Triplet Alphas Gifted Luna 150-151

3 - 39 Real Alphas

The fight was over in five seconds. Crescent Moon's warriors had never seen a real Alpha. They didn't know the strength and power they had. They saw it when their best warrior fell to the ground, dead, and Alpha Sharpe didn't break a sweat.

Xavier soaked up the energy from the kill again.

"Thank you," Thea said. "You doing okay?"

Xavier nodded. ①

"They may need your help," Thea said. "The rest of the warriors want to fight."

"Do you want me to kill them?"

"They plan on fighting to the death. They don't want to live under Alpha Sharpe's rule. If any of our men are in trouble, yes, kill them. I don't want our men to die."

A few people on the dark side walked over to the Blood Moon side.

"Anyone else willing to change?" Alpha Sharpe said.

"Never," one of the men said. He shifted into his wolf and jumped at Alpha Sharpe. The rest of the group followed suit, shifting and attacking.

The good guys shifted and fought back.

Thea followed the fighting. The Alphas were tearing through bad guys like they were tissue paper. Delta team members were doing nearly as much damage, and Blood Moon's warriors were winning their fights. She sensed a few wolves running off into the woods, and she put them to sleep. They'd deal with them later.

Xavier was soaking in energy as fast as wolves were dying.

Eventually, it was over.

"Are you comfortable giving your blood to heal anyone injured?" Thea said.

Xavier nodded. ①

Thea and Xavier exited the vehicle. She told Delta team in mind link about the wolves in the woods she put to sleep. They went and retrieved them.

"Where are the dungeons?" Landon said, carrying one of the wolves.

A former Crescent Moon man led the way. They were followed by the slaves they let out of the dungeon when they came back.

Meanwhile, Thea felt into the remaining people. A few dark people went to the Blood Moon side, trying to hide.

"Do you want to give the remaining people a chance to prove themselves, or do you want me to tell you which ones are bad so you can lock them in the dungeon?" Thea whispered to Alpha Sharpe.

"Tell me," Alpha Sharpe said.

Thea pointed out the dark people, including the girl that tried to infiltrate New Dawn's refugees and her parents, and Alpha Sharpe's men took them to the dungeons. Thea was disappointed that several were slaves or omegas under Jett's rule. They had the desire and intention to hurt others. They just hadn't had the opportunity yet. ⓵

"Everyone else is fine," Thea said. "You'll have to keep an eye out. Our pack psychologist said some people develop the desire to hurt people once they're free to do so."

Alpha Sharpe nodded. "They will never be free to hurt people in my pack."

"Thank you for doing this. I know it's a lot of responsibility and work," Thea said.

"Thank you for leading us all into the light," Alpha Sharpe said.

Xavier went around healing the good guys with his blood. Only a few had serious injuries.

"Goddess," one of the warriors said after taking some of his blood. "That healed me fast, and it feels amazing. Do you have painkillers in there? Ecstasy?"

"Uh, no," Xavier said. "That's just what vampire blood does."

"I feel stronger too."

"Yeah. You will be stronger for a while," Xavier said.

"You could bottle that and sell it for a fortune."

"Some vampires do," Xavier said. After all, that's how he became a vampire. [1]

Alpha Sharpe left his Beta and warriors in charge to begin the process of assimilation and went with everyone else back to the school to escort the next Alpha to take over his new pack. [1]

They repeated the process with similar results. Thea funneled Earth energy into everyone to give them all a boost each time.

Alpha Collins of Blue Moon took over its neighbor, Chaste Moon.

Alpha Darwin of Syzygy took over its neighbor, Storm Moon.

Alpha Lee of Harvest Moon took over Far Side. [1]

Alpha Reese of New Moon took over Eclipse. [2]

Alpha Lexington of Crater took over Cold Moon.

Then came Alpha Knight's turn to take over Alpha Adams' old pack, Moonrise. [1]

"Zay," Thea said. "You don't have to go if you don't want to see any of your old pack members."

"If I can't serve you everywhere, I'm no use to you. I won't leave you unprotected," Xavier said.

The triplets squeezed his shoulders and patted him on the back.

"This is our guy," Conri said.

"This is why we love you," Kai said.

"This is why we trust you with her," Alaric said.

Xavier almost smiled.

"Do you need some blood?" Thea said.

"I've been feeding a ton," Xavier said. "All the deaths." Thea felt the nervousness in Xavier when he said it.

"But do you need physical blood? You've been giving your physical blood to heal people all night. Here, take some just in case."

She sliced her wrist and held it to Xavier's mouth. He rolled his eyes then blissed out while he sucked for a moment. His body relaxed. A little bit of Xavier's saliva got into Thea's bloodstream, giving her a high too. When they realized his saliva was like a narcotic, Xavier did his best to keep it away from her bloodstream by sucking hard and fast. They figured it was one of the things that helped vampires feed once they got past the newborn stage. That high could be addictive. It would make humans willing to be walking blood bags.

"You have to stop feeding me soon," Xavier said. He licked the blood that dripped down her forearm, mindful of wasting any.

"Everyone ready?" Alpha Ulric called out.

Thea boosted the group with Earth energy and her magic. They picked up Alpha Adams' and his men's bodies. They headed to Moonrise. Alpha Knight's warriors were waiting to join them.

They drove down the road that led into Moonrise's territory.

Halfway to the pack house, Thea felt wolves in the woods on either side of the road. Lots of wolves with fighting on their minds.

"It's an ambush," Thea said in mind link.

> Love you guys! For those of you who may not know, it's tax season in the States. I usually get mine done in February, but I totally spaced this year. So, there probably won't be any updates for a few days while I'm getting them done. I'll be back to updating as soon as I can. I apologize for my poor planning!

3 - 40 Ambush

"It's an ambush," Thea said in mind link. "They're everywhere. The whole pack is out there, surrounding us, thinking we're here to kill them all. Someone told them we were coming. I'm going to put as many as I can to sleep." She said it out loud too, so Alpha Knight heard it. He relayed the message to his pack warriors.

Thea started isolating wolves in the woods and putting them to sleep.

She was focused on the wolves in the woods when a wolf hit Thea's SUV. It startled her and broke her concentration. Several more hit the vehicle's windows, and she jumped away from the window. The sight of their snapping jaws so close did not calm her racing heart. She couldn't shift to protect herself or anyone else. She felt trapped and helpless. They hit the vehicle again, and the tires left the ground on her side.

"We're coming, darling," Kai said to her in mind link. The triplets and Delta team felt her fear and jumped out of their vehicles.

More pounding filled her ears as more wolves hit the vehicle. The wolves made their last push, and the SUV tipped over. Thea froze in fear, her vision narrowing. She didn't want to lose her pups. She didn't know what to do as the SUV rolled. She was falling, her stomach in her throat, then next thing she knew, Xavier held her in his arms as he stood on the car's roof, the SUV upside down around them. Cars were screeching to a halt behind them.

"You're okay," Xavier said to her. "You're going to be fine. Nothing is going to happen to you or your pups." Her heart rate slowed, and he set her on her feet. "Are you guys okay?" Xavier said to the others in the car.

"We're good," Liam said. "You got her?"

"I got her," Xavier said.

"Stay with her. Keep her safe. We're going out. We'll protect the car." He opened the door and jumped out, shifting in midair. Alpha Knight and Owen joined him.

"Are you okay, babe?" Conri thought to her.

"Yeah. I'm good," Thea thought.

"We're protecting the SUV," Alaric thought to her. "You're safe. Just stay in it." ①

"Okay," she thought. She focused on the wolves outside, trying to isolate the ones she should put to sleep. There were too many of her men mixed in with them, all fighting. One thing she sensed clear as day—none of them were dark. Where were the dark ones? Why did they stop the convoy on the road?

"They're keeping us from the pack house," Thea said in mind link. "They're protecting the weak from having to fight. These aren't bad people. They're just misinformed. Try not to kill them if you don't have to."

Her men acknowledged her.

Thea thought about the crowd control weapons. Her men couldn't use them when they were fighting in wolf form. They needed hands to use them. Could she put everyone to sleep at once? It would put her men to sleep too. She'd have to get all the wolves in the woods too. Did she have that kind of distance?

"What if I try to put everyone to sleep, but I don't get the wolves in the woods?" Thea said to Xavier.

"I can protect you while you wake up our men," Xavier said. " We'll have time before they reach us anyway."

Thea nodded. "I'm going to do it."

Xavier nodded.

Thea got the brainwaves she needed in her mind, her magic building up inside her. She pulled energy up from the Earth, deep and wide. When she went deep, she felt something in the Earth. A system of interconnected Life. She didn't have time to figure out what it was, but maybe she could use it. She infused the frequencies and her energy through the system until she felt it vibrating at the frequencies she needed. It kept traveling out from her in all directions. When it got past the last wolf she could sense in the woods, she released the magic inside her with her intention.

It was like an EMP went off. Everyone outside fell to the ground. ①

"Let's go," Xavier said.

Thea nodded, and Xavier helped her out of the upside-down

SUV. Xavier kept his eyes peeled and his senses sharp, guarding her as she woke people up. 1

Thea saw Axel first and went to him, pushing the awake frequencies into his brain. Axel woke and stood up quickly, looking around for enemies. He saw everyone on the ground and Thea standing next to him, Xavier behind her, and understood what had happened. He led her to Caleb, then Damon. The triplets and Xavier surrounded her as she went around, waking up her men. 2

Once all her men were awake, they shifted back to their human forms, and Xavier gave his blood to everyone with injuries. Thea was relieved no one had been killed—though a few warriors were close.

"Sorry I didn't give a warning," Thea said.

"You don't have to apologize for saving the day," Alpha Knight said.

"I didn't sense any darkness in anyone," Thea said. "They thought we were coming to kill them. Someone must have told them to fight us as retaliation."

"How should we proceed?" Liam said.

"I could paralyze them then wake them up," Thea said. " Otherwise, they'll keep fighting. Then you could make the speech, Alpha Knight."

"If anyone still wants to fight, we'll keep them paralyzed and throw them in the dungeon," Alpha Knight said. "Give them time to come around to the idea."

"There are about fifty wolves in the woods," Thea said. "Could you all bring them here while I get started paralyzing?"

It wasn't long before Alpha Knight's voice rang out to the group of paralyzed but awake wolves.

"I don't know who told you we came here to hurt you, but they didn't have your best interests in mind. Your former Alpha, Alpha Adams, chose to align himself against New Dawn and its allies. They tried to kill New Dawn's leadership. They lost that fight. It's unfortunate your former Alpha backed the wrong horse. I understand he had no children, so Moonrise pack ceased to exist when he died. That's why you can't mind link each other anymore. The Alpha's magic that kept you together as a pack dissolved. This land is now unclaimed. I will claim it. I will accept you into Moonlit pack. You will live by our standards, subject to our rules. You will have my protection. As you see, you will be part of a pack that has many powerful allies. There's no need to fear."

Thea felt the confusion and anxiety of the wolves fade. They didn't hate Alpha Adams, but they also didn't respect him. Things hadn't been terrible in their pack, but they knew they would be better under Alpha Knight. Only a few wolves were resistant to the idea. They thought they could be Alpha. Thea told Moonlit's Beta to tell Alpha Knight in mind link. He asked if she would unparalyze the resistant wolves. She did.

"If you would like to challenge me, by all means, now is the time," Alpha Knight said.

The three wolves stood up, shifted to their human forms, and challenged him.

Thea funneled Earth energy into Alpha Knight.

The fights were over quickly. Warriors with weak Alphas consistently underestimated real Alphas.

"If there's no one else, let's go to the pack house," Alpha Knight said. "You can explain to your children and anyone else there what's going on, and I'll accept you all into Moonlit."

Thea unparalyzed the group. They made their way over to the pack house. Three of Moonlit's warriors discovered their mates there.

Alpha Knight started the process of accepting everyone into his pack.
