

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1411 I'm At Least At The Seventh Tier!

Jordan listened from the side. He did not expect his former enemy, Rong Bingshao, to give him such a high evaluation!

Seventh tier! The highest was only the tenth tier!

Jordan thought to himself, 'Rong Bingshao said that I'm at least at the seventh tier. In other words, Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor have already been tested. These two golden mutants are also at the seventh tier.'

Based on what Rong Bingshao had said, Jordan had already deduced some things that he had not seen with his own eyes. In fact, Jordan was a little surprised by this result. He thought that the most powerful person on Earth would be at the bottom when he came to the Celestial King Planet, but that was not the case.

Top-notch talents like Jordan, Moon Maiden, and Mike Baylor were considered very outstanding as their talents were not top-notch.

Seeing that Jordan had been looking at them, Emily noticed Jordan and took the initiative to walk over. "Hello. You're from the Fairy Academy too, right? I'm a student of Miss Mina from the Fairy Academy. My name is Emily, but I don't know if I'll have the chance to study in the Fairy Academy. If I don't have talent, I won't be able to go. I hope I can be your classmate!"

Emily extended her hand and greeted Jordan.

Jordan extended his hand slowly. His hand was no longer as thick as before. It looked as slender as a woman's hand.

Jordan introduced himself as well, "Hello, Emily. My name is Dawn."

Thinking back on when he held Emily's hand again on a foreign planet, Jordan felt as if it had been a lifetime ago. Emily's hand was still as warm and smooth as jade, bringing back many memories of Earth, especially the incident between the two of them in GL8...

“Hello, Dawn. My name is Rong Bingshao. Nice to meet you. I’m a student of the Cloud Sect.”

At that moment, Rong Bingshao actually came over and extended his hand to greet Jordan. Moreover, he stared straight at Jordan.

‘Damn it, this kid seems to be attracted by my beauty!’

Jordan did not shake Rong Bingshao’s hand. “I don’t like to shake hands with men.”

Rong Bingshao retracted his hand and smiled. He didn’t feel anything. Instead, he felt that he had offended her. After all, he was new here and didn’t know many rules of Celestial King Planet.

Jordan was a little jealous when he saw how close Emily and Rong Bingshao were. He asked, “Emily, is Rong Bingshao your boyfriend?”

Emily quickly denied it. “No, no. He came from the same place as me. All of us outsiders have passed a test, and only I don’t have the talent to cultivate. Rong Bingshao only came to encourage me because he pitied me.”

Jordan glanced at Rong Bingshao. Although this guy had a blood feud with Jordan in the past, he was still an 18 or 19-year-old boy. He was still kind-hearted.

Emily had no enmity with Rong Bingshao, and Rong Bingshao would never harm Emily.

Jordan comforted her, “Emily, you haven’t tested yet, right? Have some confidence. You might be able to do it.”

Emily nodded. “Thank you, Dawn.”

Soon, Emily and Jordan received their test numbers. Jordan was B17 while Emily was B18. However, Jordan took the initiative to exchange numbers with Emily and asked her to test her skills first.

This was because Jordan was very sure that he would definitely pass the test this time. Moreover, he was worried that he would give Emily pressure if he passed the test so successfully.

If Emily failed the test, she would probably cry very hard.

The two fellows that Gerald had brought with him were all tested. As expected, they were all people with cultivation talent, and they were both at the fifth tier.

Mr. Tom's people had also been tested. They were at the fourth tier.

After the test, the two of them started to flatter each other.

Mr. Tom said, "Congratulations, Mr. Fred. You have two students with fifth tier talent. The two of them are so young. Their futures will definitely be limitless!"

Mr. Fred smiled. "Mr. Tom, you're too kind. I'm just helping Lord Gerald to teach them cultivation in the early stages. I'm just a guide. In the future, the two of them will definitely follow Lord Gerald to cultivate. Hehe."

After the two of them finished speaking, they noticed that Miss Mina and Elle were about to take the test. They did not dare to mock Miss Mina. After all, Mina was one of the best teachers in the Fairy Academy and had trained many good students.

However, the two of them could not help but mock Elle.

Mr. Tom smiled. "Miss Elle, why did your student change seats with Miss Mina's student? Weren't you the one who came first? Were you worried that your student wouldn't pass the test or only have a low tier talent? Were you afraid that we would feel embarrassed if we saw it, so you delayed it?"

Mr. Fred also mocked, “Miss Elle, you don’t have to do this. We already know your taste. It’s normal for your student to be below the third tier. We won’t mock her.”

Mr. Tom laughed. “Hahaha, Mr. Fred is right. After seeing too many jokes, you won’t find it funny anymore. Haha, Mr. Fred, let’s go. Let’s not stay and watch Miss Elle make a fool of herself, lest Miss Elle feels uncomfortable.”

Mr. Fred: “Alright.”

How could Elle not be angry at the humiliation from the two male teachers?

“You...”

At that moment, Jordan pulled Elle back. He took the initiative to go forward and said to Mr. Fred and Mr. Tom, “Are you Mr. Fred from the Cloud Sect and Mr. Tom from the Heavenly Academy?”

The two of them stopped in their tracks. Seeing that Jordan’s words were provocative, they looked at each other, “What’s the matter? It’s too late to acknowledge me as your master now. I don’t want to accept any students anymore.”

Jordan said calmly, “It was my idea to change places with Miss Mina’s student. It has nothing to do with Ms. Elle. If you’re not in a hurry, why don’t you wait here for a while and see my test results? If I’m really below the third tier, just laugh to your heart’s content. Miss Elle and I will sit on the ground and let you mock us. We won’t retort.”

Mr. Tom was very unhappy. “This little girl looks very confident. Alright, Mr. Fred, let’s wait a little longer. I don’t believe that she’s a cultivator above the fifth tier!”

Mr. Fred nodded. “Alright, I don’t mind waiting a little longer. Let’s see this genius that Miss Elle has just accepted.”

Jordan nodded at Elle and whispered to her, "Don't worry, I'm at least at the seventh tier."

Elle was a little surprised and asked in a low voice, "Are you sure? I haven't even told you what it means to test your cultivation talent. How do you know that you're definitely at the seventh tier?"

Jordan smiled. He did not need to know the details of the cultivation talent test. He only knew that since the Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor were both at Tier Seven and Victoria was at Tier Six, Jordan was at least at Tier Seven!

From today onwards, Jordan would officially begin his glorious cultivation process on the Celestial King Planet!

1412 Emily Succeeded!

"B17, please get ready for the test."

The announcement sounded. Emily walked forward nervously with the number B17.

"Emily, you can do it! You can definitely do it!"

Rong Bingshao cheered Emily on from the side.

Jordan stood at the side. He really wanted to hug Emily and give her the greatest encouragement, but he could not do it.

"Emily, regardless of whether you have cultivation talent or not and whether you are a cultivator or an ordinary person, I will protect you on this planet and not let you be bullied!"

Jordan thought to himself.

Soon, Emily entered the entrance of the test passage.

Jordan did not know what the test was like. He could only wait nervously.

About ten minutes later, the results of the test were announced.

“Number B17, Emily, from the Fairy Academy. She has cultivation talent. Talent Level: Tier One.”

“Yeah! I told you she could do it!”

“Nice!”

Rong Bingshao and Jordan were happy for Emily.

They all thought that Emily would not have the talent to cultivate because when she was on Earth, she had tested that she had no mutant talent. He did not expect Emily to pass the test and have the ability to cultivate. It was too good!

Emily quickly came out of the passageway and jumped excitedly along the way. “Haha, I have cultivation talent! I’ve succeeded!”

Smack!

Emily and Rong Bingshao high-fived to celebrate. Rong Bingshao smiled and said, “Emily, you have to treat us to a meal.”

Emily giggled and said, “No problem! Call my sister. If my sister knows that I can cultivate like her, she will definitely be very happy!”

Rong Bingshao was a little embarrassed. “Well... why don’t you celebrate with your sister today? I can celebrate with you another day.”

On Earth, some unpleasant things had happened between Rong Bingshao and Victoria. Even now, Rong Bingshao didn’t dare to face Victoria.

Currently, Rong Bingshao was studying and cultivating in the Cloud Sect. Although the Cloud Sect was the best school in this world, it was still incomparable to a large family.

Victoria followed Levana to cultivate, and Levana taught her step by step. The current Victoria and the future Victoria would definitely be stronger than Rong Bingshao.

Jordan walked forward happily as well. "Congratulations, Emily."

Emily smiled brightly. "Thank you, Dawn. You have to work hard too. You will definitely pass, and your rank will definitely be much higher than mine!"

However, their pleasant conversation was quickly interrupted by the two teachers.

Mr. Tom was speechless. "This is really shocking. She's only a first-stage talent, but she's actually so happy. The Fairy Academy is really getting worse."

Mr. Fred also sneered. "What's the difference between that and not having any cultivation talent? I think this little girl will stay in the apprentice realm for the rest of her life. She won't even be able to become a disciple."

Jordan was furious. "Bastard! To think that you're a teacher. How dare you be so vicious to a new student! What right do you have to say that she'll be an apprentice for the rest of her life? Apologize to her immediately!"

Emily had no confidence in cultivation to begin with and felt very inferior. After being criticized by the teachers in the school, she would become discouraged in the future and believe that she would not be promising. Then, she might really stay in the apprentice realm for the rest of her life.

It could be said that Mr. Fred's words were very vicious and could affect Emily for the rest of her life.

However, Mr. Fred did not take it to heart. "What a joke. You want me to apologize to a freshman with tier one talent? What right do you have? Besides, I'm not spouting nonsense. There's a factual basis. I've seen too many students with tier one talent. There are very few who can advance to the disciple realm. I advise this little girl not to waste resources in the Fairy Academy. She should learn some craftsmanship and get married as soon as possible!"

Dawn couldn't take it anymore. She picked up the number plate in her hand and threw it at Mr. Fred's face.

BANG!

"Ah!"

Mr. Fred did not look in Dawn's direction, nor did he take any precautions. He was directly smashed in the face.

Mr. Tom was furious. "Bastard, how dare you attack Mr. Fred? You're courting death!"

Mr. Tom and Mr. Fred immediately wanted to attack Jordan, but Elle stood in front of them. "My student is a Martian and has a bad temper. Please forgive her. I hope you can be magnanimous and not bully the weak."

Miss Mina also stood up. "If the two teachers want to attack the students of our Fairy Academy, then compete with me and Miss Elle first."

The teachers' abilities were the same. Elle could not teach her students well, but she was capable.

"B18, please get ready for the test."

At that moment, the announcement sounded. It was Jordan's turn to participate in the test.

Mr. Tom said, "Mr. Fred, forget it. Let this girl take the test first. Didn't she brag that she must be a high-ranking student? Let's see if she really has the ability."

Mr. Fred had a look of disdain on her face. "Miss Elle, your student threw a number plate at me in public. Just now, she swore that she would definitely be above level three. If the results are out later and she's below level three, I want you to give this girl a tight slap on my behalf! If you agree, I'll let her in. If you don't, then don't take the test today!"

Mr. Fred blocked the front and clearly did not allow Jordan to move forward.

Jordan took the initiative to walk up. “Level three is too low. Let’s go to level seven. If I’m lower than level seven, I’m willing to take this slap. If I’m higher than level seven, I want you to apologize to Emily!”

Mr. Fred laughed after hearing this. “Hahahaha, level seven? How can there be such an ordinary and confident person? Alright, if you can reach level seven, not only will I apologize to that tier one girl, but I’ll also give her ten Spirit Connecting Pills for free!”

Jordan looked at Elle Green, “What’s a Spirit Connecting Pill? Is it very precious?”

Elle said excitedly, “The Spirit Connecting Pill is a treasure that apprentices need to become disciples. It’s priceless. Ordinary people will need a long time to save up ten Spirit Connecting Pills!”

Jordan nodded. “Okay!”

At that moment, Emily walked over and grabbed Jordan’s arm. “Dawn, I’m not worth it for you to do this for me. They can say whatever they want about me. Anyway, I was already prepared to be bullied before I came. Jordan is gone, and my sister is also focused on cultivation. I know that I can’t be as willful as before. I... I’m already prepared to suffer. I’m really fine.”

Emily’s tears started to fall as she spoke.

In the past 20 years on Earth, Emily had always been well protected by Victoria. After knowing Jordan, due to his powerful identity, he gave Emily the best protection. It could be said that Emily had never been wronged in her life.

Jordan reached out to wipe Emily’s tears gently and said, “Emily, remember this. You’ll never be bullied. Your sister and I will never let you suffer.”

After saying that, Jordan walked toward the entrance of the test tunnel.

1413 Tenth Tier!

Emily looked at Jordan's back and was stunned.

She did not expect to meet someone so willing to protect her when she came to the Celestial King Planet. Moreover, what the girl said just now reminded her of Jordan.

"Dawn, you can do it!"

Emily secretly cheered for Jordan.

As for Mr. Fred and Mr. Tom, they had mocking expressions.

Jordan walked into the testing tunnel slowly and followed the staff's guidance to a huge and sealed room. The room was very empty and the sides were very wide. As soon as he entered, Jordan felt a very strong smell.

"This is the Spiritual energy of this world!"

Since this was the room for the test, this room must be filled with technological spiritual energy.

Jordan stood in the empty room and thought to himself, 'I wonder how the test will be conducted later?'

Just as Jordan was about to carry out the test, a voice that he had not heard for a long time suddenly sounded in his heart.

"Hehe, so this is where talents are tested. Interesting, interesting."

Jordan was shocked and shouted secretly, "Senior! You're awake!"

The mysterious man smiled. "That's right, that's right. I'm awake."

Jordan quickly reported his progress to him, "Senior, I entered the Fairy Academy by chance. I'm going to cultivate as a woman."

The mysterious man said, "Yes, I know."

Jordan frowned. "You know? You know what happened to me at the hotel? Then why didn't you help me?!"

The mysterious man yawned. "I already said that I'm a remnant soul. How can I help you? Besides, aren't you fine? It's such a small matter and you want me to help you resolve it? What kind of identity do I have? It's the highest level on the Celestial King Planet!"

Jordan was speechless. He did not know what to say. He had almost died when he saw him earlier. He was indeed a demon king!

Jordan asked, "Then why are you making a sound now? Aren't you going to continue sleeping?"

The mysterious man smiled and said, "Hehe, I'm very interested in what it is that tests cultivation talent. Back then, when I was cultivating, this thing hadn't appeared on the Celestial King Planet. I didn't know what my initial cultivation talent was, so I blindly cultivated. So, I want to try it later."

Jordan was stunned. "Didn't you say that you're a remnant soul and can't do anything? How are you going to do the test?"

The mysterious man said, "You don't understand. This test is not to test your body, but to test the compatibility of your will with the technological spiritual energy. The technological spiritual energy is a little like the artificial intelligence on Earth. It has a little self-awareness.

"People from the Celestial King Planet have similar body structures, but their souls are different. Technological spiritual energy will determine if the other party is the person they are looking for through their consciousness. If they don't like the other party at all, then this person doesn't have any cultivation talent. If it's just barely acceptable, the ranking is relatively low. If they are very compatible, the rank will be higher.

“Later, I’ll knock out your consciousness and use my remnant soul to test it. Hehe, I’m really looking forward to it. As someone who has already reached the highest achievement on Celestial King Planet, what level of talent will I have?”

Jordan said immediately after hearing that, “Knock me out and you’ll do the test? No! You’re already an Immortal. What’s the point of your initial cultivation talent? I have to do the test myself. Only then will I know how much my talent is. I’ll also know my strengths more clearly when I cultivate in the future.”

Jordan rejected him immediately. It did not matter if he was an Immortal or a Demon King. He did not help him previously. There was no way he could make it easy for him now!

The mysterious man was clearly a little angry. “Why are you so unappreciative! My talent will only be higher than yours. It can’t be worse than yours. You’re at most at the seventh stage, and I’m at least at the ninth stage. I won’t embarrass you.”

Jordan said proudly, “Who said I’m at least at Tier Seven? Maybe I’m at the ninth tier too. Besides, even if I’m at the seventh tier, it’s enough to slap the faces of those people outside. You should rest and watch my performance. If you dare to forcibly knock me out, I won’t take revenge on Donovan Cross and let you watch the show!”

The mysterious man said, “You... You brat, you’re so ungrateful. I just saved your life a while ago, but you refuse to even help me with such a small matter. Damn it, I’m usually too busy. I never thought that I would come to such a beginner place for a test. You got lucky. Alright, what do you want me to do to let me test my cultivation level?”

Jordan chuckled. Naturally, he wanted to use this opportunity to make some conditions.

Jordan said, “Senior, I can help you, but you have to promise me that you’ll save me the next time I’m in danger.”

The mysterious man said, “I’ll save you once. Just once.”

Jordan thought about it and agreed, "Sure. Also, after I officially cultivate, if there's any problem that Teacher can't help me solve, you have to answer it for me."

The mysterious man replied. "Every month, I will only answer three of your cultivation questions"

Jordan agreed immediately, "Alright, let's begin then. Don't pity me. Knock me out to your heart's content..."

Before he could finish, Jordan fainted.

"The test begins. Please hold your breath and be ready. Countdown: three, two, one."

Ten minutes later.

Outside the testing ground.

"Strange, why haven't they reported the results after entering for so long?"

Mr. Fred felt a little strange.

Mr. Tom was also curious. "That's right. Generally speaking, the results are already out at this time."

Another ten minutes passed.

Mr. Fred asked. "Why did it take so long? Don't tell me she's been tested twice?"

Mr. Tom said, "Strange, why did she take the test twice? Could it be that she doesn't have any cultivation talent? Was she afraid and wanted to take the test again?"

"Miss Elle, to think that your student boasted shamelessly that he would definitely reach the seventh stage. In the end, she didn't even reach the first stage? Hahahaha, I'm dying of laughter."

At this moment, the broadcast suddenly announced the results.

“Number B18, Dawn, from the Fairy Academy has cultivation talent. Talent level: Tenth tier!”

1414 Shocking the Celestial King Planet!

“Tenth tier! It’s actually the tenth tier!”

As soon as the announcement was made, the entire testing square was shocked. Everyone stopped what they were doing and swarmed over to watch the test results.

The people who were waiting in line for the test gave up and walked to Jordan’s passageway.

Mr. Fred and Mr. Tom’s faces turned green. They were dumbfounded.

Jordan’s teacher, Elle Green, was stunned as well. She could not believe this result.

Miss Mina jumped up excitedly and grabbed Elle’s hand to celebrate. “Miss Elle, you’re amazing. Where did you find such a talented student? You don’t have to worry about being scolded by the school leaders anymore, haha.”

Mr. Fred kept shaking his head. “Unbelievable, simply unbelievable! Since the establishment of the training format, no one has ever reached the tenth tier. Even a genius cultivator like Xavier is only at the ninth tier. But this Martian woman is actually at the tenth tier!”

Mr. Tom was also shocked. “Could it be that the test was wrong?”

Although Mr. Fred was unwilling to believe this result, he still shook his head and said, “No. In the beginning, they must have felt that the test was wrong. It’s impossible for anyone to be at the tenth tier, so they tested it again, but the result was still at the tenth tier.”

Now, everyone knew why Jordan was being tested for so long. Since the mysterious man had knocked Jordan out, Jordan walked out of the passage slowly after he woke up.

When he walked out, he saw the most shocking scene he had ever seen in his life!

In front of him, all the people in the square had come to the entrance of the passageway to greet him. The crowd was endless.

When Jordan arrived just now, he felt that there were not so many people in the square. It seemed that many of them had rushed over after hearing the news.

It was not only on the ground. Jordan looked up and saw countless cultivators hanging in the sky like stars in the sky. They were all looking at Jordan!

“Well...”

Jordan suddenly panicked. He did not expect so many people to come!

At this moment, the mysterious man said, “How boring. It’s really a tenth tier. I thought it would be a ninth tier.”

However, Jordan retorted, “It’s all your fault. You insisted on testing it yourself. Now, you’ve created a commotion with an unprecedented ten tier and attracted so many people. Look at the group of people in the sky. All of them can fly. Their cultivation levels must not be low!”

The mysterious man glanced around and smiled. “Yes, there’s a Grandmaster, glorious, and unparalleled. Oh? There’s actually a half-immortal. You really attracted a lot of people, hehe. But what are you afraid of? You’re a woman now and won’t be exposed. Don’t worry, Donovan Cross won’t be able to kill you.”

There was actually a half-immortal in the sky!

Even half-immortals came for Jordan!

Jordan suddenly became nervous. He thought to himself, 'I wonder if Donovan Cross is here...'

At that moment, the cultivation experts in the sky started discussing Jordan.

"To think that the Fairy Academy actually produced a girl with tenth tier talent. Moreover, she's quite beautiful. How interesting. I wonder what her future achievements will be?"

"Our Celestial King Planet has never had a tenth-tier talent cultivator. Even those few Immortals and Demon Kings aren't in the tenth tier, right?"

"You can't put it that way. Many of them haven't tested their cultivation talent before they started cultivating. However, Xavier has been tested before, and he's only at the ninth level. Everyone acknowledges that there will definitely be a place for him in the ranks of the future Immortals!"

"If that's the case, doesn't that mean that this girl is even more powerful than Xavier? Everyone, should we take her in now or kill her to save ourselves from trouble?"

"You're worrying too much. If she were a man, her future would be limitless. Unfortunately, she's a girl. Everyone knows that there are basically no female cultivators among the Immortals, Demon Kings, and even half-immortals. Although female cultivators are talented, it's difficult for them to achieve anything great."

Everyone discussed Jordan for a long time. Some wanted to kill him, some wanted to remove his veil, and some wanted to take him in. However, in the end, none of them made a move and flew away.

After this group of people left, messages kept coming.

“Miss Dawn of the Fairy Academy, has a tenth-tier talent. The president of the Eternal Federation, has specially sent a letter to thank you and invite Miss Dawn to the Federation headquarters for tea.”

“The Vice President of the Fairy Association congratulates Miss Dawn of the Fairy Academy. I hope we can get together.”

“Black Alliance sends regards to the Fairy Academy’s Miss Dawn...”

“Hathor, the head of the Howard family in the north of the city, congratulates Miss Dawn and wants to send her a banquet invitation.”

...

People from various families and organizations kept expressing their goodwill to Jordan.

It seemed that tenth-tier talent was indeed extraordinary. Perhaps he could become an Immortal in the future. Therefore, these people were trying their best to curry favor with him.

Jordan walked out slowly. Elle walked forward excitedly and knelt down when she saw Jordan.

Seeing this, Jordan quickly helped Elle Green up. “Miss Elle, you’re my teacher. How can you kneel to me?”

Elle cried tears of joy. “How am I worthy of being your teacher? You have tenth-tier talent, and I only have third-tier talent. It won’t be long before you surpass me. Dawn, I really thank you for being willing to be my student. You will be my greatest pride!”

Jordan smiled and reached out to wipe the tears on Elle Green’s face. He said while smiling, “Miss Elle, since you’re my teacher, I won’t let others bully and mock you.”

After saying that, Jordan walked toward Mr. Fred and Mr. Tom.

1415 Going to the Howard family?

Jordan walked to Mr. Tom and Mr. Fred. He could feel that the two teachers were trembling when they faced Jordan now. They did not dare to look at Jordan's face.

Jordan looked at the two of them and said, "Teachers, I wasn't bragging, was I? I said that I would be at least at Tier Seven. Now, the test results show that I'm at Tier Ten. I wonder if you have anything else to say? Is Mr. Fred going to slap me again?"

The two high school teachers no longer dared to be arrogant and take revenge.

Mr. Fred lowered his head and said, "I was blind to not see that Miss Dawn is actually a genius. Please forgive my rashness, and don't blame our academy for my words. I hereby formally apologize to Miss Dawn and Miss Elle. I hope that the two of you will be magnanimous and not hold it against me."

Likewise, Mr. Tom immediately admitted defeat. "Miss Dawn has broken the historical record of the Celestial King Planet, and may become an Immortal in the future! It's my honor to be able to witness this scene with my own eyes. Our Heavenly Academy will definitely be your partner and not your enemy. I'm sorry about what happened just now. I'm sorry!"

Jordan had just finished the test and had yet to officially start cultivating. The two teachers from the cultivation school had already submitted to Jordan and did not dare to offend him.

"Mr. Fred, not only do you have to apologize to me and Miss Elle, but you also have to apologize to Emily. Also, don't go back on the ten Spirit Connecting Pills you promised."

Mr. Fred quickly turned to Emily and lowered her head to apologize. "I'm sorry, Miss Emily. I shouldn't have said that just now. You're talented and smart. You'll definitely have a bright future on the path of cultivation. Here are ten Spirit Connecting Pills. They can help you when you advance to the disciple level. Please accept them."

Mr. Fred took out a box and handed it to Emily.

Emily took it and opened it. Inside were ten pills that were emitting blue light. They were Spirit Connecting Pills.

“Wow, it’s beautiful.”

Emily looked at the Spirit Connecting Pill and felt happy. She said to Mr. Fred, “Thank you, Mr. Fred.”

Mr. Fred hurriedly said, “It’s my pleasure.”

With that, the two of them left with their faces covered in dust. Both of them felt that they had sinned today for offending a future big shot like Dawn. If Dawn really had some achievements in the future, the school they were in would expel them because of what happened today.

Emily walked toward Jordan after receiving the Spirit Connecting Pills and said, “Dawn, congratulations. You’re so impressive. When the test results came out, everyone in the square ran over to see you. You’ve become a famous person now, haha. The Spirit Connecting Pills are for you. With your talent, you’ll definitely be promoted to a disciple soon. This is very useful to you!”

Currently, in order to advance his level as soon as possible and take revenge for him, Jordan could indeed do anything to snatch resources.

However, Jordan did not want to take Emily’s things.

Jordan said, “Emily, I’m a tenth-tier talent now. The Fairy Academy will definitely give me the best resources. I won’t lack these Spirit Connection Pills. You should take them.”

Emily was a little embarrassed. “But...”

Rong Bingshao said, “Emily, Miss Dawn won’t lack these. As for you, you are only at tier one. You might need a lot of Spirit Connecting Pills to advance. You should keep them.”

Embarrassed, Emily accepted them and said to Rong Bingshao, “Rong Bingshao, take a few. I don’t need so many.”

Rong Bingshao looked at the Spirit Connecting Pills and his eyes lit up. It was obvious that he wanted them too, but he was too embarrassed to take them.

Rong Bingshao said, "I don't need it now. If I need it in the future and you're not in a hurry to use it, I'll ask you for it again."

Emily nodded generously. "Okay, remember to look for me when you use it. You don't need to be so gracious with me."

Jordan shook his head at the side. Emily was so kind that she even shared her resources with others. Coupled with her ordinary talent, how long would it take for her to successfully cultivate?

Emily put away the Spirit Connecting Pills and asked Jordan, "Dawn, where are you going next?"

Jordan said, "I'm going back to the Fairy Academy with Miss Elle. I can't wait to start cultivating."

Emily asked, "I see that many families and organizations have invited you over. Aren't you going to choose one?"

Jordan shook his head with a smile. How could he have the time to attend these social events now? He had come to the Celestial King Planet to look for his wife and children, not to join some faction.

Emily was a little disappointed. "Ah, I was still thinking that if you want to choose the Howard family, we can leave together. Then, Dawn, go back to school first. I'm going to the Howard family to look for my sister and tell her that I passed the test! She must be very happy!"

Jordan was stunned when he heard that. "You mean... the Howard family?"

Emily replied, "Yes, the Howard family. The Howard family also invited you, right? My sister is cultivating in the Howard family now!"

1416 A Small World

It was really a small world!

In order to find his wife and daughter, Jordan crossed planets and went from the ordinary Earth to a world where technological spiritual arts existed.

It was to find the “Lauren” he once loved and their daughter, Chloe.

Now, Lauren’s family in this world was inviting Jordan to the Howard family! In other words, Jordan would have a chance to see the mother and daughter again soon!

At that moment, Jordan could not hide his excitement.

At the side, Rong Bingshao said, “Emily, Dawn has just tested her strength and found out that she’s at tier ten. She must have a lot of things to deal with. Let’s not disturb her. Do you want me to take you back?”

Like Emily, Rong Bingshao was not qualified to cultivate in the Howard family. He could only go to the entrance of the Howard family.

As Emily and Victoria were sisters, theoretically speaking, she could go in and find her.

Emily waved goodbye to Jordan as well. “Yes, Dawn, we won’t disturb you anymore. See you at school in the future. Don’t forget me when you get there. I’m definitely going to cozy up to you, hahaha.”

“Wait a minute.”

Jordan stopped Emily immediately and asked, “Um... Is the Howard family a very powerful family?”

Emily nodded repeatedly. “Yes, yes. The Howard family is amazing! Their house is so big. It’s even bigger than the entire villa area I used to live in on Earth. Moreover, it’s so advanced. Their family head is also very powerful!”

Seeing that Jordan seemed to be interested in the Howard family, Elle added, "Hathor is considered very powerful here. The Howard family is also a big family, and have a daughter who is Xavier's disciple. Do you know who Xavier is?"

Jordan knew that Elle Green was talking about Lauren, the Levana of this world.

Jordan pretended to be calm. "Alright, since the Howard family has some strength and invited me sincerely, Miss Elle, why don't you accompany me to the Howard family before we return to the Fairy Academy?"

Elle smiled. "Sure. You're new here. It's a good thing to get to know more big families."

Emily was also excited. "That's great! Dawn, we can leave together!"

Jordan nodded and said to Rong Bingshao, "You don't have to send Emily off. Go and do your own thing."

Rong Bingshao said, "Uh..."

Jordan's cold and commanding tone reminded Rong Bingshao of someone on Earth.

Subsequently, Jordan and the others arrived at the agreed location and the Howard family sent servants to receive them. They flew to the Howard family's base camp on a luxurious aircraft specially made by the Howard family.

Along the way, Jordan looked at the buildings and scenery outside the window. He wanted to remember the route clearly. After all, this was his wife's house. He would definitely not come here only once. He would come here often in the future.

At the same time, Jordan became even more excited.

"I wonder if I'll see them this time..."

Time passed quickly. Soon, they arrived at the Howard family.

When they arrived at the Howard Residence, Hathor and his wife personally went out to welcome them.

Hathor laughed heartily and walked up to Jordan. He said boldly, "Today, I don't know if the sky has become water or not. You've made an impact in the galaxy. Hahaha, Miss Dawn, until I saw you in person, I still couldn't believe that someone could actually reach a Tier Ten talent. It's really unprecedented! I'm really honored that you're willing to come to my Howard family as a guest!"

Hathor's wife, Hestia, also had a smile on her face. "That's right. All along, it has always been men who are more talented than women on the Celestial King Planet. I didn't expect Miss Dawn, a woman, to do something that even men can't do. It's really amazing. Quickly invite her in for tea."

Jordan looked at the two of them and thought to himself, 'They should be Levana's parents in this world. I should call them in-laws.'

If Levana brought Jordan here from Earth to meet them, she would probably call them 'Dad' and 'Mom' as soon as they met.

Jordan did not say anything else. "Alright, thank you."

Hathor and his wife brought Jordan to the living room inside. However, when they entered, they asked Emily to wait outside.

Jordan stopped as well. "Why didn't you let Emily in?"

Hathor explained, "Oh, she's the sister of my daughter's new disciple. We only entertain honorable guests like Miss Dawn here. We don't entertain mediocre people."

He did not expect Levana's parents to be so snobbish.

Jordan said bluntly, "Many families and organizations invited me to their home bases just now. The reason why I chose the Howard family is because Emily wanted to go to the Howard family to tell her sister the good news that she passed the test. Emily and I hit it off at first sight.

We're from the same school. If it weren't for her, I wouldn't have come here."

Hathor felt a little awkward. He looked at Emily. "You passed the test too? What level are you at?"

Emily said shyly, "I... I'm at tier one."

Hathor was speechless. It was actually the lowest rank. Disdain flowed from his eyes. However, since Jordan had said that he was here because of Emily, Hathor had to give him face.

Hathor said, "Since Miss Dawn treats you as a friend, come in and have some tea together."

Everyone went inside and sat down. Some servants with strange appearances walked in with small steps to serve Jordan and the others.

When they arrived, Hathor had yet to acknowledge Jordan's teacher, Elle Green. Elle Green took the initiative to introduce herself, "Lord Howard, I'm a teacher from the Fairy Academy. Next, I'll be responsible for guiding Miss Dawn from apprentice to disciple. My name is Elle Green. Thank you very much for your invitation, Lord Howard and Madam Howard."

Hathor took a sip of tea and smiled. "Oh, thank you, Miss Elle."

It was obvious that Hathor did not care about Jordan's teacher. He only respected Jordan.

Jordan knew very well that if it were not for the mysterious man testing for him, he would not have been looked at by Hathor even if he came here.

He could not help but feel more pressured.

Hathor valued talent, rank, and status so much. How could Jordan confess his identity to them? How could he seek to be with Levana?!

1417 The Howard Family's Invitation

Jordan clenched his fists tightly. Soon, his hands were covered in sweat.

He realized that the weather at the Howard family's place was humid. The weather was humid and hot now. It was a little like the southern cities of the US on Earth. Meanwhile, Jordan was used to staying in the capital and did not like such weather.

"Give Miss Dawn a handkerchief," Hestia instructed the servants.

She could see that Jordan's palms were sweating. In her opinion, this was a reflection of his low cultivation realm. As long as he reached the level of a disciple, he would not be affected by mere climate.

A servant walked up and said, "Madam, because you and Miss don't use handkerchiefs much and haven't bought new ones recently, we don't dare to take them out for VIPs to use. We only found a handkerchief that Miss Levana used before. I wonder if it's okay?"

Hestia was a little angry. "Bastard, Miss Dawn is a distinguished guest. She's the first cultivator with tier ten talent on our Celestial King Planet. You want her to use something that Levana used? Go and buy it immediately!"

However, at that moment, Jordan shouted, "Madam Howard, wait. I think I like the color of that handkerchief. You can give me that."

When Jordan heard that it was the handkerchief that Levana had used, he immediately wanted it.

Seeing that Jordan did not mind, Hestia smiled and said, "It's good that you don't mind, Miss Dawn. This handkerchief is very new. I think Levana has only used it once."

Jordan held the pink handkerchief in his hand and immediately felt comfortable. He imagined the scene of Levana using this handkerchief in the past...

Holding the things that Levana had used before, Jordan felt as if he was holding Levana's hand at this moment.

In an instant, Jordan recalled the intimate scenes with Levana.

Jordan could not help but ask, "By the way, Lord Howard, Madam, is your daughter, Levana, in the residence? Can I see her?"

Hestia said awkwardly, "This... Levana has just taken in a few disciples and is busy teaching them. I'm afraid she won't be able to come for a while. The next time you come, I'll definitely arrange for you to meet."

In fact, before Jordan came, Hestia had already sent a message to Levana, asking if she wanted to meet the first person with top-level talent on Celestial King Planet.

Levana replied that she was not interested.

Levana of the Celestial King Planet had always been cold and aloof. Hathor and Hestia had met Jordan to rope him in. Otherwise, with Jordan's current level as an apprentice, he was not worthy of talking to the Howard family's master.

Hathor looked at Jordan and began to ask, "May I ask which planet you're from, Miss Dawn?"

Jordan replied, "Mars."

Hathor frowned and thought for a moment. "Could it be Mars beside Planet 9696? I didn't expect such a talented cultivator to be born there. May I ask how old you are this year, Miss Dawn?"

Jordan said, "25 years old."

Hathor couldn't help but exclaim, "25 years old? Only 25 years old? You're still an underage girl, yet you actually obtained a tenth tier talent! Miss Dawn, your future is absolutely limitless!"

"If I may ask, you must still be a virgin, right?"

Jordan felt awkward. Good lord, he was actually asked this question when he came to his in-laws' house!

If I'm not, it's because of your daughter!

Hestia patted Hathor's arm. "Isn't your question unnecessary? Miss Dawn is definitely a virgin. She's so young and so talented. How can she fall into the demonic path of love so easily?"

Hathor smiled awkwardly and said, "Hahaha, I was overthinking. It's like this, Miss Dawn. Our Howard family is very interested in you and wants to nurture you very much. May I ask if you're willing to come to our Howard family to cultivate?"

Cultivate in the Howard family?

If Jordan was cultivating in the Howard family, he would be able to see Levana, Chloe, Victoria, and the Moon Maiden every day.

However, so what if he saw them?

The most painful thing in the world was not being able to recognize them even though they were right in front of him. It was better to not see them and fend for himself silently. In particular, if Jordan wanted to obtain Hathor's recognition, he could not become his disciple.

Once he became his disciple, he would look down on Jordan for the rest of his life.

Jordan said, "Lord Howard, I'm from the Fairy Academy, and my teacher is right beside me. Isn't it a little disrespectful for you to snatch me in front of my teacher?"

Jordan felt that Hathor was too domineering. A teacher from the Fairy Academy was clearly here.

However, Hathor didn't care. He smiled and said, "Hehe, if you agree to come to my family and be a member of my family, I will naturally accept this teacher and give her far better treatment than in the Fairy Academy. Actually, you don't have to care too much about Miss Elle's feelings. Miss Elle's ability is limited. She can only accompany you for the first part of the journey. Soon, she won't be able to be your teacher."

Elle humbled herself in front of Lord Howard and said, “Miss Dawn, you don’t have to consider me. If you’re interested in the Howard family, you can choose them. I will respect your decision.”

Jordan looked at Hathor, “If I cultivate in the Howard family, will I become a member of the family?”

Hathor nodded. “That’s right. Since Miss Dawn is from another planet and doesn’t have her own family here, you can change your surname to Howard. In the future, you’ll be called Dawn Howard and be a member of the Howard family. In the future, I’ll definitely provide you with the best resources of the Howard family.”

Jordan smiled. If he were to change his surname to Howard, would he not be adopted into the family?

Previously on Earth, Jordan had already become a live-in son-in-law. He did not want to do such humiliating things anymore.

Jordan said, “Miss Elle has always had a wish. It’s to represent the Fairy Academy and win the competition with other schools. She hasn’t won in a few years. The reason she chose me is to let me win once for her. I promised her that I would help her fulfill her promise.”

Jordan’s meaning was obvious. He did not want to cultivate in the Howard family and planned to go to the Fairy Academy.

Elle was so touched that she almost cried. “Miss Dawn...”

Hathor looked a little disappointed. He changed his tone and said seriously, “Miss Dawn, do you know that you’re in danger now?”

Jordan immediately became serious. He did not know what Hathor meant. Could it be that Hathor threatened to kill Jordan because he refused to join the Howard family?

Could Levana’s father be such a cold-blooded killer?

This reminded Jordan of the first time he went to Lauren's house in the capital when Levana was still Lauren. When he faced Lauren's younger brother, father, and grandfather, Jordan fought with them and almost died there.

Could it be that he would have to face such a situation again on the Celestial King Planet?

1418 Celestial Heaven Technique

Jordan was not afraid at all even though he had not started cultivating yet. With Hathor's strength, killing Jordan would probably be as easy as stepping on an ant.

However, there was a demon king living in Jordan's body. Moreover, the mysterious demon king had promised Jordan that if Jordan was in danger, he would help him once.

It was not that easy for Hathor to kill Jordan, so this gave Jordan confidence.

Especially since the person in front of him was his father-in-law from another world, he did not want to admit defeat.

Jordan stared straight at Hathor and asked, "What do you want?"

Hathor saw the hostility in Jordan's eyes and explained immediately, "I'm afraid you've misunderstood, Miss Dawn. I only admire you and have no intention of offending you. The reason why our Howard family has some prestige in the Eternal Federation is because we never do anything bad. However, there are too many people, too many organizations, and too many sects in the Eternal Federation. Some of them are good people, but there are also bad people. There is no lack of petty people who are jealous of others and covet their people.

"Miss Dawn's talent test has reached the maximum level of the tenth tier. I'm afraid it has already spread throughout the entire federation. Everyone knows that it's very likely that you will become a very terrifying figure in the future! Some cultivators have long reached a bottleneck.

When they reach a certain realm, they can't improve anymore. Such people often give up on themselves and debauch themselves. They will also do some abnormal things.

"For example, I heard that there are many people in Fairbright Club who specialize in hunting talented new cultivators. They are jealous of these people and feel that they will definitely surpass them in the future, so they hunt them down before they are strong enough!"

Fairbright Club!

Jordan remembered the name of this organization in his heart. It seemed like it was not easy to survive on any planet. There were good and bad people. It was indeed abnormally dangerous here.

It was all the mysterious Demon King's fault for being too high-profile. He managed to get a tier ten talent and made Jordan famous.

At the side, Elle also said, "Lord Howard said that there is indeed such a thing. Many people in Fairy Club bully the weak. However, you don't have to worry too much. When you reach the Fairy Academy, our academy will protect you."

Hathor also nodded. "That's right. The Fairy Academy has a deep foundation. If you are always under the protection of the Fairy Academy, the Fairbright Club would definitely not dare to touch you. However, as cultivators, instead of seeking the protection of others, it's better to have strength and protect ourselves.

"Although you're unwilling to join the Howard family and study in the Howard family, fate has indeed brought us together. If you don't mind, I'm willing to teach you the basic mental cultivation method of the Howard family. I wonder if you're willing to learn it?"

Jordan hesitated for a moment and asked the mysterious man in his body immediately, "Senior, what's the Howard family's basic mental cultivation method? Can I learn it?"

The mysterious man said, “Hehe, the basic mental cultivation method is something that was only invented in the past 200 years. At that time, we didn’t have it. I didn’t create any basic mental cultivation method myself. I only had it later. I’ve heard a few juniors who have just stepped into the Half Immortal Realm and Celestial King Realm talking about this thing. They said that it’s quite useful. It can help you cultivate at the beginning until you step into the Half Immortal Realm or even the Celestial King Realm. It will always penetrate your cultivation thinking and method.

“In layman’s terms, although it’s the most basic breathing technique, it can stimulate one’s subconscious. A good basic mental cultivation technique is also quite important. I only found out that I needed this thing halfway through cultivation and created a set myself.”

Jordan said, “Senior, you call the Half Immortals your juniors. Why are they also juniors if they are Immortals? Are you the first to become an Immortals? Did the others appear later than you?”

The mysterious man laughed and said, “Hahahaha... In the words of your country, everyone is a younger brother.”

The mysterious man was still domineering, as if he didn’t care about anyone.

Jordan said, “Since you’ve created a mental cultivation method yourself, I’ll learn it from you. I won’t learn it from him.”

The mysterious man said, “You can’t learn mine. My mental cultivation method was only cultivated when I reached the Grandmaster Realm. You should learn it from the Howard family. I guess the Howard family’s basic mental cultivation method will be much better than the Fairy Academy’s. Your father-in-law is willing to teach the Howard family’s basic mental cultivation method to you. It’s considered a huge effort.”

Upon hearing the mysterious man’s words, Jordan knew that in order to win him over, Hathor was giving Jordan some benefits so that Jordan would remember their kindness. If Jordan became more powerful in the future, he would remember them.

Therefore, Jordan bowed his head slightly and said to Hathor, "Thank you, Lord Howard."

Hathor said, "Our Howard family's basic mental cultivation method has never been taught to outsiders. Please follow me to the inner hall to learn it."

Jordan nodded. Subsequently, he gave Emily a look, hinting that she should not be anxious. Jordan would teach her when he learned it.

"Dawn is so good to me!"

Emily also understood. She felt that she had a very good tacit understanding with "Dawn". Although it was their first time meeting, she could tell what the other party was trying to express with just one look.

This kind of tacit understanding was only shared with Victoria or Jordan in the past.

Jordan could only blame himself for being too good at disguising himself in this world. She could not see any similarities between Dawn and Jordan at all.

When he arrived at the inner hall, Hathor gave Jordan something that looked like a futon and asked him to sit on it. Then, he taught him word by word.

Hathor said, "Our Howard family's basic mental cultivation technique is called the Celestial Heaven Technique. It was created by my grandfather. Although it's only a basic cultivation technique for breathing, the higher your realm, the more powerful you will find it.

"Three hundred years ago, when I was at my peak, I used the Celestial Cultivation Technique with finger force. With a finger, I killed an expert in the Advanced Realm!"

Jordan did not forget to flatter his father-in-law, "Lord Howard, you're amazing. The Celestial Heaven Technique is amazing. May I ask if your children also learned this?"

Hathor nodded. "Of course. My daughter, Levana, followed a very powerful teacher, Xavier. She learned many skills from him. However, Levana's basic mental cultivation technique is still the Howard family's Celestial Cultivation Technique. In terms of basic mental cultivation techniques, I don't think our Howard family's Celestial Heaven Technique is inferior to his other mental cultivation techniques."

When Jordan heard that Levana also learnt this, he wanted to learn this even more. He wanted to learn the same thing as Levana! If he walked the path that Levana had taken and did what she had done, Jordan would feel closer to her.

Jordan did not want Levana to distance herself from Jordan and have nothing to talk about because she had 200 years more memories.

"Lord Howard, please teach me the Celestial Heaven Technique!"

1419 Energy Storage Immortal Stone

Jordan did not expect that the first time he came to his parents-in-law's house on Celestial King Planet, he would be taught high-grade basic mental cultivation techniques by his father-in-law.

This treatment was much better than what he experienced with Lauren's family on Earth.

Jordan had a bitter experience that gradually improved in the capital. The Howard family in the capital knew about Jordan's background. They hoped to cling to the mysterious Steeles, so they supported Jordan and Lauren being together.

However, Jordan was alone on the Celestial King Planet. He couldn't rely on any family.

Unless Jordan made a name for himself, Hathor would never agree to his marriage with Levana.

About four hours later, Jordan learned and memorized the Howard family's basic mental cultivation method, the Celestial Heaven Technique. Hathor brought him out of the inner hall.

"Miss Dawn, you have to remember the verses of the Celestial Heaven Technique. After you go to the Fairy Academy, you must practice diligently. At least, you have to practice every day for the next month. After you familiarize yourself with it and consolidate your foundation, you can practice it every three days. Slowly, you can freely adjust your time."

Hathor instructed Jordan as he walked out.

Jordan also bowed his head and thanked Hathor, "Thank you, Lord Howard. I'll definitely cultivate the Celestial Heaven Technique well. However, I've just tested my talent and haven't really entered the apprentice stage. I'm afraid cultivating it won't be effective temporarily. When I become an apprentice cultivator, I'll definitely cultivate every day."

Jordan had only just tested his talent. It was a tier ten talent, but he could not be considered a true Celestial King Planet cultivator yet.

Unexpectedly, Hathor said, "No, you're already an apprentice cultivator. You can cultivate the Celestial Heaven Technique at any time."

At this moment, the two of them had already walked outside. Elle also walked forward.

Jordan was extremely surprised. "What did you say? I'm already an apprentice?"

Hathor laughed and said, "Don't you feel anything? Hahaha, why do you think we spent so much time just now?"

Elle stepped forward and said, "Dawn, you're already an apprentice. I can feel it. Lord Howard, thank you for helping Dawn enter the door of cultivation. It was originally my job but you did for me. Thank you."

Hathor waved his hand. "It's nothing. A tier ten genius stepping into the apprentice stage is as easy as drinking water and walking. I beat Miss Elle to it. Hehe, I hope Miss Elle doesn't mind. However, from now on, Miss Dawn will have to rely on Miss Elle to advance from an apprentice to a disciple."

Elle lowered her head and said, "Of course. I'll definitely make Miss Dawn a disciple as soon as possible."

Jordan did not expect to become an apprentice cultivator unknowingly. After hearing what he said, Jordan felt that his breathing was indeed different from before.

Previously, when he came to the Celestial King Planet, he always felt a sense of discomfort. He felt that the air here was repelled by his body.

But now, there was a feeling that the two were infinitely close to each other, and it was very comfortable.

"I'm finally an apprentice cultivator. Alt is also an apprentice..."

At that moment, Jordan recalled Alt whom he had encountered at the hotel. Jordan had lost to him in a one-on-one battle. He had been beaten up by him and it was very embarrassing.

Currently, Jordan was on the same level as him. Although he might not be able to defeat him if they fought now, Jordan was at least qualified to challenge him.

Hathor said, "By the way, I still have two immortal stones here. Miss Dawn, take them to protect yourself."

Hathor handed Jordan two glowing stones.

Jordan was shocked. "Immortal Stone? Protection?"

Jordan did not know what it meant. How could he protect himself with these two stones?

When the bad guys came, would he throw them over?

Jordan felt that a pistol was more useful.

Elle, on the other hand, looked shocked. “Immortal stone? Is... Is this an energy storage immortal stone? What level is it?”

Hathor said nonchalantly, “Oh, it’s just a small thing at the level of a scholar.”

Elle exclaimed, “Oh my god, a scholar-level energy storage immortal stone! This piece is worth a million purple gold coins!”

Seeing how excited Elle was, Jordan asked immediately, “Miss Elle, what’s an energy storage immortal stone? Is this thing very valuable? What’s its use?”

Elle explained, “It’s like this. On our Celestial King Planet, someone tried to store their realm energy in a stone. After the stone explodes, they can instantly unleash the strength of that realm. For example, the two Immortal Stones that Lord Howard gave you. After you detonate them, they will immediately release an energy of the same realm that can help you defeat the enemy and give you a chance to escape.

“Normally, it’s very difficult to buy Immortal Stones with the ability to store spiritual energy. To low-level cultivators like us, they’re very precious. Some even have to go to an auction to obtain them.

“Miss Dawn, Lord Howard is really sincere to give you these two stones. You have to remember Lord Howard’s kindness and thank the Howard family in the future.”

Hathor smiled and waved his hand. “Hey, Miss Elle, you’re being too serious. It’s just a small thing in our Howard family. There’s no need to take it to heart. I’m also worried about Miss Dawn’s safety. After all, the entire Federation knows about your tier ten talent, especially the evil Fairbright Club. If they have evil intentions and want to kill you in the cradle and send someone to assassinate you, you can take this out to protect yourself.

“I don’t want anything to happen to such a talented woman. Our Celestial King Planet has never had a female Immortal. I’m looking forward to seeing you break this phenomenon and become the first Immortal Queen! Do you know that my daughter, Levana, has been working hard to be the first Immortal Queen of the Celestial King Planet?”

1420 Meeting Victoria Again

The first Immortal Queen of the Celestial King Planet!

It turned out that Levana used to be such an ambitious cultivator!

Jordan smiled lightly. Unfortunately, he was a man. The reason why he disguised himself as a woman was to avoid Gerald’s pursuit. One day, when he could get rid of Gerald, Jordan would no longer have to pretend to be a woman.

As such, there was nothing he could do about being the first Immortal Queen.

Just as Jordan walked out and was about to return to their Fairy Academy with Emily, someone suddenly ran over quickly.

This person was dressed in tight gray clothes, just like the yoga clothes worn on Earth. Compared to Hestia’s gorgeous clothes, they were slightly inferior. However, the woman’s figure was curvaceous. When she ran, the indescribable way her body moved made many men unable to remain calm.

However, what Jordan was concerned about was not her figure, but her face.

Jordan was all too familiar with that face.

It was none other than Victoria, whom Jordan loved and hated at the same time! Jordan was stunned when he saw Victoria again. He was more shocked to see Victoria than to see Emily and Rong Bingshao.

After all, too many things had happened between Jordan and Victoria.

Jordan had once loved Victoria deeply. For her, he did not hesitate to travel through time and space. Similarly, he also hated Victoria for being with his uncle.

However, now that they met again on the Celestial King Planet, Jordan felt that those things in the past did not seem to matter anymore.

Jordan no longer hated Victoria. He only hoped that he and Victoria could cultivate safely on Celestial King Planet.

Victoria obviously knew that Emily was back and came for her.

Victoria excitedly ran towards Emily. "Emily, you're done with the test? What's the result?"

Emily jumped up happily. "Sister! I have cultivation talent. I'm in the first tier!"

Victoria was ecstatic. "Really? Oh my god, that's great!"

Victoria held Emily in her arms. She was already very happy that Emily had any form of cultivation talent. After all, on Earth, she had tested Emily with immortal water. She had no mutant aptitude at all. As for mutant aptitude, it largely determined whether a person had cultivation talent on the Celestial King Planet.

Emily chatted with Victoria for a bit before introducing her. "Sister, let me introduce you to a friend I just made. She is a tenth-tier talent, Dawn! Like me, she's from the Fairy Academy!"

Actually, Victoria had heard from Levana that there was a person who had obtained a tier-ten talent.

Victoria glanced at Dawn. Just like everyone else, even though Victoria and Jordan were once lovers, Victoria did not recognize that the person in front of her was Jordan.

Victoria respectfully greeted. "Hello, Dawn. It is an honor to meet you. Congratulations on obtaining a tier-ten talent. In the future, at the Fairy Academy, if possible, I hope you can help take care of my sister."

Jordan seemed to have a thousand things to say to Victoria, but he did not say anything in the end.

Jordan only nodded slightly.

"Thank you."

Victoria thanked Dawn.

Hathor also asked Victoria. "Victoria, have you been cultivating your Celestial Heaven Technique every day?"

When Victoria first entered the Howard family, Hathor didn't even look at her. He looked down on these people from the low-level Planet Blue and didn't think that Levana would be able to pick out any high potential seedlings.

However, after the talent test, Hathor discovered that the disciples chosen by Levana were all quite talented. Only then did Hathor change its attitude towards them.

Victoria respectfully replied. "Thank you for your concern, Clan Master. I have been cultivating the Celestial Heaven Technique every day. I don't dare to slack off."

Hathor nodded. "Yes, you cultivated slightly earlier than Dawn, but the two of you can be considered to be in the same batch. I predict that the time between you becoming disciples, scholars, and grandmasters won't be much different. Hehe, this batch has many talented people. You can get to know each other. For a long time in the future, you might become competitors in the same period."

Victoria looked at Jordan with hostility in her eyes.

Jordan knew that Victoria had always been a strong woman. He did not expect to become her competitor one day.

Victoria looked at Hathor again and said, "Clan Master, I heard that in half a year, it will be the Federation's biennial Hunting Competition. Master said that Clan Master will usually choose some of his disciples to be his assistants. I am also very interested in hunting. I wonder if Master can let me follow you and be your assistant?"

Hathor said, "Oh? You haven't been on the Celestial King Planet for long, but you know a lot of things. Well, I need a few disciple-level people. In half a year, you'll almost reach the disciple realm. Although your looks are a little mediocre, it's not impossible to bring you out with a little makeup.

"However, you're too young. In half a year, you'll still be underage. If I bring you to hunt, the other families will probably scold me for using underage girls."
