

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1356 Lauren's Master!

From what Lauren said, it turned out that the universe was so big that not only Earth had life, but other planets also had life, and there were higher life forms than humans.

In Lauren's eyes, Earth was a low-level civilization.

Decades ago, Lauren came to Earth and gave up her abilities to the remote Immortal Lake. She transformed into a member of the Howards in the capital and lived as an ordinary Earthling for more than twenty years.

When the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor heard that Lauren was going to reward them, they were overjoyed.

The Moon Maiden said, "I don't dare to ask Goddess Lauren for a reward. I only hope that Goddess Lauren can accept me as a disciple. I want to cultivate with you and accompany you!"

"Ever since I saw the scene of you staying in Immortal Lake, I've undergone plastic surgery to look like you. My body and mind have long been one with you. Following you is my only home. Please accept me!"

Seeing the Moon Maiden raise this request, Mike Baylor hurriedly said, "Goddess Lauren, I also want to acknowledge you as my master and cultivate with you!"

Mike Baylor knew that what he knew now was just a drop in the ocean compared to Lauren's abilities. As long as he continued to cultivate with her, his future abilities would definitely be even more terrifying.

The Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor had both acknowledged Lauren as their master. Now, it was Victoria's turn to be troubled.

Victoria didn't want to acknowledge Lauren as her master. Lauren used to be her younger sister.. Now, she had to make Lauren her master?

“I knew that if I summoned the goddess, my status would be suppressed...”

Victoria felt aggrieved in her heart. She actually didn't have much ambition in improving her abilities. She cared more about her position on Earth. But now, there was clearly a wider future waiting for her. She was not a fool. She knew that if she followed Lauren, her future would definitely change drastically.

Victoria replied. “I am also willing to take Goddess Lauren as my master.”

Jordan did not say anything.

Lauren looked at the three of them and said, “Are you sure you want to cultivate with me? I want to remind you that if you cultivate with me, you have to leave Earth and go to my world. Are you willing to give up everything here?”

Leave Earth!

Lauren was not from this world, and Earth was not a world for cultivation. Of course, she had to return to her place of origin.

Without any hesitation, the Moon Maiden said, “I'm willing!”

Mike Baylor also said, “I'm also willing! There's nothing left on Earth for me to miss!”

In fact, Mike Baylor's greatest wish on Earth had not been fulfilled, but he was not worried about this. Since Lauren could come to Earth, he could come back whenever he wanted when he cultivated his skills to perfection.

However, Victoria had a different thought. She had too many attachments on Earth and didn't want to risk her life in a new world.

Victoria asked. “Can we come back after leaving Earth?”

Lauren smiled. "It depends on how far you can cultivate in the future and your wealth. I mean the wealth of my world. It takes a lot of resources to teleport from a high-level civilization to a low-level civilization. It's because my family is rich that I had the chance to come to Earth."

Victoria rolled her eyes, thinking that the otherworldly Lauren also depended on money and status.

As for Victoria, she had been dealing with money and status for the past ten years. This was what she was best at and she was most confident in obtaining wealth and status.

So she felt that if she were to go to that world, she would be able to do well with her abilities. At the very least, she wouldn't have to worry about money. At that time, with enough wealth, it would be easy to return to Earth.

Having thought this through, she added. "I'm willing to go too!"

Lauren looked at the Moon Maiden and said slowly, "Moon Maiden, you were the first golden mutant. In order to summon me, you've sacrificed the most over the years. You also worship me the most. I can bring you along to cultivate."

When the Moon Maiden heard this, she immediately kowtowed to Lauren. "Thank you, Goddess!"

Then, Lauren looked at Mike Baylor. "Mike Baylor, you feel injustice in your heart. The problem of race is deeply rooted in your heart. In my world, there are people of different races. No one is racist, and everyone only looks at cultivation ability. If you can put aside this problem completely, I can take you with me."

Lauren's words made Mike Baylor feel a little afraid. She actually knew what Mike Baylor was thinking!

Mike Baylor lowered his head. "After hearing Goddess Lauren's description, I yearn for that fair and perfect Heavenly World even more. I don't want to stay on Earth for a minute longer. Goddess Lauren, please bring me with you!"

When Lauren heard Mike Baylor describe her world as "fair, perfect, and heavenly", she couldn't help but want to laugh.

However, she didn't say anything and continued to look at Victoria. "Victoria, you are a purple mutant. At your level, you shouldn't be qualified to come with me."

Hearing this, the hearts of the low-level mutants behind Victoria turned cold!

If the purple mutants were not qualified, then it was even more impossible for them! However, they all held back their silence. When Lauren spoke, they didn't dare to interrupt.

Lauren continued, "However, on account that we were sisters in the past, I respect you. Alright, I can take you as well."

Victoria was so frightened that she broke out in cold sweat. She sighed in her heart. Fortunately, she had a good relationship with Lauren in the past. If the goddess was Lota, she would really be finished.

Lauren asked, "Shouldn't there be another golden mutant? Back then, I set up five golden mutants to summon me. There's only four. Where is the other one?"

Mike Baylor answered first, "That person is called Jiumo Kasyapa. He was killed by Jordan!"

The Moon Maiden was afraid that Lauren would misunderstand, so she explained for Jordan, "Jiumo Kasyapa had ulterior motives. He wanted to exchange blood with us when we released our blood and change his original ability. Fortunately, Jordan resolved this crisis in time. He deserved to die."

Lauren nodded and did not look at Jordan.

At this moment, seeing that Jordan did not say anything about his intentions, the low-level mutants could no longer sit still.

Linus exclaimed. "Goddess Lauren, we also want to be your disciples! We also want to cultivate in another world!"

After Linus spoke, the others also agreed.

"Yes, yes, yes. Bring us along! We're willing to be slaves. We'll do anything you want!"

"Goddess Lauren, please accept us as your disciples!"

However, facing the request of this group of low-level mutants, Lauren replied coldly, "I won't take so many Earthlings with me. In fact, your mutant level already represents your talent in cultivation. Only by reaching the golden level can you achieve something on the path of cultivation. People like you who don't have any cultivation talent will be at the bottom of my world and will quickly be killed by others."

1357 Jordan's Plot?

On Earth, these mutants were all "talented contestants" that could only be picked out from tens of thousands of miles away. They were all "chosen by the heavens".

They had always been conceited. However, they did not expect that awakening the golden bloodline in the Immortal Lake was the standard and foundation of cultivation in another world.

People like them, who were only low-level mutants, were considered to have very low talent. They could not compare to others in cultivation in the alternate world.

Moreover, no one knew what the other world was like. Who knew if there were police officers in the other world? Murderers might not be illegal!

If anyone with high cultivation could do whatever they wanted, they would probably not live long in the alternate world.

After these low-level mutants heard Lauren's words, many of them revealed fear and the intention to retreat.

However, Linus still said resolutely, "We're not afraid! As long as Goddess Lauren is willing to accept us, we definitely won't embarrass you!"

Someone added, "That's right! Goddess Lauren, please take us in. Although the alternate world is very dangerous, danger and opportunity often coexist. I've always been very lucky. Perhaps there will be new opportunities in the alternate world!"

However, there were also low-level mutants who disagreed.

"Linus, forget it. Actually, there's nothing good about going to another world. Think about it. Goddess Lauren will leave with these golden mutants. Without the golden and purple mutants, aren't we the rulers of the world?"

"Hehe, that's right. Even if there's no tiger in the mountains, we monkeys can still be kings."

These people imagined that after Jordan, Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, Victoria, and the others left, they would be the strongest mutants in the world and they could do whatever they wanted.

However, Lauren said, "As I said, you're not qualified for me to take you away. In addition, I have to tell you something. After I leave, I'll take away all your mutant powers and make you ordinary people again.

"You must realize that Earth is a planet of an ordinary low-level civilization. At this stage, there shouldn't be any mutants. After I leave, Earth will return to what it was like before I came. It's not just you all. Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor and Victoria, I'll also take away all your abilities away from you as I need all my strength to send a signal to my world."

When they heard that Lauren wanted to take away all the talents of the mutants and they would become ordinary people, these low-level mutants exploded.

Even the Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and the others were a little reluctant, but they didn't care about this because as long as they followed Lauren, they would definitely have stronger abilities in the future.

Meanwhile, Linus and the others panicked.

"Why would you take away our abilities? Wasn't this given to us by you?"

"Haha, Victoria is right. Summoning the goddess was a mistake! If we summon the goddess, not only will we not be able to cultivate with her, we will also lose what we originally had!"

"Please, Goddess Lauren, don't take away my ability. I don't want to become an ordinary person. Sobs..."

Some people were even kneeling on the ground and crying.

However, at that moment, Linus burst into loud laughter.

"Hahahaha... Hahahaha."

Everyone was confused by Linus's laughter.

Salvatore asked directly, "Linus, what are you laughing at?"

As Linus smiled, he stood up. He was no longer kneeling in front of Lauren, but standing.

Someone reminded Linus, "Linus, why are you standing up? Kneel down! The Moon Maiden and the others aren't up yet. How dare you stand up!"

Linus sneered and looked at the dejected crowd behind him. He said, "What am I kneeling for? The emperor is gone. No one is worthy of us kneeling!"

After saying that, he looked at Jordan and asked, “Chief Jordan, this is what you told us when you first took over our Mutant Tribe, right?”

These were indeed the exact words that Jordan had said back then. However, Jordan was now sighing at Lauren’s sudden change in identity. He did not have the time to bother with a small fry like Linus. He did not know why Linus wanted to talk to him.

However, Linus continued to stare at Jordan and said with a smile, “Chief Jordan, you’re indeed the strongest golden mutant. You’re really smart. Your acting skills are really good. You fooled everyone!”

When Salvatore saw Linus criticizing Jordan, he said angrily, “Linus, are you crazy? What did our Mr. Jordan say? It’s not like our Mr. Jordan wants to take away your ability!”

Linus snorted coldly. “Lauren is just an ordinary woman from the capital. How can she be the Goddess of Immortal Lake?! Friends, don’t be tricked by Jordan’s scheme. Jordan and Lauren are conspiring to deceive us!”

Hearing this, there was an uproar.

“What? This is Jordan’s scheme?”

“Could it be that Lauren isn’t the goddess of Immortal Lake? Is her current outfit and posture all an act?”

Linus said, “That’s right! Jordan did this to take away our mutant talent and use it for himself! When they summoned the goddess just now, everyone saw that Jiumo Kasyapa could absorb the blood of others in exchange for their abilities. So can they!

“Jordan and Lauren, the two of you are really a match made in heaven. Best Actor and Best Actress. You’re really good at acting! You tricked the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor!”

Upon hearing Linus slandering him, Jordan said slowly, “Linus, if I want to use your blood to seize your ability, I’ll do it openly. There’s nothing you can do. There's no need to do anything unnecessary. I also hope that this is all an act..."

When Jordan finished speaking, he glanced at Lauren.

Linus didn't believe him. "Hmph, stop acting! How shameless. How can your wife be the goddess of Immortal Lake! Lauren? Immortal Lake? I'm dying of laughter. I'll expose your true colors myself!"

As he spoke, Linus suddenly attacked Lauren. He wanted to attack her!

As a mutant, it was easy for Linus to deal with an ordinary person.

Therefore, once Linus succeeded, it could prove that Lauren was pretending to be the Goddess of Immortal Lake. This was Jordan and Lauren's scheme!

"Be careful!"

Jordan instinctively wanted to protect Lauren. However, before Jordan could do anything, Lauren attacked.

Stretching out her jade-like hand, she lightly slapped outwards. A white gas attacked Linus's body, and Linus's entire body flew up from the ground.

BANG!

Linus's body pierced through the ceiling above, leaving a huge hole in the wall. Then, Linus flew very high up.

Bang!

After that, Linus landed on the ground again and collapsed in a slumped heap, dead.

Like this, everyone saw just how powerful the Goddess of Immortal Lake was!

1358 Bring Rong Bingshao?

Lauren was able to kill the mutant Linus in an instant and even send him flying into the sky with a palm strike. She treated the thick wall like cardboard. Lauren's strength was unquestionable.

If Jordan and the Moon Maiden were existences that could completely crush these low-level mutants, then the current Lauren was simply in another dimension. This was an otherworldly force that could not be fought at all.

Looking at Linus's corpse, everyone else was afraid.

"Goddess Lauren, we've never doubted you. Please don't kill us!"

"If you want to take away our abilities, just do it at any time. We won't dare to resist!"

"That's right, that's right. Our abilities originated from you. It's only right that we return them to you."

Lauren looked at these low-level mutants and said, "I'll give you seven more days to remain mutants. After seven days, I'll take away your abilities."

When they heard that there were still seven days left, these low-level mutants were all excited.

"Thank you, Goddess Lauren! Then we won't disturb you anymore. In seven days, we will go to the Immortal Lake ourselves and wait for Goddess Lauren. Goodbye!"

"Goddess Lauren, we'll leave first!"

This group of low-level mutants all got up and quickly left the hospital.

To them, there were only seven days left to be mutants. They did not want to waste any more time. They wanted to enjoy the joy and glory of being a mutant.

Salvatore slowly walked to Jordan's side and whispered, "Mr. Jordan, I think these mutants will definitely use their supernatural abilities to cause trouble in the next seven days. Should we be on guard against them raping girls?"

Jordan did not want innocent ordinary people to be killed either. He said to Salvatore, "Okay, go and deal with it."

Salvatore said, "Alright, I'm good at dealing with scum! I don't need to guess what they want to do next, haha."

Salvatore smiled and prepared to leave to follow these low-level mutants. If they dared to mess around in the country, he could join forces with Lionel and the others to bring these people to justice.

When Salvatore left, he saw that Rong Bingshao was still kneeling on the ground and did not leave. He teased, "You can't get up, right? You only have seven days to be the Flash. Aren't you going to show off?"

Seeing Salvatore's relaxed mood, Rong Bingshao asked seriously, "You only have seven days left. After seven days, you will become an ordinary person. Don't you care at all? Your Hell's Hand is also a very powerful ability!"

Salvatore chuckled and whispered to Rong Bingshao, "Tsk, how can I be the same as you? Goddess Lauren is one of us. She's Mr. Jordan's wife and I've served her for two years. I won't have any abilities in the future. Hahaha, you brat, you regret betraying me now, right?"

Salvatore was relaxed because he felt that he had a good relationship with Lauren.

However, Rong Bingshao scoffed coldly in disdain, "Idiot. Goddess Lauren is the Goddess of the Immortal Lake and a being from another world. How can she still be married to Jordan? How naive!"

Salvatore retorted, "What do you know? They're husband and wife and already married and have children. How can they be separated! I'm not talking to you anymore. Go regret it, haha."

Salvatore left quickly. Dragon glanced at Jordan and Lauren. The two of them were very far away. Their bodies and eyes did not communicate, as if they were strangers.

“Are they really going to be separated?”

Dragon also had doubts.

At this moment, the Moon Maiden received a request from Rong Bingshao. During this period of time, Rong Bingshao had served the Moon Maiden very well. The Moon Maiden was not a cold-blooded person.

Hence, the Moon Maiden knelt to Lauren again. “Master, I have another request.”

Lauren looked at the Moon Maiden. “Tell me.”

The Moon Maiden pulled Rong Bingshao in front of her and said, “He is Rong Bingshao, a black mutant with godly speed. His identity and talent are not bad, and he is very young. He is only 18 years old, and his future is limitless. Master, can you bring him along?”

At this moment, Rong Bingshao also knelt down to Lauren. “Goddess Lauren, please accept me. I am willing to do anything for you. If one day, I can achieve something, I will definitely not forget your kindness!”

When Victoria saw the Moon Maiden recommending Rong Bingshao, she was very angry because Rong Bingshao had tried to rape her. Victoria didn’t even have time to kill him, so how could she watch him go to another world to cultivate?

Victoria said, “Moon Maiden, Rong Bingshao is just a black mutant. What right does he have to go to the alternate world with us? Just now, Goddess Lauren also said that only those who have reached gold are qualified to cultivate in the alternate world. He is not worthy!”

Hearing this, the Moon Maiden spoke to Victoria. "Victoria, likewise you are only a purple mutant. We helped you achieve your golden color. If you want to say this, then you also are not worthy."

"You..."

At this moment, Lauren said, "Alright, stop arguing. Actually, the talent test I set for you at Immortal Lake doesn't completely represent your qualifications to cultivate. In my world, there are many types of cultivation. Even those like me who don't have enough talent can use external methods to improve. It doesn't matter if you're gold or not."

If those low-level mutants had not left earlier, they would definitely vomit blood from anger when they heard this.

Didn't you just say that those below the golden level would be courting death if they went to the alternate world? It turned out that it didn't matter if one was gold now. It was just to scare them away.

Lauren glanced at Rong Bingshao and asked with a smile, "Rong Bingshao, do you remember that you kidnapped me before?"

Rong Bingshao broke out in a cold sweat and his body trembled. He regretted kidnapping Lauren in order to deal with Jordan that time. He even almost wanted to take advantage of Lauren!

Fortunately, Rong Bingshao was still a gentleman. When he tied Lauren up that time, he didn't do anything to her. Otherwise, how could he still breathe now?!

When Victoria heard this, she smiled. She felt that it was good enough that Lauren didn't kill Rong Bingshao. How could she agree to let him go with her?

Rong Bingshao could not speak properly. "Did... did I? I... I don't remember."

Lauren smiled. "Although I'm no longer the Lauren of the past, the memories of the past twenty years are still there. Rong Bingshao, although you kidnapped me that time, you were still polite to me. If you had tried to do something like what you did to Victoria, you would be dead now.”

Rong Bingshao immediately threw himself to his knees. “I was wrong, Goddess Lauren! I only have respect for you. I would never dare to offend you! I wanted to force Jordan out at that time. Please forgive me!”

When the Moon Maiden heard this, she slapped Rong Bingshao in the face. “You lawless brat! How dare you kidnap Master? You’re courting death! I’ll discipline you on behalf of Master!”

The Moon Maiden raised her palm and was about to attack Rong Bingshao.

1359 I’m Not Taking You Away!

From the ceiling that Lauren had broken earlier, it could be seen that the Moon Maiden really used the power of lightning.

However, in the next second, Lauren made a move and easily erased the lightning that had yet to fall.

Seeing this scene, the few people present were also very surprised. Sure enough, all their superpowers came from Lauren. Lauren could easily deal with each of their superpowers.

“Master, what are you...”

The Moon Maiden was puzzled when she saw Lauren attack.

Lauren said calmly, “I can tell that you like Rong Bingshao very much. I won’t make you kill someone you like with your own hands. If you do this, I’ll think you’re a frightening person and wouldn’t want to bring you along.

“Moon Maiden, you’re the first golden mutant to obtain my ability. In the past ten years, you’ve sacrificed a lot to summon me. If it weren’t for you, I believe you wouldn’t have been able to gather five golden mutants in such a short period of time. You achieved it 20 years earlier than I expected, which is all due to your efforts.

“On account of your contribution, alright, I can take Rong Bingshao with me. However, I won’t let him cultivate with me. Whether he can achieve anything in my world depends on his own luck.”

When the Moon Maiden and Rong Bingshao heard this, they hurriedly bowed down excitedly.

“Thank you, Master!”

“Thank you, Goddess Lauren!”

Although Lauren didn’t plan to take Rong Bingshao with her and would let him fend for himself and survive on his own, Rong Bingshao wasn’t worried about this problem.

Crisis and opportunity often coexisted. Rong Bingshao might meet someone stronger than Lauren there. If he took that person as his master, his future might be brighter.

Rong Bingshao had just come of age and was full of confidence in himself and his future. If he was over thirty years old, he probably wouldn’t be as excited as he was now.

At this moment, seeing that a mere black-level Rong Bingshao could also go to the mysterious and dazzling new world, Victoria couldn’t help but speak again.

“Goddess Lauren, I also want to bring my sister with me. Perhaps she doesn’t have enough talent to become your disciple. You don’t have to teach her. You just have to let her live with me. I’ll raise her and slowly accumulate enough resources for her to become a cultivator.”

Victoria’s parents passed away early so she and her younger sister, Emily, had always been relying on each other. She treated her younger sister like her own daughter.

If Victoria left this world and Emily was alone on Earth, she would not be at ease. Instead, it would be better to let Emily follow her to the new world. Perhaps there would be opportunities for Emily there.

Lauren thought for a moment and said, "You haven't asked for your sister's opinion, right? Perhaps she doesn't necessarily want to leave this place. I'm not in a hurry to agree or reject you. You should ask Emily and let her think it through before coming to find me."

As Lauren and Victoria were sisters, Emily was considered family. Lauren knew Emily well. From her understanding of Emily, she had always been well protected by Victoria. She was very cute, but she wasn't as ambitious in many things as Victoria.

Emily might not dare to go to another world to cultivate. After all, cultivation was full of risks and unknowns.

"Yes, I will go look for her later and ask for her opinion," Victoria replied.

The Moon Maiden glanced at Victoria and asked Lauren, "Master, since you want to take back our abilities, shall we return them to you now?"

Mike Baylor also said, "Our abilities come from you. If you want to take back our abilities, we definitely won't have any objections. I believe that you will make us stronger in the alternate world!"

Lauren smiled. "That might not be the case. The abilities you have now, such as creating something out of nothing, the power of lightning, and controlling ferocious beasts, are top-notch abilities even in my world. You might not be able to cultivate them alone."

When Mike Baylor heard this, he panicked. "Then this..."

Lauren said, "I'll give you another week to share my top abilities. After a week, call the other mutants to the Immortal Lake. I will then take back all your abilities."

Moon Maiden replied. "Yes!"

Mike Baylor was also slow to reply. "Yes..."

Victoria also replied. "Yes."

Only Jordan did not speak.

Everyone looked at Jordan. They knew that Jordan was in the most difficult position. However, he had to face the current situation.

Should he accept Lauren taking away his ability? Should he follow Lauren to the other world? Should he change their original husband-and-wife relationship to a master-disciple relationship?

Jordan walked slowly towards Lauren. Looking at this familiar yet unfamiliar face, he said, "Lauren, I want to speak with you alone."

Lauren sighed and said to the Moon Maiden and the others, "Alright, you can all leave first."

After the Moon Maiden and the others responded, they stood up and left. When Victoria left, she kept looking back at Jordan and Lauren. She was eager to know what they were going to talk about next.

Initially, Jordan should be accompanying Lauren at this time. He should be holding Lauren's hand while holding the hands of their newborn child.

But now, everything had changed.

Jordan looked at Lauren. "Lauren..."

Jordan was about to speak when Lauren beat him to it. "I won't bring you to my world. I won't take back your ability. Take it as a gift from me. You're a person who keeps a low profile and doesn't abuse your powers. I believe you won't use my ability to ruin the Earth."

If the other mutants heard this, they would definitely be very happy. They would not have to give back their original abilities and could enjoy the honor of being the only mutant on Earth!

However, Jordan only felt sad when he heard what she said!

“What did you say? You’re not bringing me? You’re even bringing Victoria along. Why not me?”

Jordan did not understand why. It was not that he wanted to go to the alternate world to cultivate. He wanted to go to the alternate world because Lauren wanted to go there!

Lauren was Jordan’s wife. He wanted to be with his wife!

But now, Lauren wanted them to be separated!

Lauren did not look at Jordan when she spoke next.

“Your identity... it isn’t suitable for you to go back with me. If someone finds out that I married you on Earth and even had a child with you, you would be killed. I’m doing this for your own good. Besides, I’ve been your wife for the last few years. You wouldn’t be willing to kneel down and acknowledge me as your master, right?”

1360 You Are My One and Only!

Jordan could not help but feel cold when he heard Lauren say that to him.

Jordan said coldly, “Who are some people? Do you already have a husband in that world?”

Lauren replied seriously, “No, I don’t have a partner. In my 200 years, you are the first. However, I have some admirers over there... So it’s precisely because of this that they’ll be jealous and target you.”

It was only now that Jordan found out that Lauren had lived for 200 years. He thought that after cultivating for so long, she should have had many partners. He did not expect him to be her first man...

And he was the only one.

Hearing this, Jordan was very happy. He walked towards Lauren and took the initiative to hold her hand. "Lauren, I don't care who's jealous or targeting me. If you insist on leaving, I'll go with you!"

Jordan did not care how terrifying and dangerous the world of that high-level civilization was. He would dare to barge in!

However, Lauren shook off Jordan's hand and looked troubled. "Jordan, do I have to make it any clearer? We're done. We can't be like before anymore.

"Yes, we've been husband and wife for the past few years. I still remember it, but my memories of us and our relationship only accounted for 1% of my life so far. It cannot compare to my cultivation for the past 200 years.

"Furthermore, being husband and wife with you is what I did after becoming a mortal. In my complete form, it's impossible for me to like you and to be with you. We're from two different worlds. It's impossible for us to have a future. Do you understand?"

Lauren was determined to break up with Jordan. At that moment, Jordan's heart felt like it was being twisted by a knife! He would never have thought that Lauren, who had been willing to wait for him for so many years, would abandon him one day!

Jordan looked at Lauren and was about to break down. He held Lauren's hand again and said affectionately, "Lauren, you're my only one. My one and only. I can't live without you. I really can't live without you. Please don't be so heartless, okay? I know that you still love me. Our two years together can compare to two hundred years!"

However, Lauren ruthlessly shook off Jordan again and asked, "I'm your only one? Jordan, are you sure?"

A sliver of resentment was visible in Lauren's eyes as she looked at Jordan.

“Yes, after I married you, I married Lota. However, you know that Lota is just a little girl who has just come of age. It’s impossible for me to like her. I told you before that Lota almost died trying to save me. I married her out of gratitude.

“You know the situation after we got married even better. Lota was locked up in the castle by Shaun when she was young and isolated from the world. Now that she’s free, she plays with the children in the capital every day. She’s like a child. We’re like AM and FM. We’re on completely different channels.”

Although Lota was beautiful and looked perfect, she was still too young after all. She could not relate to Jordan in terms of thought.

Love was a fierce collision of body and mind at the same time. There could not be only one.

Lauren said, “I know you don’t love Lota. I’m not talking about her.”

Jordan fell silent. He knew that Lauren was referring to Victoria.

“Jordan, the woman you love the most isn’t me, but Victoria. I’m not your one and only at all, so there’s nothing for you to be sad about when we part.”

Jordan explained immediately, “No, Lauren. I love you the most. I admit that I loved Victoria, but there’s always a barrier between us. Moreover, we’re completely over. Now, you’re really my only one.”

Lauren shook her head. “I don’t think so. I remember very clearly what happened in the past two years. You married me to find out Victoria’s whereabouts, didn’t you?

“After that, you traveled through time and space for her. When Victoria died, the way you looked at me became cold. In the past, you were worried about her almost every day. Even though the two of you had already separated, you still paid attention to her and your uncle’s situation.

“You said that you love me the most. Let me ask you, how long have you been with me for the past two years? How long have you been with her? As husband and wife, how many times have you been intimate with me? How many times have you done it with her? Count it yourself and you’ll know who you love more.”

Lauren’s words made Jordan feel very guilty. However, when he heard Lauren blaming him and saw that she was jealous, Jordan felt very happy!

Only when someone cared about the relationship would they be jealous.

Lauren’s words proved that she still loved Jordan!

Jordan said, “I’m sorry, Lauren. I’ve indeed neglected you for the past two years. Victoria was in trouble, so I was busy with her matters. Give me another chance. I’ll accompany you every day from now on. I’ll accompany you no matter what you want to do.”

Lauren smiled. “Do you think of it like children who cry are the ones who have candy to eat? You don’t care about me because nothing usually happens to me. What about when something finally does? A while ago, I remember telling you that I was uneasy about the future. You had the ability to predict the future, right? You told me that you predicted my child’s situation and said that it went smoothly. Now it seems that you were lying to me! You didn’t predict my childbirth at all, or you wouldn’t be panicking like this!”

Jordan could not help but feel even more guilty when he thought of this. “At that time, I really wanted to try to predict your situation. However, something else happened and I delayed it. After that, my memories were chaotic. It was Mike Baylor and Victoria who returned to the past and did something to my memories. I thought I had already predicted it for you.

“Lauren, please believe me. I’ve always been concerned about you. I know you’re in a bad state and have been worried about giving birth, so I’ve been speeding up the process of summoning the goddess.

“In fact, I even drank the poison that Jiumo Kasyapa created to harm me, causing me to lose my deity ability. I did all of this to solve these things as soon as possible, and then return to the capital to be with you during the birth of our child. Lauren, I do love you...”

Lauren sighed and said, “Forget it. You don’t have to explain any more. I’m not blaming you. No matter what, it’s fate that we can become husband and wife. But now, the fate between us has come to an end.”

Lauren’s attitude was already very firm. It was not something that Jordan could salvage by pleading or doing anything. With this huge identity and worldly difference, there was very little that Jordan could do.

He had no idea what the world Lauren lived in was like, nor did he know what Lauren had experienced in the past 200 years.

Therefore, Jordan’s words would seem one-sided, childish, and pale in comparison.

Looking at Lauren’s cold face, a tear slid down Jordan’s face.
