

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1346 Summoning the Goddess!

Victoria could be said to be the woman who occupied the most important position in Jordan's life at the moment, although she was not like Lauren and Hailey Camden, who had really married Jordan and given birth to his child.

In the past few years, Jordan had been worried or happy about Victoria almost every day.

However, just like the first time the two of them met in an unpleasant way, their ending was destined to not be so happy.

After so many breakups, Jordan and Victoria were finally done.

On the other hand, Victoria's relationship with Randall or any other man could no longer affect Jordan.

The next day, at Immortal Lake.

Moon Maiden, Jiumo Kasyapa, and Mike Baylor gathered at the Immortal Lake. All of them looked like immortals, and they were not ordinary people.

Jiumo Kasyapa, who had always liked to wear ordinary monk robes, was also dressed extravagantly today. Dressed in a gorgeous monk robe, he made people wonder if this was custom-made for him by some top brand's designer.

The Moon Maiden looked at the calm lake and said, "The three days are up, we can't give that b*tch Victoria any more time to do as she pleases. Today, we will properly educate her. With Jiumo's teleportation, we can instantly reach Orlando and capture her. Compared to Victoria, Jordan is more difficult to deal with."

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled. "Moon Maiden, you worry too much. Jordan will not help Victoria."

The Moon Maiden was confused. "Oh?"

At that moment, Jordan flew over regally in his white robe.

Jordan landed on the ground and stood beside the Moon Maiden. The two of them were dressed in clothes that were whiter than snow. Moreover, they were both dressed in ancient clothes. Coupled with their good looks, they looked like a divine couple.

When Mike Baylor saw Jordan, he could not help but tease, "Jordan, haven't you always worn modern clothes? Previously, you despised the Moon Maiden for wearing traditional female attire. Why are you dressed like this now?"

Jordan said, "In the past, I didn't know how to fly. I thought it was okay to walk on the ground and wear jeans. Now that I know how to fly, of course, I have to wear this robe to look handsome when I fly. I'm going to continue growing my hair. That way, I'll look more like a god."

The Moon Maiden could not help but laugh at Jordan, "Yes, you should be very handsome when your hair grows long. By the way, I heard from Jiumo that you won't help Victoria?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I agree to carry out the grand plan. Victoria has also agreed. She should be here soon. Everyone, wait a moment."

The Moon Maiden revealed an arrogant expression. "Hmph, this better be the case. Otherwise, today will be the day of her death!"

The four quietly waited for two hours before seeing Victoria flying over in a red dress. On the way here, Victoria had already attracted the attention of all the mutants.

"The Goddess Victoria is flying over! I wonder if she will fight with the other golden mutants today!"

“Chief Jordan seems to be on the side of the Moon Maiden. Is Goddess Victoria going to fight four mutants alone?”

Victoria landed on the ground. She looked resentful when she saw Jordan.

The Moon Maiden looked at her and asked. “Victoria, it has been three days, have you thought it through?”

Victoria was very unwilling. “You’re a bunch of lunatics. You already have such great power, but you still want to summon an unknown power. Now that we don’t have the ability to predict, who knows what terrifying devils you will summon later! Alright, who asked me to be made into a golden mutant by these lunatics? Since no one is afraid, let’s die together!”

Victoria had clearly agreed to the grand plan and was willing to summon the goddess with the others.

However, the Moon Maiden frowned after hearing this. “No more predictive abilities? Who are you referring to?”

Victoria did not look at Jordan and scoffed, “Who else in this world can predict the future?”

Of course, the Moon Maiden knew that the only person in the world who could predict the future was Jordan. However, she did not believe that Jordan’s Deity power would disappear for no reason.

The Moon Maiden looked at Jordan, “Jordan, what does Victoria mean?”

Mike Baylor looked equally shocked. “Did you predict what would happen today?”

Jordan replied slowly, “Miss Victoria is right. I’ve lost my ability to predict the future. I’m no longer a deity.”

The shock was evident on the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor’s faces.

“What? How did this happen? When did this happen?”

Mike Baylor also asked curiously, “Did it happen automatically, or was it caused by someone? Did you predict what would happen today? Will we succeed today?”

Jordan shook his head. “I can’t predict things too far ahead.”

The Moon Maiden continued to ask, “What about dreams? Can’t you dream about things that will happen a long time later? Have you ever dreamed about what happened today?”

Jordan lowered his head and did not speak. At this moment, Jiumo Kasyapa stood up and said, “Everyone, don’t make things difficult for Jordan. Although Jordan doesn’t know what will happen next, we all firmly believe that what we summon won’t be a demon that will harm the world. Are we not going to summon the Goddess just because Jordan lost his prediction ability?”

The Moon Maiden said, “Of course not! Summoning her is something that must be done. Forget it, it’s good that you can’t predict the future. Even if you can predict the future, we won’t believe what you say.”

Mike Baylor also smiled and said, “That’s right. You’ve lied to us once before. Without your predictive ability, you only have one ability to make things out of nothing. Then, if we fight again, you won’t be my match. Hehe.”

Jiumo Kasyapa smiled. “Everyone, since Miss Victoria has thought it through, let’s not waste any more time and start directly.”

The Moon Maiden was also excited. “Alright! I have waited for decades for this moment! Everyone, let’s work together to summon the goddess. There’s a wider world and a future waiting for us!”

Mike Baylor’s heart was also restless. “After summoning the goddess, my ability will definitely increase even more!”

Only Jordan and Victoria had calm expressions and did not look excited.

The Moon Maiden ordered, "The five of us will jump into the Immortal Lake and occupy five different positions. Then, listen to my orders and start releasing our bloodlines."

"Yes!"

Jiumo Kasyapa was the first to respond. He jumped into the Immortal Lake and arrived at the westernmost position. Subsequently, Jordan also jumped in and stood opposite Jiumo Kasyapa.

After that, the Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and Victoria also jumped into the Immortal Lake, each occupying a spot.

Seeing this, the mutants in the distance became excited.

"The five golden mutants have reached a consensus! They are finally going to carry out their grand plan together!"

"Heavens, I really don't know what will happen next. Will a goddess really be summoned? How powerful will she be!"

"Everyone, after the goddess is summoned, we must go over immediately to acknowledge her as our master and beg her to take us in as her disciples. Today is also a great opportunity for us to change our lives!"

1347 Lauren Is About to Give Birth?!

The long-awaited plan was finally about to be implemented!

Moon Maiden, Jiumo Kasyapa, Mike Baylor, Jordan, and Victoria were all in the Immortal Lake, but their expressions were varied.

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor were excited, Victoria was unhappy, and Jordan and Jiumo Kasyapa looked a little unpredictable.

The Moon Maiden said, "I'll count to 3, then we'll release the golden bloodline at the same time. I can clearly see if you've released your bloodline. If anyone doesn't do as I say, don't blame me for being impolite."

She was speaking to Victoria because she felt that she was the only one who didn't want to release her bloodline.

Victoria was unconvinced. "If we release all of our bloodlines, won't we die as well?"

The Moon Maiden explained, "This is the Immortal Lake. Even if you release all your blood in the Immortal Lake, you won't die. However, you will feel dizzy and hazy."

The Moon Maiden was clearly speaking from experience, because she had tried it herself. However, her bloodline alone could not summon the goddess.

Victoria replied. "Alright, I understand. I'll do as you say."

After saying that, she could not help but glance at Jordan resentfully.

If Jordan was willing to help her, Victoria could enjoy being a City Lord now. However, since Jordan was on the Moon Maiden's side, Victoria had no choice but to work on this big plan with them first.

Although Victoria didn't like women who were a level higher than her, she had been in the business world for many years and had always been the vice president. She had the ability to make her superiors happy.

Even if that goddess really came out, Victoria was confident that she would be the most favored one among them.

After a while, the Moon Maiden slowly said, "Alright, everyone, get ready. One, two, three!"

When the Moon Maiden counted to the three, everyone pressed their wrists with one hand and released their blood from their fingertips. Almost at the same time, red blood flowed from the five of them and merged into the golden Immortal Lake.

The Moon Maiden released her bloodline while observing if the others did as she said.

Red blood appeared in front of Victoria, Jordan, Jiumo Kasyapa, and Mike Baylor. Moreover, it flowed from their fingertips. The four of them obediently did as they were told, and the Moon Maiden was relieved.

“Goddess, we’re here!”

The Moon Maiden prayed in her heart.

A kilometer away, Dragon and Salvatore were standing at the front. Looking at the scene of the Immortal Lake in the distance, the two of them sighed in their hearts.

Salvatore was also surprised to see Dragon rubbing his hands non-stop. “Dragon, it’s rare to see you so nervous.”

As a professional assassin nurtured by the Steeles, Dragon had encountered all kinds of dangerous situations, however, the current scene still made him nervous.

Dragon only said in response, “There’s something wrong with Master. I’m a little worried about him. The other four golden mutants are too strong. As Master’s subordinate, there’s nothing I can do to help.”

Salvatore said, “What’s wrong with Mr. Jordan?”

Dragon paused. “He...”

Ring ring ring...

At this moment, Dragon’s phone suddenly rang. He picked up the call and was instantly surprised. “What? Lauren was sent to the hospital? What happened to her? What? She might be giving birth? Today? Now?”

Although Salvatore didn’t hear the complete conversation, he could guess what had happened from Dragon’s words.

Salvatore was shocked. “Damn, Lauren is giving birth right now? It can’t be such a coincidence, right? Wasn’t it meant to be in two days? Mr. Jordan has been saying that he wants to settle the matters here as soon as possible. He hopes that he can return to the capital to accompany Lauren when she gives birth. How can the timing be so unlucky?”

Dragon and Salvatore looked at the Immortal Lake in the distance. They saw that Jordan had released a lot of his bloodline. His entire body turned pale and weak.

Not only Jordan, but everyone else was the same.

After releasing their bloodline, everyone would become very weak, and their abilities would be greatly reduced. They might even completely disappear. If he wanted to return to his previous state, he had to take back the bloodline he had released.

Looking at the current situation at Immortal Lake, the Dragon and Salvatore would definitely not dare to disturb Jordan at this time.

Just like that, another ten minutes passed.

The five of them remained silent and slowly released their bloodlines. At this moment, the five of them had already released most of their bloodline.

After releasing all of their bloodlines, the bloodlines of the five golden mutants would form a powerful force in the Immortal Lake to summon the goddess.

As the Moon Maiden released her bloodline, she observed the other four to see if any of them had stopped.

Of course, the one she observed the most was Victoria.

However, she was very honest and didn’t dare to play any tricks.

Victoria really wanted to stop this, but she knew that it was futile against an old witch that was so much older than her.

“I can’t take it anymore. I’m going to faint... My vision is blurry...” Victoria said weakly.

The Moon Maiden kept staring at Victoria and reminded. “Hold on a little longer, it will be done soon.”

Mike Baylor’s eyes were also blurry. “Great... Goddess...”

The Moon Maiden looked at Mike Baylor and smiled softly. Subsequently, her gaze landed on Jordan again.

Jordan had been holding his wrist with one hand and releasing his bloodline. He had the most blood in front of him and was about to release it all. His eyes were also slightly closed. His posture had not changed since he entered Immortal Lake and he had not said a word.

The Moon Maiden could not help but think to herself, “Jordan is a little strange today. Why is he so quiet? I wonder what he’s thinking.”

After paying attention to these people, the Moon Maiden finally looked at the most honest and reassuring Jiumo Kasyapa.

Moon Maiden looked at the blood in front of Jiumo Kasyapa and suddenly realized a problem. “Jiumo doesn’t seem to be releasing as much blood as us...”

Jiumo Kasyapa suddenly teleported in front of the Moon Maiden and slapped her shoulder.

Slap!

Slap!

Slap!

Jiumo Kasyapa used the power of space again. Almost instantly, he attacked Mike Baylor, Jordan, and Victoria again.

Pfft!

Pfft!

Pfft!

Pfft!

After being hit by Jiumo's palm, all four of them were injured by this palm force, and all of them spat out a mouthful of blood!

In the distance, the mutants, Dragon, and Salvatore were shocked when they saw this scene.

"Mr. Jordan!"

The Dragon wanted to rush over to help, but the five golden mutants had set up a barrier before entering Immortal Lake to prevent anyone from disturbing them. Ordinary people and ordinary weapons could not break through this barrier.

Therefore, Dragon and the others could not enter at all!

Swoosh!

Rong Bingshao also suddenly appeared from afar, his face shocked.
"Jiumo Kasyapa is a bad person!"

1348 Absorbing Jordan's Blood!

Everyone panicked!

Jiumo Kasyapa had always given people the impression that he had the lowest status and the weakest ability among the golden mutants. He had always been a humble and polite monk.

Not to mention the Moon Maiden, Jordan, and the other golden mutants, he even bowed politely to the low-level mutants.

However, he never expected that such a person, who usually seemed to be the "most honest" person, would actually rebel at the critical moment of summoning the goddess!

One by one, he severely injured Moon Maiden, Jordan, Mike Baylor, and the others!

Dragon, Salvatore, and the others could not break through the barrier set up by the five golden mutants. They could only watch.

Salvatore couldn't help but feel afraid. "It's over, it's over. Lauren had a premonition that something would happen! Mr. Jordan is doomed this time!"

In the Immortal Lake.

Moon Maiden and others also looked at Jiumo Kasyapa in shock.

The Moon Maiden had already released most of her blood, so her physical strength was insufficient to muster up any strength to retaliate. Now that she was hit by Jiumo Kasyapa, she was even weaker.

Jiumo Kasyapa had been controlling the speed of his blood release, so he still had half of his ability.

Moon Maiden looked at Jiumo Kasyapa in surprise and said, "What a powerful palm attack... You used your mutant powers. Jiumo, you hid it very well!"

The Moon Maiden had known Jiumo Kasyapa for more than ten years. All this time, the Moon Maiden had never completely trusted Jiumo Kasyapa and was also wary of him. However, Jiumo Kasyapa's performance was too good. The Moon Maiden didn't expect this level of threat.

Mike Baylor was also furious. "Monk, what exactly do you want!"

Jiumo Kasyapa stood on the surface of the lake and laughed, "Hahahaha, without Deity Jordan's prediction ability, I can do whatever I want!"

Upon hearing that, the Moon Maiden and the others could not help but complain to Jordan.

Moon Maiden said, “Jordan, you idiot. You lost your prediction ability and you were tricked by Jiumo Kasyapa? You’re a Deity, but you were tricked by him like this!”

Mike Baylor said, “It’s such a waste to give you the power of a Deity! It’s better to give it to my Dragon Turtle than to you!”

Victoria was also a little angry, “I already said that Jiumo Kasyapa had ulterior motives! You just don’t believe me!”

Jiumo Kasyapa shouted, “Shut up! Don’t talk about the innocent Deity Jordan like that, hahaha! Finally, the plan I’ve been planning for many years can finally be implemented today!”

The monk looked at Jordan greedily, “Jordan, you seem to have released all your blood. Making something out of nothing? Tsk, tsk, tsk. It’s really the strongest blood power in the world!”

As they looked at Jiumo Kasyapa greedily staring at the blood released by Jordan, Mike Baylor said in surprise, “Monk, don’t tell me you want to absorb Jordan’s blood? You want to exchange blood with Jordan!”

Jiumo Kasyapa looked at Mike Baylor. “Mr. Baylor is indeed the one who has studied the golden bloodline the most besides me. He knows that the bloodline can be passed on to low-level mutants to help them improve, but he is only two years later than me. That’s right. I do want to exchange blood with Jordan! I want his ability to create something out of nothing!”

Hearing this, everyone shuddered. They didn’t expect Jiumo Kasyapa to have such a crazy idea!

Seeing this, the Moon Maiden immediately retrieved the released blood, afraid that Jiumo Kasyapa would take a fancy to her blood. Mike Baylor did the same.

Seeing that the two of them were fine, she followed suit.

Jiumo Kasyapa knew that it would take some time for them to recover the blood, so he was too lazy to stop them. Besides, his target was not the Moon Maiden or Mike Baylor at all, let alone Victoria, whose golden bloodline was not pure.

The only person's blood he wanted to take today was Jordan's! In his opinion, Jordan's ability to create something out of nothing was the strongest ability on Earth!

Although Jordan might not be a match for the Moon Maiden in a one-on-one battle, that was because the Moon Maiden had been a golden mutant for a long time and had refined her abilities to the extreme. If Jordan was given the same time, he would definitely defeat the Moon Maiden.

Jiumo Kasyapa jumped in front of Jordan. His smile was terrifying. He put his palms together and lowered his head. "Amitabha. Mr. Jordan, you and I are fated. Give this ability to me. I'll definitely bring it to greater heights!"

After that, Jiumo Kasyapa quickly released the original blood in his body. Not long after, his blood was completely released. After releasing it, Jiumo Kasyapa became a little light-headed, but fortunately, they were in Immortal Lake, which could give them a strong spiritual and strength support.

Jiumo Kasyapa looked greedily at the blood in front of Jordan and immediately devoured it! Wasting no time, he sucked all the blood released in front of Jordan into his body!

"So fast!"

When the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor saw this, they panicked even more. They were recovering the blood that had just been released at a slow speed.

However, it only took Jiumo Kasyapa one or two seconds to absorb Jordan's blood!

Obviously, Jiumo Kasyapa was well-prepared to absorb blood.

"Hahahahaha... I succeeded, I succeeded! I no longer have the most useless spatial teleportation ability. I now have the strongest skill of making things out of nothing, hahahaha!"

Jiumo Kasyapa laughed.

At this moment, everyone knew that Jiumo Kasyapa had always thought that his spatial teleportation ability was very useless, and he himself despised it. That was why he planned today's plot to secretly swap blood!

When the Moon Maiden saw Jiumo Kasyapa acting so arrogantly, she was livid. "Jiumo, I have never looked down on your ability. The strength of your ability was randomly given by the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. Everyone is here to summon the Goddess. Why do you have to do what you did today and scheme against us? Don't you want to summon the Goddess anymore?"

Jiumo Kasyapa snorted. "Moon Maiden, I know you are stalling for time. You want me to talk more so that you can recover all your blood so that you can fight me! Alright, I'll give you time!

"Listen, I won't summon any goddess. I've believed in Buddha since I was young. Buddhism is my lifelong faith. I definitely won't betray Buddha and worship some unknown goddess! Not only that, in order for Buddha's position on Earth to not be affected, I have to stop your big plan from happening!

"Mike Baylor, do you know that in fact, whether it is Jordan or Victoria, they are not the hardest to convince in the big plan. I am!"

When Mike Baylor looked at Jiumo Kasyapa again, he was already a little afraid. He had always thought that as long as he persuaded Jordan and Victoria, his big plan could be realized. He did not expect Jiumo Kasyapa to be the most difficult one to deal with.

“Damn it!”

Mike Baylor was also extremely vexed. Now, Jiumo Kasyapa had absorbed Jordan’s blood and obtained Jordan’s ability.

If Jiumo Kasyapa said no, who would be able to convince him?

Summoning the goddess was no longer possible!

1349 Jordan Strikes Back!

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor looked sad and blamed themselves. They blamed themselves for not being able to see through Jiumo Kasyapa’s true thoughts after knowing him for more than ten years.

The Moon Maiden’s tears slowly fell from her face. “I have let down the goddess and everyone. I watched Jiumo Kasyapa obtain his ability, but I didn’t realize that he had so much ambition.”

Mike Baylor sneered. “Hehe, I thought that Earth would be ruled by black people. I didn’t expect that it would be a monk instead. Buddha is still the most powerful!”

However, at this time, Victoria was excited, “Master Jiumo, so you don’t agree to summon the goddess? Great, I think the same as you! Besides, I also believe in Buddhism. My sister, I, and our family all believe in Buddhism. I’m willing to be your disciple. Are you willing to take me in as your disciple?”

Jiumo Kasyapa slowly walked to Victoria’s side, reached out his hand, and gently pressed on her wet long hair. He smirked and said, “Isn’t it a pity to only take a beauty as a disciple?”

Victoria immediately realized what Jiumo Kasyapa meant.

At the side, Mike Baylor laughed loudly and said, “Hahahaha, you lecherous Monk, you’re actually greedy for a beauty! Even a foreigner like me knows there is a saying in the Shurangama Sutra that if you don't get rid of lust, you can't get rid of dust. If you can't get rid of sexual desires, you can't get rid of the six rounds of reincarnation. I don't believe in Buddhism. I've long ignored such mundane teachings. As an eminent monk, you actually have designs on a woman. How disappointing!"

The Moon Maiden snorted. "He is not worthy of being called a Buddhist monk. He is just using the name of Buddha to stop us from summoning the goddess. A true Buddhist monk would never do such an underhanded thing. Jiumo Kasyapa, you are just a selfish, greedy, and lecherous hypocrite whose desires are stronger than those of the secular world!"

Jiumo Kasyapa laughed. "The Moon Maiden is right. My secular desires are indeed very strong! But how can you blame me! When I was very young, I met the first generation deity, and I knew that there was someone in this world who could predict the future! Moreover, she asked me to go to Immortal Lake after I became an adult. That was how I found my opportunity!

"For many years, every time I recite Buddhist scriptures, I think of the beautiful Immortal Lake in the distance. The secular desires have always been hidden in my heart. How can I be a devout monk?!"

The Moon Maiden was shocked. "What did you say? You knew about the existence of the Immortal Lake? And the first generation Deity told you about it?"

Mike Baylor rebuked angrily, "Nonsense! How could you have seen the first generation Deity!"

Victoria said, "Master, I believe you and I understand you very well. In fact, I'm the same as you, I don't have a choice most of the time. It's not wrong to have worldly desires or greed. Why must others obtain better things than us? Why must we accept our fate and obey?"

Hearing Victoria's words, Jiumo Kasyapa was very happy. "Well, Victoria, what you said is very good. You really are my confidante! Okay, I will spare your life, but you must kill the others!"

Jiumo Kasyapa turned around and faced Jordan directly!

"Master, no!"

Seeing that Jiumo Kasyapa wanted to kill Jordan, Victoria could not help but blurt out to plead for Jordan.

Even Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor did the same, "Jiumo, can't we make you the strongest golden mutant? There hasn't been a golden mutant in twenty years, and they are extremely precious. If you mess around, you will be punished by the heavens!"

However, Jiumo Kasyapa's eyes were firm. He looked at Jordan and said, "Jordan, don't blame me. If you want to blame someone, blame yourself for being too stupid. Your ability doesn't match your talent. You have too many powerful abilities, but you can't control them. Even if I don't take them away today, others will take them away in the future.

"I know you like to give others a taste of their own medicine. Today, I'll use your ability to create something out of nothing to send you on your way!"

With that, Jiumo Kasyapa shouted, "Make something out of nothing!"

Jiumo Kasyapa thought of a fireball in his heart and aimed it at Jordan's face.

"No!"

Victoria and the others couldn't bear to watch this scene. However, in the next second, everyone was surprised to find that Jiumo Kasyapa did not conjure anything. Meanwhile, Jordan stood in his position in Immortal Lake unscathed.

"Eh? What's going on?"

Jiumo Kasyapa was confused.

“Could it be that because Jiumo Kasyapa just absorbed Jordan’s blood, he’s not familiar with the use of the ability of creating something out of nothing?”

“It’s possible! With Jiumo Kasyapa’s intelligence, he can probably try again!”

Jiumo Kasyapa also thought so, so he tried again.

Aiming his right hand at Jordan, Jiumo Kasyapa shouted, “Fire attack!”

However, after a few seconds, there was still no flame.

“Come out!”

Jiumo Kasyapa was a little anxious.

“How could this be! Damn it! Why is my head getting more and more dizzy...”

After Jiumo Kasyapa tried several times, he didn’t know if there was a problem with his physical fitness, but he was actually a little dizzy.

At this moment, Jordan, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly spoke slowly.

Jordan’s originally pale face suddenly became rosy and lustrous. He stood up straight and said slowly, “Master, are you trying to conjure this?”

BOOM!

A surging flame instantly appeared in Jordan’s hand. Then, it rushed directly to Jiumo Kasyapa’s body.

Caught off guard, Jiumo Kasyapa was directly hit by the flames and flew dozens of meters away from Immortal Lake!

“Arghh!”

From Jiumo Kasyapa’s screams, one could feel the impact of this attack on him!

Everyone was stunned!

“What’s going on?! Hasn’t Jordan’s blood been absorbed by Jiumo Kasyapa?! How can he still use the ability to create something out of nothing?!”

“Something’s wrong! Even if Jordan’s blood hasn’t been absorbed by Jiumo, he should be like the other mutants and unable to use his golden ability. Unless... he didn’t release his blood just now!”

“Mr. Jordan is awesome!”

“Chief is awesome!”

Outside Immortal Lake, many people shouted for Jordan. A second ago, everyone thought that Jordan would definitely die. In the next second, Jordan suddenly counterattacked!

Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and the others looked at Jordan in shock.

Jordan flew out from the Immortal Lake and came to Jiumo Kasyapa. He grabbed Jiumo Kasyapa’s body like an eagle catching a chick.

At this point, Jiumo Kasyapa was now extremely weak. On the other hand, Jordan was full of energy. Jiumo Kasyapa was no match for Jordan at all.

Jiumo Kasyapa looked at Jordan in disbelief.

“How can this be... How can this be?”

1350 Protect the Mother and Sacrifice the Child?

In the capital, a certain hospital was not open to the public.

This hospital was built by Jordan. It was not far from their house. The Steeles and the Howards usually went to this hospital because the doctors here were all high-level doctors from the Steeles.

Of course, they were not the best, because the highest level doctors were doing research in another place.

At this moment, Lauren had just been rushed to the hospital lobby.

Helen, who had just been brought in and was smoking a new electronic cigarette while chatting with the other doctors, panicked.

“Mrs. Steele?”

In the past, when Lauren came here to check on her health, she would always meet Helen and chat with her.

Helen quickly put the cigarette in her pocket and walked over. “Aren’t you due the day after tomorrow? Why are you here today?”

Lauren’s mother, Marissa, accompanied her and said nervously, “Lauren suddenly felt a lot of pain just now. I’m afraid she’s going to give birth!”

Helen tensed, too. “Any major bleeding?”

Helen examined it and said, “Fortunately, there’s no bleeding. Joe, prepare Mrs. Steele for natural labor immediately.”

“Yes!”

The medical staff placed Lauren on the stretcher and laid her down. She didn’t look too good.

At this moment, Lauren’s father, Stefan, and Lauren’s grandfather, Martin, rushed over.

“Lauren, how are you?”

Stefan and Martin were very concerned about Lauren’s situation. Lauren lay flat on the stretcher and kept calling Jordan’s name.

“Jordan... Jordan...”

Stefan asked softly, “Isn’t Jordan in the capital?”

Marissa pitied her daughter and was very angry. “Jordan, this child. His wife is about to give birth, but he’s not back yet. I’ll call him!”

Punching in a few numbers, Marissa called Jordan’s number, but no one answered. She had Salvatore’s phone number, so she called him again.

“Hello, Mrs. Howard, what’s the matter?”

Marissa asked, “Salvatore, where’s Jordan? My daughter is about to give birth. Why isn’t he back yet? Lauren keeps calling Jordan’s name. How can she give birth in peace like this?!”

Salvatore said, “Mrs. Howard, it’s not that Mr. Jordan doesn’t want to go back. You don’t know how many things he’s done to be able to see Lauren give birth. He just escaped death. He really can’t go back for a while!”

Marissa was shocked. “Escaped death? Where is he now? Why is he still...”

Marissa was about to clarify when Stefan snatched the phone away and turned it off.

Stefan said, “What’s wrong with you? Lauren is about to enter the operating theater. You’re saying this in front of her!”

Perhaps because she heard Marissa’s words, Lauren kept calling Jordan’s name even more. Her eyes slowly welled up with tears.

Stefan immediately went forward to comfort her. “Don’t worry, my precious daughter. Jordan is fine. You’ll be fine too. Don’t worry, it’s just like giving birth to Chloe. You’ll be fine in a while. We’ll wait for you outside. Be good.”

Soon, two doctors walked over and said, “I’m sorry, we have to push Mrs. Steele into the operating theater immediately.”

The two medical staff began to push Lauren’s stretcher. However, just as they were about to push her away, she suddenly reached out to her parents.

Lauren’s parents hurriedly went forward. “What’s wrong, child?”

Soon, two doctors walked over and said, “I’m sorry, we have to push Mrs. Steele into the operating theater immediately.”

Stefan quickly said solemnly, “Silly child, why are you saying such disheartening words? The Steeles’ medical skills are decades ahead of the world. You’re just giving birth to a child. Our doctors in the capital can make you give birth in peace. Don’t tell me you don’t believe in the Steeles’ capabilities?”

Lauren naturally knew her husband’s family’s medical skills, but she still looked very sad. “I don’t know either. I keep feeling that this time, I will bid farewell to the world...”

Stefan said, “I’ll get the doctor to give you anesthesia. You’ll be fine after sleeping. Don’t think too much.”

Stefan asked the medical staff to push her in, but he grabbed a doctor. “Doctor...”

The doctor said, “Mrs. Steele isn’t in a good state, and her emotions are unstable. I’ll give her medicine.”

Stefan said, “No, I didn’t mean to say that. I saw that my daughter’s condition was very bad. She kept holding her head just now. I’ve never seen a pregnant woman having a headache when giving birth. I’m afraid that something might really happen later. I want to see the doctor. If anything really happens later, please save our daughter!”

Only then did the doctor understand what Stefan meant. “You want me to protect the mother in case of an emergency?”

Stefan nodded.

Marissa also said, “Of course we have to protect the mother. She can always have more children. It’s fine even if she doesn’t want them. Jordan and Lauren already have one child. He also has a son and a daughter with Hailey. Moreover, Jordan has always loved our daughter. You know that.”

The doctor was caught in a difficult position. “Mr. and Mrs. Howard, we’re from the Steeles after all. It’s very difficult for us to give up the flesh and blood of the Steeles.”

Marissa said, “But the problem is that Jordan has just escaped death. He can’t come over. If he can come over, he will have the same intention!”

The doctor thought for a moment and said, “How about this? Get Dragon or Salvatore to call me. If either of them can express this to me, I’ll do it.”

Marissa quickly took out her phone. “I’ll call Salvatore now!”

“Wait a minute.”

Stefan stopped Marissa. “Call Dragon.”

Stefan personally called the Dragon.

At this moment, the Dragon was shocked by Jordan’s palm strike that counterattacked Jiumo Kasyapa.

“Mr. Howard?”

Seeing that it was a call from Stefan, the Dragon quickly picked up the call.

Stefan asked, “Mr. Dragon, is Jordan alright?”

The Dragon said, “Things just got better. It seems that Master has long seen through the enemy’s intention to frame him and has already counterattacked. He should be fine. How’s Lauren?”

Stefan said, "I just want to talk to Mr. Dragon about this. Lauren is not in a good state, and might be in a critical situation later. The doctor said that he needs Mr. Dragon to tell him personally that in a critical situation, whether he should save the mother."

The Dragon was shocked. "Protect the mother and give up the child? Is it that serious?"

Stefan said, "It's hard to say now. We're just planning ahead. Mr. Dragon, you know that Jordan has always loved Lauren. If it were him, he would definitely make the same choice. I know he's unable to make this decision. Later, if it really comes to that, can you make this decision for him?"
