

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

- Chapter 1296 – 1300

1296 Forging Completion!

Victoria stayed alone in the hotel and found a room. She specially put on some makeup and made herself look like a middle-aged woman in her forties. She looked like a nanny.

After the Howards found this place, they took advantage of the chaos to get into the car and return to the villa.

Since Victoria was being controlled today and her whereabouts were unknown, Jordan sent almost everyone he could send out. Not only that, but there were also people from the Howards and Lionel's side. There were people from all walks of life who came to find Victoria.

It could be said that this was a very chaotic time. There were people that they did not know, and no one cared.

Victoria also took advantage of the chaos and slipped into the nanny room on the first floor of the villa to hide.

Not long after, she saw 2021 Jordan, receive a call and rush over. When he saw the unconscious Victoria in 2021, he hurriedly took off the ancient accessories on her body to wake her up.

Then, he told her what had happened today.

Victoria could not help but feel a lump in her throat when she saw Jordan saying these words so patiently and gently to her in 2021 with love.

“At this moment, Jordan loves me so much. Sigh, can I never go back to such a happy life? Only when I change Jordan's memories and eliminate his hatred for me can we be together again.”

Through the crack in the door, Victoria watched everything with envy.

She knew that Jordan would bathe with her past self next. Then, they would go to the room to make love.

Victoria was currently dressed as a nanny. Her conservative method was to hide in her room and not wander around. However, she could not help but run over to peek. She wanted to reminisce about the blissful times in the past.

“He loves me so much... I love what he did to me at this moment! I love the way he looks at me at this moment!”

Victoria carefully pushed open the door to Jordan and Victoria’s room in 2021. Through the crack in the door, she saw the loving scene between the two of them.

However, at this moment.

“Nanny?”

Suddenly, Victoria heard Lauren’s voice from behind!

“Oh no!”

Victoria became nervous and quickly closed the door. Her back was still facing her, not daring to look back.

Although she had disguised herself, she was too familiar with Lauren and was still worried that Lauren would recognize her.

“Yes,” Victoria responded.

Lauren asked from afar, “Nanny, what are you doing there? If there’s anything, look for them later. It’s not convenient now. Why don’t you go to the kitchen and make something? Jordan hasn’t eaten because of Victoria today. He’ll definitely be hungry after the exercise.”

Unexpectedly, it was Lauren who instructed Victoria to cook in the kitchen.

“Understood.”

Victoria was treated as a nanny by Lauren. She naturally went to the kitchen and used the black fish she brought to make a very delicious pickled fish for Jordan.

At that moment, Jordan came out of Victoria's room in 2021 and went to look for Lauren.

Taking advantage of this time, Victoria quietly pushed open the door to her room in 2021. She had already used her mental energy to sense that she was asleep.

Taking out a pen and paper, she wrote a note on the bedside.

'Hubby, I'm going to sleep first. I made you a pickled fish in the kitchen. You must eat it. Also, I love you.'

Victoria couldn't help but sigh after writing the last line.

Victoria gently caressed herself and said, "Everything will be fine."

Not long after, Jordan returned from Lauren's room. He saw that Victoria was already asleep and had left him a note.

When he arrived at the kitchen, Jordan saw a fish with pickled cabbage that looked, smelled, and tasted great.

"Victoria has gone through so much today and still wants to cook for me. I must finish all of it!"

Feeling full of love, Jordan ate all the fish made by Victoria.

Jordan could differentiate between Victoria's culinary skills and the cooking skills of the nanny they hired. He knew that it was Victoria's cooking when he took the first bite.

After that, Jordan returned to Victoria's room and hugged her. This posture would last until dawn.

After seeing Jordan finish the pickled fish, Victoria returned to the bar to meet Mike Baylor.

Mike Baylor asked, "He ate it?"

Victoria nodded. "Yes."

Mike Baylor became happy. "Hahaha, very good! Victoria, you did well this time. Soon, you will receive the reward you deserve. Alright, let's go back. Let's wait for a brand new Jordan to arrive!"

Year 2022.

At that moment, Jordan was still in Jiumo Kasyapa, India, continuing to build his Hell Space.

Jordan had the help of the world's top experts. He used technological methods to enrich the traps and weapons in his space.

On the other hand, Jiumo Kasyapa had been watching from the side. He was amazed to see Jordan's Hell Space evolve with thousands of changes.

When Jordan finally came to an end, Jiumo Kasyapa quickly stepped forward.

"Deity Jordan, you're really a genius! In just a few days, you built such a huge and magical space! Moreover, you combined technology with the abilities given by the Immortal Lake. You're really the number one person in the world!

"The suction force of the magnetic field near the vortex is enough to deter the golden-horned dragon from flying in the sky and borrowing the power of lightning. Once it steps on the ground, it will fall into the traps set by Deity Jordan! Not only that, Jordan even thought of creating AI robots to create black-armored soldiers and weapons of mass destruction. How admirable!

"Deity Jordan is creating something out of nothing now. Your ability is limited and you can't create a missile at once, but you can create weapon parts and robot parts. Let the robots help you build a missile in this space.

“With Deity Jordan’s current speed, you can automatically produce one black-armored warrior robot and ten robot builders every ten minutes. Every half an hour, these robots can make a laser missile. In other words, the longer you fight in this Hell Space, the more beneficial it will be for you. The more powerful your weapons will be! Jordan, you won’t have to worry about your mental strength and stamina being exhausted like last time!

“I’m really lucky to be able to see all of this with my own eyes!”

Jordan looked at Jiumo Kasyapa and said, “Master, I have the Hell Space. I hope you can hide this secret for me. Don’t tell Mike Baylor and the Moon Maiden for the time being.”

After all, Jordan had been building his “Hell Space” day and night. Now, it finally had a considerable lethality. Jordan was also confident that he could definitely defeat Mike Baylor’s golden-horned dragon now!

The only thing that worried Jordan was that he should not let Jiumo Kasyapa know all the details within it so clearly...

1297 I’m Back!

Jordan liked to catch his opponent off guard. It would be troublesome if Mike Baylor knew in advance that he had Hell Space.

Jiumo Kasyapa immediately stretched out his hand with a serious expression and promised, “I swear that if I tell anyone that Deity Jordan has a hell space, I will go to the eighteenth level of hell to suffer the pain of reincarnation!”

Hearing this, Jordan said immediately, “Master, you don’t have to do this. We’re friends. Of course, I trust you. Besides, if it weren’t for your guidance, I wouldn’t have been able to create this hell space. Master, you’ve done a lot for me today!”

Jiumo Kasyapa quickly said, “I don’t dare to take credit. Deity Jordan, since the Hell Space is almost built, why don’t you go back and have a cup of tea and rest?”

Jordan nodded. Ever since he ran out in the middle of the night, he had not slept for two consecutive days and nights. He had been busy building Hell Space. If it were an ordinary person, they would have collapsed from exhaustion.

It was true that Jordan was a little tired now. However, he was still excited and not sleepy.

Returning to the magnificent temple of Jiumo Kasyapa, the two came to the high platform in the air to drink tea again.

Jiumo Kasyapa took the initiative to apologize, “I really deserve to die. I shouldn’t have gone to look for you. I accidentally found out that you had a big secret like the Hell Space. Sigh, in fact, at that time, I noticed that some Indian police officers had received a police report. I was afraid that they would disturb you, so I came out to stop them. Don’t worry. I’ll forget about your Hell Space as soon as possible. I won’t cause you any trouble!”

Jiumo Kasyapa knew very well that Jordan was a person who liked to hide secrets. He knew such a big secret about Jordan, and the two of them had not known each other for long. Their trust was not high enough, which was not a good thing.

Jordan said with a smile, “Master Jiumo, you’re overthinking it. At that time, I was so engrossed in researching a powerful space that I completely forgot about the surrounding environment. I have to thank you for helping me solve this problem. Otherwise, it would be troublesome if ordinary people found out and spread it online.

“Master, here’s to you.”

Jiumo Kasyapa also quickly picked up his teacup and took a sip. “Deity Jordan, now that your Hell Space has been completed, why don’t you rest for a night and stay here for a few more days? Tomorrow morning, I have a Buddhist lecture. I hope Deity Jordan can come and discuss it with us.”

Jordan felt a little awkward. The reason why he stayed here was because Jiumo Kasyapa had invited Jordan to attend his Buddhist class. However, Jordan had not attended it.

Jordan said, “Master Jiumo is the most outstanding Buddhist master in the world. Many celebrities and tycoons specially fly over to ask for guidance so that you could guide them in their lives. It can be said that listening to your lecture is better than ten years of life experience.

“I also have a lot of worries about life and emotions, and I really want to stay and listen to Master Jiumo’s Buddhist lessons, but... you know that I am a layman. Now that I have the means to deal with Mike Baylor, I can’t wait to find him and get back the face I lost last time, so I’m afraid I can only find another opportunity.”

Jordan did not have the mood and time to stay here and listen to Jiumo Kasyapa talk about life and Buddhism. He wanted to fight that damned golden horned dragon. He wanted the arrogant Mike Baylor to bow down to him!

As such, Jordan did not want to wait a minute longer!

Jiumo Kasyapa was a little disappointed, but he also smiled and said, “I understand. Last time, Deity Jordan failed to defeat Mike Baylor and lost the control of Immortal Lake and the mutants. The mutants, including your old love, Victoria, will definitely have some mocking or bad thoughts about you. Now that Jordan has a way to deal with Mike Baylor, it’s time to challenge him again.

“Do you need me to teleport you to the Immortal Lake?”

Jordan took a sip of tea and said, “No need. I have to go back to the capital to see my subordinates first. When I reach the capital, I’ll take a plane to Immortal Lake. If you’re the one who sends me there, Mike Baylor will know that we’re close. If I lose to Mike Baylor again, I’m afraid I’ll implicate you.”

Jordan knew that Jiumo Kasyapa had always maintained a neutral attitude. He did not want to implicate him.

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "Okay, after drinking this cup of tea, I will send you to the capital."

Jordan nodded with a smile, "Thank you, Master."

Ten minutes later, Jordan quickly returned to the capital with Jiumo Kasyapa's help.

When they arrived at Jordan's villa again, his subordinates rushed to spread the news when they saw Jordan return. They were all unusually excited.

However, Jordan did not see Salvatore, Park Sora, or Dragon along the way.

"Where are Salvatore and the others?"

One of his subordinates answered, "We've already sent the message. They'll come out to welcome Mr. Jordan immediately!"

Jordan said, "There's no need. Tell me where they are. I'll go see them."

"Yes!"

Under the guidance of his subordinates, Jordan arrived at a house beside Jordan's villa. He realized that Salvatore, Park Sora, and Dragon were all in the house. Moreover, the three of them were undergoing treatment.

"Mr. Jordan!"

"Brother!"

The three of them were excited to see Jordan return.

Jordan walked in and heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that Salvatore was still alive. However, when he walked closer, he saw that one of his legs was crippled. The doctor had now attached a prosthetic limb to him.

Salvatore saw that Jordan wanted to stand up, but it was obvious that he had yet to recover. Just as he was about to stand up, he fell back onto the sofa.

“Brother!”

Park Sora suddenly pounced on Jordan with tears in her eyes. She took the initiative to complain, “Brother, you’re finally back. Two days ago, Mike Baylor sent a few ferocious beasts to the capital to cause trouble for us. Many of our subordinates died. Salvatore’s leg was broken too. I was poisoned and Dragon was injured. Boohoo... You have to avenge us.”

Jordan patted Park Sora’s head and looked at Salvatore. He asked, “Why is there a prosthetic leg? Is the leg so badly crippled? Can’t it be repaired?”

Salvatore smiled and said, “Recovery is a little slow. The doctor said that it would take at least a year, so I asked the doctor to change it to prosthetic leg directly. A prosthetic leg is good. Mr. Jordan, this prosthetic leg can contain weapons. In the future, my hands and feet can attack. Give me a month, and I’ll definitely become even more awesome than before!”

Seeing Jordan’s pained expression, Salvatore continued, “Mr. Jordan, you don’t have to feel sorry for me. It’s all thanks to you predicting that something would happen to me in advance. Dragon asked Rong Bingshao to keep an eye on me. As soon as something happened to me, Bingshao immediately saved me. If not for you, I would have gone to see the King of Hell now. Hehe.”

Jordan knew that Salvatore did not need any comforting words. He looked at Park Sora and asked, “What’s wrong with you? How did you get poisoned? Do the mutated black tiger and mutated gorilla still have poison attacks?”

Park Sora kept crying aggrievedly. She did not look too good and reached out her hand. “Hug me properly, brother. I’m really the core of the battle this time. It’s all thanks to me that I defeated those ferocious beasts!”

As Jordan pressed Park Sora’s head gently, he pretended to complain to Dragon, who did not seem to be injured, “Dragon, why didn’t you look after Park Sora?”

Dragon said truthfully, “Miss Park Sora was too obsessed with fighting. Actually, she was accidentally injured by our poisonous gas team. In the end, we used poisonous gas to attack and asked her to retreat, but she insisted on cutting off the gorilla’s claws with her own hands. She said that she wanted to show it to you when you returned. She couldn’t fight for a long time before she was poisoned...”

Jordan looked down at Park Sora, “You were poisoned by one of our own?”

Park Sora was very embarrassed. She buried her face in Jordan’s arms. “Ah, you can’t say it like that. Anyway, you have to avenge me.”

Salvatore said, “Sora, don’t be like this. Mr. Jordan isn’t Mike Baylor’s match yet. Don’t rush Mr. Jordan.”

Jordan patted Park Sora’s shoulder and said to Salvatore and Dragon, “No, I came back this time to avenge you!”

1298 Confession to the Moon Maiden!

Upon hearing that Jordan wanted to avenge them, Dragon stood up immediately and advised, “Master, don’t be rash. Although we’re all injured, we’re not dead. We’re not worth your risk.”

When Dragon approached him, Jordan realized that there were some bloodstains on his neck and arms.

Jordan asked, “Was your neck scratched by a mutated beast?”

Dragon nodded.

Park Sora walked behind Dragon and lifted Dragon's clothes without holding back. She showed Jordan his back, "Brother, look at Dragon's back. It's more serious here!"

Jordan could not help but tremble when he saw Dragon's back. He saw that there were more than just bloodstains and scratches on Dragon's back. It was as if a hole had been created. It was very horrifying.

"They injured you this badly?"

Jordan instantly became furious again.

Dragon endured the pain and said, "I underestimated the attack power of the mutated gorilla. Although it hurts a little, it doesn't stop me from using Whirlwind."

Jordan clenched his fists tightly. At that moment, he was furious!

This bastard, Mike Baylor, had actually seriously injured his three capable subordinates!

If Jordan did not have the ability to predict and tell Dragon in advance that they would be attacked, Salvatore and Dragon would have died by now!

Jordan said furiously, "Don't worry. I already have a way to deal with that golden horned dragon and Mike Baylor. I'll definitely not lose if we fight again!"

Hearing this, the three of them became excited.

Park Sora shook Jordan's arm and asked, "Brother, what new move do you have? Let me see it!"

Hell Space was a secret. Of course, it could not be casually shown to others. Moreover, the Hell Space was too huge. It could not be opened casually and would take a long time.

So Jordan ignored Park Sora and asked, “By the way, where’s Rong Bingshao? It’s all thanks to him saving Salvatore this time. Where is he now? Is he injured too?”

...

Sapu Sacred Mountain.

Rong Bingshao went to Sapu Sacred Mountain to meet the Moon Maiden. However, when he came here to ask for an audience, the Moon Maiden did not see him for a long time.

At first Rong Bingshao waited at the foot of the hill, and at last he climbed the summit where the Moon Maiden lived, and waited at the gate.

Finally, at night, when a meteor streaked across the beautiful night sky, the Moon Maiden walked out of her residence.

“Miss Moon Maiden!”

Originally, Rong Bingshao was also squatting at the entrance of the cave, looking up at the meteor. Suddenly, he smelled a faint fragrance. He turned around and saw that it was the Moon Maiden he had been thinking about day and night!

The Moon Maiden was still dressed as a fairy. She was wearing a low-cut pink dress that exposed her fair arms. It looked a little like a nightgown. Her hair was tied in a pink flower the same color as the dress.

The Moon Maiden walked to the entrance of the cave, looked up at the meteor, and asked. “Why are you still here?”

Rong Bingshao said, “Miss Moon Maiden, I have something to report to you! Mike Baylor has started a war with Jordan! He sent a few mutated beasts to the capital. Several of Jordan’s subordinates are injured and there are many deaths. I know that Miss Moon Maiden warned Mike Baylor not to do anything rash, so I specially came to tell you about this.”

Moon Maiden said, "I've known about this for a long time. Jordan killed two of Mike Baylor's subordinates. Mike Baylor can't take this lying down, so he went to kill Jordan and the others. It's no big deal. Mike Baylor didn't go to the capital himself. He won't do anything rash."

The Moon Maiden was very calm about the conflict between Mike Baylor and Jordan. It was as if she knew that Mike Baylor would not blow things up.

Seeing that the Moon Maiden was about to turn around and return to the cave, Rong Bingshao hurriedly said, "Miss Moon Maiden!"

The Moon Maiden stopped and asked. "Is there anything else?"

Rong Bingshao paused for a moment and said, "Miss Moon Maiden, I mistakenly thought that you were the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. Later on, I found out that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake was someone else. However, after knowing that Miss Moon Maiden is only a golden mutant, my respect and admiration for Miss Moon Maiden have not decreased!

"The reason why I'm following Jordan is entirely because of you. Miss Moon Maiden wanted Jordan to become a golden mutant, so I stayed by his side. He's already a golden mutant now. After all, I have a conflict with Jordan. As a descendant of the noble Rong family, it's not appropriate for me to follow him forever. Therefore, I'm here to request to leave Jordan and follow Miss Moon Maiden!"

Rong Bingshao did not have any feelings for Jordan. At most, he did not hate him now. He could not keep following Jordan forever.

However, it was different with the Moon Maiden. Rong Bingshao had fallen in love with the Moon Maiden at first sight.

He liked the Moon Maiden's high and mighty appearance.

As a matter of fact, the Moon Maiden was a golden mutant. She was also the strongest golden mutant in the world. She was indeed unattainable to Rong Bingshao.

The Moon Maiden said, “Yes, in the past, the Rong family’s status had always been above the Steeles. Moreover, Jordan has a grudge against your grandfather. If you don’t want to be with Jordan, you can leave freely. As for following me, there’s no need. I’m used to being alone. Your abilities can’t help me much.”

In the Moon Maiden’s eyes, Rong Bingshao’s lightning speed ability was not worth much.

Although Lightning Speed was a very powerful ability, but Rong Bingshao’ level was too low. He was only black, and his speed was limited. If it was gold or purple level, even the Moon Maiden would have some cause for concern.

Seeing that the Moon Maiden was about to leave, Rong Bingshao grabbed her shoulder in a hurry.

“Yes?”

Seeing that Rong Bingshao actually dared to have skin contact with her, the Moon Maiden looked at Rong Bingshao in confusion. Her eyes seemed to be asking, “Do you want to die?”

She knew very well that Rong Bingshao had seen what she could do.

Rong Bingshao quickly retracted his hand and said, “Miss Moon Maiden, I... I didn’t do it on purpose. I really like you. Please take me in. Now that we’ve entered the era of the mutants, my grandfather and father are both dead. I’m really lost now. I don’t know where to go...”

“Right now, the only person who gives me goals and motivation is you, Miss Moon Maiden... I fell in love with you at first sight. I fell in love with you the moment I saw you. Now, I dream of you even in my dreams. Miss Moon Maiden, although I know that I’m just a black mutant and not worthy of you, I still have to confess to you today. Miss Moon Maiden, I love you!”

Perhaps it was because he had just made a wish to the meteor that gave him confidence. Under this romantic starry sky, Rong Bingshao had actually confessed to the Moon Maiden on the mountaintop.

The Moon Maiden was also a little surprised. She looked at this pure and sincere little boy and asked with a smile, “You’re only 18 years old, right?”

Rong Bingshao said, “No, I’m nineteen!”

The Moon Maiden smiled and said, “I’ll take it that you’re 20 years old. Do you know how old I am? I’m 40 years older than you!”

1299 The Moon Maiden’s True Appearance!

The Moon Maiden was actually a 60-year-old woman! She was old enough to be Rong Bingshao’s grandmother, yet Rong Bingshao still wanted to date her!

When Rong Bingshao heard the Moon Maiden reveal her true age, he was also shocked. He had guessed that the Moon Maiden would be a little older than she looked, but he had thought that she would be a middle-aged woman at most 40 years old. He did not expect her to be 60 years old!

Rong Bingshao gulped and was stunned for a few seconds. Then he said, “I don’t think love has anything to do with age. It doesn’t matter how old you are! Besides, I’ve always liked people older than me. My first time was with an Asian woman in her thirties. I don’t think there’s a problem with that!”

The Moon Maiden smiled. Although there was quite a big difference between a teenager and a thirty-year-old, in her opinion, they were all considered young people.

A thirty-year-old woman and a sixty-year-old woman was completely different.

Rong Bingshao looked at the Moon Maiden's skin and continued, "Moreover, the Moon Maiden doesn't look old at all. Your skin is even more tender than my sister's! I admit that I won't fall in love with a wrinkled old woman, but you have such a young appearance. I think we're very compatible!"

The Moon Maiden looked like a girl in her twenties. From her appearance, she was quite compatible with Rong Bingshao.

The Moon Maiden also knew that men only looked at appearances. No matter how old you were in your heart, as long as you were young and beautiful, they wouldn't care even if you lived for a hundred years.

Moreover, for some men, the more experienced a woman was, the more they liked them.

The Moon Maiden said, "So it seems that you like me because of my face, right?"

Rong Bingshao said, "Well, it's not just the face..."

The Moon Maiden smiled. "Come in with me."

With the Moon Maiden's permission, Rong Bingshao was very excited. He followed the Moon Maiden in and went to the Moon Maiden's residence. He felt the fragrance of the goddess's boudoir and carefully looked at every decoration in the room.

After walking to the innermost part, the Moon Maiden stopped in front of a wall and turned around to ask, "Are you sure you want to date a 60-year-old woman? Let me tell you something, child. People don't feel love after the age of 30. After the age of 40, love is just a very boring game for them. After 50, love is separated from any beauty. I am sixty years old. If you want me to fall in love with you, or want me to help your Rong family regain its former dominance, you're being naïve."

Rong Bingshao quickly explained, "Miss Moon Maiden, I've been fascinated by you since the first time I saw you. I really like you and don't have any other thoughts about you! I know that regardless of age or mutant level, there is a considerable gap between us. Perhaps you will never fall in love with me, but it's enough that I love you. A crush is considered love, and a one-sided love is also love!"

Upon hearing this, the Moon Maiden nodded. "Yes, I agree with this point of view. Love in itself is a person's business. It doesn't matter if the other party loves you or not. As long as you love her and are happy, that's enough.

"When I was your age, I had a crush on a boy. He was tall, handsome, and from a good family. I was even less courageous than you. I didn't even dare to confess to him."

It was obvious that the Moon Maiden admired Rong Bingshao's courage to confess to her.

Seeing that his courtship had also resonated with the Moon Maiden when she was young, Rong Bingshao hurriedly said, "Yes, please accept my love and let me stay by your side!"

The Moon Maiden smiled. "You're so cute. I can't bear to leave you hanging. It's better for you to completely give up on me. You're the son of the most noble family in the world, and you're a black-level mutant. It can be said that there are less than five men in the world who are above you. If I met you at the age of 20, I would have fallen madly in love with you."

Hearing the Moon Maiden say this, Rong Bingshao suddenly felt that there was hope and became excited. "I also want to date the 20-year-old Moon Maiden! It's all my mother's fault for giving birth to me late!"

The Moon Maiden smiled. "If you knew what I looked like when I was 20 years old, I'm afraid you wouldn't have said that. I can tell that you're infatuated with me. In order to let you live a good life as soon as possible, I'll make an exception and let you see my original appearance."

As she spoke, the Moon Maiden turned around and faced the wall.

Rong Bingshao swallowed nervously, afraid that the Moon Maiden would turn into a skeleton or something terrifying when she turned around again.

However, the Moon Maiden did not intend to change her expression. It turned out that there was a mechanism in the wall in front of her that could be opened. There was a box inside. She turned around and took the box out from the wall.

The Moon Maiden opened the box and handed a photograph that had been sealed for a long time to Rong Bingshao.

Rong Bingshao took the photo with both hands and looked at it. It was a photo of a woman in her twenties. The woman's appearance was very ordinary. She was not too ugly, but her face was very fat and wide, and her figure was also very fat.

It could be said that she was very ordinary and was not close to being a beauty at all.

Rong Bingshao didn't recognize the woman and asked, "Who is this woman?"

The Moon Maiden replied. "That's what I looked like when I was 20 years old"

Rong Bingshao was stunned. He carefully compared the woman in the photo with the Moon Maiden in front of him. He couldn't believe that they were the same person.

"How... how could this be?"

They were two completely different people. There was no similarity at all!

Rong Bingshao suspected that the Moon Maidens had not undergone plastic surgery. They had simply changed their heads!

The Moon Maiden asked, "Am I completely different from before?"

Rong Bingshao knew that the Moon Maiden must have undergone a major surgery on her face. With the strength of the eight great families or the golden mutant, it was still possible. He quickly said, “No, your eyes and nose are quite similar...”

Although he said that, Rong Bingshao’s liking for the Moon Maiden had decreased by at least 70%. No matter how beautiful plastic surgery made a woman, a man would lose his desire for her after seeing her ugly photos.

Men would think that they were essentially ugly women.

Rong Bingshao asked, “Why did the Moon Maiden think of becoming like this?”

Rong Bingshao also knew a little about plastic surgery, including how the Park family made people younger. He knew very well that if the original Moon Maiden had plastic surgery, she could also look beautiful, but it would definitely not be her current appearance.

The shape of her face and temperament were completely different.

It would be more complicated and troublesome to forcefully change someone’s style.

The Moon Maiden replied. “Actually, I had plastic surgery to look like the Goddess of the Immortal Lake.”

1300 Immortal Lake Banquet!

Goddess of the Immortal Lake!

Rong Bingshao was very curious. “So the Goddess of Immortal Lake is like this? No wonder I mistook you for the Goddess of Immortal Lake the first time I saw her!”

The Moon Maiden replied, “No, I don’t know what the Goddess of Immortal Lake looks like. I haven’t seen her clearly. I can only vaguely sense that she has this style and temperament.

“Ever since I realized the existence of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, I’ve undergone plastic surgery to look like her. Even when I dress and speak, I’m like a goddess. Hehe, actually, I’m a fake after all. How can I compare to the real Goddess of the Immortal Lake?”

The Moon Maiden couldn’t help but sigh. It could be seen that the Moon Maiden had been walking the path of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake all these years. Even her appearance was similar to hers.

Her infatuation with the Goddess of the Immortal Lake seemed to be no less than Rong Bingshao’s infatuation with the Moon Maiden.

The Moon Maiden paused for a few seconds and looked at Rong Bingshao again. “Now, you know my true appearance. I’m just an old and ugly old woman. Stop fantasizing about me and go after a girl who suits you.”

However, even though he knew that the Moon Maiden was originally very ugly, Rong Bingshao still had an infatuated look on his face. “Miss Moon Maiden! I don’t care how old you are, or how ugly you were in the past. I only know that at this moment, you fascinate me! As long as I don’t see you, I feel that there’s no point in living. Please let me stay by your side. You can treat me as a pet or a dog. I don’t care!”

“Oh?”

The Moon Maiden cried out in surprise. The descendant of the most noble family in the world, with such a young appearance, was actually willing to be an old woman’s dog?

The Moon Maiden became interested in Rong Bingshao and asked, “Are you really willing to let go of your identity, your dignity, and follow me?”

Rong Bingshao nodded very seriously. “Yes, I’ve already died once. That dignified Rong Bingshao is dead! I don’t want to live for the family anymore. I only want to live for myself! I only want to be with the person I like!”

“Hahaha.”

The Moon Maiden smiled, seemingly satisfied with Rong Bingshao's response.

She had already let Rong Bingshao know that she had been imitating the "Goddess of Immortal Lake", and she was just maintaining an image to the outside world. In fact, the Moon Maiden was also an ordinary woman and had the needs of ordinary women.

Thus, the Moon Maiden stopped pretending to be cold and aloof. She took the initiative to extend her cold jade-like hand and gently stroked Rong Bingshao's young and tender face. She smiled and said, "What a young aura. It's been a long time since I've felt a man of your age."

Rong Bingshao was pleasantly surprised and asked, "Miss Moon Maiden, does this mean that you... agree?"

The Moon Maiden smiled brightly and nodded. "Yes, kneel down."

...

Immortal Lake.

After Mike Baylor and Victoria came back, they went to the Immortal Lake together.

After successfully completing the memory tampering with Jordan, Mike Baylor was very happy because he knew that all he had to do next was wait. Soon, Jordan would agree to his grand plan to create the fifth golden mutant and summon the Goddess of the Immortal Lake together!

That afternoon, Mike Baylor rushed all the mutant brothers to the side of the Immortal Lake. The table was filled with wine glasses and food, and everyone drank and celebrated.

Mike Baylor even used a weather weapon with interest, causing a rainbow to appear in the sky that looked very beautiful.

"The Chief seems to be very happy today. This is the first time I've seen him gather us for a drink in broad daylight!"

“That’s right, why are you so happy? Could it be that the golden horned dragon’s eyes have been healed?”

“No, I went to feed it just now. It’s a one-eyed dragon!”

“Strange, what could possibly make Chief so happy?”

The mutants began to guess why Mike Baylor was so happy.

Even Randall didn’t know the reason. Only Victoria knew. Moreover, Victoria had a reason to be happier than Mike Baylor, because the fifth golden mutant that was about to be created was her!

Previously, when she found out that Mike Baylor was holding a cocktail party, Victoria specially wore a sexy blue low-cut mermaid dress. Her impressive figure was visible to everyone.

Previously, Mike Baylor had said that he despised her for being thin as she lost her original figure. When Victoria came back, she injected herself with a body shaping serum. She had already become more voluptuous than before, and her complexion had also improved.

Holding two champagne glasses in her hands, Victoria walked up to Mike Baylor. “Chief, please raise your glass.”

Victoria was already used to being the vice president. She was very used to what she was doing now.

Mike Baylor glanced at her figure and praised, “Victoria, this mermaid dress is very beautiful.”

“Thank you.”

Victoria smiled and thanked him.

Then, Mike Baylor took the wine glass and said to everyone, “Brothers of the Mutant Tribe, you don’t have to do anything today. Drink to your heart’s content!”

At this moment, someone asked, “Chief, what is it that makes you so happy? Tell us and share it with us!”

Mike Baylor smiled. “My big plan will be realized soon. I’ve waited for this day for many years! Don’t worry, when my strength improves further in the future, I can reach the level of establishing a sect. All of you can be like Randall and be my disciples. I will raise the status of the entire tribe!”

Hearing this, everyone hurriedly knelt down to Mike Baylor. “Thank you, Chief! Thank you, Master!”

“Hahaha...”

Mike Baylor drank happily.

On the side, Victoria slowly placed the wine glass on her red lips with a smile on her face.

However, at this moment, Randall walked over and whispered, “Victoria, come over and have a chat with me.”

Victoria looked at him with disdain. “Have you forgotten the rules of the Mutant Tribe? According to the hierarchy, I am purple while you are black. You should call me Miss Victoria.”

At this moment, Victoria despised Randall very much. In the past, Randall lied to her body and heart.

In particular, Randall insisted on sleeping with her next door that night, causing Jordan to develop a great hatred for her. She even crossed time and space to alleviate this problem. If it was because of Randall that Victoria could not become a golden mutant, and she would hate Randall for the rest of her life.

Randall was very displeased when he heard Victoria’s words. “F*ck, this bitch. When I was the Chief in the past, she was respectful to me. Now, she actually wants me to call her Miss Victoria?”

It was difficult for Randall to have respect for a woman he had already slept with.

However, Randall still suppressed his grievance and called out, "Miss Victoria, can I talk to you for a moment?"
