maiden Xue Qing nor the Ice Imperial Sect's Young Sect Master Wu Yue was suitable.

However, Lin Mo had no intention of giving it away for the time being. Perhaps he would save it for the next auction as the treasure in the finale...

"Finally, the final moment has arrived. I believe everyone has been waiting for a long time."

Lin Mo chuckled and took out a sky-blue scroll.

As soon as it appeared, the temperature in the air suddenly dropped.

A layer of ice mist slowly condensed around his body. One could see the divinity of this cultivation technique.

“Quasi-Immortal Level cultivation technique, Ice God Technique, and the accompanying martial arts technique, Ice God Palm. The starting price is 1,800,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

“Of course, if you don’t have enough supreme-grade spiritual stones, you can also use various treasures to offset the price.”

As soon as he finished speaking and before Xue Qing and Wu Yue could even make a move, three powerful auras suddenly appeared in the hall.

Without exception, these people were all masters of the same realm as Xue Qing and the others.

The difference in combat strength was not big, and it was not clear who would be stronger when they fought.

Moreover, among the three of them, two of them had the ice attribute, and one had the power of yin in his body. They were all extremely suitable for this cultivation technique.

“It was hidden so deeply...”

Xue Qing was shocked and gave a slight sigh. It was a little difficult to successfully bid for cultivation techniques and martial arts at this auction.

“I’ll pay one million supreme-grade spiritual stones, seven Heaven-grade Level 9 divine pills, and three Heaven-grade Level 9 divine medicines.”

Someone was the first to speak, making a very high bid. The total price exceeded two million supreme-grade spiritual stones.

In the end, Lin Mo set the price at 2.2 million supreme-grade spiritual stones.

Such a high price caused the others to fall silent. At this moment, Xue Qing stood out and took out the Quasi-Immortal medicine that she had been keeping.

“I bid 300,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones, plus a Quasi-Immortal medicine, the ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.”

As soon as the Quasi-Immortal Level immortal medicine appeared, everyone was shocked as they stared at Xue Qing’s palm without blinking.

On the palm of her hand was a box carved out of ice crystals. After opening it, a snow-white ginseng lay inside.

Runes wrapped around its body, binding the Ginseng King.

One had to know that divine medicine already possessed the wisdom of some living beings, knowing how to seek good fortune and avoid disaster.

Quasi-Immortal medicine was even more mystical. Other than being unable to speak, it could even be treated as a normal living being.

It had a certain level of combat strength and was very weak, but it could penetrate many runes and formations.

After being caught, it would think of a way to escape and would not be easily eaten by living beings.

It was very difficult for such a spiritual treasure to be born in the world. At the same Quasi-Immortal Level, the value of immortal medicine even exceeded some ordinary cultivation techniques and martial arts.

As for the Ice God technique and Ice God Palm that Lin Mo was auctioning off, they were priceless because they were a set.

“It really is the Ginseng King. It’s good stuff,” exclaimed Lin Mo as he felt very tempted. He immediately set the price of this Quasi-Immortal Level plant at three million supreme-grade spiritual stones.

In addition, Xue Qing had 300,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones, so the price exceeded the others.

As for Wu Yue, he took out a pile of divine medicines and divine pills and emptied out his savings, but he only managed to gather 2.4 million, which was far from enough.

If he had not bought the Iceheart Snow Crystal, he would have had a chance to surpass Xue Qing’s price.

“It is unexpected that even a Quasi-Immortal medicine has appeared...”

Lin Mo smiled and looked to the other side. There were a total of five people who were qualified to compete.

One of them immediately retreated after seeing the Quasi-Immortal medicine. He felt that he could not win the competition and was unwilling to stay.

There was still one last person left. Lin Mo had a premonition that this person had a Quasi-Immortal treasure in his hands.

He just didn't know which was more valuable compared to the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

“Are you still willing to bid? If you are not willing, then this Quasi-Immortal level cultivation method and martial arts technique will belong to Holy Lady Xue Qing,” said Lin Mo calmly. He didn't mind selling these two things to anyone of them. After all, they weren't enemies.

As long as it wasn't the young sect master of the Ice Imperial Sect.

“I'll have to trouble President Lin to set the price.”

The other party spoke slowly. He was dressed in a black robe and a bamboo hat. His voice was deliberately hoarse as he did not want to expose his identity.

Everyone looked over, wanting to know what kind of treasure it was that could be compared to a Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

“I have a Dao Stone of Enlightenment here. It's the size of a palm and its grade is at the Quasi-Immortal Level.”

Dao Stones of Enlightenment were the most popular no matter where they were.

Moreover, it was a Quasi-Immortal Level Stone of Enlightenment. If he could really obtain it, the Qilin could use it to comprehend the Dao.

Within three years, she would almost certainly break through to the Quasi-Saint realm. At that time, her battle prowess would be greatly improved.

“It truly is a treasure...”

Everyone was shocked. This was too precious, especially the Stone of Enlightenment. Although it was only the size of a palm, it was comparable to a Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

“It’s a good treasure. Although it’s small, it’s not inferior to a Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King. And because of its rarity, it’s priced at 3.2 million supreme-grade spiritual stones. ”

Lin Mo gave a fair price. He was still 100,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones away from Xue Qing’s bid.

Hearing this, the other party took out another cloth bag. There were exactly 110,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones in it.

“Holy Maiden Xue Qing, are you still willing to increase the price?” Lin Mo turned around to ask.

He didn’t want to miss out on the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King, but he also wanted this Stone of Enlightenment and he had already made up his mind.

“Forget it. It seems that this item has no fate with my Snow Valley. I will give up...”

Xue Qing sighed slightly. The other party could obviously offer a higher price. It was a little tactless of her to insist on competing.

However, she did not feel any regret.

The moment she had seen the Fire Dao Divine Pill, she had decided to buy it, no matter how much it cost.

What Song Lianxue had done for Snow Valley was only the cost of a Fire Dao Divine Pill. It was not enough to repay her.

“In that case, this cultivation technique will be auctioned off to this fellow Daoist at the price of 3,310,000 supreme-grade spiritual stones.”

Lin Mo tapped the auction hammer and tossed the scroll out. At the same time, the Qilin who had been hiding in the shadows also appeared, intimidating some of the thieves who were about to be blinded by greed.

The terrifying aura of the two people spread out, and some soul fluctuations that had wanted to secretly spy on the buyer's identity were immediately shattered.

“Ah...”

Some of these creatures screamed. Their soul fluctuations were shattered and they were injured.

Terrified, they stared at Lin Mo and the Qilin. They did not dare to stay any longer. They quickly crushed a Teleportation Talisman and left.

Chapter 768 - 768 The Deal

768 The Deal

“Wow, a Stone of Enlightenment. It's for me, right? ” The Qilin was very excited as she stared at the Stone of Enlightenment in Lin Mo's hand and drooled.

“When the time comes, I'll give you a better piece...” said Lin Mo as he held his forehead as he told the little girl to behave herself.

He looked at the black-robed man who had put away the scroll. The other party was already preparing to leave. Lin Mo hurriedly said, “Do you need me to ask the Qilin to send you off? I guarantee that no one will follow you.”

He was very patient with big clients. After all, they had given him such a precious treasure.

“Thank you, President Lin. There’s no need for it for now. Next time you have a treasure, remember to publicize it more...”

The other party’s hoarse voice spread out. After a spatial fluctuation, his figure disappeared.

Lin Mo also interfered, disrupting the spatial fluctuations, thus making it impossible for others to track the person down. Many creatures nodded upon witnessing this.

Their good impression of the Molin Chamber of Commerce soared. It was rare to see such a responsible chamber of commerce association in the world...

“Everyone, the auction is over. You may start to leave.”

After saying a few simple words, Lin Mo left and gathered with the Qilin and the others in a small courtyard.

Zhao Tianyu did not come. He was in charge of various matters after the auction. At the same time, he was purchasing treasures to prepare for the next auction.

Feng Tian had sensed something during his cultivation recently. He had left Lin City when Lin Mo came out of seclusion today to explore the ruins and seek an opportunity to make a breakthrough.

Only Lin Mo, the Qilin, Song Lianxue, and Mao Zhu had invited the disciples of the Snow Valley to come.

After some small talk, Xue Qing took out the Fire Dao Divine Pill and gave it to Song Lian Xue.

“Thank you, Holy Maiden...”

Song Lian Xue accepted it guiltily. If it wasn’t for the Fire Dao Divine Pill, Xue Qing would have been able to buy the Ice God technique.

“The two of you practice the same cultivation method. It’s better to take it together.”

After witnessing Song Lianxue obtain the Fire Dao Divine Pill, Lin Mo didn’t back down and took out another Fire Dao Divine Pill.

Seeing a precious divine pill given out just like that caused the Snow Valley disciples who were present to be greatly shocked. At the same time, they looked at Mao Zhu with envy.

This person was very famous within the Snow State. She had entered the Hidden Dragon List as a rogue cultivator and was someone that the Snow Valley and Ice Imperial Sect were trying their best to rope in.

Unexpectedly, she had chosen to join the lineup of the God Devouring Body in the ancient battlefield.

However, after seeing such treatment, they understood why Mao Zhu was willing to give up her identity as a rogue cultivator...

“Oh right, are you willing to exchange the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King with me?”

Lin Mo had suddenly turned to ask Xue Qing this question after giving out the Fire Dao Divine Pill.

The disciples of the Snow Valley tensed up and looked at Lin Mo.

A sense of powerlessness arose, causing them to feel despair.

At such a close distance, Lin Mo could probably kill all of them, including the Holy Maiden Xue Qing...

“Senior brothers and sisters, there’s no need to be so worried. Brother Lin will not forcefully take away anything from his friends...”

Seeing that the atmosphere was not right, Song Lianxue hurriedly explained, causing the Snow Valley disciples to heave a sigh of relief.

“I thought that Brother Lin would not take a fancy to my Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King...” Xue Qing blinked and looked at Lin Mo.

There was a hint of resentment in her eyes. She was dissatisfied that Lin Mo had not sold the cultivation technique in the auction to her, even though she knew that he was impartial and that the Dao Stone of Enlightenment was indeed more valuable than the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King...

“Ahem, I have something in my hand that might interest Lady Xue Qing.”

Lin Mo coughed dryly and quickly took out the complete Iceheart Snow Crystal from the system space.

An icy cold aura filled the entire courtyard. In an instant, the lake was frozen, and everyone felt a bone-chilling chill.

This ice attribute energy was extremely dense, possessing an irresistible allure for any ice attribute cultivator.

“This is... a complete Iceheart Snow Crystal...”

Xue Qing’s eyes narrowed as she covered her mouth with her hand. She found it hard to believe the scene in front of her.

Pure white light spread out, and the entire courtyard turned to snow.

Everyone stared at the pure white crystal in Lin Mo’s hand without blinking. After confirming it carefully, they finally nodded.

This was truly an Iceheart Snow Crystal, and it was of extremely high quality. It was the complete version, and its price was even higher than a Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

“How about this item in exchange?” Lin Mo chuckled.

The Iceheart Snow Crystal didn’t have much effect on him. This pure ice attribute power could only be maximized if it was absorbed by a suitable person.

His blind devouring was purely a reckless waste of natural resources. It was a kind of extravagant waste.

“Brother Lin, are you serious?” Xue Qing’s eyes were fixed on the Iceheart Snow Crystal, unable to move her gaze away.

This was an extremely rare item. Even in the Snow State where it was winter all year long and where snow was everywhere, one might not find many Iceheart Snow Crystals.

Moreover, this treasure was hidden deep in the glacier and was difficult to find.

There was one in Snow Valley, but it was still incomplete. Even so, it was still worshipped as a treasure.

The Valley Master had given her a request. She could only absorb the Iceheart Snow Crystal after she had mastered the Great Frost Sealing Scripture.

However, a complete Iceheart Snow Crystal was right in front of her, and she couldn't take her eyes off it.

"Of course it's true. Compared to this, I prefer the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King."

Lin Mo nodded with a smile and handed the Iceheart Snow Crystal to Xue Qing.

The latter hurriedly took it and took out a box carved out of ice. Inside was a Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

"This Dao Stone of Enlightenment and the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King are not bad. They can be auctioned off as finale treasures."

"However, in order to appear in the auction at the same time, a treasure that is sufficiently stunning will be needed as the finale..." Lin Mo muttered. He was thinking about when the next auction would take place and what treasures to auction off...

Quasi-Immortal Level martial arts and cultivation techniques could not appear in the short term.

After all, if he took too many out, it would easily arouse suspicion. At that time, if he was targeted, it would be troublesome.

"I can try to sell some Immortal Pills..."

As for immortal pills, he still had a Quasi-Immortal Level Fire Dao Immortal Pill.

Since there was only one, it would not be easy to distribute it. Thus, he also planned to sell it in exchange for supreme-grade spiritual stones for cultivation.

After all, apart from the fact that he needed spiritual stones to break through to the God Devouring Body, the system also said that he needed supreme-grade spiritual stones in the inner world.

By the looks of it, he would probably need quite a lot. At that time, it would end up being another bottomless pit...

“Are you out of your mind? You want to sell such a treasure?”

After hearing Lin Mo whisper this, the person beside him glared at Lin Mo like an angry kitten.

Whether it was the Dao Stone of Enlightenment or the Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King, she coveted them all and wanted to get them directly.

However, in the end, Lin Mo wanted to use it as a treasure for the next auction. How could she accept this...

“Stop fooling around. I said that I would give you something better...”

Lin Mo held down the little girl who wanted to snatch it away and reached out to rub her little head, ruffling her hair until it was a mess...

The Qilin bared her fangs and brandished her claws as she fought Lin Mo ferociously. She grabbed Lin Mo’s arm and bit down hard.

“Hiss...”

Lin Mo had used all his strength. But even with his physical body, he was still bitten and blood flowed out.

“Are you a dog...”

Lin Mo was furious. The pain from his arm made him roll his eyes as he looked on helplessly. This wretched girl had really bit him.

“Hmph!”

Laughter filled the courtyard. Only the Qilin pouted and turned her face away, ignoring Lin Mo.

Seeing this, Lin Mo was speechless. It took him a lot of effort to coax this angry little girl.

“I can tell that Brother Lin is a good brother,” Xue Qing joked. She had heard rumors about the Qilin earlier, but they had not been good.

Although she was a divine beast, she was also a demonic beast. It had once been said that she had crippled the four demonic generals of the Behemoth Clan with just one move, and its eyes had turned red from the kill.

Facing the siege from the Earth Dragon, the Wind Dragon, and the Zhu Yan clans, all three masters had fled in a panic.

She had believed all of the rumors until she had witnessed such a cute side of her today...

“She does have a little conscience.”

The Qilin pursed her lips. She still refused to forgive Lin Mo, but her evaluation of him improved slightly.

The small gathering came to an end, and Xue Qing left with the people from Snow Valley.

Song Lianxue continued to stay because Mao Zhu had obtained the Fire Dao Divine Pill.

The two of them had the same cultivation technique, so they went into seclusion together.

After about ten days, Feng Tian returned with a few divine herbs and some news from the outside world.

Tang Ru of the Sacred Blood Dragon Clan went into seclusion and began to cultivate to make her bloodline purer.

The Dragon Palace returned to peace and was no longer active.

On the other hand, Xiao Yun from the Hidden Dragon Pavilion and the Young Master White Fox from the Nine-Tailed Fox Clan had been having some friction recently.

Lin Mo and the Qilin stayed in Lin City and did not go out much. Xia You had already killed himself and left, leaving the entire ancient battlefield as a place for the two of them to fight.

In the blink of an eye, a month passed. During this period of time, Lin City remained the same.

Every day, he held auctions of various sizes, and Lin Mo received a large number of resources for this.

With the help of these cultivation resources, both he and the Qilin successfully broke through and reached the Sixth Heaven Layer of the King Realm.

However, before they could be happy, a terrifying phenomenon spread, and a brilliant heavenly might appeared.

Thunderclouds descended on the continent, and a terrifying Heavenly Tribulation was born.

“This is the Quasi-Saint Lightning Tribulation...”

It was a very important piece of news that a living being had broken through to the Quasi-Saint Realm.

A King and a Quasi-Saint realms were a dividing line that was difficult to cross.

The entire Lin City was in an uproar. A Quasi-Saint was going to appear so soon?

However, he did not know which senior had killed himself and entered the battlefield to cultivate again.

He hadn't shown himself until now, when the Quasi-Saint's Heavenly Tribulation had exposed his whereabouts.

"This person's aura is strong, and his realm fluctuates greatly. He must have just made a breakthrough," Lin Mo muttered.

This meant that this person had been in seclusion near Lin City for some time. The cultivation resources might even have been obtained from Lin City.

"I just don't know if they are friend or foe..."

Behind him, three people walked over with solemn expressions on their faces. This Quasi-Saint Heavenly Tribulation was only the beginning. Next, the ones who would rule this battlefield would be these Quasi-Saints who had just made a breakthrough...

"Miss Fang Luo, how is the Three Gods Sword Formation doing?" Lin Mo asked when he saw the three of them.

All this while, these three had been so obsessed with formations that they had forgotten to eat and sleep as they worked hard to study the Celestial Slaying Sword Formation.

The Three Gods Sword Formation that was derived from this could be triggered independently under the continuous improvement of the three of them.

Now that Xia You was not around, Mu Yuzhu could not be contacted for a short period of time.

With one less person in the formation eye, it would be a flaw when it was activated.

"Don't worry, President. Everything is perfect. As long as you and the Qilin are here, there's no need to fear Quasi-Saint powerhouses," Fang Luo said excitedly, her eyes shining.

This was the greatest improvement in their research during this period of time. By gathering the three formation cores, they could be controlled by one person.

Even so, the terrifying energy of the three Quasi-Saints would cause damage to the people guarding the center.

However, the Qilin and Lin Mo both had extraordinary bodies, and they had reached the peak of the King Realm.

Withstanding the power of a Quasi-Saint would not be a problem at all.

“A great battle is coming. Lin City might be affected...” The Qilin said as she walked over from behind.

Fang Luo and the others were worried.

However, when they saw Lin Mo and the Qilin, her anxious heart relaxed again.

With these two and the Three Gods Sword Formation, there should be no problem protecting Lin City.

“Do you think there are any Quasi-Saint masters from the Gongsun Family and the Behemoth Clan who are hiding?”

Lin Mo had suddenly spoken. He had to consider this question.

Somehow, he felt uneasy. He felt that there was a master hiding in the shadows who was targeting Lin City and him...

This was just a feeling, an intuition after cultivating the Qilin spell technique ...

“There definitely is. Moreover, I should be breaking through to the Quasi-Saint realm soon...”

Fang Luo and the other two answered directly. Every time the Hidden Dragon List was opened, the various forces would send a few Quasi-Saints or even Saint-level masters.

They didn't participate in any battles. After they had entered, they had worked hard to cultivate and had consumed a large amount of heavenly and earthly treasures to reach the Quasi-Saint realm as quickly as possible.

As long as they could break through, they would be able to dominate this battlefield.

Any rogue cultivator or weak force that was unwilling to submit would only die.
innread.com

However, something unexpected happened this time. Gongsun Wenhao and Shentu Zhe had been kicked out by Lin Mo earlier.

The second time the former had entered, he had been killed by Lin Mo.

This enmity was huge. As long as these two Quasi-Saints broke through, they would definitely attack Lin City.

“What about the auction?” The Qilin was a little worried.

As early as a few days ago, they had started to publicize the Quasi-Immortal Level Dao Stone of Enlightenment and the Quasi-Immortal Level Ninth-grade Snow Ginseng King.

The appearance of the two treasures caused a sensation. The auction was set to be held half a month later, giving some people time to receive the news.

However, from the looks of it, that auction would probably attract Quasi-Saint powerhouses...

If it was an ordinary person, both he and the Qilin could still suppress them with their martial strength.

However, a Quasi-Saint master could not possibly activate the formation on the spot...

“The auction will proceed as usual. However, some treasures will be auctioned in advance. We will only sell these two treasures on the last day...”

Lin Mo had no choice but to make some adjustments. He could auction off some of the lower-grade treasures first.

“Zhao Tianyu is in seclusion... Sister Fang Luo, please go and make the arrangements...” The Qilin giggled as she didn’t want to be in charge.

As for Lin Mo, he left the Molin Chamber of Commerce after giving the order and started to stroll around Lin City.

A storm was coming, and he had to prepare early.

He still had some unused treasures on him, so it was necessary to exchange them for more useful ones.

This was especially true for battle-type talismans. It was very likely that they would play a key role in increasing his bravery in the upcoming battle.

“Green Wood Garden. I heard that the owner behind this is also a master who is ranked at the top of the Hidden Dragon List...”

Walking in Lin City, Lin Mo came to the entrance of a newly built courtyard.

He knocked on the wooden door. Two maids opened the door. When they saw that it was Lin Mo, they were shocked.

“The owner of this place is a talisman master, right? I have a business deal to discuss with her...”

Lin Mo chuckled and asked the two maids to lead the way.

After passing through the bluestone road, there was a lake in the small courtyard. There were a few ornamental fish in it, and they were all spiritual creatures.

In the middle of the lake, in a pavilion, there was a delicate and pretty woman with her eyes closed.

Her jade-like hands gently stroked the strings of the zither, and the sound of the zither curled up. The two maids were instantly intoxicated by it, enjoying it greatly.

Only Lin Mo’s eyes gradually turned solemn...

“I didn’t expect that a Quasi-Saint would be hidden in this small Lin City of mine, but I never knew about it...”

He let out a faint sigh and used his will to activate the system space. It should be called the Inner World now, and it was gradually changing.

It was closely related to Lin Mo and could spontaneously nurture the spiritual qi of heaven and earth...

“There is no need to be nervous. It is still unknown whether I can escape from your hands alone...”

The woman chuckled and opened her eyes. The zither music stopped abruptly.

The two female servants were shocked when they heard these words. They were completely stunned and did not dare to speak.

“Senior must be joking...” Lin Mo clasped his fists and bowed.

Never in his dreams had he expected that there would be a Quasi-Saint in Lin City...

“I had a breakthrough a month ago. The location of the tribulation is a little far so it’s not unusual that you didn’t notice.”

The woman beckoned her hand to invite Lin Mo over. The two maids made tea, not daring to be disrespectful.

“Speaking of which, I have to thank you for me being able to break through so quickly. Did you come to find me because you need talismans?”

She took a sip of tea. The only thing she could offer in this Qingmu Garden were talismans.

As a talisman master, her cultivation level had returned to that of a Saint-to-be, and she was more proficient in making talismans.

“I need to buy a batch of talismans. The higher the grade, the better. I want everything,” said Lin Mo as he explained his intentions.

For this, he took out three divine herbs, which were at Level 8 Heaven-class, and a dozen martial arts manuals, all of which were at Level 6 or 7 Heaven-class.

To him, this was nothing. After all, he needed to consume a large amount of divine medicine just to cultivate.

However, for ordinary people, this was still a huge sum of money.

“Is it to deal with the Quasi-Saint master that is about to arrive?” The woman chuckled. She already knew the situation Lin Mo was facing.

“I have other uses for it. Senior, please help me,” said Lin Mo as he clasped his fists together.

In fact, if one wanted to hurt a Saint-to-be, the level of the talisman would be around Level 6 or Level 7 of the Heaven-class.

However, due to the difficulty of making it, its value was seriously different from ordinary divine medicines.

At most, the treasures that Lin Mo had brought could only be exchanged for three Level 7 Heaven-class attack talismans. As one’s realm increased, the value of a talisman master would far exceed that of other sub-professions.

“I can give you three attack talismans and a defensive one. I’ll treat it as good karma,” said the woman as she accepted the divine medicine.

“Thank you, Senior.”

Lin Mo was overjoyed to see the other party take out four golden talismans.

In this way, this could be considered a trump card. Even if the Three Gods Sword Formation could not block the attack, he still had the support of the talismans...

After leaving Qingmu Garden, Lin Mo turned around and walked away to someplace else.

He headed to the most lively place in Lin City.

Unless the Molin Chamber of Commerce held an auction, it would be incomparable to this place.

“The black market. Speaking of which, I haven’t been here since it was established...”

Lin Mo looked at an entrance and muttered to himself.

There were all kinds of people in this place. It had only been established one or two years ago.

However, many treasures had also appeared since, and there was even one time when it had caused a commotion.

Someone spent a stalk of Semi-Divine medicine to buy a fragment of a Quasi-Immortal artifact and smelted it into his own artifact on the spot.

After hearing about this, Lin Mo had wanted to come to the black market to take a look.

However, because he had been busy cultivating, he had never had the chance.

He walked in and concealed his aura with the World-Changing Technique. He changed his appearance and walked in front of the stalls.

“Speaking of which, I seem to be able to use the Eye of Destiny...”

Lin Mo recalled that the Qilin spell had recorded how to control fate and how to use the Eye of Destiny to change one’s fate.

However, because he was not the divine beast Qilin, he could not use this move easily.

At most, the Qilin would only consume some of its origin energy. After all, it had the power of its bloodline.

However, he was different. Once he used it, he would probably not end up far from death. His realm was not enough. Even immortal medicine could not save him if he forcefully activated it...

“With fate on my side, I should be able to find some treasures...”

With a confident smile, he followed his instincts and stopped at each stall.

“Dark Demon Leg, Heaven-class Level 4 martial arts technique...”

“Heaven-class Level 5 Divine Medicine, Ten Thousand Year Blood Spirit Grass...”

A dazzling array of treasures came into his sight. Most of them were divine medicines and divine pills.

During this period, he could also see magic weapons, cultivation techniques, martial arts techniques, and even formation diagrams.

They were all treasures that would cause quite a stir in the outside world. Quasi-Saints would participate in the fight for them.

But here, it seemed a little ordinary. There were countless ruins on the battlefield, and there were many divine medicines growing everywhere.

With so many opportunities available, people’s standards had also become higher.

Divine medicines that were similar to Heaven-class Level 1 or 2 had already become ordinary items...

As he walked, Lin Mo was still not satisfied. After strolling through a street, he found more than ten treasures.

Unfortunately, when he asked about the prices, he could only shake his head helplessly.

Although he wouldn’t lose anything if he auctioned them off, there was no need to do this.

After sighing, he prepared to leave. He felt that his luck was not good today and decided to return to the Molin Chamber of Commerce to cultivate.

However, when he glanced out of the corner of his eye, he felt an inexplicable feeling in his heart. Coincidentally, he walked over to stand in front of a vendor.

There was a seven-colored jade stone being displayed here that was about the size of a baby’s fist and emitted a dazzling luster.

It emitted a special energy that made Lin Mo feel very comfortable.

“This is... a Rainbow-Colored Jade?”

Lin Mo was stunned. This was a rare jade stone. There was a gentle power inside of it that could be absorbed by people.

Regardless of whether it was a human or a demonic beast, after absorbing the power, it could greatly increase their cultivation and also have the effect of nourishing spiritual qi.

However, this effect was useless against Lin Mo. The spiritual qi of the God Devouring Body did not need to be nurtured...

“How much do you plan to sell this for?” Lin Mo asked.

“Heaven-class Level 7 Rainbow-Colored Jade, one Heaven-class Level 7 Divine Pill,” said the stall owner with an indifferent glance at the item.

“I feel like I’m not losing out...” Lin Mo thought to himself. In the past, when he had brought the Qilin along to search for treasures, the Qilin might have felt the same way.

“Alright, it’s a deal...”

He was too lazy to bargain. He quickly took out a divine pill and kept the Rainbow-Colored Jade aside.

“Hmm?”

The stall owner was a little stunned.

He was a little dumbfounded. He looked at Lin Mo, who had already walked far away, and could only swallow his words...

“D*mn it, why did you give me the money so quickly? Did I make a mistake? But that’s clearly a Rainbow-Colored Jade, so how could it be like that?”

The stall owner muttered to himself. He felt that he had suffered a loss, but he could not determine where he had suffered a loss...

On the other side, Lin Mo left the black market and stored the Rainbow-Colored Jade in his Inner World.

The system's voice sounded at this moment, helping him to appraise the Rainbow-Colored Jade.

[ Nine-Colored Jade Stone. A formation has been engraved inside, sealing the Nine-Colored Chalcedony. The jade stone's grade is Ninth-grade Heaven-class, and the chalcedony's grade is Quasi-Immortal class...]

Lin Mo almost cried out when he heard the notification.

This wasn't a Rainbow-Colored Jade at all. It was a Nine-Colored Jade, and there was a chalcedony inside of it.

It was a Quasi-Immortal Level treasure, and its value was comparable to the Quasi-Immortal Level Stone of Enlightenment in his hand.

"Still... I've truly found a treasure..."

Lin Mo was speechless. Had he been so lucky as to be in this area? He had picked up a treasure just by strolling around...

He could take the opportunity to promote it during tonight's auction...
