

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

Chapter 1245 - 1245 Jordan Is Also a Mutant!

1245 Jordan Is Also a Mutant!

From the expressions of Dragon, Salvatore, and the others, Victoria could infer that they were very confident that Jordan could defeat Grachev!

Victoria could also vaguely sense that Jordan seemed to have hidden his strength!

She observed the changes in Jordan's body carefully and wondered if he would suddenly change his body size, just like Grachev and Shirley. At the same time, she was also paying attention to Jordan's hands to see if there were any new weapons that she had never seen before.

However, there was no change on Jordan's side. Instead, Grachev suddenly descended from the sky using gasoline!

Jordan waved his hands and said, “You like playing with fire, right?”

Then, I’ll make your fire stronger!”

Jordan conjured gasoline and sprinkled it on Grachev like rain.

When the flames on Grachev’s body met the gasoline, they surged up rapidly and burned even more fiercely!

Jordan did not show any mercy. He poured buckets of gasoline on Grachev, causing the flames to continue burning fiercely.

“Ah! It’s so hot! Damn, it’s burning hot!”

Grachev was also sore from his own fire. Originally, the fire on him wouldn’t have reached him. The fire on him was more like a weapon, like a pistol in a man’s hand. If you didn’t point the gun at yourself, you were fine.

However, Jordan changed the attributes of Grachev’s fireball directly. With the addition of gasoline, his entire body erupted like a volcano!

Grachev wanted to control the flames, but it was useless.

“Argh!”

In less than half a minute, Grachev was burned until he rolled on the ground. In the end, he was burned until he was forced out of the berserk state.

Even in his normal form, the flames on his body were still burning. He had no choice but to jump into the Immortal Lake to extinguish the flames on his body.

Thump.

As Grachev jumped into the lake, he also announced his defeat against Jordan!

Seeing this scene, everyone opened their mouths wide, especially Victoria!

Victoria recalled that Jordan had stood up yesterday and said that he wanted to challenge Grachev. At that time, she thought that Jordan was courting death. She did not expect...

“How... How could this be? How did Jordan do it?”

Victoria did not expect Jordan to defeat Grachev, who could kill her in less than a minute with a wave of his hand.

Grachev was a purple mutant!

“So powerful! Jordan is so powerful! He can actually break Brother Grachev’s berserk state!”

“I just want to know where his gasoline came from! There’s no plane above us. I’ve already checked!”

“Could this be a newly developed technology?”

The mutants began to discuss among themselves.

“Shirley!”

Randall called out to Shirley.

When Shirley heard that, she immediately entered combat mode and transformed into a mirror. She used the sunlight to attack Jordan’s face!

A strong light shot into Jordan’s eyes, causing him to close his eyes.

After opening his eyes again, Jordan looked at Shirley angrily, “You dare you attack me like this? You’re overestimating yourself!”

“Freeze!”

Jordan directly used the freezing method on Shirley’s mirror form.

Countless ice cubes quickly covered Shirley’s mirror, and cold air constantly emitted from inside and outside the mirror.

“Wow! Brother knows my ability too!”

Park Sora was excited when she saw that. She admired Jordan even more.

It could be seen that under the control of the extreme cold, Shirley was struggling very hard, trying to get rid of the ice on the mirror. At this moment, a fireball slowly flew towards Shirley!

“Fireball! Why is there another fireball! It’s Grachev?”

“It must be Grachev. Is he using a fireball to help Shirley get out of the ice?”

“No! Shirley’s current temperature is too low. I can feel this terrifying cold even from so far away! She won’t be able to last long under the sunlight.

If another fireball comes, something will happen! Grachev is harming her!”

As this fireball was exactly the same as the fireball that Grachev had thrown previously, everyone subconsciously thought that it was thrown by Grachev.

“No... the direction is wrong and Grachev is still in the lake!”

At first, Randall thought that Grachev was helping in the dark, but he realized a serious problem. Grachev was still in the lake. Moreover, Grachev had been forced out of his berserk state by Jordan earlier. He could not throw a fireball at all!

The only explanation was that it was a fireball released by Jordan!

Of course, it was Jordan’s fireball!

Jordan had the ability to create something out of nothing. Since he had seen Grachev’s fireball, he could naturally conjure it. It could be said that Jordan could copy Grachev’s ability too!

Naturally, Jordan did not throw the fireball to save Shirley.

The fireball was scorching hot. It approached Shirley's mirror form and with a bang, the mirror shattered.

As for Shirley, she changed from a mirror to her human state. She spat out blood and collapsed to the ground.

“Pfft...”

Shirley's mirror form was not invulnerable. Under extreme cold and hot temperatures, it would still shatter.

Everyone was dumbfounded again!

Jordan took less than a minute to beat Grachev and less than a minute to beat Shirley!

Both of them were purple mutants!

At that moment, Grachev crawled out of the Immortal Lake and revealed his head. His hair was wet and his breathing was rapid.

He pointed at Jordan in horror and said, “Jordan... He... He can create things out of nothing! He can conjure things at will! He’s also a mutant!

He also has superpowers!”

Just now, Grachev was also wondering how Jordan did it. In the dozens of seconds in the Immortal Lake, he had an idea. Perhaps this magical lake water had given him inspiration.

It made him certain that Jordan was also a mutant!

Not only Grachev, but Shirley, who was seriously injured on the ground, also said, “Jordan... is at least a purple mutant. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have shattered my mirror form!”

“Purple mutant! Jordan is a purple mutant!”

“Oh my god! Jordan is actually a purple mutant. He’s been pretending to be weak!”

“God is so unfair. He’s already a Deity. How can he still have such a heaven-defying superpower? Damn it, making something out of nothing. He can transform into anything he wants. This superpower is too strong.

I dare say that no one among the purple mutants can defeat him! No one!”

Victoria was also stunned on the spot. She looked at Jordan in surprise,
“Jordan is a purple... mutant?”

1246 Look At My Color!

In an instant, Victoria recalled something that Jordan had said when they were drinking at the Capital Bar a few days ago when she sang “Wedding Invitation Street” for Jordan.

At that time, Jordan asked Victoria what would happen if he had the same offensive ability as Victoria and was also a purple mutant?

At that time, Victoria thought that Jordan was joking. She smiled and said that if Jordan was really a purple mutant, the two of them would be the most compatible couple in the world!

This was what Victoria thought. Although she was very capable, she also liked to look up at powerful men.

His status as a Deity and the leader of the Eight Great Clans was not enough for Victoria to look up to him. Moreover, Jordan was younger than Victoria. If their innate abilities did not match, Victoria would not take the initiative even if she still had feelings for Jordan.

However, she now knew that Jordan was a purple mutant!

Victoria was excited. She walked toward Jordan and said excitedly, “Jordan, so you’ve long obtained talents in the Immortal Lake like Salvatore and Dragon. Moreover, you have a purple ability. It turns out that you’ve been hiding your strength! I should have been alert. That day, you asked me at the bar what would happen if you were a purple mutant. Do you remember what I said?”

Of course, Jordan remembered what Victoria said. However, he did not want to answer this question now!

When he saw Victoria, he couldn't help but recall the intimate scene between her and Randall!

Seeing that Jordan was unwilling to answer, Victoria took the initiative to say with a smile, “I told you then that if you're also a purple mutant, then we're the most compatible couple in the world.”

Victoria's words at this moment were equivalent to confessing to Jordan. As long as Jordan held her hand and said that they were indeed the most compatible couple, the two of them could reconcile.

However, Jordan looked at Victoria and said coldly, “No, Victoria, we're not compatible. You're not worthy of me!”

Victoria didn't like being humiliated by her ex in front of so many people. “What... what did you say?”

Victoria thought that Jordan said that because he knew about her and Randall. Therefore, he said that she was morally unworthy of him.

Victoria scoffed coldly, “Jordan, when it comes to relationships, there's no right or wrong. Outsiders can't judge it either. Let's not talk about past relationships. In terms of mutant ability, you and I are both purple mutants. How can I not be worthy of you!”

It wasn't easy for Victoria to find a purple mutant of the same level as her. Moreover, this man happened to be the man she had always liked. She was very happy.

However, Jordan did not appreciate it at all and did not give Victoria any face.

Before Jordan could respond again, Randall was already impatient to get rid of Jordan, “You’re just a purple mutant. You still can’t defeat my two mythical beasts!”

“Mutated Black Tiger and Mutated Gorilla, attack!”

Under Randall’s control, the mutated tiger and mutated gorilla attacked Jordan at the same time.

Jordan was not afraid at all. He looked at Victoria and said, “I’m not talking about feelings. I’m talking about mutant level. You are not worthy! Victoria, open your eyes wide and see what color I am!”

Roar!

Roar!

The mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla were already charging at Jordan while roaring!

The power of the two ferocious beasts made everyone present shudder in fear. However, Jordan did not even dodge when facing the two ferocious beasts. He did not even take out any weapons to deal with them.

Arghh!

Jordan suddenly roared as well. His body seemed to have exploded instantly. His body did not expand, but he gave off a majestic feeling that was several times stronger.

Furthermore, his body was surrounded by golden light!

The two ferocious beasts were frightened away by Jordan’s roar!

Their ferocious eyes revealed extreme fear. They stopped and did not dare to attack again. They immediately fled in fear!

“That’s impossible!”

Randall found it unbelievable when he saw that. The mutated gorilla that could defeat a purple mutant did not even dare to touch Jordan?

Coupled with the golden light emitting from Jordan's body...

"Could he be a golden mutant?"

For the first time, everyone had this thought.

After shouting, Jordan, who was agitated, could not wait to show Victoria if he was capable or not!

He waved his hands, and dust instantly flew everywhere!

Sand rolled over and swept into the sky. The surroundings of the Immortal Lake immediately turned into sand dunes.

Everyone covered their eyes, unable to see clearly.

Gradually, the wind became stronger and stronger, even sweeping many people of the Mutant Tribe into the sky!

Dragon couldn't help but exclaim, "Master can also create whirlwinds like me! Master's ability has leveled up again!"

He glanced at Victoria who was dumbfounded. He knew that it was because of this woman that Jordan was so agitated and did such a crazy thing.

In his madness, Jordan gradually developed his powerful golden ability.

Gradually, a sandstorm rose. Other than Jordan and Victoria, everyone else was swept into the sky and spun back and forth.

The anger that Jordan had been suppressing for the entire night exploded at this moment!

Suddenly, a red Porsche Panamera appeared. It spun above Jordan and Victoria's heads along with Salvatore, Dragon, and the mutants in the sky.

Jordan had created it according to his memory. On the screen in the car, the name of a song was displayed: Liberators by Epic Score.

This was a song that Victoria often heard on her way to work.

Salvatore was the closest to the car. He got in directly. He knew that Jordan had made this car out of nothing. He was curious if music could be played, so he clicked play.

Unexpectedly, the majestic music instantly sounded!

As the car spun, it played the music like a surround sound system.

At this moment, Victoria looked at the car above her head and listened to the familiar music. She was also stunned.

“This car...”

Victoria looked up and saw the license plate. “This is my car!”

Jordan made something out of nothing. How could it be Victoria’s car?

Perhaps the hot-blooded music agitated Jordan again. Jordan’s actions became more and more crazy!

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

On the ground, buildings were rising continuously. Jordan had created a tall building out of thin air!

Two words appeared on the glass on the top floor of the tall building:
Ace Corporation!

After seeing this, Victoria couldn’t help but have goosebumps...

“The latest news from Central TV’s finance department is that the CEO of the listed company, Ace Corporation, Jordan, has announced his resignation. The new CEO will be Vice President Victoria. According to our sources, Madam Victoria, who is known as the most beautiful CEO in China, will officially become the CEO of Perry Express. With her appointment, she will officially step into the ranks of the CEO of a billion dollar company.”

Images of phone news kept flashing.

“Jordan!”

At that moment, Victoria could not help but cry. She watched Jordan’s crazy actions. She watched as Jordan took out all their memories and displayed them in front of her.

She could not control her emotions!

Then, she saw the Jade Villa where she and Jordan used to live. She saw the room they lived in. The furnishings in the room, including some of Victoria’s makeup items, were all made by Jordan.

Whether it was the house or the car, they were all in the sky, spinning rapidly with the impassioned music.

At this moment, everyone thought that they had stepped into the wrong time and space!

Gradually, the song came to an end. The moment the song ended, Jordan ended all his memories with Victoria.

Explode!

Everything that Jordan had just built, be it the car or tall building, exploded instantly!

“No!”

Victoria cried and shouted. She did not want to see everything that belonged to her and Jordan disappear just like that.

After an unknown period of time, the dust dissipated and everyone descended from the sky.

Jordan looked at Victoria, who was crying and pale from shock.

“Now, do you know what color I am?”

1247 We're Over!

Everyone present was shocked by Jordan's "performance" just now!

They had never seen such a stunning, powerful, and magical performance!

In the past, they had been mocking Jordan. They said he only knew how to predict the future and did not have the ability to attack. Now, these people had been slapped in the face.

Compared to Jordan's heaven-defying ability, their little offensive abilities were not worth mentioning at all!

Jordan could conjure cars, tall buildings, sandstorms, and anything else. He was simply a creator!

Linus of the Mutant Tribe looked at Jordan in shock.

“Gold! Mr. Jordan has the highest golden talent among mutants!”

“Greetings, Chief Jordan!”

As Linus knelt down, the other members of the Mutant Tribe, including the two purple Mutants, Grachev and Shirley, knelt down to Jordan and shouted.

“Greetings, Chief Jordan!”

They had already regarded Jordan as the leader of the Mutant Tribe!

This was understandable. The ruler of the Mutant Tribe was assigned according to ability. Whoever had the highest level was the most powerful.

Now that Jordan was a golden mutant, it was obvious that he was levels higher than any of them. Naturally, Jordan should be the Chief.

“You guys...”

However, at this moment, Randall felt terrible when he saw this scene.

He was the Chief of the mutants, but these people took the initiative to acknowledge Jordan as the Chief. Jordan had not even said that he wanted to be the Chief.

Although he felt uncomfortable, Randall had to admit that Jordan’s performance just now had shocked him!

“Jordan’s golden ability is terrifying! I wonder who’s more powerful between him and Master? It must be Master. Jordan has only been a golden mutant for less than half a year. He’ll be killed by Master in seconds!”

Randall still admired his master. He knew that he could no longer fight Jordan. He could only go back and ask his master to do it personally.

However, in the current situation, whether he could go to the South Pole alive to see his master was also a big problem!

Randall sat on the ground paralyzed. All the other members of the Mutant Tribe knelt on the ground and submitted to Jordan.

Salvatore and Park Sora looked at each other and smiled. They were very happy. They had long wanted Jordan to become the leader of the mutants!

At that moment, among the members of the Mutant Tribe, only Victoria stood there in a daze and looked at Jordan in disbelief.

Salvatore and the others also didn’t say anything. They knew that at this moment, Victoria must be feeling extremely uncomfortable and regretful.

After a full two minutes, Victoria said to Jordan slowly, “Why did you keep it from me? Is it fun to play with me like a monkey? Or do you think I’m a woman like Hailey? Did you deliberately hide your identity just to humiliate me at this moment and make me regret leaving you?”

It was obvious that Victoria was a little resentful of Jordan. In her opinion, even if the two of them separated, there was no need for Jordan to hide it from her. He should have told her that he was a golden mutant.

Naturally, Jordan did not deliberately humiliate Victoria or hide it from her. Why would he treat Victoria as a woman like Hailey Camden?

Jordan said, "I didn't want to humiliate you. Everything was caused by your choice. I didn't tell you because there's no need. I only became a golden mutant after we broke up. I didn't hide anything from you during our time together."

Since Victoria said that she and Randall had sex after they broke up, she did not let Jordan down openly.

It was even more reasonable for Jordan not to tell Victoria his secret after they broke up!

Victoria said, "I just want to ask you one thing. Yesterday, when Grachev was about to kill me, you stood up. Was it just my wishful thinking? Did you come forward because you were confident in winning? If you weren't a golden mutant, you wouldn't have stood up yesterday, right? You would have watched me die, right?"

Victoria was extremely touched by Jordan's actions yesterday. She even revealed her true feelings and said that she wanted to be with Jordan again.

If not for Randall's threat and obstruction, Victoria would have gone to Jordan's room last night to ask for reconciliation.

However, today, she found out that Jordan was a golden mutant. In other words, Jordan did not stand up to Grachev yesterday because he was willing to sacrifice himself for her.

Jordan said coldly, "Yes!"

Smack!

Victoria was agitated when she heard the cold answer. She actually went forward and slapped Jordan!

Victoria cried out. "How can you do this to me!"

In the past, Jordan was willing to cross time and space for Victoria. She had experienced this kind of love once. Victoria could not accept that Jordan, who had risked his life for her in the past, no longer loved her.

She could not accept this outcome!

However, Linus was the first to react when he saw Victoria hitting Jordan. "How dare you, Victoria! How dare you attack the new Chief!"

Swoosh!

Linus immediately shot a dart at Victoria's abdomen.

Victoria was so agitated that she kept looking at Jordan. Therefore, she did not notice that she was injured by the dart this time.

At this moment, Salvatore walked up to Linus and slapped him.

"F*ck you! Who do you think you are? Since when did you have the right to attack for Mr. Jordan? Did we take you in? Are you trying to get close to us?"

Salvatore hated people like Linus who always rebelled.

"Salvatore, we're on the same side. Don't use your right hand."

After being hit by Salvatore a few times, Linus obediently knelt down and did not dare to move again.

Victoria and Jordan were not disturbed by this interlude because they were too focused on their relationship issues.

Jordan did not plan to attack Victoria either. He only said to her coldly, "Leave."

This was the Immortal Lake, Victoria's place. Jordan asking Victoria to leave meant that he wanted to take over this place and become its master!

Victoria knew very well that Jordan was about to become the master of the Immortal Lake and the leader of the Mutant Tribe. As a golden mutant, everyone would respect him.

Even Linus, who used to lick Randall's boots, dared to attack Victoria now to please Jordan.

Victoria looked at Jordan. "I'm not worthy to be your woman. I'm not even worthy to be your subordinate, right?"

Naturally, Victoria's purple mutant ability could help Jordan a lot. However, how could Jordan face his old lover all day?

After finding out that Victoria and Randall had done such a thing on the night they broke up, Jordan could no longer face Victoria.

"After so many things have happened, do you think I can still bear to see you? Victoria, we're over."

1248 Victoria's Complaint!

In the past, Jordan had never taken the initiative to break up with Victoria and said such decisive words.

The last time when they broke up, Victoria sensed the rejection in Jordan's body and knew that he despised her. Out of pride, she took the initiative to break up.

At that time, Jordan did not say that he wanted to break up. He only did not ask her to stay when she said that she wanted to leave

However, this time, Jordan told Victoria personally that it was over between the two of them.

Victoria knew that Jordan would never say such things easily. Once he said it, he would not change his mind.

At this moment, Victoria felt as if she had lost a part of the sky. Tears kept falling down her face. She was even sadder than the last time they broke up!

Last time, Victoria had only lost a Deity who could predict the future. At this moment, she lost one of the most powerful golden mutants in the world!

“No, no!!!”

Victoria became emotional and let out a fierce roar. Her entire body emitted a purple light while her hair fluttered in the sky. Her thin dress almost fell apart.

“Ah!”

At the same time, everyone else felt a sharp pain in their heads. Everyone held their heads and fainted on the ground.

Victoria activated a group mental attack. While venting her emotions, she made everyone faint.

Salvatore, Dragon, Park Sora, the Mutant Tribe, and even the purple mutants, including Grachev and Shirley who had yet to transform, all fainted.

Under Victoria’s attack, only Jordan and Randall remained conscious.

However, even though Randall could withstand her mental attack, it was still quite strenuous on his body. He spat out a mouthful of blood.

Jordan stood on the spot steadily. Although he was fine, he could feel a sharp pain in his head.

Victoria’s abilities were indeed terrifying, especially when she was out of control. Her power was unfathomable. If Victoria was also a golden mutant, Jordan would probably be controlled by her.

When Jordan saw Victoria release her ability, he said, “Victoria, don’t force me to attack you.”

Initially, Victoria did not want to fight with Jordan. Women preferred to quarrel. Even if she could win, she would not fight. Now, Victoria was no longer sad and turned angry instead. Tears and unwillingness appeared on her beautiful face.

Victoria looked at Jordan and said, “In your eyes, is Lauren the only good woman? The only good wife? I want to be like her too! Can I? I can’t! She was born into a wealthy family like the Howards in the capital. Until now, she has never had to worry about money in her life! Everyone dotes on her and she can have whatever she wants!

“What about me? I’m also a child of a rich family. I can be like her. I only need to be doted on, taken care of, and live a beautiful life every day. I don’t want to be kept by an old man! Why can’t I appear in front of you as pure as Lauren? It’s only because of your father! Your father took my father away and destroyed our family! It was the Steeles who harmed me!”

Victoria couldn’t help but vent about the grievances in her heart.

Jordan sighed as well. The Steeles had indeed let the Clarkes down.

The Steeles took a fancy to Victoria’s father’s technological abilities and invited him to do secret research. They even created a fake death certificate for Norman, causing Victoria and her family to feel as if the sky was falling.

Jordan replied softly, “Why must you choose to be Russell’s kept woman? Why must you be very rich? Emily never said that she wanted to live a rich life and that she couldn’t live without money.”

Victoria tried her best to retort. “Why should we live a life without money! We were rich to begin with! I will never allow Emily to live a hard life. The life I enjoy must be hers too!

“Not care about money? Without money, you don’t even have the qualifications to marry into the Camden family and marry Hailey Camden! If Hailey Camden’s grandfather didn’t see that your family was rich, would he let a poor person marry such a beautiful wife like Hailey Camden? Hailey thought that you really didn't have money, so what did she do to you? She still betrayed you! If you don't have money, you won't even have the chance to slap her face and make her regret it!"

Jordan recalled the three years when he married into the family. Indeed, the lack of money made him realize the cruelty of this society. His status was really worse than pigs and dogs.

At that time, for the first time, he deeply understood why people pursued money and power.

"Lauren has always been luckier than me. I want to be like her and never be separated from you. But in order to take revenge on you, Shaun's wife captured me, not Lauren! Therefore, I was also shamed! If it weren't for this, I wouldn't have committed suicide. You wouldn't have become William and approached me. Nothing would have happened!

"Also, after I got together with you, I was taken away by your second brother. Who did I do it for? You! Because Jamie said that if your brother wanted to deal with you, you can only live if you marry Lauren and borrow the Howards' power! I was the one who took the initiative to send your best wife to you!

"I never wanted to be jealous when you get married to Lauren, and I didn't want anything to happen with you when you were pretending to be William! However, you pretended to be William, imitated my father's voice, and treated me so well. You even held me so close as we went to sleep. You were the one who kept seducing me to take that step!

"You despise me for having sex with William, but what about yourself? After you got together with me, you slept with Lauren, Lorta, and even my sister! You were the one who betrayed our relationship first! You have no right to blame me and Randall!"

Victoria defended herself hysterically and argued intensely with Jordan. Randall, who was lying on the ground, looked like he was watching a show.

Randall said lightly, "Victoria is right. Jordan, you have double standards indeed. You only allow yourself to have other women. Victoria is not allowed to find another man."

"Shut up!"

Victoria and Jordan looked at Randall angrily at the same time and attacked him.

"Pfft..."

Randall spat out another mouthful of blood.

Meanwhile, Jordan took out another huge rock and pressed it on Randall's body.

"Arghhh!"

This time, Randall no longer had the strength to push the boulder away.

Victoria ignored Randall and continued to vent to Jordan. Jordan did not stop her. He let Victoria continue as he wanted to know what Victoria had been thinking over the past few years.

Eventually, Victoria's tone softened. "Jordan, I have a clear conscience towards you and me. You're the one who hurt me first every time. Ever since my father! Every time I turn bad, it's all because of you and the Steeles! I hate you! I hate you!"

With that, she cried and ran out.

Her vision was getting blurry. She looked like she was leaving the Immortal Lake.

Jordan was filled with emotions as he recalled the past.

Then he turned around and looked at Randall, who was struggling to break free from the huge rock on the ground. Killing intent appeared in his eyes!

1249 Becoming the Chief and Taking Over the Immortal Lake!

The main culprit behind all of this was Randall!

If he hadn't coveted Victoria's purple mutant talent and snatched her away, the two of them wouldn't have ended up in this state!

The two people who were once in love could no longer even remain friends now. It was even impossible for them to meet in the future!

When he saw Jordan's murderous aura, Randall found himself afraid for the first time. He had no choice but to admit defeat.

"Jordan, don't listen to that bitch Victoria's nonsense. She has no right to blame you or the Steeles. She brought this upon herself. You and I didn't do anything wrong... Argh!"

Jordan stepped on the rock that was pressing down on Randall and questioned, "Did you do anything wrong?"

Although Randall's physical resistance was very strong, he was in pain after being attacked by Jordan consecutively.

"I was wrong, I was wrong. No matter what, I shouldn't have had intentions toward your woman. I was too greedy. After I found out that Victoria had a purple mutant talent, I wanted to take her for myself and let her stay by my side to help me. Jordan, no matter what, we're family. You've provoked me so many times in the past, but I've never been ruthless to you. You... You won't kill me, right?"

Although Randall still had a backup plan and could ask his master to deal with Jordan, he would not be able to do anything if Jordan killed him now.

Jordan kicked the huge rock away. "If you weren't my uncle, you would have died ten thousand times! Now, I ask you a question, and you answer it honestly."

Randall had no choice but to obey. "Okay!"

Jordan questioned, "Where did you get those two mythical beasts? Don't tell me you tamed them yourself. You don't have the ability to tame mythical beasts of this level. Besides, if you had it all along, you wouldn't have only taken them out today. Who is the person backing you?!"

Of course, Randall could not be killed. He had occupied the Immortal Lake for so long and knew too many things. Jordan wanted to try his best to figure them out.

Randall hesitated. Of course, he could not expose his master, Mike Baylor.

"Your guess is correct. These divine beasts are indeed not mine, but the moon maiden's."

"Moon Maiden?"

Jordan was shocked. He thought of the mysterious woman again.

In fact, this answer was similar to what Jordan had guessed.

Jordan asked, "That Moon Maiden shouldn't be your ex-girlfriend, right?"

Randall smiled. "How am I qualified to date the Moon Maiden? I lied to Victoria on purpose. After Victoria found out that I was a black mutant, she despised me and refused to be with me. That's why I made up a story that I had a golden mutant level ex-girlfriend. Victoria's attitude towards me was indeed different. Hehe.

"Jordan, speaking of which, our treatment of Victoria is actually the complete opposite. I keep bragging about myself and exaggerating my abilities to make her admire me. You, on the other hand, are the opposite. You're clearly a golden mutant, but you pretend to be nothing. Women, especially those who have fought in the business circle, are all very influential. You can't not give her something to eat. You were wrong to test her. They can't accept being tested."

Victoria had already left, and Jordan did not want to talk about the two of them anymore.

“Enough. You have no right to judge me and Victoria. You’ve never loved Victoria and only used her as a tool. If she didn’t have the ability to control her mind, you shouldn’t even look at her.”

Randall smiled. “If she wasn’t a purple mutant, why would I give her the time of day? It’s not we if she is drop-dead gorgeous. Speaking of devastatingly beautiful women, Jordan, apart from your wife, Lauren, I also want to recommend someone to you. It’s the Moon Maiden I mentioned earlier. I’m guessing that you’re keeping me alive not because I can talk nonsense with you here. You want me to take you to see her, right?”

Randall could tell that Jordan was very curious about the Moon Maiden.

Jordan did not deny it. “That’s right. You’re the only person in the world who knows where the Moon Maiden is. I want to see her and ask her something.”

Randall smiled. “Alright, I’ll bring you there. Since I did something to break you and Victoria apart, I’ll matchmake you as compensation.”

Jordan asked, “What do you mean?”

Randall smiled evilly. “We’re all men. Do you need me to explain it clearly? I’ve said it before. The Moon Maiden is more beautiful than Lauren. Moreover, the Moon Maiden is a golden mutant while Lauren is just an ordinary woman. Everyone knows that you and the Moon Maiden are the most compatible. In the future, when you get together with the Moon Maiden, don’t forget to invite me to your wedding banquet!”

Jordan said with a serious expression, “Do you think I’m like you? You want to take someone else for yourself after seeing that they’re golden mutants? Let me tell you, I already have a wife now. No matter how beautiful and noble that Moon Maiden is, I won’t have any thoughts about her! Tell me the Moon Maiden’s location immediately!”

Randall calmed down and said, “Sapu Sacred Mountain.”

“Sapu Sacred Mountain?”

Jordan was surprised. He had never been to this place before. However, from the name, it did sound like a place where immortals lived.

Randall explained, "Sapu Sacred Mountain is not far from here. It's one of the sacred mountains of Tibetan Buddhism in the east of the district."

Jordan turned on his smartphone and searched the place. Through the pictures, Jordan realized that it was a very beautiful place. It was even more beautiful than Mount Kunlun and the Immortal Lake.

It was reasonable for beauties to live in that beautiful scenery.

Jordan looked at Randall and said, "Take me to Sapu Sacred Mountain to meet the Moon Maiden now."

Randall suddenly put on a pained expression. "Jordan, you know that I'm injured by you. I can't even move, especially down there. Can you at least let me undergo reconstructive surgery before leaving? If I don't receive it in a short period of time, I'm afraid I won't be able to use it for the rest of my life!"

Jordan did not pity Randall at all.

Jordan scoffed coldly, "You should be glad that you're still alive. Moreover, you're already so old. Focus on your career and don't lust after women. Why do you need that? Don't use it if you can't use it!"

As he spoke, Jordan took out a basin of water and splashed it on the faces of the unconscious people.

These people fainted after being attacked by Victoria's mental attack. Their injuries weren't serious and they were immediately woken up by the water.

After the mutants woke up and saw Jordan, they knelt down again.

"Greetings, Chief!"

Park Sora walked over as well. She held Jordan's arm and asked, "Brother, everyone wants you to be the leader of the mutants. Do you want to be the leader?"

Jordan looked at Randall, who was acting like he was in great pain, and thought of the Moon Maiden who was hiding behind Sapu Sacred Mountain and plotting in the shadows.

"Alright, I'll be the leader of the mutants and take over the Immortal Lake. If anyone wants to snatch it from me in the future, ask them to bring it on!"

1250 The Winged Bird Is Gone!

At this stage, the Moon Maiden, whose strength was unfathomable, had been hiding in the dark and had not revealed herself.

To Jordan, the safest method was the same. He should not occupy the Immortal Lake too early and take over the Mutant Tribe. Otherwise, he would become the target of everyone. Only God knew how many terrifying powers like the Moon Maiden were staring at the mysterious Immortal Lake.

However, Jordan chose to take over boldly. He wanted the people hiding in the dark to know that he, Jordan, had taken over the Immortal Lake and become its master.

He wanted to lure all these people out!

Jordan had the Deity's prediction ability. If there was really any danger, he would sense it in advance.

When they heard that Jordan had finally taken over the Immortal Lake, Salvatore, Park Sora, and the others were unusually excited. Their master had taken over the Immortal Lake and became the leader of the mutants. Naturally, their status would also rise.

“Haha, I’ve already said that Jordan has the final say in the chaos of the Immortal Lake. Let’s see which of these mutant bastards dares to disobey me in the future!”

Salvatore became smug.

On the other hand, the mutants all knelt down to Jordan.

“Long live the Chief! Long live the Deity!”

Looking at the mutants kneeling in unison, Park Sora patted Salvatore and asked, “Should we kneel too?”

Salvatore said, “We don’t need to. We’ve been following Mr. Jordan since the beginning. We’re different from these traitors. If you want to kneel to Mr. Jordan, you can do it at other times, haha.”

Park Sora pretended to be embarrassed and angry. “Are you asking for a beating? I’m underage! Don’t tease me!”

Jordan did not feel very happy when he saw all the mutants kneeling before him. A thunderclap sounded in the sky, scaring everyone. Jordan looked at the kneeling mutants with a dignified expression and said, “Get up! No kneeling! There is no emperor here. No one is worth kneeling to! You bunch of people have always relied on the fact that you’re mutants. You’re arrogant and conceited. You burn, kill, and rob. You commit all kinds of evil. I’m warning you. If you still dare to act rashly under my hands, I’ll be the first to kill you!”

“If you want to be a member of the Mutant Tribe, you must meet three conditions. The first is justice, the second is justice, and the third is f*cking justice!”

Upon hearing Jordan’s words, everyone stood up and spoke one after another.

Linus said, “That’s right! We mutants want to be the teachers of justice! We want to spread positive energy! We want to do good for society and all mankind!”

Mike said, "Before I joined the Mutant Tribe, I was a Christian. I often did good deeds. Last time, I even used my superpower to save a mother and daughter who jumped off a building to commit suicide. Thank God for letting me meet a clan leader who has such a similar worldview as me! I feel like my entire soul has been sublimated!"

Grachev said, "I also... fit very well."

Shirley sneered. "Grachev, this is the first time you've spoken so softly. Are you feeling guilty? How many people have you killed in the past? Are you worthy of talking about justice?"

Grachev said angrily, "You're not much better than me! Recently, many male idols and celebrities have gone missing in Korea. It's all because of you, right?!"

Jordan knew that this group of mutants had done many bad things in the past. If they were punished for their past crimes, they would probably be sentenced to death.

Mutants were extremely precious, and the proportion of people who could become mutants was extremely low. Therefore, they could not be killed easily.

Jordan said, "Write down all the bad things you've done in the past and hand them over. I'll punish you according to your crimes. You'd better compensate me accordingly. In the past, under the leadership of this delinquent uncle of mine, the Mutant Tribe had a very bad culture. After all, if the upper beam isn't right, the lower beam will be crooked. What my uncle did wasn't human. I can understand why you fell. However, from today onwards, if you still dare to casually kill and humiliate ordinary people, I won't let you off!"

While Jordan was teaching the mutants a lesson, he did not forget to pull Randall out and scold him angrily.

"Yes!"

The mutants agreed readily.

Jordan looked at Salvatore and said, "We're going to Sapu Sacred Mountain now. Salvatore, stay behind and watch over this group of mutants. Teach them a lesson. I'll leave the Immortal Lake to you."

Salvatore was extremely excited. "Yes! Mr. Jordan! I'll definitely make them realize their mistakes and teach them well!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a mutant quietly approached Salvatore and tried to get close to him. "Salvatore, I toasted you yesterday. Do you still remember me? Can I write less of the crimes in the self-reflection essay?"

At this moment, Park Sora and Dragon walked over. Park Sora asked, "Brother, what are we going to Sapu Sacred Mountain for? Is it fun there?"

Dragon glanced at the lifeless Randall and guessed, "Are we going to find the Moon Maiden?"

Jordan nodded and looked at Randall, "Take us to Sapu Sacred Mountain to look for your ex-girlfriend now!"

Randall sat on the ground with a pained expression. "Okay, but can you assign me a doctor on the plane? I want to do reconstructive surgery on the way."

Jordan rejected her outright, "No."

Park Sora couldn't help but laugh and tease, "Oh, Randall, you're supposed to be impenetrable. How can you be so fragile? Nothing will happen. Let's go quickly!"

As she spoke, she got someone to help Randall up.

However, after Randall stood up, he made another request. "I have another request. I'm willing to offer these two ferocious beasts, the mutated gorilla and the mutated tiger, to you as a gift for you as you have now taken over and become the leader of the mutants. However, I want to bring that Winged Bird with me. To be honest, that's the Moon Maiden's favorite pet and I stole it from her. I have to return it, or she'll kill me."

Jordan nodded and said, "Alright, bring it then."

As he spoke, Jordan and the others immediately arrived at the parking lot of the Immortal Lake. They were prepared to bring Randall's Winged Bird to look for the Moon Maiden. The members of the Mutant Tribe also followed behind to send him off.

However, when they reached the helipad, Randall was shocked. "Oh no! The Winged Bird is gone! My plane with the Winged Bird is gone too!"

Randall placed the bird on a special plane. Now, even the bird and the plane were both gone.

Jordan thought about it. Before them, only Victoria had left early. It seemed like Victoria had taken them away.

Victoria had the ability to control other people's thoughts. For her, controlling the people on the plane to take her away was a piece of cake.

Randall also thought of this and cursed angrily, "Damn it! It must be that b*tch Victoria who stole my bird! Ah! That bitch!"

Randall's master had "lent" him that incomparably noble Winged Bird. He had only been given three months to use it. It would be troublesome if Randall couldn't return the Winged Bird in three months.
