

The Abandoned Husband Dominates

1446 Proof of Love

Initially, Jordan did not want to steal Levana's Thousand Star Grass. However, under the instigation of Victoria and the others, he still went to Levana's secret room.

Victoria replied. "I followed Levana to this secret room once and memorized the password. I will open the door for you and you can enter quickly. I will guard the door for you."

Victoria was indeed not an ordinary person. During this period of time in the Howards, although she was an apprentice, she probably knew all the secrets of the Howards like the back of her hand.

Wasting no time, she opened the secret room for Jordan with ease. Jordan no longer hesitated and nodded at Victoria, "Thank you, Victoria. I'll go in then."

Jordan quickly entered the secret room and came to his wife's secret room. Jordan became very nervous. He felt that this behavior was a little shameless, and he did not want Levana to discover him.

If Jordan and Levana met again and he was caught as a thief, it would be too embarrassing.

Therefore, Jordan could not wait to find the Thousand Star Grass after arriving at the secret chamber.

However, as he watched Jordan search around, the mysterious man said, "Don't waste your effort. The Thousand Star Grass is extremely precious. It can't be placed in such a bright place. Hurry up and see if there are any secret doors or hidden safes in this secret room. The Thousand Star Grass should be in a safer place."

After listening to the mysterious man, Jordan began to inquire about the structure of the secret chamber. After looking around, he realized that there was a window in the secret chamber. Moreover, through the window, he could see the dense bamboo growing outside.

“No, the secret rooms are very hidden. It’s best if they’re airtight. How can there be a window and a view? This window is fake!”

Jordan and Levana had the ability to make something out of nothing. Therefore, he could tell at a glance that the window was fake.

As expected, Jordan pressed his hands on the window and used his unparalleled power to reveal the window’s true form.

It was actually a dark door!

“Senior is right. There is indeed a secret door!”

Jordan was overjoyed.

The mysterious man smiled and said, “Yes, the Thousand Star Grass should be inside this secret door. Hurry up and find a mechanism to open it.”

Jordan looked around but did not find any switch. Instead, when he accidentally touched something, a grand piano suddenly appeared in front of the door.

The mysterious man complained, “I told you to find the switch. Why did you create a piano for no reason? Do you still have the mood to play the piano in your wife’s secret room?”

The mysterious man knew that Jordan had the ability to create things out of thin air. He thought that Jordan had created the piano.

Jordan explained immediately, “Senior, I didn’t create this piano. I accidentally touched something and it suddenly appeared.”

The mysterious man smiled and said, “Oh? It seems that this piano is the key to open this secret door. Your wife is indeed a sentimental woman. The switch setting of the secret room is different from others. I guess she must have set a certain tune as the key. The door will only open if you play it correctly. Hurry up and play it. You're husband and wife. You should be able to guess what tune she would set."

Jordan was at a loss. To unseal the divine weapon, he had to play a game. Now, he had to play the piano to open the secret chamber door!

This was a little different from the planetary cultivation he had expected!

However, Jordan liked this method very much. He wanted to know what Levana's song was through this.

Therefore, Jordan sat beside the piano and began to think.

"I remember hearing from Grannus that Levana likes a song from this world."

Jordan asked Grannus about Levana, including the music she liked. Since Levana liked it, Jordan naturally had to listen to it.

Therefore, Jordan played the song.

After playing, a progress bar appeared on the secret door, showing the unlocking process. However, soon, the progress bar turned from green to red until it disappeared.

In other words, the tune Jordan played was wrong.

"Not this one... Could it be the song I taught Chloe, 'If I Ain't Got You'?"

Speaking of which, that song was also a song that Jordan went to her courtyard house to teach Chloe when Levana was planning to get married on Earth. Therefore, Jordan started playing the prelude to 'If I Ain't Got You'.

Unfortunately, after playing it, it still showed that something was wrong.

The mysterious man reminded him, "Hey, don't try it randomly. Think about it and play again. Your wife must have set the number of times to play. If you make another mistake, this piano might be gone."

Jordan began to feel nervous as well. He had lost his confidence. Of course, he knew what songs Levana usually listened to and liked.

However, those were the songs she liked back on Earth.

Perhaps, the song that Levana had set was a song exclusive to her in this world. How could Jordan know that song!

Looking at Jordan's gradually dejected expression, the mysterious man said, "Why? Are you going to give up just like that? I can feel that there's a melody that keeps surging in your heart. Since you think it's this song, play it. It must be a song that's very important to you both."

Jordan replied, "However, I don't know if it's important to her now."

The mysterious man smiled and said, "Then you'll only know after you play it. Levana has indeed been on Celestial King Planet longer than Earth, but the memories of living on Earth are clearer than those of the past. Just like after you watched a very shocking movie, for a short period of time, your emotions and actions are all affected by it. Don't underestimate your love."

Under the persuasion of the mysterious man, Jordan pressed his hands on the piano keys again and played this song. It was a song that Levana would listen to every time she thought of Jordan on Earth: "Love is Simple."

The familiar melody sounded again. This time, Jordan did not look at the progress bar. This was a song that belonged to him and Lauren. Even if this song was wrong, he wanted to play it completely.

'Consider it a gift for her, even though she can't see it.'

After playing for a minute, the secret door suddenly reacted and opened automatically. A white immortal aura wafted out from inside.

The mysterious man laughed and said, "Haha, it seems like Levana still loves you. She set the way to enter the most precious secret room as your love song. Kid, you traveled across the planet to find her, but she didn't fall in love with anyone else. You two are destined to be together again."

Jordan was overjoyed. It was really this song!

This was proof of Lauren's love for Jordan.

Unexpectedly, even as Levana, she was still using this song!

The mysterious man said, "Don't just stand there. Hurry up and go in to get the Thousand Star Grass. After eating the Thousand Star Grass, you'll be qualified to fight Donovan Cross!"

1447 Levana: Jordan Is Here?

Jordan was no longer hesitant when he heard the mysterious man's urging. He walked in hurriedly and took the three shiny stalks of Thousand Star Grass. He wanted to take them away after finding them, but he was scolded by the mysterious man.

The mysterious man said, "Hurry up and swallow it. The longer you delay, the more trouble there will be! What if it's snatched on the way back!"

It seemed that the mysterious senior must have a lot of experience in this field. When he saw the Thousand Star Grass, his subconscious reaction was to eat it immediately.

Jordan did not say anything and swallowed the three stalks of Thousand Star Grass.

After swallowing it, Jordan did not even taste the Thousand Star Grass. He only felt that his body was instantly enlarged and he wanted to vomit.

The mysterious man continued to urge, "Run! Leave this place! Although you've already eaten the Thousand Star Grass, if you're discovered now, they'll still tear open your stomach and get the Thousand Star Grass out. Run!"

From the words, Jordan imagined a scene that the mysterious man might have encountered in the past. A person obtained the Thousand Star Grass and swallowed it, but was discovered by other cultivators. Then, other cultivators killed him, opened his stomach, and snatched the Thousand Star Grass.

Instinctively, Jordan ran out too.

At the door, Victoria saw Jordan running out and asked immediately, "Jordan, how is it? Did you find it?"

Jordan nodded hurriedly, "Yes, I have to go now. See you later!"

"Hey..."

Victoria wanted to chat with Jordan, but he quickly slipped away. Since he had left, Victoria didn't stay any longer and left after finishing her work.

After finally escaping to a safe place, Jordan finally calmed down. This was an empty space, and there was no one nearby. Therefore, Jordan planned to test if his physical fitness had increased here.

Therefore, Jordan created a few trees out of thin air. Subsequently, he created a tall building out of thin air and kept changing the shape of the building.

Jordan realized that his breathing was steady and he did not feel tired after trying to use his skills many times.

Jordan was overjoyed, "My stamina has indeed undergone a tremendous change after eating the Thousand Star Grass! Previously, I would be panting after doing this, but I'm not tired at all now! I'm finally qualified to challenge Donovan Cross!"

"Donovan Cross, you sent Gerald to Earth to kill me. I'll get back at you for this! You want to take my wife and marry her, along with my daughter! I'm going to settle the score with you!!"

The mysterious man also laughed loudly. “Hahahaha, I can finally watch your fight.”

Levana’s secret chamber.

At night, Levana suddenly wanted to go to the secret room to check. When she came to the secret room and opened the secret door, she felt that something was amiss.

Levana immediately went in to check on the Thousand Star Grass. It was indeed gone!

The Thousand Star Grass was extremely precious and was a gift from her master. Levana had always treated it as a treasure. Now that it was gone, she was naturally very angry. The first thing she thought of was whether her father or brother had taken it.

After all, she knew that her father and brother had always wanted to sell this thing to others.

“No, with their strength, it’s impossible for them to forcefully open the secret door of my secret room. And on Celestial King Planet, it’s impossible for anyone to know the song ‘Love Is Simple’.”

“Wait, they don’t know this song, but Victoria...”

Levana immediately placed her suspicions on Victoria.

Although Moon Maiden and Mike Baylor were also from Earth, Moon Maiden was old and listened to oldies. Mike Baylor was an American and did not listen to Chinese songs at all.

As for Victoria, she was in her thirties. When she was young, she listened to the same music as her. Thus, Levana felt that Victoria might have accidentally opened the secret door here.

Thus, Levana immediately flew to Victoria's room.

"Victoria!"

Levana quietly came to Victoria's bedside.

Victoria opened her eyes and saw Levana. She quickly got off the bed and respectfully asked, "Master, why are you here?"

Levana turned around and coldly asked. "Victoria, let me ask you, have you been to my secret chamber before?"

Victoria was shocked. She did not expect Levana to find out about Jordan stealing the Thousand Star Grass so quickly.

Victoria replied. "Yes, I've been there with Master before and you know about it. Which time are you talking about?"

Levana snorted coldly and said angrily, "Don't play dumb with me! The Thousand Star Grass that I hid in the secret door of the secret room is gone. The Thousand Star Grass is extremely precious, and it was given to me by my master. For the past few decades, I've been keeping it as I couldn't bear to use it. Did you take it? Victoria, I know you are an ambitious woman, but your cultivation is not at the Unrivalled Realm yet, so you don't need the Thousand Star Grass. If you forcefully consume it, it will only backfire!"

Victoria quickly replied. "I'm very grateful that Master is willing to take me in as a disciple and teach me martial arts. I wouldn't dare to steal from you."

Levana spoke. "Are you denying that this matter has nothing to do with you? Victoria, we have known each other for a long time and have even been sisters. We slept on the same bed and even served a man at the same time. Your eyes tell me that the Thousand Star Grass is related to you!"

As soon as Levana finished speaking, in her anger, she tore the entire house apart with both hands. Even the bed, table, and chairs in the room were shattered.

Victoria's clothes were torn as well. She looked a bit disheveled and sexy.

Levana looked around but still couldn't find the Thousand Star Grass. "Strange, you didn't hide it. Did you give it to someone else? Tell me, who did you steal it for? Only you have heard the song to enter my secret chamber."

Victoria knelt on the ground and asked. "You used a song as the password to enter the secret door? Which song is it? Is it the song you sang in England, 'Birds and Cicadas'?"

Levana paused for a moment and looked at Victoria. "It really wasn't you? Strange, if it wasn't you, then who could it be? Who would guess this song? Could it be the Moon Maiden?"

Victoria said, "Master, since this person can break your password, it proves that he and you share the same heart. Maybe it was done by someone who loves you. Why not let him use it?"

Levana could tell that Victoria clearly knew who that person was.

"Victoria, you better tell me that person's name tonight. Otherwise, don't blame me for not remembering our relationship as sisters and master and disciple! The Thousand Star Grass is not an ordinary item. I can't just let it disappear like this!"

Victoria knelt on the ground and said coldly, "Why do I have to say that name myself? Lauren, ask yourself. If someone could understand your feelings and know which song you love the most, who would you think of first?"

Victoria actually dared to call out Levana's original name.

It was only after hearing Victoria call her 'Lauren', that Levana finally understood. In the past, she only called herself that when they were both Jordan's wives. Levana was stunned and terrified.

"Jordan came to the Celestial King Planet?"

1448 The Plan to Kill Him

Only then did Levana realize who the person who could enter her secret room and guess the piano piece "Love is Simple" was.

If not for the fact that Jordan was not on the Celestial King Planet, Levana would have thought of him first!

Levana was very touched. She still remembered every little thing that happened between her and Jordan on Earth. Even after returning to the Celestial King Planet, she would often think of Jordan.

How could Levana not feel emotional when she found out that Jordan had come to the Celestial King Planet to look for her? However, at the same time, she was worried!

She knew what Jordan wanted to do. He wanted to end the marriage and deal with Donovan Cross!

However, with Jordan's strength, it was impossible!

Levana asked immediately, "Where's Jordan now? Don't let him do anything stupid. He's definitely not Donovan Cross's match!"

However, Victoria said, "You're underestimating Jordan's ability too much. On Earth, when did he fail to protect us? When did he disappoint us? In fact, he's already at the Unrivaled Realm now, just like Donovan Cross."

Levana was in disbelief, "Unrivaled? How... how is this possible..."

Levana was sure that even if Jordan came to the Celestial King Planet, he had come after her and Victoria.

In such a short period of time, how could a person cultivate from scratch so quickly?

At this time, Victoria revealed the answer. "His current name is Dawn. The tenth-tier genius of the Fairy Academy is him."

Levana's mouth was wide open. She had always heard of Dawn's name, and her father wanted them to meet. However, Levana had always been conceited and unwilling to meet someone more talented than her. She did not expect this person to be her husband!

While Levana was pleasantly surprised, she still shook her head, "No, Jordan's advancement is too fast. His foundation is unstable. Donovan Cross has been cultivating for hundreds of years. Even if Jordan is also at the Unrivaled Realm, he's definitely not Donovan Cross's match. I have to stop him!"

Levana did not know where Jordan was, but she knew that Jordan would definitely find an opportunity to look for Donovan Cross.

Hence, Levana went straight to Donovan Cross's residence.

Donovan Cross was surprised to see Levana. "My beautiful fiancée, there's still some time before our wedding. Why did you come early?"

Levana looked elsewhere. "I... just came to take a look."

Donovan Cross went forward and hugged Levana's waist. He smiled and said, "Haha, welcome, welcome. This will also be your home in the future. You can visit as you please. Do you want me to bring you to our bridal chamber?"

Levana pushed Donovan Cross away. She would not have come here if it was not to wait for Jordan.

"I will stay here for a few days. Don't even think about touching me before we get married!"

With that, she flicked her sleeves and left.

Donovan Cross was a little confused. "What does Levana mean? If she hates me, why did she come to live with me? To play hard to get? Hmph, little girl, after the wedding, you will be my legitimate wife. At that time, if you want to play any tricks, I won't let it go. I won't argue with you for the time being!"

Levana stayed in Donovan Cross's residence for three days. She thought that Jordan would come to assassinate Donovan Cross in these three days. However, there was no news.

In reality, Jordan was cultivating alone on a small island under the jurisdiction of the Fairy Academy. At this moment, he was meditating on a rock on the beach with his eyes closed, allowing the sea breeze to blow against his face.

After three days of silence, the mysterious man could not sit still anymore. He asked, "I thought that you would be eager to compete with Donovan Cross after eating the Thousand Star Grass. I didn't expect you to quietly cultivate here for three days.

"Mm, you seem much calmer now that the decisive battle is about to begin. You know that if you go directly to Donovan Cross, you might not be able to defeat him. You should be thinking of a countermeasure, right? Tell me what your plan is. Perhaps I can give you some pointers!"

Jordan had been silent for the past three days, causing the mysterious man to speak because he knew that as long as he asked for help, the mysterious man would definitely reject him.

However, the mysterious man was very curious about him. He had been looking forward to the battle between him and Donovan Cross for a long time.

Therefore, Jordan bet that he would take the initiative to ask him this question.

At that moment, Jordan slowly opened his eyes. "This time, I won't snatch her back at the wedding. There are too many people at the wedding venue. I can't even take care of myself when dealing with Donovan Cross. If there are other experts around, I have even less chance of winning. Therefore, I plan to have a celebration at the Fairy Academy and invite him over."

The mysterious man said, "Yes, it's a smart decision. At least it's safer in your own territory. However, even if you fight in the Fairy Academy, no one other than you will dare to stand up and help you. When the time comes, you and Donovan Cross will still have to fight one-on-one. Do you have a chance of winning if you fight him one-on-one now?"

Jordan shook his head. "No, so I thought of another way."

The mysterious man became curious. "Oh? Tell me about it!"

Jordan said, "When I was on Earth, I developed an independent space for people to fight in. I'll pull Donovan Cross into the space to fight. However, even if I fight in the independent space that I've carefully designed, I'm afraid I'm not his match."

The mysterious man laughed out loud. "Hahahaha, Jordan, you're finally not blindly confident. You're right. Even if you plan some traps in your independent space, it's possible to trap him for a while, but it's impossible to obtain a decisive victory."

Jordan continued, "Therefore, when he enters my independent space, I want him to believe he is in a dream instead of my independent space!"

The mysterious man was shocked. "What? You mean to make him fall into a dream the moment you pull him into an independent space and defeat him in the dream?"

Jordan nodded. "That's right. I only have a chance to kill him in the dream. In the dream, I can become a hundred times stronger than him as long as this dream is real enough and he doesn't notice."

The mysterious man was overjoyed. “Hahahaha, I didn’t choose the wrong person. Your idea is really amazing! However, creating his dream world out of nothing is something that can only be done by half-immortals or even Immortals. Are you sure you can do it?”

Jordan sighed and shook his head. “I can’t do it. Besides, I don’t have much time left. Donovan Cross and Levana’s wedding is coming soon. Sigh, this is just my wild imagination. Perhaps, I won’t have the chance to put on such a showdown with Donovan Cross in my life. Forget it, let’s not think about it anymore. I’ll go find the director now and ask her to hold my birthday party.”

With that, Jordan stood up to leave.

Unexpectedly, after Jordan took a few steps, the mysterious man suddenly said, “Wait!”

1449 I Hope You Will Fulfill our Wish

A week later.

Donovan Cross was preparing for the upcoming wedding in his courtyard when a charming lady suddenly came to visit. It was Evelyn from the Fairy Academy.

When Donovan Cross saw Evelyn, he smiled and said, “Vice Dean Evelyn? I don’t think you’re invited to my wedding. Are you here to celebrate? However, you’re early. You still have to wait a few more days, hehe.”

When Donovan Cross got married, he invited big shots on the same level as him. Although Evelyn was the Vice Dean of the Fairy Academy, she had yet to reach Donovan Cross’s level.

Likewise, Evelyn was also disdainful of him. “Mr. Donovan, I’m not here to beg you to give me a wedding invitation. I’m here to send you an invitation.”

Headmaster Evelyn handed a blue invitation to Donovan Cross.

Donovan Cross found it strange and opened it. He smiled and said, "Oh, so it's the birthday of Miss Dawn, the genius of your school. Hehe, it's just a birthday. Is there a need to organize a birthday party?"

Evelyn said arrogantly, "Dawn is not an ordinary person. Not only is she the national treasure of our Fairy Academy, but she is also the future of the entire Celestial King Planet. Of course, she has to hold a big celebration for her birthday! Mr. Donovan, Dawn is willing to invite you to her birthday celebrations and express her willingness to be on good terms with you. Don't tell me you still remember what happened before and refuse to come?"

Donovan Cross could look down on Evelyn, but he could not ignore Dawn.

Dawn was now at the same cultivation level as Donovan Cross. Before long, Dawn would surpass Donovan Cross. From Donovan Cross's point of view, Dawn was even more powerful than his idol, Xavier!

"Since Miss Dawn has invited me over, I will naturally go. I will also personally invite her to attend my wedding with Levana in a few days. Hehe, don't worry. I will return the favor. We will soon become friends."

Evelyn scoffed coldly. She recalled that Dawn had snatched Donovan Cross's Cursed Spiritual Pill earlier, and Donovan Cross had threatened to take revenge.

Now, seeing that Dawn had directly advanced to the Unrivaled realm and he might not be able to defeat her, he saw his enemy as a friend.

As soon as Levana walked over, Donovan Cross said, "Levana, that monster from the Fairy Academy sent an invitation over and invited me to her birthday party tomorrow. I heard that your Howard family has a good relationship with her. Could it be that she sent me an invite because of our relationship? Why don't you come with me tomorrow?"

Levana was stunned. “Dawn... sent you an invitation?”

At that moment, Levana had already found out that Dawn was Jordan. She knew that Jordan had sent Donovan Cross an invitation to kill him tomorrow!

Levana quickly nodded. “Alright, I’ll go with you tomorrow!”

Donovan Cross was very happy. He wrapped his arms around Levana’s waist. “Wife, you’re listening to me more and more. I’m very happy...”

Before he could finish, Levana pushed Donovan Cross away. “Call me when you go tomorrow. I’m going back to my room to cultivate.”

Women were so confusing. Why was Levana still acting so distant to him?

The next day, at the Fairy Academy, Donovan Cross and Levana came together. Other than the two of them, there were also people from the Howard Clan. Victoria and the others also came uninvited.

In addition, the Fairy Academy also invited some families who had a good relationship with the academy, but they did not invite anyone who had a good relationship with Donovan Cross.

Under everyone’s anticipation, Jordan arrived elegantly in a black windbreaker, causing everyone to cheer.

Donovan Cross also applauded, but he smiled and teased, “It’s Dawn’s birthday today. Why is she dressed in black? Hehe, she’s like a man. Indeed, the stronger you are, the more gender-neutral you will be.”

At this moment, Jordan was still wearing his veil. He looked at everyone and glanced at Donovan Cross. When he saw Donovan Cross, he noticed Levana.

“Levana...”

Seeing her, Jordan was incredibly excited. This was the first time he had seen his wife since he came to the Celestial King Planet!

“Levana seems to know my identity.”

Levana looked at Jordan as well. Her eyes were filled with unease as she kept shaking her head at Jordan.

Jordan retracted his gaze and said to everyone, “Everyone, today is my birthday. Thank you for coming to my birthday celebrations. I have something very important to announce to everyone today.”

Everyone was looking forward to it. They did not know what Jordan wanted to announce.

Jordan said slowly, “I think many people want to know what I look like. Alright, I’ll take off my veil today!”

Everyone was excited. Some men even stood up excitedly.

Donovan Cross also laughed and said, “Haha, Dawn is finally willing to reveal her true colors. This trip was not in vain!”

Jordan slowly lifted the veil, revealing the lower half of his face.

When everyone saw this, they discussed it animatedly. Their faces were filled with disappointment and even shock.

“Oh my god, no wonder she doesn’t show the lower half of her face. It’s so ugly. It doesn’t match the upper half of her face at all!”

“It’s not ugly! It’s a completely different style. The upper half of her face is as gentle as water, but the lower half is like a man’s face!”

“Is there a possibility that she’s a man?”

Jordan smiled. “Everyone might find it strange now. That’s right. Half of my face has undergone plastic surgery. I’ll return to my original state now.”

Jordan slapped his face and his face changed again. He finally returned to his original appearance.

Everyone was shocked!

“Oh my god, Dawn is a man!”

“No wonder he’s so talented. He’s a man!”

“He’s a man. Why did he join the Fairy Academy?”

Everyone in the Fairy Academy was stunned.

When Levana saw Jordan’s face, tears instantly welled up in her eyes.

Seeing Levana’s reaction, Donovan Cross felt as if he was facing a great enemy. “Who did you say he is? Is he the man from your low-level planet? Isn’t he dead?!”

Donovan Cross finally knew who the man in front of him was. However, he had clearly sent Gerald to kill Jordan. Suddenly, Donovan Cross thought of Gerald’s death a while ago and his body immediately trembled.

Jordan looked at the Dean of the Fairy Academy and said, “Teachers, deans and students, I’m sorry. I’ve been lying to you all this while. Actually, I’m a man. I’m not qualified to cultivate in the Fairy Academy.”

Many people’s eyes were wet with tears, but many people said that Jordan would always belong to the Fairy Academy.

However, that was not the main point today.

Jordan walked straight to Donovan Cross and said, “Donovan Cross, you should know why I called you here today, right?”

At the side, Levana stood up immediately and pulled Jordan back.
“Jordan, don’t. Don’t be rash. I’m very happy that you came to the Celestial King Planet to look for me. However, you don't have to take the risk for me. Let me talk to him, okay?"

Levana turned to look at Donovan Cross. "Donovan Cross, as you can see, my husband from Planet Blue 9696 has crossed planets to find me. The person I like now is also him. Why don't you fulfill our wish?"

Levana hoped to resolve a life-and-death battle with words.

However, she had underestimated the situation.

1450 Entering the Space

Not only did Jordan want to kill Donovan Cross, but Donovan Cross also wanted to kill Jordan!

This was because Jordan was not that powerful yet. When Jordan advanced to the Immortal Realm in the future, it would be easy for him to kill Donovan Cross.

Now that Donovan Cross was still above Jordan, he had to kill him to avoid any worries!

Donovan Cross pushed Levana away, "Someone openly snatched my woman and even threatened to kill me. How can I, Donovan Cross, sit back and wait for death? Jordan, you're from a low-level planet. You're not worthy of becoming an Immortal on the Celestial King Planet. Today, I'll destroy your soul!"

Jordan was filled with killing intent as well. He said, "Very well. Let's fight to the death!"

The two of them quickly flew into the air. A battle was about to break out! The others were terrified, especially the people from the Fairy Academy.

"Vice Dean, what should we do? Are they going to fight? Should we help?"

However, Evelyn said, "Dawn is no longer a member of our Fairy Academy. She's a man. We don't need to ask about his dispute with others. However, she used to be a member of our academy after all. In the past period of time, she has brought us a lot of honor. If Donovan Cross is about to kill him, we will plead for him.”

At that moment, Jordan had already taken the lead to attack in the air. He created something out of nothing. Flames, boulders, and buildings bombarded Donovan Cross continuously.

Donovan Cross was also in a sorry state. He kept attacking and defending. He did not have time to counterattack Jordan at all.

Everyone was also dumbfounded.

“I heard that the Unrivaled’s energy consumption is very terrifying. Jordan attacked so crazily in such a short period of time, but he doesn’t seem to have consumed much energy!”

“That’s right. In terms of physical fitness alone, Jordan might not lose to Donovan Cross. Looks like this is a long battle of equal strength!”

Donovan Cross hated Jordan’s continuous bombardment. Initially, he wanted to hold back. Now, he took out a black folding fan and injected all his energy into it before spinning it.

Black gas kept spewing out of the folding fan. It contained huge power and directly shattered Jordan’s building that was made out of nothing! Not only that, as he waved his fan, everything in front of him turned black and white!

Jordan was stunned when he saw the black and white scene in front of him.

The mysterious man reminded him, “Be careful. Don’t keep fighting with him here. If you keep fighting for another four hours, you’ll be blind. Hurry up and follow what I taught you and lure him into a dream.”

Donovan Cross took a rare breath when he saw Jordan pause. He looked at Levana with a furious expression. “You actually gave the Thousand Star Grass that Xavier gave you to that bastard Jordan? Also, you actually taught him the ability to make something out of nothing that he customized for you? Have you thought about how to explain it to Xavier in the future?!”

Levana was also at a loss. “I... When I was on Planet Blue 9696, he learned how to make something out of nothing. I didn’t teach him that.”

Donovan Cross snorted. “Hmph, after I deal with him, I’ll settle the score with a b*tch like you!”

After saying this, Donovan Cross immediately flew toward Jordan. Jordan knew that Donovan Cross was going to attack this time. He did not dare to be negligent and resisted with all his might. However, Jordan’s way of resisting was a little unique.

He was spinning in circles.

“Why does Jordan’s escape route always revolve around this circle?”

“Yeah, this is too easy to guess. Look, Donovan Cross already knows where he’s going to escape to.”

The reason why Jordan did this was because this was the only way to lure Donovan Cross into a dream.

In the circle where Jordan was escaping, he kept releasing the strange Dreamland element. Every time Donovan Cross passed by, he would absorb this element. Coupled with the fact that he was constantly circulating in a circle, it would accelerate his entry into the dream.

When Jordan felt that it was about time, he suddenly said, “Donovan Cross, do you think that’s all I have? I still have a secret space. Do you dare to enter my secret space to fight?!”

Donovan Cross smiled. “Secret space? If you fight in the space, no one outside will know the outcome inside, right?”

Jordan was stunned. “How did you know?”

Donovan Cross snorted coldly. “Do you think you invented this? Idiot, I know about things before you were even born! I invented it with Xavier. I’ve long known how to use it! Alright, I don’t want anyone to stop me when I kill you. Since you want to enter the space to fight, sure! I’ll beat you to death in your space!”

At that moment, Levana quickly went forward. “Jordan! Don’t fight in your space! If you fight outside, I can still see if you win or lose. I can still help you at critical moments. If you’re inside, I won’t know anything. Don’t do such a thing!”

Jordan looked at Levana. “Wife, if I defeat him, everything will be over. We’ll be able to reunite. Wait for me for a little while.”

“No, don’t!”

However, Jordan did not listen. He still created that private space out of nothing and pulled Donovan Cross in!

“Jordan!”

Suddenly, Jordan and Donovan Cross disappeared from everyone’s sight.

“Oh no, Jordan and Donovan Cross are gone. They’ve entered a private space!”

“Sigh, we won’t be able to see them even if we fight in a private space. I’m afraid that when we see them again, we’ll only be able to see one of their corpses. I wonder if this person is Jordan or Donovan Cross?”

“I know that there’s a private space that’s made out of nothing. It’s not something powerful. Although it’s a boost to Jordan, it’s negligible. Donovan Cross’s overall strength is much greater than Jordan’s. Even in his space, Donovan Cross will definitely win.”

At that moment, the dean, teachers, and classmates of the Fairy Academy looked troubled. They were very worried about Jordan.

Evelyn shook her head. “No, it’s definitely over now. I didn’t expect that when Dawn exposed her identity, it would be the time for him to leave this world. Sigh, silly boy, why did you expose your identity? Just use Dawn’s identity to fight Donovan Cross. We would have helped you...”

Everyone thought that Jordan would die in the space, including Donovan Cross, who had entered the space.

As soon as Donovan Cross entered the space, he picked up his folding fan and started destroying it. After a series of destruction, the traps and designs in Jordan’s space were all reduced to ashes.

Donovan Cross laughed loudly. “Hahahaha... I’ve already destroyed all your petty tricks! So what if I’m in your space now? I can still kill you!”

However, Jordan became strange. He stood there motionless and did not speak.

Donovan Cross shouted, “Brat, say something. If you don’t say anything now, you’ll never have the chance to say anything later!”

However, Jordan still did not move or say a word.

A deep shudder suddenly went through Donovan Cross!

1451 Killing Donovan Cross!

Currently, Donovan Cross was battling in Jordan’s dream without him noticing.

Donovan Cross snorted coldly. “You’re playing tricks!”

Then, he immediately attacked Jordan.

However, the attack did not affect Jordan at all. Jordan stopped it as easily as he caught a ball of cotton.

Donovan Cross was dumbfounded. “How could this be!”

When they were fighting outside the space just now, Donovan Cross thought that Jordan was on the same level as him and his strength was below his. However, he dodged his attack so easily. They were on completely different levels!

Jordan spoke like an expert, "Donovan, don't you understand?"

Donovan Cross was a little afraid. "I... What do I understand?"

Jordan said slowly, "You don't understand who I am!"

Donovan Cross swallowed his saliva. "Who are you?! Why are my attacks useless against you?! What are you doing?!"

Jordan scoffed coldly, "You're a smart person. Think about it carefully. Why would a peerless fairy like Levana fall for me and not you? She's even willing to give birth to a girl for me. Do you really think I'm just an ordinary low-level Earthling?"

Donovan Cross also began to think about this problem. Gradually, he also felt that something was wrong.

Donovan Cross said, "That's right. Levana has always thought highly of herself. In this world, she only fell in love with Xavier! She won't even look at the people from other low-level planets! You... you're not an ordinary low-level Earthling? Who are you? Who exactly are you?"

Jordan continued to fool him, "Hmph, you're about to die anyway. I'm not afraid to tell you my secret! Think about it carefully. Why am I a tier ten talent?! Do the Immortals from the Celestial King Planet now even have a tier ten talent?"

Donovan Cross felt that something was wrong again. "Why? What method did you use?!"

"Because I'm a demon king myself! Jordan is my clone!"

Donovan Cross took a step back with fear on his face. "What? You're a Demon King?! You... Which one are you?"

At this moment, the mysterious man also complained, "You brat, what do you mean by saying that you're the clone of a Demon King? Are you guessing that I'm a Demon King again? If I'm a Demon King, you would have died countless times!"

Jordan said repeatedly, "Senior, you've misunderstood. You're so good to me. How can you be a Demon King? I just think that a Demon King can scare Donovan Cross more than an Immortal. As long as I can scare Donovan Cross in the dream, it'll be easy to kill him next. Senior, I don't know any Immortals or Demon Kings from the Celestial King Planet. Can you tell me the name of a Demon King? I'll scare him."

When the mysterious man saw Donovan Cross's frightened expression, he also found it funny. "After cultivating for hundreds of years, he's already a peerless cultivator that's one in a million. Hearing the name of the Demon King, he's still so frightened. Hehe, what a joke. Alright, I'll tell you one thing. This kid has been giving me a headache for a while. His name is Isiah."

Jordan immediately transformed into his body and looked terrifying. He shouted, "I'm Demon King Isiah!"

Clearly, Donovan Cross had heard of Isiah's name before. The moment he heard it, his legs immediately trembled in fear. "What? The Demon King Isiah who once cut off Xavier's arm?! You... you're Isiah's body!"

Jordan became even more smug when he saw that the other party was afraid. "That's right! You won't die in vain to be killed by a Demon King's clone!"

As soon as he heard that Jordan was the Demon King's clone, Donovan Cross did not dare to fight anymore. He immediately wanted to run!

However, Donovan Cross used all his energy to rush out of the space and escape, only to find that the surroundings of the space were completely airtight and could not be destroyed at all.

Donovan Cross panicked even more. "How could this be... Is this the strength of a Demon King's space?"

At that moment, Donovan Cross was even more convinced that Jordan was the Demon King's clone. This was because if Jordan was not, with Donovan Cross's strength, he could enter and leave Jordan's space as he pleased.

There was definitely no such thing as a situation where his full-power attack had no effect at all.

In reality, he did not know that he was in a dream. In the dream, everything was decided by Jordan.

Actually, if he wanted to escape, he didn't need to expend so much effort at all. He only needed to tell himself to wake up.

However, he had no idea that he was in a dream.

Jordan did not dare to be careless. It would be troublesome if Donovan Cross realized this. Once Donovan Cross woke up, Jordan would no longer be Donovan Cross's match.

Therefore, Jordan immediately reached out and attacked Donovan Cross's body!

A hole was instantly formed in Donovan Cross's body!

"Arghhh!"

Jordan continued to kill Donovan Cross in an exaggerated fashion. In the end, Donovan Cross screamed and fell into a pool of blood in the dream.

He was dead.

Or rather, he thought that he had been killed by a demon king who was a hundred times stronger than him.

However, in reality, he was fine. He had only fainted.

"Here's our chance!"

Seeing that Donovan Cross thought he was dead, Jordan immediately ended the dream. Then, he used the method taught by the mysterious man in the space to kill him!

Another pool of blood appeared. This time, it was the real Donovan Cross's blood.

Like that, the real Donovan Cross was also completely dead.

Then, the space appeared again. Everyone saw Jordan and Donovan Cross again.

"There's blood! Someone's dead! Who is it!"

"Jordan is still alive! Donovan Cross is the one who died!"

"Oh my god, Jordan killed Donovan Cross in such a short time! How did he do it?!"

Levana, who had been worried about Jordan, covered her mouth as well. She could not believe what she saw. "Jordan killed... Donovan Cross?"

Even if Jordan learnt how to create something out of nothing, he would not be able to kill Donovan Cross. However, Levana did not think about anything else. She ran toward Jordan and threw herself into his arms.

"Jordan!"

Levana did not care about anything else. She loved Jordan to begin with. She wanted to continue loving this man now!

Jordan hugged Levana tightly and said, "Honey, I'm here to find you. I'm here to bring you and our daughter home."

Levana looked at Jordan while crying, "Yes, yes. I'll go home with you. We'll all go home with you! We'll go wherever you go!"

At the side, Salvatore and the others also jumped excitedly.

Just as the two of them hugged, everyone from the Howard family slowly walked towards them.

Jordan was a little flustered when he saw Levana's father, Hathor, coming. He did not know if his father-in-law would accept him. But no matter what he thought, as long as Levana accepted him, it was enough!
