

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1336 Getting Victoria's Help!

Jordan was stunned. Victoria had used her supernatural power to control the entire city just to propose to Jordan? To create a grand wedding blessed by millions of people here?

This was too crazy!

Strangely enough, Victoria used to be a very proud woman. When she was an ordinary person and a purple mutant, she did not take the initiative to express her love to Jordan like this. When she reached the highest level of a golden mutant, she confessed her love to Jordan so frankly.

From a psychological point of view, although Victoria was proud in the past, this pride hid an inferiority complex. The inferiority complex was due to her age and the unbearable past from ten years ago.

Therefore, she did not dare to express her love to Jordan. In fact, when she accepted more love than she could bear, she would choose to leave Jordan or even commit suicide.

This was all because of her pride.

But now, there was no need. She was the most respected person in the world. She could control everything, so she was not so "proud" when facing the person she liked.

If she liked him, she liked him. She had to say it out loud. This initiative showed her confidence. However, Victoria's confession put Jordan in a difficult position. "Victoria, I..."

Jordan did not know how to respond to Victoria.

Suddenly, Victoria let go of Jordan's hand and laughed. "Hahahaha, Jordan, look at how serious you are. I was just teasing you. I didn't expect to be able to trick a Deity. Looks like you didn't predict our meeting. That's right. You don't like to predict things about me anyway."

It turned out that Victoria was only joking with Jordan and did not really want to propose to him.

Victoria said, "How can a proud woman like me take the initiative to propose to a man? I know you won't abandon Lauren and Lota, and I won't share a husband with another woman. After all, I'm a golden mutant now."

Seeing that Victoria was only joking, Jordan relaxed a lot. If Victoria really forced the marriage, Jordan really did not know what to do.

Victoria asked. "Oh right, you asked me to meet here, is there anything you want to tell me?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I suspect that Mike Baylor has modified or implanted my memory."

Victoria immediately became guilty and looked elsewhere. "Oh? Is... is that so? When did you feel this way?"

Jordan said, "I had this feeling before I jumped into the Immortal Lake. That's why I stayed in the Immortal Lake for a long time. I wanted to know if my impression of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake was real."

Victoria asked with concern. "Then... are you sure now?"

Jordan nodded.

Victoria gulped nervously. "You... know it's fake? So you suspect that Mike Baylor did something to you? I think so too. Jordan, what goddess of the Immortal Lake? It's all nonsense. We don't have to care about them. No wonder you supported me. You knew that I would go back on my word, but you didn't tell them and asked me to leave."

Jordan shook his head again at that moment, “I felt that the scene was fake. However, I followed the scene and slowly felt it in the Immortal Lake. I sensed an extremely similar scene.”

Victoria was shocked. “You comprehended it yourself?”

Jordan nodded. “I don’t know if this is true or if Mike Baylor did something to me. The two scenes are too similar. I can’t tell.”

“So, I called you here because I want you to do me a favor.”

“Speak.”

Jordan said, “I want you to accompany me and ask Mike Baylor for the truth. Your current mental control can affect Mike Baylor. We can ask for the truth without changing history and without him knowing. I want to know if the Goddess of the Immortal Lake is real.”

When Victoria heard that he wanted to return to the past, she immediately felt repulsed. “Since you already guessed that Mike Baylor did something to you, why do you still want to verify the authenticity? So what if it’s true? Are you really willing to accompany them to summon the Goddess of the Immortal Lake?”

Jordan nodded firmly, “Yes!”

Victoria took a step back in shock. “Jordan, you... They’re crazy. Are you crazy too? If we don’t summon the Goddess, we’ll be the strongest existences on Earth. If we summon the Goddess, we’ll be one level lower. By then, what’s the point of obtaining stronger powers?”

“Why do you want to do this too? Can you tell me what the Goddess of Immortal Lake you understood looks like?”

Jordan looked into the distance and heaved a long sigh. “Like the blue moon in the clouds and the snow in the wind.”

“Hmph.”

Victoria snorted in disdain. “Looks like you are also smitten by that vixen goddess. You must have thought that she was pretty, so you wanted to summon her and have sex with her, right? You men are really...”

Jordan shook his head. “Victoria, you know me. I’m not that kind of man. With my current status and ability, I can have as many beautiful women as I want. However, I don’t have many wives. I even deliberately keep a distance from your sister to not make you angry.

“That Goddess of the Immortal Lake... I don’t know either. Although I can’t see her true appearance, I feel inexplicably close to her. A voice in my heart keeps asking me to approach her.”

Victoria explained. “Those are demonic arts and magic! Haven’t you seen those movies? Only a demoness would lure you to get closer to her. I have a feeling that as long as we follow the method she gave us to summon her, none of us will have a good time. Not only will our strength not increase, but we will also be finished, just like in the movies!”

Jordan retorted, “Victoria, you can’t equate a movie with a reality. Besides, I’ll make my own judgment when the time comes...”

Victoria reached out and said, “No need to say anymore, I only want to spend some time with people on Earth. I don’t want to go with you, let me rest first.”

Jordan sighed and said, “I forgot to tell you that the Moon Maiden and the others will only give you three days to rest. If you still refuse after three days, the three of them will work together to kill you.”

Victoria snorted. “Then come at me. I’m a golden mutant, so I can control all three of them at the same time. Let them attack together!”

Jordan said, “Victoria, don’t be reckless. The reason why you could control the Moon Maiden just now was because she wasn’t alert. Although the three of them aren’t immune to your mental control, they can still hold on for a few seconds by relying on their willpower. With an ability of their level, a few seconds is enough to kill you!”

Victoria was still calm and composed. She smiled charmingly and said, “I still have you, Jordan. Darling, you won’t leave me in the lurch, right?”

Suddenly, Jordan took the initiative to walk towards Victoria. He hugged her waist and kissed her affectionately for more than ten seconds.

Jordan said to Victoria affectionately, “Honey, I’ll protect you.”

1337 Victoria Did It Too?

On the northwest pasture, a bright red carpet made of red carpet and rose petals covered the grassland, surrounded by decorations for the wedding.

Victoria was wearing the red dress that Jordan had created for her. She kissed Jordan passionately in this romantic atmosphere. They were like a bride and groom kissing passionately at their wedding venue!

However, just as Jordan was pressing Victoria under him and their feelings were growing stronger, Jordan suddenly came back to his senses and pushed Victoria away immediately.

Jordan looked shocked. “What’s going on? Why... Why would I do this to you?”

Jordan suddenly felt strange. Why did he kiss Victoria for no reason? Although they were a couple in the past, they had officially broken up. Since they had broken up and Jordan had a wife now, he was not a man who would be entangled with his ex.

He would never do such a thing to Victoria!

Jordan looked at Victoria in shock, “You used Mental Control on me? You used Mental Control on me just now?!”

Since Jordan would not take the initiative to do it, there was only one possibility for what had just happened. Victoria had used Mental Control to control Jordan and made him do it!

Jordan and Victoria were chatting just now and he was not on his guard at all. Therefore, if Victoria attacked Jordan silently, Jordan would be controlled too!

Victoria was lying on the ground. She got up slightly and smiled charmingly. "Darling, don't use your willpower to resist me. If you do this, both of us will suffer. At that time, the world will belong to the Moon Maiden and the other two."

At that moment, Victoria did not hide her desire and possessiveness for Jordan at all. She used Mental Control on him again!

This time, Jordan was already alert. With his willpower, he could still hold on for a while if he wanted to resist.

Before he was controlled, Jordan was confident that he could kill Victoria!

However, Victoria was not Jordan's enemy at all!

Victoria's slender and cold hand slowly reached out to Jordan's cheek. She said gently, "Darling, you know that I won't hurt you. I just want to be happy with you like before. Don't resist me with your willpower, okay?"

With this, Victoria took the initiative to kiss Jordan as she controlled him.

On the other hand, Jordan was in a difficult dilemma. Victoria's current mental control was no small matter to Jordan. If he did not resist with his strongest willpower, he would not be able to withstand it at all.

Although Victoria's golden bloodline was not pure, it was precisely because there were several golden mutants in her bloodline, including Jordan's, that made it easier for Victoria to control Jordan.

It was like she had a key that could easily open a lock.

Naturally, Victoria would not let go of the great opportunity when Jordan was hesitating. She took this opportunity to strengthen her control and completely control Jordan again.

Of course, this was also because Jordan treated Victoria as a friend. If the two of them were enemies, it would be impossible for Victoria to control Jordan.

Just like that, an unknown amount of time passed.

When Jordan came back to his senses, he was lying on the ground. He could vaguely see Victoria tying the red belt of her dress.

Victoria said, "Jordan, I want to walk around these two days. I won't accompany you for now. Call me if you need anything."

With that, she gracefully flew into the sky.

Jordan got up in a daze. Seeing that the sky had changed significantly, he immediately looked at the time. "Damn it, it's been five hours."

Jordan did not expect Victoria to control his body and torture him for five hours.

The bodies of mutants were stronger than that of ordinary people, and the golden mutants had an advanced version of the human body. Therefore, they had many more abilities than ordinary people.

At this moment, Victoria was flying in the air as if she was skiing. She kept changing directions while humming happily.

A blissful smile appeared on Victoria's face. "Hmph, so this is the life after becoming powerful. You still need to get your ex-boyfriend back? Haha, whenever you want him, just control him. Just like just now. How simple!

"Before I became a golden mutant, I was worried about personal gains and losses. I was worried about this and that. As expected, when I became stronger, all my problems and worries were resolved, especially my feelings!

"As long as Jordan doesn't want to kill me, I can control him at any time. Jiumo Kasyapa, that honest monk, only knows spatial teleportation. It's not worth mentioning. Although the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor are very strong, these two are also competing with each other. They're not that united. I just need to defeat them one by one.

"This world will belong to me sooner or later!"

Victoria had already flown far away and disappeared. As soon as Jordan stood up, he received a call from Jiumo Kasyapa.

"Hello."

"Hello." Jordan answered the phone.

Jiumo Kasyapa said, "Deity Jordan, I called you several times just now, but you didn't answer. I don't know if it's convenient for you to talk now?"

Not long after, the two of them arrived at the private temple of Jiumo Kasyapa's in India.

Sitting on the high platform, Jiumo Kasyapa poured a cup of tea for Jordan, "Jordan, you look a little tired. There must have been an evenly matched battle just now. In this world, only the Moon Maiden, Mr. Baylor, and Miss Victoria, who has just become a golden mutant, are qualified to consume so much of Jordan's physical strength."

Jordan picked up the teacup and took a sip. He said awkwardly, "Oh, no. I was developing a new attack method just now, so I'm more tired. By the way, Master Jiumo asked me to come here, is it because of Victoria?"

Jiumo Kasyapa nodded.

Jordan said, "Master, you think I predicted that Victoria would go back on her word and didn't tell you in advance? Are you here to hold me accountable?"

Jiumo Kasyapa hurriedly said, “Deity Jordan, don’t misunderstand. I don’t dare to hold you accountable! I’m talking about something else about Miss Victoria!”

“Oh?” Jordan was curious too.

Jiumo Kasyapa said with a serious face, “I suspect that Miss Victoria and Mike Baylor worked together to return to the past and change Deity Jordan’s memory!”

Crash.

Jordan’s teacup fell to the ground from the high platform and shattered.

Jordan was shocked. “You’re saying that Victoria was also involved?”

Jiumo Kasyapa also said in surprise, “Amitabha. So Deity Jordan has already guessed that Mike Baylor has modified your memory. As expected of Deity Jordan! Yes, Miss Victoria was also involved in this matter. If she didn’t do this, she probably wouldn’t have become a golden mutant today.

“Deity Jordan, although Miss Victoria is your old love, this woman did not hesitate to secretly attack you in order to achieve her goals. Although she did not hurt you, it was still a form of concealment. We must be on guard against Victoria!”

1338 Finding the Moon Maiden!

Jordan was very shocked to hear this from Jiumo Kasyapa. At this moment, he finally understood why Victoria’s eyes flickered and she rejected him when he asked her for help.

Victoria’s desire to become a golden mutant was very strong. In order to achieve this goal, it was indeed possible for her to join forces with Mike Baylor. However, Jordan still felt sad when he thought about how Victoria did such a thing to him behind his back.

Jordan looked at Jiumo Kasyapa and said, “Master, you’re wise. The last time I could find a way to deal with Mike Baylor was all thanks to your guidance. Please explain. What should we do next?”

Jiumo Kasyapa said, “What ability do I have to break through the current predicament? The only one who has a chance to get everything on track is Deity Jordan, but not the current Deity Jordan.”

“The Dharma is boundless. I wonder if Deity Jordan is interested in staying here for three days to study the Dharma with me. We can find the answer from the Dharma!”

Jordan was stunned. “Buddhism?”

Last time, Jiumo Kasyapa invited Jordan here to listen to Jiumo Kasyapa’s Buddhist studies. This time, at such a critical moment, Jiumo Kasyapa actually wanted Jordan to learn Buddhism. He was really a dedicated missionary.

Jordan asked politely, “Victoria has just become a golden mutant. She’s already done something terrible to me just now. She won’t show mercy to others. Master, don’t you think that if I only stay here to learn Buddhism from you in the next three days, it will make things worse?”

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled and said, “Everything is predetermined. Jordan, you don’t have to worry. Sometimes, slow is fast, fast is slow.”

Jordan thought about it and did not reject it this time. “Alright, since you’ve invited me, I’ll stay and learn from you!”

Sapu Sacred Mountain.

At night, the cold wind on the mountain was bone-chilling. Ordinary people didn’t dare to approach it, but in the cave at the top of the mountain, the Moon Maiden and Rong Bingshao were immersed in their lovemaking.

“Master, I heard that the bitch Victoria is now able to control a city. How terrifying. What makes her so powerful? It’s such a waste for you to pass on your golden bloodline to her.”

The Moon Maiden felt the young pressure from Rong Bingshao and relaxed. She said, “Yes, Victoria’s ability is not bad. It’s just that she’s too self-centered. It’s a pity that you’re not a purple mutant. Otherwise, I would definitely help you get this spot.”

Rong Bingshao also sighed. “Sigh, it’s all my fault. It’s just that my black talent didn’t meet the purple standard.”

The Moon Maiden said, “You don’t have to be too dejected. There might be a chance to turn things around in the future. Once we summon the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, she will be my master. I’ll talk to the Goddess of the Immortal Lake and ask her to take you in as her disciple. At that time, we’ll be from the same sect. If you work hard, you might even surpass me in the future. At that time, we will no longer be master and servant, but can really become a pair of immortal partners.”

Rong Bingshao hurriedly knelt in front of the Moon Maiden. “Thank you, Master! If that day comes, I will definitely protect you to the death! Thank you for nurturing me!”

The Moon Maiden hooked her right arm around Rong Bingshao’s face and said, “Get up, Rong Bingshao, my little baby.”

Rong Bingshao smiled and got up, then gently pressed himself against the Moon Maiden’s cheek.

Just as the two of them were about to do something intimate, a woman’s laughter suddenly came from outside the cave.

“Hahahahah...”

The Moon Maiden and Rong Bingshao were shocked.

The Moon Maiden hurriedly stood up. “Who is it!”

In the next second, Victoria, who was wearing an extremely gorgeous golden dress, flew inside.

Victoria was wearing a golden dress that showed off both her graceful figure and her queenly temperament.

As soon as she came in, she couldn't help but mock the two of them. "A couple dozens of years apart, how shameless! Hiding in a cave and doing such shameless things!

"Rong Bingshao, if your dead father knew that you were hanging out with a woman of your grandmother's generation for the sake of your future, he would definitely remove you from the family. You're really an embarrassment to the Rong family!"

Rong Bingshao was enraged. "Victoria, what did you say?! You don't have the qualifications to insult my family! You're the one who's an embarrassment! So what if I'm the Moon Maiden's servant? With the Moon Maiden's status, it's my honor to be by her side!

"What about you? Even a man like Russell can sleep with you! When Russell was your sugar daddy, he was worth tens of billions. Hehe, at that time, all the servants in our family were worth tens of billions! In other words, at that time, even the servants in our family could sleep with you, let alone me. Hahaha."

The Moon Maiden also teased. "A golden dress? With a dragon and phoenix? You really are full of ambition! Victoria, I let you go earlier. How dare you come and look for me!"

Victoria snorted. "You're letting me go? That can't be right, I'm the one who let you go, right? I've already successfully controlled you earlier. If I wanted to kill you back then, even if you didn't die, you would still be injured, right?"

Rong Bingshao spoke up for the Moon Maiden, "Bastard! You dare to fight with the Moon Maiden? Do you have the ability to injure the Moon Maiden? You overestimate yourself!"

Victoria looked at Rong Bingshao coldly, “Low-level mutants are indeed talkative. Alright, just talk more now. Anyway, you won’t have a chance to talk in the future!”

The Moon Maiden looked at Victoria. “What exactly are you here for?”

The Moon Maiden knew that Victoria wanted to avoid her and wouldn’t take the initiative to meet her.

Victoria said, “I’m here for two things. First, I want you to be honest with Jordan. The grand plan to summon the Goddess of the Immortal Lake that you mentioned was all made up by you. It doesn’t exist.”

The Moon Maiden was furious. “Nonsense! You’re a lowly low-level mutant! Killing you and Jordan would be like stepping on an ant. Why would I lie to you weaklings? Victoria, you don’t have legitimate golden bloodline, so you can’t sense it. I can tell you clearly that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake really exists and I have a feeling that we will soon summon her.”

Victoria was now certain that this Goddess of the Immortal Lake really did exist. It wasn’t a lie from the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor.

“Moon Maiden, so what if the goddess is here? Why must we summon her? What does it have to do with us? If she never comes out, then the two of us will be the goddesses of the world. Isn’t that the best thing?”

1339 Victoria Challenges the Moon Maiden!

“Hahaha...”

The Moon Maiden laughed loudly, as if she had heard something ridiculous.

Moon Maiden smiled. “I’m not interested in being a Goddess of the world, because I’ve been her for decades. Moreover, our abilities were bestowed by the Goddess of Immortal Lake. Summoning the Goddess is an unchangeable process, and no one can stop it.

“Victoria, I know what you’re thinking. You want to persuade me not to summon the goddess, rope me in, and then get rid of me. There’s also Mike Baylor and Jiumo Kasyapa. If Jordan stops you, you might get rid of Jordan too. In this way, you’ll be the only golden mutant in the world, and you can control the world, right?”

“Let me tell you, you can’t do it. Even if you really have the ability to get rid of us, you can’t use the ability given to you by the Goddess of the Immortal Lake and not work for her. Forget it. You don’t have a pure golden bloodline, so you can’t comprehend it. It’s useless to tell you this. Tell me the second thing.”

Victoria was a bit dejected. She didn’t expect the Moon Maiden to be so difficult to negotiate with. Her words carried a certain decisiveness. As long as she said it, no one would be able to waver.

Victoria pointed at Rong Bingshao with her right hand and said, “The second thing is, I want to kill Rong Bingshao!”

Rong Bingshao quickly stepped back nervously and hid behind the Moon Maiden.

Fortunately, he had the protection of a golden mutant. Otherwise, he would have died miserably at the hands of Victoria.

Now that Rong Bingshao was the Moon Maiden’s pet, the Moon Maiden naturally couldn’t let anything happen to him.

Moon Maiden said, “I’ve heard about what happened between the two of you. Rong Bingshao did have the intention to disrespect you, but he didn’t really do anything to you. The one who really insulted you was Shaun. Rong Bingshao fainted the moment he entered the room. You can use the Time Gate to go back and see who the man who raped you was.”

Victoria coldly replied. “Thank you for the reminder. I actually went over to take a look myself. See for yourself if Rong Bingshao is really innocent!”

Victoria turned on a holographic projection and a scene immediately appeared in front of the three of them. It was the scene from that night at the hotel!

At this moment, Victoria had already been raped, and Rong Bingshao had just woken up. However, after he woke up, he couldn't help but make a move on Victoria's body.

Victoria immediately turned off the video and became furious. "Do you still dare to say that Rong Bingshao is innocent?!"

The Moon Maiden could not help but complain to Rong Bingshao, "Why are your hands so cheap! Shaun had already implanted the memory of you raping Victoria into your brain. Don't you think it's necessary for you to do this?"

Rong Bingshao also felt very guilty. "I'm sorry, Master."

The Moon Maiden sighed and said, "Victoria, as a golden mutant, it is indeed embarrassing for you to be insulted by a low-level mutant like Rong Bingshao. However, Rong Bingshao is now my man. I can't let you deal with him as you please. Also, I advise you to wake up early. I'll only give you three days. Once the three days are up, if you still don't agree to our plan, I'll kill you."

However, Victoria was not afraid at all. "Kill me? You have to have the ability! If you're unwilling to tell Jordan the truth, I won't force you. However, Rong Bingshao, this little bastard who insulted me, must die today!"

Rong Bingshao felt her murderous intent and shivered. "Victoria, why... why do you want to kill me? I only touched you a few times. Russell has slept with you for so many years. You should have killed him first! He is old, ugly, and poor. I am, after all, the richest and most powerful person in the world!"

Victoria was furious. "Don't mention my past again!"

As she spoke, she immediately activated Mental Control on Rong Bingshao!

All of a sudden, Rong Bingshao accelerated crazily in the cave. After using the Godly Speed to accelerate, he kept hitting the surrounding walls with his body and head.

Victoria wanted to control Rong Bingshao to kill himself!

When the Moon Maiden saw this scene, she was immediately enraged. "What an arrogant new mutant! Do you think I don't exist?! How dare you touch my man in front of me!"

The Moon Maiden immediately attacked Victoria, but she had already expected this.

Thus, at the same time, Victoria also began to control the Moon Maiden's mind!

A gust of wind gushed out from the Moon Maiden's hand. Just as it was about to hit Victoria, it suddenly stopped.

At this moment, Victoria's mental control had already taken effect on the Moon Maiden!

There was a direct confrontation between Victoria and the Moon Maiden!

Victoria also wanted to see if the Moon Maiden could withstand her mental attack!

The Moon Maiden's expression indeed changed. In all these years, Victoria was the first person to be able to cause such a change in her expression.

The two goddesses were in a stalemate. When Victoria attacked, the Moon Maiden would resist. When Victoria attacked again, the Moon Maiden would resist. Even though it was a bit difficult for her to resist, she still relied on her powerful mental resistance to break through Victoria's attack and blew her out of the cave.

“Ah!”

Victoria screamed and was sent flying from the top of the mountain. Fortunately, she could fly, so she flew back up halfway.

At this moment, the Moon Maiden also flew down.

The Moon Maiden looked very dignified. She waved her hands, and raindrops fell.

Pa, pa, pa, pa, pa, pa...

The raindrops continued to fall on her.

“Ah, what kind of rain is this...”

Victoria felt powerless after being drenched by the rain.

The Moon Maiden snorted. “Victoria, you can try again and see if you can control me with your mind!”

After being corroded by the acid rain, Victoria’s energy had weakened. Just now, it was difficult to completely control the Moon Maiden, and now, it was more impossible.

Victoria said, “Moon Maiden, you can protect Rong Bingshao for now, but you can’t protect him forever. This man has not only insulted me, but he has also changed the course of my life. I will kill him.”

The Moon Maiden retorted, “Compared to Rong Bingshao, I think Russell has a greater influence on you. You should kill him.”

Victoria snorted. “I will do that! Goodbye!”

The Moon Maiden didn’t chase after her and shouted. “Remember, you only have three days. If you still don’t agree after three days, I will kill you!”

Victoria quickly disappeared in the strange acid rain.

1340 Control Orlando!

Although Victoria didn't manage to kill Rong Bingshao, she was able to escape unscathed from the strongest golden mutant, the Moon Maiden. This could be considered an improvement.

Three days later, as long as she worked with Jordan, it would not be a problem to deal with the Moon Maiden and the other two. Victoria was not worried.

“Jordan's predictive ability, coupled with the fact that he can make something out of nothing, his mysterious space that can kill the golden horned dragon, and my crowd control are more than enough to deal with the Moon Maiden. Hmph, you want to kill me? We're all golden mutants. Do you think I'm afraid of you?”

The Moon Maiden and the other two seemed to have been golden mutants for a long time and had the advantage in years. However, Victoria could tell that after the golden-horned dragon was killed by Jordan, Mike Baylor's strength had decreased greatly.

No one knew how strong the Golden Dragon Turtle was. Perhaps it was not even on the same level as the Golden-Horned Dragon.

As for Jiumo Kasyapa, he might not even dare to participate in the battle.

At that time, Jordan and Victoria would have a high chance of winning against the Moon Maiden alone. Thus, she flew to a city she was very familiar with, Orlando.

After Victoria arrived at Orlando, an hour later, the entire Orlando completely changed...

“This court declares that the defendant, Lionel Young, is sentenced to death for rape!”

“This court declares that the defendant, Wayne Smith, is sentenced to death for rape!”

“The defendant, Oliver Chase, is sentenced to three years in prison for defaming a woman by saying she is a kept woman.”

Victoria already had the ability to control an entire city. Not only was she satisfied with controlling a northwestern city, but Orlando was also her second homeland.

She and Jordan met in Orlando, so the place Victoria wanted to stay the most was also Orlando.

After she came to Orlando, she immediately took control of the entire city. After successfully taking control, the first thing she did was to change the punishment for rape.

Previously, rape was punishable by three to ten years, but Victoria directly changed this punishment to the death penalty!

All men who commit rape against the will of women are sentenced to death.

The criminals who had been imprisoned for rape had been shot one after another.

Victoria hated the fact that she was raped by Shaun and Rong Bingshao, so she changed the punishment for this behavior to be very serious.

Other than the crime of rape, Victoria also added another crime, which was that it was illegal to insult a kept woman. Moreover, this allowed the entire city to accept that women could seek protection from powerful men when they were weak. This protection had nothing to do with love; it was only a reasonable action.

This was naturally related to Victoria's experience.

Her experience of being Russell's kept woman could no longer be changed. Even if she killed Russell, it would be useless. Since that was the case, it was better to change people's mindsets and make it very normal for women to be kept women.

After Victoria's ideological transformation, people would feel that it was normal to see girls who were kept by rich people. They would think that they were just like girls who worked part-time in milk tea shops and were not cheap.

In addition, female presidents and air stewardesses became the two most high-end industries in Orlando City. They were also industries that both men and women admired, respected, and yearned for.

In one night, all the company executives in Orlando were replaced by women. Many weddings were initiated by women. It was normal for men to move in with their wives.

The capital.

Bang bang bang.

Lauren's maid knocked on the door and walked in. "Miss, Captain Lionel is here.

Lauren was resting on the bed. When she heard this, she slowly sat up. "Quick, invite him in."

Soon, Lionel walked in. When he saw Lauren, he bowed respectfully with both hands. "Mrs. Steele, I'm really sorry to disturb you when you're pregnant."

Lauren said, "Lionel, you're welcome. Did something happen?"

Lionel's face was full of worry, "Yes, Victoria controlled the entire Orlando and changed several laws, killing all the men who committed rape in Orlando.

"Right now, our attitude towards Orlando is that we will only surround it and not enter. We will try to send people to Orlando to stop Victoria.

However, once our people enter Orlando, they will automatically be controlled by Victoria. The same goes for the others. Passengers who go to Orlando on high-speed rails and planes. As long as they enter the area under her control, their thoughts will immediately change.

“Orlando has more than 10 million people, and now 10 million are under Victoria’s control. This is too scary! If Victoria were to control them and do something terrible, we really can’t predict the consequences!”

Lauren also frowned. “Have you contacted my husband? What did he say?”

Lionel shook his head. “I can’t contact him, so I took the liberty to look for you. The only person who can stop Victoria now is Mr. Jordan!”

Lauren nodded. “I’ll make a call.”

Lauren picked up her phone and called Jordan, but no one answered. Hence, she called Dragon.

“Mrs. Steele.”

Lauren said, “Dragon, do you know where Jordan is? Something happened in Orlando.”

Dragon said, “Mr. Jordan seems to have gone to India with Master Jumo Kasyapa. I sent him a message about the situation in Orlando.”

Lauren asked, “Dragon, do you know what’s going on now? Will Jordan be fine?”

Dragon replied, “Victoria has turned into a golden mutant. Mr. Jordan has already predicted everything, so she should be fine. However, the other mutants, especially the Moon Maiden, are furious because Victoria is unwilling to carry out the plan with them. The Moon Maiden said that she will only give Victoria three days. After three days, if she still doesn’t agree, she will be killed. At that time, there might be a huge battle.”

When Lauren heard this, her eyes darted around as she roughly understood something. “Okay, thank you. I understand.”

Dragon replied. “No problem. Just let me know if you need anything.”

Lauren hung up the phone and said to Lionel, “Lionel, I know Victoria very well. She’s not someone who will kill the innocent, let alone create chaos. She changed these things because she was once hurt in this aspect. I don’t think we should anger or fight her for now. Otherwise, it will arouse her resistance and something will happen.”

Lionel said, “But we can’t just let her continue like this.”

Lauren said, “Don’t worry, Victoria won’t control Orlando for long. How about this? I’ll call Victoria now and gauge her emotions.”

Lionel said, “Okay!”

Lauren called Victoria.

Victoria was now a golden mutant. There was a high chance that she would no longer pay attention to Lauren, her former “sister.”

However, she still picked up.

“Lauren,” Victoria said gently.
