

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1361 Abortion!

Jordan could not help but feel his heart ache when he recalled the scenes of their love in the past few years. He did not understand why every relationship he had did not end well.

First, he married into the Camdens and lived with Hailey for three years. However, he was betrayed by Hailey. After that, he got together with Victoria, who was ten years older than him. Although there was a difference in their ages, they were very happy together.

He had thought that they would make it to the end, but he did not expect that Shaun and Rong Bingshao's appearance would cause Victoria's life to change drastically. The relationship between the two of them gradually became impossible to repair.

As for Lauren, Jordan was originally the most confident that they would last because no matter what happened in the past, Lauren would never leave him.

In fact, before the Goddess of the Immortal Lake was summoned, Lauren had also decided to stay with him.

However, who would have thought that Lauren was from an alternate world? She had only come to Earth to do a mission. She had lived in an alternate world for 200 years and had unfathomable cultivation abilities. She was from a completely different world than Jordan.

The sudden change in status made the two people who were originally in love instantly no longer compatible.

Jordan was devastated, but he had his pride. He wiped the remaining tear and said, "Alright, you're a goddess from an advanced civilization with a heaven-defying cultivation base. I, Jordan, am just an insignificant mortal on Earth. I am no longer worthy of you. If you don't want to take me away and don't want to be husband and wife with me anymore, I accept it.

"But I have a few questions for you."

Lauren looked troubled when she saw Jordan's sad expression. It was obvious that she did not want to see him like this. She replied softly, "Yes."

Jordan asked first, "Where is our child? Before we came, Dragon told me that you were pushed into the operating theater and were already in labor. I don't know how the Summoning of the Goddess affected you and the child. Did the five-colored golden light appear after you gave birth? Where is our child now? I want to see him."

Since he could not keep his wife, Jordan did not want to beg Lauren humbly for the time being. He wanted to know what was going on with their baby.

The last time Lauren was pregnant with Chloe, Jordan did not know. However, this time, Lauren had been pregnant for ten months. From the beginning to today, Jordan had been waiting and looking forward to the birth of this baby.

However, Lauren said, "The child wasn't born."

Jordan was stunned. "You didn't give birth? What do you mean? You didn't give birth today? When will you give birth? Your stomach... looks like it doesn't have a fetus anymore."

Lauren paused for a moment and said coldly, "When you summoned me, I was indeed pushed into the operating theater, but I was brought to the hospital today not because of a stomach ache, but because of a headache. When I was lying in the operating theater, the five-colored golden light hit me. I was awakened and regained the memories of the past two hundred years. I also remembered who I was.

"After that, I used a mutant technique to abort the child in my stomach."

Abortion!

Jordan went crazy. “What did you say? You aborted our baby? Why did you do that?!”

Lauren said, “I’ve made it very clear. I’ve recovered all my memories. I’m from another world. In my world, I’m not married yet. I shouldn’t have had any children. Besides, I already have a child with you. I’ve already made a mistake. I cannot make another one.”

Jordan was furious. “A mistake? How dare you describe our love as a mistake! Chloe is our child! And our unborn baby. How could you be so heartless!”

Those words left Jordan extremely heartbroken. His child had been aborted by Lauren on her own!

What right did she have to make this decision on her own?!

Was the child not worthy of being born? Just because he was from Earth?

If it was a male god from Lauren’s world, would that have been enough?!

Lauren said, “You don’t understand my world, let alone understand what I am going to face upon my return. I’m already under a lot of pressure to take care of Chloe. I cannot have another child with you. This is a good thing for both you and me.”

Upon hearing that, Jordan suddenly asked, “What did you say? You’re taking Chloe away?”

Lauren said that she wanted to bring Chloe to her world, but she also said that she wouldn’t bring Jordan along. In other words, Jordan wouldn’t be able to see Chloe in the future!

Lauren nodded. “Yes, Chloe is my child after all. Although her aptitude isn’t outstanding enough, I’ll bring her back and give her a brand new world and life.”

Jordan had also become sensitive now. Lauren said that Chloe's aptitude was not outstanding enough. What she meant was that she had good aptitude, but Jordan's cultivation aptitude was not good enough, so Chloe was not good enough.

It was Jordan's bad genes as a father that dragged Chloe down!

Jordan was very angry. "First, you killed a child of mine. Now, you're taking my daughter away. Don't you think that's too much? Since you think that Chloe's potential is not good and that she's your child with a lowly Earthling, you shouldn't bring her along. You'll be mocked and lose face. Don't bring her along! Chloe and I will stay on Earth. I will take care of her!"

Lauren said, "Jordan, you said that you love me the most. I don't doubt you, but you really don't have the right to stand up and fight with me for Chloe's custody. Ever since Chloe was born, I have been the one taking care of her. We've relied on each other for four years. She's both my weakness and my armor. You have no idea what she means to me. I will be the one who takes care of Chloe!"

Lauren's words rendered Jordan speechless. In terms of raising children, Jordan was indeed inferior to Lauren because in the past few years, Jordan had no idea that he had a daughter.

As for Chloe, she obviously preferred to be with her mother.

Jordan was silent for a moment before asking, "What about your parents and the Howards? Are you going to take them all away?"

Lauren shook her head. "Strictly speaking, they're not my family. After I came to Earth and chose to become a mortal, I specially chose to be the daughters of Stefan and Marissa. They're my targets, not my real parents. Of course, the Howards have taken good care of me for the past 20 years. When I leave, I'll give them some benefits.

"After I was awakened just now, they were all in the hospital. I didn't have time to explain much to them before I blew them away. If you see them, help me explain.

“Is there anything else? If not, I want to be alone. I’ve been a mortal for more than 20 years, and my ability is greatly reduced compared to before. I need to cultivate for a few days without being disturbed.”

1362 Leaving

Like that, Lauren asked Jordan to leave. In fact, ever since Lauren became the goddess of the Immortal Lake, every conversation between the two of them was filled with awkwardness.

Jordan nodded. “Alright, if you need a quiet place to cultivate, you can return to the villa we stayed in before. That place is the most private and suitable place for cultivation in the capital. It’s better than here.

“I’ll go back now, pack up my things and take them away. I bought that villa for you. Since we’re separated now, we’ll treat it as a separation of assets. I’ll give you the house. Women like to ask for a house after a divorce. Of course, I know you don’t lack anything.”

Listening to Jordan’s words, Lauren felt a little sad, as if she was recalling more of their time together.

Jordan did not say anything else and turned to leave.

Looking at Jordan’s lonely back, Lauren could not help but sigh and call out Jordan’s name.

Jordan met Victoria as soon as he walked out of the hospital. It turned out that Victoria had not left. She had been waiting for Jordan at the door.

Seeing Jordan walk out sadly, Victoria quickly went forward and asked, “Jordan, how was your conversation with Lauren? Are you still husband and wife? Or have you become her disciple?”

Victoria wanted to know the relationship between Jordan and Lauren.

If Jordan and Lauren were still husband and wife and Victoria was Lauren's disciple, Jordan would become her master. It was a little hard to accept that the former lovers had become master and disciple.

Jordan shook his head. "Neither. We're nothing now. We have nothing to do with each other."

Victoria was very puzzled. "Is Lauren really going to separate from you? Actually, I could tell from her cold expression just now that Lauren is a goddess from another world. She has cultivated for 200 years and might already have a partner there. You were just someone she met by chance on a mission.

"Perhaps you think these few years are long for you, but for cultivators like them who have cultivated for hundreds of years, a few years is equivalent to a day for us Earthlings."

Jordan smiled. "Are you saying that my relationship with Lauren over the past few years is equivalent to a one-night stand here?"

Victoria said, "Although her words are harsh, in her eyes, perhaps it's really just a one-night stand. Jordan, don't be too sad. You're a person with ambition. No matter where you are, you're destined to succeed. I believe that with your talent and ability, it won't be long before you rule the other world. After you succeed, Lauren might return to your side. You should have confidence in yourself.

"Besides, Lauren is your wife. It's not embarrassing to kneel down to your wife and acknowledge her as your master, right?"

Victoria thought that Jordan had knelt down to Lauren to acknowledge her as his master.

However, Jordan shook his head. "She doesn't plan to take me away. I won't have the chance to go to the Alternate World with her, nor will I have the chance to prove myself in that world."

Jordan was also a very confident person. He could turn the Steeles from the lowest-ranking family among the eight great families to the strongest family. He could become the strongest among the mutants. He was also confident that he could become an overlord in that cultivation world!

However, Lauren did not give Jordan a chance!

Victoria was stunned. "What? She won't bring you along? How is that possible? She was willing to bring me along and even Rong Bingshao, so how can she not bring you along?"

Jordan shook his head and said, "I don't know either. Maybe it's really as you said. She has a man there, so she doesn't want to bring me there."

After saying that, Jordan walked away without looking back.

Victoria looked at Jordan and suddenly felt that being too close to Lauren might not be a good thing.

After walking a few meters out of the hospital, Jordan was suddenly stopped by another familiar person.

It was Lionel.

Lionel was wearing a suit and had a serious expression. "Mr. Steele, can we have a chat in the car?"

Jordan said, "I'm not in the mood now. Look for me tomorrow."

Lionel said, "Mr. Steele, it's an emergency. Please understand. It won't take up too much of your time."

Jordan thought about it and followed Lionel into a black SUV at the side.

Jordan sat down in the back seat of the car. He thought that there would be someone else sitting in the car, but there was no one. However, there must be some remote equipment installed in the car.

After getting into the car, Lionel said, "Mr. Steele, this matter has really blown up. Although we tried our best to stop the five-colored golden light, it has still spread abroad. Now, all the governments, including the United States, Britain, Japan, Korea, and so on, are asking us to explain this situation. They are asking if we are privately developing some terrifying new weapon.

“The problem is that we don’t know where the five-colored golden light came from. Mr. Steele, you must have understood the ins and outs of the matter. Can you tell us?”

There were only Lionel and Jordan in the car, but Lionel had used a voice recorder. Jordan knew that many people could hear what he was saying now.

Jordan sighed and said, “This is very complicated. I really don’t know how to begin.”

Lionel said, “Did Miss Lauren do it?”

Jordan looked at Lionel, “Have you guessed it?”

Lionel said, “We asked the Howards and they told us about the situation in the hospital. Miss Lauren suddenly underwent a huge change. The Howards said that she seemed to have been possessed by someone and became another person. Is she the strongest mutant now? Is she a golden mutant? Is she a mutant stronger than a golden mutant?”

Jordan explained, “No, she’s not a mutant. She’s much stronger than us. The abilities of us mutants all come from her.”

Lionel was very surprised. “What? All the mutants’ abilities come from Miss Lauren? Then where did her abilities come from? From whom?”

Jordan shook his head. “I don’t know either.”

Lionel smiled awkwardly. “You’re Miss Lauren’s husband. Others might not know, but how can you not know?”

Jordan said, “No, I’m no longer Lauren’s husband. I’m... not worthy of her anymore.”

Lionel hesitated. “Mr. Steele...”

When Lionel saw Jordan come out just now, he looked very lonely. It turned out that Jordan had just been abandoned by Lauren!

Jordan said coldly, "I've told you everything I know. Contact me if you need anything else."

As he spoke, Jordan opened the car door and got out.

Then he got Dragon to drive him to the villa. This was his and Lauren's home.

Inside and outside the villa, it was still the same as before. As soon as Jordan entered, the nanny went forward and welcomed him with a smile, "Mr. Steele is back. How is Mrs. Steele? Did she give birth to a young lady or a young master? Are the mother and child well?"

1363 Meeting the Howards!

The nanny's question made Jordan's heart ache. Initially, Jordan wanted to hold Lauren's hand and bring their newborn baby back to their house.

However, Jordan was the only one who came back now. Moreover, Jordan was here to pack his things.

Jordan said, "Auntie, pack my things. I'm moving out of here."

When the nanny heard this, she was immediately shocked. "Oh, Mr. Steele, did you quarrel with Mrs. Steele? Mrs. Steele is such a good person. She's the best wife I've ever seen. Actually, it doesn't matter if you quarrel. Which couple doesn't quarrel? As long as you coax Mrs. Steele, I guarantee that she'll be soft-hearted and will definitely forgive you."

Jordan did not explain anything to the nanny. "Pack up. You and the others should move out too. Lauren... needs a quiet environment."

The nanny did not say much when she heard what Jordan said. "Alright, I'll help you pack up. Please take your valuables and personal items yourself. I'm afraid of breaking them."

Jordan nodded and walked to his and Lauren's room. Just as he pushed open the door and saw the familiar room, the scenes of the two of them in this room in the past appeared in front of him...

"Hahaha... Annoying, I don't want it anymore."

"Honey, I'll be shy if you do this."

"Honey, I love you."

"Honey, you're not leaving me, are you?"

"Have you given our baby a name? This time, you have to take care of the baby the entire time. You can teach the piano or whatever, okay? We won't hire a teacher anymore."

Jordan stood in front of the door in a daze. Lauren's laughter kept ringing in his ears. All he could see was the blissful scene of the two of them fooling around in this room.

It turned out that it was so uncomfortable to go to a place where the two of them shared memories after breaking up. This was the first time Jordan felt this way.

Jordan took some of his spare phones and documents from the room and went to the washroom.

The moment he saw the bathtub in the washroom, Jordan suddenly remembered that when he first entered the capital, he had taken a shower in Lauren's courtyard house. Lauren's maid had said that Lauren often missed him while taking a bath and listening to "Love Is Simple"...

The piano prelude to "Love Is Simple" sounded again. Jordan could not help but play the song again. He sat beside the bathtub and recalled the first time he fell in love with Lauren. He remembered how Lauren looked when she listened to the song and fell in love with this infatuated woman.

"Once upon a time, I was her one and only. I was the most perfect man in her life..."

In the twenty years that Lauren was a mortal, Jordan was the only man she liked. In today's society, it was rare for Lauren to only like one man for more than twenty years with her looks and social circle.

Jordan felt that the two of them were fated.

After that, Jordan went to Lauren's wardrobe and took out all the clothes in her wardrobe because he knew that Lauren would not be wearing them anymore.

Subsequently, Jordan waved his right hand and the wardrobe was filled with clothes again. These new clothes were all long dresses that were filled with a goddess-like aura. They were white, red, and blue.

Jordan had changed these clothes according to Lauren's favorite style.

This was the last gift Jordan could give Lauren.

At this moment, someone suddenly barged in.

"Jordan, are you there?"

It was Brad.

Jordan closed the closet door and walked out of the room. He saw Brad. "Why are you here?"

Brad was also very agitated. "What's wrong with my sister? I heard from my mother just now that she doesn't even recognize her parents and even chased them away. Where is she now? I want to see her."

Jordan looked at the agitated Brad and thought about it. Although he and Lauren were in love and determined to be each other's only, they had only known each other for a few years.

As for Lauren and her family, they had lived together for more than twenty years. Their feelings were deeper than his, and it was even harder for them to accept the current situation.

Jordan said, "You drove here, right? Take me to your house."

Brad left with Jordan. Before they left, Jordan instructed the nanny to prepare Lauren's favorite dishes every night and place them at the door.

If the food had been touched, she had to tell him immediately. Although Jordan had been abandoned by Lauren unilaterally, he still treated her as his wife.

Twenty minutes later, Jordan arrived at the Howards' residence.

Everyone from the Howards was present, including Martin, Stefan, Marissa, and so on.

Seeing Jordan coming over, Marissa was the first to rush forward. She grabbed Jordan's hand emotionally, "Son-in-law, you're finally back. Have you seen Lauren? What's wrong with her? Is there something wrong with her brain? Didn't you get a doctor to take a look at her?"

Stefan also walked forward and said, "Jordan, how did Lauren become a mutant? Didn't you test her mutant talent? Didn't she not have any talent?"

"Just now, we were all in the hospital, waiting for the results at the entrance of the operating theater. We thought that something would happen to Lauren's body, but we didn't expect that after a golden light shot over, Lauren's entire body was enveloped by the golden light and she also changed into another appearance.

"We were worried that something would happen to her, so we ran in to see her. However, when she saw us, she treated us like strangers. We even saw her casually wave her hand and throw us all out."

Marissa also said, "That's right, that's right. We all flew out of the hospital. I was so frightened. I was afraid and thought I was on a plane. Tell me, this child threw us out like this. What if something happens?"

Jordan looked at Marissa and Stefan's physical condition. Both of them were clearly safe and sound.

Lauren had clearly used the appropriate strength when she flew them out. She wouldn't let them be injured when they landed.

To be honest, even Jordan could not have such control.

At this moment, Martin walked over with a serious expression. "Jordan, this is no small matter. It has already evolved into an international problem and Earth's safety. It also concerns the safety of my granddaughter, Lauren. Can you tell us everything you know?"

Jordan nodded. "Yes, I'm here to tell you the truth. In fact, I just found out the truth. I haven't... digested it yet. You're all Lauren's family, and you've accompanied and raised her for more than twenty years. You have reason to know the ins and outs of all this."

Therefore, Jordan told the Howards about Lauren, the mutants, and the Immortal Lake.

The Howards had heard of the Immortal Lake and the Mutant Tribe before, but they did not know everything. After hearing this, they were extremely shocked.

Everyone in the Howards had solemn expressions, except for Brad, who was overjoyed.

1364 The Howard Family's Disappointment!

Brad laughed out loud. "Hahaha, my sister is actually a goddess who has cultivated in another world for more than 200 years! Does that mean that I can also become a cultivator?"

"Dad, Mom, let's go with Sis to her world to cultivate! It's too boring to be an ordinary person on Earth. You only have a hundred years to live, and you'll be old after dozens of years. You might be able to live forever in the alternate world! Moreover, you can fly over roofs and walk on walls. All kinds of cultivation magic are much more interesting than staying on Earth!"

Brad was relatively young. In addition, he was also a soldier and a martial artist. He yearned and looked forward to cultivating on foreign planets.

However, Marissa reminded him cautiously, "Son, don't think so highly of this alien planet. We haven't been there before. Who knows what it is like there! You still have to ask your sister what level her strength is in the other world and what her family status is like. If her status is the same as ours in the capital, you can consider going over.

"Moreover, what if she's the worst in the cultivation world and any one of them is better than her? If she can't protect us even if we go there, then we can't go."

The older generation preferred a secure life, especially people like them, who were used to power and influence. They would feel very insecure in unfamiliar and insecure places.

Brad laughed out loud. "Mom, don't worry. To be able to come to Earth from another planet for a mission, she's definitely not an ordinary person. Just like how those who can travel abroad are the richest people in the country. I bet that Sis is one of the top experts in that cultivation world, right, Jordan?"

Jordan said, "I'm not sure. However, I know that Lauren won't take anyone from the Howards away."

Upon hearing that, Brad became angry. "Jordan, what do you mean? My sister is family. She lived in the Howards for more than twenty years. If she wants to leave, why can't she bring me along?"

Marissa added, "Jordan, is it because you don't want to bring us along? You can't be so selfish. Do you only want to bring the people from the Steeles and not us? That won't do. Your abilities were given to you by Lauren. It's not up to you to decide. We have to follow my daughter to the alternate world to cultivate!"

Stefan rolled his eyes at Marissa. "How old are you? Why do you still want to cultivate? Besides, Lauren didn't say that her world is a cultivation world. Jordan is not a selfish person. Listen to what he has to say.”

Jordan nodded at Stefan. He was a more rational person. Jordan explained, “Lauren won’t bring you to the alternate world. These are her words. She said that being a member of the Howards and your daughter was her choice back then. She has parents in the alternate world and won’t treat you as real parents.

“Of course, she’s still sentimental. She said that after living in the Howard family for more than 20 years, she’ll give you some benefits before she leaves.”

Marissa was a little angry and became agitated. “How can Lauren be like this? I raised her back then. Have I not worried about her all these years? I don’t care which planet she’s from. She’s my daughter! How can this child just leave us...”

At the end, Marissa felt a lump in her throat and tears welled up in her eyes.

The daughter she had raised for so many years suddenly wanted to leave her. She even said that she was not her daughter. No mother could stand this.

When Jordan saw this scene, he initially thought that it would be a little heartless of Lauren not to take the Howards away. Now, he understood why she did this.

The Howards treated Lauren too well. Stefan and Marissa treated her as their daughter, and Brad treated her as his sister. But in fact, to the current Lauren, Stefan, Marissa, and Brad were not her family.

Twenty years of being a mortal for an alien was like an actor who had been filming for a few months. In the drama, she had her parents and brother, but after filming, she had to return to her life. She could not treat her parents in the drama as real parents.

It didn't matter if they were just friends. If they were good friends in the movie, they could also develop into good friends in reality.

This was why Lauren was willing to take care of Victoria and not the Howards and Jordan.

It was only at this moment that Jordan came to a realization. However, Martin immediately understood what Lauren meant.

Martin sighed and said, "Alright, stop crying. Lauren is not heartless, nor has she forgotten how well our Howards treat her. She just doesn't know how to face us. Is she really going to acknowledge us as family? She already has a family in the alternate world. What will we say when we go there and see her real grandfather, parents, siblings as mortals?"

"If she's really someone with a very high status over there, as Earthlings from a low-level civilization, wouldn't it be embarrassing for us to be her grandfather and parents over there?"

Jordan looked at Martin and nodded. "Mr. Howard is right. I also think that Lauren is not a heartless person. She still has you in her heart, but she doesn't seem to know how to face the current situation."

Stefan's eyes were also filled with tears as he walked toward Jordan and said, "Jordan, we can't go to the Alternate World. As a father, I no longer have the right to protect my daughter. From now on, Lauren will be completely in your hands. Although she's far stronger than you, you have to care for her and protect her as much as possible. Can you do that?"

Jordan said, "I'm sorry. I can't do it."

Jordan's words made the Howards very unhappy.

Brad said, "Jordan, are you still a man? Shouldn't you be protecting your wife? We know that you're not capable, but you can cultivate slowly. How can a man's cultivation path not be better than a woman's? Don't you even have this bit of confidence?"

Jordan said, "I want to go to the alternate world to protect Lauren too, but she refused to bring me along."

Everyone in the Howards was shocked. "What? Lauren doesn't even want to bring you along?"

The Howards never expected Lauren to not even bring her beloved Jordan along. Lauren had already given birth to a child for Jordan.

Marissa said, "Why is Lauren like this? She doesn't even want to acknowledge her parents or her husband. What about Chloe? What about her newborn child? Will she not acknowledge them either?"

"Chloe will be taken away. Our other baby was not born successfully..."

Jordan decided not to tell them that Lauren had personally aborted the baby.

1365 Kill Lauren?

When the Howards heard this, they found it hard to accept. Their hearts ached.

After all, they still treated Lauren as their child. Moreover, Jordan had married Lauren and was their son-in-law. Lauren's child was equivalent to the Howard family's child. They were also very sad that their child was gone just like that.

While the others were crying sadly, Martin sighed and said to Jordan, "Jordan, come and sit down. I have something to discuss with you."

Seeing Martin's solemn expression, Jordan knew that he had something bigger to worry about.

After Jordan sat down, Martin sat beside him and said to him, "Jordan, the country is very concerned about Lauren's matter and takes it very seriously. In the past, we were very close to the Steeles. You've always provided the country with the most advanced technology. Even if Victoria and the mutants appear, we believe that you can handle it well and trust you completely.

“But the situation has changed. Lauren has become a person from another world. Even your abilities come from her. The government is extremely worried about this. We’re worried about the safety of the entire country and even the entire Earth.”

Jordan noticed that there was something black on Martin’s ear. It should be something like a listening device. It seemed that someone was listening to Jordan and Martin’s conversation on the other side.

Jordan did not say anything and let Martin continue.

Martin said, “Lauren’s identity is too special. If she’s really from another world, then it’s very likely that she has already exposed the coordinates of our Earth. Our Earth is in danger of being destroyed by advanced civilizations at any time. In addition, Lauren is too capable and she’s in the capital now. Whether she’s friend or foe, we don’t dare to jump to conclusions. We’re also very worried about this.

“We’ve already sent someone to contact Lauren. We hope that she can accept our invitation and meet the top experts to discuss in detail so that we can understand her world. Perhaps this is an opportunity for our Earth. Perhaps our Earth can also be upgraded, and our country will be the first country to enjoy the benefits of a favorable position. From then on, we can be ahead of other countries!”

Jordan nodded. “Your idea shows foresight. The current Lauren is no longer the Lauren of the past. The Lauren of the past twenty years is still in her memories, but that’s not the complete her. She’s... not easy to approach now. She’s very cold to me. Have you ever thought about what you would do if Lauren ignored you?”

Martin paused for a moment and replied, “If Ms. Lauren insists on not coming into contact with us, we will treat Ms. Lauren as the highest threat on Earth. We will use all means to subdue Ms. Lauren!”

Martin called his granddaughter Ms. Lauren, and his eyes were already a little cold!

Jordan could tell that they already wanted to kill her! Jordan immediately became nervous.

“Are you planning to kill Lauren? She’s your granddaughter!”

...

The Steele Hospital.

The crowd nearby had long been dispersed. Not only the crowd nearby, but the entire capital was actually quickly dispersing.

High-speed rail, planes, and high-speed buses were constantly transporting passengers.

Some of them were being transported away, while others took the initiative to escape. Those who were smart knew that with such a phenomenon in the capital and so many mutants appearing, staying in the capital was definitely not a safe choice.

Of course, there were also many who had watched the news or live broadcasts. Those who wanted to come to the capital were either curious or came here to look for opportunities.

However, all of them were blocked. The roads to the capital were blocked, and flights and high-speed rail were all stopped.

Now, a large number of people were leaving the capital. No one wanted to go in.

At this moment, Lauren slowly walked out of the hospital. The afternoon sun shone on her beautiful face. Coupled with her fairy-like attire, her temperament was even more amazing.

Suddenly, Lionel ran forward. “Ms. Lauren, I’m Lionel. Do you still remember me?”

Lauren glanced at Lionel and knew who he was. "What's the matter?"

Lionel said, "Can you follow me somewhere? We have many important things to discuss with you!"

Lauren said coldly, "I don't have time. I won't go even if I did have the time."

Lionel hurriedly asked again, "Ms. Lauren! I know you're no longer the same as before, but in the past twenty years, as a girl from the capital, we've always maintained a good relationship with you. The situation now is complicated, and there are too many things we don't understand. If you don't want to meet, why don't you go to the National Space Administration first?"

Lionel sighed and said softly, "Do it."

Since Lauren didn't give them face, in order to take the initiative, they could only strike first.

Soon, dozens of people in special forces uniforms surrounded Lauren with guns in their hands.

The leader berated Lauren, "Woman in front, listen up. You've violated the rules of our Capital. Help us with the investigation immediately. Otherwise, we'll shoot!"

Lauren glanced at him and said calmly, "Guns? Where I come from, children don't even use guns."

Bang bang bang bang...

Bullets shot towards Lauren like raindrops.

The bullets from four directions hit Lauren at the same time. However, Lauren only spun and waved her hands and all the bullets returned the way they came.

“Arghh!”

With screams, the people who attacked Lauren were hit by the bullets they fired, and a few of them died on the spot!

Rumble rumble.

Lauren wanted to get up and fly away, but more than ten fighter jets flew over from the sky.

Without saying anything, a fighter jet fired a missile at Lauren!

BOOM!

The missile was very fast. After being launched, it directly detonated on the ground, causing sparks to fly everywhere. Under the raging flames, many soldiers on the ground walked to where Lauren was. They were searching for her corpse.

However, after searching the vicinity, they didn't see Lauren's body at all.

Of course, they didn't find Lauren either.

“Lauren is missing. Search the entire city for her immediately!”

At that moment, Lauren had already used her spatial teleportation ability to arrive at her and Jordan's house.

When she arrived at the villa, Lauren realized that there was no one else there. She looked at her white dress and realized that it was already dirty. She wanted to change.

Moving toward the closet in her bedroom, she raised a hand to open it. As soon as she did, she froze.

1366 Lauren's Difficulties!

Lauren originally thought that the clothes in the wardrobe were the modern clothes she usually wore. She planned to cultivate next. If she cultivated alone at home, it would be more comfortable to wear modern short clothes.

However, when she opened the wardrobe, she saw that it was filled with goddess-like robes. Moreover, Lauren had never seen or worn them before.

Lauren immediately guessed that Jordan had prepared them for her.

Jordan had just met Lauren. Seeing that Lauren had already changed her clothes and was no longer wearing modern clothes, he thought that Lauren would not like to wear modern clothes, so he created some clothes that matched her identity as a goddess.

Lauren’s right hand gently stroked the clothes Jordan had created for her. Jordan knew Lauren’s figure and size too well, so the clothes he had conjured fit her very well.

The size, color, and style were also liked by Lauren.

Jordan naturally understood Lauren’s taste!

Lauren looked at the dresses and felt a lump in her throat. She could not help but be touched by his actions.

After all, Jordan had just been abandoned by Lauren. If it were any other man, they might resent and even detest her given that she now had a noble status. It would be unjust for her to abandon their relationship after getting married.

However, Jordan was still willing to prepare these for Lauren.

Lauren muttered to herself, “Jordan, actually... I still love you. Compared to my experience of more than 200 years in the past few years, although it was short, it was the first time in my life that I felt such unforgettable feelings.

“However, please forgive me. I can’t take you away. I can’t bring you to my world. Otherwise, you will definitely be killed by Donovan Cross.”

At this point, Lauren thought of the man who terrified her.

Thinking of that man, Lauren stopped cultivating.

Once her recovery was complete and she began to leave Earth and return to her own world, she would have no choice but to face those troubles and worries again.

If possible, Lauren really hoped to live a few more years as a mortal and as Jordan’s wife. She wanted to enjoy herself happily for a few more years.

An hour later.

BOOM!

BOOM!

Outside the villa, Lionel’s men had already found Lauren and continued to attack her.

They had already used the most advanced weapons, but Lauren had built a barrier outside the villa. No matter what weapons they used, they couldn’t destroy the barrier at all.

At that moment, Jordan rushed over when he heard the news. He created something out of nothing on the spot and knocked down the fighter jets that were attacking the barrier above!

Jordan was furious. “Lionel, are you tired of living? How dare you attack Lauren? Lauren doesn’t care about you. If she’s angry, all of you will die!”

Lionel walked forward and said, “Mr. Steele, we had no choice. The situation no longer allows us to be optimistic about the future! We can’t expect someone from another planet to stand on our side and maintain friendly cooperation with us like you. Lauren is alone now, so we still have hope. If she calls a few more cultivators, we really won't be able to deal with them!"

"Who dares to touch my master!"

Rumble rumble.

Countless bolts of lightning struck the people, cars, and planes that Lionel had brought with him.

The sky changed color.

It was the Moon Maiden!

At the same time, Mike Baylor flew over on the Dragon Turtle and said to Lionel, "If you don't court death, you won't die. I understand your worries, but our master will leave Earth in a week. What you're doing is too stupid."

Soon, Victoria also flew over and saw the mess. "Why do you want to fight in the capital? Wouldn't it be easy to solve it if you called me over?"

With that, she immediately activated her mind control.

"Miss Victoria, no!"

Lionel knew what she wanted to do, but she didn't stop and quickly controlled all of them.

Countless bolts of lightning struck the people, cars, and planes that Lionel had brought with him.

Jordan looked at Victoria and said, "Thank you."

Jordan did not want the capital to become a battlefield either. He did not want either party to suffer losses because everyone was a good person.

Seeing that everyone was controlled by Victoria to leave this place and no longer disturbed Lauren's cultivation, Mike Baylor was a little jealous of Victoria's ability.

Subsequently, Mike Baylor looked at Jordan and asked, "Jordan, I heard that Master won't bring you to the alternate world to cultivate?"

The Moon Maiden was stunned for a moment. "Oh? There's actually such a thing? Why didn't Master want to bring you along? Are you unwilling to kneel down and acknowledge her as your master? Jordan, don't tell me you still treat Master as your wife whom you can order around as you please?"

Mike Baylor smiled and said, "Haha, it's not the first time Jordan has knelt to Master. He must have knelt a lot before when he was making babies. I'm guessing that Master still has a partner over there, so she can't bring him along.

"Jordan, you've really miscalculated this time. Do you think that being the closest to Master will get you something? Hehe, it's the opposite. In the future, we'll all become cultivation experts, while you can only slowly grow old on Earth. To be honest, I pity you a little. Since there's nothing else here, I'll leave first. Victoria, do you want to leave together?"

Victoria glanced at Mike Baylor with an awkward expression. "I... still have something to tell Jordan. You can leave first."

Mike Baylor and the Moon Maiden didn't say anything else. They stood up and left.

Jordan and Victoria stood facing each other. Jordan said, "It seems like you have a good relationship with Mike Baylor. You're going to travel together huh."

The Moon Maiden did not know that Jordan had not been chosen by Lauren, but Mike Baylor knew. Clearly, Victoria had told him.

Moreover, when Mike Baylor left just now, he even invited Victoria along. This was enough to prove that the two of them had established some sort of connection.

Victoria didn't plan on hiding anything and said, "I don't have any confidence in going to the other world to cultivate. I don't have a sense of security and don't know what will happen there. After all, I don't get along with Moon Maiden, and have established some sort of friendship with Mike Baylor, so I want to build a good relationship with him. When we get there, we can help each other if there's any trouble."

Jordan nodded. "I'm not surprised that the vice president would do this."

Victoria said, "Jordan, I have a favor to ask of you."

Jordan was curious. "What is it?"

Victoria replied. "I called Emily just now and she will be arriving in the capital soon. I will pick her up later. Can you come with me to meet her?"

1367 Convincing Emily!

Jordan was stunned and immediately felt a little awkward. After all, Victoria already knew that he had slept with Emily.

"You want me to go with you to see her? I don't think... that's necessary, right?"

Previously, Victoria was still very angry. Jordan and Emily had secretly slept together. She probably did not want the two of them to meet again. However, Victoria had taken the initiative to let Jordan and Emily meet.

Victoria sighed. "Emily has been well taken care of by me for the past twenty years and hasn't experienced any hardships. She has been living a peaceful life with no worries and no ambitions. I'm worried that if I ask her to cultivate with me in the alternate world this time, she will be timid and unwilling to come with me."

The cultivation world must be full of risks. It was likely that Emily would be afraid of a world like that.

Jordan said, “Oh, I understand. You’re worried about being separated from Emily, right? Actually, the two of you have always relied on each other. You should live in the same world.”

Victoria said, “Jordan, help me persuade her to come with me. I have the ability and confidence to protect her there. However, if she really doesn’t want to leave, I hope you can marry her and take care of her on Earth for the rest of her life. Is that okay?”

Jordan was stunned when he heard that. “You... What are you talking about? You want me to marry Emily? She’s your sister! Besides, I only have Lauren in my heart. She’s my wife. I won’t marry another woman.”

Victoria said, “You know that Emily has always liked you. Both of us like you very much. If she were to follow you, I would be at ease. Moreover, your relationship with Goddess Lauren is no longer the same as before. You don’t have a wife now, except for Lota.”

Jordan said angrily, “My wife will always be Lauren. There’s no one else. Lota is not the woman I love deeply. I only married her because I was grateful. I regret what I did back then. I know Emily likes me, but I won’t marry someone I don’t love again because I’m grateful or for whatever other reason.

“However, I do have to be responsible for Emily’s decision. Alright, I’ll go with you to see her and try to convince her to go to the alternate world with you to cultivate.”

A few hours later, Victoria sent someone to the airport to pick up Emily and arranged for them to meet in a suite at the nearby JW Hotel.

At that moment, Jordan was also in the suite. However, he did not show up first.

Emily put down her backpack. She still looked youthful, cute, and carefree. A bright smile appeared on her face as she let out a melodious laugh.

“Haha, Sis, you really have a way. My friends can’t even afford the tickets and high-speed rail in the capital, but I can actually buy them. Moreover, I’m the only one on the entire plane. How did you manage it?”

Victoria placed her hand on Emily’s back and smiled. “Don’t make a fuss over such a small matter. If you knew our next plan, you would think that this is child’s play.”

Emily sat on the sofa and asked curiously, “What’s next? What’s the plan? Oh right, tell me first. What’s with the five-colored golden light in the capital? Was it caused by Jordan?”

It was then that Victoria told Emily everything about the five-colored golden light and the Mutant Tribe. Then, she said to Emily, “Emily, Goddess Lauren has already taken me in as her disciple. I want to bring you to another world to cultivate.”

When Emily heard this, she was shocked.

“Jordan’s wife, Lauren, has become a goddess from another world? Are you and Jordan leaving Earth?”

Victoria said, “Jordan won’t leave. Goddess Lauren and Jordan are no longer husband and wife.”

Emily was shocked. “Huh? Why won’t Lauren bring Jordan along? Did they separate? Is it because Lauren became a goddess and doesn’t like Jordan anymore?”

Victoria didn’t know how to explain. “Maybe.”

Emily thought about it and said, “Then I won’t leave either. I don’t want to go to an alternate world to cultivate. I don’t have the qualifications to cultivate, and I’m not as talented as you. Sis, since Jordan isn’t leaving,

I'll stay too. He doesn't have a wife now. Maybe he'll marry me in the future, hehe."

As expected, Emily still liked Jordan and fantasized about being with him. Previously, Jordan had Lauren and Victoria. It was indeed unrealistic for Jordan to marry Victoria's sister..

However, now that Lauren and Victoria were leaving and wouldn't be on the same planet as Jordan, Emily naturally had a better chance.

Victoria shook her head and tapped Emily's forehead with her finger. "I knew you were still thinking about Jordan. Jordan won't marry you. Have a chat with him."

As she spoke, Victoria called Jordan out.

"Ah! Jordan, you're here too!"

Emily stood up in fear when she saw Jordan suddenly appear. She was even a little shy. She had just said that Jordan would marry her if he did not have a wife.

Victoria looked at Jordan, "Jordan, talk to her. I'm going out for a while."

Jordan nodded.

"Jordan..."

Emily looked at Jordan in embarrassment.

Jordan walked to Emily and sat down beside her. He said, "Emily, I know you like me, but the only woman I love is Lauren. Although she and I... have separated now, my love for her has not decreased at all. It's impossible for me to marry another woman. Actually, Lota and I have already decided to separate."

Emily was stunned. "Huh? Jordan, why are you still so infatuated? She doesn't want you anymore. Why do you still like her? If she likes you, she'll definitely take you away."

Jordan said, "I can feel that Lauren still has feelings for me. She must have her difficulties. Emily, if you're afraid of that unknown world and have no interest in cultivation, you can stay on Earth. If anything happens, I'll help you and take care of your safety. But I can tell you very clearly that I definitely won't marry you.

"If you're also interested in cultivation, I suggest you leave with your sister. This isn't an opportunity that anyone can have access to. This spot is something countless people can't exchange for even if they pay any price."

Emily thought for a while. Seeing that Jordan and Lauren's relationship was so deep, she did not say anything else. "Alright, Jordan. Since I can't marry the person I want to marry the most on Earth, I'll leave with my sister."

Jordan nodded in relief. He had finally convinced her.

However, at that moment, Emily placed her slightly cold hand on Jordan's.

1368 Jamie Is Here!

When Emily reached out to him, Jordan was shocked.

What was Emily doing?

Emily held Jordan's hand and said, "Jordan, come with us! Since you love Lauren the most, you're unwilling to marry any other woman. She's already gone to the alternate world. Why are you still staying on Earth? I've only heard of long-distance relationships, but I've never heard of a relationship across alternate worlds. Wouldn't that be very painful for you?"

In the past, Jordan gave Emily a strong sense of security. Although Victoria would be taking care of her when she goes to the alternate world this time, Emily hoped that Jordan would be there too. After all, men could bring them more protection.

Jordan smiled bitterly and patted Emily's head. "Do you think I don't want to? I want to go to the alternate world with you guys too. Unfortunately, Lauren won't take me with her."

Emily hurriedly said, "Then beg her and coax her. No matter what, Lauren is still a woman. Immortal cultivators are also humans. They have seven emotions and six desires too. Jordan, don't blame me for nagging you. Sometimes, you're a little straightforward and don't know how to cajole girls. I usually wheedle with you and want you to coax and persuade me, but you never do these kinds of things. You just reply to me with very serious words."

"I guess you definitely didn't coax Lauren this time or beg her, right?"

Jordan did not expect Emily to guess correctly. He nodded. "Yes, I didn't beg her. After she became the Goddess of the Immortal Lake, she gave me a cold feeling that prevented me from getting close to her. How can I coax her? I have my own pride. She has a noble status, looks down on me and is unwilling to bring me to the alternate world, so I didn't say anything."

Emily said, "Sigh, I knew it! Jordan, you can't do this. If you do this, you definitely won't be able to go to the alternate world. Lauren is a goddess from another world after all. She's much more powerful and noble than us. It's normal for her to have such an attitude towards us. Don't be so arrogant. Beg her. I believe she'll bring you along on account of your pasts as husband and wife!"

"I'm guessing that Lauren must have come to Earth to escape when she encountered difficulties in her world. As her husband, shouldn't you help her resolve her problems? Although you don't have the ability now, you can take her as your master first. It's fine for a couple to kneel down to one another. We also knelt down to each other in the GL8..."

Emily blushed as she spoke.

She wasn't done with what she wanted to say, but was already too embarrassed to speak again.

Although Emily did not finish her sentence, Jordan already understood what she wanted to express.

Jordan nodded. “Emily, I understand what you mean. Thank you for reminding me. Previously, my pride made me focus on Lauren looking down on me. However, now, I’m starting to look at this problem from her perspective. Perhaps she has some difficulties too. No matter what, I should do my best to help her!”

Seeing that Jordan had regained his confidence, Emily leaned forward and took the initiative to kiss him. “Jordan, you’re such a good person. You’re still so good to your wife after breaking up. If Lauren doesn’t want you, it’ll be her loss!”

Shaking his head, Jordan reached out and messed up Emily’s hair on purpose. “Thank you for your comfort, little girl, but no more kissing me next time!”

The next day.

Jordan and his daughter, Chloe, were playing the piano in the Howards’ courtyard house.

[What love exists without saying.]

[What love can be understood at a glance.]

The two of them were playing Lovers in the Past Life that Jordan had played for Chloe previously.

Compared to the last time Chloe played, she had grown taller, her hands were bigger, and her appearance had changed a little. Her piano skills had also improved greatly.

“Daddy, why do you have time to play the piano with me today?”

After the song was over, Chloe looked at Jordan with a smile. Her feet were suspended in the air on the high bench, swinging back and forth. She looked adorable.

Jordan stroked Chloe's hair gently and said, "Daddy has time every day these next few days. I'll play the piano, draw, and play games with you every day, okay?"

Chloe immediately became happy. "Okay! Daddy, I love you!"

Ecstatic, Chloe burrowed into Jordan's arms happily. However, Jordan felt a lump in his throat and wanted to cry. If Lauren really brought Chloe to the alternate world, Jordan would definitely suffer if he were to never see Chloe again in this life.

Chloe suddenly said, "Daddy, let's go find Mommy. The three of us will play the piano and play games together. Can we play Who Is Undercover?"

Jordan said, "Chloe, Mommy is very busy now. Wait a few more days then she'll come and pick you up. At that time, she might take you to a very, very far place."

Chloe was excited. "Daddy, are we going on a trip? Yes, yes! Will Baby Brother come with us? When can I see him?"

Chloe's eyes were filled with anticipation. During Lauren's pregnancy, Lauren had been telling her that Chloe would have a younger brother soon.

However, Jordan's heart ached again when he heard that.

At this moment, Salvatore suddenly knocked on the door, "Sorry to disturb you, Mr. Jordan, Jamie is here to look for you."

Jordan frowned. "Jamie? Why is he here?"

Salvatore shook his head. "I don't know. Park Sora was also shocked. He shouldn't be here to look for her."

Chloe suddenly looked dejected. "Daddy, are you leaving again? You promised to accompany me for the next few days."

As she spoke, Chloe actually cried.

Jordan hugged Chloe. "Daddy won't leave. Daddy will never leave you. I'll never be separated from you."

When Salvatore saw that, he retreated from the room. He knew that Jordan would not separate from Chloe for Jamie.

For the next few hours, Jordan played with Chloe for a few more hours. He only came out of Chloe's room at night when Chloe was tired and fell asleep.

"Where's Jamie?"

Salvatore said, "The Howards arranged for him to stay in the guest room. He was so anxious and kept asking to see you."

Jordan said, "Alright, I'll go see him now. I hope it's really something important."

After all, Jordan was about to be separated from his wife and daughter in different worlds. He did not want any other meaningless things or people to disturb him during this week.

Pushing open the guest room door, Jordan saw Jamie sitting uneasily in the room.

"F*ck, Jordan, you're finally here! Why are you only seeing me now?"

Jamie hurried forward.

Jordan said, "I'm accompanying my daughter. She might wake up in a while. What do you want? Tell me quickly."

Closing this door, Jamie gestured for Jordan to sit down. Then, he said seriously, "Jordan, I've already heard about Lauren. She's a cultivator from the alternate world. All the non-human superpowers come from her, right?”

Jordan nodded. He guessed that Randall might have told Jamie about this.

Jamie laughed, “Hahaha, brother, you are so lucky. How are you going to thank me!”

1369 Jamie’s analysis!

Jamie did not seem to notice Jordan’s loneliness and sadness at all. He was actually as happy as someone who had won the lottery.

Jamie said ecstatically, “Jordan, it’s all thanks to me that you can be husband and wife with a goddess from the alternate world and have a child! Back then, when you were training on the battlefield, I went through a lot of trouble to give you a beauty! Do you know how much effort I spent to pick Lauren?”

“First of all, the women have to be beautiful. Only people like Hailey Camden and Lauren are worthy of my brother! Although there are many beauties now, most of them have filters and makeup effects, or they’ve undergone plastic surgery. There aren’t many natural top beauties like Hailey Camden and Lauren!”

“At that time, I spent a million dollars to choose from a pile of beauties that I found. My eyes were tired from looking through the profiles. There were twenty of them in different cities who stood out. I even took a plane back and forth to meet them personally in their cities. Of course, I helped you sleep with those who weren’t chosen by me. It wasn’t a loss. Not only does she have to be beautiful, but her family background also has to be good. I guarded you from Jesse back then. Lauren can be said to be the most compatible with her appearance and family background. I really spent a lot of effort to choose her.

“The moment I saw her, I felt that this woman was extraordinary! I immediately kidnapped her and brought her onto the plane to send her to the battlefield for you to have a one-night stand. She was actually willing to give birth to your child. Hehe.

“Hey bro, don’t you think I’ve contributed the most? I don’t care. Your wife is now a goddess from the alternate world. She’s the most awesome woman on Earth. You have to let her protect me. I want to go to the alternate world too!”

It turned out that Jamie came to look for Jordan to claim credit and ask him for help to find Lauren so that she could bring him to the alternate world. It was akin to having relatives seeking refuge once you are doing well in a big company in a big city.

Jordan was speechless. “Why would you go to the alternate world? You don’t have any cultivation talent at all. You’re not even willing to go to the battlefield that your family has arranged for you. Among the three of us, you’re the only one who doesn’t like to fight and only go out looking for women every day. That world isn’t suitable for you at all.”

Jordan knew Jamie too well. Jamie was a person who coveted pleasure. He was not interested in fighting or cultivating at all and did not have much ambition.

Jamie retorted, “Who said that world isn’t suitable for me? Who said that I’m going there to cultivate and fight?”

Jordan was confused. “Then why do you want to go to the alternate world?”

Jamie said, “To find women! I’ve played with all the girls on Earth, whether they are white, yellow, or even black. All sorts of beauties, of all ages, and all kinds of figures. The women on Earth are no longer attractive to me! That’s why I’m going to another planet to pick up girls! I randomly met Lauren, but she’s already so beautiful. Who knows if there’s a Lota every five steps and a Lauren every ten steps in that world! Perhaps there’s a female cultivator who’s more beautiful and charming than Lauren!”

“Ever since I heard this news, my heart has been restless. I can’t stay on Earth anymore. Earth is no longer suitable for me. The women from the other world need me. You must help me with this!”

Good lord, so Jamie came all the way here to ask Jordan for help because he wanted to go to the alternate world to pick up girls! It wasn’t to cultivate!

However, he was right. Jamie had money, status, and identity. Since he was born, he had experienced different top beauties almost every day. Any man would be sick of them as well.

Female cultivators from other worlds were indeed very attractive to him.

Jordan said, “Aren’t you crippled? Why are you still thinking of things like this?”

Jamie said, “Fortunately, you saved me in time. With the current medical technologies, I’ve almost recovered. Even if I didn’t, it wouldn’t be a problem. I have already entered another realm. I don’t need that to capture women. I just need a pair of hands.”

Rolling his eyes at Jamie, Jordan only said in exasperation, “Don’t disgust me here, and don’t dream about going to the alternate world either. Lauren isn’t taking me to the alternate world now. She’s broken up with me.”

Jamie had long heard about this, but he didn’t think much of it. “That’s impossible. Since Lauren wants to bring your daughter, it means that she still has you in her heart. If she really doesn’t care about you, she wouldn’t even want the child! You really don’t understand women. Bro, you’re far inferior to me in this aspect! Now, repeat everything you and Lauren talked about that day. Listen carefully, every single thing. Don’t miss a word. Not even the tone. I’ll analyze it for you.”

Jordan suddenly felt that what Jamie said made sense.

If Lauren really didn’t like Earthlings, then she wouldn’t like the child she had with one. Why would she want to take Chloe away?

Lauren's parents had raised her for more than twenty years, and she could cut ties with them easily. Chloe had only lived with her for four to five years.

Could it be that Lauren wanted to take Chloe away as a souvenir because she was the fruit of Lauren and Jordan's love?

Jamie was indeed more experienced and professional than Jordan in guessing women's thoughts!

Hence, Jordan repeated his conversation with Lauren to Jamie.

Just like Jamie requested, he didn't miss a word or ignore an expression.

Jamie held his chin and frowned. He listened very carefully. The love between Jordan and Lauren was no longer just their business. It also concerned Jamie and the people around Jordan.

Who knew that after listening, Jamie actually laughed out loud, "Hahahaha... Hahahaha..."

Jordan had always been sad about Lauren. He thought that Jamie would be sad for Jordan after hearing this. After all, the two of them were in love, but Lauren treated him like this.

Who knew that when Jamie heard that, he actually laughed out loud.

Jordan was puzzled. "Jamie, what are you laughing at? Do you think we still have a chance when Lauren is so heartless?"

Jamie smiled, "Bro, I admit that you might be a genius in cultivation but when it comes to women, you are really stupid. You can't read their hearts at all. You must still be in Lauren's heart at this moment! And I dare say that after rejecting you, she's in as much pain as you are! She also feels terrible! She wants to take you away, but she can't!

"She must have a lot of difficulties and grievances, but she can't tell you because it's useless to tell you. You're a weak Earthling. What can you do if you know? Can you help her solve it? You can't solve it! So she might as well be a bad person herself and make you think that she's a goddess. That's why she looks down on you. In fact, that's definitely not the case!

"Lauren is a woman I chose from thousands of choices. I don't care if she was a mortal or not at that time, but I'm sure that the women I, Jamie, chose are definitely good women!"

Ring ring ring...

Jordan's phone suddenly rang. It was Hailey.

1370 Jamie's Bizarre Suggestion!

When the name Hailey Camden appeared on the screen, Jamie happened to see it.

And when he saw her name, Jamie felt awkward.

This slap in the face came too quickly. After all, Hailey was given to Jordan by the woman Jamie picked out thousands of years ago. However, she was definitely not a good woman.

Jamie: "Uh... There are always exceptions."

Jordan chuckled and did not say anything. He picked up Hailey's call.

Hailey asked Jordan in a gentle but urgent voice, "Jordan, how have you been? I want to see you and our child. Is that okay?"

Hailey and Jordan's son was now completely taken over by the Steeles. Hailey herself had made a huge mistake, causing her to not have the right to look after the child at all times even though she was the child's mother. Her call made Jordan have to consider another problem.

Jordan was now troubled by Lauren's matter. For Lauren, he would not hesitate to cross planets to other unknown places.

However, what would happen to his and Hailey's child if after he left?

Although Hailey had an affair with another man when she gave birth to this child with Jordan, this child was Jordan's after all. Jordan did not intend to ignore him.

This was a difficult choice. Jordan could not think of a suitable solution for the time being. He said, "Sure, contact Salvatore to see the child. You can stay by the child's side for the next few days."

Hailey was overjoyed when she heard that. "Ah, really? Jordan, I knew you would soften your heart one day! Thank you! You..."

Hailey wanted to say something, but Jordan hung up.

After hanging up the call, Jamie saw Jordan's slightly melancholic expression. He could tell what Jordan was thinking and said, "Aiya, that son of yours is indeed not easy to deal with. Lauren is no longer the same as before. She won't accept the child you have with another woman. Besides, even if Lauren can accept it, the big families on the other planet can't. Her friends over there can't accept it either. If she brings her husband's ex's child over, won't she lose face and be mocked by others?"

"Jordan, why don't you forget about this child? Anyway, when Hailey gave birth to him with you, she had sex with another man a few minutes after the child was made. It's too messy and dirty. I even can't help but think badly of such a child. Just let him live on Earth. With our Steeles' current strength, I guarantee that he will live a comfortable life, just like us."

Jordan thought about it and said, "You've never had a child. You don't have any experience in this area, so you don't have to give me any advice. However, you're indeed an expert in relationships. Tell me, how should I get Lauren back now? How can we get back together?"

Jamie laughed, "Haha, of course I am an expert. I have thought of a way to make you guys reconcile!"

Hearing this, Jordan was also extremely excited. "What method is it? What should I do?"

Jamie and Jordan were the only ones in the room. However, Jamie leaned close to Jordan's ear and whispered carefully.

Unexpectedly, Jordan flew into a rage after hearing that. He cursed furiously, "You're crazy!"

Not only did he scold Jamie, but he also shoved him away.

Jamie's idea for Jordan was to rape Lauren!

Jordan said angrily, "You're a relationship expert and a self proclaimed casanova. How can you suggest such a lowly idea? You actually want me to rape her? Rape my wife? Do you think this can salvage our relationship? Who do you think Lauren is? Moreover, even if I wanted to do so, it's impossible. All my abilities come from her. She casually waved her hand and sent me flying dozens of kilometers. How can I have the ability to rape her?"

"Besides, I've already raped her once in the small black room thanks to you. Wouldn't I remind her of those bad memories and make her hate me even more? Jamie, are you here to help me or to harm me!"

Jordan was furious. He thought Jamie would come up with a good idea. He never expected for this "good idea" to be rape.

This suggestion was terrible!

Jamie got up from the ground and explained immediately, "Jordan, don't be angry. I'm really helping you. Besides, I do think this is the best method at the moment. Don't be agitated. Let me explain.

"That's right. Previously on the battlefield, I did send Lauren to you, drugged you guys, and you raped her back then. But this isn't a bad memory for Lauren, because you two got together later and lived very happily. This memory is very exciting and blissful for her.

"I don't want you to rape her, but you don't have the ability to coax her into bed with other methods. That means you can only use force. It doesn't matter what method you use. What's important is that you sleep with her again. Women are strange animals. Before sex, they're extremely stubborn. After sex, they suddenly compromise! I can guarantee that as long as you successfully sleep with her again, she will definitely take you away!"

Jordan thought about it. Perhaps what Jamie said made sense. He continued to ask, "Hmph, even if I want to sleep with her forcefully, do I have the ability? You think too highly of me."

Jamie smiled, "You don't understand women. As long as this woman loves you and has feelings for you, no matter how capable she is, she won't resist."

"Yes, Lauren is stronger than you now, but she might not resist. According to my experience in hunting for women over the years, the more high and mighty a woman is, the stranger her thoughts are sometimes. I slept with a socialite, a super fair, rich, and beautiful woman. She was usually very high and mighty. She once told me that she often fantasized about being raped by a beggar by the roadside. Her dress was custom-made, and her skin was extremely fair and tender. She used the best cosmetics every day and loved to be clean. But that dirty beggar by the roadside was actually her fantasy. Can you believe it?"

"Of course, it's impossible for her to really look for that beggar. But if one day, a beggar with a figure like Chris Evans or David Beckham forcefully presses her down, do you think she will resist? I don't think so!"

Jordan fell into deep thought. Actually, Jordan knew a lot about women. He knew more about Lauren.

The situation Jamie mentioned could happen.

Lauren had rejected Jordan for some reason, but it did not mean that she had no feelings for him. To a quarreling couple, sometimes, no amount of words could compare to a domineering kiss!
