

The Abandoned Husband Dominates –

1181 Challenging Jordan!

“Arghhhhh!”

Lincoln’s anguished roar resounded throughout the entire villa area!

He was a black-level mutant. His superpower was to control objects with both hands. He could control any object!

However, one of his hands had been cut off! Not only that, the person who cut off his arm was only a green-level mutant two levels lower than him!

Of course, Lincoln did not know what mutant level Salvatore was. Although Salvatore claimed to be a gold-level mutant, Lincoln knew that he was definitely bragging.

However, Lincoln felt that with Salvatore’s explosive power, it had to be black.

In fact, it was because Lincoln didn’t know Salvatore well enough and was intimidated by him. He didn’t know his weakness.

Lincoln thought that Salvatore’s left and right hands, and even his legs, also had astonishing strength. If he knew that Salvatore was only as powerful as his right hand, he could have just dealt with his right hand. Salvatore wouldn’t have cut off his arm.

Of course, Dragon had also helped just now. If not for Dragon’s whirlwind that made Salvatore speed up, Lincoln would have had a chance to block Salvatore’s attack.

“Perfect cooperation!”

Jordan, who was standing on the steps, was very happy and comforted when he saw this.

Of his two subordinates, one was at the silver level and the other was only at the green level. Salvatore had actually beat someone two levels higher and cut off the arm of the black-level mutant, Lincoln!

This kind of David-and-Goliath-like battle where the weak defeated the strong was really satisfying!

Park Sora was furious to see her companion in such a tragic state!

“You’re asking for it!”

Park Sora casually picked up a wooden stick from the ground. Under her freezing power, the wooden stick instantly froze, turning into a terrifying “ice knife” that could kill people!

Just as Park Sora was about to stab Salvatore, Dragon used his whirlwind power again and threw the thin Park Sora into the air.

Bang!

Dragon threw Park Sora onto a pillar. Jordan was in this direction.

“Ah!”

Park Sora happened to fall in front of Jordan’s feet.

Jordan looked down at Park Sora with a cold gaze, as if he was looking at a stranger.

Park Sora looked up at Jordan with hatred, anger and disgust.

Clenching his fist, Jordan thought to himself, “This girl’s eyes have been filled with disgust since the first time she saw me!”

Jordan did not want to say how much he was liked by girls, but he really did not understand why Park Sora hated him so much!

It was understandable that Park Sora hated Jordan for killing her mother. However, Park Sora had clearly looked at him with such disgust since the first time they met!

Salvatore was about to cut off Lincoln’s other arm. However, how could Lincoln let him do that? If his other arm was cut off, he would be completely crippled.

Fortunately, he could control objects with one hand and attacked Salvatore.

Dragon joined the battle, preparing to fight two against one.

Park Sora did not go over to participate in the two-on-two battle. Instead, she shouted, “Stop!”

While glaring at Jordan, Park Sora snapped, “Jordan, Lincoln and I came to give you the miracle water, but you asked your subordinate to cut off Lincoln’s arm! How are you going to explain this to the Chief?!”

Jordan replied coldly, “I don’t need to explain anything to him.”

Lincoln endured the pain and got up. He pointed at Jordan with his only hand. "I'm your uncle's trusted subordinate. When the Chief finds out, he will definitely be furious with you and stand up for me! Do you want to fight us? Is it that you want to start a war with us!?!"

Jordan continued coldly, "I never thought of starting a war with you, but if you feel that I'm in the wrong and insist on standing up for your side... I can accept a war!"

His words shocked everyone present!

Everyone knew what a war between Jordan and Randall's Mutant Tribe meant!

They were the two most powerful forces in the world. If the uncle and nephew fought, it would be the next world war!

Jordan did not exclude the possibility of starting a war with Randall. This already showed his current attitude.

Park Sora was also shocked. "Jordan, haven't you always cared a lot about family? You want to fight with your uncle? Have you asked Dad? Will he agree to let you do this?"

Jordan looked at Park Sora and said coldly, "Who are you? Who are you calling Dad?"

When Park Sora mentioned Jordan's father just now, she didn't use the words "my father" because she was admitting that that man was also her father.

Park Sora said stubbornly, "Hmph, fine! Pretend not to know me. I don't want to know you either! Jordan, I didn't expect your two subordinates to have advanced to the Mutant Tribe after not seeing you for a while. Now, their strength is above yours. As their master, shouldn't you feel very embarrassed?"

Lincoln also said, "That's right! Jordan, don't be so smug! You're not the one who defeated me today. It's your subordinates! Without these two subordinates, you're nothing!"

Park Sora crossed her arms and said arrogantly, "Hehe, no wonder you couldn't win my mother's heart after courting her for so long. It turns out that she has always liked to rely on other people's parasites. My mother doesn't like people who only have family backgrounds but are incompetent.

"Jordan, you relied on the Steele family's glory previously. Later on, you relied on Shaun's intelligence. The mantis stalked the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind it. Shaun fought the Rong family to the death, and you took over the Rong family's current status. Now, you're relying on your two mutants to show off in front of us. You even dare to declare war on our Chief. Hehe, I really look down on you, loser!"

Salvatore was very angry at Park Sora's insult.

"You wretched girl, I'll punch you to death..."

Salvatore was about to step forward and teach Park Sora a lesson to avenge Jordan.

However, Jordan stopped Salvatore this time.

Jordan looked at Park Sora and said calmly, "The last time we fought in the sea, you defeated me. You're one of the few people in this world who can defeat me in a one-on-one fight."

Park Sora said proudly, "Hehe, is it very difficult? I can do it anytime. If you're indignant, fight again. Don't let your subordinates help you. Do you dare?"

Jordan was a vengeful person. Park Sora had defeated him in front of a group of mutants, so Jordan had to take revenge himself. He could not let Dragon or Salvatore do it for him.

Moreover, in a one-on-one battle, Dragon and Salvatore would probably not be able to defeat Park Sora!

Although Jordan would be bullying Park Sora with his gold-level ability, she had disobeyed him many times and never respected him. It was time for Jordan to teach her a lesson!

"Alright, I'll fight you again!"

Jordan accepted Park Sora's challenge!

"However..." Jordan looked at Park Sora and reminded her, "I have to remind you that your battle with me was not just a simple victory. You're a complete stranger to me now. I won't show you mercy on account of your mother or father. In this battle between us, I might... kill you!"

Park Sora laughed out loud. "Hahaha, you want to kill me? What right do you have to say that? If the Chief wasn't around, I would have killed you long ago! You were clearly defeated by me, and I'm a hundred times stronger than last time. What right do you have to defeat me?"

Jordan said coldly, "I don't need to explain this to you. I'm just reminding you that since I've already warned you, you can do whatever you want."

After all, Park Sora was the daughter of Jordan's old flame. Jordan had once promised Madam that he would take care of her daughter. He could not kill her for no reason.

Therefore, a kind reminder was necessary. Jordan hoped that Park Sora would no longer choose to provoke him or fight him.

Unfortunately, Park Sora was certain that Jordan was inferior to her and that he was a good-for-nothing Deity. She could not blame Jordan for being heartless!

Lauren shook her head helplessly. She knew that Park Sora might die at her husband's hands next.

Park Sora said arrogantly, "Hmph, if I win this battle, I want you to tell me who the mutant who captured your wife is. Also, you have to tell me all your secrets!"

Jordan nodded. "Sure. If I win, I won't ask you to do anything. I'm afraid you'll have to stay here forever."

Park Sora laughed. "What a joke. You've told too many lies. Do you really take it seriously? Do you really think you can defeat me? I heard that there's a popular saying on the internet. Jordan Steele, you're the standard overconfident man. You're clearly so weak, but you still dare to say that you want to kill me? Hahahaha, don't make me laugh."

Salvatore couldn't help standing up for Jordan. "Park Sora, you're the funny one. You don't even know that you're about to die. Mr. Jordan can send you to heaven with a single finger! Um... I mean the heavens! Don't misunderstand!"

"Hahaha..."

Many subordinates smiled at the beautiful and pure Park Sora.

Park Sora was puzzled. "What... what are you laughing at?!"

Lincoln endured the pain and said, "How dare a group of men tease an underage girl. The Steeles are so bold! Jordan, since you've agreed to the duel, why are you still being so wishy-washy? Hurry up and start!"

Lincoln's arm was broken and bleeding. Although he had temporarily stopped it with medicine, he still wanted to undergo surgery immediately to reattach it. It should still work.

Jordan looked at Park Sora. "Let's go over there."

Park Sora was stunned. "Over there? Why aren't we fighting here?"

Jordan said, "There's a swimming pool over there. Your ability can be most effective in water, right?"

Park Sora was shocked. She thought that Jordan would choose an environment that was more beneficial to him, but she didn't expect him to choose a place that would benefit her!

Park Sora was like a fish in water at places like the beach, lake and swimming pool. He was no match for her at all!

Park Sora chuckled. "You don't have to choose a place that's so advantageous to me. I can still defeat you on flat ground."

However, Jordan did not listen. He kept walking forward. This time, he wanted Park Sora to admit defeat.

Everyone arrived at the huge swimming pool. Jordan gestured and said, "Go in."

He then stepped into the swimming pool and stood inside. The water soaked most of his body.

Park Sora couldn't help smiling and shaking her head. As she took off her shoes, it revealed her fair feet. She then jumped into the swimming pool and stood opposite Jordan.

Park Sora looked at Jordan. She was not in a hurry to attack. Instead, she smiled confidently. "Jordan, I'm starting to understand why Mom had feelings for a young man like you. You're quite persistent. You clearly know that you can't defeat me, but you're still so confident and unswerving.

"Maybe Mom will think that a popular man like you is cute, but I'm sorry, in the eyes of girls born after 2000, I look down on men like you!"

Salvatore and the others stood beside the swimming pool. Salvatore cursed. "You South Korean girl, can you just fight? Stop talking trash!"

Lincoln, whose arm was bleeding a little, also said, "That's right, Sora. Don't waste your breath on him. Hurry up and fight. I can't hold on much longer."

However, Jordan said, "It's alright. Let her speak. Her mannerisms are very similar to her mother's. I like it very much. In a few minutes, she might not have the chance to speak again..."

Jordan kept saying that Park Sora would be killed by him. This was a huge insult to Park Sora's pride.

Park Sora said angrily, "Alright, I want to see how you kill me!"

"Ahhh!"

Park Sora roared and pressed her hands against the water. She activated her freezing power and the water in front of her quickly froze until it reached Jordan.

In an instant, the entire swimming pool, except for the area where Park Sora was, was frozen!

"Well done!"

Lincoln shouted from the side. He had experienced Park Sora's freezing power before. Even if Jordan had been injected with the Mirakuru serum, he could not break the ice.

Park Sora smiled smugly. "Jordan, our match is over. It only took me a second to defeat you! Hmph, you still have the cheek to say that you want to kill me. How ordinary and confident!"

"Don't think that you can shatter my ice. I'm much more powerful than when we fought in the sea previously. You can't break through this ice with pure strength. Just admit that the outcome is already decided. Jordan, tell me immediately, who is the mutant who captured Lauren? Is he someone we all know?"

Jordan's entire body was frozen. Only his neck could move. However, his next words were slow and deliberate.

"Who said the match is over?"

1183 It's My Turn!

Park Sora was stunned for a moment before saying, "Isn't the outcome obvious? You're already completely frozen by me, and you can't break through this ice. I can kill you at any time. Isn't the battle over?"

Lincoln shouted from the side, "Jordan, as a Deity, you have to admit defeat. Don't go back on your word. Otherwise, if we go back and tell Victoria, she'll probably be disappointed by your despicable actions!"

Jordan glared at Lincoln before saying to Park Sora, "You can try and kill me."

Park Sora was a little hesitant. She looked at Salvatore, Dragon and the others.

This was Jordan's territory and he was surrounded by his subordinates. If Park Sora really attacked Jordan, these subordinates would definitely not stand by and do nothing.

So Park Sora said, “Jordan, you’re so shameless. You know that if I do anything to you, your subordinates will definitely help you. We agreed on a one-on-one fight. So you still want Dragon and Salvatore to hit me, right?”

Hearing Park Sora’s opinion, Salvatore hurriedly said, “Ms. Sora, I swear that I won’t interfere in your fight with Mr. Jordan. If I do, I’ll marry a hundred old and ugly South Korean wives in my next life.”

Dragon said seriously, “I promise I won’t interfere. You can fight without any worries.”

Jordan looked at Park Sora. “Did you hear that?”

Park Sora was still a little hesitant, not understanding why.

Gritting her teeth, Park Sora said, “Alright, since you refuse to give up until the end, I’ll teach you a lesson!”

Swish!

Park Sora’s vision was frozen. She pressed her hands against the frozen surface and jumped from the water to the frozen surface. Her slender legs and feet were all wet, and her youthful aura brought a hint of clarity to the austere battlefield.

She was such a cute young girl. If she wasn’t so unyielding, she would definitely be liked by many people.

Park Sora stood on the ice and bent down. She pressed her left hand against the ice at her feet and placed her right hand in the unfrozen water.

Then she clenched her right hand gently!

An icicle about the length of a keyboard instantly appeared in her right hand!

This was her weapon!

Jordan couldn’t help nodding in approval. Park Sora had improved more than just a little from last time. Not only had her abilities increased, but she had also used them well.

Park Sora held the icicle and looked at Jordan. “Jordan, since you’re so stubborn and insist that I attack you before you admit defeat... Hehe, your subordinates are all here. If I kill you, I won’t be able to leave here alive. Alright, I’ll just write two words on your face. Hmm, what should I write? Lincoln, you have so many wicked ideas. Can you give me some advice?”

Lincoln said fiercely, "Write 'trash'! Or write your mother's name. He killed your mother. Don't be polite to him!"

Park Sora shook her head. "No, my mother's name doesn't deserve to appear on his face. However, I can write someone else's name.

"Jordan, you came to the beach to look for Victoria previously. You must still love her now, right? I'll write the name 'Victoria' on your face. Hehe, I'll take a photo and send it to Victoria. That way, Victoria will know that you love her so much that you've already engraved her name on your face. She'll definitely be very touched. She might even go on a date with you again. Hahaha.

"Alright, let's do that!"

With that, Park Sora immediately stepped on the ice and walked towards Jordan. When she arrived in front of him, his hands were still bound by the ice.

Park Sora felt that victory was in her hands. She smiled. "Jordan, I'm going to start writing. My English is not very good, so I might need to make some changes to it. Don't mind me."

With that, Park Sora was about to stab Jordan in the face with an icicle.

At that moment...

Bang!

"Ah!"

A Porsche suddenly appeared and smashed into Park Sora's head, causing her to fall onto the ice.

"What's going on? Another car came over!"

Lincoln was also shocked. He thought that Park Sora could avenge him and the Mutant Tribe. He didn't expect her to be the first to be injured!

"Hahahaha..."

Apart from Lincoln and Park Sora, who were confused, everyone else, including Lauren, couldn't help laughing.

They all knew that Jordan had superpowers. What was so serious about being frozen?

As long as Jordan wanted to, he could break through this so-called freezing power at any time.

Park Sora felt a little dizzy. She staggered to her feet and looked at everyone mocking her as if they were toying with her. She was more than a little confused.

“Lincoln, where did this lousy car come from?”

Lincoln was also puzzled. “I don’t know. I didn’t see it at all. It suddenly smashed into you.”

Park Sora clenched her fists angrily. “Jordan, did you arrange for your subordinates to throw cars at me from the sky?”

Jordan looked up at their heads and said, “If you think there’s something above us, can’t you just shoot them down?”

“Hmph.”

Park Sora looked at Lincoln. “Lincoln, help me test if there are any invisible planes around.”

“Alright!”

Lincoln controlled a car door with one hand and spun it back and forth in the sky. If there was really an invisible plane, the sound of the collision would definitely be heard.

“A bunch of idiots. Even on an invisible plane, you can feel the airflow at such a close distance.”

Salvatore cursed.

Lincoln also felt that if it could throw something as big as a car, it must be a large plane. The sound of the airflow was definitely unavoidable.

“Sora, there’s nothing in the air. Don’t worry and attack. It might have been an accident just now.”

Park Sora nodded and picked up the icicle again to stab Jordan.

Bang!

Another car appeared out of thin air and smashed into Park Sora. This time, it was no longer a Porsche sports car, but a thick armored vehicle!

“Ah! My leg!”

The car pressed against Park Sora’s fair legs.

“Hahaha...”

Everyone couldn't help laughing again.

Lincoln was dumbfounded. “How... how can this be... what kind of spell is this?!”

With Lincoln's help, Park Sora pushed the armored vehicle away, but her leg was still injured.

Park Sora looked at Jordan in disbelief. “Jordan, what... what are you doing?! How did these cars appear out of thin air? What's going on?”

In response, Jordan only looked at Park Sora coldly. “Looks like you don't dare to attack me anymore. Alright, it's my turn now!”

Jordan specially chose a swimming pool that was beneficial to Park Sora. He then specially asked her to make the first move.

This was because he knew that Park Sora was not his match at all. If he attacked first, Park Sora would not be able to retaliate.

The only reason Jordan was willing to do this was because of Park Sora's mother.

If it was someone else's child, Jordan wouldn't be bothered to waste his breath on such a rebellious girl. He would just kill her!

Jordan's hands, which were frozen in the water, were suddenly lifted up. After taking them out, they kept emitting steam.

Park Sora was dumbfounded. “How... how is this possible?! Your hands were clearly frozen by me. How did you thaw them?”

Jordan said coldly, “You don't really think that your freezing power can restrain me, do you? You've always looked down on me. You said that I relied on picking up scraps to get everything I have. You said that I can't compare to anyone. You even said that I'm an overconfident man. Hehehe... Alright, I'll let you have a taste of an overconfident man's strength!

“Fire, descend!”

With that, Jordan raised his hands high in the air. Red-orange liquid kept descending from the sky. This bright red-orange color was very spectacular, but it also made people panic. It was as if they had seen heaven or descended into hell!

“This is... damn it, this is magma!”

“Ah!”

Park Sora was so frightened that she covered her face with her hands and kept escaping from the lava that fell from the sky. She was very beautiful and cared a lot about her looks. She knew very well that if the lava landed on her face, she would be instantly disfigured!

The lava kept landing on the frozen swimming pool. Soon, gas kept emerging, and the frozen water instantly melted.

Jordan did not completely melt the ice because he wanted to stand on the swimming pool and end this battle.

Therefore, when he could move, Jordan stopped the lava from descending. He jumped up and broke out of the ice to stand on it.

Park Sora was already cowering in fear, not daring to move. On the other hand, Lincoln was very agitated and kept shaking his head. “Impossible, this is absolutely impossible! If the car was sent over by humans, this scorching lava can’t be man-made! My ability is to control objects. I thought that this might be the same as my ability to move objects over from afar. But I was wrong. There are no volcanoes or magma within a thousand kilometers!

“Jordan, this is... this is creating matter! You can create something out of nothing! You’re also a mutant, right?!”

Lincoln looked at Jordan in disbelief. At this moment, he was very sure that Jordan was not an ordinary man. He had the right to be confident, and he was the most confident man in the world!

Park Sora looked at Jordan in disbelief. “You... you have other superpowers apart from prediction?”

At this moment, Park Sora’s legs and arms had been touched by magma. Her fair skin was festering, and a portion of her yellow hair had been burned.

Park Sora could be said to have been beaten into a sorry state by Jordan.

At this moment, Jordan had yet to attack. He had used the lava just now to remove the ice on his body. He had yet to officially attack Park Sora!

Salvatore was thrilled to see that his boss had finally revealed his true strength. He laughed out loud.

“Hahahaha, you two idiots. You didn’t expect this, did you? Mr. Jordan is also a mutant, and the highest-level gold-level mutant! Your Chief Randall keeps saying that he’s a gold-level mutant. I’ve never seen him reveal his gold-level ability to let everyone take a look. You saw how powerful a true gold-level ability is just now, right? What Randall? Wouldn’t I be able to instantly kill him?”

A gold-level mutant!

When Salvatore said that he was a gold-level mutant just now, Lincoln and Park Sora naturally did not believe him. But now that he said that Jordan was a gold-level mutant, the two of them really felt that he was not bragging.

This was because this ability to create cars and magma out of thin air was too heaven-defying. It would be too much if it was not gold level.

Park Sora looked at Jordan in fear. “Are... are you really a gold-level mutant?”

Jordan said coldly, “Before you die, I don’t want to lie to you. Yes, I’m gold-level. Dragon, Salvatore, and I obtained our abilities from the Immortal Lake a while ago.”

Lincoln couldn’t believe it. “How did you get in?! The Immortal Lake has always been guarded. We didn’t hear any guards say that someone broke in!”

Jordan said, “Haven’t you always wanted to know who the mutant who kidnapped my wife is? Alright, I’ll tell you. It’s Rong Bingshao.”

“Rong Bingshao? He’s not dead!”

Lincoln and Park Sora were shocked.

Lincoln said, “Could it be that the Rong family also has a Time Gate? Did you obtain your abilities through the Time Gate?”

Salvatore smiled wickedly. “Hehe, Lincoln. It turns out you’re not that stupid.”

Lincoln finally believed that Jordan was a gold-level mutant. A gold-level mutant was too powerful. Not to mention Lincoln and Park Sora, even Victoria and Randall might not be confident in winning!

“Sora, leave quickly!”

Lincoln immediately called Park Sora and prepared to leave. Moreover, Jordan had told them so many secrets. How could he let them leave alive?

Jordan shot Dragon and Salvatore a look, indicating for them to kill Lincoln.

Within seconds, the two of them ran towards Lincoln. Coupled with the other subordinates attacking him with guns, Lincoln couldn't escape at all.

In just a few moves, Lincoln was subdued.

"Let me punch you to death!"

Salvatore raised his "Hand of Hell" and prepared to send Lincoln on his way.

However, at this moment, Lincoln suddenly knelt down and begged Jordan. "Lord Jordan! Please forgive me for my past offense! I was blind to not realize that you're a gold-level mutant. Please give me another chance. In the future, I'm willing to leave the Mutant Tribe and join you!"

Salvatore hesitated for a moment before looking at Jordan, waiting for his instructions.

Everyone knew that Lincoln could control objects. This ability was very useful. If he was willing to join Jordan, it would be very helpful to him.

Jordan looked coldly at Lincoln, who was kneeling on the ground. "Those who looked down on me in the past won't ever have the chance to be my dog after my glory! Salvatore, send him on his way!"

"Yes!"

Slash!

Salvatore lopped off Lincoln's head!

Lincoln was an important member of the Mutant Tribe and a general under Randall.

Jordan had killed Lincoln, which meant that the conflict between him and Randall had reached an irreparable point!

Killing one or two was the same.

Park Sora already knew that after Lincoln died, she would be the next to die!

Moreover, she would be killed by Jordan himself!

Park Sora trembled nervously. After all, she was still an underage girl. Although she had very powerful abilities, she was still immature and did not have the courage to face death.

She kept retreating, looked at Jordan, and begged, "No, don't kill me... please..."

When Lauren saw Park Sora's tragic state, she couldn't help begging for mercy. "Hubby, why don't you spare her life? Otherwise, if Father finds out, it will probably affect your relationship with him."

Lauren didn't want Jordan to be estranged from his father. After all, Park Sora was his father's flesh and blood.

However, Jordan said coldly, "Dragon, send Lauren back."

Jordan did not listen to Lauren's advice at all. He did not want her to interfere in this matter.

Dragon walked towards Lauren. "Madam, you should go back to your room first. Master knows how to deal with it."

Hearing this, Lauren sighed and left.

Park Sora, who had never interacted with Lauren before, shouted at her back, "Lauren, don't go. Beg for mercy on my behalf again."

Salvatore couldn't help but laugh. "Hehe, now that you know how to befriend relatives, why didn't you do so earlier?!"

After Lauren left, Jordan walked towards Park Sora, who retreated step by step.

She knew that she was no match for Jordan, but she was also prepared to give it a try. She froze a kayak in front of her and threw it at Jordan.

Park Sora took the opportunity to escape.

However, how could such a trick escape Jordan's eyes?

Jordan threw a huge rock on Park Sora's back. Park Sora was pressed to the ground by the huge rock and spat out blood.

At this point, Park Sora could no longer move. Her ability was to freeze and increase the thickness and hardness of an object. The boulder on her body was already heavy enough. If she froze it again, she would only end up in a worse state.

Jordan picked up the icicle that Park Sora had just used to stab him. He walked up to Park Sora and squatted down.

“Park Sora, you’re 16 years old this year, right? Although you’re still very young, you’ve lived a rich life since you were young. You have everything you want. You’ve never suffered. Besides, you’ve already experienced sex. You shouldn’t have any regrets.”

With that, Jordan stabbed the icicle at Park Sora’s fair throat. With Jordan’s strength, he could finish her off with one slash and kill her!

Park Sora kept begging for mercy. “No... don’t kill me... no...”

However, Jordan already treated Park Sora as a stranger. He would not show mercy to strangers.

Just as Jordan’s icicle was about to finish off Park Sora...

A pleasant piano sound suddenly came from under Park Sora.

As soon as the piano melody sounded, Jordan immediately stopped what he was doing.

[Can I see you again?]

[Stand in front of a fleeting fate.]

[...]

At the critical moment, Park Sora took out her phone from her pocket and played the song “See You Again” by Mad Clown.

“This is your love song with Mom, right? Mom told me that the happiest days of her life were when she hid at the bottom of the valley with you in Syria and kissed you... She said that you’re the man she fell in love with at first sight. She has always liked you and has been waiting for you to marry her. She even told me that you’re the most outstanding and best man in the world. You’ll take good care of Mom and me.

“Don’t kill me, okay? Daddy... I’ll listen to you in the future. I’ll do whatever you want me to do. I won’t do anything you don’t want me to do. Also, I won’t see Jamie again. I swear!”

Park Sora called Jordan, “Daddy”!

It was a form of recognition for Jordan. She finally admitted that Jordan and her mother were a couple.

Seeing Jordan hesitate, Salvatore said from afar, "Park Sora is really something. She knows how to use her mother to arouse Mr. Jordan's memories and guilt. Hehe, Mr. Jordan's mind is probably filled with Madam now. He won't kill Park Sora.

"Hey, you, come here. Immediately release your weather weapon. Make it snow here to add a romantic atmosphere for Mr. Jordan."

Before long, with a bang, Salvatore sent someone to release a weather weapon. Soon, the sky changed and snowflakes kept falling.

Jordan put down the icicle and sat on Park Sora's right.

At this moment, Jordan recalled countless stories about him and Park Anya. He recalled their encounter, love, and fight to death.

Although he and Madam had not been together for a long time, Madam had a deep influence on Jordan.

Back then, Jordan liked Hailey because she was as arrogant as Madam, which made Jordan feel like he couldn't have her.

He liked Victoria because she was very much like Madam and had the charm and aura of a mature woman.

Among the women Jordan had loved, only his current wife, Lauren and Lota, had nothing to do with Madam.

Seeing that Jordan had stopped his attack on Park Sora, his subordinates had tactfully left and he even released a romantic weather weapon, Park Sora knew that Jordan was already planning to let her off and not kill her.

With that, Park Sora used all her strength to push the huge rock off her body. She then sat beside Jordan with her injured leg, like an obedient rabbit.

This time, Park Sora really admired Jordan. She no longer dared to act rashly towards him. In fact, she no longer wanted to avenge her mother. She could feel that Jordan really loved her mother. Otherwise, she would be dead now.

Listening to this moving song and admiring the snow that kept falling, Jordan suddenly asked, "What's the name of this song?"

Park Sora was stunned. She looked at Jordan in surprise. "You... you don't know the name of this song? How is that possible?"

This was Park Anya and Jordan's love song. The two of them had played it countless times. Why didn't Jordan know its name?

Jordan smiled. "You remembered the wrong song. Your mother and I didn't play this song in Hota Canyon. It was Ailee's 'I'll Show You'."

Park Sora was so frightened that her face turned pale. "... I'm sorry! I'll change it now!"

However, Jordan held Park Sora's hand and said, "No need. This song is very nice. Moreover... If I really want to remember someone, I don't have to listen to songs related to her. I can think of her during any song that can touch my heart."

The cold wind blew their long hair, and snowflakes fell on their heads. Park Sora looked at Jordan's side profile. This was the first time she realized how charming Jordan was.

1186 The Power Of The Immortal Lake's Female Guardian!

This time, Park Sora was completely conquered by Jordan's strength and gave in to him. Otherwise, Jordan might really kill her.

Park Sora had poked the softest part of Jordan's heart just now, making him miss Park Anya. All along, Jordan had been very helpless about killing the woman he liked.

When Jordan heard this Korean song just now, the scene of Park Anya dying in his arms appeared in his mind again. It made him feel very upset.

He could no longer attack Park Sora, not because she was his father's daughter, but because of her mother.

After all, Jordan had once promised Park Anya that he would take care of Park Sora. This was his promise to the woman he loved. Not only did he not fulfill this promise, he even personally sent Park Sora on her way. If Park Anya found out, she would definitely hate him to death.

The two of them sat very close to each other quietly and listened to the song on loop.

"Do you think this song is good, or the one your mother and I listened to?"

Park Sora didn't dare to have any objections. "Whichever song you think is better is better!"

Jordan smiled and asked, "Sora, do you want to see your mother?"

Park Sora cried again. She knelt in front of Jordan again. "Daddy, I was wrong. I really don't dare to provoke you again. Please don't kill me. Don't send me to see my mother..."

Park Sora thought that Jordan wanted to send her on her way because her mother was already dead. Only with her dead could the two of them meet.

Actually, that was not what Jordan meant at all.

Jordan smiled. He pressed Park Sora's snow-covered head and said, "You've misunderstood. I'm not trying to kill you. I just want to bring you back to the past to see your mother. Coincidentally, before you came just now, I was also planning to go to Malta. Oh, that's the place where there's another Time Gate."

Park Sora heaved a sigh of relief. "Yes, I want to go back in time and see Mom again. I've often made her angry in the past. I want to apologize to her."

Jordan watched as Park Sora became more and more sensible. He caressed her exquisite face and said, "I'm afraid I can't let you do this because it will destroy the timeline. However, you can watch her from afar or use another identity to get close to her."

Park Sora nodded obediently. "Alright, I'll listen to you!"

Jordan pinched Park Sora's face and said, "Don't call me Daddy or Brother. You have a special relationship with me. I will allow you to call me by my name."

Park Sora smiled like a flower. "Alright, Jordan, let's set off!"

...

Rong Bingshao and his team arrived in Malta. They dove to the bottom of the lake and arrived in front of the Time Gate.

Rong Bingshao was a little melancholic. "Nick, which day do you think we should choose to travel to? The last time we traveled, we just arrived at the Immortal Lake and saw the back view of the Female Guardian before she flew away. Should we choose the next day?"

Nick thought for a moment and said, "I suggest the day before because she flew away that day. We don't know if she flew back the next day. However, since she was there the day we traveled back in time, the probability of her still being there the day before is higher."

Rong Bingshao nodded. "That's right. Your analysis makes sense, and... haha."

Rong Bingshao suddenly laughed, confusing even Nick.

Rong Bingshao smiled. "Besides, think about it. The day before I obtained my ability, we went to meet the female guardian of the Immortal Lake. We went to curry favor with her and even followed her to establish a good relationship. That's why she saw us the day after we traveled back in time. She didn't attack us and just flew away, right?!"

Nick thought for a few seconds before understanding what Rong Bingshao meant. "Master Rong's logic ability is indeed powerful. This is very likely! We're going to plant the cause of the previous outcome today. Is that what you mean?"

Rong Bingshao was so excited that he forgot his injuries. "Hahaha, that's right. Let's set off immediately. When we come out again, we'll have a powerful partner. Jordan, you're finished!"

Everyone traveled back in time to the day before the last time they traveled back in time. Moreover, the time was deliberately set to night.

At night, Rong Bingshao and his subordinates strolled through Mount Denali. The moon was bright and the surroundings were as calm as water.

Soon, everyone arrived at the Immortal Lake.

At this moment, the Immortal Lake was calm. It did not look like there was anyone there.

"Oh no, there doesn't seem to be anyone around. Master Rong, did we choose the wrong time? Is she not staying here tonight?"

But Rong Bingshao was very firm in his opinion. "No, she's the female guardian of the Immortal Lake. There's no place more suitable for her to live. She must be nearby. Nick, activate your weather weapon and lure her out. Trust me, she must be here."

It was rare for Nick to see Rong Bingshao so determined, so he did as he was told and asked his subordinates to release their weather weapons.

Boom!

After the weather weapon was launched, lightning flashed and thunder rumbled in the sky. Raindrops kept falling.

Holding an umbrella for Rong Bingshao, everyone waited quietly in the rain.

"She must be... she must be..."

Rong Bingshao muttered to himself. This Immortal Lake female guardian was his only hope. If he couldn't find her, he would be stepped on by Jordan for the rest of his life. He would never have a chance to make a comeback.

After waiting for a full 20 minutes, a goddess-like woman holding a white umbrella appeared in the lightning-filled night sky. She was holding a fox in her other hand.

“Ah, she’s here! She’s really here!”

Rong Bingshao shouted excitedly.

The cute, fiery red fox snuggled in the mysterious woman’s arms, as if it was a little afraid of the lightning and thunder.

The mysterious woman suddenly threw away the white umbrella and waved her left hand at the lightning-covered sky.

In an instant, the lightning, wind and torrential rain all disappeared!

The sky returned to its previous calm!

Rong Bingshao and his subordinates were all stunned!

This mysterious woman could actually change the weather on her own?

This was the Rong family’s most proud weather weapon, but it was so easily cracked by this mysterious woman?

Her strength was simply unfathomable!

Seeing this, Rong Bingshao was even more convinced of his guess. “She’s the female guardian of the Immortal Lake and the master of the world. She will definitely be able to tear Jordan into pieces. Hahaha!”

The last time Rong Bingshao saw this mysterious woman, he could tell that she was extraordinary just by watching her fly away.

Indeed, this time, he saw the mysterious woman easily dissipate the lightning. This ability was not something that humans could have.

Therefore, Rong Bingshao and the others immediately faced the mysterious woman and knelt down.

“Greetings, female guardian of the Immortal Lake!”

The mysterious woman was hugging the little fox. Rong Bingshao really hoped that he was this fox. This was because this fox could lie in the mysterious woman’s arms without restraint. The position of its claws made him yearn for it.

Ever since he experienced life and death, Rong Bingshao had not had such mundane desires for a long time.

After an ordinary man came back to life, the first thing he would do after recovering was to find a woman. However, Rong Bingshao did not. Although he was definitely a lecher in the past, he had experienced many women in his teens.

His heart had been occupied by revenge until he met this mysterious woman. Only then did he awaken his long-dormant desire for a romantic relationship.

Seeing that these people respected her very much, the mysterious woman did not fly into a rage.

“Do you speak my language?”

When Rong Bingshao heard the woman’s reply, he was extremely excited. Not only was this woman perfect-looking, her voice was also pleasant. There was a hint of inviolable dignity in her gentleness.

Rong Bingshao was certain that the other party was able to understand him.

“You even know my language? We can speak as you prefer then.”

At the side, Nick also scrutinized the mysterious woman carefully. “I know how to speak your language too.”

The mysterious woman looked down from above. “Why did you release the weather weapon? You scared my little baby.”

The mysterious woman caressed Little Fox’s head with her right hand.

Rong Bingshao hurriedly said, “This cute fox is your pet, right? This is the first time I’ve seen such a beautiful fox. It’s really beautiful! I’m sorry to have disturbed your pet. We had no choice but to do this just now to seek you out.”

The mysterious woman did not continue to scold him. Instead, she asked, “Why are you looking for me?”

Rong Bingshao stood up and said, “Let me introduce myself first. My name is Rong Bingshao, and I’m the third generation of the Rong family. Rong Huangde is my grandfather, and Rong Bailun is my father. I’m not this year’s Rong Bingshao, but from...”

Rong Bingshao was about to expose that he had traveled back in time, but Nick stood up in time to stop him.

“Master Rong, don’t. If he finds out our identities, it might cause a change in the timeline.”

Nick was worried that this mysterious woman was from the past. If she knew that they were from the future, something might happen.

However, Rong Bingshao was here to find this woman and return to the future with her to beat up Jordan. He had to tell her the truth sooner or later.

Moreover, in his opinion, this did not affect the timeline.

Wasn’t there no news of this woman in the past 20 years?

If Rong Bingshao brought her decades into the future this year, wouldn’t that explain everything?

At this moment, the mysterious woman smiled. “You don’t have to be too careful. I know you’re not from this timeline. You’re from 2022, right?”

Nick was a little surprised that this woman knew so much about them. Moreover, she was not surprised at all. It was as if she already knew the story about the Time Gate.

Rong Bingshao was very happy. “Yes, we’re from decades later! It’s great that you can understand this. I won’t explain anymore. We traveled back in time this time to ask you for a favor.”

The mysterious woman remained calm. The breeze blew a strand of her hair, making her look extremely charming. “What favor?”

Rong Bingshao said firmly, “I hope you can help me kill someone. His name is Jordan! He obtained a gold-level superpower from the Immortal Lake, and can create something out of nothing now. In the entire world, I’m afraid only you can kill him!”

The mysterious woman couldn’t help smiling. “What makes you think I’ll help you?”

Rong Bingshao replied firmly, “Because I’m the person you approve of! Because I’m the person you chose!”

“Oh?” The mysterious woman asked softly.

Rong Bingshao explained, “The last time I traveled back in time was tomorrow. I came to the Immortal Lake to obtain my talent. You were there too. You could have stopped me from entering the Immortal Lake, but you still allowed me to do so. I don’t believe that you’re guarding the Immortal Lake so that everyone is qualified to enter. Only very few people are qualified.

“And tomorrow, you deliberately let me in, right?”

The mysterious woman nodded. “You’re right. I did fly away on purpose to let you enter the Immortal Lake and obtain your ability.”

Rong Bingshao was overjoyed. Just as he was about to continue, Nick suddenly interrupted with a frown.

“Miss, how do you know so much about what hasn’t happened yet? Are you from the future like us?”

In a moment of desperation, Nick reverted back to his mother tongue.

However, the mysterious woman clearly understood him. She replied, “Your name is Nick, right? It seems that the subordinates trained by little Bailun aren’t too bad.”

However, she did not tell him which timeline she was from.

The mysterious woman looked at Rong Bingshao and asked, “You think I’ll help you just because I allowed you to enter the Immortal Lake?”

Rong Bingshao nodded firmly. “Yes! I don’t know if you believe in love at first sight. Anyway, I believe that ever since I first saw you, even just your side profile, I felt that my future is destined to be very connected to yours. Something... will definitely happen between us!”

“I believe that since you allowed me to enter the Immortal Lake and obtain my ability, you must treat me as one of your own. Therefore, you will definitely help me kill Jordan!”

The mysterious woman smiled. “You have misunderstood. Child, you are right in that I did deliberately let you enter the Immortal Lake to obtain your ability. However, I am doing this for Jordan.”

Rong Bingshao and the others were shocked. “For... Jordan?”

How could this matter have anything to do with Jordan?!

The mysterious woman said, “As long as you obtain the ability here, you will go to Jordan. Jordan will use you to come to the Immortal Lake to obtain the ability and become a gold-level mutant. I only let you jump into the Immortal Lake for one purpose: to enable Jordan to turn into a gold-level mutant!”

1188 I’m Willing To Follow Jordan!

Rong Bingshao couldn’t help taking a step back.

He never expected this outcome!

He originally thought that he had been recognized by the female guardian of the Immortal Lake, but now, he was told that the reason why he could enter the Immortal Lake to obtain his ability was actually to encourage Jordan to come here and become a gold-level mutant.

In other words, he was just a pawn. It did not matter if he became a mutant or not. What was important was Jordan's evolution!

Hearing this, Nick became extremely cautious. He thought to himself, "Damn it, this woman is actually so close to Jordan? Could she be the old flame Jordan met when he traveled back in time?"

Nick knew that Jordan had traveled back in time with Shaun and Rong Huangde. No one knew what had happened in the past.

It was very likely that Jordan had met this mysterious woman in the past and had a relationship with her.

After all, this woman was so beautiful. Jordan's wives were top-notch beauties like Lauren and Lota. This proved that Jordan liked top-notch beauties like her.

Rong Bingshao said in disbelief, "Why... why? Why are you helping him like this? What... what's your relationship with him?"

The mysterious woman said indifferently, "I don't know him, but I know that he has a gold-level ability. It's very important to me to let him become a gold-level mutant."

The mysterious woman was extremely dignified and did not seem to be lying. From her words, it was obvious that she really wanted to see Jordan become a gold-level mutant.

It was as though Jordan had some use to her after becoming a gold-level mutant.

The mysterious woman looked at the shocked Rong Bingshao. "Don't even think about asking me to help you kill Jordan. Not only will I not kill him, I will also use any means to ensure his safety.

"Rong Bingshao, do not forget that the reason why you were able to enter the Immortal Lake and obtain your speed ability is all because of Jordan. Therefore, I order you to follow Jordan and become his subordinate. Use your ability to help him."

The mysterious woman wanted Rong Bingshao to be Jordan's subordinate?

Jordan was Rong Bingshao's enemy. He was the enemy of the entire Rong family!

Nick was furious. "B*stard! You want Master Rong to be Jordan's subordinate and work for him? That's ridiculous! You're a woman of unknown origin. You must be Jordan's lover. That's why you're so protective of him, right?"

The mysterious woman was surprised. "What did you say? Jordan's... lover?"

She never expected that one day, she would be in a situation like this.

Nick said, "That's right. That must be it. You must be Jordan's woman. That's why you asked our great Rong family to join him. Let me tell you, don't even think about doing this. Our family will never surrender to our enemy! Since you're in cahoots with Jordan, we won't stand on ceremony!"

"Attack this woman immediately!"

Nick suddenly issued an order to attack the mysterious woman!

He naturally knew that the mysterious woman was very powerful. However, he did not believe that she was the "female guardian of the Immortal Lake". At most, she was a very high-level mutant.

Although the most powerful on Nick's side was the injured Rong Bingshao, many of them had brought many modern weapons. Nick believed that as long as they attacked together, they had a high chance of defeating this woman.

"Nick..."

Rong Bingshao looked at Nick and wanted to stop him. He actually didn't want to go against this mysterious woman.

However, at this moment, Nick was already firing at the mysterious woman. The others also aimed their guns at the mysterious woman.

Splish splash!

The mysterious woman was still calm. She immediately flew up to dodge their firearms.

The woman was very fast. These guns and laser weapons could not hit her at all.

"Damn it, what a strong dodging ability!"

Seeing this, Nick immediately ordered someone to activate the weather weapon again.

They planned to strike her with lightning!

However, when she saw the lightning appear in the sky again, the mysterious woman snorted in disdain.

“You’re really trying to show off in front of me!”

Suddenly, a flash of lightning attacked the mysterious woman. The cute little fox was so frightened that it hid in her arms. However, the mysterious woman remained calm and stopped the lightning with one hand!

The lightning stopped when it hit the woman’s hand, as if she had caught it.

In the next second, the woman threw it to the ground. The lightning changed direction and attacked Nick and his subordinates!

Boom!

“Ah!”

The lightning struck many people and killed many of his subordinates.

“How... how is this possible?!”

When Nick saw this, he was shocked. Not only could it fly, it could also catch lightning with its bare hands and control it!

This was too powerful!

Rong Bingshao also looked at the mysterious woman in the sky in surprise. She was so beautiful and had extraordinary ability. She was like a goddess!

However, in the next second, the mysterious woman flew towards Nick. There seemed to be some residue of lightning on her right hand, which was glowing from time to time.

Nick wanted to dodge, but it was too late. The mysterious woman grabbed his neck with one hand.

Instantly, Nick’s expression changed.

Although Nick was strong and the mysterious woman looked slender, everyone knew that this mysterious woman could strangle him to death in an instant.

Nick was in danger!

Thump!

At this moment, Rong Bingshao suddenly knelt down to the mysterious woman.

“Master... Master Rong...”

Nick, who was about to go over, was surprised to see Rong Bingshao.

The mysterious woman looked at Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao was seriously injured and looked very weak. In addition, his eyes no longer had any fighting spirit.

As Rong Bingshao knelt in front of the mysterious woman, he pleaded, “Goddess, please stop. Let my Uncle Nick go! I don’t want to see the people around me die again. Nick, my sister and my mother... I don’t want any of them to die, including myself... I’ve already died once. I don’t want to die again.

“I promise you that from now on, I’ll follow Jordan. I’ll kill whoever he tells me to. I’ll dedicate all the Rong family’s technology and resources to him, okay?”

Seeing that Rong Bingshao had submitted and accepted his fate, the mysterious woman put Nick down. Any later and he would have been strangled to death.

After calming down on the ground for a while, Nick crawled to Rong Bingshao. “Master Rong, why... why did you accept your fate?”

Rong Bingshao looked at Nick. “When I was saved and woke up, I thought that the heavens wanted me to come back to life so that I could personally take revenge and kill Jordan. But now I know that God wanted me to live again to resolve this hatred.

“Grandpa and Daddy are already dead. I don’t want to fight Jordan anymore. I don’t want Mommy and Sister to hide for the rest of their lives. I want to reunite with them!”

Rong Bingshao did not face death with equanimity. Other than a small number of Japanese with extreme personalities, no one was so indifferent to life and death. Most people yearned for a good and peaceful life.

This was especially because Rong Bingshao was a second-generation heir who had lived in a wealthy family since he was a young boy and had not experienced much hardship.

In addition, he believed in God very much. He felt that there was a reason why God arranged for him to meet this mysterious woman in front of him.

Since this mysterious woman asked Rong Bingshao to follow Jordan, perhaps this was his fate. This was the purpose of his resurrection.

However, Nick was a little indignant. “You’re part of the greatest Rong family in the world. How can you follow Jordan...”

The mysterious woman said, "Hurry up and put away your damn sense of superiority. Perhaps you've always felt that you're the rulers of the world over the past few decades, but I can tell you clearly that that's because we have no intention of fighting with you."

"The Rong family doesn't have the final say in this world. Rong Huangde has been exploring this world all his life, wanting to explore its secrets. But he only learned about the Immortal Lake in his later years because of Jordan. Your family knows too little about this world."

"Jordan is now a gold-level mutant. He's more than qualified to be your master!"

It was obvious that like Randall, this mysterious woman was also a mutant. She felt that mutants were superior to ordinary people.

Since Jordan was a gold-level mutant, it was completely reasonable for a low-level Rong Bingshao to follow him.

Hearing this, Nick stopped talking. He knew that strength spoke for itself in this world. Over the past few decades, the Rong family only dared to claim to rule the world because they were powerful.

But now, they realized that there had always been a power far stronger than them in this world. It was just that they had always disdained to compete with them.

Rong Bingshao had long submitted to this mysterious woman. He suddenly asked, "Goddess, can I ask you a question?"

Although the mysterious woman had a cold personality, she was quite patient. She said softly, "Go ahead."

Rong Bingshao said, "Are you... really in that kind of relationship with Jordan?"

The mysterious woman couldn't help laughing again, but her expression didn't change. She didn't feel embarrassed at all.

"I already that Jordan and I don't know each other. I just need him to become a gold-level mutant. I've never thought of dating him."

Hearing this, Rong Bingshao was overjoyed. "Are you single? Why do you have to let Jordan become a gold-level mutant? How will it help you?"

The mysterious woman ignored the first question and said, "I don't want to tell you about this for the time being, but if you follow Jordan, I believe you will know the reason soon."

But Rong Bingshao could tell from the mysterious woman's expression that this extremely beautiful woman was definitely single!

Only single women liked to have pets!

Rong Bingshao clearly admired this woman. Since he had promised her that he would follow Jordan and help him eliminate all obstacles, he wanted to make Jordan useful for this mysterious woman.

After Rong Bingshao joined Jordan, he would definitely have to face Jordan's uncle, Randall.

Rong Bingshao knew that although Jordan and Randall were uncle and nephew, their relationship was becoming increasingly irreparable because of Victoria and other factors in the past. It was inevitable that they would have a huge battle!

Therefore, Rong Bingshao asked again, "Goddess, I want to ask another question. What exactly is Randall's gold-level ability?"

...

Jordan rushed to Malta with Park Sora and his subordinates.

After arriving at the Time Gate, he thought that there would be many Rong family guards here, but it was empty.

Dragon said, "Master, what should we do now? Rong Bingshao might have already traveled back in time. Should we travel back in time to stop them?"

It would be great if he could travel back in time and stop them from doing those terrifying things.

But the problem was that Jordan didn't know which year they had traveled back in time.

Jordan first dove into the lake and tried to find the data set by Rong Bingshao on the machine, but he could not find it at all. The Time Gate did not have this function.

Salvatore said, "Why don't we wait for them to come out? Once they do, we'll capture them all!"

Park Sora, who was wearing a JK uniform, also expressed her opinion. "We have to set up an ambush, but it's so boring to wait here. Jordan, why don't we travel back in time and play?"

After Park Sora followed Jordan, she changed into a cute student uniform. In addition, on the way, Jordan personally applied medicine to her wounds and healed them.

Park Sora was really cute now. She was wearing a small white shirt, a black bow tie, and a short black checkered skirt. She had fair and slender legs.

Salvatore couldn't help staring at Park Sora. "Ms. Sora is right! You guys go back in time to play first. That b*stard Rong Bingshao might take days and nights to come out. Dragon and I will wait here. You don't have to wait here with us. Hehe, Ms. Sora, you look a little like Ms. Emily!"

Park Sora arrogantly flipped her hair. "Tsk, don't compare that ordinary girl to me. How can she be compared to me? Isn't that right, Jordan?"

At this, Jordan thought of Emily. She was a much cuter girl than Park Sora. Unfortunately, she did not have any mutant abilities.

Jordan did not answer her question. "Sora, I also predicted that Rong Bingshao won't come out for the time being. We can go back in time and stay for a while since we have time. I know you miss your mother very much. Pick a time. Let's go and see your mother."

Park Sora thought for a moment and said, "Then go to my 13th birthday. On that day, Mom, Dad, uh, I mean Cheon Ji-hoon... In short, I was very happy that day. Mom told me a lot of things. That was the time I loved Mom the most."

Jordan nodded. "Alright, go down and set the time yourself. Then, get ready. We'll travel back in time immediately."

Jordan wanted Park Sora to see her late mother.

'If it were me, which day would I choose to see her?' Jordan thought to himself.

Should he choose the first time they met in Syria, or the last time they met there? Or at Park Anya's sexiest dinner? Then perhaps Jordan could find a way to dance with Madam.

Jordan had mixed feelings. Like Park Sora, he wanted to see Park Anya, but he was also afraid of seeing her.

After all, Park Anya had died at Jordan's hands. It was inevitable that Jordan would feel guilty and hurt when he saw her.

Soon, Park Sora set the date. The two of them brought their equipment and traveled to Seoul, South Korea, three years ago.

It was winter and the weather in Seoul was very cold. Fortunately, the two of them were mutants and their bodies had been strengthened. Otherwise, their thin clothes would definitely not help them withstand the biting chill.

Jordan saw that everyone else was wearing down jackets while Park Sora was wearing a summer student uniform with her legs exposed. He asked, "Sora, how are you? Are you cold? Do you feel dizzy after traveling back in time? Do you need to find a place to rest first?"

Generally speaking, the body would not be able to adapt to the first time they traveled back in time.

However, Park Sora seemed to be in good condition. "I'm fine. I have a black-level talent, so I'm not an ordinary little girl. I'm not cold at all. Moreover, I'm a frozen queen. Why would I be afraid of the cold? Hehe."

From the way Park Sora spoke without panting, Jordan could tell that her adaptability was indeed very fast.

In that case, the two of them did not waste any more time and quietly arrived near Park Sora's house.

Jordan looked at the time. "It's six in the afternoon. Your birthday banquet is about to begin, right?"

Park Sora recalled and nodded. "Yes, Mommy should be cooking for me now. We'll start eating soon."

"Your mother cooked?"

Jordan was a little surprised. In his impression, Park Anya had always been a very cold and otherworldly woman. He really wanted to see what she would cook.

Park Sora said, "My mother cooks delicious food! She knows all kinds of dishes! You've never lived with her before, so you definitely don't know."

Jordan also felt that it was a pity. Every time he and Madam met, they would be met with battles and killings. None of them had any impression of a normal life together.

"Let's go in now. I want to see your mother cook."

"Sure."

Park Sora was so excited that she wanted to barge into her house, but Jordan pulled her back.

Jordan said, "Wear the invisibility cloak and go in."

Jordan had specially brought the Schmid family's high-tech invisibility cloak. The two of them put on their invisibility cloaks and walked towards the door very slowly.

Park Sora complained, "We're walking so slowly. Moreover, we have to squat down. With our abilities, it's very easy for us to deal with my useless bodyguards."

With Jordan's gold-level ability, it would be easy for him to secretly deceive the bodyguards.

If Jordan came alone, he wouldn't have to use the Invisibility Cloak. However, with Park Sora around, it was better to be more cautious.

After all, once the two of them were exposed, it would affect the timeline. Jordan knew very well that every time they traveled back in time, it was not child's play. He could not let his guard down.

Jordan did not answer Park Sora and continued to move forward slowly.

Park Sora stopped complaining and said softly, "This is good. I can be very close to you, hehe."

Jordan looked at Park Sora's cute smile and felt helpless. Previously, she hated him very much. Why did she suddenly like him so much?

Soon, the two of them walked in quietly and went to the large house in the living room. The door was open, so the two of them stood at the door and watched the situation inside.

Jordan immediately noticed Park Anya cooking.

Park Anya was wearing a tight-fitting outfit that accentuated her figure. She was wearing a pink apron and her hair was tied back. She looked like a housewife from South Korea.

"Madam..."

Jordan was very excited to see Park Anya again. Previously, every time he saw her, she would wear exquisite makeup and noble clothes. But this time, she was dressed so simply.

Seeing her ordinary appearance, Jordan liked her very much. A goddess like Park Anya was an irresistible temptation to any man!

Who wouldn't want such a wife?!

At this moment, Jordan wished that Park Anya was not dead. If she was not dead, perhaps Park Anya would have married him. He would have seen her as a “good wife and mother” in the kitchen at home and some other important moments.

Many women thought that to attract men, they had to wear designer clothes that exposed their chests and legs, and take good photos in exquisitely decorated shops.

In fact, men preferred women who showed off their “domestic life”.

In a family like Jordan’s, there was no such thing as losing out in terms of cooking. They could hire chefs from a hundred countries a day. However, even with such conditions, Jordan still insisted on doing it himself or with his wife. Only then would it feel like home.

“Mom...”

Park Sora was very excited to see Park Anya again. She saw herself from three years ago. She was very young and much shorter than she was now.

Of course, Cheon Ji-hoon was also in the room.

Park Sora suddenly took out two Bluetooth earphones and handed one to Jordan.

Jordan took it in confusion and placed it on his ear. He realized that Park Sora had played a song.

It was the same song that she had played previously, “See You Again”.

[Can I see you again?]

[Stand in front of a fleeting fate.]

[...]

It seemed that Park Sora was the same as Jordan. She liked to listen to music and feel the atmosphere at certain important moments.

Listening to the song and looking at Madam in front of him, Jordan began to fantasize that the man in the room was not Cheon Ji-hoon, but himself.

Cheon Ji-hoon came to the kitchen and hugged Madam’s waist from behind. Madam turned around with a charming smile.

It was like Madam was smiling at Jordan. Jordan felt like he was there and smiled.

“Mom, I miss you so much...”

However, less than a minute after Park Sora listened to the song, tears streamed down her face. This was because she couldn't hear herself.

Park Sora thought that her voice was very soft, but in fact, her cries had already reached Park Anya's ears.

Suddenly, Park Anya put down the spatula and turned off the stove. Her expression was serious. “Someone's there!”

Seeing that Park Anya had returned to her serious appearance, Jordan immediately covered Park Sora's mouth to prevent her from making any more sounds.

Park Sora's tears kept falling onto Jordan's hand.

Taking off her apron, Park Anya walked towards Jordan and Park Sora.
