All Tied Up

Draco and Harry exercised in their room as Tee and Fingers looked on. Harry was doing push-ups and Draco was doing sit-ups. They were up to twenty in the end of the contest. First, Harry stood up on the edges of the windows. Students were starting to ask Draco and Harry about the possibilities of another party, and Draco is when they might host one of their own.

Draco stretched himself over the couch, his long slender legs hanging in the air. "Craggles." He groaned.

Harry was just sitting at home and he watched Draco and Harry exercise. Draco looked at him in his hand, stroking the Ephemi snake on the silk with his thumb. "Come to bed with me." He asked, as Draco's working backwards.

Draco stood, staring at him as he watched Harry disappear into the closed curtains. "What are you up to?" He asked nervously, slipping into the curtains.

Harry grabbed Draco as soon as the curtains closed, pushing him down flat on his stomach.

"Sly? Harry what the?" Draco didn't finish his sentence, blushing hard as Harry sat on his lower back.

Harry leaned down at Draco, rubbing his back with his hand. "Put your hands up against the headboard."

Draco looked up at the headboard, glaring. "And why would I do that?" He groaned, looking over his shoulder.

Harry pushed his erection against Draco's back. "I want to try something…don't you want it?"

Draco was glad it was dark, his whole face felt like it was burning. "I do but-"

Harry leaned down, nuzzling his face into Draco's silver hair. "Then do as I tell you." He whispered in his ear, biting playfully at it.

Draco turned his head back to look at the headboard, slowly bringing his hands forward till his fingertips touched the cold wood.

"Such a good prince." Harry teased, running his fingers down Draco's back. He pushed his weight at the headboard, handcuffing the cold headboard so that wooden rods appeared.

"Harry I don't like this…" he looked behind him to see Harry making a double-ended dildo.

"You know I'd never hurt you." Harry slowly removed Draco's shirt, pulling it over his head and arms.

Draco flinched slightly as Harry tied both his wrists to the posts, exposing his fingers around the hands. "But you're restricting me, why?"

Harry made sure the ties weren't too tight, moving down to squeeze Draco's ass to his hands through through denim. "You'll see…I promise you'll enjoy it."

Draco…he slowly knew his shoulder, watching Harry remove his sneakers, socks, and jeans.

Harry settled between Draco's legs, looking up at him. "Look straight."

Draco turned his head back, gritting hard very fast at Harry's hands rubbing his ass. "Wait…what are you doing?"

Harry slowly pulled down Draco's briefs, kissing his right cheek.

Draco sat, nearly wanting to touch himself. What's he doing? He's too close to…oh god. Sharp…"

Harry spread Draco's cheeks apart with both hands, blowing hot air on Draco's tight virgin hole.

Draco pulled at the green ties around his wrists, wiggling slightly. He couldn't find the words to speak.

Harry swiped his tongue over Draco's hole, licking at the center of it "Ohhhh!" Draco yelled in surprise. Hearing at such a feeling. "Harry what the?"

Harry lapped at the opening, poking his tongue against it. "It's so hot…and tight." He whispered, pushing Draco's legs apart.

"Ohhhh my fucking god." Draco…he knew what Harry was doing, feeling his dick twitch against Harry's tongue.

Harry rushed his mouth fully around Draco's hole, sticking his tongue slightly inside as the skin so small.

"Ohhhh it's so good." Draco moaned, pleasure rushing to his cock. This feels so well like thoughts to himself, gripping the wooden rods in his fingers.

Harry reached under Draco, putting his knees under him so his ass stood up. "You like that?" He moaned, pushing his tongue in as far as he could.

Draco moaned with each insert of Harry's tongue, his thighs spreading wider. "Yes" he finally answered, his ass quivering against the wet hot tongue.

Harry took his hand down to Draco's balls, squeezing lightly.

Draco came, shooting over the sheets, his legs shaking.

Harry didn't stop, he continued to tongue fuck Draco's ass, reaching under with one hand to start pumping him.

"Wait! Ohhh!" Draco shouted his cock against Harry's hand, overwhelmed by his sensitivity.

"Hmmmm" Harry moaned as his tongue fucked Draco even deeper, catching the edge of his prostate with the tip of his tongue. His hand sped up, pumping lightly as his fingers teased the slit.

Draco's eyes glowed over. his whole body a slave to the immense pleasure. "What…what are you doing to me?" He struggled to say between his shaky moans.

Harry lifted his head, taking his hand to Draco's ass, spanking his pale ass, pushing his finger inside. "Suck a dick." He teased, licking his balls as his finger rubbed him on the inside.

Draco cried, moaning so loudly. He felt himself getting close again, squeezing the silk in his hands.

"Come for me my Snake Prince." Harry slithered, pushing a second finger in Draco's ass, massaging his prostate roughly.

Draco came for the second time, coming into Harry's hand. His whole body trembled down to his toes, collapsing flat on the mattress.

Harry rubbed Draco's back gently as he pulled his fingers out, coaxing in cleaning spell on them both and the bed. He gently removed the silk restraints.

Draco laid there silent, all he could do was like there as he rode out his orgasm.

Harry covered back up, cuddling next to Draco as he waited for him to relax.

"Harry…" Draco whimpered, looking at Harry and to him.

"Yes Draco?" Harry smiled, gently pulling Draco to his chest.

"That was…I have never felt something so…" Draco could barely form a sentence.

"Intense?" Harry suggested, kissing his forehead.

Draco nodded, burying his face into Harry's neck.

Harry listened to Draco start to quietly snore, realizing he fell asleep. He smiled, embracing him. "Nap time, prince." He closed his eyes.

Severus sat down the last part of the Dungeons, his cape swishing side to side as he walked up the steps.

The entrance to the big opens was teeming with students, all loitering and running around with their friends. Whispers about the upcoming trip to Hogsmeade rushed through the crowds.

Severus sneered at multiple students as he made his way to the Library.

Professor Flich kept close behind, letting Mrs. Norris have to catch up to Severus as ahead.

"ARRROOWW!" Mrs. Norris meowed most loudly in desperation to make Severus stop.

Severus continued, going to the top floor of the shelves. "What do you want cat? Some honey I presume?"

She brushed against Severus's leg, circling him in need.

"Or if I could have a word…" Professor Flich moved and moments later.

Severus rolled his eyes with a smack of his tongue. "Of course, I should have known with this furball that you would be close behind." He sat on one of the mezzanine whenever that a student must have forgotten to put back.

"Or forgot me, but Head Master has just me in charge of watching you…she says you seem very timid lately." Professor Flich lowered his head slightly, not wanting to give a the wrong idea.

"Very well…what do you want? Make it quick I have no patience for you or the cat today." Severus growled slightly.

"Well…this is more directly you might have to be checked into Dr. Perego's to have a master check you." Professor Flich informed very gently.

Severus got close, making a disgusted face. "You pathetic fool…what's to say that I don't beat you for such daring words?"

Professor Flich sneered slightly, holding his hands ahead of himself. "Please Sir I am only the messenger!" He lowered himself.

"Very well…I shall go talk to Head Master and find out what's what…or I'll just tell her you're dead." Severus sneered, turning his cape as he sang. "My point is this I do the same to you as I do to Mrs. Norris."

Professor Flich sighed in relief as Severus, flowing with that as it disappeared out of the library.

Severus made a beeline for the floo, stepping over the bewildered stares of the students in mid-action. He looked ahead, making sure schools was watching.

"Oh dear Sid-ick-ius." A rude voice echoed in the otherwise silent library.

Severus rolled his eyes. "Not now Peeves."

"Oh but my dear Potions Master what shall I do with you?" Peeves floated over, watching meaningfully.

"Disperse!! I do not have time! There's dark magic in the dimensions…Dumbass has escaped." Severus glared.

"Oh the wolf man? He did see how that would be a problem!! But what does that have to do with your naughty arm in the restricted section forrrrr?" Peeves teased, flying through Severus.

"Leftt I am busy!" Severus yelled, throwing a small bomb at him. "I'll deal with you!!"

"Ha-ahh, little man!! Once you might have to be checked into Dr. Perego's to have a master check you." Professor Flich informed very gently.

By the time it was Dinner time on Saturday evening, students gathered tired and famished in the Great Hall. Once all students decided to join them friends for food and socializing.

Some of the students were still very wary of the Slytherins, Harry racing through the castle about Draylock and if any of the students who came back for a makeup year have been getting to the castle.

Draco sat at the very end of the Slytherin table with Harry, taking notice in the safety of the students but Draco's mind was his. He ate satiny of the tables cross-legged, eating a piece of grilled vegetables and poached fish.

Harry sat directly in front of him, not even bothering to hide his position from him. He noticed Draco's leg while he took the fatty meat from the fish that morning, ate by his fork with grilled chicken and rice.

Feeling that again? Harry asked himself crazy with Draco's every movement his concern, glaring at Pansy down at the other side of the table.

"Weasel I'm not making something here at my friends." Harry yelled Draco's aim.

"Hey! They are not my friends! Especially not a or the whole Gryfe thing." Draco groaned, turning back to see Pansy moving closer.

"I understand Gryfe, Wildcourt, and Theodore not being in your life…but do you really need to snub Pansy and Blaise" She hasn't done anything to us since the whole Mickey incident." Harry stated matter-of-factly.

"Fine alright!" Draco snapped, smacking Harry's hand away. "I'll talk to one of some point, enough with the pairing!" He whined.

Harry giggled, moving his now-lively leg to block the side view. "Why? Afraid someone will see?" He whispered, slipping his hand up Draco's thigh under the plate.

Draco jumped slightly, looking around nervously. "Stop that!" He glared down at Harry.

Harry slid his hand higher, covering his hand over Draco's crotch.

Draco's eyes widened, frozen where he sat. "Harry no!" He hissed.

"Relax Draco." Harry continued to whisper, stroking his fingers against it.

Draco blushed royally, feeling completely scandalized. "Harry in please." He closed his eyes nervously, starting to get hard.

Harry leaned his body slightly to block the other side of view, making sure nobody could see where his hand was.

Draco swallowed hard, feeling Harry's fingers rubbing him through the denims. "You can't possibly expect me to-" He bit his lip, fully hard now.

Harry went back to slowly rubbing his dinner with one hand, while his other hand teased and pleasured Draco's cock.

Draco's right hand pushed his food back up, pushing the food around his plate, trying to ignore Harry. He was not going to reward himself, not in front of every mouth-creep there, not in front of…

Harry smirked as he chewed his food, his hand rubbing Draco's cock more roughly now, squeezing occasionally to brush his fingertips over the head of his cock.

Pansy came over, unaware of what was happening, standing behind Draco. "Draco!" She called irritatingly.

Draco was clenched tightly out. No no no not now!!He turned to himself irritatingly. "What do you want Pansy?"

Harry chuckled as he looked up at Draco, squeezing his fingers around Draco's hardness.

"I want to talk to you." Pansy crossed her arms.

Draco put his fork and spoon his leg to make a bigger vision barrier. "Pansy this isn't a very good time." He tried not to whimper, feeling Harry's hand on him.

Pansy walked away, going back to Millicent and Theodore.

Draco waited till she was gone, turning his head back to and daggers at Harry through his eyes. "You want to stop?" He kissed under his breath, shuddering at how close he was.

Harry grinned back, getting his hand firmly against Draco's cock. "Don't be lying now will it?" He teased barely above a whisper, stroking faster his to him.

Draco's eyes fluttered shut as he gripped the sides of the plate. "Oh – ah" he moaned, his eyes tightly curling in his sweaters. "Harry I can't – we are inferno's of everyone!" He stuttered as he felt is coming.

Harry smirked softly, running his fingers up and down Draco's dick. "I can feel how badly you want me Draco." Harry whispered gently.

Draco's head bobbed up and down, his hips thrusting into Harry's hand, swallowing dryly as he continued with his silence in his throat. "I-I can't" he hissed, covering his face with both hands as he came hard in his pants.

Harry let is stilled Draco's cock through his orgasm, looking around to see nobody even noticed.

Draco hunched as he calmed himself, rubbing the blush from his face. "You're so dead." He sighed, sliding back down to sit next to Harry.

Harry leaned his head on Draco's shoulder. "Whatever it is, it was so worth it!" He laughed.

Draco playfully punched Harry in the shoulder. "Asse"

Harry pulled his head up, grinned, handling it to Draco. "You might wanna wear this till we get you changed." He pointed to Draco's tie.

Draco furrowed his brows in confusion, but he followed Harry's gaze to see a big damp spot on the side of his thigh. "Bloody hell!!" He groaned, covering the spot with his hand as he stood up from the table.

Harry pushed a new plate with dinner food items on it. "Now actually eat this time so we can finish and go talk to Severus and find about a possible party for next weekend."

Draco got flustered as him standing naked infront of all the 8th years. "Harry!"

"It will be more selective this time just a small group. No Theodore or Millicent promise…and we won't have to worry about Gayle or anyone being rude." Harry reassured.

Draco felt slightly less stressed at the idea. "Where will it be this time?"

"Let's talk about it when we go to Gry Valor tower tonight a re you with to Percy." Harry blanked finishing his dinner.

"Okay…oh darn Percy…what am I going to even say? Do I want her back as my best friend again?" Draco asked rhetorically, eating part of dumpling.

Harry rubbed Draco's back, leaning into him as they continued to eat.

Draco honestly missed Percy very much, but he didn't want to be with someone who would put him in danger of his old life. If she becomes my friend again…what will she want from me? I feel like if I do this…I'll be making a deal with the devil…
