1441 Taking the Cursed Spiritual Pill

Three days later.

Jordan asked Vice Dean Evelyn to leave first and promised her that he would return to the Fairy Academy within a week.

The reason why he wanted to stay here for a few more days was to wait for Hunter Stone. He guessed that Hunter Stone would definitely come back to look for him.

As expected, on the third night after Jordan handed the Cursed Spiritual Pill to Hunter Stone, Hunter Stone appeared again.

Jordan was overjoyed when he saw Hunter Stone with his braids. He quickly greeted him, "Hunter Stone, we meet again! Come in and have a glass of milk wine. I specially prepared it for you."

After Jordan guessed that Hunter Stone might be from the Qing Dynasty, he specially found some milk wine that the Qing Dynasty liked.

Hunter Stone walked in with a serious expression and asked, "Where is Vice Dean Evelyn?"

Jordan said, "I've already asked her to go back early. I guessed that you would come back to look for me, so I wanted to wait for you here alone."

Hunter Stone walked over and sat down. It was obvious that he was willing to drink at the same table as Jordan.

Jordan poured a glass of milk wine for Hunter Stone and asked, "Did Donovan Cross snatch the Cursed Spiritual Pill I gave you?"

Hunter Stone nodded. "Of course not."

Jordan smiled, "That's good. It seems like your ability is better than Donovan Cross's."

Donovan Cross personally went to snatch it, but he returned in defeat. This meant that Hunter Stone's strength was definitely not weaker than Donovan Cross.

Hunter Stone asked, "Last time, I heard the poem you recited. Are you also an Earthling from Planet 9696? Are you a descendant of the Qing Dynasty?"

Jordan was stunned for a moment and said, "Uh, the Qing Dynasty has been over for many years. I'm from Earth, but I'm not from the Aisin Gioro family. Which emperor of the Qing Dynasty were you?"

Jordan felt that Hunter Stone looked like an emperor.

Hunter Stone sighed. "Well... The Qing Dynasty is gone... As expected, no one can stop the change of era."

Hunter Stone drank a cup of wine first. Seeing that he did not reveal his identity, Jordan did not continue to ask.

Jordan and Hunter Stone had a few glasses of wine. Then, they talked about Earth and closed the distance between them.

Hunter Stone said, "I was the first person on Earth to come to the Celestial King Planet. I thought that I was the only one. Here, I have no friends and no backing. I am working hard alone to become an Immortal and achieve the greatest achievement. I didn't expect to meet you today. You have a tenth-tier talent. You will definitely become an Immortal earlier than me in the future. You gave me the Cursed Spiritual Pill this time. Is there anything you need my help with?"

Jordan spoke frankly and told Hunter Stone everything about Donovan Cross and Levana.

When Hunter Stone heard this, he was shocked. "You're actually a man? Levana actually became a mortal and went to Earth? Moreover, she became husband and wife with you and had a child? If Donovan Cross knows about this, you definitely won't live past tomorrow morning!"

Jordan said, "Levana and I love each other very much. I came to the Immortal King Planet this time to kill Donovan Cross and be with Levana and my daughter again. I hope you can help me. When I become an Immortal King in the future, I'll definitely repay you!"

On the other hand, Hunter Stone was in a difficult position. He stood up and said, "Jordan, it's not that I don't want to help you, but there's nothing I can do. Although Donovan Cross is my junior, he's very talented and his strength has improved very quickly. If it was the first fifty years, I'm confident that I could defeat him. However, I'm no longer confident that I can kill him now. Moreover, there's another important factor. Do you know who the backer behind Donovan Cross is?"

Jordan shook his head.

Hunter Stone said, "Half-immortal Xavier! He is also the master of your wife, Levana! Xavier and Donovan Cross have an extraordinary relationship. If I kill Donovan Cross, it would be the same as offending Xavier. He is a half-immortal. Killing me is as easy as crushing an ant. I'm sorry, but I can't take this risk for you. I advise you not to take this risk either."

Hunter Stone was cautious by nature. Otherwise, he would not have been able to survive on the Celestial King Planet for so long and achieve such outstanding results.

Jordan did not force him. "Alright, I won't force you. Since you're afraid of Xavier's revenge, just pretend that you haven't seen me today and don't know about this."

Hunter Stone said, "Jordan, don't worry. Although I, Hunter Stone, don't dare to take the risk, I'm definitely not the kind of person to complain behind my back. Moreover, I also hate Donovan Cross. When he was still a Grandmaster, he challenged me repeatedly. Just because he has a backer and I don't, he often dares to act recklessly in front of me. I've long wanted to teach him a lesson."

“Since you’ve come to the Celestial King Planet, forget about Earth. You have a tier ten talent, and you can have any woman you want in the future. Even if you want Levana, she will be willing.”

Jordan said, “But that will take hundreds of years. I have to get rid of Donovan Cross now. Otherwise, Donovan Cross and Levana will get married!”

Hunter Stone retorted, “So what if he’s married?”

“Levana is my wife. How can I allow her to marry another man? Do you want me to watch them sleep for hundreds of years? I’ll bring my wife back after I become a Celestial King! Levana and I have a pure love. I’m the only man she has in her life. I won’t allow her to have another!”

Hunter Stone continued to ask, “How do you know that you’re the only one in her life? How do you know that she’s the only one for you? Although I don’t know Levana, I’ve heard from others that Levana already has someone in her heart. That person is her master, Xavier. She has liked Xavier for hundreds of years, but how many years has she liked you? Now that she has recovered all her memories, how important do you think those years of yours will be in her life?”

At that moment, Jordan fell silent. Perhaps, in Levana’s heart, he could not compare to Xavier at all.

Jordan said, “I don’t know if Levana likes Xavier, but I know that Xavier doesn’t like Donovan Cross. Otherwise, why would he let Donovan Cross marry Levana? No matter what happens, my plan will not change. I will kill Donovan Cross and be with Levana again!”

Seeing how determined Jordan was, Hunter Stone stopped trying to dissuade him. “Alright, since you’ve made up your mind, I won’t say anything else.”

Hunter Stone took out the Cursed Spiritual Pill from his pocket and threw it to Jordan, “You’re not even afraid of death, let alone a mere curse. I can’t help you kill Donovan Cross. You should take it yourself.”

Jordan took the Cursed Spiritual Pill. He knew that this thing would allow him to instantly advance to the Grandmaster Realm. He did not say anything else and consumed it.

After consuming it, Jordan's body felt like it was on fire. Fortunately, Hunter Stone was by his side to help him cool down. Otherwise, Jordan suspected that his body would explode.

Jordan only calmed down after two hours.

Jordan was sweating profusely as he thanked Hunter Stone, "Hunter Stone, thank you..."

However, Hunter Stone looked at Jordan in fear, "You... You... You actually..."

1442 Advancement to Unrivaled Realm

Hunter Stone looked at Jordan in horror as if he was looking at a monster!

Even Jordan was confused. He asked, "What's wrong?"

Jordan only felt that his body had experienced something. Now, he felt unprecedentedly comfortable. His breathing had also become different. He could even casually flip his hand and feel that it was different from before. With a flip of his hand, he felt like he was in control of everything.

Hunter Stone was stunned for a moment and shouted, "You actually directly crossed the Grandmaster Realm and became an Unrivaled cultivator!"

Jordan was stunned too, "What? I'm in the Unrivaled Realm now?"

Above the Advanced Scholar Realm was the Grandmaster Realm. The Grandmaster Realm was the sign of a Celestial King Planet expert. Levana's father was at the Grandmaster Realm.

The Cursed Spiritual Pill could instantly increase a cultivator's strength greatly. Hunter Stone and Jordan both thought that after taking it, Jordan could reach the peak of the Grandmaster Realm.

However, he did not expect that he would directly cross the Grandmaster level and reach the same Unrivaled realm as Hunter Stone and Donovan Cross!

Hunter Stone pointed at the reddish-purple glow on Jordan's body, "Look at the light on your body. This is the symbol of the Unrivaled! Oh my god, you're indeed a genius with a tier ten talent. You actually crossed to the Unrivaled Realm in an instant. Your current strength is not much weaker than mine, but you used a few hundred years less than me!"

Speaking of which, Hunter Stone was incredibly jealous of Jordan. Ever since he came to the Celestial King Planet, he had been cultivating day and night. He did not recognize anyone, make friends, or like anyone. All he wanted was to level up and cultivate.

Even so, he could not compare to one percent of Jordan.

Jordan was overjoyed too. "That's great! I'm unparalleled too! I can finally challenge Donovan Cross myself!"

Jordan was very happy. He was now an Unrivaled like Donovan Cross. He could finally fight to the death with his enemy and love rival!

The mysterious man also smiled and said, "Hehe, not bad. I'm getting impatient. I'm looking forward to watching the good show of you and Donovan Cross!"

However, Hunter Stone reminded him from the side, "Jordan, although you're also at the Unrivaled Realm, I don't think you can kill Donovan Cross in a short period of time. Of course, I've already understood your determination to kill him.

"If you must kill him, I'll give you two suggestions. First, develop a cultivation technique that belongs to you. Those above the Grandmaster level have their own signature attack method. Everyone is different. You have too many abilities to choose from. You have to slowly find them yourself. It took me fifty years just to find and choose a set of trump cards that belonged to me.”

Jordan smiled, “Hunter Stone, thank you for your reminder. I think I already know what my trump card skill is.”

In fact, Jordan was considered a cultivator on Earth. He had obtained the ability of the Immortal Lake on Earth and had a set of abilities that enabled him to make something out of nothing.

This ability was also a very powerful ability in the current Celestial King Planet!

However, Jordan had lost this ability after coming to the Celestial King Planet. The mysterious man said that he could only use it again if he reached Grandmaster or above.

Now, Jordan was an Unrivaled cultivator. He could finally create something out of nothing like he did on Earth!

The mysterious man seemed to have guessed Jordan’s thoughts. He complained, “Are you trying to make something out of nothing again? If you’re so unoriginal, why don’t you develop a new skill yourself and let me see it for myself?”

Jordan replied in his heart, “Senior, you know that this is my original ability and time is tight. In order to deal with Donovan Cross, I don’t have time to think of a new move. After dealing with Donovan Cross, I’ll definitely develop a new move that belongs to me.”

Hunter Stone continued, “Yes, the second suggestion is physical fitness.”

Jordan was puzzled. “Physical fitness?”

Jordan thought that his physical fitness had always been very good. When he was on Earth, his physical strength was like a monster’s. He had been trained by his family since he was young. Furthermore, he had the injection of the Mirakuru serum and became a mutant.

His physical ability was simply outstanding.

Hunter Stone said, "That's right. Don't think that your physical fitness is very good. This is the easiest to ignore. It's also the most decisive factor in your victory. When you have your own trump card skill, you will know that when you use one of your ultimate moves, a car might explode instantly and a building will collapse. Your ability will become stronger and stronger. Similarly, the physical demands will be very high.

"Furthermore, the Unparalleled Realm cultivators all have a common problem. They don't want to get hurt because it will affect our cultivation progress. The requirement of the glorious realm is perfection. The perfection of your body and the perfection of your ability. You can't look like you have any flaws to be promoted to the glorious realm.

"Look at me and Donovan Cross. We've fought countless times over the years, but we've never been injured by either side. We use all our strength to avoid danger. When our physical fitness doesn't allow us to be 100% confident of avoiding danger, we'll retreat and fight another day."

After hearing Hunter Stone's words, Jordan was slightly shocked. He did not expect a Unrivaled Realm cultivator to fight like this. This was unlike low level people. Once a battle started, they would fight to the death.

Jordan said, "So, you're telling me that if I want to kill Donovan Cross, he won't fight me anymore when his stamina isn't enough to deal with me. Instead, he'll choose to escape?"

Jordan knew what to do. If Donovan Cross wanted to escape, Jordan had to be prepared in advance. He could not let him escape.

Hunter Stone shook his head. "No, I want to tell you that if your stamina is not enough to completely avoid risks, don't continue fighting Donovan Cross. Run."

Jordan smiled. "I won't run."

Hunter Stone said, "If you don't run, you have to have stronger physical fitness than Donovan Cross. Our physical fitness is about the same. Come, take a few moves from me. I'll test your physical fitness."

Hearing this, Jordan also wanted to fight Hunter Stone because his strength was about the same as Donovan Cross's. This would help him fight Donovan Cross in the future.

Jordan made an inviting gesture.

Hunter Stone pondered for a moment and raised his hands. In an instant, all the rocks nearby were gathered together. Subsequently, he twisted the rocks into a wall and launched it at Jordan!

Of course, Jordan was prepared. He jumped and dodged it. However, he did not expect the huge rock to not land on the ground. Instead, it targeted Jordan again like an automatic GPS.

"What?!"

Jordan flew up directly.

Hunter Stone said, "My stone has locked onto you. Unless you shoot it down, it will always follow you."

When Jordan saw that, he did not hesitate anymore. Since he was already in the Unrivaled Realm, he would test how powerful the Unrivaled Realm was!

Jordan could not create something out of nothing for the time being. He used his palm force to shatter the huge rock firmly.

BOOM!

The huge rock shattered and scattered.

Jordan's attack was indeed unparalleled. He successfully shattered Hunter Stone's attack!

However, at that moment, Jordan was panting and could not even stand steadily.

1443 Thousand Star Grass

Seeing Jordan shatter his boulder, Hunter Stone could not help but walk forward and sigh, “Jordan, I didn’t expect you to shatter my full-power attack with your bare hands. It’s an attack at the late-stage of Unrivaled Realm. It’s unbelievable... Your talent is really something I’ve never seen in hundreds of years.

“However, look at you now. You’ve almost exhausted all your stamina. If you attack or defend next, it’s impossible for you to be in a deadlock with your Unrivaled Realm opponent. You can only run. If you want to have the ability to continue fighting Donovan Cross, you have to increase your physical fitness. Otherwise, you will never have a chance to defeat him.”

Hunter Stone patted Jordan’s shoulder and said, “Jordan, take care of yourself. I hope a genius like you doesn’t die too early. That will be the regret of the entire Earth.”

“Senior...” Jordan said slowly.

The mysterious man said, “I know what you want to ask. You want to ask how to improve your physical state, right?”

Jordan nodded.

The mysterious man said, “Hunter Stone is right. After reaching the Unrivaled Realm, physical fitness will become the first hurdle for Unrivaled cultivators. Although they have all kinds of ever-changing abilities, after using this monstrous ability, they would deplete almost all of their energy. Therefore, after learning a trump card skill, what the Unparalleled Practitioner has to do almost every day is to increase his physical fitness and power.

“Physical fitness is also a natural talent. Some people are born with better physical fitness than others. You’re above average, but you’re far from reaching the top. I’ve encountered people with better physical fitness than you. I can’t count them with both hands. Already panting like this after receiving a blow from Hunter Stone... Someone like you is still too weak!”

Jordan did not dare to refute the mysterious man’s sarcasm. The truth was indeed so. If he could not even defeat Hunter Stone, how could he fight Donovan Cross?

“I know that I’m not the most talented in physical fitness. I’m just relying on you, Senior, to make others think that I’m the most talented. Senior, I hope you can tell me how to improve my physical fitness!”

After Jordan entered the Unrivaled Realm, he only needed to do two things. The first was to learn a set of his trump card skills. He already had the ability to make something out of nothing.

The second thing was to improve his physical fitness.

The mysterious man said, “Increasing your physical fitness requires accumulated training over time to slowly increase your body’s endurance. You won’t see any major effects without a hundred years.”

Jordan said, “Senior, you know that I can’t wait a hundred years. I don’t even want to wait a year. Is there a way to quickly improve my physical fitness?”

The mysterious man said, “You brat, how can you cultivate like this? You always want to take shortcuts! If your foundation is unstable like this, you will definitely not be able to compete with people of the same level in the battle between late-stage Half-immortals or Immortals. Do you know that?”

Jordan said, “I don’t care about what happens next. I’ve never thought of becoming a Half Immortal or Immortal. I only want to defeat Donovan Cross and be with Levana and our daughter again. If I stay in the Unrivaled Realm for the rest of my life. I have no complaints.”

The mysterious man snorted coldly. “Even with access to my help, you actually don’t want to become an Immortal. What an idiot. Alright, since you want to take a shortcut, I’ll tell you. There is indeed a way to quickly improve your physical fitness on this planet.

“Go find something called Thousand Star Grass. This grass is a product from a planet called Thousand Star Planet. It’s extremely precious and can increase a person’s physical fitness in a short period of time. However, this thing is not easy to find, and almost no one sells it.”

Jordan said hurriedly, “Ordinary people can’t find it? Senior, a top-notch Immortal like you must have it, right?”

The mysterious man hurriedly said, “I don’t. Don’t have any ideas about me! Whoever gets this thing will eat it immediately. Who will keep it? After I see the Thousand Star Grass, I will definitely eat it in less than three seconds!”

Upon hearing the mysterious man’s words, Jordan also felt that it must be very difficult to find the Thousand Star Grass. This was because almost everyone who cultivated needed such a treasure. Who would complain about having too much stamina?

Even those who were already physically strong would continue to strengthen themselves.

However, Jordan still had to give it a try.

Therefore, Jordan immediately set off for the Fairy Academy. He found the dean and a group of outstanding alumni and asked them if they knew the whereabouts of the Thousand Star Grass.

However, they all said that they had never seen such a rare treasure before.

Just as Jordan was feeling disappointed, he suddenly received an invitation from Hathor. Hathor had specially sent his son, Levana’s brother, Grannus, to look for Jordan personally. He had even prepared a gift.

Grannus said respectfully, "Congratulations, Miss Dawn, for obtaining the Cursed Spiritual Pill and rising to the Unparalleled realm! Miss Dawn can be said to be the first cultivator on the Celestial King Planet to directly cross over to the Grandmaster Realm. It's really an eye-opener. Now, on the Celestial King Planet, there are good stories about Miss Dawn."

Jordan glanced at Grannus and thought of Lauren's younger brother, Brad, who was in the capital.

Jordan said, "You're too kind. I was just lucky."

Grannus smiled and said, "Miss Dawn, my father specially asked me to invite you to visit our home. He said that although the Cursed Spiritual Pill has powerful functions, there are also some risks. My father knows that Miss Dawn has just arrived and doesn't know many things. Although my father's realm is no longer comparable to yours, he has dominated the Celestial King Planet for hundreds of years and is knowledgeable. He can still help Miss Dawn."

Jordan thought about it. He could ask Hathor about the Thousand Star Grass. Perhaps he would know.

Jordan said, "Alright, I was just about to visit Lord Howard again. I'll go back with you.."

Grannus was overjoyed. "That's great. Please board the ship."

Sitting in Grannus's spaceship, Jordan was serious while Grannus asked Jordan about something.

Jordan suddenly asked, "How's your sister, Levana?"

Grannus smiled and said, "Thank you for your concern, Miss Dawn. She has been busy teaching her disappointing disciples recently and wasn't able to meet you. I'll get her to put down what she's doing and wait for you in the living room."

Jordan said immediately, "There's no need. I have a private matter to discuss with Lord Howard this time. I don't want to see anyone else other than Lord Howard."

Jordan did not want to see Levana for the time being.

Grannus nodded repeatedly. "No problem. If you need anything, just talk to my father. The Howards will definitely help you with all our might!"

After arriving at the Howards' residence, they did not receive Jordan in the living room because they knew that he had private matters to discuss. Instead, he was taken to the Howard family's secret room.

In the secret room.

"Miss Dawn, I didn't expect that when we would meet again, your cultivation level has already surpassed mine. I really can't believe this fact! How lucky am I to be able to be friends with you!"

1444 Levana Is About to Get Married

If Hathor knew that the person in front of him was the husband her daughter had found on a low-level planet, how would he feel?

Perhaps, if Jordan confessed his identity now, Hathor would no longer object to him being with Levana. However, even if the Howard family accepted Jordan, Jordan had to kill Donovan Cross.

Jordan smiled. "Lord Howard, you flatter me. It's my honor to have such a fate with the Howard family. I also hope to improve my relationship with the Howard family a step further in the future."

"A step further?"

Hathor's eyes lit up when he heard Jordan's words. Could it be that Dawn had taken a fancy to Grannus?

Hathor smiled and did not probe further. “I just received a message from Grannus. He said that Miss Dawn has an extremely secretive private matter that she wants to discuss with me. There’s no one else here. If you have anything to say, just say it.”

Jordan asked about the Thousand Star Grass, “Lord Howard, as you know, I’ve just entered the Unrivaled Realm. As my foundation is unstable, my stamina can’t support my abilities. I sparred with Hunter Stone once before. I almost exhausted all my stamina just by resisting his full-power attack.”

Hathor nodded. “That’s right. Although I haven’t been able to break through to the Unparalleled Realm, I know that when you reach the Unparalleled Realm, you have to consider the consumption of your physical strength. This is because every move in the Unparalleled Realm can consume a very large amount of spiritual power in the Celestial King Planet. Miss Dawn’s strength has advanced too quickly, and her foundation is unstable, so it’s normal for her physical fitness to be slightly poor. As long as she cultivates diligently, her physical fitness will slowly improve.”

Jordan said, “I don’t want to wait too long. I heard that there’s a divine item called the Thousand Star Grass. After eating it, it can quickly increase one’s physical fitness. Does Lord Howard know its whereabouts?”

Hathor was stunned. “Thousand Star Grass? This...”

Hathor wanted to say something but hesitated. It was obvious that he understood this thing and probably knew where it was!

Jordan said immediately, “Lord Howard, if you know the whereabouts of the Thousand Star Grass, please tell me. I’ll definitely repay you handsomely in the future!”

Hathor hesitated for a moment and said, “The Thousand Star Grass is extremely precious. It is something that every cultivator above the Unparalleled Realm needs. You can’t buy it no matter how much money you spend. Usually, only those who have reached the Half Immortal Realm can find the Thousand Star Grass. Moreover, once the Thousand Star Grass is discovered, it will be consumed almost immediately and won't be kept."

Jordan nodded. "I've heard about that too. Although I know the chances are slim, I still have to try my best to find it. I have a feeling that there's still a chance. I don't believe that everyone will eat the Thousand Star Grass immediately after getting it. There will always be exceptions."

Hathor burst into laughter after hearing that. "Hahaha, there will always be exceptions! Alright, I'll tell you. There is indeed an exception. There was a half-immortal god who did not eat the Thousand Star Grass after obtaining it. Instead, he gave it to his disciple. As for that disciple of his, he was also rather strange. He actually did not eat it. Instead, he kept it like a gift."

Jordan was overjoyed when he heard that. "Someone really kept it? Where's the Thousand Star Grass now? What's the name of that half-immortal's disciple?"

Hathor smiled and said, "Levana."

The smile on Jordan's face stopped abruptly.

Hathor continued to smile and said, "That's right. The Thousand Star Grass that you've been searching for is now in my daughter's secret chamber. This Thousand Star Grass was given to her by her teacher, the half-immortal Xavier. It's a gift for Levana to advance to the unparalleled level. However, that silly girl Levana has been keeping it and not eating it. I've always advised her to take it as soon as possible because this thing is extremely precious. If she keeps it, I'm afraid others will covet it and it will greatly increase her ability."

"But she said that with her Master protecting her, she wouldn't be afraid of anyone snatching it from her. She also wouldn't fight with anyone. Her stamina is strong enough. She said that the Thousand Star Grass is quite beautiful and it's better to keep it. Don't you think she's foolish?"

Jordan's expression gradually darkened. Although he had finally found the whereabouts of the Thousand Star Grass, he was not happy at all.

This was because the Thousand Star Grass was with Levana. How was Jordan going to get it from her?

This was only secondary. This Thousand Star Grass was actually given to her by Levana's master. Levana actually treated it like a treasure! It was obvious that Levana's treasure wasn't the Thousand Star Grass, but the person who gave it to her!

At that moment, Jordan felt a little jealous.

The mysterious man sensed Jordan's thoughts and said with a smirk, "Why? Are you jealous? Since you know the whereabouts of the Thousand Star Grass, why don't you hurry up and snatch it? Hehe, although there will be some obstacles in Levana's secret room, based on the understanding between the two of you, won't it be easy to crack it?"

Jordan was confident that he could sneak into Levana's secret room and steal the Thousand Star Grass. However, he felt that doing so was very humiliating.

Hathor saw Jordan's dejected expression and said, "Miss Dawn, this Thousand Star Grass is very important to my daughter. Therefore, I'm sorry. I don't think she'll give it to you or sell it to you."

Hathor would never give something as precious as the Thousand Star Grass to Jordan. He would rather let Levana eat it herself.

Jordan nodded. "Alright. Since that thing is so important to Miss Levana, I won't force her. I'll look for it elsewhere."

After leaving the Howard family, Jordan returned to the Fairy Academy and remained in a daze in his room at the top of the mountain.

He didn't know what to do.

The mysterious man, who had always been unwilling to talk to Jordan, became energetic. He kept talking, “Hey, Jordan, why don’t you steal the Thousand Star Grass? You don’t have to worry about being discovered. I have a way to sneak into Levana’s secret room. I guarantee that no one will find out. Go steal it quickly. If you steal the Thousand Star Grass, you can fight Donovan Cross after eating it!”

Jordan was also enraged. He said angrily, “You know that it was given to her by Xavier! She treasured it like a love token! How do you expect me to steal it?! If I steal it, then what am I?!”

The mysterious man laughed happily. “Isn’t that good? You steal a love token from the person your wife has a crush on, then use another man’s gift to your wife to defeat another love rival who wants to marry your wife. Then, you get back together with your wife and children. Your wife will definitely be very touched, haha.”

Jordan clenched his fists. He knew that the mysterious man was mocking him, but there was nothing he could do.

He didn’t want the item Xavier gave her, but if he didn’t take it, how could he stop Donovan Cross from marrying Levana?

Just like that, more than a month passed.

Jordan, who was cultivating in the Fairy Academy, was suddenly invited by Grannus personally again.

When he saw the beaming Grannus, Jordan asked, “Grannus, why are you here again? Does Lord Howard have news about the Thousand Star Grass again?”

Grannus took out an invitation and handed it to Jordan. “Miss Dawn, I’m here to give you an invitation. I’m inviting you to my sister’s wedding banquet. Haha.”

1445 Secret Room

Jordan froze when he heard that. “You mean... Levana is getting married?”

When he was on Earth, he knew that Levana had returned to the Celestial King Planet to marry Donovan Cross. After coming to the Celestial King Planet, Jordan cultivated day and night so that he could have the ability to stop Levana before she got married.

He knew that this day would come sooner or later. However, Jordan was still shocked when he heard the news.

Grannus had a good relationship with Donovan Cross, so he agreed to this marriage. With a smile on his face, he said, “That’s right. Levana and Donovan’s marriage has actually been decided long ago. It has been delayed until now. Miss Dawn, this is a joyous occasion for our Howard family. As a friend of the Howard family, you must come on the day of the wedding.

“I know that you snatched Donovan’s Cursed Spiritual Pill. I’ve already told Donovan about this. You don’t have to worry too much. When the time comes, let’s have a drink together. I’ll help you bury the hatchet. It’s fine, hehe.”

Jordan did not want to bury the hatchet with Donovan Cross!

He wished he could kill the man!

Jordan tried his best to control his emotions and asked, “When’s the wedding ceremony?”

Grannus said, “It’s in a month, on the first day of coming month.”

There was only a month left. If converted to Earth’s time, it would only be half a month.

On the other hand, the difference between Jordan and Donovan Cross was like the difference between heaven and Earth. How could Jordan snatch Levana back from Donovan Cross?!

Grannus smiled and said, “I won’t disturb your cultivation anymore. On the day of the wedding ceremony, I’ll come and pick you up personally. Hehe, goodbye.”

After Grannus left, Jordan was in a daze. Was there going to be another wedding objection scene?

When Jordan was on Earth, he had objected to many marriages and disrupted many weddings. Hailey’s marriage, Victoria’s marriage and Lauren’s marriage...

However, on Earth, he had the powerful Steeles to rely on. No matter what he did, he was not afraid.

However, on the Celestial King Planet, Jordan only had himself.

“On the day of the wedding, Donovan Cross will definitely have many friends attending. At that time, there might be many experts more powerful than Donovan Cross! I’ve decided not to make a move at the wedding venue. I can’t even defeat Donovan Cross. Coupled with his group of expert friends, my chances of winning are even smaller.”

Jordan analyzed the current situation. He had to deal with Donovan Cross before the wedding ceremony!

Currently, Jordan had cultivated the ability to create something out of nothing again. However, his physical fitness was still a big problem.

Just like that, an unknown amount of time passed.

Late at night, three more people suddenly came to visit quietly.

“Jordan, are you inside?”

When Jordan heard the voice, he walked out of the courtyard and saw three extremely familiar figures. They were Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and Victoria.

When he met Victoria again, the way she looked at Jordan was different from the previous two times. In the previous two times, Victoria did not know that the Dawn in front of her was Jordan. Now, she knew the truth.

“You really came...”

Victoria looked at Jordan in disbelief.

Jordan walked toward Victoria as well. “Victoria... I’m sorry for not revealing my identity earlier. You know that I have my difficulties.”

Victoria shook her head and bitterly smiled. “You really love Levana. I’m not jealous. Right now, I feel more and more that the two of you are a match made in heaven, and we’re just passersby. I really hope that the two of you can get back together. I’m sincere in my wishes.”

Jordan could tell that Victoria had completely let go of Jordan. She did not want to have any feelings for anyone now. She only wanted to make a name for herself on Celestial King Planet.

At that moment, Mike Baylor could not help but say, “Jordan, our master is getting married. Stop her quickly! As long as you reveal your identity, she might reject marrying Donovan Cross!”

The Moon Maiden said, “Master only agreed to marry Donovan Cross to fulfill her previous promise. Originally, Master wanted to bring us to Donovan’s Clan, but Donovan Cross refused to accept us at all. He even asked Master to expel us before she could marry him. This bastard clearly looks down on us since we’re from Earth!”

It turned out that Levana and Donovan Cross’s marriage had also affected the Moon Maiden, Mike Baylor, and Victoria. They wanted to continue cultivating under Levana. No wonder they were so eager to look for Jordan.

Mike Baylor said, “Jordan, I heard that you ate the Cursed Spiritual Pill. I see that you’re fine and not cursed. You and Donovan Cross are both at the Unrivaled Realm now. With your temper, you won’t stand by and do nothing when Donovan Cross wants to marry your wife, right?”

The Moon Maiden asked, “Jordan, I heard that after the Unrivaled Realm, every cultivator has their own ultimate move. Have you developed your trump card?”

Jordan nodded.

The Moon Maiden and the others were overjoyed and hurriedly asked, “What is it? Can you let us see it?”

Jordan said, “You’ve seen it before.”

Mike Baylor had fought Jordan before. He reacted immediately, “You can make something out of nothing? You’ve cultivated this skill again? Hahaha, you’re the same as me and Moon Maiden. We plan to continue replicating the abilities we had on Earth!”

The Moon Maiden couldn’t help but want to take a look.

Therefore, Jordan waved his hands. A towering tree appeared out of thin air and stood in front of everyone.

Mike Baylor grabbed a leaf and exclaimed, “Unbelievable, Jordan. Your ability to create something out of nothing is much more powerful than when you were on Earth. This is too realistic!”

The Moon Maiden was also extremely happy. “You already have such a heaven-defying ability. I believe you can definitely defeat Donovan Cross!”

However, Jordan shook his head. “It’s not enough. Although I’m comparable to Donovan Cross in terms of cultivation realm, my stamina is not enough to support my spiritual powers. However, it’s impossible for me to increase my stamina limit greatly in just a month.”

Mike Baylor said, “Is there no way to quickly increase your physical fitness? You need something like the Cursed Spiritual Pill that can increase your physical fitness by several levels at once!”

Jordan said awkwardly, “Yes, but...”

Initially, Jordan did not want to tell them. However, under Mike Baylor and the Moon Maiden's interrogation, he told them about Levana having the Thousand Star Grass.

After knowing this, Mike Baylor said, "What are you hesitating for! Hurry up and steal it from Master's secret room! The three of us know where Master's secret room is. We can take you there!"

Victoria understood Jordan's thoughts the most. "Jordan, you're unwilling to take the Thousand Star Grass because Levana's master gave it to her, right? I think you don't have to think that way. I think that Xavier is not a good person either. He has a good relationship with Donovan Cross. Levana and Donovan Cross's wedding was arranged by Xavier, and he gave away the woman who liked him. Why do you care about such a man?

"There's no time to lose. Now that Levana is asleep, I'll bring you to her secret chamber to steal the Thousand Star Grass!"
