

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1351 Killing Jiumo Kasyapa!

Immortal Lake.

Everyone stared at one person in extreme shock at Jordan!

Jordan shocked everyone again!

A second ago, everyone thought that Jiumo Kasyapa had absorbed Jordan's bloodline and had lost his ability. He was innocent and young, and he was deceived by the cunning Jiumo Kasyapa.

However, in the next second, Jordan had already defeated Jiumo

Kasyapa and could take his life at any time!

Jiumo Kasyapa looked at Jordan in disbelief. At this moment, he felt very weak. He had already released all his blood because he could only completely receive Jordan's blood after releasing his own.

However, he did not know why he could not make something out of nothing after receiving Jordan's blood. Even his basic defense was so poor.

With Jordan's defensive ability, it was impossible for him to not be able to withstand this fire attack.

Jiumo Kasyapa looked at Jordan. For the first time, he recognized him as the "Deity" in the world. He asked weakly.

"Jordan, as the saying goes, the victor is king, and the loser is a bandit. I've planned for so many years, but I failed at the last step today. I still lost to you. I admit my defeat. I only have one request. Please let me die in peace. I want you to tell me, when exactly did you discover my plan?"

Not only did Jiumo Kasyapa want to know, but the Moon Maiden, Victoria, and Mike Baylor also wanted to know!

Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor had known Jiumo Kasyapa for more than ten years, but they could not see through the old monk's true thoughts.

Today they were tricked by him.

Jordan was so young and had just met Jiumo Kasyapa. Jiumo Kasyapa had always been very friendly to him. How could he tell that Jiumo Kasyapa was not a good person?

At that moment, Victoria asked first, “Jordan, your blood... wasn’t released?”

Victoria knew Jordan quite well. She could tell that Jordan was in a very good state now. He was different from the rest of them.

Logically speaking, after releasing his blood, his body would be affected and he would be weak to a certain extent. However, Jordan was not weak at all.

Most importantly, at the beginning, Jordan looked as weak as everyone else. He was even the weakest.

The Moon Maiden scoffed coldly, “Jordan, you’re really good at pretending. To think that you actually fooled me. If I’m not wrong, when we were counting down to release the blood just now, the blood you released was fake. You created it out of nothing, right?!”

Jordan looked at the Moon Maiden and said, “That’s right.”

The Moon Maiden was furious. “Damn it! Why did you do that?!”

At this moment, Mike Baylor spoke up for Jordan, “Jordan must have predicted that Jiumo would want to exchange talents with us.”

Jiumo Kasyapa also looked at Jordan, “You predicted what would happen today? Previously, I asked you several times in secret, but you said that you didn’t predict the future. I didn’t think you were faking it.

Could it be that I was wrong?”

Jordan said, “No, I didn’t predict what would happen today.”

Jiumo Kasyapa was a little unwilling. “Then how did you know that I wanted to harm you! I, Jiumo Kasyapa, have always done things flawlessly. What did I do wrong to make you suspect me! If you don’t tell me the truth, I will not accept my loss!”

Jiumo Kasyapa had accepted his fate, but he only wanted to know how he had lost.

Jordan looked at Jiumo Kasyapa and said, “Actually, when I first met you, I had doubts about you. Your status among the golden mutants is very low because your ability is very useless. However, in my opinion, the ability to teleport is not weak.

“Sometimes, I would think about it from another perspective. If I were you, my ability would be teleportation. It might seem useless, and I could only escape when fighting, but even so, I wouldn’t have such a low status among the golden mutants that the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor would look down on me and disrespect me.

“I would try my best to use this ability to be terrifying. I have absolute confidence that I can be on equal footing with the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor just by relying on spatial teleportation!”

At this point, Mike Baylor smiled. “What an ambitious kid. You do have the qualifications to be on equal footing with me!”

As the Moon Maiden retrieved her blood, she spoke. “Your ability is already the best in the world, you can’t expect everyone to be as smart and creative as you”

Jordan nodded, “Yes, that’s what I thought at first. Perhaps Master Jiumo is not good at fighting. He doesn’t know how to use his abilities, and he doesn’t like to fight enemies. Therefore, it’s not surprising that spatial teleportation can only be used as an escape tool for him.

However, it was not until that time when I was defeated in a one-on-one battle with Mike Baylor's golden horned dragon that I knew that you were definitely not a simple monk!"

Jiumo Kasyapa's face turned pale. He did not expect that his goodwill towards Jordan would expose him!

Jordan continued, "How can someone who can easily guide me and let me defeat Mike Baylor not know how to use the power of spatial teleportation! How can it be just a tool to escape?!"

"Just now, you used your teleportation power to activate the palm strike.
That's the best proof! This ability can clearly be a very threatening offensive ability! Although it can't compare to my skill, it's enough to make the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor look up to you. You don't have to be so humble in front of them! It was then that I knew you were pretending to be weak!"

Jordan's words made Jiumo Kasyapa sigh. He finally understood what was going on. "Deity Jordan is indeed a Deity. I didn't expect you to deduce my ability with just this matter. However, I'm a monk. Even if I hide my ability, it doesn't mean that I want to harm others. How are you sure that I want to harm everyone today?"

“Is it because I mentioned the first generation Heavenly Deity? That matter is true. I didn’t make it up. Before the first generation Heavenly Deity died, she really came to my Master’s place.”

Jordan said, “I believe that this is true, but the two bottles of medicine you provided me later were fake. Am I right?”

Jiumo Kasyapa remained silent.

Jordan said with a smile, “Truth and lies are needed in order to deceive someone as smart as me. Master Jiumo, you’ve really put in a lot of effort! You hold the trump card of the first generation of deity and said that there was a way to suppress the power of deities to make me lose my prediction ability. This way, I wouldn’t be able to predict that you’ll harm us today, and you can carry out your demonic plan! Unfortunately for you, I knew you were lying to me!”

Jiumo Kasyapa looked terrified. “You knew that I was lying to you, but you still drank it? You should have guessed that the white medicine is not an antidote. There is no antidote in this world!”

Jordan said, “Of course I know. Do you think I really drank it?”

Jiumo Kasyapa could not believe it. He grabbed Jordan's clothes crazily,

"I saw you drink it. How did you do it? Tell me, how did you trick me?!"

Jordan approached Jiumo Kasyapa's face and asked, "Do you want to know?"

Jiumo Kasyapa nodded manically. "Yes! Tell me! Let me die in peace! I know you want to kill me!"

Jordan nodded. "Alright, I'll let you die in peace."

BANG!

With a powerful slap, Jiumo Kasyapa was dead in the next second.

1352 Five-Colored Golden Light!

Jiumo Kasyapa closed his eyes and fell into the Immortal Lake. Before he died, he still couldn't obtain the so-called "truth". He left this world with doubts, regret, and unwillingness.

The Moon Maiden exclaimed when she saw that, "Jordan! You killed Jiumo Kasyapa? Why did you let him die? He's still useful to us! Don't you want to summon the goddess anymore?"

However, Mike Baylor said, “No, Jiumo Kasyapa is useless. He has released all his blood. Next, as long as you agree and continue to release your blood, we can still carry out our big plan today!”

Victoria was already desperately retrieving her blood, “Jordan, forget it.

Maybe it’s fate that Jiumo stopped us.”

The three of them had different thoughts. Currently, the three of them were very weak, while Jordan was completely fine. The next decision was entirely up to Jordan.

Jordan glanced at Jiumo Kasyapa’s body that had sunk to the bottom of the lake and said, “On the way, if you encounter someone stopping you, it means that you’re on the right path. Jiumo, since you are so afraid of my prediction ability and know my ability so well, how can you not guess that I stayed in Immortal Lake for so long just to enter a dream and predict the future?”

At this point, Mike Baylor suddenly realized something. “I was wondering why you stayed in Immortal Lake for so long last time. Even if you awakened your flying ability, the time was too long. It turned out that you were sleeping in the Immortal Lake because you could predict a longer timeline in your dream. It was that time that you predicted that Jiumo would harm us today, right?

“It’s sad that Jiumo didn’t know the truth before he died. Jordan, I also want to ask you this question. Did you really drink that bottle of poison?”

Jordan nodded. “Yes, I’m no longer a Deity. I don’t have the ability to predict the future.”

The Moon Maiden quickly asked, “Jordan, you can’t predict what will happen next. What about your previous dream? Since you predicted Jiumo’s evil intentions, you should have predicted what will happen next. Did we successfully summon the Goddess? I hope you can tell me the truth now!”

However, Jordan shook his head. “At that time, I wanted to dream longer too, but I couldn’t. Every time I wanted to continue, my head would hurt as if there was a barrier. This is the first time I’ve encountered such a situation. It seems like it deliberately didn’t want to let me know what would happen next.”

The Moon Maiden snorted coldly. “I don’t know if I should believe what you said! Now, you can kill us and become the World Lord. You can kill us if you want. I’ll say it again. I’ve never lied to you. From the moment I helped you become a golden mutant, I only wanted you to help me summon the goddess. I never thought of fighting with you, let alone becoming your enemy.”

Mike Baylor was also a little afraid. “Jordan, I’ve been disrespectful to you in the past. I apologize to you sincerely. I’m the same as the Moon Maiden. I’ve never thought of becoming enemies with you. On the account that I’ve been very good to the Steeles all these years, I hope that you can wait for my blood to recover. Let’s have a fair duel!”

Jordan chuckled softly. “There’s no need. You don’t have to retrieve your blood. I’ll release the blood with you this time. We’ll really realize our big plan. I also want to know who the Goddess of the Immortal Lake is and why she gives me such a familiar feeling.”

As Jordan spoke, he really started to release his blood.

The Moon Maiden could tell that Jordan was not making something out of nothing this time. Instead, he was using real blood.

Victoria became anxious. “Jordan, why are you obsessed with the unknown? I know that gathering the blood of five golden mutants can summon the goddess. It might not be fake, but so what if it’s real? Do we have to summon her? She’s so capable. Why can’t she come out herself and have to rely on us?”

Jordan continued to release his blood quickly and said coldly, “We’ll only know these questions after we successfully summon her. Victoria, as you said before, we’re completely done. If you don’t follow us, you know the consequences.”

Although Victoria had cut ties with Jordan, she could not help but feel a lump in her throat. “Alright, you’ve realized that the goddess is very close to you. She’s very beautiful like the wind returning to snow! That goddess must be that little girl Lota. I hated her so much before and rejected you marrying her. If she’s a goddess, I definitely won’t survive!

“Alright, let’s summon her and let her humiliate me and kill me!”

Victoria also stopped retrieving the blood out of spite.

Jordan, the Moon Maiden, and the other two were a little surprised.

Victoria actually thought that the goddess they would summon was Jordan's wife, Lota?

The Moon Maiden was speechless. "Victoria, your imagination is too rich. How can the goddess be Jordan's wife?"

Mike Baylor also chuckled. "Haha, Victoria, I don't quite believe what you're saying, because the goddess isn't some foreign woman. I've learned this before."

Jordan looked at Victoria. "Victoria, I can promise you that if the Goddess is really Lota, I'll protect you and won't let Lota hurt you.

Moreover, I promise you that after this is done, I'll give you a city. You can control this city and be a City Lord."

Only then did Victoria feel a bit better. "Even Orlando?"

Jordan nodded. "Orlando is fine too."

Victoria replied. "Okay!"

Victoria knew that she had no other choice. Since Jordan had given her this promise, Victoria could only cooperate.

Gradually, the four of them completely released their blood into the Immortal Lake.

Jiumo Kasyapa's blood was already in the Immortal Lake. After the blood of the five golden mutants was completely mixed, it formed a powerful energy.

Immortal Lake began to thrum with energy!

"Ah, what kind of sound is that! It's so shocking that it makes one's heart feel very chaotic."

"Is Immortal Lake going to explode? The blood of five golden mutants is no joke!"

"Look, something seems to be jumping out of the surface of the Immortal Lake."

Jordan and the other three looked at everything in front of them in a daze, waiting for the outcome.

The next second.

Swoosh!

A five-colored golden light suddenly soared into the sky from the Immortal Lake in front of the four of them!

This five-colored golden light shot from the lake to the sky. When it reached a certain height, it shot in another direction.

“This is... the northeast direction?”

Jordan looked at the direction where the five-colored golden light shot over and realized that it was pointing northeast. This was also the direction of the inland city.

“That’s the direction of the goddess! Follow the five-colored golden light and find the goddess!”

The Moon Maiden was extremely excited.

1353 The Goddess of Immortal Lake is in the Capital?

The Moon Maiden had been a golden mutant for the longest time, and she had the deepest understanding of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. Therefore, when the five-colored golden light appeared, the Moon Maiden knew that it was pointing to the Goddess of the Immortal Lake.

It turned out that she also thought that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake would be summoned in the Immortal Lake, but now it seemed that the Goddess was in a mysterious place in the distance.

The Moon Maiden's body was light as she leaped into the air. At this moment, she had already obtained energy again.

Just now, after the summoning ritual was successful, the blood released by the Moon Maiden and the others automatically returned to their bodies.

After the Moon Maiden flew up, she immediately flew in the direction of the five-colored golden light. There was the goddess she had been waiting for twenty years!

The Moon Maiden undoubtedly worshiped this Goddess of the Immortal Lake. In fact, her current appearance was roughly based on this Goddess.

Mike Baylor followed closely behind. He knew very well that the Goddess of Immortal Lake was extremely powerful. Whoever found her first and obtained her approval would obtain the best opportunity and resources!

Thus, Mike Baylor summoned his Dragon Turtle and followed the Moon Maiden.

It was not just the two golden mutants. Although the low-level mutants in the distance were not as strong as them, they were very smart.

They also had such thoughts!

“That five-colored golden light is pointing in the direction of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake! Brothers, hurry up and pay your respects to the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. Although we're green and black, in the eyes of the mighty Goddess of the Immortal Lake, we might all be the same. As long as we can acknowledge the Goddess of the Immortal Lake as our master, we might not be inferior to Jordan and Moon Maiden in the future!”

“This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! Brothers, let’s board the plane together!”

These low-level mutants could not fly. If they wanted to go over immediately, they could only rely on a plane. Therefore, they quickly arrived at the hangar of Immortal Lake. However, as soon as they arrived, they realized that a plane was already taxiing and was about to take off.

“F*ck! It’s that son of a b*tch, Rong Bingshao! That son of a b*tch is too fast. He took away one of our planes!”

“Rong Bingshao! Open the window. You’re wasting a plane on your own!”

It was indeed Rong Bingshao in the plane. Seeing that Moon Maiden had already flown away, he immediately used his Godly Speed to occupy a plane.

“Opportunity! This is an opportunity that belongs to me, Rong Bingshao! It’s also an opportunity that belongs to our Rong family!”

Rong Bingshao’s eyes were burning. He hoped that the Goddess of Immortal Lake could change his life again.

At that moment, Jordan glanced at Jiumo Kasyapa’s corpse at the bottom of the lake. “What a pity. If he hadn’t died, he would have met the Goddess of the Immortal Lake before anyone else.”

Jiumo Kasyapa’s teleportation was the best skill to catch up with the Goddess of the Immortal Lake.

Jordan did not waste any more time. He flew up as well, wanting to meet the Goddess of the Immortal Lake! However, just as Jordan flew out of the boundary, Dragon and Salvatore chased after him hurriedly and shouted crazily underground.

“Mr. Jordan! Mr. Jordan!”

Jordan stopped when he heard the shouts and asked, “What’s the matter? I’m in a hurry to see the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. I can’t let the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor beat me to it.”

The Dragon said, “I know. If it’s not extremely urgent, we don’t dare to delay Master.”

Jordan had an ominous feeling when he heard that, “Extremely urgent? What’s the matter?!”

The Dragon said, “Just now, Stefan called and said that Lauren is about to give birth and has been pushed into the operating theater. The doctor said that she’s in a very bad state. He called and asked if he could protect her life.”

BOOM!

Jordan immediately felt his head buzzing. “Protect her life and sacrifice her child? How can it be so serious?! Lauren checks her body once a week. Her body is clearly fine. Why is there such a problem?!”

Salvatore said, “We don’t know either. Don’t you think it’s a coincidence that Mr. Jordan summoned the goddess today? It’s a shame that Mrs. Steele had to give birth today! Sigh.”

Jordan immediately became anxious. “Damn it! Lauren is at the Steele’s hospital in the capital, right? Follow me immediately and return to the capital!”

The Dragon hurriedly said, “Master, the Goddess of the Immortal Lake is more important. Go find the Goddess of the Immortal Lake first. Otherwise, if the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor get there first, it will be very troublesome in the future. As for Mistress Lauren’s matter, you only need to tell me if you want to protect her life. I’ll reply to Stefan.”

Salvatore also said, "That's right, Mr. Jordan. You're not a doctor either. You will just be waiting in the capital. Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor aren't good people. They relied on the fact that they became golden mutants early to suppress Mr. Jordan. This time, Mr. Jordan can't fall behind them."

Jordan said angrily, "Shut up, all of you! So what if she's the Goddess of the Immortal Lake? How can she be more important than Lauren?! If the Goddess of the Immortal Lake wants to see who kneels in front of her first, then I might as well not see her!

"Dragon, call Helen immediately and tell them to protect Lauren. They can't let anything happen to her. But they have to try their best to protect my child! I don't believe that the Steele's medical skills are so bad that they can't ensure the safety of both adults and children!"

Dragon answered, "Yes!"

Jordan did not say anything else and flew at full speed.

The golden mutant's flying speed was limited. While Jordan was flying, he created a jetpack to increase his speed.

Soon, Jordan caught up with Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor, who had left earlier.

Mike Baylor, who was sitting on the Dragon Turtle, was shocked when he saw Jordan catch up to him and come to his left. "Geez Jordan, are you crazy? Is there a jet behind your butt? Do you have to go so far to pay your respects to the Goddess of the Immortal Lake?"

The Moon Maiden also snorted coldly. "As expected, you're the most ambitious among us."

Jordan said, "I'm not going to see the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. My wife is about to give birth. She's not in a good state. I'm going to the capital to see her. After you see the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, remember to tell her that I saw through Jiumo Kasyapa's scheme and successfully summoned her."

The Moon Maiden was shocked. "What? Instead of going to see the Goddess of Immortal Lake, you want to go back to the capital to see your wife first? Are you crazy? Lauren is just an ordinary woman. What right does she have to compete with the Goddess of Immortal Lake for priority? Although it will be in my favor if you don't go, I have to scold you. Your behavior is really stupid!"

Naturally, Mike Baylor hoped that Jordan would not go. If Jordan did not go, they could say whatever they wanted.

Mike Baylor laughed and said, "Hahaha, Jordan, you're so loyal. You're still thinking about your wife at such a critical moment. As a man, I admire you very much and support you in doing this! Don't worry, I'll tell the Goddess of Immortal Lake what you've done."

Jordan replied coldly, "Thank you."

An hour later.

Jordan did not separate from Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor. He flew in the same direction.

At this moment, they had already flown 1,000 kilometers.

Mike Baylor said, "Jordan, you're so hypocritical. Didn't you say that you were going to see your wife? Why do you keep moving in the direction of the five-colored golden light? You're clearly going to find the Goddess of the Immortal Lake like us. Did you say that just now to make us relax?"

Jordan said, "I'm not lying. I'm flying in the direction of the capital."

The Moon Maiden frowned as she flew. "Could it be that the Goddess of Immortal Lake is also in the capital?"

1354 The Goddess of the Immortal Lake Is...

At this moment, in the capital.

An incomparably dazzling five-colored golden light shot out from the Immortal Lake, and the destination of this light was in the capital.

When everyone in the capital saw the mysterious pillar of light that suddenly appeared in the sky, they all stopped what they were doing. They discussed, took photos, and even lamented if aliens had come.

In the Bureau of Meteorology.

“It’s unheard of! It’s unheard of! We’ve never seen such light in the sky, and there’s no warning at all.”

“How should we report it and update the weather in the capital now? Is it sunny and cloudy?”

“The director is taking a call from his superior. We should ask the director later.”

“I don’t think this has anything to do with the Meteorological Bureau at all. We have to ask NASA, right?”

National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

“Have you found the source of the five-colored golden light?”

“We’ve already traced its source based on the beam. Preliminary judgment is that it came from the southwest of the country, at least two thousand kilometers away.”

“Can you see the five-colored golden light in the sky 2,000 kilometers away?”

“Yes.”

“It’s troublesome. I have to report to my superiors immediately!”

At this moment, Lionel had just received an order. “Yes, I understand. For the time being, completely seal the news. We definitely won’t let the matter of the five-colored golden light leak overseas. I’ll do it immediately.”

The sudden appearance of the five-colored golden light was also a huge problem for the capital because they all knew that this was done by the mutants. However, the government did not want other countries to know about the mutants at the moment.

Soon, social media platforms, including TikTok, Facebook, Telegram, and Instagram were all blocked. No one could open them, let alone share photos or videos.

The internet celebrities who were originally broadcasting live could not continue.

A blogger with six million fans was outdoor livestreaming on TikTok. He held a selfie stick and used the front camera to aim at himself and the five-colored golden light in the sky behind him. He interacted with the netizens excitedly.

“Everyone, look at the golden light behind me. Heh, I’ve really seen a ghost. It was fine just now. Guess what? Suddenly, a golden light shot over from the west. I was driving at that time. Fortunately, I was wearing sunglasses. Otherwise, it would have blinded me!”

“What? The golden light behind me is Photoshopped? Photoshopped my ass. This is a live broadcast. How can it be Photoshopped? It can be seen in the capital. If you don’t believe me, come here!”

“What? Is this a post-production video? I’m puzzled. Why don’t you believe me? I don’t know anything about AE, NUKE, or HOUDINI. I swear it’s really not special effects.

“Hey, what happened to the signal?”

Although no one could open live broadcast apps like TikTok and could not share pictures or videos with others, everyone in the capital could not help but come out and look at the five-colored golden light that suddenly appeared in the sky.

“It’s the end of the world! This golden light is definitely a sign of extraterrestrial invasion! Earth is finished, brothers!”

“The Messiah is here again!”

“I don’t want to work anymore. Maybe in a while, the Earth will be gone. What’s the point of working?”

“This five-colored golden light pillar is so big and long. Won’t the relevant department come out to explain?”

Just as everyone was discussing, they suddenly saw three people flying over from the distant sky!

To be precise, it was three people and one beast!

“Look, those people can fly!”

“Damn, what a feast for the eyes today. First, I saw the five-colored golden light, and now I see flying people and such a huge turtle!”

“These mutants have existed in the world for a long time, it’s just that we don’t know about them! Hehe, are you finally going to let us commoners know?”

Seeing one extraordinary scene after another, some of the citizens in the capital shouted excitedly, while others were terrified and had already driven away from the capital.

The three people and one beast that had just appeared were none other than Jordan, the Moon Maiden, and Mike Baylor!

When Jordan saw that the citizens on the ground were criticizing the three of them, especially Mike Baylor’s Dragon Turtle, he could not help but say, “Mike Baylor, you rode a Dragon Turtle around the capital city. Now, everyone knows our secret!”

On the other hand, Mike Baylor retorted as he flew, “Jordan, you hypocrite! You have no right to criticize me! You said you would go find your wife first and we would go see the goddess. In the end, you didn’t leave me at all!”

Jordan asked in return, “B*stard, isn’t this the capital? Aren’t I on my way to find my wife?”

The Moon Maiden said, “Alright, Mike, stop talking. The Goddess of the Immortal Lake is in the capital. Perhaps it’s really as Victoria said. The Goddess of the Immortal Lake is Lota. If that’s the case, Jordan is not someone you and I can provoke.”

Mike Baylor was also inwardly shocked. He sighed in his heart. It couldn’t be such a coincidence, right?

They originally thought that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake had been sleeping somewhere. After they summoned her, she would wake up from her sealed or sleeping state.

From the looks of it, the Goddess of the Immortal Lake was most likely someone who had already lived in the mortal world.

Moreover, it was very likely that she was from the capital!

After arriving at the capital, the three of them were very fast and headed straight for the five-colored golden light. Soon, they arrived at the place where the five-colored golden light last disappeared.

After arriving, the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor went in without saying a word. Meanwhile, Jordan stood in front of the building and was stunned.

“This is... the Steele’s secret hospital?”

Others might not recognize this place, but how could Jordan not recognize his own business! This hospital was built so that Lauren would give birth conveniently. Jordan had personally built it for her and equipped it with the best doctors in the Steele family.

“Goddess of the Immortal Lake... why is she here? Could it be...”

Although Jordan had lost his ability to predict, his intuition as a Deity over the years allowed him to vaguely guess something.

Instantly, Jordan flew in quickly.

After the three of them flew into the hospital, they realized that it was empty. There were originally many medical staff here. Jordan had just learned that Lauren was giving birth here. Logically speaking, Lauren and the Howards should be here.

“Strange, why is there no one here? Did something happen to Lauren?”

Jordan suddenly panicked. Could it be that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake had suddenly chosen to descend here, causing everyone in this hospital to die?

Including Lauren, who was giving birth!

“Lauren, please be alright...”

Jordan felt a lump in his throat and was extremely afraid.

“Lauren, are you there? I’m here!”

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor also continued forward, searching for the Goddess of the Immortal Lake.

They arrived at the second floor at the same time and suddenly saw an ancient-looking woman with long hair that reached her shoulders. She was wearing a white dress.

Just by looking at her back, he felt that her temperament was one in a million. It was so exquisite that just looking at her hair made his heart palpitate.

“Greetings, Goddess!”

When the Moon Maiden saw this, she immediately knelt down. She was the golden mutant who had comprehended the Goddess of the Immortal Lake the most. Therefore, when she saw the back of the woman in front of her, she was certain that this woman was the Goddess of the Immortal Lake they had summoned!

“Mike Baylor greets the Goddess!”

Mike Baylor knew that the Moon Maiden’s guess must be correct, so he hurriedly knelt down.

Meanwhile, Jordan stood there in a daze. He looked at the woman in front of him. He felt that this back view was very familiar, but he was not sure if it was her. Her hair wasn’t that long, and her figure was very different.

The woman in front of him did not have a big belly. She had a tall and slender figure like a young maiden.

At this time, the mysterious woman heard the noise and turned around.

Jordan was stunned!

1355 Why Is It Her!

“Lauren?”

The mysterious woman turned around, and everyone saw Lauren’s face!

Jordan was not the only one who was shocked. Even the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor were shocked!

“Lau...”

The two of them widened their eyes and didn’t dare to call Lauren by her name. Previously, someone had guessed that the Goddess of the Immortal Lake might be Lota, but they never expected that person to be Lauren!

However, Jordan did not treat Lauren as the goddess of the Immortal Lake. When he saw that the woman in front of him was Lauren, he immediately walked forward and grabbed her fair hand. He asked with concern.

“Lauren, are you alright? Where’s our child? What happened to your stomach... and your hair. What’s with your outfit?”

Jordan did not understand. Previously, Lauren was pregnant, but now, her abdomen was flat. Moreover, her hair was clearly longer and more elegant than before. She had even changed into goddess-like attire.

Lauren never wore such clothes. She didn't like cosplay at all.

However, Mike Baylor shouted when he saw that. "Jordan! Remove your dirty hands! You're not qualified to hold the hand of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake!"

In Mike Baylor's opinion, the woman in front of him was no longer Jordan's wife. Instead, she was the most respected goddess in the world.

Lauren looked at Jordan, but her eyes were no longer filled with love and admiration like before. Her expression was slightly unfamiliar and cold. Previously, when she turned to look at the Moon Maiden and the other woman, she had revealed a very high and mighty feeling.

However, she still smiled a little when she looked at Jordan. She said in a questioning voice, "Jordan...?"

Jordan found it unbelievable. Did Lauren lose her memory?

Why did it feel like she only just recognized him!

"Honey..."

Jordan tightened his grip on Lauren's hand, wanting to get closer to her. However, at that moment, Jordan's body suddenly rebounded away from Lauren.

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor were also dumbfounded. The two of them did not even see how Lauren exerted her strength before she easily repelled Jordan!

"The Goddess is indeed powerful!"

Jordan bounced against the wall and was not injured. Clearly, Lauren did not want to hurt Jordan.

At this moment, Jordan finally realized that Lauren was no longer the innocent Lauren whom he knew. The power she had now might be stronger than his!

“Impossible...”

Jordan could not understand why this was happening.

At this time, Victoria finally arrived, panting heavily.

Seeing the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor kneeling on the ground, Victoria quickly knelt beside them and said, “Greetings, Goddess of the Immortal Lake. I am the golden mutant, Victoria. Thank you, Goddess, for your mental control ability. I hope to have the opportunity to continue learning from you.”

Having said that, she continued to pant heavily.

Lauren looked at Victoria with a subtle expression and called her name. “Victoria?”

When Victoria heard her goddess’s voice, she found it extremely familiar. Only then did she look up at the woman in the long dress and was shocked. “Lau... Lauren? Why is it you?”

The Moon Maiden said, “Victoria, this is the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, not the person you know. You had better get a grip.”

Victoria glanced at the stunned Jordan again. It seemed like even Jordan did not expect that the goddess they summoned was Lauren!

Victoria quickly lowered her head. “I’m sorry... Goddess, please forgive me for being presumptuous. Since we were sisters in the past, I hope you can treat me as one of your own.”

Rumble rumble.

At this moment, the other low-level mutants’ planes had also arrived.

The mutants rushed in quickly. When they saw that all the golden mutants except Jordan had knelt down, they knelt down without saying a word.

“Greetings, Goddess of the Immortal Lake!”

Only after kneeling down did they dare to look at the goddess’s face.

These people were very excited and wanted to know the honor of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. However, after seeing her, many people recognized that she was Jordan’s wife, Lauren!

“Oh my god, isn’t this the wife of the Chief?”

“Really? The Goddess of the Immortal Lake is actually the wife of Chief Jordan? Then he has struck gold this time.”

“Chief Jordan is so lucky. We’re still worrying about the capability to become the disciples of the Goddess of the Immortal Lake. Jordan doesn’t have to worry at all. With their relationship, the Goddess of the Immortal Lake will definitely bring him along!”

“I’m afraid the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor won’t be able to stand on equal footing with Jordan in the future!”

Everyone discussed animatedly.

At this moment, Salvatore and Dragon rushed over. When they saw Lauren, they were equally shocked.

Salvatore said, “Oh my god, this world is crazy. The next second, if you tell me that Emily is an alien, I will believe you.”

Although Dragon was also shocked by Lauren’s goddess status, he was more concerned about how Jordan would accept this fact.

Perhaps in the eyes of outsiders, the fact that Lauren was the Goddess of the Immortal Lake was a good thing for Jordan. However, Dragon knew that not only was this not a good thing for Jordan, but it might also be a disaster!

After all, Lauren was Jordan's wife!

Now that Lauren had become the goddess of the Immortal Lake, she was an existence far above everyone in the world. It was unknown if she was still willing to be Jordan's wife!

Everyone knelt down except Jordan, who looked at the familiar, yet distant Lauren.

After a long time, Lauren slowly said, "Yes, you're all here. You all have my aura on you. I gave you your superpowers."

When everyone heard this, they hurriedly said, "Thank you, Goddess of the Immortal Lake, for the abilities you bestowed upon us!"

Jordan could not help but sigh. Did Lauren give him his ability to create something out of nothing?

Jordan could not help but speak again, "Lauren, what's going on? What's your relationship with the Goddess of the Immortal Lake? Where's our child?"

Jordan wanted to know how their child was doing!

Lauren calmed down for a while and gradually said, "I didn't expect a mortal like me to have such an intimate relationship with one of the golden mutants. Now that I think about it, I was too impulsive back then. Sigh, if the family finds out, they will definitely punish me. Alright, I know you have a lot of questions, so I shall answer them.

"Actually, I am not from this planet. I came from another world with a higher civilization level. In order to avoid something, I asked the elders of my family to descend to a low-level civilization planet, Earth. After coming here, I wanted to complete my mission of becoming a mortal, which is to turn myself into a mortal like you Earthlings.

"Thus, I stored my abilities in the Immortal Lake. The fated people would obtain different abilities from the Immortal Lake. Furthermore, they would follow my instructions and summon me at a specified time.

“Now, I have just woken up. My memories of more than two hundred years have also gradually recovered. You golden mutants have contributed greatly. I can reward you according to your contributions.”
